Karneia of the Golden Bend

By SILAS B. RAGSDALE, Texas, '18

Member, the Distinguished Service Chapter

DELTS FROM THE COUNTRY O'ER, some five or six hundred of them, are going to attend the 63rd Karneia in Houston in August and will be able to testify thereafter whether "it's true what they say about Texas."

The Karneia, plans for which are fast being formulated by a score of committees, offers Texans, bragging or otherwise, an opportunity to show Delts from all over that they've just been stating facts, even though as regards Texas, "facts sound like brags to people from other parts."

The Karneia dates, if there are those who missed THE RAINBOW for March or mayhap didn't spot the notices in the preceding two issues, are August 15-18, and the place is Houston, Texas, at the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel which gained worldwide fame a few years back when a picturesque oil man lavished millions in building it and dubbed it "The Shamrock."

John V. Singleton, Gamma Iota (Texas), '40, is the general chairman and, working with Delts from the Houston Alumni Chapter, a most active group, is piecing together details of a program that unquestionably will prove of interest and value to every member of Delta Tau Delta.

REALLY A SOUTHWEST KARNEIA

For fear this may leave the impression that Houston Delts are taking over all the lead-horse roles, let it be said that this Karneia "belongs" to the entire Southwest. And active and alumni chapters not only from Texas, but also New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Louisiana are showing determination to perform in true Delt fashion as hosts. Such is the pattern along which plans are proceeding. This relatively "new" area—and brand new insofar as a Karneia is concerned—is anxious to set a new high standard for careful planning, Karneia efficiency, hospitality, and general good times.

As an example of teamwork that has gone into the programming, it can be announced here that the proficient Delta Alpha, University of Oklahoma, group will stage the model initiation during the Karneia. When a Delt chapter was installed a year ago at Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, this Oklahoma band did a wonderfully splendid job which was partly responsible for the invitation they received, and readily accepted, to stage the Karneia rites.

EVENTS FOR LADIES TOO

That's a strictly Delt feature. Karneia planning includes many events for the ladies, and General Chairman Singleton is hopeful that scores of Delt wives will be included among those coming to Houston in August. A style show, probably poolside at the Shamrock-Hilton, a morning coffee, sightseeing around fabulous Houston, and participation in the cow-country barbecue are among the events being planned for the ladies. Two outstanding theaters in the round which have put Houston on the theatrical map, also will get a draw from the ladies. And then there's shopping in stores that include even an establishment of the famous Neiman-Marcus firm.

Mention of the barbecue opens a right intriguing chapter itself. This will be staged at Tenn-wood, a setting

This is Tenn-wood, 30 miles northwest of Houston, where Texans will treat the Karneia to a genuine cow-country barbecue.

30 miles northwest of Houston that has all the makin's for an evening of fun, western style. Studded with hundreds of huge oaks, each draped with rich festooning of Spanish moss, Tennessee even without barbecue is sufficiently captivating to spell success for an outdoor gathering. Combined with succulent barbecued beef, prepared as only authentic cowhands know how, Tennessee on that Friday afternoon and evening will witness an affair that many Delts surely will be writing home about.

REGISTRATION AUGUST 15

Registration of the incoming Delts will start on Wednesday, August 15, at the Shamrock-Hilton, headquarters for the Karnea. No special events have been arranged for Wednesday although many diversions for early arrivals are to be had merely for the asking. Committee sessions may tie up some of the brethren, but for others there's swimming in the Shamrock's outdoor pool, one of the most elaborate in America, golf on one of the beautiful and tricky golf courses not too far away, tennis, night life (Houston is fast becoming known for its variety of excellent rendezvous for gourmets), skilled theatrical performances, and just plain sight-seeing. Those who like their recreation on silvery beach sands will find it in abundance on Galveston Island, less than 50 miles distant.

Thursday will see the Karnea sessions and round tables getting under way in earnest. The entertainment committee, headed by Charles Westmoreland and John Fry, both Gamma Iota (Texas) boys, already have lined up stellar performers to take over the luncheon spotlights on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday after the serious matters, including good eats, have been polished off. Houston prides itself on its lineup of available professional talent. And if Houston didn't have it in sufficient quantity, then other nearby Texas points could be drawn upon with facility. These luncheon sessions, it may be safely forecast, each will end up with wholesale smiles and good feeling mixed richly in a setting of true Delt fellowship.

CHAPTER REUNIONS SLATED

Chapter and area reunions will be the order of the day on Thursday evening following the model initiation which will serve as a starter. At these reunions good fellows will get together and have an opportunity of putting their arms around the shoulders of brother Delts they "haven't seen in umpteen years." Veteran Karnea attendees will tell you that these sessions, which have become a fixture at the Fraternity's biennial gatherings, are the most delightful of all corollary functions. Keep Thursday night open. You will not want to pass up your share of this old-fashioned Delta Shelter fellowship.

Friday, of course, will see the business sessions and round tables continuing, and another luncheon in appropriate Lone Star State atmosphere with entertainment ditto. Distinguished Service Chapter members will have their inning at this time. That afternoon late will see the group piling

The largest Founders Day banquet in the history of Texas took place back in 1949 at the Shamrock Hotel. Well-known Delts and Texans present then included U. S. Associate Justice TOM CLARK (left) and the late EDWARD ANGLY, war correspondent and author.

AMONG THE DELTS PROMINENT in the Lone Star State are (left to right): LEONIDAS T. BARROW, Texas, '20, chairman of the board of Humble Oil & Refining Company; Major General ALBERT SIDNEY JOHNSON, Texas, '19, member of the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter; and Brigadier General ROBERT M. IVES, Columbia, '21, former president of the Houston Alumni Chapter.

THE TRADITIONAL WALK-AROUND of the Mackinac Karnea in 1952 stands out as a high point of Karneas past.

into air-conditioned busses for transport to Tenn-wood and the aforementioned barbecue. (Caution—don't hit those luncheon vittles in a manner too hefty. You'll understand this precautionary word when you approach the barbecue grounds where several hundred pounds of choice beef will be getting its final expert touches at the frontier barbecue pit. You ain't smelled real food, pardner, until you catch a whiff of this particular culinary fragrance!)

SQUARE DANCING, MAYBE

One of the features of this outing, which the committee is making an effort to arrange, is an appearance there of the Harris County Sheriff's Mounted Posse. The skilled horsemen will lend an air of a western rodeo to our Friday night event. Included in the posse are some of the best trick and precision riders in this section of Texas. Some of them, too, may just accidentally dismount, proceed to the outdoor dance floor, and show the gathering exactly how square dancing should be done.

Saturday's program includes the final business sessions of the Karnea, and a third luncheon topped off in the evening by the formal banquet. Many Delts like to think of the banquet as the fitting climax to one of our Karneas. And it's hard to debate the point when you take into consideration the stellar guests, a great Fraternity's list of its greatest leaders, seated in almost regal splendor before a group of the brightest minds to be found in the collegiate world today. If you have to miss all other affairs during the 63rd Karnea, still a trip to Houston would be worth while if you could attend only the Saturday night.

That's just about the program. All we need now is a full attendance by actives and alumni alike. Delts not receiving THE RAINBOW will hear shortly from the Central Office, a special mailing being planned for Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Louisiana which states because of their proximity are expected to send more than their population-quota of registering Delts.

Then the Central Office and our national leaders will by letters at appropriate times extend special invitations to alumni groups, prominent Delts in many lines, and especially Distinguished Service Chapter members.

In the meantime, there has been a carefully planned series of letters, announcements, etc., going to all active chapters. Delegates have long since been elected and other actives have been invited to go along on their own.

So the 63rd Karnea has had and will get ample advance billing. The active interest of all Delts is solicited. Their interest, witnessed by their actual presence in Houston on August 15 or before, is all we need to guarantee a most noteworthy gathering.

Besides the valuable insight every attending Delt will get into his Fraternity affairs, there will be the satisfaction and enjoyment of visiting one of America's most dynamic cities, an area of the country which, due to its many natural advantages, stands to be among the foremost in economic development within the next decade.

Come to the 63rd Karnea in Houston, August 15-18!

The Karnea—Our “National” in Action

By JOEL W. REYNOLDS, Tufts, '23

President of Delta Tau Delta

WE SHOULD REVIEW periodically our rights, privileges, and obligations of membership in the Fraternity, just as we should likewise review our analogous status as citizens of our country.

When talking with undergraduate Deltas at Regional and Division Conferences, or perhaps when making a chapter visitation, I am often asked such typical questions as “What does the ‘National’ think about this?” or “What is the ‘National’ going to do about that?”

Hence, I frequently get the impression that the “National” is often construed by many to be a sort of Arch Chapter “politburo” sitting in an Indianapolis “Kremlin” where it devises its own laws and rules which it then proceeds to force upon the defenseless constituent chapters by means of field-secretary “secret police” who prowl the country at the behest of the Arch Chapter seeking chapters to “purge.”

Just what, or who, is the “National”?

It seems extraneous to explain here that the “National” comprises ALL undergraduate and alumni initiated members of the Fraternity, all of whom are members of their respective chapters as well as of Delta Tau Delta, and that the Arch Chapter is a representative body, democratically elected from, by, and for the membership and charged with the administration of our laws as delineated by the equally democratic action of the Karnea, composed of freely chosen delegates of all of the members.

Because we are all inclined to be somewhat provincial in our thinking, probably the greatest value that accrues to those fortunate enough to attend the Karnea is the broader conception of the NATIONAL character of the Fraternity. It becomes so obvious to the Karnea-goer that the Fraternity is not just a loosely-connected group of affiliated “clubs” or chapters, but a strong, closely knit, truly national organization.

Each constituent chapter possesses a broad local autonomy but still operates within one general charter or constitution, just as our own representative community, county, and state government bodies have broad local authority to make their own laws to cover local conditions, as long as there is no conflict with Federal laws made by representatives of all the citizens. Our chapters govern themselves on their own campus communities with authority superseded only by their own Divisional constitutions, determined by all chapters in their respective Divisions, and the laws of the Karnea, made by representatives from all of the Fraternity.

Many feel that the “National” requires too many records to be kept, too many reports to be filed, and is too demanding of its members. Such persons fail to realize that all of these contribute to the development of highly desirable and valuable traits and training and contribute as well to a composite experience for the “good of the order” and the individual.

The virile power behind this national strength of ours is the accumulated and distilled experience of thousands of chapter-years of operation, available and disseminated to all chapters through the supervisory services of an efficient and effective central organization.

With the considerable financial and organizational resources of the national Fraternity behind the chapters, and operating under the over-all governing laws of the Constitution, effective supervision does not hinder, but actually strengthens, local autonomy in each chapter.

Another dividend that comes, mostly to an undergraduate, at a Karnea is the rather sudden realization that here assembled from widely scattered chapters are other undergraduates with whom he has a great deal in common. By a system of mutual choice, each has joined a chapter of the Fraternity, and he now meets “brothers” whom he has never seen before; nor did he even know their names.

Even the most divergent of our colleges and universities have much in common, so that the undergraduate’s experiences and problems are much the same as those of his newly found brothers. He knows that they have passed through a “trial marriage” of pledgship to the Fraternity similar to his own; that they have been taught the same things he has had to learn about the Fraternity, its purpose, ideals, history, rules, and organization. All have been initiated by the same Ritual, and are obligated, just as he is, to maintain acceptable standards of conduct and scholastic achievement.

He quickly gets the feeling that the chapter of the Fraternity on that other campus would naturally be “his” chapter if he were enrolled there instead of where he is. Transfers who affiliate with our chapters on another campus, delegates to regional or national gatherings of the Fraternity, and visitors to other chapters testify eloquently how real this feeling is. He will come away from the Karnea of Undergraduate Scholarship for 1954-55

Following tabulation of official returns, the following ten undergraduate chapters have been announced as those having achieved the highest scholastic standings for the college year 1954-55. Relative rank is determined on the basis of the percentage of the chapter's average above the All-Men's Average of the individual campus. The Fraternity Division in which each chapter is located is also indicated.

1. Delta Epsilon—Kentucky (Southern)
2. Mu—Ohio Wesleyan (Northern)
3. Beta Epsilon—Emory (Southern)
4. Gamma Tau—Kansas (Western)
5. Delta Alpha—Oklahoma (Western)
6. Delta Chi—Oklahoma A. & M. (Western)
7. Gamma Theta—Baker (Western)
8. Beta Delta—Georgia (Southern)
9. Beta Eta—Minnesota (Northern)
10. Gamma Iota—Texas (Western)

Winners of the Division Scholarship Awards for 1954-55 were also announced, as follows:

Nation Mourns Loss of Alben Barkley

ALBEN W. BARKLEY, Emory, '00, former Vice President of the United States and one of the most respected and colorful figures of American politics, joined the Chapter Eternal on April 30.

He died as he had lived, vigorously and eloquently espousing the causes to which he was dedicated.

Mr. Barkley, taking part in a mock political convention on the campus of Washington and Lee University, collapsed while he was addressing the gathering of students. Describing himself as "an old firehorse who has heard the bell," he had told his audience that he would attend the Democratic National Convention in August but would not be a candidate for the presidency.

He recalled that he had been a delegate at large to every national Democratic convention since 1920, a Congressman, a junior, then senior Senator, majority Senate Leader, Vice President, then junior Senator again.

Then he declared: "I am willing to be a junior. I am glad to sit in the back row, for I would rather be a servant in the house of the Lord than to sit in the seats of the mighty."

* Left to right behind Mr. Barkley are Branch Rickey, famous baseball executive; Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court; the Very Reverend High N. Moor, Dean of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in Pittsburgh; and Charles R. Wilson, then general manager of the Hotel William Penn. The child held by Mr. Barkley is a founding which was adopted by the local chapter of the International Variety Clubs.

Minutes later the great campaigner was dead. Among those on the speakers' platform who rushed to his aid was another Delt—the Right Reverend John J. Gravatt, Virginia, '03, Episcopal Bishop of South Carolina.

A shocked nation heard the sad news that evening. At first it seemed hard to accept the fact that the durable Barkley, perhaps the greatest raconteur of our time, was silenced forever.

Later, from both the humble and the mighty, came words of tribute to this great American. Though a loyal and articulate Democrat for his entire life, Mr. Barkley still, by his honesty and forthrightness, won the admiration of people of all political faiths.

Said the Wall Street Journal: "... he acquired a reputation as a wit . . . and an orator in the baroque style. And in the midst of it he also gained the respect of those who labored with him, or against him, in the strangest profession in the world.

"He won affection, too, which is no small tribute. . . ."

In his lifetime, Mr. Barkley became somewhat of a phenomenon. He began his amazing career of public service in Washington in 1913 as a Representative from Kentucky and continued until 1927, winning re-election six consecutive times. In 1927 he was elected Senator from Kentucky, serving with that body 22 consecutive years.

In 1948 he was elected Vice President of the United States and became the first in history to be named "The Veep." A term of great affection, it is not likely to be applied to any future Vice President. Richard Nixon, who succeeded Mr. Barkley in the office, stated that he felt the sobriquet belonged exclusively to the Kentuckian.

Scorning retirement after his four-year term, Mr. Barkley came back to campaign again for the Senate, as only he could campaign, and shortly afterward returned to the Senate, this time in the role of junior Senator. But playing second fiddle bothered him not a bit, even though he was the only Senator in history to have served ten consecutive years as Senate Majority Leader.

Much has been written since the Veep's death concerning how his unwillingness to compromise a principle cost him the highest office in the land. As Senate Majority Leader in 1944, he had worked hard for President Roosevelt's program and was incensed when the President vetoed the Senate's tax bill in language which many felt was unfair to the Senators.

In a dramatic move, Senator Barkley denounced the veto message and resigned as Majority Leader. He was immediately and unanimously re-elected and soon again became a stout champion of Roosevelt's program.

It has been said, however, that the President never forgave Mr. Barkley for his rebellion and therefore rejected him as his running mate on the Democratic ticket in 1944 when Harry Truman was elected Vice President. "But for the fact that he had defied a President," reports a current magazine, "and made an issue of one of the few vetoes of tax bills in American history, the way might have been open for him to move into the Vice Presidency and, later, the White House."

When he was living, Mr. Barkley gave Delta Tau Delta much of the credit for launching him on a career as a public speaker. At Emory University, the Deltas entered him in a collegiate declamation contest. Although he did not win the medal, he experienced his first glow of real pride and confidence at being able to hold his own on the speakers' platform.

Though his time was limited, Mr. Barkley retained his interest in the Fraternity throughout his lifetime. He was among those who worked for and supported the establishment of Delta Epsilon Chapter at the University of Kentucky in 1924.

Mr. Barkley was a master storyteller, and many of his anecdotes have been widely circulated. His book, That Reminds Me, published in 1954, has been high on the list of current popular works.

Testimony to Alben Barkley's career of distinctive service is found in the honors recorded behind his name. He was recipient of Collier's Award for 1947 for distinguished Congressional service, the Kentucky Press Association's award to Kentucky's Outstanding Citizen in 1948, and the Four Freedoms Award in 1949. And on August 12, 1949, he was awarded a gold medal by an Act of Congress in recognition of distinguished public service.

Ray Carroll Retires As D.S.C. Chairman

N. RAY CARROLL, Western Reserve, '08, has resigned as Chairman and member of the Committee of the Distinguished Service Chapter. A. Bruce Bielaski, George Washington, '04, senior living past President of the Fraternity, has assumed the chairmanship.

After 25 years of front-line service for the Fraternity, the pressure of business and personal plans have made it necessary for Mr. Carroll to retire from the Committee. President of the Fraternity from 1935 to 1939, Mr. Carroll also held other offices on the Arch Chapter prior to that time. He has served as Chairman of the D.S.C. Committee since 1942.

The newly appointed member of the Committee is G. Herbert McCracken, Pittsburgh, '21, who served as President of the Fraternity from 1946 to 1948. Mr. McCracken, whose service to the Fraternity covers many years, has also served as Secretary of Alumni and President of the Eastern Division.

The new Chairman, Mr. Bielaski, was President for six years, from 1919 to 1925. The third member of the Committee, Norman MacLeod, Pittsburgh, '17, served the Fraternity as President from 1927 to 1933.

THE VEEP helps himself to a second cup of coffee at the Bowling Green Shelter during a visit in 1951.

Nu Chapter Celebrates Fiftieth Anniversary

From points far and wide Lafayette Delts returned to the Shelter to mark a half century of progress and rededicate the chapter to the Fraternity ideal

By JOHN O. FULMER, III, and DONALD G. KRESS, Lafayette, '58

NU CHAPTER HIGHLIGHTED its fiftieth year since its re-establishment at Lafayette in 1906 with a gala celebration on the week end of April 7. Alumni came from points far and wide to relive their past and renew friendships with the men of the Shelter, many of whom were last seen at graduation.

It was a marvelous reunion for brothers of many classes. Lester Hawk, '05, led the returnees and recalled some of the high lights of the pre-Delt local fraternity, the Skull and Raven. Edward Smith, Sr., '07, joined Mr. Hawk in receiving honors as charter members of the reclaimed chapter, which had operated on the campus from 1874 until 1893. Another returnee, Joseph W. Craft, Jr., '14, received recognition as a former recipient of the Most Distinguished Alumni Award at the College.

FREAS FIRST TO ARRIVE

The big week end started to roll on Friday afternoon when Martin Freas, '45, arrived at 2:00 p.m. and initiated the gala affair. By evening, many more had returned to rehash days gone by. Despite inclement weather, alumni poured in from all sections of the East on Saturday morning to set the week end into full swing. Special guests for the event were: G. Herbert McCracken, Delt national President 1946-1948 and former Lafayette football coach during the '30's; Dr. Ralph C. Hutchison, Lafayette College President; Robert G. Crosen, national president of the Kappa Delta Rho Fraternity and Dean of Lafayette Faculty; Frank R. Hunt, Dean of Students; and Guest of Honor Jim Nolan, 34-year veteran caretaker of the Shelter.

1935-38 CLASSES LEAD

The afternoon featured alumni renewing their distant friendships and meeting the present actives. The classes of 1935-38 led the alumni with the greatest number of men in a four-year span to return.

At 6:00 p.m., the men journeyed to Harker's Hollow Country Club for pre-dinner fellowship and at 7:00 p.m., 104 men sat down to a fried chicken banquet. William Greenip, '44, former director of admissions, presiding as master of ceremonies, hu-morously entertained the brothers with his wit and class jokes, following the dinner.

One of Brother Greenip's prize topics was his introduction of Jim Nolan to the alumni and guests. Bill pointed out the closeness to the house that Jim has enjoyed since his arrival from England in 1921. Brother Karl La-Barr, house treasurer in 1922, brought Jim to the Shelter from the Raritan Valley Country Club, although Jim did not realize then that he would be spending the rest of his life here.

Following his review of the guest of honor, Greenip introduced Nu's chapter advisor, Sanford Wolfe, '39, followed by introductions of Robert Stoothoff, '56, past chapter president and George Anderson, '57, newly elected president. Sandy then commented on the progress which he felt the chapter had made during the past few years. He pointed out some of the improvements, such as the new pine paneled phone booth and chapter room, rugs, and oil heating plant. Mason Williams, '50, treasurer of the house corporation, briefly assured the alumni of the house's sound financial condition.

Dean Hunt rose shortly afterwards to speak a few words in appreciation of the friendly relationship which he feels exists between himself and Delt house. Mentioning the fact that he lives just across the road from the Shelter, he made humorous references to the disturbing influences which his parties might have on the Delts. He also congratulated the Delts on their rise from 11th place to 2nd in scholastic standing among the fraternities on campus.

DR. HUTCHISON SPEAKS

Dr. Ralph Cooper Hutchison, President of Lafayette, spoke to the assembled brothers on the unique and challenging problems inherent in the fraternity system. He stated that no other group has such a complete turnover in membership and particularly in leadership. He emphasized the fact that all the advances which have been made by the system have been realized with little assistance, financially or leadershipwise, from the administrations of the colleges and universities.

He praised the system for the fact that "despite these handicaps, it has successfully met the pressing need of housing and feeding the student population."

"This need is especially acute at Lafayette since the college administration is, at present, unable to provide adequate dormitory and commons facilities," he said.

Hutchison warned Delts that the period of danger for any organization is when it has realized a large degree of success; he emphasized that fraternity members must ever be on their guard against backsliding. He also took the opportunity to express his appreciation of, and friendship for, the fraternity system.

Herbert McCracken then presented the principal address. Following his graduation from the University of Pittsburgh in 1914, Brother McCracken later coached football at Lafayette during the '20's and '30's. McCracken is today senior vice president of Scholastic Magazines, Inc.

In his speech he reminisced about his experiences with Delts during the period in which he coached football here. He recalled many foibles and pranks of some of the alumni members, stirring up nostalgic remembrances for many in the audience.

To conclude the festivities at the banquet, Greenip thanked Donald Kress, '58, and his committee for making the week end possible, and John Fulmer, '58, who planned an anniversary yearbook, commemorating 50 years of Nu Chapter. A reunion and songfest brought the memorable evening to a close.

ESTABLISHED IN 1874

Nu Chapter was originally established in 1874 and flourished for 20 years. Suddenly in 1893 the chapter disbanded, not to return for 12 years.

The seeds for the re-establishment of Nu Chapter of Delta Tau Delta at Lafayette were sown on February 28, 1901. On this date a group of 20 Lafayette undergraduates organized the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, commonly known as "Skull and Raven."

This small band of men took an active interest in all phases of campus activity, but their major interest seemed to center in recognition of their group by some national fraternity. Their hopes were concentrated on Delta Tau Delta, and in 1902 members submitted a formal petition to the Arch Chapter to grant them a charter.

After a thorough investigation, the Fraternity turned down this first petition. Plans for the time being had to be dropped, but they were not forgotten. Each annual report of the "Skulls" contains some reference to eventual recognition by Delta Tau Delta. Another fraternity was not considered seriously.

SECOND PETITION

A second petition was submitted in 1904 but it was soon recalled when its backers realized they could not yet gain wholehearted support of neighboring chapters. In 1906, with all elements appearing favorable, a third petition was submitted. Finally, on June 2, 1906, the hopes and ambitions of the Skull and Raven were realized when its members were entrusted with the old charter of the Nu Chapter of Delta Tau Delta.

Installation exercises were conducted in the Beta Lambda Chapter house at Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, by Brother John A. Bolard, Ritualist. They were attended by representatives of many undergraduate chapters. At this time also some of the since graduated members of the Skull and Raven who always maintained great interest in the movement for recognition were initiated.

The chapter maintained rooms in Easton, but in 1907 when the confusion was over and everything well established, the idea for a permanent chapter house grew. The plans were soon working efficiently, providing a system for the collection of funds. Undergraduates paid a small portion towards this fund and pledges were made by all graduating brothers to pay either a $50 or a $100 note within a short period of years after graduation.

In 1915 these plans were climaxed by the construction of the present Shelter on Sullivan Lane. Later a bond issue was floated and the debt for construction liquidated. In a few short years Nu Chapter had certainly come a long way. But this rapid progress was only a small indication of future growth and development.

WELL-EARNED REST FOR NOLAN

Around 1920 another great event took place. This date marked the arrival of James Nolan, affectionately known as "Bloody." Jim has remained with us these past thirty-four years and has been a guiding hand in practically every activity. His memories are book length and we're sure, if he remembers you, he will probably tell you more about your days here than you can ever remember. This year "Bloody" is starting a well-deserved rest.

Behind these few facts you will find some five hundred brothers—men who by their foresight have brought Nu Chapter to the position of esteem it holds today. Now that we have reached a peak, there seems to be that great Delt ideal in every man's mind. We are always looking towards the future, trying to make it better because of our efforts while we have been here.

And doubtless, when we are again able to celebrate another fifty years, we will find a chapter similar in attitude to the Delt of today and to the Deltas all the way back in 1906. This is an ever growing venture. We are proud to be associated with Nu Chapter and future years will only make our beliefs firmer.

Heads Academy of General Practice

DR. MALCOLM E. PHELPS, Oklahoma, '26, of El Reno, Oklahoma, was named president-elect of the American Academy of General Practice at the organization's annual meeting in Washington this spring.

One of the physicians who helped organize the 21,000-member association eight years ago, Dr. Phelps for several years has been a prime mover in the cause of placing emphasis back on the family physician. The movement has included successful efforts to upgrade the general practitioner's qualifications to take care of the majority of the family's needs for medical service.

Six months after the national academy was formed, Dr. Phelps assisted in the formation of an affiliate chapter in the state of Oklahoma. A requirement of academy membership for a physician is the completion of 150 hours of postgraduate study every three years to retain standing in the organization.

Dr. Phelps is a past president of and has held most offices in the Oklahoma Academy of General Practice. He is an alternate delegate to the American Medical Association, is chairman of the state legislative committee and former chairman of the public policy committee.

Last year the president-elect served as chairman of the American academy's board of directors and vice-president of the organization. He is a member of the national polio advisory committee which was set up to handle the complex problem of vaccine distribution.

Dr. Phelps, founder of the Phelps Clinic in El Reno, is the father of a Delt—James V. Phelps, Oklahoma, '50, who is currently serving with the U. S. Army in England.

Two Delts Selected for Olympic Basketball Team

and

GEORGE LINN

TWO DELTS—Bob Jeangerard, Colorado, '54, and Ron Tomsic, Stanford, '55—are among the 12 cage stars named early in April to the United States Olympic basketball team. George Linn, Alabama, '56, as a member of the Phillips 66 championship team of Olympic tryouts, will also attend the Olympic Games.

Jeangerard was chosen on the basis of his brilliant play with the Phillips 66ers during tryouts competition. Standing 6' 3" high, he is slated for a forward position. As an undergraduate, he was team captain and leading scorer for Colorado.

At a mere 5' 11", Tomsic is the smallest man on the Olympic team. Playing with the Armed Forces entry, however, he more than offset in speed and clever floor play the height deficiency. Last year he was named Stanford's "Athlete of the Year." He earned this honor by setting a new Stanford scoring record and being named team captain as well as a member of the A.A.U. All American team.

George Linn was this year's captain of Alabama's fourth-ranked squad. He gained fame as the author of the world's longest field goal last year.

Heroics by Delt Pilot

AN AIR FORCE PILOT, First Lieutenant Charles A. Vogel, W. & J., '52, earned high praise early in March for his heroic and skillful handling of his crippled aerial refueling tanker after three of its four engines had failed in midair.

It all happened this way:

On March 3 Lt. Vogel was piloting his KC-97 "flying tanker" in a snowstorm over Bellingham, Washington, on a flight from March Air Force Base in California to Anchorage, Alaska, when one of the plane's four engines lost power. He immediately called on the radio for help.

The plane, a refueling ship used to feed fuel in the air to big jet bombers, was carrying a crew of ten and a full load of aviation gasoline. Setting it down in a thickly populated area can be mighty ticklish business.

Lt. Vogel was advised by McChord AFB's traffic control to descend to 11,000 feet and fly a heading toward the field. Radar picked him up, guided the plane within seven miles of the field at 6,000 feet when a second engine conked out. Lt. Vogel ordered the ten other crew members to bail out (all survived without serious injury).

Four and one-half miles out, the third engine started to smoke and likewise gave up. That left one engine and all the flying skill the pilot could summon to bring the huge ship in.

At McChord fire control personnel stood by as Lt. Vogel broke through the snow overcast. The plane touched down and lumbered along the runway. In an instant the fire truck was speeding alongside, spraying it with carbon dioxide foam. The plane skidded off the runway, blew its four tires, and ground to a halt. Lt. Vogel alighted from the craft unhurt.

When it was all over, Air Force spokesmen praised the pilot for his cool command of the situation, which not only saved the government a million dollar airplane but the lives of crew members as well and possibly those of civilians if the plane had crashed in a populated area.

Snow, crosswinds up to 40 m.p.h., a fully loaded, ponderous ship, explosive cargo, only one engine (right outboard at that)—a neat trick, bringing that one in, in any airman's book.

with the realization that he will be accepted and will find helpful, agreeable companionship within the Fraternity, wherever he may go, with others of kindred spirit who would make him feel at home among them, bound together by that common experience we have all shared, which is Delta Tau Delta.

As we assemble representatives from the far corners of North America on a basis mutually acceptable to all of them, the Karnea becomes the sublimation of the cohesive forces that have made it possible, since our founding nearly a century ago, for Delta Tau Delta to grow and prosper as a truly great national fraternity.

South Dakota Delts Dedicate Enlarged Shelter

By CHARLES ALLEN, South Dakota, '57

Principal speaker at dedication banquet was CLEMENS R. FRANK, former Arch Chapter member.

APRIL 15 MARKED another milestone in the 32-year history of Delta Gamma, when the new annex, housing 24 men, was dedicated as a high light of Founders Day. About 35 alumni returned for the special occasion.

The ceremony climaxed a year of anticipation and hopefulness. Last spring we witnessed the ground breaking and anxiously looked forward to our return in the fall. A minor delay in building materials, however, prevented completion of construction until Christmas vacation. We spent a crowded first semester amidst plaster, plumbing fixtures, and carpentry.

Yet it was worth waiting for, in spite of "roughing it." We realized this even more when many alumni were thoroughly impressed upon seeing the expanded Shelter for the first time.

Keyes Gaynor, M.I.T., '09, dedicated the new wing to the future generations who will use it. In his dedicatory speech he remarked, "It's not the things you do, but the friends you make." One of the most beloved Delts in the Midwest, he has given unselfishly of his time and advice both in the construction of the Shelter in 1939 and in that of the present addition. As president of the House Corporation, he has been the guiding light in our expansion. He has devoted much time to the Fraternity in Iowa as well as in South Dakota; he is a member of the Distinguished Service Chapter as a result of his contributions to Delta Tau Delta.

It was an honor to have another member of the Distinguished Service Chapter in the person of Clemens R. Frank, Western Reserve, '19. Mr.

The whiskers? These Delts are citizens of Sioux Falls, where a Centennial celebration is imminent.

Frank, who has served as President of the Northern Division and Supervisor of Scholarship, gave the main address. In stressing the qualities of a good Delt, he cautioned us not to fall into the pit of mediocrity. "We can be proud of an efficient Central Office, the envy of most other college fraternities," he said.

Alumnus Howard Crandall, '32, presented the chapter with a framed scroll listing the 110 Delts who contributed the last $5000 for the new wing. President Bob Frieberg, who accepted on behalf of the members, thanked all alumni for their help and gave special recognition to Gaynor and Tom Barron, '37. "We are proud of the new addition. I hope you are too," he remarked.

Then he gave an account of Delta Gamma's accomplishments during the past year. Attention was called to the wide participation in extracurricular activities by members of the active chapter.

Chapter Adviser Tom Poe, W. & J., '35, presented the annual achievement awards to members. Immediate Past President Bob Enders was the recipient of the Keyes Gaynor Award given to the senior who has contributed most to the Fraternity. Jim Walters, who has helped direct our vaudeville show for three years, won the Eugene Farley Award as the best all-around Fraternity brother. The Pledge of the Year Award was presented to Neophyte Dick Middleton. The retiring officers and committee chairmen were presented with red and white roses, respectively.

Tom Barron, who has also given much time to the House Corporation, gave a brief history of Delta Gamma. He traced the expansion the chapter has continually made. A few remarks from University President I. D. Weeks concerning our expansion and the value of the fraternity system concluded the program.

In the words of Tom Poe, "It was the best Founders Day I've seen." It was fitting that a steadily growing chapter dedicate a symbol of its expansion on Founders Day. The alumni were well pleased with the progress made in only 32 years. Delta Gamma will continue to grow; we look forward to further achievement.

Distinguished Service Chapter Citation for Lipscomb

SHORTLY FOLLOWING his retirement as chapter adviser of Gamma Eta Chapter (George Washington) this year, Henry C. Lipscomb, Missouri, '13, was cited to membership in the Distinguished Service Chapter. Presentation of the Citation was made by Executive Vice-President Hugh Shields in Louisville, Kentucky, where Mr. Lipscomb is now residing.

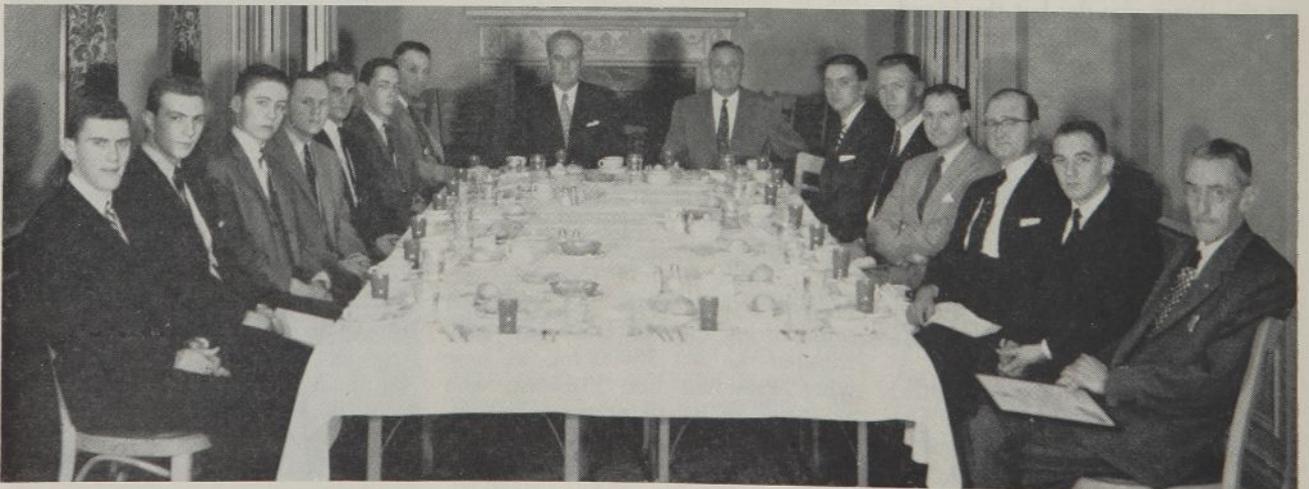

Following is the text of the Citation:

HENRY C. LIPSCOMB Missouri, '13

Chapter adviser to Gamma Eta, house corporation officer, friend and inspiration to all who know and love him. Sympathetic understanding, enthusiasm and affection are among the many qualities he has bestowed in a full measure of devotion. His life, dedicated to the Fraternity, is a guiding light to those who seek to labor for the fulfillment of its Prophecy, and to him the Fraternity and Gamma Eta Chapter will forever remain indebted.

William A. Medina (Gamma Eta president), Robert M. Gall, Larrie L. Kirchdorfer, Edward R. Turnbull, Roger M. Scott, William C. Ballantine, Ben T. Cooper, Hugh Shields, C. B. Stansbury, Vernon B. Small, Jr., William M. Coons, Alfred O. Miller, Parker Hurley, Fred B. Smithwick, Jr., and Henry C. Lipscomb (holding his Citation).

"Watch our smoke now!" say Beta Delta Chapter Delts as they settle down to begin a new era of achievement on the Athens campus in

THE NEW GEORGIA SHELTER

By LEWIS BRINSON, Georgia, '57, and DUANE RINER, Georgia, '58

FOR ABOUT AS MANY YEARS as Beta Delta Chapter has been established, Georgia Delts have been dreaming, hoping, and working for a Shelter we could call our own. At last, on February 3, 1956, we spent the first night in our Delta Shelter!

The idea for a new house has been running for some time, but our successful drive began with an humble suggestion at chapter meeting way back in the spring of 1954 that we investigate more suitable accommodations for Georgia Delts. A committee was formed, and the Delts went house-hunting. Although afraid that our efforts would not prove more useful than previous efforts, we decided on a beautiful white-brick house bearing similarities to an Italian villa. About this time, Bill Taylor, field secretary, then vice-president of the Southern Division, entered the picture. He heartily approved the choice, and the administrative council at that time pledged themselves to the task of realizing the ambition of a new Shelter.

Through the hard work of Bill Taylor, then chapter adviser; William Tate, Dean of Men at the University; Connie Branch, present chapter adviser; Stephens Mitchell and T. I. Miller, Atlanta alumni, who have given amply of their time and money, our presidents from then 'til now, and the entire membership, we saw our hopes become realities. Hugh Shields, Executive Vice-President, paid us a visit, endorsed our selection, and assisted in every possible way toward the purchase of this structure. To the entire Arch Chapter and those mentioned above we owe our gratitude for making our house-moving of February 3 possible.

The house, as it existed, was ideally planned for fraternity living, with few necessary changes. Facing Milledge Avenue, it is two-story, with a basement opening onto the spacious back lawn. The basement was renovated to house the dining room and kitchen, and the old kitchen was completely changed to provide the housemother's apartment on the main floor. Closets were added in the bedrooms, and the bathrooms were changed to accommodate the increased number of residents upstairs.

As you stroll up the wide walk, there appear five sets of double French doors of bevelled glass with arched windows above. Between each set of doors are Corinthian columns one-story in length at the top of which is a balcony under the second story windows running almost the width of the house. On the red tile roof are three dormer windows, and two tall white chimneys punctuate the sides of the house. On the right of the main portion of the house is a sun parlor, glassed-in on all three sides, with arched doorway on the front to carry out the motif of the house. On the left is the driveway, extending through a porte-cochere. Around the front of the house, from the sun porch to the porte-cochere, is a red-tile terrace about ten feet wide. Marble steps are used for exit from the terrace.

As you enter the house, you come upon a great expanse of parquet floor, covering the entire living rooms and the sun porch. The living rooms include three rooms of roughly equal size, separated on the right by pairs of two columns each, and on the left by sliding doors which remain open. Thrown together, the living rooms are approximately 70 feet long, giving us the largest living room space of any fraternity house in Athens. Two large fireplaces are situated on the extreme ends of the room. Flanking the fireplace on the left are two large trophy cases. The staircase leading to the upstairs is situated opposite the front door. Behind this is a hall ending in a stairway to the dining room and kitchen.

Completing the downstairs picture are the television room, the sun porch, and Mrs. Overstreet's apartment. Mrs. "O" is the proud possessor of entirely new furnishings, including wall-to-wall carpeting and a new chair and table combination given her on her birthday by the chapter.

Upstairs, the residents have contributed new beds and draw-drapes in each of the six bedrooms. The beds, with new frames and innerspring mattresses with matching box springs, are a vast improvement over our old army bunks. Donated carpets and drapes lend a plush atmosphere to everyday living.

Here is Beta Delta's new pine-paneled dining room, and please pass the black-eyed peas.

Completing the picture is a lot which extends through to the next street, with ample space for a 30-car parking lot, a garage apartment, a three-car garage, and lawn area besides. The parking lot is our present project, and only grading remains to be done. The garage apartment has been refurnished by the four brothers living there, and plans are under way to renovate the garage underneath this summer for more living area.

And so through work on every person's part, Beta Delta has finally achieved its goal of a new Shelter. There's plenty of work still to be done, but willing workers are numerous, happy in the thought that at last we have a home of our own.

Dean of Columbia Law School

DEAN OF THE COLUMBIA University School of Law is William C. Warren, Texas, '30, whose distinguished background includes service as a lawyer, teacher, scholar, military man, and public servant.

Dean Warren joined Columbia in 1945 as associate professor of law, became acting dean in November, 1952, and was named dean in March, 1953. During this period, in addition to administrative and teaching duties, he has given illustrious service in many fields.

TAX MISSION TO JAPAN

In the summers of 1949 and 1950, he traveled to Japan to serve on a special tax mission to that country. Here, as an outstanding authority in this field, he assisted in the preparation and presentation to the Japanese Diet of a comprehensive revenue system at both the national and local levels.

With his own country Dean Warren has been a consultant to the Secretary of the Treasury, where he engaged in the planning of comprehensive tax legislation. At Columbia he helped organize and modernize courses in corporations and taxation. He has published numerous books and articles in these two fields, his latest book being Accounting and Law, done in collaboration with Professors Dohr and Thompson of Columbia.

Dean Warren has also turned his talents to the service of the legal profession generally. In addition to memberships in the American Bar Association and the American Society of International Law, he is a member of the American Law Institute and since 1948 has served as the Associate Chief Reporter of the Institute's Income Tax project to revise the International Revenue Code.

Armed with an A.B. degree summa cum laude from the University of Texas, as well as an M.A., the Texan scholar came east in 1932 to enter Harvard Law School and win his LL.B. degree cum laude. At Harvard he engaged in extensive research under the direction of Dean Erwin Griswold and Professor Barton Leach in the fields of taxation and corporate law.

WITH NEW YORK LAW FIRM

After graduation from Harvard, Dean Warren became associated with the New York firm of Davis, Polk, Wardell, Gardiner and Reed. From 1936 until 1942 he was associated with the Cleveland, Ohio, firm of McAfee, Grossman, Hanning and Newcomer. While in Cleveland he served on the law faculty of Western Reserve University.

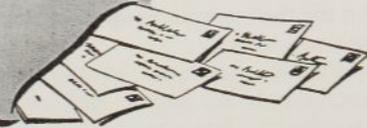

DEAN WILLIAM C. WARREN

In 1941 he became associated with the New York firm of Milbank, Tweed and Hope. Shortly thereafter, he went to Australia to do organizational work for the Red Cross. In 1943 he was commissioned a captain in the Army and rose to the rank of lieutenant colonel, serving in the European, Mediterranean and Middle East Theaters.

Dean Warren was married in 1945 to the former Miss June Peel Willock, the daughter of a British air marshal and a popular English actress. The Warrens reside in Ridgewood, New Jersey, and have two children, Robert Peel and Larissa Eve.

From the Editor's Mailbag

The Houghton Mifflin publishing house has signed Arthur Mann to a contract to write the biography of baseball's master student, BRANCH RICKEY, Ohio Wesleyan, '04.

As reported by the New York Times (Harvey Breit), Mr. Rickey protested the suitability of his life as subject for biography as follows:

"Beyond my questionable influence in the outcome of about 10,000 baseball games over the past 50 years, I fail to see how anyone can justify spending valuable time in concocting a so-called Branch Rickey biography. The term itself, in my case, is misleading. Away from baseball, I am like everybody else, in that I breathe and sleep and eat as a means of survival and to postpone the inevitable alternative. I have been flattered, but genuinely puzzled, over the years by writers insisting that there is a book somewhere. Arthur Mann has been one of the more persistent, and must bear the burden of consequences. But he is a good boy, well-meaning, I'm sure, and he has my sympathy. I hope the literate public will be kind and understanding when, or if, his obsession reaches the printed form."

Northwestern University's new Dean of Men (effective last July) is JOSEPH BOYD, DePauw, '47.

Dean Boyd was University examiner at Northwestern from 1952 to 1954, in which post he supervised admissions testing. He received his master's degree in education from Northwestern in 1950 and his doctorate in 1955.

He has taught at both Northwestern and at Albion College, where he also was tennis coach and assistant basketball coach. While a Northwestern student, he was a resident counselor at the Asbury Hall Dormitory for men.

A former president of Beta Beta Chapter of Delta Tau Delta, Dean Boyd was a star basketball player for DePauw in his undergraduate days. His home town is Muncie, Indiana.

WARREN E. VAN NORMAN, Nebraska, '44, is currently serving in the Nation's Capital as administrative assistant to Congressman A. L. Miller of Nebraska. A graduate of the University of Nebraska Law School, Mr. Van Norman is a former chairman of the Nebraska Young Republicans and is president of the Nebraska Society of Washington, D. C.

He is a former president of Beta Tau Chapter.

"I had gone up into the mountains to get authentic background for some scenes coming up in 'Mark Trail.' I had my drawing equipment with me and was busily at work on a mountain view when a native chanced along and became interested in what I was doing.

"He wasn't impetuous, mind you. He remained at a distance for quite a while but later began edging up until he finally had his chin practically resting on my shoulder.

"When the silence was eventually broken, he revealed that he made a little money weaving baskets and, as a matter of fact, showed me a few examples of his work.

As if this were not enough, he is a colonel of quartermaster in the Idaho National Guard, having command of the 116th Quartermaster Group with subordinate units in Southern Idaho. In World War II he served with the 7th Army in Africa and Europe as executive officer of the transportation section.

Delta Mu alumni recall that his qualities of leadership and personality won for him many honors as an undergraduate—to name a few, national president of the Intercollegiate Knights, Silver Lance, Blue Key, yearbook business manager, Associated Students executive board, class presidencies, and member of Alpha Kappa Psi.

If there is any one thing that can be said to be his best achievement it would be his constant interest in the Boy Scouts and working with youth. He has two future Deltas in the family, Allan and Clark. Frank resides in Nampa and is a member and past officer of the Boise Valley Alumni Chapter.

Baker Threatens World Track Records

THANE BAKER, Kansas State, '53, has run the fastest 300-yard dash ever recorded and tied the world record in the 100-yard dash. Both of these spectacular performances were turned in at the Ohio Relays in Columbus, Ohio, on April 21.

Baker, a star performer in the 1952 Olympics and now serving with the Air Force at Lockbourne Air Force Base in Ohio, ran the 100-yard event in 9.3 seconds. It cannot be considered as a world record tie, however, because the wind at the time was blowing in excess of 8 m.p.h. Wind velocity must be under 4 m.p.h. in record events.

Baker's time of 29.4 in the 300 may be submitted for record consideration since the race was started into the strong wind. Fastest previous time on record was 29.8, recorded in 1946.

At the Olympic Games in Helsinki nearly four years ago, Thane Baker captured the silver medal in the 200-meter run. His time was 20.8, just .1 second off the world record. He is co-holder of the world record in the 60-yard dash.

This spring, at the age of 24, he gives every indication of approaching his peak as a cinder athlete, and American track fans are hopeful that he will bring home from the Olympic Games in Melbourne this summer new honors for our nation.

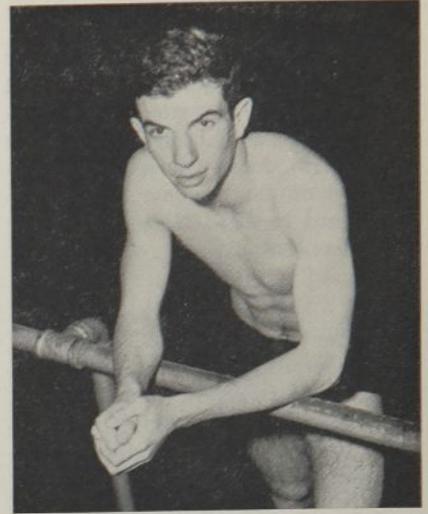

THANE BAKER, shown here throwing Kansas State track records into the discard back in 1952 when he was an undergraduate, is still fring away at cinder records. Now, however, he is after—and getting—bigger game in world marks. His time of 29.4 seconds in the 300-yard dash is the fastest ever recorded.

DELTS TAKE SIXTH "JASON'S" CUP

Another win for the Delts was chalked up as we walked away with top honors in Alabama's annual "Jason's Jamboree." This is our sixth win in the last seven years, a record of which we are extremely proud. Under the guidance of Brother Del Carraher and with the able assistance of the Delt Chorus, our skit about the sinking of the Titanic was put together, cemented firmly into a winning unit by fine chapter spirit and co-operation.

HONORARY AND SCHOLASTIC ACHIEVEMENTS

Brother William Gould was recently tapped for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa. Brothers Gerry Waddell and Bob

Wilson were admitted to Phi Eta Sigma for outstanding freshman scholastic achievement. Brother James Blanton was tapped by Alpha Epsilon Delta, national pre-medical honor society. Six Delts made the Dean's List for the first semester of this year: Brothers James Blanton, Bob Wilson, Gerry Waddell, William Gray, John Smith, and Joe Cocke.

Chapter scholarship ranked Delta Eta ninth of 26 fraternities, well above the All Men's Average for quite a creditable showing.

GEORGE LINN TO GO TO OLYMPICS

Brother George Linn, retiring captain of Alabama's 4th ranked Crimson Tide basketball team, will attend the Olympic Games to be held in Melbourne, Australia, as a member of Phillips 66 championship team of the Olympic tryouts. Both Brothers Linn and Dick Gunder were first-string starters for Coach Johnny Dee's S.E.C. champions this season. In postseason activity at the A.A.U. Tournament in Denver, George was named A.A.U. All American and selected by Phillips as part of their team for the Olympic tryouts in Kansas City.

EDITORSHIP OF THE "RAMMER JAMMER"

Brother John Wagon was elected editor of The Rammer Jammer in spring elections. Formerly assistant editor, Brother Wagon stepped forth unopposed to assume editorship of the campus humor magazine. THREE DELTS ELECTED TO ΦBK

After a long semester of rushing, we of Epsilon have succeeded in pledging 30 of the best men on Albion's campus. This is the largest pledge class on campus and well worth the efforts put forth by the active chapter.

Three Delts were recently initiated into Phi Beta Kappa. They are Brothers Joe Munk, Duane Bellmore, and Richard Humphrey. This is just a beginning. Duane Bellmore, Jerry Timmons, Denny Doolen, and Ed Jenkins were tapped for Omicron Delta Kappa. Elected to the 1955-56 edition of Who's Who were Brothers Joe Munk, Tom Schwaderer, and Richard Humphrey. The local chapter of Phi Eta Sigma initiated Delts John Krsul, Joe Taylor, and Bob Terry. Brothers Graham Foster and Tom Ness were initiated into Beta Beta Beta and Kappa Mu Epsilon respectively.

For the third semester in a row the Scholarship Cup was awarded to Epsilon for achieving the highest scholastic average among the fraternities on campus.

VIVLAMORE NAMED COURT CAPTAIN

Brother George Vivlamore was elected captain of the Albion College basketball team for next year. Brother Tom Schwaderer was selected by his teammates to lead the track team this spring. Also representing Epsilon on the track team we have Jerry Timmons, Dick Cooley, Gil Lutz, Joe Taylor, Bob Danforth, and Jim Taup. The baseball scene finds four Delts on the Albion nine. They are Tom Stinson, pitcher; Joe Radzik, shortstop; Larry Stone, outfielder; and Kirk Flack, catcher.

Intramuralwise, we won the "B" basketball championship, again going undefeated. We were nosed out of first place in volleyball, not losing a game until the final night of play. For the second year in a row the Delts won the intramural swimming meet under the coaching of Ben Mayne.

WEARING WRESTLING CROWN

Spring has come to Alpha in a big way since the last edition of THE RAINBOW. We pledged 21 on February 5, had our annual "help" week in which the pledges collected $100 for a worthy Meadville charity, and held initiation on April 8. Amidst all of that activity, we won the Intramural Wrestling Championship and placed Brothers Stewart and Marc Antonio on the all-star basketball team.

SHIELDS WINS M-J-B SCHOLARSHIP

Many awards and positions were gained by Delts, who deserve much credit for their efforts. Biggest honors this year went to Brother Hass Shields for winning the Milton-Jackson-Beatty Award to study International Relations abroad at Strausborg, France. This award, worth $1000, plus much esteem, was much sought after.

Chuck Parlette, too, made good as he was offered three assistantships at Michigan State, Ohio State, and Duke in the field of economics. Pete Peterson, recent initiate, was elected vice president of the Freshman Class.

More collective honors are shared by Brothers Bob Brooks, Jan and Joel Dykes, Windy Riotte, Bill Jack, and Jerry Stirling for obtaining positions on the varsity track team.

In other sports, Rod McClain attained membership on the varsity tennis team for the second straight year and Don Siefers was on the Allegheny champion swimming team.

Don Trask was appointed by high ROTC echelon to assistant band leader and staff sergeant of the AFROTC Band.

The big event around the chapter last quarter was the annual "Royal Iris Ball." Brother Mike Mahan, social chairman, did a fine job of planning, while Brother Webster Deadman saw to it that we had the best in the way of decorations.

Politics here at Epsilon Alpha are again a big issue. Brother Bob Lynn has received nomination for Sophomore Senator and all Delts are working hard in his campaign.

William B. Fuller, of Dothan, Alabama, is our new president. Bill is a senior in architecture.

On the Saturday night before the end of last quarter we had a banquet honoring Kirk Lynn, who was not only being graduated but also entering the institution of marriage. Other graduating seniors attending were Art Sclator and Bill Wilson.

MALM NAMED POPULARITY KING

Gamma Theta is well-represented in campus activities this spring with five members on the nine-man Baker University golf team, four on the nine-man tennis team, and three in leading parts in the play.

Stan Werner and Bob Jones play No. 1 positions on tennis and golf teams, respectively. Fred Wicke, Chuck Kirker, Pete Johnson, and Roger Willis complete the Delt representation on the links. Other berths on the tennis squad are held by Dick Maze, Bill Hines, and Bob Toole.

Swede Malm, former Gamma Theta treasurer, was elected Baker University Popularity King for 1955-56, and crowned at a Coronation Ball April 6.

Malm was selected at the close of basketball season to the all-Kansas conference team and received his fourth letter as Baker center.

PLAYS "EAST LYNNE" LEAD

Fran Coxen, a junior, picked up his third cage letter, and Bill Hines, Gamma Theta sophomore president, was awarded his second letter. Jim Lee, Gamma Theta second semester pledge, was the only Baker freshman to letter.

Eric Erickson, Gamma Theta vice-president, has the male lead as Archibald Carlyle in "East Lynne," Baker University spring play. Other major parts are held by Tom Hedrick, a senior, as Raymond Vane and Henry Rector, second-semester pledge, as John Dill.

PLEDGE SMITH IN OLYMPIC TRYOUTS

Delta Tau Chapter has just completed a very successful rushing season which resulted in the pledging of 29 men. One of our pledges, John Smith, is scheduled to wrestle in the final tryouts for the Olympic team in Los Angeles on April 29. He has already won the midwestern regional tryouts. John also holds the state AAU crown and last year placed second in the national YMCA wrestling tournament. He wrestles in the 137-pound class.

MOST IMPROVED SCHOLARSHIP

For the second consecutive year, Delta Tau Chapter has been the most improved fraternity, grade-wise, on the campus. The fraternity average for the past semester represented an increase of .126 over the second semester of last year. It gave the Delts fifth place among BGSU fraternities in scholarship for the semester.

On April 25, the members, pledges, and dates hid 2160 eggs in the Bowling Green City Park for the benefit of the children of the city. This started Delta Tau Chapter's sixth annual Easter Egg Roll. Fifty-five baby chicks and 30 games and toys were distributed as prizes for the "lucky eggs." John Lepp served as chairman of the committee which planned the annual event.

WIN TANDEM SWIM

Teamed with Delta Gamma Sorority, the Delts took first place in the annual tandem swim meet this year. They also placed second in the indoor track relays and the interfraternity swimming meet.

The chapter is taking a new stride toward better alumni relations by the publication of a monthly newsletter to all alumni telling them not only about the activities of the chapter but also of the whereabouts and interesting items of the alumni and the college.

HOST REGIONAL CONFERENCE

Early in February, the Western Regional Conference was held in Berkeley. The delegates met at the University Alumni House and the chapter house; many pertinent Fraternity matters were discussed at the meetings. The convention was climaxed by a banquet at the Claremont Hotel, followed by a party at the house. Bob Gilley did a bang-up job presiding over the convention.

Gary Wulfsburg and Roger Peterson have shown a lot of promise in freshman track. Their performance is consistently improving with each meet.

JOINT SOCIAL EFFORT

Socially, the spring semester has been very successful, yet all the functions should prove to be insignificance epitomized compared to the coming Beachcomber held jointly with the Stanford chapter in May. In the past years, this affair has created many interesting memories; we hope that this year will be no exception.

FAST BUGGIES ENTERED IN BIG RACE

Spring Carnival, 1956, is planned to be one of the biggest carnivals ever brought to the Tech campus. The Delts figure to be one of the big trophy winners of the week end. Wayne Dickinson has a surprise for the campus when he puts two of the fastest buggies ever designed by the Delt house at the foot of number one hill for the big race. John Skalyo has been the man behind the wheels and bearings for Wayne's buggies.

The body work, which we hope will place high in design, is being done by Dave Johnson, J. Durr, and Al Koch. Since we have our outstanding runners back, such as W. Dickinson, Hugh Coble, Max Port, Ken Laughery, J. Mihm, and Dave Hoffman, things look very good from the pushing end of the buggy. The men of the chapter hope to add to the long line of buggy trophies already on our mantel.

HOUSING COMMITTEE PUSHES TOWARD GOAL

Delta Beta Chapter can well be proud of its achievements this year, not only in athletics, but scholastically as well. With such scholarship holders as A. Robbi, R. Spohn, C. Feren, and J. Skalyo, the Delts have risen from the bottom of the fraternal heap to fourth place among Tech's fraternities. The Delts' housing committee is working toward that $50,000 goal for our new Shelter. The chairman of the committee is Karl L. Konnerth; as retired vice president of the U. S. Steel Corporation, he is able to devote his management experience to the operation. Assisting Karl is Horace H. Johnson, Norm McLeod, Ernie Butler, and Pat Navarro.

HALF OF NEW TAU BETA PI CROP HAILS FROM SHELTER

The U. C. Delts are compiling an enviable record of men in honoraries. Recently, Brother Gene Mapes was tapped for Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership honorary, joining Jim Grogg, who is editor in chief of the campus newspaper and a member of Pi Delta Epsilon, journalism honorary, and Pi Alpha Theta, history honorary. Gene also boasts membership in Cincinnatus, a service honorary.

Two of the four men tapped for Tau Beta Pi this year are Delts. Brothers Carl Lundgren and Alan Brunner were just recently elected to the national engineering honorary. Brother Lundgren is also the newly elected president of Eta Kappa Nu, the electrical engineering honorary.

Sophos, the freshman men's activity honorary, recently tapped newly initiated Oran Heuck. Besides his many activities, Oran is maintaining a 2.96 average in the College of Engineering.

SEEKS KAMPUS KING TITLE

The brothers of Gamma Xi are eagerly awaiting the annual turn-about dance, the "Kampus King" dance, at which the girls on campus elect a king. Heading the list of candidates is Delt Don Presley, who is known as the number one end on the Bearcat football team and for his many activities, including membership in Sigma Sigma, activities honorary, and Ulex, athletic honorary.

DON PRESLEY (left), Cincinnati varsity end and Kampus King candidate, and WILLIAM BROWN, Delaware, winner of $6,600 scholarship.

Nineteen new brothers were initiated into the chapter on March 25. Following the initiation ceremonies, a banquet was held at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel at which Brother Bob Heuck, Chapter Initiate 21, was the principal speaker. The nineteen new wearers of the Golden Square are seen in all phases of campus activity.

BREAKS I-M SHOT PUT RECORD

With intramural track in season, we are increasing our standing in the race for points. Pledge Warren Reeser set a new intramural shot put record of 40' 8" with the 16-pound shot. The old record of 39' had stood since 1939.

CAPTURE INTRAMURAL CHAMPIONSHIP IN THIRD MAJOR SPORT

Delts have added another intramural sport to their list of all-school championships for this season. Both the A and B basketball teams won their leagues and the A team proceeded to win the all-school championship. This is the third major sport this season in which the Delts have been undisputed; moreover, we have again entered two teams in the softball division, as we had 40 men returning from last year's championship squad.

PARTY AND SPORTS AREA PROJECTED

Plans have been approved and work is now going on to convert the large tract of land behind the Shelter into a multipurpose party and sports area. A 75,000 square foot slab of concrete will be used as an outdoor dance area, and for more active endeavors such as basketball and volley ball. The area will be surrounded by a patio made from native sandstone with a barbecue pit at one end. It should enhance the attractiveness of our Shelter; moreover, combined with the backdrop the Rocky Mountains pro-

NEW PLEDGES IN VARIOUS ACTIVITIES

At the house meeting of March 18 we elected our new officers for 1956-57. Our congratulations are extended to President Keith Stewart, Vice-President Bill Anderson, Recording Secretary John Maclay, and Corresponding Secretary John Edsall.

Spring rushing was highly successful with the addition of 14 pledges to the chapter. Three weeks after pledging the new men put on the annual Pledge Formal, which was one of the best parties of the year.

Many of the pledges have already distinguished themselves in activities on the Hill. In athletics Roy Behling is rowing first boat on the freshman 150-pound crew, Dick Ball is playing varsity tennis, and Charlie Nathan is on the freshman lacrosse team. Charlie Rogers has been shooting all winter with the freshman rifle team, and Jack Evans played freshman basketball. Kyro Kyrtsis is a member of Orpheus, the freshman glee club.

WINS EASTERN FENCING TITLE

The brothers have also been active in athletics. Joe Crisanti, co-captain of the fencing team, won the foil title in the Eastern Fencing Championships held in New York. He placed second in the NCAA championships at Annapolis during the last week in March. Denny Caverly has been elected cocaptain of next year's team. Fifth-year man Barry Hart is the assistant coach of the 150-pound crew and is coaching John Holton, Bob Winship, and Don Corey.

THREE DELTS IN SENIOR HONORARY

Delts have also been participating in other activities around the campus. Charlie Dane has been serving as president of the Cornell Conservation Society. Joe Crisanti, Dud Norton, and Keith Rowan are members of Sphinx Head, a senior men's honorary. John Maclay is a member of Kappa Tau Chi, a mechanical engineering honorary, and Don Corey is a member of Pros Ops, an honorary for chemical engineers.

At this writing we are holding practice sessions for the Interfraternity Sing to be held during Fraternity Week at Cornell. We have been highly successful with this in the past and are optimistic about our chances this year.

RECEIVES $6,600 SCHOLARSHIP

Ex-President William K. Brown has recently been awarded one of twenty $6,600 national Root-Tilden Law Scholarships. Brown will enter New York University Law School in September, 1956. Other honors which have come Brother Brown's way are his election as Outstanding Delt for the second year and his election to the honorary scholastic fraternity, Phi Kappa Phi. Also elected to that organization was Karl Buretz, past chapter vice-president and an outstanding senior pre-med student.

In other recent IFC competition, Delta Upsilon placed second in the annual Fraternity Playbill with an original play written by William Brown.

BASEMENT REC ROOM COMPLETED

Under the able guidance of Rushing Chairman Bob Maegerle, the chapter took some 18 pledges during formal rush week.

The chapter is now enjoying the new basement recreation room and first-floor improvements which have been completed during the past months. With the new facilities, the social season has been going full swing since the hectic days of rushing, with the annual pledge-sponsored Apache Party and the big Delt Week End highlighting the program.

SPRING SEES 17 INITIATED

The DePauw Delts began a successful spring semester by initiating 17 outstanding men.

The high light of all spring social events on the Delt calendar will undoubtedly be the annual house dance held for approximately 60 Delts and their dates along with 10 faculty members, including the President of the University.

Brothers Keith Schroeder, Walt Martens, Dick Kindig, Jim Beard, and Jim Bailey have all been consistent hitters for the varsity diamond squad this year, while Giles Locke has been pacing the DePauw golf team with his outstanding scores. Along the varsity swimming lines, Dwight Walton and Jim McElwain helped to set a new DePauw record for a four-man relay team.

DELTS SECOND IN 500

Tim Ubben, a sophomore, was in charge of the "Little 500" bicycle race in which all fraternities on campus competed. This was the initial year for the race. The Delts captured a close second in this grueling contest of stamina.

A confident Delt softball team will be taking the field this year with Frank Nusbaum, Vic Dix, Bud Johnson, and Ted Driscoll leading the squad. A championship team will put us in close contention for the intramural trophy for this year.

The high light of the winter quarter was the crowning of our new sponsor, Nancy King, at the formal February 24. We consider Nancy our main attraction at the Shelter. The dance itself was a great success.

EASTER EGG HUNT FOR ORPHANS

An Easter egg hunt was held for a group of orphans from the Methodist Children's Home in Decatur. The children (and the brothers) managed to enjoy themselves thoroughly without wrecking the Shelter.

Thanks to the efforts of Brother John Pattillo, we now have a new trophy case at the Shelter. Plans are also being made to buy a hi-fi set.

BREAK GROUND FOR SHELTER EXPANSION

After six years of planning, the ground has been broken for a new wing on the Florida Delt Shelter. The contract was let at approximately $100,000 to Brother Frank H. Brownnett of Jacksonville. The revised Shelter was designed by William K. Jackson, architect, also a brother. The new wing will double all of our facilities, giving us a dining room for 90 men and living space for 45. The scheduled completion date is next September, in time for the fall semester. The original part will be completely renovated, though retaining its distinctive Southern colonial style.

DELTA QUEEN STAYS ON

At the annual Rainbow Ball, held this year on March 16 at the Gainesville Moose Lodge, Lynn Morris, a vivacious Kappa Delta, was recrowned to reign another year as our Delta Queen. The evening was also highlighted by the presentation of a sweetheart pin to our beloved Mother Stokes. Doing the honors was Chapter President Bob Allen.

SIX VIE FOR CAMPUS POSTS

On the political scene, Delta Zeta has six candidates vying for varied student posts. Bob Davenport, present student body vice-president, is running for the student body presidency in a heated campaign; Truman Skinner for business manager of the Seminole, the Florida yearbook; John Wyman for business administration executive council; John Cannella for architecture executive council; Bob Hendry for arts and sciences executive council; and Joe Hobbs, sophomore executive council.

SETS FIELD GOAL RECORD

When the smoke cleared on the Gator basketball court, we found that Brother Joe Hobbs, as a driving forward, had set a new Florida field goal record. He was also an outstanding man on defense.

TWO PHI BETA KAPPAS

Many of our graduating seniors have received scholastic honors. Among them are Jack Minnick and Jerry Crockett, senior law school student, both of whom were elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Dick Borde is being graduated with honors in business administration, while Tom Campbell was awarded a scholarship in real estate.

LOSE VALUED PLEDGE MEMBER

The semester started out rather sadly at Florida State, with the death of Pledge Sam Burns of Bele Glade, Florida, who was killed in an automobile accident February 4, 1956, in Tallahassee. This was a heavy blow to us, for Sam was very close to the chapter.

INCREASE PLEDGE CLASS TO 18

We have successfully rushed many good men on campus, bringing our total of brothers-hopeful up to 18 at the time of this writing. Several of these are competing or trying out for varsity sports, and we feel they will make good Delts.

In March we initiated Don Ayres, Clete Blaes, Mike Guerra, Howard Fillmore, Jimmie Harelle, and Bill Lewis. Clete was elected the outstanding pledge of the year.

The annual election of officers was held in March, with Harold Lambert being chosen president and J. Alton Hall vice-president.

We are looking forward to a big week end on April 13-14 when all the chapters in the Southeast are meeting here at Florida State. In addition, the I.F.C. is holding its annual dance, while we are also having a dance on Saturday.

BREAKS TWO SWIMMING RECORDS

In swimming Howard Fillmore recently broke two pool records at Vanderbilt for the F.S.U. swimming team. Four Delts on the university track team brought in nine points at the first meet. Delts Bernie McCann, John Miller, and Ray Johnson are playing vital roles in helping last year's NCAA championship volley ball team to another successful season.

With the arrival of the spring term, Gamma Eta, now in its 53rd year at George Washington, finds itself in a strong position. Forty-one actives and seven pledges keep the Shelter well filled.

Spring always finds a new emphasis on activities, and usually finds Gamma Eta Delts right in the thick of things. One of our men, Earl Smith, is a strong candidate for president of the Student Council, and another, Tom Smith, is favored for council representative. The new Rowing Club, organized and sparked by two Delts, Sandy Morrison and Bob Moore, will be ready to represent the University in intercollegiate rowing next fall.

Our president and vice-president, Bill Medina and Tom Topping respectively, were recently initiated into Gate and Key, fraternity men's honorary. With the IFC Sing climaxing Greek Week April 13, the halls have been ringing with "Delta Shelter" as Gamma Eta practices to repeat last year's win. Spring brings another Delt athlete, Larry Spellman, captain of the GWU golf team, into the limelight. We are also represented on the baseball diamond with two first-stringers, Pitcher Roger Turner and Shortstop Dick Cilento.

"QUEEN" SINGING IMPRESSIVE

On the social scene, the biggest thing in the last few weeks was the Rainbow Ball, March 23, and the crowning of our new Delt Queen, Mrs. Sandy Schlemmer. Though this isn't news to our old-timers, from a neophyte's view the singing of "My Delta Queen" by the whole chapter is one of the most impressive and moving experiences in college life. Our "New Orleans Night," with jazz musicians from New York and Washington augmenting our own "Delta Stompers," brought the brothers and their dates as well as most of the University (or so it seemed) down to our version of Basin Street.

Founders Day, April 6, was celebrated with the traditional banquet and a party at the Shelter for alums and the Maryland and Delaware chapters. Gamma Eta's past president, Art Eglington, received the new Henry Lipscomb Award for outstanding service to the chapter and the Fraternity. This award commemorates our retired chapter adviser, "Pappy" Lipscomb, who was recently elected to the Distinguished Service Chapter. Our Alumni Smoker April 28 promises to be the best ever, with George Washington University President Cloyd Heck Marvin and Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark among the notables attending.

NAMED HOMECOMING CO-CHAIRMAN

Along with his other activities in debating and scholarship, Delt Richard Jamborski was recently selected co-chairman for Homecoming Week End, and Bill Hix, editor of the Hatchet, the GWU newspaper, was another Delt to be elected to the national journalism honorary.

The last few weeks have brought us quite a few visitors from all over the country—as well as two from Europe (to see what a "typical" fraternity is like)—so if you're down this way for a spring or summer trip, drop in at 1915 G. St. and share our brand of Delt hospitality.

COACH OF FROSH BASEBALL

Quite a few Delts here have distinguished themselves on campus. Jack Buchanan was chosen head coach of the freshman baseball team; Denny Jackson is on the track team; and Ed Ingles was selected to be sports editor of the campus weekly, the Red and Black. Brothers Ernie Drew and Colquitt Dean made Phi Eta Sigma, and Bryson Tanner was initiated into the Arnold Air Society. Colquitt Dean was selected for Gamma Sigma Epsilon, honor society for chemistry majors.

NEW SHELTER ACQUIRED

The biggest thing that happened to us this year was the acquisition of a new house, a two-story white brick structure. Since we moved in last February, we have been busy fixing it up ourselves. We have nearly completed a playroom which we dug out under the front terrace, and plans call for a paint job on the house, a paved parking lot, and a tennis court.

The Delts rank highest in Koseme, an honorary society recognizing leadership and participation in extracurricular activities for juniors, by having five of the total 18 members. They are Pat Bolger, president of Koseme, Rick Downey, Joe Pinnell, Bob Marbut, and Bill Killian. Koseme is considered the highest honor that a junior can achieve.

BEST-DRILLED CADET

Recently Fred Frueauff of the Infantry ROTC was selected the best-drilled cadet at Georgia Tech. Fred was in competition with about 930 other basic cadets. This is the foremost award presented by the Army ROTC unit for basic cadets.

THREE TAU BETA PIS

Lee Edwards, Warren Jaunsen, and Bill Killian were elected to membership in Tau Beta Pi. Delt Frank Prosser is first man in this year's Georgia Tech graduating class. A chemistry major, he secured his position as valedictorian by compiling a 3.9 average on a 4.0 grading system.

GEORGIA AAU DIVING CHAMPION

As a comparative youngster of only two years competition in Southeastern diving, Bob Ballard has done very well this last season. At the beginning of the year things looked fair for Bob, but he ended the season by piling up six first places, two seconds, and one third place in dual meets. Bob won the Georgia AAU diving championships and in the Southeastern Conference came in second on the one-meter board and only missed second on the three-meter board by six points.

Another merman, Sophomore Hal Reeves, led Georgia Tech's swimming team by compiling eleven first places, ten seconds, and one third in the season's dual meets. Reeves did well also in the Georgia AAU championships with two seconds and one third. Hal finished his successful season by taking a second place in the SEC 220-yard freestyle, another second in the 400-yard freestyle relay, and a third in the SEC 440-yard freestyle.

THREATENS 100-YARD DASH RECORD

Martin Torrance is again burning up the cinders for Tech's track team. Last season in the Georgia AAU's, Martin won the 220-yard dash as well as tying the record of 9.8 seconds for the 100-yard dash. This year we are behind Martin in the hopes that he will better his own time.

Ed Barnes is making a fine showing as one of the top men on Tech's golf team this year.

HEADS SCHOLASTIC FRATERNITY

Academically, Kappa Chapter fared well. Delta Tau Delta was well represented in campus scholastic honorary fraternities. Jim Scoggins was elected president of Epsilon Delta Alpha, national scholastic fraternity. Supporting him in this organization is Bruce Felker, newly pledged member. Jim Sturgess and Bruce Felker received Omicron Delta Kappa recognition certificates for their leadership ability.

Kappa Chapter continues to lead in the campus all-sports trophy race. Even though in basketball Delts did not fare as well as in previous intramural competition, the team, coached by Dave Caruthers and led on the court by Jack Theirback, placed third in the league.

WIN FIRST IN MARDI GRAS SKITS

Mardi Gras seemingly climaxed the mid-term season at the Shelter. The house placed first in the skit presentations and second in the concessions standings. The prize-winning skit was based on a duplicate performance of one of Steve Allen's "Tonight" shows. Sets and costumes were made accurate to the last detail in order to simulate actual studio broadcasting conditions. The originality of the idea and the extreme amount of work put in to achieve this broadcasting atmosphere were the two factors contributing to the chapter's prize-winning achievements.

BILL LYNCH AND BRUCE FELKER

Idaho—Delta Mu

ATTAIN TOP RANK IN INTRAMURALS

Idaho Delts are campaigning hard for their men in the current campus elections. Junior Dick Weeks is the Student Government party candidate for A.S.U.I. Student Body president. Senior Neal Powell and Sophomore Dan Davis are on the United Party ticket for Student Executive Board.

In intramural sports Delta Tau Delta finally attained the top. The team took second place in "B" basketball, a fourth in ping-pong, and entered the finals of the bowling tournament. Compiling points in these departments put the Delts temporarily on top with only three sports remaining for competition. Also in sports, Delta Mu has placed seven men on the varsity track traveling squad. They are Bill Bauscher, Dick Shern, Gary Collier, Jerry Duffy, Dick Wisdom, Gary Simmons, and Manager Dale Becker. Initiate Thad Scholes is among the frosh cinder hopefuls.

BAUSCHER NAMED "MOST VALUABLE"

Bill Bauscher, honorable mention all-coast basketball star, was chosen as most valuable on the '55-56 Vandal squad.

Dick Sheppard paced the University golf team in its first meet and is currently holding first-man position. Ed Russ is the lone Delt cracking the tennis squad.

In scholastic honoraries, Tom MacGregor was recently initiated into Sigma Tau. Phi Eta Sigma, frosh men's honorary, claimed Initiates Thad Scholes and Hal Hogge. Bill Bauscher, Gary Simmons, and Jack Cole were tapped for Pre-Medicine Honorary Alpha Epsilon Delta. Sigma Delta Chi picked pledge journalist Don Neville-Smith.

OUTSTANDING FROSH ENGINEER

In other campus activities Ernie Davenport was honored as last year's outstanding frosh engineer. Neal Powell deserves praise as the new pep band director and upon being chosen R.O.T.C. Cadet Colonel for the spring semester. Roger McPike was a co-chairman for the annual Blue-Key talent show. Delts Phil Davis, Don Ware, Roger McPike, and Neal Powell all had substantial parts in the campus musical "Finian's Rainbow." Joe Jessup has the lead in the current A.S.U.I. drama production.

JOHN ROSHOLT

Illinois—Beta Upsilon

HONORED AS MOST VALUABLE GYMNAST

Heading the list of Beta Upsilon activity men is Jon Culbertson, veteran gymnast and three-time letter winner for Illinois' N.C.A.A. champions for the past two seasons. Jon was forced to switch from a specialist to an all-around at the beginning of the season and wound up in seventh place in the national all-around standings recently. Jon also qualified for the finals in N.C.A.A. competition in his special events—side horse, parallel bars, high bar, and rope climb. Last week Culbertson was honored by his teammates as they elected him "Most Valuable" for the past season, a fitting tribute for the plucky senior from New Trier. Jon's versatility is not limited to gymnastics only. He is a member of Omega Beta Pi, pre-med honorary, and has been awarded a dancing part in Brigadoon, the spring musical presented by the University on Mother's Day.

ATHLETIC PROWESS ON MANY FRONTS

Other Beta Upsilon Delts active in athletics are Dick Nordmeyer and Paul

Adams, first-string tackles on the Fighting Illini football team; Eddie DeLong, quarter-miler on Leo Johnson's track team; Rex Berry, varsity baseball; Harry Kavetas, freshman fencing; Don Harvey and Gene Latz, freshman baseball; Roy Etnyre, promising hurdler for the freshman track squad; and Bill Borchelt and Jack McWhirter, tennis. Along these same lines, we have two brothers who are managers for the intramural sports program. Wayne Marthaler is now junior I.M. manager in charge of publicity and freshman recruiting and is a sure bet to be senior I.M. manager next year. Marty Maguet is sophomore I.M. manager at the present time. Dewey Kessler and Dave Landram are student trainers for the various Illini teams.

ILLUSTRATES 1956 YEARBOOK

Switching from athletics to other activities, Beta Upsilon is well represented all over the campus. On the Illio yearbook staff are Brothers Bob Eggers, Pete Klien, and Vern Bowman. Vern did all of the illustrations and the cover for this year's Illio. Around the R.O.T.C. area we have Brothers Besant, Marthaler, and Landram in Phalanx and Jim Whitelaw and Dick Renfro in Scabbard and Blade, military honoraries. Jim Whitelaw and Larry Venable are members of the singing Illini Glee Club.

At the present time all of the brothers have turned their talents to singing for the annual Schem Sing to be held on Mother's Day. It looks as if it's going to be a rather busy semester for all of the brothers from now on out with our Spring Formal, under the guidance of Bob Rankine and Bruce Ernst, coming up on May 11 and our Alumni Reunion, under the chairmanship of Al Zengel, coming up next week end.

SPONSOR FIRST REGIONAL CONFERENCE

Gamma Beta Delts were hosts for the Regional Conference held at Illinois Tech on March 23 and 24. Delegates and visiting brothers arrived from Michigan State, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Northwestern, Illinois, and Lawrence. The conference was held in the Gamma Beta Shelter.

Topics discussed during the convention were pledge education, alumni relations, scholarship, house corporation relations, fraternity spirit, finances, and public relations. On Saturday, the topics centered around a message from the national Treasurer and faculty, school, and administration problems.

Special credit for arrangements and preparations for the Conference goes to Gamma Beta Delts Dale Gruninger, Bob Mock, Craig Stubblebine, and Gary Walton. The Institute administration was also most co-operative in affording parking space and in allowing excused absences for Illinois Tech Delts desiring to attend the conference.

Social life for the visiting brothers was provided in guided tours to Chicago-land's most interesting and unusual people and places. On Saturday night a house party highlighted and ended the first Delt Conference to be held at Illinois Tech.

SOAR ABOVE ALL MEN'S AVERAGE

Final scholastic standings found the active chapter holding a 2.52 average on a four-point system. All Men's Average for this same semester was 2.34.

New initiates this semester were Gary Walton, Jim Thrush, Mike Maloney, Cecil Truluck, Dave Anderson, Dick Wadsworth, and Everett Milton. These neophytes are active in campus publications and intramural and interfraternity sports. Several hold chairmanships of Open House committees as well as owning scholarship trophies awarded by organizations to which they belong.

Beta Alpha recently was host to several delegates of the Little United Nations assembly. This nationwide collegiate organization met at Indiana University to carry on mock debates and forums.

TWO BECOME BLUE KEY MEMBERS

Brothers Jack Shaw and Gus Sapolos have been nominated to Blue Key. Co-captain and most valuable player on the I. U. eleven, Bob Skoronski has been elected to the Board of Aeons.

SINGING HOOSIERS BOAST NINE DELTS

The University's Singing Hoosiers, who are to tour the Army bases in the Far East this summer, boast nine Delts out of the fourteen singers on the male side. Beta Alpha is looking for a first-place position in the upcoming Annual I. U. Campus Sing.

New officers are President Nick Roknick of Gary; Vice President Jack Shaw of New Carlisle; Treasurer Jack Punnea of Hammond; Corresponding Secretary Tom Spencer of Mishawaka; and Recording Secretary Mert Hoagland of Nashville, Tenn. Along with the new officers, our spring semester has seen 15 new pledges with an accumulative B-average. Congratulations to Rush Chairman Tom Ford!

DAVID BARNES

PLAYS LEAD IN "FAMILY PORTRAIT"

Omicron Deltas have been quite active on campus. Brother Bob Smart recently had the lead in the University play "Family Portrait." His portrayal of Juda brought him much recognition. Brothers Don Sherk and James Cutright are running for Student Union Board, which is the student governing body for campus activities. Brother Bob Bateson is the retiring president of this body. Brother Sherk is also president of YMCA. Being sports editor of the school yearbook, the Hawkeye, keeps Brother Jim Seitz busy.

DELT BEARDS WIN BY A CHIN

The Deltas are also in the midst of MEBOC campaigning. Brother Jack Laughery, our candidate for Most Eligible Bachelor on Campus, appears to have an excellent chance to win that honor. The Deltones, the house quartet, recently sang for the University's "Mecca Ball." Brothers John Dockendorff and Gerald Lewis were chairmen for the entertainment and ticket committees for that dance. Brothers Lewis and William Ide were winners of electric razors in the beard growing contests that were held in connection with the "Mecca Ball."

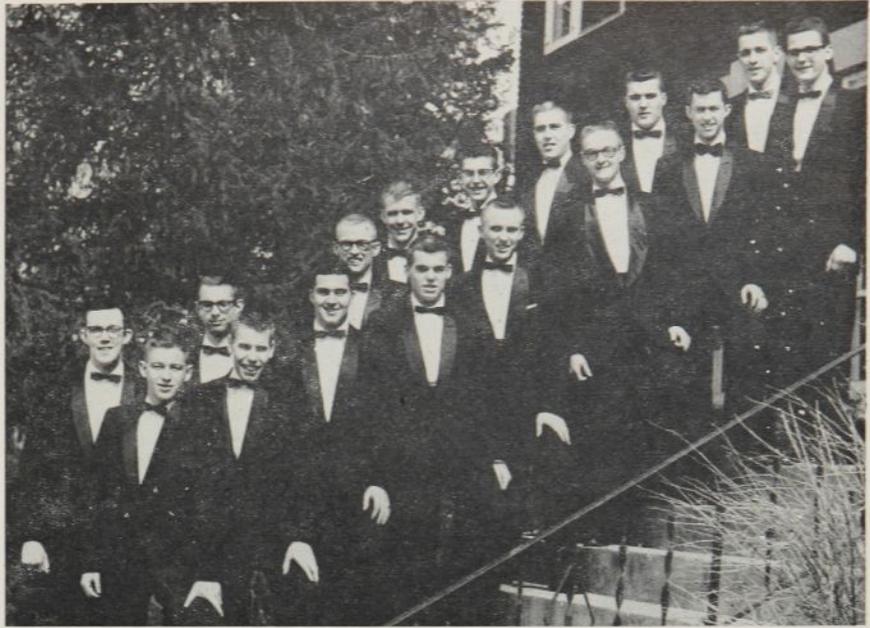

During March, 16 men were initiated into Omicron Chapter. Although only a few men went through second semester informal rush, the Deltas were able to pledge the men they wanted. Looking ahead on the Delt calendar here at the State University of Iowa finds the following events coming up: University Sing, Greek Week, and the house spring formal.

chairman of Greek Week. The Gamma PIs are again well represented in Veishea, the largest student-managed festival in the nation. Among the Veishea workers are Jim Cochran, staging chairman of Veisheathon; Dick Wight, business manager of Veishea co-ordinators committee; and Don Williams, technical director of Iowa State Players Veishea productions.

HONORARIES CLAIM DELTS

Four Deltas have recently been made members of honorary societies here at Iowa State College. Ken Ruck and Jim Cochran entered Knights of St. Patrick, an engineering activities honorary (Cochran was one of only seven Juniors chosen). Don Williams, a landscape architecture senior, joined Alpha Zeta, an honorary agricultural society, and also Tau Sigma Delta, a professional society in the fine arts. Duane McLean was accepted into the honorary general engineering society, Gamma Epsilon Sigma.

DELTS DOMINATE IOWA STATE PLAYERS

Joe DeBoer was recently elected president of the Iowa State Players. Players are a select group of students who are interested in dramatic productions on campus. In order to become a member of Players, a student must participate in at least two plays. DeBoer and Don Williams have had leading technical and acting roles in the past year. Other Deltas actively engaged in Players productions are Glen Wikstrom, Tom Swift, and Tom Bolton.

HOST TO REGIONAL CONFERENCE

Gamma Pi Chapter played host to the Regional Conference of the Eastern Region of the Western Division, April 6 and 7. W. Harold Brenton, former national President of Delta Tau Delta and a Gamma Pi alumnus, was the speaker at the banquet. Among the guests present were George Fisher, Jr., and Bob Gilley.

FIRE IN KANSAS SHELTER TURNS OUT TO BE MORTGAGE BURNING

High light of the spring activities at Gamma Tau was the March 17 and 18 celebration commemorating complete payment of the chapter's 29-year-old house mortgage. Over 60 alumni, including ten past and present house corporation members, three charter members of Gamma Tau, and three members of the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter, including past national President Martin Dickinson, attended the two-day event.

A whirlwind of activities included a smoker, watching the NCAA regional basketball finals, and an impressive Sunday morning service that began with the initiation of 17 new Deltas and ended with a steak dinner and banquet at which Gamma Tau members old and new got better acquainted and had a chance to renew the bonds of friendship that symbolize Deltism. The guest speaker for the occasion, Dr. Homer Ebright, a Delt for over 50 years from neighboring Gamma Theta Chapter at Baker, added a memorable climax to the initiation with his fine spiritual message, following which Chapter President Tom McCall lit the match that sent the chapter's mortgage up in flames.

HONORS PILE UP FOR DELTS

In a wide range of other endeavors, Kansas Deltis have added individual and collective honors to the chapter halls this spring. Climaxing a brilliant four-year career, Al Frame was elected Phi Beta Kappa. Sophomore Jerry McNeal, Big 7 indoor two-mile champion and an honor roll student scholastically, was named to Owl Society, KU's honor organization for outstanding junior men. Bob Wagner and Dave Wilson were initiated into Ku-Ku's, men's honorary pep club fraternity. In recently held campus-wide elections, four brothers—Jim Bickley, Bill Jackson, Bill Wilson, and Bill Witt—were elected to the All Student Council. No other fraternity or sorority had more than three ASC members.

TWO VOLLEYBALL TEAMS TRIUMPH

Intramurally, Delt volleyball teams added two more division championship trophies to the Shelter trophy case, with both the "A" and "C-2" units going through the regular season undefeated. In basketball, Brothers Charlie Franklin and Jerry Cox were named to the intramural all-star team which played KU's freshman cagers in an exhibition game.

DELTS RACK UP 22 POINTS AS KU TAKES INDOOR TRACK CROWN

On the varsity sports scene, the powerful Jayhawk track team—rated a strong contender for the national collegiate championship this year—has continually been getting record performances by Deltis. From the placings of Brothers McNeal (2-mile champion), Frame (both mile and half-mile kingpin), Al Oerter (third place in the shot-put), and Larry and Louie Stroup (forming half of KU's mile relay team), Kansas picked up 22 of its total of 51 points to sweep to an unprecedented fifth straight Big 7 indoor track championship this past March. Since then, Sophomore Oerter especially has been sensational with shot putting and discus-throwing activities that make him a possible candidate for this year's Olympics.

PRESIDENTS OF CAMPUS HONORARIES

Frame Excels Three Ways

AT A LARGE—or at least fairly large—institution of higher learning such as the University of Kansas, it takes an individual of superior ability to excel in one of the three major divisions of college work: academics, activities, and athletics. Within a student body of several thousand, there are occasional examples of those who rise to the summit of achievement in two of the three "A's" of college. Truly rare, however, is that "one in a million" who can be a star in all three.

This spring a young man will be graduated from the University of Kansas who belongs in that "one in a million" class. That man's name is Dwight Allen Frame, and we of Gamma Tau Chapter of Delta Tau Delta are proud that he is one of us.

Al Frame's list of accomplishments at K.U. is long and varied. Athletically, he will leave the University of Kansas with nine varsity letters, being a three-year letterman in three sports. In two of these sports Al received All-American recognition for his performances.

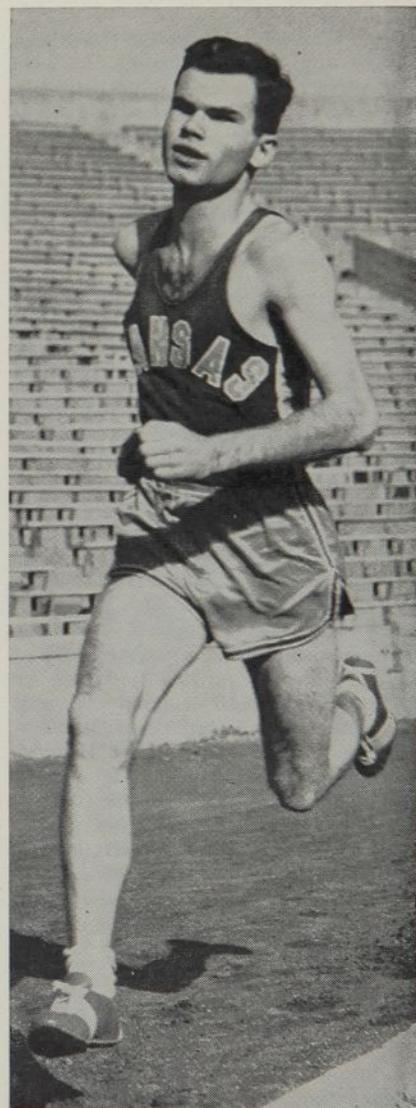

Those who follow college sports closely have undoubtedly already recognized Al as a track and cross-country star, one of the best collegiate distance runners in the country. In his three years of varsity competition, the Wichita, Kansas, Delt has managed to win the NCAA cross-country championship (1954) in the fourth fastest time in meet history as well as to become the first man in the history of the Big 7 Conference to hold the indoor 880-yard, mile, and two-mile titles. And these are only the high lights of a brilliant track career in college.

Academically, Al came to KU as a recipient of the highest scholarship that can be awarded a Kansas boy—the Sommerfield. A 2.5 or "A" grade average is required to maintain this scholarship, and he has maintained it all four years. Climax to this brilliant academic achievement was Al's election to Phi Beta Kappa this spring.

In the third field of college endeavor, activities, this amazing success story continues. A member of both Owl Society, KU's honor organization for outstanding junior men, and Schem, the society for outstanding senior men, Al was the 1955-56 Senior Class president. Besides everything else, he found time to participate in K-Club (KU letterman's club) activities and serve on the Student Union operating board. After making such a record for himself in four years of college, it is little wonder that Al was awarded the Woodrow Wilson Scholarship to do graduate study in the field of western civilization at the University of Pennsylvania next year.

All of KU as well as we of Gamma Tau will miss Al Frame next year. We will miss a brother whose example of excellence in all fields of endeavor is representative of the true spirit of Deltism. And we will miss a brother whose accomplishment has been a flame of inspiration to the rest of us. Therefore, we of Gamma Tau wish to salute our schoolmate, our friend, and our brother, Dwight Allen Frame, truly one of the really outstanding Deltis in the Class of '56.

BILL WITT, '58

boasts Brother Lee Ruggles as prexy. Lee is also editor of the K-book and a member of Blue Key. Sigma Gamma Epsilon, honorary geology fraternity, is keeping well informed through the hand of brother Paul Strunk, corresponding secretary. Brothers Gary Rumsey and Bill Brethour joined Brother Gary Day in the ranks of Alpha Zeta, agriculture honorary. Alpha Mu, milling honorary, has recently initiated Brothers Don Pope and Carl Hosney.

RUNNING SECOND IN HOME STRETCH

In intramurals, Gamma Chi boasted a first in swimming, a second in basketball and volleyball. In striving for the top, we are now holding down a strong second.

Chapter scholarship at Gamma Chi showed a significant improvement as it pushed itself to fourth in the college rating.

The Interfraternity Sing and the chariot races are getting the attention of Gamma Chi. These events take place the last of April. Brother Gillette is doing a fine job of getting the voices in shape and Brother Rood is hard at work on his chariot teams.

ALUMNI HAVE REUNION

Early in January the alums of Gamma Chi got together and the good-ol'-college-days were relived. Those attending included: Richard Morse, '50; Richard Dunn, '46; Ivan Wassberg, '37; Robert Smith, '43; Ward M. Keller, '13; Ward R. Keller, '48; Joe Haines, '26; George Givens, '25; Dr. Ember Coles, '46; Dr. F. D. Farrell, '22; Orville Burtis, '16; Byron Brooks, '27; George Root, '14; Ray Pollom, '12; Charles Nauheim, '32; and F. O. Wolfenbarger, '28.

WINTER SCORE: 25 PLEDGES

Twenty-five pledges! Yes, the Kent State Delts rounded up a score and more of the winter rushees. Brother Bob Drath's organized rush program hasn't been equalled on this campus for a long while. Dave Kennard's "slide show" that was used at the smokers to point out the different aspects of Delt life on this campus had a very enthusiastic audience.

SIXTH ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

Delta Omega, one of the youngest chapters, celebrated its sixth year on the Kent State campus with a Founders Day banquet in the school's Student Union ballroom. Brother Bob Hartford, Northern Division President, was the speaker. Dr. C. E. Atkinson, Kent State registrar and Delta Omega adviser, was the toastmaster. Speaking "on behalf of the active chapter," President Hal Jenkins welcomed the alums who braved the elements to attend the celebration. The chairman was Jack Gimbel.

EASTER EGGS FOR CHILDREN

Delts sponsored a community-wide Easter egg hunt the day before Easter at Fred Fuller Park. Some 200 children attended, mostly from first to fifth grade. A chilly Saturday morning greeted the youngsters as they came out to get as many of the thirty dozen eggs as their baskets could hold. The chairmen, Bob Drath and Lee Smucker, had prizes waiting for the "bunnies" with the most eggs and prizes for certain special eggs.

Kentucky—Delta Epsilon

WINNERS IN CAMPUS CONTEST

It has been a busy year for Delts at the University of Kentucky. We started with a successful fall rush. Fraternities here are limited to 30 pledges each. We had 60 men on our preference list and 51 of them put Delta Epsilon first. We got our 30 from the first 36 men on our list. No other UK fraternity filled its quota.

The next project was Lances Carnival, which we won with our version of a scene on Bourbon Street. The theme of our Homecoming display, "Knot for a Strangler" (Not for a Stranger), made us first again. We won the costume contest at the Mardi Gras dance, and, we are ashamed to say, placed only second in O.D.K. tag sales.

SPONSOR PARTY FOR UNDERPRIVILEGED

Every Christmas Delta Epsilon, furnishing leadership, transportation, and Santa Claus when necessary, sponsors campus-wide parties for underprivileged children. With the co-operation of the two football houses and nearly every fraternity and sorority, we brought Christmas to almost 300 children. It's really something, to see the brothers "help" the kids play with their presents and a busy Santa Claus with tears in his eyes.

DELTS WIN CAMPUS SING AGAIN— FOR 16TH TIME IN 19 YEARS

It seems to be a habit around here for Delts to win the All-Campus Sing—so often, in fact, that the sing almost went out of existence for lack of interest among other campus organizations. After we were held out one year and lost the next, its popularity returned. This year, under the direction of Brother Roy Woodall, we won again, making our record 16 wins in 19 years. In the past, for one of our songs, we always sang "Delta Shelter." This year we introduced a new song to the tune of "Gaudeamus Igitur," with Fraternity words written by Brother Joe Ferguson. We are very pleased with the song and would be even more pleased to see it spread among the chapters.

newly elected president, Jim Truesdell, and vice-president, Lowell Arnold. Brothers Todd Bender and Keith Brown, staff members of the campus literary magazine, Hika, were happy to see their latest edition in print and in the hands of students and faculty. This issue was a specialty, being dedicated to poet John Crowe Ransom, sometime professor of English at Kenyon College, and editor of the Kenyon Review.

LAUD AND HONOR TO OLD KENYON MEN

Bob Stewart, Chi senior and recent president, was presented the Robert Frost Poetry Prize and admitted to Phi Beta Kappa Honorary Fraternity at our last Honors Day ceremony. Along with Bob, this June will see 12 Deltas graduated; they are: Bob Murphy, Peter Keys, Stan Walch, Gordon Duffy, Dick Block, Charles Schwarz, Bob Rowe, Dick Nelson, Paul Smith, Bob Clark, and Frank Hagan.

MUSCLE DEPARTMENT

In the intramural world, Chi has found a good deal of competition this semester. Being football and basketball winners put us in first place by far, yet due to a shifting of manpower over to varsity athletics this spring, we've found it harder to cop top honors in the manifold small tourneys. Oscillating between first and second places, these Deltas will be fighting to keep the prize trophy which has been such a common sight in our halls during the past.

BASEBALL AND LACROSSE CAPTAINS

Varsity sports have taken a goodly share of Deltas this spring. Two of the major sports are captained by our brethren: Dick Block, heading the baseball team, and Dick Nelson, lacrosse. Key golf and tennis team positions are occupied by several Deltas also.

PLAN MOCK CONVENTION

Kenyon's "Mock Political Convention" falls on May 2, when politicians and political scientists from various parts of the nation will gather to speak to the student body and faculty. Our own Jim Truesdell has been one of the student "big guns" in preparing and bringing this unique event to a reality.

Observing Chi's seventy-fifth anniversary, Kenyon Deltas are looking forward to graduation time when they will have a chance to welcome back old grads, see the "old men" flip the tassel on bended knee, and congratulate new blood at initiation.

CHAPTER RANKS SECOND SCHOLASTICALLY

Scholastically, Nu has attained second place among the 19 fraternities on campus with the following men on Dean's List: Lewis Beers, Edwin Curley, Robert Stein, Robert Dahlin, John Fulmer, and Charles Churchman. Brother Churchman was also recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic society.

DELTS PRODUCE RADIO SHOWS

Campuswise, the Deltas have obtained numerous radio programs which are produced by Brothers Havey, Mack, Anderson, Connelly, Jones, and Grant. Other activities include Brother John Fulmer as engravings editor of the college yearbook and program manager of the radio station; Don Kress advanced to news editor of the college paper, while Brother Edwin Curley became an associate-in-news.

TRACK SQUAD LED BY BAGGAR

This spring the sports department will be well represented with Captain John Baggar and Bill Rude leading the track team, while Denmen, Dahlin, Duffy, and Fletcher fill out the freshman squad.

Brother Tom Good is still holding down the position of third base for Lafayette's successful baseball team, and Don Kress and Tom Grant are arch members of the strong tennis team.

DEHMEL ELECTED SEC PRESIDENT

Climaxing a week-long campaign put on by Delt Nu Chapter was the announcement that Delt Rolf Dehmel had won the Student Executive Council presidency. Conducting the campaign for Rolf was Ron Seinwell, whose organization of Radio Station WROLF, a small broadcasting station, played a major part in the winning of the election. All the brothers of Delta Nu are very proud of Rolf and are confident that he will do a good job as president.

GREEN BAY COACH SPEAKS

In commemoration of the twenty-first anniversary of the installation of Delta Iota, local fraternity, as Delta Nu Chapter of Delta Tau Delta, a Founders Day Banquet was held on March 22. The speaker of the evening was a Lawrence graduate and DI, Lisle Blackburn, head football coach of the Green Bay Packers professional football team. In charge of the banquet were Brothers Dave Mann and Bob Nelson.

Deltas who have been all-college committee heads during the past year are Jack Tichenor, Homecoming chairman; Rolf Dehmel, New Student Week; and Bruce Stodola, social chairman. Outgoing vice-president of the S.E.C. is Brother Dave Sackett.

GALLER FOOTBALL CO-CAPTAIN

Elected co-captain of the '56 football team is Brother Max Galler. Max is quarterback of the team. Other Deltas on this year's squad were Walt Bredeson, Bob Gramm, Ron Manthey, and Pete Dohr. Pete, in addition to playing football, is a member of the swimming team and has been elected co-captain along with Brother Dehmel. The latter won a first place and set a new record in the 200-yard individual medley at the conference meet and also took a third in the backstroke. Bob Gramm and Bob Swain rounded out the Deltas on this year's team. Jim Fetterly was a member of the wrestling team. Ron Manthey did an outstanding job in Viking basketball this winter.

TABLE TENNIS CHAMP

Tom Kayser won the table tennis singles championship and teamed with Ron Manthey to win the doubles championship in the all-school tournament. Brother Rod Thorson was named to the first string of the interfraternity all-star basketball team.

POPEYE COPS SNOW SCULPTURE AWARD FOR DELT HOUSE

Who is going to win the Fraternity division of the snow sculpture contest? That was the big question on the Maine campus. Winter Carnival time was upon us and all the houses were working like beavers on their respective creations of art. The theme of the contest was "Comic Karnival."

The entire Delt house turned out in commendable fashion and shoveled for four days and five nights. Under the able leadership of Brothers Howard, Bastow, Muzeroll, Casavant, and Johnson, the sculpture took shape. At 3:00 a.m. on February 11, the masterpiece was finally completed. The scene depicted "Popeye" the sailor holding back a speeding locomotive to save his true love "Olive Oyl." Clever sculpturing and excellent coloring made this project tops.

On the evening of Saturday the eleventh, the first prize, a giant loving cup, was presented to Delta Tau Delta. Thus was written another chapter in the log book of Delt achievements at Maine.

This fall four Deltas—Dutton, Muzeroll, Farrar, and Gendron—formed the Maine Deltones, a barbershop quartet. In a campus-wide talent contest this group placed second.

HANDBALL TEAM COMES IN SECOND

In the realm of intramural sports, Buzz Humphrey and Frank Trask represented the Delts in the 14-team handball league. Brother Humphrey and Pledge Trask began their career in handball as opponents. This wasn't a satisfactory arrangement, since only one of them could win. Thus, a team was formed.

In the league, the Delts turned out to be the dark horses in winning 11 out of the 13 scheduled games. The eleven wins speak for themselves and gave the Delt house a tie for second place in the loop.

RUSHING SUCCESS

A successful rushing period terminated this year with the pledging of 19 men, 18 of them freshmen. Over half of the men in the pledge class come from Maine, and the rest come from Massachusetts, New Jersey, and New York.

This pledge class is second highest scholastically of the 17 fraternities represented on this campus.

Chapter President Jerry Hartdagen has been nominated by the strongest political party on campus for the highest student elected office—president of the Student Government Association. In addition, Jerry is the current Junior Class president, member of Omicron Delta Kappa, and president of Phi Eta Sigma, the national freshman scholastic honorary fraternity. Delts Don Davis and George Weinkam are also members of Phi Eta Sigma.

PLEDGE 16 IN FEBRUARY

Brother Chuck Kugel, our outstanding pledge of the fall semester, is also in the running for political honors, as the Sophomore Class Men's League representative. February rushing, normally a slow period, resulted in a group of 16 outstanding pledges, one of the largest February pledge classes ever seen on the Maryland campus. There were only six nights of rushing, but Brother Dan Boone set up a fine program that paid off in quality as well as quantity. For the final night, Pledge Harvey Beavers provided the music with his own Dixieland band for the New Orleans Party.

CAMPUS PING-PONG CHAMP

In sports, Pledge Ray Mieziš won the campus championship in ping-pong and was undefeated on the way to the title. Our bowling team and intramural sorority-fraternity volleyball team are also undefeated with the season half over. And with Brother Kent Price in varsity track and Pledge Dick Addison in varsity golf, the Maryland Delts are preparing for a big year in spring sports.

GOOD VARSITY REPRESENTATION

The men of Beta Nu are eagerly awaiting the intramural softball season after winning the league title in both volleyball and bowling. Prospects for another championship are good with the roster being strengthened by the freshmen and the returning of most of last year's second-place squad.

The brothers are well represented in intercollegiate sports. Joe Timms and John McCarty play varsity lacrosse along with "Leaky" Dyke, who is this year's captain. Mike Haugh, Mike Nash, Gary Bracken, and Ed Schmidt are out for the freshman squad. Playing their second year of varsity baseball are Brothers Dennis Powell and Chuck Speer, while Bill Smith, a new pledge, is on the freshman team. Dave Bryson and Dan Holland were both top divers on the varsity swimming team, while Bob Brooker was on a freshman relay squad. Brother Bryson placed fourth in the diving in the NEISA Tournaments.

EXECUTIVES IN CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

The men of Beta Nu now hold many executive positions in campus activities. Senior Bob Biehl retired as president of the Athletic Association, as Junior Dennis Powell became publicity manager. Sophomore Ernie Flemig, who was in charge of the New England Wrestling Tournament, will be the golf manager and Dan Holland the intramural squash and swimming manager for the AA this spring. Freshman Bruce Blomstrom, a top contender for president of the class of '59, is on the Freshman Council. Three brothers, Campbell Francisco, Jack Richards, and Bob Solenberger, hold important positions on IFC committees.

BLOMSTROM OUTSTANDING PLEDGE

Winner of the Woodward Award for the greatest improvement in grades was John McCarty. Bruce Blomstrom won the Hobson Award for the outstanding pledge of the year. Nominated for the new Arthur Thrash Study Award were Brothers Wolfinger, Fowler, Farrel, and Dyke. The plaque will be presented during the summer session.

CAPTURE INTRAMURAL SWIMMING CROWN

This semester Delta Chapter put on one of the strongest spring rushes on campus. Under the direction of Pete Gall, rushing chairman, 19 pledges were taken into the chapter.

Delta Tau Delta won the interfraternity swimming championship recently, and the chapter now stands ninth among 43 fraternities in the over-all standings.

Work has begun on our float and booth to be entered in Michigras, the campus carnival. Practicing for the Interfraternity Sing has also commenced. A western medley has been selected to tie in with the carnival float and booth, which will portray a western scene.

REGIONAL CONFERENCE STIMULATING

Four Delta brothers attended the DePauw Regional Conference of the Fraternity's Northern Division. All were satisfied and inspired by the proceedings. They included Don Duff, president, Stu Christian, corresponding secretary, Karl Lutomski, and Dick Johnson.

CHAPTER OFFICERS MAKE TBII

Winter term was one of many accomplishments for Iota. Larry Walker, our treasurer, and past President Bob Stocking were initiated into Tau Beta Pi, national engineering fraternity.

Brother Dick Carr, majoring in civil engineering, has kept two major scholarships by maintaining a 3.8 average, near perfect under our four-point system. Roger Cram, another engineer, had the highest point average of any fraternity man at MSU last year with a 3.4.

The scholarship of the chapter as a whole was up fall term, having risen to third among 28 fraternities, and by the looks of things we will have risen even higher after winter term's grades are computed.

UNION BOARD PRESIDENT

Campus elections found Gordon Sinclair to be our most able politician. Brother Sinclair was just elected president of the MSU Union Board and also executive vice-president of the Interfraternity Council.

Several of the brothers also won positions on the Union Board. They include: Dave McCaffree, Jack Lundstrom, Dave Ball, Tom Anderson, Bob Wolfram, Tim Payton, Carter Gudal, and Bill Rowe.

BENNETT BECOMES BLUE KEY MEMBER

Roger Bennett, who was recently elected to Blue Key, has been made vice-president of that society. Bennett, promotion manager of the 1956 Wolverine, is at present petitioning for the editorship of next year's book.

Doug Wiest, who is responsible for all the editorial cartoons in our campus daily, the State News, has recently been appointed editor of the Helot, a book given to all freshmen explaining college rules and life.

POOL RECORD BY DELT RELAY TEAM

The Delts were right up there in intramurals last term, splashing to a second place in swimming, under the leadership of Captain Bob Urban. Larry Rowe won the 50-yard freestyle and sparked a pool-record-setting relay team to a win, along with Noel Chrisman, Bob Urban, and Wendell Hughes. A second in the medley relay was taken with Bob Urban, Larry Rowe, and Noel Chrisman swimming. We wrapped up second place when Divers Chuck Carr and Ev Bennett placed second and third respectively.

In basketball Iota placed third in its block under the able coaching of varsity football player Bob Jewett. Iota hoopers included: Tom Jones, Jon Shepherd, John Coleman, Bob MacDonald, Jerry Still, John Miller, Larry Rowe, Dick Carr, and Dave Carrigan.

Spring term means fraternity sing and Iota hopes to better its honorable mention of last year under the guidance of Leader Bob MacDonald.

DELTS TAKE FIRST IN SONG FEST

This year Beta Eta Delts, after placing second behind their arch rivals, Phi Delta Theta, last year, won first place in the annual Greek Week Song Fest with a fine rendition of "Salvation Belongeth to Our God." The last six times that the Delts have entered the song fest, we have taken four first-places and two seconds.

This spring will see the Delts figuring in almost every kind of campus activity from campus carnival to spring elections. Peter Vaill was elected to the executive committee of the Interfraternity Council as the member at large. Vaill and Ron Erhart will be running for fraternity representative on All University Congress and Milt Iossi will be running for SLA board. Iossi is also the chairman of SLA Week next fall.

KEY POSITIONS IN FROSH CAMP

Pete Vaill is co-chairman and Dick Duxbury is a counselor for freshman camp this fall. Welcome Week will also see Delts participating; with Jim Lewis serving on the academic area committee and Iossi, Lewis, and Duxbury working as club group advisers.

In I-M sports the Delts took first in their division in basketball and are also in the semi-finals of the volleyball tournament.

Our recently elected vice-president and assistant treasurer, Bill McNeary and Kemp Bond respectively, have just returned from the Western Division Regional Conference with some fresh ideas that were welcomed by the chapter.

CONSIDER SITES FOR NEW SHELTER

At the invitation of Chapter President Jerry Ritter, Hugh Shields and Gamma Kappa's House Corporation met here in Columbia to discuss the relative merits of sites for a new Shelter. The accompanying picture shows Corporation Prexy Judge Cullen Coil, as he was calling the attention of Mr. Shields (center) and Alumnus Earl Paige to a spot under consideration.

EARL PAIGE, HUGH SHIELDS, and Judge CULLEN COIL look over potential Shelter sites.

Gamma Kappa Delts Ron Waggener, '57, Don Duncan, '58, and Bill McNeary, '58, are currently running for president, vice-president, and treasurer of the Midshipman's Club. Waggener is the retiring vice-president.

We are all looking forward to the annual Spring Pig Roast to be held soon, and May 11 will be the date of the Tulip Ball. Social Chairman Tom Taylor has planned these and many other novel events including an "Idiot's Ball."

BATTLE FOR FOOTBALL POSITIONS

Spring football is here, and Brothers Robertson, Sharp, and Loudon and Pledge Bierman are battling to gain berths on the traveling squad next fall. The rest of us are trying hard to hold down a position on our intramural softball team, where manager Jerry Brennan is having a tough time picking the best from an abundance of talent.

THREE DELTS SHINE ON DIAMOND

Three Beta Tau Delts played prominent roles as the University of Nebraska baseball club opened its 1956 season with a seven-game swing through the Southwest.

Pitcher Dick Geier got credit for one of the three Husker wins on the tour. "Bear" is a senior southpaw who two years ago tossed a brilliant no-run, no-hit win over Kansas. John Beideck, the regular first sacker, smacked one of the two Husker homers on the trip and Don Erway, the Huskers' ace quarterback during the football season, was a regular in left field.

CAGERS TAKE ALL-U TITLE

Beta Tau did right well during the intramural basketball season too. The Delt "B" team, sparked by Freshmen Larry Naviaux and Bob Aden, swept to the All-University crown. Both Naviaux, one of the leading halfback candidates on Coach Pete Elliott's grid squad, and Aden were All-U selections.

In the "A" division, Beta Tau's cagers finished as runners-up in the fraternity chase. Dwight Siebler, John Beideck, Bob Cook, and Ray Mladovich were the club's standouts.

KAPPA IS DELT QUEEN

Ella Matzke, Kappa Kappa Gamma, was announced as Delt Queen as Beta Tau held its annual Spring Formal. "Sis," as she is known around the Shelter, is the fiancée of Andy Hove, Beta Tau senior. Social Chairman Jim Walker was in charge of the big event.

COOK CHOSEN IFC VEEP

Beta Tau also landed some top positions in campus activities. Bob Cook is the new vice-president of the Interfraternity Council and was also named as a copy editor on The Nebraskan staff. Andy Hove is currently president of the Student Council.

Bob Harry, the Delts' fine basketball player who should be heard from on the Husker varsity next winter, is the new Beta Tau rush chairman for the coming year. "Doc" can be reached at 521 Iowa Avenue, York, Nebraska.

North Dakota—Delta Xi

PROMINENT IN CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

On the campus we find several members active in different phases of college activities. Verdayne Ahre is a member of the University of North Dakota Band. Lew Schoeneman, who also is a member of the band, recently went to Chicago with the UND Band for its annual spring tour. He was also on the committee which planned the 25th Band Blare dance. Lew is a member of the Army ROTC Honor Guard and also Varsity Bards, the all male glee club. Finally, he was captain of the fraternity bowling team.

Dennis Holweger, a mainstay on the University of North Dakota track team, is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers. Hugh Halverson, another engineering student, is a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Harvey Hodges, a freshman, has been selected to compete for the Ladd Minuteman Award in Army ROTC. He was so selected for interest, scholarship, and proficiency shown in Army ROTC. Loney Norby is likewise competing for the Minuteman Award. Loney is also a participant for the North Dakota track team and is furthermore a member of the American Society of Chemical Engineers.

HOCKEY REGULARS

Ed Willems from Winnipeg, Manitoba, played defense on the UND hockey squad this year. Ed also belongs to the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Tom Yurkovich was the number one goalie for the UND puck squad and we expect even greater things from Tom this next year.

Felix Vondracek who is a member of the UND Band went to Chicago with the band members on their annual trip.

BLUE KEY SELECTS MUIR

Glenn Muir, who has been active in various phases of college activities, was recently elected to the following honorary fraternities and societies: Delta Sigma Rho, debate honorary; Beta Alpha Psi, accounting honorary; Beta Gamma Sigma, commerce honorary; and Blue

He is also a member of the Lutheran Student Association Council on the campus. On April 4, Glen and his debate colleague had the opportunity to meet the Harvard Debate Team at UND. In early December, Glenn was elected treasurer of the Army ROTC Cadet Officers Club.

For the first time in several years, UND will field a baseball team. Those out for the team from Delta Xi are Rudy Slupski, Glenn Muir, and Harry Boyd-Snee.

We were very pleased to meet George Allen (1936) of Webster Groves, Missouri, when he visited our chapter in February.

BETA DELTS TAKE MORE CAMPUS HONORS

If there was any doubt that the Delts have control of most campus offices at Ohio University, there should be none now. In a campuswide election Joe Phillips was elected president of Men's Union Governing Board and at the same time Tom Roper was elected vice-president.

The selection of the 1957 campus year-book staff was announced recently. Dick Graybill climaxed three years of Athena work by being named editor. Assistant editor will be another Delt, Tom Lyons.

Gordie Keller was elected president of two campus groups. He leads Campus Religious Council and J-Club, junior men's honorary. Serving as new publicity director of the OU Center is Bob Forloine.

Already president of the junior class, Fred Malloy was elected president of Delta Sigma Pi, commerce honorary.

Pledge Dave Engster is president of the Freshman Class.

At the opening of the spring sport season OU found Dudley Kircher captain of the golf team, and Al Ludlum captain of the tennis team.

As this is being written, the campus social season draws to a close with the three most important week ends of the year being headed by Delts. Jim Delaney is Greek Week chairman, Adam Bors is in charge of Mother's Week End, and J-Prom chairman is Dave Mocklar.

It has been a most impressive year for the Delts at OU. Since September, 28 Delts have been named to important campus offices, with several more elections and appointments yet to be determined.

FOURTH CONSECUTIVE VOLLEYBALL CROWN

What the Yankees are to baseball, the Cleveland Browns to football, the Delts are to volleyball at Ohio U. For the fourth consecutive year the Delt volleyball machine rolled through an undefeated season, capturing the all-campus crown by trouncing an independent team consisting of OU's varsity basketball squad.

IMPRESSIVE RECORD BY TOMPKINS

One of the most outstanding men, if not the most outstanding, being graduated from Ohio University this June is Beta Chapter's past president, Ron Tompkins. Ron, a pre-med major, is finishing with a 3.6 average and has received a scholarship to Johns Hopkins next year to further his studies. While president of Beta Chapter last semester, Ron compiled a straight four-point average.

Ron is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, president of Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary, and Phi Kappa Phi. In campus activities Tompkins has been on Student Council and Interfraternity Council, and was Dance Chairman for the 1955 J-Prom.

BETA DELTS AID LOCAL CHARITIES

Beta Chapter Delts did their part to insure the success of two recent charity drives at Ohio University.

In the local Red Cross blood campaign, the Delts were awarded a trophy for donating more blood (29 pints) than any other campus group.

The Delts added an "Easter Egg" trophy to their collection as a girls' dormitory sponsored an egg hunt for the benefit of underprivileged children. The object was to find a golden egg hidden somewhere in the Athens area. After an all-night session of searching, it was finally located in the office safe of the Chief of Police.

THREE MORE FOR OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Omicron Delta Kappa, the most sought after men's honorary at Ohio University, saw three more Delts tapped into its ranks. These men were chosen for their character, leadership and service in campus life, scholarship, fellowship, and consecration to democratic ideals.

They are: Dudley Kircher, president of Beta Chapter, member of Student Council, and captain of the OU golf team; Gordon Keller, president of Circle K, member of Student Council, president of Campus Religious Council, chairman of 1955 Homecoming; and Dave Mocklar, chairman of the 1956 J-Prom and assistant station manager of WOUI.

We are also announcing at this time the selection of our new housemother to replace Mrs. Rena Reese, who was with us for more than eight years, and who was married a few months ago. The new housemother is Mrs. Mildred Barnes, of Columbus, Ohio.

MILIKIN UNION BOARD VEEP

On the activities side of campus life, Brother Jim Milikin was just elected vice-president of the Ohio Student Union Board of Overseers, a highly rated position for Jim, who is only a sophomore. Jim is also an outstanding scholar, one of the most active members of one of the two major student political organizations on campus, and chairman of publicity for the coming annual Ohio State May Week.

WRAY JOINS OHIO STATERS

Other notes of interest are the selection of our new house president, Dick Wray, to membership in Ohio Staters, an organization comprised of the leading male students on campus, and the election of Brother Bill Bowden as treasurer of Strollers, the top campus dramatic society.

MU AGAIN LEADS CAMPUS SCHOLASTICALLY

The spirit of Mu Chapter was raised considerably when it was announced that we had won the IFC scholarship trophy for the first semester of 1955-56. This is the fifth semester out of the last seven that Mu has been first in scholarship on Ohio Wesleyan's campus.

Two Mu men were recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa. John Humpal, a senior from Lakewood, Ohio, and Don Vanderpool, a senior from Dayton, Ohio, are the proud owners of new Phi Bete keys.

For his outstanding achievements in economics, John Humpal also won the Woodrow Wilson Scholarship. After his tour of duty in the Air Force, John plans to attend Northwestern and study English.

SONG GROUP PLACES SECOND

Under the able leadership of Wes Hostetler, Mu Chapter took second place in the interfraternity song fest. The song group is planning its Spring Serenade and on April 22 is singing in the morning worship service at one of the local churches where Brother Bruce Homfeldt is student pastor.

On March 26 the chapter elected officers for next year. Bill Armstrong was elected president. Bill is a junior from Pleasant Ridge, Michigan, and this year has been editor of LeBijou, Ohio Wesleyan's yearbook. Howard A. Montgomery, a junior from Steubenville, Ohio, was elected vice-president.

In early February Mu initiated 18 men into active membership. The initiation of these men raises Mu's active membership to 81.

THREE IN BASEBALL, EIGHT IN TRACK

Brothers Bob Hancher, Jack Barney, and Wally Hood are representing Mu Chapter on the Ohio Wesleyan baseball team. Mu also has eight men on the track team.

We hope to bring the year to a successful end with the 90th anniversary banquet on June 10. Branch Rickey will be the speaker for the banquet, for which we expect more than 200 alumni to return.

DON COLLIER

Oklahoma—Delta Alpha

SIXTH STRAIGHT BOXING TITLE

Delta Alpha is proud to let you know what the Delts at OU are doing. We were second among the fraternities in scholarship for the first semester. We were fifth in the first Greek Week competition and we won the intramural boxing trophy for the sixth straight time.

With Dick Wall, last year's 147-pound national Golden Gloves champion, as a coach, we amassed more points than the second- and third-place fraternities combined. The boxers were: Steve Trower, Bill Long, Jim Edwards, Thad Shook, Stan Robertson, Stuart Brock, Johnny Jones, and Ray Biery.

In the case of three of these men, I would like to be personal. Jim Edwards has won his weight class for the last five years—once in 155, twice in 165, and twice in 175. Although Jim still weighs about 160, he had to move up because after winning in one weight twice he was ineligible to compete in that class again. Bill Long has completed his third year with three championships. This year he won two of his fights by knock-outs in the first and the third opponent forfeited rather than crawl into the ring with him. Steve Trower picked up his second championship in two years and also won one fight with a KO.

SEEK 15TH VICTORY IN SING

Speaking of winning, we are now practicing for the all-University sing. We have won the sing 14 out of 17 times and plan on making it 15 out of 18.

On March 25, we gained 16 new brothers. This makes a total of 698 men initiated by Delta Alpha.

DUFFY IS FOUNDERS DAY SPEAKER

Two weeks earlier, on March 11, we were hosts for the annual Founders Day Banquet. Charles B. Duffy, president of the Oklahoma Bar Association and the first pledge to Delta Alpha, was the keynote speaker. John Nichols, national Secretary, was the master of ceremonies.

Now we would like to display a few of our individual awards. Announced at the initiation banquet were the Outstanding Pledge—Wilbur Bradley—and the Ideal Delt—Steve Trower. Announced at the Founders Day Banquet was the winner of the annual Tate Frye Service Award—Charles Ellet. In addition, Tom Denner was presented with a beautiful gavel for his outstanding work for the fraternity.

MARSHALL NAMED IDEAL EXECUTIVE

On April 6, in OU's annual Business Day, the Deltas walked away with honors. Jerry Marshall, chapter president, was elected Ideal Executive, and Bob Randolph received an award for outstanding service to Delta Sigma Pi, honorary business fraternity. Travis Brown won the Wall Street Journal award for outstanding work in stocks and bonds. In fact, the only award we didn't win, for obvious reasons, was Ideal Secretary, but oddly enough it was won by a Delt pin-mate, Joyce Kirchner. Joyce is pinned to Paul McDaniel, varsity baseball player, who I might add has a 4.0 (A) grade average for his three semesters here at OU. Chet Byrd is also on the varsity baseball squad and Bill Grilliot is the coach of the freshman baseball team.

We would also like to thank Delta Sigma Chapter at Maryland for the skin they lost to us on the Orange Bowl Game.

CHARLES RIDER

Oklahoma A. & M.—Delta Chi

HOOBLER GRABS WRESTLING TITLE

The Deltas at A. & M. served notice to the rest of the fraternities on campus that they are a power to be reckoned with in intramural wrestling. The Deltas entered the wrestling tourney for the first time and came out with one champion and two semi-finalists, for a surprising fourth-place finish.

J. B. Hoobler toppled last year's champion in the 167-pound class to become the Delt's first intramural wrestling champ. Wayne Eitzen at 137 and Don Doty at 157 were the other point-getters who advanced to the semi-finals before bowing out.

Elsewhere in the sports world, the Deltas reached the playoffs in both basketball and volleyball only to lose to the All-College Champions in the first and the Kappa Sigmas in the second. The roundballers were again sparked by the sensational outside shooting of Mack Summers and the fine all-around play of Charlie Wentworth.

DOTY LEADS INITIAL VICTORIES

Two games have been played at this writing in intramural softball and the Deltas have started off like champions. "Old Pro" Don Doty is off to a fast start and looks as if he intends to make this his best year. His pitching and batting have carried the Deltas to victory in their first two ball games. In the first game he twirled a neat five-hitter, got two triples in four times at bat, and capped off his day with a steal of home plate.

PREPARE TO DEFEND TITLE

The Deltas have been preparing earnestly the last two weeks for the inter-fraternity sing competition. Winners of the sing for the past two years, the men of Delta Tau, under the direction of Frank Ross, are defending their title with "Sing to the Royal Purple" and "Halls of Ivy."

WENTWORTH AND MILLER CITED

Charles Wentworth was named honor pledge in the fall pledge class which has just lately been initiated. Robert D. Miller was named recipient of the Bob Cox Award. The award, a jeweled badge, is presented annually to the member of Delta Chi who has displayed the most outstanding qualities of a good Delt.

DOTY HEADS DAILY BUSINESS STAFF

Campuswise the Deltas have concentrated on student publications and honorary organizations. Don Doty has been recently named business manager of the Daily O'Collegian advertising staff after serving for three years in different capacities as sports editor, news reporter, and advertising salesman. Doty also serves as athletic director of IFC.

Frank Ross is president of Kappa

Kappa Psi, national music fraternity, in addition to his membership in Phi Eta Sigma.

Most popular dance band on the Aggie campus is Delt Buddy Gible's Blue Notes.

Gene Howard is commander of the Army ROTC and on the Dean's Honor Roll. Other Deltas on the Dean's Roll are Jim Chandler, Carlos Alexander, and Frank Ross.

WORK FOR SKULL AND DAGGER

The Oregon Deltas are enjoying one of the most successful terms in recent years. Deltas are active in athletics, activities, and on various committees, which give us well-rounded representation in campus affairs.

Ron Rohner and Doug MacKay headed the Ugly Man Contest committee spring term. Tom Waldrop could be found working on the Duck Preview Week as chairman of the vaudeville show. Monk Booth was co-chairman for publicity during Duck Preview. Both Booth and Waldrop were active all year in the sophomore honorary, Skull and Dagger.

CAMPUS DISC JOCKEY

Much of Dan Franks' free time was spent at the University radio station, KWAX. Frank had his own disc-jockey show and also did some announcing. Seen in University Theatre productions were Deltas Wayne Medford, Tom Waldrop, Dan Frank, Scot Lehner, and Tom Lewis. Waldrop, aside from his other campus activities, toured the state in the University Exchange assembly which visited Oregon high schools and colleges.

Intramurals found the Deltas participating in all spring sports. Fred Gustafson and Lincoln Anderson were members of the championship University volleyball team.

PRESIDE AT MODEL UN ASSEMBLIES

Spring term brings student body election time to the Oregon State campus and the Delt house is ringing with cries of support for the various campus political parties. Here at the house, Pete Yazzolino and Gary Young are strong candidates for Junior Class sergeant at arms and Senior Class treasurer respectively, while several Delts are heading the campaigns of other potential class and student body officers.

The Model United Nations was held on campus recently and Delts Bob Eberhard, John Brogoitti, Dave Cereghino, and George Ronning spent many hours preparing for and presiding over the sessions. Bob won a trophy for the excellent job he did in presiding over one of the committees.

CHAPTER HEAD JOINS TBII

Doug Beito and Gary Young were recently initiated into Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising honorary, and Dave Beadling, our chapter president, is now a member of Tau Beta Pi. Masque and Dagger, national dramatics honorary, will soon initiate Delt Pete Yazzolino. Pete also has a part in the spring term production "The Solid Gold Cadillac" along with another Delt, Bill Strader.

BOYLE COPS BREASTSTROKE TROPHY

In sports, Harry Boyle brought home the intramural breaststroke trophy. Harry also promises to be outstanding on the freshman track team this year. Glen Klock is out for freshman baseball and Delts Al Wood and Dave Neilson promise to be standouts on the varsity golf team again this year.

In scholarship, the Delts should be well within the top five fraternities again for winter term grades.

RUSHING NETS 23 NEOPHYTES

After a very intensive rushing program, Omega Chapter again netted one of the finest pledge classes on the Pennsylvania campus. Under the auspices of Rushing Chairman Bill Hugo, 23 outstanding men were taken.

Former president, John C. T. Alexander was selected as pledgemaster for these neophytes whose combined scholastic average is about 3.3. Walter Hazelton and Jim Leathers are the two pledges representing the house in the Freshman Mask and Wig Show this year. Eight of the pledge group were members of the freshman football team, while three rowed on the frosh crew. Literary talents in the class go to Bill Razer who is heeling for the features staff of the Daily Pennsylvanian.

LOUD SMILE FOR C. T.

George Dorwart was recently elected Omega's new president, with "Spider" Lease as vice-president. Bill Hugo will remain as treasurer until the end of the term and Chuck Carpenter and Bob Dentler will fill the secretaries' posts. Former President "C. T." was awarded one of the longest and loudest "Smiles" cheers in the history of the Shelter for a really outstanding term as president.

Twelve Delts went South over the spring holiday, generally to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. Varsity Oarsmen George Dorwart and John DeGurse remained in Philadelphia, preparing for the coming crew races which may end up with another foreign tour in store for them.

RETIREMENT OF SPHINX AWARD LIKELY

In recent elections of the campus Chuck Carpenter was selected to heel for the Houston Hall Board, Larry Kneifel was elected associate editor of the Daily Pennsylvanian. Strong possibilities seem to exist for retirement of the Sphinx Award this year at the Hey Day ceremonies and one of the honor awards seems to be drifting toward C. T. Alexander. Dick Anderson was elected treasurer of the Christian Association, while Paul Zemke and Don Coates were elected into membership of the Mask and Wig Club of the University. Paul is also heeling for track manager and Don for golf manager.

at Pitt. The new pledges are already creating good will on campus by holding dances with sorority pledge classes. Two of the new pledges, Tom Romanik and pledge president Jim Pularski, are playing football and are engaged in spring practice. Jim Donahue and Hubert Easley are on the freshman track team.

GAIN MANY POSITIONS IN ELECTIONS

The Delts cleaned up in Pitt's spring elections by having more men elected to student government positions than any other fraternity at Pitt. Jan Swensen was elected president of his sophomore college class. Roger Anderson and Al Solomon received enough votes to win president and vice-president respectively of their sophomore business administration class. Ron Ference was elected to Men's Council, and Dean Bartlett is treasurer of his senior class. Ed Ifft is the new secretary of Interfraternity Council.

HEADS YOUNG REPUBLICANS

Lynn Watson, chapter president, has been elected president of the newly organized Pitt Young Republicans. Cean Bartlett is treasurer of the organization. Brother Watson was instrumental in forming the Young Republicans. Brother Bartlett's outstanding scholastic record has also been recognized. He was recently tapped to Beta Gamma Sigma, scholastic honorary for business administration students.

THREE GOLDEN MEDALS FOR TANKERS

Senior Jim Zurcher, Pitt's Most Valuable Swimmer last year, and Lou Durbin took three gold medals apiece in the Eastern Collegiate Swimming Association championships for Pitt's swimming team. Jim also competed in the NCAA.

Seniors Bill Reynolds and Bill Lane recently received recognition for their academic competence. Brother Reynolds has been accepted to Harvard's Law School, and Brother Lane was accepted to the law schools at Pitt and the University of Pennsylvania.

On April 14, our annual spring formal dance will be held. The theme is a circus, and from the sound of the plans all three rings should be quite entertaining.

The University Sing, held for the benefit of the mothers on Mother's Day, is always a big event in our house. Last year we placed in the finals; this year we hope for better things.

Foremost in over twenty of our brothers' minds is graduation. Through the Shelter doors and under the pin light will leave men holding Tau Beta Pi keys to "most valuable player" awards. We of Gamma Lambda wish our brothers the best of luck.

ELECTED HOCKEY CO-CAPTAIN

At the end of the hockey season in March, Peter McArthur was elected co-captain of next year's team. He was also recently elected to the Student Council.

Bert Wickberg and Hugh Wright did a fine job as co-captains of the ski team this winter. Jerry Williamson started off the baseball season with a bang. Co-captain and ace pitcher, he won the opening game for R.P.I.

Ken Kinsley, piloting the tennis team, lead the squad to a decisive victory over M.I.T. in its first match.

PRIZE WINNER IN SPRING SING

Topping the social calendar of the spring semester is our Sweetheart Formal, which was held at the Montecito Country Club. Our Luau was also a tremendous success. It was held around the pool of our adviser's Montecito home. The Delts surprised everyone by coming up with a prize-winning song for the Spring Sing.

GOODE MAKES GOOD IN ELECTIONS

Dick Goode, an outstanding member of Delta Psi Chapter, was elected in April Associated Student Body president. This honor has climaxed an eventful three years for Dick, who has been Sophomore Class president, men's representative at large, chairman of the Student Union, business manager of the student directory, a member of the Legislative Council, and a member of Squires and Blue Key.

Dick, who won the election easily over his nearest rival, also participated in school and intramural athletics and has made the Dean's Honor List for scholastic achievement. This, his latest triumph, is truly a tribute to a wonderful guy and a grand Delt.

DELTA TRIUMPH IN TRACK MEET

The Delts won the intramural track meet with the three-victory effort of Roger Gertmenian, in the shot-put, discus, and javelin. Also contributing to the victory was Thad Smith's double victory in the high and low hurdles.

Wayne Schoell led the varsity basketball team with an average of 25 points per game. Delt Bob Rolph scored a surprise victory in the half mile of the Easter Relays with a 1:55:6 clocking. Delt Bob Pope is leading the Santa Barbara baseball club in victories. Jim Hezlep is leading the team in innings pitched. Both boys have a no hitter to their credit so far this season.

The Delts oceanside estate was the scene of many parties and sorority-fraternity exchanges during the spring semester.

CHAPTER HONORS SEÑOR LEWIS

Beta Theta Chapter members are currently engaged in varied activities both campuswise and Fraternitywise.

Brother George McCowen was elected to Phi Gamma Mu, social science honorary.

Brother Bill Senter is running for business manager of the school yearbook, the Cap and Gown.

Señor William W. Lewis was honored by the chapter with a tea on April 8. Señor Lewis is a member of the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter and is retired professor of Spanish at Sewanee.

SCORE IN HELP WEEK PROJECT

Beta Theta placed third in the annual Help Week project. The back yard of the Shelter received considerable improvement as a result of the program. Additional plans for work on the Shelter are being formulated.

The Sewanee Delta, Volume 30, Number 1, was published under the editorship of Brother Battle Searcy. This is the first edition of the paper published since 1948; another edition is planned for rushing purposes.

Brothers Bob Marssdorf, Pete Stout, Henry Bond, Walter George, and Pledge Jerry Crow are out for the varsity track team.

Pledge Jim Mayson was on the varsity wrestling team during the past season.

HONORS GALORE FOR FRIEBERG

Delta Gamma has been making great strides since the last issue of THE RAINBOW. President Bob Frieberg was Progressive Party chairman in the student body elections. Largely through his efforts, the party won by a landslide. Soon after the election Bob participated in the national Tau Kappa Alpha speech tournament. Debating with the University team, he helped give the school fourth place in total standings. He was just elected president of the Interfraternity Council.

ELECTED DAKOTANS' PREXY

Jim Dickson will be Dakota Day Homecoming chairman next fall. This position is one of the most highly coveted in the school. Mick McCahren was recently elected president of the Dakotans, a male student service organization. A men's leadership honor society which will petition Omicron Delta Kappa for membership next fall has elected Charles Allen president.

Our Strollers act in the vaudeville show won third place this year. Jim Walters did an excellent job in directing our act which was combined with the Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority.

RESEARCH GRANT AWARDED PULSCHER

Bob Pulscher was granted a $1500 research grant to do graduate work in government at Kansas next year. Bob has been active in government and Political Science League on campus. Ted Thompson, another government student specializing in international relations, was a delegate to the mock United Nations meeting at Madison, Wisconsin, March 22-24. He is now active in arranging a mock Security Council meeting on the U.S.D. campus.

FOUR DELTS SCORE TRACK POINTS

Point winners in the two track meets for the U.S.D. have been four Delts: Ron Graham, broad jump; Fred Gellerman, high jump; Bill Schenecker, javelin; and Dewey Leach, sprints. In intramural sports we won one league of basketball, won the rifle championship, won first place in volleyball, and took a close second in swimming. Losing first by one point in the latter ended a four-year winning streak in swimming.

Preparations are now under way for the interfraternity sing. Bob Nason will direct the chorus for the Mother's Day contest.

DELTS DOMINATE HARDWOOD COURTS

The highlight of the Delts' recent athletic achievements was their overwhelming representation on the varsity basketball team which sported four Delt starters, Bill Bond, Hap Wagner, Gary Van Galder, and Carlos Bea, as well as Ron Wagner and Beppo Dyer. The team had its best season in eight years, finishing with an 18-6 record with wins over Big-Ten Champs Iowa and two victories over Stanford's heavily favored arch rival, California. The team lost two very close games to powerful U.C.L.A. Other Delt basketballers were Jerry Rose, high-point man and play-maker on the Junior Varsity, and Captain Paul Neuman, leading scorer John Pflueger, Tom Crawford, and Grant Chappell of the Stanford frosh quint.

DELTS REPRESENTED IN ALL SPORTS

The highly successful Stanford rugby team was aided by stars Noel Robinson and Don "Curly" Carswell, as well as by John Clark, Doug Dick, Jim Ward, and Bill Sampson. The varsity wrestling team included Pete Likins, while Wally Honeywell was on the varsity boxing team. Bob Shelor was a member of the outstanding varsity tennis team and Bernie Magnussen was on the frosh golf team. Freestyler Carver Nixon was a member of Stanford's swim team which placed seventh in the NCAA Nationals at Yale. Phil King and Harry Collins swimming backstroke and breaststroke respectively also add to the varsity team, which is looking forward to another P.C.C. title.

On the varsity track team are Jim Truher, discus; Kirk Nieland, throwing the javelin; Tim Bell, 440; and Tyler Miller, shot putter. A member of the tremendous Stanford varsity baseball team is hard-hitting catcher Doug Camilli.

As this article goes to press, the Delts intramural basketball team is in the play-off for the championship, and Jim Hicks, Dave Bohnen, Bill Bullis, and Bill Kelter are practicing daily at Santa Cruz for the International Tandem Surfing competition.

TWO MAKE PHI BETA KAPPA

Scholastically the Delts were sixth out of 24 houses on campus for the winter quarter. Bill Sampson was elected house president and Ron Wagner was Interfraternity Council president, John Neff was Tau Beta Pi president, and both he and Steve Doctor were chosen as members of Phi Beta Kappa.

PLEASED WITH PLEDGING

Once again as rushing comes to a close, the house has obtained the cream of the freshman class. On pledge night the house rocked to a jazz combo and everyone outdid himself to show the new pledges a good time. It was one of those nights when no one house-hopped because the rest of the campus was here!

REVIVE CHAPTER PAPER

Attention, Alumni! The Rho Chronicle is being revived. As many of you know, this was the first chapter paper published by any undergraduate chapter and was founded in 1880. The editor, Al Kalafsky, would like to hear from all of you no matter where you are.

TWO CLASS PRESIDENTS

The chapter would like to congratulate Willie Snyder and Bruce Kirk for being initiated into Gear and Triangle, the activities honorary society, and also George Lane for induction into Pi Delta Epsilon. Rho is again well represented on campus as Bob Walker is president of the Sophomore Class and Ken Alnwick is president of the Freshman Class. Marsh Lipton was elected secretary of the Honor Board. This year as before, a Delt presides over the Varsity S Club. Jack Mawe will do the honors, and assisting him will be Bob Walker, vice-president, and Bob Woodward, secretary.

SEVEN IN VARSITY LACROSSE

The varsity lacrosse team has a good representation with Jim Beardall, Bob Leahy, Hank Zebroski, Bob Jones, Bill Pepper, Bob Walker, and Emil Pavlik. Following in their big brothers' footsteps are Bob Schwab, John O'Neil, Dick Clement, and Ken Alnwick, who are members of the freshman squad. The varsity basketball team will have Bob "the man with the golden arm" Woodward, Lou Calvino, Art Apostol, George Eckert, Dick Klee, Lee Collins, and Gil Morin. Once again the mainstays of the tennis squad will be Co-Captains Chuck Morgan and Willie Snyder. Chuck Lathrop is varsity lacrosse manager and Gunnar Sarsten is his little helper.

MOTHERS CLUB COMES THROUGH

What a surprise! One Saturday we had a new leather chair in the living room! Again our Mothers and Wives Club added something more to our house. The chair fits perfectly with our color scheme. Since the dining room was redone, the drapes did not match. Again the Club added that decorator's touch by giving our drapes a matching color. One of the mothers is handy with the needle and sent us some red and white checkered table cloths for our parties. They have solved our table cloth problem and added a bit of spark to our cellar at parties.

ALUMNI TURN OUT FOR INITIATION

Initiation and Founders Day were combined in one big event. Initiates for the spring date were Roger Perschbacher, Gary Strong, John Sly, and John Dean. A banquet was held at the University Club and we were pleased to have a splendid turn-out of alums at the affair. Lt. William Knipe was our guest speaker.

HONORARIES CHOOSE DELTS

Various honoraries had their tapping for the school year and the Delts were not left out of this deal. Craig McArt was initiated into the design honorary, Alpha Xi Alpha. The advertising honorary, Alpha Delta Sigma, initiated Fred Tyminski. Pete Giopulos was elected president of the art education honorary, Sigma Chi Alpha, and treasurer of the all-men's education honorary, Kappa Phi Kappa.

ORGANIZE RUSHING PROGRAM

In the early weeks of the spring quarter a concentrated rushing program was organized. A few informal parties were held at the house and in the homes of some local alumni. This summer and fall there will be some additional rushing parties at the homes of alumni, thanks to the co-operation of the Knoxville Alumni Chapter.

WELCOME TRANSFER DELT

Jerry Flora, former Duke University Delta Kappa, has affiliated with Delta Delta Chapter, where he is now working on two degrees—one in chemistry, the other in engineering. Jerry went into the Army two years ago and was separated only this quarter.

BASKETBALL CHAMPS AGAIN

Coached by Terry Coggan, our two well-balanced basketball teams carried off both intramural league championships. Losing only one game in two seasons, we are the only fraternity to take it two years in a row. Jimmy McCord was honored in our school weekly as "The Most Active Intramural Athlete" during the year.

DELTS IN SPRING SPORTS

"WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES"

Joe Dugger, president of the spring pledge class, was chosen in Who's Who in American Colleges for the 1955-56 school year.

PROFIT BY CONFERENCE

Our delegate to the Western Division Regional Conference, on April 6-7, was Terry Coggan. He enjoyed a fine educational time at Ames and wishes to thank all for the friendly Delt hospitality. Epsilon Beta, as a young and eager chapter, really profited by the Conference.

FOUNDERS DAY PROGRAM

Being one year old this spring, we held our Founders Day Dinner on April 27. Members of the Ft. Worth-Dallas Alumni Chapter and Epsilon Beta enjoyed a fine meal and mixer at Amon Carter Airport. Fitting in with the program was our Spring Formal, on May 4. Miss Corinne Eberlein, Kirkwood, Mo., was christened "Delt Sweetheart" as the affair developed at the Ft. Worth Boat Club. Concluding the festivities on May 6, we initiated eight new members at the Hilton Hotel. This final ceremony marked exactly one year of Epsilon Beta's continued growth and improvement as a Delt chapter.

Island party. Coconuts, leis, and hula girls were in evidence as Beta Mu Chapter swung into high gear to make this the most successful party of the year.

We have gained ground in our fight for the Trophy of Trophies, the symbol of athletic supremacy in intramural sports. By taking first in the swimming meet, second in the track meet, and third in the wrestling meet, we moved up to within 10 points of first place.

EX-PRESIDENT ELECTED TO ΦΒΚ

The chapter was informed that Francis Cogliano has been elected Phi Beta Kappa. Frank is the past president of the chapter and has also been accepted at Yale University Medical School.

Plans are now being made for our summer rushing program. If we are as successful as last year, we will again scoop the campus. The Delt fire engine will be our main attraction around campus later this spring and next fall. Bringing rushees and their dates to the parties, appearing in the halftime skits at the games, and driving the brothers to various programs on the Hill, the fire engine has proven that it is Beta Mu's most valuable asset.

MESERVE RECEIVES SENIOR CUP

The annual chapter awards were made at the Spring Formal on March 3. Ted Meserve received the Senior Cup which is awarded to the outstanding graduating member of the chapter. Neophyte Paul Fallone received the Best Pledge Award.

Among the class of new initiates are Wallace A. Edwards, nephew of Bard Edwards (Beta Xi, '31) and Sammaul Rosamond, whose brother-in-law is Carl Hackenjous (Beta Xi, '48).

SIX RATE DEAN'S LIST

The Delt handball team now stands in a deadlock for third place in interfraternity competition.

Beta Xi's scholastic standing seems to be on the rise too. Six Tulane Delts were on the first-semester Dean's Honor List.

The chapter's alumni are now working on what may be the greatest event in the history of Delta Tau Delta at Tulane. The long dreamed of asset of a new house is becoming more of a definite possibility every day due to their efforts.

GOOD SPORTS REPRESENTATION

Delta Iota is once again able to report a good selection of activities for our spring semester.

We are singing in UCLA's annual Spring Sing with the Thetas and are proud of the five brothers who wrote original lyrics to our song, "Harlem Nocturne." We have a good representation on the sport field this year with Wayne Weirling and Leroy Farrar on the baseball squad and Don Warden on the frosh team. We also have John Welker, swimming; Bud Johnson, track; Ron Calhoun, skiing; and Don Duncan and Bob Dutcher, rugby. Spring football practice brings out a good Delt showing with Dan Peterson, Don Duncan, Jack Roznos, and Bob Dutcher.

In intramurals we hold second place out of 35 fraternities and hope to be first by the end of the semester. The social calendar has been more than full with exchanges and parties and we are now looking forward to our Barbary Coast, justly famous as the largest party of the year.

SCOTT CHOSEN OUTSTANDING PLEDGE

Scholarship has even improved this semester as shown by our rise in over-all fraternity scholarship standing. Bruce Scott culminated our pledge training by winning the Outstanding Pledge Award.

KOSTLAN VOTED OUTSTANDING ACTIVE

Our Founders Day Banquet, held on March 22 in the Marine Room of the Hotel Statler, was a huge success. Over 400 alumni were expected to attend, and by estimation, they did. The banquet brought together alumni from Delta Psi and Delta Iota Chapters, as well as Delta Pi. Frank Kostlan was voted the outstanding active of Delta Pi and received his award at the banquet.

Our formal initiation ceremonies of March 18 brought into the chapter 16 new actives.

SCORE IN NCAA SWIM MEET

On the athletic scene we have kept our good record up. Ken Pearson did a fine job at center for the varsity basketball team, and Jim Rogers is looking forward to another good season on the crew team along with Hugh Sponsel. Delta Pi has always been noted for swimmers, and this season is no exception. Recently Joe Horseley, Jim Steveson, and Jack Webb represented U.S.C. in the national NCAA championships held at the new Yale pool. Joe Horsley came in fifth in the 200-yard breaststroke event, and Steveson and Webb did almost as well. All three of these brothers have been given the "All American" honor. Aside from these, there are four more members on the varsity team.

Next fall Laird Willott, Doug Kranz, and Bill Howard are expected to be tops in their respective positions, right along with Vic Edlebrock, when the Trojan football squad goes into action.

CASEY IS MR. TROJANALITY

In politics, Jack Casey was recently voted by the school "Mr. Trojanality," and is now running for the presidency of the Knights, a service organization. In addition, preparations are under way for Al Pizzos' campaign for yell king.

Intramurals found Delta Pi on top last year, and so far this year we are in first place as a result of decisive victories in swimming and basketball. The sports that are left are baseball, track, and ping-pong, in which we are expecting to do quite well.

WIN INDIANA DELT TOURNEY

Beta Psi Chapter hosted and captured championship honors in the first annual Indiana Delta Tau Delta chapters basketball tourney. The tourney was staged in the spacious Wabash College Fieldhouse before a lively crowd. Butler bested Indiana, and Wabash downed Purdue in the afternoon first-round play. In the championship game Wabash's Delt won over the Battling Beta Zetas 60-53. Purdue walloped Indiana in the consolation game.

Wabash's team was ably coached and managed by varsity star Harold Traviolia, who didn't play because of a broken arm. Ben Fellerhoff, Dave Howarth, Ken Dennis, Mike Costello, and Jim Pagett are varsity Wabash stars who helped the Beta Psi cause. Others who played for the champions were Matt Thoman, John Waechter, and Al Crain.

FELLERHOFF NAMED "MOST VALUABLE"

That same week end, Wabash's chapter attended State Day in Indianapolis "en masse" and for the second consecutive year walked away with the scholarship honors.

It was recently announced that Delt sophomore Ben Fellerhoff had been elected by his teammates as Wabash College's "Most Valuable Player." Ben is a sophomore pledge, and will most likely be initiated in the very near future. Fellerhoff is a 6' 3" forward from Muncie, Indiana. In addition to this recent honor, he was earlier elected to the All-Star team during the Quantico Marine Tourney and led the varsity squad in both scoring and rebounding. Ben averaged 17 points per game and scored about the same number of rebounds.

ASSUMES SENIOR COUNCIL POST

Turning to campus activities, Bob Mace, Delt junior, was elected vice-president of next year's senior council. The senior council is the governing body of students at Wabash College.

John Pence, sophomore, was elected secretary-treasurer of Public Affairs Forum. The retiring president of PAF is Stan Matheny, Delt senior and past president of the chapter. In addition, Pence has been chosen to head up the publicity committee for the new Wabash College radio program.

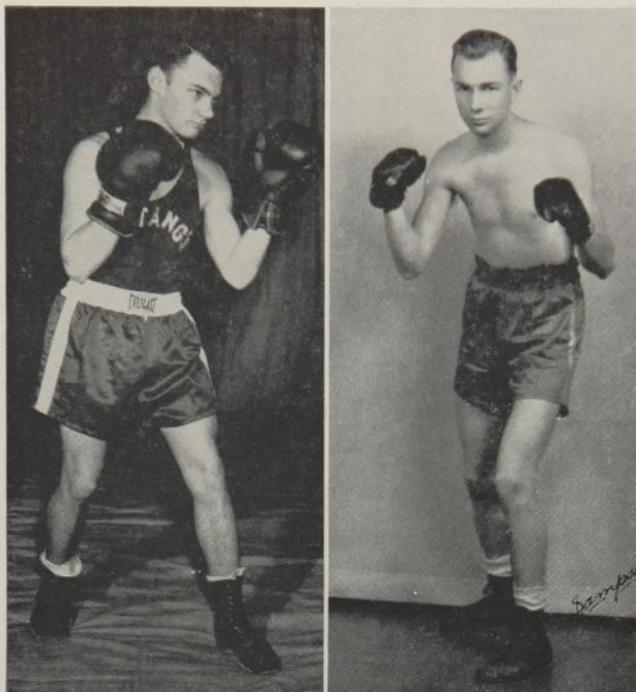

Don Caplinger, junior, was named chairman for the Alpha Psi Omega Awards Banquet which will be staged later this spring.

Two of the brothers—Jerry Pearson and Eric Van—were recently accepted by Beta Alpha Psi, national accounting honorary. In campus politics Larry Johanson was elected to the all-important post of Inter-Relations Councillor by the Interfraternity Council. Larry will be in charge of next fall's rush week.

ALL-SPORTS TROPHY GARNERED

The Shelter is now in possession of three highly prized athletic trophies. Chuck Michaelson, George Stamolis, and Bill Zirbell combined their talents to bring home the All University Gymnastics Trophy. The three Delts compiled a total of 117 points, while their nearest rival totaled 45.

Another trophy now on display at Gamma Mu is the All-Sports Trophy, awarded to the fraternity with the most active participation and the highest total number of points amassed in intramural competition. Brother Dick Sampson, displaying his ring prowess in the featherweight division, acquired a third All-University Trophy. Dick won this trophy exactly 25 years to the night in the same ring and weight division as his father who held the University featherweight championship in 1931.

Freshman numerals were also awarded to Jack Payne for basketball. Mick Roberts and Zac Elander are beginning spring crew turn-out, Roberts returning for his second year. Brother Chuck Michaelson is now a member of the varsity gymnastics squad.

Under the able direction of Song Leader Ralph Olson, serenades are frequent and praiseworthy. The "Senior Four," "Freshman Three," and the "Delt Eight" have provided additional musical delight to many sororities. Practices are becoming business as the Delts and Alpha Gams look forward to the annual Song Fest. The "Deltones," our house combo, is now providing entertainment for exchanges and firesides as well as maintaining a full commercial schedule.

NUGGET BANQUET COMING UP

Gamma Mu is looking forward to the Annual Nugget Banquet with the alumni chapter, which will be held at the Shelter. This week the Washington chapter welcomed Bill Taylor, field secretary, to its dampish climate. Bill had a way with the brothers and once his fear of becoming web-footed was dispelled, a good time, as well as a very informative visit, was enjoyed by all. Thanks, Bill.

STROBEL CAPTAINS VARSITY NINE

The chapter has a number of men on the College's varsity spring sports teams.

Leonard Strobel is taking his usual position behind home plate as varsity catcher and captain of the baseball team. This is Len's second year as captain.

Sophomore Andrew Puglise will start in right field for the Jays. Senior Richard Taylor will end his third year as a member of the varsity tennis team. Freshman Jake Cochran is also on the tennis team. Ted Burger has earned the position as top javelin tosser on the varsity track team.

DEFERRED RUSHING UNDER CONSIDERATION

The Big Week End in April included a full round of interfraternity competition. The intramural track meet has not been concluded, but the Delts look like a real threat. The Interfraternity Sing will include Gamma Chapter's best voices. The Delt-Beta Rope Pull should prove that the Delts have the stronger pledge class.

The campus is in the midst of a big problem. Should W. & J. have deferred rushing? The outcome of the question should be known before summer comes.

LEWIS DIRECTS MUSIC FOR MINSTREL

The big news at W. & L. this spring was the tremendous success of the Second Annual Minstrel Show. Jim Lewis, besides directing the music for the production, wrote three original numbers himself, and collaborated with Delt Clay Carr to write a fourth. Roger Doyle again starred as one of the end men, receiving excellent support from Delts G. I. Smith, Morgan Schafer, Don Harper, Lee White, Buck Buchanan, Carl Bailey, Frank Hoss, Harry Stone, and Don Stine.

Jim Lewis is also the founder and director of the Sazeracs, a growing student singing group which has recently cut a record with RCA. Delts Monty Montgomery, Frank Dillingham, and Tom Gowenlock are members of this group. Our hats are off to Jim for his untiring and unselfish efforts to restore music to a respected position at W. & L., and for the outstanding service he has rendered to Delta Tau Delta.

CARR ELECTED TO PHI BETA KAPPA

The close of the first semester found Delta Tau Delta with seven men on the Honor Roll, 15 men on Dean's List, and one man elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Clay Carr, a senior from Winchester, Virginia, was notified of his election into the highly coveted academic fraternity early in February.

MCSPADDEN COPS THIRD WRESTLING TITLE

Gibby McSpadden finished his wres-

ting career at W. & L. by successfully defending his Southern Conference Wrestling Title in this year's tournament. In his four years of varsity competition, Gibby has compiled the astounding record of 40 wins and 3 defeats, winning three Southern Conference Championships. Also on this year's wrestling team were Delts John Ellis, Dick Whiteford, and Don Fowler. The Delts performed well on the intramural level, winning the Intramural Wrestling Tournament. Turning to basketball, the Delts placed four men on the varsity squad: Bob McHenry, Frank Hoss, Nick Nichols, and Charlie Broll. And again, the Delts remained Intramural Basketball Champs for the second straight year.

BAILEY CHOSEN CO-CAPTAIN OF LACROSSE TEAM

With the arrival of spring, the Delts turn their athletic endeavors to lacrosse, track, and baseball. There are 12 Delts holding down six starting positions on this year's lacrosse team, with Carl Bailey serving as co-captain of the team. In track three Delts gained starting berths: Frank Hoss, Don Stine, and Paul Ironside. In baseball six Delts have made the squad.

KERR ORGANIZES PARADE

It is again Election Year, and W. & L. is in the midst of preparation for its famed Mock Convention. Delt Ted Kerr has been appointed Parade Chairman—in charge of organizing and co-ordinating the mammoth opening parade. Frank Hardwick, Carl Bailey, and Warren Welsh have been designated as State Delegation Chairmen.

KEELING NAMED '56 RUSH CHAIRMAN

Due to the efforts of Buck Buchanan, rush chairman, we were able to pledge three new men at the beginning of the second semester. These men are Charlie Broll, Tore Cecella, and Jim Johnson. Bruce Keeling, a rising junior from Louisville, Kentucky, has been chosen to succeed Buck as the Delts' 1956 rush chairman. Bill Towler is beginning work on the Phi Journal with the aim of equaling Ted Kerr's prize-winning publication of 1955.

FIVE OUT OF SIX IS CHAPTER'S RECORD WITH ALL-SPORTS TROPHY

Since the year is drawing to a close, we are looking at the activities chart to see how the Zetamen "stack up" as to activities on campus. What we find is listed below.

There are seven Delts on the football team, three on the basketball team, five on the baseball team, two on the soccer team, six on the wrestling team, five on the track team, and two on the golf team. We have won the Intramural All-Sports Trophy five times in the last six years—but that is easily explained, because out of the 49 men in the chapter, 36 participate in intramurals.

FOUR ZETAMEN ON STUDENT COUNCIL

Zetamen fill four key posts in the Student Council and two in Student Senate. This is greater political representation than that enjoyed by any other fraternity on campus. The chapter, having a lot of "young blood," has only one Phi Beta Kappa, but compensates by having eight men in Phi Society. There are also two men in Kappa Kappa Psi, which is a band honorary.

The campus newspaper finds three Delts on its staff, and the yearbook has seven Zetamen contributing their talents. We have two editorships on the University magazine and three men on the general staff.

The chapter has four men in the band, two in the chorus, two at the radio station, eight in Newman Club, five in Student Christian Union, and 15 who participated in "Greek Week," which is the annual student musical comedy.

The Zeta Delts are proud of this year's achievements and are looking forward to a good year next fall.

three captains. They are baseball's Dave Steinmeyer, track's Tom Hicks, and golf's Al Burgess.

During the varsity basketball season Dave Steinmeyer, who was selected as sixth man on the conference All Star squad, and Ron Brown represented our chapter. In the I-M basketball race, we placed Tom Lawrence, a repeat performer, and Bob Duke on the first team All Star squad, while Tom Hicks was voted to the second team.

The volleyball team, led by Tom Lawrence, the school's top spiker, again came through with a creditable showing, as did the bowling team, which was heavily supported by freshmen.

Besides Hicks, others who are participating on the cinders are George Kenney, Dick Seivert, and Chick Edwards, who is considered to be a top-flight distance man.

TEN DELTS ON DIAMOND SQUAD

Led by Dave Steinmeyer, the Delts show nine other men on the diamond squad. They are Tom Lawrence, Bob Duke, Elwray Pujol, Skip Nichols, Don

"Robby," as he is affectionally called, joined the chapter ranks in December and has been a great asset to us, both in enjoyment and prestige gained by defeating the other mascots on campus in informal jousts (not archery).

ANOTHER DELT HEADS SOPHOMORE CLASS

Once again another Delt is going to head the Sophomore Class. John Bucy held the office this year, but next year the office will be in the capable hands of Thomas Tandy. Tom was also just honored by being selected to Helvetia, sophomore men's honor society, with an average of 3.4.

In varsity athletics we are well represented with Brothers Bob Mitchell and Thomas Zinn on the track team. Richard Sturgill is also a varsity performer in gymnastics. Roger Chancy is expected to play a great deal of football next year for the Mountaineers at an end position.

LEADS PARTY TO ELECTION VICTORY

School elections were recently completed, and a senior Delt, Ben Hayes, was chairman of the Student Party Election Committee, which emerged from the campaign as the successful entry.

David Grimes has been honored by being accepted by Arnold Air Society and by initiation in Alpha Kappa Psi, commerce honorary. Adrian Nestor was also honored by his election to Scabbard and Blade.

In intramural basketball we have won eight straight games and have set a new single-game scoring record. We need only to win two more games to capture the title.

SELECTED AS DEBATE JUDGES

Joe Hager was one of 34 students selected for the Mountaineer Week team. Those chosen travel to schools all over the state to acquaint high school students with West Virginia University and college life.

Joe and William Sarver were two of the judges selected to judge the Pennsylvania State High School Debate Tournaments. Sarver is a member of the University debate team and has won many debates and honors in intercollegiate competition.

CRAIG ATTAINS PHI BETA KAPPA

In scholarship, Delta Rho placed second among the men's groups for the first semester, and we have hopes of repeating the score, or bettering it in the second round. Phil Craig, one of our seniors, is now the proud possessor of a Phi Beta Kappa key, having been tapped to that honorary this spring. Earlier, Phil was granted a research assistantship at the State College of Washington, where he will do graduate work in chemistry.

On March 24, Delta Rho held its Founders Day Banquet, which was followed by a dance in honor of the alumni. Filled to the brim by the best fried chicken north of the Mason-Dixon Line, the alumni happily declared it the best and most successful Founders Day in the chapter's history. Congratulations are due Al Peterson and Brooke Tomkins, who masterminded the function.

In campus activities, Delta Rho was well represented, with Ralph Leisle serving in Student Congress; Fred Collins and Phil Craig in IFC; Tim Hay and Paul Lewis serving on the college newspaper, the Pioneer; and Chris Lunn and John Heacock taking part in the campus theatre.

In the Shelter, Gene Greenlee whipped the men together for the spring serenades, while Paul Lewis and Val Lewton worked to produce a motion picture to be used for rush next fall.

DELTS COMPRISE HALF OF SKI TEAM

Delta Rho had a good number of men on skis this spring—enough to make up half the varsity ski team. Those serving on the team were Bill Stevens, Clint Pelto, Tom Harris, Bob Hodgson, George Rogers, and George Pettibone. Led by Stevens, a Canadian who is a veteran of international competition and is ranked as one of the 20 best skiers in the nation, the Whitman ski team enjoyed an extremely successful year. The Delts were also represented on other varsity teams with Chris Lunn in basketball, Val Lewton in track, and Tim Hay and John Miller in golf.

CELEBRATE FOUNDERS DAY WITH KENT DELTS

The fourth Annual Founders Day Banquet and the Sixth Anniversary of the founding of Delta Omega Chapter at Kent State University were held on March 28 with a sumptuous repast at the Kent State University Student Union Building.

Dr. Charles E. Atkinson, Delta Omega and registrar of Kent State, was toastmaster, and a very good one. Harold R. Jenkins, president of Delta Omega Chapter, ably gave an account of the chapter's activities. All of us feel that the chapter is doing well and pushing forward to a bigger and better future.

Arrangements for the meeting were handled by Jack L. Gimbel, Kent, '57, Founders Day chairman.

Activities were brought to a close by a very fine and stirring address by Robert L. Hartford, Ohio, '36, President of the Fraternity's Northern Division. We all hope that the actives and pledges took his words to heart.

Looking forward to seeing you at the Karnea in Houston—

ANNUAL STAG PICNIC SLATED

The annual elections were held at the February meeting. Our new officers are "Chick" Donaldson, president; Lyle Briggs, first vice president; Bill Briggs, second vice president; and Morey Byrne, corresponding secretary. "Len" Williams, who was president in 1955, was drafted for the important secretary-treasurer position.

The Annual Stag Picnic arrangements will be the order of business for the next few meetings. The picnic is traditionally held in honor of potential Delt rushees.

On behalf of the Boise Valley chapter members, a vote of thanks is given to last year's officers, especially for the swell job done by Len Williams as president and Neal Cresswell as secretary-treasurer. I am always happy to pass on news; please send it to me, at 213 Mobley Drive.

RICKEY SPEAKS AT MAY MEETING

Branch Rickey, well-known Delt and famous baseball manager, will be guest speaker at a May 14 luncheon meeting of the Casper Alumni Chapter in the Elbow Room of the Henning Hotel. Mr. Rickey is visiting Casper at that time in connection with the opening of the Casper Little League baseball program, the most successful youth program in the city in recent years. He will also spend a few days fishing Wyoming's streams.

With the national publicity Casper has received in the past couple of months as the city in the U. S. with the largest ratio of eligible bachelors, Delt Tom Marshall, Kent, '50, an independent consulting geologist, has really made the national limelight. He was pictured in a Life magazine story about the bachelor surplus in Casper and also appeared on the nationally televised Art Linkletter show as one of the city's most eligible males.

Keith Johnson has been named editor of the "Cowboy Chuckwagon Call," the new chapter publication, which is distributed to all Wyoming alumni. Several out-of-town alums have sent their membership dues of $3.00 to our secretary; our chapter seems to be growing steadily.

Chicago

LUNCHEONS FEATURE
CHAPTER ATTENDANCE

The Chicago Alumni Chapter Founders Day Banquet was held this year on February 23, 1956, at the Chicago Bar Association. Even though it was scheduled a bit ahead of time, approximately sixty alumni and graduates were present. Marshall A. Pipin, Wabash, '24, delivered an excellent address on the more serious side of college and fraternity life.

New officers were elected and installed: Donald Cranston, Wabash, '17, president; Kenneth Bates, Kansas, '19, vice president; and Jerome W. Pinderski, Northwestern, '47, secretary-treasurer.

The new president immediately appointed a committee on attendance for the Monday luncheons to stimulate more active attendance.

Monday, March 26, 1956, was Northwestern day. All Northwestern Delts in Chicago area were urged to attend, and it was gratifying to see so many new faces that we had not seen before or had not seen in such a long time. C. "Bunker" Bean, Ohio, '09, who represented the alumni chapter at the Northern Division Regional Conference, gave his report.

The activity calendar for the Monday luncheon of the Chicago Alumni Chapter will include an Illinois Institute of Technology day, University of Illinois day, and University of Indiana day, days honoring other chapters, and an occasional meeting in honor of outstanding Chicago Delts.

We were pleased to learn that Wayne O. Viner, Wabash, '28, our immediate past president, has been appointed a vice president of the Northern Division.

We invite all Delts who visit Chicago, or who live in and about the city, to attend our regular weekly luncheons on Monday, at Harding's Grill, 7th Floor, the Fair Store.

We usually have about "10,000" present, so you not only have good fellowship, good food, and food at reasonable prices, and all the coffee you can drink for a dime, but you probably will run into someone you have not seen for years, and you will probably leave wondering why you overlooked your attendance at these luncheons for so long a time.

Rensselaer Delts Enjoy Third Dinner

Our third semi-annual dinner was attended by Delts from the New York, New Jersey, Long Island, Westchester, and Connecticut areas. A very enjoyable evening was had by all at the Teheran Restaurant, which is becoming our gathering place. Joe Flagler, chapter adviser of Upsilon Chapter, journeyed down from Troy to fill us in on the current activities on the R. P. I. campus and to advise us that the fund raising drive for our new chapter house is short by only $10,000.

Our next get-together is planned for the early fall. If any R. P. I. Delts have not been receiving notices of these meetings, will they please contact George W. Whitney, 90 Broad Street, New York 4, New York to get their names on our mailing list.

MORE JOIN DELT LEGION

The drive for increased attendance at our weekly Tuesday luncheon meetings has really taken hold. More than fifty Deltas in the greater Cincinnati area have joined the "Delt Legion" (promised to attend at least one meeting each month), and actually more than half show up weekly.

Encouraged by this showing, President Heuck is looking forward to increasingly well attended parties and meetings this year as was indicated in the good turnout and lively discussion which took place in late March at our evening business meeting, called for the purpose of covering proposed constitutional changes.

With a growing and eager active chapter of sixty, here at Cincinnati, and the increased activity of the alumni chapter, we are looking forward to a very interesting and successful rushing program this year, and would enjoy having transient Deltas join us at the Cincinnati Club any Tuesday at 12:30.

Columbus

CHIEF JUSTICE WEYGANDT SPEAKS

Old friendships were renewed at the 1956 Founders Day Banquet held on April 12 at the Columbus Athletic Club. Nearly 150 old and new Deltas were in attendance. Honorable Carl V. Weygandt, Chief Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court, made the principal speech. He was followed by a 30-minute film of the 1955 Big Ten football high lights. Some of the Delt standouts in the film who were also in attendance included 1956 Co-captain and Quarterback Frank Ellwood, First-string End Fred Kriss, and First-string Tackle Dick Guy. It was a splendid program under the chairmanship of Curt C. Horning.

Recently elected officers of the Columbus Alumni Chapter are: Richard Heer, president; Curt Horning, vice president; Doyle G. Poock, vice president; O. Allan Gulker, secretary; and Jacob Shawan, treasurer.

Columbus Deltas in the local headlines include Malcolm M. Prine and Jacob Shawan, both of whom are Republican candidates for the Ohio General Assembly. Delt traffic violators in Columbus are likely not to receive the right hand of fellowship as they come before brother Delt Judge J. Dean Strausbaugh. The Judge is known to be waging a one-man war on traffic violators. Hubbard Sherry was recently named to the board of directors and vice president of the Central Ohio First Mortgage Company.

Future plans for the Columbus Alumni Chapter include an all-out effort to increase the paid-up membership of the organization and to hold a summer outing. It is hoped that the outing will be co-ordinated with Delt rushing activities in Columbus. An attempt will be made to contact prospective Deltas who are headed not only for Ohio State but all other colleges and universities having Delt chapters. Rush chairmen throughout the Fraternity are invited to contact us for whatever help we may be.

HUGHES ADDRESSES FOUNDERS DAY THROUGH

Delt alumni activities in Denver have increased considerably during the past year—the climax being a stimulating Founders Day dinner held March 3, 1956.

The featured speaker was Francis M. Hughes, Mu, '31, Supervisor of Scholarships for the Fraternity. His forceful, thought-provoking message was inspirational to the 165 alumni and Beta Kappa Chapter members, who gave him a standing ovation at the conclusion of his remarks.

The traditional Mr. Toastmaster of all important Delt functions for the past many years, Ben C. Hilliard, Jr., Omicron, '20, performed in his usual witty, inimitable manner, to the delight of all of us. A fellow Omicron graduate, Don W. Brown, '49, president of the Denver alumni group, presided. Philip S. Van Cise, Beta Kappa, '07, the old standby in Delt alumni functions, took the stage to present Mr. Hughes. Recognition was given from the floor to the Distinguished

Two Beta Kappa Chapter members, Ned Job, outgoing president, and John Harker, incoming president, commented briefly on a few of the problems confronting the boys at Boulder.

Words cannot express the appreciation of the Denver alumni and their guests from the chapter house in Boulder to George O. Phillips, Beta Kappa, '34, and W. B. Moody, Jr., Beta Kappa, '34. Their untiring efforts and their unstinting gift of time to make the Founders Day in 1956 a success were well recognized by a deservedly outstanding ovation at the end of the banquet.

An announcement was made reminding Delt alumni of the weekly luncheons held at the Denver Dry Goods tearoom at 12 o'clock each Monday.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS PRESENTED

Findlay Delt alumni recently made their annual scholarship awards to winners at Delta Tau Chapter at nearby Bowling Green State University.

Winners of the awards for achievement in scholarship were: James Stoddard, Richard Jewett, and Ed Ward.

The awards were established several years ago by the Findlay alumni to help encourage and recognize scholastic achievement in the chapter.

Awards are made for top scholarship in the chapter, most improvement, and the highest scholarship record among the pledge class.

PLAN JOINT MEETING WITH DALLAS

The spring activities of the Ft. Worth Alumni Chapter are under way after a lull over the holiday season. Meetings of the executive committee and a general business meeting of the alumni have been held to plan the coming events which will help the undergraduate chapter at Texas Christian University with its program on campus. Another fine gala joint affair is planned at Ft. Worth Greater International Air Port, which is located halfway between Ft. Worth and Dallas, for April 27. Members of the Dallas and Ft. Worth clubs plus the undergraduates from Texas Christian University will gather for good fellowship, a wonderful meal, and a chance to hear from General Albert Sidney Johnson and

It is hoped that Hugh Shields will be able to work his trip to Houston out so that he can join us at the meeting. We are also planning on having John Fry from Houston to give us the up-to-date information on the Karnea plans for this summer. Election of new officers and the appointment of new committee heads for the next year will be items of business for the next several meetings.

Kansas City

FOUNDERS DAY BANQUET ATTENDED BY 150

The high light of spring activities for the Kansas City Alumni Chapter took place on the evening of March 23 with the annual Founders Day Banquet, held at Milleman's Restaurant on the Country Club Plaza, and was attended by 150 alumni and undergraduates. Delegations from the University of Kansas, Kansas State College, University of Missouri, and Baker University helped make the event a grand success.

Chapter President Jim Mordy (GT) acted as master of ceremonies, and George Docking (GT), most recent Democratic candidate for Governor of Kansas, was the featured speaker. Skits were provided by the undergraduate chapters at the University of Kansas and Kansas State College with the Gamma Tau skit winning the first-place trophy.

All brothers who have been active in Delta Tau Delta for twenty years or more were honored, and the banquet was concluded with a songfest with both alumni and undergraduates joining in. This annual event provides the alumni with a chance to get better acquainted with each other as well as with the members of the undergraduate chapters in the area.

March 17 and 18 were most eventful dates for Gamma Tau Chapter at the University of Kansas, and many of the Kansas City alumni made the trek to Lawrence to help the members of the undergraduate chapter celebrate the burning of the mortgage on the chapter house. A full week end of events, including a smoker at the Lawrence Country Club and the NCAA Regional Basketball Play-Offs, in addition to the spring initiation and mortgage burning banquet, was provided.

The weekly alumni luncheons which are held every Thursday noon at the University Club have experienced increased attendance during the past few months, and our growing pains have resulted in a move to a larger room in the Club. We now seem to have a fairly steady attendance of between twenty and thirty alumni, and are working on a program to double this figure.

C. T. BOYD IS HONORED GUEST

A great Founders Day Banquet was enjoyed on March 1 by a major portion of the Delt alumni who live in and near Knoxville. Brother C. T. Boyd, former President of the Fraternity, and attorney from Greensboro, N. C., flew across the mountains to make the principal address to the approximately fifty Delts present.

Members of Delta Delta Chapter were guests and expressed appreciation for the banquet and inspiration received at the meeting.

The April meeting was held one week later than customary, but was still attended by a good group of Delts. Future meetings will still be held the first Thursday in each month, 7:00 p.m.

During the summer months, alumni in this area are playing host to rush parties for Delta Delta Chapter—making their homes and private facilities available for rushing activities which might be difficult to handle at the Shelter.

Continuing into the fall, alumni will assist with rushing activities both at their homes and at rush parties in the Shelter.

HARLEY B. SMITH

Los Angeles

FOUNDERS DAY DINNER OUTSTANDING IN LOS ANGELES

Everybody knows that California, and especially Los Angeles, is the land of the superlative—the biggest, the best, the most, the highest, the lowest, the fastest, and ad nauseum—and this ain't just Texas talkin' . . .

But everybody who was present at the Founders Day Banquet put on by the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter of Delta Tau Delta will agree that it was: STUPENDOUS! TERRIFIC! COLOSSAL!

On March 22, approximately 375 members of the Fraternity gathered at the Statler Hotel in downtown Los Angeles, and by the time the pre-banquet ceremonies had been concluded, the evening promised to develop into something extra special. Those present came from as far south as San Diego and from as far north as Fresno. Five actives from the Santa Barbara chapter were present, while the entire personnel of the two local chapters—SC and UCLA—were there en masse.

Also present were 20 past presidents of the L. A. Alumni Chapter and 12 members of the Distinguished Service Chapter, while two were to receive fifty-year certificates testifying their loyalty and devotion to the Fraternity for over half a century.

Under the capable direction of President Toby Tyler (Colorado) and Douglas McDonald (Southern California) the Founders Day Banquet proceeded with machine-like efficiency. Howard Mills, National Alumni Secretary, presented a fifty year certificate to Charles Koehler (Stanford), while Dan Ferguson (Chicago) had the pleasure in presenting a similar certificate to Nat Fitts (Colorado), who, in turn, had presented Ferguson with the same kind of certificate several months previous.

Next on the agenda came the presentation of crested Delt rings given by the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter to the outstanding member of the three active chapters in Southern California. Selected to make the presentations was capable, loquacious George Rochester, who is not only a speaker of some renown in this territory, but, also, according to Dan Ferguson, was heavyweight boxing champion of the United States Navy during World War I, as well as champ of the Patagonian Navy as well. Anyway, our George was in rare form as he regaled his listeners with some well chosen words. George's approach was unique and different, as he outlined just what components are necessary to make up an "ideal" Delt and just what each one of those chosen possessed so that the members of his chapter would vote him as the one to receive the coveted award.

Brother Rochester called to the podium to receive his ring the following boys:

Thad Smith, Delta Psi (Santa Barbara). Thad is president of the chapter and has done a remarkable job at school. His father, By Smith, loyal Delt from Hillsdale, was present and was justifiably grinning from ear to ear.

Robert Hunt, Delta Iota (UCLA). Bob was captain last year of the UCLA track team and was considered to be one of the outstanding distance men in the entire country. He held the championship in the two mile last year and was an ideal leader.

Frank Kostlan, Delta Pi (USC). Frank was not only a leader in the chapter but also a leader on campus. A more popular choice could not have been made.

Unfortunately, Frank was unable to be present, and in his place Laird Willott, first-string guard at So. Calif., accepted the ring. Laird, if you recall, was one of the outstanding players in SC's great victory over Notre Dame last year.

The entertainment was in charge of Doug McDonald, and the program was excellent. Featuring the evening's festivities was a mixed foursome of high school students—two boys and two girls—who went by the name of "The Four Tones," and this group is remarkable. Just kids, they entertained and held the attention of the entire audience for more than an hour, climaxing a terrific show with a rendition of "The Lord's Prayer," which was so dramatic that not a single note of applause was heard at its conclusion.

All in all, it is and was an evening to be remembered. Not only was it the largest turnout we have had in these parts for a coon's age, but it was successful from every standpoint. Brothers Tyler, McDonald, Moldenhauer, and others whose names weren't available did yeoman's work in tying together the many, many details and the necessary arrangements so vital in putting on something like the banquet in scope and size.

Attendance at the bimonthly luncheons presently being held at the University Club has held up remarkably well. Under President Tyler's constant whip-cracking, the brothers are showing an accelerated interest in activities. Several things are planned for the summer, among them a beach party, a barbecue, and a stag. Summer is usually slow, but under the present administration's urgings it is almost certain to be lively.

In the meantime, if any visiting Delt is in Los Angeles this summer, he is more than welcome to drop around the University Club on the FIRST and THIRD Thursday of each month to break bread with those present. We guarantee him a good time and we might learn something from him.

Minnesota

FRED SOUBA RECEIVES RECOGNITION

Perhaps one of the largest crowds ever to turn out at a Beta Eta Founders Day Banquet was on hand Friday evening, April 20, at Calhoun Beach Club in Minnesota. Not only were Twin City Deltas well represented but also Deltas from all corners of Minnesota and the neighboring states. The brothers in attendance heard what the newly organized house corporation has accomplished and also its plans for the future. An election of officers for the Alumni Association was also held.

Fred Souba, chapter advisor for many years, was presented a plaque from the undergraduate chapter. The plaque was in recognition of the help and assistance that Fred had so willingly given to the undergraduates in the past.

On the lighter side there was a singing contest held between the undergraduate chapter and the alumni. The alumni had very stiff competition since the undergraduates were declared the winner of the annual Spring Interfraternity Sing, held in March. What the alumni lacked in quality was made up by volume and a good time was had by all.

Our congratulations go to Wally Haas, from the athletic department in Northfield, who was recently appointed athletic director of the University of Chicago.

We want to remind you again that alumni luncheons are being held every Friday noon on the second floor of the Covered Wagon in Minneapolis. Reservations are not necessary and your attendance would be appreciated.

National Capital

FORMER AMBASSADOR TO IRELAND
ADDRESSES FOUNDERS DAY GATHERING

Approximately 150 Capital Deltas attended our 97th Annual Founders Day dinner at the famous National Press Club here in Washington on April 6. After a social hour and a hearty steak dinner, the Honorable George A. Garrett, Chicago, '10, spoke to us about the future of our Nation's Capital and the current plans under way to beautify the Capital area. Mr. Garrett, a resident partner of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane, served as the country's first ambassador to Ireland and is presently serving as President Eisenhower's personal representative in expediting Washington's Southwest Development Plan to beautify the city.

Founders Day in the Nation's Capital brought 150 Deltas together at the National Press Club. Principal speaker was GEORGE A. GARRETT (left), first American Ambassador to Ireland. He is shown here with KARL W. DOERING, alumni chapter president.

Other distinguished members at the head table were: Associate Supreme Court Justice Thomas C. Clark, Texas, '22; Loy W. Henderson, Northwestern, '15, Ambassador at Large, U. S. Department of State; Harvey V. Higley, Northwestern & Wisconsin, '14, Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, Veterans Administration; Thomas G. Meeker, Wesleyan, '41, general counsel, Securities Exchange Commission; the Reverend Robert H. Andrews, Penn State, '36; Maj. Ralph M. Wray, Colorado, '20; C. Burr Christopher, George Washington, '28, President of the Southern Division; Karl W. Doering, Penn State, '34, president of our National Capital Delt Alumni Chapter; William A. Medina, George Washington, '57, active president of the GW chapter; and Gerald Hartdagen, Maryland, '57, active president of the Maryland chapter.

One of the high lights of the program was the presentation of plaques to outstanding undergraduate Deltas. Brother Higley presented the Henry C. Lipscomb Memorial Trophy, offered for the first time, to Arthur R. Eglington, George Washington, '56; and Brother Tom Clark presented the National Capital Alumni Award to Oscar C. Mueller, Maryland.

Gamma Eta Chapter, under the direction of Fred B. Smithwick, Jr., '55, not only demonstrated the fine musical talent which enabled Deltas to capture the interfraternity sing contest the following week at George Washington University, but also led the assembled Deltas in the singing of familiar Delt songs. John S. Toomey, George Washington, '51, accompanied at the piano.

Officers elected at the dinner for the coming year were: S. Rush Allen, Penn State, '34, president; Col. Raymond W. Short, Georgia, '21, vice-president; John K. Christian, Westminster, '45, secretary, and Robert E. Newby, George Washington, '24, treasurer.

The executive committee of our alumni association consists of: Boyce F. Betzer, Nebraska, '28; Karl W. Doering, Penn State, '34; Col. Daniel C. Eberly, George Washington, '29; W. Gordon Gemeny, Maryland, '51; Harold H. Hill, Illinois, '25; and Col. John A. W. O'Keefe, Tulane, '11.

We now have more than 1,200 Deltas residing in this area, with all but three of the 85 Delta Tau Delta chapters represented. If you are living or visiting in Washington and would like to be on the National Capital Delt mailing list, contact R. E. Newby at Oliver 2-4046.

MEEKER SPEAKS AT FOUNDERS DAY MEETING

Plans are well under way for the New York Alumni Founders Day Dinner, to be held Friday, May 11, at the Yale Club. We are glad to announce that our speaker, and honored guest, will be Brother Thomas G. Meeker, Wesleyan, '41, general counsel of the Securities and Exchange Commission. A graduate of Yale Law School, Brother Meeker was a principal speaker at the 1946 Karnea in Chicago.

Delt activities are rolling in the city, and our monthly luncheons are drawing a good and increasing crowd. Uptown luncheons are held the second Thursday of every month at 12:30 p.m. at the Stevens-Penn-Syracuse Club, 106 West 56th Street. Downtown luncheons are held on the first Tuesday of the month at 1:00 p.m. at the Chamber of Commerce Building, 4th floor, 65 Liberty Street.

We welcome fellow Deltas. For information on either luncheon, call either Calder P. Sinclair at BE 3-2800 or George W. Whitney at DI 4-5888.

Northern Kentucky

TWO MORE NORTHERN KENTUCKY PLEDGES TURN UP AT PURDUE

In addition to four Northern Kentucky lads who were pledged (and reported) by Delta Epsilon, word finally leaked back to the Northern Kentucky alumni club that Tom Hall, son of our own T. J. Hall (Kenyon) and Bob Huhey, also of Ft. Thomas, are also wearing the Delt pledge pin at Purdue.

Willie Floetker, Newport, is back from his army service and is affiliated with the University of Cincinnati chapter.

Many thanks to the Michigan chapter for its report on our club's recommendations . . . also to Delta Epsilon at Kentucky. Some of our good brothers at Miami should learn how to write.

Several years ago at one of our annual rush parties, Tom Keuper, Ft. Thomas, stood out (he's about 6' 6") in more ways than one. Delta Epsilon pledged him. Keuper is the new president of the Kentucky chapter.

In the Delt Diaper Derby are two young Delts and a future Tri Delt. Brother Fred "Fritz" Erschell is the proud papa of a baby "dotter" and Lawton "Babe" Daly and Tom Youtsey are boasting about their sons.

If other alumni groups would like to know the secret about getting the "seldom shows" out to the meetings, start a jackpot. It works wonders. Also include your Delt Dames in on your parties quite frequently. Those gals like to get together and they'll drag papa along.

Plans are all ready for our annual rush party in September. A lot of good boys are going away to college again this year. Among other events on the card was a square dance in April and a steak fry with "our gals" in June.

CAMERON COFFMAN

Portland

FOUNDERS DAY BANQUET IN APRIL

By press time we shall have had our Founders Day Dinner on April 20 at the newly remodeled Three Star Restaurant. With more than 200 Delts residing in the Greater Portland area, a good turnout is expected.

So many times we find that it is the good Delts, also active in making livings and adding to a fuller and richer community and civic life by being active in several other organizations, who really support these functions. Such Delt alumni feel their responsibility to continue their associations with other men also interested in the welfare of the undergraduate chapters of Delta Tau Delta in the Northwest.

Liaison is carried on between the active undergraduate chapters and is a two-way affair. Many of the men in this group realize that a day in the not too distant future will see the possibilities of their own sons entering college and possibly being placed on the threshold of the choice of a good college fraternity. By their frequent associations in alumni activities they are able to keep in touch with the tempo of their own Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

Again this year the annual meeting is to be held in a congenial atmosphere, at the Blitz Weinhart Party Room on May 23. New officers will be installed and assuming the responsibilities their elections carry. Notices of all of these events are sent out on our known mailing list as far in advance as possible. New Delts in the area are certainly welcome to call Capital 8-2605, or to meet the gang at the "Broiler" Monday noons.

Darrell L. Johnson, Oregon, '40, was the guest speaker at the Seattle Founders Day Dinner on January 13. Our reports indicate that he did a fine job as he has done in so many other activities.

Bob Gilley, Washington, '30, attended the Fraternity's Regional Conference at Iowa State the first week end in April, acting in his capacity as Western Division President. This member is certainly doing commendable work for the Fraternity.

Plans are under way for the summer months with a family picnic scheduled and then a separate "Golf Hi-Jinks." So, men, let's get those swimming, softball, and golf muscles tuned up. We'll see you there.

EIGHTY-TWO HEAR GEORGE FISCHER SPEAK AT FOUNDERS DAY BANQUET

A total of 82 Delts made up of 36 St. Louis alumni, 28 undergraduates from Gamma Kappa, University of Missouri, and 18 undergraduates from Delta Omicron, Westminster College, showed up for one of our most successful and enjoyable Founders Day banquets, which was held the evening of March 2, 1956, in the Forest Park Hotel, St. Louis.

Gamma Kappa undergraduates put on an extremely entertaining series of four skits representing the four stages of sophistication achieved in college.

Not to be outdone, the undergraduates of Delta Omicron put on clever satires on rushing and the conduct of St. Louis alumni when visiting their chapter house.

Jerry Ritter, president of Gamma Kappa Chapter at the University of Missouri, and Tom Hicks of Delta Omicron at Westminster gave reports on the activities of their respective chapters.

The evening was highlighted by a speech by George A. Fischer, Jr., a member of our St. Louis alumni group and vice-president of the Western Division of Delta Tau Delta. "Decay or Progress" was the subject of his speech, in which he not only outlined the present status of the Fraternity nationally but projected the needs of the Fraternity in the next ten years, one of these needs being the building of 35 new fraternity chapter houses. George also stressed the need for greater responsibility in the financial support of the fraternities as a contribution to the universities and colleges of which our chapter is a part.

It was felt by all that this Founders Day banquet had been one of our most enjoyable and most successful.

The scholarship cup awarded each year by the St. Louis Delt Alumni is being awarded this year to Gamma Tau at Kansas University.

We are already formulating plans for our annual rushing party, probably to be held in August for the benefit of the Delt chapters in our area.

NEW OFFICERS TAKE OVER

At the meeting held March 7 at the Essex House Hotel, the following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Robert S. Arthur; vice-president, John Wallace; secretary-treasurer, Jack Francis; directors, Rex Rafferty, Dr. Harold Colt, Ed Papworth, Herbert Thornberg, and Howard Helt.

Benjamin E. Hamilton, Bethany, '96, is a regular attendant at our meetings. Carl D. Greenleaf, Chicago, '99, is another Delt regular in his attendance during the winter months. Lewis M. Sutton, W. & J., '93, who is also a "regular," is leaving for his home in West Virginia on April 17.

JUNE OUTING SCHEDULED, WILL INCLUDE DELT DAMES

Alumni Chapter President Bill Homer, Ohio, '39, has assumed other presidential duties. In March Bill was appointed president of Barnes & Cone, manufacturers of cinder, celocrete, and concrete blocks.

From three recent luncheon gatherings of the officers of the alumni chapter plans have been formulated for the future. There will be a large outing in June with the ladies in attendance too. Details of the outing are being mailed to all the 175 Delt alumni in the Central New York area.

Last Rites for Dr. Robert Ruedy

Death claimed on February 12 one of the early members of the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter: DR. ROBERT E. RUEDY, Western Reserve, '90.

Dr. Ruedy, a general medical practitioner of the Cleveland, Ohio, area for nearly 40 years, was one of the pioneers in neurology in the Middle West. He was a devoted Delt and a loyal friend of many hundreds of Delts. Until recently he seldom missed a Fraternity gathering and attended many conferences and Karneas. For years he was a member of Zeta Chapter's house corporation. At the time of his death, he was Zeta's oldest alumnus.

He is survived by two Delt sons—Wilson, Western Reserve, '23, and John E., Western Reserve, '24.

United States Senator HARLEY M. KILGORE, West Virginia, '14, died February 28 at Bethesda Naval Hospital following a cerebral hemorrhage. A member of the Senate for 15 years, he was chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, one of the most influential assignments in Congress. He was also a member of the Appropriations Committee.

A former judge of the Criminal Court of Raleigh County, West Virginia, Senator Kilgore during his years in Washington sponsored legislation for strict mine safety, social security and unemployment compensation benefits, small business, and antimonopoly regulations. Under President Roosevelt, he urged legislation which became the basis for the Office of War Mobilization.

Senator Kilgore was a loyal member of the Fraternity and was frequently called upon to speak at Delt functions. He participated in the installation of Delta Sigma Chapter at the University of Maryland.

Lt. WILLIAM H. JOHNSON, Penn State, '54, was killed on February 19 when his Air Force jet plane crashed on a California mountainside during a violent storm.

A former president of Tau Chapter, Lt. Johnson was an honor graduate of Penn State, where he was Air Marshal of his class. He was the son of Edwin H. Johnson, Carnegie Tech, '22, house corporation officer of Delta Beta Chapter, and the nephew of Horace H. Johnson, Carnegie Tech, '22, former chapter adviser of Delta Beta Chapter.

Lt. Johnson died on his 23rd birthday, only a few weeks before he was scheduled to be graduated from the Air Force as a jet pilot. The fatal crash occurred while he was on a routine training flight from Laredo Air Force Base in Texas, where he was stationed.

Fatally injured in a crash of an Air Force C-47 plane at Cheyenne, Wyoming, on February 9 was GERALD N. BINGHAM, Nebraska, '54, second lieutenant and copilot of the ship. A former resident of Lincoln, Nebraska, he played varsity tackle for the Husker grid team during the seasons of 1951-53.

Dr. EDGAR H. NORRIS, Wooster, '15, Minnesota, '15, prominent physician and medical educator of Detroit, died at his home last October 6. He was a former dean of the medical school of Wayne University in Detroit.

Two former greats of Pittsburgh football fame have passed to the Chapter Eternal. They were Dr. CHARLES C. EDWARDS, Pittsburgh, '30, and ALEC B. FOX, Pittsburgh, '29.

Dr. Edwards, quarterback on the late Jock Sutherland's 1928 and 1930 Rose Bowl teams, died February 16 in Titusville, Pennsylvania, where he was a dentist. As a Pitt undergraduate, he was president of the student body and won All-American honorable mention as a football player.

Fox, captain of the 1928 Panther grid team, died in an air crash at Pittsburgh early in April. The former star guard was en route to his home in Allentown, where he was western sales manager for Lehigh Portland Cement Company.

★

JAMES B. O'DONNELL, Cincinnati, '03, chairman of the board of the Lodge & Shipley Machine Tool Co. and director of the University of Cincinnati, died March 1 at the age of 75. A Phi Beta Kappa, he was a charter member of Gamma Xi Chapter.

MAX O. TRUITT, Missouri, '28, George Washington, '29, well-known attorney of Washington, D. C., died February 2 at the age of 52.

Former general counsel and commissioner of the Maritime Commission, Mr. Truitt was a member of the law firm of Cummings, Truitt and Reeves.

He was the son-in-law of Senator Alben W. Barkley, Emery, '00. Mrs. Truitt acted as official hostess for her father during part of his term as Vice President.

Mr. Truitt was a past president of Gamma Eta Chapter.

ARTHUR HOWE CARPENTER, Ohio, '97, Northwestern, '00, prominent metallurgist and inventor of metallurgical processes, died at Middleport, Ohio, late in March. A former professor of metallurgy at Illinois Institute of Technology, he had also been a lecturer in geology, astronomy, and meteorology.

SENATOR HARLEY M. KILGORE

Mr. Carpenter was manufacturer of the large telescope used in daily ceremonies at the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago in 1933 and 1934. The telescope later was presented to Ohio University.

★

FOSS O. ELDRD, Albion, '06, former Attorney General of Michigan, died at Lakeland, Florida, February 17. A practicing attorney of Ionia, Michigan, for many years, he had also served as mayor of the city.

When medical research finally comes up with the cure for cancer and leukemia, a Delt—Dr. LOYD JUDD, Oklahoma, '45—will be remembered as one who made a precious contribution, according to a front-page story of the Oklahoma City Times.

Dr. Judd diagnosed his first case of acute leukemia in April, 1955, when he saw the deadly symptoms in himself. He promptly volunteered as a human guinea pig in the determined campaign to conquer the killer. Submitting himself to treatment at the Oklahoma Medical Research Hospital in Oklahoma City, he estimated that he had only six to eight weeks to live.

Initially, however, Dr. Judd responded well to treatment as he heroically assisted specialists in their search for effective medication. Ultimately, however, time ran out, and the young physician succumbed to the ravages of the disease on March 4 of this year.

Staff members of the research foundation paid tribute to Dr. Judd for his contribution to the cause of medical science. They expressed the conviction that research, working with volunteers like Dr. Judd, will one day find the answer to the leukemia riddle.

whose motto is "All our girls are men, yet every one's a lady," this year presented "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." Our chapter president, Ted Stowe, was president of the Haresfoot Club and Henry Dopkiewitz was vice-president; in addition, Henry starred in the leading female role for his third year. Bob Cotanch scored in another leading female role, while Tom Schroeder and Ron Thorstad also sang and danced in supporting roles. Meanwhile, doing work behind the scenes, Raws Price was assistant business manager and Paul Counsell did art work for the club.

YEARBOOK PHOTOGRAPHY EDITOR

Two more Deltos who have achieved respectable positions on our campus are Don Hoffman and Phil Skinner. Don is director of public relations for the Wisconsin Student Association and Phil is the photography editor for the Badger yearbook.

Since our Shelter is located on the shore of Lake Mendota, it is an ideal place to live during the summer. As such, our Shelter is open to girls for the University Summer Session. Therefore, Bob Thygeson organized a very successful Open House for co-eds to promote co-ed relations and to publicize that our Shelter is open to women students for residence during summer school.

SKINNER OUTSTANDING PLEDGE

There were many new Delt pins proudly displayed during Easter vacation, for 13 new brothers were initiated just before Easter. Phil Skinner was selected the Outstanding Pledge of the group.

Not very proudly, we present—

The LITTLE TEN of

Undergraduate Chapter Scholarship for 1954-55

Following tabulation of official marks for the academic year 1954-55 for undergraduate chapters on the 82 college campuses from which such information is available, the following ten chapters were announced as having "achieved" the lowest scholastic standings in the Fraternity. Relative rank is determined on the basis of the percentage of the chapter's average below the All Men's Average of the individual campus.

N.B. Consider how far ahead of all other fraternities nationally our Fraternity would stand if these ten chapters had performed as well as the top ten.

tees, and telephone committees were appointed at the dinner meeting held at the University Club in April.

Officers of the alumni chapter attended the Initiation Banquet of the Gamma Omicron Chapter recently held at the University Club. Reports indicate that the actives were mighty glad to see so many Delt alumni at the banquet.

Our mailing list, now complete, contained so many surprises in new names unknown to us that we are sending all the names and addresses out in a general mailing to every Delt in the area. It seems there is a Delt just around the corner from all of us.

Topeka

INVITATION TO AIR FORCE FLIERS

No special news from Topeka alumni. Our members are loyal in attendance at the monthly luncheon meetings, and we all enjoy them. We have all professions represented in our group including doctors, bankers, lawyers, and from many different activities, and have some interesting sessions. Two of our members are doctors with the State Board of Health, Dr. Mott having charge of the distribution of Salk vaccine to the physicians of Kansas. Dr. Richard Beach, who has located in Topeka the past year, was recently married, and has the best wishes of all our members.

Our list also includes five or six prominent Topeka attorneys, one of whom is Roy Bulkley, present county attorney of Shawnee County. Our good member, Mr. Cliff Stratton, Washington news correspondent, was called home by the death of the general manager of Capper Publications, but has returned to Washington until the end of the present session of Congress.

Visitors always welcome, and any Delts who are Air Force fliers and come to Forbes Air Force Base at Topeka, please give us a call.
