Great Day for Gamma Chi

That was October 3, when Kansas State Delts dedicated their beautiful new Shelter. For them, determination and self-reliance paid off in one of the finest fraternity houses in America.

SYMBOLIZING the realization of a long-sought goal and the beginning of a new era for Gamma Chi Chapter, House Corporation President GEORGE W. GIVIN presents the key to the Shelter to BILL ROSS, undergraduate president.

THE SECOND SUNDAY in May, they say, belongs to mothers. And some Sunday or other in June is reserved for dads. There are days for labor, for flags, for children; nearly every 24-hour period in the calendar, if you look far enough, is set aside for some group.

But Saturday, October 3, 1953—that day belongs incontestably, irretrievably to Gamma Chi Chapter of Delta Tau Delta. No one has a more valid claim to it.

For October 3 marked the culmination of a 40-year dream and the dedication of a gleaming new Shelter on the Kansas State campus. Loyal sons of Gamma Chi from New Hampshire to California converged on Manhattan to experience the thrill of this moment, to share the pleasure of a hard-won victory.

Activity centered at the Shelter, a magnificent 54-man house that combines the best in comfortable student living with the trim, efficient lines of modern design. Those who viewed the building could not escape the conviction that they were seeing the finest fraternity house yet built in Delta Tau Delta, perhaps the finest in any fraternity.

The magnificence of Gamma Chi's Shelter, however, rests not so much in its striking appearance, or even in its well-planned utility, as in the spirit which made its construction possible. Therein lies our story—in the great Delt heart which saw this project through.

Let's go back to the spring of 1950, when Gamma Chi's house corporation sold the former Shelter and made final preparations for a building program. There was money in the bank, blueprints had been completed, estimates had been secured, and there remained only the financial campaign for $15,000 or $20,000 to get construction under way.

Then up jumped the Korean conflict, and the inflationary spiral knocked previous estimates out the window. Kansas State Delts shrugged their shoulders, raised their sights, and girded for a longer campaign.

A second, more devastating blow came with the Kansas floods of 1952, which wrought havoc with the businesses of many alumni. Still the campaign went forward, with undiminished vigor. The die had been cast. The vision of a new Shelter was too firmly entrenched to be dislodged by a minor setback like a flood.

Many Delts rallied to the cause. O. W. Kershaw, '32, chairman of the building committee, received help from all sides. It was a job accomplished with teamwork throughout. Dr. F. D. Farrell, '22, President Emeritus of Kansas State College, called it "an excellent example of applied group self-reliance."

Finally, with the whole job wrapped up and neatly tied, construction began in October, 1952. The financial drive continued, however, for it had been necessary, as an economy measure, to eliminate several quite desirable features of the house plans, in accordance with the Fraternity's wise policy which requires that cash be in hand to cover full payment of all contracts as they are executed. Donations, large and small, kept coming.

Just having the house was not enough for these Deltas—every detail had to be buttoned up properly for the day: October 3.

In giving credit for the final achievement, it is well nigh impossible to single out any individual or group of individuals. This was a united effort, one of those bandwagon propositions.

"We couldn't possibly list everyone who helped," admitted the local committee. The Mothers' Club held rummage sales. One alumnus gave the boys a big deep freezer. Another gave them 55 new mattresses. Another donated sidewalks, curbs, and parking area. The local landscaper, not even a Delt, was so moved by the spirit of the undergraduates that he pitched in and gave personal help.

"The list goes on and on," one of the Delt ladies exclaimed. "It's a wonderful fraternity!"

One individual, however, must be mentioned. He is Floyd Wolfenbarger, '27, Delt architect, who was on top of everything every minute, supervising down to the last nail head.

The entire project, of course, had been closely followed by the Fraternity's Board of Directors, and all along the way provisions governing the lending of Delta Tau Delta's funds had to be met. The manner in which Gamma Chi Deltas accepted these challenges merits the admiration of all of the Fraternity.

Said Executive Vice-President Hugh Shields: "The Gamma Chi corporation kept every agreement made with the Fraternity down to the last detail."

The undergraduates of Gamma Chi, too, deserve a salute. Living for three years in rented quarters, they still kept the chapter strong and growing, ready to assume in their new Shelter an even more pre-eminent role on the campus.

With that background, one can appreciate that this really was Homecoming for Gamma Chi—a day not only to dedicate a new Shelter but also to rededicate those principles of Fraternity which impel a man to be so unselfishly mindful of his responsibilities to those who follow.

Three hundred alumni and friends were present for the open-air ceremonies during which the key, symbol of the intangibles of the Fraternity as well as the physical plant, was presented to the undergraduate president, Bill Ross, in a chain of giving which began with Ray H. Pollom, '12, representing Aztex, the local which became Gamma Chi, and carried through Floyd Wolfenbarger, representing the alumni; President Martin B. Dickinson, for the national Fraternity; and George W. Givin, '17, president of the house corporation.

The service was opened with a prayer by Mr. Givin. The program included remarks by Frank Carlson, U. S. Senator from Kansas; Edward F. Arn, Governor of Kansas; James M.

McCain, President of the College; and Professor Vernon D. Foltz, faculty adviser to fraternities. Paul A. Skinner, '28, was master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers in the impressive presentation ceremonies. Closing the program, Floyd D. Strong, '27, led the singing of "Delta Shelter."

A buffet luncheon was served in the Shelter to the visitors, after which the Kansas State football team co-operated in making the day a success by defeating Nebraska 27-0 for the first time in many years. A bloc of 140 tickets for the game was purchased by the visiting Delt alumni and their guests.

A gracious hostess to all was Mrs. Fred Coulson, the Gamma Chi house-mother, who made available her quarters for the visiting ladies. Set near the front entrance, yet in a quiet part of the house, Mrs. Coulson's suite is pleasingly decorated in grey and pink with a blending of modern and traditional in the furnishings.

Several floral pieces were exhibited in the living room of the Shelter, one of which was sent "in memory of those in the Chapter Eternal," without the name of the donor.

Climaxing the day's events was the dinner in the Terrace Room of the Wareham Hotel, attended by 275, the maximum accommodation of the room. As the crowd entered the dining hall, a colorful note was provided by the entrance of the Aztex group in Indian headdresses doing an Indian war dance. A special table was reserved for these representatives of the local group which became Gamma Another view of the Shelter's interior—the trophy room, which gives ample evidence of Gamma Chi Chapter's achievements on the campus of Kansas State College. The floors were laid by active members this fall.

Chi of Delta Tau Delta. The stunt was led by Frank Root, '14.

Paul Skinner again acted as master of ceremonies and introduced a highly successful and enjoyable program which began with the invocation sung by the active chapter and composed by Eddie Gillett, '56.

Principal speakers were Martin B. Dickinson, President of the Fraternity, and Hugh Shields, Executive Vice-President. Mr. Dickinson spoke on the values of college and chapter life as a testing ground for the future. Mr. Shields paid tribute to Gamma Chi and advised the undergraduates of the heritage they had received to be passed on to future Deltas.

As the only charter member of Aztex present for the day's observance, Clifford Stratton, '11, former secretary and assistant to Senator Arthur Capper, was called upon to speaking. He recalled the early days of the chapter and the college.

Other high lights of the program were greetings from Professor V. D. Foltz, faculty adviser to fraternities at Kansas State, and a vocal trio composed of Ronald Grittman, Eddie Gillett, and Wayne Windsor, members of the undergraduate chapter.

A surprise feature of the evening was the presentation of a silver pitcher, fittingly inscribed, to Mrs. Floyd Wolfenbarger, who had worked unstintingly and without reward in every phase of the project from the inception of the financial campaign to decorating the house and helping to organize the mechanics of the dedication day.

At each place on the banquet table were small ceramic favors in the shape of the badge in purple, lettered with a gold $\Delta\tau\Delta$. These were made and given to the chapter by May and Clyde Schmedemann, '38, of Manhattan. Mrs. Schmedemann works in ceramics as a hobby and presses her husband into service on occasion. This was such an occasion. Mrs. Schmedemann also made several large ash trays which she gave to the chapter for the new house.

The evening's formal program was closed with the singing of "Delta Shelter" led by Floyd Strong. Old acquaintances were renewed and reminiscences exchanged during the informal social hour which continued far into the night.

Since the dedication, a set of camel bells arrived from Henry Clay Lint, '12, who is now in Teheran with the American Embassy. They were sent as a gift for the dedication and are inscribed with the name of the chapter, the date, and the phrase, "In Memory of Those in the Chapter Eternal." The chapter will use these beautiful bells as dinner chimes.

"Looking back over the whole week end," said one of the Delt ladies who worked on arrangements, "it seems to us that the outstanding thrill was the spirit of the crowd. The thing just sort of snowballed toward the last. . . .

"We couldn't be sure it was going to be a success. . . . We were in a dither of doubts and excitement. And then everyone started pouring in and it all clicked. The football game helped a lot. . . . The rain didn't spoil the dedication outside. . . . I guess it was just Gamma Chi's day."

Howard Mills Named Karnea Chairman

HOWARD D. MILLS

HOWARD D. MILLS, Western Reserve, '18, has been named General Chairman of the 62nd Karnea, to be held June 16, 17, 18, and 19, 1954, in Pasadena, California.

A member of the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter, Mr. Mills has long been a prominent leader of Deltism in the Southern California area. His record of continuous, substantial service as a Delt and his leadership in civic and business circles give assurance of outstanding direction for Delta Tau Delta's biennial national convention.

Mr. Mills is a former chapter adviser of Zeta Chapter (Western Reserve) and has seen duty with three alumni chapters: Cleveland, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. He has served as secretary and president of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter.

During his term as president (1933), he maintained an average attendance of 50 Delts at the alumni chapter luncheons—no mean feat for any alumni organization. During the early thirties, with the depression at the bottom and unemployment at its peak, he set up an organization which helped many worthy Delts secure employment.

An eloquent speaker, Mr. Mills has been called upon on many occasions to address Delt groups. He served as toastmaster at the installation banquet for Delta Psi Chapter at Santa Barbara in 1949.

A resident of Los Angeles, the Karnea chairman is an executive with an investment counselling firm. In the forefront of many civic undertakings, he has held such important posts as California administrator of Defense Savings for the Treasury Department (during World War II). He has also been active for the betterment of political conditions in his state.

Mr. Mills received his Citation to the Distinguished Service Chapter of Delta Tau Delta in 1939.

The General Chairman will be ably assisted by Douglas S. McDonald, U.S.C., '48, who has been named chairman of arrangements on the Karnea committee. Arch R. Tuthill, U.C.L.A., '27, president of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter, has pledged the whole-hearted co-operation of that group, whose membership covers such a wide range of chapters of the Fraternity that they call themselves the "All American Alumni Chapter."

All of California, they say, eagerly looks forward to its first Karnea since 1915, when San Francisco played host to Deltedom. The 62nd, of course, will be the first Karnea for the Southern California area, where Delta Tau Delta, though relatively young in that region (Delta Iota, 1926; Delta Pi, 1941; Delta Psi, 1949), has gathered great strength in a short period.

The Huntington, which will house Karnea activity at Pasadena, is known as "the most distinguished address in Southern California." Situated on Oak Hill in Pasadena's distinctive residential section, it overlooks beautiful San Gabriel Valley. On the hotel's park-like grounds, one finds such inviting prospects as swimming in an outdoor pool and tennis on glare-proof surfaced courts.

An advantage of The Huntington is that it is only 15 minutes from downtown Los Angeles. The new Arroyo Seco Parkway, a six-lane divided highway, makes the hotel quickly accessible to the Los Angeles area.

In Pasadena itself are such diversions as the Mt. Wilson Observatory, the Pasadena Community Playhouse, and the Huntington Library and Art Gallery.

Complete details of the program of the 62nd Karnea will be given in the March issue of THE RAINBOW. In the meantime, Delts may be sure that the Karnea is in capable hands, already at work shaping what will be a most significant event in Delt annals.

Composer's Scores Win Acclaim

HORACE JOHNSON, musical composer and editor, photographed in the Green Room of Carnegie Hall, after a performance of his "Streets of Florence" by Sir JOHN BARBIROLLI and the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

ONE OF AMERICA'S most widely appreciated and talented musical composers is Horace Johnson, Tufts, '17.

Since 1917, when his first work was published, he has composed many truly individual concert songs, several piano and string works, and in recent years frequently-performed orchestral selections.

"Imagery," an orchestral suite composed in 1924-25, has been played by practically every major and minor symphony orchestra in the United States. Altogether, it has had 105 performances and continues to grow in popularity.

An impressionistic tone poem, "Imagery" draws a colorful picture of Hindu dance scenes as they appear to Western eyes. Richly scored, it has been widely acclaimed by audiences and conductors alike for its charm and imagination. Mr. Johnson himself modestly ascribes its appeal to the fact that "it is scored to give every section of the orchestra at some time within its 14 minutes playing time a chance to shine and show off to an audience."

Another orchestral suite which has found popular favor is "Streets of Florence," first played in 1937 by Carlos Chavez and the Mexico City Symphony Orchestra. It was also done, among other performances, several years ago by Sir Thomas Beecham and the Philadelphia Orchestra and broadcast over a nation-wide Mutual hookup.

A more recent work of Mr. Johnson's is "Music for Strings," played initially by Dr. Frieder Weissmann, conductor of the Havana (Cuba) Philharmonic Orchestra. This selection, penned in the late forties, was performed last March in Charleston, South Carolina, by the Charleston Symphony Orchestra.

His sprightly "In the American Manner" has won Mr. Johnson recognition as a composer "with a sophisticated sense of humor." Issued as a piano solo, it was first performed orchestrally by Erno Rapee and his Radio City Music Hall Orchestra over a national NBC network.

Mr. Johnson, who just turned 60 in October, also qualifies as both a musical director and author. He was assistant editor of Musical Observer from 1919 to 1921, music editor of The Delineator from 1921 to 1923, and managing editor of Musical Courier from 1931 to 1939. He has also contributed articles to The Etude, The Musician, and other publications.

During 1939-42 he was director of the New York City WPA Music Project, and in 1939 he established a series of concerts at Carnegie Hall with the New York Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Sir Thomas Beecham, Otto Klemperer, and other directors.

Radio Executive Accepts New Post

ELECTED VICE-PRESIDENT and assistant general manager of the Crosley Broadcasting Corporation recently was Ward L. Quaal, Michigan, '41.

This latest promotion represents only another rung on the upward ladder for the 34-year-old radio executive, who has crammed a wealth of experience into a relatively young career.

A native of Ishpeming, Michigan,

Quaal broke into radio as a high school senior announcing for Radio Station WDMJ in Marquette. As a student at the University of Michigan, he landed a job at WJR Detroit, where he was soon handling a number of commercial and sustaining shows, moderating a youth forum, and announcing sports. On the side he fed microphones at two other stations and, on top of sailing through the academic schedule, still found time to turn in an outstanding job as president of Delta Chapter in his senior year.

Following graduation, he moved on to WGN Chicago, where he handled special events, sports, and general announcing, all the while working slowly toward the business side. In 1943 he received a call from Uncle Sam and reported to the Navy as an ensign assigned to Atlantic Fleet communications. By war's end he was in charge of a large Navy radio installation at Norfolk, Va.

Back at WGN in 1945 he completed a long-planned transition to the business side of radio when he was named special assistant to the station manager. Here he was deep in the special problems of clear-channel radio stations as well as the newer trials of TV as WGN added a visual program in 1948. He built several new programs for clear-channel stations, took part in Clear Channel Broadcasting Service activities, and helped build a strong WGN farm department.

By 1949 he was ready to assume the directorship of CCBS, with Washington headquarters. He attended the 1949 NARBA sessions at Montreal and the 1950 sessions at Havana and Washington to acquire familiarity with international broadcasting. He expanded CCBS engineering and program service to member stations and covered the 1952 political conventions.

Following the outbreak of the Korean conflict, he was appointed by President Truman to the President's Broadcast Advisory Council.

For the past year, Mr. Quaal has been active in direction of the entire group of Crosley radio, TV, and international shortwave stations.

WARD QUAAL

SHOWMAN—SCIENTIST

That's Dr. Roy Waldo Miner, who brought the South Seas into the heart of New York City.

IN THE HALL OF OCEAN LIFE of the American Museum of Natural History, New York City, are two of the most complicated exhibits ever attempted by a museum organization. Their beauty is breath-taking.

One, the Bahaman Coral Reef Group, is fronted by a sheer 35 feet of plate glass behind which the dramatic grandeur of the ocean floor has been perfectly recaptured. Here the giant elk horn coral abounds, and feathery, trailing gorgonians float upward, as delicately tinted fishes dart out from shadowy waters. Formations of coral and sponges, restored to natural colors and arranged in the same positions they occupied in their native habitat miles away, are part of a picture representing 12 long years of exacting, painstaking composition.

More than 40 tons of living coral were dredged from the ocean floor and put into this single exhibition case—a feat of unprecedented engineering skill.

A companion exhibit nearby is the Pearl Divers Group, based on investigations around the South Sea island of Tongareva. A spectacular display, it contains ten and one-half tons of coral, retinted and composed into the exact position from which it was wrenched from the Tongarevan lagoon—at a place where the precious pearl shell grows luxuriantly.

Together, these two exhibits are the embodiment of the prolonged labor of so many highly skilled individuals that some believe that their complexity will not be equalled in the Museum for years to come.

Today they stand as a tribute to the man who made them possible—Roy Waldo Miner, Williams, '97, Curator Emeritus of Living Invertebrates of the American Museum of Natural History.

Although he retired from active service in the Museum in 1942 (the exhibits were completed prior to that time), it has not been many years since Dr. Miner was nearly as much at home in a diving helmet as he is behind a microscope. Securing specimens for his exhibits entailed a fair share of gliding along tropical sea bottoms armed only with camera and oxygen lines.

He has braved death in the shape of man-eating sharks, moray eels, octopuses, barracuda, and huge 16-armed starfishes equipped with poisonous spines. It was all in a day's work for Dr. Miner, who, as curator of living invertebrates, which comprise eleven-twelfths of the animal kingdom, shuttled back and forth between the microscopic world in a drop of water and the grandeur of Coral Seas.

Although he had studied for the ministry after graduation from Williams, Dr. Miner's love of scientific study eventually led him to a career with the Museum. He started there in 1905 as assistant curator of invertebrate zoology and by 1922 was curator of all marine life.

A genius for "showmanship"—the exhibition side of museum work—was manifest from his earliest days. In 1909, he was placed in full control of the exhibition construction in Darwin Hall, and under his direction work on models of all twelve of the major groups into which animals are divided was pushed forward.

In this field, Dr. Miner has been described as "a Museum version of the Hollywood writer-director-producer"—"a benign Svengali," who "has the knack of bringing his own dreams to fruition by evoking the best in others."

Artists and technicians of amazing talent have produced some of their most celebrated works under his direction. One of these was Chris Olsen, who painted under 20 feet of water with weighted brushes, in order to preserve the exact coloring of under-sea conditions. Another was Herman Mueller, glass blower, who wrought incredibly faithful reproductions, magnified one million times, of the miniscule creatures that dwell in a sprinkle of water. Many of the animals are so small that a whole colony could occupy a pinhead, yet some individuals in Mueller's reconstructions are as large as a young lobster.

Dr. Miner's researches have led him to far corners of the globe—the Lesser Antilles, Danish West Indies, Dominica, Puerto Rico, Christmas Island, and even such tongue-twisters as Passamaquoddy Bay.

Today, at 78, Dr. Miner continues the relentless quest of science. Since 1942 he has been editor of the scientific publications of the New York Academy of Sciences, of which he is a former president. He has also been writing various books, including A Field Book of Sea-Shore Life, which was published by G. P. Putnam's Sons in 1950.

Named Pennsylvania's Attorney General

FRANK F. TRUSCOTT, Lafayette, '17, is the new Attorney General of Pennsylvania. He was appointed by Governor John S. Fine early in the fall.

Mr. Truscott was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1922. Shortly after, he formed a partnership with the present Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice John C. Bell. At present Mr. Truscott heads a law firm in Philadelphia.

His career also has included the presidency of the Civil Service Commission of Philadelphia, after which he held the position of City Solicitor for eight years.

A member of the Lafayette College board of trustees, Mr. Truscott is also a trustee of the Alumni Research Foundation of the College.

Beta Phi Plans New Shelter

Architects' conception of the proposed new Shelter for Beta Phi Chapter at Ohio State University.

SPURRED by the announcement of an anonymous gift of $25,000, Ohio State Delts launched on October 3 an intensive campaign to acquire the wherewithal for the construction of a new Shelter.

The anonymous donor has provided that his gift must be matched by an equivalent amount contributed by other Delts, with a deadline of January 1, 1954, before delivery of the $25,000 is made.

Beta Phi Chapter Delts, who have dreamed of a new house for many years, believe that they now have the realization of their goal in sight. The present Shelter, located at 80 13th Avenue in Columbus, is debt free. So is the new site, a lot at 67 15th Avenue, purchased during World War II, which is ready to receive the attractively-designed new building.

This ground is regarded as one of the most desirable locations on the campus. Directly to the west is the two-year-old Kappa Kappa Gamma house, while adjacent on the left is the just-completed Lambda Chi Alpha house. The heart of the Ohio State campus is not much more than a stone's throw away.

Although plans for a financial campaign had been in the making for nearly a year, when news of the anonymous gift was broken, Beta Phi's house corporation really went into action. The program is going forward under the direction of Jacob A. Shawan, III, '39, president of the house corporation.

Other committee members include: Robert K. Zimmer, '24; Carlyle M. Baker, '38; Kenyon S. Campbell, '19; Rusk H. Whipps, '12; Jerry H. Haller, '54, undergraduate president; O. Allan Gulker, '52; Ralph S. Fallon, '17; and Downie W. Moore, '14, who is the architect. The Columbus Alumni Chapter, led by Frank M. Mallett, Kenyon, '34, has also thrown its weight behind the drive.

Other officers of the house corporation, besides Shawan and Haller, are James G. Haywood, '43, vice-president, and Thomas L. Parker, '43, treasurer.

Beta Phi Chapter, established in 1894, will celebrate its 60th anniversary next November. In the meantime, the campaign committee presses its work forward with quickening zeal, hoping that the 60th milestone will write an even greater chapter into Beta Phi's distinguished history with a sparkling new Shelter for the anniversary year.

Sullivan Rejoins Staff

FIELD SECRETARY Richard A. Sullivan, Ohio, '51, has returned to continue his service with the Fraternity after a two-year tour of duty with the U. S. Army.

Dick first began his work with the Central Office in the summer of 1951. He was just getting nicely under way in his chapter visitations when Uncle Sam stepped in during the fall of 1951 to lay first claim to Dick's talents as a second lieutenant of infantry. A platoon leader with C Company of the 196th Regimental Combat Team, he served 15 months in Alaska. His active duty terminated in late September and he reported for Fraternity duty in mid-October.

As an undergraduate, Dick served successively as assistant treasurer, treasurer, and president of Beta Chapter. Among his campus activities he numbered the presidency of the senior class, membership in the senior men's honorary, Blue Key, and varsity track.

Charles Cooper Heads Defense Department Fiscal Committee

WHEN DEFENSE SECRETARY Charles E. Wilson this fall appointed 12 of the nation's top business leaders to overhaul the financial accounting system of the Defense Department, he named a Delt as chairman of the group and included a former President of the Fraternity on the committee.

Charles P. Cooper, Ohio State, '07, former vice-president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company, heads the committee. W. Harold Brenton, Iowa State, '20, former chief executive of Delta Tau Delta, who this fall retired as president of the American Bankers Association, is also on the advisory panel.

Secretary Wilson said that he was hopeful that the committee will come up with a modernized accounting system that can be put into effect for the next fiscal year beginning July 1, 1954. The committee will be assisted by a staff of experts from the Army, Navy, and Air Force and other governmental departments.

Mr. Cooper served as vice-president and director of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company from 1926 to 1948. He is president of the board of trustees of New York's Presbyterian Hospital, and, among other activities, is a director of the American Heart Association and the New York Heart Association.

Starr School Marks Fortieth Year

FLOYD STARR

For 40 years, he has been "Uncle Floyd" to homeless boys.

FLOYD STARR, Albion, '10, celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his internationally-known school for problem boys on October 3.

He was joined by many friends of the Starr Commonwealth for Boys, the institution which he founded in 1913 and has headed ever since. J. Howard Pyle, governor of Arizona, was the principal speaker. Other distinguished visitors included G. Mennen Williams, governor of Michigan.

Also among those present to pay tribute to "Uncle Floyd" were many of the more than 3,000 former Starr boys, now grown to successful manhood because their lives were touched by the faith and personality of this remarkable Delt.

The anniversary observance was hailed as a fitting recognition of the fulfillment of Floyd Starr's dream, which began unfolding when he took two homeless boys to the farm of his father on the northwest shore of Montcalm Lake (near Albion, Michigan) back in 1913. While the first cottage was being built, Mr. Starr and the two youngsters slept in the loft of an old barn. The three still have memories of that first October night—a big harvest moon shining through cracks in the roof, the smell of new hay and the sound of the heavy breathing of three cows and two horses below.

From that humble beginning has come the present spacious campus of the Commonwealth, dotted with a dozen cottages. Today there are 175

Starr boys, attending a modern, state-accredited school. The institution has a gymnasium, shop building, and a number of farm buildings housing poultry and cattle. The boys worship in a beautiful new chapel.

Through 40 momentous years, which have held both joy and sadness, gains and disappointments, Mr. Starr's faith in boys has never waned. He still stands by the shibboleth which he coined: "There is no such thing as a bad boy!"

Roving Adviser

F. Cherry Leitnaker, Baker, '10, chapter adviser of Gamma Theta Chapter and a member of the Distinguished Service Chapter, proves the adage that you can find Delts wherever you go. Here he is aboard the U.S.S. Roanoke, flagship of the 11-ship Navy training squadron for some 1,100 Midshipmen from college NROTC units, on maneuvers in the Caribbean last summer.

Standing: Howard E. Lewis, Jr., Tulane, '54; Mr. Leitnaker; and S. Thomas Gagliano, Brown, '54. Kneeling: Donald A. Puls, Miami, '54; David G. Newbro, U.S.C., '54; and Robert C. Speed, Colorado, '54.

N.I.C. Delegates

DELTA TAU DELTA's official delegates to the 1953 meeting of the National Interfraternity Conference were President Martin B. Dickinson, Kansas, '26; Treasurer W. Edgar West, Ohio Wesleyan, '23; and Francis M. Hughes, Ohio Wesleyan, '31.

This year's session was held Noember 27 and 28, at the Sheraton Gibson Hotel in Cincinnati, Ohio. The event came too late to be reported in this number of THE RAINBOW. Full coverage will be given in the March issue.

Alabama Wins Again

DELTA ETA Chapter at the University of Alabama has been announced as the winner of the 1952-53 Fraternity Examination Plaque. The award is given annually to the chapter whose members score the highest average grade in the Fraternity Examination.

This award is the third consecutive win for the Alabama Delts.

The All Delt Grid Team

With abundant material at each position, Delts can field many platoons.

Flying high this year is Colorado's talented halfback, CARROLL HARDY.

THE 1953 EDITION of the All Delt football squad has just about everything anyone could ask for. There are shifty, break-away halfbacks; hard-charging fullbacks; glue-fingered ends; cagey signal-callers; expert passers; rangy, hard-to-dislodge tackles; and durable, dependable guards and centers to make the middle of the line impregnable.

There are honors aplenty. Among the Delts on these pages are four team captains, an All Big Ten selection, an All American honorable mention, All East, All West Coast, All Virginia, many all conference selections, and the top sophomore prospect in the Big Ten.

There are, moreover, brains. Two Delts were named to the Scholastic All America last year, and another, in the small-college league, was honorable mention on that team.

Here is your Delt line-up for the 1953 season:

CENTERS

Rating high among the six who are first-stringers is William McHenry, captain of the W. & L. eleven. He was honorable mention for All America honors last year and was selected to the All Virginia team. In 1951 he was mistakenly picked to the All Star Team by Jim Tatum, Maryland coach, who thought he was a senior.

Another team captain is O'Shaughnessy, of Michigan, bulwark of the Wolverine line, who was praised by his coach last year for never having made a bad pass from center. Anchor of the Northwestern line both offensively and defensively is the Wildcats' Haffner, 220-pound tower of strength.

First String: Donald Haffner, Northwestern; Richard Berndt, Butler; William McHenry, W. & L.; Alston Chace, Tufts; Charles McMillan, W. & J.; and Richard O'Shaughnessy, Michigan.

Reserve: John Damore, Northwestern.

GUARDS

Three of the best guards in the Big Seven Conference are Delts: Fink, Kansas; Glantz, Nebraska; and Gentry, Kansas State. Fink, a senior, has started every game since he was a sophomore. Barring injury, he will equal the University of Kansas record for number of games started.

Kouts, of Albion, was an All Conference selection in the M.I.A.A. Conference last year. Hanson, of Lawrence, also All Conference, is rated as one of the best guards in Lawrence's history.

First String: Gary Rutledge, DePauw; Robert Fink, DePauw; Robert Kouts, Albion; James Bishop, Albion; Stanley Walch, Kenyon; Donald Glantz, Nebraska; Joe Fink, Kansas; Price Gentry, Kansas State; John Brown, W. & J.; Kent Hanson, Lawrence; and Fritz Kling, South Dakota.

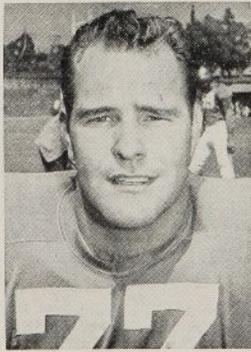

Reserve: Charles Boltin, Butler; Ronald Grimes, Wabash; Ralph Yates, Santa Barbara; Joe Granger, Brown; Jerry Paulson, Nebraska; John Braun,

TACKLES

The two standouts at this position are Lenzini, of Illinois, and Ellena, of U.C.L.A. Lenzini, captain of the Fighting Illini, was named to the Scholastic All America team last year. Ellena returned this fall as an All Coast selection of 1952.

ENDS

Rated a top prospect for All America honors is Tom Nickoloff, favorite target for U.S.C. passers. He was All Coast end last year and leading pass receiver of the circuit. Another pass-catching specialist is Godston, 6' 4" wingman at Rensselaer, who is having himself quite a season.

Dependable big-league performers are Northwestern's Demyan and Cornell's Mathewson.

First String: Ed Demyan, Northwestern; Joel Godston, Rensselaer; Richard Mathewson, Cornell; and Tom Nickoloff, U.S.C.

Reserve: Bruce Bedynek, Oregon State; Bob Morman, Northwestern;

BATTLING BISHOPS. Delt representation on the Ohio Wesleyan team. Standing: WARREN SMITH, LOWELL BENSON, and BOB SPOLAR. Kneeling: BOB HANCHER, FRANK LESCINSKY, and CARL PEGGS.

Joe McCormick, Northwestern; Frank Lescinsky, Ohio Wesleyan; Bill Postula, Michigan State; Jerry Yeager, Nebraska; and Roger White, U.C.L.A.

HALFBACKS

Following tradition, Delts run heavy again to the halfback position. Two Delts—Johnson and Hardy—help keep Colorado in contention in the Big Seven. Johnson returned a punt 90 yards in an early game for one of the longest runs of the season. Grosse, of Lawrence, was his squad's leading passer last year; he also had a 43-yard punting average to rank second among the small-college kickers.

Another Delt double is Israels and McKeiver at Northwestern. McKeiver, prior to the season's opening, was rated the top sophomore prospect in the Big Ten. Israels, a veteran, is one of the Wildcats' leading ground gainers.

Peggs, playing for the undefeated (at this writing) Ohio Wesleyan Bishops, should be a cinch to repeat his 1952 selection on the All Ohio Conference team. He was also honorable mention for both All Ohio and the Scholastic All America.

Purdue's Murakowski, slowed considerably by injuries, still rates as one of the best sophomore performers of 1952.

Our nomination for the hardest luck player of the year is Guy Rose, of Missouri, whose leg was broken in two places in the first game of the season. Undaunted, he promises to be back next year.

Reserve: By Bennett, Colorado; Robert Garretson, Santa Barbara; Robert Brown, Wesleyan; Norman Weis, Albion; Richard Evans, Kenyon; Max Kennedy, Nebraska; and Guy Rose, Missouri.

FULLBACKS

Gerald Haverty, an all-around performer in the backfield, captains the Brown University eleven. Steve Dimeff, rugged driver, gets the call when California's Golden Bears need sure yardage.

First String: Donald Hastings, San-

QUARTERBACKS

Steady field general for Ohio State and among the nation's best passers is John Borton. He made the All Big Ten second team last year and the Scholastic All America as well. Brown's Cottey was Associated Press All East quarterback in 1951.

First String: Robert Hancher, Ohio Wesleyan; John Borton, Ohio State; Donald Cottey, Brown; Robert Rowe, Kenyon; and Richard Gast, Lawrence.

Contrary to popular belief, there are other fall sports besides football. Among them are cross country and soccer, in which, as one might expect, the Delts are also well represented.

JIM ROOT, Miami's record-setting passer of last year, who broke into pro football this season as quarterback for the Chicago Cardinals.

Here is your Delt line-up in those activities.

CROSS COUNTRY

Robert Hunt, U.C.L.A.; Bob Creighton, Kansas; John Bagger, Lafayette; R. Port, Carnegie Tech; Bert Wickberg, Raymond E. Ruff, Joseph Keating, and Robert Davies, Rensselaer; Robert Taylor, Tufts; Watson Bowes and Keith Belch, W. & L.; Duane Jennings, Lehigh; and Jim

Totman and Gerry Hermann, DePauw.

SOCCER

Fullbacks: James Lewis, W. & L. (team captain); Wendell Wheatly, Delaware; Richard Miller, M.I.T.; and Thomas Plimpton, Wesleyan.

Forwards: Roland Davies, W. & L., and Thomas Harrington, Dartmouth.

Wings: Dane Hannum, Allegheny, and Eliot Smith, Dartmouth.

Insides: Arik Monstrom, Allegheny; James Lauffer, Allegheny; and Craig Stone, Wesleyan.

Halfbacks: Peter Dyke, M.I.T.; Robert Ozmun, Allegheny; Robert Heile, Allegheny; John Biekarck, Allegheny; and John Gow, Allegheny.

At two other schools where Delta Tau Delta is represented, two other fall sports are played. At M.I.T., Anthony Turano, Michael Ariens, and John Wenning are members of the rugby team. At Cornell, John Massey and Donald Maclay play the ends on the 150-pound football team.

New Headquarters

AS ANNOUNCED in the September issue of THE RAINBOW, the Fraternity's Central Office, national headquarters, moved to a new location in Indianapolis late in August. The March number of THE RAINBOW will bring Delts full coverage of the new headquarters building.

From the Editor's Mailbag

BRUTUS K. HAMILTON, Missouri, '22, has been named by the Helms Foundation of Los Angeles to its Sports Hall of Fame.

Mr. Hamilton ranks today as the nation's No. 1 track and field coach. He led United States athletes to an overpowering victory in track and field at the Olympic Games in Helsinki, Finland, last year. His pupils walked off with 14 of the 24 gold medals.

Hamilton, who has been director of athletics at the University of California for several years, was an outstanding athlete at the University of Missouri from 1920 to 1922. He starred in football, basketball, and track and was named to Walter Camp's second All-American football team as an end in 1921. He competed in the 1920 Olympics and placed second in the decathlon.

His success as a track coach has been phenomenal. The great Glenn Cunningham was one of his most famous students.

The firm was chartered 44 years ago by business leaders who believed that there was a vital need for a Houston-domiciled legal reserve life insurance company.

DONALD C. VAN BUREN, Western Reserve, '11, a member of the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter, was appointed in October Common Pleas Judge of Fulton County, Ohio. The appointment was considered a fine tribute to Judge Van Buren's popularity, for it was made by Governor Frank Lausche, a Democrat, whereas Judge Van Buren is a staunch and active Republican.

He was sworn in by another Delt: CARL V. WEYGANDT, Wooster, '12, Chief Justice of Ohio's Supreme Court, who is also a member of the Distinguished Service Chapter. Governor Lausche, as well as many of Van Buren's Delt friends, was also present for the installation ceremony.

A graduate of Harvard Law School, the new Judge is a former assistant district attorney of Ohio's Northern District. He served as Assistant Attorney General of Ohio under THOMAS J. HERBERT, Western Reserve, '15, who was also later Governor of Ohio.

Judge Van Buren's activities in Delta Tau Delta span many years. His most recent include establishment of the Seminole Alumni Chapter in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

DR. DANIEL C. MCINTOSH, Indiana, '13, retired last summer as Dean of the Graduate School of Oklahoma A. & M. College, Stillwater, Oklahoma. He had served at the school for 25 years.

Dean McIntosh was one of the Delts instrumental in bringing Delta Tau Delta to the Oklahoma A. & M. campus and he served for a while as chapter adviser of Delta Chi Chapter.

One of his final official acts as Dean was to sign the doctoral dissertation of JOHN E. BINNION, Texas, '45. Dr. Binnion will teach accounting and business education at Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Oklahoma.

Coy Poe enjoyed a successful season last summer presenting vaudeville shows before baseball games.

DR. CLARENCE M. HINCKS, Toronto, '07, has been appointed to the newly formed Comite d'Honneur, created by the executive board of the World Federation for Mental Health. His appointment was made known at a recent meeting in Vienna.

Dr. Hincks received the nomination for his work in the field of mental health. He founded the Canadian Mental Health Association in 1918, which he headed until 1952. In addition, he was general director of the national committee for mental hygiene in the United States from 1930 to 1939.

ROBERT W. JOHNSON, Carnegie Tech, '48, is the author of an article in the September issue of The Journal of Accountancy, official organ of the American Institute of Accountants.

Mr. Johnson, a C.P.A., is a member of the special services staff of Touche, Niven, Bailey & Smart, Pittsburgh public accounting firm. He is treasurer of Delta Beta Chapter's house corporation.

JOHN T. LEACH, Illinois, '51, former president of Beta Upsilon Chapter, has been appointed Assistant Dean of Men at the University of Illinois. He will work with fraternities and fraternity men.

JOHN LEACH

Mr. Leach has recently returned from Korea, where he served as battalion personnel sergeant with the 74th Engineer Combat Battalion. He was called to active duty with the Army in 1951 and was sent to Korea in June, 1952.

OTHO R. SMITH, Mississippi, '27, has been elected president of the University of Mississippi Alumni Association. He was last year's vice-president of the organization. He is also president of the Mississippi Economic Council.

RICHARD H. PAULSON, Michigan, '28, attorney of Kalamazoo, Michigan, was elected in September president of the State Bar of Michigan, an association of nearly 8,000 lawyers.

RICHARD PAULSON

Mr. Paulson has served since 1948 as a member of the Board of Commissioners of the State Bar from the Third Congressional District. He is a member of Phi Alpha Delta, legal fraternity.

PAUL G. SIFTON, George Washington, '51, has joined the faculty of Wayne University in Detroit, Michigan, where he will be an instructor in the College of Liberal Arts. He recently received his M.A. degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

WILLIS H. "BID" EDMUND, Ohio, '28, was elected governor of the Ohio Kiwanis District at the organization's annual state convention early this fall.

Mr. Edmund is director of recreation of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio. He first joined the company in 1942. He had previously served as recreation director for the city of Akron.

DR. CHARLES W. BEESE, Iowa State, '15, Dean of Purdue University's Technical Extension Division, has been presented the James H. McGraw award in technical institute education for the United States. The award, which carried with it a check for $500 given by the McGraw-Hill Book Company, was in recognition of the development of an extensive technical institute program.

Dean Beese has been on the Purdue staff since 1937, the first eight years as head of the department of general engineering. In 1943 he established the Purdue Technical Institute program in the Calumet (Indiana) area and since that time has supervised the opening of three more divisions in Fort Wayne, Indianapolis, and Michigan City.

He served as educational adviser for technical institute and industrial engineering programs in Japan during 1951 and as adviser to a group of manufacturers in Turin, Italy, in 1952.

Dean Beese is a former chapter adviser of Tau Chapter, Penn State.

DR. BENJAMIN F. HATFIELD, Indiana, '12, retired August 31 after 36 years of service to Eli Lilly and Company of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Dr. Hatfield joined Lilly's in 1917 as the first physician in the company's industrial medicine and safety department. He served as manager of the department until 1948, when he became a company consultant.

A member of the American Medical Association, the Indiana State Medical Association, and the Indianapolis Medical Society, Dr. Hatfield engages in private practice in Indianapolis.

Dr. Hatfield has two sons who are Delts: BENJAMIN F. HATFIELD, JR., Indiana, '40, and JOHN R. HATFIELD, Indiana, '42.

SERENADE FRESHMAN WOMEN

Alpha is starting off on a big year. As of this writing we have held a Sunday evening open house and a tea, honoring the freshman women. Coming up within the next week are a barn dance; a "round robin," which will mark the beginning of a hectic semester of rushing; and our annual Homecoming Alumni Banquet.

The first week back we gave a serenade for the freshman women. We were the only fraternity on campus to do this, and it really went over well with the girls.

SEVEN DELTS OUT FOR SOCCER

At Allegheny, soccer is almost as big a fall sport as football. This year Alpha has five men in the soccer line-up. They are: Dane Hannum, Alrik Monstrom, John Gow, Jim Lauffer, and Bob Ozmun. John Biekarck and Bob Heile play reserve ball. The Delts have the largest representation on the line-up. Dan Bratton is soccer manager.

REDECORATE SHELTER

The interior of the Shelter has a new glow this year. The boys really dug in for a week of hard work. The living room and dining room were papered and anything that stood still received a coat of paint, including the living room floor. This latter mention can be attributed to Fritz Fries and his talent for kicking paint buckets.

SCHOLARSHIP BEATS ALL AVERAGES

In keeping with Beta's tradition, scholarship was again above not only the All Fraternity Average, the All Men's Average, but even above the All Campus Average. We are very proud of the unusual fact that all the pledges made their grades and were activated recently at the Initiation Banquet. The Banquet was held at Ohio University's newly-completed Student Center. Among the speakers were Coach Frank B. Gullum, William Martindill, Richard Sullivan, and Dr. Hiram Roy Wilson.

Bob Schurdak won Beta's Pledge Scholarship Award. Bob is a pre-medical student and during his pledgeship had the outstanding 4.0. Bob graciously returned part of the Award, the check, saying that with it something should be bought for the Shelter.

Social life got under way in style with the annual Circus Party. Intramural football for the Delts now has a new twist. The uniforms consist of dyed pastel shades of long underwear. The season got off to a good start with the team winning its first game.

LEADERSHIP AWARD

Joe DeCosmo, Beta, '53, was awarded the Frank B. Gullum Chapter Leadership Award for the school year 1952-53. This Award is the highest honor that Beta can bestow upon one of its members.

HARD WORK PAYS DIVIDENDS DURING COLLEGE RUSH WEEK

This fall the actives and the second-semester pledges returned a week and a half before registration, so that the house would be in a peak condition for rushing. During the summer Gamma Chapter lost two members to the draft and three more transferred to other schools. Nevertheless, with the addition of 16 pledges, Gamma Chapter is larger than it was at any time last year.

We accomplished two objectives during the ten days before the start of classes. We held a Delt Development Week for the holdover pledges of last semester; and at the end of the week five new brothers were initiated into Delta Tau Delta. Secondly, the house received a thorough cleaning. The halls, one living room, the dining room, and several study rooms were painted; and we have begun our program to redecorate the cellar. The house corporation purchased new furniture for the living rooms, and Paul Frederick's father donated a mural for the dining room.

The dividends of our efforts were paid during rushing. Gamma Chapter pledged its quota of 14 freshmen, including two legacies, Bill Temple and Jim Soxman, plus two sophomores. We believe we have a well balanced pledge class that will be a credit both to the college and to the Fraternity.

CENTER OF LINE DOMINATED BY DELTS

Gamma Chapter has three brothers on the football team. Chuck McMillan, a junior, is playing his second year as first-team center on the varsity. John Brown, also a junior, is a guard. Sophomore Ed Grazzini has captured one of the two guard positions on the first team.

Our two objectives for this year are to win the scholarship trophy and to capture the "Big Cup" in intramural athletics. A championship in either volleyball or water basketball would give us a good start toward the "Big Cup."

NEW PLEDGE CLASS NUMBERS 35

Epsilon pledged the largest pledge class in years. The record number of 35 men are now wearing the four stars. This fall's rushing netted the large group after an extensive program beginning last summer with a photographic rushing folder and several letters and ending this fall with the entire chapter of 40 actives rushing in bull sessions and personal talks. The class represents 35 per cent of the total number of men pledging the six fraternities on campus. Being a well-spirited group, they will add much to the Fraternity both in quantity and quality.

THREE REGULARS ON GRIDIRON

In fall sports Epsilon has eight men participating on the gridiron and two members on the cross country team. Three regular berths are held by Delts on the football team. James Murray, right half; Robert Kouts, left guard; and James Bishop, right guard, have starting positions on the potential conference championship team which took the conference last year. In addition to these regulars, there are five other active men. Three are backs, and all three have crossed the goal line for Albion in one of the three games that have been played this season. The other two linemen have also seen action in each of these games.

An addition to the music room this fall is a picture panel 24 inches high and running the full length of one side of the room. The arrangement of the large photos of Delts in action has helped many to acquaint themselves with the chapter. The pictures seem life-like because of the large size. The photographs themselves show the versatility among the members of the chapter ranging from the Deltones to the athletes.

HUMMON NAMED PHI BETA KAPPA

Honors were given to John Hummon, '53. John attained a 2.8 scholastic average on the 3. system employed here at Albion and was elected a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity.

Zeta—Western Reserve

PLEDGES SHOW PROMISE

The Zeta Delts at Western Reserve University are well on their way to another successful year. Returning from a short summer, the Delts had their rushing plans outlined by Rushing Chairman George DeVaul, who had made plenty of contacts over the summer. The strategy was apparently good, as demonstrated by 19 freshmen taking their pledges at Delta Tau Delta.

The excellent quality of the pledge class is established. Several are on scholarships; three, Ray Molson, Bill DiPetro, and Larry Siedel, are playing frosh football; John Miller has a basketball scholarship; and Larry Siedel, vice-president of the pledge class, is a candidate for the vice-presidency of the freshman class.

First on the list of activities for this autumn semester was the initiation of the neophytes who had completed their pledge training last semester. Formal initiation was held Sunday, October 11, and seven new members were initiated into the chapter.

SCORE IN SOCCER AND FOOTBALL

The Zeta Delts are well represented on Reserve varsity athletic teams. Brothers Jerry Murari and Wayne Dietrich are seeing a lot of action with the Reserve football team. Brothers Bill Moley, Carl Herbold, Ray Alford, Andy Mooney, and Tim Anzellotti form a solid core for Reserve's soccer team.

After having won the all-University sports trophy for three consecutive years, the Delts are a good prospect for making it four in a row. The Fraternity football team has already won its first three games under the leadership of Captain (and president) Charles Weidman. Many of our new pledges are also capable athletes and should be of value in intramurals this year.

GORDON BOWER

Iota—Michigan State

HOST TO QUEEN CANDIDATES

Early in October Iota played host to 29 candidates for Homecoming Queen. The guests were escorted to the Shelter for dinner by lucky Delts, where numerous pictures were taken by the college and town papers. Another night to remember in Iota's diary.

Of course fall is the season for lots of good parties. Besides a hayride and weekly parties, we have had some excellent costume parties—one with a Halloween twist and another Bohemian style.

We hired a band for such occasions as the Alumni-Homecoming Dance and the party thrown in honor of the University of Michigan Delts, after the Michigan-Michigan State football game.

TEAM WITH PI PHI SORORITY FOR TREE-LIGHTING CEREMONY

At Christmas time each year the Delts cosponsor a Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony with Pi Beta Phi SorORITY. At this all-College program, a huge Christmas tree strung with hundreds of lights is officially lighted. The season's gayness is aroused when the Delt-Pi Phi chorus sings several popular Christmas songs. The Christmas spirit really comes through with Christmas readings and group caroling. The huge tree then stays lighted the rest of the term.

Mu—Ohio Wesleyan

MU CAPTURES ANOTHER SCHOLARSHIP TROPHY

Anyone familiar with the fraternity system knows that chapters come and go, but as this publication bears out, Delts manage to hold their own, wherever they may be, and Mu cannot possibly be an exception in 1953-54. For Wesleyan's Delts, it was another scholarship trophy in the spring of '53. The chapter carried a 2.8 average, which was a full .08 of a point ahead of the next contender. As a further indication of the chapter's scholastic potential, five sophomores were initiated into Phi Society (sophomore scholarship honorary) in early October.

SIX DELTS ARE GRIDDERS

There is more to college than the books, however. In keeping with this fact, Mu Chapter has six men in uniform for Wesleyan's weekly grid contests. Leading the Battling Bishops, who are undefeated and favored in the remainder of their contests, are Carl Peggs, rated as one of the top 50 backs in the Midwest, at half and Bob Hancher at quarterback. Both are sophomores. In addition, Lowell Benson, a senior, is the team's second leading scorer.

WELL REPRESENTED IN CAMPUS POSTS

Ohio Wesleyan is a school where the student government has a great deal to say in regard to campus policy. Mu has seventeen men working in student government this year. Among them are Al Brant, student body treasurer; Lowell Benson, senior class president; Gordon Smith, chairman of the MUB (Memorial Union Bldg.) committee; and Cecil Burkhardt, chairman of the social committee. We can say that publications virtually emanate from the Shelter this year. Duncan White is editor of the Transcript, Wesleyan's weekly news sheet; Lynn Leary and Jim Ziegler, editors of Le Bijou, the college annual; Hal Stevens, editor of the Owl (Ohio Wesleyan literary magazine); and Wes Hostetler, business manager of the Sulfur Spray, our humor magazine.

MANY RETURN FOR HOMECOMING

Approximately 70 Deltas were able to return to the Shelter for our annual homecoming in mid-October. The traditional stag banquet was held in the chapter dining room, and we were honored to have Brother Branch Rickey as speaker of the evening. In a sense, that banquet was only an anticlimax, for a few hours earlier we had seen three Deltas score all 21 points in a 21-20 victory over a powerful Denison football team.

RON VIDMAR

Nu—Lafayette

MEMBERSHIP INCREASED TO 53

Nu Chapter is looking forward with great anticipation to a wonderful year. There is much spirit in the house and fine new blood in the pledge class. Under the direction of Sandy Lauder, our new rushing chairman, we were able to acquire 22 new men to bring our house total to 53. The pledge class brought with it many talents in the fields of music, sports, and scholarship. With the capable leadership of Forrest Schaffer and Coleman Sewell, the new pledges will receive a good indoctrination into the Fraternity.

We are very fortunate to have in our membership this year Thomas Bolon, a transfer from Ohio University. In his short stay with us, Tom has already taken an active interest in the Shelter. Thanks to Beta Chapter for sending him!

SCHOLARSHIP EARNS IMPROVEMENT AWARD

Nu is very proud in having attained the award for the greatest improvement in scholarship among the Lafayette College fraternities for the past year. This year we hope to maintain our present high standing.

The house is quite enthused about the Lafayette football team, which promises to have a successful year. Brother Andrew Shelak and Pledge Carl Albero are members of this year's team.

BOLON ELECTED PRESIDENT

At our recent fall elections Thomas Bolon was elected president; John Lauder, vice-president; Charles Quigg, treasurer; Charles Churchman, recording secretary; Richard Lemen, corresponding secretary; John Brotzman, assistant treasurer; and Ronald Bruker, sergeant at arms.

Omicron—Iowa

RUSH CHAIRMEN CONTINUE EFFORTS

Things are back to normal now at Omicron after the first month's activities. The brothers returned Labor Day and began getting the Shelter in shape for rush week. Omicron pledged seven new men at the end of rush week and has pledged four more in informal rush thus far, after just two weeks. Roland Hansen and Bill Erkonen are the new rushing cochairmen, and have been working hard in an effort to acquire new pledges.

On Sunday, October 11, three men were initiated into the chapter in an impressive ceremony. The new members are Jim McKnight, Dean Polten, and Bill Smart.

Social Chairman Bob Ballantyne is planning a pajama party for this fall along with many other activities. A hayride party was a great success, as all who attended had a wonderful time.

HIGH SCHOLASTIC RANK

Omicron was ranked fourth scholastically last year among the 19 fraternities on campus. The average of the brothers returning this fall is 2.67. Scholastic Chairman Chuck Dinwiddie is pointing the efforts of all toward first place and the huge trophy awarded each year.

A new television set was purchased and installed at the Shelter this fall. Four channels are within our scope to provide interesting entertainment.

HAROLD HAVER

Rho—Stevens

PLEDGES ACTIVE ON CAMPUS

Here at Rho Chapter we have started the fall term with many Deltas, especially this year's pledge class, active on campus.

Pledge Jim McGrory won first prize in the annual Materials Handling Contest. His essay won a $75 defense bond. Another pledge, Bob Jones, won a $25 defense bond for placing third in the same contest. Rho members are also active in other writing fields, with Al Canham, rewrite editor of the school news publication, The Stute, and Jim McGrory, a reporter on the same publication.

VARSITY LETTER WINNERS

In the sports field Dick Rogers, John Bartholomew, and Chuck Morgan were awarded sweaters by the Varsity "S" Club. Bob Jones and Charlie Alexander have gone out for soccer, giving the Deltas representation in all school sports.

The first Delt party of the new school year was a success, with many of the alumni coming back to the Shelter.

gun to pay for itself in the savings made by quantity buying.

Our Mothers' Club is making preparations for its fall term card party. The proceeds will be used to improve the house furnishings, as was done last year when the Mothers' Club purchased eight new beds.

EDMOND BAISLEY

Upsilon—R.P.I.

DELTA ELECTED TO "BOR"

Another Delt was elected to "BOR," the highest honor that R.P.I. bestows on its freshman athletes. Bob Briggs succeeded the three Deltas who were elected last year. Playing first-string quarterback on the 1952-53 frosh football team, Bob sparked the team to many victories. His pin-point passing and clever play calling provided the margin that spelled out victory instead of defeat.

Carrying his competitive spirit with him into the lacrosse season, Bob established himself among the ranks of all-around athletes. Never playing lacrosse before he came to R.P.I., Bob started as green as the next man. His natural coordination helped him to catch on quickly. Pushing himself all the way, he succeeded in making the first-string frosh team. Ever improving in aptness with the lacrosse stick, he soon became feared as a midfieldsman. His play calling as quarterback spread over onto the lacrosse field as he sparked the team by setting up the plays that scored the points. Bob's consistent drive and quick thinking well deserved the honor he obtained.

Cross country, the most gruelling of all sports, takes a back seat to none, when it comes to fall sports at R.P.I. Four Deltas at R.P.I. answered the call of the beaten paths each week to help set the pace that meant victories for their school. Bob Davies, Joe Keating, Ray Ruff, and Bert Wickberg put on their uniforms and burned up the 4.6-mile course. Bob Davies and Joe Keating consistently ran second and third respectively for their team throughout the season.

ACE PASS RECEIVER

On the football field, the Deltas also made their presence known. Joel Godston, a returning letterman from last season, got off to a slow start, but he quickly found himself. Right end, his assignment, became a feared position, and the opposition's plays took to left end instead. Standing 6' 4" above the ground, he continually snatched passes from above the heads of his opponents. His spectacular catches put R.P.I. within scoring distance against Union, Coast Guard, and Norwich.

Last year's first-string freshman quarterback, Bob Briggs, moved up to the varsity and chucked many of the ground gaining passes to Joel on the end. His quick thinking side-lined the first-string quarterback much of the time. Dale Choate, hard-charging fullback, and Mike Graul, left tackle, also sparked the team's offense and defense respectively.

BARKER TROPHY RACE

As for interfraternity sports, the Deltas of R.P.I. are fighting for top honors in the race for the Barker Trophy. Touch football was a crucial battle all the way down the line, with the Deltas coming out second in their division. Horseshoes brought another second place, while the tennis team succeeded in placing first.

WILLIAM A. CARMINE

Phi—W. & L.

OUTSTANDING ADDITIONS ARE MADE

Phi Chapter again has pledged the largest and the best class on campus. Rush week netted us 22 boys from all parts of the country. We are looking to this pledge class to make a mark on the campus that will remain in the history of Phi Chapter and the University.

One of the best additions to the Shelter this year is Mrs. Faulkner, our new housemother. In the short time she has been here, she has made the house pleasanter with redecorating and with her own charming personality. We are truly proud of her.

DELTS DOMINATE SPORTS SCENE

In fall sports, the Deltas dominate the scene. Bill McHenry is captain of football and looks like a sure bet for All-American honors. Four other Deltas also are constant performers with the team. Jim Lewis is the captain of the soccer team and the leading scorer. Three other Deltas are members of the team. Bill Boyle was recently elected captain of the freshman soccer team and scored the only goal in the Virginia game. With the cross-country team are Keith Belch and Watson Bowes.

HOLD DOWN MANY CAMPUS POSITIONS

Deltas also lead in campus activities and are holding down many of the important offices in publication and student affairs. Not the least of these is Bob Smith, our president, who is active in many organizations.

SELDEN CLARK

Chi—Kenyon

I-M AND SCHOLARSHIP TROPHIES WON

Chi Deltas returning to the venerable Gambier Hill were in for a shock. Having just digested its pleasure over the seventh successive seizure of top honors in Kenyon intramural sports, the chapter discovered that its neophytes had won the freshman scholarship cup for the previous semester. The chapter as a whole had soared into third place among all organizations, local or national, on the campus. These accomplishments immediately set a high mark for Chi to reach and pass in the year to come.

When a box of home-made cookies was subsequently passed around, 150 disappeared into undiscovered regions in five minutes. By a secret formula, the chapter was able to discover from these statistics that 25 Deltas were back and going. Because of the new second semester rushing program at Kenyon, this number will have to wait a few months before being augmented by pledges from what, according to Richard Block, who as a sophomore class president directs hazing from his room (well protected by his loyal Delt brothers), appears to be a fine freshman class.

LARGE SHARE OF ACTIVITIES

In the halls of Delta Tau there's news straight from the horse's mouth about most of the activities on campus. Bob Rowe, Richard Evans, Jack Harrison, and Stan Walch bring in reports and tired backs from the varsity football team.

From the world of the forthcoming Greek tragedy Ajax Deltas hear stories from Bill Wendt, Chuck Schwarz, Gordon Duffey—who are acting—and Bill Humphries and Bob Ritzi—who are seeing that the scenes are Greek to everybody. Jon Urnes, president of the Kenyon Ski Club, spends many anxious hours looking at the sky; it is rumored that he is hoping for snow. Bruce Richardson, editor, and Richard Evans, business manager, can give information on plans for this year's Reveille, the Kenyon College yearbook. The Collegian, the college newspaper, has Bill Humphries and Bill Briggs on its staff. And if anyone has an argument to wage, he can consult Stan Walch, who is again a debate team member.

CHI DELTS PICK "QUEEN"

The event of homecoming, when Kenyon met Otterbein on the gridiron, posed the most recent problem for Chi Deltas: What to have for a display? The result was a float picturing an Otter ballplayer in a state of trapped subjugation under the withering eye of the proverbial Kenyon Lord.

This float, which may start a new tradition at Kenyon, was towed by a convertible in which rode the Kenyon homecoming queen, as nominated by Chi, and her court. They were Bill Dettlinger, Peter Keys, and Chuck Schwarz respectively. Dick Nelson, in charge of the homecoming project, was pleased with the class displayed by his brawny beauties.

DELTS OPEN SOCIAL CALENDAR

The Deltas were the first to start the social ball rolling concerning campus-wide social events, with their second annual street dance, featuring Benny Patterson and his sensational jazz combo. During the dance the street, sidewalk, and adjoining Delt lawn were packed with onlookers, after which there was an open house at the Shelter.

Another campus wide event in which the Deltas took active part was the annual Fall Carnival. In this event the different fraternities and sororities set up various types of booths, and the fraternity and sorority selling the most tickets win a trophy. The proceeds of the Carnival are given to the Community Chest. The Deltas, with the help of the Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority, hope to retain their championship by again having the highest ticket sales at the Carnival.

TWENTY ARE PLEDGED

Due to the energetic efforts of Beta Alpha's rush chairman, Jim Slaughter, we have obtained 20 promising pledges. Some are managers of athletic teams, and several more have already become busy with campus activities.

Beta Beta—DePauw

CHAPTER PLEDGES FIFTEEN

Early September found Beta Beta striving for another outstanding year. Formal fall rush combined with spring rush to give the chapter a strong pledge class. Beta Beta's class of '57 lists 14 men.

The chapter has as its guest for the year Paul ten Doesschate from Amsterdam, The Netherlands, who is studying economics here. Paul has also been pledged.

STRIVE TO MAINTAIN LAST YEAR'S RECORD

A good deal of work was done in preparation for Old Gold Day, DePauw's football homecoming day, as the chapter strove to equal the Shelter's last award-winning house display. The result was the "Delt Express." Returning alumni added greatly to the success of the week end. Beta Beta's class of '51 returned in good strength for a reunion. Ralph Berg, John Feters, Herb Hoover, Bob Kaseberg, Gordon Sinks, and Norval Stephens were among those returning.

LINE UP FOR FALL VARSITY SPORTS

Again Beta Beta contributed greatly to the success of DePauw's fall varsity sports. Gary Rutledge, Bob Fink, and Dick Brandt all bolstered the first-string forward line on the grid, and Jay Sterling broke into the backfield as fullback. The cross-country team, aided by Front Runners Gerry Hermann and Jim Toman, got off to a perfect start with four victories. These men give the team excellent chances of taking the "Little State" championship. In intramural play this fall, Beta Beta's speedball team compiled its best record to date and has given the chapter high hopes of taking the competitive intramural trophy this year.

Beta Gamma—Wisconsin

ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES GET UNDER WAY

With a new year in the offing, Beta Gamma has started off its calendar of activities with a new spirit built up during the summer months.

Under the management of Jim Wirth, the muscle-building side of the Badger Deltas' activities has started with victories in bowling, football, and volleyball. With the return of most of last year's basketball and baseball players, we're looking forward to another good season.

MANY EXCHANGE DINNERS ARE HELD

The social season is well under way with several after-game and theme parties already behind us, and work is now being done on the annual Christmas formal. Exchange dinners and guest speakers during the week serve to ease some of the pain of studying.

GET 20 NEW PLEDGES

During formal rushing, Beta Gamma got 20 new pledges who have already shown their willingness to learn and work. Among these 20 pledges, we were fortunate to get two out of seven Scandinavian fellows going to Wisconsin on all-expense-paid scholarships sponsored by an alumnus of the University of Wisconsin.

TWENTY PLEDGES CLIMAX RUSH WEEK

Foremost in every fraternity man's mind each fall is rushing. Beta Delta Chapter gleams with pride as a successful rush week resulted with the pledging of 20 men to the chapter. Sidney Tucker was elected president of the pledge class, and Jack Hunter was elected secretary-treasurer.

HOUSE PARTY OPENS SOCIAL SEASON

Immediately after rush week our social season was opened with a joint house dance with the Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. The party was attended by about 70 couples.

Beta Delta Chapter entertained the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority one evening with a clever skit. B. J. Clemence acted as master of ceremonies. Kappa Kappa Gamma's Carey O'Kelley was crowned as our sponsor for 1953-54. Carey was unanimously elected to represent our fraternity in the Miss Homecoming and the Miss Pandora contests. Our sponsor is a freshman this year and was Miss Athens High during school year 1952-53.

CAREY O'KELLEY

A party was given by Beta Delta Chapter in honor of Mrs. E. K. Overstreet, who has so faithfully served as house-mother of our chapter for the past four years. Guests at the "Drop In" included brothers, housemothers of the sororities and fraternities on campus, and immediate friends of "Mrs. O."

HOLD THAT LINE!

In the field of sports, Beta Delta is expecting to shine as it opens the football season with a line averaging 200 pounds. Although we expect a great deal of competition, our eyes are turned toward the Governor's Trophy.

NEW SHELTER SIGHTED

With aid from the alumni, plans are well under way for a new Shelter. A beautiful lot with an excellent location overlooking the campus has already become a Delt claim.

Beta Epsilon—Emory

FIRST PRIZE IN DOOLEY'S FROLICS

Spring quarter was a great time here at Beta Epsilon Chapter. On May 8-9, Dooley's Frolics were held. "Innovations" was the theme for the lawn decorations this year, and we chose "The First Oil Well in the United States," with which we won first place. We are all very proud of our new trophy, as Dooley's Frolics is one of the most important events on the campus.

The week after Dooley's we had success in another field. Jim Hanson was elected Student Council representative in the campus elections.

GRIFFIN TAKES HELM

We have several new officers this year. Richard Griffin is our new president, and Jim Hanson succeeds Richard as vice-president. Our new assistant treasurer is Rocky McGahee, Truett Watson is our new sergeant at arms, and Bob Roberts is corresponding secretary.

We had a great rush week this fall. We had 13 rush functions in all, and got 14 fine pledges. We are grateful to Ed Thomas, our rush chairman, for all his hard work.

PLEDGE OFFICERS ELECTED

Beta Zeta Chapter opened the school year with Cliff Lisle as president; John McCardle, vice-president; Don Blue, recording secretary; Chuck Boltin, corresponding secretary; Vic Lewis, treasurer; and Bob Reed, sergeant at arms.

Beta Zeta's 32 new pledges elected the following officers: Boyde Byrely, president; Walt Busch, vice-president; Ivan Martin, secretary; Lee Ransom, treasurer; and Bob Dare, sergeant at arms.

FIRST PLACE IN SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarship results for the second semester of last year were announced by the University recently. Delta Tau Delta stood first among Butler's fraternities.

Bob Reed has been given the rank of cadet colonel in the AFROTC this year. It is the top rank for the unit. John McCardle was named lieutenant colonel, second in line.

Dooley's Frolics at Emory last spring featured the Delt skit representing the first oil well in the country.

Re-enacting the historic event, an anachronistic radio announcer interviews one of the local business tycoons.

Don Britton was appointed chairman of decorations for Butler's Homecoming celebration.

CHARLES BOLTIN

Beta Eta—Minnesota

ALUMNI LEND HELPING HAND

In the first major function of the chapter for the year, formal rushing, Beta Eta fared well. To date, 14 men have accepted pledgeship to Delta Tau Delta. Out of these 14 only six are from Minneapolis, leaving eight to fight for Shelter space.

The Twin Cities Alumni Association was responsible for a major houseman attraction. A fund drive during the summer months brought in enough to replace the springs and mattresses on all the beds. The thick innersprings are certainly a delight to the members, but a few first-hour classes were missed during the first few mornings of school. Other benefits of the fund drive are in process at the present time. They include acoustical tile on the ceilings of the study rooms plus new doors. The alumni have also helped us make future plans for house improvement.

SCHOLARSHIP DRIVE UNDER WAY

Beta Eta improved along other lines spring quarter. The active chapter's scholastic average of 1.54 was sufficient to place the Deltas in tenth place among the 32 registered active chapters on campus. This mark was also above the All Men's and the All Fraternity Averages. Scholarship will be stressed this fall in an attempt to reach even higher.

Along with improved scholarship, other definite plans for the quarter are being laid. The big day will be November 7. The Golden Gophers will be host to Indiana in the annual Homecoming game. Chapter plans for this event include a nothing-short-of-spectacular house decoration. Imaginations have been running wild after the announcement of the slogan, "END-iana." A big Homecoming dance and party will follow the game.

Beta Theta—Sewanee

SUCCESSFUL RUSH WEEK COMPLETED

The numbers of Beta Theta Chapter of Delta Tau Delta completed a highly successful fall rush season under the leadership of Rush Captains Richard Hayes and Edward Bell. Thirteen top-notch pledges were added to the rolls of Beta Theta. Brother Bob Foster has been named pledge master of this group of fine pledges.

HOMECOMING DECORATIONS PLANNED

The first project assigned Beta Theta's new pledges was the preparation of the Homecoming decorations for the chapter. Pledge Bob Hodgson was placed in charge of this activity, and as this article is written, he has done a magnificent job.

While the pledge class puts all of its efforts into the winning of the Homecoming decorations award, the active chapter, under the leadership of Vice-President Richard Hayes, is putting its energies into the building of a float for the Homecoming Day Parade.

Beta Theta Chapter will also select a nominee for Homecoming Queen. This lucky young lady will ride on Beta Theta Chapter's Float in the Homecoming Parade.

ALUMNI RELATIONS PROGRAM PLANNED

Under the capable chairmanship of Brother Fred Fuller, Beta Theta Chapter plans this year to conduct a more active alumni relations program than ever before in its history. Included in this plan are suggested meetings for Beta Theta's alumni in various sections of the country in order to give them a more active participation in chapter activities. It is hoped that through the guidance and help of our alumni, Beta Theta may continue to grow more vigorous every year.

JOHN EDWARD BELL, JR.

Beta Kappa—Colorado

NEW HOUSEMOTHER

Colorado Deltas returned to the Shelter this fall to a pleasant surprise. Mrs. Willie Davidson, from Kerrville, Texas, had become their new housemother. "Mom" Davidson enjoys Colorado, quite a compliment from a Texan. One of the many reasons she is so popular is the fact that she serves coffee and cookies at 10:30 each evening. This break in the evening gives her time to talk to the boys about their current activities and problems. Mrs. Davidson was well versed about the Colorado campus before she arrived. Her married daughter, Ann, went to school at C.U. for four years. Her younger daughter, Barb, is a freshman at the University of Texas.

HARDY AND JOHNSON STAR

Beta Kappa boasts two of the craftiest open-field runners that Colorado has seen in some time. Senior Ron Johnson and Junior Carroll Hardy have been carrying the brunt of the Colorado Buffalos' attack, both on the ground and in the air.

Hardy, for the third consecutive year, has been the Buff's top threat in the Big Seven and candidate for all conference honors. His uncanny ability to pick his own openings in opposing lines and his tremendous speed and shiftness go together to make him the tailback that he is.

Johnson has also proved himself to be a break-away runner. His change-of-pace running can confuse even the best of defenders. This is Ron's last season for the Buffs, and he is proving it to be the best performance of his career. He holds this year's record for the longest run, that being a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown.

Byron Bennett rounds out the Beta Kappa football roll call. "By" had great potentials this season as a halfback, but was injured in a preseason scrimmage.

SUCCESSFUL RUSH WEEK HELD

Once again Beta Kappa has managed a successful rush week and has pledged 34 top men from every part of the "forty-eight." The first few weeks of school have already shown that spirit among the new pledges is high. The first of their "organized" activities included the "sophomore wash," the annual "hose-down" of the sophomores living in the house.

The recent elections of officers produced three men from Colorado with Bill Droegmueller of Greeley as president, Jerry Spicer of Denver as secretary and treasurer, and Bill Fairchild of Boulder as social chairman. Rounding out the group is John Speicker of Sioux City, Iowa, as vice-president.

Right now the time of the pledge class has been eagerly devoted to a series of Sunday morning breakfasts at which freshmen only are in the limelight. The "get-together" includes the Deltas and the pledge classes of the many sororities on the campus.

FRITZ HAGEBOECK

Beta Lambda—Lehigh

WAGE RUSH CAMPAIGN

With the coming of the fall semester the rush chairman, Lex Murdoch, has started an intensive rushing campaign to fill the gap created by the graduation of 13 seniors from Beta Lambda. Lex hopes to gain a sufficient number of choice undergraduates to bring the Shelter up to capacity until freshman rushing gets under way in February.

STAR IN ATHLETICS

In activities around the campus this fall, the Deltas are represented by two standout performers in Howie Keim and Duane Jennings. Howie, a junior, is in the fullback slot on the varsity football team, and he is doing a fine job. Duane, a sophomore and former Delaware state champion in the half mile, is a sensation in cross-country, and he is expected to beat all opposition this season. Preston Seidel, not to be outdone by these two men, has been honored by being elected to the presidency of the sophomore class.

SHELTER REPAIRED

Upon his return to school, the house manager, Dunc Cook, plunged into the business of making much needed repairs on the Shelter. The chapter room floor has been sanded and varnished and the whole room has been repainted. Another major project which is still in process is the repairing of the Shelter's roof and the installation of a new deck on the sun porch.

SEVEN PLEDGES CONGRATULATED

Congratulations are in order to the following seven pledges who were just recently initiated: Robert Fouchaux, Burton Foster, David Franz, Thomas Henderson, Duane Jennings, William Stempfle. These men have shown fine leadership qualities and are expected to be an asset in administering the policies of Beta Lambda in the future.

HENRY FRANZ, IV

Beta Mu—Tufts

SHELTER BOASTS NEW LOOK

The Shelter boasts a distinct "New Look" this fall, with the completion of the alumni lounge, a spanking new adjunct to the living room, made possible through the efforts of Chapter Adviser Joel Reynolds, supported by the Beta Mu alumni. Planned and decorated by Boston's Jordan-Marsh Company, there's nothing on campus that can equal it. Tasteful contemporary furniture, combining good looks with plenty of comfort, makes it the most popular room in the house. The men of Beta Mu showed their appreciation of their alumni's gift by completely refinishing the pine paneling and repainting the walls and ceiling of the room themselves—the decorator said we'd need professional help, but a perfect job was done by the brothers alone, saving a considerable sum. The lounge is only a part of the extensive all-house project that has caught the brothers' enthusiasm.

SOCIAL PROGRAM GETS UNDER WAY

An open house for co-eds of Tufts' affiliated schools proved to be almost too much of a success. Over 200 girls showed up to see the house, and each brother found himself smothered with attention. The cider held out, though, and so did the Delts, having once again scooped the campus in such a large-scale affair. Fact is, two more are planned for the coming fortnight.

NEW BAND MAKES FIRST PUBLIC APPEARANCE

John Bonasia is shaping up a Delt band from among those brothers who play a mean horn. The band had its first public showing at the Middlebury football game, assembling outside the house before kickoff time, attired in gray slacks and blue blazers, and followed by the entire house membership and dates. En route to the "Oval," the lads met the Jackson freshmen women, who were going to the game and included them in the parade. We swung into the stadium several hundred strong playing "When the Saints Come Marching In," and the crowd let us know we looked good.

CHAPTER ADVISER FOR 20 YEARS

This is the twentieth year that Beta Mu Chapter has been privileged to have "Joe" Reynolds as chapter adviser. His amazing energy and constant devotion to the ideal of keeping Beta Mu at the forefront at Tufts are reflected in every aspect of the chapter.

Beta Nu—M.I.T.

PROUD OF RUSH RESULTS

With a feeling of a job well done, we officially closed one of the most successful rush weeks in Beta Nu's history. Under the able direction of Brothers Larry Coffin and Karl Reuther, we pledged 11 of the finest men in the freshman class, all sure to be a credit to the Fraternity.

Besides the splendid pledge class we obtained during rush week, we are proud to announce the affiliation of Brothers Guy Spencer, Westminster, and Paul Valentine, Miami.

The week preceding our rush week was spent in busy preparation for the long winter ahead. We cleaned and polished our nearly new Shelter and marked our first year of occupancy with the addition of a new suite of living room furniture, a new thirty-cubic-foot deep freeze, and a new washer and dryer combination for our laundry.

On October 18 we initiated Brothers Michael Ariens and John Wenning into the chapter. Both are good rugby players and have made the first team in that sport.

FOOTBALL SQUAD UNDEFEATED

In the field of sport, we are happy to say that, although intercollegiate football is not played at M.I.T., Beta Nu has one of the best football squads on campus. We are undefeated in the intramural program and have not been scored upon as yet. A lot of the credit will have to go to Mike Tym, our coach and quarterback.

Brother Charles Buntchuh (BN, '53) writes us from the University of Goettingen, Bonn, Germany, where he is completing his education in the field of physics with the aid of a Fulbright Scholarship.

BETA OMICRON PLEDGES 20

Thanks to the many alumni recommendations and the efforts of Rushing Chairman Bob Harnsberger and his committee, the chapter has secured an excellent pledge class of 20 men.

Seven neophytes missed the picture, but this is still a sizable pledge delegation for Beta Omicron, Cornell.

Several Delts have risen to top positions on the campus. Among them are Jim Pigman, secretary of the Interfraternity Council, and Bill Moyer, chairman of the Analysis and Research Committee of the IFC. During Freshman Orientation, Jack Cane served as chairman of the Men's Orientation Committee. Dud Norton was selected to manage Cornell's sailing team for the coming year.

HOMECOMING WEEK END

The chapter welcomed back more than 25 alumni, their families, and friends for Homecoming Week End, October 16-18. The Cornell-Yale football game and an informal party which followed at the Shelter contributed to this enjoyable reunion.

PLANS FOR FACULTY TALKS

The chapter is planning to inaugurate a series of informal weekly discussions featuring administrators and faculty of the University. Together with the annual faculty tea, the chapter has embarked upon an ambitious program for advancing relations between the faculty and the student.

Beta Pi—Northwestern

ANNUAL PJ RACE HELD

The Delt Pajama Race, Northwestern's first all-school social event, sponsored by Beta Pi Chapter, once again got the school year off to a flying start. The race, with 27 relay teams from campus frats and independent dorms, attracted a crowd of over 3,000 people.

Jan Davis, Pi Beta Phi, was chosen as PJ queen from 20 candidates and received the victor's trophy from the race chairman, Bob Christensen.

The queen candidates were escorted by Delt pledges to dinner at the Shelter, before the race, and then everyone went to the Edgewater Beach Hotel for dancing and entertainment.

SEVEN REPRESENT DELTS ON GRIDIRON

Beta Pi is well represented on the gridiron this fall with seven brothers on the varsity roster. Heading the list of Delt standouts is Lloyd Israels, veteran senior halfback, who also serves as vice-president of the chapter. Lloyd has been the outstanding ground gainer for the Wildcats, scoring twice in the season's opener against Iowa State and averaging better than eight yards per carry.

Bob McKeiver has been voted the top soph prospect in the Big Ten. A shifty halfback, he also stars on the Wildcat first team.

A third Delt on NU's starting "11" is Center Don Haffner, senior letterman. Don, at 220 pounds, anchors the middle of the "Cat" line on both offense and defense.

End Ed Demyan has been one of the reasons the Wildcats were the top offensive team in the nation for the first three weeks of the season. Big Ed has been a key link in NU's forward wall for three varsity seasons.

Second-team positions have been earned by three Beta Pi Delt. Flanking the squad at both ends are Delt Bob Morman and Joe McCormick. Both boys are expected to take over first-team slots next season and have been seeing considerable action this campaign as reserves.

ALUMNI ATTEND HOMECOMING CELEBRATIONS

The traditional pig roast at the Shelter after the homecoming game was a great success. Over 300 alumni and guests attended.

Durbar, the annual house corporation banquet, was held November 20. Attended by seniors from the active chapter, the banquet, as usual, further cemented good relations between alumni and the active chapter.

Beta Tau—Nebraska

PARK WINS NAVAL CITATION

Eldon Park, one of six Beta Tau Delt who went on a cruise to South America this past summer, ranked fourth among the combined 1,800 Annapolis and 1,400 Naval ROTC midshipmen. He was rated by both fellow classmates and regular Navy officers as outstanding in attitude, performance of duty, leadership, and bearing and dress. According to Captain W. O. Gallery, commandant of the University of Nebraska NROTC program, this is the highest rating that a University of Nebraska student has received on a summer cruise.

During the cruise Eldon served as Midshipman Gunnery Officer during the first phase and as Midshipman Assistant Navigator in the second phase. He trained aboard the U.S.S. Macdon, a heavy cruiser. Eldon will be commander of the University's NROTC battalion for the coming year.

NAMED SPORTS EDITOR

Three Delt gained positions in University of Nebraska campus activities.

George Paynich was selected sports editor of the Nebraskan. George, a senior, replaces Glenn Nelson, also a member of Beta Tau, who was sports editor last year.

Andrew "Skip" Hove was elected to the Student Council in the College of Business Administration. Skip is the first Delt to be elected to the Council.

Walter Wright was re-elected to the Student Publications Board for the coming year. This Board selects the staff members of the Cornhusker, yearbook, and the Nebraskan.

Beta Tau has one of the largest pledge classes it has had in several years. Thirty-two men were pledged during rush week. Thanks must go to Brian Hendrickson, rush chairman, for this fine class.

WORLD TRAVELERS SPIN YARNS

Three Beta Tau men, Dick Schilling, Don Crook, and Duane Neilsen, and a Gamma Eta Delt, Jim Adams, formerly of Beta Tau, spent the summer touring Europe. These men have spent several evenings entertaining the brothers with stories and pictures of the trip.

Bob Lenzini, '54, captain of the Illinois football team this year, has led his charges through three games without a loss at this writing. The one platoon system hasn't hampered him a bit, as he is showing himself to be one of the team's most versatile linemen both on offense and defense.

Also on the varsity team this year is Nebraska's ELDON PARK (left) is congratulated by CAPT. W. O. GALLERY on being rated fourth of 3,200 Annapolis and Naval ROTC midshipmen during last summer's training cruise. Eldon is president of Innocents Society, senior men's honorary, among other honors.

Twenty-four Delt pledge pins were planted at Ohio State.

Tom Miller, sophomore pledge, who is holding down a reserve center position. Proving their worth on the freshman team are Pledges Bill Warner, halfback, and Ron Dempsey, end.

In other sports this fall, Jon Culbertson, '56, is proving himself to be one of the mainstays of the gymnastic team, and Buddy Rogers, '56, is winning himself a starting berth on the Illini nine in fall baseball practice.

PLEDGES PLAN FIRST ACTIVITY

We of Beta Upsilon worked hard this summer preparing for fall rushing by engaging in an extensive redecorating and painting program. But our hard work paid off as we acquired 16 top-notch pledges from all parts of the state.

The pledges are hard at work making plans for their forthcoming pledge dance, "Yukon Yump." All indications are that it will be one of the best pledge dances seen around the Shelter in many a year.

October 2 was a memorable day for John Porter, Charles Rogers, James Jasper, and James Lowenstein. On that day President Richard Anderson presided over initiation ceremonies as these men took their fraternal vows.

Beta Phi—Ohio State

CHAPTER RECEIVES "A" RATING

Beta Phi welcomed 24 new pledges into the pledge class after fall rush week.

One of the chapter's proudest achievements came when the Dean of Men's Office announced that Beta Phi had received an all "A" fraternity rating. Grades are based on scholarship, housing conditions, co-operation with the University, and financial standing.

Ted Nicola, Delt of Cincinnati, was elected treasurer of OSPFA, one of the political parties on the OSU campus.

Delta Gamma active, Miss Shirley Guth, was chosen "Miss Daisy Mae of 1953" at the annual all-campus Sadie Hawkins dance this year. The lucky guy who escorted her to the party was Will Lang, one of the illustrious Delt actives.

Active John Borton and Pledge Frank Machinsky are two of the outstanding football players for Ohio State this year.

KENT STATE MIGRATION

Beta Phi migrated to Delta Omega Chapter at Kent State for a week end filled with parties and dancing. Interchapter relations are one of the finest ways for sharing brotherhood.

CHARLES V. WEBB

Beta Chi—Brown

BETA CHI SETS SCHOLASTIC MARK

Beta Chi is proud of its extensive participation in extracurricular activities. We are also proud of our large representation on the 1953 version of the Brown football team. Without overlooking these achievements, we would like to call special attention to a record we have recently set. Our over-all average for the past semester was 2.400 (on a 4.000 basis). Such an attainment placed the chapter in sixth place, above both the all fraternity and all college level. An even greater satisfaction lies in the fact that this over-all average now stands as a record unequalled in Beta Chi's history.

SIX DELTS ON FOOTBALL TEAM

If you were to read the latest roster of the Brown varsity team, you would find no less than six Beta Chi Delts included. Gerry Haverty is the captain of this year's squad. Wearing number 36, Gerry plays the starting fullback position. His hard running and airtight defensive play make him a mainstay of the team.

Phil Noel, a transfer student from Georgetown, who was initiated into Beta Chi last January, is one of the bigger players, 6' 2" and 200 pounds. Phil starts at left tackle.

Irv Valkys (affectionately known as "Moose") is a junior this year, and although not a brother yet, will be one before too long. Another big boy (6' 1" and 205 pounds), Irv has the starting right tackle position.

Against Amherst, Brother Don Cottey played a truly great game in his role of starting quarterback. In his accurate passing and fine tackling, Don showed his ability to play both offensive and defensive ball.

Joe Granger, a junior this year, wears the number 58. Because of an injury sustained in practice this fall, Joe was unable to participate in the Amherst game, but should be all set to go before too long.

Bill Demchak is currently Beta Chi's only sophomore on the team. A starring back on the freshman team of last year, Bill is the leading candidate for the quarterback position that Don will vacate at the end of this season.

That Beta Chi is proud of its representation on the '53 team is indeed an understatement.

MITCHELL SMITH

Beta Psi—Wabash

NEW OFFICERS LEAD CHAPTER

Bob Reinke, '55, has taken over the reins of Beta Psi, as Bob Augsburg, '54, was forced to resign because of ill health. Jay Dittus, '54, former corresponding secretary, was elected to the vice-presidency to fill the spot vacated by Bob Reinke. Stan Matheny, '56, was elected as the new corresponding secretary.

SCHOLARSHIP IMPROVES

Beta Psi was proud to finish third in the campus scholastic standings for the second semester last year. The chapter's average was well above the All Men's Average.

Fourteen men have been pledged to Beta Psi for the fall semester. The pledges have shown great industry in their work on the float for the Butler game parade and on the annual pledge dance, which was a great success. The freshmen also are adding greatly to the chapter's campus reputation by contributing members to practically all the college activities.

The chapter promises to have great strength during the year, having lost only three men through graduation. Beta Psi now has 48 members, the largest number in several years. Thus we expect to field strong intramural teams this year.

NAMED TO SCIENCE HONORARY

Don Mitchell, treasurer, was elected at the start of the school year to Sigma Xi, an honorary for seniors who have been outstanding in the field of science. Don is also senior assistant in the mathematics department.

Beta Psi boasts three men on the Wabash football squad. Ronald Grimes, '56, and Tom Figg, '57, are our varsity representatives and John Nemeth, '57, is on the freshmen eleven.

STAN MATHENY

Beta Omega—California

FULLBACK FOR GOLDEN BEARS

Beta Omega Delts, after a highly successful rush, have undertaken University activities with renewed vigor. The chapter is well represented on the gridiron by Steve Dimeff, starting fullback for the Golden Bears; we also claim two more promising backs in Pete Crebbin, fullback, and Doug Stowell, quarterback. Tackle Jere Brooks is unfortunately out of action because of a knee injury. The Delts have again taken to the intramural field with strong teams which promise to reassert their superiority.

The social program is keeping in step with the pace set by the football season. The chapter has enjoyed several successful postgame parties. These promise to be eclipsed by our California-Stanford "Big Game" party which enjoyed campus-wide acclaim last year and which we feel will be surpassed this year.

ALUMNI PLAY HOST

Our alumni, not to be outdone, have invited alums and undergraduates to an afternoon and evening of enjoyment at Mira Vista Country Club on the eve of the U.S.C. game.

The Shelter has seen several improvements recently. Our floors and driveway have both been treated to a resurfacing. These, with other improvements, made with the assistance of our alumni, make it possible for us to keep one of the finest houses on our campus.

DELTS START OFF YEAR'S SOCIAL SCHEDULE WITH NOVEL RUSH PARTY

Saturday night, September 19, marked the climax of rush week activities with Open House and gala parties up and down Fraternity Row. This year, the Delts stole the show with something really different on campus. A miniature golf course was constructed inside the Shelter, extending over three floors. The creation was christened "The Delta Links" and enjoyed continuous crowds eager to try out the texture of our greens and "roll" of our fairways. During rush week, the Delts scooped Fraternity Row by pledging 28. Our aggressive rushing tactics, engineered by Ron Hernes, really paid off.

DELTS ACQUIRE ANNEX IN GUNSAULUS HALL

Due to one of the largest house memberships in history, Gamma Beta Chapter found it necessary to rent two modern apartments in Gunsaulus Hall, one of Illinois Tech's new apartment buildings, to take care of the overflow.

DELTS FAVORED IN I-F FALL SPORTS

This year Delta Tau Delta is favored to win at least two of the fall interfraternity sports, football and tennis. Currently undefeated in both sports, the Delts are hoping to snap out of their "second-place psychosis" and come out on top in both of them this year.

CAMPUS LEADERS

Five Delts, John Inman, Bud Schutt, Matt Merfeld, Bob Zekes, and Gale Hovey, were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Delta Tau Delta had more names on the list than any other fraternity at Tech.

DELTS DO CONSIDERABLE TRAVELING

Upon returning from summer vacations that varied as widely as cruises with the Navy to Europe and motor journeys around the United States, the brothers found a newly decorated house. In fact, so great was the improvement, that a group of the industrious residents, Clyde Smith, Dick Armstrong, Ray Freud, Herb Hillman, Milne Holton, and Tom Kelsey, spent the better part of one week end finishing up where they thought more paint could wisely be applied. The telecasting of the Dartmouth-Holy Cross football game deprived Hanover of a home football game. So a loyal group of brothers traveled to Lynn, Massachusetts, to watch the spectacle. Our chapter was represented coast-to-coast by Don Hummel, who vigorously and capably led the Dartmouth band during half-time ceremonies. Back in Hanover, a week later, many of the brothers, accompanied by dates from women's colleges throughout New England, made up for the lack of a football week end with an open house for the Dartmouth campus. It was a highly successful party.

CHAPTER PLEDGES SEVENTEEN

From that time on, the activities of the house were all subservient to rushing. Under the guidance of Rushing Chairman Eliot Smith and his committee, the brothers put on one of the most effective "rushes" on campus. The rewards were both plentiful and pleasant as 17 new pledges were taken by the chapter. Such men as the varsity soccer players, Gordie Lenci, Pete Huhn, Len Guiliani, and Tom Healy; varsity Swimmer Dick Karslake; the yacht club members, Howie Clinch and Pete Lauterbach; varsity tennis Player Dave Kerr; and the varsity crew members, Bill Faunce and Ken Thomas, comprise our new group.

AIM HIGH IN INTERFRATERNITY COMPETITION

Interfraternity competition has been the house's forte thus far this fall. Golfers Ky Lewis and Don Hummel advanced through the first two rounds of golf eliminations undefeated. Our touch football team, coached by Athletic Manager Fred Crocker, has engaged in two hard-fought contests. Although they resulted in a tie and a close defeat, the addition of Pledges Gordon Davenport, Hugh Calder, Mark Smith, John Parke, and Don Mix to a squad of Veterans Dean Berry, Bill Mansfield, Bill White, Walt Bowden, Mike Cowdery, Pete Buehler, and Don Wheatley, has given us new hopes and confidence that our record will be improved.

SHELTER IS REDECORATED

The members of Gamma Delta were very proud to move into their newly furnished upstairs this year. Besides new desks, chairs, and beds, the rooms were painted and refloored and general improvements were made. These new improvements promise to give us a more relaxing and enjoyable year. Along with these improvements to the house was the redecorating of the game room by last year's pledge class. The walls were repainted and a latticed ceiling with indirect lighting was installed.

PRESIDENT OF FRESHMAN CLASS

This year's pledge class of 22 men is one of the finest we have ever had. Many of them are taking an active part in intramural sports. Because of their active support, we rate high in intramural sports. Not only do we have athletes but we have leaders among these new pledges. Pledge Adrian Nestor from Parkersburg was elected president of the freshman class. Adrian is here on a Board of Governors Scholarship for extracurricular activities. The pledge class as a whole is showing commendable spirit and is co-operating in all its duties.

SURBAUGH BACK ON FOOTBALL TEAM

Ray Surbaugh is back on the W.V.U. football squad for his second year. Ray, a sophomore hailing from Hinton, W. Va., occupies the fullback position. He is 5' 11" tall and weighs 178 pounds. He helped us in the 17-7 victory over Pitt this year, and is destined to be a bright star in W.V.U.'s future. Pledge Bob Bush is on the varsity track squad this year. He has been awarded a Board of Governors Scholarship for his ability as a trackman. Bob, who is 5' 10" tall and weighs 155 pounds, comes from Parkersburg. He is working out two or three times a week until track season starts in order to keep in shape. He runs the 440 on the W.V.U. track squad.

Gamma Zeta—Wesleyan

PLEDGES AND ACTIVES REPRESENTED ON CAMPUS

As Gamma Zeta entered the current academic year it was accompanied by 12 outstanding members of Wesleyan's freshman class. This gratifying pledge delegation was the end product of tremendous team work on the part of the active brothers and many interested alumni.

A close adherence to The Delt Development Program is being followed to a highly successful degree, and, as far as campus extracurricular activities are concerned, the pledges are also well integrated. They represented the chapter on the freshman soccer and football teams in the fall and have displayed their interest in radio station WESU, publications, etc.

Junior Varsity soccer was the chosen outlet for Tom Plimpton's and Craig Stone's athletic tendencies, whereas Bob Brown was an able Gamma Zeta representative on the gridiron.

Musical activities have become an integral part of several of the brothers' schedules. Chas. Hume is particularly active in this field. He has a berth in the Glee Club, the Choir, the Choral Music Group, and the Cardinals. Other brothers are continuing in executive capacities on the Argus, WESU, the Yachting Club, etc.

CHAPTER HOLDS PARENTS' WEEK END

The week end of October 31 was officially Parents' Week End at the Shelter and was more successful in terms of attendance and parent-chapter relationship than has been the case in past years.

TWO RECEIVE HONORS

Honorary note has come indirectly to all of us at Gamma Zeta through Bob Brown's nomination to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and George Brierly's acceptance into the Honors College as a Distinction Candidate in the field of economics. Stu Rapp's able leadership of the Campus Chest brought still another feather to our collective cap.

With pledge parties and other social events of the fall having been extremely successful, and with such firm roots already established in the scholastic and recreational aspects of life at Wesleyan, Gamma Zeta should certainly enjoy an enviable and profitable year.

Gamma Eta—George Washington

RUSH CHAIRMAN "JUST PLAYED A HUNCH"

In making his final chapter rush report on the night of fraternity balloting, Rush Chairman Jay Howard used the standard reply of one of his TV heroes when he announced that he "just played a hunch" in ordering 22 pledge pins last summer for Gamma Eta's fall pledge class.

The optimism of that hunch, plus an intensive summer and fall rush program, paid off when Gamma Eta "cleaned up" this fall. Gamma Eta outstripped 12 competing fraternities and garnered a pledge class of 22 men.

What about the quality? You judge for yourself. Eight of the 22 pledges are on academic or athletic scholarships. Awards they hold range from honorary berths on the District's all-city high school grid teams and captain of the University golf team to leadership in Washington area Demolay activities and participation in the quarter-finals of the 1953 golfers National Amateur at Oklahoma City. Two of the pledges come from among Washington's diplomatic families.

Much of the credit for the "sweep" belongs to Chapter President Fred Warder and Jay Howard, who teamed up to engineer a rush program which was "personalized" and packed with a sincere interest in the newcomer and his complete orientation in his new environment.

FIELD TWO COMPLETE GRIDIRON TEAMS

On the sports field, Gamma Eta has fielded two complete gridiron teams in a determined effort to retain a hard-won Interfraternity Football Championship which was wrested from SAE last fall. Fresh from scheduled workouts at the nearby "Y" pool, Delt tankmen are primed to repeat their last year's "coup" of the interfraternity and intramural swimming trophies.

GAMMA ETA LAMPOONS HOMECOMING FOE

During November, Gamma Eta Delt lamponed its homecoming foe, Maryland, with a "papier-mache" interpretation of the "Oldliners" mascot, Testudo, the terrapin, receiving the "G.W. brand" at the hands of a westernized Colonial.

Gamma Iota—Texas

AGAIN TOPS SCHOLASTICALLY

Gamma Iota has once more garnered top scholastic honors among major fraternities at the University of Texas. The Texas Delt, who also set the pace in 1950 as well as 1951, narrowly missed finishing first among all 30 fraternities on the basis of 1952-53 grades, and landed in the runner-up spot.

The 1953 edition of pledges at George Washington. The stern-looking active on the right end, front row, is JIM ADAMS, pledge trainer.

Gamma Kappa's new pledges at Missouri.

A victory in intramural water polo—usually a Delt-dominated sport—prevented the Gamma Iotans from walking away with the all-fraternity intramural title in '52-'53. Sparkling performances in the other ten 'mural sports at Texas, however, assured Gamma Iota of an easy second.

Two Texas Delts, Rush Moody, who served the University as student body president last year, and Don Eastland, Cowboy and "Y" president, were chosen to Friars, equivalent to the campus hall-of-fame. Only eight were selected from the entire campus.

DELTS ENCOURAGE FRESHMAN EXCELLENCE

Five Gamma Iota freshmen—Jimmie Stovall, Joe Davis, William Morris, Bill Cortelyou, and Bob Keith—have merited membership in Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic honorary, which requires a 2.5 grade average or higher.

Morris has been elected president of the Texas Phi Eta Sigma chapter, and Stovall has been elected historian. Davis, George Nowotny, and Roland Dahlin, the latter two previous Phi Eta Sigmas, have been selected to a four-man member-at-large council.

CHOSEN TO SERVICE HONORARIES

Silver Spurs, one of two honorary campus service organizations, who base membership on over-all scholarship, leadership, service, and character, have tapped two Texas Delts, increasing Gamma Iota representation to eight. This comprises the largest group of Spur members from any one organization on the Texas campus.

New Spur pledges are Roland Dahlin and William Morris. Old members include Paul Mohr, Claiborn Bell, Tip Housewright, Bill Bonham, Dave Williams, and Troy Lee Hand.

Cowboys, the other campus honorary, with the same membership requisites as the Silver Spurs, have bid Jack Little. Old members are Hal Finch, Bill Penn, and Fonse Ragland.

VARSITY ATHLETES SHOW CLASS

Two Texas Longhorn baseballers, both

Delts, were named last spring to the All-American squad. They are Paul Mohr, who led the Southwest Conference in hitting with a .390 clip, and Travis Eckert, who hit .375 on the year. The Texas team finished second in NCAA play.

Bill Penn, of the UT golf team, led the SWC in points earned, and finished third in the National Collegiate Tourney this summer.

Bill Bonham, Texas tennis standout, was one of three unbeaten racketmen in the Conference last spring. Bob Brodnax, All-American diver, and Fonse Ragland, of the swimming team, both enjoyed good years. Jimmy Stovall of the frosh tennis team, will undoubtedly inherit a key role this season.

Gamma Iota has pledged 29 new members as a result of one of the most successful fall rushes in years.

Included among the new pledge group is Mike Higgins, son of the late Mike Higgins, Sr., who served as president of Gamma Iota in 1927. Mike is expected to follow in the footsteps of his athletically-famous father, who was an all-Conference football and basketball player with Texas. The young Higgins is a center on the freshman football team.

IK WELCOMES NEW CHAPTER ADVISER

Gamma Kappa's new chapter adviser is Frank L. Tuttle. Frank was an honor graduate from the School of Journalism in '51, and has returned to J-school as promotion manager for the University TV station.

VARSITY HALFBACK INJURED

A blow to the chapter and the University was the injury of Brother Guy Rose, varsity halfback. On Guy's first play of the season, he suffered a nasty fracture of both bones in his right leg. After an operation and several weeks in the hospital, he is up and around on crutches, looking forward to next season when he can return to action.

BRODIE MEMORIAL PLAQUE RECEIVED

A beautiful addition to our rec room is the Brodie Memorial plaque, given in memory of Francis R. Brodie by his wife to be inscribed with the names of men performing outstanding work for the chapter. Mr. Brodie was for many years active in the alumni groups.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL TEAM UNDEFEATED

A summer of hard rushing was climaxed in a very successful rush week. Twenty-four top-notch men were pledged, including four from Kansas City, two from Moberly, and one from Brookfield. Rush Chairman Frank Frier deserves a hand for a job exceedingly well done.

Our intramural football team is thus far undefeated and unscored upon. By virtue of the large scores it has racked up, the team is a strong contender for the intramural crown.

CELEBRATE 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF SHELTER

This year is the 25th anniversary of the building of our present Shelter. The week end of October 17, Purdue's homecoming, was set aside to celebrate the completion of our home away from home. At the open house which precedes all home games, the lady guests were presented with mums to wear to the game with Wisconsin, and to the fish fry which followed.

MURAKOWSKI ON STARTING ELEVEN

Bill Murakowski, 195-pound sophomore halfback, has already tied down a starting berth on the Boilermaker eleven. Bill, who was captain of his team and a unanimous All-American choice while in high school, gives great promise for the future. We of Gamma Lambda are indeed proud of Brother Bill.

SINGING PLAYS IMPORTANT PART IN CHAPTER'S ACTIVITIES

Singing, under the direction of Song Leader Gene Merton, has become an increasingly more important part of Delt life around the Shelter. The Delt Trio, a newly organized group composed of Ross Copelun, Jim Woodruff, and David Baier, is quickly gaining recognition on the campus.

Our fall rush program, under the direction of Jack Swanson, was started early last spring. After months of tireless effort upon the part of Jack and his committee, we were rewarded with 14 outstanding men for our fall pledge class. Malcolm Brown has taken over the job of pledge training, and has already started to instill into these men the qualities of a Delt.

WELL REPRESENTED BY SENIORS

Although the school year is still young, we have had our attentions focused on the men who will be graduated next spring. In the annual hunt for senior cords and mustaches, the green freshmen were outsmarted by their more seasoned rivals. Only three cords and one mustache fell during the three days of hostilities. In the annual parade, prior to the first game of the season, the seniors of Gamma Lambda were well represented in their yellow cords, derby hats, cigars, and of course mustaches.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES START

With the advent of fall quarter's finals week, Gamma Mu Chapter can again look back with pride on its successful record in all phases of school activities.

This quarter's social calendar saw every week end filled with long-to-be-remembered functions. Leading off was the Pledge Dance held in the Windsor Room of the New Washington Hotel. The following week end found a great percentage of the chapter at Gamma Rho in Portland, Oregon, for the annual Oregon-Washington game. The night preceding the game the Gamma Rho alumni sponsored a terrific dance which Delts from Oregon, Oregon State, and Washington attended. Next on the agenda was the Dollar Party, which was followed by a stag party held with the Theta Chi's. The two week ends preceding Thanksgiving vacation brought the Barn Dance held at Kinney's Barn, a barn remodeled into a dance hall, which fit in very well with the Barn Dance theme, and homecoming week end with an open house for many of the Delt alums and their guests. On the only week end open before finals the Gamma Mu alumni held a banquet honoring the active chapter in the Olympic Hotel ballroom.

AIM FOR INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Fall quarter found Delts prominent in numerous activities which featured Dom Driano, chairman of the Washington "Hoover Committee," Trev Bryant, chairman of Frosh Day Election Committee and supervisor of Song Fest, and Warren Miller, last year's Sophomore Carnival chairman, now undertaking the responsibilities of Varsity Ball chairmanship. The football intramural program found the Delts again one of the strong contenders for the championship. Pledge Don Taylor, a two-year all-stater in football and all conference in basketball, won his frosh numerals and proved to be one of the standout linemen on this year's Washington's frosh team. Brothers Dick Phillips and Craig Roland, frosh numeral winners on last year's swim team, are at it again this year, joined by Pledge Eric Van, a three-year letterman.

ROXANNE VISITS BANGOR

Roxanne, one of America's most famous models, who was chosen as the first queen of Gamma Nu Chapter last fall, again visited Bangor this year to model for the Bangor Daily News fashion show. Because of a very tight schedule, Roxanne was unable to visit the Shelter. Accompanied by Mrs. Nellie Penley, society editor of the Bangor Daily News, Roxanne did have the opportunity to visit Gamma Nu's chapter adviser, John Grant, at the Merrill Trust Company in Bangor. Roxanne also received roses from the Delts.

DELTS ON CAMPUS

Paul Marcoux, chapter president, has been chosen vice-president of the R.O.T.C.'s honorary society, Scabbard and Blade.

Paul Hanson was elected as cocaptain of Maine's varsity cross-country track team.

Clayton Carl was elected secretary and fiscal agent of the Zeta Sigma Pi honorary forestry society.

Art Wyldie is now a member of the Pack and Pine, governing body of the Maine Outing Club.

cuse victory over Fordham with a buffet supper attended by alums, brothers, pledges, and their dates. We wound up the evening with a song fest and vic dance.

I-M CHAIRMAN NAMED TO COUNCIL

Our intramural chairman, Doug Collins, has been appointed to the University's Intramural Council of fraternities and men's living centers. The house joins him in looking forward to a successful season for the Delt football and swimming teams which show great promise.

FIVE DELTS ON I.F.C. PAMPHLET STAFF

This year's I.F.C. rushing pamphlet, "Meet the Greeks," boasts five Delts on its staff. Coeditor of the entire production was Bob Lefko. John Brand acted as art editor, while Pete Preston was photography editor. In addition, June Graduate Bill Alderisio designed the cover. Jim Markley was in charge of producing the map of the campus fraternities. The house has received many compliments for all its work on what has been called "the best booklet of its type on any campus."

Gamma Rho—Oregon

TIE IN FOOTBALL INTRAMURALS

Gamma Rho cashed in on an all-out rush program by garnering a pledge class of 24 top men during the early fall rush period. This was the fourth largest group of the 21 fraternities on campus. At the time of this writing the Delt touch-football team had just won a tie for its intramural league title and was pointing toward a play-off and a berth in the all-University eliminations. Coached by Ron Ricketts and paced by the sharpshooting arm of Paul Peterson, the Delts fielded the best football team in several years at Gamma Rho.

WIN SCHOLARSHIP TROPHY

Gamma Rho scholarship was given a boost when the house was awarded the IFC-sponsored pledge scholarship trophy. This cup is awarded annually to the fraternity whose pledge class attains the highest scholastic average during its period of pledging.

PLEDGE PARTY HIGHLIGHTS SOCIAL SEASON

Fall term social activities were highlighted by a party at the chapter house in honor of the pledge class. Also a top event was homecoming on November 21, at which time the Delts hosted a fine crowd of alumni. Bob Berry topped the list of Delts in campus activities by holding the important position of radio publicity chairman for the Student Union. Walt White, Scott Lehner, and Phil Sanders also were prominent in the activity scene.

PHIL LEWIS

Gamma Sigma—Pittsburgh

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER HIGHLIGHTS RUSH PROGRAM

Fall rushing ended with 20 men signing Delt pledges. The pledge class is smaller than usual this year, but it represents quality rather than quantity. The rushing program was highlighted on parents' night when the Very Reverend High N. Moor, Chi, '14, talked of his fraternity life and what it has meant to him.

AIM FOR I-F FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Gamma Sigma Six football team, defending city champions, again look forward to a successful season. Downing the SAE's 30-6 and the Phi Delts 13-6 already this season, the team should soon be the master of IF football. The team is sparked by Dan Murphy and Fritzie Zivic in the backfield and Ralph McCullough and Dick Swanson in the line.

DAN PURDY ELECTED PRESIDENT

Because of pressing duties at home, our president, Tom Strong, was forced to resign. Elected to complete Tom's administration was Dan Purdy, a four-year member of Gamma Sigma. Dan has been active in the University as well as a worker for the Fraternity. Among his many honors and responsibilities he numbers membership in ODK and president of Men's Debate. The Fraternity should prosper well under the leadership of Purdy.

MANY DELTS IN PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS

The Delts at Pitt are well represented in professional schools this year. Leo Kairys and Jim Black are now in Pitt's Medical School. Bob Carpenter brought honor to the chapter by being accepted at the University of Rochester Medical School after only three years of undergraduate work, while Sam Hess and Walt Gore also honored the chapter by being admitted to Pitt Dental School.

BOB HODGIN

Gamma Tau—Kansas

ANNUAL PADDLE PARTY OPENS YEAR

Gamma Tau Chapter at the University of Kansas started November off with its annual Paddle Party. This year, as in the past, it marked one of the biggest fall social events on the campus.

Eighty Delts and their dates, dressed in ten-gallon hats and fancy shirts accompanied by cowboy boots, attended the affair. The K.U. chapter played host to 25 Delt brothers from the Delt house at Kansas State College at the party.

The Kansas Shelter was in vogue, too, as the living room and music room were decorated with timber fences, and corn stalks crowded each corner of the rooms. Added touches were bales of hay around the rooms for seats.

COMBO FURNISHES MUSIC

A sharp combo furnished dance music, which included some fine western music, and a lot of individual solos by the musicians caught the fancy of the dancers.

One of the high lights of the evening was the presenting of the paddles to the actives by the pledges. This was accomplished in a very satisfactory manner.

RICHARD E. MCEACHEN

The Miami Delts have started out with a bang on the athletic scene. Brothers Doug Thompson and Ken Lazarus are now helping to coach the freshman team, while Pledges Dick Hunter and Barto Pignatelli are fitting into the varsity picture. Tom Healon, who just returned from the Army, is back in his old job as trainer. Pledge Fred Tillman is preparing for the winter track season, while Brothers Jack Nelson and Jim Rushing are getting in shape for the coming wrestling season. Forbes Taylor will be the student manager for the grapplers. Last year's record-setting quarterback, Jim Root, has now moved into the number one signal-calling spot as a rookie with the Chicago Cardinals.

NEW MEMBERS NAMED

Forbes Taylor was recently initiated into Gamma Upsilon, while new fall pledges are Cleo Hill, Pat Burns, Barto Pignatelli, and Paul Lindsay. Carl Rudolph is the new pledge master. Hank Gest has transferred from Gamma Xi and is a welcome addition to the Shelter.

Dogpatch Party during rushing at Georgia Tech utilized chapter talent, helped pay off in pledging of 42 men.

Delts, dates, and rushees joined in the fun of a fast-paced and friendly rush week at the Shelter.

SOCIAL SEASON SET

The chapter is looking forward to a big social season under the new social chairmen, Gordon Edwards and Gerry Lasco. Dad's Day should be a big event this year, and all of the brothers are looking forward to welcoming the alums back when homecoming comes around this fall.

DAVE WILLIAMS

Gamma Chi—Kansas State

INTRAMURAL DIVISION CHAMPION

Gamma Chi was assured of at least fourth place in intramural football when it won every game in its division this fall. The victories moved it into semifinal play against the three other division champions to determine the intramural football champion.

PREDEDICATION PARTY OPENS SOCIAL SEASON

A prededication party in the Shelter a week before the formal dedication ceremonies got the social season off to a big start. Social activities included the pledge "Paddle" party, which had a "Hobo" theme, a pre-Homecoming party, "Dad's Day," and many house parties and hour dances. Plans are under way for the winter formal.

GENTRY SPARKS WILDCATS

In varsity football, Delt Price Gentry, a senior guard, has helped spark the Kansas State Wildcats to their best football season since 1942. Gentry has lettered in two previous seasons.

LEE RUGGELS

Gamma Psi—Georgia Tech

MANY FACTORS AID RUSH

One of the most fruitful rush seasons ever experienced by the Fraternity enabled Gamma Psi to begin the 1953 school year with an extremely optimistic outlook. Under the excellent supervision of our rush chairman, Bill Britton, our fall rushing program netted the chapter 42 outstanding pledges. This number, along with our two holdover pledges, gives us 44 prospective brothers, who will go a long way toward replacing the 21 seniors lost last spring.

Aside from Brother Britton's efforts, we attribute our success to several factors. Our combo, under the direction of Shelby Barré, provided excellent entertainment at our parties and did much to enliven the smokers. Refreshments at the parties and meals for the rushees were ably planned by our housemother, Mrs. Wilson, who, as usual, did far more than her share of the work. Finally, but most important, the entire chapter did its utmost to make this the most successful rush season that we have ever experienced, which it was.

HOMER ELECTED AS FOOTBALL CAPTAIN

With the election of Hal Homer as football captain, we feel that our fall athletic program has gotten off to a good start. Hal, with the help of Pete Smith and Roger Shoemaker, to mention two of our more outstanding gridmen, should have little difficulty in building a winning team out of the material available to him this year.

Oklahoma Cheer Leader TOM DENNER brings school spirit to a boil during a Delt-sponsored football rally.

CENTER ATTENTION ON PROPOSED SHELTER EXPANSION

With the conclusion of rushing, all attention around the chapter is now centered on the proposed expansion of the Shelter. Construction, which was expected to begin in September, but which was postponed, is now expected to commence sometime in December. The addition, which is, as all of us can testify, badly needed, will more than double our housing facilities.

JOE HEARD

Delta Alpha—Oklahoma

SHELTER'S REDECORATION COMPLETED

The Shelter here at Oklahoma has a new look this year. The redecoration has finally been completed and we all feel it is the best looking house on the campus. The newest changes include a new patio and complete new furniture for the first floor.

With the completion of the new wing, the social activities around the house have been on the upswing. The high light of the year so far has been the dance after the Notre Dame game. It was the first party in the house since completion, and all the Delts and their dates had a wonderful time dancing on the new patio. Everyone had a great time at the annual Dallas party which was held with the Texas chapter after the Texas game. Future plans include a homecoming dance after the Colorado game and a big time during Dad's week end.

BOTH GRID TEAMS ARE UNDEFEATED

Sports are always a major part of Delta Alpha's fall program. At the time of this writing, both the A and B football teams are undefeated and going strong. The Delt bowling team is also making a fine record in its first year of play.

NEW CHAPTER ADVISER APPOINTED

Five new members were initiated Sunday, October 18. The new brothers are David Erwin, Olin Grooms, John Forsythe, Jack Luman, and Bill Elliott. The initiation was held with the help of our new chapter adviser, Bunn Hale, who was president of the chapter in 1939.

MORE THAN 2000 ATTEND DELT PEP RALLY

The Delts here at Norman showed their school spirit this fall by organizing a giant pep rally before the Notre Dame game. The rally had its start when A. T. Stair built a huge bonfire behind the house to attract other students. Before the rally was over there were more than 2000 students participating in what was described as the greatest show of school spirit ever seen on the Oklahoma campus.

TRAVIS W. BROWN

Delta Beta—Carnegie Tech

SHELTER DONS NEW LOOK

Before school reopened this fall, the members of Delta Beta launched an ambitious program of refurbishing the Shelter. Chip Detweiler, a junior architectural student, redesigned the cellar, and the whole chapter co-operated to finish the project in four days. The cellar now has a tasteful modern appearance, with black wood and natural sandstone walls, white ceiling and a copper floor. Several of the brothers caught the spirit and re-decorated their own rooms, with the net result that the whole interior of the Shelter has changed its appearance for the better.

In our newly redecorated Shelter, we climaxed a very successful rush week with the pledging of 18 good men.

DELTS ACTIVE IN VARSITY SPORTS

Delts were also active in varsity sports and other school activities this fall. Clark Garrecht, our chapter president, represents us in tennis, is secretary of the senior class, and is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, the senior honorary society. George Bangs has a berth on the varsity wrestling squad, has been elected president of the sophomore class, is a reporter for the Carnegie Tech Scot and Tartan, and a member of the sophomore honorary, Scimitar. Other class offices are now also held by Delts, including Earle Bisbey, who is vice-president of the sophomore class in the College of Engineering and Science; Fran Wickham, who is vice-president of the sophomores in the College of Fine Arts; Al Anderson and Lowell Steinbrenner, who are treasurers for the sophomore and junior classes, respectively, and Wayne Campagni, who is manager of intramural athletics.

CHAPTER ELECTIONS HELD

Our chapter elections have resulted in a new chapter president, Clark Garrecht, and vice-president, George Billy.

RICHARD M. PORT

Delta Delta—Tennessee

MANY SPENT SUMMER WORKING ON RUSH AND THE SHELTER

The men of Delta Delta Chapter spent the summer in various and sundry ways. Several of us worked, several of us loafed, and several of us went to school. The ones of us who remained in school made a creditable showing on the campus.

Those of us who spent the summer in Knoxville, either working or going to school, spent the summer in rushing and in working on the Shelter. Our rushing paid off with 12 good pledges and our work paid off with a much improved chapter house. All the study rooms received a coat of paint. The color variations range from dark green with gray trim to sky blue with pink trim. The whole house got a complete cleaning during the work week which immediately preceded rush week. We also got new mattresses in the dormitory and new cushions for the basement seats.

Our rush week culminated in our pledging 21 fine men. The new pledge class officers are: president, John Bidwell; vice-president, Bill Hoskins; secretary, Bill Lawson; treasurer, Joe Pruka; and sergeant at arms, Jim Hawkins. We are expecting great things from this new pledge class.

TWO RETURN FROM ARMED FORCES

Two of our brothers have returned from service and are active in the chapter again this fall. They are Norman Tate, returned from the Navy, and Phil Packard, returned from the Army. Brother Joe Yancy and family are also back in Knoxville with Joe attending the U. T. Law College.

ATTENTION ALL ALUMNI WHO SENT IN RECOMMENDATIONS

We would like to thank all those alumni who sent us recommendations. We assure you that each of them was acted on, and in most cases the man was pledged. If you do not receive a personal letter thanking you, don't be offended. We've just been so busy since school opened that the correspondence has not settled down to routine yet. We do thank each of you sincerely, and we hope that you keep recommending those topflight boys.

DON HUMMEL

Delta Epsilon—Kentucky

PLANTATION PARTY OPENS RUSH PROGRAM

Delta Epsilon's rush program for this semester was inaugurated in early August with a plantation party held at the Shelter. The dance, while serving to introduce over 100 boys to Delta Tau Delta, also provided the opportunity for the members of Delta Epsilon to formulate the ambitious plans which were to lead to a successful formal rush program.

A completely redecorated Shelter provided the scene for three days of smokers and three formal invitational rush parties which acquainted many fine young men with the traditions and objectives of Delta Tau Delta. Fifteen men were selected to form Delta Epsilon's fall pledge class, and, under the able leadership of Pledge Masters Bill Douglass and Angel Levas, only the best is expected from this group. Congratulations are in order for the officers of the pledge class: Bill Ballantine, president; Jim Mobblerly, vice-president; John Levas, secretary, and Charles Petras, treasurer.

SOCIAL SEASON UNDER WAY

Although the semester is still young, many Delt social functions have dotted the calendar for the entertainment of members and their friends. Notable among these was a party at the Shelter to which the Tri Delts were invited, a hay ride to Brother Jim Shropshire's farm, and an outing at Brother Carlisle (Windy) Meyers' cabin.

CHAPTER PRODUCES STAGE SHOW

As Lances Carnival and Dance is always the first big campus social function of each school year, the chapter is at present busily engaged in producing a stage show to enter in the competition between the fraternities and sororities on campus.

Formal rushing has ended, but nearly every evening the chapter, through the informal rushing program, has the opportunity of meeting and entertaining young men who may soon be invited to join the present pledge class in their preparation for becoming Delts.

GARY NEWTON

Delta Zeta—Florida

HOPE TO SET GREAT INTRAMURAL SPORTS RECORD

Delta Zeta ended last season's intramural sports in fifth place out of 13 fraternities in our division, and we expect an even greater record this year, with the following men back to carry on the outstanding performances of last year. They are: Norm Carlson, Ray Daniel, Harry Ensey, Owen Fleming, Jack Geckler, Roy Huntsman, Don and Jack Knowles, Walt Robinton, Johnny Sheppard, Don Taylor, and Marshall Tison.

"MAKE IT THREE IN '53"

Our water basketball team did it again last year, winning the championship crown for the second straight year with a record-breaking 63-1 score. Four of the six starters of last year's team are back and we'll be aiming at the crown again with a "make it three in '53." We also won, for the second year straight, the Sportsmanship Trophy.

TWO-YEAR LETTERMAN STARTS THIRD YEAR

Johnny Tringas, a two-year letterman in basketball on the Gator team, will be making it his third year this season. Only 5' 7" tall, he is a great aggressive spot player, and manages to hold his own with the biggest, as well as the best, of them.

DELT ELECTED VICE-PRESIDENT OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Delta Zeta was well represented in last year's spring elections. Brother Bill Benson, past president of the University of Florida Debate Society and past editor of our campus magazine, the Orange Peel, was elected vice-president of the University's student government in the campus-wide elections last spring. Since the tradition has almost always been that the top offices in our student government be held by independents, this is the highest student office to be filled by a fraternity man. Brother Homer Spense, who has served in numerous campus political offices, and who was this last summer semester the secretary of finance in the president's cabinet, was elected business manager of the 1954 Seminole, the U. of F. yearbook, in the last spring elections.

ED B. HARRIS

Delta Eta—Alabama

EVERYONE HELPED ON RUSH WEEK

Delta Eta started the year with a good rush week. Everyone pitched in and worked like mad all during the period of smile and welcome. Suddenly we were going to classes and there were 32 new faces around us. Rush Chairman Ed Welch of Montgomery, Alabama, is certainly deserving of praise for the excellent job he performed. Some fine bid team work was done also. It goes without saying that the new pledges were skimmed from the top. All 32 of the boys are really first rate.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL SCENE LOOKS GOOD

The weeks move along and now we are in the midst of intramural football. Brother Welch relinquished his job as rush chairman and is now sports chairman, and doing another fine job. To date Delta Eta has won one and lost one and expects to win many more. We have a good squad with three former all-state players: John Joyner, Tuscaloosa; Buddy Dennis, Montgomery; and Joe Bailey, Montgomery. Let us also point with pride to Willy Weeks, who made all-campus in sports last year and promises to better his performance this year.

MANY FOOTBALL PARTIES PLANNED

The rush parties are getting bigger and better all the time. Large-sized blowouts are planned for the school football games in Birmingham this fall, and a particularly great time is expected at homecoming.

KARNEA-GOERS will tell you that this is one very good reason why we are having the Karnea in California. Here KEN KENDALL, Delt president at U.C.L.A., proves himself a good administrator as he surrounds himself with candidates for Delta Queen honors. Catch the winner on the next page.

Last spring's Rainbow Ball was a marked success. It was held at the local Army Reserve Officers' Club.

RETURNING ACTIVES HAPPY TO FIND REMODELED SHELTER

Some remodeling was done on the Shelter last summer. Returning actives were happy to see the new baths and paint job that the house had received. New desks, study chairs, easy chairs, and doors were also added.

JAMES S. GOULD

Delta Theta—Toronto

CHAPTER PLAYS HOST TO DIVISION CONFERENCE

The summer activities of Delta Theta were wound up by the active members by putting in a work week to fix up the house. This was made possible by the large surplus we ended up with last year. The purpose of this mending and decorating was to make the house more livable, of course, but also with an eye open to the Division Conference. This big event is coming up on December 4 and 5 of this year and we, who are the hosts, are looking forward to entertaining the rest of our Division.

FIELD SECRETARY VISITS

Jim Morison, field secretary, has just left us for other parts. Jim talked with most of the fellows and gave us some very good and helpful advice.

DONALD M. RAWLEY

Delta Iota—U.C.L.A.

DELTS CLAIM ONE HALF OF UCLANS' TERROR TWINS

One of the luminaries of the local grid scene is Delt Jack Ellena. He is having such a great year at tackle that he has become one of the most feared linemen on the Coast. Jack teams with another U.C.L.A. lineman, Chuck Dodd, to make up what is known as the "Terror Twins."

Delts Bob Dutcher and Roger White are seeing service at guard and end respectively. Jack Roznos is ineligible this year but may be counted on for next season.

First string on the Bruin frosh is Moose Underhill, 21, who plays a lot of ball at tackle.

Bill Zerkie is proving to be the backbone of the local water polo squad. In the first game with U.S.C., he scored eight of U.C.L.A.'s ten points. Bill George and Norm Von Herzen are also first-string; along with Ron Cheadle, they help give the Deltas a long-standing monopoly in water polo.

A member of the cross country contingent is Bob Hunt. Bob is showing the spark that he did last spring in track.

Intramural volleyball expectations could hardly look better. Many men from last year's National Championship team are returning. Three All-Americans will be among them.

MEET WITH L.A. ALUMNI

During rushing, a dinner was held with S.C. Deltas and the alumni of the Los Angeles area. Several hundred Deltas enjoyed a beef dinner, heard prospects of the coming football season, and saw movies of the previous season. Coach Jimmy Phelan was guest speaker. It is hoped that this will become an annual event.

Those who made the Stanford weekend trip enjoyed the hospitality of the Stanford Deltas and the party which followed the U.C.L.A.-Stanford contest.

Fred Dutton is serving as president of Phi Phi, University men's honorary. He is expanding the organization and giving it a full schedule of social events. Lew Leeberg is doing an outstanding job as A.S.U.C.L.A. president.

Thirteen new men were pledged during the fall rush season. This brought the house membership to 65. One of the new men, Evy Scotvold, formerly skated for the Ice Follies.

JERRY HARRINGTON

Delta Kappa—Duke

DEODORANT DISPLAY WINS PRIZE

Our activities began modestly enough this fall with open houses and intermittent stag parties. The year didn't get into full gear, however, until the Purdue

Homecoming Week End, when we were awarded first prize for our display.

It took us a full week to build the display which caught the eyes of the judges. Our display had a Blue Devil leaning on the side of a "Stop-umm" deodorant sprayer; as the devil applied pressure, a husky but helpless Purdue Boilermaker was sent spinning into the air.

Signs explained that the deodorant "Stops Offensive Odors" and gives "Protection in Eleven Vital Spots." Dick Manuel, who has, incidentally, directed two prize-winning projects, served as chairman. A celebration followed the announcement that we had captured first prize in the contest, which was the initial interfraternity rivalry of the year.

On the week end following homecoming, many brothers traveled to New York City to watch the Duke-Army football game at the Polo Grounds. Roger Turner, a member of Duke's cheerleading squad, gave a Delt party at his home in New York.

RUSHING DEFERRED

Because freshman grades last year were considerably lower than average, second semester rushing returned to the men's campus. We focused our rushing activities, therefore, on upperclassmen.

PAUL TUERFF

Delta Lambda—Oregon State

SPORTS

With a high percentage of participation Delta Lambda is again one of the top contenders in the college's intramural program. The football team, backed by a cheering section of most of the nonplaying members, is still unscored upon and at this writing is leading the league in wins. We will again field the maximum three teams in volleyball and with the general house spirit we will be a threat in the whole intramural program.

Two pledges are likely prospects for the varsity golf team and will fill the vacancies left by the number one and two men on last year's team, both of whom were Deltas. Two more pledges show great promise on the freshman football team.

Bruce Bedynek is seeing most of the Pacific Coast this fall with the traveling squad of the football team.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

The social season for Delta Lambda is well under way. The annual Pledge Dance, held at the Corvallis Country Club, was a complete success. Decorations consisted of Marv Smith's cartoons depicting the traits of the pledges and were topped with photographs of their faces. With all the football games, exchanges, and all-school week ends this term, there is hardly time for a coke date; but still we seem to do all right.

A NEW JOB FOR FRED

Fred "Casper" Zwahlen, past chapter president and an instructor in journalism at the College, was recently appointed faculty adviser by the members of the chapter. Fred, who is somewhat of a Sunday fixture in the overstuffed chairs around the Shelter, was one of the key men in the planning of last spring's Western Division Conference. The members of Delta Lambda are proud to have Fred in his new post and we know that he will be a valuable assistant to the present chapter adviser, Matt Mathes.

JERRY THOMAS

Delta Nu—Lawrence

RANK SECOND SCHOLASTICALLY

This year's 16 pledges were the "pick of the crop," and their formal on October 17 was a great success. Clyde Arft was chosen pledge class president. Jack Tichenor is vice-president and Ron Manthey secretary-treasurer.

For the year 1952-53 the chapter was second in scholarship on the campus. This achievement has been followed by success in interfraternity competition in tennis and football this fall.

FOUR WAGE GRID WARS

Football honors for this fall go to Seniors Kent Hanson, Ed Grosse, and George Oetting and Dick Gast, a junior. Jim Kapitzke is varsity manager.

Delta Nu's representation on the track team is handled by Phil Webber.

JOHN MURDOCH

Delta Xi—North Dakota

SUCCESSFUL RUSH SEASON

Delta Xi has had a successful rush season this fall with a total of 16 new pledges.

The big Delt dragon entered in UND's homecoming parade was the topic of much conversation around campus and about town. The thirty-foot-long dragon was one of the most unusual "floats" in the parade, as it "crawled" along with the assistance of ten Delts (and twenty legs).

With Dad's Day coming up on October 24, the Delts have now turned their attention to a house decoration.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES VARIED

Rudy Slupski has been working out with UND's football team to get himself in shape for the coming hockey season. Rudy earned his freshman numerals in the past hockey season. Glenn Muir and Dennis Holweger are running laps to condition themselves for their first attempt as college cindermen.

Boris Klem is faithfully practicing his gymnastics for UND's gymnastic team. Boris earned his freshman numerals on last year's team. Dennis Holweger was cast in a supporting role in the Dakota Playmakers' coming production, "Good-bye My Fancy." Jack Haugen will be helping with the construction of scenery for the same production.

Mike Mulder (6' 5") is patiently waiting for his first chance at college basketball. Mike played center for Minneapolis Washburn High School. Bruce Listoe is going through initiation before entrance into Sigma Gamma Epsilon, professional fraternity devoted to the earth sciences.

DELTA PHI DELTA PRESIDENT

Zdenek Dvorak has been made president of Delta Phi Delta, professional art fraternity at UND. Zdenek (better known as "Danny") is majoring in commercial art and is rated as "excellent" in the field of art by his brother Delts. Danny has many of his beautiful paintings adorning the Shelter walls. Whenever there is any art work to be done on a float or house decoration, the job is usually turned over to him. We Delts are might proud of Danny's jobs.

STANLEY M. CHASNEY

Delta Omicron—Westminster

FIRST OPEN HOUSE IS HELD

Sunday, October 11, was the date of a successful open house held in honor of our new housemother, Mrs. Mary Neideringhouse, and the incoming pledge class. Other popular social events of this fall were an outdoor mutton barbecue, a French party, and the annual pledge formal.

DELTS RANK AMONG TOP IN SPORTS

In the intramural race the Delts have taken an early lead. We have won the softball plaque with an undefeated record and have taken second in tennis.

The Shelter is also well represented in varsity sports this year with men returning to all varsity teams. We also have the captaincies of three varsity sports with Bob Stufflebam captain of the basketball team, John Gunn captain of tennis, and Bob Strano captain of baseball.

Jerry E. Berger was elected house president this fall when Dick Smith was forced to leave school because of illness at home. Berger is a newly elected member of Omicron Delta Kappa and Student Council, along with Bob Stufflebam. Sheldon Crossette has been elected editor of The Blue Jay, our school yearbook, president of the International Relations Club, to the Skulls of Seven, senior men's honor society, and to Phi Alpha Theta, national history fraternity.

SIXTEEN IN NEW PLEDGE CLASS

Delta Omicron was fortunate this year in obtaining an extra fine pledge class of 16 members. Much of our success during rush week goes to the brothers who gathered before rush week to give the house a complete reconditioning.

JIM WHITNEY

Delta Sigma—Maryland

TAKE OVER NEW SHELTER

By the time this article appears, the confusion should have subsided and Delta Sigma Chapter should be settled down in its new house. The Shelter, a $90,000 Georgian-style colonial, will house from 34 to 40 men. This is the most important event since Delta Sigma was installed at Maryland in 1948 and marks a milestone in its rapid progress.

NEW HOUSEMOTHER WELCOMED

A new addition this year is our housemother, Mrs. Holstead, who hails from Lexington Park, Maryland. She was formerly housemother at St. Mary's Seminary, where she was in charge of 50 girls. One of her first remarks was: "My girls want to be sure to meet all of you boys." Hmmmm. Should prove very interesting!

CAUSEY NAMED OUTSTANDING PLEDGE

After a hectic week of rushing, which was topped off by an outdoor barbecue, we gained 14 new pledges.

Congratulations are in order for our new initiates, who took their vows on

October 7. The initiation was followed by a banquet at which Ross Causey was awarded the cup for the Outstanding Pledge.

PLAN PARTY FOR UNDERPRIVILEGED

Plans are under way for what we hope will be an annual Christmas party for underprivileged children. These children will come from needy families in the Washington area and will be treated to a visit from Santa Claus.

JOHN TORBERT

Delta Tau—Bowling Green

FALL SEMESTER FINDS DELTS IN TOP CAMPUS POSITIONS

The beginning of the fall semester at Bowling Green finds members of Delta Tau Chapter gaining new honors. Brother Sam Martin was recently appointed Justice of the Student Court, one of the top student positions at this University. Sports editor for the college newspaper, the B-G News, is Hal Van Tassel, while Dick Jones was re-elected vice-president of the Boosters Club.

TAYLOR RECEIVES AWARD AS GRADUATE ASSISTANT

A graduate assistantship was awarded to Brother Jack Taylor by the College of Education at Bowling Green University. Brother Taylor is teaching elementary education at the University. The campus movie which is shown every week end is managed by Jack Huffman. He is assisted by Brothers Ron Bracewell and Joe Acierno. During the summer, Joe Zingale had his own nightly disc jockey show over Station WFOB in Fostoria, Ohio.

BILL MELVIN REIGNS AS KING PUFF

At the annual Powder Bowl football game between Alpha Xi Delta and Delta Gamma Sororities, Bill Melvin was elected to reign as King Puff by members of the two groups. This marked the third time in four years that a brother from Delta Tau Chapter has received this honor. To add to the Delta Tau domination, Brothers Jack Gee and Dick Thomas coached the victorious Delta Gamma team.

ALUMNI RETURN FOR HOMECOMING

Homecoming highlighted the fall activities of our chapter. A large number of alumni and their families returned to the Shelter for the occasion. Following the football game, a luncheon was served at the Shelter and that night, nearly 200 members and families enjoyed the great homecoming party at the American Legion Hall in Perrysburg.

FIRST ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS PRESENTED

The Findlay, Ohio, alumni association presented its first annual scholarship awards to Delta Tau Chapter. The award to the active member attaining the highest scholastic average for the past year was given to Chuck Green. Joe Acierno was presented the award for showing the greatest improvement in scholarship over the same period. The key award for the member holding the highest average during pledgship was presented to Dick Jewett.

LOOK FOR BIG INTRAMURAL SEASON

Recent visitors to the Shelter were Kijoshi Takashima and Takeo Yasui, Japanese educators who are touring American universities. They were entertained at a formal dinner prepared by our fine cook, Mrs. Barr.

Our new chapter vice-president is Jack Huffman, who was recently elected to fill the post vacated by Brother Ray Fernandez.

Although the intramural sports program is just starting, prospects for Delta Tau Chapter look very promising, especially in golf and football.

NEW SHELTER GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT

The greatest achievement of this chapter was the purchase of a new chapter house. The first week of school found all the brothers eagerly painting and scrubbing our new Shelter. We are very fortunate to have a house situated in the middle of the campus, thus making the Deltas the most enviable fraternity on campus.

FOUNDERS DAY BANQUET HELD

A Founders Day Banquet was held on October 24, celebrating our fifth anniversary as a member of the Fraternity. It was a tremendous success with most of the charter members and alumni attending. After the dinner everyone adjoined to the new Shelter for a tour and the long-awaited bull sessions about old times.

SCHOLARSHIP EXCEEDS ALL MEN'S AVERAGE

Scholastically, the house average was above the All Men's Average. Delta Upsilon placed fourth out of nine fraternities on the campus. By continued diligence, we intend to raise this mark even higher this fall.

DELTS ON CAMPUS

Delta Upsilon is well represented on the college newspaper, The Review. The editor of The Review is Glenn Dill; promotion manager is Bob Wilson; feature writers are Art Hodges, Spen Hedger, and Lee Rice. Two men of Delta Upsilon, Spen Hedger and Bill Brown, contributed to the success of "Dark of the Moon" with their acting and vocalizing. The junior musical has Buster Beh as production manager and Spen Hedger as stage manager. Bill Brown, Spen Hedger, and Tom Mulrooney, three of our more pugnacious brothers, head the debating team.

TWENTY-EIGHT MEN ADDED

When the smoke cleared after a hectic week of rushing, Delta Phi found itself with 28 of the finest men on campus for its pledges. Special recognition goes to Brothers Haywood Taylor and Delwood McDonald for their untiring work as rush committee cochairmen.

ANNUAL RAINBOW BALL HELD

We are looking forward to a fine year both academically and socially. Scholarship Chairman Ray Johnson reports that attendance at study hall has been 100 per cent, and since all pledges are required to attend, the attendance is expected to remain high. Social Chairman Freddie Griffen also reports that he has many social events planned for this semester. Coming up first on the social calendar is the annual Rainbow Ball, held October 24. This is the biggest event of the year for Delta Phi.

DOMINATE VOLLEYBALL TEAM

Although we have no representatives on the football team this fall, we are well represented on the University's nationally famous volleyball team. Three of the starting six are Deltas. They are Phil

SESQUICENTENNIAL TRAIN OF PROGRESS, built by Delta Omega Chapter at Kent State, won the state award in Ohio for the best float depicting the progress of Ohio in the last 150 years. It was self-propelled and 130 feet long. Real smoke poured out its stack. Just in case of rain, the entire float was sprayed with clear lacquer.

THE DELT ALUMNI CHAPTERS

Boston

The chapter was recently saddened by the passing of Henry Merrill to the Chapter Eternal. Henry, a nationally known realtor and prominent Boston businessman, was past president of the Boston Alumni Chapter, former Eastern Division vice-president, member of the Distinguished Service Chapter, former president of Gamma Gamma house corporation, and member of the 1919 Boston Karnea Committee. He had been always active in Boston Alumni Chapter activities and his untimely accidental death creates a void in our stable of Delt wheelhorses.

Recent new members to our weekly luncheons include Lymie Richardson and Paul Herrick. We extend a hearty welcome to all Deltas in the Boston area to attend our Thursday luncheons which are held at Patten Restaurant on Court Street at 12:15.

Preliminary plans have been started for a newsletter to be issued in the near future. If you are in and around Boston, drop us a line; let us know where you are and what you are doing.

Plans will be started shortly for a Founders Day Dinner to be held in Boston. Details will be sent to all members as soon as they have been determined. We hope to see all there, especially if you can't make the weekly luncheons.

RUDY HELGESON

Cincinnati

The Cincinnati Alumni Chapter completed a summer full of activity culminated by its annual Coney Island Party, attended by more than 100 Deltas and their wives or sweethearts. Through the courtesy of Brother Ed Schott, president of the Coney Island Company, the group enjoyed an aerial show, fire works, rides, and dancing to Tony Pastor's Orchestra. Dick Krug proved a skillful chairman, too, and saw to it that the evening was an eventful one.

Baseball, picnic lunch, barn dancing, and singing the old Delt songs were some of the high points of the picnic held at Mound View Park in July. Jack Todd and Cliff Glazier made sure that hay, horseshoes, or hair-raising stories were available to delight the group. The activities of Gamma Xi Chapter were on hand also and suffered a defeat in a pitchers' battle on the ball diamond. Final score: 29-6. But the alumni were stiff after the game!

Weiners, refreshments, and cards, interrupted only by an occasional dip in the pool, were the order of the day at a June party held at Brother Dick Farrell's home on Signal Hill. With Chefs Tom

This fall the alumni chapter is participating in the rushing events of Gamma Xi Chapter. A fall party is also planned; so watch for its announcement. And by all means, be on hand at the annual Christmas Party at the Cincinnati Club!

RICHARD REIMAN

Findlay

The Findlay Alumni Chapter had a busy fall, starting with its annual meeting and election of officers in August.

A highly successful rushing party followed soon after, and a Delt golf party highlighted the fall program.

Named officers at the annual meeting were Don Gassman, Kenyon, '26, president; Walter Weber, Miami, '33, vice-president; and Edwin Heminger, Ohio Wesleyan, '48, secretary-treasurer.

The rushing party included an informal talk by Congressman Jackson E. Betts, Kenyon, '26. Also on the program was Louis Love, Lehigh, '09, who gave an inspiring message to the rushees and Deltas alike.

The golf party was organized under the chairmanship of Dr. Richard Shoupe, Michigan, '35. Eighteen holes of golf and dinner at the Findlay Country Club marked a full, enjoyable day for those who participated.

One of the proud achievements of the Findlay Deltas is the establishment of scholarship awards for nearby Delta Tau Chapter at Bowling Green State University. The awards were made for the first time this fall, based upon scholastic achievement last year.

ED HEMINGER

Houston

Thirty Deltas attended the annual meeting of the Houston alumni group at the Pine Forest Country Club. Brig. Gen. Bob Ives (Columbia) was elected president of the group to succeed Jim Hunter (Colorado). Other officers elected were Claxton Parks (Texas), vice-president; John Fry (Texas), secretary for his second term; and Silas Ragsdale, Sr. (Texas), reported for THE RAINBOW.

Claxton Parks reminisced about the old days in Houston and Silas Ragsdale, Sr., "looked into the future" of Delta Tau Delta both from a national and state viewpoint. He thought Texas should have more than one chapter of the Fraternity and urged Deltas to assist whenever called upon to set up new groups.

Gamma Iota's forthcoming 50th anniversary observance was mentioned and opinion was expressed that "there is only one place for the celebration party and that is Austin."

Since our last report, regular meetings have been held with programs as follows:

June, a talk by Jim Douglas, Jr. (Texas), on "The Electronic Computer, a Boon to Mathematics." Jim, a skilled engineer graduate, with Humble Oil & Refining Company, made a difficult topic sound most interesting.

July, a talk by Otto Wymer (Colorado) on "Of the People, By the People, and For the People." Ott is vice-president of a big bond brokerage house here and he gave his listeners a quick look-see into municipal and other such securities, his specialty.

August's meeting took the form of a boat ride on the Houston Ship Channel with a delicious barbecue dinner served while sailing along. The ladies attended this one and we racked up a boat's capacity of 40 passengers.

In September we heard Harley Eaker (Oklahoma), assistant director of industrial relations of Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, talk on "Gas Goes to Market," in which he recounted the steps required to pipe natural gas from the Southwest to the highly populated centers in the North and East.

SILAS B. RAGSDALE, SR.

Indianapolis

Fall activities were resumed with the annual Fall Golf Tournament on October 9 at the Hillcrest County Club, followed by a pitch-in dinner with the Delta Queens at the Fred C. Tucker, Sr., home. As usual, the Tuckers were perfect hosts, the food was wonderful, the singing slightly off key, all the golfers were awarded prizes, and Bud Sellick wore out the keys of the piano.

On this occasion the nominating committee's slate of officers for the coming year was railroaded through without dissenting vote. The new officers for the ensuing year are: Alvin Fernandes, Indiana, '39, president; Lloyd G. Rossebo, Indiana, '39, and Purdue, '44, vice-president; Winston "Bud" Sellick, Butler, '44, treasurer; and Paul E. Bowen, Ohio, '26, secretary. A rousing vote of appreciation was given the outgoing officers for the fine job done during the past year.

Scheduled events for the coming year have been announced as the evening Stag Party November 20, annual Christmas Party and dinner (with the Delta Queens) December 18, 1953, and the annual Founders Day Banquet and Dance at the Indianapolis Athletic Club February 20, 1954.

All wandering Delts are cordially invited to these scheduled events and particularly to the weekly luncheons at the Warren Hotel each Tuesday at 12:15 p.m.

Kansas City

August business was rushing . . . highlighted again by our annual (3rd) Buffet at Hugh Hartley's home. With Martin Dickinson on board, we have at least one rushing activity for local chapters. More than 60 actives and their rushee guests joined us for backyard barbecue and rush talk. The grapevine reports that the boys pinned the best pledge class since we were in school.

Absent from Thursday luncheon at the University Club . . . faithful Delt Charles Carr, who is finishing a rugged bout with a fractured pelvis, victim of a 16-year-old speeder. Carr's reputation as a lawyer (and author: Missouri Civil Procedure); and his recent distinguished visitor, Lawyer-author Erle Stanley Gardner (Perry Mason) . . . make him a formidable foe in court or conversation. Everybody around here is driving very carefully.

Also missing and missed . . . Bob Bonebrake, former alumni chapter secretary, who moved to Arkansas City to tackle a new ad job.

Bill French, Buck Neel, and Harold Goss are hard at work planning our Fall Buffet-Dance, scheduled for November 14 at the Ad Club. Every man who wears the Square Badge is welcome. See you at Thursday luncheon, if not before.

BOB SCHULTHEIS

Milwaukee

Delts from Milwaukee and Madison gathered together on August 29 for the traditional summer picnic on the shores of Lake Nagawicka. Perfect weather and water made the affair a huge success, combined with the culinary mastery over many dozen steaks exhibited by Bob Hefren and Ed Nye, Lawrence alums, and Russ Bach and Dave Halverson, Wisconsin alums. The wives and dates of those attending showed their appreciation by indulging freely in the eats.

Good news was received from Fred Seegert, Michigan and Wisconsin law alumnus, who announced his forthcoming discharge from the Army early in 1954.

Informal alumni luncheons continue to be well attended. Visiting Delts are cordially invited to join the group.

Plans are under way for the annual Christmas dinner party for Delts, their wives, and dates, to be held December 12. Another enthusiastic turnout is expected.

PHIL DRESSLER

Minnesota

Even though there have been no actual formal meetings, this summer has found the Minnesota Alumni Chapter quite busy.

One of the biggest projects undertaken has been the chapter house rehabilitation program. Through the efforts of the alumni chapter, new mattresses and springs have been procured and various improvements on individual rooms are in the making. Our thanks go to Fred Samels (BH, '23), Fred Souba (BH, '41), and John Madson (BH, '48) for the time and interest that they have put in on the project.

We would also like to thank Clarence Portmann (Z, '23), who has been the driving spark behind the re-establishment of the Delt alumni luncheons. Every Friday noon all Delt alums in this area are cordially invited to attend these luncheons which are held on the second floor of the Covered Wagon in Minneapolis. The response so far has been very good, but there are still many alumni we have not seen there as of yet.

Plans for future meetings are in the making and as a rule will be held on the third Monday of each month. This will be the second year of operations for the newly activated alumni organization. The response received last year was quite encouraging and much was accomplished. To help make this year an even greater success, our most important campaign will be to encourage more alumni to participate in our activities.

TOM ALLEN

National Capital

The Delts in and around Washington, D. C., are making plans for a big year. Luncheons got off to a good start with 21 in attendance when Andrew C. Wilkins, George Washington, '16, holder of the lucky numbered post card announcing the luncheon, won two box seats to the opening football game between Maryland and Washington & Lee.

Our immediate project has been the raising of sufficient funds to furnish the new $100,000 Delt Shelter which has been made available to the Delta Sigma Chapter at the University of Maryland by Dr. H. C. "Curly" Byrd, President of that institution. All Delts are being solicited for contributions to this model fraternity house which will become the focal point of increased Delt activities in the area of the Nation's Capital. All contributions will be appropriately acknowledged.

President Robert Van Sickler, Cincinnati, '29, entertained a large gathering of Delts in his home when the following chairmen of committees were announced: Karl W. Doering, Penn State, '34, memberships; C. Burr Christopher, George Washington, '28, directory; Robert T. Phillips, Kent, '50, publicity; Joseph B. Matre, Cincinnati, '12, luncheon programs; Dr. John A. Swartwout, George Washington, '32, nominating committee; George A. Degnan, George Washington, '17, Founders Day dinner committee; Dell Floyd, Washington, '09, Delta Sigma Chapter furniture fund; and Rhessa M. Norris, George Washington, '14, Frank Hemmick Memorial Foundation.

All Delts visiting the seat of Government are cordially invited to attend the weekly luncheons held every Wednesday, Bonat's Restaurant, 1022 Vermont Avenue, N. W., at 12:30 p.m.

ROBERT E. NEWBY

Oklahoma City

Since our last reporting, we have elected new officers for the Oklahoma City Alumni Chapter. They are: Harry McMillan, president; George Parker, vice-president; Dick Lunn, secretary; and Shelby Green, treasurer. Harry was later called to active duty, and Dick Barber was elected president to fill out the term. The retiring officers were: Wendell Cates, president; Dan Walding, vice-president; and Don Holt, secretary. "Skin-head" Green had made such good investments with the chapter funds that he was re-elected treasurer.

Things are really buzzing with activity in this corner of the Delt world. At present, final plans are being made for the Annual Alumni Dance being held this year at the Oklahoma City Golf and Country Club, with Delt Bonnie Spencer's orchestra playing. It is being held on Friday night before the O. U. Homecoming game with Colorado. From the reports streaming in, Delts from all over Oklahoma and nearby states will be here, plus members and pledges from the O.U. and A. & M. chapters, and perhaps a few from Colorado. All I can say is that if you missed this dance, you missed a good one. Don't miss the one next year.

We're trying something new in the way of meetings, and so far it's been very successful. We have a regular business meeting the first Tuesday of each month at Beverly's Drive In, 6:30 p.m. Harold Kirkpatrick furnishes a program of entertainment for us. On all other Tuesdays, we meet for luncheon at the YMCA, 12:00 noon. These aren't business meetings—just a chance to get together and visit with the brothers. If you're around on Tuesdays, drop in. We'll be glad to see you.

DON HOLT

Pittsburgh

Delt needs for exercise, spiritual uplift, and social fellowship have been well provided for in the fall-winter program of the Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter. A golf outing, a church service, and an evening at the theater highlight the local schedule.

On September 16, the largest turnout in the five-year history of Pittsburgh-Butler outings gathered at Butler Country Club for an afternoon of golf and 55 delicious chicken dinners. "Mac" Corner copped the sports honors with a hot score of 80 on the gently rolling 18-hole course.

With Vernon Wise once again heading the host delegation from Butler, Bob Schar capably chairmanned the affair from the Pittsburgh end.

Although the exact date has not been set, as of this writing, Delt alumni, their families, and friends are looking forward to the 19th Christmas Service for the Fraternity at Trinity Cathedral, early in December.

Dean High Moor will preside at the devotional program, just as he first did in 1935, not realizing then, no doubt, that a Delt tradition was aborning.

As in the past few years, the service will be followed by a singing contest among undergraduate Delts from the Tri-State District. Watch your mailbox for announcement of the exact date.

Looking ahead to January, a mixed social outing at the Pittsburgh Playhouse is planned for Delt alumni and their wives or dates.

The balcony of the new Playhouse will be reserved for the evening and restaurant privileges will be accorded the Delt party. Notice of the exact date and instructions for obtaining tickets will be sent out as soon as final arrangements have been made.

Don't forget: Tuesday Noon Luncheon every week, at Danny's Restaurant.

BILL RAINES

St. Petersburg

The St. Petersburg Alumni Chapter deeply mourns the death of its president, Judge Harry R. Hewitt, Wisconsin,

'02. The "Judge," as he was fondly known to all of us, was a grand character and a great Delt. He loved Delta Tau Delta. His friends were innumerable in all walks of life.

There was something in his friendship that was so sincere, wholesome, and comforting that it gave one a feeling of security to be able to call him one's friend. That friendship was a kind of resource, always to be relied upon in case of infinite need. To have his friendship was like having a large balance in the bank.

The first fall luncheon and meeting will be held November 4 at the Yacht Club, at which time an election of officers will be held.

ROBERT S. ARTHUR

Seattle

Seattle Delts are pointing toward December 5 this year for an unusual reunion of the alumni of this Pacific Northwest area. All members are being sought to participate in a new adventure in local Deltism, a chance to be different and spend a Saturday evening in having nothing to do but bask in the glory of good old Delta Tau fellowship.

It seems that Ed Stuchill, Ed Feek, and Mert Stevenson at the last golf picnic thought that such a party was in order and set the stage for this big undertaking. They promise something spectacular in entertainment and refreshments. The entire alumni group has decided to take them up on this grand idea.

This event will be at the famous "Olympic Bowl," at the equally famous Olympic Hotel. The committee has worked into the program the introduction of this year's pledge class of Gamma Mu Chapter at the University of Washington, and the awarding of beautiful certificates to five outstanding members of the alumni group. These awards represent many years of unselfish devotion to the Delt cause.

Homecoming. That nostalgic feeling is hitting at us again. A buffet dinner at the Delta Shelter and the mass viewing of the spectacular "Homecoming Signs" will be the high light along Greek Row. This is a tradition always remembered on the Washington campus by the fun-loving grads.

"Fancy Meeting You Again" is the play selected by the Mothers' Club this year, to be presented at the Penthouse Theater on the campus. This annual function is always enjoyed by the faithful who like spending an evening out.

Plans are under way to present an informal dance to give the younger alumni a chance to meet their elders in the organization. It is the desire to acquaint this group with the need of increasing the ranks of energetic members to carry out the many fine functions prepared to keep the spirit of our Fraternity burning brightly. Next spring is going to be our chance to emulate last year's Founders Day, for we all remember the stirring and dramatic welcoming of Brother Lane

Summers into the Distinguished Service Chapter.

SAMUEL G. MORRISON

Toledo

Biggest social event of the new school year in the Toledo area was the rushing party at "Grayhaven," country home of Brother Harry N. Hansen on September 2.

There were games on the spacious green lawns of the Hansen estate, followed by a firelight session around the grill. Alumni from eight different chapters were present to give a dozen prospective freshmen ready to depart to numerous schools some pointers on fraternity life, what to expect as "frosh," and some of the background of Delta Tau Delta.

Brother Herbert M. Sharp, Gamma Beta, '05, is mighty proud of his twin grandsons starting off at Ohio State University—Herbert P. and Walter F. Sharp. Their father, Hugh W. Sharp, was a member of the Class of 1929, Beta Phi Chapter.

Brother Hal Van Tassell of Delta Tau Chapter was a "spark plug" in helping the Toledo Delts round up guests for the rushing party.

Preliminary plans are being discussed for proper observance of the 100th birthday anniversary of Dr. William Clark Burns, retired Presbyterian minister, and member of Kappa Chapter, Hillsdale College, 1880. Dr. Burns will reach the century mark on February 10, 1954. We believe he may be the oldest Delt.

He was born in Scotland and has always carried the nickname "Bobbie." After his collegiate work at Hillsdale, he attended Auburn Theological Seminary. He has lived in Toledo about 30 years at 2373 Lawrence Avenue. His hobbies used to include riding, boating, and walking. And he has always been a bookstore browser.

Dr. Burns lives with his daughter, Mathilde Burns, and is in good health. He quite regularly attends church at Collingwood Presbyterian Church.

G. WILFRID HIBBERT

Topeka

Attendance at our monthly luncheon meetings at the Jayhawk Hotel has been increasing. We think this is due to the co-operation of some of our members who divide up the list of members and call them on the 'phone the day before the meeting. This method seems to get better results than a printed notice from the secretary.

We have good reports from the active chapters in this territory, and our alumni from Kansas State are especially proud this fall of the new chapter house at Manhattan, Kansas. At the dedication on October 3, most of our Kansas State members were present, including Floyd Strong, John Koger, Ferd Voiland, Don McEntire, Cliff Stratton, and Ed Skradski.

Our new officers are Clark Payne, president, and Robert Mize, vice-presi-

LOYALTY FUND LIFE MEMBERS

Since the establishment January 1, 1926, of Delta Tau Delta's Loyalty Fund, its endowment fund, 14,161 men have become Loyalty Fund Life Members. One hundred and thirty-seven have been added to this group from July 1, 1953, to October 20, 1953.

Of these, Louis Carlos Flohr, Washington, '27, initiated prior to January 1, 1926, has become a Loyalty Fund Life Member upon contribution of $50.00.

LINCOLN CHARTER GRANTED

A charter for an alumni chapter has been granted to Delts of Lincoln, Nebraska, the new chapter to be known as the Lincoln Alumni Chapter.

Although the Delts in Lincoln have been active in behalf of the Fraternity for many years (witness the new Shelter at Beta Tau Chapter), it was felt that the formal organization within the framework of the Fraternity would insure continued alumni activity and support of the undergraduate chapter.

B. RONALD CARR, Michigan State, '50, died in a prisoner of war camp near Pyongyang, North Korea, in August or September of 1951, according to word received by his parents last August. This was the first word from the War Department since he was reported missing in action on April 25, 1951.

Ronald is the son of KENNETH L. CARR, Iowa State, '21, treasurer of Iota Chapter's house corporation at Michigan State.

Lt. (j.g.) NEAL L. CRESWELL, DePauw, '50, was released from active duty with the Navy in mid-October. He served for two years on the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Leyte in Atlantic and Mediterranean waters. Mr. Creswell will make his home in Idaho, where he plans to enter the insurance field.

Second Lt. WARREN OBER, Missouri, '50, has completed his 100 missions and returned to the States. He has been awarded two Air Medals for "meritorious achievement in aerial combat."

Capt. JAMES BOPP, Northwestern, '44, recently arrived on Okinawa for duty as chief of anesthesiology with the Ryukus Service Command's Medical Activities. Captain Bopp, who was previously serving in Japan with the Osaka Army Hospital, entered the Army in May of this year and arrived overseas in July.

JON A. GANT, Beta, '52, and VERNON D. BEARD, Oregon, '52, have enrolled as members of the June, 1954, class of the American Institute for Foreign Trade at Thunderbird Field, Phoenix, Arizona. Specializing in South America, they are taking the school's intensive training course in preparation for a career in American business or government abroad.

Pfc. DONALD A. TAMBLING, California, '50, was recently awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for excellent performance of duty while serving with the 7th Infantry Division in Korea.

Slaton, Joel Carter, and Ray Johnson. We are expecting great things from our intramural sports teams. We started the football season off by trouncing the Sigma Chi team 12-6.

RICHARD PURVIS

Delta Chi—Oklahoma A. & M.

EIGHTEEN ARE INITIATED

The most important event of the young school year for Delta Chi was the initiation of eighteen men in October. Following the initiation a banquet was held in the Shelter honoring the new members. Additional honors will be conferred later in the year when a fall formal is held at the Country House. This dinner dance will honor the new initiates with their dates being presented miniature jewel boxes.

BOWLING TEAM PLACES THIRD

On the athletic side, the bowling team has managed to fight its way up to third place in the fraternity league standings. The touch football team has not fared so well, though. Handicapped by heavy graduation losses and lack of new material, it has been hard pressed throughout the season.

SEVERAL OUTSTANDING IN SCHOLARSHIP

A number of Delts have been outstanding scholastically this past year. Five Delts made the Dean's Honor Roll, with the chapter boasting two straight-A men, Leroy Folks and Jim Calvert. Leroy, in his fifth year in college, has maintained a straight A average throughout. Bill Vaughn was recently honored by his initiation into Blue Key and Pi Tau Sigma. Because of men like these, Delta Chi has risen another five notches in the scholastic standings on the A. & M. campus. With Leroy Folks directing the study program, we look forward to another good year scholastically.

PAT SCHLESINGER

Delta Psi—Santa Barbara

LOOK FORWARD TO MOVE

Delta Psi opened the fall semester at the University of California, Santa Barbara College, in the best financial condition in years. The rooms and table are filled to capacity.

The chapter is far ahead of the other Greek organizations in planning for the move next fall to the new campus at Goleta, seven miles north of our present site in Santa Barbara. Final drawings were completed in October for a one-story structure on a 20-acre site overlooking the Pacific Ocean.

The new Shelter will house from 50 to 60 men, have separate bath facilities for each bedroom, and a swimming pool and patio at a cost estimated at $105,000. The style will be Spanish-modern in order to complement the new University buildings on the 400-acre ex-Marine base.

CHAPTER PLEDGES EIGHT

The chapter pledged eight men at the end of formal rushing in October. We were also happy to welcome Bill Murphy of Pasadena, a transfer from Beta Omicron of Cornell.

MOVES UP SCHOLASTICALLY

Scholastically Delta Psi improved its standing from fourth to third among the eight national fraternities on campus.

INTRAMURAL GRID TEAM NAMED

At this writing the intramural football team has won its only game thus far in quest of six straight titles and permanent possession of two trophies. The six-man squad is made up of Active Members Bob Dullea, Jerry McIlvaine, Wynne Smallwood, and Jess Walker and Pledges Bill Blythe, Tom Macauley, and Walt Pierce. The bowling squad has won its only match to date.

REPRESENTED IN INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

In intercollegiate sports Delta Psi President Don Hastings is starting fullback on the football squad, while Bob Garretson, Ralph Yates, and Pledge Don Peterson will be seeing plenty of action as second stringers. Pledge Dick Goode is representing the Delts on the cross-country squad.

SOCIAL CALENDAR SCHEDULED

The social calendar has been completed for the entire year by Social Chairman Duane Mittan. The schedule features the annual French-Apache and Luau parties plus a Christmas dance and the Sweetheart.

Organization has been the key word in the Delta Psi vocabulary thus far, and there is every indication for a great year.

BOB MACGRUDER

Epsilon Alpha—Auburn

LAST—BUT FIRST SCHOLASTICALLY

Last on the campus, but not the least—that is those Auburn Delts. Again the Delts of Epsilon Alpha led the 20 social fraternities on the Auburn campus in scholarship. This was the second time in the three quarters since Epsilon Alpha has had its charter, that Delts have shown their heels to the others.

Realizing the necessity of a good beginning as well as a good ending, we began the '53-54 season with Epsilon Alpha's greatest rush program. Popular combos, movie-sports parades, and smokers highlighted our well organized rush program, which was a striking success.

Special events for Epsilon Alpha this fall include the chapter's football trips to Atlanta and Columbus and the Delta Eta-Epsilon Alpha "Shindig" in Birmingham November 28, after the Auburn vs. Alabama football game. Also on the fall schedule are the chapter's pledge activities, which include numerous pledge swaps with the sororities, the presentation of a float for the "Wreck Tech" Pajama Parade, and the annual Freshman Cake Race. The fall spotlight falls on the chapter's Iris Ball and the house party following it.

PRESIDENT SETS GOOD EXAMPLE

With the leadership of a president who merits membership in Omicron Delta Kappa, listing in the collegiate Who's Who, and a seat in the senior senate, Epsilon Alpha is certain to succeed. The wonder president is Paul S. Powers, an industrial engineer.

Beuford B. Bird, '24

HARRY R. HEWITT, Wisconsin, '02, member of the Distinguished Service Chapter and former member of the Arch Chapter, died on October 7 of a heart attack at his home in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Widely known and much beloved throughout Delta Tau Delta, Judge Hewitt held the distinction of having attended more Karneas than any other Delt. The 61st Karnea at Mackinac Island in 1952, which he attended, was his 16th.

Judge Hewitt's devotion to Delta Tau Delta had been constant and unswerving since undergraduate days. His entry into the national picture came in 1901, when he experienced his first Karnea at Milwaukee, Wisconsin. There he was inspired by Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, then President of the Fraternity—a relationship which, according to Judge Hewitt, influenced his decision to become an active worker within the Fraternity.

He was President of the Western Division from 1902 to 1906 and Ritualist from 1913 to 1923. He also served as chapter adviser of Beta Gamma Chapter for nearly a decade. As Ritualist, he personally participated in the installations of chapters at Oregon, Kansas, Kansas State, and Oklahoma. He was cited to the Distinguished Service Chapter in 1936.

Only last August, Judge Hewitt had written that he was eagerly looking forward to the 62nd Karnea in Pasadena, California, next June. He was president of the St. Petersburg Alumni Chapter at the time of his death.

Judge Hewitt came to St. Petersburg in 1925 to open law practice. He was elected judge of Pinellas County in 1928 and served until January, 1937, when he resumed private law practice. He retired in 1945. In addition to civic and church work, he was for many years Pinellas County Republican chairman.

PERCY C. ADAMS, Cornell, '93, member of the Distinguished Service Chapter, died September 8 in Washington, D. C. One of the oldest practicing architects in Washington, Mr. Adams had retired two years ago because of illness.

A former officer and life-long worker of the National Capital Alumni Chapter, Mr. Adams received his D.S.C. Citation in 1949.

During his 58 years as an architect, he had collaborated in the design of more than 35 schools in Arlington and Prince Georges Counties and the New House Office Building. He also designed post offices and court houses for the Treasury Department and the dispensary, officers' school, and barracks at Quantico, Va., for the Marine Corps.

In a 1917 competition, he designed the inauguration stands in front of the White House for Woodrow Wilson's second inauguration.

Colonel CHARLES W. WEEKS, Nebraska, '98, former commandant of the Reserve Officers Training Corps at the University of Nebraska, was killed in September in an automobile accident near Montour Falls, Fla.

CLYDE A. BLAIR, Chicago, '05, former holder of the world's record in the 100-yard dash, died early in September in Santa Barbara, California.

Mr. Blair had been a promoter of Florida real estate, a rancher controlling 250,000 acres of Nevada grazing land, and a Bakersfield beverage bottling operator.

As a member of the University of Chicago track team, he ran the 100-yard dash in 9.4 to set a world's record in the event which stood for 13 years.

PERCY C. ADAMS

of the New York area from 1928 to 1944, when he retired, died August 18 at his summer home near Lucasville, Ohio. His death came on his 82nd birthday.

Bishop McConnell was also an author and educator and was a former president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Before becoming bishop of the New York area, he had served as bishop in Denver and in Pittsburgh and had been president of DePauw University. He held visiting professorships at Columbia, Yale, and Drew Universities and at Garrett Biblical Institute and Scarritt College. He was the author of 18 books, including his autobiography, By the Way, published in 1952.

He was former president of the Religious Education Association, the Chautauqua Institution, the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church, and the Division of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Church. He was also a respected counselor in labor-management relations.

A life-long friend of Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, Bishop McConnell conducted the memorial service for the former President of the Fraternity at the Columbus Karnea in 1950.

DR. JAMES A. LINDSAY, W. & J. '05, president of the staff at St. John's Hospital in Pittsburgh, Pa., died on August 12 in Georgian Bay, Canada, where he had been vacationing.

Dr. Lindsay was a member of the Allegheny County and State Medical Societies, the American Medical Association, and the Pennsylvania Academy of Medicine.

DR. WALTER C. BUCKNER, Baker, '07, a ranking official in the Methodist Church, died September 13 in Glendale, California.

Dr. Buckner had retired at the annual Methodist Conference in Los Angeles last June after 45 years of service, beginning with his first pastorate in Dinuba, California. He was a member of the nine-member Methodist Judicial Council, a clerical supreme court. He was elected to this body in 1939 and recently was its vice-president.

FRANK HOGUELAND

Toronto

This looks like a big year for Delta Theta Chapter with the Eastern Division Conference being held in Toronto December 3, 4, and 5. The alumni chapter expects to revive some added interest by taking an active part in the proceedings.

We held our initial stag meeting on October 8 at the Albany Club to elect our new executive and had 31 very "active" alumni on hand. We have initiated a concentrated mailing, phoning, and personal contact program which we hope will enable us to have at least 100 alumni at the closing dinner on Saturday, December 5. Our report on this will appear in the March issue.

The remaining functions for the year are the Fraternity Formal, run by the active chapter, and the Founders Day Banquet, tentatively scheduled for February 5 and March 6 respectively. Because of the length of time it takes to get THE RAINBOW to the presses, these won't be reported on until the June issue.

The interest in the monthly luncheons has disappeared completely and rather than have any out-of-town Delts disappointed, we have decided to cancel them completely for the time being.

Our mailing list has become slightly antiquated again; so if any of our Toronto alumni reading this haven't received any direct notices from the undersigned regarding the Eastern Division Conference, please advise me your correct address. My address is listed near the back of this volume.

AWARDS for undergraduate chapter publications were established in 1937 by an action of the Arch Chapter, and the first award was made for the college year 1937-38. For the first four years in which awards were made, the only competition was in the newspaper format division. As the magazine type format became more popular, however, recognition for excellence in this field was also established, and the first award for a magazine was made for the year 1941-42.

Because chapter activities were drastically curtailed during the years of World War II, no awards were made from 1942-43 to 1945-46.

The first-place award consists of a $50 cash prize, to be invested in furnishings or equipment suitable for a chapter hall or chapter house. The committee declined selecting a first prize in the newspaper format division because it was felt that entries submitted for 1952-53 did not measure up, either in frequency of issue or general effectiveness of presentation, to a standard consistent with previous award winners.

Editor of Beta Tau Chapter's prize-winning magazine was Dick Schilling. Duane Nielsen was photography editor.

As a guide to chapters competing for the annual publications award, the committee suggests attention to the following points.

Winners are selected on the basis of general appeal and interest of material to alumni (or to rushee if the publication is also sent to prospective members); manner in which the material is written and edited; and attractiveness in typographical layout and printing. The number of issues presented during the college year is taken into consideration; however, more than three issues will not influence the award.

Chapters using professional services in publishing their papers or magazines are not eligible for the award, but the committee is authorized to confer honorable mention to such chapters.

Corresponding secretaries of undergraduate chapters should make sure that copies of their publications are sent to the Central Office and to members of the Arch Chapter.
