THE PRESIDENT'S BADGE CHANGES HANDS

Complete details of the 63rd Karnea in this issue, reported by EDWIN L. HEMINGER.

Coming up in 1958:
The
Centennial Karnea

Hardly an hour passes in the life of a chapter without its opportunity to fortify the character and spirit of some member who is tempted to do the easy, the foolish, or even the harmful thing which would by just so much defeat the purpose which has brought him to college. That is the responsibility which your college has laid upon your shoulders. That is the opportunity which has been given you to exercise an influence for good in the life of your members, and thus in the life of your college.

ALVAN E. DUERR

President of Delta Tau Delta

Inspiring Karnea in Lone Star State

By EDWIN L. HEMINGER, Ohio Wesleyan, '48

From Houston, Texas, an enthusiastic report on the Sixty-Third Karnea and its impact on national Delta Tau Delta

AS DELTA TAU DELTA's pennant was hoisted atop the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel in Houston, Texas, another famous flag was added to the six distinguished flags that have flown over the Lone Star State.

For as Delta Tau Delta's flag flapped in the Texas breeze, it marked Houston as the international capital of Deltism from August 15 to 18.

Those four days embraced the 63rd Karnea of Delta Tau Delta, and a great Karnea it was. As promised by the Texas Delts, the hospitality was as warm as Texas weather in August.

Over 400 Delts shared in the Houston Karnea, bringing to the event centuries of cumulated Delt experience, and making the Karnea, as all Karneas are, the richest experience in Delta Tau Delta.

Nicholai Hiller, Stevens, '89, alone brought 71 years of Deltism with him, to be the senior Delt attending the Karnea. Sharing the experience with him were several hundred undergraduate Delts, attending their first or perhaps second Karnea, and gaining a brand new appreciation of the national scope Delta Tau Delta.

SIX PAST PRESIDENTS

And adding their full measure of Fraternity devotion to the event were six past Presidents, each exemplifying what the Fraternity calls "The Good Delt."

Distinguished Delts whose fame has spread far beyond the Fraternity and throughout the land contributed their share to the 63rd Karnea. For Associate Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark, Texas, '22, and Branch Rickey, Ohio Wesleyan, '04, demonstrated that busy Delts are still active, loyal Delts with a continuing interest in their Fraternity.

And adding their special brand of Delt experience to the event were the ten members of the Arch Chapter, 25 members of the Distinguished Service Chapter, and four former members of the Arch Chapter.

Added to this was the participation by chapter advisers, alumni chapter representatives, Karnea hounds who just can't stay away, and one of the most important—just plain Delts whose continuing interest in the Fraternity brought them to the 63rd Karnea of Delta Tau Delta.

And exemplifying the universal appeal of a Karnea, Ohio State's Beta Phi Chapter president, Richard Wray, brought his bride to Houston for a Karnea honeymoon.

As these Karnea Delts entered the "largest city in the largest state" in the nation, Houston Delts were on hand at the Shamrock-Hilton to welcome them. Houston Alumni President E. C. Johnson was personally greeting most of the undergraduates, alumni, wives, and guests.

INFORMAL RECEPTION

A good share of the 400 Delts were acquainted following an informal reception and get-together Wednesday evening at the Shamrock, with the Houston alumni serving as hosts. Registration started Wednesday noon and continued through the entire Karnea, with the Reverend G. C. "Tex" McElyea, Ohio Wesleyan, '47, affably appearing with his registration paraphernalia at whatever door of the hotel Delts were next expected to pass through. Similar experience at five previous Karneas served him well in locating unregistered Delts.

The Karnea moved into full gear Thursday when the first of the business sessions opened. Dr. Allen C. Hutcheson, Virginia, '01, a retired medical missionary and a member of the Houston alumni group, opened the first session with prayer.

The 63rd Karnea did these things:

Selected Pittsburgh, Pa., as the site of the 64th Karnea in August, 1958.

This will be the Centennial Karnea.

Established the Centennial Development Fund, described elsewhere in this issue.

Heard of the Arch Chapter's action of granting a charter at Washington State College, Pullman, Wash., on December 19, 1956.

Elected Francis M. Hughes, Ohio Wesleyan, '31, national President.

Elected Dr. Fred Kerschner, Butler, '37, Supervisor of Scholarship of the Fraternity.

Elected Robert Gilley, Washington, '30, Vice-President of Delta Tau Delta.

Elected W. Edgar West, Ohio Wesleyan, '23, Secretary of the Fraternity.

Elected Howard Mills, Western Reserve, '18, Treasurer of the Fraternity.

Elected John Nichols, Oklahoma, '36, Secretary of Alumni.

Adopted a formal pledging ceremony. Presented scholarship awards to Delta Epsilon Chapter at the University of Kentucky and Mu Chapter at Ohio Wesleyan University.

Associate Supreme Court Justice TOM CLARK, Texas '22, told Karnea Delts of his experiences in Delta Tau Delta as the featured speaker at the Karnea Banquet in Houston.

Greetings and welcome were extended to the Karnea in a telegram from Texas Governor Shivers.

Business sessions, heart of any Karnea, continued throughout the three days, and highlights of the business sessions are reported elsewhere in this issue. It should be said to the credit of the Fraternity that all the business sessions were marked with dignity and orderly discussion of the serious issues that were successfully resolved in the 63rd Karnea.

ROUND-TABLE DISCUSSIONS

Part of the "business" of the Karnea included the round-table discussions on various phases of chapter operation and administration. Always a popular feature at Karneas, these periods provide an opportunity for an organized interchange of ideas on chapter performance.

Discussion topics and the Delts who participated in this phase of the Karnea are listed elsewhere in this issue.

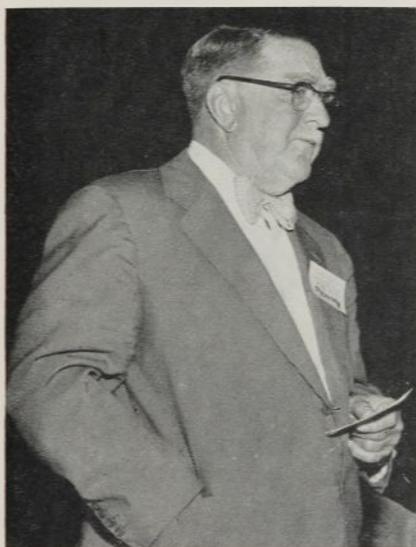

Thursday noon, the Delts moved outdoors under the Texas sun for a poolside luncheon on the terrace surrounding the famous Shamrock swimming pool.

That night, Delts returned to the same setting with their ladies for a buffet supper in cooler evening breezes. Dinner was highlighted with a background of strumming guitars and strolling Mexican musicians.

But the supper was only a prelude to the entertainment that followed,

BRUCE BIELASKI, George Washington, '04; MARTIN B. DICKINSON, Kansas, '26; and CHARLES BOYD, North Carolina, '21.

BRANCH RICKEY, Ohio Wesleyan, '04, addressed the noon luncheon honoring members of the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter. Mr. Rickey is a member of the DSC and a former member of the Arch Chapter. He has been a Karnea speaker on many previous occasions.

Evidence of the warm Texas welcome is this giant bill board which greeted Delts as they approached the Shamrock Hilton hotel in Houston. Pointing with pride to the sign is Karnea Cashier G. C. McELYEA.

when a full-scale water show was presented, complete with water ballet, high diving, and the antics of diving comedians.

MODEL INITIATION CEREMONY

Moving back into the hotel, the Delts were witnesses to a model initiation, conducted by members of Delta Alpha Chapter at the University of Oklahoma. Representatives of a score of undergraduate Delt chapters made up the model chapter. A proposed formal pledging ceremony, later adopted, was also performed at this time. The ritualistic work forcefully reminded the Karnea assembled of the high idealism of Delta Tau Delta that distinguishes the Fraternity from a mere social organization.

The model initiation was followed by the traditional Delt Walk-Around led by the Harley Carpenter, Allegheny, '09, one of the developers of the Choctaw tradition that has so enriched the lore of the Fraternity. Several hundred Delts participated in the colorful Walk-Around through the lobby of the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel.

Friday noon, the Delts paid tribute to the alumni corps who have rendered such outstanding service to Delta Tau Delta that they have been cited to membership in the Distinguished Service Chapter. Twenty-five of these loyal Delts were honored at the DSC luncheon, which was presided over by the Committee Chairman, A. Bruce Bielaski, George Washington, '04.

Mr. Baseball, Branch Rickey, Ohio Wesleyan, '04, a member of the DSC, presented remarks at the luncheon meeting.

THE KARNEA GOES WESTERN

Friday evening, the Karnea went western. The Houston Karnea Committee and the entertainment committee headed by John Frye, Texas, '49, and Charles Westmoreland, Texas, '37, arranged for an evening's program straight out of the Old West.

Delts, their wives, and guests were picked up at the Shamrock door by air-conditioned busses that took them to Tennwood acres, some forty miles northwest of Houston.

Here, the guests were welcomed by the Harris County Sheriff's Mounted Posse. The world-famous horsemen entertained the group with brilliantly executed maneuvers, and gave the Delts a taste of western cowboy skill.

All this was followed by an authentic beef barbecue, for which the Southwest is famous. A festive western air was added by the music of Johnny Ragsdale and his Sundowners.

Stuart Lake, Cornell, '11, well-known story consultant for the current television series "Wyatt Earp," was noted carefully making observations on the western atmosphere that filled Tennwood acres that evening. If "Wyatt Earp" visits Texas during the coming television season, Delts will know why!

Saturday afternoon, following luncheon, the Delts braved the Texas heat long enough to have the official

Members of the Houston Alumni Chapter, OTTO WYMER, Colorado, '16; STERLING WYER, JR., Texas '22; and CECIL PYKE, Baker, '23, are shown greeting Illinois Delegate WILLIAM SILLICK.

Outdoor dining on the terrace of the famed Shamrock Hilton was one of the outstanding events of the 63rd Karnea. The fabulous Shamrock pool provided a colorful background for the events.

The old and the young of the Stevens delegation share a look at the registration board showing the names of all registered Delts by chapter. In the center is NICOLAI HILLER, '89.

Saturday evening, the grand finale for the 63rd Karneia was marked by the Karneia banquet, always a high light of any Karneia.

Ralph Johnston, Oklahoma, '24, a member of the Karneia committee, handled the duties of toastmaster for the evening's program. The Reverend G. C. McElyea gave the invocation.

Following dinner, the entertainment committee again "went to town" and produced some of the liveliest entertainment in Texas.

The "Cell Block Seven" musical aggregation delighted the undergraduates with their "hot notes" and kept the older alumni distinctly awake. And in case any stories had not been told about the virtues of Texas, Randy Brown, the Professional Texan, took over following dinner to finish the job of indoctrination.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

On the serious side of the program, Supervisor of Scholarship Francis M. Hughes, Ohio Wesleyan, '31, presented scholarship awards to Delta Epsilon Chapter at Kentucky and Mu Chapter at Ohio Wesleyan.

Following this presentation, retiring national President Joel W. Reynolds, Tufts, '23, presented the President's pin to newly elected President Francis M. Hughes.

Associate Justice Tom C. Clark, Texas, '22, in his banquet talk, reflected upon his undergraduate Delt days at the University of Texas, stating, "I thank God for my experiences of living with my Delt brothers, a rich experience with men, teaching self-government and democracy and providing an opportunity to carry responsibilities."

SPIRIT OF DEVOTION

Justice Clark challenged the audience with the statement, "As we Delts march down the street 45 thousand strong, eyes are on us to see if our heads are up and to see what kind of a job we're doing."

Commenting on the fact that wherever he goes, Delts greet him, Justice Clark stated, "Once a Delt, always a Delt—you'll always carry the spirit of devotion to our great Fraternity."

As the Karneia drew to a close with the singing of "Shelter," everyone realized more than ever that a Karneia of this kind doesn't just happen—it takes careful planning and skillful execution.

Actually the 63rd Karneia was born in Pasadena in June, 1954. Texas ambassador Bunch Britton, Texas, '49, had served as a one man chamber of commerce in selling the 62nd Karneia on making its next visit to Houston, Texas.

KARNEIA COMMITTEE

From that point on, Texas Delts and Houston Delts particularly began the job of planning the 63rd Karneia. John V. Singleton, Jr., Texas, '41, was named Karneia Chairman, and working with him were: E. C. Johnson, Colorado, '21; Silas Ragsdale, Sr., Texas, '18; John H. Fry, Jr., Texas, '49; Charles Westmoreland, Jr., Texas, '37; Hirst Suffield, Oklahoma, '34; George Townsman, Pennsylvania, '22; Otto Wymer, Colorado, '16; David Wynne, Texas, '26; C. W. Van Wormer, Texas, '30; and Ralph Johnston, Oklahoma, '24.

And named to organize the women's program were Mrs. Joel W. Reynolds, honorary chairman, and Mrs. John W. Singleton, Jr., Mrs. William R. Brown, Mrs. E. C. Thompson, Mrs. Charles Westmoreland, Jr., Mrs. George Butler, and Mrs. C. W. Van Wormer.

To these folks and to the undergraduates at the host chapters at Texas, Oklahoma, Oklahoma A. & M., and Texas Christian, fell the responsibility for the 63rd Karneia. With guidance from the Arch Chapter and valuable assistance from the Central Office and its staff, the job was done.

PLANNING FOR 64TH

And as the work is finished on the 63rd Karneia and its history is written, the job now commences of planning the Fraternity's 64th Karneia, the centennial Karneia, at Pittsburgh in August, 1958.

And so it is with the history of the Fraternity, one group of Delts picks up the work where another group leaves off, and the glorious history of Delta Tau Delta bears the imprint of Delt personalities as each day's history is recorded.

The pages on the Houston Karneia of 1956 are filled with accomplishments and distinguished by pleasant memories of another wonderful experience in Delta Tau Delta.

Justice Clark "Jailed" at Karnea

DR. ALLEN C. HUTCHESON, Virginia, '01, gave the invocation at Thursday morning's opening business session of the Karnea. Dr. Hutcheson, a member of the Houston Alumni Chapter, is a retired medical missionary, having served in the foreign field in the Far East for over 20 years.

Enjoying a new experience, Associate Justice TOM CLARK is joined by friends Executive Vice-President HUGH SHIELDS, past President A. BRUCE BIELASKI, and young ladies in a short term in "jail" at the Tenn-wood barbecue.

Newly elected Supervisor of Scholarship, DR. FRED KERSHNER, presents remarks following his election to the Arch Chapter at the concluding business session.

Spirit of the Old West was found aplenty when the Harris County's sheriff's posse went through their exhibition of riding ability, at the Tenn-wood acres barbecue Friday evening.

RALPH JOHNSTON, Oklahoma '24, served as toastmaster for the Karnea Banquet.

Typical of the six round-table discussions on various topics is this group tackling the subject of alumni relations. Panel leaders are, left to right: JOSEPH G. COCKE, JR., Alabama; former Field Secretary KENNETH C. PENFOLD, Colorado, '37; GARY SIMMONS, Idaho; and THOMAS J. POWERS, Missouri.

Houston Delts leading off the registration include E. C. JOHNSON, president of the Houston Alumni Chapter; SILAS RAGSDALE, member of the Karnea Committee; and JOHN SINGLETON, Karnea Chairman.

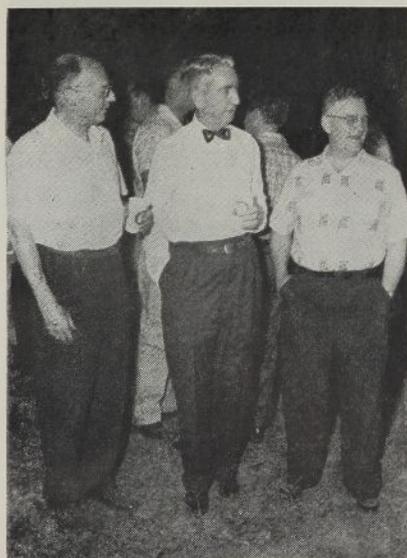

One of the most popular features of any Karnea, the "payoff" when delegates receive their travel reimbursement, finds Field Secretary JAMES MORRISON, left, and Cashier G. C. McELYEA disbursing funds.

Sixty-Third Karnea Adopts Centennial Development Fund

Proposed new Fund is hailed as significant step in Fraternity's forward march of progress

AMONG THE MOST significant acts of the 63rd Karnea was the adoption of the new Delta Tau Delta Centennial Development Fund, a project intended to insure the future growth and expansion of the Fraternity. It is a project, too, consistent with the progressive administration which has characterized the first 100 years of Delta Tau Delta and one which serves notice that the next 100 hold the promise of even greater usefulness to college youth.

Establishment of the Fund involves amendment of the Fraternity's Constitution, to add a fourth fund to the three existing funds: the General Fund, the Loyalty Fund, and the Educational Fund. Following adoption of the amendment by the Karnea, it is now submitted to the undergraduate chapters for ratification. If the amendment is ratified, the Delta Tau Delta Centennial Development Fund becomes a reality on January 1, 1957.

What is the new Fund, and what is its purpose?

It will be an account whose assets will be derived from voluntary gifts, either money or property. All gifts must be unrestricted, to be utilized for the general purpose of the Fund. The Fund will be a capital account, the principal of which cannot be expended.

Its purpose shall be to provide direct and invaluable assistance to the undergraduate chapters—and to provide such in a form which has not previously been available to the chapters through any other agency of the Fraternity.

In providing such assistance, it is agreed that preference shall be given to newly established chapters of the Fraternity. Such provision gives recognition to the fact that newer chapters, without the assistance of established alumni backing, have generally a more serious problem in providing adequate and competitive housing than do the older chapters.

It also acknowledges the logic that the Delt chapter which has been operating for a considerable number of years has—or should have—made adequate provision by its own competent management for a building program which is self-sustained. The Fund therefore proposes to assist the youngsters of the Fraternity, those chapters which are, through circumstances over which they have no control, the least capable of helping themselves.

The presentation of the proposal to the Karnea emphasized that financial campaigns of the individual chapters should in all instances have priority and that the Centennial Fund is not in competition for gifts which are necessary for the immediate needs of the undergraduate chapter.

The Fund, as proposed by the Karnea, will be administered by the Fraternity's Board of Directors. Members of the Board, however, will be assisted in their considerations by a newly created Centennial Development Fund Advisory Committee, composed of five members of the Fraternity who are not then members of the Arch Chapter.

The new program is hailed as a forward and pioneering step, for it will become a significant instrument in enabling the Fraternity's housing to keep pace with the demands of the modern era. It should prove particularly effective in permitting Delta Tau Delta to capitalize on opportunities to establish competitive chapters on campuses where it is not now represented.

Norm MacLeod Holds Karnea Hound Title

FORMER FRATERNITY President Norman MacLeod retained his title as Chief of the Kennel of Karnea Hounds by appearing at Houston to attend his 17th Karnea. He has not missed a Karnea since the Cleveland meeting in 1923.

Other Delts extended their strings of Karneas attended to move up in the hierarchy of Hounds. They included N. Ray Carroll, Western Reserve, '08 (also a former President), and Harley Carpenter, Allegheny, '09, with 15; Charles T. Boyd, North Carolina, '21 (another Ex-President), with 13; Henry G. Hoss, Purdue, '05, with 12; W. Dayton McKay, Northwestern, '26, with 11; and former President Martin B. Dickinson, Kansas, '26, with 10.

The chapter with the largest representation was naturally Gamma Iota, Texas. Runner-up was Gamma Theta, Baker University.

Offers Final Prayer

THE FINAL PRAYER at the Republican National Convention in San Francisco was offered by the Reverend Harrison Ray Anderson, Kansas State, '11, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Chicago and former national Moderator of the Presbyterian Church.

"We thank Thee," he prayed, "for sparing him (President Eisenhower) from the wounds of war so he could lead us in the paths of peace. . . . Direct us in all our doings that we may glorify Thy Holy Name."

The Reverend Anderson was especially invited to San Francisco to offer the closing prayer.

Presidents of Delta Tau Delta—XIII

ALVAN E. DUERR, Kenyon, '93, & Williams, '93—1925-1927

A leader of intense dedication, rare insight, and clear vision was the 13th President, whose service to the entire fraternity system was monumental.

"IF YOU WOULD SEE YOUR monument, Alvan, look about you."

A distinguished Delt and the foremost fraternity leader in the world, Alvan E. Duerr carved an imperishable record in the fields of education, business, and fraternity. He had touched the lives of more Deltas more intimately than any other Delt in the land, with the possible exception of Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, whose Delt life moved for many years in the same orbit as Alvan's. It was, in fact, the team of Hughes and Duerr which blazed the trail of many a new frontier for Delta Tau Delta.

Alvan Duerr became a Delt in September, 1889, during that formative period just thirty years after the birth of Delta Tau Delta at Bethany College, Virginia, at a time when experience, laws, policies, standards, and procedures had not been developed, when the die was to be cast which would make Delta Tau Delta and the fraternity system a constructive and continuing force or prove it to be a shallow fancy which would disappear from the college scene. The futures of both the fraternity system and of the youthful Delta Tau Delta hung in the balance.

That was a period which demanded volunteers with steadfast and uncompromising willingness to assume leadership and to give devotion to Fraternity idealism. It took even more than that. It required men with extraordinary moral fiber and unrelenting courage to surmount the many obstacles impeding the realization of their ideals.

AT 16, ENTERED KENYON

During such an era, Alvan, at the age of sixteen, entered Kenyon College, at Gambier, Ohio, and was introduced to Delta Tau Delta. From that point until the very hour of his death, he had the firm conviction that, if the wearing of a Delt badge confers a privilege, it imposes a definite responsibility. He never assumed that he did Delta Tau Delta a priceless favor when he accepted the invitation to membership, and neither did he think anyone else did. Alvan was ever mindful that practical, everyday service to the Fraternity is the primary obligation of every Delt, and he demonstrated it during his lifetime. He loved work. He expected Delts to come across and put out and to demonstrate that membership in Delta Tau Delta is more than wearing a badge. He had no time for the horizontal engineers.

Chi Chapter introduced Alvan Duerr to the Fraternity in its letter to THE RAINBOW of October, 1889. The correspondent was prophetic. He wrote, "Mr. Alvan E. Duerr is our new man; he stands high in his class and we feel a just pride in him." As the years moved on, that "just pride" was shared by countless thousands of Delts—and by other fraternity men for more than a quarter century—because Alvan's zeal and accomplishments in behalf of Delta Tau Delta benefited the fraternity system as a whole, and his pre-eminence was shared by all fraternities in America.

With the next number of THE RAINBOW, January, 1890, Alvan became correspondent. In his first letter he wrote, "Today we acknowledge no superior except in numbers. . . . The fraternities at Kenyon seem to have taken turns at holding the first place. We have worked hard for it, and now we have it we intend to hold it and break this long established custom." It was a characteristic statement, illustrating that power of determination which was to develop into leadership of the highest quality.

ALWAYS A WORKING DELT

Alvan was a working Delt—not the knife-and-fork variety which shows at banquet time only. He started that way at Chi. In 1891 he was a Karnea delegate and secretary of the Karnea. That same year the Arch Chapter selected him to join President Serfass to investigate Williams College as a field for a new chapter. In September Student Duerr transferred to Williams, taking a Delt Ritual and Constitution with him. He was probably the pioneer colonizer of the fraternity system.

Another fraternity had snatched the local in which Delta Tau Delta had been interested—it was rough going in those days—so Alvan set to work to organize his own group. Success was not immediately forthcoming. He reported that, since many Williams men were interested in football, he went out for the team. Alvan Duerr lacked every physical requirement of a football player, particularly in those days of the flying wedge. He had a job to do, however, and, if that meant being a football player, that is what he would be.

By December, 1891, a local was formed, and Sigma Chapter of Delta Tau Delta was installed at Williams that month. Said Arch Chapter Secretary Rannells to President Serfass: "It's a great thing and all glory to Duerr."

Delta Tau Delta was moving forward. New boundaries were being explored. Adequate governmental provisions and operating procedures were being developed. And on the front line was Alvan Duerr. President of the Eastern Division in 1892 while still a student at Williams, he was re-elected for a second term. In his chapter letter to THE RAINBOW in July, 1893, he wrote, "We thoroughly believe in a government by the people, yet when this is inadequate to meet the exigencies of the case, we think legislation should be made for the people."

IDEALISM AND UNDERSTANDING

From the mind and pen of Alvan Duerr came new laws, policies, and working formulas wisely drawn to meet the orderly requirements of a growing institution. The first manual of organization of Delta Tau Delta—and, so far as we can determine, of any fraternity—was written in 1899 by Alvan Duerr. It contained 68 pages and reflected an amazing power of perception. It was candid and frank—close to being hard-boiled when he charged members to be worthy of Delta Tau Delta and to excel on their respective campuses. Through it all there was a burning idealism and a quality of human understanding which could have been translated only by one who had caught the spirit of the Fraternity.

It is no wonder that Delta Tau Delta continued to call Alvan Duerr to higher duty. In August, 1893, he resigned as President of the Eastern Division to become Secretary of the Fraternity and Editor of THE C—. In 1896 he was business manager of THE RAINBOW at the same time Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes was Editor. This fledgling Fraternity, Delta Tau Delta, thirty-seven years old, was beginning to grow stronger, but it had much to learn and there were many growing pains ahead, not the least of which was the need for a fiscal policy and sound business management.

In 1897 a new Treasurer was elected and entrusted with the Herculean task of reorganizing the Fraternity's financial system. The elder statesmen remember Treasurer Duerr, as does every undergraduate of that day. Said one of them many years later: "The very signature had a trenchant force: 'Alvan E. Duerr.' It read uncompromisingly. There was an atmosphere of cold-blooded business about it. And in those ancient days the Fraternity had not known what business was. . . . We had not joined the Fraternity to be written to in that way. The man was infernally officious. Pay up or get out. What does he mean? We should put him back in his place. But we didn't. Alvan E. Duerr, Treasurer, seemed to care nothing whatever about whether we liked it or whether we didn't like it. The letters continued. We paid up. At any rate, most of us paid up. We either paid up or got out."

And so, Delta Tau Delta was experiencing a change and was becoming a business organization managed by businesslike men in a businesslike way, and it started to acquire that primary condition to the successful functioning of anything, including a college fraternity—a sound financial condition. It began to demand financial integrity of its members. Delta Tau Delta had executed an about-face. Treasurer Duerr passed the fiscal ball to a successor in 1907. The Fraternity had discovered that there is no inconsistency between fraternalism and sound finance.

CAREER IN EDUCATION

After being graduated from Williams, Alvan started his career in the field of education. He was master successively of three well-known schools—Holbrook School, Philips Exeter Academy, and William Penn Charter School. He was subsequently headmaster of Polytechnic Preparatory School of Brooklyn and headmaster and director of the Storm King School at Cornwall-on-Hudson, New York.

Always a scholar, he recognized at the outset that the college fraternity which does not maintain a respectable standing in scholarship cannot justify its existence. The academic drone never had a chance with Alvan, who would have no traffic with mediocrity in any form.

It took fraternities a long time to focus attention on scholarship. That was a new frontier—a distant one even for the colleges, which were not concerned with fraternity scholarships as such. It was 1924 when the first fraternity, Delta Tau Delta, placed a Supervisor of Scholarship on its governing board. Again in this field Alvan Duerr was the pioneer. His spadework from 1910 prepared the way for that action. During those thirteen years there was a period of special assignment assumed, without official status, by Alvan. Perhaps this was a period of reappraisal of his ideal of 1889, of careful thought and evaluation of the distance already traveled, and of planning and blueprinting the immediate future and the place the fraternity would assume in a fast-changing world. Perhaps this period was devoted also to rebuilding that forceful energy which must have become exhausted from the pace which had been traveled during the past two decades. And, finally, this was probably a period of rededication to his Fraternity and the fraternity system of his faith and his capacities, which would be devoted to their greater growth and progress.

SCHOLARSHIP CHAIRMAN

The scholarship outposts had been established in Delta Tau Delta. In 1925 the National Interfraternity Conference took up the cause of good scholarship in behalf of the fraternity system, naming Alvan as chairman of its scholarship committee, which position he held until 1946. During this time he developed rating systems covering every college and university in the country which had fraternities, and he brought the college deans and presidents into sympathetic understanding of the fraternities' objectives and of their desire to be a constructive adjunct to the colleges. He also gave the critics of the fraternity system a positive answer to their charges that fraternity men are rounders and flunkers—and by his policies he helped straighten out quite a number of men and fraternities who were both.

The foundations of good scholarship, then, were instituted and developed in Delta Tau Delta and in the fraternity system by Alvan E. Duerr. When the history of the American college fraternity is written, this period may well be called the era of rapprochement, during which there was a reassessing of values—disarmament—the end of the babel in the temple—the beginning of the college and fraternity incorporated. In these 1920's, he became interfraternally Alvan E. Duerr.

His monumental contribution to scholarship, however, was merely the first chapter in the unfolding of his versatile talents for the interfraternity world. Twice chairman of the National Interfraternity Conference, editor of BAIRD'S MANUAL, coauthor of the National Interfraternity Conference creeds, he contributed to almost every phase of the fraternity field.

ELECTED PRESIDENT

Leadership imposes great responsibility. It creates excessive demands on time and talent. Success has an ungrateful way of increasing the burden of those who achieve it. So it was that Alvan Duerr was called by popular acclamation to the leadership of Delta Tau Delta by the Karnea in 1925, even though he was already overburdened by the work of blazing the trail for good scholarship in both Delta Tau Delta and every fraternity in the land. He accepted in the same spirit which had characterized his attitude toward duty since 1889. He never assumed a job on an honorary basis. He worked at his job, and he put many other people to work. He served with distinction and with the skill of the master craftsman that he was. Backing up all of it was the same dogged determination and vision and high purpose—" . . . we acknowledge no superior. . . ."

PRESENTS CHALLENGE

Shortly after his inauguration, President Duerr rocked a large assembly of Delts by saying that, in his opinion, the job done by the Fraternity since its establishment in 1859 was only 50 per cent of what it could have been. That statement was typically consistent. It was sharp as a razor's edge—a challenge. We learned that, no matter how much he loved a thing and gloried in its past achievements, it was always under a state of critical analysis—that this man did not indulge in camouflage and flubdubbery, that he despised procrastination, dawdling, hesitation, lack of purpose, and spinelessness. He would take the hide off one who did not operate under full throttle and make the most of his potentialities, but he rarely complimented a colleague on an outstanding job simply because that is what the colleague should have done in the first place as a matter of duty. But he did experience an inward glow of satisfaction when someone turned in a top-flight assignment, and sometimes he could not suppress that satisfaction, and then the rest of us would know how he felt about it.

Retiring from the educational field in 1927, Alvan became personnel director of the Chatham Phoenix National Bank and Trust Company of New York. As director of public relations for the Manufacturers Trust Company, New York, since 1930, he was a staunch advocate of the recognition of human values in business, an ideal which he promoted as a writer and speaker. His ideas were published in 1945 in a widely circulated book: People, Business and You.

FIRST NIC AWARD

Honors and recognition never meant too much to Alvan Duerr. He placed greater value on the personal satisfaction of being of constructive service. He was cited, however, by scores of organizations, by resolutions, medals, and degrees. In 1940 he was awarded the National Interfraternity Conference gold medal—the first

BY WAY OF EXPLANATION

THIS STORY was written for THE RAINBOW, the February, 1948, issue, by none other than Delta Tau Delta's Executive Vice-President, Hugh Shields, following the death of the Fraternity's 13th President. Because the article covered so well the distinctive contributions which Alvan Duerr made in his lifetime not only to Delta Tau Delta but also to fraternities generally, we are pleased to reprint it in its entirety as the 13th in our series embracing the achievements of the Presidents of Delta Tau Delta.

award ever made—"for distinguished service to youth through the American college fraternity." The first and only honorary life member of the National Association of Deans and Advisers of Men, he was honored by various colleges with other accolades. Delta Tau Delta bestowed its highest honor on him by citing him to its Distinguished Service Chapter.

The records of Delta Tau Delta and of the National Interfraternity Conference are replete with his work, but many of his contributions do not appear under his name because he would tackle any job that had merit and helped others. He viewed such assignments from the standpoint of service, not credit. Alvan Duerr was subject to Delta Tau Delta's every call until he was taken to the hospital with his last illness. He always responded in that same articulate and prompt manner, always well in advance of every deadline.

Alvan expressed his hopes and aspirations for his Fraternity at the installation of Delta Theta Chapter at the University of Toronto in 1926 in a statement which will stand the test of time. He said: "We are not a democratic fraternity, if democracy means an equal right to join our ranks. Our ambition is to be an aristocracy of the high-minded and the clean-souled; of men with a serious purpose in life, who will not be satisfied to leave their college, or their community, or their country, except it be the better for their having been of it; of men who do not measure success in terms of things tangible, but who accept opportunities and the reward for their efforts only as evidence of added responsibility."

Alvan Emile Duerr has taken his place beside the great leaders of Delta Tau Delta and of the fraternity system. Both have been enriched by his fine mind, his strong heart, and his enduring faithfulness. All of these now belong in trust, as a heritage and a benediction, to the future fraternity men of America, particularly to the Delts of the future.

THE GREAT NEED of the fraternities is good men. We must resist the pressure to open our gates even wider, for promiscuity is no evidence of democracy. We need fewer and better men, and there is nothing reprehensible about an aristocracy of decency and altruistic service. The chapter house should be a breeding place of leaders of thought and action, who appreciate their opportunities and foresee their responsibilities.

—ALVAN E. DUERR, speaking to the National Interfraternity Conference.

Wooster Delts Hold First Reunion in 43 Years

THE FIRST REUNION in 43 years of Psi Chapter Delts was held in Wooster, Ohio, on June 9, during the commencement week end of Wooster College.

Twenty-eight of a possible 38 members attended the reunion banquet at the Country Club. At the same time 21 wives were dining together at a local restaurant.

The reunion was inspired by Bob Herbst, '15, of Huntington, Indiana, and Karl Digel, '13, of Chicago, after they learned that Ross Burns, '16, of San Antonio, Texas, was planning to return for his 40th year class reunion.

The Delt meeting is made remarkable by the fact that there have been no national fraternities at Wooster since 1914, when they were abolished from the campus by the College's governing board. Even though there has been no undergraduate chapter on which to center interest, Psi Chapter alumni have remained loyal Delts through the years and have served the Fraternity in many ways in many sections of the nation. The chapter includes among its alumni a member of the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter; the Honorable Carl V. Weygandt, '12, Chief Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court.

Psi Chapter was first established in 1880 and continued until 1895. It was re-established May 13, 1910, and continued until June, 1914. The chapter enrolled a total of 132 members.

Back row: Otto Digel, '16; Wayne Black, '15; William Taesch, '14; Ross Burns, '16; Clarence Biery, '14; Russell Crawford, '15; Robert Herbst, '15; Hugh Miller, '13.

Middle row: Joseph Kennedy, '14; Rennie Miller, son of R. D. Miller, '16; Carl Funk, '17; George Leaphart, '16; Walter Elder, '16; Daniel Funk, '17; David Pierce, '14.

Front row: William Giffen, '10; Walter Frye, '09; Harry Post, '10; John Graham, '09; Carl Weygandt, '12; Dwight Hanna, '12; Hubert Shellenberger, '12; Karl Digel, '13.

Not pictured: Lester Evans, '12; Robert Porter, '17; Glover Porter, '15; and Phillip Troutman, '16.

Two New Members Named to Arch Chapter

FOLLOWING THE memorable 63rd Karnea, two new faces have appeared in the circle of Delts who comprise the Arch Chapter, the governing board of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

They are Frederick D. Kershner, Jr., Butler, '37, elected by the Karnea to the office of Supervisor of Scholarship, and George A. Fisher, Jr., Purdue, '33, appointed by the President to serve out the unexpired term of Western Division President, occasioned by the incumbent's election to a higher office in the Fraternity.

The Karnea elected to the Arch Chapter the following other officers: President Francis M. Hughes, Ohio Wesleyan, '31 (formerly Supervisor of Scholarship); Vice-President Robert W. Gilley, Washington, '30 (formerly Western Division President); Secretary of Alumni John W. Nichols, Oklahoma, '36 (formerly Secretary); Treasurer Howard D. Mills, Western Reserve, '18 (formerly Secretary of Alumni); and Secretary W. Edgar West, Ohio Wesleyan, '23 (formerly Treasurer).

The other three members of the Arch Chapter are Southern Division President Burr Christopher, George Washington, '28; Northern Division President Robert L. Hartford, Ohio, '36; and Eastern Division President N. Robert Wilson, California, '27.

Division Presidents are elected to office by the respective Division Conferences.

SUPERVISOR OF SCHOLARSHIP

The new Supervisor of Scholarship, Dr. Kershner, was graduated cum laude from Butler University in 1937, received his master's degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1939 and his Ph.D. degree from Wisconsin in 1950.

As an undergraduate at Butler, Dr. Kershner compiled an outstanding record and served a term as president of Beta Zeta Chapter. While studying at the University of Wisconsin, he held the Herbert B. Adams Fellowship and University assistantships.

Dr. Kershner came to Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, as an instructor in history in 1947. In 1950 he was elevated to assistant professor. Since 1953 he has been associate professor of history. In the fall of 1955, he became chapter adviser of Beta Chapter and has successfully filled the position held for so many years by the greatly loved and respected Frank B. Gullum.

In his profession, Dr. Kershner has been accorded recognition as a scholar. During 1951-1952 he served as a Fulbright visiting lecturer at the University of Sydney, in Sydney, Australia.

During the spring semester of 1954-1955 he was a visiting lecturer at the University of Wisconsin. He has contributed various articles to professional journals and in 1953 was awarded the Everett Prize for the best article in Agricultural History.

During World War II, he was Lieutenant Kershner of the U. S. Navy Reserve and served four years of sea duty on auxiliaries in the North Atlantic and the Pacific.

Dr. Kershner's father was for many years Dean of the School of Religion of Butler University. His wife, the former Marion Bowman, is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority and is also a graduate of Butler. The Kershners reside at Peach Ridge Road, R. D. 3, in Athens, where, they say, "All Delts welcome!"

WESTERN DIVISION PRESIDENT

The gentleman who now heads the Western Division departed Purdue in 1933 with a B.S. degree in chemical engineering tucked in his pocket. Since 1936, he has been associated with the metal work industry in various capacities as a metallurgical engineer. For the past ten years, George Fisher has been connected with the Development and Research Division of The International Nickel Company in charge of the St. Louis Technical Section. In this capacity, he has been giving metallurgical engineering aid to the industry in the St. Louis area.

Mr. Fisher is a member of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, the Institute of Metals, the American Welding Society, the American Foundrymen's Society, and the St. Louis Engineers Club. Next month he will become a trustee of the American Society for Metals.

Mr. Fisher's experience in his profession includes association with the Allison Division of General Motors.

A member of the American Society of Metallurgists since 1939, Mr. Fisher served in various capacities and as a member of the executive committee of the Indianapolis chapter. He has been a member of the executive committee or an officer of the St. Louis chapter of the Society since 1949 and is past chairman of the St. Louis chapter. He is at present chairman of the National Advisory Committee on Metallurgical Education of A.S.M.

Fraternitywise, Mr. Fisher has been an active Delt since his initiation at Purdue in 1930. At both Indianapolis and St. Louis he participated in alumni chapter activities. In June, 1953, he was appointed a vice-president of the Western Division and in that capacity visited a majority of the chapters in his area.

Mrs. Fisher is the former Norma Davidson of Indianapolis and a member of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. The Fishers have two girls, ages eight and eleven.

Delts Represent U.S. in Olympic Games

By RICHARDS D. BARGER, Indiana, '49

Four Delts prepare for Melbourne Olympic junket to compete in track and field events and basketball play-offs.

THIS YEAR, as in years gone by, Delts will again be among those athletes competing for the United States at the 1956 Olympiad at Melbourne, Australia. Quality and not quantity is the keynote this year, and judging from the quality of the Delts representing the "Stars and Stripes," they'll be bringing home more than their share of gold medals from "down under."

Leading the Delt Olympians this year will be a repeater, Thane Baker (Kansas State). Baker, who was a winner of a silver medal at the 1952 Olympiad in Helsinki, Finland, in the 200-meter dash, will be back to compete in three events in Melbourne. This year he'll compete in the 100-meter dash and the 200-meter dash, and as a qualifier in the 100 meters, he will be a member of the four-man 400-meter relay team.

Running for the Air Force this year, Baker succeeded in compiling quite a record for himself. He broke the world's record for the 300-yard dash, and tied the American record for the 200-yard dash run on a curve at the Air Force meet at Riverside, California.

Rounding out the contingent of Delts on the track and field team is Al Oerter of the University of Kansas. Oerter as a sophomore has already made quite a name for himself. This year he set a new record in the discus for the Big Seven Conference.

A native of New York, he came West to attend college in the prairie state. Although competing only in the discus at Melbourne, Oerter is considered a comer in the shotput also. Maybe he'll be competing in both events in 1960.

At the Olympic finals in Los Angeles, he was runner-up in the discus event to Fortune Gordien, the present world record holder and Olympic champion.

Leading the American basketball team will be two Delts, Ron Tomsic (Stanford) and Bob Jeangerard (Colorado). Judging from past performances of the American basketball team in the Olympics, Tomsic and Jeangerard will be bringing home a gold medal apiece.

While at Stanford Tomsic was All-Coast in his senior year, and was the most valuable member of the team. As a senior he broke Hank Luisetti's individual scoring record. Some doing in this age of basketball giants, as he stands only 5' 11"! This year competing for the Air Force and the Armed Forces, he was chosen for his all-around scoring and team play.

Jeangerard while at Colorado captained the basketball team in his senior year and led the Buffaloes to the NCAA play-offs. After graduation he joined the world-famous Phillips 66 "Oilers," and was selected from the "Oilers" for his sparkling team play in the play-offs as a member of the winning Phillips team. With Tomsic, Jeangerard, Russell, et al., the Russians, 7' 6" center and all, had better watch out. Another member of the winning Phillips team, George Linn (Alabama) will be going to Melbourne, but not as a member of the team.

So it's on to the "Land Down Under" this November. The coming December issue of THE RAINBOW should bring news of some gold medals from the 1956 Olympiad. You can be sure that the results will be a source of pride to the United States, the competitors themselves, and to the Fraternity.

Record at Helsinki

Mr. Barger will be back in the December issue to let us know how Delts fared in the 1956 Olympiad.

Upholding the tradition of the past, it may be expected that they will return with honors. If they do as well as did the Delt contingent at the 1952 Olympiad in Helsinki, Finland, they will have done well indeed.

The Delt record at Helsinki was outstanding. Clark C. Scholes, Michigan State, '52, won a gold medal and set a new Olympic record in the 100-meter free style swimming event. W. Thane Baker, Kansas State, '53, finished second in the 200-meter sprint, and John W. McCormack, U.S.C., '52, scored fourth in the 10-meter platform dive.

Kenneth M. Nitzkowski, U.C.L.A., '51, in the 200-meter breast stroke and James E. Gerhardt, Texas, '53, in the hop, step, and jump, qualified in their events but failed to place in the finals.

Head track and field coach for the United States was Brutus Hamilton, Missouri, '22.

Mu Completes Ninety Years

Ohio Wesleyan Delts celebrate 90 memorable years of useful service on the Delaware, Ohio, campus.

By DONALD E. COLLIER, Ohio Wesleyan, '57

THE 1956 COMMENCEMENT week end at Ohio Wesleyan University was dominated by Delta Tau Delta. The Baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, June 10, was delivered by Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, Wesleyan, '13, of Detroit, Michigan. The Commencement address on Monday, June 11, was given by Dr. Paul B. Sears of Yale University. These men are outstanding alumni of Delta Tau Delta. Dr. Sears was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan and Chapter Mu in 1913. The outstanding Delt attraction, however, was Mu Chapter's ninetieth anniversary celebration.

The first alumni began arriving in Delaware Friday night, June 8. By Saturday evening more than one hundred alumni had returned and were gathered at the Shelter for a smoker. Ohio Wesleyan made the entire freshman men's dormitory available to the returning alumni, and those who were accompanied by their wives were accommodated in Stuyvesant Hall.

The week end was climaxed by a banquet at 1:00 p. m. on Sunday at the Memorial Union Building. One hundred twenty-five alumni and more than fifty members of the active chapter attended this banquet. The wives of the alumni were entertained at the Shelter by our housemother, Mrs. Hessler. Vice-President Howard Montgomery, who presided at this dinner, reported that more than sixty women were present.

Francis M. Hughes, Arch Chapter member and a Mu Delt of 1931, was master of ceremonies for the alumni banquet. Bill Armstrong, president of Chapter Mu, extended the active chapter's welcome to the returning alumni, and expressed its gratitude for the continued interest of the more than six hundred alumni of Mu Chapter. Ohio Wesleyan Interim President Frank J. Prout welcomed the alumni on behalf of Ohio Wesleyan University. He praised the work and accomplishments of Chapter Mu and the leadership of its president, Bill Armstrong.

The song group, led by Don Collier, sang four numbers. The alumni then joined the active chapter in singing "It's Great My Boy To Be a Greek," "The Golden Square," and "Sing to the Royal Purple."

Robert L. Hartford, President of the Northern Division, extended the greetings of the Division and spoke briefly of the important part that his chapter at Ohio University had played in the founding and history of Chapter Mu.

The house corporation met on Saturday afternoon, and Ed West made a report of that meeting at the banquet. At its meeting the house corporation set up a committee to look into the possibility of a new house for Chapter Mu. The main issues to be considered by this committee are location of a new house and the advisability of starting a financial campaign in the near future. This committee, with Branch Rickey as honorary chairman, is to make its first report early in the coming school year.

Rounding out the afternoon was the principal address by Branch Rickey. Brother Rickey was at his best and as usual was enthusiastically received by his audience. The banquet was adjourned with the traditional singing of "Delta Shelter."

No report of the celebration could be complete without expressing thanks to all who put in countless hours of work in its preparation. Don Hughes, alumni relations chairman; Duane Stroman, 1955-56 president; Jim Bridge, '22; and Bill Eells, '46, were responsible for most of the planning and reservations. The reward for the many hours of work came with the sound of old times being relived by more than 125 alumni; the singing on Sunday; the strengthening of fraternal bonds. The active chapter benefited as much as the alumni. After the celebration I am sure all of us come closer to knowing what real Fraternity spirit is. Chapter Mu is proud of her long history and of her many alumni.

Chi Observes 75th Anniversary

A model initiation, banquet, and singing down the "Path" were high lights of commemoration week end.

"A HUGE SUCCESS in every way," was the judgment delivered on Chi Chapter's observance of its 75th anniversary held at Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio, on June 9, 1956.

More than 100 Delts gathered around the banquet board at the Mt. Vernon Country Club to climax a day of reunion, fellowship, and rededication of the chapter to the Fraternity's aims.

The Reverend Walter F. Tunks, '10, told the story of the founding of the chapter on January 25, 1881, its early problems, and all the glorious traditions. Paul G. Hoffman, Chicago, '12, former President of the Fraternity and father of five Kenyon boys (four of whom are Delts, the fifth having to leave before he could become a Delt), also spoke to the group. He gave an inspirational address on the problems facing our nation and his idea of the proper solution to some of such problems.

Earlier in the day, the celebration had begun at the chapter's lodge with a marvelous model initiation. The old boys were really thrilled by the quality of the ceremony.

Two big busses took the entire crowd to the country club for a fellowship hour preceding the banquet.

Aided by the piano playing of Horace Vokoun, '21, enthusiasm was built to a high pitch.

The banquet room was beautifully decorated, and the active chapter itself put over a wonderful job of hospitality. A printed book of the old songs had been prepared, and chapter singers led in a long series of all the numbers Delts loved in the past.

Following the banquet, Delts piled back into the busses and headed for Bexley. There a group of 100 strong was organized for the "path" singing. The committee had thoughtfully provided sparklers which illumined the scene as Delts marched down to the College.

Actually, there probably has never been another singing group of this size and effectiveness at Gambier. Visitors enjoyed the Delt show tremendously, and dozens of them gathered around as Delts stood in front of their Division singing "The Thrill."

The group adjourned to the Division parlors, where fathers, mothers, wives, and sweethearts joined in the anniversary celebration.

The event was planned by a committee of outstanding Chi Chapter alumni, headed by Wallace H. King, '15.

"We have never known such an enthusiastic and appreciative group of Chi men," the committee reported. "Everybody had a wonderful time."

Scholastic Magazines—Serving Our Youth

Nearly thirty-five years ago two enterprising Delts joined forces to launch a new concept in journalism. Today their eleven magazines occupy a distinctive and respected position in the field of secondary education.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS old and still in high school. . . .

That's how Scholastic Magazines, Inc., characterized itself one year ago on the occasion of its 35th anniversary—a modest appraisal indeed for an organization that now turns out eleven magazines and boasts approximately two and one-half million subscribers.

Two Delts—Maurice R. Robinson, Dartmouth, '19, and G. Herbert McCracken, Pittsburgh, '21—have been the prime movers in building the Scholastic structure which has come to occupy a distinctive niche in American secondary education.

Thirty-six years ago—on October 22, 1920—the first issue of Scholastic came off the press. It was a little eight-page weekly devoted chiefly to high school sports around Pittsburgh. Its founder was Maurice R. Robinson, of Wilkensburg, who is still president and publisher.

Following graduation from college, he had taken a job writing publicity for the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce. One of his first assignments was to interview the local superintendent of schools. In the school office hung charts forecasting a huge rise in high school enrollment. Then and there the idea had been born—a magazine for high school students.

Mr. Robinson kept his publicity job while he started the new publication in his free time. He called it The Western Pennsylvania Scholastic. By 1922, however, he was ready to drop the words "Western Pennsylvania" from the title and convert the publication to a national magazine for high schools.

At this critical point he needed a partner in his new venture. G. Herbert McCracken agreed to gamble on the future of the young magazine. Accordingly, he became vice-president and sales manager.

Mr. McCracken, of course, is well known to thousands of Delts as a former President of the Fraternity. A halfback on "Pop" Warner's great Pitt teams of 1918, 1919, and 1920, he received All-American mention in his senior year.

In his early years with Scholastic, Mr. McCracken took time out every fall to work as a football coach—first at Allegheny College, then at Lafayette.

There is also another Delt in the picture—Paul E. Hutchinson, Ohio Wesleyan, '13, who has been company attorney for more than 30 years, secretary of Scholastic Magazines, Inc., since 1932, and a director of the corporation since 1933.

Working together through the years, the Delt team has made of the Scholastic organization an institution known and respected throughout America's high schools. Its publications have been cited as outstanding examples of the trend of the past thirty years toward the use of classroom magazines for supplementary study in secondary and elementary schools. They have maintained the same ownership, management, editorial policies, and standards of excellence for over 35 years. Because of a special vitality of purpose, the character of personnel, and skill in serving their readers, Scholastic Magazines have come to occupy a place of distinction in American education.

After "Western Pennsylvania" was dropped from the title in 1922, Scho- lastic was the sole publication of the company for nine years. From a circulation of little more than 9,000 in its first year as a national magazine, Scholastic rose steadily to 42,000 in 1925. Today, as Senior Scholastic, it is the parent publication of a group of six classroom weeklies, four monthlies, and one summertime edition with a total circulation of approximately 2,500,000 in every state in the Union.

Of these, Scholastic Coach, a monthly magazine for athletic directors, was established in 1931; Scholastic Teacher, a weekly magazine of teaching techniques, in 1936; Junior Scholastic, a weekly for the upper elementary and junior high school grades, in 1937; World Week, a world affairs paper for the ninth and tenth grades, in 1942; Practical English, a weekly on English skills for general high schools, in 1946; Literary Cavalcade, a monthly for senior high school literature classes, in 1948; News Time, a weekly for fourth and fifth grades, in 1952; Practical Home Economics, a monthly magazine for teachers in that field, in 1952; and Summertime, the summer edition for students, in 1954. The most recent addition to the roster is CO-ED, a monthly publication initiated in February of this year.

In addition, Scholastic owns a subsidiary corporation known as the Teen-Age Book Club, publishers and distributors of inexpensive paper-bound books for high school students. Such volumes represent selected titles which sell for twenty-five and thirty-five cents each through some 14,000 local teen-age book clubs in schools. The Book Club will sell more than 5,000,000 books to high school students during this year.

Among the eminently worthwhile undertakings of Scholastic Magazines, Inc., is its annual competition for high school students the country over. Scholastic Art Awards attract annual entries from 150,000 students; Scholastic Writing Awards from 100,000 students; and Scholastic Photography Awards from 30,000 students.

Scholastic Awards speak with authority in their field. The House of Harper, for example, published in 1945 a 400-page anthology, Young Voices, containing the cream of the prize-winning literary entries in Scholastic Awards for the previous twenty years.

Another noteworthy project is Scholastic's Institute of Student Opinion, established in 1943 and modeled after the adult public opinion polling organizations. Hundreds of high school papers throughout the nation co-operate in securing a cross-section of student opinion at regular intervals on timely public questions of interest to youth.

Turning the corner into its thirty-sixth year of operation, at a time when school buildings are bulging with skyrocketing enrollments, the Scholastic enterprise looks forward with confidence to the future. From the beginning until now it has served the best interests of American youth and their education for enlightened citizenship. In a period of rapid change and great peril to the democratic way of life, Scholastic has illuminated for young people the path of high civic, moral, and cultural values, and Delta Tau Delta is proud to have contributed these Good Deltas to such a worthy enterprise.

Washington State Charter Grant Announced

THE ARCH CHAPTER has announced the grant of a charter to a local group on the campus of Washington State College, Pullman, Washington. Installation ceremonies will be held on December 19, 1956.

The new chapter will be designated Epsilon Gamma and will become Delta Tau Delta's 86th active undergraduate unit.

Representation at Washington State is seen as a further bulwark in the Fraternity's growing strength in the Northwest. The city of Pullman is only a short distance across the state line from Moscow, Idaho, home of the University of Idaho and Delta Mu Chapter. Delta Mu was chartered in 1931.

Delta Tau Delta's oldest chapter in the Northwest is Gamma Mu, the University of Washington, in Seattle. Gamma Mu was established in 1908.

Other Delt chapters in the area include Gamma Rho (established in 1913), the University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon; Delta Lambda (1930), Oregon State College, Corvallis, Oregon; and Delta Rho (1948), Whitman College, Walla Walla, Washington.

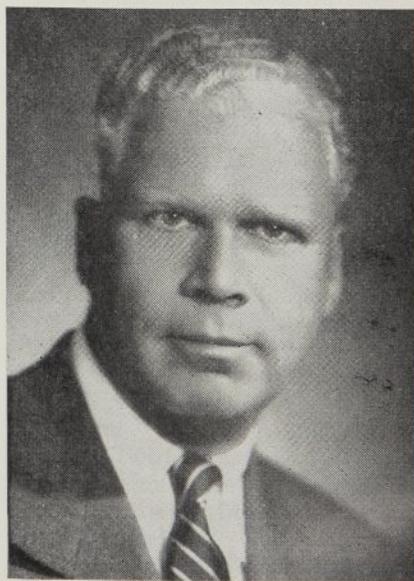

The two most recent chapter installations are Epsilon Alpha, Auburn, in 1952, and Epsilon Beta, Texas Christian, in 1955.

Corporation Head

ELECTED PRESIDENT of the Fleischmann Distilling Corporation last January was Charles S. White, Wisconsin, '25. Mr. White, who has worked for Fleischmann since 1934, was formerly vice-president in charge of sales.

For three years following his graduation from the University of Wisconsin, Mr. White was employed as a salesman with the U. S. Gypsum Company. From 1930 to 1934 he served as traffic manager of American Airlines.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. White was a member of the Army Air Force from 1941 to 1945. He is married to the former Nan Womelsdorf of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Undaunted, Pittsburgh Delts Back Pirates With Annual Outing

BRANCH RICKEY outlines the Pirates' team potential for assembled Delts.

THIS YEAR, as in years past, the Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter's Annual Founders Day Banquet and Baseball Outing was a great success. The affair was held May 28, 1956, with a social hour and dinner at the University Club followed by attendance at the Pittsburgh versus Brooklyn baseball game.

At the speakers' table for the banquet this year, as in years past, were Delts who are officials of the Pittsburgh baseball club: Brothers Branch Rickey, Sr., Branch Rickey, Jr., Bill Turner, George Sisler, and Don Beach. Approximately 150 Delts from the Pittsburgh area assembled for the affair and heard Brother Branch Rickey, Sr., give a résumé of the players and team potential of the then red-hot Pirates.

Brother Branch Rickey, Jr., followed his father as a speaker and talked for a short time about the Pirates farm system and some of the younger players on the farm clubs.

After dinner, the group attended the ball game en masse at Forbes Field and witnessed the Pirates win another game in their fine early season start.

In charge of the Founders Day and Baseball Outing was Chairman Lou McLinden, assisted by Emil Narick, who handled the reservations and tickets and who again this year did a fine job, Jack Neslage and Bill Raines, who handled publicity, and Bill Swanson, who was in charge of the "Telephonathon."

Alan F. Galbraith Joins Field Staff

NEWEST ADDITION to the Fraternity's trouping corps of field secretaries is Alan F. Galbraith, Washington, '56. He began his tour of duty on July 2 and has already seen yeoman service with several undergraduate chapters.

Although he attended the University of Washington, where he completed undergraduate work last spring, Alan actually hails from Cedar City, Utah, a town nestled in the southwest corner of the neighboring state. His plans for the future call for further study in the field of law.

U.S.D.A. Award To Berley Winton

THE UNITED STATES Department of Agriculture has conferred upon Berley Winton, Kentucky, '22, its Superior Service Award. Presentation was made by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson during a special ceremony held June 5 in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Winton, director of the Department's Regional Poultry Research Laboratory in East Lansing, Michigan, was honored for "his leadership in successfully administering the Department's co-ordinated research program for the control of lymphomatosis, the most devastating poultry disease known, and for his outstanding contributions to improved poultry production."

A former president of the Poultry Science Association, Mr. Winton has served as senior poultry co-ordinator for the Department and was in charge of the National Poultry Improvement Plan. A charter member of Delta Epsilon Chapter (Kentucky), he has been chapter adviser for a number of years of Iota Chapter at Michigan State University.

Leader in Communications and Electronics

By ROLAND C. DAVIES, Tufts, '17

Editor and Publisher, Telecommunications Reports

AFTER AN OUTSTANDING career of 32 years in the Army, including important assignments during the second World War both in the European and Pacific theaters, Major General Edmond H. Leavey (USA, ret.), who was a member of Upsilon Chapter, 1921-22, is now president of the International Telephone & Telegraph Corporation, leading communications-electronics concern which has extensive manufacturing and research and communications operations in the United States and in 27 countries throughout the world. He became president of the IT&T on April 27, 1956, to fill the vacancy left by the death of William H. Harrison, who had headed the corporation since 1948.

General Leavey had retired from the Army at his own request on June 30, 1949, to become vice-president of Transportation Consultants, Inc., a firm specializing in the engineering and economic features of transportation. When General Dwight D. Eisenhower was named Supreme Commander of the Allied Powers in Europe, General Leavey was recalled to active duty to assist in the organization of that Headquarters (SHAPE) and was named the first Chief of its Logistics Division in charge of the planning and co-ordination of the supply, transportation, construction and other logistics matters involved in defense of Western Europe by the NATO forces under General Eisenhower's command. He returned to the retired list on July 31, 1952.

JOINED AS VICE-PRESIDENT

He joined the IT&T on November 8, 1952, as a vice president at the request of Mr. Harrison who had headed as a major general the Army Signal Corps procurement and distribution of all communications, radio and electronics material for the Army and the Army Air Corps in World War II and had worked closely with General Leavey in the national defense preparedness before Pearl Harbor. General Leavey became president of the IT&T's central research division in the United States, Federal Telecommunication Laboratories, on June 3, 1953. He was elected president of the International Standard Electric Corp., the IT&T holding and management organization for its manufacturing and research subsidiaries overseas, on December 1, 1954.

CIVIL ENGINEERING DEGREE

Born in Longview, Texas, on July 21, 1894, he attended Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College for two years before entering the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, from which he was graduated in 1917 with a Bachelor of Science degree and the commission of a second lieutenant in the Army Corps of Engineers. He received the degree of civil engineer from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1922 where he joined Delta Tau Delta Fraternity. He was graduated from the Army Engineer School at Fort Humphreys, Virginia, in June, 1926. He holds honorary degrees of Doctor of Laws and Doctor of Engineering from Texas A. & M. and Rensselaer Polytechnic respectively.

In his Army service General Leavey had many key assignments, being early in his career in charge of rivers and harbors improvement and maintenance in the Pacific Northwest, as assistant engineer of the Hawaiian Department and directing the Atlantic-Gulf canal project. During the existence of the Works Progress Administration relieving depression unemployment, he served as deputy administrator in New York City and later assistant commissioner and chief engineer of the national WPA in Washington. From 1940 until Pearl Harbor he headed the War Department construction division's engineering branch which planned the expedited expansion of army bases and camps and also was in charge for both the Quartermaster General and Chief of Army Engineers of contractual and legal matters, budget preparation, and control of project authorizations.

ARMY COMPTROLLER

General Leavey's military service during the second World War included assignments as Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army Forces, Northern Ireland (January 1942); Chief of Staff and later Commanding General of the Mediterranean Base Section, North Africa (November 1942); Assistant Chief of Staff of Logistics on the Staff of the Commander in Chief, U. S. Pacific Fleet and Pacific Ocean Areas (June 1943); Deputy Commander and Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army Forces in the Western Pacific (May 1945); and Chief of Transportation for the U. S. Army (December 1945). In June, 1948, he was appointed Army Comptroller, in charge of all financial, statistical, and management engineering operations for the War Department.

General Leavey is the recipient of many military honors, including the Distinguished Service Medal and the Legion of Merit with two Oak Leaf Clusters and a Gold Star. He is an officer of the French Legion of Honor and was decorated with the Croix de Guerre with Palm.

Remember the flashy freshman who came through rush week a few years ago? A personable good-looking chap, he had all the obvious credentials—except scholarship.

And when it was learned that his high school scholastics ranked him in the bottom quarter of his graduating class, the old argument began. Most of the members contended that his deficiency marked him as a poor risk. Others, indulging in wishful thinking, dug out a case history or two which belied the rule "once a poor student, always a poor student," and, taking the grand inductive leap, reasoned that a zebra may change its stripes and a dromedary may discard its lumps.

It's a bewhiskered topic for rush week debate, widely argued on both sides, but by now largely won by those on the poor risk side of the house. Further evidence to support the majority report was recently brought in by University of Illinois researchers. The gist of their findings: Success as a student in the University is tied closely to success in high school.

The study of freshmen entering the University of Illinois in September, 1950, shows that 48 per cent of those in the upper half of their high school class were graduated, while only 8 per cent of those from the lowest quarter in high school completed the required work.

Statistics, a powerful ally, are on the side of the chapter which recognizes good high school scholarship as a requisite to pledgship.

We like the Delt spirit of Hawthorne Wesley, Auburn, '56, as reported by staff writer Bert Prather in the Atlanta Journal-Constitution.

Hawthorne, son of Ottis H. Wesley, Emory, '10, won second place in the two-mile run of the Southeastern Conference track meet last May with a performance that captured the hearts of the fans.

"Heretofore," wrote Mr. Prather, "Hawthorne had never come close to placing in a major meet and usually was good for no better than third place in a dual meet where Auburn swept all points. . . ."

"It was apparent from the start that Wesley was out to run his best race. He took over the lead at the start of the fifth lap and held it until Richter took command at the sixth lap. Everyone figured that such stars as Bob O'Dare of Florida; Talbert; Don Gagnon, the Florida star; and Tennessee ace Max Kirkland would overhaul him, too, on the final two quarters.

"But Hawthorne was not to be denied Saturday. He'd worked four years as a member of the Auburn cross country and track teams and was not about to muff this last chance to grab a coveted SEC medal.

"O'Dare challenged him on the back stretch and was literally breathing down his lean neck on the last turn. But somehow Hawthorne found enough reserve strength to stand the Gator off and actually opened up a little more daylight at the wire. . . ."

"The Auburns were not supposed to place any higher than third at best according to pre-meet performances. But they caught the Wesley spirit and pulled in ahead of LSU's supposedly powerful Bengals."

In the coming months we are going to hear a good deal of talk about what should be done to solve the impending problem for colleges occasioned by the expected tidal wave of students. Statisticians report that tomorrow's enrollments will dwarf by comparison the surplus that rolled in following World War II.

It is indeed a problem which deserves serious study and organized planning on the part of all fraternity members. There is grave danger that the fraternity system as we have known it and respected it will undergo radical change, and a militant effort will be demanded to preserve a fraternity which still serves faithfully its historic purpose.

Already tentative solutions have been advanced. Here are a few of them: (1) additions to present houses; (2) house annexes; (3) two chapters of the same fraternity on one campus; (4) new fraternities; (5) limitation of membership to upperclassmen.

On the college level there has been talk of numerous new junior colleges with existing institutions becoming upperclass and graduate institutions. The implications for fraternities under such a system represent a real challenge.

The suggestions offered, tentative though they are, point up the need for thoughtful and sober reflection and advance preparation. We must be prepared to encounter along the route well-intentioned but completely unsound programs and to resist pressures of plans which would emasculate the fraternity system. We shall need the best thought and action of all fraternity members.

Looking ahead, the Fraternity has begun planning its Centennial Karnea, to be held in 1958 in Pittsburgh, not far from Bethany, where Delta Tau Delta was founded. Even though it is still nearly two years away, Good Deltas will want to make plans now to attend this great event.

Nicolai Hiller Honored by Church

neas at Buffalo, Chicago (two), Boston, New York, Mackinac Island, Pasadena, and Houston.

THE OLDEST DELT in attendance at the Houston Karnea, spry Nicolai H. Hiller, Stevens, '89, was honored last summer for his service to the Episcopal Church. A member of Trinity Church of Carbondale, Pennsylvania, Mr. Hiller has been a vestryman, junior and senior warden, member of the diocese executive council, a deputy to the Provincial Synod, an alternate to the General Convention, and chairman of the synod finance committee.

At the Church's General Convention, he was characterized by Bishop Warnecke in his convention address as "a humble and devout Servant of God."

Born in Siberia in 1868, the son of the U. S. vice consular agent, Mr. Hiller came to this country when he was eight years old and has remained ever since. His long career in the business and professional world includes many offices in engineering and chemical fields and firms. He was director of the American Institute of Refrigeration from 1928 to 1945 and represented the Institute in that capacity at several international congresses.

His civic and patriotic activities have included many facets such as Red Cross, Community Chest, and YMCA director. Three days a week he now spends in New York to study painting.

Mr. Hiller began attending Karneas in 1889, when he was a delegate at Cleveland. He has also attended Kar-

Economy Lesson Contained in Central Office Memorabilia

FROM OUT OF THE PAST, here's an economy tip for alumni chapters operating on a tight budget.

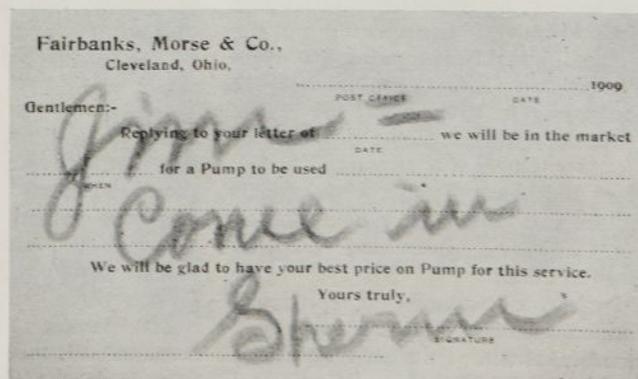

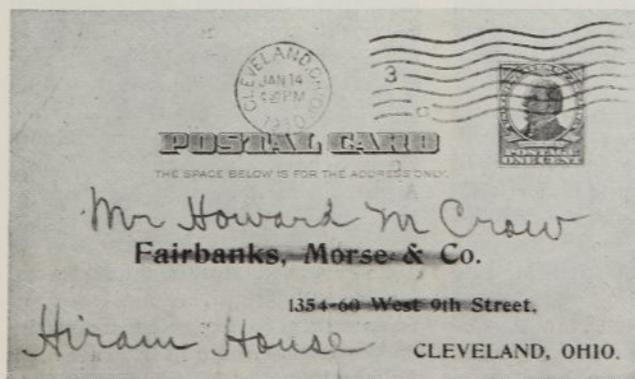

It's a recent addition to the Delt memorabilia entrusted to the Central Office for safekeeping. It is sure to bring a chuckle from the old-timers in the Fraternity who remember the late Sherman Arter, Western Reserve, '86, one-time wheelhorse of the Cleveland Alumni Chapter and just about as ardent a Delt as ever was.

As secretary of the Cleveland chapter in 1910, he made sure that alumni did not forget the weekly noonday luncheon. Here is one of his reminders, unashamedly sent on a borrowed post card.

The recipient of the reminder was Howard M. "Jim" Crow, Ohio Wesleyan, '06, a member of the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter. An attorney with the Cleveland firm of Payer, Bleiweiss, Mollison, and Crow, he is one of the pioneer members of the lake city alumni group.

Formerly a President of the Fraternity's Northern Division, Mr. Arter was well known throughout the Fraternity as "Sherm," as a regular at the biennial Karnea, and always as an interested front-line Delt.

WARD QUAAL
General Manager and Vice-President of WGN

WARD QUAAL, Michigan, '41, became general manager and vice-president of WGN, Inc., of Chicago on August 1. He is former vice-president and assistant general manager of Crosley Broadcasting Corporation of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. Quaal began his full-time radio-television career with WGN in 1941. He joined Crosley in 1952 as assistant general manager of its radio, television, and short-wave facilities.

J. Howard Wood, president of WGN, said Mr. Quaal had been familiarized thoroughly with WGN's plans to "become the leading independent radio and television station." Mr. Quaal, he said, would assume the major responsibility for implementing these plans.

Mr. Quaal's radio career began in 1936 when he was an announcer-writer for Station WDMJ, Marquette, Michigan. While a student at the University of Michigan, he worked as an announcer-writer-producer at Station WJR, Detroit.

After completing World War II naval service, he returned to WGN and became active in the operations of the Clear Channel Broadcasting Service in Washington. He became director of the service in 1949.

At the outbreak of the Korean conflict, Mr. Quaal was appointed to former President Truman's Broadcast Advisory Council. He served also on the Citizens Committee on the Hoover Report.

In May he was elected to his second consecutive two-year term as a member of the Television Board of the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters. He is president of the Quality Radio Group, Inc., and former head of the Cincinnati Executives Club.

Dolan Receives Fulbright Award

DR. PAUL DOLAN, Delaware, '33, chairman of the department of political science at the University of Delaware, will spend the next academic year lecturing and doing research in the field of government in West Germany as the recipient of a Fulbright Award.

A leading authority on political science and the author of numerous books, articles, and publications in the field of government, Dr. Dolan plans to leave for Germany this month and return late the following summer.

The university professor will serve as a visiting lecturer at the College for Economics and Political Science in Wilhelmshaven, the site of the old German naval base in northern Germany.

He will conduct research in state and Federal relations, the opportunity for which will be afforded by governmental arrangements of the West German Bundesrepublik. Dr. Dolan hopes to visit governmental officials in all of the nine states of the West German republic.

His lectures abroad will primarily concern American state government, a topic about which he has taught and written extensively in this country. Some of the lectures will be open to the public as well as to the students at the German college.

The Delaware professor hopes that his experience in Germany can be utilized in the development of a course in comparative Federalism. His interest in Germany as a subject of study stems from the fact that the operations of the relatively new republic as a Federal state cover the same general territory as the operations of the Federal government in the United States. He has long been interested in the history and culture of Germany and has expressed a desire to learn more about the governmental process there, particularly in respect to the German concept of Federalism.

Before World War II, Dr. and Mrs. Dolan spent four months traveling through Germany and Switzerland. Dr. Dolan has been a member of the university faculty since 1940, except for three years during World War II when he served with the U. S. Navy.

DR. PAUL DOLAN

A native Pennsylvanian, Dr. Dolan received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Pennsylvania and his doctorate at Johns Hopkins University in 1950.

While teaching at the University of Delaware, Dr. Dolan has also served as a member of the Governor's commission on state administration reorganization, the Newark mayor's committee for the selection of a city manager, and as advisor to Delta Upsilon Chapter of Delta Tau Delta.

He also holds membership in Kappa Phi Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi honorary fraternities as well as the American Political Science Association and the American Society for Public Administration.

ALBERT J. MURPHY, JR., Penn State, '38, former President of the Eastern Division and former field secretary of Delta Tau Delta, has been appointed administrator of supervisory training for Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

Mr. Murphy will assist divisional and regional managers in the management training of experienced supervisors in the salaried personnel groups, particularly engineers and sales personnel.

A native of Sewickley, Pa., Mr. Murphy was graduated in 1938 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He served as Dean of Men at Carnegie Institute of Technology before joining Westinghouse in 1944.

Score Second Sing Contest Win

The big news at Epsilon is that we won the Interfraternity Sing again this spring. That makes it two in a row. Sweeping to our victory, we sang John Hummon's Come Brothers and a beautiful arrangement of Summertime.

With some fine pitching and plenty of timely hitting, the softball team went undefeated this season to pick up the intramural softball championship. Included on the sports scene, Brother Cooley collected firsts in the 880 and the mile, and Jim Taup got a first in the two mile in pacing Albion to victory in the MIAA track meet.

The social season was highlighted by our spring formal—which this year was held in conjunction with the local Sigma Chi chapter.

Delt Heads Class Day Activities

Late last spring much happened at Alpha which has not been reported. First of all was May Day Week End on May 5 and 6. Our float entry won third in the competition. The theme for the float was Walt Disney's "Little Flower." The project saw Al Berkebile, neophyte, as chairman. The work was a joint effort of Delta Tau Delta and Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority.

Brother "Fritz" Fries was appointed by student officials as chairman of the Class Day activities held the following week. As an integral part of these ceremonies, Delt Jim Lauffer, Senior Class president, passed the "Class Ladder of Achievement" to the new senior class.

As Commencement time rolled around, our Alumni Banquet was held on Saturday, June 2. It featured a short speech by our new president, Tom Butz, and Mike Garrett, former president, reviewed the Fraternity achievements of the year.

Leadership Honorary Claims Lynn

High light of the year at Epsilon Alpha was the annual Purple Iris Ball. Leading the formal dance was Mrs. Jean Blackburn, escorted by her husband, Chapter President Charles Blackburn. Mrs. Blackburn was presented a bouquet of irises. The Delt chapter, many alumni, and dates from throughout the Southeast danced to the music of the Auburn Knights.

Bob Lynn was elected Sophomore Senator. Lynn was also initiated into Squires, leadership honorary. This marked the second consecutive year that Auburn Delt has been represented on the Student Senate and Squires. Ken Mattingly was appointed to the student government cabinet, and Charles Blackburn was announced as a Distinguished Military Student of A.P.I.'s Army R.O.T.C.

Wesley Hawthorne, Epsilon Alpha track star, helped upset sports experts' predictions by providing the spark which pulled Auburn cinder men to a second-place S.E.C. standing.

Stag Night was held June 2 with more than 50 Gamma Theta alums on hand for festivities. "Monk" Tainter was toastmaster and Karl Spear, Baker University athletic director, was the speaker. Chapter President Bill Hines related high lights of the past year. The house corporation has swung into gear in its financial drive for either a new house or an addition to the present one. There has been divided opinion on the matter, but the conclusion reached was that the money should be raised first.

Intramurally the Delts took their fourth consecutive sweepstakes title and the first leg on a new trophy. The previous trophy became Delt property last spring. The trophy must be won three consecutive years for permanent possession.

Baker University won Kansas Conference championships in both tennis and golf last spring. The conference tennis singles title went to the defending champ, Delt Stan Werner. Werner played on the doubles team which also won.

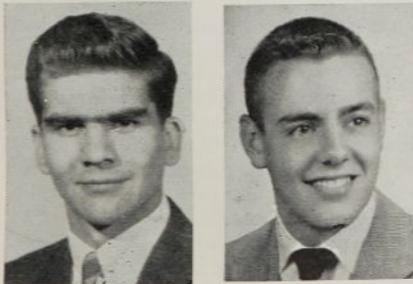

In golf Baker's top three men in the conference were Delts. Eric Errickson was medalist with Bob Jones runner-up and Pete Johnson third. These three, plus Fred Wicke, another Delt golfer, handily won the intramural golf team championship for the Shelter. Errickson, Jones, and Werner represented the school and the state in the N.A.I.A. tournaments at San Diego, California, last June.

Tom Carlyon was elected vice-president of the Marketing Club and "Woody" Darken was reappointed to the Elections Committee. Dick Kamienski was elected president of Phi Eta Sigma and Jim Wheeler was elected treasurer of that organization. The Delts also had a successful year in spring sports, finishing second in the Intramural Track Meet and battling to a second-place tie in interfraternity softball. Mother's Week End found 21 "Delta Dames" climbing into upper bunks, playing bridge with their sons, and generally living the life of a typical co-ed for one week end. Mrs. Mary Meyer of Findlay was elected president of the Mother's Club for the coming year and Mrs. H. E. Curtis, also of Findlay, was elected secretary-treasurer. The mothers presented the chapter with a set of monogrammed dishes.

The final social event of the year was the Senior Banquet held at the Copper Lounge of the Hotel Secor in Toledo. After a smorgasbord dinner, the seniors presented the chapter with a parting gift of a TV "Roto-Tenor." James Armbruster presented the Dr. John E. Gee Award to George Howick. It is an award given annually to the outstanding junior in the chapter. Ed Heminger, secretary-treasurer of the Findlay Delt alumni association, presented scholarship awards to Dick Jewett, James Stoddard, and Edward Ward.

Elected Head of Loyalty Legion

Delta Tau Delta closed the school year of 1955-56 with the annual "Orchid Dance" which proved to be one of the best dances on the campus in recent times. Jean Woolbridge, Alpha Chi Omega, was crowned "Queen" of the dance. Members of the dance committee were Jack Bryan, Walt Cooper, and Ken Hunt.

In the field of school activities, the Delts took a commanding position above all other social organizations. Walt Hap was elected president of the Loyalty Legion. Frank McCormick and Bill LaGollette were elected vice-president and secretary respectively of the Y.M.C.A.

Dick Elliott was chosen "Outstanding Freshman" for the year and elected president of Phi Eta Sigma, national freshman honorary. Don Daniel was elected president of Phi Mu Alpha, national music honorary. Joe Ditnir was chosen Wing Commander of the Butler Air Force R.O.T.C. Wing. Joe was also vice president of Blue Key. Joe White was elected treasurer of Utes, sophomore honorary. Glenn Tirsell was elected president of Kappa Mu Epsilon, national math honorary. Bill Minor was senior class president. Walt Cooper was sophomore treasurer, and Dave McCormick was freshman vice-president.

Intramural Victories for Chapter

Our intramural efforts of the year were rewarded by receipt of the runner-up spot in the University IM championships. Contributing to this success was our football team with a second-place entry. Our track team, with points garnered by Bill Stuart, Bruce Towne, Tony Torrance, Dick Platt, Roger Peterson, Frank King, and several of the other brothers, added to our overall standing. Our swimming and volleyball doubles teams swept the opposition out of first-place honors. In swimming, Tony Torrance, John Wilson, and Bill Gassett were our mainstays. In tennis, ping-pong, horseshoes, and team volleyball the brothers did well and added further prestige to the Delt house in the IM world.

Roger Peterson, a freshman this year, has been consistently improving his quarter-mile time for the San Francisco Olympic Club. His fastest clocking, 0:47.5, was set as he led his medley relay team home for a record victory in the hotly contested Fresno Relays.

In a lighter vein, our annual "Beachcomber," given with the Stanford chapter at the Shelter, turned out as expected—a social smash attended by more than 500.

Following initiation held in mid-May, Pierre Merle was given the Knudsen Memorial Award as the outstanding pledge for his extremely productive and untiring efforts for the Delts in every phase of chapter activity. In the Spring Sing, held at the close of the semester, the Delts took second place under the direction of Dan Duckhorn, R. B. Richard, and Kirk Ashford. Ashford was given special commendation for his own Mexican Act.

Dick Gaetjen, Gary Wulfsberg, and Dave Cox are current mainstays on the strong Cal frosh track team. Wylie Keeler, Chuck Colladay, and Brian Brennan were letter-winners on the Cal varsity baseball team. Chuck Dutton and Bill Gassett were awarded swimming letters. Steve Vantress and Bill Schauer, working industriously to improve the academic standing of the chapter, confidently await the results of the Delts' academic efforts as the semester draws to a close.

Delts Garner Carnival Trophy

Gamma Xi Chapter ended a most successful year with a few more additional accomplishments. At the Sigma Sigma Carnival, the Delts again walked away with the first-prize trophy for the most popular booth. The theme this year was "Dunk a Delt." The idea was to hit a target with a bean bag which would simultaneously drop a Delt into a tub of cool water, to the blaring of sirens and bells. The chapter showed a great spirit of co-operation while working on the booth and taking part in the evening's activities. Congratulations to Brother Oran Heuck who was chairman of our winning booth.

Recently Brother Gene Mapes was tapped for Sigma Sigma, shortly after being tapped for Omicron Delta Kappa, joining Brother Don Presley.

Last June the chapter ended the year with its biggest "blast" of the year. For the week end of June 1, 2, and 3, the girls moved into and lived in the house while the members had moved out of the house. On Friday night, the Delts sponsored a Pee Wee Golf Tournament, at which prizes were awarded for lowest and highest scores. The booby prize, of course, went for the highest score.

Saturday night was the night for the Annual Spring Formal, which was held at Pleasure Isle, Covington, Kentucky. Plaques were awarded to outstanding members for the past school year. Mr. Delt, the award for outstanding service to the chapter, was awarded to Bob Davis, our vice-president. The scholarship award went to Oran Heuck, recently elected to Sophos, and the Intramural Award went to Bob Ritzl, one of our graduating seniors. The Outstanding Pledge Awards were given to Oran Heuck and Dick Williams, our new house manager. A gavel was presented to Brother Dave Kaiser, who was the retiring president. Our congratulations to these outstanding Delts!

Two Varsity Captains in Shelter

Spring is always a busy time at Cornell, but this spring seemed particularly hectic. High points of the season were Spring Week End, May 11, 12, and 13, and Formal Initiation on Sunday, May 20. The theme for Spring Week End this year was Spring Day, U.S.A. Beautiful weather helped make the week end a tremendous success.

On May 20 Beta Omicron held Formal Initiation followed by a formal banquet. We are proud to announce the initiation of Richard Ball, David A. Berry, Roy

Several of these men have already made fine records in athletics. Among them are Richard Ball in tennis, Roy Behling in freshman 150 crew, Charles Nathan in lacrosse, and Joseph Conroy in baseball.

Among other members of Beta Omicron who have distinguished themselves in athletics are Dennis Caverly, who was elected co-captain of the fencing team, and Dudley Norton, who will be captain of the sailing team. Members of the chapter who won varsity letters are Joe Crisanti, Dennis Caverly, Robert Winship, Don Corery, and John Holton.

John Edsall was elected vice-president of Cornell Men's Glee Club recently. The Cornell Glee Club is one of the finest collegiate singing organizations in the country. Other Beta Omicron members of the club are Lewis Gravis, Ronald Hitchon, and Pete Wood. Several of our members have been elected to honoraries in the last few months. John Holton and Dennis Caverly are new members of Sphinx Head, a senior honorary. Bruce Beck and John Maclay are members of Atmos, a mechanical engineering honorary.

Blackall Wins Hartnett Award

After the usually tough comprehensive and final exams, Gamma Gamma finds itself minus 18 graduating seniors. Among the departing, Tom Healy received a $1500 Westinghouse Fellowship and was awarded the annual Navy Honorary Award for being the outstanding business-engineering undergraduate. Gamma Gamma's Walter Gile Hartnett Award was presented to Brewster Blackall. This annual award is given in memory of Walt Hartnett, '54, who was killed in an automobile accident recently. It is given to "that senior who in the estimation of his brothers best embodies Walt's spirit of personal integrity, self-discipline, aesthetic awareness, responsibility to the Fraternity, loyalty to the College."

This fall finds several Delts in the varsity sports picture. Newly-elected president of the Dartmouth Rowing Club, Ted Bradley leads Brothers Ken Ragland, Bucky Bucholtz, Bob Young, and Mike Welch in crew. Again Jack Cramer heads the managership of the heavyweights. Pete Kelsey heads the managing of this year's football team. Vying for a spot on this year's varsity soccer team will be Jim Young along with veteran letter winners Bob Holland and Ron Chilcote. The golf picture again looks strong as Deltmen John Armstrong and Chap Jacobus, the number three and four men of last year's varsity, return to play for the Dartmouth green.

The fraternity intramural football hopes look bright with the return of veterans Fred Searby, Dunc Barnes, and Bill Uffleman in the backfield and stalwart linemen Joe Lane, Sam Smith, and Ted Bradley.

In the social scene we look forward to three football week ends, which should prove to be very colorful with Green Key winner Pete Kelsey taking over for Jose Lane in the Sunday afternoon trophy presentations.

Bowling Team Wins Title

Delta Upsilon Chapter held its big annual week end on April 27 to 29. The affair started Friday night with a formal dinner-dance at Schaefer's Restaurant; Saturday night there was a house party at the Shelter featuring entertainment presented by the girls, and Sunday a festive picnic was held a few miles outside Newark. The event put a temporary dent in the treasury, but the general feeling was that it was worth it.

On May 3, 14 hard working pledges were formally initiated into the chapter.

May 10 saw two new pledges added to the ranks as Wilbur Rudrow and Richard Henson were formally pledged. Shortly afterwards Chuck Heckert, erstwhile house manager, made a successful bid for house improvement funds from the alumni, so the Shelter will undergo considerable face lifting this summer.

The Delt bowling squad, led by Walt Jebens, captured the IFC trophy much to the joy of the athletic chairman.

On May 18 all activity abruptly ceased as everyone settled down to begin the task of hitting the books before finals.

Duke—Delta Kappa

Pledge Class Judged Best

After two strenuous weeks of rushing—cabin parties, basketball games, combos, and the ever-present open houses—Delta Kappa realized that it had just completed one of the best rushing seasons it has experienced in a good many years. Our quota of pledges was filled—giving Delta Kappa not only the greatest quantity but also what we consider the best quality of boys on the Duke campus.

Under the direction of John Seward, the pledges endured five weeks of pledge training. One of the culminating weeks of this period was Greek Week, a competitive program sponsored by Duke's Interfraternity Council. Beginning with a chapel service on April 4, the program included work periods in an underprivileged section of Durham, a field day, a banquet, and an interfraternity dance. Based upon participation, an award was offered to the best pledge class. The pledge class of Delta Kappa received that award, and a two-foot high trophy now stands on the Delt television set.

Delta Kappa is proud to say that it has made a great stride forward in scholastic standing this year. We attained the third highest scholastic average among fraternities on campus. Recently Brother Chuck Hauser was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa.

Spring days at Duke have been busy ones in the political field. Both fraternity and campus elections were held during the week of April 16. Making a show in the school-wide elections, Brother Bob Noble was elected vice-president of the Junior Class and Neophyte Steve Hammer was elected secretary of the Sophomore Class. John Zimmer has recently been appointed business manager of the Duke Chronicle, the campus paper.

Fraternity activities have also kept the brothers busy this spring. On April 13, our annual Rainbow Ball was held at the Alamance Country Club in Burlington, N.C. At the dinner dance, Spruill Bunn was announced as the best pledge of the year and was awarded a loving cup and an engraved paddle. April 27 continued our social calendar with Duke's famed Joe College week end. During this week end of merriment, the Delts held a smorgasbord on Saturday afternoon, followed by a dinner on Saturday night before the formal dance.

A goal of thirty pledges has been set for this fall. We hope to be as successful as we were last year. The rush committee has planned another caravan through Florida for this August, with parties in Jacksonville, Miami, and Tampa, in addition to personal visits to prospective rushees. Parties have also been slated for the Atlanta area.

The Delts, along with the other Emory fraternities, helped with the Old Newspaper Boys Drive, a fund to aid those with cerebral palsy.

Congratulations and best wishes to graduating Brothers Jim Burnes, Gordon Kilpatrick, Russell McMillan, and John Syribeys.

Tops in Scholarship

Spring quarter ended with our usual success in scholarship. Al Bradford and Butch Langfitt were initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, national honorary fraternity for freshmen. Lew Brinson, Ernie Drew, Russ Poteet, and Dave Vaughn managed to achieve the Dean's Lists of their respective schools. The Fraternity itself earned recognition by finishing high among the fraternities on campus and consistently surpassing the All Men's Average.

Our Founders Day Formal was highlighted by the crowning of Miss Margaret Stephens, Zeta Tau Alpha, as sweetheart for the coming year. The formal was a big hit with everyone.

Plans for the rush week this fall are highlighted by our possession of the new Fraternity Shelter. This is our first rush week in the new white brick house, and we are sure that it will be a good asset in getting many new fine Delt pledges. Mrs. E. K. Overstreet, Jr., will return to grace the Shelter as house-mother again this year. Mrs. "O" adds the motherly touch to our new house.

Bolger Heads Student Council

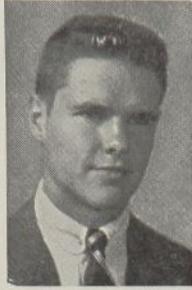

In fine Delt tradition, Gamma Psi men at Georgia Tech are at the helm, leading and controlling more activities than any other single group on campus.

In recent campus-wide voting, Pat Bolger was elected president of the Student Council. Our Delts ranked tops in student government by having six brothers elected to the 28-member Student Council. These are Pat Bolger, president; Hal Reeves, treasurer; Bob Marbut; Don Bearden; Joe Pinnell; and Bill Killian. A representation of this size is unusual and we of Gamma Psi are proud of it.

Delts have the guiding positions in two of the three Georgia Tech publications. Bob Marbut is to be editor of our college newspaper, The Technique, for the coming year. Serving along with Bob will be Hal Reeves as sports editor and a host of staff writers and business staff men.

Heading The Blueprint (yearbook) staff will be Joe Pinnell as editor. The coming year also will see Stan Abercrombie as art editor and Jim Smythe as fraternities editor.

Journalistic policy and administration are handled by the powerful Publications Board, which is composed of student and faculty members. Of the eight students on this board, four are Delts.

These are Rick Downey and Pat Bolger, along with Bob and Joe as heads of their respective publications. In addition, Rick was recently re-elected president of Pi Delta Epsilon, the national college honorary for journalism.

In the school-wide tennis tournament, Frank Prosser came through with flying colors to place second.

Membership in Tech's Ramblin' Reck Club, which deals with school spirit, is highly sought after. Bob Marbut and Hal Reeves were recently accorded this honor.

The two highest honors that can be bestowed on any individual at Georgia Tech are membership in ANAK and ODK, for both of these organizations stand for top-calibre leadership.

The tapping ceremony indicating membership in ANAK was held during the annual spring IFC dance. While Buddy Morrow and his band played "Ramblin' Reck" as background music, three Delts of the eight initiates were tapped. It was quite a moment as we watched Pat Bolger, Joe Pinnell, and Bob Marbut thus honored. A few weeks later Pat was also selected to membership in Omicron Delta Kappa.

Hal Reeves was recently accorded the highest honor a junior can achieve by election to Koseme Society. Koseme is an honorary recognizing leadership and participation in extracurricular activities for juniors.

Four Delts in Varsity Golf

Probably the most outstanding aspect of a successful year was the tremendous success experienced in the Delts' social functions and activities. Among these activities were firsts in the Homecoming and Mardi Gras skit. Social activity was concluded May 26 with our Spring Formal, held at the Otsego Hotel in Jackson. Elected queen was Mrs. Richard

Kappa Chapter was well represented by four members on the varsity golf team. Len Winzer was honored, as he was chosen to lead the golf team as captain next year. Jack Rossetti, Jerry Lorenz, and Pledge Don Eugenio were regulars on the baseball team. Outstanding sprinter Don Nicol, Bob Burgess, and Jack Thierback collected a majority of the points for the track team.

Highlighting the spring activities was the election of Dick Weeks to the position of A.S.U.I. Student Body President. Dick was also tapped for Silver Lance, an exclusive seven-man junior honorary.

Past President Bill Bauscher was honored again by receiving an award as the outstanding U. of I. athlete for the 1955-56 year. Brother Bauscher was also picked as one of the top ten graduating seniors. Jack Cole was recently elected vice-president of Alpha Epsilon Delta, national pre-medicine honorary. He was also chosen to lead the campus Student Events Council.

Sophomore Ernie Davenport also garnered his share of honors this spring. He was elected president of the Associated Engineers of the U. of I. He was also picked the outstanding Air Force R.O.T.C. cadet and chosen to the Student Activities Committee. Ernie is past Frosh Men's honorary president and past outstanding freshman engineer.

Pep Band Director Neal Powell is now first in command in the Army R.O.T.C. program and was recently picked for Blue Key, junior-senior men's honorary. He is also an officer in Sigma Tau, an engineering honorary.

Dick Weeks and Bill Bauscher were also tapped for Blue Key.

Seven Idaho Delts are members of Scabbard and Blade, military honorary.

Don Nevile-Smith moves up from sports editor to managing editor on the campus newspaper.

At the chapter house Dan Davis was elected president to fill the chair vacated by the departure of Dale Becker. Brother Chapter and campus wheels at Idaho include Delts COLE, DAVENPORT, DAVIS, POWELL, and WEEKS. For details, see story on this page.

Bill Simon was then elected vice-president to fill Dan's past position.

At the present time Beta Upsilon Delts are holding their own in various campus activities. We have Brothers Dave Landram, Wayne Marthaler, and Verle Besant in Phalanx and Jim Whitelaw in Scabbard and Blade, both military honoraries. "Marth," chapter president, is also on the Executive Committee of the Interfraternity Council, and was recently elected president of the Illinois chapter of the American Recreation Society. Senior Bruce Most was president of Rho Epsilon, real estate fraternity, this past year.

Bill Sillick served as vice-president of Skull and Crescent, sophomore men's activity honorary; and Bruce Ernst and Jack McWhirter were elected to the same organization for this coming year. Ed DeLong, Dick Nordmeyer, and Jon Culbertson picked up their "I" in track, football, and gymnastics respectively. Ed was also elected to Schem, junior men's activity honorary, and "Culby" was voted "Most Valuable" by his teammates. Bill Borchelt, our transfer from Gamma Lambda Chapter, was appointed to head the newly organized "Hometown Publicity" committee in I.F. Pete Klien is slated to be sports editor of Illio next year, definitely a big responsibility.

On the social side of the ledger, all of the brothers turned their creative ingenuity into probably the best Annual Spring Formal the Shelter has seen for the past decade or so. "The Masque of

The men of Beta Alpha once again honored their mothers on Mother's Day this year. The brothers moved out of the house and the mothers took over for the week end. The mothers enjoyed the "Little 500" and then were serenaded at the Shelter that night.

Brother Elam Huddleston posted a 20-4 season in tennis last year. He was number 5 singles champion and number 2 doubles champion. Brother Huddleston was given the Balfour award last season and is captain of next year's tennis team. In tourney play Indiana finished second, while Brother Huddleston won all of his matches.

The Delt quartet won the state Intercollegiate Barbershop Quartet Contest in Terre Haute, Indiana, during April. The members of the quartet are Wendy Mertz, Roger Reid, George Beamer, and Dave Deeg. They have appeared in many of the 48 states besides touring with the Singing Hoosiers in Japan and Korea. All four members of the quartet will enroll in school again in September, 1956.

We now have a new basketball court at the Shelter. The court was constructed last spring and a finishing coat was put on during the summer. The court which measures 65' x 30' also serves for dances on Friday and Saturday nights. The brothers are very proud of this new court and believe it to be the best on campus.

Delts Have Outstanding Year

Omicron Chapter has just completed a most outstanding year. After winning the first-place homecoming float trophy in the fall, the Delts continued their winning ways by taking four other first places and a second in the various forms of spring activities.

Spring activities were highlighted by the winning of the Greek Week Participation Trophy. This was our reward for one hundred per cent participation in all Greek Week events and high finishes in the Variety Skits and the Greek Relays. Teaming with Gamma Phi Beta, the Delts won the first-place trophy for the best variety skit. Third place also went to the Delt "track team" in the Greek Relays.

A prominent feature of the very warm week end of Mother's Day, during which many of the Delts entertained their mothers at the house, was the University Sing. Under the direction of Jack Laughery, Omicron Chapter took first among fraternities and finished second in the finals of the University Sing.

Iowa Delts did quite well in intramurals, too. Behind the pitching of Dick Berry and some long ball hitting, the Delts walked off with the softball championship. In the final game Omicron smashed Phi Kappa Psi, 19 to 7.

Canoe races on the Iowa River were the final events of the athletic season and found the Delts taking first in the fraternity race. Omicron's team consisted of Tom Dalton and Brad Jones.

Omicron Delta Kappa, the most sought after men's honorary at the University of Iowa, saw Bob Bateson and Dick Hansen tapped into its ranks, with Bateson to serve as vice-president. These men were chosen for their character, leadership and service in campus life, scholarship, fellowship, and consecration to democratic ideals.

The Delts will be well represented in the planning of University parties next year with two active members on the 12-member Central Parties Committee. Jack Laughery has been elected president of the committee and Jim Tilton will serve as a sophomore representative.

Cardinal Key Taps Erickson

Activities here at the chapter were given a big push last spring when Keith Erickson was tapped for Cardinal Key, the top men's honorary for leadership, scholarship, service, and character. Keith is also president of the Union Board, chairman of the student activities committee of Cardinal Guild (student governing body), and chairman of the homecoming chairman selection committee.

Robin Thompson is chairman of scrapheap scramble and pep rally on the homecoming central committee and is also the secretary of Interfraternity Council.

Jack Kingery was elected president of Phi Eta Sigma, a freshman scholastic honorary. Jack was also elected the chapter's outstanding freshman. Don Williams received the music blanket award which was given to about 20 graduating seniors for music activities. Don also received the American Society of Landscape Architects certificate of merit, which is given to one graduating senior in landscape architecture. Duane McLean was elected chairman of the student properties board.

A landscape job was started in spring 1956 as part of a newly initiated year-to-year landscape program. Plans have been drawn by Don Williams, last spring's graduate, who is now a landscape architect operating in Kansas City. As part of the program, shrubs and vines now soften the appearance of our new patio. Plans for the fall include regravelling or surfacing the parking lot and seeding the back yard. In the future it is planned to plant more trees and shrubs to complete the landscape.

Kansas—Gamma Tau

Nation's Best Discus Thrower

The spring of '56" was a busy one for Gamma Tau. Brother Al Oerter proved to be the best discus thrower in collegiate ranks. In his first year of intercollegiate competition (he's only a junior) Al was undefeated. His "triple crown" of the Texas, Kansas, and Drake Relays will not be easy to match. Al won the Big Seven Conference with a throw of 183'5", the longest of his career. It was a new conference record. Delts Al Frame, Jerry McNeal, and Louis and Larry Stroup, the mile relay twins, have also been consistent winners for Kansas' great track team.

For the second year in a row, three of the five Kansas cheerleaders are Delts. Jim Bickley, serving his third year as a varsity cheerleader, is head cheerleader. He is assisted by Brothers Dave Wilson and Dick Jones, both of whom are first-year men. Besides these three, Howie Ellfeldt was chosen as first alternate cheerleader, and Ed Cooper was chosen to wear the Jayhawk costume.

There are many Delts taking part in campus politics, and one of the most influential men on the hill is Bill Jackson. Bill, as secretary of the A.S.C., controls many important political committees. Bill is also well known for his fine photography for the Jayhawker.

Bill Witt, who was corresponding secretary last spring, is spending his junior year abroad. Bill is going to Forman Christian College in Lahore, Pakistan, under the program sponsored by the Presbyterian Board of foreign missions. Bill was very active in campus affairs, and we are looking forward to his return next year.

The outstanding pledge of his pledge class, Jerry McNeal has continued to show those qualities which won him the honor. Jerry is conference champion in the two mile, and was recently elected to Owl Society, an honorary organization for outstanding junior men.

Kansas State—Gamma Chi

Two Chosen Senior Honor Men

The end of the school year saw laurels placed on Brothers Lee Ruggles and Gerry Day when they were chosen as Senior Honor Men.

More honors came as Gary Rumsey was elected president of the Interfraternity Council; Bill Brethour was elected president of the Poultry Science Club; and Carl Hosney was chosen parliamentarian of Alpha Mu, milling honorary.

Seeing their chance to push Delta Tau ahead on the campus, the men of Gamma Chi won key positions on the year-old Student Union Activities Council. Gary Rumsey replaces Gamma Chi's Ed Gillette as program director. Jay Ryan is Chairman of the Nightclub Committee; Norman Keyse was chosen to replace Gary as Movies Chairman; and Lowell Novy was chosen chairman of the campus welcoming committee.

Pledges Tom Ayers and Larry Foulke gave Gamma Chi a boost in intramurals by winning the men's tennis doubles. Tom also took third in the singles. Feeling the true Delt spirit, the boys of Gamma Chi brought home first in intramural track. Thanks to the fine co-operation of the chariot relay teams, we now are also the proud owners of a beautiful third-place trophy.

The annual Rainbow Ball held in the Shelter on April 21 was well attended by approximately 100 couples. The evening saw the crowning of Lois Graeff, a lovely Tri-Delt, as Sweetheart for the coming year. Lois was crowned by her equally beautiful sorority sister and Delt Sweetheart for 1955, Rachel Pickett.

On May 12, the annual Spring Barbecue was held on alum "Chief" Burtis's ranch. Some of the Delts proved their culinary abilities by preparing 122 pounds of delicious meat which was eagerly eaten by 150 hungry participants. All in all, the Barbecue was the perfect climax to a great year.

Kent—Delta Omega

Campus Day Victories Won by Ingenious Delts

The Delts at Kent State had a busy spring quarter. Seventeen new brothers were brought into the fold. As pledges they earned the esteem of the upperclassmen by building a glass-enclosed trophy case in the chapter library. New paint and a study desk now make the library an inviting and useful room.

Campus Day provided a good vehicle for Delta Omega to display its talent. Under the leadership of Steve Bandy, the brothers brought home the second-place trophy for "Songfest." Forty Delts made a real impression in this annual sing competition—with their appearance as well as their voices. Each man was attired in a white dinner jacket, black tie, and a tuneful larynx.

The Delt float, "Fantasyland," picked off first place in the Campus Day parade. Co-chairmen Jerry Witmer and Dick Edwards employed the prefabrication technique in producing the prize winner. Integral parts of the float were built long before the day of the event. Only thing left on the final day was assembling the pieces. This did away with the rugged "all night push" preceding the big day.

During the summer months some of the brothers organized a team to clear the area behind the Shelter and turn it into a first-class parking lot.

Chapter President Perk Jenkins was elected president of the Interfraternity Council.

Andy Tiberas' pin-mate, Sandy Bodalay, was crowned Delta Queen at the annual spring formal, held this year at the Lake Shore Hotel in Cleveland. An all-Delt aggregation furnished the music.

Delta Omega's fine singing aggregation at Kent

In campus politics Jack Gimbel was elected chairman of the Nu-K political party, the reigning group at Kent. Jack was also elected to a second term as president of the Men's Student Association.

Fulmer Named Yearbook Editor

At the house elections for the coming year George Anderson was chosen as president, and Don Kress as vice-president.

Brother John Fulmer has been chosen editor-in-chief of the yearbook for next year. This is a great honor for John, who has shown keen interest in the publications of the College.

Brothers Dick Lemen and Ray Cary were recently elected as members of Kappa Phi Kappa, the honorary educational fraternity. In addition, Charles Churchman was chosen as a member of Phi Beta Kappa because of his outstanding scholastic record.

The junior honorary society, Maroon Key, has elected Brothers Don Kress and John Fulmer as members. Brothers Ed Curley and Tom Grant were elected into the sophomore society, Calumet. Brother Grant is president of the society.

The Delt softball team had a fine season and wound up second in the league. We also fielded a successful intramural track team.

The spring social week end was a great success with a fine dance Friday night and an enjoyable Saturday in the Poconos.

It is with deep regret that we announce the passing of May Heller, our devoted friend and cook at the Shelter for 26 years.

Maine—Gamma Nu

Mother's Day Celebrated

This year Gamma Nu celebrated its annual Mother's Day one week early because of the spring houseparty. Parents came from all over the northeast to attend this, one of our favorite yearly events. The afternoon started with a steak dinner prepared by our own master of the culinary art, Ray Thibeau. Substituting for President Dean Cooper, who was unavoidably absent, past President Paul Dubbet welcomed the guests, gave recognition to our gracious housemother, Mom Barron, and said a few words about the meaning of Mother's Day.

After the excellent meal, the Delt House was open from top to bottom and the parents were permitted to see just how a fraternity house looks.

On the week end of May 11-13, Gamma Nu held its annual spring houseparty. This year the theme was "Fisherman's Holiday." The Shelter was gaily decorated with authentic fishing gear. Lobster pots in the corners, nets and bouys hanging from the walls, and various other seaside decorations blended into an atmosphere of a typical Maine fishing village. "Mom" Barron, the chaperones, and a multitude of couples danced to the music of Nat Diamond and his ensemble. During the intermission, this year's Delta Queen, Miss Dianne Dorr, was crowned. Miss Dorr is a senior at Westbrook College.

Again this year Bill Hopkins, Delt alumnus, prepared a mouth-watering shore dinner for scores of hungry Deltas. Two boats left Camden bound for "Hopkin's Hideaway" on North Haven Island. While on the isle the Deltas and their dates had an unforgettable time visiting the quaint little fishing village, consuming the delectable crustacean and devouring the tangy bivalve.

Here at Maine, each spring we set aside one day for the improvement of our campus. Maine Day morning finds students and faculty members alike working like beavers on various projects. In the afternoon the fun begins: a gigantic float parade is staged. Entries are numerous and the competition is keen. Well over thirty organizations enter each year. The theme of this year's parade was "Yankee Yarns" and the title of the Delt entry was "Boston Tea Party."

Brothers and pledges toiled endlessly. Slowly but surely a handsome 35-foot ship was built around a homely 15-foot car which was nearly as old as the ship was supposed to be. Under the able supervision of our own inimitable Fred Bastow, the pledges showed some skills that they never realized they possessed. The job was completed by the hoisting of two twenty-foot masts and the loading of tea packages on board.

The float was acclaimed a winner by popular decision and the judges awarded Delta Tau first prize in the men's division of the float competition.

Maryland—Delta Sigma

Hartdagen President of OΔK

Chapter President Jerry Hartdagen added new laurels through his election to the presidency of Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary fraternity for outstanding campus leaders. Jerry is also prexy of Phi Eta Sigma, a national freshman scholastic honorary, and a member of Phi Alpha Theta and Pi Sigma Alpha, scholastic honoraries.

Brother Ed Vincent, one of our three agricultural majors, took top honors in Maryland's annual Agricultural Exposition by winning a trophy and three blue ribbons.

Our Spring Formal this year proved to be the splashiest ever. A palatial country club was rented for the affair. It was complete with roof-top and garden dancing, impromptu swimming available, and a perfectly moonlit night. Mrs. Margie Boone, Tri-Delt and wife of brother Daniel T. Boone, was awarded the Delt Queen trophy. We are grateful to Chuck Kugel, Joe Meadow, and Bruce Hetherington for the excellent planning and execution involved.

As a relatively new fraternity on the Maryland campus, Delta Sigma of ΔΤΔ has been growing every year. We take pride in the fact that we obtained as many pledges in '55-56 as any fraternity at the University. With 36 pledges in September and 17 in February, we now rank as one of the top two or three fraternities, in both quantity and quality.

ROBERT S. MARLOWE

M. I. T.—Beta Nu

Two Named to Beaver Key

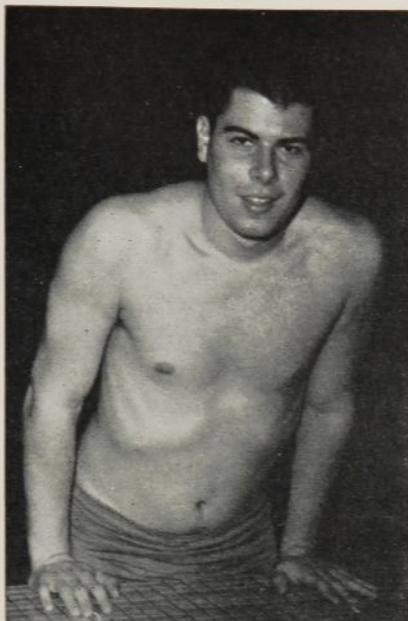

The warm winds of summer have come once again to sweep away for a short time the thought of books, tests, and school work. But for the men of Beta Nu, they have left and will not erase the pleasant memories of good and happy times spent at the "Delt House" during the past school year. Yes, the big social events, the "spur-of-the-moment" Saturday night parties, the exciting athletic contests, the inevitable midnight "bull-sessions," and humorous little happenings of a fraternity house are gone for '55-'56, but the brothers will be eagerly awaiting their return this fall.

Extensive redecorating of the Shelter is planned for the summer. A wall concealing a huge fireplace in the front hall will be removed and the floor recarpeted. The brothers plan to return before classes start in the fall for the traditional "work week" and put the Shelter at its sparkling best.

In way of retrospect, the men of Beta Nu completed an academically, athletically, and socially successful year. During the last few weeks of the term Brothers Holland and Timms were elected to the Beaver Key Honor Society, and Brothers Blomstrom and Wishart were chosen for Q-Club membership. Freshman Blomstrom added to his many honors by being elected president of the Q-Club for the coming year.

Athletically, the brothers did well in intramural competition with championships in bowling, sailing, and volleyball while coming close in football and softball. This spring injuries kept Co-captain "Leaky" Dyke from the last few varsity lacrosse games, but not before he played his way to the top-scoring position for M.I.T. Brother Mike Nash was a strong attack man on the freshman lacrosse team and Pledge Bill Smith a standout jumper on the freshman track squad, while Brother "Meat" Cleaver held a seat in the heavyweight varsity crew.

"Well, boys, there's one thing I want you to know. This House has done more for me during my four years here than any other thing." So spoke many of the seniors at the Swan-Song Party given in their honor just a few weeks before graduation day in June. For them, this was the last party of their active life in the Shelter. As these seniors gave their "swan-song" talk one by one, the rest of the brothers all felt like saying, "So

Delt Moms Take Over Shelter on Mother's Day Week End

Gamma Upsilon wound up a successful spring with its annual Spring Formal. Donna Chinberg, Brother Terry Stanton's fiancée, reigned as our Delta Queen. Donna is a junior in the School of Education and a Chi Omega.

Another big social event at the Shelter this spring was the Alpine party late in April. This party, initiated only last year, proved so successful that it was decided to make it an annual event. An authentic German band added much of the flavor to costume party.

As always, Mother's Day was one of the biggest, both for the brothers and their moms. The week end started on Saturday afternoon at the Interfraternity Sing with Gamma Upsilon singing "Halls of Ivy." At night, the Moms "took over" the house and it was in their hands until Sunday morning when everyone went en masse to church. The week end wound up with a banquet on the patio and a group picture with the moms and their sons.

Brothers Terry Stanton and Bob Nellis added much esteem to Miami University by winning the Mid-American Conference wrestling championships in their respective weights. This was the first time that Miami University has ever placed in the wrestling championships.

Pledge Dick Studinka was elected to a two-year term on the Student Senate and joined Brother Bill Swanson, who also has a two-year term. Pledges Cris Callsen and Norm Richardson played major roles in the All-Campus Show and the leading theatrical production this spring.

Michigan—Delta

Delts Win Interfraternity Sing With "A Western Requiem"

As the spring semester at Michigan drew to a close, Delta Chapter could look back on a successful year with pride.

Perhaps the high point of the year occurred during Michigan's Greek Week when, under the leadership of Brother Tom Schill, Delta Chapter placed first in the I.F.C. Sing. In the sing 80 brothers participated, singing a medley of western folk songs. The medley, which was titled "A Western Requiem," was arranged by Tom. The following evening Delta Chapter sang its winning number at the I.F.C. Dance.

Also during Greek Week the sororities and fraternities on the campus had the pleasure of hearing a talk given by Jessie Owens. Mr. Owens stressed the need of raising funds to send America's top athletes to the Olympics. This became the theme of Michigan's Greek Week.

As Greek Week drew to a close, Delta Chapter combined its spring pledge formal with the I.F.C. Ball. The following day the chapter held a picnic and an informal dance in the evening.

In April the University of Michigan held its bi-annual Michigras. Under the leadership of Brothers Spence Meyers and Dave Evans, Delta Tau Delta won top honors for having the best skill booth in the Michigras Carnival. Delta Chapter was also represented in the Michigras parade.

In athletics Delta Chapter won two first-place trophies. In the early part of the semester the chapter placed first in intramural swimming. In May Delta Chapter also captured first place in intramural horseshoes.

The Michigan Delts have also been active in campus activities. Mike Barber was elected executive vice-president of the Interfraternity Council. Mike had previously been the chairman of the Food Buyers Association of the I.F.C. Don Schurr, one of Delta Chapter's pledges, was appointed sports editor of the yearbook, the Michigan-Ensign. Karl Lutomski was outstanding on the Michigan wrestling squad this year.

Brothers Nort Stuart and Mike Barber were tapped to campus honoraries this spring. Both Nort and Mike were tapped to Hectorsians, which honors senior fraternity members who are outstanding leaders in their chapters or in I.F.C. activities. Mike was also tapped to Druids, which recognizes outstanding leadership in activities or varsity athletics on campus.

Late in May the Detroit Alumni Association of Delta Chapter held its annual alumni banquet for the undergraduates of the chapter. Plans were made and discussed for a new addition on the Shelter.

Michigan State—Iota

Runner-up for All-Sports Trophy

Iota of Delta Tau Delta came through a cold, wet Michigan spring in fine style. Our athletes fought their way to second place in all-fraternity athletics and were beaten only by ATO for the All-Sports Trophy.

Under the coaching of Captain Carter Gudal, the track team ran to second place with points being scored by Dave McCaffree, Lynn Mallory, Andy Leeds, Tom Anderson, Carter Gudal, John Coleman, and Doug Hafke.

Dunking Delts

Minnesota Delts JOHN PLATTNER and MAX SCHMITT take their turn in the "Dunk A Delt."

Don Voltmer, Don Slezak, Larry Rowe, and Denny Marquardt all took points in fraternity tennis play. That was before Marquardt broke his arm in an ill-fated fraternity softball game.

Golfers Jim Moreau, Jerry Still, Earl Jarmol, and Chuck Carr placed third in golf on the soggy Lansing area courses.

In the "Junior 500," MSU's pushcart derby, Iota had trouble. We were run off the course in our heat and therefore did not place in the event.

I.F.C. Sing provided a lot of fun for 16 singers and Leader Bob McDonald. We received a very gratifying ovation for our songs, "Darkness on the Delta" and "Shakin' the Blues Away."

Seen in Water Carnival, one of the high lights of spring term at Michigan State, was a float designed by Jon Shepherd and Gary Dietrich, and built by the chapter. The theme of the float was the TV show "You Bet Your Life."

Delt Gordon Sinclair has added to his list of accomplishments the presidency the 16 singers and Leader Bob McDonald, outstanding contribution to the University through extracurricular activities and scholarship. Sinclair is also the president of Union Board and executive vice-president of the I.F.C.

Among the new members of the senior council are Brothers Roger Bennett, appointed chairman of Water Carnival, and Doug Weist, who was named chairman of Homecoming. Weist has also taken over as promotion manager of the Wolverine.

We are very proud of varsity swimmer Frank Parrish. He has been given All-American honors. Parrish is a member of the eighth-place 400-yard free-style relay team and the tenth-place 300-yard medley relay team.

Minnesota—Beta Eta

Delts Victorious in Campus Carnival

Beta Eta is well on its way to becoming top dog on the University of Minnesota campus. We finished the year with a real victory in the annual Campus Carnival. This affair, which has all groups on campus participating in it, found the Delts way out in front. Our concession, called "Dunk a Delt," took in the most money for any concession, our clown took first place, and our Fraternity took the All Participation Trophy. This trophy is the best anyone can do, and we did it. Everyone worked hard for this, and we are justly proud of ourselves.

Another significant event was the acquisition of the largest pledge class on campus for spring quarter—15 men. Our nearest rivals had five men.

Two of our members were elected to men's honoraries spring quarter. Pete Vaill, who was elected to Phoenix, has been made its president. Pete is also a member of the executive committee of the Interfraternity Council, co-chairman of Freshmen Camp, and fraternity representative on All University Congress. Milt Iossi, who is a member of S.L.A. board and chairman of S.L.A. week, was elected to Silver Spur. Both of these men are just finishing their second year in school; so they have a good start.

In college athletics, we have had Bill Warner as a starter on the swimming team and Bill Chorske running with the first string in spring practice. Both the Bills have been doing well, and we are looking for real accomplishments from them in the coming year.

Thanks to Dick Duxbury, our new social chairman, our spring parties have been a real success. The South Sea Island Party, the Come as You Were Party, and the Spring Formal were the major events of the quarter.

New Members Hold Promise

Fourteen new Delts were initiated into Beta Tau Chapter last spring.

On April 15 at the Lincoln Hotel 13 became Delts, while the 14th, Roger Krhounek, was initiated at a special ceremony on May 5. Krhounek had been laid up with a leg injury suffered during spring practice with the Nebraska football squad.

Initiates Jim Murphy and Don Rhoda are varsity footballers, while Dwight Siebler is the outstanding pitcher on this spring's freshman baseball team. Tom Neff was the outstanding scholar of this year's pledge class. Bob Harry sparkled as a freshman basketball player, was pledge president, and will be Beta Tau's rush chairman for this year.

At the annual Omaha alumni banquet at the Blackstone Hotel, Tom Neff was announced as winner of the coveted Webster Award for excellent pledge scholarship. Tom was also voted by the active chapter as winner of the "Squab Best" award. Jim Walker was runner-up and Bob Harry and Don Elwell received honorable mention.

President Bob Cook was named editorial page editor of The Nebraskan, student newspaper, for this year. Previously Bob had been sports editor as well as a copy editor.

Jack Clark and Al Grove led the Delts to a second-place finish in the All-University tennis doubles championship last spring. Clark and Grove reached the finals but lost after a close match.

Dick Grant was named as the outstanding intramural athlete in the Shelter. He was an All-University selection in football and participated in softball, golf, tennis, volleyball, and badminton. The award was presented by former Husker football star, Eddie Schwartzkopf, at a smoker with the Lincoln alumni.

Branch Rickey Is Banquet Speaker

On May 12 Delta Xi held its annual Spring Banquet and Formal. Edward X. Hallenberg, the first president of Delta Xi, now from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, was present at the banquet and introduced Branch Rickey, who was the featured speaker of the evening. With Mr. Rickey at the banquet was Mrs. Rickey. They were on their second honeymoon celebrating 50 joyous years they have been together and stopped in Grand Forks on their way to Wyoming and Montana where they were going to fish and enjoy themselves. Everyone present enjoyed the talk Mr. Rickey gave tremendously.

Mr. Hallenberg presented the Hallenberg Key, in his honor, to James Anderson from Bismarck, North Dakota. This Key is given annually to the pledge most prominent in campus activities who also has good scholarship. Remembrance gifts were presented to Seniors Merlin Dewing, Rudy Slupski, and Stanley Chasney by Mr. Hallenberg.

Glenn Muir, a junior, was selected as a Grey Gown for the University of North Dakota Baccalaureate and Commencement Exercises. The Grey Gown selection is based on high scholarship, campus activities, and outstanding leadership. Glenn was one of 14 out of a junior class of nearly 400 who earned this high honor. Glenn has also been selected by the members of Blue Key Fraternity to be the chairman of the Annual Blue Key Barbecue in September.

Dennis Holweger, veteran on the UND track team, won the mile event in several track meets this spring.

On June 10, the alumni and undergraduates met at Edgewater Beach at Detroit Lakes, Minnesota, at which time the possibilities of constructing a new Shelter were discussed. In attendance were alumni from distant places, such as George Allen of Webster Groves, Missouri.

Two Elected Tau Beta Pi

The Spring Formal climaxed the social calendar. After several picnics, beach parties, and two regular parties the formal was a fine ending. The all-day formal, which was held at Brown's Lake near Burlington, Wisconsin, was an event not soon to be forgotten. After swimming, boating, golfing, horseback riding, and tennis, the Deltas were happy to settle down to a formal dinner-dance. Everyone agreed that Social Chairman Steve Fitzsimmons had outdone himself with the event.

During the formal Jerry Brandt was given the outstanding pledge award. Jerry has been active in the pledge class, and has been in several activities outside of the Fraternity also.

Wes Snyder, one of Beta Pi's most active members, has been in several University Theatre productions this year, and recently was in the Waa-Mu Show, an all campus musical production.

Director CAL HURD and his Delt Glee Club, winners of the Ohio University "Torch Sing."

Ted Rogers and John Sidensticker have been elected to Tau Beta Pi national honorary. Dave Tompkins has been chosen for membership in Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic fraternity. Dave Rowe and Don Bucknam have been elected to Delta Sigma Rho, national journalism honorary. Don has been appointed instructor in typography in the School of Journalism for the coming school year. This is the first time a student has ever been given this position.

Beta Pi's spring rush was met with the pledging of four outstanding freshmen. They are Ted Brazenk, Mat Dapluski, Gayle Grubb, and Jeff McCullough.

The mothers' club has been active this year. Recently the mothers presented the chapter with a check for $250, which will be used for general improvement of the chapter.

Bob Flinn, Hank Johnson, and Ben Mogni will be on cruise with the NROTC program this summer. They will travel to Ireland and Spain.

Beta Deltas Win Torch Sing

Another trophy now rests in Beta Chapter's trophy case, as a result of the Glee Club's first-place win in the annual Torch Sing, open to all the fraternities and men's housing units on campus. The Deltas sang victoriously the contest song, "Keep in the Middle of the Road," under the direction of Cal Hurd, who also arranged their optional song, "The Wizard of Oz" medley. So impressive was Cal's arrangement that it will become a permanent part of the Ohio University Men's Glee Club repertoire.

As the year ended, the Deltas were saddened to learn that Mrs. Floyd Kimball, Beta housemother for the past six years, was retiring. In those six years "Mom K" became a most important part of the chapter. Her friendliness, kindness, and advice helped many of "her boys" over the rough spots of college life. No wonder there was so much emotion in the voices of the Deltas as they sang a farewell serenade and presented her with a television set. Mom K may have retired, but her contribution to Beta Chapter can never be forgotten, nor will Mrs. Kimball herself.

The biggest week on campus, J-Prom, took place in May with Jim Kraft as the Deltas' candidate for King. Using a Scottish theme, featuring Kraft as "Highland Jim," the skit, presented for all women's groups, found the Beta men dressed in kilts and tam-o-shanters, while Tom McMillan supplied appropriate bagpipe music. A huge Scotchman's head appeared on top of the float, with his outstretched arm holding Jim. Although candidate Kraft was not named King, the week's activities proved to be successful, as the Deltas produced a most colorful and popular campaign.

As the year ended, the Deltas looked forward to a summer filled with reunions. The annual August get-together would be held as usual in Canton, but there would be even more festive occasions at which to meet the brothers during the summer months.

The summer also meant lots of hard work for Rush Chairman Bill Nagle. His committee planned to collect information about prospective rushees to be ready for the fall pledging semester.

Delt Guy Senior Class Prexy

The end of the year 1955 proved to be truly a great success, for included in the undergraduate governing council for next year are two well-known Deltas who will capably serve the functions of Senior Class president and Junior Class treasurer. Dick Guy and Jim Milliken are the new office holders. The elections, held early in May, were preceded by fervid rallies which, if nothing else, showed intense interest on behalf of the student body. One of the two political parties came through with such a profound victory that misdemeanors at the election booths were widely suspected. At the crying insistence of the losing political party, a whole new election took place, but even this did not sway the student body from changing its mind. Principally, the same results as the first election showed prevailed.

Frank Ellwood, co-captain of Ohio State's varsity football team, was one of the 16 seniors initiated into the coveted Sphinx Society this spring. Other Deltas selected for honorary societies included Ernie Johansen for sophomore Romophos Society and Jim Milliken for the junior Bucket and Dipper Society.

On hindsight we here at Beta Phi can now look back and see the great progress this chapter has made during the year '55-'56. Our acquisition of the new chapter house was undoubtedly a great stride, but above all was superior leadership by an able, efficient, and highly effective cabinet system. Incidentally, a noteworthy fact is the coming marriage of our President, Dick Wray. In order to show chapter appreciation for a job well done, a unanimous vote of confidence restored him to office for the coming year, in spite of his impending burden. Several viewpoints were argued, but overall consensus throughout the chapter was that Dick was by far the ablest and worthiest of any president for years at Beta Phi.

Outstanding Seniors Graduated

Chapter Mu ended another successful year with a Ninetieth Anniversary Banquet on June 10. More than 125 alumni returned for this celebration.

Seventeen Mu Deltas were graduated from Ohio Wesleyan on June 11. Among them were John Humpal, 1955-56 student body president; Bruce Homfeldt, 1955-56 student body secretary; and Robert Hancher, quarterback of OWU's football team. These three men were also members of Omicron Delta Kappa. Two of our graduates, John Humpal and Don Vanderpool, were members of Phi Beta Kappa. We shall miss all the seniors, who will return to Ohio Wesleyan and the Shelter only as visiting alumni.

The last official act of the chapter was an initiation on June 10.

Delta Alpha Wins Sing— 15 of 18 Competitions

Director Charles Dean led the Sooner Delt Glee Club to another win in the annual University Sing, making our Mother's Day the best in years. This makes Dean's second win in two years as director. Winning has become a tradition, since Delta Alpha has won this most coveted campus trophy for 15 of the 18 years the contest has been staged. We are most proud of this record and plan to make it even greater.

Several Delta Alpha men have become outstanding in campus activities. Dan McNatt, chapter vice-president, has been elected as president of the Engineers' Club, the largest organization on the campus. He will serve for the next school year. Paul McDaniel has been chosen director of the 1956-57 Sooner Scandals, O.U.'s annual variety show. This year, the scandals will be presented at Oklahoma City's Municipal Auditorium for the general public. When BMOCs (Big Men on Campus) were announced this year, six O.U. Deltas were among those named. They are Lee Kennedy, Daryl Southard, Dick Sorenson, Dan McNatt, Jerry Marshall, and Tom Denner.

At our annual Senior Banquet, Dick Sorenson was named as winner of the Bill Bender Award, which is presented each year to one whom the chapter votes to be our outstanding senior. Dick is a former chapter vice-president, and served as executive secretary of the I.F.C. He has truly served faithfully and unselfishly.

One of the high lights of the Karnea is the model initiation, and this year we are grateful for the opportunity to take part in this great event. With the help of the Central Office, we hope to give a good performance.

This summer, more than ever before, Delta Alpha is centering its attention on rushing. Jim Michaud is our rush chairman, and is doing an excellent job. He has already entertained many rushees at our Shelter, and has planned some summer parties to be held in Oklahoma City, Tulsa, and Norman. He is aiming at a pledge class of forty outstanding men.

Interfraternity Sing Victors for Third Straight Year

The Delta Chi Deltas are looking forward to another top year. Some of the honors achieved by Oklahoma A. & M. Deltas this past year include winning the annual Interfraternity Sing. Under the direction of Frank Ross, the Deltas won their division for the third straight year. The winning numbers were "Sing to the Royal Purple" and "The Halls of Ivy."

Deltas reached the play-offs in every major sport. Delt J. B. Hoobler is the 167-pound wrestling champion and Max Jordan set a new intramural record in high and low hurdles.

Miss Carlotta Polk, Kappa Kappa Gamma, was named the Delt Sweetheart at the Orchid Ball. A candlelight serenade finished up the evening.

represented in athletics, activities, and various other campus events and honoraries.

Recently elected to Skull & Dagger, a sophomore men's honorary based on grades and campus activities, was West Point transfer student Ron Rhoner. Ron joins Brothers Tom Waldrop and Henry Booth in the honorary. Rhoner served as president of his dormitory, chairman of the Ugly Man Contest in which Brother Jim Potter won, co-ordinate hospitality chairman of Duck Preview, and chairman of activities commission during Greek Week. Rhoner also found time to maintain a straight "B" average.

Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising honorary, recently pledged Delts Dick Berg, Phil Bell, and Tom Waldrop. The neophytes joined Gamma Rho President Bob Frank in this organization.

Among next year's Kappa Rho Omicron, radio honorary, officers is newly elected Vice-President Dan Frank. At the annual banquet, awards for outstanding contribution to KWAX, the campus FM radio station, went to Brothers George Guldauger and Hugh Gehrbrant, who walked off with "Golden Mike" trophies.

Active in spring dramatic circles of the University Theater were Delts Tom Lewis, Scott Lhener, Dan Frank, Wayne Medford, and Tom Waldrop. Waldrop was appointed as the director of the University's traveling talent show.

Spring term football welcomed Letterman Chuck Osborne and Marlan Holland. Holland was all Western league fullback and is expected to see a lot of action when fall rolls around. In the only scrimmage of the season Osborne proved to be the game's standout. He scored two touchdowns and constantly ripped off long yardage. Holland also hit pay dirt.

Capture Intramural Golf Title

Brother Gary Young has climaxed an activity-laden college career by being chosen for the office of student body treasurer. Gary will also be financial chairman for homecoming this fall.

Spring also saw two new trophies on the Delt mantle. Ray Dupree and Dave Neilson brought home the intramural golf trophy, while Bob Cochran, our house manager, won his class in the all-school smoker.

Pete Yazzolino is the new Junior Class sergeant at arms. This fall Pete will be seen in the rally squad, leading yells for the Beavers.

The Barometer, our campus newspaper, has seen many Delts this past year. Doug Beito has taken over the job of business manager from another Delt, Bob Scott. Brother Bill Strader served on the editorial staff, while Bob Eberhard, Lee Martin, Dave Cereghino, and John Brogotti spent much of their time in the newsroom pounding out stories.

Three Delts were honored by the Air Force ROTC at the end of the term. Mel Shult won the distinguished air science medal. Bob Ehrenstrom and Bill Packard received medals for excellence in Air Force studies. Not to be outdone, Dave Beadling, our house president, won the outstanding student medal given by the ROTC Engineer Corps.

Ernie Zwahlen has been busy with spring practice on the varsity football squad. The Delts lost the race for the intramural baseball crown, but we made up for it by beating the Oregon chapter, as a result of which we retained the rotating trophy for the fourth straight year. The losers had to pick up the tab for after-game refreshments.

Hamlet Take-off Draws Large Spring Carnival Crowds

The brothers at Gamma Sigma teamed with another Pitt organization to stage a western take-off on Hamlet for Pitt's Spring Carnival. The show was titled "Dirty Deed in Denmark" and drew large crowds for every performance. Financially the show was a big success for the Pitt Delts also. Gamma Sigma also won two trophies during Carnival week for booth design and in the sweepstakes.

Led by Gene and Jim Donahue, the Delts had no trouble in carrying off first place in the interfraternity track meet. Two weeks previous to the track meet the Delts also took second place in the I.F. swimming meet.

Senior Jim Zurcher was recently honored at Pitt's all-sports banquet by being named Pitt's "most valuable swimmer" for the second year. Jim holds the University records for the 100-, 220- and 440-yard freestyles.

Mike Higgins has been elected president of the Men's Glee Club. Mike was vice-president and tenor soloist for the Glee Club this year.

Lee Dobler and Jack Donovan were elected president and vice-president respectively of Beta Beta Beta, honorary fraternity for biology students.

Meister and Sexson Honored at the Close of a Big Year

George Meister, a graduating senior in electrical engineering, was the recipient of several outstanding military awards. He was awarded a plaque for commanding the winning company in company drill competition and the Reserve Officer's Association medal for the outstanding naval ROTC student, besides being voted the outstanding marine option student sponsored by the Marine Corps Association.

Joe Sexson, three-year basketball and baseball letter holder, was the 1956 recipient of the Gimlet Award, awarded by the Gimlet Club to the senior judged to be the most outstanding athlete in his four years at the University. He was also awarded the Big Ten Medal for proficiency in scholarship and athletics.

Sophomores Cliff Chappell and Jack Meilahn were awarded letters in varsity wrestling. Jim Denny, Art Gustafson, Tom Hall, and Don Munger were initiated respectively into Sigma Alpha Tau, a national air transportation honorary; Quarter Deck Society, a naval ROTC honorary; Phi Eta Sigma, a freshman scholastic honorary; and Skull and Crescent, a sophomore honorary.

With final examinations pressing us in the last months of school, the Shelter was pushed out into the "lime light" of school activities. Having participated in the University's Varsity Varieties and Penny Carnival, we turned our attention to University Sing. Through the able direction and unlimited patience of senior Gene Morton, we presented our mothers a never-to-be-forgotten Mother's Day present—a first place in the Sing. This placed the cap on the bottle of memories of one of the greatest years of Gamma Lambda.

Brown New I.F.C. President

Highlighting the spring semester social season was the sophomore dance, Soiree. Bruce Gilbert and Brad Kennedy were members of the committee which organized the highly successful event.

Miss Mickey Russell was elected Delt Queen for the week end. A week later on Parent's Week End, she and Swede Johnson announced their engagement.

Sunday of Soiree Week End the house held a picnic at Buttermilk Falls, a scenic falls near Saratoga.

Neil Brown was elected president of the Interfraternity Council, which represents close to three-fourths of the student body at R.P.I. We congratulate Neil for receiving this honor which he has well earned.

Bud Allen, Jack Barrett, and Swede Johnson have joined the Navy at Pensacola and are now engaged in jet training. Additional brothers of the class of '56 now in the service are Ken Kinsley with the Army and Dick Fanning, Don Glendenning, and Ned Martin, all in the Navy.

We are looking forward to the fall sports season with Jerry Silvey captaining the soccer team and Dick Gustafson piloting the football squad. Upsilon finished second among the fraternities in the Barker Trophy competition for interfraternity sports. We are eager to recapture the Barker Trophy which we held for last year.

Student Commencement Speaker Was Delt Don Peterson

As the summer vacation comes to a close, the "memories linger on." Many enjoyable week ends were spent by the members of Delta Psi Chapter and their guests on the beautiful Santa Barbara beaches. Water skiing and swimming seemed to monopolize the activities of the early risers, while there were the famous steak barbecues and memorable beach parties, which the evening goes planned and enjoyed to the fullest extent.

The Sixty-Third Karnea of Delta Tau Delta proved to be a terrific success. We were represented by President Joe Diehl, House Manager-Treasurer Bill Tice, and Recording Secretary John Rose. The valuable information gained at the Karnea was integrated into the chapter's organization plan for the forthcoming fall semester, and will be of great assistance to the members and the officers of the chapter alike.

With Delt Dick Goode as the Santa Barbara College student body president and others of the chapter in student body offices, the Deltas will be well represented on campus this semester. At the spring awards assembly, trophies for the best athlete of the year and for the male student with the highest scholastic average were presented by this chapter. Don Peterson, a member of the Dean's List for the past two years and a member of student council, was the student speaker at the graduation ceremonies last spring at Santa Barbara College. With graduation, many of the brothers went their separate ways. Past President Thad Smith spent the summer aboard a 60-foot yacht in Alaskan waters.

Beta Theta ended the year with a bang at its annual Parisian Party week end. Events got off to a start on Friday with a house party and dance. Saturday was the big day with a party in the Shelter yard in the afternoon and a costume ball at night. Brother Harvey Allen was in charge as social chairman.

Delts played host to the Pan-Hellenic graduation Smorgasbord during the commencement festivities. Brothers Irvin Dunlap, Richard Hayes, Tom McKay, and Peter Knapp received their degrees. Brother Dunlap also received a reserve commission in the Air Force, and Brother Knapp won a graduate fellowship to continue his study of physics.

Miss Edith Knapp, sister of Brother Knapp, was named Miss Delta Tau Delta by Groucho Marx and was a finalist in the Miss Sewanee contest sponsored by the yearbook.

Brother Wallace Smith, past chapter president, was elected chairman of the Discipline Committee of the Order of Gownsmen, student governing body. This is one of the important campus posts at Sewanee.

Summer and fall rush plans were discussed with Brother Art Speck, rush chairman, at the last meeting before the close of school. His plans have been carefully formulated on the basis of past mistakes and additional ideas obtained.

Band award bars for outstanding service went to Brothers Robin Moore, Dick Pettus, and Battle Searcy.

Brother Bill Senter has been named advertising manager of the Cap and Gown, school yearbook, and secretary of the German Club, student cotillion organization. Brothers Craig Casey and Bob Marssdorf are members from the Deltas.

Heads R.P.I. Interfraternity Council

ON APRIL 23, the Interfraternity Council of Rensselaer elected Neil Brown to the presidency of this governing body for R.P.I. fraternities. Neil previously held the office of treasurer of the I.F.C.

NEIL BROWN

served as a class representative in the Student Council. He volunteered his vacation time to work as a Freshman Camp

Neil's present position tops a long list of activities in which he has rendered valuable service to the Institute and the Fraternity. He has worked on all the class dance committees, the Campus Chest Committee, a school charity organization, and has counselor. In addition, he was a member of the Junior Board of the Poly, the school paper.

In his sophomore year he was elected to White Key, an honorary society. This is the highest honor a sophomore can receive. Its membership is restricted to ten members of each class and the qualifications are outstanding service to and for Rensselaer. He was shortly thereafter elected secretary-treasurer of this organization.

Although Neil, a chemical engineering senior, is engaged in a great many activities, he has consistently been named to the Dean's list for his scholarship.

As corresponding secretary, he did an excellent job and is presently the recording secretary for the Chapter. We are proud to number among our members Neil Brown, a truly outstanding example of a good Delt.

Chapter Entertains Parents

On Mother's Day the annual banquet was held for parents and families of the Deltas at the Student Union building. Well over one hundred guests were present. In the afternoon after the banquet the annual Mother's Day interfraternity sing was held. The Deltas, under the leadership of Song Director Bob Nason, received third place. Master of ceremonies for the sing was Delt Mick McCahren, president of the Dakotans, a male student service organization which sponsors the sing. Following the sing there was an open house at the Shelter for parents and friends.

Herman Walker, a second-semester pledge who has been active in the local international relations club, has been elected president of a newly organized state association of collegiate international relations clubs.

At USD's annual speech awards banquet Delta Tau Delta received the tro-

Stanford—Beta Rho

Delts Will Contribute Mightily to Rose Bowl Contenders

Beta Rho's many and varied contributions to Stanford athletics during the past year were covered in our last RAINBOW article. The recent spring football practice, however, offered a partial forecast of the coming year's Delt participation in sports.

As the top contender for the Rose Bowl, the Indian team will be dominated by Delts. First-string positions will be filled by Jere McMillan at right half; curly Carswell or Don Manoukian at left guard; Noel Robinson or Armand DeWeese at right guard; John Kidd or Steve Doctor at tackle; and Gary Van Golder at end. Second-stringers will be center Russ Steele, halfbacks Al Harrington and Doug Dick, Roy Stevens at fullback, and pledge Meigs Jones playing guard.

Other Delts who most likely will see plenty of action before the season is over are John Clark, Jim Ward, Jim Truher, Jerry Dunn, Wally Honeywell, and pledges Glenn Hayden and Nelson Rucker. With the smell of roses in the air, these boys should contribute much toward Stanford's success.

Athletics, important as they are, do not keep the brothers from studying, as is demonstrated by the fact that last quarter Beta Rho stood fourth scholastically among the 24 houses on campus. Ron Wagner, ex-president of the house, was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, as were footballers Steve Doctor and John Neff. Pete Likins, an All-Coast wrestler, succeeds Neff as president of the honorary engineering society, Tau Beta Pi. And Lucky Palme is next year's president of Sigma Delta Pi, national Spanish honorary fraternity.

On March 20 the chapter elected officers, including Bill Sampson as president, Dave Bohnen as vice-president, and John Kidd as rushing chairman. Wally Honeywell, who also takes over as Junior Class president, will act as social chairman. Hap Wagner, our new house manager, was in addition elected chairman of the House Managers' Association here on campus. Incidentally, Hap garnered another honor for himself and the house when he was recently chosen to be captain of the Indian hoop squad.

An outstanding event last spring was the Campus Spring Sing, preceding which we gave a buffet supper for our parents, relatives, and friends. After singing a couple of spirited Hawaiian songs, aided by curly Carswell's solo and Al Harrington's knife dance, we took second place in our division.

Snake Charmer for Delt Week End

As a close to the social season we ended up with Delt Week End, and what a way to end the year! Really gave us something to remember the school year by. The Formal was held at the LeMoyné Manor in Syracuse and Saturday we had a great clambake-picnic at Ernie Demming's, an annual affair that we really look forward to. Ernie, an alum of Omega, has let us use his farm for a good many years for the picnic.

Spring Week End at Syracuse was Delt Parents' Week End. We had a big turn-out. High light of the day was the float parade and a meeting held by the Mothers' Club for the visiting parents. There was a buffet after the parade.

This year the theme for the float parade was "Entertainment in the Wide, Wide World." Delts entered a mammoth India Snake Charmer creation. The stuffed chicken wire was twisted into a large green snake, dwarfing Brother Bowers as he played a flute. He was the envy of all with his court of Indian beauties.

Receives Leadership Award

JUDGED THE TUFTS University student who has shown the greatest promise of future community leadership, Francis D. Cogliano, Tufts, '56, was presented last spring the prized George S. Miller Award.

COGLIANO

An outstanding president of Beta Mu Chapter, Mr. Cogliano was a Dean's List student for four years and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He has been admitted to Yale Medical School, where he will begin graduate study this fall.

An active participant in extracurricular activities, he was a member of Sword and Shield and Ivy Society. He was editor of the Ivy Book and of Tower Cross. He also served on the University's Judiciary Council and as an assistant biology instructor.

Mr. Cogliano is the first recipient of the Award, which will be presented annually on the basis of adherence to the ideals of responsible citizenship as taught and demonstrated by Dean George S. Miller, both in the Tufts classroom and in his community.

held on February 20 at the Forest Hills Golf and Country Club, and the Founders Day Banquet, held on April 7 at the Town and Country. The latter celebrated the 50th anniversary of the local chapter and the 30th anniversary of Delta Theta's affiliation with Delta Tau Delta. The Banquet was well represented by both actives and alumni; it was a tremendous success, enjoyed by all.

In March the active chapter initiated four new brothers, Don Martin, Bruce Faulkner, John Ackert, and John Edmonds, thus increasing our total membership to 30. We expect to start this year with 21 actives, and to increase it to 35 through the 1956-57 season.

Last year witnessed some major changes to the house. Five of the bedrooms were redecorated by the housemen, some of the floors were tiled, and some furniture was replaced. The kitchen was painted and tiled by the pledges and the downstairs lobby and first-floor stairs were tiled by the Mothers' and Wives' Club. This year we hope to finish tiling the first floor, to paint the living rooms and halls, to finish off the bedrooms, and the Mothers' and Wives' Club is undertaking to redecorate the dining room.

This fall the actives are planning to hold, among other alumni activities, an active-alumni banquet-stag, to be held in the house in November. One definite plan for this year is more active-alumni association. We have made plans to encourage more activity, so that we would appreciate as much support as you can give us. We are counting on your help; please don't let us down.

Delts Assume Key Roles in Campus Organizations

Several Delts returning to Tufts will assume key roles on campus. House

"Veep" Courtney Bourne takes the reins of the Class of 1957 as vice-president (also elected to Student Council and Tower Cross, the senior honorary society, in addition to being selected to captain this year's varsity tennis team). At the helm of the Tufts NROTC unit will be Dick Chess as battalion commander. Jack Lecky, frosh secretary, was elected president of his class; and Bob Watson, frosh president, returned from the political arena as Student Council representative.

Members of last year's pledge class who were accorded sophomore honors are: Jack Doykos, Bob Buckley, Bob Watson, and Jack Lecky, all elected to Sword and Shield Honorary Society.

Not to be outdone in scholastic honors, Delts saw Treasurer Jim Polk elected to Tau Beta Pi.

Colonel Herman Hawk, PAS at Tufts, helped us immeasurably during rush week last year, and he and Mrs. Hawk were charming chaperones at our Spring Formal. So when we heard that Brother Hawk (Syracuse University) had built a house in a neighboring community, we hopped over to lend a Delt hand in some landscape clearance.

Sundays were "cook-it-yourself-and-bear-it" days until Steve Falchetta began making spaghetti and that magnificent piece de resistance, a succulent, delicately flavored Lasagna. Sunday afternoon meals have become much more enjoyable.

Hunt First U.C.L.A. Athlete to Hold Three Varsity Captaincies

Awards came thick and fast to Delta Iota and its members in the latter part of the spring semester.

Jim Montgomery, as a setter, led the University's volleyball team to another National Collegiate Championship. The singing quartet of Dave Grove, Bob Hunt, Bob Sproul, and Noel Veden garnered for the chapter the Frank Bull Award at the University's Spring Sing, held again this year in the Hollywood Bowl. This is an award given by a prominent local disc-jockey to the group which he judged the best of the evening.

Bob Hunt was distinguished as being the first athlete at U.C.L.A. ever to hold three varsity captaincies, two in cross-country and one in track. Don Hicks was chosen in the University elections to represent the lower division students during the coming school year.

In intramural athletics Delta Iota was awarded, out of 35 competing fraternities, the year's Sportsmanship Trophy, while finishing fourth in the overall standings.

Socially the year was closed with our annual "Barbary Coast" party to which over one thousand persons came, making it the biggest party of the year by far.

Two Named All-American Swimmers

Delts here on the S.C. campus are going to start out a new semester with the same spirit and unity that put us in number one position in popularity last year.

With rushing just beginning, we plan on taking about 30 new pledges for the coming semester. Our formal initiation ceremonies for old pledges will take place around the middle of next month.

Sportswise we are in fine shape. Last semester we just missed winning the "Ironman" trophy for interfraternity sports. If we had won it this year, it would have been the second time in a row. Two brothers have been given "All-American" honors in the NCAA swimming championships. They are Joe Horsely and Jim Steveson.

In football this year we expect to see a lot of action from Doug Kranz, Bill Howard, Vic Edelbrock, and Laird Willott, who last year was one of the major reasons why S.C. beat Notre Dame.

President and vice-president for the coming year are Jack Kennedy and Dick Peterson respectively. Delegates for the Sixty-third Karnea were also chosen, at the end of last semester, to be Harold Murdock and Jack Kennedy.

In politics, Jack Casey was elected president of the Knights, while Laird Willott became a senator.

Washington Award for Lewis

With the closing of the school year came many honors for Phi Chapter. Jim

Lewis received the Washington Award, which is presented each year to the senior who contributes most to Washington and Lee during his last year. Gibby McSpadden was awarded the Mathis Award for wrestling and was named the Most Valuable Athlete of the Year. Corky Briscoe was chosen Most Valuable Football Player, Bob McHenry was named the Most Valuable Basketball Player, and Carl Bailey was selected as the Most Valuable Lacrosse Player.

Phi Chapter has placed five men in key positions in University functions. Ted Kerr is past president of the Junior Class, commander of W. & L.'s precision drill team, captain of the golf team, and a member of OΔK. Corky Briscoe is president of the Sophomore Class and a member of the Assimilation Committee. Harry Brunett is vice-president and assistant business manager of the Dance Board, a member of the Executive Committee of the Christian Council, chairman of the Campus Charity Chest Drive, and a Freshman Dormitory Counselor. Arnold Groobey is on the Executive Committee of the Christian Council, chairman of the University Religious Emphasis Week, a member of SWMSFC, and a Freshman Dormitory Counselor. Buck Buchanan is chairman of SWMSFC, vice-president of Spring Dances, assistant producer of the 1956 Minstrel Show, and a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, national commerce fraternity.

Phi Chapter graduated 17 men in June, probably the largest graduating class in Phi history. Looking back over the last four years, it's hard to find a single field in which these 17 men have not excelled. Phi's undergraduates salute her seniors for their help, leadership, and guiding influence.

Delt Mothers Honored at Shelter

Gamma Delta concluded its year with the annual spring formal on April 27. Our social chairman, David Grimes, did an excellent job in giving us one of the best dinner dances ever held in the Shelter. Miss Marjorie Gerwig was crowned Delt Sweetheart Queen with a crown of roses and was presented a small loving cup with her name engraved on it. Each of us gave our dates silver bracelets with ΔΤΔ engraved.

On May 13 chapter members honored their mothers with a dinner given at the Shelter. David Grimes and Robert Mitchell were chairmen and did a fine job.

Our basketball team went undefeated until the final game of the year, when it lost a heartbreaker by three points. We won the bridge title, however, in interfraternity competition.

Two Delts Are Only Juniors to Make Phi Beta Kappa

Three junior Delts from Zeta Chapter led their respective spring sports squads to successful seasons during the semester recently closed.

Trackman Ed Sarbiewski was the top point-getter for the Redcat cindermen. Ed usually placed first in the broad jump and high hurdles, and garnered points in the high jump, low hurdles, shot put, and discus. But the pole vault remained his specialty. He is the holder of the Western Reserve school record at 13' 4 1/2".

Burly Ron Miklovic pitched his way to his second straight winning season as a mainstay of the Reserve baseball team. Ron was also the Zeta intramural manager for the spring semester and a member of the varsity golf team.

Bill Fisher captained the WRU golf team this season. Also swinging down the fairways was George Malinzak. Both men were returning lettermen.

When the spring honors day had come and gone, the Delts were once again high on the list of award winners. Chapter President Larry Seidl and Chapter Treasurer Larry Schwartz were the only junior men in the University elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Brother Schwartz is also president of Kappa Kappa Psi and secretary of Omicron Delta Kappa.

Winding up the intramural season and making their final bid for the "all-sports" trophy, Zetamen swept the swim meet. They broke the existing relay team record (which was previously held by the chapter) and took five firsts. When the final totals for the meet were posted, we had beaten our arch rivals by more than 25 points.

One of the biggest high lights at the Zeta Shelter the past month was the May Day festivities. Invitations were sent to all the parents—and the response was overwhelming. Over 100 Zeta relatives were present at this all-campus function. A buffer dinner was served and the folks were escorted to the various campus activities. Thanks to May Day Chairman Dave Marshall, the Delts "outdid" all the other fraternities on campus.

DELT ATHLETES HONORED at W. & L. were: CARL BAILEY and BOB MCHENRY (top); CORKEY BRISCOE and GIBBY McSPADDEN (bottom).

Zeta's other big May event was our annual Spring Formal. The evening started with dinner, followed by the dance at the Shaker Heights Country Club.

The coming year is going to be a busy one at the Zeta Shelter, for this year Zeta is to be host for the Northern Division Conference. But even more important than that will be the celebrating of our Diamond Jubilee. It will be a lot of hard work, but we are looking forward to it.

PHELAN BEALE, Sewanee, '98, & Columbia, '05, retired New York attorney and sportsman died June 12 in Pass Christian, Miss. A grandson of Judge John D. Phelan of the Alabama Supreme Court, Mr. Beale was a past president of the Southern Society of the City of New York.

Mr. Beale was among the active workers in the New York Alumni Chapter during its early years.

Eye Witness of Veep's Last Address

EDITOR'S NOTE: Bill Towler, undergraduate of Phi Chapter, was present when former U. S. Vice President Alben W. Barkley met his death on the speaker's platform at Washington & Lee's Mock Convention last spring. Bill wrote the following account of the memorable event for his hometown newspaper. We are pleased to reproduce the story here, not only because it concerns a distinguished Delt but also because it represents in our opinion an outstanding reportorial job.

It was Mock Convention Day in Lexington, Virginia, as the members of Washington and Lee's student body swung into the fulfillment of many months planning. Since September of 1955 everyone had been working hard to make this Mock Convention the best one yet. To start things off, a two-mile-long parade with Senator Alben Barkley at its head wound its way through the crowd-filled streets of Lexington.

By 3:15, the parade was over and people began to filter into Doremus Gymnasium which was to serve as Convention Hall. Such a mixture of people has never been seen at any previous convention; national, mock, or otherwise. Delegates dressed in everything from Bermuda shorts to coats and ties. Girls, many of whom had been riding on the various floats, in grass skirts, evening gowns, and every possible costume. Members of the various bands, faculty members, local townspeople, and of course, the various officials of the convention.

CONVENTION HALL SCENE OF BEDLAM

It was a typical convention. I yelled myself hoarse at any and everything. State delegation signs were waving (some with Confederate flags or state flags tied to them), people jumping up and down on chairs, shooting water pistols and throwing paper. Newsmen, sitting on the sides of the speakers' stand, grinned and laughed with the better than 2,000 people in the gymnasium.

Finally the meeting was called to order. It wasn't easy after all our building up for this gala event. Finally, Mayor Paul Holstine of Lexington got up and delivered the welcoming address. We cheered at the end of every sentence and sometimes even before he could finish one. I guess the only thing we didn't cheer through was the Lord's Prayer and the Star Spangled Banner.

Then Governor Stanley of Virginia took the stand. He made a few remarks about how glad he was to be here, etc. Then Governor Stanley introduced "the Veep."

BARKLEY GIVEN NOISY RECEPTION

What an ovation we gave him! I thought the roof was going to fall in on us. People fell off chairs, got up on them again, and fell off once more. Flash bulbs popped all over the place. Flags waved. The distinguished old gentleman grinned at it all, letting us work off a little steam. When he thought we had yelled enough, with the calmness of a man who knew how to handle convention crowds, he began to speak. Convention Hall hushed.

Barkley smiled, then expressed the hope that we would think as much of him after he had served his term as temporary chairman of the Mock Convention, as we seemed to think of him now. His speech was typical of convention speeches and yet it wasn't. I had the feeling that here was a man who was giving me the straight story; not the usual "bull" you so often hear from a politician. His ready wit charmed all of us. At one point in his speech, a microphone fell off the platform he was standing on and hit with a loud commotion. Twitters were heard in the crowd. He looked at it, then turned back to the other microphones and boomed, "That's just a sample of what's going to happen to the Republicans in November."

HE CONVERTED US

He spoke of the many contributions made by the Democratic Party for the benefit of the American people. (Yells and applause after each one.) No matter what political feelings we may have had upon entering Convention Hall, as Barkley neared the end of his speech, I felt sure he had converted all of us into Democrats. He was that good.

"The Veep" then said that he didn't want to keep us from the real business of this convention, but he wanted to make one final point. He was not a candidate for any office this year. That didn't suit any of us here at Washington and Lee. I, along with many others, would have nominated him for the Vice-Presidency again. But he remained firm. "No more for me," he said. "I've served as Junior Representative from my home state, then as Senior Representative, then as Junior Senator, then Senior Senator, and finally as House Majority Leader.

"Now," and here he smiled, "I'm back in Washington as a Junior Senator."

You could have heard a pin drop in the Hall. He leaned forward, his face slightly flushed, talking it seemed to each one of us individually. "I'm content to sit on the back row," he roared, "for I would rather be a servant in the House of the Lord than sit in the seat of the Mighty."

Doremus Gymnasium shook at the ovation. Everyone rose in a spontaneous tribute to a great man. He looked around, Kappa, Tom Hicks; and Skulls of Seven, Harry Caldwell. Tom Hicks also serves as the Grand Marshal.

David Steinmeyer received the athletic trophy honoring the top athlete in Westminster College. Dave lettered in three varsity sports. Dave was selected on the conference all-star squad in basketball, captained the baseball team, and was still able to give his aid to the track squad, all the while maintaining a B average.

The Delts had eight men on the diamond squad, of whom seven were holding down starting berths. Bob Duke, another Delt, is filling in Dave's shoes as next year's baseball captain.

Tom Hicks, repeating as conference hurdle champion, will again captain the track squad. He was also elected president of the "W" Club for the forthcoming year.

Wisconsin—Beta Gamma

Klevay Named Outstanding Senior

As the 1956-57 school year begins, we are looking forward to another successful year for Beta Gamma Deltas and Delta Tau Delta. The second semester of the 1955-56 school year may be looked back at as an indication of a successful semester for Beta Gamma and the brothers here.

Brother Les Klevay received another award, the Outstanding Senior Award, to add to his list of honors and activities. Brother Don Hoffman is co-chairman of Guides for the present New Student Week. Don is also Director of Public Relations for the Wisconsin Student Association. From the military angle, Brother Robert Thygeson was NROTC Battalion Commander during the past year. Brother Phil Skinner will continue his shutterbugging again this year as the photography editor of the Badger yearbook.

It's rumored that Wisconsin is again to have co-ed cheerleading for football this fall; Delt cheerleaders Don Jefferson and Bob Cotanch, it was said, were quite happy to hear this. Another of the campus leaders that are keeping Beta Gamma on campus in big-time style is John Waggoner; John is chairman of the Wisconsin Rings Committee.

The spring semester was full of all-campus activities which Beta Gamma enthusiastically took part in. We went together with the Chi Omegas for the campus humor production, Humorology, and with the Kappa Kappa Gammas for Campus Carnival. Although we didn't win any trophies, we made lots of new friends and had a real great time working and laughing together.

LES KLEVAY (left), recipient of Wisconsin's outstanding Senior Award, and DON HOFFMAN, Co-chairman of Guides and other honors.

The Delt Chorus worked hard in preparation for Tournament of Song and, with Wayne Stoltz as director, we took third in the fraternity division. The Delt softball team also scored for good ole Beta Gamma and brought home a first place in its division. Another climaxing chapter achievement for the spring semester was our racing to a third place in the Interfraternity Track Meet. Brother Dennis Wyszynski was a star in the event. Dennis was also on the Wisconsin freshman baseball team.

The social year was gloriously climaxed with the Spring Formal titled "Undersea Fantasy."

smiled at his audience, and started to turn. I was standing on a chair yelling as loud as anyone else and was able to see the pleased expression on his face.

Barkley stopped in mid-turn. An indescribable expression flashed across his face. Then he slumped and fell to the platform. The ovation stopped as suddenly as it had begun. No one was sure what had happened. Half the people in the audience hadn't seen him fall in the enthusiasm of their cheering.

The faces of the officials on the platform with him clouded with a mixture of fear, anxiety, and disbelief. Someone quickly called for a doctor.

The time was 5:13.

I sat down, a numb feeling creeping over my body. The only thought that came to my mind was the same thought in everyone's mind. "What has happened to him?"

People mumbled in confusion, yet the hall was deathly quiet compared to a few seconds ago. Oxygen was quickly brought up to the stand and administered. There wasn't a doctor in the house, but one was on the way, the announcement was made.

Mrs. Barkley knelt by her husband's head. She was the closest to him, yet she was perfectly calm and collected. No crying or hysterics. Photographers were trying to take pictures only to be waved back by state police when Mrs. Barkley cried out, "No pictures please!"

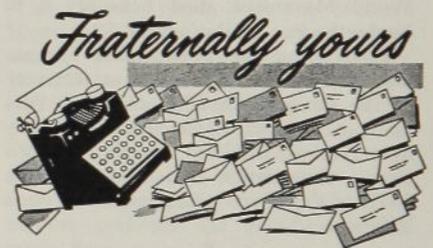

Finally a doctor and ambulance arrived. It was now 5:20, yet it had seemed like an eternity. The doctor felt for Senator Barkley's pulse, then turned to Mrs. Barkley and made her sit down. Now the fear that he was dead spread all over the gymnasium. Convention Hall was still hushed.

Then Mayor Holstine of Lexington called for everyone to stand and pray. The beloved "Veep" was dead.

After the prayers, everyone began to walk slowly outside. Newspaper men were running all over the place. Every phone was tied up. What had started out as a fourth page feature was now headline news. Except for them, few people spoke above a whisper. The laughter and life of fifteen minutes ago had been replaced by gloom and death.

As long as I live, I'll never forget those last words of Senator Alben Barkley. "I would rather be a servant in the House of the Lord than sit in the seat of the Mighty."

Somehow I feel his wish has come true. "The Veep," who for 50 years was a servant in the world of man, is now a servant in the House of the Lord.

Decatur, Illinois
July 9, 1956

I got a real kick out of THE RAINBOW's treatment of the BIG TEN and the little ten chapters' scholarship ratings (June, 1956).

It is high time the fraternities at the national office level start insisting on performance at the campus level, scholastically.

Chapters are like departments of a business. The immediate heads of the operation lead their subordinates into being images of the top; frequently, those at the top hire only people they feel can be made into satellites. . . .

But it seems to me job one is to accept the challenge and get the little ten moving upward. Then you can go after the next smallest ten. . . .

The Delta Creed

- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta for the education of youth and the inspiration of maturity, so that I may better learn and live the truth.
- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta as a shrine of international brotherhood: her cornerstone friendship, her foundation conscience, her columns aspiration, her girders self-restraint, her doorway opportunity, her windows understanding, her buttresses loyalty, her strength the Everlasting Arms.
- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta as an abiding influence to help me do my work, fulfill my obligations, maintain my self-respect, and bring about that happy life wherein I may more truly love my fellow men, serve my country, and obey my God.

CREDITABLE SCHOLARSHIP is of vital importance to the continued existence of the fraternity system. It is far from being an unattainable ideal, as may be witnessed by the splendid record in scholarship made by many of our chapters. It may readily be achieved by individual effort on the part of our pledges and initiates, to the point where a lasting tradition of acceptable scholarship becomes a hallmark in the life of the chapter.

From the Report of the
Supervisor of Scholarship,
FRANCIS M. HUGHES (now
President) to the Sixty-third
Karnea
