C. D. Russell Retires as Vice-President and Secretary of Western Reserve

By CLEMENS R. FRANK, Western Reserve, '19, and REXFORD C. HYRE, Western Reserve, '61.

ALTHOUGH there was little time between the announcement of the retirement of C. D. Russell, Western Reserve, '19, as Vice-President and Secretary of Western Reserve University, and his departure for Florida, the Cleveland alumni and the undergraduate members of Zeta Chapter felt that a dinner meeting should be held in his honor. With the help of Dean Russell A. Griffin, Hillsdale, '28, Dean of Students at Western Reserve, who obtained the use of the University cafeteria, and Edward V. Henckel, Jr., Western Reserve, '28, who took charge of attendance and finance, a banquet was arranged for January 12. Some 125 Delts, including the undergraduate members of Zeta Chapter, assembled in the Red Room of the University cafeteria to participate in an informal program to pay tribute to Mr. Russell.

C. D., as he is known to all his friends, came back to Western Reserve in 1948, as financial Vice-President and Secretary of the University. Previously he had served as associate counsel for the B. F. Goodrich Company, of Akron, Ohio. At one time he was engaged in the practice of law with the Cleveland firm of White, Cannon, and Spieth. He was graduated from Adelbert College of Western Reserve in 1919 and later received a bachelor of laws degree from the Western Reserve School of Law.

Mr. Russell served the Fraternity, among numerous other capacities, as chapter adviser of Zeta Chapter for many years. He has also been a frequent attendee and active participant in many Division Conferences and Karneas. His advice and counsel have been willingly contributed whenever sought by undergraduates and alumni alike. In recognition of his service to the Fraternity, he was elected to the Distinguished Service Chapter in 1939, exactly 20 years to the day (January 12, 1939) prior to the banquet honoring him upon his retirement.

Following an excellent dinner, the informal program for the evening, consisting of Delt songs and brief personal reminiscences about C. D. and his lasting interest in the Fraternity, took place. Clemens R. Frank served as master of ceremonies. Brother Frank introduced the distinguished Delt faculty members who were present, including Dean Griffin; Clarence H. Cramer, Ohio State, '28, Dean of Adelbert College; Robert H. Stewart, Western Reserve, '36; and Edward W. Lewis, Western Reserve, '49. One of the memorable features of the evening was the presence of Ike Watts, Western Reserve, '03, who was chapter adviser to Zeta Chapter when C. D. entered Western Reserve in 1915, and H. K. Bell, Western Reserve, '16, who was president of Zeta Chapter at that time. Also present was the oldest living Zeta alumnus, Charles A. Morris, Western Reserve, '02.

Several members of Zeta Chapter who were undergraduates with Brother Russell, including Dr. James Villani, '21; John C. McConnell, '22; and Harold Bell, '16, related anecdotes of C. D.'s college days to the assembled Delts. Among the many felicitations received and read were those of Ohio's Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt, Wooster, '12; C. W. Portman, Western Reserve, '20; N. Ray Carroll, Western Reserve, '08, former President of the Fraternity; Howard D. Mills, Western Reserve, '18, Treasurer of the Fraternity; Hugh Shields, Indiana, '26, Executive Vice-President of the Fraternity.

NIC Elects Reynolds Treasurer

AT THE ANNUAL session of the National Interfraternity Conference, held at Atlanta's Biltmore Hotel in December, former President of the Fraternity, Joel W. Reynolds, Tufts, '23, was elected treasurer of the Conference. The election of Mr. Reynolds represented another advancement in positions for him with the Conference as he just completed a term as secretary of the Conference, which term followed one as a member of the executive committee. His service to the NIC is in keeping with Fraternity tradition, Delta Tau Delta having been a charter member of the NIC and having had three of its members serve as president of the Conference. The former Delts who served in this capacity were James B. Curtis, A. Bruce Bielaski, and Alvan E. Duerr.

The official delegates for Delta Tau Delta were Joel W. Reynolds and President Francis M. Hughes. In addition to the two official delegates, the Fraternity was also represented by Executive Vice-President Hugh Shields, Secretary G. Sydney Lenfestey, and Editor Edwin H. Hughes, III.

Many other members of the Fraternity attended the Conference in capacities other than that of representatives of Delta Tau Delta. Among those representing undergraduate interfraternity councils from their respective schools were: Dick Jones, Gamma Tau, '58; Ray Warner, Gamma Psi, '59; Dick Dudden, Beta Tau, '60; John McKeever, Beta Epsilon, '60; T. J. Hall, Gamma Lambda, '59; Gene Mayer, Beta Mu, '60; Henry Beckley, Delta Nu, '59; David Belote, Beta Kappa, '60; Richard J. Sphon, Delta Beta, '59; Verrick O. French, Mu, '60; John Dean, Gamma Omicron, '59; and, Joe Kashner, Gamma Chi, '61.

Serving as representatives of Deans' Offices at the various colleges and universities were: Dean William Taylor, Beta Epsilon, '48, Dean of Men at Bowling Green State University; Dean Joseph D. Boyd, Beta Beta, '48, Dean of Men at Northwestern University; John D. Olafson, Alpha, '53, Assistant Dean of Men at Stetson University; Dean Russell A. Griffin, Kappa, '29, Dean of Students at Western Reserve University; Dean William Tate, Beta Delta, '25, Dean of Men at the University of Georgia; and James H. Lochary, Beta, '52, Assistant Dean of Men at Ohio University.

Karl Kashner, Beta Psi, '23, was in attendance at the Delt luncheon on Saturday noon, but for the purpose of visiting his son, Joe, undergraduate delegate from Kansas State, rather than as a delegate to the Conference. A number of the Atlanta alumni also attended several Conference sessions.

High lights of the Conference, in addition to the informative discussion sessions and the spirited business sessions, were the banquet addresses given on Friday and Saturday nights by Dr. Willis M. Tate, President of Southern Methodist University, and Dr. Frank A. Rose, President of the University of Alabama, respectively. Dr. Tate is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha and Dr. Rose a member of Kappa Alpha Order.

It was announced that the annual meeting for 1959 would be held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. This selection was made for the reason that it will be the 50th anniversary meeting and it was thought to be proper that the anniversary meeting be held in the city in which the NIC was born.

All in all, the Conference was most interesting and worth while. The discussion of mutual problems by the member fraternities, all of whom are working toward a common goal, is most helpful whether it be the answer to a problem which has been confronted, or the assurance that our own organization has been particularly effective and efficient in certain areas of endeavor.

Dr. Counts Receives Top Book Award

Dr. George S. Counts, Baker, '11, well-known American educator and author, has been awarded one of three 1958 American Library Association awards for his book, "The Challenge of Soviet Education." The $5,000 Liberty and Justice Award was presented for the most outstanding book on contemporary problems and affairs.

Dr. Counts is professor emeritus of Teachers College, Columbia University, and is the author of many books in the field of education. He is widely known for his activities in the National Education Association. He has been a member of the United States Educational Mission to Japan and has made several visits to Russia for the purpose of studying the educational system there.

The American Library Association Award is one of the highest annual literary awards conferred in the United States. Dr. Counts is the author of 24 books and monographs in the field of education, both national and international. He is also a noted lecturer and authority on the subject of the Soviet system of education.

Distinguished Service Chapter Cites Dr. Ebright

F. C. LEITNAKER (left) reads Citation. Seated are Mrs. EBRIGHT and Dr. EBRIGHT. Standing with Mr. Leitnaker are JOHN RUBOW, PHIL JONES, SAM HIGDON, and Dr. GORDON THOMPSON.

On the evening of November 23, 1958, Dr. Homer Kingsley Ebright, Baker, '00, was cited to membership in the Distinguished Service Chapter. The Citation was presented to Dr. Ebright by F. C. Leitnaker, Baker, '19, at a surprise banquet held in his honor at the Masonic Temple, Baldwin City, Kansas.

Following is the text of the Citation:

HOMER KINGSLEY EBRIGHT
Gamma Theta, '00

Teacher, Author, Minister, Man of God, whose daily life has been a living exemplification of The Delt Creed;

former District Governor of Rotary International; for more than half a century a beloved Delt who has given unselfishly of himself and his means to help build better men; his influence has spread far beyond the bounds of Gamma Theta Chapter; to Delt's everywhere he is hailed affectionately as "Uncle Ho."

The main speaker at the banquet was Dr. Gordon B. Thompson, Baker, '05, a close friend of Dr. Ebright for over 50 years, and father of Gordon S. (Bish) Thompson, Baker, '35. In addition to the 150 Gamma Theta undergraduates and alumni present, Dr. W. J. Scarborough, President of Baker University, also attended the banquet.

CHARTER GRANTED FOR NEW CHAPTER

. . . 88th Chapter to Be Installed at University of Arizona

ON JANUARY 31, 1959, the Arch Chapter voted to grant a charter to The Crescent Club at the University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona. The Crescent Club was established in the fall of 1957, and since that date its members have established a fine record of accomplishment towards being accepted as a chapter of the Fraternity. The dates for the installation of the new chapter, to be designated as Epsilon Epsilon, have been set for April 10 and 11, 1959. It will become the 88th undergraduate chapter of the Fraternity, and will replace Epsilon Delta Chapter, Texas Technological College, as the youngest chapter of Delta Tau Delta.

The University of Arizona is a co-educational, state controlled school with its campus situated in Tucson. First chartered in 1885, instruction was first commenced in 1891. In the fall of 1954 the enrollment at the University was 5,753, of which 3,856 were men. The University includes schools of agriculture, home economics, business and public administration, education, engineering, fine arts, music, liberal arts, mines, pharmacy, and law.

The University includes a total area of 90 acres. The oldest structure on the campus, Old Main Building, dates from 1891, and is an outstanding example of functional Southwestern architecture. Many of the buildings, including administration buildings, library, student union, the women's dormitory, and several of the class buildings, are air conditioned. The year 1956 saw the completion of a new men's dormitory, a new College of Fine Arts building (which includes a little theatre, recital halls, and an art gallery), and a new biological science building. All three of these new buildings are air conditioned.

Delt alumni from the Tucson area, interested in the establishment of the new chapter, rented a property for occupancy by The Crescent Club beginning last September first. They also raised sufficient funds to purchase some necessary equipment for the property and to redecorate the interior of the house.

The combinations of a progressive, growing university; an enthusiastic and loyal group of local Delt alumni; an energetic and capable nucleus of undergraduates; and an expanding and developing geographical area, operate to create an optimistic picture for the future of Epsilon Epsilon Chapter.

All members of the Fraternity, undergraduate and alumni alike, who can manage to be in Tucson on the 10th and 11th of April, will be treated to an inspiring and long-to-be-remembered event in the installation of our newest chapter. Those of you who will not be able to attend in person, will certainly want to send your messages of welcome and congratulations to your new brothers.

C. D. Russell Retires

ty; and several other members of the Arch Chapter.

The program was concluded with a presentation of a scroll to Brother Russell, in appreciation for his many years of service to his Fraternity and to his fellow men, which reads as follows:

TO CLARE DEWITT RUSSELL

as a tribute for four decades of outstanding service to his Fraternity and to his University. He has given lifelong allegiance, loyalty, and support to Delta Tau Delta and used his membership as an opportunity to assist undergraduates and inspire alumni throughout our entire national organization. Zeta Chapter and Western Reserve University are honored to claim him as their son.

Given under our seal, January 12, 1959.

The scroll was signed by I. R. Watts; Gerald R. Hejduk, president of Zeta Chapter; Edward V. Henckel; and Clemens R. Frank.

The spontaneous tribute that came from the entire assemblage demonstrated that the words in the scroll were not mere general, complimentary phrases, but were built on specific and accurate facts. C. D. Russell is proof that friendships made in our Fraternity are among the most lasting and most valued, and that the relationship between alumni and undergraduates can be a significant factor in our system of higher education.

The impressions of one undergraduate were expressed as follows: that if one man has embodied the ideals set forth in The Delta Creed, and is the personification of the Good Delt, it is C. D. Russell. All who know, and have known, this Good Delt, are quick to share in this expression.

Work Is Play for "Cap Sauers"

IN THE PRESENT-DAY trend toward urbanization, it has become necessary to make a conscious effort to preserve our natural forests. All governmental units, from the Federal government's national parks' systems to the small town's park, share in the program. At times we are inclined to take the results of such work for granted. We are reminded of what is being accomplished only when we read statistics of the number of acres of national parks, state forest preserves, and city parks which comprise the total acreage of the nation. Visits to the various parks arouse a sense of appreciation for such programs. Many states, Indiana for one, have developed a wonderful system of state parks. These

Cunningham Becomes Vice-President at University of California

WITH DELT CHAPTERS located on three of the campuses of the University of California, the appointment of Thomas J. Cunningham, U.C.L.A., '28, as Vice-President and general counsel is of special interest. The appointment was announced by President Clark Kerr following the November meeting of the Regents.

The new Vice-President has served as general counsel of the Board of Regents of the University of California for the past three years and was a former Superior Court Judge of Los Angeles County.

Judge Cunningham was born and educated in Los Angeles, and was graduated with honors at U.C.L.A. in 1928. While in college he was student body president and commencement speaker. He represented Delta Iota Chapter in 1928 at the Dixie Karnea, in Atlanta, Georgia. He earned his law degree at the University of Southern California in 1931.

In announcing the appointment, President Kerr said, "Judge Cunningham will assume broader legal and administrative duties for all campuses of the University, both present and planned, as one important step in the University's administrative development to meet the expansion needed to accommodate enrollments expected in 1965 and 1970, which will more than double the present size of the University."

Vice-President Cunningham served as a member of the California State Legislature for two terms, 1935 and 1937. He has been on the faculty at U.C.L.A. for two periods—first as a lecturer in education in 1931, and second as an assistant professor of

Everything That We Make Is Thrown Away

. . . The Theory for R. Carl Chandler's Success

HAVE YOU ever heard the story of how the founder of one of the nation's leading manufacturers of safety razor blades got his start? Apparently, R. Carl Chandler, Emory, '41, has. The tale has been told that when this certain young man was trying to decide what business to go into, he decided to start at the beginning of the dictionary and go through it until he came upon the name of a product that everybody used but that lacked permanence, in order that they would have to keep coming back to him time after time for replacements. Actually, before he got far enough through his assignment the idea came to him in another way. In those days men shaved with a straight razor. These razors had to be sharpened from time to time, and usually at the most inconvenient time. Once, when caught with a razor that needed sharpening at such an inconvenient moment, the idea came to him of producing an inexpensive blade for shaving that could be thrown away when it became dull. Thus, was the Gillette razor blade company started.

It would seem that Carl Chandler, often called "Hap," has done Mr. Gillette one better. Hap heads Standard Packaging, which makes material for trays that can be cooked, bags that can be boiled. In this day and age of TV dinners, he has hit upon something very much in demand. It is his philosophy that with domestic help more and more difficult to get, with families tending to become larger, with so many women now working outside the home, convenience foods will become more and more in demand.

The business theory and philosophy of Hap Chandler seem to be sound in the light of the growth of Standard. From 1955 to 1958, the company's sales enjoyed a growth from $24 million to $64 million. In a period of three years he has acquired ten companies, and recently completed purchase of the eleventh. He is constantly working on new designs and new products, but with the theory always the same. When he took over management of Standard, it was a slow-moving manufacturer of milk bottle tops. Since the switch to "convenience" living and disposable paper products, the pace of the company has picked up considerably.

Following his graduation from Emory University in 1941, Hap Chandler spent four years in the Navy. In 1946 he started working in paper production. He was a sales vice-president of Union Bag Company and a director of 13 companies, including Standard Packaging, before assuming the position of head of Standard in 1955.

This young Delt manufacturer has a business philosophy that has served him in good stead. It would appear to be safe to assume that with such a keen insight into the consumer's desires, Hap Chandler will continue to create a successful role for his company in the field of manufacturing.

A Chuckle From "Bish"

THERE IS, in Evansville, Indiana, a certain columnist for The Evansville Press named Gordon S. Thompson. Mr. Thompson's column is entitled "Bish Says," taken from the nickname by which he has commonly been known since his college days at Baker, the college from which he was graduated in 1935. Bish Thompson is well-known, not only in southern Indiana, but in journalistic circles across the nation, for his fine sense of humor and for his affection for his favorite topic—people. In 1957 he was awarded the annual Scripps-Howard Ernie Pyle Memorial Award (see the March, 1957, issue of THE RAINBOW). In his column of Monday, January 5, 1959, Bish wrote of a visit he and his former college roommate, Benjamin A. Totten, Baker, '36, made to Delta Phi Chapter at Florida State. The visit was for the purpose of seeing Ben's son, Ben, Jr., a pledge at Delta Phi. We enjoyed reading the column so much that we would like to reprint it here in order that all readers of THE RAINBOW may have the opportunity to share in this "chuckle from Bish." The column:

Did someone mention zeal and fidelity?

No eunuch ever guarded a caliph's harem with the puncture-proof loyalty employed by college men charged with protection of their Greek letter secrets.

This I know now.

Primarily, it was all Ben's fault.

Ben Totten, as Adhesive Reader may recall, was my roommate in the Delta Tau house at Baker University (somewhere in Kansas) roughly a quarter-century ago.

For reasons that will never be clear to me (for in our youth I was smarter than he) Ben made a pile early and now fiddle-faddles around with non-arduous but pleasantly lucrative pursuits in and around Fort Walton Beach, Fla.

When opportunity presents, I visit him. I did so en route home from New Orleans in December.

"Great News!" greeted old Roomie (only now he spells it "Rheumie"). "Ben Jr. has pledged Delt at Florida State, Tomorrow we must drive over and see him in the Shelter."

His enthusiasm, both paternal and fraternal, was so effervescent I could not say him no. Anyway, I'd never been to Tallahassee. Only about 180 miles, a mere hop-skip around the Gulf edge.

Once on the hallowed premises we discovered time has not changed the traditional undergrad-Old Boy relationship. Hearty welcomes were generated, accompanied by knuckle-crunching cordiality. We howdied and shook with Brothers in sweatshirts, BVDs, sports attire, neat-look suits and pink skin as we toured the house.

We laughed as uproariously at the boys' forced pleasantries as they did ours. Brotherhood demands certain amenities, now as then.

At dinner the High Gazaybo announced a frat meeting at 7 p.m. Would we care to sit in? I thought Ben would explode with delight. The prospect rather tickled me, too.

In the Outer Chambers the roof fell in.

We were challenged by a stern-faced youth. He put to me certain queries that made no sense at all. I grabbed Ben and we retired to a private nook.

"Ben, for Pete's sake, give me the Word."

"I've forgotten it. I thought you'd remember."

"Well . . . think, man, think. This is terrible."

Between us we came up with enough Greekisms and mysterious gestures to . . . well, we didn't breeze through the ordeal but at least we showed we knew too much to be thrown out on our ear.

There was still a modicum of doubt in the mind of the Exalted Doorkeeper, that was apparent, but after a long and earnest conference with the Powers Within, he flung the portal.

Once inside we managed.

At the risk of laying myself open to penalties too terrible to contemplate, I'd like to report to other Antiqua Fraters of the Threadbare Thirties that in at least one respect fraternity life has not changed a whit. I refer to a house rule spread on the minutes that memorable night by Delta Phi Chapter of Delta Tau Delta:

"There shall be at least one light bulb of no less than 25 watts burning in the recreation room during date hours."

Good boys!

CUNNINGHAM NAMED VICE-PRESIDENT

military science and tactics in 1941-43.

During World War II he served in both the American and European theaters. He became a colonel in the infantry, and was awarded a Legion of Merit.

In 1947 he was appointed by Governor Earl Warren to the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, and in 1949 was presiding judge of the Domestic Relations Department. In the latter post he received national recognition for his work in reconciliations.

Vice-President and General Counsel Cunningham served as a regent of the University of California from 1953 to 1955, when he was president of the U.C.L.A. Alumni Association.

The new vice-president holds membership in professional and civic organizations, including the Alameda County Bar Association, State Bar of California, American Bar Association, Bar of the Supreme Court of the United States, American Judicature Society, the American Academy of Political and Social Science, Commonwealth Club of California, and the Citizens Legislative Advisory Commission of California. He is also a director of the California Institute of Cancer Research. His fraternity affiliations, in addition to Delta Tau Delta, include Phi Delta Phi (legal), Pi Sigma Alpha (national political science) and Pi Kappa Delta (national forensic).

Earnshaw Added To Field Staff

WILLIAM R. EARNSHAW, Emory, '57, who completed his requirements for a degree in December, was appointed to the field staff of the Fraternity on a full-time basis just prior to the first of the year.

Bill is a former president of Beta Epsilon Chapter and has served previously, on a part-time basis, as field secretary in charge of Regional Office operations in Atlanta.

Bill's appointment to the field staff does not represent an addition in the number of field secretaries, as Field Secretary LYNN A. WATSON, Pittsburgh, '57, terminated his duties as of December 31, 1958, because of military service.

Here's a golden opportunity.

It's for you—and for Delta Tau Delta.

Many good colleges and universities—top-flight, old-line institutions—are anxious to see new Delt chapters on their campuses.

Delta Tau Delta should be represented on these campuses, not by poor or mediocre chapters in sub-standard housing, but by strong chapters situated in housing competitive with other good national fraternities.

This requires a capital fund. Experienced businessmen serving on the Arch Chapter recommended the establishment of the Delta Tau Delta Centennial Development Fund as a means of providing this money. The 1956 Karnea unanimously adopted the Fund as a part of the Fraternity's fiscal structure. Hundreds of Delts have already made pledges to be a part of this important project.

Join with us now. Fill in the coupon and mail it with your check—our efficient Central Office will remind you when future payments come due.

Make checks payable to Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

(NOTE: If you have an unpaid balance in your Loyalty Fund account, your first payments to the Centennial Development Fund will be credited against that balance to make you a paid-up Life Member of Delta Tau Delta.)

THE DELT CHAPTERS

Alabama

As spring approaches, Delta Eta finds itself very busy. We have had a successful fall and are expecting an even better spring. It is about this time of the year that thoughts at the University of Alabama turn to Jason's Jamboree, campus skit night. Delta Eta is trying for its eighth first place in the last ten years, and this year's skit looks like a winner.

The end of a semester always means initiation, and this year is no exception. This year we are welcoming 20 good Delts into the Fraternity. Pledge Dave Mauck will receive his badge from his father, a prominent businessman in Indiana. Dave is the eighth member of his family to become a Delt.

Brothers Gerry Waddell and Jim Dilworth continue to load themselves with honors as they were picked for Tau Beta Pi and O.D.K. Brother Jake Mentz topped them all by being picked for Phi Beta Kappa, O.D.K., Who's Who, and Jason's.

Delta Eta continues to lead the race for the all-sports trophy, as our football team finished second on campus. Both of our basketball teams are currently leading their respective leagues.

JIM PARNELL

Albion

Our winter sports are off to a fine start. To date the volleyball team and both the "A" and "B" basketball teams are undefeated. Epsilon could be on its way to another intramural all-sports trophy.

In varsity competition, Jim Taup and Gary Barnes helped Albion to a second-place finish in cross-country. Taup won the league meet to round out an awesome career as a distance runner. Bob Danforth, Richard Johnston, Bob Foss, Jim Gunn, and Louis Maceroni helped Albion capture the MIAA football crown. Bill Losey, a starting guard for the Albion Briton cage squad, is our only representative in that sport this year.

Epsilon elected Robert Bonfield as its president for 1959. Bob, a Grand Rapids junior, is sure to lead Epsilon in one of its finest years. Other officers include: Forrest Heaton, vice-president; Michael Dant, corresponding secretary; William Losey, recording secretary; Donald Morris, treasurer; and Charles McCaslin, assistant treasurer.

The annual Black and White formal will be held on February 7. The theme for the party is an oriental one. Dave Lindley has done an outstanding job this year as our social chairman. In December, Santa Claus made an early visit to the chapter as we staged a Christmas party for the underprivileged children of the community.

MICHAEL S. DANT

Allegheny

Alpha Delts have almost completed the first semester here at Allegheny and are expectantly awaiting rush week which starts February 3. Rush Chairman Bill Hrach has everything ready for the big week and we are looking forward to a good pledge class this year.

The rapidly approaching semester examinations have curtailed campus activities to a certain extent, but Delts are still being recognized for outstanding work in campus life. Brothers Dick Smith, Bruce Bell, and Pete Peterson were selected for the Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. They were among six Allegheny men chosen for this honor. Brothers Bill Hrach and Bob McCreary were recently initiated into the Don Blyth Squadron of the Arnold Air Society, AFROTC honor fraternity. Brother Fred King was elected to the office of treasurer in the same organization.

Alpha's traditional Christmas Pine Dance was held shortly before vacation and was well attended by many representatives of the other social groups on campus as well as a generous sprinkling of the faculty. The weather co-operated, snow falling just in time to combine with the Shelter's lavish decorations to create a perfect Christmas scene. Boughs from over 200 pine trees decked the halls of Alpha and the usual Christmas decorations, including the popular pig's head, greeted Santa Claus Joel Dyckes when he appeared to present gifts to those present.

In recent elections the following were elected: Bill Hrach, president; Al Berkebile, vice-president; John Gschwendtner, treasurer; Al Love, recording secretary; Bob McCreary, corresponding secretary; and Dick Smith, pledge master.

Housemother Mrs. Inez Thompson has been most conspicuous by her absence since Christmas vacation. Mrs. Thompson was forced to resign due to ill health. The gratitude of Alpha Chapter for her years of fine service was displayed at a banquet held in her honor immediately preceding Christmas vacation.

BOB MCCREARY

Auburn

The old year had a fine send-off at Epsilon Alpha. The 1958 edition of the annual Christmas party was one of the best on record.

The Delt tradition of producing outstanding leaders was upheld when Brothers Sonny Clingan, Bob Lynn, and Frank Price were named for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. These men have been outstanding on campus as well as in the Fraternity.

The commencement of the winter quarter found Epsilon Alpha in the midst of winter rush week. The social and rush chairmen planned a fine round of parties for the week of January 12. The final stand of this rush was a barbecue at the Shangri-La Lodge which Mr. I. J. Scott, Sr., Auburn, so graciously allowed the chapter to use. Several top-notch men were pledged as a result of the winter effort.

Initiation for the fall pledge class was an event of January 25. After the ceremony the new Delts were served a banquet and enjoyed an address by Bryan W. Johnson, Auburn, president of the Epsilon Alpha house corporation.

GEORGE FOZZARD

Baker

The Distinguished Service Chapter Citation presented to Dr. Homer K. Ebright, Baker '00, at a Thanksgiving banquet in his honor was the biggest event of the year for Gamma Theta. Introduced and presented by the active chapter, the banquet entertained about 100 alumni and undergraduate chapter members. Besides the Citation, a gift of a $100 bill enclosed in an engraved billfold was presented the long-honored and respected Brother.

Brother Lyle Haberbosch, senior end on Baker's conference championship football team, was elected by a unanimous vote to the all-conference team and was presented second team all-Methodist honors by Together Magazine. Other Gamma Theta Delts: Jim Paramore, sophomore back; Jim Lee, senior end; and Carl Anderson, senior tackle, received second team all-conference honors while Bud Spear, sophomore guard, earned honorable mention.

In varsity basketball the Delts again dominate the squad. Three Gamma Theta men: Jim Lee, senior guard; Jim Kean, junior forward; and John Rubow, junior forward, hold down starting berths, while Richard McDowell, Bud Spear, and Lewis Roller are included in the first ten.

In intramurals the Delts swept to championships in both "A" and "B" team volleyball to give us the lead in the drive toward the intramural sweepstakes trophy awarded at years-end and won the last six years by Gamma Theta Chapter.

Basketball is the next sport and Gamma Theta has plenty of fine material which we hope will carry us to championships in both "A" and "B" divisions.

Aspirations are soaring in our quest for a new Shelter. The house committee has met several times the last few months, plans for ground breaking have been made, and work is moving forward as fast as red tape will permit. It is hoped that by this time next year we will have transferred quarters to our long-awaited new Shelter.

The annual Christmas formal was enjoyed by the Chapter on December 13. Decorations of evergreen trees, silver bells, Christmas wreaths, and a large Christmas card were arranged for the evening's entertainment, and the "Five Scamps" were on hand to furnish the music.

Another annual Christmas tradition, the father-son gift exchange, was observed the day before school dismissed for vacation. A Christmas feast was served and holiday festivities reigned throughout the Chapter.

Gamma Theta's officers for the coming year have been elected, with Jim Kean heading the group as president. The vice-president post went to Sophomore Bud Spear. We are certain that these men will give adequate leadership in keeping Gamma Theta in its traditional place of tops on the Baker campus.

G. D. BLACKWOOD, JR.

Bowling Green

Heading for the second semester, and freshman rushing, the Delts at Bowling Green got off on a holiday spirit at our annual Winter Formal. The formal was held at the Elks Club in nearby Findlay. Highlighting the evening was the presentation of Delta Tau's Delt Sweetheart for 1958. Judy Herhold, Delta Gamma, Kent State University, was chosen as our sweetheart.

At the annual interfraternity swimming meet this year, the Delts placed third. Bill Harp gathered our only first place by winning the diving with a total of over 100 points. The billiards tournament is now in progress and Brother Ken Kjoller is the man to beat after he won the first two rounds with ease. Keith Friemark won the fraternity wrestling crown in the unlimited division. BG's varsity wrestling team, which has won its first three meets, has three Delts who have not lost an individual match this year. John Smith, who was a finalist in the 1956 Olympic tryouts, has pinned every one of his opponents. Over in the swimming pool, four Delts are paving the way for another Mid-American crown for Bowling Green.

Ken Kjoller was recently initiated into Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's honorary. This makes the fourth Delt in as many years to become an ODK member. With rushing coming up, we are making plans to obtain the best pledge class ever. Following our rush parties for the freshmen in late November, we had an open house on Sunday. The word around campus proved favorable towards us, indicating a possible fine spring pledge class.

With finals just around the corner, the Delts are hitting the books and looking forward to rushing, which begins the second week in February.

TOM LINDY

Brown

Another semester is drawing to a close. In the latter part of the fall, John McTigue ended his college football career after three seasons as starting right half. Other Delts on the team, Paul Krause and Tom Henderson, also gave much support to the team and will be returning next year. The indoor track team this winter will feature Red Connor in the quarter mile and the relay. After a layoff of two years in the service, he is rapidly returning to top form. Ritchie Caputo will also be demonstrating his ability in the sprints and the broad jump.

At the end of the semester, thoughts naturally turn to grades, and we are again assured of a fine showing. This year we have organized study teams in an attempt to bolster interest in grades, and some of our seniors have been particularly outstanding. John McTigue and Ken Crossland, on a team led by Bill Hayes, have been an inspiration to all. They have been pressed hard by other teams, however, mainly the one led by Roger Kostmayer.

The fall social season was a success with many excellent parties at the Shelter. The winter and spring promise as much with many parties being planned—the high light to be, of course, spring week end.

Rush, which has been postponed to April, promises no little success. Rush Chairman Bill Hayes has been very active in assuring us of the opportunity to choose from the finest freshmen on campus.

So far this year we have been pleased with the number of men returning to visit the Chapter and hope as many will be free to visit us in the spring.

DOUGLAS CROWE

Butler

As the first semester of the current school year draws to a close, Beta Zeta has a successful fall and winter season to look back on. Due to Chapter enthusiasm and Coach Bill Thompson, our athletic endeavors have put us near the top in the all-university intramural standings. Joe Reynolds and his rush team successfully acquired 25 pledges. Paul Furnish, chapter president, Blue Key, and biological science major, captained Butler's football team to an 8-1 record, and received the Williamson's little All-American award for the second straight year. Exchange dinners and socials with every campus sorority in the fall semester are the credit of the very sociable social chairman, Donald Fine. Brother Fine was also chosen B.M.O.C. by an all-sorority election. In the first of interfraternity competitive events this year, the Delts took first place in homecoming float competition. We are looking forward to Geneva Stunts and Interfraternity Sing, which we have won 18 times in 24 years. Tom Siorek and chapter humorist, Bob Parsons, won the intramural ping-pong doubles. Ralph Generali took first place in the 100-meter breaststroke and Pledge Jim Craig won the diving competition. The Christmas dance, sponsored by the pledges, was a complete success. The punch, made by our wonderful housemother, Mrs. A. J. Perry, was the talk of everyone attending. The Delts sponsored a party for underprivileged children, with the assistance of the Police Athletic League. Their presents were enjoyed equally well by the brothers. We are all looking forward to the coming year when we will enter our brand new chapter house. The new house, which will be only 150 yards north of the present Shelter, will provide facilities for a 70-man chapter. Ron Davis was also elected to the Hume-Mansur Society, an honorary for senior accountants. Ron is past treasurer.

CHARLES SPIKET

California

Social life reached a high point this fall semester. Parties were prevelant during the mid-semester period, and our Chapter became well known around campus as the center of activity. One of the most successful parties held was the Boat Party. Along with the Psi Upsilon, we rented a boat and cruised San Francisco bay while dancing and singing on board. Everyone had a wonderful time. High light, however, of the social season was the big hoedown held on the ranch of "Buck" Riley, of Colusa, California.

Not to be outdone by the social committee, our scholarship committee worked hard. Under the able leadership of Dave Grether, the committee not only promoted good study habits and surroundings but also instituted a revised study program for the pledges. This new program really paid off, for every pledge not only developed excellent study habits but also received tremendous mid-term grades.

Elections were held January 12, and the following men will take office this spring: Jerry Christie, president; Dick Dumke, vice-president; Dick Thinger, treasurer; Ned Salisbury, house manager; Kevin Scarpelli, recording secretary; and Gary Wulfsberg, corresponding secretary. With these new officers forming a nucleus of great potential, our Chapter is certain to reap the benefits to be gained through their leadership.

JOHN HENROTIN

Carnegie Tech

Since the beginning of the fall semester, many Delts have become prominent in scholastic and athletic achievements on campus.

Jim Linduff, who has been active in many intramural sports on campus, was elected president of the Intramural Managers Club. This club is the governing body of the intramural athletics department. Jim is a junior in the industrial management department and has been the organizer of all the athletic teams for the Chapter.

Richard Spohn was rewarded for his efforts during the intramural football season by receiving the defensive half-back position on the all-school team. Gary Adams received honorable mention at defensive halfback. Dick is a senior mechanical engineer and has been active in many athletic, scholastic, and extracurricular activities. He is also a member of Tau Beta Pi, the senior honorary. Gary is a junior in industrial management and has been active in many sports for the Chapter.

With basketball season now in full swing, we are looking for a good season as we have all of our starters back from last year's team. We won our first game over a strong opponent and feel we have one of the stronger teams on campus. We have many potential starters from our pledge class, including Paul Lang, who is playing for the freshman team.

Merle King, a junior chemical engineer, became a member of Delta Schull, the junior honorary. Merle was also given an award from the chemical engineering department for being the top man in his class for his first two years at Tech.

J. G. METRO

Cincinnati

The Cincinnati Delts have relinquished the title of having the "coolest" house on campus, now that the addition is near completion and the wind can no longer blow through the holes in the walls. The new title of the best house on campus can aptly apply to the Gamma Xi Shelter.

On campus, Dave Wortendyke was initiated into Eta Kappa Nu honorary.

Dale Heckmann was elected as chairman of the Campus Action Party, a newly formed student political party.

Gordon Sine was tapped by the Delt Pillars at the annual Christmas formal in December. The Pillars is composed of the outstanding workers in the Chapter. Scholarship and campus activities are considered.

Shortly before Christmas the pledge class painted holiday scenes on the windows of the wards in Cincinnati's Children's Hospital. The Chapter, in conjunction with the La Sertoma Club, entertained handicapped children at a party during the past Christmas season. This is the second straight year the men of the Chapter have contributed their time and efforts in this way.

JACK A. VEDRA

Colorado

Here at Beta Kappa the elections for new Chapter officers have just been held. Our new president is Bill Reynolds, a junior in business school. Bill's freshman year was filled with accomplishments. He was pledge class president and also president of junior interfraternity council. As a sophomore, he was a member of Phi Epsilon Phi, the sophomore men's honorary. He has just been initiated into Delta Sigma Pi, the business school's honorary. Bill is also in Naval R.O.T.C.

The other newly elected officers are John Wittemyer, vice-president; Roger Miercourt, corresponding secretary; Bryan Bomberg, recording secretary; and Fritz Lueter, business manager.

Intramurally, the Deltas are very close to being in first place. Out of 24 fraternities, we won first place in football, third place in wrestling, and fourth place in water polo. Bob Weakley, a sophomore, managed to get into the tennis finals. At the present time, we're in second place for the all-University intramural trophy.

In varsity sports, six Deltas finished the football season and Boyd Dowler, the first-string quarterback, was a draft choice for the pros and played in the East-West game. The wrestling team boasts of three Deltas: Bill Bullard, Hank Brown, and Jim Copeland. Larry Stolarscyk and Boyd Dowler are on the track team. Gary Gisle, a member of the Buff ski team, rounds out the varsity athletes in the Chapter.

Socially, we have been quite active. Our Saint and Sinners Pledge formal, using two bands, was tops for entertainment for about 250 people. Before Christmas, our annual Delt-Pi Phi Orphans Party was held and nearly 40 children, ranging in ages from four to twelve, were entertained. Small gifts were given to the children and the Deltas and Pi Phis had as much fun as the children.

Beta Omicron is in the midst of a Chapter improvement program, with hopes that the oncoming rush period finds the Shelter in top condition. Our house manager, Clate Root, has acquired new furniture, rugs, and floor coverings, in addition to improving our present fire warning system. New Venetian blinds have been purchased and the interior repainted to harmonize with the new furnishings. A change in the University rushing program will result in an extended period of time within the house, thereby placing appearances at a premium, and we feel these improvements will strengthen our position and assist us in obtaining many good men this spring, besides making the Shelter a more comfortable place in which to live.

In the athletic field, Beta Omicron is currently undefeated in its interfraternity basketball contests with only a few games remaining on the schedule. Many of the brothers are beginning spring sports practice with Lou Nees and Tony Seaver out for crew, Tom Barney and Clate Root, sailing, Bill Huenefeld, lacrosse, and Joe Conroy, baseball. An interesting and amusing "sports" event took place this year when we played Tri-Delt in a mild game of flag football. The Deltas were seriously handicapped by hobbles, making it extremely difficult to out maneuver the hard-hitting girls. An exchange dinner and party followed the tie contest.

The Chapter is well represented in the activities field with Pete Eveleth recently elected to the University Student Council and Dave Berry to Hotel Ezra Cornell, the student-run hotel on campus. Jake Youngs is in charge of obtaining and selling the senior hats for his graduating class, while Bob Boehlecke and Junius Brown organized the highly successful Glee Club tour of six midwestern cities. The spring term will assuredly be as successful as the earlier part of the school year, especially with the addition of a new pledge class.

BRAD FRANKLIN

Dartmouth

October 3-4 was the week end of our alumni reunion, and all were happy to see more than 50 alumni, most of whom brought their wives and families, too, return to the Hanover Shelter for a week end of fun. There was a combo Friday night, a football game (in which Dartmouth edged Penn 13-12) Saturday afternoon, and a band that evening. Many classes were represented, but the best turnout was from '55, which returned in force. Everyone shared in the fun of renewing old acquaintances and making new ones within the Delt bonds.

The next big week end was November 7-8 house parties, when dates from all over the East and guests from other places arrived for the festivities. We had bands, parties, and general merriment, and the week end was highlighted by Dartmouth's 38-0 trouncing of Columbia, as the Big Green set sail for the Ivy League crown.

Jim Kennedy was named to the first team all-Ivy League soccer squad, while Captain Randy Malin was just nosed out for first-team goalie.

On December 10, right before Christmas vacation, we held our annual Kid-dies Christmas Party. Thirty selected 5-year-olds from the Hanover grammar school were our guests, and we entertained them royally with ice cream, cookies, entertainment by the brothers, and gifts from Santa Claus Mike Hurd. Our way of spreading cheer.

THOMAS V. SEESSEL

Delaware

Three brothers at Delta Upsilon have recently won distinction on the Delaware campus. Don Bruner, a junior chemical engineer, is the current mainstay of the varsity swimming team. He amassed 40 points in the first six meets of the current season, making him individual high scorer. Don swims the 220- and 440-yard free-style events. Coming to Delaware with no competition experience, he has won his letter award every year and was high scorer of his freshman team. Besides winning his freshman letter in lacrosse, Don is active in intramural sports and is Delt representative to the University intramural council. He also plays flute and piccolo in the university band.

Fred Grampp, a junior agriculture major, is currently one of the mainstays of the varsity wrestling team. Fred is engaged in his most successful season. Wrestling in the 137-pound class, he is undefeated, having won all his matches by pins. Coach Burnham predicts that if Fred continues to progress at his present rate, he is sure to be among the top contenders in the Middle Atlantic Conference wrestling championships. Fred does not limit his athletic ability to wrestling. Besides earning his letter in cross-country, he is vice-president of the University athletic council.

Delt distinctions are not confined to athletics. George Carlisle, junior history major, won the interfraternity Venture prose contest with a short story entitled Fragments. The story not only appeared in the University literary magazine but also won a silver bowl that will remain at the Shelter this term. George is publicity chairman for both the Fraternity and the Wesley Foundation. He is also corresponding secretary for Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity, a junior counselor, and a reporter for the Delaware Review, the University newspaper.

One of the high lights of the winter social season was the week end preceding the Christmas vacation. At the house party, Friday, December 12, Santa Claus, in the form of Brother Paul Wellborn, distributed gifts to the women. The presents consisted of pillowcases bearing the inscription, "No Parking!

Reserved for Delta Tau Delta." The following evening the Delts and their dates attended the University Christmas Dance in the new Student Center.

GEORGE CARLISLE

DePauw

Now, with 1958 past, Beta Beta is looking forward to finishing the 1958-59 school year as well as we have started it. After winning our league in IM football, we continued on to take second place in the play-offs, thus maintaining top position in intramurals. At this time, in basketball we are undefeated after six games, and are looking to a winning season here.

A singular thing happened when the Delts placed seven of their IM football team on the all-IM football team, three of them unanimous first-string choices. They are: Dave Portman, Jim Beard, and Jerry Morgan, first string, and Bob Summers, Lynn Neal, Mather Hatch, and John Steele.

DePauw's IM all-stars: HATCH, PORTMAN, BEARD, NEAL, and MORGAN.

In varsity athletics, Dick Cross, Keith Evans, Butch Colin, and Jim De Armond received letters in football. It was Cross's third letter in football and Evans' second. Steve Karstetter and Dave Broch received numerals from the freshman team.

In the Chapter itself, Bob Fauth has replaced Senior Jim McElwain as rush chairman. Working under him will be a committee consisting of Roger Martens, John Null, George Mendenhall, and Mike Hicks.

On campus, Beta Beta is well represented, with Joe Goddard on the school radio staff, Pete Kries in student senate, Jim Beard on the intramural board, Joe Noel and Phil Richardson on the yearbook staff, and Bob Blankenship on the Union Building board.

The well-known Delt quartet, which earlier in the year made trips to Missouri, Indiana, and Purdue, with the return of graduate student Dave Devos, made an unexpected appearance at our annual Christmas party. As usual, they were very well received.

Beta Beta's officers this past year were, seated: NEAL (vice-president) and McELWAIN (rush chairman). Standing: JOE NOEL (secretary), JIM BEARD (president), and JERRY MORGAN (treasurer).

Duke Delts in IFC Sing.

Delta Kappa pledges are, first row: MOTTERSHEAD, ROGERS, DOWDEN, HARRELSON, RITTS, DIX, and ELSAVER. Second row: WOOD, BLACKWOOD, WHITMORE, VICK, SLATER, ROBERTS, and MILNE. Third row: ENGBLY, WOOD, VINCENT, ALAN, SEYBERT, RUDIGER, SUPPLE, BARNHARDT, BIRMINGHAM, and KUN.

Our two most outstanding social events were our Christmas party, attended by most members of the faculty and featuring the annual Christmas reading by University President Humbert, and our Christmas party held for underprivileged children, at which the brothers had as good a time with the toys as did the children.

ROSS ROBERTS

Duke

The Duke Delts ended the first semester's social calendar with their annual Christmas Dance. This year it was held at the local Elk's Club, Steve Prevost serving as Santa Claus. The brothers exchanged useless gifts while the girls were given souvenir animals.

The first of February saw Delta Kappa entering its formal rush period. Several parties were planned during the short eight-day, IFC regulated rush. Among the better functions were a party with the Kappa Kappa Gammas from the University of North Carolina and a dance at the local American Legion hut. As usual, the Delts came up with an outstanding pledge class—one of the best on campus.

As this report goes in, the committee planning the 35th annual Delta Kappa "Queen Dance" is completing its work. On the agenda for the Queen Dance week end, to be held March 6 and 7, are a cabin party with a combo on Friday night, an open house, combo, and refreshments at the Delt section on Saturday afternoon, and the formal dance and banquet on Saturday night at the Carolina Inn in Chapel Hill. The Duke Ambassadors will play for the formal dance, decorations will be in an Hawaiian theme with fresh orchids flown to Durham especially for the occasion.

Our chapter newsletter has been mailed out, and we would like to ask that those alumni who didn't receive it, please let us know. Our alumni club, Deltay, is proving a valuable asset to the Duke Delts. Membership is ten dollars a year; this money can be used only for chapter room improvements and to pay for the alumni newsletter. All of you alumni who haven't joined yet, send in your check to Treasurer, Deltay Club, Box 4671, Duke Station, Durham, North Carolina.

Alumni visiting Delta Kappa lately have included Jack Beck, Ken Clark, Charlie Weinberg, Jim Matthews, and Fred LePage. We also have heard from Frank Camp and Bob Waller.

Delta Kappa is looking forward to a good spring, both socially and fraternally. We certainly would like to have our alumni drop by when in Durham.

LAIRD SLADE

Emory

During fall quarter, Beta Epsilon carried off several trophies and other honors on the campus. The excellent pledge program prepared most of the pledges for initiation and the rush committee attracted several outstanding men to pledge. The brothers and pledges came out in numbers to participate in the leading campus activities.

At the annual interfraternity sing, the Delt chorus took the trophy, singing The Navy Hymn, Dem Bones, and My Delta Queen, under the direction of Bill Kennedy. Sparked by Brother Flowers, the Chapter reaped another first-place trophy for collecting the most money per brother in the Empty Stocking Drive.

The early part of December brought with it a rugged schedule for the Chapter: not only the Empty Stocking Drive, but also the annual Christmas party at which a group of orphans was entertained; and the honor of a visit from several members of the Arch Chapter, who were attending the National Interfraternity Conference held here.

Concerning extracurricular activities, the Chapter has been quite responsive, with four members taking leading roles in the Emory Players' production of Tiger at the Gate, in which Brother Jones took the lead. Members of the Chapter comprise an eighth of the Emory Glee Club and we have three outstanding columnists on the Emory Wheel. Brother Fackler is vice-president of the Emory Christian Association, in which the Chapter has several other representatives.

We are confident that our new pledges, Joe Rainy, John Ballard, and Jim Williams are of the same high quality as our new initiates.

Our hope is that winter quarter will be as fruitful for Beta Epsilon as was the past quarter.

Florida

With the end of the fall semester came the election of new officers at Delta Zeta. The eight men chosen for leadership during the next two semesters were: president, Buddy Nimmons; vice-president, Mike Meyers; treasurer, Jim Rumrill; assistant treasurer, Hank Macari; recording secretary, Joe Miles; corresponding secretary, Gary Sorrell; sergeant at arms, John Osburn; guide, Jack McGill, and disciplinary committee head, Glenn Holiman. We are looking forward to an excellent spring semester under such capable officers.

The achievements of our pledges have been outstanding. Pledge President Bill Biglow is an active member of the Florida debate team. The Florida freshman basketball team boasts two Delt pledges, Vaughn Baker and Dave Nelson. L. B. Hicks will see action next year on the gridiron. Scholastically, Pledges George Groom and Bob Gilmore are expected to be tapped for the men's freshman honorary fraternity.

Intramurals are going fine, with our teams placing high in every sport. As it stands, we are sixth among 26 campus organizations. Next semester, Brother Charlie Pike, cocaptain of the Florida basketball team, is expected to coach the Delt hoopmen to victory.

In extracurriculars, Brother Gavin O'Brien is serving as chairman of the campus charity organization, the Gator Chest. Brother Lester Stanford was initiated to the honorary journalism fraternity. Brother Norm Thompson received an $1,800-a-year grant in psychology from the University.

The Pledge-Brother football game this year ended in a 19-19 deadlock. After the game there was a stag Christmas party with Brother Glenn Holiman lending his services as a very jolly and hilarious Santa Claus.

When grades are received we are certain Delta Zeta will have another fine semester, scholastically as well as socially, and we are looking forward to an equally successful spring semester.

Florida State

The rush and hard work of homecoming, the annual Delt Slave Auction, Christmas parties with sororities, the dances and wild fire engine rides around campus that took place this fall, are just past memories here at Delta Phi as we move into the spring semester. The fall and winter months here at Florida State were filled with many great accomplishments and honors for the Delt.

The season began with the extremely successful rush program, resulting in the pledging of 33 top rushees; the second highest number among the fraternities. Combo parties, African parties, and informal smokers highlighted this week of formal rush.

So far, the men at Delta Phi have been outstanding in almost every competitive field they have entered on campus. Walter Fleming plays for the F.S.U. junior varsity basketball team, and Bill Hampton is doing a fine job on the J.V. football squad. They are expected to be valuable assets to the varsity in the future. Delta Phi also boasts of Steve Helgemo and Doyle Sparkman, who were recently tapped for the Arnold Air Society, and Dale Brushwood, Joe Dorsett, and Jim Senko, who were recently initiated into the Beta Chapter of the national dance honorary, Cavaliers. Along with John Del Vecchio, Jim Faddigan, Fred Ford, Mike Guerra, and Sal Lanza, this makes a total of eight men in the organization from Delta Tau Delta—the highest number selected from one fraternity. Also, five men have been selected for the F.S.U. drill team and Homer Holland, Tom Hines, and Ron Butler play in the F.S.U. Marching Chiefs. Brother Howie Fillmore just recently set the Georgia A.A.U. meet record for the 200-yard orthodox breaststroke. Don Ayres has obtained innumerable honors for Delta Phi. These include membership in Omicron Delta Kappa and Gold Key, campus leadership honoraries. Besides being a member of the senior honor court, he is also a member of Delta Sigma Pi and Alpha Kappa Psi, national athletic and business honoraries, respectively. Don is also treasurer of I.F.C. at F.S.U. and is cadet colonel of the Air Force

R.O.T.C. detachment on campus. He was also selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Don Boyd and Jim Faddigan recently starred in the campus Gymkana show. Faddigan has received wide acclaim and honor for his participation in last year's World's Fair. He was a member of the dance review in the U.S.A. section of the fair.

Delta Phi is in high hopes of retaining the Phi Eta Sigma scholarship trophy since we have the most men with a 3.5 average of any fraternity on campus.

In the early evening, through the closed doors of the recreation room at the Shelter, one can always hear the brothers and pledges during song practice. This year the Delts have received many compliments and honors for their colorful and impressive serenades. They are now in practice for Campus Sing, which will take place in May.

Delta Phi recently purchased the largest and most beautiful trophy on campus, which was to be presented to the sorority of the year at the annual Pan-Hellenic dance. It stands approximately 4' 6" high. This year Zeta Tau Alpha was the recipient of the award.

The entire Chapter is extremely proud of its newly elected president, John Fleming. Dick Straw was elected vice-president; Mike O'Conner, recording secretary; Sal Lanza, corresponding secretary; Jim Crosby, guide; and Curtiss Newton, sergeant at arms.

Delta Phi's
JOHN FLEMING

In order to promote a more competitive spirit within the Chapter, we are now awarding an athletic trophy and two scholarship trophies to the brother or pledge who is most deserving.

So far this year Delta Phi has proven itself to be a chapter that is tops in every activity and will undoubtedly remain one of the top fraternities on campus.

The brothers and the pledges of Gamma Eta would like to take this opportunity to thank every member of the Fraternity for the considerations extended to us when our house burned last fall. The University has given us the use of a house on campus until we relocate. We are formulating plans to obtain a new Shelter as soon as possible.

In spite of the fire, this year has been a productive one. Living up to expectations, the members of the fall pledge class have been outstanding within the Fraternity and on the campus. Pledge Dick Gillespie has become a member of the interfraternity pledge council and a member of the student newspaper staff. During the University's Christmas toy drive, he spearheaded Gamma Eta's efforts and gathered the largest collection on campus. The pledges impressed the brothers with a highly organized and entertaining Christmas party. Under the leadership of George Edwards and Ken Larish, the pledges also impressed the student body with the Delt Homecoming float which took first prize in the interfraternity competition.

As in the past, the Delts stand among the leaders in athletics. Varsity Quarterback Ed Hino did a fine job directing the University's football team. He will return next year, along with End Bill Smythe, who certainly impressed the opposition this year with his offensive, defensive, and punting ability. Intramural-wise, the Delts now stand fifth of 21 competing organizations. Led by the passing of Jerry Cornelius and the catching of last year's outstanding intramural athlete, Henry Mayo, Gamma Eta won all football games except one, which was lost to the eventual league champion by one point.

On campus, Mike Gall and Bernie Degen were recently tapped for membership in Gate and Key, an honorary for outstanding fraternity men. Brother Degen was also recognized last fall by Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Song Leader Chuck Johnson once again proved his musical ability last fall when he played the lead role of "Sky Masterson" in the excellent University Players Homecoming production of Guys and Dolls. He is now directing his efforts to the approaching interfraternity team sing competition which the Delts have won three of the last four years.

BILL HOWLIN

Since we've had to go to classes on both Saturdays since we've been back from the Christmas holidays, things haven't really gotten rolling yet at Beta Delta.

Initiation has been planned for January 25, 1959, with a big party to start off the initiation week end on the Friday before. All but two of our fall quarter pledges made their averages and will be initiated.

Last Friday evening, Mr. Steve Mitchell, a Beta Delta alumnus, was host at a dinner party for the Atlanta Alumni Chapter and the officers of the Georgia, Emory, and Tech chapters. Beta Delta was represented by Brothers Allen Stovall, Ken Davis, Slick Denney, Jack Thompson, John Wenisch, and Dick Elliot, who reported a really great time.

Slick Denney has recently been elected our treasurer. We've planned the rest of our elections to take place over the next two weeks.

Beta Delta had a good year in football last quarter, and we finished the season with a 6-3 record. Basketball is the big sport for winter quarter and the team, headed by Carl Duvall, a six-foot buster with a great shot, is ready to go with the first game only a few days off. Rhett Tanner, a local boy, will hold down the center position. The other positions are in the good hands of Elber DeWitt, guard, a terror on defense and a good shot; Jack Hobbs, a toughie under the boards; and Sonny Mason, defensive standout. Other members of the team include John Wenisch, Allen Stovall, and Phil Aurandt. Bowling, paddleball, and badminton will wind up this quarter's intramural activities.

BUTCH LANGFITT

Georgia Tech

Gamma Psi's volleyball team captured first place in Tech's Gold League and second place in the all-school play-offs.

Sonny Sammons coached the team to victory in ten games of a 12-game regular season and nine games of a 12-game play-off series. The victory gave the Delts a total of ten IFC points for volleyball.

Dick Heck, chairman of the athletic committee, spearheaded a drive to increase chapter attendance at all games. As a result, the chapter's attendance as well as its spirit far surpassed that of the envious opponents at almost every athletic event. Pete Gissing, who appointed himself official cheerleader, deserves much of the credit for the ear-shattering spirit.

Chip Gaver has been elected president of the Bulldog Club. The club is responsible for Tech's intramural program, which includes 27 fraternities as well as numerous additional campus organizations.

CHIP GAVER

Bob Lawler is now a member of Tau Beta Pi, national engineering honor society. Dick Simmons and George Calcott have earned membership in Briarean Society, Tech's co-op honor society, and Bill Haralson was elected to the fraternity honor board.

Three Deltas have been selected by the Student Council to be listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. They are Jim Hardee, Society for the Advancement of Management president; Jim Smythe, Omicron Delta Kappa president and feature magazine editor; and Bayley Walker, Pi Delta Epsilon president.

Steve Wilenchek will succeed John Krummel as Gamma Psi treasurer. Steve is a junior industrial management major. His assistant treasurers will be Gary Newton, a sophomore chemistry major, and Lonnie Watson, a sophomore IM.

Art Vogan is one of 12 Tech Air Force seniors to be selected for flight training. The training is offered to qualified Air Force and Army seniors and enables the students to earn a private pilot's license during their senior year.

The Atlanta Alumni Chapter sponsored a banquet for National Delt officers, who were in Atlanta for the National Interfraternity Conference. Visiting officers included Francis M. Hughes, President; Joel W. Reynolds, past President; Hugh Shields, Executive Vice-President; Edwin H. Hughes III, RAINBOW Editor; and William B. Spann, Jr., vice-president of the Southern Division.

In an address following the banquet, President Hughes urged Deltis to participate in the activities of a Delt alumni chapter. Sixty-five representatives of Gamma Psi, as well as representatives of the Emory and Auburn Chapters, attended the banquet.

The chapter is now considering a revolutionary reunion motion made by Dick Heck. The motion calls for a reunion committee to be elected by Deltis in each graduating class. Each reunion committee would be responsible for arranging a Delt class reunion within six years of graduation and within six years of following reunions.

If the motion is successful, it could serve as a model to be followed by other Delt chapters to strengthen the bonds between alumni and the Fraternity and between alumni in each class.

Gamma Psi's semiannual newspaper, The Gamma Sigh, now contains news of the activities of individual Gamma Psi alumni. All Gamma Psi alumni who have not been receiving the publication are asked to mail their present address to Delta Tau Delta Fraternity, 227 Fourth Street, Northwest, Atlanta 13, Georgia.

BAYLEY WALKER

Hillsdale

The brothers have dedicated much of their time, these past weeks, to hard work. An extended effort has been made to adhere to the academic side of college life in an all-out effort to retain the coveted campus scholarship trophy which we now hold. Under the strict guidance of Scholarship Chairman Dudley Place, study hours are observed on every floor, Monday through Thursday, from 7:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. All pledges and actives whose averages are below a 1.7, on the 3.0 system, are required to use this time for study. Further, each floor has a monitor whose duty is to enforce these rules and assess fines to anyone negligent in this manner.

Not all has been work, however. We have had our fun, and in many cases combined work and fun. As a result, the physical structure of the house continues to undergo steady improvement with the application of hammer and nail and a great deal of ingenuity. Our only difficulty has been in finding solid spots to pound the nails into.

At Hillsdale, we are rapidly acquiring the nickname of "The Singing Deltis." Under the very able direction of Singmaster Bo Broock, and with the chapter membership at its largest in a long time, we have impressed many with our serenades.

Pledge education is going into its final phase and we have 18 new pledges and four holdovers who have already demonstrated remarkable scholastic, athletic, and political capabilities in a host of campus activities. This new blood gives promise of strong assistance in strengthening the chapter's position as the College's leading organization. In order to familiarize the pledges with the duties and problems of running a chapter and to prepare them for their future responsibilities, each one has been appointed as an assistant to some standing house committee and is required to work closely with chairmen and actives on all possible phases of fraternity life.

Delt prestige in both varsity and intramural sports continues to rise. Don Eugenio, Hillsdale football halfback, won postseason honors when he was given Little All-American honorable mention. Brother Pete Beckwith has been elected captain of the Delt dominated varsity wrestling team, which also includes Brother Chuck Bender and Pledges Bob Beckwith and Phil Maxey. Indoor tennis practice is in full swing with Captain Tom Purdy, a pledge, and Brother Howard Johnson claiming the first two singles positions and combining to form the number one doubles team. We tied for third place in intramural swimming and are, presently, battling for a higher position in intramural basketball.

The M.U.M.O.C. (Most Useless Man on Campus) contest, a worthy project to raise money for the interfraternity council, finds two brothers, Sandy MacMechen and Ron Kevelighan in strong positions to cart off high honors; however, Sandy and Ron are not quite sure which is the honor—to win or to lose.

Parties and dances are always an integral part of fraternity social life. Our annual Bowery Brawl was a howling success and plans are now under way for the spring informal, Dude Ranch. Our winter formal, held at a local country club, drew many favorable comments from guests, chaperones, and dates alike. As soon as the snow leaves for good and car batteries are recharged, we have three parties lined up; one with a neighboring chapter and two with other fraternities from nearby campuses. A recent innovation has been to reserve Sunday evenings for TV date parties, popcorn and hot chocolate.

A new slate of officers headed by Howard Johnson, president; Harry Schwarz, vice-president; Ron Sachtleben, treasurer; Ken Gertz, assistant treasurer; Dudley Place, corresponding secretary; Joe Lindsley, recording secretary; Pete Beckwith, guide; and Jerry Rippingille, sergeant at arms, the addition of some 20 new brothers at the next formal initiation, and continued hard work and co-operation by all of us should ensure continued success by the men of Kappa Chapter.

the position of I.F.C. rush chairman. Pledge Chuck Hervey was elected as junior I.F.C. president and Pledge Mike Felton took on the responsibility of parliamentarian. The ski club seems to be led mainly by Delts. Chuck Bend is now holding down the position of president, Lynn Smith, vice-president, and Dave Iverson, reporter. John Fitzgerald brought honor to Delta Mu when he received the award of "Outstanding I.K. Pledge." Standing in the spotlight of future stardom is Mike "Boom Boom" Williams, who is a member of the newly organized "Ice-Caps."

The social scene has been sparked by the Odd Ball Dance and Sally Sunrise competition. This year Vicki Fisher received the honor of being Sally Sunrise. Another fabulous function was the annual pledge party, given by the pledges in return for the pledge dance.

Intramurals have been slow this year, but the future looks very bright. "A" basketball started out with a bang. Two victories have been posted and the team looks like champions.

Chuck Bend's scholarship drive has finally paid off. The chapter cumulative at nine weeks was a 2.55. With the tremendous help from the pledges, we see no reason why it should not be even higher at semester.

SCOTT VAUGHT

Illinois

Beta Upsilon Delts closed the semester with the Winter Formal held at the Shelter January 10, using as a theme "A Bolshevik Ball." Brother Fred Thayer used his fluent Russian to greet the guests. Among the other late semester social events was the second annual Delt Mystery Day, December 6. The day's activities were concluded with the initiation of the brothers' dates into "Delta She Delta."

In I-M sports, the Delt football team lost the thrilling championship game in the last seconds as a 12-12 tie was broken by a successful desperation pass. Pledge Denny Hess won the 121-pound wrestling crown. Points gained in volleyball, water polo, and indoor track helped too, as the Delts finished the first semester in fifth place in the standings.

Bob Salata, former Illinois state prep wrestling champ, has recovered from his knee operation and is a favorite to take the Big Ten heavyweight title. Four Delt swimmers spent the Christmas holidays in Florida. Dale McDyer, Don Drever, Larry Moore, and Larry Michelson came back with the suntans.

DALE MCDYER, varsity swimmer

Bruce Duff, chairman of the campus spring carnival, is hard at work planning and organizing the April event. Bernie Wall is assisting as a sub-chairman. Pledges Jerry Manley and Steve Mumma were in charge of the junior I-F ball, "Pin and Paddle."

Election of house officers was held January 5. The new slate is headed by President Jack Ehrmantraut; Vice-President Jim Staes; Treasurer Pete Legendre; Recording Secretary Hap Georlett; Corresponding Secretary Danny Laughhunn; and Sergeant at Arms Tom Mulcahy.

Illinois Tech

Gamma Beta has chosen its new administration for the coming year. Bob Delacluyse, outgoing rush chairman, is incoming president, while Pledgemaster Terry Lindquist becomes vice-president. Bob Dvorak fills the treasurer slot, Dick Friedl is recording secretary, and Ray Malecek is corresponding secretary. Ed

Illinois Tech varsity basketball players are: JOHN OLIN, MIKE WAYTE, DON NEAL, and DAVE ROBERTS.

Bales will serve as sergeant at arms, Bill Van Santen is house manager, and Karl Siebers is guide. Rounding out our new cabinet are Don Neal, assistant treasurer, and Ray Van Horn, IFC representative.

Nineteen pledges are now completing their pledgeship.

In the field of school activities, Dick Ward's election as IFC president gives Gamma Beta its second IFC president in the last three to hold office. Ward's IFC presidency gives him the right to a seat on the Illinois Tech Student Association, the school's major student governing body. Terry Lindquist was delegated a seat on the board, as engineering representative, in an all-school election. No other fraternity has more than two representatives on the ITSA.

Brother Lindquist heads the advisory committee on student activities and, along with Dick Ward, was recently initiated into Beta Omega Nu, the interfraternity social honorary organization on campus. Dave Beal has been named feature editor of the Tech News. Dale Parshall is treasurer of the student admissions advisory board, a key rush week post. Johnneigh Olin was recently initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, a freshman scholastic honorary.

Dave Gibbs and Dick Ward have been included on the roll of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Bob Polich has received a principal appointment to the Naval Academy at Annapolis. In the social limelight, we united forces with Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity for a joint toboggan party at Palos Park. The pledge class presented a "playboy formal" in November. We placed two Delt queens in the five finalists at the Integral Ball, where the "Crewcuts" entertained.

Gamma Beta is in the runner-up spot in the all-activities point race. However, we are favored to nail down the all-activities award for the third straight year. Already this year, Delta Tau Delta has emerged victorious in IF golf, tennis, and swimming competition. We won the tennis trophy by a slight 50-50½ margin. In swimming, we retired the trophy by winning for the third straight year, nearly doubling the second placers' total points. Beneficial IFC rules changes will help us in our battle for all-activities honors this year.

Two issues of the Delt News were recently sent out to Gamma Beta alumni across the country. Our house corporation reports that $13,000 has been contributed by alumni to our fund drive over the past two years. We will definitely start construction this spring on a site yet to be cleared. Al Mell and Everett Quinn are designing the new Shelter.

DAVE BEAL

Indiana

Beta Alpha began the new year with many brothers acquiring positions in campus organizations, student government, athletics, and musical groups. Phil Johnson, senior from Springfield, Ohio, is vice-president of the senior class and a member of Blue Key, activities honorary. Beta Alpha's president, Dave Warnimont, senior from Michigan City, is president of the Marketing Club and is a very active member of the student leadership committee of Indiana University. George Piepho, junior from Muncie, is vice-president of the Marketing Club and correspondent of Delta Sigma Pi, a professional business honorary. Pete Sfikas, Bob Worrell, and Tom Frank are three men on Indiana's varsity debate team. Pete is president of Delta Sigma Rho, which is the forensic honorary on campus. Robert O'Neal is a member of Indiana's novice debate team.

team. Russell Smith, sophomore, is on the varsity wrestling team, and Steve Cox and Phil Secrest are vying for honors as freshmen. In 1957, Russ was a state champion in the 145-pound division and Steve was a state champion in the heavyweight division in 1958.

Beta Alpha is well represented musically in the Singing Hoosiers, which is the University's main choral group. John Clark is an accompanist for the Hoosiers, and Gary Hildreth, Bill Tanner, Mike Weist, Jim Cast, Lloyd Cast, Tom Frank, Bill Mauck, and Gary Nieman are members of this organization.

The men of Beta Alpha had the extreme pleasure of welcoming Miss Virginia Northrop, who is starring as "Daisy Mae" in the New York production of Lil Abner. After being entertained by the brothers during the afternoon, Miss Northrop dined at the Shelter before her evening performance.

MUNSON AND LIGHTFOOT

Iowa

Omicron Deltas returned in glory after Christmas vacation from sunny California and their second Rose Bowl trip in three years. Tales of Las Vegas, the Coconut Grove, Santa Anita, and all the "spots" of Los Angeles flew through the house. The delegation was large that went to the game New Year's Day to see newly initiated Brother Al Miller play better than half of the game. The big, rangy sophomore end made several outstanding defensive plays and caught some of the few passes thrown by the Hawkeyes. A fitting climax for the season for Al and the Hawks.

Iowa's AL MILLER

In other athletic activities, Earl Nau and Frank Mundt represent the Iowa Delts on the varsity basketball squad, both often starting and seeing considerable action. Our intramural basketball teams, heavyweight and lightweight, are both undefeated at the present time with few games remaining. Playing Coach Ed Sproat is averaging better than 20 points per game in the rugged heavyweight competition.

Junior Dick Duff was recently elected treasurer after the resignation of Chuck Fairall, who left with impressive black figures to show for his endeavor. Jim Tilton, a scenic design senior, who has designed and carried out many of the improvements in the Shelter in the last four years, also designed the sets for the Shaw play "The Devil's Disciple" and the lighting for the Buchner play "Danton's Death," performed by the University theater cast. The chapter combo is back in session again, playing for several of the chapter functions held this fall and winter. The true spirit of Dixie roars through the house every now and then, with the personnel ranging from pledges to seniors. With the combo, the activities, and the spring semester coming up, one could say that things are really "swinging" at Omicron.

A turkey adorned each table as the brothers and all the local alumni and their families enjoyed a banquet before the Christmas holidays.

Gamma Pi also participated in the IFC Christmas party for the local children. Santa made his appearance and games were enjoyed by children and brothers alike. Tom Kline and Bruce Chester kept winning at musical chairs.

erage. With Jay Dockendorff as scholarship chairman, the grades should continue to go even higher.

Early this spring, Spec Red and his orchestra played for the Four Poster party while Delts and their dates danced in their pajamas. Mattresses were arranged in the middle of the living room in the form of a huge four-poster bed.

Pep Council elected Tom Kline as its new president and Gary Stofen was chosen as its recruiting chairman. Tom is also an Iowa State cheerleader.

Jay Wollin was chosen as publicity chairman for Veishea and serves on Veishea central committee. Gene Onken was chosen as open house chairman of Veishea for the ag division.

Joint social council claims Bob Ross's talents, along with Modern Dance Club and Sextant. All in all the Delts are showing their faces in most of the activities on campus.

JACK O'KEEFE

Kansas

A big step has been taken towards a new addition and renovated Shelter for Gamma Tau. At a meeting of alumni held at homecoming, the Delta Tau Delta Educational Foundation was organized with the dual purpose of accumulating funds for the new house and for scholarships for future men of Gamma Tau. John Weatherwax, a member of the House Corporation, heads the foundation, and Phil Hartley, chapter adviser, is treasurer. Architectural plans have been made and the drive for funds is under way.

Gamma Tau will be represented in the next session of the Kansas legislature by Brother Tom Van Sickle. Tom will take his place in Kansas government with Brothers George Docking, governor;

Ted Sanborn, state representative; Glee Mike Smith, state senator; Jack Emerson, assistant attorney general; and Harry Wiles, Kansas corporation commissioner. Tom was graduated from the University in January and was elected to office while still attending school.

Santa Claus, in the form of Brother Mike Smith, made an appearance at the Shelter for the annual kiddies' party. About 25 kids were treated to refreshments, goodies, and games. In milling through the crowd, we were happy to hear that the calibre of our gifts compared favorably with gifts received at other fraternity parties by these "under-privileged" children. Also during the holiday season, we had our annual Orchid Ball. For this occasion, we had 100 orchids shipped in from Hawaii, which were given to all the dates present.

Turning to the field of athletics, Jerry Foes, a sophomore discus and shot putter, has given warning that he will be tough to beat by throwing the discus 168 feet earlier in the year. Jerry is concentrating on the shot put now, as the indoor season begins. Bill Steele was voted the most outstanding K.U. gymnast last year and leads the K.U. team this year. Bill has already shown the chapter that he will go down in history as one of Gamma Tau's immortal living-room jocks as is demonstrated by his handstands on the living room furniture. Ron Michaels, hampered by an early season injury, is all right now and is ready for spring football. Pledges Larry Weimer and Newton King played freshman football this fall and will be contending for the varsity this spring. Larry made two touchdowns during the season.

Our intramural program received a big boost when Gamma Tau sent ten men to T.C.U. for the annual Delt basketball tournament. We tied for third in this tournament, and were really impressed by the hospitality of our Delt brothers from T.C.U.

Roger Stanton brought honor to Gamma Tau when he was selected as continuity director for Rock Chalk Review, the major university variety show and one of the high lights of the year at K.U. Bill Witt added another honor to his already copious supply when he was awarded a Rotary scholarship for one year's study abroad. At the University of Edinburgh in Scotland, Bill will continue his study of economics and commence his study of Highland lassies.

CHARLES WETZLER

Kansas State

The Deltas at Kansas State are doing well in intramurals this year. We are exceptionally proud of our basketball team which was undefeated as we won the intramural championship. The Gamma Chi roundball team also took a trip to Texas Christian to play in the fraternity basketball tournament sponsored by Epsilon Beta Chapter. They returned with the second-place trophy. Our championship in basketball and our good showing in other intramurals has ranked us third of 22 fraternities at Kansas State. There is hope of improving this, as volleyball, in which we are usually strong, is next on the intramural schedule.

The pledge class sponsored its annual Paddle Party for the graduating seniors. The dress and decorations for the function were in Bohemian theme. As is customary the graduating seniors were presented with paddles by the pledge class. The Christmas season was highlighted by a tree-trimming party and a serenade of all the sororities.

Brothers Larry Jefferies and Bill Balanz both received individual achievement certificates as outstanding members of the Kansas State ROTC rifle team. This team recently won first place in the XVI U. S. Army reserve marksmanship competition and will represent the XVI Corps ROTC units in the Fifth Army matches in May.

EDWARD REGNIER

Kent

Delta Omega again showed the way to all fraternities on the Kent State campus in rush by pledging 21 top quality men. Under the able direction of Rush Chairman Wayne Wyles and his committee, a well-rounded program was presented, highlighted by a semi-formal dance held at the beautiful Congress Lake Country Club in nearby Hartville.

Fall rush was not without success. Larry Noose, a "bonus baby" pitcher for the Detroit Tigers, was among the fall pledge class, which also included John Mallo, Miles Buzzi, and Ray Hanna. By his contract, Nosse will attend Kent for two quarters each year and will pitch for a farm club during spring and summer.

Brother Chuck Kirtak has been selected as director of the 1959 "No Time for Classes" production. Brother Kirtak, a theatre major who recently played one of the leading roles in a production of "The Lark," has decided to produce the Broadway hit "Damn Yankees!" Brother Steve Bandy will act as musical director of the musical.

Brother Andy Grinter has succeeded Steve Bandy as business manager of the Daily Kent Stater, the campus newspaper. Wayne Wyles and Bill Robbins have been appointed editions managers, while Pledges Joe Focer and Miles Buzzi serve as circulation managers.

An event of fall quarter which was highly successful and added much prestige to the Delt name on campus, was a tea held in honor of the 22 foreign exchange teachers visiting Kent State. The tea was held on November 9, 1958 at the Shelter. Among the guests were faculty members, students, alumni, and members of the community.

Chapter Adviser Gary Fox recently returned from a 15,000-mile business-pleasure trip through Europe. The itinerary included stops in 13 countries, and it extended over a period of six weeks.

Denny Cooke recently succeeded Don Hollis as president of Men Students Association, the principal male student organization on campus. Brothers George Newkome, Tom Cooke, and Pledge Bill Robbins were recently elected or appointed to M.S.A. John Bowden was recently appointed to student council. Dick Keough has been appointed to the University student-faculty, elections, and semi-centennial committees. George Newkome was selected as social committee chairman for the freshmen class.

Brother Don Hollis leads all men of Delta Omega in the field of scholarship for fall quarter with a 4-point. Other brothers on the Dean's List include Paul Troyer, Denny Cooke, Gus Jordan, Ray King, Don Hicks, Tom Cooke, Don Stillson, Bob McBee, and Ed Hindle.

Brother Jan Mason, a member of University social committee, has been selected as chairman of Top Hop, a dance which high lights the Kent social calendar for winter quarter. Jan was also recently selected as chief justice of the student court.

New officers of the chapter include

LARRY NOOSE of Delta Omega, Kent State and the Detroit Tigers.

John Bowden, president; Don Stillson, recording secretary; Dick Keough, treasurer; and Wayne Wyles, assistant treasurer. Don Stillson serves as pledgemaster and Brother Denny Cooke as chairman of the pledging committee. Ned Tookman is to succeed fall quarter Scholarship Chairman Don Stillson. Tom Cooke is the house manager of Delta Omega.

Brother Tom Cooke has been initiated into Sigma Alpha Eta, national speech-and-hearing therapy honorary. Denny Cooke has been nominated for the very honored position of "Duke of Kent." In the field of varsity athletics, Pledge Jerry Maston carries the Delt banner on the freshman swimming team.

Delta Omega's basketball team, coached by Brother Ron Ross, is looking to the coming season with enthusiasm. The team includes Brothers Andy Grinter, Bill Wolfe, Joel Westfall, Pledges Dave Fox, Bob Stamberger, Bill Robbins, Dick Bracken, and Dick Kahler. The Delt bowling team, coached by Gordon Hill, also awaits league action with like enthusiasm. Other members include

Dick Keough, Paul Troyer, and Bob McBee.

Our social calendar for the coming quarter will be highlighted by our annual winter formal.

Kenyon

The Delts of Chi Chapter at mid-year find themselves well on the way to another successful year.

Our 15-man pledge class is coming along fine under the watchful eye of Pledgemaster Lanny Ritter, assisted by Pledge Trainer Dale Bessire. The pledges are: Bill Allen, Bruce Rogers, John Oliver, Jim Carr, Doug Hill, Tom Hoffmann, Dave Larkin, Phil Mahyer, Jim Rosenstiel, Fred Tower, Hank Kasson, John Binder, Pete Glaubitz, Darryl Elliot, and Woody Stillwagon.

Delts again are very active in winter varsity sports. Bob Ramsay is a mainstay on the basketball team and a top contender for leading team scorer. Also on the team are Pledges Hill and Kasson. Dick Schori is cocaptain of the wrestling team for the second straight year and one of the team's top point-getters. Leading the Kenyon swimming team to what looks like another Ohio Conference championship season are Brothers Bill Beese, Lanny Ritter, and Phil Post, and Pledges Oliver, Carr, Mahyer, Binder, and Hoffmann.

In intramural football the Delts failed to win or tie for the championship for the first time in several years, however, the brothers are confident that next year will be a different story. We are currently holding our own in the all-intramural standings and have an excellent chance of retaining the all-intramural trophy won last year.

The brothers of Chi are all very proud of Mark Powdermaker, who was recently named to the all-Midwest lacrosse team for his outstanding defensive play of last spring. The Kenyon lacrosse team should be rugged again this spring, helped by Delts Jim Riddle, Dave Brown, Dave Ashley, Tom Carlisle, and Pledge Bill Allen, in addition to Mark.

The chapter has also been very active socially this year. Homecoming and fall dance week end were enjoyed by all, even without the use of the lodge, while the Delt blue-light party for the "Bo-Ho Hop" became the talk of the campus. And of course, there was our annual Christmas party held at the Delt lodge. All of the brothers received Christmas presents from "Santa" Herschberger and everyone had a "moving" time.

Newly elected officers who will guide Chi during the coming year are Walt Taylor, '60, president (who will be serving his second year in that capacity); Ray Burghardt, '60, vice-president; Don Price, '61, recording secretary; Dave Brown, '61, corresponding secretary; Jim Robinson, '61, treasurer; Jim Riddle, '60, sergeant at arms; and Mark Powdermaker, '60, guide.

This past semester has proven to be one of the most successful in recent years for the brothers of Delta Nu. After pledging a class of 18 outstanding men and winning first place in the Homecoming float contest, the Delts focused their attention on some charitable work. Together, the Kappa Alpha Thetas and Delts staged a gala Halloween party for nearly 50 underprivileged children. Attired in humorous costumes, we conducted a variety of games, handed out loads of party favors and prizes, and in general had a great time.

Having recovered from this party, and a highly successful faculty tea, under the expert guidance of our Delt Queen, Mom Pond, and Social Chairman Joe Holsen, the brothers began serenade practices with the Thetas for what turned out to be the most successful Christmas serenade on the campus.

Last month Delta Nu's Shelter was honored by the presence of Senator and Mrs. Alexander Wiley for dinner and an evening of discussion. Senator Wiley's grandson, Alex Wilde, is a member of the Delt pledge class which will soon be activated.

In the area of varsity sports several brothers have proven themselves quite outstanding. Bob Pihl, in winning a varsity letter, not only turned in a terrific job on the gridiron, but is now holding down a berth on the swimming team. Joining Bob is Pete Switzer, a junior who lettered in swimming last year. On the basketball court, Delts hold down two positions with Motz Drew and Karl Franke. Looking ahead to spring, Brothers Dyer, Franke, and Larson will hold berths on the baseball team, while Brothers Hurvis and Drew will be on the tennis courts, and Switzer and Harris will be playing golf.

Delts and Thetas entertain underprivileged children at Lawrence Halloween Party.

Sports, parties, and serenades, however, have not been the only important things going on around the Shelter this year. Our increased emphasis placed on academics has paid off. This is exemplified by the fact that not only has the active chapter turned in a notable performance, but the pledge class has won the top academic honors in the quad.

Thus, with the recent election of the following officers: president, John Troyer; vice-president, Doug Moland, who also was elected president of the Arnold Air Society, an honorary Air Force society; corresponding secretary, Chuck Hunter; recording secretary, Mike Harris; treasurer, Tom Hurvis; sergeant at arms, Gorden Palmer; guide, Bill Dyer; historian, Tom Weber; and the honorary poet laureate, Henry Hurly; plus the forthcoming activation of a truly outstanding pledge class, and a busy social schedule, things here at Lawrence College are certainly pointing to an even more successful second semester.

The late fall and winter have been typically busy for the Lehigh Delts. This period has included initiation, many enjoyable social events, a dynamic inness majors, and one arts major. We are depending on these men to be traditionally fine Delts here at Lehigh.

Outstanding social events of the season were Lafayette week end and our own Christmas Party. "Poop" Peoples was an extremely effective Santa Claus on December 7 as we entertained 11 orphans at the Shelter with movies, turkey, a magician, and presents. Although the children gave the brothers many frustrating moments, everyone enjoyed the part they played in this season of giving.

This period also saw the election of chapter officers. They are: John Roglieri, president; Bob Freeman, vice-president; Dick Foltz, treasurer; Bob Gaido, corresponding secretary; Jack Sweitzer, recording secretary; and Martyn Bentley, assistant treasurer. We are confident that these men will lead Delta Tau Delta to another successful year here at Lehigh.

Present Shelter at Lehigh, with Homecoming display.

Lehigh's new Shelter as under construction last November.

We are all looking forward to moving into our new Shelter on upper campus, an event which will take place the first week of February. Our new home will be the finest on campus and will house 36 and sleep 44. It will also contain a library, conference room, alumni suite, living room, dining room, cook's quarters, and a well equipped kitchen in addition to the 17 study rooms. The Shelter also contains a sizable party room on the basement level.

We all express our thanks to the many alumni, members, friends, and parents who made the construction of this building possible.

BOB ELLIOTT

Maine

Parties, smokers, alumni, and a "good time for all" was the order of the day for Gamma Nu's homecoming—our 50th anniversary. With steins held high, Maine's Delts enjoyed the campus-wide week end of sports and social life. "Mom" Barron was, of course, on hand to lend her voice to the traditional singing of the "Stein Song." Our chef, Ray, produced his usual best along the culinary side of things. The Shelter's display won an award in the fraternity competition with its huge black bear growling via loud speaker within it.

Under Brother Bob Warren and his "Greek Week" committee, our fine pledge class completed the herculean task of repainting the inside of the Shelter. Outside our skating rink was also being enlarged and is now the favorite spot of the Deltas and their dates.

Brothers Larry Cilley and John Greeley combined social talents, organizing an old-fashioned hayride complete with horses and wagons. Dressed for the cold Maine weather, we bounced along the back roads for an all too short ride. Returning to the Shelter, still picking straw from our hair, the brothers and girls were led in Christmas songs by Bob "Heavy" Everett. Another success with the co-eds was Gamma Nu's "rock-an-roll" party under Dick Marston's direction. It will be an evening long remembered by all.

The rushing committee, under Brother Stan Weeks, is working hard on plans for the coming formal rushing period. The active program will insure Gamma Nu's addition of another outstanding pledge class this year.

Early in December, Delta Sigma Chapter dedicated its new library in memory of Thomas C. Clark, Jr., son of Justice Tom Clark of the United States Supreme Court. Justice Clark, a Delta Tau Delta of Gamma Iota Chapter, University of Texas, furnished a room in our original Shelter in 1948 in memory of his son. The organizers of our library were Ed St. John, chapter president, and Tony Ebersole, chapter librarian and member of the Delta Sigma scholarship committee. Brother Ebersole stated that "a basic need of the fraternity has been filled and we feel honored to be able to dedicate it to Justice Clark's son." Justice Clark donated a set of Encyclopaedia Britannica to our chapter, saying, "I thought that they should have something to improve themselves with." "We, Mrs. Clark and I, feel highly flattered and honored that, in dedicating your library, you would honor our son," and added that the Fraternity had "given us more than we have given it." Our chapter felt that a memorial library would be a permanent recognition and memento of his original gift. Delta Sigma moved to its present Shelter on Fraternity Row in 1952. Present at the ceremony were Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, president of the University of Maryland, Deans Geary F. Eppley, Robert James, and Adele H. Stamp. At the ceremony, Dr. Elkins said that it is "a tribute to the boys that Justice Clark has been encouraged to help. Nothing is more valuable to a fraternity than a library." The Delta Sigma Alliance, which consists of wives and mothers of chapter members, furnished the refreshments, which were greatly appreciated and enjoyed. Our new library, containing text and reference books and some fiction, was built this present semester at a cost of approximately $800.

7,000 Marlboro empties—and Maryland's

Social events and athletics formed a large part of our chapter activities during the past semester. Ritchie Coliseum resounded with the music of the Delta Sigma barbershop quartet in the ninth annual Harmony Hall contest. Our competing quartet, composed of Thomas Allen, Bob Grove, Gerry Crumlish, and Tomlinson Brown, sang "Floatin' Down to Cotton Town." In addition to interfraternity desserts, we held a quite successful Christmas pledge party at which there was a generous exchange of Christmas gifts between big and little brothers. In intramural basketball, we were represented by Brothers Jim Bates, Ray McGreevey, John Harmon, "Pig-Pen" Platt, Frank Lane, and Manager Gary Brown. These past semester functions were the result of the coordinated efforts of Social Cochairmen Ray "Weasel" McGreevey and Bill Valente, together with the enthusiasm of our chapter for fraternity social life. Again this winter, among other social high lights for the coming semester, we will hold the annual Orphans' Party, given for underprivileged children. Also included on our social calendar will be our spring formal and a "Suppressed Desire Party."

For the past two months Delta Sigma participated in a "Marlboro Man" contest, available to all fraternities and sororities on campus. Our chapter was particularly desirous to win the prize, a television set, which we intended to present to Gamma Eta Chapter at George Washington University. The member from our chapter, Rudy Vignone, deemed as the University's "Marlboro Man," competed for a suit of clothes. We gave many organizations stiff competition by collecting 7,000 packages, aided by support from many chapters of Delta Tau Delta throughout the country and other Greek organizations here. This support was largely due to the tireless efforts of Brother Richard Lathan, activities chairman.

Brother John Harmon was initiated into Delta Sigma Pi, national professional fraternity for men, established on campus in 1950 for students of the College of Business and Public Administration, having an average higher than the all-men's scholastic average. Brothers Rudy Vignone, Norton "Butter-ball" Gillette, Kirland Bass, and Pledge Jim Doyle were initiated during the second week of January into Delta Nu Alpha, the national transportation fraternity. Brother Bass was installed in the office of second vice-president at the initiation ceremony.

The Beta Nu Deltas have maintained their top position in sports participation on campus by copping the intramural football and wrestling trophies in hard-fought contests. Under Captain Ernie Potter, the Delt football team rolled over opponents, averaging 30 points per game to their rivals' average of 3.5. Brother Hank Wagner managed the 1958 intramural wrestling tournament, and Pledges Doug Gaidry and "Rannie" Ridgeway won their weight classes to clinch victory for the Deltas. The hockey squad has yet to experience a defeat and is considered to be a strong contender for the league title. Mainstays of the team are Captain Fred Carson, High Scorer Bob Fisher, and Goalie "Stop-em" Klancnik.

Three starting members of the freshman basketball squad are pledges from this house. Terry Bray, Nick Kneen, and Steve Smith have already proven themselves in games.

The pledges have been busy around the house organizing two entertaining social events. The pledge party centered around a Bohemian theme, featuring table dancing to jungle music furnished by John Terrey. The pledge play, a hilarious parody of the members of the active chapter, was said to have been one of the best in many years. Beta Mu and Beta Nu chapters got together for a Saturday of partying November 15. Delts from Lafayette and Brown also attended. After a buffet dinner at Tufts, the party moved to Beta Nu, where a Dixieland combo played the rest of the evening. Immediately before Christmas, the chapter held its annual party for orphans in the Boston area. Pledge Kim Reyburn, Santa from Oklahoma, was surrounded by youngsters wondering at his strong Southern accent.

Gamma Upsilon had a fine fall and winter season, topped off by a memorable Christmas formal at which we presented our new housemother, Mom Ludeke, with a sweetheart pin.

Brother Bill Papenbrock has recently been elected secretary of Delta Sigma Pi honorary. Bill Ludeke was a hit as the lead in a very successful play presented here in January.

Our basketball and bowling teams, both sporting new uniforms and captained by George Dyer and Dale Brunner, respectively, have been doing their usual fine job. The basketball team is currently in second place. Brothers Bill Chambers and Don Ball are practicing for the baseball season and appear sure of starting spots on the Miami nine.

We are coming to the close of another hectic rush season with some very good results, and plan on a strong pledge class in February.

BOB MORGAN

Michigan

Delta Chapter announces the election of new officers: David Leslie Barnes, president; William Frank Beck, vice-president; and Dennis Gerard King, treasurer.

Dave Barnes is a second-semester junior and is majoring in premedicine. Dave was previously corresponding secretary of the chapter. Bill Beck is also a second-semester junior and is majoring in chemical engineering. Along with his duties in the chapter, Bill is very interested in the engineering honor council, of which he is a member. Dennis is a junior majoring in prelaw. He is in N.R.O.T.C., and is planning on going into the marines after graduation. With these men doing the job, the chapter won't lack for leadership for the next year.

Many of the brothers are actively engaged on one or another of the Michigan varsity squads. Andy Morrow and Pledges Tom Bechtel and Gerry Price represent the chapter on the swimming team. Andy led off a relay team that set a new pool record for the 200-yard free-style relay. Brother Joel Boyden and Pledge Bill Radford are making names for themselves, and for the chapter, on the track squad. Joel puts the shot while Bill puts the shot and throws the discus. One of the brothers regularly seen on both the football field and the basketball court is Terry Kelly. Terry is one of the eight cheerleaders for the U. of M.

The chapter's fall pledge formal was judged by many to be one of the best in the history of the affair. The theme of the dance was "An Ice-Blue Christmas." The living room was decorated as an out-of-door scene with most of the effects being done in ice-blue.

Delta Chapter is doing quite well in I.M. sports this year. Both the "A" and the "B" football teams reached the semifinals of the first-place play-offs and the swimming team is in the first-place finals. As of this writing, we are in fourth place; however, both our "A" and "B" basketball teams and our relay team look very good, so we hope we will be even higher within the next few weeks.

This past semester was most successful for the chapter, and we are looking forward to this semester with anticipation of its being as successful as last.

TOM WOODWARD

At the deadline of the last RAINBOW it was stated that Iota Chapter was in the quarter-finals of the fraternity bowling championship, and here it is a pleasure to inform RAINBOW readers that Iota went on to win and set an all-time high point average for the tournament. Iota is now tied for second place in the fraternity sports race.

Officers for the year 1959 were elected January 14. The newly elected officers are: president, Bruce Gilbert; vice-president, Dave Pierson; treasurer, Russ Peppet; assistant treasurer, Al Tanck; recording secretary, Phil Shinn; corresponding secretary, Doug Wagner; sergeant at arms, Juan de Calvo; guide, Jim Chesney. Iota Chapter is anticipating an excellent year under the guidance of these men.

On January 18 Iota initiated ten new members and pledged ten men, as we have been having rush the past week. Al Tanck did a spectacular job as rush chairman, extending bids to 11 men and receiving ten acceptances.

Singling out some individuals for their accomplishments, Jim Chesney was raised to alternating second-string quarterback on the M.S.U. team this past season and is hoping for success in the next season. Bruce Johnson, a junior, was elected to the student union's board of directors, now having three Delts of eight total directors on the board. Bruce is also cochairman of publicity for Junior Day. Jim Ledinski has been chosen as social cochairman for the Big Ten I.F.C.-PanHel conference.

Best wishes to all undergraduate chapters.

RODY SHERRILL

Minnesota

The initiation of 14 new brothers highlighted the many activities of Beta Eta during last fall quarter and early winter quarter. From this very fine group of initiates, Steve Johnson was selected for the best pledge award. Jack Mulvena achieved the highest grades of the pledges, though playing first-string freshman football. We are quite proud of this new class and expect many things from them.

Brother Al Pettit is our Greek Week chairman this year. Greek Week, biggest Greek activity of the year, includes a songfest, olympic games, progressive parties, and button sales. Beta Eta has won the huge first-place trophy for two years in a row.

Chairman of our athletic committee is Benno Kristensen, and he has high hopes of our capturing the over-all intramural championship this year. Our ping-pong team won the fraternity championship and our bowling team is leading all fraternities at present. The bowlers, led by Jack Heen, recently posted a 193 average for four games. We are now third in over-all standings and our best events are yet to come.

Brother Ron Johnson continues to sing the nets in Big Ten basketball. Ron, a junior, is third among scorers after four games. We are also quite proud of Brother Bill Comstock for his impressive victories with the Minnesota swimming team.

Our activities committee has planned a Delt invitational basketball tournament for all sororities. This tournament is being eagerly anticipated by all sororities and we know that it will be a great time. The most recent activity we've enjoyed is Delt Sunday. One Sunday each month all of the brothers attend church together and then eat at homes of brothers living in the Minneapolis area.

We are very grateful to our Mothers' Club and Alumnus Ron Erhardt for our new game room. The Mothers' Club, always helpful in our needs, bought the materials and Ron, with his crew of Bob Charon, Terry Dieterle, and other brothers built the room.

The past quarter we were happy to have brothers from both Iowa and Iowa State visiting us. These visits are most enjoyable and any brother that can visit us is urged to do so.

The new year has hit with a bang and on January 11, Gamma Kappa elected her 1959 officers; The new administration is Bill Elliott, president; Gordon Biermann, vice-president; Richard Joy, recording secretary; Paul Knopf, corresponding secretary; Allen Steinberg, treasurer; Bill Kennedy, assistant treasurer; Jack Fields, chapter guide; and Steve Lewis, sergeant at arms.

We held our annual Christmas formal in December. This year, it was a casino party, and the chapter house looked like Harold's Club in Reno.

Couples used play money to bet. The couple winning the most play money won first prize at the end of the evening. There were also second- and third-prize winners. The big event was preceded by a dinner at Harwell Manor.

Two Missouri Deltas relax in rec room.

We are still working at Savitar Frolics, the big campus musical, and we are happy to report that we were one of the four groups to make the finals. Production night begins on March 5.

At this time, final exam week is coming upon us and Deltas are buckling down to hit the books. It's kind of a dismal time. Steve Lewis, scholarship chairman, is insisting upon quiet from pledges and actives alike.

In intramural sports, we are in basketball right now and suffering from two defeats. This is mostly due to an unfortunate accident that happened to John Silver. Also the pledge-active football game was played, and the actives won, of course, with a score of 14-0!

The high light of our social life this semester was our annual Kris Kringle Formal. Social Chairman Roy Thompson and his committee did a tremendous job and everyone enjoyed the affair. The outstanding feature was the presentation of our 1959 Sweetheart. She is Miss Jeanine Bieri, a member of Delta Zeta Sorority.

North Dakota's Delt Sweetheart, Miss JEANINE BIERI, and her court are presented at Kris Kringle formal.

Delta Xi's intramural basketball team has a 4-1 record. With one game left to play, hopes for a berth in the play-off are high. Regulars on the team are: Dick Lapp, Charles Feldman, Richard Platts, Jim Anderson, Gary Mural, Don Schmid, and Bill Grange.

The new officers are headed by Darrell F. Wood. Brother Wood is an accounting major and is a member of Beta Alpha Psi, an honorary accounting fraternity. The new vice-president is Richard A. McKelvey, a chemical engineering major. The other new officers are: treasurer, Edward G. Schwartz; assistant treasurer, James C. Willyard; corresponding secretary, Ronald C. Johnson; recording secretary, James O. Johnson; guide, Loney C. Norby; and sergeant at arms, John J. Tupa.

Northwestern

Beta Pi Chapter finished a strong fall quarter near the top in all types of fraternity competition, and we are looking forward to an even better winter quarter.

To begin with, the 1958-1959 pledge class, 25 strong, showed its future promise as Delt actives by finishing third in scholarship for fall quarter among 28 fraternity pledge classes. Mike Barrier and Duane Carlson paced the pledges with near-perfect grade averages for their first quarter at NU. The chapter as a whole finished ninth out of 28 fraternities, with a grade point well above the all-fraternity average.

Andy Cvercko, Delt senior, capped a tremendous performance on Northwestern's surprising football team by being selected to the Football Writer's Association and Look Magazine All-American teams—another in the long list of Beta Pi all-conference and All-American football players. Andy, a pre-senior in electrical engineering, played for the North squads in both the North-South and Senior Bowl postseason games.

During fall quarter Beta Pi, with a strong open rush program, pledged four additional men. One of these new pledges, Tom Potter, is a first-string performer on the NU freshman basketball squad. Dick Becker and Chuck Brandt, both sophomores, have already won starting berths on Northwestern's varsity five.

The intramural standings, as of the end of fall quarter, show the Deltas in second place, only three points out of first place and some 40 points ahead of the next house. The I-M football team, ably quarterbacked by Don Centofante, tied for first in League I and went on to the semifinals of the all-school play-offs, where they were defeated by the eventual champions. Our intramural wrestlers, headed by George Javaras, John Humbert, and Dick Soderberg, won the school wrestling championship easily. In the fall quarter swim relays, Beta Pi, without the services of two of last year's swimmers who are now on the varsity, took a third place. And last but not least, Jerry Tanselle, a sophomore, took second place in the golf singles, losing two and one in the finals.

Our annual Pajama Race, described in the last RAINBOW, highlighted the fall quarter social calendar. The forthcoming Winter Playboy Formal and our Viking Party, together with innumerable informal gatherings, promise an even greater winter quarter, thanks to Social Chairman Bill Witte.

The Deltas at 32 President St. are eagerly looking forward to the new year with a clean slate of officers. The new Beta Chapter officers are: Steve Phimister, president; Chuck Zumkehr, vice-president; Neil Willis, corresponding secretary; Tom Jones, recording secretary; Jim Anderson, guard; and Lloyd Furer, guide.

Steve Phimister is currently president of MUGB. He is also a member of J-Club, Blue Key, IFC, and past vice-president of MUGB.

"O.U. Has the Winning Type" proved to be the winning house decoration for Homecoming this year. The decoration was a gigantic typewriter with movable animated Bobcats erected on keys punching out the word "VICTORY." Brother Navarre Perry was homecoming chairman with Ed Szep as construction boss.

Bill Forloine, president of Beta Chapter pledge class, was recently elected vice-president of IFPC.

DR. BAKER discusses world politics and affairs with several Beta Chapter Deltas.

This group of dads was recently entertained by Ohio University Deltas.

Brother David Miller, rush chairman, has promised us a successful rush this year. Rush starts in February and as quoted by the student newspaper: "It's the best crop of freshmen to come to Ohio University." Dave, assisted by Jim Weeks and Burt English, is having complete co-operation with the chapter and is certain to pledge the sharpest men. Rushing activities include buffet dinners, smokers, and entertainment by the famed Delt combo.

Brothers Jim Weeks and Dave Larcumb were recently chosen as advertising managers of IFC's news publication, The Marathon. Also in the field of publications, Lee Ruef was chosen assistant editor of The Athena.

Beta Chapter recently acquired a new mascot. He is a one-year-old, 50-pound, brown and white, basset hound. It was decided by unanimous decision that the hound be called "Duncan," because of his outstanding characteristic; that of a "brown warrior." Brother Ivor Balyeat was elected dog warden, Brother Paul Weber was elected flea inspector, and Brother Len Young barely edged out Brother Jim Brooker as "guardian of the leash."

Under the capable leadership of Social Chairman Jim Anderson, the winter party season was officially opened with an old style German party. The brothers dressed as "Nazi party" big wigs and entertainment was furnished by the mountain boys: Jake Gahm, Jim Smircina, and Tom Hatheway.

Dr. and Mrs. John C. Baker spent an informal evening at the Shelter recently. Dr. Baker, president of Ohio University, chairman of the Ohio High School Board of Education, and member of the United Nations, spoke to the brothers about fraternity life at Ohio University. He also discussed the Geneva Convention activities, which he attended as an official delegate.

Beta Chapter lost three brothers through February graduation. They are Bob Horn, Ed Szep, and Navarre Perry. Their departure will leave a gap in the chapter, not easily filled.

DAVID J. LARCOMB

Ohio State

Beta Phi recently elected its officers for 1959. Bob White, who served as pledge trainer, was chosen president. Bob is also a member of student senate and was recently elected vice-president of Ohio Students Party Associated, Ohio State's leading political party.

Chuck Schwindt is the new vice-president. Other officers are: Jon Hazleton, recording secretary; Ron K. Miller, corresponding secretary; Jim Ritchey, treasurer; Larry Fullen, assistant treasurer; Ted Sawyer, guide; Bob Duffy, sergeant at arms; and Dave Kuenzel, historian.

Before the holiday vacation, Beta Phi held a Christmas dinner which was attended by 75 of the brothers, the pledges, and their dates. The chapter presented gifts to the cook, Pat Levassy, and our housemother, Mrs. Mildred Barnes, in appreciation of their exceptional service.

Ohio State Delts are looking forward to the annual Bohemian Party, one of the most popular parties on campus. False beards are usually the rule of the day. The winter formal climaxes the quarter at the Winding Hollow Country Club in Columbus. These two functions high light our winter quarter social schedule.

In the sports light, Beta Phi finds Gary Milliken on the varsity basketball team and Nat Smith serving as captain of the gymnastics team.

Beta Phi is proud of its members who are earning appointments and honors in campus organizations. George Baughman, past president of OSPA and a member of the Ohio Staters service club, was selected the general chairman of May Week. Jock Moody has just recently become a member of Ohio Staters. Larry Fullen was appointed secretary of the student court. Bob Winters has won a featured role in the University Theatre's production "Cyrano De Bergerac."

Sam Shannon and Bill Bowden are chairmen of winter quarter's initiation week. Five new brothers are expected to join Beta Phi on February 7, the date of formal initiation.

RON K. MILLER

Ohio Wesleyan

Chapter Mu returned to the Delta Shelter following a two-week Christmas recess, settling down to studying in preparation for final examinations. Having placed first in scholarship among Ohio Wesleyan's 14 fraternities for the past four semesters, and nine times in the past 15 semesters, the chapter is hoping to extend its string. Competing with our successive scholarship trophies are our number of first-place finishes for the best fraternity homecoming display. The theme of "Bishops Trim Oberlin Yeomen," with the Ohio Wesleyan Bishop trimming the Yeoman's hair in a barber chair, proved to be a correct prediction as Wesleyan rolled over Oberlin, 48-0. This first-place finish marked the fourth consecutive year in which Chapter Mu has emerged triumphant. Plans are now being made for Winter Homecoming, which will include a banquet preceding the evening's activity.

Socially speaking, Chapter Mu has been very active, holding several informal parties with sororities, including Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, and Pi Beta Phi. These parties were climaxed by our annual Christmas Formal, held in the Shelter on December 13. The chapter held its annual Christmas dinner on December 17, playing host to a number of orphans from the neighboring Children's Home.

In the area of athletics, several Mu Delts have excelled, with Bob Morrill, Chuck Hansen, Dick Heaston, and all-Ohio Conference end, Dick DeHaven, composing four of the top eleven on the starting football team. Dave Lehman, Rick Nesbitt, and Freshman Tom Swaim all see a great deal of action on the basketball court, while Chuck Hansen and Ed Metz are undefeated as members of the wrestling squad. In intramurals, the basketball team remains undefeated.

Several Delts have recently been selected to join various campus honoraries. Chuck Hansen is the latest to be tapped for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa, men's leadership honorary, joining Jack Batty and Don Saliers, while several sophomores were recently initiated into Phi Society, sophomore scholastic honorary. Jim Campbell was elected president of the honorary.

Chapter Mu continues to play a vital role in the field of student government, holding the majority of committee chairmanships, while Don Saliers has been doing a commendable job as president of the senior class.

With initiation time approaching, our pledge training program becomes more and more important. Under the direction of Pledge Trainer Roy Ferguson, who has spent many long hours to insure the success of this program, Mu's pledges are fulfilling the expectations of the chapter. Tom Swaim, pledge class president, is also serving as president of one of Ohio Wesleyan's freshmen men's dormitories. One of the projects undertaken by the pledge class was the publishing of a Pledge Mu Murmurs, in which they included a biographical sketch of each member of the class, a picture of their class, and various other activities in which they were involved. A copy of this publication was sent to the family of each pledge.

Terry Ross, our new rush chairman, has been busily engaged in preparing for next year's rush week, through organizing rushing districts, composing rush letters, and keeping the chapter informed on every phase of rush. The chapter as a whole has visited many prospective freshmen and took an active part in the fall High School Men's Day, during which we answered questions, provided meals and lodging, and took the high school men around the campus. Thus, in spite of being involved in every field of campus activity, the chapter has not neglected rushing, and is already at work, laying a foundation for next fall's rush week, in hopes of securing another fine pledge class.

STEVE WHITEHEAD

Oklahoma

The big news from Delta Alpha is our sponsoring a Delt Centennial dance planned for April 24 at the Oklahoma City Golf and Country Club. Active and alumni Delts throughout Oklahoma and the southwest are looking forward to the dance which will feature music by either the Ralph Flanagan, Les Elgart, or Ralph Marterie bands. Allan Evans, John Mee, and Jeff Collar are all working hard on the mammoth project. Besides the Centennial dance, the annual spring formal in May and the yearly Delt Dive in early March will further high light the Sooner Delts' spring activities.

With the start of the second semester the 1959 Delta Alpha officers took charge. This year's officers include Buzz McDaniel, president; Dale Crabtree, vice-president; Ron Murray, treasurer; Herb Pitts, assistant treasurer; Carl Prokesh, recording secretary; Bob Reis, corresponding secretary; Bernie Hulme, interfraternity council representative; Tom Gobble, sergeant at arms; and Bill Nelson, guide.

BILL HAMMOND, Sooners' starting forward

When spring rolls around the Sooner Delts know it is time to start rehearsing songs for the University Sing, presented during the Mother's Day celebration at O.U. Delta Alpha will again be defending its first-place ranking as we won the 20-year-old songfest for the 15th time last year. Glee Club Director Tom Aitken is hoping for the best.

In the battle to win the '58-'59 intramural trophy for the second straight year, the Delts hope to be champions again in "A" and "B" volleyball and softball competition. Delta Alpha is looking ahead to the intramural boxing tournament with the "purple, white, and gold" team seeking its ninth straight boxing trophy.

With fingers crossed, we look to the future.

Oklahoma State

New officers elected for the coming year are: president, Andrew Cummins; vice-president, Marvin Kline; recording secretary, Kip Moore; corresponding secretary, Jerry Spencer; treasurer, Dwight Kealiher; assistant treasurer, Denis Kearney; guide, Tom Jones; IFC representative, Kendall Johnson; historian, Jim Kreymborg; and sergeant at arms, Bill Knapp.

The Fall Formal held December 6, 1958, at the Country House was the high light of the fall semester social program. Music was furnished by the Blue Notes. Several alums of the chapter were present at the formal. During the second semester the chapter is looking forward to its annual "Go to Hell" party.

The annual Founders Day Banquet, jointly sponsored by Delta Chi Chapter and Delta Alpha Chapter, was held February 22 in the OSU Student Union. The day was highlighted by a talk by Francis M. Hughes, President of the Fraternity.

At the time of this writing the chapter's "A" basketball team is heading toward another league championship. The team is led by its coach, 6' 5" Jim Kreymborg. We are looking forward to the many intramural activities of the spring semester.

Oregon

The men of Gamma Rho are fortunate in being able to look back on 1958 as one of the most enjoyable and successful years in the history of the chapter.

Again our "Miss Sally Sunshine" contest took the Oregon campus by storm during the latter part of fall term. Members and pledges roused out the Kappa Kappa Gamma girls early in the morning, treated them to breakfast, and later crowned Kappa President Lynne Smith, the co-ed with the baggiest pin curls, flakiest face cream, and other stringent qualifications, as our second annual "Miss Sally Sunshine."

Miss Sally Sunshine contestants.

The Delt "A" and "B" volleyball teams racked up enough points to find the Delt in tenth place among all men's living organizations at the end of fall term. The "A" team finished second in its division and the division champion "B" team went down to defeat for the first time in the semifinals.

The annual Delt-Tri Delt Christmas party closed out the fall term social calendar a week before final exams. We entertained 30 underprivileged children from a local school, and afterwards treated the patients of the Eugene Hospital with a selection of Christmas carols. We were fortunate in getting a photographer from the local paper to shoot pictures of the Christmas party, and a picture of "Santa" Bob Richardson and the youngsters did much to further good public relations for both the fraternity and sorority system, as well as Delta Tau Delta.

At press time, winter term has just resumed and new chapter officers recently elected include: Al Winter, president; Dick Shonfelder, vice-president; Carl Peres, house manager; Bob McCullough, assistant house manager; and Bill Schwarz, sergeant at arms.

In two weeks our third annual Delta Queen contest will get under way. Our contest has been established as the outstanding queen contest on campus by the fact that our last year's queen was subsequently elected Homecoming Queen and one of her Delta Queen princesses was named Betty Co-ed. The Delta Queen's got the touch of gold!

WARREN RUCKER

Oregon State

The OSC Delt's ended last term with the traditional Christmas party. After the pledge class brought in and decorated a tree, the chapter toasted "dear old Delta Tau" with a Christmas dinner. During the vacation, the Portland area alums put on the annual Christmas formal, attended by local Delt's.

With the beginning of winter term, Delta Lambda has a full and active schedule. Ahead of us is the widely known French Apache, featuring the sewers, Parisian bistros, wine bottles, etc. Last term we welcomed new pledges Bill Aubrey, Marty Butler, and Nick Goyak to the Shelter. The annual Dad's week end takes place this term, and we will again host our dads here at the Shelter.

Delt's were active on campus, with Kerner Doughton chairman of the homecoming noise parade, and Vern Church rally chairman for the game. We entertained visiting alums at a buffet at the Shelter and a party afterwards. This term Rog Reynolds has the lead in the college-produced play, "Rain," and George Childs and Jerry Long are co-house managers. Also in the play is Frank Ortman. Reynolds and Harley Blankenship have been nominated as candidates for "King" of the Mortar Board dance, and Ted Moon is upholding the chapter's honor as a contestant in the UMOG (Ugly Man on Campus) selection. Ted also is treasurer of the coming United Fund drive, with Jerry Anderson as his assistant treasurer.

We are looking forward to success in fraternity intramurals, with strong teams entered in bowling, basketball, wrestling, and swimming. Ted Miller is turning in fine performances with the varsity basketball squad, and Arnie Schroeder is being held out this season so he will be eligible to play again the next two seasons. Preliminary baseball turn-outs have started, with Rod Wells and Jim Orr out for practice. Scott McKean has been swimming for the varsity swimming team.

Ed Clough was elected to represent Delta Lambda at the Western Division Conference at Dallas, Texas this year. Already started on a good year, we are all out to make it even better.

AL PALMER

Pennsylvania

As our first semester draws to a close it becomes more apparent that we are off to one of the best years within memory of the actives.

Pennsylvania's football season ended with a winning season which placed us third in the Ivy League. As predicted in the last issue, the team was immeasurably aided by such stalwarts as Barney Berlinger, Jack Hanlon, Ed Smith, and Bruce Cummings. Barney, particularly, reaped laurels too numerous to mention, among which were all-Ivy first team, second team all-East, and captain elect of next year's team. Jack was named to honorable mention all-Ivy and was a standout performer all season.

We are well represented on the wrestling team this winter with Pete Schantz and Ed Smith already launched on what promises to be a terrific season. Captain Bob LaRouche suffered a broken foot and is apparently out for the season, which is a severe loss to the grapplers.

Intramurally, we are well on our way to capturing the intramural trophy. We copped third-place positions in football, track, and wrestling. Our undefeated basketball team, led by President Jack Windolf and Gordon Achilles, should go all the way again this year. Other members rounding out a great team are Don Higginbotham, Tim Heidelbaugh, Tim String, Dave Robinson, and Bruce Cummings.

We are also well represented in the Mask and Whig organization again this year. They put on their traditionally fine production and we are justifiably proud of Brothers Dave Hagerson, Pete Reed, Ted Irvine, Bob Holt, and Larry Turns.

The big social high light for this winter was the Christmas Formal. Chairman Rennie Atterbury did a fine job in making this an unforgettable occasion, even though his own date got sick and couldn't make it. The decorations were modeled after an outdoor winter scene, complete with ice ponds, snow, and trees. Although things have slowed down at present in anticipation of finals, our spring social season looks like a study stopper, as usual.

This March we will be host chapter for the Eastern Division conference and plans are well under way to make this quite an occasion. We expect a good turnout for this Fraternity affair and we are all looking forward to meeting brothers from other chapters.

D. R. GUNDERSON

Penn State

Tau Chapter started off the second semester minus four men who were graduated in January. The four January grads are John Frum, Bill Meyer, Tom Moore, and Jim Sloan; however, the chapter also gained four new pledges for the second semester in Dick Babcock, Chris Hunter, Bill Koebler, and John Pollock.

Tau members had their first "big week end" of the year with a Hobo Party theme. The Hobo Party, which is becoming an annual event at Tau, featured a sawdust covering on the party room floor and "sewer-like" decorations upstairs.

December was a social-filled month for Tau Chapter. For our second big week end the chapter had a Castle Party, on our annual pledge week end. The party was highlighted by Merlin Taylor and his sorcery, and of course the pledges took it easy for the week end while the brothers did all the work.

Next came our annual faculty reception, in conjunction with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Members of both groups entertained their professors and the various deans of the colleges at the Shelter, and the party was complete with an orchestra, decorations, and refreshments.

On the week end before Christmas the chapter held its Christmas party. The party began in the party room, then moved upstairs for dinner and an appropriate Christmas message by Chaplain Dan Rees. The party ended with an hour of dancing by the fire.

Tau Chapter is compiling an outstanding record in intramural athletics this year. The football and bowling teams both ranked high in their leagues, and the high light of the first semester was Jim Thompson's championship in his weight class in intramural boxing. Looking to the spring season, chapter members expect a championship wrestling team, and good showings in soccer, tennis, and softball. All in all, the chapter should rank very high in over-all intramural totals.

RICHARD G. DRAYNE

Purdue

The final weeks of the first semester at Purdue find the Gamma Lambda Deltas busy with our two most important activities: preparing for final exams in order to maintain the high scholastic standards required by the Purdue fraternity world, and enthusiastically bringing to a climax the main rush season. Under Rush Chairman Dick Ensign's able direction, we are working hard to pledge a large group of the outstanding men attending Delt rush functions throughout the year.

A high light of the social season was the fall house dance on a Bohemian theme. A smoky "Beatnik" cabaret and a Greenwich Village square provided the atmosphere for this most successful event.

Our homecoming display, "End of the Trail," tied for second place among all residence units on campus, and for first among the fraternities. The Christmas display also rated second place in a campus-wide competition.

Varsity Wrestler Dom Fatta continues a long line of Deltas outstanding in this field, being a major contributor to Purdue's success thus far this year. Pitcher Dave Hull is getting in shape for the coming baseball season, and Lettermen Upsilon Chapter's IM hockey squad.

Bob and Dick Berg are all set for spring tennis to start.

Brother Pete Krieg is to be congratulated on his editorship of the Gamma Lambda, the chapter publication, whose latest issue is an 18-page edition in magazine format. An important information source for rushees, it is also being distributed to chapter alumni and to all Delt chapters.

Looking back on the first half of this school year, the Deltas at Purdue are proud of their record, and are hoping for an even more eventful second semester.

JIM REYNOLDS

Rensselaer

Again on the intramural scene at R.P.I., the Rensselaer Deltas are in contention for the coveted interfraternity trophy of athletic supremacy. They started off the year well by copping second place in the I.F. golf tournament. The hackers, sparked by Dave Friday and Walt Stowell, were aided by Paul Cook and Dick Rydell in chipping their way close to victory. In football, the Deltas overwhelmed opponents and easily won first place in their league. Quarterback Gerry Luff's passes to Ends Dave Friday and Hav Staggs, made possible by blocking from John Burkhard, Russ Slayback, Jack Sortor, and George DiNardo, allowed the Deltas to score 132 points; an amazingly strong defense of Roger Merrifield, Vic Andrade, Dick Rydell, Walt Stowell, Pete Grigg, Paul Cook, and Tom Kennedy held the losers to but 18 points. On the tennis courts, Manny Dominguez, Stowell, and Rydell placed high in the league.

As the winter season gets into full swing, Upsilon Deltas are likely to lead every activity. Their short but fast basketball team has taken an early lead in the league, and the bowlers are well out in front of their competition. On the ice, the chapter is fielding one of the finest teams in years. Practicing in the R.P.I. fieldhouse, the Delt skaters have shown great hustle and promise a winning season for 1959.

On the varsity scene, the winter season shows Wrestlers Tom Graves, Manny Dominguez, and Joe Colangelo having their usual winning season, while many of the brothers can now be seen at the gym, shaping up for the coming track, lacrosse, and baseball seasons.

The social season for 1958 was a great success: the high lights were the I.F. week end with Delt Queen Ava Slayback (no pictures, sorry!), and the Christmas Party given for the chapter's neighbors and all faculty members of the Institute. Among those attending were Institute President Folsom, Dean Harrod, and Dr. Medicus. The brothers are looking forward to having the Christmas City Six, the best of the year's dixie bands, back again for some of the 1959 social events.

Chuck Staples was elected art editor of the R.P.I. Bachelor, and Norm Stepno was selected as a member of the R.P.I. development council.

Climaxing a highly successful rushing season, Rushing Chairmen John Burkhard and Russ Slayback led the chapter in the selection of ten outstanding young men. They are Fred Meenen, pledge class president; Frank LoGerfo, vice-president; Frank DiBianca, secretary; Larry Laurion, treasurer; Dave Matthes, Phil Best, Dick Bowman, Bob Vossler, and Joe Colangelo.

hundred twenty-five dollars was made and turned over to local service organizations. Rock Ryan, John Wiebe, and Chuck Marple directed this successful pre-Christmas project.

Election of officers highlighted the return from vacation, and the start of a new year. Elected were Bob Daughters, president; Chuck Evans, vice-president; Jack Sanford, treasurer; Tom Brisbane, assistant treasurer; Gib Schwartz, recording secretary; Dave Reeder, corresponding secretary; and house manager, Chuck Evans. Following the election was the annual "Inaugural Brawl."

South Dakota's outstanding speech and debate team boasts two Deltas, Dick Frieberg and Freshman Dan German. Their efforts are going toward the speech trophy given to the fraternity accumulating the most points in forensic competition. This puts Delta Gamma very much in the running for the all-campus trophy. With the chapter making its usual strong bid in intramural sports, this coveted trophy may soon be riding Delta Gamma's mantel. The bowling team is currently tied for first, and the promising pledge class is leading the pledge division in intramural basketball. They are yet to be defeated.

Work has begun on the "Strollers" show to be held the 6th and 7th of March. We are collaborating with Chi Omega sorority for this annual competitive vaudeville production. Due to the abundance of talent and desire our show, "Satire on College Life," should be tops. Dave Wegner, Larry Osburn, Dick Frieberg, and Rock Ryan make up the writing and directing committee.

Socially everyone is looking forward to Valentine's Day, which will be the occasion for our "Sweetheart Ball" and the crowning of Delta Gamma's Delt Sweetheart.

DAVE REEDER

Stanford

Having embarked upon what appears to be an unusually fine year for Delta Tau Delta, Beta Rho Chapter at Stanford University has maintained its determination to make this year a truly great one. Led by our capable president, Harry Walker, and vice-president, Glen Hayden, our unified chapter has worked together to make this beautiful English-manor type structure a better place in which to live.

Our magnificent pledge class, which has become even more tightly knit since autumn, has just undergone our newly adopted "Help Week," which is an all-out effort on the part of the pledges to clean up and improve the house and grounds. Jack Carter, our social chairman, is now busy planning our initiation and pledge formal which will be held January 18.

As usual, the Beta Rho Deltas dominate Stanford athletics. The basketball team this year boasts four Delt starters, John Arrillaga, Captain Paul Neumann, John Hendry, and Jerry Rose. These four stars are backed up by Reserves Chris Burford (also an All-American football player), Tom Crawford, and Bub Bowling. Rugby participants are Rich Hearn, Armand Jaques, Trev Grimm, Sid Garber, Gary Pike, Gary VanGelder, Gil Dowd, John Clark, John Butler, Walt Kirch, and Jack Watkins.

Highlighting the Christmas season was our annual Christmas party for the Orphans Home of San Jose. This date affair at the Delt Shelter gives the orphans a memorable Christmas, and does wonders to establish firmly the Christmas spirit in the chapter. Chairman Clark Swanson secured rotund Don Manoukian, a professional wrestler, as our Santa Claus.

Academically, Beta Rho Chapter has improved considerably, and this quarter we will again enjoy the presence of Tom Glover and Wally Honeywell, who matriculated in Germany's branch of Stanford last year. Honeywell was student body president of this school in Stuttgart. Thus, an outstanding year is being enjoyed by those of us in Beta Rho, and we want to express our sincerest wishes for a happy and prosperous year to all the other Delt chapters.

SID GARBER

Stevens

With the advent of spring term, Rho Chapter has elected its new officers and installed them. Our new officers are as follows: president, Paul Terreri; vice-president, Paul Hausman; treasurer, Robert Koudelka; recording secretary, Robert Sinatra; corresponding secretary, Kemp Roedema; assistant treasurer, Anthony Stevens; guide, Earl Greenleaf; and sergeant at arms, Evan Davis. Congratulations are in order for these men and for the retiring officers for the tremendous job that they did.

With passing of the winter season, the Delt at Stevens remember many events from the past months—the wonderful time at Winter Carnival dancing to the music of Leroy Holmes and the impromptu performance of our Joe—the New Year's Eve party that everyone enjoyed so, which was given to us by our own Mothers' Club.

The first week of January saw the Delt hold a party in conjunction with our parents. The affair, held in Castle Stevens, was a tremendous success. Many thanks should go to Bob Hills for his running the party. The big hit of the night was, once again, Bob Sinatra with his world famous act.

The Delt at Stevens once again have won the interfraternity football championship and have reached the finals of the basketball leagues.

The Shelter, under the guidance of Paul Hausman, is planning a tremendous rushing season and eagerly looking forward to pledge night, when we expect to pledge one of the largest classes in the history of Rho Chapter.

DICK KOCH

Syracuse

The Syracuse Chapter of Delta Tau Delta has been having a very busy year. In October, we took in a fine pledge class of 12 men who have since worked into the chapter very well and are presently working hard to complete a successful semester so that they may be initiated this month. With 12 seniors in the chapter, it is most important for these fine men to become Deltas. They have also busied themselves with varied pledge projects and practical jokes on the brothers, and were honored at our annual Christmas Pledge Formal.

Our social schedule has had many high-lighted events this year. Among the larger parties was Colgate week end, when many alumni came around to renew old friendships and make new ones. A very successful party drew them all on Colgate night, and we had a really wonderful time singing old Delta songs, and dancing to a mixed combo. Another week end was started with the appearance of gravestones, bearing an epitaph for each member of the chapter, on the front lawn. That night a black hearse, complete with chauffeur and attendants, picked up all the corpse-like dates for our Ghoul Party, placed them on the stretcher, and transported them to the party as though cadavers. The Shelter was entered in a bath of green light, accompanied by a sickening rendering of "taps." The success of the gathering was told when all left thoroughly frightened, never to return from the location of their burials.

Many of our members have been making significant contributions to the University community. George Kosboth has been doing well on the fencing team, Bob Lubracki is again a mainstay of the swimmers, and Pledge Mike Radz is also a swimmer. Kosboth has also been tapped for another honorary, and all of us are busily studying for finals.

PAUL W. MOREHOUSE

Tennessee

A program of concentrated rushing opened the winter quarter's activities for Delta Delta, and the effort is already yielding good results.

The University of Tennessee's list of the 16 fraternity averages for the previous quarter reveals the Delt actives to be first on campus with a 2.55 point average, .40 above the all-fraternity average; the Delt pledges hold their own with a fifth-place position.

Sunday, January 25, is the date set for the initiation of five neophytes.

A recent pledge is William H. Ortwein, of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

BILL KAMPMEIER

Texas Christian

Ending with the all-school football championship for the third straight year, Delta Tau Delta began a very successful informal rush program. The brothers pledged Jeff Stevens, Edward Dowell, Tom Boyd, Cecil Skipper, Joe Lumus, John House, and Bill Brackett.

Delt basketball tourney trophies at TCU. The four co-eds shown presented the trophies to winners.

One of the greatest parties was the Bowery Ball at the Eagles Nest at Lake Worth. Thanks to Fred Forest and the pledge class, the decorations were very appropriate. Thanks to Goodwill and the Salvation Army the Good Brothers were very well dressed.

Next came the annual Delt basketball tournament, which had 18 teams entered this year. There were teams from universities all over the southwest and two from the midwest. Delt teams entered this year were those from Kansas, Kansas State, Texas Tech, and TCU. This was the most successful of all the tournaments we have had. Thanks to the brothers from K. State, the Deltas placed second. There were five Deltas in the top ten players. We are looking forward to next year and seeing the brothers from Kansas State, Kansas U, and Texas Tech.

New Year's and the Cotton Bowl was a rousing success as over 40 of our actives and pledges returned early from the holidays to have fun and fellowship with their dates and the brothers.

Now the brothers are enjoying parties with the sororities.

JACKIE SHATLEY

Texas Tech

The Texas Tech Deltas will look back over the fall semester of 1958 as one with many fond memories and accomplishments for Epsilon Delta.

The big event of the semester was our fabulous "Playboy Formal." We crowned Miss Helen Fields, of Lubbock, as "Miss Playmate" and serenaded her upon the occasion. Miss Fields is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority and was recently chosen as a Tech beauty. The dance was an overwhelming success.

Miss Playmate at Epsilon Delta's Playboy party was HELEN FIELDS, escorted by KEN BASS.

Intramural football left the Deltas rating in the lower brackets but we have started off basketball with a bang and are expecting a great season in both basketball and softball. The basketball team recently toured to Fort Worth and entered the T.C.U. Delt tournament.

We had our annual Christmas party and dance at our lodge on College Avenue. The pledges decorated the lodge for the dance.

We recently held our Little-Big Brother Breakfast at the Ming Tree Restaurant. The brothers chose Carl Hyde as best pledge and the pledges selected Epsilon Delta's Playboy Formal.

Ken Bass as the most outstanding member. Marshall Chase received the Brick award.

We are eagerly looking forward to the spring semester and already there are many events scheduled on the social calendar. Some of the more important include the Valentine Day dance, spring sing song, spring retreat, dinner dance and most important, spring rush, which ends March 13 when we will take our spring pledge class.

DON DAVIS

Toronto

At Delta Theta 16 new members are ready to cast votes in the upcoming elections for chapter offices. Under Pledge Educator Paul Mitchell, they are pointing to a repeat of the accomplishment of last year's neophytes who topped all chapters in the annual Fraternity exam. By the way, an independent survey completed at the start of the new year showed that artsmen for the first time outnumber engineers among the active membership. There is no doubt that the new liberal Delt spirit will make itself felt on campus. The breakdown according to faculties is as follows: arts—15; engineering—14; architecture—3; pharmacy—3; pre-dent—1; and graduate school—1.

In line with continuing improvement in the Shelter, the downstairs recreation room was paneled in pine under the supervision of Dick Mair and Dave Colocutt during work week.

Deltas have again been active in sports at U. of T. this year. Dave Harvey, varsity's top diver, and Kirk Thompson, are stalwarts on the swim team. Bruce Doidge is a high-scoring right winger for the intermediates. Charlie Dobbie and Paul Chapman, two neophytes from the V.K., sparked the varsity rugby team to a championship.

The fall social season saw fine football parties during the Blue's undefeated season, and a successful pledge party with a tropical theme. During the holidays, no expense was spared for the Christmas party while a party at the Royal York and the New Year's party were highly successful. At the time of writing, final preparations for the best ever formal are being completed with many alumni expected to attend.

BRUCE WRIGHT

Tufts

Beta Mu Chapter enjoyed one of its most successful fall semesters in many years. The high light came at the last football game of the year with Lafayette. Beta Mu held a joint party with Beta Nu of M.I.T. Brothers from Brown and Lafayette also came and enjoyed the supper and jazz party after Tufts won.

Tuft's Deltas and orphan guests at annual Christmas party.

One of the high points of the day was when the brothers from each chapter sang Fraternity and school songs. The occasion will be one long remembered by Beta Mu Deltas.

At Christmas the Beta Mu Deltas came in third in the annual Christmas Sing. The whole campus was pleased with the Christmas music we played over our loud speaker system. Just before vacation we held our Christmas party for orphans, which was again a success. All the brothers also joined the sisters of Chi Omega to sing carols about the Hill, spreading good cheer and that Christmas feeling.

Among the brothers many have been recently honored. Jack Duncan was chosen captain of the 1959 soccer team, while Quarterback Frank DeLeone was accepted to Tufts Dental School. Brother John Banas was chosen president of the pre-medical society and accepted at Tufts Medical School. Brother Robert Coli was accepted at Columbia School of Physicians, and also holds the office of treasurer in the pre-med society. Jim Miller, secretary of the club, was accepted to Rochester. Brother Henry DeMarco is going to Tufts Dental School while President Bob Buckley is going to Temple. Brother Jack Leckie was again in the North-South lacrosse game, where he scored a goal and also played goalie. He was chosen to be on the cover of the NCAA lacrosse booklet.

The brotherhood is now preparing for rushing next semester with the capable Jack Orben at the head of the rush committee.

AUSTIN CROWE

Tulane

On the Tuesday night before Thanksgiving the Delts entertained their parents and friends at the annual Thanksgiving banquet. Jazz, both contemporary and New Orleans, helped start the social calendar at Beta Xi. Following the banquet were the fall vat party, and the Saturday night dances at the Shelter. Just before Christmas the Delts and the A D Pis cosponsored a Christmas party for about 24 orphans. The party was complete with gifts, refreshments, and Santa Claus. That night the Shelter rocked to the music of the "Avalons" and Craig Brigtsen did his usual fine job as Santa Claus.

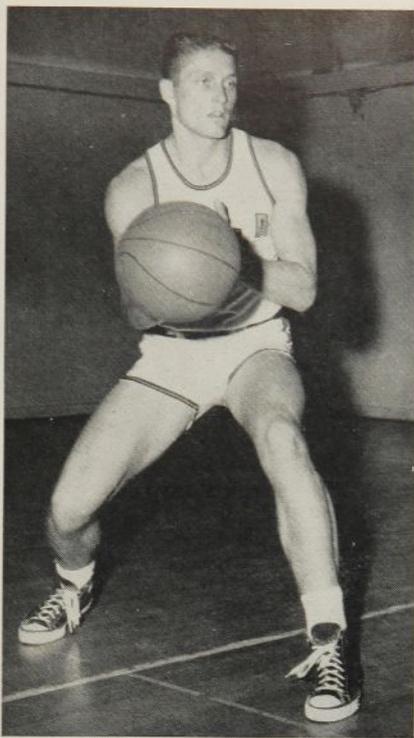

Pat McElroy took over the reins as rush chairman and since then we have added two new pledges—Charles North and Clyde Crockett. Bud Noel was re-elected as treasurer and John Wharton was elected assistant treasurer. Our past president, Wallace Edwards, was elected president of the Law School freshmen. Paul Fallone and Jim Larose became associate members of S Pi S honorary physics society.

Many thanks to the Mothers' Club, which has been especially active this year in giving a spaghetti supper party and a bridge party with the proceeds going toward the Shelter.

JIM LAROSE

UCLA

Delta Iota is again in the process of filling out another fine year. Probably the brightest point, easily the most astounding, is that the Delts jumped to eighth place scholastically out of 35 fraternities on campus. Although not to be overshadowed, this unique feat was accompanied by achievements in other activities.

Intramurally, the Delts captured the all-University championship in both handball and six-man volleyball. The volleyball championship marks the second time in three years that Delta Iota has won all-U. As a result of this, and an undefeated football season, we are in first place in intramural standings at the half-way point in the season. Further, prospects of upcoming sports point to an even finer showing. As for athletics on the varsity level, Delt Brian Kniff is holding down a forward position on UCLA's highly-rated basketball team.

On the social scene, the annual French Apache, Pajamarino, and Yard Longer, have been just a few of the excuses we have used for "partying it up."

Thus, with the school year barely half over, Delta Iota has good reason for expecting another successful year.

PHILIP THOMPSON

Wabash

Four juniors and three sophomores have been elected to lead Beta Psi in the year, 1959. Selected as president is Brother John Johnson. A junior, John was president of his pledge class and vice-president of our chapter. While maintaining an "A" average for his first two years, John has still found time to hold the position of editor of The Bachelor, letter in tennis, and to participate in varsity wrestling. He is a member of Blue Key, Sphinx Club, Delta Phi Alpha, and Pi Delta Epsilon honoraries. Junior Bob Kryter is our vice-president. Brother Bob, a physics major, holds offices in Delta Phi Alpha, Camera Club, and Radio Club. He is also a member of Blue Key and Sigma Pi Sigma.

The remaining members of the newly elected slate are: treasurer, Junior Don Good; corresponding secretary, Sophomore Tim Conlon; recording secretary, Sophomore Bill Kilgore; assistant treasurer, Sophomore Austin Brooks; and sergeant at arms, Junior Dan Remley.

Beta Psi's new officers, kneeling: JOHNSON and KRYTER. Standing: GOOD, REMLEY, BROOKS, CONLON, and KILGORE. The dog is GEORGE.

Most of Wabash's activities find Delt representation this spring and last fall. The men from 506 W. Wabash Avenue have spread out to the publications office, Glee Club rehearsal room, dramatics stage, and the varsity locker room. No less than 12 Wabash Delts hold offices in on-campus activities. Besides the positions that newly-elected Johnson and Kryter hold, Don Good is the general chairman of the 1959 campaign for World University Service (WUS), Senior Fred Pipin is treasurer of Lettermen's Club, Senior Butch West is secretary of the senior council, governing body of the college, and Sophomore Dave Bohlin is secretary of Alpha Phi Omega. Leading the Delt delegation in Young Republicans Club is Austin Brooks, who is treasurer this year. In the opposite political camp is Otto Schug, senior, vice-president of Young Democrats.

Boasting the reputation for being the most balanced fraternity on campus, Beta Psi has placed five men in the Glee Club; 12 men in Sphinx Club, athletic honorary; nine men in Lettermen's Club, and six men in Scarlet Masque, Wabash dramatics organization. Still more Delts are found in Greek honoraries: Johnson, Kryter, and Jerry Kight, junior, in Delta Phi Alpha, German honorary; Jim Hurd, senior, in Sigma Xi, science honorary; Kryter in Sigma Pi Sigma, physics honorary; and Johnson and John Stiles, junior, in Pi Delta Epsilon, journalism honorary.

The Delts' second chapter room, or the publications office, found many of the brothers helping Johnson's editorship of The Bachelor last semester. Working into the wee small hours of deadline night were John Stiles, associate editor, Tim Conlon, news editor, Lee Andreas, sophomore, assistant sports editor, and Dave Bohlin, mail circulation manager. Stiles' journalistic endeavors also include business manager of the literary magazine and staff member on the college news bureau. In the yearbook office is Austin Brooks, business manager of the Wabash.

Intramural spirit and enthusiasm have not declined this year. Having put the championship trophies for IM football and cross-country away in our case, we placed third in volleyball and have continued our winning streak so far in basketball. In varsity sports, Fred Pipin was picked by his teammates as honorary captain and also chosen most valuable player for the 1958 squad. The winter sports occupied many of the Delts' time. Senior Duane Axel played his final year on the hardwood for the Wabash varsity, while Pledges Jim Johnson, Dave Gillespie, and Bob Templin played frosh basketball, and Pledge Larry Warren wrestled varsity for the Big Red.

With the second semester in full swing now, the men of Beta Psi are trying to fight off the early symptoms of spring fever so they can continue to keep Delta Tau Delta one of the tops at Wabash.

The pledge class, now completing its final quarter of pledgship, was governed by a new slate of officers for winter quarter. Elected in January were: Dan Seaholt, president; Jerry Lee, vice-president; Pete McCallum, secretary-treasurer; Tim Caldwell, song chairman; Rennie Keasal, sergeant at arms; and Bill McCutcheon, work chairman. Initiation, held near the first of spring quarter, is just around the corner for Gamma Mu pledges.

Elected at the beginning of winter quarter, Bob Zumwalt succeeds Bill Flodman as treasurer. Bob, an outstanding architecture student, is the co-ordinator between the undergraduate chapter and the alumni chapter for the construction of the new Shelter.

Rehearsals are well under way for the all-campus song fest to be held in May. Combining with Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority, the Delts will be led by Jack Bontemps. Last year the Delts and the Tri-Delts copped fourth place in the annual event.

Seniors John Temple, who is yell king, and Nate Thomas have been cheering on the Huskies this year. Carrying on the tradition of Gamma Mu yell leaders, they are seen at every football and basketball game. These two Delts comprise half of the Washington yell squad.

The American Society for Metals has been under the able leadership of Shelly Dahlgren this year. A professional society, the ASM membership is composed of metallurgical engineers. Listening to various speakers, taking field trips, and participating in social events, comprise the club's activities. Shelly took office at the beginning of this year.

On January 29 the pledges went on the annual Mothers' March on Polio. Started early in 1957, the event has become a tradition on the Washington campus. The Delt pledges teamed up with Kappa Alpha Theta pledges and collected a considerable amount of money.

gresses at his present rate, he is certain to see California this spring. His events are the sidehorse, longhorse, and rope-climb. John has been on the varsity squad for the past two years.

There were several men in winter intramural sports at Washington this year. Carl Olson, athletic chairman, felt that of the six Delt basketball teams, team No. 1 had a fairly good chance of getting into the tournament. Team members include Bob Lust, Dick Brown, Fred Putney, Dave Cortelyou, and Jack Payne.

For the first year in some time Delts are participating in badminton. Wally Tweden, Jim Harrington, John Tharp, and Dave Kinley represented Gamma Mu. Playing doubles, Wally and Jim comprised one team; John and Dave, the other.

This spring will once again see the crew rowing on Lake Washington. Dave Kinley, who won his numerals last year, will be trying for his first "Big Dub." Veteran Zac Elander will be rowing for his last season. Freshmen turning out for crew are Ken Culver, John Neal, and Chuck Bush.

With the opening of spring quarter Bob Kem and Carl Olson will turn out for baseball. Both Bob and Carl won their numerals last year and are now trying for their letters. Bob plays in the outfield and Carl plays shortstop.

Freshman Larry Turnbull will be running the 440 and sprints for the UW frosh track team. Larry, an excellent runner, ran the 100-yard dash, 440, 880 relay and broad jumped while in high school. In the state of Washington track meet Larry ran the 100-yard dash and came out sixth of 16. In his sophomore year of high school he placed fifth in the state; in his junior year, third; in his senior year, third. While participating in two track meets in high school, he and his brother scored all of Sumner's points and won the meets. Larry should do well considering the amount of experience he has had.

Epsilon Gamma had a busy fall semester. The high light, without a doubt, was our Christmas dinner-dance. The menu of fun, singing, and food was a tribute to the men who prepared it. Also, our annual fall dance was lifted high by the novel decorations and comical dance band, presented through the hard work of our fine pledge class.

Singing into the hearts of the Alpha Chi Omega's has been a weekly activity that has polished the Delt stand to shine brighter than some of the larger groups next door. We are looking forward to the annual song fest to be held this spring; with this fraternity-sorority combination we utilize our talents to the utmost.

Brother Jim Johnson is the new vice-president of Epsilon Gamma, due to the regretted loss of Chuck Lucas. Jim is also social chairman and deserves real praise for the fine job he has done.

The Delts are high in intramural participation. Our bowling, volleyball, and basketball teams are looking great, going into the final part of this semester's play. Pledge Gary Chase is an outstanding swimmer, posting times of 58.9 in the 100-yd. back stroke and 2.093 in the 200-yd. back stroke. We hope to see this champion on next year's All-American team.

Our growing chapter will gain even greater things as it continues to speak with the strength of our Delt Creed.

The brothers of Gamma Chapter have started a new plan which we hope will continue and grow to become a custom in our Shelter. This is the crowning of a "Delta Queen" to reign for one year. This year's queen is Miss Pat Gerger, who is a freshman at Penn State.

The crowning took place during the Greek Swingout week end, which proved to be one of the best party week ends in recent years. The chairman of the "Delta Queen" committee was Richard Gaertner and the chapter is unanimous in its opinion of a job well done.

The election for treasurer, assistant treasurer, and steward was recently held and the new officers are Jim Gilson, Dave Petry, and John Caputo, respectively.

The Delts showed their acting ability recently when we took the second-place trophy for stunt day back to the Shelter. The stunt was called "A Hill-Billy Wedding" and was headed by Ken Ross, as the rather flamboyant minister. The cochairmen of this committee were Dave Petry and Al Vanderwheele.

We are looking forward to rush week with optimism and we are hoping to make a good impression on the prospective pledges.

Service, learning, co-operation—and fun: this just about describes the first semester at Phi Chapter this year. The year has gone well here at Washington and Lee. The 28 pledges, under the guidance of Mac Patrick and Buddy Comey, have been molded into what could be one of the finest classes in the history of Phi Chapter; their possibilities of achievement in the coming years are unlimited. The only dark spot in their bright future, as they see it, is Help Week, less than a half month away. But afterwards comes initiation, the end of pledging, and the beginning of brotherhood in its fullest meaning.

And there are those among us who have met their potentialities in their four years at the University. Ed Briscoe climaxed his college career by being elected vice-president of Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership fraternity, an index of one of Briscoe's many phases of contributions to the University. Recognition of his ability has been extended by another national organization, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Joining him in this honor is Tom Gowenlock, outgoing president of Phi Chapter.

On the lighter side of campus activity, Ned Ames and Reg Smith were initiated into the Cortillion Club, and Leigh Allen became a member of the "13" Club, an honorary junior society.

Speaking of Leigh, he is the one man responsible for the Delt's social activity. As chairman of this segment of our fraternity life, he has done an excellent job with the co-operation of other members of the house. The annual Christmas party was, to use the only appropriate term, a success. Several class parties preceded the fraternity party. A formal dinner followed, and the formal dance capped the evening. Everyone, it is safe to say, had a sparkling time. Several good combos are on tap for Fancy Dress, which immediately precedes second semester.

The Delts are now in second place in the over-all intramural standings with 510 points, only 18 out of first place. Danny Dyer broke the intramural cross-country course record as he led the Delt team to the team trophy in that event. Dub Saunders, Steve Wolfe, and Randy Butler were the other point scorers. First places in such events as the track meet helped on our score. The handball team, led by Ed Briscoe, has gone undefeated in league competition and should win the play-offs.

In intercollegiate sports, Phi Chapter not only supplies its share of the varsity athletes but also contributes the squad leaders. As was mentioned in an earlier report, Bill Young and Clark Lea were cocaptains of the football team. The two major spring sports here at W. & L. are baseball and lacrosse. Charlie Broll, the strong armed third baseman and pitcher, will be one of the cocaptains of his squad while Ed Briscoe will cocaptain the stickmen.

Next month fraternity elections will be held. The administration, headed by Tom Gowenlock and including Mac Patrick, Ed Briscoe, Bill Young, and Ned Ames, Zack Blailock, Connie Lemon, Clark Lea, and Don Thalacker, has done a fine job in the past year. If the new officers hold up the Fraternity traditions and administer their posts as well as have the retiring officers, Phi Chapter can look forward to another great year.

ROBERT CONRAD LEMON

Wesleyan

During the past weeks, Gamma Zeta Delts have achieved a number of honors. At the University of Pittsburgh debate tournament, Jan Hogendorn won a medal as sixth speaker, in competition involving 57 debate teams from the United States, Canada, and the West Indies. Sophomore Tom Buckovich was awarded honorable mention for all-New England soccer goalie.

On the Wesleyan Argus, Ed Collins has become sports managing editor, and George McKenzie and Pete Mooz have been named desk editors. Choral Society elections saw Ed Knox taking the position of vice-president. At the end of the interfraternity football season, Bert "Moose" Edwards was placed on the all-star team.

Brothers Snow, Loose, and Williams represent the Delts on the varsity wrestling team, and Pledge Brian Lloyd wrestles for the freshman team. Al Williams is undefeated, and Brothers Loose and Snow have each sustained but a single loss.

Our annual initiation will take place on February 15, and at the following banquet the new chapter officers will be installed. Succeeding George Bryant as president is Don Fletcher, and vice-president will be George McKenzie. Elected treasurer is John Lutton, and steward, Nils Wagenhals. Bob Kirkpatrick is to be critic, and filling the position of corresponding secretary will be Pete Mooz. Tom Welch takes over as recording secretary. Rich Thomason becomes guide, and Ed Roberts was re-elected choragus. Filling the positions of assistant treasurer and assistant steward will be Bill Haffner and Keith McBride, respectively.

As the second semester starts, we welcome back Brother Bill McGowan, who leaves the Air Force to rejoin collegiate activities.

The chapter basketball team is rolling ahead under a full head of steam, determined that nothing will keep us from the championship. Led by highscoring Don Fletcher, last year's starting five of Fletcher, Bob Kirkpatrick, Tom Buckovich, Bruce Butler, and Jim Brands is intact. Veteran Bert Edwards and Frosh Bob Boone, Don Falkenstern, and Andy Schrader give depth and strength to the team.

The men of Zeta are concluding their finest semester in recent years. Its brothers have received many individual awards. On December 3, 1958, at the Omicron Delta Kappa honors chapel, John Gigax and Al Robinson were tapped into Omicron Delta Kappa. Mike Ostergard and Ed Crum were honored by the Phi Society of Western Reserve for ranking among the top ten freshmen in scholarship. The chapter was officially presented with the Scholastic Improvement Trophy for 1957-58 at this time.

The chapter is doing very well in intramural sports. With good showings in volleyball and first semester basketball, Zeta is in second place in the fraternity division. The prospect is very good that Zeta will capture the all-sports trophy.

Paul Schupp has been appointed to the student-council as the representative of Polemic, the all-campus literary magazine. Brother Schupp is also social sciences editor of Polemic.

Social Cochairmen John Frazier and Gary Deonise, have done a fine job, and the Shelter has been the scene of many well-planned parties this semester.

During November, a Toga Party with the brothers and their dates dressed in costumes of Ancient Rome, was enjoyed by all. Our winter formal was held at the Tudor Room of the Tudor Arms Hotel on December 5, 1958. On December 11, 1958, the pledges held the annual pledge party, with the actives dressed as Russian peasants while the pledges came as the aristocracy. The pledge class put on a skit which consisted of a Kangaroo Court before which all the actives were charged, convicted, and just penalties were meted out.

On January 12, 1958, a dinner was held in honor of C. D. Russell, Zeta, '19, who is retiring as secretary of Western Reserve University.

New officers for the coming year are: president, Mike Ostergard; vice-president, Pat Walsh; corresponding secretary Rex Hyre; recording secretary, Jake Fridline; treasurer, Al Robinson; assistant treasurer, Ed Crum; guide, Jim Ellis; and sergeant at arms, Bill McClure. Under these able leaders Zeta intends to continue setting the pace for fraternities at Western Reserve.

Delta Omicron took Dad's Day for the fourth time in five years, due to a strong showing in the Dad's Day track meet. The winning of the big trophy climaxed a tight early season sport schedule of softball, tennis, and golf. Although finishing only fifth in softball, the Delts placed Pitcher Lanny Larason on the all-star team, and Bill Bennett and Ford Ross on the second team. In tennis, after tying the Betas for the championship, the Delts lost the plaque to old man weather. Leading in a four set match and needing only two more games to win the title, the team was rained out in the midst of play and then lost a replay the next day when the match had to be started over. Delts placed two of the four all-star players in Chick Edwards and Lyle Breeding. Golf finally proved a breakthrough, as Bailey Word and Bob Bloom, all-star selections, led the team through an undefeated season. Bill Brell and Dave Bynum rounded out the foursome.

The Dad's Day triumph came at the expense of the favored Betas, who lost the tennis match to the Delts by one game. The softball team pounded out a 23-9 victory over the Highlanders. The golf team was stunned by a hard match and managed only a tie, which tied with the SAEs for the Dad's Day trophy, but the Delts finished higher in the track meet and lost the meet itself by only 3½ points, due to the flashy running of Bill Bennett and Ford Ross, and a united effort on the part of the entire chapter.

In a pretrack meet event, the Delts and Phi Delts staged a donkey race through Fulton, sponsoring Chaplain Asbury against Professor Fuller. The chapter's donkey failed to win at the last second when the burro balked at the tape. It was declared a tie.

The intramural swimming team finished seventh despite strong showings by Bob Whyte, Mouse Wright, Bailey Word, Paydie Adams, and Chick Edwards.

The pledges eked out a 6-0 victory in a hard-fought pledge-active football game on Priest Field. The basketball team looked forward to a good year after sparkling in their opener, a 37-27 upset over Sigma Chi.

On March 17, Delta Omicron sponsored a charity game between the Marquis Haynes' Harlem Magicians and the Boston Shamrocks, played in the Westminster gymnasium.

New officers elected for 1959-60 were: president, Dave Wright; treasurer, Bill Dodson; assistant treasurer, Jerry Powell; sergeant at arms, Mike Hawkins; recording secretary, Ken Love; corresponding secretary, Bailey Word; and guide, Bill Timmerman.

As a successful fall semester draws to a close, Delta Rho looks forward with even greater optimism.

The strongly favored swimming team added another trophy with outstanding performances by Brothers Donnally, Lybert, Meade, and Shepard. The badminton team, under the able leadership of Jack Thomas, is expected to defend the trophy with another undefeated season. Pledge class talent has bolstered the basketball team, which finished in the second spot last year, and the prospects look good for an additional victory. Outstanding cagers, Chris Lunn and Bill Greable, represent the Delts on the varsity team and Delt Skiers John Miller, Bob Hodgson, and Bill Stevens, the latter of which recently returned from the F.I.S. championships in Austria, form the nucleus of the ski team. Our volleyball team, undefeated for the past two years, lost the trophy by a narrow margin with a second place finish.

Social high lights thus far include a pledge dance with the theme, Westside Story, a Christmas pajama dance, and various firesides and river parties. The outstanding woodsie was the apple squeeze, which provided refreshment for the following Halloween party. Plans are on the fire for the coming alumni banquet and dinner dance.

Under the direction of our new song leader, Kirk Prindle, we have presented several serenades and hope to improve on a third-place finish in the approaching choral contest. A recently formed campus quartet, including Delts Dave Coxwell, Kirk Prindle, and Mike Moloso, have given many performances for town and campus organizations.

On the campus activity scene, the Delts are represented by Ian MacGowan, sophomore class president; Bill Knorp, I.F.C. president and head counselor of the freshman dorm; and Jack Thomas, president of the intramural men's associations.

Delta Rho received second place in scholarship last semester, and we hope to continue our outstanding record in all fields of campus activity.

MIKE ROGERS

West Virginia

Gamma Delta is looking forward to a second semester even more successful than the first of the present school year. Last January saw several valuable men graduate; however, we have initiated one of the finest pledge classes in years so they should take up any slack left by our departed brothers.

Delta Tau Delta won first place in the float competition of the Homecoming Parade last November. This marked our third victory in the past five years. John White headed this project and was aided by Joe Opp and Joe Johnston. The float featured a functioning water fall.

Once again Gamma Delta won the sing held in Pittsburgh for the chapters of this area. Joe Johnston, who did such a wonderful job at the Karnea, once again inspired us to victory in this annual event. This being our third consecutive triumph, we now are entitled to retain permanent possession of the clock, which is emblematic of winning this event.

Christmas was quite an affair here, as usual. Social Chairman Jerry Shepherd, with the help of Bill Higinbotham, put on a party that will long be remembered. Another party was held for underprivileged children. Jack Shepherd coordinated this event.

We are among the top contenders for the all-year cup in athletics, as we await the spring sports program to begin. The Delts are in a strong position to win both the league championships in basketball, as the tournaments draw near. The squads are coached by Dick Taylor and Bud Curtis. Tom Young won the diving championship in the interfraternity swimming meet last January. This led him to a place on the varsity swimming team, along with Ron Klug.

The Delts will be quite active in varsity sports this spring. The baseball team will rely heavily on the bat of Wayne Austin, who has hit .300 for the past two seasons. The track squad should feature three sophomore speedsters from Delta Hall: Glen Hunt, Tom Young, and Leon Silar.

Two other Delts were recently initiated into Scabbard and Blade, the military honorary. Bruce Meredith and Fred Garner received this honor in return for their outstanding military bearing.

JOHNNY DORSEY

Wisconsin

The social high light of the semester was the Minnesota football game and a visit of almost the entire Beta Eta Chapter. With some 40 Gamma Phis, they returned a visit we made last year, accompanied by Wisconsin Tri-Delts. The results of these two expeditions have been an all-around pleasing tradition being established and a much closer bond between two chapters, formerly arch rivals.

Delts are, as usual, finding their way to leadership positions in every phase of campus life. Brother Matt Iverson is on the executive committee of the student body government, Wally Stolz serves on the Union Directorate, John Cartwright captains the varsity fencing team, Tom Schroeder is vice-president of Haresfoot, and Jack Porter is drum major for the marching band.

Brother Iverson recently received high honors, and Brother Bob Stedman received honors, for outstanding scholastic achievements.

Those initiated in the fall class are already lending their time and varied talents to the chapter in fine manner.

Looking ahead to Campus Carnival, which is chairmanned by Bill Staab, we believe we have a better idea than that which won us first place last year. With the help of the Gamma Phis, who won first in their division last year, victory looms large.

Guiding us through the coming year will be officers who, we believe, will really make things move. Brother Bob Stedman is president; Bruce Rohloff, vice-president; Don Schneeberger, treasurer; Keith Thomson, recording secretary; and Wally Stolz, corresponding secretary. With these men in office, Beta Gamma is sure to continue to lead the Greeks at Wisconsin.

THE DELT ALUMNI CHAPTERS

Atlanta

Judging from an attendance of more than 100 alumni and actives, and the comments of those attending, the annual meeting of the Atlanta Alumni Chapter last December was a resounding success.

Timing our meeting to coincide with the meeting of the National Interfraternity Conference in Atlanta, we gathered at Dales' Cellar, an Atlanta restaurant widely known for its atmosphere and excellent steaks, for dinner. We had as our guests the officers and past officers of the Fraternity attending the NIC: Francis M. Hughes, President; Joel W. Reynolds, Past President; Hugh Shields, Executive Vice-President; William B. Spann, Southern Division Vice-President; and Edwin H. Hughes, III, Editor of THE RAINBOW; also attending were several undergraduate delegates to the Conference.

Executive Vice-President SHIELDS, Major RALPH BLACK, President HUGHES, and CARL E. STIPE, JR., at Atlanta alumni banquet.

After a lively fellowship hour and an excellent dinner, Carl Stipe, president of the alumni chapter, introduced President Hughes who spoke to us emphasizing continued and lasting loyalty to the Fraternity.

Following President Hughes's address, the annual business meeting of the alumni chapter was convened. The following officers and members of the advisory board were elected for 1959: president, William L. Worley; vice-president, David A. Smith; secretary-treasurer, John W. Pattillo; and members of the advisory board: E. Blount Boswell and Carl E. Stipe.

Atlanta alumni president, CARL STIPE, and President HUGHES checking agenda.

President HUGHES delivering speech.

In January, Brother Stevens Mitchell, feeling that it was time for another party, got the new year off to a fast start by entertaining the alumni chapter and the officers of the three active chapters in Georgia at a buffet supper at his home. Some 80 Delts attended. Delts in Georgia find it difficult to thank Brother Mitchell for the many things he has done for the Fraternity; however, since this party came near his birthday, the alumni chapter presented him with a gift certificate for the books he so loves to read.

We in Atlanta feel that this is going to be a big year for Delts in this area. It can and will be if Delts in Atlanta will join with us to make it one. We hope all Delts will ask themselves as President Hughes asked us at our annual meeting: "What sort of fraternity would Delta Tau Delta be if every Delt were just like me?"

JOHN W. PATTILLO

Boise Valley

This report is to record some items of interest. I got a letter from George Brunzell. George is in Spokane, Washington. He wanted me to give his best to the gang. George is executive vice-president of the Washington Water Power Company, and is active in the Northwest Electric Power and Light Association. He promised to come down to Boise for a get-together. As a result of the annual Christmas party, Dr. Paul Poulsen and lovely wife made the society page in the morning paper, and Chuck Bend and date made the afternoon paper. Both were reports and pictures on the Delt affair. We got a very nice letter from Mrs. A. L. Reeb, in appreciation of perpetuating the memory of her son and our brother Delt, to whom the Boise Valley Alumni Scholarship award is dedicated.

Wiff Janssen got several spreads in the paper in connection with the civic activities of the Ad Club. Wiff was president of the club. Got a letter from Neal Creswell, who is living in Milwaukee. Neal was recently promoted to assistant director of agencies with the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co.

Gene Hutteball is rebuilding his Hi-Fi set for Stereo. Delts elected to office around Boise included: State Senator Carl Burt and County Surveyor Jack Haymond. We now have a permanent Post Office Box. Just address correspondence to Box 1201, Boise, Idaho.

Brothers present at recent luncheons were Paul Poulsen, Jerry Evans, Chuck Daiger, Pat Day, Russ Viehweg, Bob Nelson, Lyle Briggs, Bill Briggs, John Van Deusen, Wiff Janssen, Gene Hutteball, Howard Ahlskog, Al Kaiser, Chick Donaldson, Ed Iddings, Jim Matthews, Leon Weeks, Ton Henessey, and Don Lawrence. The Cleveland Alumni Chapter, with a paid-up membership of some 150 Delts, is looking forward to joining with Zeta Chapter at Western Reserve University and Delta Omega Chapter at Kent State University to celebrate Founders Day and commemorate the 100th anniversary of Delta Tau Delta. President Ron Rice and his committee are working hard to make this Founders Day celebration, which will be held at the University Club late in February, present an outstanding program and set a record for attendance, at this centennial celebration.

The alumni chapter's last event was a party held on December 5 in the Rathskeller of the Leisy Brewing Company. This annual evening meeting has proved to be most popular among the alumni, both young and old, and attendance was always good.

We continue to hold our weekly luncheon meetings in the Farm Room of Clark's Playhouse Square restaurant each Thursday noon. All Delts, undergraduate or alumni, active or inactive, are cordially invited and are always welcome.

We wish to extend to all undergraduate and alumni chapters a belated New Year's greeting and all good wishes for a successful 1959.

FRED H. STANBRO

Greater New York

The Greater New York Alumni Association will hold its annual Founders Day dinner at the Princeton Club, on Wednesday, April 22. Principal speaker at the dinner will be the Honorable Richard M. Simpson, Pittsburgh, '23. Mr. Simpson is representative in the United States Congress from Pennsylvania's eighth congressional district. A reception, starting at 6:00 p.m., will precede the dinner.

Here in New York City we have a novel manner of holding our regular luncheon meetings. In order to oblige members situated in both uptown and downtown New York, we have a monthly meeting in each area. The downtown luncheons are held the first Tuesday of each month, at the Savarin Coffee Shop, 120 Broadway, and the uptown luncheons take place on the second Thursday of each month, at the Princeton Club, 39th and Park. By virtue of this convenient arrangement, we hope to see native New Yorkers, as well as the many Delts visiting our city, at either one, or both, of these luncheons.

WILLIAM M. GASTON

Houston

Big event since the election of new officers was a most elaborate and delightful Christmas party given Sunday, December 14, at the home of President Harley Eaker. Scores of Delts and their ladies checked in for this one and really enjoyed themselves, thanks to the wonderful Eaker hospitality and the planning of the committee, which, besides Harley and Winifred Eaker, comprised Artie and Colleen Lamb, Meredith and Jean Long, Dave and Joan Morrison, Wayne and Pat Ogden, Bobby and June Brodnax, and Hirst and Ruth Suffield. The festivities had 'em all wishing that Christmas came more than once a year!

The first meeting in 1959 will be a January 22 breakfast which will be history by the time this appears. President Eaker, Secretary Meredith Long, and others are hoping to get regular meetings set up now for at least eight months of the year. Even talking about a spring dance!

Our group was shocked and grieved late in the year by the death of two of our members, both of whom had served the alumni chapter as officers. John Fry, Gamma Iota, '49, died November 18, following an automobile accident, and George Leland Townsan, Omega, '22, who several months ago moved from Houston to Tulsa, died in that city on December 13.

SILAS B. RAGSDALE

Indianapolis

At the annual fall meeting of the Indianapolis Alumni Chapter, held at the Fort Benjamin Harrison Officer's Club, the following were elected as the new officers for the coming year: president, William Eckhart; vice-president, Lloyd Rossebo; secretary, Winstan R. Sellick; and, treasurer, David Englehart.

It has been an honor to our group to have Francis M. Hughes serve the Fraternity as National President, and to have him recently re-elected to that office. We all feel that under his leadership the Fraternity cannot help but progress to untold heights.

On December 14, the alumni chapter held its annual Christmas party at the Marott Hotel. The fine turnout saw Fred Hill once again serve as Santa Claus, as only Fred can do the job. We were also privileged to see the premiere showing of the movie of the Centennial Karnea, written, produced, and directed by Donald E. Hughes, elder son of President Hughes. We heartily commend this fine film to all Deltas, undergraduate and alumni alike.

At the time of this writing, we are looking forward to the annual Founders Day Banquet and Dance. This program is participated in by the Indianapolis Alumni Chapter and the five Delt chapters in Indiana, located at Butler, DePauw, Indiana, Purdue, and Wabash.

We have weekly luncheons at the clubrooms of the Indianapolis Bar Association, at 12:15 each Tuesday. This is an informal meeting with no planned programs, making it possible for those who must do so, to eat and run. We have enjoyed a fine attendance at these luncheons but find that there is always plenty of room for other good Deltas to join us. If you find yourself in downtown Indianapolis on Tuesday noon, please come and meet with us.

WINSTAN R. SELICK

Kansas City

Another year is beginning for our organization but let's review 1958 for just a moment. Our three important functions were Founders Day in March, the rush party in August, and the Christmas Dance in December.

Four hours, three days a year, doesn't seem like much of one's time to give to our Fraternity, but the interest and attendance has been very disappointing.

What does it take to get our alumni out to these functions? Free drinks, a stag party—what is the answer? We have talked over the possibility of having the Christmas Party at another time of the year because of the holiday conflict. Would you like to have a stag affair for alumni only, or a dance in the spring for alumni only? We have become so dependent on the active chapters in the surrounding area for a good attendance at all our functions that the purpose of our organization has almost lost all meaning. We would appreciate your comments directed to the secretary, Don Kaufmann, 1311 W. 44th Terrace, Kansas City, Missouri.

There are more than 400 alumni in the Greater Kansas City Area. We have an average of eight that come to our Thursday luncheons at the University Club and around 80 that pay dues each year. This eight and 80 are always the same people who keep our organization in existence. Help us make that 88 per cent.

Alumni should feel a strong devotion to the Fraternity. It gave us strength, shelter, warm and lasting friendships, moral, spiritual, and social development. Renew the Delta Creed and give a little time for Delta Tau Delta.

Our new officers for 1959 are Sam Sherwood, president; Fred Biehl, vice-president; Don Kaufmann, secretary; and Wendell Bell, treasurer.

See you in March at the Founders Day Dinner.

MILES NICHOLS

La Jolla

We started out the New Year right by having the best turnout for months at our regular luncheon. Ken Dame drove more than 100 miles to be with us. Two of our most regular attendants, "Buck" Powell and Kirk O'Ferrall, were unable to come, as Kirk is in Arizona and generally acts as Buck's chauffeur.

Our meetings are held regularly on the first Tuesday of the month at 12:30 p.m.; however, at least once a year we try to arrange one night meeting so that those brothers who cannot come to our noon meetings will have a chance to get together with us at that time. Our last night meeting was held last November and more than 20 Brother Deltas showed up. With the help of an accodian, brought by one of the guests, we all had a chance to brush up on many of the old Delt songs many of us had not sung for a long time.

Brother Francis F. Patton has moved to Chicago, much to the regret of all of us, as Franz was not only one of the founders of our chapter, but was always a guiding light.

We now have over 30 paid-up members of our chapter, and about every section of the country is represented.

GEORGE M. GILMORE

Long Beach

On January 9, the Long Beach Alumni Chapter met for dinner at the University Club to welcome Dr. Paul Jones, from the University of California at Santa Barbara, Delta Psi's chapter adviser, and Howard Mills, Treasurer of the Fraternity. We are endeavoring to obtain the approval of the Fraternity to organize a colony at Long Beach State College, with the objective of becoming an active chapter of Delta Tau Delta. The college has a fine campus, adequate plant, an excellent faculty, and is growing rapidly, with a present enrollment of 10,000 students and a projected enrollment of an additional 10,000 within the next decade.

Dr. Jones outlined the requirements for the establishment of a chapter, from both the standpoint of the college administration and the responsibilities of the alumni. Mr. Mills reviewed the results, so far, of our request to the Arch Chapter that the college be given consideration as eligible for expansion.

At our December luncheon, officers were elected for the year, 1959. Thomas E. Collins, Oregon, '47, became president; William E. Fisher, Baker, '29, vice-president, and Edwin S. Thomas, U.C.L.A., '27, was re-elected secretary and treasurer, in recognition of his very able conduct of that office during the past year.

We meet regularly on the second Tuesday of each month, at noon, at the University Club, and are always glad to welcome any visiting Deltas who may be in Long Beach or vicinity. Those who live in this city or adjacent communities, and who are not now members of this chapter, are invited to join us.

ROBERT B. TAPLIN

National Capital

The 100th anniversary of our Fraternity will be celebrated at a Founders Day dinner to be held in the National Press Club of the Nation's Capital, Friday, April 3, at 6:30 p.m. Brother Herb

JOHN G. NORRIS, Geo. Washington, '29, military editor of The Washington Post, addressing National Capital alumni.

McCracken, Pittsburgh, '21, past president of the Fraternity, member of the Committee of the Distinguished Service Chapter, will be the principal speaker. A large turnout of Delts prominent in government, politics, and business is expected to join with the actives of the Delaware, George Washington, and Maryland chapters in celebrating the centennial. All Delts who expect to be in the vicinity of Washington, D. C., on that date should contact Brother Robert E. Newby, George Washington, '24, for further details—see listing in the directory of alumni secretaries at the back of THE RAINBOW.

A large gathering of Delts attended the December luncheon at the Touchdown Club to hear Brother John G. Norris, George Washington, '29, military editor of The Washington Post tell of his recent trip to the Far East. The first issue of the National Capital Delt for '59, has been distributed to the more than 2,000 Delts residing in the area, soliciting annual contributions to support the alumni chapter in its activities during the centennial year. Notices of luncheons and "special events" are only sent to annual contributors. This curtailment of mailings has become necessary because of the 50 per cent increase in third-class postage rates. If you are not on the mailing list, please contact the undersigned.

ROBERT E. NEWBY

Pittsburgh

Do you count among your New Year's resolutions one to attend regularly our weekly luncheon meetings, now being held every Monday at noon, at the Oliver Building Restaurant, Smithfield Street, Pittsburgh? You are always welcome!

The 23rd annual Delt Christmas Service, held at Trinity Cathedral, Pittsburgh, on Sunday evening, December 7, was most worth while. Dean High Moor, as usual, delivered an excellent message, and the West Virginia University Glee Club gave a magnificent performance. This group was the official glee club for the Karnea, and for that affair it did a fabulous job of singing, for which we were all very grateful. For the first time in several years, the brothers from Allegheny College took part in the sing, having made the long trip to Pittsburgh from Meadville in very bad weather. They did a fine job, and we appreciate their co-operation.

Our next event will take place in the spring, and it is one we always look forward to: the annual Founders Day Dinner and baseball party. William Swanson will serve as chairman. More about this in the next issue.

If you are not getting your alumni notices, or have changed your address, please notify Robert N. Craft, secretary, 12th Fl., Chamber of Commerce Building, Pittsburgh 19, Pennsylvania.

We are happy to report that there has been a great response to our request for dues, and we thank you! If you haven't paid yours, Robert G. Taylor, c/o U. S. Steel, Room 2901, 525 Wm. Penn Place, Pittsburgh 19, Pennsylvania, will be glad to receive your check for $3.

ROBERT N. CRAFT

Portland

Highlighting the close of 1958 was the Portland Alumni Delt formal, which was held Saturday evening, December 20, at the Old Alderwood Country Club here in Portland. Dance Chairman C. (Pat) Lund did an admirable job of making the evening an enjoyable one. Over 150 Delts, wives, and guests were on hand; old friendships were renewed; and new friendships were formed. Again this year we were pleased at the representations from a number of the surrounding undergraduate chapters. Included, among others, were undergraduates from Whitman, Washington, Oregon and Oregon State.

Next on the agenda is the completion of the Portland Alumni Directory, which should be in the hands of all Delt alums in the Greater Portland Area within the next 30 days. Under the co-chairmanship of Jim Fisher and Paul Eckelman, the roster is destined to have a number of constructive changes over previous issues, in hopes that the directory will be even more useful to alumni members.

Tentatively scheduled is another bridge party sometime in February. Following the successful debut of this event last November, our policy is to have a function of this type every three or four months throughout the year.

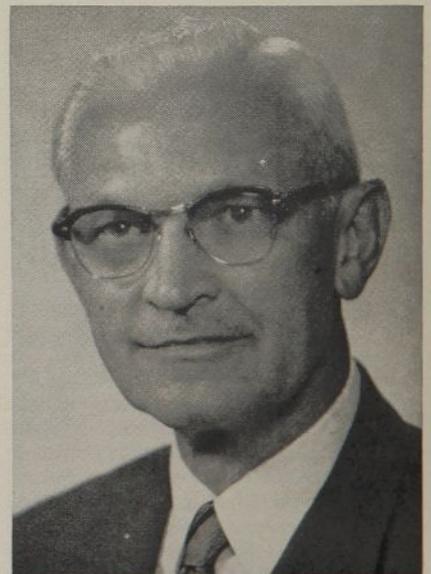

Of considerable interest to all Delts in this area is the forthcoming Founders Day Banquet. Much planning has gone into this coming event and all indications point to it as one of the largest Founders Day celebrations this area has ever seen.

PAUL E. PETERSON

Toledo

Through the co-operation of Harry Hansen, the Central Office, and the Toledo secretary, Toledo alumni have their first Delt Directory. With the ever-changing population, it looks as if it will soon be out of date; however, keep the Central Office informed and we won't lose track of you.

Curtis R. Pipes, Mu, '48, is now the service manager for the DeVilbiss Company, after ten years as assistant service manager. Curt lives at 3501 Anderson Parkway, which is a correction for the Directory.

New faces at the weekly meetings are Lucian O'Kelley, Nolen T. Barnes, and Jerry Towns. We are sorry to lose "Bally" Ballinger to Florida, but we still have his sons.

Dr. Ballinger, Ohio Wesleyan, '22, has been named secretary and treasurer of the American College of Osteopathic Surgeons. Thus, Toledo's loss is Florida's gain, for the office is located in Coral Gables.

In Toledo, Dr. Ballinger was the chief of surgery at Parkview Osteopathic Hospital, and the secretary of its board of trustees. He is a past-president of the Toledo Osteopathic Academy and the American College of Osteopathic Surgeons. A graduate of the American School of Osteopathy, Kirksville, Missouri, Dr. Ballinger has practiced in Ohio since 1925.

Beta Chapter, at Ohio University, initiated Dr. Ballinger, but he later transferred to, and graduated from, Ohio Wesleyan University. His twin sons, FRANK HOGUELAND, Topeka alumni secretary, visits Delt Governor GEORGE DOCKING of Kansas at State House.

Richard and Robert, are both Delts of the class of '49 at Ohio Wesleyan.

Dr. and Mrs. Ballinger now reside at 111 Majorca Avenue, Coral Gables 34, Florida.

Topeka

The Topeka alumni group has added several new members this winter from Delts locating in Topeka, whom we are glad to have with us at our monthly luncheons. Our star member, Governor George Docking, was re-elected for his second term as governor of Kansas, at the November election. He is always present at our luncheon meetings when he can make it.

Our annual election was held at the January meeting, and Anderson Chandler, vice-president of one of the Topeka banks, was elected president. Wallace Buck, Jr., a young attorney, was elected vice-president, and as both of these Delts take an active interest in the organization, we expect to have a good year. We regret that one of our members, Ferd Voiland, Jr., has moved to California. He has our best wishes for success in his new location. Cliff Stratton, the former Washington correspondent of the Topeka Daily Capital, has retired, but is always with us for all Delt affairs.

No special news, but hope to plan for a spring party to report later on. Visiting Delts, give us a call.

The Procter & Gamble Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, has announced that EDMUND G. VIMOND, JR., Northwestern, '57, has accepted a position in the advertising department of the company. He has been assigned to the group responsible for consumer marketing of Gleem. In this position, he will assist in planning advertising and sales promotion campaigns for the product and in co-ordinating market research, product research, budgeting, and packaging activities. Following his graduation from Northwestern, Mr. Vimond served six months in the Marine Corps and is now a member of the active reserve.

An apology to all concerned. In the December issue of THE RAINBOW it was stated that JAMES E. VAUGHN was initiated by Omicron Chapter at Iowa on October 12, 1956, with a straight-A average. Actually Initiate Vaughn was initiated by Delta Omicron Chapter at Westminster, October 12, 1958.

cated in Indiana can attest to what a splendid job he did during those ten years. In May of 1929, Cap Sauers left Indiana and went to Chicago, to take on the duties of the Cook County Forest Preserve District.

Few visitors to Chicago would be able to estimate correctly the total number of acres comprising the Cook County Forest Preserve. In 1929, when Cap Sauers first came to Chicago, the Preserve included a total of 28,000 acres. Superintendent Sauers has now increased this acreage to 45,000, the biggest metropolitan Preserve in the nation. Each year, millions of Chicagoans visit the Preserve to loaf, to make nature studies, or to use some of the hundreds of other facilities offered.

As head of this sprawling system, Cap Sauers works hard at avoiding being tied down to a desk too much of the time. Most of the time he is out in the woods inspecting his domain. One of his favorite hobbies is walking, in spite of his 65 years, and he is adept at finding some new project to inspect in order to do that which he most enjoys about his job—being out in the forest rather than at a desk.

At Purdue, Cap studied to become an extension specialist in horticulture and landscape gardening. He went on to graduate school at Harvard, where he studied landscape architecture.

Cap is a great reader. He goes to bed early at night but is up in the morning at 4:00 a.m., to read before starting out on the daily routine. He likes to cook, and numbers in his library many cookbooks. His favorite recreation, however, is his job. He likes his work and has no intention of retiring.

Next time you are in Chicago, look up Cap Sauers. Most likely, he will be "out in the woods." That is where his job is and that is where he most enjoys being. The rest of us profit immensely from the kind of work to which Cap Sauers has devoted his life. If you city boys have missed making a visit to one of these forest preserves or state parks, give yourself a break and plan to visit one this spring. You will quite likely become a regular visitor thereafter.

LOYALTY FUND LIFE MEMBERS

Since the establishment January 1, 1926, of Delta Tau Delta's Loyalty Fund, its endowment fund, 20,599 men have become Loyalty Fund Life Members. Four hundred eleven have been added to this group from August 1, 1958, to February 10, 1959.

Following are the names of men initiated prior to January 1, 1926, who have become Loyalty Fund Life Members upon contribution of $50:

Robert S. Cooper, Kenyon, '24
Merritt C. Farrell, Cincinnati, '28
Edgar C. Cannon, Pittsburgh, '09
Alvin J. Weber, Jr., Tennessee, '29
