No. 2

The Supervisor of Scholarship

In authorizing a new office on the Arch Chapter, Supervisor of Scholarship, the Cleveland Karnea of 1923 took a forward step by recognizing concretely the obligation of a college fraternity to foster and encourage, indeed to insist upon, a decent respect for scholastic attainment among its members. The success of any such undertaking depends almost entirely on the qualifications of the officer charged with the new duty and responsibility. The election of Alvan Emile Duerr as Supervisor of Scholarship assures the desired success.

To the older members of Delta Tau Delta Brother Duerr and his distinguished service to the Fraternity are well known. For the benefit of the undergraduate body it may be appropriate to recount here his career.

Born in Ohio, he entered Kenyon College in 1889 and became a member of the Chi Chapter; in 1891 he transferred to Williams College, where he founded the Sigma Chapter. Due to his active interest in the Eastern Division, he was elected President in 1891, serving until 1893, when he became General Secretary, serving until 1897. From that date to 1906 he handled the finances of the General Fraternity, reorganizing the system and establishing a sound financial policy. For the instruction of the members of the Fraternity he undertook the task of preparing a Manual of Delta Tau Delta, which was in use for many years.

By profession Brother Duerr has been a schoolmaster from the day of his graduation from college. He has served as teacher and master in leading preparatory schools—

Phillips Exeter Academy, William Penn Charter School of Philadelphia, and Polytechnic Preparatory School of Brooklyn. In 1912 he purchased an interest in, and later became owner and headmaster of the Stone School at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, now known as the Storm King School.

Under Duerr's able leadership this school is making a valuable contribution toward a better citizenship. It is an institution, democratic in the best sense, where both physiologically and psychologically, care is given to increasing the mental efficiency and moral stamina of each boy as an individual. With the aid of modern medical science an effort is made to discover the physical cause for mental inefficiency. It is no small achievement to be a potent factor in training boys in the way best suited to the needs of each to do a man's vigorous and helpful work in the world.

It is evident that Brother Duerr is eminently qualified for his new office, both by his inherent ability and on his record of educational accomplishment.

FREDERICK C. HODGDON.

Better Scholarship

Alvan E. Duerr

Chi & Sigma '93

Supervisor of Scholarship

One of the outstanding lessons taught us by the war was the crying need for well trained men, with the disconcerting fact that the average American is less intelligent and mentally less efficient than had been supposed. If our college graduates are to meet this need, it will be necessary for them to realize that the mere fact of having been exposed to a college training does not mean that they are men of either intelligence or of education, and that as the game of life becomes more complicated and competition more keen, accidental fortunes and careers will become less frequent, and well trained minds more essential. Our young college students must realize that, entirely aside from the practical value of anything that they may be taught in college, there can be no question that the world needs more than it has ever needed before men who can think straight, men with a good sense of values, with active imaginations and a broad outlook, with a good capacity for work, men who can make their mental machine respond promptly and effectively to any reasonable call that may be made on it. And all this a college course, taken in the right spirit, will accomplish earlier in life and more quickly than any other agency that we know of.

No student who does not enter college with some appreciation of the nature of his problem runs much risk of getting a maximum of good out of his course, and he will either have to waste a great deal of time in after years learning the abc's of life, or he may never learn it, the luxurious loafing that took the place of more serious pursuits during his college days having unfitted him for anything beyond the stage of dilettanteism.

The average college student begins his course with no clear idea of what he expects that course to contribute to his natural endowments, and he has no clear conception of the basic principles which make for success in life, no matter what the field of activity. Moreover, college and university life offers so many attractions, social, political, athletic, and even academic, that it is very easy to drift, and most students do. College authorities are doing what they can to give greater direction to a student's activities, but their authority is limited largely to purely academic activities, and until they can control the rest, their supervision of the academic side will avail little.

The fraternity seems, consequently, the only organization on the field that can be of real help. Fraternities have been for years forces for good in this as well as in other phases of college life. But there has not been a healthy attitude in our colleges about hard mental work. The grind has been a disgrace, and should be where the grind is akin to the miser. But if being grilled day in and day out for the sake of getting a good physical machine is glory, where is the disgrace in grinding, if need be, to put a bit keener edge on the machine that will be even more effective in the battle of life? When grinding means simply having a serious purpose and a definite goal and a keen realization of the value of a well disciplined mind, we might well pray for a few more grinds.

In creating the office of Supervisor of Scholarship, Delta Tau Delta is following the wise lead of several other fraternities to conserve not only its own energy and membership, but the energy of its members as well, so that our Fraternity may become an always greater force for ultimate good in the life of its members; so that it may vitalize the experience of the past in the lives of the present, that it may give its undergraduates the benefit of all that its alumni are learning.

A fraternity is more than a boarding house or a social club; it must be, if it is to survive. Fraternity men are held together by the memory of beautiful companionship and friendship; but the bond is made really strong by the fact that the fraternity is on the right side, actively and energetically, of every problem that we face during our college course, and that it is helping to make us infinitely more fit for the serious business of life.

We are not particularly proud of the scholastic record of our undergraduate chapters; we shall not be proud until we find that Delta Tau Delta is contributing to the world at large the type of men that will silence the present just criticism of the average college graduate. There is considerable evidence of an insistence by our colleges upon more efficiency on the part of college men to meet the greater demands of life. We want Delta Tau Delta to be one of the first to respond to that movement, and to help direct it.

The Fifteenth Interfraternity Conference

President Bielaski Elected Chairman

The fifteenth Interfraternity Conference, held in New York on November 30th and December 1st, 1923, selected as chairman for the ensuing year President A. Bruce Bielaski, who served as secretary of the Conference during 1923. This is the second time a member of Delta Tau Delta has been so honored, President Curtis having filled the office in 1915. The very interesting and complete story of the Conference and its work which follows is copied from the Interfraternity Conference Bulletin, issued by the Committee on Publicity of which Mr. Peter Vischer is chairman.

The fifteenth Interfraternity Conference was called to order by its chairman, John J. Kuhn, at the Hotel Pennsylvania in New York, at noon on November 30, 1923. The Conference was the most important, and at the same time the largest yet held, 352 attending its sessions. Of this number 13 were educators representing various colleges and universities, 178 were delegates, 38 were undergraduates representing various college interfraternity councils, 48 were representatives from local fraternities desirous of nationalization, and 75 were visitors. Fifty-four fraternities and 87 institutions of learning, in all parts of the country, were represented.

Greetings to the Conference were sent by a number of prominent fraternity men, among them President Calvin Coolidge, Newton D. Baker, Rear-Admiral Cary T. Grayson, Will H. Hays, Col. E. M. House and others. Their greetings contained high praise for college fraternities in their work of upbuilding character.

Mr. Kuhn, in his report, sketched briefly the history of the Conference. Fifteen years ago it was first called following a meeting of the Department of Universities and Colleges of the Religious Education Association, by Dr. W. H. P. Faunce, President of Brown University. Its development since then, he said, has been great enough to justify its acceptance as a solid and lasting institution of importance not only to national college fraternities but as well to the educational institutions themselves.

"The Interfraternity Conference is not in any way a sort of super-fraternity," declared Mr. Kuhn, "it does not invade the field of the fraternity itself. It is not held for the purpose of publicly extolling the merits of the college fraternity system, even though the reiteration of the aims and objects of the college fraternity during the discussions which are to take place, may indirectly have that effect upon those who do not know our ideals and practices.

"No fraternity need fear that it is committed by reason of any resolution passed by the Conference. The recommendations adopted are, at the most, merely advice which the delegates are at liberty to pass on, if they wish, to their own fraternities, for the chapter to adopt or to refuse to adopt.

"As a system, we have been accused of snobbishness, exclusiveness and a desire to be an aristocracy. The Committee on Expansion has answered this criticism effectively. It has produced through its efforts a meeting of delegates from a list of more than 500 local college fraternities, with the idea in view of the creation of one or more new national fraternities which will be rivals of our own member fraternities.

"The college fraternity system should be big enough so that any worthy student who desires to join a fraternity of national and enduring nature, will not be deprived of the kind of benefits and pleasures our own membership has given us, because the fraternities have failed to enlarge sufficiently their facilities.

"Some of these unattached locals have waited so long for adoption by fine families that they have now grown to maturity, and from the opportunity for courtship with each other, provided by the meeting arranged by the Committee on Expansion, they may marry and start up housekeeping for themselves."

Welcoming undergraduate delegates from thirty-eight interfraternity councils, present at the Conference, Mr. Kuhn declared "they are the college fraternity, in the eyes of the world. It is for them primarily that our fraternities exist, and through them that the fraternity is propagated.

"We have long wanted to get over to the undergraduates the spirit of this Conference. We have wanted them to understand that the prejudices, jealousies and bickerings among chapters of college fraternities are no more necessary on the campus than they are among workers in the national field. Each man can feel a thrill of pride in membership in his own fraternity; he may and should strive mightily in healthy rivalry for the advancement of his fraternity and chapter above all others, but at the same time, see that there are ends and objects toward which all fraternities should be devoted for the common good.

"In conclusion, I would emphasize that we are all meeting here because we believe in the merits of the Greek-letter college fraternity. We believe that the voluntary grouping of students living together under the college fraternity system is valuable to university education. We believe that it vitalizes what might otherwise easily become the mechanical, that it connects the class room with the art of living and that it closes the gap between the school room and real life."

Reports of the Secretary and Treasurer

The secretary of the Conference, A. Bruce Bielaski, reported in detail on the business transacted at each meeting of the executive committee. Eleven meetings were held during the year, he said, with an average attendance of eleven members of the committee and chairmen of various committees. He listed the following ten achievements during the past year:

1—The book, "College Fraternities," has been completed and is available for distribution.

2—The work of the committee on publicity has been greatly extended and so marked progress was made in bringing undergraduate bodies more closely in touch with the work of the Conference.

3—Opposition to anti-fraternity legislation in Texas was wholly successful, due in considerable part to the activities of the Conference.

4—Such progress was made in South Carolina as to warrant the hope that hostile legislation now in the statute books there will be repealed to the mutual advantage of the good name of college fraternities and the state.

5—Very important and useful advice and information was distributed broadcast to fraternities and sororities with respect to the action of the New York Legislature against secret organizations, which, through inadvertence, might possibly have affected college fraternities.

6—The consultation of local fraternities was made an accomplished fact.

7—For the first time the participation of undergraduate interfraternity councils in the Conference was obtained—to an extent beyond the expectations of the executive committee.

8—A further digest and index of the minutes has been completed.

9—An interesting study of honorary and professional fraternities was made for presentation to the Conference.

10—An exhaustive study was made of health and sanitary conditions in the colleges and universities.

The treasurer of the Conference, Dr. Walter H. Conley, reported that the Conference has no debts and has a satisfactory working capital in the bank.

Report of the Committee on Conference Plan and Scope

The report of the committee on conference plan and scope, made by James Duane Livingston, was confined to the program for the Conference in session.

Report of the Committee on Extension

The report of the Committee on Extension, made by Don R. Almy, detailed the accomplishments of the committee in regard to its tripartite program: 1—A survey of the institutions of the United States of collegiate rank to determine the extent to which restrictions existed against the organization and maintenance of college fraternities by way of legislation, college regulation, tradition, or otherwise; 2—The publication of a book which would deal with fraternities as a system, as distinct from their individual manifestations, a book designed to inform the unknowing concerning the history, organization, ideals and accomplishments of the system and at the same time stimulate the efforts of the individual chapters and members to emulate the best fraternity ideals; 3—The organization of local associations whose functions it would be to remove restrictions against fraternities in each particular instance where they occurred and where their removal was deemed practical.

The committee found it necessary to make an original, first-hand investigation of the institutions of collegiate rank to determine the conditions therein. It was found that there are almost 900 such institutions in the United States and Canada. In about 660 of them there are no restrictions and the attitudes of the college authorities ranged all the way from ignoring them entirely to full recognition and the closest of cooperation between authorities and fraternities.

It was found that more than 200 different institutions had no fraternities or sororities, but in many of these the environment was such that fraternities would not be comfortable.

Many of these had no restrictions, but also no fraternities. In 117 of these, however, there were restrictions of one kind or another and in the very few of these—they numbered 22—where fraternities were forbidden, some progress toward tolerance was made.

As to the book, now named "College Fraternities," the book is out, sample copies being available at the Conference. The final volume represented the fifth revision of the work, and one-fifth of the volume of material available. The committee reported: "We believe that this book will demonstrate a great need, if not the vital necessity, of such a publication and that it will serve a very useful purpose in the plan of the Conference correctly to inform the public of the general facts about fraternities."

As to the third part of the committee's work, the committee outlined the situation in South Carolina, recalling that in 1920 a movement was made to repeal the anti-fraternity laws in South Carolina, but was unsuccessful by a narrow margin. This year an investigation was made to determine whether or not the time was ripe to revive this movement. It was found not to be, but nevertheless the South Carolina Interfraternity Association was revived under strong leadership to be ready when the time is ripe. A definite plan of action was adopted and is being followed. The fraternity men and women of South Carolina are now working intelligently under splendid leadership to repeal the anti-fraternity law.

In Mississippi, the situation is more hopeful as the result of a recent change in administrations. However, it seems that "the fraternity men and women of Mississippi have not as yet been so thoroughly awakened to the desirability of the repeal of the Mississippi statute as to give evidence of a sufficient public demand" for its repeal.

In Texas, a policy of watchful waiting is in operation. Four anti-fraternity bills were prepared during the past year and one of them seemed likely to prove dangerous. But prompt action by an Interfraternity Conference committee, headed by H. R. Johnston, proved effective in preventing their introduction. Incidentally, the committee reported that it considered the flares in Texas good for the Texas chapters of fraternities, and furthermore, that what Texas needs is more fraternities.

Report of Committee on Alumni Relations

Active interest of graduates in college and chapter constitutes the most important problem facing the American college fraternity, asserted James Anderson Hawes, chairman, in presenting the report of the Committee on Alumni Relations.

"It is a question which cannot be answered or defined in any report," he continued, "but will always remain with every fraternity as the test of the inherent strength of its national organization and of the real loyalty of its alumni, most of whom are so engrossed with family and business cares that they cannot devote the time desired, but who wish to be of help to their chapter and fraternity, and of service to our boys in college."

Dismissing the influence of the individual interested alumnus and that of regional alumni associations as of little real value upon undergraduate fraternity affairs, Mr. Hawes pointed out that Delta Kappa Epsilon officials had found that formation of chapter alumni clubs brought student chapter life and concrete fraternity problems nearer to the individual graduate.

Endowment funds now being raised for the general work of fraternities, he said, represent the most important and far-reaching effort of a permanent character yet undertaken.

"The fraternity magazine and other publications are of the greatest influence and value," the committee's report declared, "and we believe that few fraternities of any size and number of chapters can keep their members informed and interested without such a medium as a recognized magazine."

"Further, the Interfraternity Conference itself is, of course, a tribute entirely to the active interest of the alumni and their relation to the chapters and colleges."

Report of the Committee on Publicity

The Committee on Publicity reported through its chairman, Peter Vischer, that its complete program is now in full swing. This Bulletin, published promptly after every meeting of the executive committee, goes to approximately 500 fraternity officers, educators, and editors of fraternity and college alumni magazines. About twice a month items of general interest are sent to college and the daily papers throughout the country. Items about fraternities that are incorrect or unfair are promptly answered. The committee reported that its work was, on the whole, being favorably received.

Report of the Committee on Social Hygiene

The Committee on Social Hygiene reported through Dr. Thomas W. Galloway, its chairman, that during the past year it had endeavored to fulfill the program authorized at the 1922 plenary Conference and had not attempted any new work.

It was reported that the 1922 report of the committee, which was everywhere acclaimed with such fulsome praise, was distributed with the financial assistance of the American Hygiene Association. Some 4,000 copies of this report were printed and the committee went to considerable trouble to compile a list of faculty members who would be earnestly interested to receive it. The results were gratifying. Instead of meeting opposition to its progressive program, such as might reasonably have been expected, the Committee found that the faculties were welcoming the concern of the Interfraternity Conference in the real welfare of American students. The replies from most colleges showed notable cordiality, commendation, and a wish to cooperate. One college wanted 250 copies of the report!

These copies are now beginning to be sent to the chosen list.

At the same time, with the cooperation of the American Hygiene Association, efforts are now being made to bring about a truly honest and a more modern handling of the student welfare problem by the formation of national and local committees to cooperate with the Conference and the association. A plan is now being developed whereby a national committee shall be formed to act in advisory relationship with the Interfraternity Conference and the Pan-Hellenic Congress to seek and discover sane and suitable steps in the field of student hygiene and welfare. College presidents are now being asked to form temporary committees on social hygiene to study the plan of the Conference Committee on Social Hygiene in terms of their local situation.

Report of Committee on Professional and Honorary Fraternities

Recommendation that the Interfraternity Conference take steps to establish a conference of professional and honorary fraternities, concurrent with the annual meeting of the national body, was ordered held over for a year when the Conference voted to extend the life of the committee for further investigation.

Growth of professional fraternities on the same campus was declared a danger to general college fraternities, during the discussion that followed reading of the committee's report by Dr. J. S. Ferguson, chairman.

Dean E. E. Nicholson of the University of Minnesota said that at his university where professional fraternities maintain chapter houses and take members from among third and fourth year students, there is a possibility that the general fraternities necessarily will have to limit their membership to freshmen and sophomores.

"Ultimately, the professional fraternity will take on more and more the fine attributes of the general organizations, which constitutes a menace," declared William C. Levere of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Other recommendations of the committee, also ordered held over for another year, were: that the Conference define what in its judgment constitutes honorary and professional fraternities; that member fraternities be advised of the desirability of denying to their undergraduate members dual membership in professional fraternities which induct men from the first two classes in colleges of science and art; and that eligibility to membership in the Conference be offered to those professional fraternities which maintain chapter houses and will forego dual membership with constituent fraternities of the Conference.

During the year, the committee sent questionnaires to seventy-five professional and honorary fraternities, seeking information as to purposes, limitations of membership, organization and special problems. Twenty-five replied.

To the question of an annual conference of professional and honorary fraternities, twenty-two organizations replied in the affirmative. Fourteen of those endorsed holding a conference concurrent with the annual Interfraternity Conference.

Interfraternity Council Representatives Meet

Representatives of local interfraternity councils, invited to the Conference for the first time, met during the course of the meetings. Twenty-eight councils were represented, forming themselves into a new organization known as the National Undergraduate Interfraternity Council. W. J. Price of the University of Iowa was elected chairman and E. G. Merritt of Georgia Tech secretary.

The meeting was addressed by Mr. Kuhn, Mr. Bielaski, Dean Clark and Mr. Bard, who pointed out that the Interfraternity Conference and the local councils were striving after the same ends: scholarship, building of character, and higher ideals of living.

The meeting asked that a member of the executive committee be appointed to act as advisor to the National Undergraduate Interfraternity Council during the ensuing year, whose duty it shall be to call a meeting of the organization at the time of the next conference. This was approved. The meeting further recommended that correspondence between undergraduate councils be encouraged.

The meeting appointed a Committee on Relations, with F. B. Hartnett, of Union, as chairman, which submitted the following report:

"We believe cooperation could best be obtained between the national organization and undergraduate councils by: 1—Further development of the visitation officers' plan, since by this means all the following problems can be handled; 2—Assisting the organization of the national Interfraternity Undergraduate Interfraternity Council, recommending the adoption of the name on each campus, providing for local meetings each year just previous to the Interfraternity Conference; 3—Cooperation between the Committee on Publicity and the councils.

"We ask the Conference for suggestions looking to: 1—Ways and means of improving the scholastic average of the chapters in the various councils; 2—Control of the founding of new chapters by locals, because of the necessity of protecting locals on the same campus petitioning the same national fraternity; 3—Advice by the Interfraternity Conference to faculty advisors; 4—A general standard of requirements for admission to councils."

Expansion Committee Program Complete Success

Complete success crowned the Conference program of the Committee on Expansion, headed by Judge William R. Bayes.

Early in the year, members of the Committee thought it wise, in view of the enormous increase in college enrollment following the war, to foster establishment of at least one new national fraternity in order to extend to more college men the advantages of a national organization.

Invitations were issued by the Committee to 500 local fraternities throughout the United States to send representatives to a special conference of locals, held concurrently with the Interfraternity Conference. Delegates from seventy-seven locals responded.

Guided by the Committee, but acting entirely on their own volition, representatives of twelve locals, after an all-night session, announced on the last day of the Conference tentative creation of a new national fraternity, Phi Kappa Pi. Chapters of the proposed fraternity which, it is expected, will be organized definitely within six months, stretch from New Hampshire to Iowa and Nebraska. Membership at the outset will number nearly 300 undergraduates.

Locals tentatively pledged to Phi Kappa Pi are: Kappa Tau Omega, George Washington University; Delta Kappa Nu, Pennsylvania State College; Sigma Sigma, Iowa State College; Sigma Beta, University of New Hampshire; Beta Kappa Psi, Bucknell University; Kappa Sigma Phi, Temple University; Phi Delta Sigma, University of Chattanooga; Delta Tau, Worcester Polytechnic Institute; Phi Alpha Pi, Davidson College; Zeus, University of Illinois; Phi Kappa Pi, Stevens Institute of Technology, and Everett, Nebraska Wesleyan.

Qualifications for additional locals seeking membership in Phi Kappa Pi include: (a) Must have two years' standing as a college fraternal body, recognized by the college authorities or recommended by the interfraternity council at that college; (b) Every member body must dwell in its own house, rented, leased or owned; (c) Every member body must be in sound financial condition; (d) Every institution of learning at which member bodies are located must have five recognized national fraternities.

A permanent organization to be known as the Interlocal Fraternity Conference was formed by the delegates, who voted to meet annually, concurrently with the Interfraternity Conference.

Officers chosen for the first year of the Interlocal Conference were: Chairman, Judge Bayes; Vice-Chairman, Dr. William J. Gies, Gettysburg College; Secretary, S. M. De Brul, University of Cincinnati, and Treasurer, H. A. Zillman, University of Wisconsin.

Visitation Committee Reports

Progress of the interfraternity movement on each campus will be properly recorded for Conference records by regular sectional visits of specially appointed delegates, for the most part, traveling secretaries and district officers of the various fraternities, Harold Riegelman reported for the visitation committee.

Visitation officers will inform representatives of every chapter on the campus, gathered in conference, of the history and purpose of the Interfraternity Conference and of the advantages of forming a local pan-hellenic council, organized on the character of the national body.

General fraternity problems will be discussed by the visitation officer and the local chapter delegates in the hope of stimulating greater cooperation among the chapters and between the faculty and the fraternities

The visitation committee was organized in August of this year to encourage in undergraduate fraternity life the same spirit of friendly cooperation, the same sense of mutual responsibility and the same realization of the educational aspects and essential democracy of the fraternity movement that the Conference has brought into the relations of those charged with the national administration of fraternities.

The Visitation Officers' Dinner

The dinner of the Visitation Officers, under the chairmanship of C. A. Lydecker, brought forth one of the most spirited discussions of the Conference. The dinner was attended by more than 90, of whom many were representatives of undergraduate interfraternity councils.

The discussions centered about college interfraternity councils and it was soon evident that the undergraduates had a broad viewpoint concerning their functions. Undergraduate speakers asserted that in their opinion these councils were not doing enough in merely handling such purely local problems as rushing and entertaining, that the field of the councils is much larger and parallels somewhat the field of the Interfraternity Conference itself.

The older fraternity men present found themselves in a lively discussion when the question of council responsibility was discussed. Several felt that councils should be under the supervision of deans; others, that any such domination would be fatal. The plan in use at Stanford seemed to meet with general commendation: there is undergraduate control, five undergraduates sitting with four faculty members, in close cooperation.

Report of Committee on Organizations Antagonistic to Fraternities

Through its chairman, Dean Thomas Arkle Clark, the Committee on Organizations Antagonistic to Fraternities reported that Theta Nu Epsilon was continuing its strenuous efforts to cleanse its organization and become a reputable national fraternity. After careful study and consideration of the program instituted by the present officers of Theta Nu Epsilon, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, that the Interfraternity Conference reaffirm its encouragement to the officers of Theta Nu Epsilon to continue their changes and reforms. The Conference recognizes the fine work and accomplishments of the present government of that organization and expresses to it the hope of its ultimate success in making of that organization a desirable factor in collegiate life."

The committee reported that a factor which might tend to retard the progress of Theta Nu Epsilon toward reform lay in the fact that this was being done under the guidance and watch of a body known as the Committee on Organizations Antagonistic to Fraternities. It was asked what this committee be discharged and that a new committee, possibly with the same personnel, be entrusted with its work, the committee to be known as the Committee on Theta Nu Epsilon. This was granted.

In his report, Dean Clark made this statement: "It is only fair to say that Theta Nu Epsilon is not the only organization antagonistic to fraternities. Kappa Beta Phi is, I think, growing tremendously, and is perhaps a greater menace, if possible, to scholarship than Theta Nu Epsilon has been. The Klu Klux Klan, whatever may be said for or against it, is gaining a foothold in our colleges both north and south, and is entitled to some consideration by this Conference."

The following resolution was adopted concerning Kappa Beta Phi:

"Resolved, that the Interfraternity Conference, deploring the creation of student organizations which ape the names of the fraternities and make rival claims upon student attention, yet have neither the purpose, organization nor discipline of the fraternities, specifically include in its condemnation the organization known as Kappa Beta Phi. This organization, based on poor scholarship, makes an organized joke of an ideal which the fraternities are striving to promote and which students should dignify rather than ridicule; it has stolen and debased the Phi Beta Kappa key, the emblem of an ancient and respected organization based on high scholarship, for which misappropriation that organization probably has no redress. While the failures of students in their collegiate work are a proper subject for humor or satire and the Conference recognizes the elements of wit and good humor in the establishment and symbolism of Kappa Beta Phi, it thinks that a sense of proportion and of loyalty to their fraternities ought to lead students to refrain from creating organizations based on poor scholarship, and especially from misappropriating emblems that have acquired a dignified standing in the community.

"And further resolved that the Conference recommend to its members that they prohibit membership in Kappa Beta Phi on the part of its own members, and in other organizations which come within the principle of the condemnation here expressed."

Fraternity Editors Form Association

The fraternity magazine editors, at their annual dinner and discussion, which followed the close of the Conference, formed an organization known as the College Fraternity Editors' Association of the Interfraternity Conference. William C. Levere of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was elected chairman of the organization with Chester W. Cleveland of Sigma Chi secretary, thus sending the headquarters of the organization to Chicago.

A number of propositions were brought to the attention of the new organization as soon as it was formed. One was the possibility of syndicating news and feature articles of general interest to all fraternities. Another was the possibility of obtaining group advertising for all fraternity magazines. A third was the question of exchanging items and illustrations. A fourth was the proposal of an exhibit at the next Conference of fraternity publications and the blanks and details that make their publication possible. Each of the subjects was discussed informally, and referred to the new chairman for appropriate action.

Resolutions were passed deploring the passing of Frank F. Rogers of Delta Tau Delta, dean of the fraternity editors, who presided at the last few dinners and whose presence was sorely missed at this one.

Report of the Committee on Insignia

The Committee on Insignia reported through Albert S. Bard, its chairman, that a design that seems suitable for incorporation into a letter head and also on the title page of Conference publications has been received from William Edgar Fisher, well known book-plate artist of New York, a graduate of Cornell in 1896 and a member of Delta Phi.

Discussion of Special Topics

The problem of providing fraternity facilities for the increasing number of eligible college students was thoroughly discussed. Judge Bayes, who as chairman of the Committee on Expansion was instrumental in the forming of a new fraternity, made a stirring address for more and still more fraternities to take care of the great influx of college students since the war. William C. Levere asserted it was the duty of the older fraternities to loosen up and take in more chapters, for, he said, even if there are five brand-new fraternities in the next ten years there will not by any means be adequate facilities for the tens of thousands of students yearly entering American institutions of learning.

Dean C. M. McConn of Lehigh led a discussion on the question "How can the fraternities best promote the interests of the colleges in which they are located?" From his experience he told of instances where fraternity officers had handled delicate problems of discipline and administration much more satisfactorily than they could have been handled by the college authorities themselves. It was his opinion that the problem of conduct, for one, could be solved by cooperation between the fraternities, the college authorities, and the students.

Banta's Greek Exchange

Mass subscriptions to Banta's Greek Exchange were urged upon the fraternities as one means of keeping in touch with the progress of the Greek world.

"College Fraternities" Out

The book "College Fraternities" made its appearance as promised at the Interfraternity Conference. It is an attractive volume of 250 pages, presenting a complete summary of of the college fraternity system. The book should form part of every fraternity library and fraternities are urged to purchase the volume in lots for their chapters. Orders should be sent to Wayne M. Musgrave, 120 Broadway. These are the prices for the book: $2.00 for single copies; in lots of ten, $1.60 each; twenty-five, $1.40 each; fifty, $1.20 each; a hundred, $1.00 each.

New Officers Elected

The following officers were elected:

Chairman—A. Bruce Bielaski, Delta Tau Delta, George Washington '04.

Vice-Chairman—John Patterson, Delta Upsilon, Columbia '92.

Secretary—The Rev. Joseph C. Nate, Sigma Chi, Illinois Wesleyan '90.

Treasurer—Dr. Walter H. Conley, Phi Sigma Kappa, Union '91.

Educational Advisor—Dean Thomas Arkle Clark, Alpha Tau Omega, Illinois '90.

Executive Council, Class of 1924—Henry R. Johnston, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Williams '09; Frederick H. Nymeyer, Zeta Psi, Illinois '11; Edgar Steiner, Phi Kappa Sigma, Michigan '09. Class of 1925—John J. Kuhn, Delta Chi, Cornell '98; William R. Bayes, Ohio Wesleyan '01; and Dr. H. Sheridan Baketel, Beta Theta Pi, Dartmouth '95.

Freshmen!

Chicago Salutes You

Albert F. Lippmann

Beta Pi

The cheering of the partisans was stilled, the last shrill notes of the band were silenced and the crowd filed slowly out of the stadium, for the football season was over. From this mass of moving humanity a small, but ever increasing, line took form and started northward to the University Club of Chicago. It was here that the eyes of the Delt world were focused on the night of November 24th; here that the November Open Dinner of the Chicago Alumni Chapter was held; here that almost a hundred freshmen and pledges received their first impression of their Fraternity and were greeted by the older men. Dr. Wieland, in accordance with the custom established by him many years ago, was the host to the neophytes. What a guest list he had—eighty-two by actual count.

Four chapters were in a majority—Northwestern, Chicago, Iowa and Wisconsin. Their respective teams had engaged in combat on the gridiron that day and the followers of both the victors and the vanquished were celebrating. Chicago and Iowa rejoiced in victory and Northwestern and Wisconsin were happy, for in spite of defeat their teams had battled gloriously. This spirit of joviality pervaded the club. The men from out of town found fellowship and a joyous welcome awaiting them and chapters soon lost their identity and were merged into a harmonious whole.

The playing of "Delta Shelter" was the signal for the opening of the doors of College Hall to admit the oncoming hordes of Deltas. The tables filled rapidly and at seven o'clock when the first course was served almost every seat had been taken. It was only a few minutes later that the Iowa delegation, twenty strong, appeared and extra accommodations were necessary to provide for them. All doubts as to the success of the dinner had disappeared for with this final influx the largest crowd in the history of the dinners became a fact.

When the music of the soup had been stilled the jazz band of the Gamma Alpha Chapter unlimbered their instruments and unleashed the dogs of syncopation. Even the dignified celebrities who graced the speaker's table were visibly moved by the harmony, and not until the speeches were almost half over did some of them regain their poise. Of course the usual college cheers were also much in evidence and university Alma Mater's were sung by their respective groups. And so throughout the meal there was never a minute when something was not happening.

Dr. Wieland had as his special guests two members of the medical profession. Whether he invited them to cause them to regret they were not Delts or whether he thought their services would be necessary will never be known. BUT in these post-Volstedian days we are inclined to accept the former reason. Among those at the speakers' table who favored the assemblage with their presence but who did not speak were Herbert Adams Gibbons, noted author and war correspondent; E. J. Henning, first Assistant Secretary of Labor; and Frank Hemmick, editor of THE RAINBOW and manager of the Central Office.

H. L. Willett, Dean of the Divinity School of the University of Chicago, was introduced as the first speaker. Dr. Willett has spoken at these dinners many times in the past but at no previous time did he make a more impressive or beautiful speech than he did on this occasion. His talk was brief and pointed and all who attended will long remember the message he delivered.

Some years ago Branch Rickey, President and Manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, dropped in at one of the monthly meetings of the Alumni Chapter and gave a short talk. Ever since that time he has been sought as a speaker at the freshman dinner but never until this year was he able to attend. However he did attend this year and his speech is still being talked about. The subject of his talk—"You Get Out What You Put In"—is an old one and that made it doubly hard for the speaker. It did not daunt Rickey and he started and finished in a blaze of glory. He handled his subject in a way that it has never been handled before and his forceful personality will long be visualized by the hundreds who heard him. After hearing him we can readily realize why he has achieved his remarkable success and St. Louis seems destined to have a championship ball team in the near future. Branch was an inspiration and if the freshmen and pledges received nothing else from the dinner than the inspiration furnished by him they were well repaid.

The third speaker of the evening was a dark horse—dark in that he was not expected to be present—but such a known quantity as a speaker that when he did appear on the scene he was immediately pressed into service. The Rev. Ernest Wray Oneal, contrary to expectations when he was introduced, did not speak on religion but spoke in a lighter vein. He spoke of his many experiences as a Delt and how in his travels from place to place he invariably found comradeship and fellowship through the wearing of the badge. His speech was delivered in his inimical manner.

The final speech was made by President A. Bruce Bielaski who, in a few words, told of recent changes made in the laws of the Fraternity and extended the Fraternity's greeting to the new members. Charles F. Axelson, on behalf of the Chicago Alumni Chapter, then presented the fraternity with a letter written to William Raimond Baird by W. C. Cunningham—one of the founders of Delta Tau Delta. The letter was written in the eighties and was in contradiction to certain statements made by Mr. Baird regarding the purposes for which our Fraternity was founded.

It was ten o'clock when the meeting was officially adjourned but it was really not an adjournment—only a signal for a general get together. Many of the men remained at the club to talk over old times, others went to the nearby chapters and the rest scattered to all parts of the city to revel in the hospitality of Chicago. It was like Karnea times again and wherever one allowed his wandering footsteps to linger he invariably found some of the brothers present. In a few words it was a great night.

The Northwestern chapter, which had so graciously given up its homecoming at the University to attend the dinner in a body, deserves special commendation. The chapters which were represented—thirty-five in number—are also to be commended and to them the committee extends its thanks. The dinner this year both from the standpoint of total attendance and in the number of pledges present was the largest in history and only the unqualified and enthusiastic support of the undergraduates and alumni made this possible. We wish to extend thanks, also, to the speakers and honored guests who traveled many miles to meet with us and we hope that in the years to come not only will this year's company be present, but that they will bring others with them.

In closing we cannot pass without giving credit to the man who made these dinners possible—Dr. Frank Wieland. Dr. Wieland is a very modest man, ever seeking to avoid credit for the many things he does—but the credit is his and should be given him. The dinners for the freshmen was his idea originally. They were made possible at the start through his generosity and his generosity has not only continued but has steadily increased. We congratulate him on the fame his dinners have attained and hope that each succeeding year will bring additional glory to the event which he sponsors. We in Chicago feel that he has done more for the Fraternity than any one man and we take this opportunity to "Tell it to the World."

Epsilon's Chapter House Burned

Fire almost completely ruined the chapter house of Epsilon Chapter at Albion College on the morning of November 25th. The following account of the fire is taken from a local paper.

"The Albion college chapter house of the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity at 1101 Michigan Avenue, is practically ruined, having been gutted by fire early Sunday morning. The loss will be more than $8,000, covered by insurance.

"Kenneth L. Bell of Reading, a junior, discovered the fire. With Lloyd Waugh and Carroll Kelly he was sleeping in the three-story tower at the front of the house when he was awakened because of difficulty in breathing. The boys, upon getting up, saw flames coming into the hall on the third floor from the attic on the west side, and they aroused the others, numbering sixteen or seventeen, so that all made their escape safely.

"At about the same time Carl M. Creager, Michigan Avenue, who was starting on a hunting trip, saw the flames from the outside, on the west side of the house. The alarm was turned in from the telephone in the fraternity house and the fire department arrived about 6:50, making a quick run, before the majority of the boys, some of them in their night-clothes, were out of the house.

"The flames had gained such headway that the firemen had difficulty in curbing the blaze, requiring nearly two hours to get control of the situation. Four lines of hose were laid and the entire house was soaked with water, from attic to cellar.

"The roof, the attic and parts of the second story were badly burned, the flames making the most headway on the west side, in a room occupied by Clifford Burbank, a sophomore from St. Johns, who lost part of his belongings.

"The most plausible theory as to the origin of the blaze is that it was caused by a fire built the night before in a fire-place in a west room on the second floor, adjacent to Burbank's room. A large hole was found in the floor in front of this fire-place and the flames had evidently worked their way from this point to the attic overhead, finally breaking through the roof. As the fraternity boys all slept either in a dormitory at the rear or in the tower, the fire was not discovered at once.

"There were seven fire-places in the house, three upstairs and four down. A rambling attic was over the entire structure and the great difficulty of getting inside it, the firemen being impeded by the large volume of smoke, made the fire an extremely difficult one to handle. It seemed for a time that the whole building would be doomed, but the firemen succeeded in saving the greater part of the structure. Water did probably more damage than fire.

"The fraternity boys, assisted by others, managed to save practically all of the furnishings of the house, the furniture, bedding, clothing of the inmates and personal belongings being carried to the lawn and porch of the former Diehl residence, on East College Court.

"Most of the furniture and belongings of Mrs. O. V. Eastman, the matron, who occupied the rear suite of rooms in the house, were saved. Three of the students besides Burbank, including Theodore Bergman, Paul Holsworth and Arthur Lang, suffered the loss of personal property, as their rooms were on the west side of the house. Harvey Hoover lost two suits of clothes and other members reported minor losses.

"The house, located in the center of College Court, was more than fifty-five years old and one of the largest and most historic in the city. It was built by A. M. Fitch, one of the community's principal citizens half a century ago, and for twenty-seven years prior to its purchase by the "Delts" was the residence of Dr. Delos Fall, dean of the Albion college faculty.

"The members of the stricken fraternity were given breakfast after the fire, by the Sigma Chi fraternity, which generously gave the "Delts" temporary use of its house on East Cass Street. Plans are being made to rent a house near the college where the boys will stay until the Michigan Avenue building is either repaired or rebuilt. The fraternity building committee held a meeting yesterday but will take no action until the insurance is adjusted. The house was insured for $8,000, with $1,500 on the furnishings, damage to the latter being about $600, it was estimated today."

The entire loss to both building and contents was covered by insurance, and adjustment was made promptly by the insurance company.

The Chapter immediately secured temporary quarters at 506 Michigan Avenue. At a meeting of the Chapter Building Association it was decided to rebuild the old house, remodeling and enlarging it. Plans are now being prepared by an architect, and the work of remodeling is expected to be started in January, and to be completed before the close of the school year.

Beta Phi's Achievement

Beta Phi Chapter at Ohio State University has been awarded the Tuttle Scholarship Cup for 1922-1923. This cup is awarded annually to the Chapter having the highest grades for the four quarters of the year. The achievement is a remarkable one, for two years ago the Chapter was at the bottom of the list, while this year it made the best average attained by any Chapter since the award was instituted.

In his presentation speech Professor Tuttle, donor of the cup, said: "It was the best example of conscientious endeavor I have ever observed, and I am especially glad to award this cup in view of the fact that two years ago Delta Tau Delta was at the bottom of the list. Last year its members rose to fourth". He also observed that the winners did more to obtain honor for themselves because "by making 227 points, they elevated the whole scholastic standing of the fraternity group, inasmuch as their mark bettered the 197 points set by last year's winners, Delta Upsilon".

Two members of the Chapter won individual honors by ranking among the first ten. W. H. Rose of Lorain was awarded a medal for taking fifth place, and Elbert Persons was given honorable mention for finishing among the second group of five.

The order in which the first five fraternities finished was: Delta Tau Delta, Zeta Beta Tau, Delta Upsilon, Tau Kappa Epsilon and Phi Kappa Psi.

A New Honor for Axelson

At the November meeting of the Board of Trustees of the University of Chicago, Brother Charles F. Axelson, Gamma Alpha '07, was appointed a member of the Board, and unusual honor for one of the younger alumni of the University. The majority of the Trustees in the past have been graduates of other institutions, among them being such men as Secretary of State Hughes, Julius Rosenwald, Martin A. Ryerson, and others of equal prominence.

Axelson has earned the appointment by his interest and activity in University affairs since his graduation in 1907. He has held many offices in the alumni organizations, including the presidency of the Chicago Alumni Club, and he is now serving as president of the Alumni Council.

In Delta Tau Delta he has been equally active. Always a worker and leader in the Chicago Alumni Chapter, he ran the record Karnea of 1911, and was on the Arch Chapter for six years, from 1912 to 1918, as president of the Western Division.

Few, if any, of our alumni enjoy greater popularity and esteem than Charley Axelson, and his many friends rejoice at this new distinction conferred upon him, which also reflects great honor on Gamma Alpha Chapter and the Fraternity.

Cassell Wayne ("Ike") Mowrey

Gamma Delta '25

Hit by Pitched Ball, Pitt.-W. Va. Game, May 30, 1923

Died June 2, 1923

A gentleman, a scholar, an athlete, and an excellent example of each, Cassell Mowrey, as big of bone as of soul, was one of the best loved men on the West Virginia University campus and classroom.

Starting his high school career, Mowrey entered Washington Irving High of Clarksburg, W. Va., a big country boy with a heart as big as his husky body. Almost the minute that he entered school he became a favorite by his gentle and sportsmanlike actions.

In high school Mowrey took part in three branches of athletics, football, basketball, and baseball. For four years he was a member of the football team and he played three years on the baseball team. He held down the first base position and when he came to West Virginia University he won his spurs in that position in his freshman year.

When the Kiwanis Club of Clarksburg was looking for the student to deliver the Washington's Birthday address before the club two years ago its eyes rested on Mowrey. The members had heard of the student's natural gift of oratory. He was selected, and men who heard him—bankers, mine owners, and merchants—often refer to the masterful delivery of the boy.

To honor the man who had led them to football, basketball, and baseball victories, and to achievements outside of the commonplace and classroom, the class of 1921 chose Cassell Mowrey as its president, the highest honor a body of high school seniors can confer.

At West Virginia University he immediately became popular and at the end of rushing season he was wearing that cherished little square pin in his lapel. He was loved by his fraternity brothers and by everyone else for his bigheartedness could not go unnoticed even among the many university students. In his freshman year at West Virginia he refused the presidency of his class but accepted the vice-presidency. In his sophomore year he had an overwhelming backing for the office of president, which he accepted, and in this office he also served on the Student Council. He was a member of all student organizations that a sophomore could possibly belong to.

Entering the fall football training camp of West Virginia University in 1921, Mowrey made his debut in university athletics. Hard luck was on his heels and the first week in his university experience he suffered a broken collar bone. This kept him from taking part in the winter athletics, but he had rounded into form and when the call was made for baseball candidates Mowrey was one of the first to report. He won his college letter in baseball that year and in the fall he made the football squad. He also made the basketball squad and played in several games, but on the baseball team he was a regular. He held down the first base position with the same ease and grace as he did everything else. While at bat during a Memorial Day game Mowrey was hit by a pitched ball. He no doubt thought that it was a high ball inside the plate and would curve and he did not attempt to dodge. The ball struck him squarely on the temple. He never regained consciousness and drifted into the valley of the shadow of death three days later.

We have lost a man who was a credit to his family, to his home town, to his Fraternity, to the University. His place will be hard to fill on the athletic field, on the campus and in the classroom.

No one could have been more of a credit to the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity and no one could have had a more profound respect and affection for the Fraternity than Mowrey.

We will ever cherish his memory and place him before us as an example to instill into us an initiative for higher ambition and endeavor.

Prizes for Delta Tau Delta Songs

The Song Book Committee, appointed last spring to compile and publish a new edition of the Song Book, and consisting of Brothers Ralph Wray, Stuart Maclean and William C. Stickles, has been actively at work since its appointment; and to aid it in securing new material for the Song Book, has recommended the institution of a prize contest.

The committee has decided to retain all songs in the present edition which are strictly Delta Tau Delta songs, or which have become such in spirit through association and evolution, and to add as many new and original Fraternity songs as it is possible to unearth.

Following the recommendation of the Committee, the Arch Chapter has authorized the offer of prizes aggregating three hundred dollars, to be awarded by the Song Book Committee to those submitting the best songs. The prizes will be awarded only in case the songs are considered worthy of publication in the Song Book. Separate prizes for words and music are provided, as follows:

Music		Lyrics
1st prize.....	$60.00	1st prize.....	$60.00
2nd prize.....	40.00	2nd prize.....	40.00
3rd prize.....	25.00	3rd prize.....	25.00
Special prize for best complete song		$50.00

The contest will start at once and run through the present college year. It is open to all members of the Fraternity, other than the Committee. All songs and correspondence should be addressed to the Song Book Committee, Delta Tau Delta, 22 East 38th Street, New York, N.Y.

The Field Secretary's Department

Our goodly Editor, Brother Hemmick, has taken unto himself a responsibility, which, let us sincerely hope, will not end disastrously for him. He has given this department to me, to be obeyed by me, and remain faithful until the great powers that sever shall cry "enough".

A definite policy of indefiniteness is at once assumed. That is really not so paradoxical as it may seem, for it means that all things, not specific things, pertaining to Deltaism with interest for all will come within the field of this department. It is to be not only mine, but yours. Things you want discussed that may with propriety be published, will, when made apparent to the writer, appear.

It is hoped that things will be brought to you all which make Delta Tau Delta mean more than ever as your Fraternity—as a big, human brotherhood of flesh and blood ramifications, banded by impulsive youth, manly fellowship, and intellectual fertility—not as an abstract subject expressed by "National" or "66 Chapters".

Did you ever sit looking at your bare toes quietly stretched five or six feet from your eyes, wondering if they were really a part of you? Wiggle them, or stick a pin in them and you know they are. We are going to do that—wiggle into print a great deal of inanimate seeming parts and parcels of the Fraternity, with the idea of letting you know that part of Delta Tau Delta down in Maine, out in California, up in Wisconsin, around old New Orleans, is a live member of the National body, feeding on the same life blood and controlled by the same head as your Chapter. With your help, let us make this department a successful contributor to more closely binding Delta Tau Delta together.

Something of paramount interest now and for the remainder of the year is the song contest. All members of the Fraternity may compete, with the exception of the judges. Three hundred dollars in prizes will be given to the fortunate wooers of the muse; some for lyrics alone, some for music alone, and some for the combination of the two. If you have a good idea for a real Delt song start at once getting it in shape and send it to the committee through the Central Office. We want to have a song book of as nearly exclusive Delta Tau Delta songs as possible. You have eight months, and should give the Fraternity something good in that time. Let us have it.

Delta Alpha, our next to youngest child, offers a visiting brother satisfying study. Fraternities have been in Oklahoma about twenty years. We are a year and a half old. The scholarship cup has reposed on our mantle since the last award, and Jerry Sullivan, head of the Chapter, came within twenty-four out of twenty-three hundred votes of winning the Presidency of the Student Council. He lost, but in losing gained, for such worth while effort brings its own recompense. If Delta Alpha works hard and fights off the usual reaction of a new chapter, she will be in an enviable position.

The Oklahoma Campus is being developed along well laid plans, having already reached the stage where it is attractive. About thirty-five hundred youths and misses have felt its desirability enough to register there.

In passing through Dallas, Texas, I felt there was something unusually impressive about the place, but had to wait until I got to Austin to find out what it was. The information gleaned was that Dallas has a very active alumni association.

Down at Gamma Iota we all went to the football game and cheered for the best consistent ground gainer on the team. He is a slashing fullback, captain of the team, modest, long in body as well as football ability, and a Delta Tau Delta. "Buddy" Tynes, pride of the Texas Longhorns and Gamma Iota. (The next time I come this means a dinner at the Maverick, Buddy.)

Pleasing moments—When a freshman of the charming variety at Texas, as you start dancing with her, congratulates you on pledging Delta Tau Delta—but your conscience finally makes you admit it was nearly eight years ago.

Embarrassing moments—When you land in Los Angeles, tip the bellboy with your last quarter, find it is a holiday with everything closed, and must borrow three dollars from a stranger to tide you over because you can't locate a friend to cash a check. Verily, there are hardships in a poor Field Secretary's life.

Los Angeles—Heaven of the Realtor—where it is quicker to walk than drive a car—where everyone lives well—where there is a real alumni organization of Delta Tau Delta. Any Delta who goes to L. A. and does not look up the alumni at the University Club is doing himself and the Chapter an injustice, besides missing three-fourths of Southern California. There is found Delta sunshine in abundance, making the Rainbow more beautiful than ever, and forecasting great things for the future of our Fraternity. Here's hoping some alumni of other cities visit our Los Angeles Chapter, absorb some of its spirit, and transport it back to their home chapter. Out there they do not only know what it means to be a Delta Tau Delta—they show it.

If you get to San Francisco, take a little time off, go to Palo Alto and see Stanford. From the station you will drive through a mile of botanical magnificance, emerging finally on the architectural perfection that is Stanford. Landscape gardening to encourage the most jaded appetite of the impeccable greets the eager eye. Drive on through Fraternity Row a quarter of a mile, turn to the left, look—and you see a house rising commandingly from the brow of a hill, overlooking the Campus, Palo Alto, and the whole lower bay region. Go up to the house between the ship's lanterns and be greeted by the boys. They will make you like it. Sit in a window, or on the front porch, filling your memory with the scenes that Stanford Delta Taus live with daily. Get them to tell you the story of the Delta Tau who now lies on his back in San Jose, fighting the white plague—the Delta Tau who gave his health in a track meet for the glory of Stanford and his fraternity. Listen to the story, tell yourself how wonderful it is to be a Delta Tau, and resolve to try even harder to be a good one in the future than you have.

Standing at the Campus gate in Berkeley, watching the crowds of girls and boys rushing by to make a nine o'clock, I wondered if anybody was left to go to other institutions. If you are from any other one, you are sure to find someone from your native heath trodding the California steps to knowledge. The Campus and Berkeley vicinity become an animated map when one is atop the Campinile—stately, slender memorial tower, thrusting its pinnacle over three hundred feet toward heaven. One also discovers that William Randolph Hearst does something besides publish overgrown Mainstreet Bugles. He donates buildings to California.

Phil Bettens, California tennis captain, is found among those present at the Delta House when everyone sits down to eat.

The new lot Beta Omega has acquired, across from the new million dollar stadium, is one of the best locations in Berkeley. That stadium not only cost, but looks like.

Just playing in a place like that should make them win easily—it will overpower all opponents.

Gamma Rho, Oregon, has plenty of interest to offer. It is located in Eugene, a nice sized college town, with a campus rapidly developing in attractiveness. The house is close to the campus, having just been made very pleasant with an $8,000.00 addition. Back of the house runs the Mill Race, wide and deep, used for throwing the erring frosh in all the year round; and during the spring, in keeping with a young man's fancy, canoes built for two wend their way gracefully through the evening hush.

One of Gamma Rho's joys is an alumnus of her baby days. Edison Marshall, popular magazine writer, best known for his northern tales of courage and coldness, sold his first story while an active in the Chapter. He got thirty dollars for this, and offers that amount each year in a contest to the Oregon student writing the best story. Every year until the last a Delta Tau has won it.

Many interesting alumni from eastern chapters live around Gamma Rho. The chapter president this year is the son of a Delta from old Bethany. Another alumnus, eighty years old, is preparing an advanced degree for Delta Tau Delta.

One enters a very attractive home when he visits Gamma Mu in Seattle. Not the least of the attractiveness is the cordiality, sincerely meant, of the reception. It is located just a half block from Washington's beautiful campus, which is the cause for the front entrance reminding one of a subway rush at eight o'clock every morning.

To this mystic band belongs Robert Hesketh, tennis champion of the Northwest, all around athlete, and interested in other activities of the more complicating sort. Most Deltas who have known him have good reason to be under pleasant obligation to him.

Among alumni, one deserving great credit and mention is Pop Dyer, whose efforts made the Chapter House possible. He took responsibilities few can or are willing to take. All hail to Pop and may his tribe increase.

Any of the brothers interested in the modern novel, either as a study or for interest only, will find something worth while in "West of the Water Tower", published anonymously, but which happens to be by a Delta brother, Homer Croy, of Gamma Kappa. I bought it to while away a few hours on the train, and finished the first day. Plot, construction, style and characterization are all very admirable.

It is time for all to be thinking of a good delegate for that Division Conference. Elect one who will take the Chapter's spirit to the Conference and bring back the Conference spirit to the Chapter. With the new and vital issues which face us more each year than ever before we must accomplish all that is possible, keeping our feet marching on in the front rank of forward looking fraternities.

RALPH M. WRAY.

The scholastic standing of the chapters is published at the head of the chapter letters in compliance with the Constitutional provision adopted at the last Karnea. The figures have been taken from the latest official reports in most cases. Where such reports were not forwarded the latest and best available information has been used, and if errors have been made the chapters are responsible because of their failure to furnish the proper reports.

Fifteen brothers returned this fall to be remustered into the ranks of Old Alpha, and through their united efforts the Stone House again stands prominent and commanding against the horizon of College Hill, cleansed and refinished—thanks to the new hardwood floors—in a manner far exceeding the condition of other years. These same united efforts continuing, the Chapter withstood the rigors of the open rushing season and now introduces the following pledges: Oliver Gill, Meadville, Pa.; Walter L. Butler, Kane, Pa.; William H. Rhodes, Jr., Ben Avon, Pa.; M. Dean Fiscus, Apollo, Pa.; Roger B. Davis, Painesville, Ohio; Richard C. Crouch, Titusville, Pa.; George Bolard, Cambridge Springs, Pa.; Howard W. VanMatre, Cambridge Springs, Pa.; Edwin McKay, Charleroi, Pa.; Ben M. Hayes, Washington Court House, Ohio; Franklin Ewing, Rochester, Pa.; George MaGee, Oil City, Pa.

Under the leadership of Coach Herb McCracken, Gamma Sigma '21, and Captain Morley, Allegheny has just completed the most successful football season ever enjoyed by a local aggregation. The tri-state district Class B conference championship was annexed beyond a shadow of a doubt, not a member of this circle being able to score a single point against the husky Blue and Gold eleven. Aside from these gratifying laurels, the realm of first class powers was invaded, and while the great West Virginia aggregation scored a victory—the only blot on Allegheny's record—Bucknell was decisively taken over. Alpha played a large part in gaining these honors with Brother Morley playing his fourth year at quarterback and Brothers Smith, Logan, and Brendel, and Pledges Ewing and Hays representing the Chapter on the Varsity squad.

With Coach Dick Baker, Alpha '12, in charge of the basketball squad Allegheny looks forward to another successful athletic season. The schedule is one of the stiffest ever amassed for a Blue and Gold quintet, featuring such institutions as Amherst, Penn State, Pitt, Carnegie Tech, and West Virginia.

Aside from the various college activities, Alpha has undertaken the task of several important reforms in regard to the Chapter's business and scholastic standing. Brother McGill has revised the budget system, and the finances are in better shape than ever before despite the unusually small chapter roll. Scholastic supremacy has become the motto for the year and stringent study rules are accomplishing a great deal toward this goal.

Campus prominence continues to favor the Chapter. Brother Clark is a member of the Student Senate and Athletic Board of Control as well as treasurer of the Senior Class. Brother Risher is president of the Junior Class, and Pledge Gill is treasurer of the Freshman organization. Various members of the Chapter are taking active interest in the honorary fraternities, clubs and publications of the college.

WILLIAM A. RISHER.

BETA

OHIO

No fraternity scholarship report obtainable.

When the twenty-three actives of Beta Chapter returned to school in September, they found that they were without a home. Our old house had been sold during the summer, and the walls of our new house were just appearing above the ground. Thus we were forced to be content with temporary quarters, and even though rushing under these conditions, we were proud to place the square pledge pin on fifteen men of the best material entering Ohio University this year. Here they are: Ned Bexler, Zanesville, Ohio; Paul Bowen and Eugene Murphy, Columbus, Ohio; Albert and Harold Dorn, Geneva, Ohio; Howard Highland, Lancaster, Ohio; Joseph Riley, John Hughes and James Morissey, Elmira, N. Y.; Alvin Jones, Athens, Ohio; Duncan King, Wellston, Ohio; Raymond Moritz, Portsmouth, Ohio; Francis Wroten, Logan, Ohio; Harold Williams, Lebanon, Ohio; and Howard Pierce, Ashtabula, Ohio.

We were represented on the Varsity football squad this year by Brothers Moritz, O'Donnell, Herbert, Palmer, Payne, Cameron and McCord. Although some of these men were handicapped by injuries received early in the season, three out of the total fourteen letters awarded by the Athletic Association will be worn by Moritz, O'Donnell and Herbert. Among the Freshman football players were have Pledges Bixler, Abe and Bud Dorn, Highland, Moritz, Riley, and Brother Keplinger, who played with the Wooster Varsity team last fall, having transferred to Ohio from that college. Brother Beckwith represents us on the Varsity basketball squad, which has every indication of being a championship team this season. With the basketball men which we have among the pledges, our fraternity team should be the best we have had in years.

Five of our musically inclined men, Laverty, Neilson, Lewis, Cameron and King, are members of the Glee Club, the first three of these men having the honor of being on the Glee Club quartette. In other activities, Brother Graham is editor-in-chief of our college annual, The Athena; Neilson is business manager of the college paper, The Green and White; Poffenbarger is president of the Cayenne Club;

King is Freshman football manager; and in fact, nearly every man holds a place in campus activities of one kind or another.

The scholastic standing of our Chapter so far is very satisfactory, and every one is endeavoring to do his part toward keeping the position of the Fraternity in a high place.

Under the wise direction of the members of the Alumni House Association, who have used untiring effort to make the chapter house a realization, the new house has reached the plastering stage, and we are all looking anxiously forward to the time when we will be able to move in. The house is a beautiful three story, colonial structure of red brick, and occupies a choice site overlooking the Hocking River. It will be large enough to accommodate practically the whole chapter, and we will be proud to have the Delt coat of arms gracing the mantle in the living room of such a home.

GAMMA

WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON

2nd semester 1922-23, 6th of 9 chapters.

The doors of Gamma swung open this year to allow fifteen actives and two pledges to get back on the job. Most of the boys were back early so that the pick of the freshman class might be had, and their early return was rewarded highly. After the smoke of battle on a campus limited to 500 men and ruled by open rushing rules had cleared we found ourselves to be possessed of ten mighty fine lads. Then the return to school of Pledges Bob Baker and Bill Johnston swelled our total to a dozen well worthy Delts-to-be. May we introduce Pledges William K. Johnston, Bellevue, Pa.; Robert G. Baker, Belle Vernon, Pa.; C. Elwood Penn, Jr., Washington, Pa.; Harry D. Barnhardt, Pittsburgh, Pa.; John W. Wanenmacher, Steubenville, Ohio; J. Eugene Smith, Carmichaels, Pa.; Franklin B. Cooper, Oakmont, Pa.; Robert H. Wilson, Jr., Pittsburgh, Pa.; Thomas P. Penniman, Jr., Detroit, Mich.; John L. Quinn, Mingo Junction, Ohio; Morton L. Boyd, Pittsburgh, Pa.; James G. Brown, Punxsutawney, Pa.

Gamma regrets that Brothers Tarr and McKissock, who were with us the first of the season, felt it necessary to transfer to Westminster College. It is rumored that they are to return next semester and we're all holding high hopes that the rumor is not unfounded.

The dreaded "eight weeks elimination exams" took its toll of erring frosh as usual. Gamma did not lose a man and she is proud of her freshmen for their conscientious work on their studies.

Washington and Jefferson has just completed a wonderful football season and we are proud of our team. The thrashing administered to the unbeaten West Virginians was a fitting climax to a great season. At all our out of town games, the Delts have been very well represented. Great credit is due Brother Jennings for his fatihful work throughout the season as football manager.

We are highly pleased to announce that Brother Reed Dunn of Tau Chapter, State College, has affiliated with us.

A great many Delts from the chapters at Brown, Carnegie Tech, and West Virginia, visited us over their respective games here. We are mighty glad to have the boys from other chapters drop in and stay as long as possible and re-extend an invitation to all Delts passing through town to be sure to look us up. "The house across from the Seminary" is an adequate address that you will not likely forget.

C. ALLAN INGALS.

DELTA

Year 1922-23, 10th of 41 chapters; average 74.7; all men's average 71.

Temporary quarters gave Delta Chapter an incentive to work harder in rushing season activities. In spite of all the inconvenience and trouble which arose from lack of accommodations, we were fortunate in being able to maintain our standard in pledging eight men. We introduce the following pledges: Harry Haynie, Chicago, Ill.; John Buehler, Detroit, Mich.; Louis Robertson, Washington, D. C.; Robert Metzger, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Herbert Abrams, Orange, N. J.; Edward Corbis, Cleveland, Ohio; John Coates, St. Cloud, Minn.; Gordon Weldon, New Rochelle, N. Y. As Pledge Keith Wilson '26 returned this fall, we have a total of nine pledges.

In campus activities we have more than our share of representatives. Brother Robert Young manages intramural athletics and Brother Arthur Graves is manager of the track team for the coming season. Brother William Etheridge was assistant football manager and has been elected manager for next year, and may we here insert a word about the team that represented Michigan for the past season? Never has a Michigan team gained the respect and admiration of the student body and the country as this team has. Physically at a disadvantage, compared to the majority of Conference elevens that they played, nevertheless, by brainy football, they were able to overcome their rangier opponents, who had not the opportunity of the unequalled coaching of the Michigan players. They were, admittedly, out-played for parts of games, but they were never outplayed a whole game, nor were they ever out-fought or out-spirited.

The publications find Delt men an invaluable aid. Brother Harry Hoey is city editor of the Daily; Brothers Gifford Upjohn and William Etheridge hold staff positions on the Michiganensian, the college annual, and there are several sophomore tryouts for all the campus publications.

Five of the brothers were initiated into class honorary societies last spring for leadership in campus activities. Brother Malcolm Wetzel was elected president of the junior architects and Brother Harry Koenig is treasurer of the sophomore literary class for the coming year. Brother Koenig also obtained his numerals for reserve football.

The position of the Chapter in the fraternity scholarship chart for the year 1922-23 showed a great improvement over that of the preceding year. We rose from 28th to 11th place in a field of about fifty fraternities.

Reorganization of the Interfraternity Council of the University was accomplished this year. From now on the fraternities will work in closer accord with the University administration, initiation requirements will be stricter and will be more rigidly adhered to, and pledge lifting will be discouraged as much as possible.

Homecoming November 24th, the week end of the Minnesota game, was declared the greatest ever given by the many alumni who returned. The new house was the principal topic of discussion and we were assured of living in it at the start of the next school year.

Many of the brothers made the trip to Iowa and Wisconsin to see the games and they wish to thank Omega and Beta Gamma for the hospitality and kind treatment accorded them.

EPSILON

2nd semester 1922-23, 4th of 5 chapters.

Starting the new year with our hopes realized, eighteen men returned to Albion with the satisfaction of having pulled out of the cellar position on the scholarship list. But our ambition is to get as far away from that little coveted bottom place as possible; therefore, the brothers are digging in with the top as their goal.

Brother Robert Currie, of Lansing, Michigan, was initiated shortly after the school year opened.

Albion has passed the seven hundred mark in enrollment, a decided increase over last year. As the men outnumber the women by a considerable margin, there is a keenly felt need for more fraternities. Because of the wealth of fraternity material Epsilon pledged sixteen men at the beginning of the year.

Fire took up a considerable space in our last letter. Then, it was a deeper concern to the College than to us, since we suffered only indirectly. Epsilon's chapter house burned at five-thirty o'clock, Sunday morning, November 25th. During the Thanksgiving recess a new location was found and we are settled for the time being. Optimism is now the word around old Epsilon, for in every loss there is some gain, and we believe that the Delts of Albion are bound to have a new home in the near future. We are working towards that end.

The College has just completed a very successful football season. In the last game of the season it had the distinction of beating Western State Normal, of Kalamazoo, a team which had not been beaten in over two years, during which time their schedule included teams apparently out of Albion's class. In this game Epsilon was represented by eight men who started the game and finished it, with no substitutions being made. They were Brothers Eastman, Smith, (Captain), Barlow, Pahl, Preshaw, Griffin and Pledgeman Harry and Vic Williams. Pledgeman Coin is also a letter man. Basketball season has just opened and six men are out for the team.

FREDERICK D. KING.

ZETA

WESTERN RESERVE

2nd semester 1922-23, 9th of 11 chapters; average 69.56.

The Zeta house is still up on the hill. We'll be here till February when we move into a new house nearer the campus. A generous assortment of last year's freshmen answered the call of other colleges this year so we have but seven actives. Our pledges make up for the lack. There are twelve of them: Frederick S. Andrews, Willoughby, Ohio; Walter Armstrong, Akron, Ohio; Robert G. Bole, Meadville, Pa.; James Courtney, Cleveland; Richard Donnely, Cleveland; James Hogan, Cleveland; Warner Kimball, Madison, Ohio; Raymond McGrath, Euclid, Ohio; William L. Moon, Chicago; Charles Scoville, Ashtabula, Ohio; Frank Scoville, Akron, Ohio; Frank Sheldon, Akron, Ohio.

Zeta is excellently represented on the campus. In football are Needs, Ruedy, and Scott. Pledges Moon, Bole, Sheldon, and Courtney are on the freshman squad. Scott and Gifford are out for basketball. Last year Zeta won the Interfraternity basketball contest and keeps the cup permanently. We are well represented in Glee Club, Dramatic Club, Y.M.C.A. Council, Annual staff, Reserve Weekly staff, and debate teams. Brother Morhart has won the Marshall prize in Science, and Kloppman has a McClymonds Scholarship. Freer is in Delta Sigma Rho, and Ruhlman and Scott are in Sigma Delta Chi.

The enrollment at Reserve is greater than ever before and the quality of freshmen surprisingly high. The gift of $5,000,000 to the University by Samuel Mather for a new medical building on the campus is the beginning of our University Group Plan.

KAPPA

2nd semester 1922-23, 3rd of 3 chapters; average C-; all men's average C-.

With but thirteen actives to start the season, we have been trying to uphold the honors which our preceding brothers have established for us, and we have placed the square button upon twelve candidates for our Fraternity: George Schelling, of Plainfield, New Jersey; Walter Timms of Hillsdale, Michigan; Gerald Brown of Mitchell, South Dakota; Clean Burns of Reading, Michigan; Cyril Collett of Calcutta, India; Donald Garlough of Hillsdale, Michigan; William Griffiths of Cleveland, Ohio; Ralph Hadley of Pioneer, Ohio; Orlen Johnson of Reed City, Michigan; Alan McClean of Painwell, Michigan; Kenneth Marks of Cleveland, Ohio; Elon Olney of Battle Creek, Michigan. Pete Hadley was elected president of the Freshman Class, and the other pledges have entered into the activities of the Campus with a spirit that will carry Delta Tau Delta through to a prosperous year.

Kappa men have taken their place in the college activities, and as in former years, are at the helm. Brother Gettings headed the football team through a season that was filled with glory for Hillsdale. In the last game of the season, the Toledo University game, Captain Gettings played one of the flashiest games that has ever been witnessed on Martin Field. He is the best all-around athlete on the Campus, being the only four letter man, having won the coveted "H" three years in football, three years in basketball, three years in track, and he pitched for the baseball team last spring. Kappa is proud of his marvelous record. Brothers Kirk, Schmitt and Pledge Collett upheld Kappa's share upon the gridiron. In the Albion game Collett broke his ankle, and marred a season that promised to be spectacular. There are four Kappa men working under Coach Jefferson on the court, and when the season is well under way there should be several Delts on the team as Brothers Gettings, Harman, Hicks, and O'Meara are on the squad.

In accordance with the policy that Delta Tau Delta has always maintained upon the Campus, we have taken an interest in fostering friendly relationships with the other fraternities in Hillsdale, and during the month of November had an interfraternity smoker that was voted one of the best ever held here.

In the scholastic and literary fields that are open to the men, Kappa has again taken the burden of the duties. As editor-in-chief of the Winona, the year book, Brother Schmitt has one of the greatest honors that the student body can obtain. Brother French is assistant editor of the school paper. Brother Cross was chosen to head the Sophomore Class.

Realizing that our scholastic standing was not creditable last semester, Kappa is striving to raise the standards, and at the first issuances of grades this semester, Kappa Chapter ranks high. It is our aim, as is the ideal of all Delts, to place Delta Tau Delta first in all endeavors.

LAMBDA

VANDERBILT

2nd semester 1922-23, 13th of 15 chapters; average 69.5; all men's average 73.

MU

2nd semester 1922-23, 2nd of 11 chapters; average 1.63; all men's average 1.45.

The beginning of the school year found seventeen actives back to carry on the work of Chapter Mu. Of these seventeen men, seven had the privilege of attending the Karnea in Cleveland, and they brought back with them much that has been and will be of inspiration in our work for the year.

Of course the first thing that occupied our attention was rush week. At the close of that week we all felt that we had one of the best classes of freshmen that we have had in a long time. We are still inclined to believe about the same thing. In all we pledged nine men, eight freshmen and one sophomore. The freshmen are Desmond Moody, Elgin, Ill.; Glendon Stevenson, Clarksburg, Ohio; Dwight Miller, Jr., Greenfield, Ohio; Harold Rosser, Arcanum, Ohio; Charles Davis, Elyria, Ohio; Harold Stevens, Delaware, Ohio; William Carpenter, Cleveland, Ohio; and Herbert Dye, Winona Lake, Ind. The sophomore is Wilfred Eiteman from Rock Island, Ill.

On the campus we are as well represented this year as we have been at any time. Ohio Wesleyan just finished one of the most successful football seasons that it has ever known. For the second successive year her team won the Ohio Conference championship. We were represented on this team by two men, Brothers Staten and Rollin Rosser.

Basketball is under way, and there too Wesleyan's prospects look very bright. Brother Staten will represent us on that team.

When the call for track comes, Mu will be represented by three men on the Varsity. Last year Brother Hovis proved to be the best quarter miler in the state. Then we will have Brothers Rosser and Frowine on this team.

We are well represented in the other activities on the campus. We have three men on the Glee Club. Brother Coleman is president and leader, and Brother Bernard Rosser is manager. Brother Coleman is president of the Senior Lecture Course. On the Histrionic Club we have three men. Brother Staten is president of both the Athletic Association and the Varsity "W" Clan. In debate we are represented by Brother Kellogg. This is Brother Houston's second year as a member of Pi Delta Epsilon, and Pledge Carpenter has a place on the Ohio Wesleyan Transcript staff. In class honorary organizations, we are represented by six men.

This year at Homecoming we reorganized our Chapter House Association. For the occasion we had about thirty alumni back. New officers were elected, and we are going to make a decided effort to keep that organization functioning.

Last but not least comes scholarship. Last year we stood second among the national fraternities. This year we are working as hard as we know how to get into first place. If we can do that we will feel that our year has been a decided success.

HENRY A. HOVEY.

2nd semester 1922-23, 13th of 15 chapters; average 2.63; all men's average 2.99.

Nu began this year with the characteristic pep of rushing season and succeeded in pledging five men from the freshman class: E. F. Flynn, Erie, Pa.; C. M. Leeds, Newark, N. J.; F. D. Lovatt, South Orange, N. J.; J. A. MacGregor, Lansdowne, Pa.; J. C. Shea, Detroit, Mich. We also pledged two sophomores and one senior, they are: J. W. Weaver '26, Easton, Pa.; J. F. Hannon '26, Bridgeport, Conn.; Guy Winkjer '24, Washington, D. C. Pledge Winkjer completed three years at the Naval Academy and entered Lafayette as a senior this fall. He played varsity football at the Naval Academy, but, unfortunately, due to the one year residence rule he was unable to play here.

Pledge Shea played Varsity football as substitute full-back. We are represented on the freshman football team by Pledge Flynn. Pledges Leeds, MacGregor, and Shea were elected members of The Owl Club.

On the college publications Nu has been quite active. We are represented on The Lafayette Weekly by Brother Buck as business manager, Brother LaBarr assistant business manager, Brother Morgan assistant circulation manager, and Brothers Montgomery and Sachsenmaier on the board. Brother Buck is also business manager of The Melange (year book) while Brother Satler is circulation manager.

We are represented in other activities by Brother Wood, secretary of the sophomore class and a member of Calumet Club; Brother Morgan, assistant track manager; Brother Hahn, secretary of the Y.M.C.A. and a member of the band; and Brothers Johnston and Thore, members of the soccer team. Brother Beeken, who last year played first singles on the tennis team, won the annual fall tennis tournament for the championship of the college.

The prospects for a good year seem to be very bright here at Lafayette, for now that football season is over the fellows are getting down to hard work in their studies and we hope to be rating among the first few fraternities in our scholastic standing.

ERVIN SACHSENMAIER.

OMICRON

Year 1922-23, 13th of 19 chapters; average 1.6982; all men's average 1.768.

The 25th of September found twenty-three actives congregated at 724 North Dubuque Street, ready to commence another successful year and to further promote the interests of Delta Tau Delta and Omicron.

Brother Yerkes, our diminutive rushing captain, mobilized his forces and in a week the square button proudly reposed in the coat lapels of eighteen freshmen. As a result of the successful rushing season, Omicron wishes to introduce, as prospective Delts, the following: Rhea Chapman, Bennett; Aloysius Campbell, Charles City; Donald Graves, Perry; Wilbur Britton, Sioux City; LeRoy Abel, Mason City; George Hass, Chariton; Edward Boehmer, Boone; James Miner, Charles City; William Mann, Algona; Milton Stebbins, Oelwein; Milo Rhynsbarger, Orange City; Donald Reed, Eldora; Richard Porter, Mount Pleasant; Robert Richards, Muscatine; Clarence Smith, Council Bluffs; Eldrige O'Neil, Pierre, S. Dakota; Raymond Sibbert, Dennison; John Van Epps, Iowa City.

Since our last letter to THE RAINBOW we have made further additions to our silver collection. The Pan-Hellenic track and baseball cups now rest on either side of the Interfraternity basketball trophy. Pledge Abel, our star harrier, contributed a large traveling cup, as a reward for winning the annual Hawkeye Run, and the basketball team under Brother Finley is out to duplicate last year's season and looks like a winner.

Another football season has been written into history, and although Iowa failed to maintain her place at the head of the Conference, she landed well up in the first division. All Iowa is proud of the showing made by this practically new team and we are anticipating great things for next season, when all but two of the Varsity will be back in action.

Brother Fleckenstein played no small part in the success of the team. He played every minute of every conference game and proved himself one of the best guards in the West. Football critics have realized his ability and he has been placed on numerous all conference teams. Brother Yerkes was also a valuable man on the squad and received an I-2. Pledges Miner, O'Neil, and Mann represented us on the freshman team.

Omicron has taken an important part in campus activities and has furnished more than her share of leaders. Brother M. Van Oosterhout is president of the Senior Laws and Brother Faville is their secretary. Both are on the Law Bulletin Staff. Brothers Yerkes, Nasby, Finley and Ryan have been elected to Phi Delta Phi. Brother Bergendorf, who represents us in the interfraternity conference, is on that body's executive committee and Brother Yerkes is treasurer of the Pan Hellenic Fraternities, and a member of the Hawkeye Board. Brother Johnston is president of the University Players, president of Board of Governors, a member of the Student Council, on the Hawkeye staff, and on the Y.M.C.A. Cabinet. Brother Nasby is secretary of the Y.M.C.A. and also a cabinet member. Brother Hass is a class representative of the Pharmacy college. Brother Meder won his "I" again in track. Brother Herrick is night editor on the Daily Iowan. The pledges are already proving their worth. In addition to the three who won their freshmen football numerals, there is Abel, winner of the Hawkeye Run, a fall track numeral, and captain of freshman cross country team. Bill Britton and Don Reed are on the freshman swimming team; Jim Miner is treasurer of freshman Pan-Hellenic, and George Hass a member of the University Players.

Several weeks ago, burglars took advantage of our hospitality and "open door" system and seven of the brothers awoke in the morning and found themselves minus their gold watches and bill folds. The thieves evidently had a deep and well founded respect for the Fraternity, as they left unmolested all the watches with the Fraternity crest on them. The Betas and the Phi Psis were visited on the same night.

RHO

STEVENS INST. OF TECH.

Year 1922-23, 8th of 9 chapters; average 68.39; all men's average 71.37.

Rho entered upon its fiftieth year with the traditional spirit and cooperation which has maintained its high standard throughout this time.

We were very successful in rushing and pledged seven excellent men: Theodore Meeker, Jed Holtzman, William Rumney, W. Fiske Bingham, Richard Nelson, R. Stewart Bruns, and Henry Allmeyer.

The football team, captained by Brother Laverie, although not particularly successful in winning games, showed a fighting spirit that speaks well for next year. Captain Laverie, who alternated at tackle and center, was the one outstanding player of the team, and deserves great credit for his hard and diligent work. Pledge Meyer, the find of the season, played a corking game at end.

After the last game with Swarthmore, Rho gave its annual fall dance. It was an enthusiastic party, enjoyed by all until the small hours. At Stevens it is customary for each fraternity to give a dance, after some game during the season, and invite the other fraternities. In this way, inter-fraternity relations are fostered.

Rho continued its custom of a "Father's Night," designed to give our dads a chance to see how we live, and to help them understand just what a fraternity means. We have since heard whisperings of a retaliation by means of a "Son's Night." We are all hoping that the whispering turns to shouting.

All eyes at Stevens are now turned towards the basketball team. The team suffered the loss of its individual star, but hopes to overcome this by superior team-work. Brother Laverie is on the court again after a year's absence. While handicapped by his inactivity, we feel he will be able, nevertheless, to carry on from where he left off.

In other activities, Brothers Colt and Pledge Rumney are out for wrestling. Brothers White, Stevens, and Lanning, all letter men, are indulging in fall lacrosse practice. Brothers Brown, and Lanning, are doing work for the Stone Mill, our comic publication.

TAU

2nd semester 1922-23, 14th of 32 chapters.

The wheels of Tau Chapter are moving steadily; her never-failing engine is sending forth voluminous puffs of real smoke. The clock-like precision of this well-oiled machine is the result of the careful guidance of the veteran brothers who are at the helm; but part of the credit must go to our illustrious freshmen who are so adept at oiling and greasing our famous machine. Here they are—with oil-cans in hand: John Vickerman, Bellevue, Pa.; J. G. Miller, Bellevue, Pa.; Walton Ament, Turtle Creek, Pa.; Neal McCord, Sewickley, Pa.; John Rankin, Dormont, Pa.; Robert Wick, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Dan Johann, Huntington, Pa.; Thomas Helt, Bellevue, Pa. To bolster up the class of '26 we have selected two more hustlers who have shown themselves worthy of climbing aboard the Tau Chug-wagon: Frank Donald, Philadelphia, Pa., and George Daubenspeck, Huntington, Pa. These ten pledge-brothers (or apprentices) will be promoted about February at which time the old boiler will throw off the excess steam by means of thick oak paddles.

Alumni Day has come and gone. A host of old timers were back to help us entertain the Navy. They enjoyed the visit; the familiar scenes brought forth many stories of past. Each alumnus showed himself to be a hearty booster of the Fraternity as well as the College. At a joint meeting of the Chapter and the alumni plans were begun for the procuring of a new chapter-house.

Pennsylvania Day gave the fellows a chance to ease up in their work long enough to hear some good music and to entertain their best girls. The Keystone Serenaders of Ellwood City provided the snappy melodies for our two nights of dancing.

We have just received the good news that Brother Johnny Patton has been awarded his Varsity letter in football; he surely deserves it because of his difficult struggle throughout four years. Johnny had the misfortune of getting injured at the wrong time; he is still on the injured list, and just out of the hospital. In other activities Brothers Watson and Kraber are doing well in the dramatic work of the Penn State Players; Brothers Whitely, Daubenspeck and Weithaus are endeavoring to make Froth the leading college comic; Brother Ayers is out for wrestling; and the pledges are all in some branch of campus work.

Pledge Jack Miller has returned from Chicago where he attended the dinner which is given annually to the pledges of the Fraternity by Doctor Weiland. Jack reports that the function was one well worth attending.

Brother J. R. Muddy Rhoads, Nu Chapter, has affiliated with us this year; he is entered in the class of '25. Brother H. W. Stover, Beta Zeta, is in the ranks of our faculty and spends all his spare time at the chapter house.

Our annual Christmas banquet is scheduled for December 13th. We heartily wish that all the Delts could assemble at our festive board to celebrate with us. We know that such a thing is impossible; as a substitute Tau wishes every Delt a merrier Christmas.

UPSILON

RENSSELAER

No fraternity scholarship report obtainable.

When September rolled around, Upsilon was fortunate in having twenty men back to rush the entering class. After a strenuous rushing season we wish to introduce the following pledges: Ernest Warncke, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Henry Folterman, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mark Heaney, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; William Towne, Utica, N. Y.; Kenneth Logan, Cold Springs, N. Y.; and C. Deane Kent, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. These men are all out for some activity on The Hill.

The football season closed with one defeat by Williams; two tied games, one with N.Y.U. and the other with Clarkson Tech; and victories against Mass. Aggies, Hamilton, Stevens, Rochester, and Worcester. Brother Le Vee played a steady and excellent game as one of the halfbacks. Brother Cramp, who was out for an end position, was forced to give up the game because of injuries.

Brother Van Akin, manager of basketball, has just completed his schedule which contains some very excellent games. Of these probably the most interesting will be that against Union on March eighth. Three veterans are back to furnish a nucleus for the team and with last years subs and the new material, the new coach, Edmund P. Donnelly, ought to turn out another winning team.

The Chapter's activities on The Hill are numerous. Brother Cramp, of last year's hockey team, is anxiously waiting for the ice to form on the rink. Brother Van Akin besides being manager of basketball, is chairman of the Rensselaer Union Hop Committee. Brother Le Vee and Pledge Warncke are trying out for positions on the basketball team. Brothers Beier and Reese are business assistants on The Polytechnic. Brother Peterson is assistant manager of hockey. Brothers Zeller and Clason are on the Year Book Board.

MAX CLASON.

PHI

WASHINGTON AND LEE

2nd semester 1922-23, 11th of 19 chapters; average 72.14; all men's average 72.73.

Phi Chapter opened the rushing season this year with eleven old men back. After much strenuous rushing we secured seven goats. We are proud to introduce the following new men: Leigh Bulluck, Rocky Mount, N. C.; O. C. Dawkins, Monroe, La.; W. L. Wilson, Lynchburg, Va.; C. B. Mann, Petersburg, Va.; Marshall Hay, Raleigh, N. C.; E. W. Richardson, Martinsville, Va.; H. R. Jenkins, Conway, S. C.

Football season is over and Washington and Lee and Vanderbilt are tied for first place in S. I. C. honors. Brother Hamilton was one of the mainstays of the Generals. Washington and Lee won four conference games and tied one, defeating the University of Virginia, Virginia Tech, South Carolina and North Carolina State, and tying Kentucky.

Phi Chapter is well represented in many phases of college activities. Brother Howe was manager of the football team, and was recently elected to the executive committee of the student body, from the senior class. Brother Black who is assistant manager of the Mink was elected to the 13 Club and the Cotillion Club. Brothers Fulwiler, Breazeale, and Graves are members of the Troubadours, the combined musical and dramatic clubs. Brother Fulwiler was also elected to the Cotillion Club. Brother Howerton is assistant manager of basketball, and Brother Fox assistant manager of football. Pledges Hay and Mann are members of the Mandolin Club.

CHI

2nd semester 1922-23, 3rd of 7 chapters; average 2.79; all men's average 2.73.

At the opening of the present term seventeen actives and one affiliate made themselves much in evidence among the new men and as a result we are happy to introduce the following pledges: John T. Grace, Norwood, O.; Burchell H. Rowe, Cincinnati, O.; Robert J. French, Toledo, O.; Clifford C. Sheldon, Fostoria, O.; George Daugherty, Toledo, O.; Robert Fitch, Lakewood, O.; Donald Zweigle, Toledo, O.; Daniel Q. Williams, Cleveland, O.; and Kenyon Eberth, also of Toledo.

The past football season has not been a sweeping success, but has brought to light a world of encouraging prospects for ensuing years. It is rather difficult to base reliable prophecy on mere prospective success but in one way at least Kenyon is due to have an unusually prosperous year in football. Brothers Harris, Rybak and Hovorka were our representatives on the squad.

Chi is contributing Captain E. G. Evans and Manager Ben D. Evans to the basketball team. The squad is fast, light, and small, but big things are expected of it.

Brother Rybak as captain of the track team has begun organizing in preparation for open air work early in the Spring. Undoubtedly several others of the Chapter will find places on that team.

With Brother McFadden as president, Brother Hopple as business manager, Brother Harris production manager, Brother Wade as stage manager, and a number of the positions held by Chi men, the Puff and Powder Club should be as prominent an organization as it has been in the past.

Leonard Hall, the new long promised dormitory is taking definite shape and marks, with the new heat and power plant, a glorious epoch in Kenyon's history. With a place in the new building assured us Chi cannot but be on the road to greater achievements.

It is not too early to mention the Kenyon Centenary Celebration that is to come with the next Commencement. Needless to say every effort is being made to make the occasion the most memorable in the history of the College. At that time it is urged and expected that every alumnus return to the Hill. The College is making the necessary housing arrangements and promises to provide not only adequate but comfortable accommodation for everyone.

In closing Chi extends to every chapter her best wishes for a successful year.

GEORGE B. SHAFFER.

OMEGA 1-24

PENNSYLVANIA

2nd term 1922-23, 5th of 30 chapters; average 75.8; all men's average 70.

While Omega Chapter opened the year with its ranks somewhat thinned through graduation and the urgent claims of the world of commerce and industry the nucleus that has returned is, we feel, one of the most energetic and ambitious bunches that has graced the house in many a moon. With Brother Chamberlain at the helm a successful year seems assured. Although we lost three of the University's stellar crew men by the graduation of Captain Wheeler, Phil Williams, and Earl Ricker, we have Brothers McGinley and Shuey on the Varsity football squad. As some of the boys from Centre and Pittsburgh will testify Mac was going like a million bucks until he injured his ankle. Brother Shuey has two more years and it will be hard to hold him back from a permanent berth. Brothers Hodgson and Danielson are holding the crowds spellbound by their work in the swimming pool; the former by his ability to hop on the board, soar gracefully towards the roof, and slip into the water after any number of somersaults; the latter because he can swim fifty or one hundred yards without taking a breath and then go over and win a water polo game or two. Brother Hodgson is also keeping the boys stepping in the baseball office in his capacity of assistant manager. Brother Harrell wears a Friars Senior Society hat around the campus, does efficient work as cheer leader, is circulation manager of the Punch Bowl, a member of the Red and Blue board, in the Instrumental Club, the Symphony Orchestra, the Band, and a half dozen other things. Brother Weinstock wears a Punch Bowl key and has already copped a gold medal for tossing the discus. This is his second gold one, bronze and silver medals not being counted. Brother Bierly continues to struggle around in the Band, Symphony Orchestra, and the Instrumental Club with a big horn wrapped around his neck. On the Pennsylvanian Board we have Brothers Bradley and McDowell, with Brother Hanscom all set to grab off another position on the business board of that publication. Brother Danielson seems to have his mind set on obtaining a Class Record key to show to the boys. Brother Bradley has spent the fall working at the football office and we confidently expect to introduce him within the next few days as assistant manager of that sport. Brothers Grauer and Herring are working for the positions of soccer and crew manager respectively and we see no reason why they aren't the logical choices for the jobs.

The Chapter takes great pleasure at this time in announcing the affiliation of Brother Luxemburger of Nu Chapter and Brother McGinley of Beta Lambda Chapter, and the pledging of Kenneth Acton, Edward Foster, and Joseph Gerhart, all of Philadelphia.

The alumni have turned out en masse to several of the meetings this year, which took on all the aspects of the proverbial family reunion. There was an Alumni Get-Together after the Penn State game on November 17th, and about fifty of the boys were there heart and soul.

The social side has not been neglected and under the able leadership of Brothers Rowe, Trousdale, and Harrell we have had two dances that rank with the best, one at Hallowe'en and the other at Thanksgiving.

A change in the Rushing Agreement gives each fraternity on the campus three pre-season smokers. Ours are scheduled for December 5th, 12th and 17th. There will be a two weeks' period after the mid-year exams. If any of the brothers know of any good Delt material at Pennsylvania we would appreciate it if they would set us on the trail.

BETA ALPHA

2nd semester 1922-23, 12th of 15 chapters; average 1.221; all men's average 1.379.

Beta Alpha rush, which was really in progress for nine months or more, came to a close at the opening of school, when thirteen men were pledged. The Chapter wishes to

The Crimson football team finished in fifth place in the Conference, winning from Northwestern and Purdue, and losing to Wisconsin and Chicago. The team only loses two men by graduation, and with an abundance of freshman material, Hoosier prospects for next year are unusually bright.

As for basketball, four of last year's Varsity men are back, and a plentiful supply of new men are trying out. We feel sure that with Brother Alward, who is captain, and Brother Nyikos, who is all-Conference forward, we should land in a high position in Conference standing.

The usual number of Delts have been pledged and initiated into honorary fraternities on the campus: William Espenscheid, Bruce Sillery, Robert Wilson, Gamma Eta Gamma, Irwin W. Huncilman, Garrick Club, Dan McIntosh Phi Delta Kappa. Brother McIntosh is also a member of the University football coaching staff, and is completing his work on his master's degree.

Beta Alpha is making an earnest effort to bring up its scholastic standing, having supervised study hall for freshmen and study hours at all time excepting meal time. With this means of studying and with freshmen working hard we feel sure of a high scholastic standing.

ARTHUR G. WALLACE.

BETA BETA

DE PAUW

*Year 1922-23, 8th of 11 chapters; average credit points 33.5;
all men's average credit points 36.7.*

When autumn leaves have left bare trees; when "Jimmy" Ashmore's fightin' Tiger eleven has been cheered for the last time; when basketball becomes the cynosure of all eyes; then it is time for your correspondent to polish up the chapter horn for the first concert. If we were composers of music, the first number on our program would be a three-part horn solo on the glories of scholarship. The first part would treat of the joys of ascending the scholastic scale to seventh place among national fraternities. The second part of our solo would be a rhapsody with a theme on first place in improvement of scholarship, ending in a great blast of the tuba denoting our former cellar position in studies. The last part would take up the futuristic note of prophecy on our record yet to come.

The opening of school found fifteen old men back in harness to keep the ball rolling on towards success. Believing that action is the best preventative for indifference, we went forth first and pledged twelve freshmen. They are Harry Williams, Donald Covalt, and Floyd Raisor, Muncie; Robert Morris, Noblesville; Leonard Appleman, South Bend; Richard Williams, Elkhart; Albert McNutt, Brazil; David Chance, Indianapolis; Richard Mercer, Indianapolis; John Kimble, Springfield, Illinois; Charles Palmer, Dayton, Ohio; and Paul Driscoll, College Corner, Ohio.

Since the publication of the last RAINBOW letter we have initiated two men, Wilson Payne, Rock Island, Illinois, and Fred Mustard, Rensselaer.

If you chanced to stop over in Greencastle and walked about the college campus, you would see quite a few Delts at work in various activities. Perhaps if you walked into Bowman Gymnasium you would see Brother Adams leaving the coach's office with a new "D" football sweater. At least you would observe Pledge Raisor, all-state high school guard last year, practicing with the rhinie basketball five. If you happened in the gym about dinner time you would see Brothers Adams and Zeis return from Brother Blackstock's Athletic Field with the track squad.

Over at the Armory Brother Edgerton sports the uniform of lieutenant-colonel and takes an occasional pot shot at a bull's eye. He also wears the service ribbon of Scabbard and Blade. Four pledges practice with the military band. These embryo Sousas are Pledges Harry Williams, Appleman, McNutt, and Driscoll. Brother Bogner sometimes adds his noisy trombone notes to the general discord, but his proper place is with the University Orchestra.

If you picked up a student directory, you would find Brother Bain's name listed as secretary-treasurer of Kappa Tau Kappa, honorary senior fraternity, and a member of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity. Brother Boyd's name would appear as president of Duzer Du, dramatic fraternity.

Had you been here Old Gold Day, Brother Edgerton would have sold you a ticket at Brother Cartwright's music shop for "Enter Evangeline," a musical comedy written by De Pauw men and starring Brother Boyd. Since Brother Edgerton's success as a business manager of a play, Brother Oldshue tried his hand in "All For A Drum Major," given by high school students.

Brother Jeffrey and Pledge Harry Williams were recently pledged to Duzer Du. Brother Jeffrey's table-waiting experience stood him in good stead as the butler in "Dulcy," the first Duzer Du play of the season.

Beta Beta is well represented in publications. Brother Edgerton is manager of the Beauty Contest for the Mirage, university annual. Brother Baltzell is copy editor of the same publication and also holds the same position on The De Pauw Daily. Pledge Appleman is on the business staff of the De Pauw Magazine. Brother Bain was business manager of the last issue of the Yellow Crab, Sigma Delta Chi's humorous publication. Brother Bain is also a prominent and influential member of the Board of Publications.

In Music Hall you will hear Brothers Boyd and Jeffrey trying to harmonize their voices with the rest of the Glee Club. Brother Boyd is also in the University Choir. Brother Bogner and Pledge Driscoll are members of the Brass Quartet. Brother Bogner has recently been appointed business manager of the new university song book.

Four Delts are in departmental clubs. Brothers Oldshue and Beemer are in Tonybee, sociological club, and Brothers Jeffrey and Atkins are members of Epsilon Epsilon, Greek language society.

ROLFE BALTZELL.

BETA GAMMA

The fall of 1923 found Beta Gamma with sixteen actives back for school, under the leadership of Brother A. V. Stegeman. Brothers William Stegeman of Chi and Norman Peterson of Beta Eta were affiliated, bringing our number up to eighteen.

There are over forty fraternities represented at Wisconsin, consequently rushing furnishes exceptionally keen competition, and the Chapter was at school ten days early, determined to get the pick of the campus. We more than succeeded, and are gratified to announce the pledging of William Vernon, Newton, Iowa; William H. Darrow, Superior, Wisconsin; Victor Tronsdal, Eau Claire, Wisconsin; Maurice O. Smith, Madison, Wisconsin; Walter Bissell, Wausau, Wisconsin; William Gamble, Jr., Wausau, Wisconsin; Richard Gray, Decatur, Illinois; Paul Stone, Oconomowoc, Wisconsin; Turner Stone, Oconomowoc, Wisconsin; Frank McKey, Jr., Chicago, Illinois; Charles P. Gilkison, Pierre, South Dakota; Ralph Brenner, Valparaiso, Indiana; Anthony J. Faletti, Spring Valley, Illinois; and Cameron Hosmer, Romeo, Michigan.

Last spring five brothers graduated, and their loss is keenly felt by the Chapter. Brother Francis Herrick left for Oxford, England, where he is continuing his studies with other Rhodes scholars. Brother Harrell Murdoch is now engaged in the wholesale grocery business in Chicago, and Brother Lee Edwards is also in Chicago, in the employ of the Liquid Carbonic Company. Brother John Randolph started practicing law in Lafayette, Indiana, and Brother Edward Hanley is connected with the Bell Telephone Company in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Wisconsin did not finish first in the Conference percentage column, but its football team showed a better brand of ball than it has in years, and under the leadership of our new coach, Jack Ryan of Dartmouth, a championship will soon be again in our possession. Brother Oscar Teckemeyer played varsity center this year, and Pledge Brothers Hap Smith and Chuck Gilkison did some good work with the freshman squad.

The Homecoming game with Minnesota ended in a tie, which was disappointing to both teams, but did not dampen the ardor of the celebration. About fifteen of the brothers attended the Chicago game, and we want to thank the chapters at Chicago, Armour, and Northwestern for their hospitality. Those who made the trip will not forget it, as they also had the opportunity of attending Dr. Frank Wieland's banquet. Ten men followed the team to Illinois, and although the game was a disappointment, everyone soon forgot it in the entertainment and hospitality shown them by the Illinois Chapter.

Junior Prom at Wisconsin is recognized as one of the leading college social functions in the country, and this year it promises to be even better than usual. Wisconsin has the most beautiful capitol in the union, and it provides a fit setting for Prom. Brother Jim Hipple is in charge of special feature acts for Prom, and promises entertainment which will outdo all previous Proms. We hope that any Delts who possibly can will come to Madison on February 8th, and take part in our Prom party.

The Chapter is taking part in all campus activities this year. Brothers Hipple and Ruggles are on the swimming squad, and Brother Ben Drew is trying out for cross country manager. "Haresfoot," men's annual dramatic production, contains the names of Brother Ben Drew and Pledge Jack Faletti. Pledges Paul and Turner Stone are both on the freshman swimming squad. Brothers Oscar Teckemeyer and Bill Temples are now out for rowing, and both show promise of making the spring trip to Poughkeepsie.

Delts in years gone by have established a high standard and enviable reputation at Wisconsin for Delt parties. This standard was lived up to and even surpassed at our fall formal, held on December 8th. The house was beautifully decorated with smilax and chrysanthemums, and we had a party the Chapter can be proud of.

Interfraternity bowling at Wisconsin arouses more interest and rivalry among fraternities than any other sport. The chapter team is now in fifth place, and heading right towards the top. We hope we can emulate the example of preceding chapters and place another bowling cup on the mantle.

The Dean of Men at Wisconsin has pointed out that fraternity scholarship as a whole is rather low, and as a result a silver cup is offered the fraternity showing the greatest improvement in scholarship this year. Beta Gamma is out for the cup and determined to get it.

GORDON E. SMITH.

BETA DELTA

GEORGIA

No fraternity scholarship report obtainable.

The opening of school in September found twenty-six actives back on the job ready to make this a successful year for Beta Delta. Brother Holt is back with us after a year's absence.

After a week of rushing ten freshmen, a sophomore, and a junior are the proud wearers of the square button. They are Harry Newman, Augusta; King Grant, Atlanta; Grey Boatwright, Augusta; Clyde Tanner, Douglas; Jeff Brock, Carrollton; Rowland Griffin, Carrollton; Marion Parker, Millen; Delacey Parker, Millen; Edward Manucy, Savannah; James Melton, Ocala, Fla.; and Evans Daniels, Waynesboro.

Beta Delta has placed herself in various activities this year. Brother Philpot made his letter on the football squad. Brother Blount is now working with the basketball team. Brother Tate is on our track team. Brother Musgrove is football manager and Brothers Helmly and Schnell are assistant managers. Brother Tate recently became a member of the Gridiron Club, one of the most coveted honors at Georgia. He is also president of Phi Kappa, one of our literary societies. Brother Fulghum is now a member of the Scabbard and Blade. Brother Tanner is president of the Glee and Instrumental Club. Beta Delta is well represented on the social clubs by Brothers Odum, Musgrove, Blount, D. Milledge, S. Milledge, Philpot, O'Neal, and Schnell.

Homecoming on November the tenth was a decided success. It certainly seemed good to see so many of the alumni with us again. The Virginia game in the afternoon and the Pan-Hellenic dance that night seemed to keep the older brothers well occupied.

THOMAS S. ALNUTT.

BETA EPSILON

EMORY

Winter quarter 1922-23, 5th of 10 chapters; average 8.94; all men's average 8.565.

After many weary moments trying to learn to manipulate this new-fangled machine, Brother Whipple's Rex typewriter, this scribe will attempt to relate to you something of the activities of Beta Epsilon Chapter since the opening of the fall quarter.

The year opened with a boom, with the largest enrollment in the history of Emory University. The close of the rushing season found us with the following pledges: John M. Norris, Kansas City, Kansas; J. I. Davis, Rome, Ga.; Richard Dell, Dublin, Ga.; Robert Dopson, McRae, Ga.; Neal Dunn, Thomson, Ga.; Herbert Evans, Florida;

Turner Flournoy, Carrollton, Ga.; Earl W. Hill, Sylvania, Ga.; William D. Howell, Zebulon, Ga.; O. C. Jenkins, Edison, Ga.; Carleton Gilbert, Dublin, Ga.; Ted Peeler, Jacksonville, Fla.; Herbert Philips, Atlanta, Ga.

We returned seventeen old men who are out to make the Chapter rate in college activities. Brother Marvin Harper is track coach this year, and is working hard to make cinder path men out of Pledges Earl Hill, Turner Flournoy, and Gilbert, all of whom made the freshman relay team. Brother Merrill Spurlin, who was a member of a team winning a unanimous decision over Wofford in debate last year, is there with the goods this year, and is secretary of the debate council. He is also a member of Tau Kappa Alpha, honorary oratorical society. Probably the skillful direction of Brother Spurlin (not politics understand) accounts for the fact that two other brothers, Gibson Ezell and George Hill, were chosen for the winter term debate. Brothers Jimmie Howell and William ("Dog") Davis have survived the terrible tortures of initiation and are now members of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity on the campus. Brothers Harper and Petty were recently elected to membership in Sigma Upsilon, honorary literary fraternity. Brother Petty is literary editor of The Campus, our college annual.

We might mention the fact that Beta Epsilon is pulling for better scholarship this year. The honor roll of the year 1922-23 contains the names of Brothers George Hill, George Malone, Merrill Spurlin, and Oscar Tigner, and our pledges show promise of a large addition to that roll this year.

The famous Emory Glee Club, under the skillful direction of Brother Dewey, left the campus on December 1st for their sixth annual tour of the south. Delts who were successful in the glee club and orchestra try-outs were Brothers Whipple and Jones, and Pledges Dunn and Peeler. The Emory Glee Club, the largest musical organization of its kind in the south, each year makes several extensive tours of Dixie, and is one of the most popular attractions on the road. Brother Dewey is widely known as a glee club director, and the success of the Emory organization is due almost entirely to his careful selection of well trained voices.

As has been mentioned before, the Chapter has, through the Beta Epsilon House Corporation, secured the finest lot on the University campus. We hope all payments on this valuable piece of property may be met promptly, so that we may erect a home of which the Chapter and the Fraternity will be justly proud. We are counting strongly on our alumni to aid us in the undertaking.

LOUIS L. PETTY.

BETA ZETA

2nd semester 1922-23, 2nd of 6 chapters; average 78.59.

Beta Zeta Chapter was insured an unusually prosperous year when Brother Orville Hooker, ex-basketball captain, star journalist, and a host of other things, including his being one of the best liked fellows on the campus, was chosen as our president last June.

While we were scattered this summer, leaving school with the knowledge that our house, which we were renting, was to be sold, we were sort of holding the sack all the way round. But our alumni helped us out and we came back this fall to a big rebuilt house, the best on the campus by common assent. And we own it. With the zest and self-confidence which this gave us, we proceeded to cop off eighteen of the finest pledges we've ever had (with the exception of the writer's class).

In football seven Delts made the squad, five of whom got their letters last week. Butler won seven out of nine games and finished with a flashing triumph over the Haskell Indians, 19-13. When the Dramatic Club, a prominent organization on the campus, held its elections, the men's offices, president and treasurer, were taken by Delts. We have the business managership of the college paper, the president's chairs of both the senior and sophomore classes, and the Interfraternity Council. We have five upper-classmen out for basketball.

Socially, during Thanksgiving vacation we held a house-party at Turkey Run, a well-known beauty spot in the State, and it proved a huge success. This is rather a unique thing here. December eighth, the alumni are holding a formal dance at the Severin Hotel in Indianapolis.

Scholastically, we're going well.

ARNOLD DAVIS.

BETA ETA

MINNESOTA

Year 1922-23, 25th of 25 chapters; average .682; all fraternity average .986.

Competition seemed to be the by-word among the twenty-five fraternities on the Minnesota Campus during this fall's rushing season. After the smoke had cleared Beta Eta considered herself fortunate in being able to announce the pledging of Jack Raymond, Scott's Bluff, Nebraska; Durell Richards, Huron, South Dakota; Bob Gemmell, Brainerd, Minnesota; Phil Bauman, Winona, Minnesota; Bob Rahn, St. Paul, and Ray Peterson and "Westy" Farmer of Minneapolis.

The Chapter was unfortunate in that Bill Fox, Varsity baseball pitcher and "A" student last year, was struck by a pitched ball and his head has not sufficiently healed to permit his return to school.

The usual fall activities such as rushing, homecoming and alumni reunions are now a thing of the past and our energies are being devoted to Interfraternity sports and campus activities. Our bowling team has yet to taste defeat, having defeated the Chi Psi's and the A.T.O.'s to date. Ray Peterson was the star in the last game, chalking up scores of 180, 190 and 210.

Prospects are especially bright in hockey, as the Delts can produce a team capable of beating the Varsity. The schedule opens in a few weeks and we are confident that another cup will repose above the fire-place next spring.

Brother Guy Johnson was a member of the football squad this fall and it is expected that he will occupy a permanent halfback berth next year. Keen disappointment is felt on this campus over the fact that Martineau was not placed on the Big Ten mythical eleven by Walter Eckersoll. Prospects for a championship team next year are bright in spite of the fact that Marty, Ecklund and Merrill will be lost to the squad.

Brother Lee Herron is the holder of the University golf championship and looks like a second Rudy Knepper. Brother Doug McCullough is Cadet Colonel, President of Scabbard and Blade and will lead the Military Prom this year. He is also active in dramatics and headed the campaign for the Gopher Minnesota's Annual, on the Agriculture School's Campus. Brother Ken Goss is manager of basketball and occupies a position on the Athletic Finance Committee. Brother John Gemmell pledged Nu Sigma Nu this fall. Brother Johnny Hand is an Alpha Kappa Kappa and Brothers John Herron and John Derrick are Phi Delta Phis. Brother Boots Dunlap is vice-president of the Junior Mines Class.

Brother Ralph Wray, field secretary of the Fraternity recently paid us a visit. Meeting such a live-wire Delt, listening to his advice and hearing him play the piano was a pleasure which we will long remember.

Delts from all parts of the country seem to congregate in Minneapolis. Brother Jack Weaver of Cincinnati, Doc. Richards of Omicron Chapter, "Stiffy" Steadman of Illinois make our house their home. Omicron Chapter was well represented at the Iowa-Minnesota Game, ten of them making the House their headquarters during their visit.

BETA THETA

UNIV. OF THE SOUTH

2nd term 1922-23, 5th of 8 chapters.

School opened September 20th, and with it commenced a year for Beta Theta which bids fair to be one of the very best we have ever had on the mountain.

We returned only thirteen actives and some of these did not come until late, so we had a pretty hard and busy rushing season. The spirit of co-operation and unity which seems to have been slightly dormant in the past few years awakened to its duty of making Delta Tau Delta the best on the mountain. Not only on the campus, but also in the Chapter Hall is this cooperation ever present.

When the smoke of Rushing Season and Pledge Day had slightly blown over, we found that we had pledged seven men who will be more than a credit to the Fraternity. Five of these seven hail from the Lone Star State, one from Alabama, and the other from Tennessee. Andrew B. Small, Dallas, is very popular on the campus and is playing half-back on the freshman team. He is a track man, too, running the hurdles in good form. Orin Helvey, from Fort Worth, is THE STAR of the freshman team at fullback. He weighs 219 pounds and can run the ends as well as hit the line. He is also a wonderful track man in the weights, having several records to his credit. Alexander Beaton is also a Dallas boy, and holds down a regular guard on the freshman team. Robert Nash, from Kaufman, is a fine football player and a track man and will be heard from this fall and next spring. Balie Griffith is from Dallas, too, and spends more time shining his hair than his shoes. Josiah Smith of Selma, Ala., is one of the most popular freshmen on the mountain, having received more bids than any other freshman. He also entered the University with the best scholastic record ever presented here. John T. Whitaker hails from Chattanooga, Tennessee, and has already begun to demonstrate his literary talent by writing on The Purple, our weekly publication.

Brother Stivers is having his best year this year at center on the Varsity, and will make somebody hustle for an All-Southern selection. Brother Shook is back at his regular guard and is playing a fine game. Brother Allen is an understudy at guard.

For several years we have been working for a new house, and now prospects seem to be rather bright. We have the hearty support of the Alumni Association and Brother Edward Armes of Birmingham is using every means to raise the remainder of our quota so we can commence building in the near future. Brother Armes was unanimously elected President of the Alumni Association at a meeting held here last commencement, and has been fulfilling his obligations admirably.

BETA IOTA

Year 1921-22, 27th of 29 chapters; average 79.6.

When college opened on September seventeenth, Beta Iota found herself in excellent shape. Fourteen actives returned to school and, in addition to these, we affiliated Brother J. Ralph Stuart from Gamma Gamma. Brother Pierson, who was forced to leave college on account of illness just before Christmas last year, returned this fall. Brother Moyer who left during the second term last year also returned this fall.

At the end of rushing season we had pledged the following men: Gavin H. Cochran of Louisville, Ky.; Herbert J. Flynn of Washington, D. C.; A. Shelbourne Johnson of Franklin, Va.; John M. Robeson of Lynchburg, Va.; Curtis E. Cuddy of Roanoke, Va.; A. Murry Beard of Hardinsburg, Ky.; and Edward G. Hill of Richmond, Va. On October thirty-first we had a very successful initiation at which several of our alumni were present.

We have our share of men taking part in college activities. Brothers Hart and Moore are out for the Glee Club. Brother Hart was on it last year and should have no trouble in making it again. Brother Moore has an excellent chance of being chosen as a member of the Glee Club Orchestra. Brothers Moyer, Smith, and Moore are working hard to obtain positions on the business staff of the Virginia Reel. Brother Miller has recently been appointed advertising manager of the Virginia Reel. Brother Sydnor is a strong candidate for the position of assistant manager of football. Brother Cuddy is playing halfback in the undefeated freshman football team and several of our other "Goats" are on the squad. Brother Richardson was recently elected to Phi Delta Phi and Brother Moore was taken into Skull and Keys.

During the football season, we received many visits from Delts. We enjoyed these visits and hope to have many more in the future.

There is an active movement on foot to establish an alumni chapter of Delta Tau Delta in Richmond, Va. Brother E. R. Patterson is the moving spirit in this enterprise.

Our football season ended on Thanksgiving Day when we played a scoreless tie with North Carolina. This was our first year under Coach Earle Neale and although we did not do as well as we had hoped to, we have great confidence in Neale and expect better results next year.

BETA KAPPA

COLORADO

Year 1922-23, 8th of 17 chapters; average 75.83; all men's average 78.11.

Final week finds Beta Kappa looking forward to two quarters of definite progress. The active Chapter entertains high hopes for the welfare of seventeen pledges who seem to recognize the value of study. All of them are going into the fray confident of success. Under the leadership of Ralph "Cowboy" Hunter, the boys have subordinated pleasure to work, and still have managed to place high in the social scale.

Rush week found the boys united to put across one of our most successful seasons. Brother Harry Malm captained the rushing forces to a pleasing victory: seventeen promising youngsters have carried the crossed triangles with credit throughout the past quarter. They are: Burdette J. Bond, Liberty, Indiana; M Roosevelt Edwards, Victor, Colorado; George F. Grieb, Jr., Philadelphia, Pa.; Hugh Long, Samuel J. Sweet, Jr., and Charles F. Pilchard, all of Denver; Dean W. Stapp, Las Vegas, N. M.; Sherman B. Walrod, Holyoke, Colo.; George E. MacKinnon and Ira M. DeLong, both of Grand Junction, Colo.; Thomas H. Bartindale, Maplewood, N. J.; Jack Ingram, Ralph and Glen C. Walker, all of Boulder; John D. Moore, Pueblo; Jerome A. Paul, Montrose, Colo.; and Warner W. Newcomb, of Denver.

The pledges have taken hold of activities and are making commendable headway along various lines. MacKinnon is looking good at center for next year's Varsity squad, and Stapp has already gained considerable fame as a plunging fullback possibility for next year; MacKinnon is also making a bid for Varsity basketball, which opens next week; Edwards is getting a foothold as basketball manager, and Pilchard has completed a successful season at freshman football managing; Grieb has started well on the contributing staff of the campus humorous magazine; Walrod and Paul lend tone to the University band, and Bartindale takes charge of everything connected with stage or dance lighting effects.

Actives in the campus limelight are: Guant, business manager of the alumnus; Griffith, circulation manager of the Silver and Gold, student newspaper; Keith, business manager of the same publication; Newcomb, baseball manager; Malm, Y.M.C.A. cabinet; Charlton, editorial staff, campus humorous magazine; Malm and Davis, Booster's Club representatives; and Orsborne, radio wizard at KFAJ, the University station.

Campus honorary and scholastic clubs and societies are represented in: Powell, vice-president Colorado Civil Engineers; Newcomb, Hunter, Griffith, and Stewart, in Arch-sophomore honorary; Plested, Torch and Shield, sophomore honorary; Charlton, president Scribblers Club;

Barber, Newcomb, Stewart, and Charlton, Colorado Canaries, pep club of the University.

In professional fraternities: Brothers Guant and Hunter, Phi Delta Phi, legal; Macomber, Phi Rho Sigma, medical; Davis, Sigma Tau, engineering; Guant, Charlton, and Keith, Sigma Delta Chi, journalistic.

Brothers Davis, Greaber, and Barber, and pledges MacKinnon and Stapp are out for Varsity basketball. In the interfraternity series Beta Kappa is one of the few quintets left in the running.

Brother Bill Plested came into his own on Thanksgiving Day when Colorado captured the Rocky Mountain conference title. Bill has been playing excellent defensive tackle on the Varsity first string squad, and clinched his letter in the last game of the season.

Brother Larry Stubbs has made himself by far the outstanding man on the campus through gyrating ability as cheer leader and student marshal. The student co-ed population here frankly admits that their attendance at football games throughout the season has been impelled principally by Larry's antics before the grandstand. Denver and Boulder newspapers have carried columns devoted to Stubbs alone, and when the Varsity squad played the Utah aggregation at Salt Lake City he was lauded by newspapermen as the best cheerleader ever seen in the state. Larry's red hair, his genial attitude toward everything, and his ability to perform acrobatics in mid-air to the rhythm of college yells, have won him enviable conference fame.

Initiation ceremonies were held recently for James M. Dodson, of Grand Junction. Jim was a third quarter pledge of last year and has stepped along with the pace in fine style.

James E. Caywood, Gamma Theta '20, has been affiliated. Jim and his inevitable dog "Pooch" are cheer-bringers from dawn to dusk.

Some of the boys we refuse to consider as alumni are Hap Lewis, who is working in Monte Vista this quarter and may possibly return after Christmas; Earl Heckert and Russ Randell, Saxophonists, who felt the lure of the Orient last summer, and after treating the natives to some real jazz are returning to us next quarter.

Brother Jim Hunter is taking some advanced work in preparation for a life with the oil-finders. Jim assists on the faculty in the position of Geology instructor.

Brothers Carroll, Northwestern University, and Standfast, Columbia, were Chapter visitors this summer. Carroll lent his natural talent to rush talks when school opened. Brother "Paddy" Ryan, Iowa University, and Brothers Lawton Gambill and Homer Toland, Texas University, were in attendance in law school here the past summer.

DANIEL A. CHARLTON.

BETA LAMBDA

1st term 1922-23, 17th of 21 chapters; average 72.4.

With the Christmas holidays soon upon us and mid-season examinations beginning to loom up, Beta Lambda is taking stock of progress already made and considering ways and means to forge even more rapidly ahead. We have seven pledges this year and a total of sixteen men in the house. Needless to say we are all pulling together and the present college year gives fair promise of being a banner one.

We might as well admit it brothers—Lafayette beat us again this year—football of course. Lehigh put up a good game but the fellows "down the river" were just a little bit better. The final reading stood 13-3. Our season on the whole, however, was very good and the old comeback "we'll get them next year" still holds. Now understand we are not boasting but the Lehigh colors came through Thanksgiving Day on the top of the score-board. We scored an easy win over Brown 12-6.

On November 16th, Beta Lambda had its first house-party of the season. It was a Lehigh houseparty—that's all that need be said.

W. M. METTEN.

BETA MU

TUFTS

No fraternity scholarship report obtainable.

College opened on September 19th, and that date found twenty-one actives and one pledge at 98 Professors Row. Since that time we have increased our numbers by seven pledges. They are: Frederick Johnson, Everett, Mass.; August C. Miller, Taunton, Mass.; John H. Neal, Tufts College; K. Harold Simmons, Rockland, Me.; Foster R. Spofford, Berlin, Mass.; Charles N. Tilton, Raymond, N. H.; Michael Edward McCabe, Worcester, Mass.

Academically the Chapter stands firmly. We hold eager anticipations of what the year may bring forth. Perchance the President's cup, for faithfulness to work, will grace our House next year.

Socially, also, the Chapter ranks well. We are represented in every activity. The more than successful Alumni Smoker and Annual Fall House Party give evidence of the brighter side of college work, keeping the brothers a little farther away from studies than they usually are found to be.

In anticipation of a highly successful year, we ask all brothers who may chance to be near Beta Mu to drop in and we will show them a Delt House that we are proud of.

F. O. BOND-NELSON.

BETA NU

MASS. INST. OF TECH.

2nd term 1922-23, 12th of 18 chapters.

The Chapter came back to the Institute this year only fourteen strong due to the failure of a number of the brothers to return. Rushing season was very short and intense because of no rushing rules, after an unsatisfactory trial of them by a group of fraternities last year. The Chapter is proud to announce that they pledged thirteen men, consisting of ten freshmen, two sophomores, and one junior.

On the 17th of November we held our annual initiation Banquet at the Hotel Brunswick in Boston, with a number of alumni attending, as well as representatives from Gamma Gamma and Beta Chi. Brother Lindemuth was there to give us a fine message. We are glad to introduce to all Brother Delts, at this time, our thirteen initiates: Brothers Robert Charles Wallace '27, Chicago, Ill.; Warren Freeman Priest '27, Littleton, Mass.; Raymond Franklin Hibbert '27, Marlboro, Mass.; Harold Churchill Mathews '27, New York, N. Y.; Paul Caswell Woodbury '27, Littleton, Mass.; John Sigurd Wiebe '27, East Orange, N. J.; Warren Day Smith, Portland, Me.; James Adam Lyles, Canaan, N. Y.; Waynard Richard Vosper, Toledo, Ohio; Jack Edward Gill, Salem, Mass.; Charlton Pratt Whittier, Kennebunk, Me.; Edward Hartwell Mitcham, Bronxville, N. Y.; and Morrough Parker O'Brien, Phoenix, Arizona.

We are lucky in having seven Delt transfers at Tech this year—Brothers Fertig, Gamma Lambda, Harris, Beta Rho, and Kniffen, Gamma Zeta, doing graduate work; and Brothers Giles, Gamma Zeta, Partin, Beta Epsilon, Baldrige, Gamma Lambda, and Connor, Gamma Alpha, in the undergraduate courses. Brother Fertig was teaching at Georgia Tech earlier in the year but decided to come back with us even though they did call him "Professor" down there.

Brother Heine Sewall is back at his post as Chapter Advisor and has helped us immeasurably in getting started.

The interior of the house has been repainted and an imposing new Baby Grand piano reposes in our living room.

We have been keeping up our social life with a rushing dance at the opening of school, a dinner and tea dance the afternoon of Field Day, a dinner on Sunday, November 25th, a formal dance to celebrate Hallowe'en, and a dinner for twenty couples preceding the Musical Clubs' Fall Concert and Dance on December 7th.

The Institute has at last started its building program again and is erecting a new dormitory near the present one. The dormitory is the gift of the class of '93. This is a great step toward more campus life and a greater Tech spirit which are surely needed.

CHARLES M. BOARDMAN.

BETA XI

TULANE

Year 1921-22, 8th of 17 chapters.

Tulane opened in late September with all the fraternities "on their toes" for the desirable freshmen. There was a fast and furious rushing season of dances, banquets, and other forms of entertainments for the benefit of the chosen. When the smoke of the battle had cleared Old Delta was there with the spoils. We were fortunate in securing six pledges: "Doc" Wilson, Navasota, Texas; Edward Getz, Shreveport, La.; Harris Morrison, Newroads, La.; William Bessellman, Carter Johnson, John Baine, of New Orleans, La.

We are glad to announce the affiliation of Brother Fernando Llorens from Gamma Omega Chapter, who is in the School of Medicine.

Tulane had a very successful football season, defeating her old rival, Louisiana State University, by 20 to 0 score. The Deltas were well represented in the squad, Brothers Wight, Bessellman and O'Kelly being regular Varsity men. The Deltas on the freshman team were Harvey Wilson, Carter Johnson, and Harris Morrison. Brother Wilson was the fullback and individual star of the team, and great things are expected of him on the Varsity.

We have had several dances at the chapter house, and all were delightful affairs.

The Southern convention of the Fraternity meets with Beta Xi this year, and we have planned to make this a gala affair. The convention is February the 22nd, just before the carnival starts, and New Orleans will be at its best. If any of the brothers are contemplating a trip to New Orleans, then will be the time for it.

There is a joint dinner once a month at the fraternity house which the alumni and actives both attend. It furnishes an excellent opportunity for the actives to discuss their affairs and secure the cooperation of the alumni.

BETA OMICRON

CORNELL

No fraternity scholarship report obtainable.

Greetings, fellow Delts, and best wishes for 1924! By the time of THE RAINBOW's publication in January another year shall have been marked off in our worldly scheme of things, a year which we trust has been one of pleasure and progress for all the Delt Chapters.

Just now Cornell is in the midst of that comparatively dull season when disputes about the Eastern football championship are on the wane and the question of the University's prospects in basketball has not yet come into popular discussion. In short, it is that time of year best suited to preliminary examinations and long nightly sessions with the slide rule.

Perhaps a few words about football would not be amiss here. Cornell has just concluded its third consecutive, undefeated season, and while some of the critics may award the mythical crown of the East to Yale, just let them try to convince a Cornell man of the equities of such a decision. The Chapter was represented in three lines of football activities this year. Brother Patterson played Varsity left halfback throughout the season, rising to remarkable heights in the game against Penn and gaining honorable mention among the outstanding backs of the 1923 gridiron year. Brother Hanson, star left tackle on the Varsity last year, was one of Gloomy Gil Dobie's assistants and rendered valuable aid to the canny head coach. Brother Steinmetz attended most of the games this season as a competitor for the managership of the Cornell eleven.

However difficult oral introductions may be, we need not hesitate to present Brothers Paul R. Milton, Errett H. Callahan, Jack S. Garretson, Kingsley Greene, and Theodore K. Riddiford. It also give us pleasure to announce the affiliation of Brother Lawrence O. Bidstrip from Rho Chapter, and Brother Thomas A. Eggert from Chi Chapter.

Fortune, or more correctly, the reward of diligent labor, has smiled upon Beta Omicron of late, and Brother Paul Doering has attained from a compet's status to assistant manager of crew, while his brother Otto has become an associate business manager of the Cornell Widow. Brother Johnson was recently elected president of the Red Key, a society for the entertainment of visiting athletic teams. With Brother Ripley on a baseball competition, Brother Donald Macdonald on a track competition, and Brothers Driscoll and Eggert on Widow competitions, the extra-curriculum activities of the house are being maintained. Brothers Austin, Wright, and Eiler still hold their former positions on the board of the Cornell Daily Sun.

A recent order by President Farrand has prohibited the parking of students' cars on the campus during the day, so that some of the more affluent brothers have been compelled to tread up the hill with the common herd. The great increase in the number of student-owned cars and the consequent nuisance and noise about the campus made this ruling necessary. In accordance with the progressive policy of the University, Cornell is steadily increasing its facilities, at the same time holding in check, if not actually curtailing, the number of students by an even more rigid scholarship requirement.

BETA PI

NORTHWESTERN

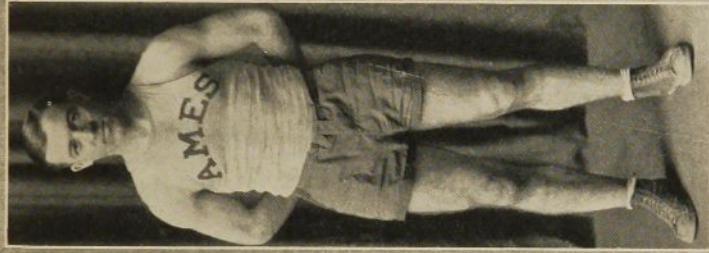

2nd semester 1922-23, 10th of 13 chapters; average .9565; fraternity average 1.1602.

Greetings, Brother Delts. Again we have a chance to meet one another through our magazine, THE RAINBOW.

The biggest event of the scholastic year for Beta Pi will be the initiation party in February. We intend to make this a homecoming for the alumni of our Chapter. We have nine pledges: Hunter E. Dietz, Moline, Ill.; Sherman B. Richardson, Chicago, Ill.; Frank O. Edwards, South Bend, Ind.; Howard B. Bowman, Wahpeton, N. D.; Harold F. Duer, Eagle Grove, Iowa; Arith R. Graham,

West Virginia

Evanston, Ill.; Phillip P. Platt, Eagle Grove, Iowa; C. A. Poindexter, Benton, Ill.; and F. L. Von Suesch Milch, Delevan, Wis. By the reports we have seen so far they should come through with some pretty neat averages by the end of the semester.

Beta Pi started off the semester with a bang and hasn't stopped going forward in seeking college activities. From our efforts so far we have the captaincy of the freshman varsity football team, Brother Patrick, while Brother McKean and Pledges Bowman, Edwards, Dietz, and Graham have played in the same squad. Brothers Lauder, Graham, Mullaney and Hollowell played on the Varsity football team. Brother Mullaney was injured earlier in the season and as a result was kept from earning his letter. Pledge Platt won the $3\frac{1}{4}$ mile cross country race in which all long distance runners of the University participated.

In publications and dramatics Beta Pi is well represented. Brother Duncan was selected at the end of last semester as business manager of the Syllabus, a year book put out by the junior class, and is ably assisted by Brothers Anderson and Hollowell. Brother Anderson was elected business manager of the Campus Players Dramatic Club this year. Brothers Smith, Karstens and Pledge Von Seuss Milch have been selected as members of the cast of the new Hermit and Crow production for which Brother Melind has written several pieces of music. Brothers Karstens and Hoffman are out for the Varsity basketball team, on which it is sure that Beta Pi will be represented with at least one member on the first string when basketball season opens. Brother Brown is on the Varsity swimming team and should have no trouble in winning his letter easily. Brother Hoffman is on the cheer-leading squad and our only representative in that capacity this year. Brother Hollowell, is assistant circulation manager of the Purple Parrot. Brothers Hollowell, Duncan and Lauder were elected to the Delta Sigma Pi Fraternity.

The important social event that we are looking forward to is Delt Prom, which is held annually in Chicago, sponsored by the three Delt Chapters.

On December 19th we will give our first house party of the season. We plan to engage one of the best bands in Chicago for the occasion and feel sure that it will be a wonderful success.

In closing Beta Pi wishes to extend holiday greetings to all the brothers.

ROY MELIND.

BETA RHO

STANFORD

No fraternity scholarship report obtainable.

Once more the scribe takes pen in hand to dash off a bit of record concerning the Chapter. The curtain rises for the fall quarter and we see twenty-two actives and one pledge, all hitting the books—trying to combine “mule” and “school” as it were.

Brothers Charlie Grondona, Eric Kolberg and Ginney Austin have given up the life of collegians and have plunged into the business world on receipt of sheepskins from Prexy Wilbur.

We made an even break on transfers this year. Brother Ed Harris transferred to Massachusetts Tech, and Brother Chet Dorland came to Stanford from Ann Arbor.

Brother Ford Tussing was elected to the position of assistant graduate manager of Stanford University. Our hats are off to Tuss as he managed things so well that he left our charmed circle of merry bachelors to become a benedict.

Brother Dixie Mixon, the southe'n boy who all is from Vand'abilt, I reckon, has become a great asset to the house. Besides coaching one of the frosh elevens, refereeing football games, training daily for the 440, acting as rushing captain and studying, Mix doesn't do a thing but eat, sleep, drink and worry about loosing his kinky hair.

Basketball has now hit the sporting page with a bang. Brothers Tommy Alexander and Morry Morrison are regular members of the Varsity squad. Many other boys are playing with the interclass teams, and we have entered again into the intramural contest with the same team that played the Betas for championship last year. In track we have Brothers Mixon, Kerr, Colgan and Olds. Bill Kerr has been doing great guns so far and has his mind set on making the American Olympic team. Brother Nick Carter was on the Varsity golf team. Brothers De Bach and Tussing, winners of last year's California-Stanford tennis matches will bear the brunt of the battle this spring. In water polo, Skin Collett, the best goal keeper on the Pacific coast, is another aspirant for Olympic honors. Brother Doug Draper and Bo McGettigan are making a bid to be on the snappy water polo outfit.

Due to the ever-changing rules and regulations of our Interfraternity Conference there is to be no pledging of freshmen until the spring quarter. We announce the pledging and initiation of Bob Hoxie of Los Angeles. Bob transferred to Stanford from U. S. C.

During the summer the house itself was completely renovated. It now has many new additional features in the way of internal improvements and furnishings, and once again we enjoy the comforts of steam heat and all the comforts of home.

EVERETT SWING.

BETA TAU

2nd semester 1922-23, 2nd of 21 chapters.

With practically the whole bunch back before rushing started this fall, Beta Tau put the square button on ten new men. Pledge Bruce Clark who was out of school part of last year due to illness, returned. The new pledges are Duane Anderson, Omaha; Arthur Breyer, Norfolk; Joe Brown, Lincoln; Judd Crocker, Omaha; Tom Evans, Fremont; John Gray, Fremont; Harry Hepperlin, Beatrice; Fred Picard, Geneva; Phil Sidles, Lincoln; Gene Holmes, Omaha.

Football season is all over, and finished successfully, Nebraska having beaten Notre Dame, "the unbeatable," Ames, Kansas Aggies, and Oklahoma. Syracuse and Illinois defeated us and we tied Kansas and Missouri. The stadium was ready for the first home game and after the Notre Dame game there was talk of enlarging the stands, there being about 27,000 spectators at that game.

Three of the twenty-one football letters went to Brothers Hubka, Myers, and Bloodgood. Packer, Gately, Mielenz, and Ballah were on the squad and will be fighting for the Varsity next fall along with Bronson, who played quarterback with the yearlings this fall.

Basketball is the center of attraction in the athletics of the school now. Brother Cozier, a letter man last year, Olds, Battey, Johnson, Andrews, Mielenz and Hubka are practicing every day and from present line-ups, at least four will make the squad. Pledges Clark, Holmes, and Anderson are on the freshman team.

In future sports, the prospects for Beta Tau representation looks equally bright. Brothers Turner, Parks, Gleason and Myers have their track "N's" and Hein, Johnson, Bloodgood, and Cozier are coming Varsity material on the cinders. In baseball, Hubka and Bloodgood represent the Delts, with Brother Holland the student manager.

In military work, the Delta shelter is a real barracks. The lieutenant-colonel, a major, two captains, two first lieutenants, and four second lieutenants are our officers in the regiment, with a bunch of rookies. There are also five Scabbard and Blade men in the house.

Brothers Cozier and Turner are Innocents, a senior honorary society of thirteen men. The Delts are the only fraternity with two active members. Bleason, Parks, and Cozier are in Alpha Kappa Psi, Ryan in Kappa Psi, Bing and Marshall in Sigma Tau, and Cozier and Sturtevant in Kosmet Klub, which presents an annual musical comedy.

There are some warblers in the Chapter and four of them,

Wray, Cozier, Marshall, and Anderson are in the Glee Club, Cozier being manager, and Marshall on the quartet.

Our representation on the school publications is better than ever. Sturtevant and Neff hold leading staff positions on the Cornhusker, the yearbook; Sturtevant and Crocker are on the Daily Nebraskan; Turner and Clark are on the "Ag" College magazine; Marshall is editor of the Engineering magazine.

We are rather cramped for room in our rented house this year, but we are anything but discouraged, for the new house dream is rapidly becoming a realization, and everyone is looking forward to a real home by sometime next fall.

We have had several Delts from other chapters visit us this year, among them Ralph Wray, who paid us an unofficial visit when he stopped to see his brother on his way to Colorado.

Best wishes for the New Year to all the other Delt chapters from the bunch at Nebraska.

JAMES D. MARSHALL.

BETA UPSILON

2nd semester 1922-23, 33rd of 45 chapters; average 3.073; all men's average 3.307.

This year Beta Upsilon looks forward to the biggest year of its history. The first thing, rushing, couldn't have been more successful, for from twelve bids we pledged up the twelve Illini Frosh who are being turned into Delts. Look them over. Robert Burns, Chicago; John Hucko, Aurora; Charles Nolan, Benton; Bruce Morse, Gifford; Edmund Murray, Peoria; Ralph White, Kansas City, Mo.; Edmund O'Shea, Chicago; Mitchell Howe, Chicago; James Rattan, Decatur; Paul Doolen, Champaign; Guy Kellar, Champaign; and Dick Ramey, Champaign.

Just as soon as this rushing season was over, Brothers Harry Hall and Dick Hall furnished the brains and the brawn to bring home to Illinois the 1923 Conference Championship in football. Swede was quarter, while Dick held down right tackle in every Conference game.

Going on down the line, we find Brothers Shon Pattison and Steve Lusted on the basketball squad that intends to repeat the football honors this winter.

But athletics don't claim all of our time. John Goodall succeeded in copping off the junior football manager's job; and both he and Dick Wagner, last year's Varsity tackle, are members of Sachem, junior honorary society. Wendell Meents is junior cheer leader, and the powers that be seem to point to him for the big job next year. Brother Woodward, last year's fullback, is a member of Ma-Wan-Da, honorary senior society, and was only kept from making his third "I" in football this year because of his studies which left him ineligible. Then we also find Brother Shryock, the artist, as art editor of the Siren.

The Chapter managed to get another cup for the fire place this fall when it won the Division championship in indoor baseball.

Besides having such undoubted athletic prowess, we also admit our intellectual ability. When it came to a show-down, when the alumni promised the chapter house a new set of furniture for an improved scholastic standing, the active Chapter buckled down and raised the house average from 3.001 to almost 3.5 in about eight weeks.

If anyone who wasn't here for Homecoming this fall had been here, he couldn't have helped believing that Delt alumni like to come back home. 150 of them dropped in to see the Illini beat Chicago. And they did, both that afternoon and again that night at the banquet table.

On the trips to the football games, especially this fall, we have had occasion to drop in on other chapters for short visits. And it makes you feel mighty glad that you're wearing the little gold badge when you get treated like the brothers treated us this fall. There's only one way we can repay. Come around to Champaign.

ROBERT SWAIM.

BETA PHI

OHIO STATE

Year 1922-23, 1st of 36 chapters.

The event of the Fall Quarter which gives us exceeding pleasure to announce to our brothers and to the world is the winning of the scholarship cup which is presented each year by Professor Tuttle of the Law College to the social fraternity obtaining the highest scholastic record for the preceding year. Brother John Campbell, who was at the head of the scholarship committee during the period in which this high standing was obtained, deserves a vote of thanks for his tireless efforts to keep the boys at their books. Brothers William H. Rose and Elbert E. Persons also deserve congratulations for their outstanding records. Brother Rose had the fifth highest standing in the entire school and Brother Persons was first among those receiving Honorable Mention, or the sixth highest in school.

On November 3, 1923, we added to our active group, by initiation, nine men: Noel J. Baird, Pataskala, Ohio; J. Russell Esch, Steubenville, Ohio; Richard H. Wallace, George A. Finch, Sam W. Heer, Columbus, Ohio; Carl L. Goodlin, Toronto, Ohio; Harley E. Henry, Cheviot, Ohio; Maxwell F. Raine, Rainelle, W. Va.; Paul B. Russell, Cleveland, Ohio.

Our rushing season was entirely successful. At the outset we had not only the usual problem of selecting a satisfactory freshman class, but the added one of taking in an unusually large class. When the race was over and we began to look about us to see how we had fared we found that we had selected twenty-one virile young saplings, who already show signs of sprouting into fine Delts. They are as follows: Richard Gordon, Claude T. Woodrow, Joseph Swicher, W. Wallace Williams, Jr., Jas. W. Williamson, Arthur E. Addison, Columbus, Ohio; Edward H. Raine, Rainelle, W. Va.; Albert H. Huneke, H. Hilman Smith, Cincinnati, Ohio; Richard L. Mead, James A. Brown, Pataskala, Ohio; John M. Vernon, Zanesville, Ohio; James Rugless, James Gower, Sylvan E. Jackson, Portsmouth, Ohio; W. Bentley

Grace, Steubenville, Ohio; Charles C. Tanner, London, Ohio; Henry C. White, Dudley E. Binyon, Glenn Rothermel, Cleveland, Ohio; and Frederick C. Huff, Middleton, Ohio.

In looking over the activity of the brothers on the campus, we find Brother Kelley on the Varsity football squad, and Pledges Tanner, Vernon, and Brown on the freshman squad. Pledge Guthrie is preparing for another fine year of track work. He and Brother Kelley are also members of the Pen and Brush Club. Brother Zimmer is manager of Strollers, the dramatic society, while Brother Avril is manager of the Intramural Department. Brothers R. Gordon Campbell, Herbert B. Campbell, and Syd A. Hoagland are in the cast of the Scarlet Mask Club's play, "The Cat and the Riddle", which is to tour Ohio during the Christmas holidays. Pledges Smith, and White are on the staff of the Phoenix, the freshman publication. Brothers Esch, and Heer, and Pledges Guthrie, Hyman Heer and Niles are on the Sophomore Vigilance Committee, an honorary sophomore organization for the maintenance of order on the campus.

We have, we feel, maintained ourselves socially this quarter, with a number of very pleasant house dances, and an exceedingly merry party given in honor of the new pledges at one of the local country clubs.

Our finances are in better condition than they have been for some time. The new system, installed through the efforts of Brother Harman, our Chapter Advisor, is proving very satisfactory.

In closing we extend wishes for a successful New Year to all the brothers.

HERBERT B. CAMPBELL.

BETA CHI

BROWN

1st semester 1922-23, 12th of 19 chapters; average 75; all men's average 72.

Rushing is over, the semester is well under way, and Beta Chi, with its seven pledges—only seven, but all good men and true—is straining at the leash with the zeal of a Man-of-War “rearin’ to go.”

Beginning this semester, Beta Chi is as cosmopolitan a crowd as a circuit court jury, as versatile as the Lambs Club. From the athletic-literary accomplishments of Brother Reynolds to the artistic temperament of piano-hound Bob Brown the boys are doing things to put Delta Tau where it belongs on the Brown campus—at the head of the Fraternity list.

Socially, jazz teams, football teams, basketball teams, soldiering in the Battery, shoe-selling in the parlor and radio-experimentation in the card room are keeping Beta Chi well occupied—not to mention the competition for Phi Bete that is rampant, particularly among the ambitious freshmen.

Three years hence the house will be well supervised by the September '23 delegation. Again the versatility of the house is manifest in miniature by the pledges. Talamini and Hodge will undoubtedly represent Delta Tau Delta for Brown on the gridiron. Artie Williams, founder of the popular BX receiving station, is to be watched with interest. The Messrs. Bate, Bushnell, and Munro threaten to be adorned with the coveted Phi Bete keys—if Mr. Bate is not carried away by the well-meaning but misdirected fair sex, and Mr. Bushnell can control his saxamania.

In addition to that worthy group we are happy to welcome back our old friend of three years since, the virile Mr. Maitland. Also Jack Zeiller, a chemistry student from Rensselaer (transferred) increases the handsomeness batting average of the Chapter, and generally makes a good Delt acquisition.

On December 3rd Myron Ruckstull, Brown's star second-baseman, was initiated. Ruck is another valuable addition to Delta Tau.

JOSEPH SPENCER HUKILL.

BETA PSI

WABASH

2nd semester 1922-23, 5th of 7 chapters.

The half way mark for the semester has just been passed, and in making a survey of the Chapter's progress so far this year, it is not at all difficult to find a great many things for which Beta Psi can be truly proud. The opening of college found nineteen actives back and ready for business. Brother McCabe, our rush captain this year, had spent a busy summer lining up prospects for our freshman class. The result is that we have a really good crowd of pledge brothers. We are proud to introduce to you Arthur B. Armstrong, Kokomo, Indiana; Arthur B. Biddle, Ligonier, Indiana; Arthur J. Beckner, Muncie, Indiana; E. Carol Harper, Martinsville, Indiana; Gordon H. Helm, Elgin, Illinois; Charles J. Kruse, Indianapolis, Indiana; Willard T. Orr, Chicago, Illinois; R. Claud Pence, Attica, Indiana.

Wabash has just finished another successful football season. Delta Tau, as the result of the stellar performances of Brothers Gipson and Mote, contributed greatly to that success. Mention should also be made of the fine work of Pledges Helm and Beckner on the freshman Varsity.

Our homecoming this year, from the standpoint of both the College and the Fraternity, was the most successful one we have had in a long time. In an interesting game, Wabash decisively defeated De Pauw, her ancient rival. One of the real features of the celebration was the banquet held at the Delt house in the evening. Seventy wearers of the square badge gathered around the banquet board to match their appetites against the two large porkers that had been roasted head, foot and all, for the occasion. The result of that contest is still being disputed.

The first big social event of the year is only a few days distant. On December 7th and 8th, we have our annual Junior Prom. At this time we will have our first house party of the year.

This year Beta Psi is maintaining her reputation of doing things on the Wabash campus. We have a good representation of class officers, of letter men, of club and honorary fraternity members, of journalists, and of glee club and student council members.

BETA OMEGA

CALIFORNIA

2nd semester 1922-23, 23rd of 45 chapters.

The gridiron is deserted and California remains for the fourth year without a defeat. The climax occurred last Saturday, November 22nd, in the dedication of our new million dollar Memorial Stadium in defeating Stanford to the tune of 9 to 0. Another big "C" was added to the Chapter when Art Best took his position at guard. Barney Barnard played in every game of freshman football at center.

Phil Bettens has been elected to the captaincy of the Varsity tennis team. In intercollegiate tennis Phil rates among the best. Dick Best is a junior manager in tennis.

Beta Omega takes pleasure in announcing our newly initiated members: Brothers Red Cerkle, San Francisco; Harry Crebbin, Riverside; Dave Harrington, San Francisco; Gene Harrington, San Francisco; Chuck Knowlton, Boston; Jack Pearson, Los Angeles; Marvin Stalder, Riverside; Bob Sullivan, San Francisco; John Wehmuller, Hollister; and Ev. Wendall, Los Angeles. They are all making themselves known on the campus in various activities. The initiation took place September 15th, at the Chapter House. There were a great number of Beta Omega's alumni present and also Delts from other chapters.

Rushing has been a decided success. The Chapter, not being satisfied with ten new men, has the pleasure of introducing Pledges C. Weltmer, G. Whitney, and A. Moore, who will enter College next semester.

On the campus we are proud of the fact that we have a man out for almost every activity. Brother Sly Bay will be seen next semester in a track uniform stepping off numerous hurdles. Howard Murphy is a junior manager in track. In baseball we are represented by John Wehmuller. He holds down the first sack. Daily California claims Brothers Fritz Branstedt, Gene Harrington and Ev. Wendall. Brother Bob Sullivan looks like good material in basketball. Barney Barnard, not being satisfied with his numerals in football is out with Bob for another set.

The house was proud to see Brother Brad Henn in the recent Skull and Keys running. Phil Bettens made Winged Helmet, a junior honor society, and at the U.N.X. initiation, another junior honor society, we were represented by Dick Best.

Beta Omega has had visits during the semester by actives and alumni from many of the chapters. Brother Ralph Wray made an eight day visit, and another of the Arch Chapter to visit us this semester was Brother Charles W. Hills.

J. R. HUGHES.

GAMMA ALPHA

CHICAGO

Year 1922-23, 29th of 29 chapters.

Gamma Alpha is still setting the pace on the campus and as the prospects for a successful year are bright, the Chapter is doubling every effort to bring them to pass.

The loss of Brothers Strohmeier, Kennedy, Blinks, Hall, and Armitage was keenly felt by the active Chapter.

Brother Pettit, besides being head of the Chapter is president of the Undergraduate Council, the biggest honor on the Campus, president of the Y.M.C.A., head of the Football Tickets Committee, and a member of Owl and Serpent, the senior honorary society. Brother Kirk is one of the leading members of the junior class. He is the business manager of the Phoenix the comic magazine of the University, and also the Chairman of the Finance Committee for the University Settlement Drive. He is a member of Iron Mask, the junior honor society. Brother Frieda was the one member out for the football squad. He is also a star basketball player and is the mainstay of the track team in field events.

The annual Fall Rushing resulted in the pledging of nine men in the class of 1927: Paul Arnal, River Forest, Ill.; Stanley Rouse, Perry, Iowa; Caylor Pfeiffer, Kenton, Ohio; Donald Evans, St. Joe, Mich.; Clark Smith, Jamestown, North Dakota; Cornelius Osgood, Oak Park, Ill.; and John Johnson, Arthur Harre and Alan Gifford, all of Chicago.

The social season was begun with a house dance about Hallowe'en time. The dance was a success in every sense of the word. Teas were served after every football game and if attendance is any indication, the teas were a success especially as they brought the alumni back to join their classmates at the old stamping ground.

There is to be a Tri-chapter Dance in January, for the Chapters at Armour, Chicago and Northwestern, and the Formal Prom will be held in February.

The scholastic standard of the Chapter is on the rise and it will not be long before the head of the list is reached.

GAMMA BETA

ARMOUR

2nd semester 1922-23, 4th of 4 chapters.

GAMMA GAMMA

DARTMOUTH

Year 1922-23, 4th of 20 chapters.

All Dartmouth's alumni flocked to Hanover for the week-end of November 3rd, and the house was wide open to all the brothers who were in town for the Cornell game. The week end was a memorable one with the renewal of old acquaintances, the exercises dedicating the new stadium and the annual celebration of Dartmouth night. Except for the overwhelming defeat at the hands of Cornell, it was a week-end that will not soon be forgotten by any Dartmouth man.

The Chapter this year, as has been the case for several years past, is well represented in the field of publications. Brothers Traver and Campbell are on the editorial staff of the Dartmouth, the latter being among the leaders in the competition for next year's editor-in-chief. Brother Abel is assistant service manager and Brother Stan Smith is assistant advertising manager, while Brother Fisher is in competition for a job on the business board of the same publication. Brother Bill Smith is a member of the Jack-o-Lantern staff. Brother Traver was recently elected a member of the Arts.

Our sophomores are faring well in the managerial competitions, Johnny Blair and Don Church having worked in the gym all fall competing for athletic managerships, and Red Raisbeck and Bob Lowe doing their bit in the non-athletic line. All were elected by popular vote of the sophomore class. Brothers Countryman and McCollom were members of the soccer squad this fall, the former winning his letter. Brother Vermillion answered the call for basketball candidates and is practicing at the gym every evening. Carl Smith is rounding into shape for the boxing season and should go big in the 145-pound class.

The Barbary Coast Jazz Band is due for a successful season under the leadership of Brother Lord. He and Brother Irvine, the trombone artist, have been seen and heard at many intercollegiate dances this fall. Both these men have also played in the college band, which has followed the football team in all its games. Brother Sly, a member of the mandolin club, is our newest addition to the musical talent of the college.

John R. Lindemuth, President of the Eastern Division, drove to Hanover from his farm in Vermont and paid us a short call early this fall.

The rushing season at Dartmouth is again a second semester affair, very much the same as last year. We have had one of our open house nights and it was a very successful party, both from our own point of view and, I believe, from our guests'.

J. P. ROGERS.

GAMMA DELTA

WEST VIRGINIA

2nd semester, 1922-23, 5th of 12 chapters; average 76.833; all men's average 77.554.

Gamma Delta started rushing with its usual pep and succeeded in getting a fine lot of freshmen. We want to introduce the following pledges: Verne Epp, Erie, Pa.; Thomas Andrew Deveney, Jr., Fairmont, W. Va.; Evan Griffith, Clarksburg, W. Va.; Ben Crawford, Irvine, Ky.; Kenneth Simmons, Morgantown, W. Va.; Edward Morrison, Erie, Pa.; Eugene Hammond, Erie, Pa.; Eugene Stump, Charleston, W. Va.; Alton Riddleberger, Hinton, W. Va.; and John McCrae, Mannington, W. Va.

West Virginia ended a very successful football season, marred only by its sole defeat in two years, at the hands of Washington and Jefferson on Thanksgiving Day. We were represented on the football field by Brothers George Hill, Pierre Hill, Harry Byer, Jerry Thompson, and Benton Bush. The freshman team went through the year undefeated, Pledges Morrison, Simmons, Hammond, and Griffith making a dependable showing. Morrison played a consistent game at fullback and will make some one step for a place on the Varsity next year.

The Chapter is quite well represented in the activities on the campus. Some of the more recent honors obtained by the brothers are: Pierre Hill, captain of basketball, Ross White, initiated into Mountain and Fi Batar Capper, Pierre Hill initiated into Mountain, Harry Byer and Jerry Thompson pledged Torch and Serpent.

A delightful formal dance was given in the house in November that was proclaimed the best yet. Quite a number of alumni were back.

As a fitting event for Thanksgiving we entertained with a buffet luncheon before the game. Many of the visiting brothers from Washington and Jefferson, alumni, and brothers from near-by towns came up for lunch.

We are still among the first in scholarship but we are trying to raise our standard and get first place. Mid-semester grades just came out and if the 'preps' and actives keep up the work and don't fall by the wayside there is no reason why we shouldn't have first place.

HARRISON CONAWAY.

GAMMA EPSILON

COLUMBIA

Year 1922-23, 25th of 34 chapters.

Fate dealt harshly with Gamma Epsilon during the summer. Like a thunderbolt out of a clear sky came news of the death of Scotty Davidson in Europe, to add to the previous loss of Brothers Bielaski, Tarsanen, Schwegel, Strout, Rucker, and H. Johnson by graduation. A little band numbering fourteen returned in the fall to take up the task before them. Brother Schaefer, who spent the summer in California, was among those who came back and with him was Brother Standfast, who explored North America during vacation. Brother Gephart of the McKeesport (Pa.) Daily News brought his cheery smile back to us, along with the announcement of his partnership in an advertising agency. Brother Warden from Indiana, who worked on his hometown newspaper, edited by Brother Pierce, Beta Psi '06, was among the retournees, bubbling over with the story of his operation for appendicitis. Brothers Bailey, Berg, Campbell, Eddins, Smith, Tally, and Waidler who stuck to New York during the hot months didn't let the heat diminish their enthusiasm and Brother Fyfe shook hands with the brethren once more after acquiring a coat of tan on Long Island. Brother Nichols, bringing the biggest stature in the house from the smallest state in the Union, came back along with Brother Johnson from Connecticut.

At the beginning of the rushing season, Brother Binford of Beta Alpha affiliated with the Chapter, giving us fifteen active men, each one on the lookout for incoming Delt material on the Columbia campus. Brother Waidler was elected chairman of the rushing committee. From a large group of rushees the following men were chosen: Arthur Flagg, Eastport, Maine, who was out for Varsity football and is working for a position on the Columbian; James Matthews '27 of Glen Cove, Long Island, who held down a halfback position on the freshman football team and is out for crew; Hadley Case '27, New Jersey, one of the best tackles Columbia has seen in years; Edward Casey '27, Valley Falls, N. Y., out for crew; Herbert Nobes '27, New York City, track and cross country; Charles Chave '27, New York City, candidate for the business board of the Columbia Spectator and on the freshman swimming team; Adron Trantum, Ingold, N. C., football, and good baseball material; Newton St. John '25, Daytona Beach, Fla.; Maurice Monahan '25, Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Paul Dunn '26, East Orange, N. J. We regret to announce that Frank Eisenberg of Glens Falls, N. Y., who was among the first pledges and a star quarterback on the Columbia freshman football team, found it necessary to leave school. He plans to enter Brown, however, where his brother is starring at the quarterback position on the football eleven and is a wearer of the Delt badge. James Boax of McKeesport, Pa., who was rushed here previous to entering Syracuse University has been pledged by Gamma Omicron.

Gamma Epsilon is making itself more conspicuous on the Columbia campus and continues to have its representative group of activity men. Brother Gephart is on Spectator and Varsity, is a member of Philolexian society and is chairman of three publicity committees. In addition he is a candidate for treasurer of the junior class. Brothers Eddins, who starred in the Columbia Varsity show as the leading lady last year has a part in "Richard II", the 1923 Philolexian show and is also making scenario sets for the production.

He is on the Columbia Jester art staff as well. Brother Warden has a leading role in both Philolexian and sophomore shows. Brother Bailey has a leading role in the soph show and is on the track team. Glee Club and swimming claim Brother Fyfe and Brother Standfast is in the band. Brother Campbell was out for Varsity football, Brother Nichols is out for wrestling and Brother Johnson is on the golf team. Brother Schewegel earned Phi Beta Kappa honors last June.

Numerous tea dances during the football season led up to a successful formal dance at the chapter house in November. A large number of guests representative of other campus fraternities were present. A delightful informal Thanksgiving dinner served at the house brought to a close a memorable fall season of social activities.

ERNEST A. WARDEN.

GAMMA ZETA

WESLEYAN

Year 1922-23, 8th of 11 chapters.

Gamma Zeta wishes to introduce the results of its rushing season: Brothers E. Maxwell Foskett of Northport, Long Island; J. Francis Glynn, Ridgewood, New Jersey; James H. Herrick, Grand Rapids, Michigan; Robert B. Irwin, Cataumet, Mass.; C. Hilton Miller, Newburgh, New York; Charles W. Sleeter, Meriden, Conn.; James M. Van Buren, Hobart, New York; and Wilfred A. Kemp, Methuen, Mass. Brother Sleeter came to us from Springfield College and Brother Van Buren transferred from Syracuse University.

These new brothers have already gone into the activities of the college. Brother Glynn was captain of the freshman football team while Brothers Herrick and Van Buren also played. Brother Sleeter was on the soccer squad and Kemp made the Glee Club and Choir.

As for the activities of the other members of the Chapter, Brother Carpenter is assistant manager of the football team.

Brother Studwell served as guard and Brother Phillips as fullback on the Varsity this fall. Both men received the "W". On the class football teams Brothers Butler, Lockwood, Ketler, Clifton, Drummond, Weed, Carpenter, Meredith, Tyson, and Manning have done more than their share.

Brother Bristol is business manager of the Argus, the college paper, and Brother Clifton is a junior editor. Brother Ranscht is scutting the assistant managership while Brother Manchester is working hard for an editorial position. The latter is also scutting the Wasp. Brother Fowler is our representative on the Olla Podrida, the year book, serving as assistant advertising manager.

The Glee Club has four Delts, Brothers Lonsdale, Fritz, Thomas, Phillips, and Kemp. Lonny is also a member of the Wesleyan Serenaders, so popular on the Hill at dance time, while Phil is a second base on the quartette, better known as the Jibers. Brothers Butler, Kemp and Thomas sing in the Chapel Choir. It might be well to say here that Fritz was elected assistant manager of the baseball team last year and will serve in that position next spring.

As winter approaches the basketball and swimming teams have been called out. Jack Manning is out for the former and Ross Thomas will have a regular place on the latter. Brother Hoyt is scutting the managership of basketball and Brother Radford is trying hard to get the same position on the swimming team.

Interfraternity basketball has just started; we are hoping for as good a season as we have had in the past. The House bowling team is tied for first place with Beta Theta Pi. One more match will decide the winner.

So much for the Chapter's activities on the Campus. We have had one dance so far and that a two night affair. It was a grand success not only for the active members but also for the many alumni present. The next dance is the Prom in February.

This year there are two more Delts on the Wesleyan

Faculty: Brothers Lancaster of Mu '15, and Crecraft of Gamma Upsilon '18. Brother Walbrecht of Gamma Beta has been with us much of the time this fall as his business kept him near Middletown.

C. H. DAY.

GAMMA ETA

GEORGE WASHINGTON

No fraternity scholarship report obtainable.

Gamma Eta has started out upon what has evidence of being a most successful year. As a result of a recent initiation, the Chapter takes great pleasure in introducing into Deltdom the following: Brother Wyatt Blake, Burgaw, N. C.; Francis Frawley, Washington, D. C.; Edward Everett, San Antonio, Texas; Guy Fulk, Jr., Pine Bluff, Ark.; Fred Jacobs, Fairmont, W. Va.; George Meyers, Holyoke, Mass.; Robert Monroe, Jr., Clarksburg, W. Va. The Chapter is also glad to announce the affiliation of Brothers Robert J. Allen, Beta, George A. Butler, Omicron, and Gus Fulk, Jr., Phi. The addition of these brothers strengthens the Chapter considerably.

In upholding the reputation of Gamma Eta for giving first class parties, the brothers turned out fifty strong with their best girls and put on an old fashioned Hallowe'en party at the Washington Canoe Club. Two successful dances and several smokers rounded out the fall program. A Christmas dance has been announced by the entertainment committee, which will take its place among the leading social events in Washington during the holidays.

The Delta Tau Delta basketball team lost its first game in the Interfraternity league to its old rival, the Phi Sigs, but it is still in the running for the championship. A large number of alumni as well as actives have been backing the team by attending the games.

The Sunday night suppers are ever increasing in popularity with the alumni as shown by their attendance. Brother Brumm, Omega, who has been elected to the Sixty-Eighth Congress, has favored the Chapter with several visits since taking up his stay in Washington. Brother Hemmick paid the Chapter a short visit recently and we expect to see lots of the brothers during the holidays.

ROBERT E. NEWBY.

GAMMA THETA

2nd semester 1922-23, 1st of 3 chapters.

Rush week is now a thing of the past but, nevertheless, history that we like to look back upon for inspiration to carry out the work ahead of us. This fall found seventeen actives back working overtime to the man in an honest effort to pledge the cream of the new students and the men who could qualify for the honors due the Delt pledge. This work was well done under the leadership of Ted Short, a captain worthy of note. We are proud to introduce the following men who in turn are proud to wear the square button: Holter, Ottawa; Gulley, Chanute; Lidikay, Wells-ville; McKee, Garnett; Butler, Erie; Lane, Baldwin; Shirk, Salina; Holstein, Fort Scott; Aufdemburge, Lincoln, Kansas; Graves, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Runyan, Chicago, Illinois; Sawyer, Westboro, Missouri; and Lee, Long Beach, California.

The big Baker foreward movement is in rapid transit to a bigger, better, Baker. Buildings, to the extent of five hundred thousand dollars, are about to be erected and everything will be equipped with the best materials to carry on the college work. Did you ever hear of the "Dartmouth of the West?" No? Well just watch Baker University for a few years.

Our annual chicken fry was more than a success this year with many of our alumni back and Gamma Tau well represented as our guests. The paddle line inspired the freshmen in many ways, including that of going after the campus activities. We have Pledge Runyan as freshman tennis champion; Holter, Butler, and Shirk, band members; Holter in Glee Club; Gulley in Dramatic Club; and McKee, Lidikay, Graves, and Holstein on the football squad, with several trying out for basketball and track.

Gamma Theta actives are especially well represented on the campus in having Brother Stauffacher president of the Student Council and Brother Gaston a member. Gaston and Lewis are members of the Glee Club, Gaston in the Band, and Stauffacher in the Dramatic Club.

Baker lost several letter men last year in football including Brothers Taylor and Shirk. But for all that the close of the schedule this year finds the College with one of the strongest teams in the Conference. In this sport Gamma Theta contributed three letter men, one being the captain elect for the 1924 season; they are Hurt, left half, captain elect; Leonard, right end; and Evans, right half. All these men will be back next year to help make the Wildcats "mean"; accompanied by at least three of this year's freshmen who should make letters next year.

R. A. EVANS.

GAMMA IOTA

TEXAS

Year 1922-23, 16th of 22 chapters; average 5.44; university average 5.56.

The opening of school saw twenty actives and seven pledges returned, and Rush Week business was promptly begun. Gamma Iota takes a world of pleasure in pointing to the results—the pledges: Lytton Smith and Ben Parrish, Austin; Ben Davis, Mexico City; Fred Thompson, Rusk; Bo Sangster, Galveston; Philip Ezelle, and James Pryor, Palestine; John Burr, San Antonio; and David Wynne, Bay City. In addition, we have two mighty welcome transfers: Lloyd Tull, Gamma Psi, Plainview; and David Marcus, Phi, De Ridder, La.

Along the line of athletics, Gamma Iota has the following to report: During the summer, Pledge Brother Thalheimer went East, and came back Intercollegiate Tennis Doubles Champion. Brother Lane Tynes is captain, and Brother

Homer Toland is squad member, of the University of Texas football team, undefeated claimants to the Southwestern Conference championship, and conquerors of Vanderbilt, the Southern champions. Brother Ragland is getting into shape to take care of his regular berth on the basketball team. The baseball end will be taken care of by Brother Ed. Carson, and next year, by Pledge Brother Fred Thompson. Brother Bob Harris is our big bet in track. Of course Pledge Brother Thalheimer will again be a power on the tennis team.

In other lines, Gamma Iota is well represented. In the law department, Brother Coleman Gay is a Chancellor, Brother J. H. Groce is Phi Delta Phi-elect, and Brother Homer Toland is president of the middle law class. Brother Maurice Angly put out last year's Cactus, the University yearbook, in such great style that he was awarded a gallon-size loving cup by the Artcraft Guild for editing the second best college annual in the country. Pledge Ben Greenwood is on this year's Cactus staff. Pledges Lytton Smith and Philip Ezelle are performers in the University band, while Brother Gaines Post is raising quite a fuss as president of junior Phi Beta Kappa.

Big preparations are being made for the Delt formal dance on January 4th. The brothers in charge of arrangements promise a huge time. From February on, Brother Angly will provide visiting Delts with free admission to the weekly dances, for he is president of the University German Club.

TERRELL SLEDGE.

GAMMA KAPPA

MISSOURI

Last term 1922-23, 8th of 17 chapters; average 207; all students' average 203.

Gamma Kappa assumed an initiative this fall that remained unabated until thirteen of the best new men wore the Delt pledge button, and we take great pleasure in introducing to the Fraternity the following: Arthur Bansbach, St. Joseph, Mo.; Edward Wathan, Kansas City, Mo.; Emmett Stuber, St. Joseph, Mo.; Wilburn Moore, St. Joseph, Mo.; Russell Jordan, Kansas City, Mo.; Wayne Crumley, Fort Madison, Iowa; Wallace Moseley, Poplar Bluff, Mo.; Carl Branson, Columbia, Mo.; Sherlock Hibbs, Cameron, Mo.; George Silvius, Cameron, Mo.; John Riley, West Plains, Mo.; Harry Waltner, Kansas City, Mo.

Pledges Stuber and Moore are members of the freshman football team. Stuber has almost assured himself a place on the Varsity next fall by his stellar playing at quarterback. Moore has been working hard in the line. Pledges Crumley and Riley have been showing up very well in the fall track practices. Pledge Hibbs has been working on Savitar staff, and Wathan is a staff officer in the R. O. T. C.

There were only eighteen actives on hand at the opening of school this year, but we are represented in a goodly proportion of the University activities. The Chapter's most important work at the present is securing money enough to buy sixty feet of ground and thus enlarge our lot and prevent anyone from building too close to us. We are asking alumni to buy a foot each and pay for it ten dollars now and ten dollars on later request.

The Homecoming dance of November 9th featured the social events of the fall season. There were not as many alumni back this year as last due to the fact we met the Jayhawk in Lawrence this year. The Oklahoma game was one of the many up-sets of Valley dope, and the final score showed a Sooner victory of 13 to 0.

Following the game, a banquet was held at the chapter house. Among the speakers were E. S. Haynes, a charter member of Gamma Kappa. Brothers attending the Homecoming Festivities were: S. E. Williams and Cecil Campbell, Bowling Green, Mo.; Lucien Eaton and Oliver Steele, Jefferson City, Mo.; L. G. Plitt and Orlando Worrell, Mexico, Mo.; William Gentry, Paul Simmons, Elmer

BRUCE S. STAKE.

GAMMA LAMBDA

Gamma Lambda was very fortunate in having twenty old men return to start her rushing season. In addition to these we had with us Brother Bruce Beardsley of Elkhart, Ind., from Beta Iota, and Brother Sherman Guttridge of Prairie City, Oregon, from Gamma Rho. Both of these men intend to affiliate. After a successful rushing season we have fifteen new men that Gamma Lambda is proud of.

Let us present Brothers J. B. Grimes '26, of Lafayette, Ind.; D. R. Ruddock '25, of Wheaton, Ill.; and Pledges E. W. Adams '26, of Indianapolis, Ind.; D. R. Clark '27, of Muncie, Ind.; F. R. Clark '27, of Richmond, Ind.; L. B. Eble '27, of Louisville, Ky.; J. M. Fadely '27, of Anderson, Ind.; Jack Gibbs '27, of Frankfort, Ky.; L. H. Gooding '27, of Anderson, Ind.; G. P. Guler '27, South Bend, Ind.; E. B. Hevilon '27, of Frankfort, Ind.; H. J. Kiefer '27, of Louisville, Ky.; F. M. McCabe '27, of Haverstraw, N. Y.; D. H. Risser '27, of Goshen, Ind.; F. H. Ryan '27, of Kokomo, Ind.; and C. Sutton '27, of Bernerdsville, N. J.

The activities of Gamma Lambda's men are varied. Brother Taylor, who is president of our Chapter, is a member of Tau Beta Pi, Scabbard and Blade, Eta Kappa Nu, and represents us on the Junior Prom Committee, Cadet Hop Committee, and is vice-president of the Purdue Union and drum major in the Band. Brother Maddox is president of the senior class and is a member of the Hoof and Horn, Scabbard and Blade and Iron Key. The latter is the honorary fraternity composed of six or seven of the biggest men in the senior class.

In athletics, Gamma Lambda is represented by Brother Taube, quarterback of the Varsity football team, and by Pledge Ryan, end on the freshman Varsity. Brother Taube is making a strong bid for forward on the basketball team and is an excellent third baseman. Brother Maddox represents us in the 440 yard dash and the 220 high hurdles. Pledges Adams and Sutton are out for the cross country team.

We are well on our way in bringing up our scholarship. By more stringent rules we succeeded in coming from near the bottom to 14th the second semester of last year, and the end of this semester should find Gamma Lambda fighting for the honors.

Our annual Homecoming was held on November 17th. The day was started in grand fashion by Purdue winning from Northwestern, and finished by a banquet at the House which was attended by the actives, the pledges, and thirty alumni.

Plans for Gamma Lambda's new home were presented and we expect to build in the near future.

GAMMA MU

WASHINGTON

Year 1922-23, 12th of 27 chapters.

The fall quarter at the University of Washington opened on October 1st with a bang, and although Gamma Mu only had sixteen actives back to school we enjoyed one of the most successful rushing seasons in the history of the Chapter and pledged fifteen men. The pledges are Ralph Hegg, Sedro Wooley, Washington; Francis Spellman, Anaconda, Mont.; Helmar Nelson, Montburn, Wash.; Evert Arnold, Livingston, Mont.; Charles McFarland, Mt. Vernon, Wash.; Perry Scheibler, Tacoma, Wash.; George Channel, Twin Falls, Idaho; Theodore Berry, Ellensburg, Wash.;

Edward Dawson and John Harris, Great Falls, Mont.; and Carlos Flohr, Clark Lake, Jack Cherleston, James, Bradford, Stanberry Foster, all from Seattle.

Due to illness, Brother Gene Farrell who was head of the Chapter for this year was forced to withdraw from school and Brother Harold Moldstad has taken over the reins and will guide the destinies of Gamma Mu for the remainder of the year.

Our fall informal was given at the chapter house on November 10th and was a huge success. The feature of the party was the five-piece colored orchestra, which was the best music heard in these parts for years.

Homecoming was celebrated on November 24th. After trimming our old rival W.S.C. to the tune of 28 to 7, all the alumni and actives returned to the chapter house for a buffet supper, followed by a big get-together which lasted into the wee sma' hours of the morning.

As to activities we are glad to see Brothers Youlden and White pledged to Alpha Kappa Psi, honorary commerce fraternity, and Brother Moldstad to Phi Delta Phi. Pledge Carlos Flohr is following in the footsteps of his brother, Firmin Flohr, who made his numerals as coxswain on the frosh crew last year, and is turning out for that berth on this year's freshman crew. Brothers Johnson and Cummins will be back in school next year fighting for a place on the Varsity crew. We hope that Brother Johnson will be able to make the trip to Poughkeepsie this year with the Varsity crew as he did last year with the freshmen. Brother Hesketh is out for his second letter on the basketball squad and we expect him to keep up his last year's record as one of the shining lights on the team.

We enjoyed the brief visit that Brother Ralph Wray, National Field Secretary, made us and hope that he will not wait two years before he visits us again.

MAINE

Year 1922-23, 12th of 14 chapters; average 1.743; all men's average 1.901.

With the opening of college in September, there were twenty-three actives back to boom Delta Tau Delta on the Campus. As soon as possible we pledged eight freshmen. Chapter Gamma Nu has the pleasure to introduce the following candidates: Harold O. Barker, Dover-Foxcroft, Me.; Edward H. Bayard, Orono, Me.; George Lary and Carl Lewis, Old Orchard, Me.; Harold H. MacClaren, Derby, Me.; Kenneth T. Merrill, Augusta, Me.; William Parsons, York, Me.; and Harley M. Riley, Livermore Falls, Maine.

Brothers Jim Blair and Ken Barker had a very successful season at Varsity football, both playing regular positions. Brother Blair was unanimously picked for all state halfback. Pledge Barker won his numerals by making the freshman team.

With basketball well under way we see Brother Mason slated for a regular berth as forward. He has played regularly for the last two seasons and is working hard to keep up his good record. Brother Hamilton is an assistant manager and Pledges Lary and MacClaren are working out as freshmen.

Among those to be initiated into the honorary fraternities were Brothers Blair to the Junior Masks, Barker to the Sophomore Owls, Coburn to Sigma Delta Chi, and Tyndall to Phi Sigma.

We have instituted a new custom on the campus, namely that of having Sunday night speakers from the faculty. We started off with Prexy Little and he was followed by the Deans of the various colleges.

During November we were favored by a visit from President Lindemuth, and we enjoyed every minute of it.

CINCINNATI

With the approach of the college year there came indications that only fifteen Delt actives and two pledges would be back at U. C., so that we all felt the need of a vigorous rushing campaign. We had all the success for which we might have asked and have sixteen pledges, four of them upperclassmen. The new pledges are: Tom Albershart of Ft. Thomas, Ky.; Edwin Bush of Denver, Colo.; Richard Cunningham of Martinsville, Ind.; Merritt Chance Farrell of Washington, D. C.; Gilbert Frazier and Ralph Trent of Indianapolis; Charles Townsend of Lima, Ohio; and Charles Atkinson, Frederick Berger, Ervin Dietz, William Lashbrook, and Gordon Pape, all of Cincinnati.

The four upperclassmen pledged at this time, together with two pledges of last year, have been initiated. It gives us pleasure to introduce Brothers Raymond Evans, Robert Mathis, and Lester Roemer of Cincinnati, initiated on October 28th, and Brothers Charles Birt of Cleveland, Paul Gayman and Casper Wickemeyer of Cincinnati, initiated on December 16th. We are also pleased to announce the affiliation of Brother Calvert Boyd of Delta.

Thanksgiving Day marked the close of the most successful football season at Cincinnati in the last ten years. Although not holding regular positions on the team, three of the brothers were on the squad. With the start of the basketball season and with the lack of veteran players that exists, we hope to see some of the men who are out for the team make positions. Brother Red Johnson, the Varsity tennis star, won the singles tennis championship title of the Ohio Conference last June.

The Chapter is well represented in all the non-athletic activities by the editor-in-chief and a member of the art staff of the Annual; the editor-in-chief and business manager of the Co-op Engineer, which is the publication of the Engineering College; the president of the Co-op Club; the president and vice-president of the Commerce Club; the business manager and one of the three members on the advisory committee of the Musical Comedy as well as the president of the Musical Comedy Club; the vice-president and three cabinet members of the Y.M.C.A.; the business manager of the Y.M.C.A. Hand Book; the cheer leader; two senior members of Student Council; and the vice-president of the Pan-Hellenic Association. We are especially proud that we can claim two of the nine men recently bid to Sigma Sigma, the senior honorary organization, and that our scholarship was raised to third place among the national fraternities for the year 1922-1923.

The Pan-Hellenic Association has been busy devising a good program for interfraternity athletics. It has also adopted a plan whereby a number of the prominent clergymen of Cincinnati have dinner at the fraternity houses, rotating so that each one visits a different chapter house every two weeks. Another plan that is working well is for the interchange of fraternity men at dinner at regular intervals.

GAMMA OMICRON

2nd semester 1922-23, 21st of 24 chapters; average 73.2; all men's average 75.

When House President Jim Comesky arrived in Syracuse September fourteenth and formally opened the doors at 201 Euclid Avenue—they have never been locked—Gamma Omicron Chapter began, what we all sincerely believe will be, the most successful year of her existence. That evening before “the sun set orange” twenty-six of last year’s actives, together with Brother Frank J. Kelly, ex-18, had signed the chapter roll. The very next day rushing season began, and under the competent leadership of our rushing chairman, Johnnie Bucher, who had the whole-hearted cooperation of our alumni, we emerged from the fracas with twelve embryo Deltas. Here they are fellows, all wearers of the green lid and the square pledge button: Louis Cullings, LeRoy, N. Y.; Howard Capron, Ogdensburg, N. Y.; James Boax, McKeesport, Pa.; Jefferson Hewitt, Binghamton, N. Y.; Howard Eckel, Syracuse, N. Y.; Galen Newman, Elmira, N. Y.; Henry Marledder and Robert Newcomb, Cleveland, Ohio; William Coleman, Buffalo, N. Y.; Hampden Uhlinger, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Forest Walker and Venald Bovard, Scranton, Pa.

The big Orange football team had a great year, despite its unexpected defeat by Colgate, which played mighty good football and deserved to win as the game was played. It was the only blot on the season's record of a great team well drilled in all departments of play. We will not attempt to give Syracuse its classification among the teams of the country—Walter Camp, Billy Evans, and our own Brother Larry Robinson of the Daily Orange are paid for such menial work—but the fact that Alabama, from the Southland; Nebraska, champions of the Missouri Valley; and Pitt and Penn State, formidable teams in the east, failed to score a single point against the Orange is proof enough of the team's ability.

Brother Charlie Trout, first relief halfback, saw service in nearly all of the big games of the year. With such backfield luminaries as McBride, Zimmerman, Bowman, Simmons, and Foley it was difficult for Charlie to win a regular berth. He has been injected into practically all of the contests for the past three years and has helped to make football history for his Alma Mater. The Nebraska game marked the last of his collegiate career as a player, but we would not be surprised to see him installed as athletic director in some other institution of learning next fall.

Coach Tom Keane's cross country team won the Varsity intercollegiate hill and dale championship for the second consecutive year at Van Cortlandt Park, N. Y., on November 26th. Brothers Homer Smith, last year's captain, and Kane placed in every meet of the year. Next year we all expect Brother Jim Tucker, hard worker that he is, to be assistant manager of the hill and dalers. Brother Monroe, assistant manager of track, is very busy these days getting prepared for another successful season. A southern invasion is contemplated for early in the spring.

On December seventh our basketball team opposes Clarkson Tech in the opening game of the season. Brother John Timothy Smith, student manager, has arranged a very attractive schedule and some of the very best floor fives of the east will be met—Rochester, Williams, Cornell, Colgate, N.Y.U., Pennsylvania, and possibly Yale or Harvard will appear on the home court, while a trip to include West Point, C.C. of N.Y., Penn State, Pitt, and possibly Ohio State, is being arranged. Brothers Trout and McCarthy of last year's Varsity, Big Morris of last year's frosh, together with Martin and Dressel, are practicing daily and Delta Tau Delta has a very good chance of being represented by five players and the manager on this year's quintet.

Brother Howard Jespersion, manager of the swimming team, has arranged a very good schedule for his natatorial performers. Buffalo, Williams, Amherst, Army, Columbia, and the Navy will be visited. Brother Hagan is showing his fins in the 220 yard event, and Brother Dressel has threatened to go out for the fancy diving events.

In the senior council this year we are ably represented by John Smith. John is also treasurer of the senior class and a member of Tau Theta Upsilon, senior society. Homer Smith is a member of Tau Delta Sigma, honorary engineering society and the following brothers are in junior societies: Robinson, Mahoney, McCarthy, Kane, Monroe, Kullman, and Clark. Brothers Comisky and Blair are taking an active part in the Glee Club and Jennison is devoting most all of his spare time to the Onondagan, the junior year book. Brother Weinheimer is very busy with plans for the sophomore Yuletide party and Brother Ed Smith is assisting him.

This year, scholarship is being emphasized more so than ever, and already a marked improvement has been noted. Among the underclassmen, Brother Blessed had the highest scholastic average for the first semester of last year and Brother Schneider for the second semester.

This letter would not be complete without a word of mention about the annual Colgate Reunion. Alumni and actives to the number of sixty-eight gathered and Delta speeches, songs, and cheers made all forget their troubles, care, and strife.

GAMMA PI

1st semester 1922-23, 14th of 23 chapters; average 84.1; all men's average 83.39.

Gamma Pi comes in with a broadcast report of this year's activities so far. Things are moving along fine here at Iowa State and this bids fair to be one of the best years in both the college and chapter history.

Everyone was back early for rushing and twenty-one pledges was the result. They are: John W. Albert, Jefferson; Robert S. Butler, Des Moines; Spencer J. Cantwell, Kansas City, Mo.; Harry Carpenter, Sioux City; Wright S. Frazier, Anamosa; Harry K. Garvin, Ashland, Ill.; Arthur J. Hansen, Salix; C. Ralph Hawkins, Fairmont, W. Va.; Clarence Hiedeman, Hawarden; George T. McDonald, Cedar Rapids; Leighton Misback, Algona; Carl B. Nicholson, Lamoni; Lawrence D. Reis, Ames; Malen Reynolds, Eldon; Herbert S. Spencer, Omaha; Robert M. Tarbell, Waterloo; Tom S. Tuttle, Mankato, Minn.; Donald J. Watson, Sioux City; Morman Weir, Gilmore; Harold M. Weis, Cedar Rapids; LaVern G. Witmer, Des Moines.

Two Delts have helped to make this year's football season the most successful for several years. Brothers Roberts and Wingert played regularly all year and both made their honor "A". Roberts made a name for himself this year with his passing and kicking. As a forward passer, he is on a par with any one in the Valley and his accurate heaves to J. Behm and Young made up the most formidable passing combination in the Valley. Zeke is also basketball captain this year, and if he improves any over his last season's play he should be strong material for all Missouri Valley. Brother Wingert played fullback, and although he was laid up with injuries a good part of the season, played real football when he did get into the game.

Gamma Pi has had her share of honors around the Campus and Brother Frank Reck heads the list of Delts in Campus activities. Reck has just about everything that he can handle, for he is editor of the Iowa Agriculturist, member of Sigma Delta Chi and also president of the organization, member of College Publication board, member of the Cardinal Guild, student governing body, and he had charge of this year's Homecoming which was one of the best, if not the best Homecoming, that Iowa State has ever had. In the same line of endeavor, Brothers Churchill and Phillips may also be mentioned, for they are writing for the Agriculturist. Brother Churchill also covers football and other sports for the Iowa State Student.

Brother Jarvis, our president, has done his stuff with a bang this year, for he made the dairy judging team and then was elected to Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity. As business manager for the Public Speaking department, Brother George Beese has found his niche in the hall of fame and incidentally a membership in the Masqued Players chapter of the National Collegiate Players. Beese has charge of all college productions and his first assistant is Brother Sheller.

We have two more men in the "Double A" fraternity now since Brothers Paige and Thompson went through in November. Paige and Thompson won the Missouri Valley Tennis championship last spring. We now total four members in the honorary athletic fraternity.

GAMMA RHO

Winter term 1922-23; 11th of 11 chapters.

The University of Oregon opened this fall with an increase in registration of twenty per cent over last year. The University is keeping pace with other western colleges in this respect as well as in other lines of development. The Gift Campaign, launched last year, is well under way and holds every promise of fulfilling the adopted slogan: "Ten Million in Ten Years."

Four new houses are occupied by national fraternities and two others have houses in the course of construction. In line with this higher standard of chapter houses, Gamma Rho has remodelled her old home at an expense of over eight thousand dollars and we at present housed in one of the finest fraternity properties on the Oregon campus.

Active members of the Chapter are highly elated over one of the most successful Homecomings in the history of Gamma Rho. Over forty old Delts came back to witness the annual football game with the Oregon Agricultural College, look over the new house, and to get in closer touch with the actives. The week-end was successfully concluded with a banquet and smoker in the chapter house.

Although severely handicapped by building operations not quite finished and by an unusually small number of men returning this fall, Gamma Rho was very successful in rushing, and when the strenuous week ended fourteen of the finest wore the golden square. All of the pledges are good students and are proving their worth in campus activities. Among the pledges are football men, basketball stars, track men, musicians.

In Varsity track we have Brother Farrell as track manager, Brother Spearow as captain, and Brothers Lucas and Hardenberg as mainstays in the sprints. Brother Rutherford is a sure bet to win a track letter in the 440.

Brother Gowans, Varsity basketball man, is fast rounding into shape for the season just starting and is expected to surpass his stellar feats of last year in the hoop sport.

In politics the Chapter is well represented as in other campus activities. Scholarship has improved and Gamma Rho looks forward to a highly successful year from every standpoint. Any Delt who chances to stray this far is urged to drop in and look over the new house.

GAMMA SIGMA

PITTSBURGH

No fraternity scholarship report obtainable.

Classes were officially opened on the twenty-fourth of September, but our first meeting on the seventeenth was attended by the entire Chapter. There are several of the brothers numbered among the missing this year due to various reasons—Brother Burkeholder transferred to Kenyon College and Brothers Feick, Ed South, Jack McCamey, and Blystone have entered the business world.

Gamma Sigma takes pleasure in introducing the following as pledges: Hubert Meabon of Bear Lake, Pa.; Dean Troxell of Ridgeway, Pa.; Gerald Denning of Smethport, Pa.; William Perry of Oil City, Pa.; David Backman of Gordon, Pa.; Herman Reister, Edward McMillan, Samuel Lindsay, Jr., Andrew Englehardt and Edward Shaffer of Pittsburgh.

Two of these, Cream Puff McMillan and Dutch Shaffer, were carried over from last year and are well known to many of the brothers.

The public lost faith in Pop Warner this year but now all have lined along with us and sing his praise—saying “I told you so.” We took our defeats in our usual manner but came back strong—winning from W. and J. and Penn State. Brother Templeton, playing his first year on the Varsity, showed the fans that he was not to be outclassed by anyone. He is ranked by an authority as the best tackle in the state but his regular position is guard. Next year we will expect to hear great things of Pledge McMillan who won fame at Princeton.

In other activities we are also well represented having important offices and positions on Campus such as senior president by Brother McKinnis, president Inter-Fraternity Conference by Brother Red Bigler, not to mention the honors held by Brother Larry Frederick and many of the others.

Year 1922-23, 6th of 16 chapters; average 2.885; fraternity average 2.854; non-fraternity average 2.697.

The home of Gamma Tau underwent a great change last summer—an addition of a sleeping porch, sun-room, enlarged dining-hall and kitchen. Our house mother, Mrs. Fagan, was given a lounging room which she has needed for a long time. The downstairs has been refurnished throughout and new beds have been purchased.

These improvements aided us in rushing, helping us to secure ten of the best men on the Hill. The pledges are: Wayne Marshall, Dorth Coombs, Jack Kincaid, Vernon Noah, Wadw Cloud, Fred Morrow, Dan Spencer, George Bush, Earl Linholm, and Ralph Loudon, who is also Phi Beta Pi.

Brother Carrol Hungate from Gamma Theta and Brother Donald Valentine from Gamma Alpha affiliated here this year. Brother Hungate has been pledged to Nu Sigma Nu.

Gamma Tau is ahead of all other fraternities on the Hill in activities. Brother Ted Sanborn and Pledge Gene Hart made their letters in football this year, Sanborn receiving honorable mention for the mythical All-Valley team. Brother Howard Firebaugh is the captain of track, treasurer of the Mens Student Council, president of the Mens Glee Club and president of Sachem, the honorary men's senior organization. Brother Whyte and Pledge Noah are also in the Glee Club. Pi Epsilon Pi, the pep fraternity has three Delts in it, Brothers Grosser, Whyte, and Pledge Loudon. Brother Janicke is manager of The Law Scrim, and Brother Semon is manager of The Junior Prom. Other political offices held by Delts are secretary of the junior class, Pledge Loudon; and treasurer of the freshman class, Pledge Kincaid.

Three brothers are in the band, Wolf, Long and Mathers. Two freshmen are in athletics, Pledge Cloud playing center on the freshman football team, and Kincaid a dangerous contender for the open tennis championship.

The actors must not be overlooked, Brother Wolf having a major part in Dulcy, given by the Y.W.C.A.; Stetler and Harner being cast in the Dramatic Club play, The Devil's Disciple; and Long, Janicke, Harner, and Pledge Noah are slated to appear in the annual K. U. Follies.

The greatest Homecoming that Kansas has ever witnessed saw Gamma Tau's house crowded to the roof with alumni, brothers from Gamma Kappa, and guests. The occasion of the celebration was the annual clash of the Missouri and Kansas teams, in which each struggled to a 3-3 tie. This game concluded a successful football season, Kansas tying with Nebraska for the Valley Championship, for which no little credit is due Hart and Sanborn, Sandy playing two of the hardest games with a broken hand.

2nd semester 1922-23, 1st of 8 chapters; average 101.64; all men's average 97.08.

With twenty-four actives and four pledges returning from the four corners of the country, we succeeded in getting an early start in the important job of rushing. At this time we announce the following pledges, each of whom is in at least one activity: Clarence Bateman, Mount Vernon, Ohio; Lloyd Brown, Mansfield, Ohio; Kenneth Frease, Canton, Ohio; Lowell White, Cincinnati, Ohio; George Laible, Norwalk, Ohio; Fred Suppes, Norwalk, Ohio; Ted Waltemire, Deshler, Ohio; Claude Booker, Linton, Indiana;

Abner Taylor, Linton, Indiana; Edward Carroll, Hillsboro, Ohio; Victor Palmer, Elkhart, Indiana; Robert Freitag, Camden, Ohio.

Soon after the opening of school, we initiated four men who were pledged during the second semester last year. They are Nils Johnson, Elkhart, Indiana; Frank Zimmerman, Cincinnati, Ohio; William H. Campbell, Napoleon, Ohio; and Frank Kelsey, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Chapter has run true to form in its social activities, the big function being the Fall Dance, but the two house parties needed no strategy to put them over in great style.

Quite a stride has been taken in scholarship, so that we now stand first among the national fraternities on the campus.

Brother Neff is back with us again this fall, and we expect him to hold the position of forward on the Varsity basketball team.

In intramural athletics, Brother Macy again carried off the fall tennis singles cup, and Brothers Kelsey and Bush were runners-up in the doubles. The Delt soccer team is tied for first place.

The brothers are unusually musical this year. Brothers Armistead, Deken, Anderson, Johnson, Porter, and Pledges White, Suppes, and Carroll are in the Glee Club. Brothers Armistead, Porter, Deken, and Johnson are in the Chapel Choir. To top this off, we have Brothers Armistead, Deken, Porter, and Johnson and Pledge White in the Opera Club. When Sinfonia appeared on the campus recently, Brother Armistead stepped out to the presidency. Brother Deken is also a member.

Brother Kiehl, our athletic cheerleader, and Pledge Brown are on the Junior Prom committee. Brother Porter is on the staff of the Student, the university newspaper. Brothers Porter and Brown are on the Recensio, the school annual. Gamma Upsilon is well represented in dramatics, since we have Brothers Deken, Porter, and Kiehl in Ye Merrie Players, and Brother Kiehl in the Masqueraders.

Brother Lohman is president of Phi Epsilon, an honorary natural science fraternity. Brother Shook is a member of Phi Epsilon and Alpha Tau Sigma, an honorary science fraternity. Brother Deken is president of the Spanish Club.

Besides gaining the honors previously enumerated, Brother Porter is a member of the Sophomore Hop Committee, and an assistant football manager. Six of our pledges are out for frosh football, and show evidence of getting in on the ground floor.

Recently, Dad Pumphry came up from Cincinnati and gave a talk to the freshmen which contained those essentials which only Dad can get across.

AMHERST

Year 1922-23, 9th of 12 chapters; average 72.44; college average 73.45.

Our initiations were held on Friday evening, November 2nd, when we took in one sophomore, a transfer from Rutgers, five freshmen and a Kappa Theta alumnus of the class of 1911. The men initiated are: Lincoln Stuart Ferris '26, of Ridgefield Park, N. J.; George Edgar Heald, Ashburnham, Mass.; Arthur Joseph LeClaire, Jr., Worcester, Mass.; Ralph Cleland McGoun, Jr., New Castle, Pa.; John Delker Myers, Pottsville, Pa.; Edward Russell True, Jr. '27, Washington, D. C.; and Frank Cary '11, of Auburn-dale, Mass. We have also pledged August Theodore Lindquist '27, of Thomaston, Conn. Following the initiation ceremonies, the annual banquet was held at The Davenport. Brother George F. Leary, Gamma Phi '09, was the toastmaster and Brother Lindemuth, Gamma Zeta '12, gave the principal speech of the evening.

Gamma Phi is trying hard to get back the Treadway Scholarship trophy this year but a number of the brothers are also engaged in various activities. Brothers Cy Collins, Tom Sterling, Will Putnam and Pledge Ted Linquist are on the basketball squad. The team will play five games during the Christmas vacation and the regular season will begin on January 11th. Brothers Paul Ashton and Fat Burkill are on the Glee Club and Bemis and Burkill are on the Mandolin Club. Fat is also secretary of the Masquers and circulation manager of the Olio, the college annual, put out by the junior class. Brother Dave Keast is assistant manager of the Musical Clubs this year and he is also going strong in the competition for editor-in-chief of the Amherst Student. Brother Larry Blair was elected treasurer of the junior class this fall and was also reelected track director of the class. Brother Ed Lacey is assistant business manager of the Amherst Writing, while Johnny Rieg is on the circulation board of Lord Jeff. Brother Don Snell is assistant stage manager of the Masquers and is on the Olio board. Brother Jimmy Knox got in several of the soccer games this fall, and Ed Manwell was on the squad during the latter part of the season. Among those who are now in competitions: Brother Ralph Bemis is out for a manager's position with the Masquers, Abe Ferris is trying for the position of assistant manager of track, and Art LeClaire is in the Freshman handbook competition. Brother Colton is drawing for the art department of Lord Jeff and Red Slade is making strong bids for a position on the editorial board.

Prospects for a successful House basketball team this winter look very promising.

The Chapter enrollment numbers thirty-four, including seven seniors, eleven juniors, eleven sophomores and five freshmen. Brothers Sam Buffum '24, Harry Bacon '25, and Mal Wilson '26 did not return to college this fall. Sam is now in Shushan, N. Y.; Harry is studying law at Boston University; and Mal is working at Spencer. Brother Tom Sterling '25 has returned after having spent a year at Niagara University and Posty Presbrey '26 has transferred from George Washington University.

The first House dance of the year was held on Saturday, November 10th, with about twenty-five couples attending. The Sophomore Hop was held in Pratt gymnasium on December 8th. Fifteen of the brothers fussed it and several others went stag.

The football team had a very even season, winning over M.A.C., Wesleyan and Trinity, losing to Bowdoin, Oberlin and Williams, and tying with Columbia and Union. The high point of the season was the 12-10 defeat of Wesleyan. The soccer team had a successful season, defeating Clark, Harvard, Wesleyan and Williams, tying with Syracuse and losing to Worcester and M.I.T. The chances for a successful basketball season look very good.

GAMMA CHI

2nd semester 1922-23, 6th of 12 chapters; average 79.51.

The opening of the school year on September 11th, found eighteen actives back. Rush week was a big success in every sense of the word. Eight men were pledged: Ed Overall, Hutchinson; Curtis Alexander, Hutchinson; Jack Spurlock, Burlingame; Jess Veal, Downs; Herbert Butterfield, Mulvane; Homer Hutchinson, Wichita; Richard Hamler, Manhattan. Since the opening of school Ray Ewalt of Manhattan was also pledged. Everyone of the pledges is swinging into the college work and activities like a veteran. Pledge Overall was All-State high school basketball center last year and will undoubtedly make a berth on the Varsity next year. Hutchinson is a swimmer of no small merit and Butterfield has a long string of medals won in track events.

On Sunday, November 18th, Gamma Chi initiated two men, Wilbur J. Radford and Herbert Moore. Both are sophomores.

On Friday afternoon, October 12th, we entertained in honor of our new House Mother, Mrs. Forman. She has taken a great deal of interest in working with us to make the house a good home. She is the only sister of General Harbord of the United States Army.

In athletics, Brothers Perham, Doolen, Read, and Pledge Von Trebra represent Gamma Chi on the football squad. All will be back next year so look out for a big Delt year in football. Varsity basketball practice is in full swing and Brother Chig Long is already playing regularly on the first string. Brother Art Doolen, a letter man from last year, will also represent Gamma Chi in basketball as soon as he gets out of his football togs. The Chapter basketball team is going strong in intramural competition and we have a good chance to take the cup.

Homecoming was on November 3rd, the dampest day in the whole year. The heavens seemed to open their widest and as a result the Aggies fought in a sea of mud and were defeated by the most peculiar score of the football season, 4 to 2, by the University of Missouri. But Homecoming at the Delt house was the biggest success ever. In the evening an informal banquet was held and was attended by the largest representation of alumni in the history of the Chapter.

GAMMA PSI

GEORGIA SCHOOL OF TECH.

1st semester 1922-23, 3rd of 17 chapters.

The first call for Ramblin' Recks was heard on September 24th. Nineteen men answered the roll at Gamma Psi. We were impatient for the rushing season to begin, but were forced to abide by the new Pan-Hellenic ruling which forbids any rushing or pledging for the first two weeks of school. However, we were rewarded after a very successful rush week and now gladly present our nine pledges: Luke E. Tate, of Tate, Ga.; Joseph D. Rahner, Jr., of St. Augustine, Fla.; Clifford T. Schwalb and S. W. Parnelle, Jr., of Savannah, Ga.; A. M. Queen of West Point, Miss.; H. C. Jordan, of Augusta, Ga.; J. L. Strickland of Tallapoosa, Ga.; and Alfonso Maganna of Salvador, Central America.

There are also two new brothers whom we want you to meet. They are M. E. Halford of Augusta and L. S. Hardin of Atlanta. These men, being sophomores, were initiated in the early fall and are now hard at work for Gamma Phi.

When Georgia Tech opened her doors over three hundred men were refused admittance because of the lack of accommodations. Nevertheless, the Greater Georgia Tech campaign fund is making itself felt. The new Physics Building has recently been occupied and work has just commenced on the Ceramics Building. Expansion is gradual but certain. We are rather proud of two new additions to the faculty this year—Brothers F. B. Wenn, of Gamma Chi, and R. P. Black, of Beta Theta. We feel sure that they will be of help to us in our relations between the School and the Chapter.

Variety is the spice of activities, so we think. Brother Johnny Baum will lead the first Tech baseball team to take a northern trip. Johnny's old familiar haunt is the third corner on the diamond. Brother Gene Halford has received his freshman track numeral from last season while Marshall Queen made his numeral on the freshman football squad this year.

Gamma Psi still controls the publications. Brother Robertson is editor-in-chief of the Blue Print. On the board of control of the Technique, the weekly paper, are Howe and Robertson. Brother Huguley is advertising manager. A number of Delts are on each staff. There are four men members of the Marionettes, dramatic club. Brother Robertson is vice-president. "Polly With a Past," recently presented comedy, proved to be a big success. Four men have survived the first Glee Club cut. Our politicians are Howe and Baum, members of the Pan-Hellenic Council. Brothers Baum and Walthall are in the Cotillion Club.

Brother Paul was recently initiated into the Scabbard and Blade Fraternity. He is also a member of Beta Tau, local scientific fraternity, petitioning Tau Beta Pi. Brother Rustin is vice-president of the Matheson Literary Society. In the night school we are represented by Brother George Dowman, who is vice-president of the senior class and of the Commerce Club as well as secretary of Alpha Kappa Psi. The coveted Gold "T" has been awarded to Brothers Baum and Robertson for their scholarship efforts. Brother Baum has also gained two other distinguished honors in recognition of his scholarship, leadership and activities—Phi Kappa Phi and membership in the Anak Society, the controlling element of the school.

The Chapter is proud of having been represented at the Karnea by three actives and one alumnus despite the great distance from Atlanta to Cleveland. Each reported a wonderful trip and as a result Gamma Psi will probably have a much larger delegation at the next convention. The plans for the Southern Division Conference to be held in New Orleans are well under-way. A large attendance is expected. The dates are February 22nd and 23rd.

Homecoming Day was celebrated on Thanksgiving, a big attraction being the annual gridiron battle between Tech and Auburn. The result was a scoreless tie. We were delighted to have a large number of alumni back with us on this occasion. Following the game, a turkey dinner was served at the chapter house. Friendships were renewed and pleasant memories of the old days were recalled as the grand old bull session progressed. We hope that the alumni will get the habit of dropping around often. They will always receive a cordial welcome.

We have received many compliments on our home newly located at 75 West North Avenue, but we would much prefer that you decide for yourself.

T. WALTER HUGHES.

GAMMA OMEGA

NORTH CAROLINA

Year 1922-23, 7th of 16 chapters; average 3.36; fraternity average 3.39.

Primed with genuine interest and filled with determination to make this one of the biggest years in Gamma Omega's history, seventeen of the tribe returned for the fall quarter. For the first week rushing was the prime interest of the Chapter and after the smoke of the battle with sixteen other Grecian aggregations had cleared away Gamma Omega increased her number by three men.

We were fortunate in placing the square badge on Brother Bill Pfohl of Winston Salem, N. C.; Brother Frank Bell, Salisbury, N. C., and Brother David Jordan, Wilmington, North Carolina.

No sooner was this pledge night over than the faculty and Pan-Hellenic Council ruled that the one year rushing system be abolished and that henceforth men would be eligible to be pledged at Christmas of their freshmen year. The Chapter again concentrated its attention on the men of '27 and after a period of intensive rushing and a careful choice of men we are pleased to introduce as Delt pledges: Alex Crowell, Monroe, N. C.; Adam Younce, Salisbury, N. C.; Jack Shaffner, Winston Salem, N. C.; J. J. McMurray, Shelby, N. C.; Joe Walser, Lexington, N. C.; Henry McNair, Tarboro, N. C.

Since our first initiation we have been fortunate to receive in the fold Brother Wiley Gregory of Norfolk, Va., Brother Tam Shufford of Spencer, N. C., and Brother John Hall of Oxford, N. C.

Aside from the keen interest which Gamma Omega has shown in regard to a careful selection of new men she has not neglected to make herself prominent in campus activities. Brother Norman Sheppard '22 is assistant coach to all Varsity and freshman athletics. The honors of an all-state championship football team have just been copped and Brother Sheppard comes in for a goodly portion of the credit. At present he is busy whipping into shape a very promising basketball team. Brother Dan Grant of the class of '20 has for the past year been busily engaged in efficiently organizing the alumni of the University of North Carolina. This is a position of considerable distinction for so young an alumnus.

In social organizations we have Brother Dan Grant, who is a member of the Gorgons Head, and Brothers Waddill and Jordan who are members of the "13" Club. With the publications we have Brother Marion Davis as assistant editor of the Tar Heel and Brother Gus Bradley, business manager; also we have Brother Ragland on the Boll Weevil staff. In the music clubs we have Brother Waddill and Spaugh in the Carolina Club orchestra and Brother McGlaughn in the Carolina Collegians. Brother Spaugh is president of the fifty-piece college band in which Brothers Pfohl, Waddill and Craemer are members.

With the Playmakers we have Brothers Pfohl and McGlaughn. Brother Davis is on the junior class executive committee and is also a member of the Y.M.C.A. Cabinet and the Order of the Grail. Brother Herb Gorham is secretary of the senior class in Medicine. Completing our list we have in athletics Brothers McGlaughn and Andrews, who are making a good record on the track team.

DELTA ALPHA

2nd semester 1922-23, 1st of 13 chapters.

Delta Alpha started off the new year with renewed energy. Rush week found us with more than twenty old men back. Many of our alumni came back to assist us in every way that they possibly could. As a result of our rushing scrimmage, we herded six husky pledges into our corral, and at the present time have developed some mighty good Delt material, we believe. We take great pleasure in the pledging of Eldred Bates, Tulsa; H. C. Farley, El Reno; Tracy Powell, Idabel; Colley Sullivan, Pauls Valley; James Sullivan, Ardmore; Lewellyn Wolfe, El Reno. Since then we have added the names of Ben Hatcher, Tuttle Meder, Bob McCall, and Jack Swaum to the pledge roll.

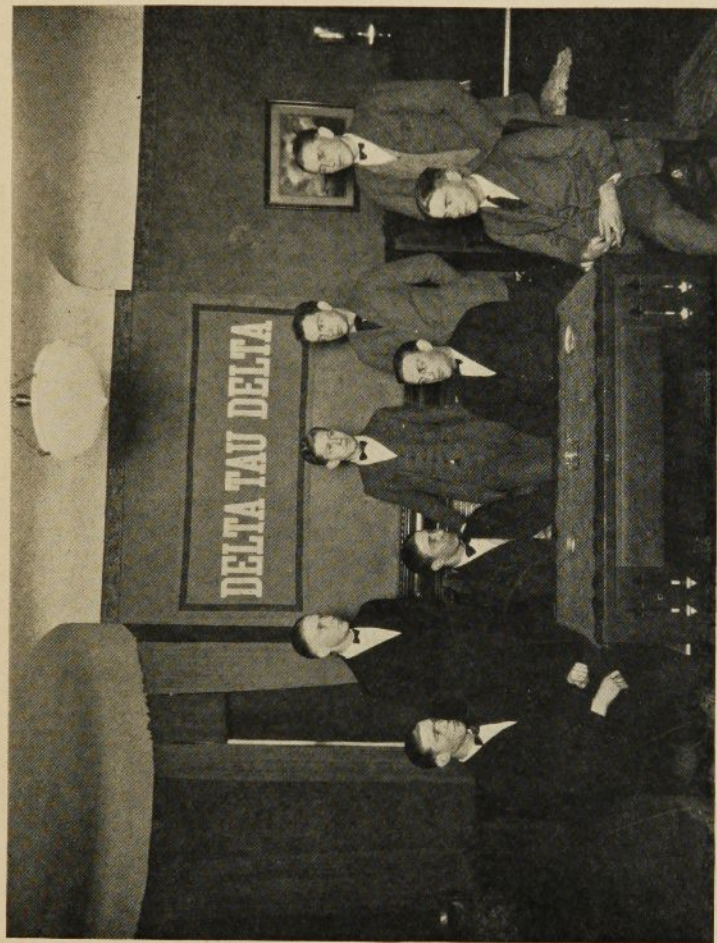

This fall we moved into more commodious quarters. We have now leased a place at 223 W. Duffy Street, and are very comfortably situated. The house very easily accommodates twenty-eight men, and has very spacious living rooms and a large dining room in the basement, enabling us to entertain more at home than we formerly could. We urge any and all alumni to visit the Chapter in its new home, and we will endeavor to make amends to those who have probably suffered with us in the past.

Again we have had the honor of winning the scholarship cup for the last semester of last year, with an average of 3.4112, basing the scale upon six points. The averages were as follows:

Delta Tau Delta	3.4112	Pi Kappa Alpha	2.5523
Sigma Alpha Epsilon ..	2.9352	Acacia	2.4580
Beta Theta Pi	2.8052	Phi Kappa Psi	2.4195
Kappa Sigma	2.7532	Alpha Tau Omega ...	2.3864
Sigma Chi	2.6217	Kappa Alpha	2.2890
Phi Gamma Delta ...	2.5749	Sigma Nu	2.1433
Phi Delta Theta	2.5569

In activities we are making a good showing. Brother Ben Parks is with us again this year, and, of course, is as much interested in activities as ever. In tennis he has won so many cups that he scarcely has room for any more. Ben is also business manager for the 1924 Sooner, the annual publication of the University, is coaching the Varsity tennis team, and taking Medicine too, which makes him one busy man. Brother Bert Ashby is assistant business manager of the Whirlwind, comic magazine of the University; Brothers Ashby, Ridings, Sullivan, Billings, Knight, Groseclose, and Pledge Hatcher are members of Phi Delta Phi. Brother Chastain is a member of Phi Alpha Delta. Brothers Sullivan, Ridings, and Bandy are members of Alpha Kappa Psi, honorary commercial fraternity. Brother Alpha Johnson represents Delta Tau Delta as captain of the Varsity basketball team. He is also a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa, and of Peet, an organization demanding a high scholastic average together with a good activity record. Brother Waldo Wettengel is with us again this year, and as he was so good last year he had no sooner arrived in town than they had him writing feature stories for the Oklahoma Daily, which have been appearing ever since on the front page. Pledge Bob McCall is showing his stuff on the freshman football team, as halfback, and has a good chance to making the Varsity next year.

We had the very good fortune to have Brother Ralph Wray with us last October, and hope that he will be able to visit us again soon. He certainly has a bunch of brothers in Oklahoma that are back of him to the man.

We are making special preparations for our annual installation banquet, February 22nd, and wish that as many of the Delts outside of the State that could would come to see us.

EUGENE M. GENTRY.

DELTA BETA

CARNEGIE INST. OF TECH.

Year 1922-23, 6th of 11 chapters.

Delta Beta started the new school year with a high degree of enthusiasm. We assembled in our new home at 4902 Forbes Street, which is larger, nearer the school, and more suitable in every way than our former house. After purchasing new furniture and getting the house into condition, we were under way for a great year, with seventeen actives present. This number was increased to twenty-three at an initiation on October 25th and through the affiliation of Brother Lockwood from Tau Chapter.

After a rather strenuous three weeks of rushing, which included three house dances, several smokers, and a theatre party, we finished with nine pledges. Since then we have added three more to our list. Our pledges at present include William J. Barkell, Pitcairn, Pa.; Ellery W. Coover, Kansas City, Mo.; William E. Davey, Massillon, Ohio; William Garver, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Stanley H. Hoch, Canonsburg, Pa.; H. Norwood Peightel, Thornburg, Pa.; Paul R. Tate, Punxsutawney, Pa.; William W. Weber, Cumberland, Md.; Paul R. Anderson, Erie, Pa.; Louis C.

Lustenberger, Pittsburgh, Pa.; and Joseph O. Hanson, Johnstown, Pa.

We are grateful for the cooperation that some of the brothers from other chapters have given us, for it is partly due to their efforts in some cases that we have secured these men.

These pledges are stepping right out into activities, for already Peightel has placed in the Kiltie Band, Hoch is on the Thistle board, Lustenberger was on the cross-country squad, Coover is a tennis man from William Jewell College, Davey is out for basketball, and Barkell, Garver and Weber are assistant basketball managers. Pledge Tate played regularly on the freshman football team, is class president and is also out for basketball. Anderson will get his letter this year from his Varsity football record.

Delta Beta's actives are also in the activities again. Varsity football was represented by Brothers Kuhn and Eaton, cross-country by Brothers Sullivan and Koppes. The rifle team and club are being represented by Brothers Burgis and Powers. Quite a few of the brothers will be out for baseball and track in the spring, and we are confident that they will raise Delta Beta's athletic prestige at that time.

We have representing us on the Tartan, Brothers Fulmer and Dempsey. Dempsey is the circulation manager this year. Brother Strong is the assistant treasurer of the Thistle, Brother Powers is on the staff of the Technical Journal, and Brother Marshall is on the Puppet.

The musical clubs claim Brothers Butler, Kitchell, Wendlandt, and Joachim. Our assistant managers are Brothers Fulmer and Wendlandt. Brother Fencil is a cheerleader. Brother Sullivan is president of the Commercial Club. Brother Powers is chairman of Graphica social committee and manager of printing production. Brother Koppes is treasurer of the Junior Prom committee, secretary of the Interfraternity Council, and college secretary.

Socially, we have been keeping up our status. Besides the social functions in connection with our rushing season, we have had two house dances, a smoker for alumni attending the Pitt-Tech game, a dinner and entertainment for the Gamma Sigma pledges, a Christmas party for orphans, and a Christmas tree party for ourselves. The program for the remainder of the year includes an Open House and Tea, a Chapter formal dance, an alumni reunion banquet, a formal interfraternity dance, several house dances, and Campus Week as a climax.

This year we are making an especial effort to maintain a high scholastic rating and to raise our standing above that of the other Tech fraternities. We have enforced a quiet hour rule, which keeps everything practically noiseless from 7:30 p.m. We have a scholarship committee which is quite active in checking up on individual grades and in enforcing study rules. We carry on a study hall for those pledges whose marks have dropped below the average. These pledges are required to appear at this room in the house where they study and are tutored when necessary by two actives who assume charge.

Two issues of our chapter paper, The Plaid Delt, have come out so far this year. By means of this publication we keep in close touch with our alumni and let the other chapters know what we are doing.

FRANK E. POWERS.

CHICAGO ALUMNI CHAPTER

On Saturday, November 24th, the Open November Dinner was held at the University Club with the largest number of Delts and pledges on record in attendance. There were eighty-two pledges, who were the guests of Dr. Wieland, and one hundred and fifty-six Delts. In another part of this issue a complete story of the banquet will be found.

At a joint meeting of representatives of the three local Chapters and the Alumni Chapter it was decided to hold the Delt Prom at the Blackstone Hotel on Friday night, February 15, 1924. We will assure all Delts a very enjoyable evening and hope that we may have visitors with us from the entire country.

A short while ago, Brother Charles F. Axelson, who has been very active in the Fraternity, was elected a trustee of the University of Chicago. We are certain that Brother Axelson will be of great value to his Alma Mater in this office.

About the middle of November we changed our luncheons back to the Brevoort Hotel, where we will be glad to welcome any Delts coming through Chicago.

ERNST C. SCHMIDT.

CINCINNATI ALUMNI CHAPTER

Not much of note has occurred in and around the confines of the Cincinnati Alumni Chapter since the last letter went to post. The annual Delta home-coming party was held at the Hotel Havlin, Saturday night, November 17th, after seeing Cincinnati romp over Case 69 to 0. The party as usual was a success.

We have changed our weekly Wednesday luncheons from the Burnet House to the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce. Arrange your business when in town so that you can be with us on Wednesday.

Merry Christmas!

EDWARD C. HUERKAMP.

INDIANAPOLIS ALUMNI CHAPTER

The Indianapolis alumni have been having very interesting luncheons during the football season. There has been a considerable difference of opinion as to the merits of the teams and men and by what scores the games should be won. A few of the fellows have had a lot of luck and will eat Delt lunches the coming year without cost, while others with better judgment but with less luck will furnish the aforesaid meals. The rivalry has made lively meetings and a good attendance.

The famous Brides' Ball comes off Saturday night, December 8th, and we expect one of the largest crowds and the best times ever had in the ten years' existence of this dance. This is the annual party of the Alumni Chapter so that all the old boys will try to squeeze into the old regalia and limber up the stiff joints a bit.

The annual election dinner will be pulled at the Lincoln Hotel, December 14th, and the report of the officers of 1923 will be given and the new officers elected. This has been the best year the Chapter has had and we are going into the new year to make the Chapter larger, although we are near the top in membership now, and to have more activities.

EVERETT J. HOLLOWAY.

BOSTON CLUB

The Boston Delt Club wishes to announce that it is now located in large and very comfortable quarters at 92 Bay State Road. This move has been contemplated for some time because of the increasing resident membership, but it was not until the early fall that any definite steps were taken in this direction. After much house hunting and many disappointments, we finally came upon the present house which seemed to meet our needs for a club.

It is a large ten-room house located in an exclusive residential district of Boston within ten minutes' ride on the subway to the heart of the business district, and is easily accessible from either the South or Back Bay railroad stations. The house has four floors with living quarters for seventeen men. The lobby, reception and dining rooms are on the first floor while the three upper floors are devoted entirely to sleeping and living accommodations.

The men living at the club were so impressed with the new surroundings that they immediately put the individual rooms in order with simple yet effective decorations, so that now one cannot help but notice the feeling of comfort and cheerfulness which surrounds the place.

Out of town Delts (and there have been many) who have stopped at the new home expressed their satisfaction at the change and we know that we have taken a step in the right direction. We are now in the midst of a membership campaign and the manner in which the returns are coming in have surpassed all expectations. We have tried to reach all of the Delts in New England and have asked them to pass the word along to any whom we have may missed. We welcome Delts and their friends at any time. Be sure to drop in and we will make you comfortable. Ask those who have already been here.

I would like to say right here that it was through the persistent and untiring efforts of Brother E. W. Killgore, Omega '15, assisted by Brothers Roger E. Morse, Gamma Gamma '13, John W. Campbell, Beta Gamma '17 and Ross A. White, Gamma Eta '20, that the present location of the club was secured.

BEALE M. GORDON.

PORTLAND, OREGON, ALUMNI CHAPTER

In Portland all is well. During the summer most of the Brothers either took up golf or wished they had and now that the winter greens are being used we hear many interesting stories told of those who haunted the links. However, due credit must be given to those who did not give up our weekly luncheons and one could usually pick up a foursome ready to do battle as soon as the luncheon was over.

During the fall months our Association lost several very energetic members. Bill Garretsen, our president this last year, moved to Roseburg, Oregon, where he has entered into partnership with Brother Joe Denn, handling building material and fuel. When last interviewed Bill was supervising the manufacture of a large order of cement bricks and seemed to be very well pleased with prospects for the future. Brother Raymond Dayton Lawrence, "Curly," for short, left the Oregonian News room and is now with the United Press in the Record Building in Los Angeles. Curly is climbing quite rapidly in the newspaper game and we surely miss his jovial face at our luncheons and gatherings. Brother Raney Burkhead is with a school book publishing concern, having turned to that when he resigned his position as Dean of Men at the Oregon Institute of Technology. Raney comes and goes, and manages to keep in touch with our many scattered brothers throughout the Northwest.

Another brother whom we were sorry to lose is John Alexander, who has been transferred to Seattle, as branch manager for the Northwestern Equipment Company, handling logging and railroad equipment. Johnny is planning on settling permanently in Seattle and we wish him the best of luck in his new territory.

From the Far East we hear that Gar Madden and his wife were in the vicinity of Yokohama during the earthquake. Harvey Madden and his wife were on their way back to Japan when the catastrophe occurred, after a three months' vacation in Portland. Harold "Skinny"

Newton, U. S. Vice Consul at Kobe, and Elmo Madden were in Kobe at the time and both came through unscarred.

Among those who still remain in town but are seldom seen are Jerry Goodsell and Ken Warrens. The former has taken over the interest of his late pardner, Pat Allen, who was drowned in a motor boat accident at Astoria while on his way to attend the State Legion convention in September, and Jerry now has a full sized Ford agency to take up his time. Ken's story is entirely different. He is a married man now, and since the writer is in a similar position the less said the better. Mrs. Warrens was Miss Irene Collins, a sister of Brother Bill Collins, Gamma Rho '23. Ken manages the Trading Department for the Portland office of Blyth-Witter.

Brother Elmer Spencer was recently married to Miss Suzan Cheney of Portland. Elmer is connected with Blyth-Witter and spends most of his time on the road covering the southern part of the state. In the south at Stanford University, Brother Eugene McClung, Gamma Mu '22, was married in October to Miss Vera Monteagle, Pi Beta Phi, University of Washington. Mrs. McClung formerly resided in Seattle, but recently moved to Burlingame, Calif., so Brother McClung took his car down and before returning to Portland motored through Southern California. Brother Alden Fischer of Seattle was best man. The papers reported that Brother McClung is a promising young lawyer of Portland, but at present he is connected with the American Laundry of that city.

Brother Ralph Wray stopped over for a few hours in Portland during his western trip and because he slipped in unannounced there was but a small reception committee on hand to make him feel at home. We have some wonderful scenery within a few hours' ride of Portland and nothing would please us more than to entertain the visiting brothers with a trip up the famous Columbia River Highway.

In mentioning our enterprising alumni I ought to say a few words about Brother Rollo Gray and his custom tailor business. Rollo tends to the office while his pardner Mike Moran, former Washington State College football star, officiates at local football games and drums up trade. Needless to say most of the brothers have taken one or more of his suits and no complaints have been voiced yet.

Our California correspondent informs us that Butch Weigel and Bill Silverthorn have been reported "at home" somewhere in the land of the bathing girls. Guy Sacre is in Los Angeles, having resigned from his office with Blyth-Witter in Salt Lake. Between you, noble reader, and me, and our State line, there must be something besides sunshine to draw our men south. I wish someone would 'lucidate.

Speaking of football, reminds me that we ought to give personal mention to several Delts who have turned out winning teams this last fall. Cedric "Hap" Miller, Gamma Mu '16, who was a star halfback under Dobie at Washington, coached a championship team at Vancouver, Washington. His big achievement was to put the Multnomah Club team on the map as Club Champions of the Pacific Coast. In Portland, Brother Harold Quigly at Jefferson High School coached the runner-up in the local interscholastic league. Washington High School, where Brother Vere Windnagle is director of athletics, won the championship and a good part of the credit should go to Vere for his assistance in keeping the men in shape. Vere's field lies in track and his team last spring won every meet it entered. At Medford Prink Callison, Gamma Rho '23, turned out a winner and his team claims the Southern Oregon Championship. Cotton Nelson, Gamma Rho '16, coached the champion Astoria High School team so we can boast of championship Delt coached teams in several parts of the state.

Brother Bill Collins is teaching at Columbia University in Portland and is slated to coach the baseball team this spring. Bill was a two-year man in baseball at Oregon—so the boys will have a real coach to handle them. At Franklin High in Portland, Brothers Curtis, White and Woodruff are on the faculty, the latter being wrestling instructor. Rollo also is a proud father and when Miss Woodruff does not demand his Saturday afternoons he is usually on time to fill a chair at the luncheon.

In the way of activities, we have a party scheduled for Brother Herm Blaesing's home on December 27th, that ought to be a winner. Dancing will be the main attraction but you can never tell when one of the nimble fingered brothers will flash the bones or a deck of cards.

During Homecoming at Oregon a number of the boys drove down to Eugene to pay a visit to the campus. Eddie Marshall was reported present with much cheer and a new story so the Medford delegation contributed its share towards making the party a howling success. Our annual writer pilgrimage is in January at Initiation. Last year over forty Delts from all parts of the state were present and the actives gave us all a rare treat. This year we are looking forward to this event with even more pleasure because the house has been enlarged and the boys say they will have room for all who come.

Our luncheons are still held at the University Club, corner of Sixth and Jefferson Streets, every Saturday at one o'clock. We will indeed feel honored if visiting Delts will drop in while in Portland.

R. E. McCLUNG.

DALLAS ALUMNI CHAPTER

The Dallas Alumni Chapter has been holding its regular monthly luncheons on the first Tuesday of each month up until November. We were holding these luncheons at the Joseph's Cafe, but now have returned to the University Club, which is in the Oriental Hotel.

During the summer, the attendance at the meetings was not very large, but we were favored by the presence of a number of the active members of the Fraternity. During September we held a number of meetings for the purpose of rushing prospective college students. It seems that the rushing of the Dallas Alumni was to a certain extent successful in that practically every man rushed by us was pledged at the university or college he attended.

The last two meetings of the Chapter have been very enthusiastic, there being larger numbers present than ever before. We are planning to have some form of entertainment at our future luncheons and hope to make them draw better through the same.

We shall be glad to have any visiting Delts in this part of the country stop over and meet with us.

TOM C. CLARK.

MILWAUKEE ALUMNI CHAPTER

The Milwaukee Alumni Chapter held its first meeting after the summer period of inactivity on the evening of September 24th. As several members were visiting their old chapters where they were assisting in the fall rushing, all business was laid over until the next meeting, held at the Milwaukee Athletic Club on the evening of October 15th. After a good dinner, the evening was devoted to consideration of plans for strengthening the Fraternity in this part of the country.

The Dean of Men at the University of Wisconsin has prepared a pamphlet containing various criticisms which have appeared in different publications regarding fraternities, added some observations of his own, and has circulated this pamphlet among the chapters at the University, calling on them to make an examination of themselves, and to correct any conditions which may be found to need it. This pamphlet and a letter to us from the Dean of Men, in which he voiced some frank (though general and impersonal) criticisms of the actions and attitude of returning alumni, were read and discussed at the Alumni Chapter meeting. It was the consensus of opinion that while the charges were prejudiced and exaggerated they should receive careful consideration, and every effort should be made to nip in the bud any tendencies in a wrong direction which may be discovered to exist. A letter was accordingly sent to the Dean of Men at the University assuring him of the cooperation of the Milwaukee Alumni Chapter. There have been rumors heard lately that an anti-fraternity agitation will probably be aroused in the next Wisconsin legislature. It is hoped that if the fraternity situation at the University can be taken care of before the legislature meets, any fight which may develop there will have been won in advance.

The following officers of the Alumni Chapter were elected for the ensuing year: President, Herbert W. Cornell of Omega and Gamma Eta Chapters; Secretary, Hugh C. Michels of Beta Gamma Chapter; Treasurer, Curtis F. Sisson of Beta Pi Chapter.

We are expecting to have a dinner and get-together on the first Monday of each month at the Milwaukee Athletic Club. Any Delts passing through Milwaukee will be more than welcome. Do not hesitate because you have not made reservations. We can take care of you. Undoubtedly there are many Delts living in Milwaukee or its vicinity with whom we are not in touch. Any of them who read this letter will kindly cancel all previous engagements and come around and renew their youth.

HUGH C. MICHELS.

TULSA ALUMNI CHAPTER

The regular meetings of our Chapter since our last letter have shown a larger attendance and have stimulated the general interest in the Fraternity and its activities. Brother Digel's report of the Karnea was very interesting indeed and we feel proud of the favorable mention we have received in Brother Hill's report. We hope to further increase the membership and activities of our Chapter and merit further favorable notice.

We are now planning on making our December meeting of especial interest. It will be held some evening during the holiday season while quite a number of active Deltas are home.

In closing, let us invite each and every Delt who visits Tulsa to look up some of us and we shall try to make his stay here a little more pleasant.

E. R. FILLEY.

DES MOINES ALUMNI CHAPTER

Brother Hemmick has given us the Herculean task of writing the letter for the January RAINBOW before we have received the November number. As a result it may be that we shall repeat some of the gems concerning the activities of the local brethren, but we'll do our best.

Des Moines Alumni were particularly interested in reading paragraph 3 of Circular No. 182 sent out, under date of November 23rd, by Brother Hemmick. That portion of the paragraph which referred to "sending newspaper clippings, biographical sketches and items of interest  relating to members of the Fraternity" was of vital moment to the Iowa brothers who are now gathered in the Capital City of the State "where the tall corn grows."

In fact your correspondent has with difficulty worked himself out from under the veritable mass of clippings, biographical sketches, photos and human interest matter which the Iowa brothers have bestowed upon him. This issue we have time for only a few brief personals, but by next quarter you will see material that will make every other alumni chapter grind their teeth with jealousy!

Brother Donald C. Hunter is now practicing law for himself. He has started with offices in the Hippee Building and the Alumni Chapter can recommend him as a conscientious and efficient young barrister. Brother Al Todd has also entered the legal profession and is now in the offices of Parrish, Cohen & Guthrie for a brief term of apprenticeship, or whatever they call it when they sit, as did the famous Peter Stirling, and read "Somebody On Torts." Good luck to both Messrs. Hunter and Todd.

Brother Fred Green turned several other colors a few weeks ago when he became a novitiate for the order of the Mystic Shrine. Brother Brayton was present and saw that Brother Green was given just enough of the burning sands to make him remember the occasion long and fervently. Brother Green had previously taken the Scottish Rite degrees.

Most all of the Des Moines Delts witnessed one or more of the big Conference football games this fall. A big crowd went to the Iowa-Michigan game at Iowa City, and several attended other games at Iowa as well. Brother Brayton saw the Wisconsin-Minnesota game at Madison and visited with the boys at Beta Gamma.

Although still a young man and in the prime of life, Brother John Wallace, son of Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace, has decided to forsake the rigors of northern winters and go south, permanently. So he and his family have moved to St. Petersburg, Fla., where he will engage in the hardware and lumber business with his father-in-law. While Brother Wallace was not what might be called a regular attendant at Delt luncheons, he was a darn good scout, and still is, for that matter, even if he has gone to St. Petersburg where the old men sit all day in the sun and play checkers. We wager John will engender so much enthusiasm in them that he'll sell them all Mah Jongg sets before the winter is over. Those Delts who are accustomed to wintering in Florida will find John glad to see them any time they are on the West Coast.

Brother Arthur H. Brayton took a flying business trip to the Pacific Coast during the month of October, starting at El Paso and winding up at Seattle. He found Delt clubs on the coast flourishing like the proverbial green bay tree.

Brother Homer Susong, who is now in the employ of the city of Des Moines in the engineering department, has been a regular attendant at Delta luncheons recently.

Donald "Kuck" Ellsworth, formerly in New York, is now in Des Moines with local branch of the Aetna Casualty Company. Kuck is a regular attendant at all meetings.

With the beginning of a new year it really looks as if Brother Samuel Chase Green, who has served so efficiently as president of the Des Moines Alumni, might be persuaded to hold over for twelve more months. The cares of state rest lightly upon Sam's broad shoulders, but at the same time he performs his duties with efficiency, cheerfulness and excellent executive capacity, so that there is little question but that he will again be given the toga for 1924.

During the holidays the Delt luncheons were attended by several of the boys who were home from school. Brother Jack Denison from Wisconsin, Brothers Chamberlain and Marquardt from Pennsylvania and several others regaled the alumni members with tales of college days. The conclusion reached by the alumni was that the boys have changed very little in the past decade.

Be that as it may, it does not alter the fact that Des Moines Delt luncheons, held Friday noons at the Grant Club, are among the most attractive and tastily appointed affairs in the city. Any Delt who is in Des Moines on a Friday luncheon noon and does not avail himself of the opportunity of mingling with the gang, does both the gang and himself a grave and grievous injustice. Drop in, brothers, and you'll be convinced.

ARTHUR H. BRAYTON.

LOUISVILLE ALUMNI CHAPTER

Brother Paul Burlingame, Beta Beta '95, has been named assistant to the President of the Brown Hotel Company at Louisville. The "Brown" is a magnificent addition to the hotel facilities of Louisville and was erected at a cost of over $3,000,000. It is the last word in fine hotel construction.

The building is a fifteen-story structure and occupies one of the most valuable sites in Louisville at the corner of Fourth and Broadway. Between Brother Burlingame at the Brown and Brother Otto E. Seelbach, Beta Gamma '19, at the Seelbach Hotel visiting Delts should have little difficulty in securing the finest accommodations that the city affords.

Brother William L. Hoge, Phi '06, Vice-President of the Mengel Company, invited a number of Louisville business men, including members of the local alumni, to be present at the opening inspection of the new Mengel Body plant. The plant, which is engaged in making the wooden parts for automobile and truck bodies, is replete with labor-saving and time-saving appliances. At present capacity, it is converting about five carloads of lumber per day into the wooden body parts of 350 automobiles. A large part of the production is being taken by the Durant interests for the Star automobile.

'24—"Sid" Challenger was married the 29th of November to Miss Ethel Hull of Bridgeport, Conn. "Sid" is working for the Bridgeport Brass Company.

GAMMA THETA

'23—We all knew that Brothers Case, Taylor, and Bradney were students last year, but we thought that they were educated when they went from the shelter of Gamma Theta, but no, they say that there is no room for them but at the top, so this year finds them lost in Law books and Administration in Harvard.

Brothers Roach and Holter are delving in science and medicine in Northwestern Medical School. Gamma Theta thanks the loyal brothers mentioned in this and the above paragraph for their great help during rush week.

There is no doubt that the youngsters of Kansas will be well educated as many of our brothers have assumed the robe of dignity and have sallied forth to many of the schools over the state to invest their learning in the coming generation of college men. These men who left us last year as alumni are Brothers C. Shirk, H. Scott, L. Gordon and J. Francis.

All these men mentioned are of the class of '23 and all of them who are near have been dropping in on us often and we wish to state our appreciation for their interest in THE RAINBOW.

GAMMA IOTA

'14—Harry Nolan is Police Commissioner at Austin. Brother Nolan is ultra-efficient, we regret to say.

'18—W. W. "Jack" Stewart of Gulf was here to visit us for a short time this fall. The shekels, we hear from reliable sources, are being raked in.

'19—Ed. Angly is showing his stuff before royalty in England. Ed. and Prince Ed. are quite congenial.

'21—Arleigh Davis reports favorably on the Oklahoma bar.

'21—Wendell Mayes has taken unto himself a wife and an editorial post on the Fresno (Calif.) Bee.

'21—Paul McMahon, Herbert Whisenant, Homer Hendricks, and Tom Clark ('22) are loyal supporters of Gamma Iota in Dallas, and stand high in the legal field.

'21—Burke Mathis was with us a few days this fall. He and Homer Hendricks are still looking after our legislative interests.

'22—Joe Dunlap has a position with the Gulf Refining Company here in Austin, and he is one of the fellows right.

'22—Lee McCartney is attorney at Brownwood, Texas.

'23—Henry Donaghey is already a banker at Hamlin.

'23—Jack Sledge is in the merchandising business at Kyle (during the day-time).

'23—Loftin Witcher is practicing law in Fort Worth.

'23—Raymond Dulaney and Pledge Morris Lightfoot are going right on up in the Aluminum Cooking Utensil Co.

GAMMA RHO

'16—Curly Provost spends an occasional evening around the fireplace telling the boys last year's jokes.

'17—Edison Marshall, eminent novelist, was a recent visitor. Eddie still knows and tells good stories, and entertains with his famous African "Umba" song.

'20—Bill Lyle, the wanderer of the distant places, has dropped in quite a few times of late. Bill is now interested in both oil and law.

'21—Gene McClung, a Delt from Gamma Mu, has joined the ranks of the benedicts. Gene still has an interest in Gamma Rho, and is a good Delt though married, and proved the same by stopping for dinner with his fair bride while on their honeymoon.

'22—Prince Callison, Oregon's fighting center for three years, is now coaching at Medford, Oregon. Prink's team must have imbibed some of their coach's fight, as they just finished the season undefeated. Delirious citizens are trying to get Prince to run for mayor.

'22—Curly Lawrence is now in Los Angeles with the United Press. He is night manager of the bureau there.

'13—"Peaches" Dinsmore left after Rush week for Europe where he will visit several clinics. He is still with Western Reserve at Kansas City.

'13—Herb Cowan is with the Southwestern Bell 'Phone Company at Winfield.

'13—Adna "Paddle" Palmer is of Kingman.

'14—Rollie Brown was the architect for the new addition to Gamma Tau's home. He is located in Kansas City.

'19—"Razor" Walters returned from Roumania and Paris in time for the M.U.—K.N. game Thanksgiving. He was an oil expert over there. He is now in Tulsa, Okla.

'23—Fred Boone is associated with his father-in-law, in the Hall-Neal Furnace Company of Indianapolis, Ind.

'23—"Frenchy" Perreault is with Vermillion, Edwards, Cary and Littleston, lawyers, of Wichita, Kansas. Gillett '14, Shinn '18, and Pugh '22, are also in the same firm.

GAMMA UPSILON

'17—Tommy Foulkes is holding down a job with Bethlehem Steel.

'17—Fred Climer is still helping to manipulate the wheels of industry at Goodyear.

'19—Fred Bender continues to enjoy the splendid isolation of the Philippines, and furthermore, is as uncommunicative as the Sphinx.

'20—Dick Riley is now football mentor at Fostoria High School.

'21—When last heard of, Bill Weber had entered the more productive business fields of Columbus.

'21—Gordon Crecraft spent the summer in Oxford. Cre is still teaching at Illinois.

'21—Doc Holtzmuller is studying medics at Cincinnati. He frequently hits the trail for Oxford.

'21—Larz Hammel drops in on the Chapter occasionally.

'22—Francis Cutright, barrister of no mean ability, spends not a few of his week-ends with us.

'22—Howard Milbourn is another industrious alumnus who labors within the confines of the Rubber City. Hap spent his vacation with us.

'22—Howard Laub occupies the official capacity of high school principal and coach at Arcanum.

'23—Sam Crouse is working in the old home town of West Alexandria.

'23—Earl Jackman has become an enterprising insurance agent of Hamilton. We see Jack frequently.

'23—Dick Jones is also studying medicine at Cincinnati, but he visits the old shelter frequently.

'23—Chuck Ward has taken Anderson's old job of surveying. We expect to welcome Chuck back into the fold the second semester.

GAMMA UPSILON

'24—Mose Kendall is back on the farm, but he still comes to see us.

'25—Ken Taylor is traveling the far western route for Edwards, Haldeman.

'25—Paul Spriggs is studying law at Ohio Northern.

'25—Harold Van Houten has disappeared into the east. Write us, Van, and relieve the suspense.

'26—Harry Potter has transferred to Indiana University. Another victim of feminine wiles.

Among the alumni of Gamma Upsilon who returned for Homecoming were Dick Riley, Dick Jones, Baldy Hammel, Bill Weber, Mose Kendall, Clyde Morner, Graham Taylor, Howard Laub, Francis Cutright, Doc Owens, Sam Crouse, Rollie Nye, and Leo Burke.

'17—Ralph St. John is back in school working for his master's degree. He drops around and says hello quite often.

'20—Everett Cowell holds the position of head coach at Ottawa University and from the looks of the scores he has one of the best football teams in the state.

'20—K. C. Charles has received a scholarship in the Joseph Medill School of Journalism at Northwestern University. Brother Casey is living at the Delt house in Evanston.

'22—Scotty Stewart is county agent in Ellis County, out where they grow the long beards. But Scotty says he likes it fine.

'22—Duke Houston is teaching and coaching in the Sherman Junior High School at Hutchinson.

'23—Chuck Lawrence is in the banking business at Madison, Kansas.

'23—Faval Foval is with the Long-Bell Lumber Company at Longview, Washington. We have had several good letters from Brother Fav. He likes his work but says he wishes he could be a little closer so that he could drop in on us once in a while.

'23—Art Jennings is with the General Electric Company at Easton, Pennsylvania.

'23—Ray Hahn is coaching the Norton, Kansas, High School.

'23—Vic Blackledge is in the advertising department of the Sheridan, Wyoming, Post-Enterprise. From the way he handled advertising in school we do not have any fear as to his making good.

'23—George Winters is farming with his father until the first of the year. Says he would rather shock corn than push a pencil for a while at least.

'23—Fred Lewis is selling Buicks and Cadillacs in Lake Forest, Illinois. Skipper was with us Homecoming and helped us sing. We miss that tenor voice.

GEORGE H. SISLER

Sisler Signs Contract to Pilot the Browns
Will Manage St. Louis Team for at Least One Year

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 21 (Associated Press).—George H. Sisler, who was adjudged the most valuable player in the American League in 1922 and who was unable to play his position at first base this year on account of eye trouble, has been appointed manager of the St. Louis Americans, according to an announcement by Bill Friel, business manager for the club.

In making the announcement Friel said that Sisler had signed a contract to manage the team, but that no details, such as salary or length of time, had been decided upon yet.

Sisler, who is reported on good authority to be recovering from the effects of sinus trouble, which impaired his vision last season, succeeds Jimmy Austin, who was appointed temporary manager after the release of Lee Fohl the latter part of the season just ended.

It was pointed out in sporting circles that Sisler by fixing his signature to a contract had agreed to pilot the team for at least one year, and that his future as manager depended upon the showing the club made next season.

Neither Friel nor Sisler would elaborate on this part of the announcement.

Sisler has a four year contract with the team, which he signed in 1921 and which still has another year to run, but it was stated that this contract in all probability would be superseded by the one under which he will manage the club.

Sisler will be one of the youngest managers in major league baseball. He is 30 years old, and came direct to the Browns from the University of Michigan about five years ago as a pitcher. His all round playing ability and heavy batting precluded his remaining a pitcher and he was stationed at first base, where he earned the honor of being one of the greatest initial cushion guardians in the history of the game.

In 1922, Sisler tied the high batting record of the American League, which was set by Ty Cobb of the Detroit Tigers, when he hung up an average of .420.—The New York Herald, October 22, 1923.

Congressman John L. Cable Announces His Candidacy for Republican Gubernatorial Nomination in Buckeye State

LIMA, OHIO, NOV. 20.—Formal announcement of the candidacy of Congressman John L. Cable of Lima for the Republican gubernatorial nomination next year has been made. Mr. Cable actually was a candidate nearly a year ago, but his latest announcement states positively that he will stand four square for the enforcement of the laws of the state and nation and that he will point to his record as a congressman and as prosecutor of Allen County as proof that he will support this pledge.

Extensions and amplifications of his platform will be made during his campaign. Northwestern Ohio has never had a more successful campaigner and vote getter than Cable.

He first hopped into the limelight when he was elected Prosecuting Attorney of Allen County, up to that time considered solidly Democratic. His feat was all the more remarkable in that it was the Wilson land-slide year of 1916 when Ohio's switch to the Democratic ranks swept Wilson into office.

He was re-elected in 1918 by a heavy majority and in 1920 was nominated for Congress over three opponents.

The crucial test of his political career came in 1922 when he was a candidate for re-election. No republican had ever before been twice elected to congress from this district. The betting odds were four to one against him and the Republican National Committee conceded his defeat.

In spite of these handicaps Cable made a wonderful campaign and surprised his opponents by a sweeping victory in which he was re-elected by a majority of 2,500 more votes than he received in his first campaign.

Cable's record in congress is one of outstanding ability. He was the author of the law granting independent citizenship to women which bears his name and has obtained recognition as an authority on the immigration question.

His campaign for the governorship nomination will not be permitted to interfere with his work as a congressman. He expects to devote the early part of the winter to framing an immigration bill which will truly restrict the entrance of undesirable aliens to the country. After that he will return to Ohio to take up the campaign for the nomination at the primaries next summer.

FRANK B. GOETTGE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 (Special Dispatch).—Lieut. Frank B. Goettge is the idol of the United States Marines and can command tonight as many Leathernecks as Major Gen. Lejune or President Coolidge. It was his individual slashing attack at the service gridiron classic this afternoon which sent the Devil Dogs of Quantico parading about the capital and the 3d Corps Doughboys slinking back to their cantonments.

It took every bit of the hour of play for Goettge to drive through his victory, but it came at the close of the last quarter, after it had seemed that the Army could itself adopt the mannerism of a bulldog every time its goal was threatened. By a series of dashes off tackle Goettge, aided by Corpl. Ryckman, the Marine right half, placed the ball on the Army 1-foot line and then tore through centre for the only touchdown. Ryckman kicked goal and the Marines triumphed, 7 to 0.

Goettge, captain of the Marine team, was a hero before the game started and was pronounced yesterday by Bill Roper "one of the greatest football players I have ever seen." He has played with Ohio University, the Second Division team in France, and snatched victory for the Marines over the Third Corps Area last year, but never did he reveal his power in the backfield better than today. Aided by Ryckman, whom the Marines brought all the way from China to play football, he turned an apparent defeat by the Army in the first period into a justly earned triumph.

Mrs. Coolidge, Secretary to the President Slep, and most of official Washington attended the contest, though President Coolidge was unable to leave the White House. Brig. Gen. Smedley M. Butler, Commandant of the Marine Expeditionary Force at Quantico, marched his detachments to the field after bringing them to Washington by truck. The game was witnessed by 35,000.—New York World, December 2, 1923.

Henning to Cross on American Ship

U. S. Official Attacks Bar's Plan to Use Britisher

The Sun Bureau, WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 21.—E. J. Henning, Assistant Secretary of Labor and a member of the American Bar Association, will go to London next summer to attend the sessions of the association, but he will travel on one of the Shipping Board vessels.

In a letter today to R. E. L. Saner, president of the Bar Association, Mr. Henning assails the decision of the association to charter a British vessel to carry the members to London.

"This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter," Mr. Henning wrote, "telling of the arrangements for going to London for a session of your association there in July, 1924. This is a praiseworthy undertaking and worthy of the leadership of the American Bar Association. I am planning to be there.

"However, as a good American citizen, who is trying to be an American, as our British cousins always are British, I regret that the arrangements for the party have been made with a British steamship company rather than with one of the vessels of the United States Shipping Board. Personally, I feel that I cannot accept the arrangements you have made and I will travel on one of our own ships. I am wondering whether or not you have made any arrangements at all with one of our own vessels for carrying those of us who, for the reasons stated, do not feel that they can travel with the official party."—New York Sun, December 21, 1923.

PHILIP S. VAN CISE

An Office to Tie to

Before this trial the community had already come to the conclusion, without reasoning it out on a blackboard, that it is a very good thing to have at hand an able, fearless, aggressive district attorney who has an instinctive hatred of crookedness in high and low places. This knowledge creates a feeling of safety. The massed opinion of the people of Denver is that if there is something crooked going on it will not be long before it is unearthed by Mr. Van Cise and those with him and imbued with his spirit of eternal warfare against evil. They are not likely to forget for a long time the uprooting of the confidence workers' trust in this community by the district attorney's office. Perhaps they do not know or have forgotten that as a prosecuting officer it was not his official duty to become a crusader and find his evidence. Strictly speaking the duty of this office is to submit to a court the evidence collected for him in wrong-doing.

When two local banks failed here some time back, the feeling took hold that, if there was crookedness inside or outside, the district attorney would find it and expose it. In one case which has been in court there was brought to light an almost unbelievable negligence that resulted in the extraction of an amount of money equal to almost half the capital stock of the bank. A conspiracy of those within and without was brought to light by the district attorney. A jury in the criminal division of the District court has found guilty as charged on seven counts the outside operator, the Machiavelli of the conspiracy. The two men inside the institution responsible for the looting, faced with the evidence collected, pleaded guilty and are serving terms in the penitentiary. There is a good deal of satisfaction, in this quick response and defeat of the law's delay on the part of the prosecuting officer, to the depositors and stockholders of the broken bank. In it all there is a guarantee to the public so long as Mr. Van Cise remains in office.

* * * *

Is it too early to speculate regarding the future of the district attorney's office and the one now in office? The office is a poorly-paying one and the present district attorney is dependent on the salary and has his future to look to. Because of these considerations it is not likely that he will be a candidate again. One that could be depended on to follow in his footsteps should be chosen by the greater public to succeed him. As for Mr. Van Cise, if he has an ambition outside of his profession, we are certain it will be given consideration by that same public which he has served so faithfully. Never mind the professional politicians—in such a case they count for little.—Rocky Mountain News, November 29, 1923.

The foregoing editorial appeared in the Rocky Mountain News on November 29, 1923, following the conviction of Maurice Mandell, the "boy broker" who got the $464,000 stolen from the Hibernia Bank and Trust Company of Denver last summer.

The CHAPTER ETERNAL

WILLIAM CLARK MARSH

The entire community was shocked today by the death of Dr. William C. Marsh, which occurred at four o'clock this morning at his residence, 303 East Erie Street, Albion, Michigan. He had been in his usual excellent health and his sudden passing is ascribed to heart trouble.

Dr. Marsh was sixty-seven years old. He was born in Springport, Michigan, July 15, 1866. His father was a physician for many years at Quincy, Michigan. It was there that Dr. W. C. Marsh received his early education. He then attended Albion College, graduating in the class of 1880. He entered the medical department of the University of Michigan, where he secured his degree of Doctor of Medicine. Practicing in Quincy for fifteen years, he moved to Albion about twenty-five years ago and had practiced here up to the time of his death.

Taking a prominent part in local affairs, Dr. Marsh had served as a member of the city council and a member of the city board of education. He was vice-president of the Commercial and Savings bank at the time of his death and was a member of the Presbyterian church and for many years one of the trustees.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from the activities of this life our beloved brother, William Clark Marsh, of the class of Eighteen Hundred and Eighty, and

WHEREAS, In the death of Brother Marsh, Epsilon Chapter and the Fraternity have lost a man of high honor and noble character, and in this loss our hearts go out in sympathy to his family and friends; be it

Resolved, That we, the members of Epsilon Chapter of Delta Tau Delta, attempt to express our sorrow over this loss, and our sincere sympathy with all who knew him; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this letter be sent to the family of the departed brother and a copy forwarded to THE RAINBOW for publication.
