Fifty-Day Zigzag or Slow Freighter Home

By Donald F. Ebright, Gamma Theta (Baker), '32

ON Saturday, March 28, 1942, our slow American freighter, twice reported sunk by the Japanese radio, arrived in New York City after a devious and dangerous fifty-day voyage between Bombay, India, and the United States. But let's return to India and see how this all began.

Our ship was caught in the Dutch East Indies when America entered the war and fled southward a day's sailing ahead of the bombing raids and attacks by Japanese parachute troops. A violent rainstorm and unseasonal fog near Java probably saved the ship. Thus the last passenger ship to leave the Far East reached India. Our five-year term ended in October, 1941, and we had made plans to return home for furlough. During November we sold our Fiat motor car, bicycles, ice box, typewriter, and shotgun; had stored books and household effects in tin-lined boxes; and given piles of accumulated stuff to the Scrap for Victory Committee. Trunks had been sent by freight to Bombay. We canceled bookings on a Dutch liner in order to get earlier sailings on an American liner in December. But events at Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941, knocked our plans sky-high. Remember? America was now in the war but we had been introduced to that when England declared war on Germany. We had rationing, gas shortage, black-out, troops movements, registration cards, postal censorship, and the entertainment of servicemen as our normal life for two years.

All sailings were canceled and we were instructed to stand by for further orders. But our goods were sold and our trunks in Bombay. So we camped for several weeks. I was not idle for the work continued and as Acting Chaplain to British Troops in our garrison there was much to be done. Just after Christmas our Methodist missionary colleagues from Malaya began to come to India seeking shelter and new

REV. DONALD F. EBRIGHT

Editor's Note: Readers will remember an interesting article this Delt gave us in the November, 1941, number, titled "No Black Umbrella." homes. They had been bombed out of Ipoh, Klang, Kuala, Lumpur, and Penang. Three Penang missionaries lived with us until we left. As they told us of the escape from Malaya under Japanese fire and the machine gunning of fleeing Malay civilians the war drew still nearer. I talked to people who arrived in India with two suitcases having lost their car, clothing, movie camera, library, household effects, wedding silver—the accumulation of a lifetime—but never complaining.

The TELEGRAM arrived one evening in January as we sat in our garden. January is our cold month and the flowers are at their loveliest. An American ship had slipped through the Japanese lines and was steaming toward India. "Probabil- ity sailing New York stop suggest arrange passports stop be ready stop advise earliest possible." The other telegram advised us to proceed to Calcutta. We eventually sailed from Bombay. We waited in the busy port city three weeks for the ship to arrive. We felt the war more than one thousand miles up country. Convoys came and went. Troops in war-kit were on the move. We rode in a taxi through a blacked-out city to a movie. It was not a thirty-minute trial but the real thing. We tried to read in rooms with black-out cones over lamps. One day the city was made merrier by over a thousand American sailors ashore from their ships transporting Canadian troops "somewhere." On another day the city was host to several hundred survivors of the Prince of Wales and Repulse. When the American sailors were in Bombay the chaplain brought thirty to the Mission Bungalow for tea. They were the first real American boys we had seen in over five years. We felt honored. They were great. But their language was terrific: "Hey, Joe, what's cookin'?" It was our introduction to the slang of 1942. We have tried valiantly ever since to get in the groove. . . .

We sailed without a convoy on an unarmed American freighter the 5th of February, 1942. The crew had installed a dummy wooden gun at Balikpapan but removed it in Bombay after considerable joking. As we zigzagged home the ship's radio brought unbelievable news—"Singapore had fallen"—"Japanese submarine shelled oil tanks off California coast"—"Batavia fell and Government to Australia." Our ship was crowded—179 passengers were in space for 80 people. Extra cots and beds were installed in small cabins for the children. Due to the scarcity of fresh water the ship's laundry was discontinued. Bath tubs were disconnected and showers were turned on three times daily. Black-out regulations were in effect from sunset to sunrise. No smoking was permitted on deck. Ports and windows were closed. Blue lights were installed in the cabins. It was so dark you could not read. Some passengers growled that it was too dark to play poker—they couldn't see the color of the chips.

The passenger list was as heterogeneous as a telephone directory. Sir Victor Sasson, "third richest man in the world," was heading west on private business. Six members of the Burma A.V.G. unit, who were in the flight command of the late "Scarsdale Jack" Newkirk, were homeward bound. American sailors from the bottled-up gunboat at Chungking were being transferred to Trinidad. T. A. Raman, London editor of the Hindustan Times, was being sent to America by the British government to interpret the Indian situation, so it was said. Then there were oil men from Sumatra, Burma Road trucking experts, diplomats, and newspaper correspondents sailing on the old gray freighter because it was the last passage out of India.

Our stop at Durban, South Africa, was a delight. Durban is an attractive modern-looking city. The people were friendly and wonderfully helpful to travelers. We rushed to the first 5 and 10 cent store we had seen in five years and bought some of those tremendous trifles we missed in India. The foamy chocolate ice-cream soda was so tall that Suzie, Pinky, and Judy with their amazing appetites could not reach the bottom. I had my first coca-cola in five years. It was good. We ate lunch in the famed Playhouse Grill and had the fluffiest golden yellow omlette a chef ever concocted. Here's to Durban, beautiful city of friendly folk, all-out for victory.

On the night of February 12 our blacked-out ship was zigzagging off the coast of South America in submarine-infested waters. Ships were being torpedoed all about us. The radio picked up frantic S.O.S. calls that could not be answered by a passenger-carrying merchantman in wartime. We pushed through the seas like a hunted animal trying with desperate zeal to save itself. Our once gay ship was now painted gray. The name was removed. The flags were in boxes. It was night and most of us were asleep. Suddenly the blast of the fog-horn and the wail of the siren to abandon ship shook us from sleep. I looked at my watch. It was 5:15 a.m. The freighter changed its course . . . the sirens wailed continuously . . . people hurried along the dark corridor. Hastily we followed our prearranged rules. We put on slacks and sweaters, dressed three sleepy girls, grabbed five life-preservers, and our tin box with dark glasses, medicine, and papers. We were on deck in just over five minutes. It was a tense moment as we looked through the dawn light and wondered whether the signal meant "abandon the ship" or "drill." Did the captain see a distant periscope? Was it a drill at dawn to test sleeping passengers? Only his charts, now with the Navy Department, will answer that question. But for us it was the real thing. We all thought the ship was lost. We know what it feels like to abandon possessions and flee with loved ones.

One of the big thrills of the voyage was the dramatic sight of two American patrol planes off the coast of South America. We were in the narrow channel between South America and Dakar. We knew that we were in dangerous water. Suddenly two planes hurtled toward us out of the sky. As the first plane dived toward our ship it spit out a rapid message through a "light gun." Our captain flashed back our identification. The two planes twice circled our ship and then sped off on their task of guarding America's waters. It was a welcome sight after weeks of anxiety. The eagles were flying high.

Nerves were tense as we neared the island of Trinidad and docked at Port-of-Spain for oil, water, and provisions. It was good to feel the earth after so many days at sea. The riot of color from hibiscus, Bougainvillea, and poinsettia made us think of our Indian garden. We spent the first day at the Queen's Park Hotel and had a dinner that made us forget the monotonous ship's cuisine. We tried to get Sue, Pink, and Judy to eat a double helping of spinach for they, as the other children, had boils resulting from the food. We took a motor trip through cocoa plantations and ended with the drive over the Saddle. Some of our passengers were fascinated with the expert bartenders who mixed cocktails, rum punches, and swizzles. They were so fascinated that they never left the bar. I was fascinated by what I saw in the city. Soldiers, jeeps, ships, planes, roads, and the Stars and Stripes. Uncle Sam had traded destroyers for a base on Trinidad. We saw with amazement what could be completed in less than a year. I saw jaunty jeeps tear over dusty roads and along sleepy streets. I saw the seaplane base with its hangars and concrete runway. I saw the neat green-painted screen-barracks for our soldiers. I talked with American labor foremen who were cutting a road through the jungle and building an inland air base that would feel the thud of landing bombers. (I am giving away no Army secrets. This was all stated in a recent article in a Chicago newspaper.) The Trinidadians call our post the "Gibraltar of the West." We left Trinidad basking under the sun and cooled by the Trade Winds. But we left with a feeling of satisfaction and security, for we had seen with our own eyes America's creative power. If every far-flung defense station is as prepared as Trinidad we can believe that our feet are on the long, hard, certain road to victory.

The twelve-day trip (peacetime run is five days) from Trinidad to New York was a nightmare. Ships were sunk in the Caribbean, along the North Atlantic and off the coast of New Jersey as we zigzagged our uncertain course home. Floating wreckage told the tale of doomed freighters. Oil patches gleamed with hideous sheen on blue waters. We carried life belts day and night. The last few nights before reaching New York harbor we did not either undress or go to bed. We sat wrapped in blankets on the deck chairs. On the fiftieth morning about 3:00 a.m. I saw the first lights of the New Jersey coast. We passed Ambrose light and ate breakfast as we passed by the Statue of Liberty. All passengers went into the Music Room and sang with tear-stained eyes, God Bless America. The ship's flags came out of the boxes and the Stars and Stripes flew high. Never did the flag look lovelier. We sat in the Prince George Hotel that night in semi-darkness forgetting that we were in a land where lights could be bright and undimmed. A visitor saying, "Why don't you turn on the lights?" made us realize that we were home. As we walked the streets of New York and went to services during Holy Week we saw that God had blessed America.

Why did we leave India? Our furlough was due and in the Methodist mission the work goes forward through war or peace. We are here for our furlough and will return to our work along the Ganges. What will happen if Japan attempts to invade India? She will be decisively defeated. I believe that the Indian Army will stand firm in the times of crisis. This army is composed of volunteers. There is no draft in India. The army numbers over 1,500,000 trained and equipped soldiers. They are mainly from the historic martial castes. They are Sikhs, Baluchis, Gurkhas, Panjabis, Dogras, and Pathans. I have seen these magnificent soldiers in many parts of India. India can well be proud of these men and we thankful that such troops stand shoulder to shoulder with the forces of the United Nations.

India is a mighty supply depot for the United Nations. Hundreds of articles are manufactured in India for the army. India is manufacturing cloth and making uniforms at the rate of five million a year. One North India leather factory of which I know is turning out eight thousand pairs of army boots daily. All over India factories and mills pour out a growing stream of war essentials. India will then be held not only because of the manufactured output, but because it is the pivotal defense point for Asia. Important routes to Russia and China cross in India. Yes, we may expect Japan to bomb Indian cities. Japan may attempt to land forces along the long sea coast. But a mighty army composed of British, American, Chinese, Indian, and other United Nation troops, stands behind tanks and guns, supported by a growing air force, united for victory and resolved to end unprovoked aggression. I predict that 1943 will see the United Nations using India as a base for the march that will take us over islands and land and sea to Tokyo.

There is political unrest and confusion in India. People are asking freedom for India. But let us remember that Britain has offered India full self-government after victory. The British Government has made no reservations. India will be free when the world is free of Hitler and his kind. And lest we only think of discontent, riots, and political prisoners, consider in addition to the Indian Army the Royal Indian Navy which has fought in the Java Sea and evacuated thousands of Indians from Burma. Then there are the thousands of Indian seamen serving with the Allies in merchant ships. Consider the squadrons of the Indian Air Force with its Indian personnel. There are thousands of Indian gentlemen who are serving the government and serving it well. Professor E. Ahmed Shah, Lucknow University, one of the two Christian professors in this great government university, made a statement which appeared in the Pioneer, India's leading newspaper:

"I feel that a large majority of my fellow Christians and my countrymen will not associate themselves with mass civil disobedience at this critical moment, but on the other hand intensify their efforts for the successful prosecution of the war, and having won it, gain freedom and independence for their country."

America needs India's aid in order to win the war. Our war industries need India's natural resources. The freighter we sailed home on was loaded with manganese ore. India is sending in place of Benares silk, Kashmir walnut carving, or Moradabad brass such materials as manganese, mica, pig iron, lac, jute, and burlap. Official ties between India and America have been strengthened. In August, 1941, Sir Shanmukham Chetty arrived in New York to head the Indian Purchasing Commission. Mr. Henry F. Grady headed the American Technical Mission to India in March, 1942.

Today I see India and America united for victory and after the war co-operating in the establishment of a world-wide federation of freedom-loving nations. A united India in a brotherhood of free nations will bring choice gifts from an ancient and ample cultural heritage for the common task of eradicating the forces that produce hate and breed war.

New Field Secretary

JOHN R. NELSON, JR.

John R. Nelson, Jr., Gamma Mu (Washington), '42, joined Delta Tau Delta's field secretarial staff in February. John's home is in Montborne, Washington. He was a delegate of his chapter at the White Sulphur Karnea in 1941, and he served as president of Gamma Mu during his senior year.

Interfraternity activities were of particular interest to him as an undergraduate.

John is enlisted in the Army Air Corps and at present he is scheduled to begin training in his chosen field, communications, in September, 1943. His father, John R. Nelson, Gamma Mu, '22, is a Lieutenant in the Army of the United States.

Presented at Eastern Division Conference

HENRY WADLEIGH MERRILL:

A devoted alumnus, he worked with the finances of his chapter through the house corporation for many years. He served as vice-president of the Eastern Division from 1932-37 and has been most active in the work of the Boston Alumni Chapter. Modest and competent, he is a valued member of the Fraternity.

Given under our seal, December 3, 1942.

HENRY MERRITT WRISTON:

An outstanding figure in the college and fraternity worlds, he served as Supervisor of Scholarship 1936-39 and gave unstintingly of his time as adviser of his chapter for many periods from 1914 to 1925. He was instrumental in the installation of Delta Nu Chapter during his tenure as President of Lawrence College. Loyal, enthusiastic, unselfish in his labors for Delta Tau Delta.

Given under our seal, December 3, 1942.

Feature of the Eastern Division Conference banquet at the Hotel Statler in Boston was the presentation of the Distinguished Service Chapter Citations to Henry M. Merrill, Gamma Gamma (Dartmouth), '13; Henry M. Wriston, Gamma Zeta (Wesleyan), '11; and Andrew E. Buchanan, Jr., Beta Lambda (Lehigh), '18, by Joel W. Reynolds, toastmaster, and a member of the Distinguished Service Chapter. Dr. Wriston and Mr. Buchanan were unable to attend and their citations were presented in absentia.

ANDREW EDWARD BUCHANAN, JR.:

Devoted and unwaveringly loyal to the interests of his chapter and the Fraternity, he served as President of the Eastern Division 1925-28 and Secretary of Alumni of the Fraternity 1928-31. In close touch with his chapter for more than two decades, he served as chapter adviser 1929-36 and at different periods prior to 1929. Distinguished for loyalty and unassuming service.

Given under our seal, December 3, 1942.

Delt Originates Plan to Make Technical Advisers Available to U. S.

IN 1940 Robert C. Brown, Jr., Beta Pi (Northwestern), '26, took a long and thoughtful view of the war throughout the world and began working with the idea of organizing a means for engineers and scientists to present a united front in making their services available to the country in the impending struggle. While vice-president of the Physics Club of Chicago, he organized a committee of the Club to do what could be done in orienting the thinking physicists toward war problems.

Wishing to expand its activities, in April of 1941, the group, under the leadership of Mr. Brown, organized the Associated Defense Committee of the Chicago Technical Societies, which effectively united into a single body all war activities of the major technical societies in the Chicago area. Each of the societies appointed a technical committee and the chairman of each committee became a member of the central committee, with Mr. Brown as chairman.

The organization proved so valuable that subsequently, in May, 1942, the War Production Board in Chicago requested Mr. Brown to set up in their offices a Technical Development Section in order to make further use of the group. He was appointed Consulting Director.

This new section of the WPB brought the committee into at least semi-official status, and it permits the steady flow of problems and ideas between government and industry.

The Associated Defense Committee is formed by the uniting of over seven thousand scientists, technologists, and production engineers in the Chicago area. Approximately twenty-five technical and engineering societies have voted to become co-operating societies and have appointed special technical committees to handle the highly specialized problems assigned to them by the central committee and to carry on the other war functions of the organization.

A working plan for complete co-operation with the War Production Board, the Chicago Ordnance District, and other governmental agencies is now in operation, as is, also, a plan for establishing a national organization to set up other Associated Defense Committees and co-ordinate their activities. The present organization carries on operations and performs many useful functions in conjunction with the Office of Scientific Research and Development, the War Department, the Navy, Office of Civilian Defense, National Inventors Council, and other governmental agencies.

Since the Associated Defense Committee of the Chicago Technical Societies was organized, it has been used as an experimental group to demonstrate what the technical societies can contribute to the war effort and, more particularly, how the technical brain power of the country can be mobilized for the war effort. It has received rather widespread publicity, not only in Chicago, but throughout the country, and other cities have formed similar groups.

In reporting on the organization of the Committee, the American Scientist states, in part:

"With the quick change from peacetime economy to an all-out war effort creating a myriad of technical problems, thousands of engineers and scientists are still begging to be told what to do to assist in the war program. The Associated Defense Committee organization answers the necessity for a proper liaison between governmental agencies and war contractors faced with technical problems and the local technologists who can give them the much needed aid and assistance. Numerous production problems, as well as other technical problems, are already being presented to the central clearing office of the Associated Defense Committee for consideration, solution, and action. Thus local engineers and scientists are being quickly mobilized into a gigantic technical field organization for effective assistance to governmental agencies and contractors.

"All appropriate problems submitted to the Associated Defense Committee are immediately dispatched to the proper technical society for consideration, investigation, and solution by its technical committee or by members of the society especially qualified to deal with the problem.

"Since the membership of the technical societies includes business executives and production men, as well as engineers and scientists, the Associated Defense Committee has a direct technical liaison with most of the industries in the Chicago metropolitan area. Such a liaison organization serves the dual purpose of an investigating field force for the various governmental agencies and, at the same time is able to seek out and give appropriate consideration to the many worthwhile suggestions and ideas that are to be

Head of A. T. & T. Finances Is Delt

By Cassius H. Watson, M.D., Omega (Pennsylvania), '01

Medical Director of American Telephone and Telegraph

GUIDING the finances of the world's largest corporation is a man-sized job and one which is well-filled by Charles P. Cooper, Beta Phi (Ohio State University), '07. In an unpretentious office at 195 Broadway, New York City, you will find him serving as Vice-President of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company in charge of that company's accounts and finances and certain branches of operating administration. In spite of the magnitude of his job with the telephone industry and his affiliation as Director of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, he still manages to be an active member of the Boards of The Presbyterian Hospital in the City of New York, the Neurological Institute of New York, and The Babies Hospital.

This ability to do many things well has been characteristic of Mr. Cooper since his college days. At that time he supported himself largely by his own efforts, won scholastic honors, and in his senior year served as class president. As a carry-over from that post, it has since been his privilege to appoint and work with the committees for all '07 Class Reunions and this arrangement has kept him closely in touch with his classmates and with his Alma Mater. It was with real pride that he accepted from his University in 1939 the honorary degree of Doctor of Science awarded to him because of his contribution to the country through his work in the telephone system and out of respect for the breadth of his interests and soundness of his judgment.

CHARLES P. COOPER

With the exception of his first year out of school when he taught Electrical Engineering and Mathematics in the New Hampshire State College, all of his working years have been with the Bell System, and as are most of its executives, he is up from the ranks. In 1908 he was employed by the New York Telephone Company as junior engineer. With this company he obtained considerable practical experience in the construction and equipment of telephone lines. His advancement with the New York Company was steady and he remained there until April, 1918, when he was transferred to Washington, D. C., to assist the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company in meeting the urgent needs for wartime expansion of telephone facilities in the national capital. Here he did an outstanding job and was promoted to the position of general plant superintendent which post he held until April, 1920. In April of that year he returned to his native state of Ohio as General Manager of the then Cleveland Telephone Company. When this company became the Ohio Bell Telephone Company, Mr. Cooper retained the position of General Manager, and upon the consolidation of the Ohio Bell and Ohio State Telephone companies, he became Vice-President and General Manager of the newly formed company, The Ohio Bell Telephone Company. Two years later, on November 27, 1923, Mr. Cooper was elected President of that company. He attained this position of distinction and responsibility at the age of 39, only 16 years after entering the Bell System. In 1926 Mr. Cooper resigned the presidency of The Ohio Bell Telephone Company and went to New York as Vice-President of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, which position he now holds.

Mr. Cooper's rise in the telephone industry has not been an Aladdin's lamp affair, but rather a record of hard work and achievement. He is a man of tremendous energy and works with assurance and precision. Innate honesty is characteristic and he is a great respecter of the other fellow's rights. He'll golf with you in anything short of a blizzard and he'll bet you a nickel he'll trim you at bridge—and watch out, because he probably will.

Prentiss Brown Becomes Price Administrator

(See Cover)

THE RAINBOW presents on the cover the man who has recently been assigned to head the Office of Price Administration, the toughest, most thankless job in the United States—Prentiss M. Brown, Epsilon (Albion), '11, and Beta Upsilon (Illinois), '14.

Instead of returning to his law practice and his 3,000 or so friends and neighbors in St. Ignace, Prentiss Brown will stay on in Washington as head of OPA, and tell 130,000,000 Americans what they are to eat and how much, and what they are to wear and buy and how much they must pay for it.

Last November Brown was defeated by a scant 15,000 votes for re-election to the United States Senate. He planned to go home, but, at Franklin Roosevelt's insistence, he succeeds Leon Henderson as price administrator.

Prentiss Brown's chief qualifications for his new job are a keen, efficient mind, bulldog courage, a great fund of common sense, and the ability to get along with people. He is a stocky man of medium height, 53 years old, with a round, friendly face. He dresses conservatively and he speaks quietly, but at different times he has successfully defied both the President of the United States and the most powerful lobby in Washington.

It is Brown's ability to get along with people, perhaps more than any other trait, that made the President insist that he succeed Leon Henderson as price administrator. The President knew that he was acceptable to Congress, an amiable man like Prentiss Brown is called for.

Mr. Brown is prouder of being a good family man than of any other achievement. As soon as he was admitted to the Michigan bar he married Marion Walker, also of St. Ignace, and they have since become the parents of seven children. Once Mr. Brown, campaigning in hostile Republican territory in the southern peninsula told the voters: "Long ago we Democrats of the north country tried hard to convert the Republicans. That wasn't successful, so we adopted another plan. Now we raise Democrats."

Prentiss Brown was born in St. Ignace and, except for interludes at college and Washington, has never lived anywhere else. The college was Albion, where he was an honor student and a football star. After that he returned home and started to read law in his father's office. Then he went to the University of Illinois for a year and affiliated with Beta Upsilon, but again returned to St. Ignace and was admitted to the bar in 1914.

That same year he was elected city attorney of St. Ignace, a job he held until he went to Washington as representative in 1933. But that wasn't his only public job. In 1915 he ran for county prosecutor of Mackinac County and held that job until 1927.

Meantime he was developing his private practice and becoming more and more important to the Democratic party of Michigan, a party which in normal times isn't important at all in Michigan. Five times he was Democratic state chairman. In 1924 he was a congressional candidate, but Michigan wasn't having any Democrats just then. In 1928 he stumped the state for Al Smith and was himself an equally unsuccessful candidate for the state supreme court.

But in 1933 the Democrats went in, and Prentiss Brown among them—to the House of Representatives.

He served two terms and then, in 1937, became senatorial candidate, running against Michigan's revered senior senator, Jim Couzens.

It was at Franklin Roosevelt's demand that Mr. Brown went into the primary, but his heart wasn't in it, for he was a good personal friend and admirer of Senator Couzens and had no desire for running against him, especially as Jim had publicly recanted the Republican way of life. But he was dutiful to the President's request, expecting to make a perfunctory campaign, take a licking and go home to St. Ignace.

But, unexpectedly, Wilbur Brucker, former Republican governor of Michigan, defeated Couzens in the Republican primary and Brown was not running against a friend. The Couzens family bought "vote for Brown" ads in the newspapers. He went into the campaign for all he was worth, stumped the state from lake to lake and end to end, both peninsulas, and he won by about 100,000 votes.

While he was campaigning, one of his sons got scarlet fever and the Brown home at St. Ignace was quarantined. After the election the quarantine still had three weeks to run. Brown was exhausted from the rigors of electioneering, but he knew how to get a good rest. He went home, announcing that he was sure he wouldn't be disturbed for at least three weeks.

The appointment of Prentiss M. Brown to head OPA was not questioned by Congress, which is recognition of his ability by his former colleagues. The 130 million people who will be controlled by his decisions have no envy for his position, yet probably will display little sympathy in their criticisms.

▼ AROUND THE FIREPLACE ▼

WITH GOOD DELTS

The First Thought

This short story originates at one of Uncle Sam's important training stations. A Delt who had just completed his training and was hastening from his quarters to catch a train to the next post was waiting at the curb with luggage and another soldier. All passing taxis were filled. A steaming "Lizzie," limping down the street, pulled up at the curb and its driver volunteered to carry the soldiers and luggage to the depot.

The luggage was in and, as the Delt looked for a spot to squeeze the torso for a ride, he recognized another Delt walking down the street in uniform. At the call, "Lieutenant ———," the younger officer turned and answered with a snappy salute. The first words of the passer-by after recognizing his old friend were, "Who is taking care of the Fraternity?"

This is typical of many notations made on correspondence received from men in the armed services. They have heard that chapter officers, the adviser, or the house corporation officer has been called into the service and they are interested in knowing who is handling these various responsibilities.

Minus Hysteria

Your attention is directed to the general tone of the letters from the undergraduate chapters appearing in this number. The trend is definitely toward a calm and constructive attitude in meeting the problems brought about by the war and particularly the drafting of 18 and 19-year-olds. There is no giving up of the fundamentals—no acceptance of a "don't care" attitude. You will find such statements as, "We may lose a good many men, but those who remain vow to keep the chapter together," or "No one knows what the future holds for the next two or three terms, but until the last man is called  $\Delta T \Delta$  will take an important part in campus life," or "It is hard on any fraternity to lose boys, but we must remember that we all must make sacrifices to preserve the democratic way of life. The college fraternity is certainly a leading example of the inherent freedom that we wish to preserve for our future brother Delt."

Where the Fraternity—in the War

Group life and association are but one of the privileges of democracy. Our boys are out there in scattered parts of the globe fighting for democracy and back here we regularly receive proof that frequent thought is given to the purpose through memories of that group life and association—the Fraternity.

One man—who is far from his home country—wrote almost in an apologetic tone that he could not assist in rushing this fall, but was looking forward to getting this thing "over soon so that those pleasant activities can be resumed."

Another, in a far outpost, stepped up the payment schedule on his undergraduate loan, so that someone else might have the benefit of the Undergraduate Loan Fund.

Another—many others, write asking that THE RAINBOW be sent if possible. If not, "Be sure to send it home, as Mother and Dad will enjoy it and save the copies for me."

Another wants to know how his chapter is getting along this year.

Another writes: "My experience in Delta Tau Delta has done much for me in preparing for officer assignments in military service."

Another says: "I will tell you that my good old Delt ring has brought me into contact with quite a few of the brothers over here. We meet at the damndest places and, unusual though these places are, we always manage to have a little celebration. The last time was a wow, but, of course, I cannot tell you the circumstances."

And so it goes—

Here on the home front the response is tremendous. President Hoffman has written all alumni a letter asking for volunteer support in the event present alumni advisers and corporation officers are called into the service. Why is the response so great? Because those on the home front seek to protect the make-up of democracy just as much as those in the battles of land, sea, and air.

There Is Only One Top Spot

Is it worthy of  $\Delta T \Delta$  to qualify her position on a campus?

We pass on to the undergraduate chapters this question and recommend it for discussion some night when you men, hemmed in by gas rationing and self-restricted social budgets, group around the fire for a session on problems of chapter, college, state, country, and world affairs.

The other day we received a self-congratulatory note from a chapter which read, "Hurray, we are first in scholarship . . . actually, we are third, but the first two don't count." The first two don't count! That undergraduate and that chapter are basing their reasoning on a false premise. Taken into other fields, for instance the world conflict of today, can we disqualify any group?

We wish to admonish that chapter (and any other with the same sort of philosophy) to set its sights for the top position, without qualification.  $\Delta T \Delta$  deserves no less.

There is plenty of opportunity here for discussion, and before the full scope of the question is considered, don't be surprised if you reach out into world affairs.

. . . that from these honored dead
we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave this last full measure of devotion.—Lincoln found in industry. In addition, some of the societies are holding regular defense problem symposiums on subjects such as priorities, substitutes, procurement of specialized equipment, location of technical research facilities, acquirement of production space, and perfection of wartime ideas."

Mr. Brown attended Northwestern University from 1922 through 1929, receiving his Bachelor of Science degree from the College of Engineering in 1926, his Juris Doctor degree from the School of Law in 1928, and his Master of Science degree from the graduate school in 1929. Since that time he has been practicing patent law in Chicago, starting work with the firm of Gillson, Mann & Cox in 1929, and becoming a partner in 1938 when the firm was reorganized under the name of Mann, Brown & Cox. His patent work takes him into many technical fields and for a number of years he has been active in the Physics Club of Chicago. It was through his activity in this club that he developed the Associated Defense Committee. His work with this committee and for the War Production Board has been gratis.

All-Delt Launching

The launching of the Gazelle at Savannah recently was an all-Delt affair. Commander McDaniel, former President of the Southern Division of Delta Tau Delta, is supervisor of shipbuilding of the Sixth Naval District with offices at Savannah. Miss McDaniel, his daughter, was sponsor of the minesweeper Gazelle, built at the plant of the Savannah Machine and Foundry Company, of which W. L. Mingle-dorff, Jr., is vice-president. The naval officers appearing in the photograph with Commander and Miss McDaniel are Commander McDaniel's assistants, and Mrs. E. L. Smith was matron of honor for Miss McDaniel at the launching.

EDWIN P. PARKER, JR., Gamma Eta (George Washington), '12, long in the Army, was recently promoted to a Major General.

Three Delts have been reported serving the American Red Cross: CYRIL H. COLLETT, Kappa (Hillsdale), '27, is a director connected with General Headquarters in Washington, D. C.; WADE A. RUTHERFORD, Gamma Rho (Oregon), '26, is field director, March Field, California; and J. MURRAY HAMILTON, Gamma Nu (Maine), '26, is an assistant field director, located in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Fraternity has adopted a program for sending packages to prisoners of war. Anyone having information about members who are interned by the enemy is asked to send it to the Central Office, 333 N. Pennsylvania St., Indianapolis, Ind., with the name of the parents and wife, if he is married.

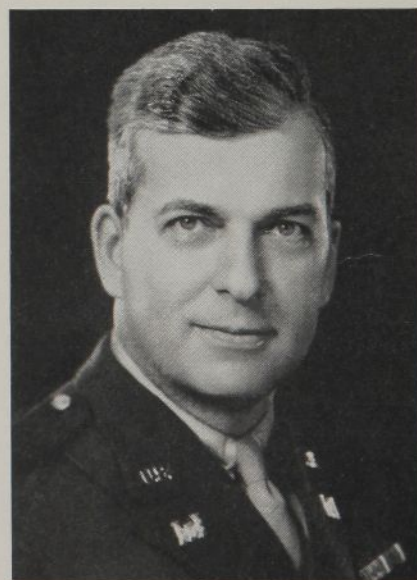

"I am safe at Manila. John."

This cablegram was relayed from Washington and received by the wife of MAJ. JOHN NEIGER, Beta Upsilon (Illinois), '33, at her home, 71112 Wydown Blvd., St. Louis, November 24. The cable came from Tokio and through the International Red Cross.

Later the War Department notified Mrs. Neiger that a list of names had been received and that Johnny is officially recognized as a prisoner of war held by the Japanese.

Nothing had been heard from Major Neiger since a letter written on March 2, before the fall of Bataan on April 11.

COL. GEORGE E. RAMEY, Beta Upsilon (Illinois), '11, is the A.E.F.'s strategist-in-chief in the campaign against the English winter, that five-month period of cold, dark, and rain that even the English cannot contemplate without wincing. As chief of the Army's special service division, in the European theater, the peacetime architect, who served with the engineers in France in the last war, is drafting welfare and entertainment plans that are to keep thousands of doughboys in a happy, healthy frame of mind.

COL. GEORGE RAMEY

FRANCIS G. SHAW, Gamma Nu (Maine), '24, of Bangor is leader of the 203rd Field Artillery Band which has won recognition throughout the South for its excellent work. This band has played throughout Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, North Carolina, Tennessee, and Oklahoma.

COL. ARCHELAUS L. HAMBLIN, Gamma Nu (Maine), '16, was one of a group that accompanied Major General Mark Wayne Clark on a daring undercover trip to French North Africa in preparation for the American invasion.

Reunion of brother Delts is always the best in fellowship, but it was decidedly so when CORP. W. L. MILLER, Delta Eta (Alabama), '40, and PVT. JAMES H. GIVLER, Beta Pi (Northwestern), '35, were both assigned to the Public Relations office at the Las Vegas Gunnery School and were on the scene to cover the appearance of the Camel Caravan for the post publication, The Horned Toad. Appearing with the service men's unit of the Camel Caravan was PINKY TOMLIN, Delta Alpha (Oklahoma), '32. He was master of ceremonies for the show which delighted the personnel of the field.

Delta Eta Chapter at Alabama, reports that JOHN M. LONG, '40, has been missing in action since last April. He was in Australia with the Army Air Corps.

★

LT. (J.G.) NEWELL VAN SICKLE, Beta Psi (Wabash), '40, has received commendation from the Navy Department for operation incident to the rescue of survivors from a ship in the Pacific.

CAPT. CHARLES A. BUCHER, JR., Gamma Sigma (Pittsburgh), '36, was first reported as a prisoner of war on Bataan, but is now reported as missing in action.

The promotion of GAYLORD CHURCH, Alpha (Allegheny), '07, to rank of Commander in the United States Navy has just been reported to the Fraternity.

Prisoners of War

ROBERT LEROY BROWNING, Beta Xi (Tulane), '42, is a Canadian prisoner of war at Camp Stalag VIII B, Germany. He was in the Dieppe raid.

MAJOR JOHN J. NEIGER, Beta Upsilon (Illinois), '33, was taken prisoner by the Japanese at Manila.

LT. GEORGE M. MOORE, Gamma Tau (Kansas), '37, is held by the Japanese as a prisoner of war in the Philippines.

The Army's silver star medal has been presented to LT. LLOYD E. KINDALL, Beta Kappa (Colorado), '43, of Oakland, California, for his part in a raid on a Japanese base in China last July, according to a delayed report from the headquarters of Brig. Gen. Craile Chennault in China. Kindall was one of 35 to get the silver star. According to General Chennault's report, Kindall piloted his medium bomber in an attack on the Nanchang air-drome, the flight of which he was a member knocking out six Japanese planes, damaging runways and gun installations.

ALBERT L. ALLEN, Beta Iota (Virginia), '42, was one of a class of eleven hundred Midshipmen to receive commissions from the U. S. Naval Reserve Midshipmen's School, New York City, December 2, 1942.

GEORGE O. GREGORY, Beta Iota (Virginia), '39, was graduated at the Army Air Forces Southeast Training Center, Marianna Army Air Field, Marianna, Florida, January 14, 1943, with commission of 2nd Lieutenant.

Reported as missing in action somewhere in the South Pacific is LT. RICHARD R. LEHR, Zeta (Western Reserve), '39. He was a bombardier on a Flying Fortress and was cited for gallantry in action at the battle of Midway.

A 1,400 mile Thanksgiving Day mercy flight to give an injured American fighter pilot more expert medical care was made in Lt. Gen. George C. Kenney's Flying Fortress. The bomber of the commander of the allied air forces in the southwest Pacific, piloted by CAPT. WILBUR BEEZLEY, Beta Tau (Nebraska), '38, Syracuse, Neb., with Lt. Judd R. Mason as co-pilot, flew from New Guinea to Australia to rush the pilot to a hospital. The crew members gave up any possibility of a Thanksgiving dinner to make the long flight, most of it over the sea. They started in such a hurry they forgot to take any food along; consequently, they were forced to dig into their emergency chocolate rations—which made up their Thanksgiving dinner. Capt. Beezley played a notable part in the Coral sea battle last May, piloting a Flying Fortress.

For the first time in history, the Army and Navy Production Award was presented to a construction project, when the Maxon Construction Company was awarded the coveted "E" as a symbol of its "outstanding wartime construction" efforts at the United States Naval Ammunition Depot, Burns City, Indiana. G. W. MAXON, Gamma Xi (Cincinnati), '09, president of the company, accepted the award.

Mulert Memorial Room

The Mulert Memorial Room at the University of Pittsburgh was dedicated December 21, 1942, in memory of Mrs. Louise Mulert, wife of Julius Mulert, and their son, FERDINAND M. MULERT, Gamma, (W. & J.), '12. Taking part in the dedication ceremony were CARL J. MULERT, Gamma Sigma (Pittsburgh), '22, and JUSTUS L. MULERT, Gamma Sigma (Pittsburgh), '25, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Mulert and brothers of Ferdinand.

The inscription under the crest in the room is as follows:

MULERT MEMORIAL ROOM

JUSTUS MULERT, A DISTINGUISHED
CITIZEN OF THIS COMMUNITY,
GAVE THIS ROOM IN LOVING MEMORY OF HIS WIFE,
LOUISE MULERT
AND HIS SON,
FERDINAND M. MULERT, TO ADVANCE THE GROWTH AND WELFARE OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

CHARLES R. "REGGIE" WILSON, Gamma Sigma (Pittsburgh), '26, was recently elected president of the Pittsburgh Hotels Association. He has been the manager of the Roosevelt Hotel since 1939.

PAUL G. HOFFMAN, Gamma Alpha (Chicago), '12, has been appointed a Class C director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago for the unexpired portion of a term ending December 31, 1943.

CARL H. BUTMAN, Gamma Gamma (Dartmouth), '09, Beta Omicron (Cornell), '10, and Gamma Eta (George Washington), '11, has been named a charter member of H. V. Kaltenborn's "Twenty-Year Club" (radio). He says: "I have been reading, writing, or 'arithmeticing' radio since 1922, when I started a Washington Radio News Service."

The merit citation of the Manufacturers' News as management's 1942 morale builder has been awarded to PAUL G. HOFFMAN, Gamma Alpha (Chicago), '12. The citation pointed out Mr. Hoffman's record in "war materials production, building morale for fighters, fostering a greater zeal among 16,000 Studebaker workers and maintaining constant interest in the welfare of his community."

made his debut in Mozart's Magic Flute in December with the Metropolitan Opera Company. One reviewer writes of it as follows:

"Mr. Melton warned us that he was not to be dismissed as 'a radio tenor' when he appeared as Pinkerton a year or so ago at the Center Theater. But Mozart is considerably more of a musical challenge than Puccini, and Mr. Melton survived it suprisingly well. Once he had passed the 'Bildniss' aria, in which he was inclined to force his voice, Mr. Melton seemed wholly at ease, and his singing shared that characteristic. The voice has its limitations of color, which inclines Mr. Melton to his one disagreeable trait—a habit of darkening it by throaty tension. Otherwise it sounded through the house very agreeably, with sufficient volume to top Mozart's discreet orchestra.

"It was easy to see that Mr. Melton had sound coaching in the part and has responded to it well. The ensembles did not trouble him, and he frequently made his entrance while facing away from the conductor, a sure indication that he knew the score thoroughly. To complete the catalogue of his assets, he dressed the part to excellent advantage."

HARRY C. LIBBY, Gamma Nu (Maine), '17, defeated five candidates in December to win a seat on Portland's (Maine) city council. Previous to this he had been a Portland municipal court judge and had served for two terms in the Maine Senate.

EPPA RIXEY, JR., Beta Iota (Virginia), '14, civic-minded former National League star, is chairman of the Y.M.C.A. campaigns in Cincinnati to collect usable second-hand athletic equipment for United Nations soldiers in prisoner-of-war camps. The campaign opened on Washington's birthday.

PAUL G. HOFFMAN

Time Magazine reports the establishment of the Committee for Economic Development, with PAUL G. HOFFMAN, Gamma Alpha (Chicago), '12, as chairman, as follows:

"During the dismal '30's, most of the high-powered thinking about the U. S. economy as a whole went on in Washington, D. C. Last week there occurred one more sign—Henry Kaiser's speech to N.A.M. was an earlier one (Time, Dec. 14)—that U. S. business is now resolving to do some national thinking on its own account. Formally announced was the "Committee for Economic Development," which believes that the U. S. must have as its goal the maintenance of post-war employment at some 55 millions, the maintenance of the national output of goods and services at between $135 and $150 billions—35 to 50 per cent above 1940.

"Chairman of the C.E.D. is quiet, persuasive Paul Gray Hoffman, president of Studebaker Corp., who is not only a master salesman but a student of U. S. political economy. Chairman of its important research committee is Ralph E. Flanders, president of Jones & Lamson Machine Co., flanked by Beardsley ("Pay-as-you-go") Ruml, chairman of the New York Federal Reserve Bank, and University of Chicago's top-flight economist, Theodore Otto Yntema (pronounced Iné temma), as fulltime director.

"Significant is C.E.D.'s highly decentralized 'grass-roots' approach. It proposes ultimately to establish up to 150 regional offices which will canvass local industry to find out how quickly it can convert from war work to peace; what is its top peacetime capacity; and how each firm plans to merchandise its products so as to create a mass market.

"Still left undefined is how C.E.D. proposes to cope with the two massive problems of the '30's: stimulation of private investment in the capital-goods industries; rigidity of prices and wages. Also left vague is how to enlist labor, which is not represented on C.E.D.'s board. But Paul Hoffman has started in the right direction: to get the goal of post-war employment out of the realm of Washington dreams down to hard-boiled business estimates."

CHARLES E. FENNER, Beta Xi (Tulane), '96, has been elected president of the Boston Club, one of New Orleans' most exclusive clubs.

BEN AMES WILLIAMS, Gamma Gamma (Dartmouth), '10, has written another best seller—Time of Peace—the Literary Guild book-of-the-month for December. A story built around the relation of a father and his son, it is also a historical novel of the decade that closed with Pearl Harbor.

WHEN THE WAR WILL END

*Absolute knowledge have I none,
But my aunt's washer-woman's sister's son
Heard a policeman on his beat
Say to a laborer in the street,
That he had a letter just last week,
Written out in the finest Greek,
From a Chinese coolie in Timbuctoo,
Who said the Negroes in Cuba knew
Of a colored man in a Texas town,
Who got it straight from a circus clown,
That a man in Klondike heard the news
From a gang of South American Jews,
About somebody in Borneo
Who heard a man who claimed to know
Of a swell society female fake,
Whose mother-in-law will undertake
To prove that her husband's sister's niece
Had stated today in a printed piece,
That she has a son who has a friend,
Who knows when the war is going to end!*

▼ THE DELT ALUMNI CHAPTERS ▼

Akron

The Akron Alumni Chapter concluded the 1942 program schedule with the annual meeting at the Akron City Club Wednesday evening, December 30.

Brother Al Kelley, Beta Phi, returned to the chair again after a serious illness to "sing" his "swan song" as president and preside at the meeting. Officers elected for 1943 were Bill Cooper, Beta, president; Geo. Andreas, Delta Beta, vice-president; and W. H. "Bid" Edmund, Beta, secretary-treasurer.

The chapter, after much discussion, voted to continue the regular monthly meeting plan on the fourth Wednesday evening of each month for the duration, concluding that it was a good thing for as many of the brothers to get together as possible, even though some sacrifices were necessary.

Bill McIlwain, Chi, has been appointed personnel director for the Akron Branch of the Quaker Oats Company, while Jim Fitch, Chi, T. E. Pittenger, Beta Phi, and C. D. Russell, Zeta, have been assigned the important and timely positions of Selective Service Co-ordinators in their respective companies, Good-year Aircraft Corporation, Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., and the B. F. Goodrich Co.

Our greetings to Δ T Δ everywhere.

W. H. "Bid" EDMUND

Atlanta

Fritz Roberts, president of the Atlanta Alumni Chapter, reports that the most active men in the chapter were the younger men and most of them have been called to the armed services. He states, however, that they are going to revive interest and will report further at an early date.

Boston

The Boston Alumni Chapter was host for the Eastern Division Conference banquet attended by approximately one hundred. Sixty-nine of the Boston alumni were present. Citations to the Distinguished Service Chapter were presented to Henry W. Merrill, Dr. Henry M. Wriston, and Andrew E. Buchanan.

JOEL W. REYNOLDS

Buffalo

As well as being president of the Buffalo Alumni Chapter, I now seem to have the duties of that of Secretary pressed upon me, since our former secretary, Denny Liles, Nu '30, has received a commission as a First Lieutenant in the Ordnance Department, and at present, is stationed at the Seneca Ordnance Depot at Canandaigua, New York.

In the past Denny has done all the work of the Buffalo chapter, and therefore, we as a group and I personally, are going to miss him, not only for his interest in the chapter affairs, but also for our association with him. We join as a group in wishing him the best of luck in the service.

The Buffalo chapter's main activity continues to be the regular Monday luncheon held at the University Club, but due to war work and gas rationing, our group of regulars has dwindled.

We can usually depend on seeing Harry Plummer, Gamma Gamma, '02, when he is not too busy designing a new war plant; Bill Abberger, Gamma Omicron, '14, when he is not out moving machinery; George Liles, Mu, '04, when he can get away from his cold storage plant; and Dr. Curtis Johnson, Alpha, '16, when he doesn't have a baby or two to deliver.

Walter Fissel, Beta Eta, '11, gets around as usual, particularly after Minnesota has won a football game (he missed a few luncheons this season).

All in all everybody here in Buffalo is kept pretty busy, but we are always glad to have any visiting Delts drop in at the big table on Monday at 12:30.

N. ROBERT WILSON

Chicago

Monday, December 28, the Chicago Alumni Association held its regular Christmas luncheon for actives and pledges home for the holidays. Also, there were present quite a few alumni, all of whom were interested in the brief remarks made by one boy from each chapter represented.

Herb Bartling, member of the Arch Chapter, as Alumni Secretary, gave some very interesting data on the problems confronted by the Arch Chapter today. Also, Herb emphasized the importance of close co-operation between alumni and active chapters being much more necessary during the war and post-war period. The luncheon was attended by actives from the following chapters:

Beta Kappa (University of Colorado), Gamma Beta (Illinois Tech), Delta Zeta (University of Florida), Gamma Phi (Amherst), Chi (Kenyon), Kappa (Hillsdale), Beta Eta (Minnesota), Gamma Pi (Iowa State), Delta Nu (Lawrence College), and Beta Pi (Northwestern).

STUART K. FOX

Clarksburg

Because of the holiday activities, our first meeting of the New Year was deferred until January 14, at the Waldo Hotel.

We have no new names to report as having joined the ranks of the Army or Navy. Home on leave is Brother Lt. George Post, assistant Judge Advocate of Scott Field, Ill. He also holds the position of Judge of the Summary Court of the same post. Stopping off from an Eastern business trip to spend a few days with his parents is Porter M. Jarvis, vice-president of Swift & Co., Chicago.

Returning from a business trip to Pittsburgh, Lewis M. Sutton, Jr.,

Hazel-Atlas Co.'s representative for the Northwest, spent a few hours with his parents en route to his home in Minneapolis.

Here's hoping that before another New Year rolls arounds, our country, as well as all our Allies, will be emerging from the serious catastrophe into which we have been plunged.

LEWIS M. SUTTON, SR.

Cleveland

The activities of the Cleveland Alumni Chapter have been limited to the Friday noon luncheon meetings and the publication of our monthly bulletin during the past few months. In view of the fact that our ranks have been gloriously depleted by the entrance of our members into the armed services of our country, we have not been able to maintain our usual tempo of chapter functions.

December 21 the actives of Zeta entertained Cleveland alumni with a Christmas party and banquet at the Shelter. The writer was honored to serve as toastmaster and had the pleasure of introducing such grand Deltas as Hopkins, Drs. Ruedy and J. J. Thomas, Ray Hyre, John Morrison, and Dr. Russ Griffin, who delivered very brief but inspiring talks. It was a great evening and further cemented the fine relationship between the Cleveland Alumni Chapter and those splendid lads at Zeta.

February 22 our annual banquet and election of officers will be held at the Alcazar Hotel. This is our most important traditional function. Since it may be the last "for the duration" our president, Gordon Nichols, plans to make it a really outstanding event. A committee composed of Ruhlman, Riley, MacGregor, and Barry has been named to handle the party.

It might be well to record just a sample of the difficulties an alumni chapter faces in trying to "carry on" during wartime. Harry Howland had been doing a swell job as treasurer. Suddenly he found himself in uniform. Jack Bartels was made the keeper of the wampum, but it was not long until the patriotic urge caught him, and he became an air corps officer candidate. Frank Moran was then placed in charge of the exchequer. Ten days later he was on the road to an army camp, and we were again left with no one to sign the checks. That's the type of minor difficulty that alumni chapters keep running into—but we'll get by and keep things going even if the boys in the bi-focal and bald-head class have to do all the work.

RANDALL M. RUHLMAN

Columbus

At the start of the new year, it is a pleasure to report that our undergraduate chapters continue in a strong position. This has been accomplished, in part, at least, by loyal alumni support. Our program for 1943 contemplates continued alumni activities along all lines—help in maintaining our American system of Liberal Arts Colleges, sympathetic attention to undergraduate problems, encouragement and support in every way possible of all men in the armed services of our country.

Plans are now under way for the Annual Founders Day Banquet, commemorating the birth of Delta Tau Delta in 1859, which will be celebrated in Columbus, Saturday, March 6, at the University Club. We already have the assurance of Beta Phi Chapter at Ohio State that it will attend in a body; Chi Chapter at Kenyon College has promised to send a large delegation, and Mu Chapter at Ohio Wesleyan can be depended upon for whole-hearted support.

With modest and simple ceremonies, Ohio State officials were sworn in at Columbus, Monday noon, January 11. Among the Deltas present and participating were Hon. Thomas J. Herbert (Western Reserve, '15) who started his third term as Attorney General of Ohio, and Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt (Wooster, '12), of the Supreme Court of Ohio, who administered the oath of office to the Governor.

PERSONALS

Evert E. Addison (Ohio State, '21), 8 East Long Street, Columbus, Ohio, was elected to the Ohio State Senate from the Tenth District, which includes Franklin and Pickaway counties. His vote was 63,100.

He previously served in the Ohio Legislature.

Walter S. Jackson (Kenyon, '03) of Lima, Ohio, was elected Judge of the Court of Appeals of the Third Ohio District, which includes Allen and a number of adjacent counties in the northwestern part of the State. His vote was 63,071. This is the first time Judge Jackson has been a candidate for office.

Judge Otis B. Core (Ohio Wesleyan, '24) of Washington C. H., Ohio, was elected Probate Judge of Fayette County. While unopposed, he received a substantial local vote of 3,515.

Thomas J. Herbert (Western Reserve, '15) of Columbus and Cleveland, was re-elected to the office of Attorney General of Ohio. This is the third consecutive term for Tom Herbert, which is a record in Ohio. His vote was 982,874.

Ed D. Schorr (Cincinnati, '16) of Cincinnati and Columbus, Chairman of the Ohio State Republican Central Committee, did very well for the entire ticket. The Republicans this year carried all the eighty-eight counties in Ohio except two.

Prof. John N. Hart (Ohio State, '31) is chief of the research division of the State Department of Taxation as well as a member of the faculty of the Department of Economics at Ohio State University. He has been making a number of speeches lately on the difficult subject of taxation. September 30 he addressed the Ohio League of Women's Voters at the annual conference held at the Deshler Wallick Hotel, Columbus.

DON VAN BUREN

Ft. Lauderdale

Lt. F. L. Rickard, U.S.N.R., writes from Miami, that Carl Weidling is taking over the secretaryship at Ft. Lauderdale for the duration. He states that the chapter is fairly well represented in the armed forces, and reports that Dr. H. J. Peavy is with the Army Medical Corps, and Phil Fairchild is in the Army. He is located at Miami, with the Seventh Naval District.

Fox River Valley

Our alumni organization in the Fox River Valley has been vastly depleted since the beginning of 1942. There are virtually no youngsters (ages 20 to 35) in our midst unless they are married, or have special war jobs. The oldsters (ages 35 to our oldest alumnus, about 75) prefer the cosy comfort of their firesides to the use of gasoline and tires in making social fraternity calls—perhaps that's as it should be. All that's left over from any endeavor should go into the war effort.

When we think back to our college days at Lawrence and other schools and we visualize our close friends of those days in khaki uniforms, in splendid white sailor outfits, or with the red and blue of the marine, boy, what our college days don't mean to us! Any contribution that the Fox River Valley alumni may make to THE RAINBOW, we would like to have it mean some little thing to our alumni of  $\Delta T \Delta$  who are in the Service. What lucky stiff we are to have a chance to be rooting for some of our best friends. It has always been a penalty of some few to sit on the sidelines while others play the games, but this fracas certainly makes that penalty manifold.

We would like to mention the following Lawrence alumni who are in the service: Fred Leech, '37, Coast Guard; Don Wilterding, '38, Army Air Forces; Norman Faleide, '39, Army Air Corps; Selden Spencer, '40, Lieutenant (j.g.); Fletcher Mulkey, '38, Army; Craig Hirst, '40, Army Air Corps; Joe Dossing, '40, Abbott Hall, Chicago, Ill.; Clark Nixon, '40, Great Lakes, Ill.; and, Tom Jacobs, '40, U. S. Coast Guard.

CLIFFORD BURTON

Kansas City

The Kansas City Alumni Chapter is holding forth as usual with its regular Thursday noon luncheons at Wachter's Pine Room. Last Thursday the heating plant failed to function and we were forced to wear our hats and overcoats to keep warm. Since the atmosphere compared very favorably with that of a crisp November day at a football game, the dyed-in-the-wool fans took advantage of the opportunity once more to revive the arguments over the games of the past season. The "heated discussion" that followed must have increased the room temperature by at least 5 or 10 degrees, for it wasn't long until everyone felt very comfortable.

After a hotly-contested election, the following men were elected to serve as our officers for the year 1943: W. R. Hausmann, Missouri, '26, president; Frank B. Siegrist, Baker, '15, vice-president; Paul A. Jordan, Missouri, '22, secretary; Francis R. Brodie, Missouri, '15, treasurer.

Congratulations are in order for L. T. (Tom) Greiner, Kansas, '28, over his appointment as one of the vice-presidents of the Western Division of the Fraternity. Tom is now with the Goodrich Tire and Rubber Co. making his headquarters here.

A little late, but we still hope in order are our "best wishes for much happiness" to Tracy Leonard who was recently married to Miss Ruth Hoelzel. Tracy was of the class of '29 at Kansas and is one of our "regulars."

At the election of officers of the Kansas City Alumni Association of the University of Missouri, honors went to two real Deltas, Roscoe C. Groves, '13, was elected vice-president and W. R. "Bill" Hornbuckle, '08, was chosen secretary for the fourteenth consecutive time.

A number of Deltas attended the recent ceremonies at which Martin B. Dickinson, Kansas, '28, was installed as Master of Country Club Lodge No. 66, A. F. & M. Martin is our representative on the Arch Chapter, serving as Supervisor of Scholarship.

Many of our members are now in active service with the armed forces and although we do not have complete information on all of them, we are particularly proud of the following from whom we have recently heard:

Wm. "Bill" French, Missouri, '31, is now a technical sergeant in the Signal Corps and is stationed at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey.

Lt. J. W. "Bill" Gilges, Missouri, '24, is in the Air Corps and is now in California.

2nd Lt. Ernest Whitney, Kansas State, '38, was recently commissioned at the Administrative Officers School at Fargo, N. D., and is now attending a Special School at Washington and Lee University.

Ensign "Tom" Carr, Kansas, '39, son of Charles L. Carr, Northwestern, '13, is now in active service with the Pacific fleet.

PAUL A. JORDAN

Los Angeles

Several of our recent luncheons have been converted into forums where prominent speakers discuss problems of the day. Captain Lambert of the French Army recently told us of his experiences as a German prisoner and how he got away and then became very active in the underground movement in France. He also told about France before the war, during the war and its collapse. His talk emphasized the necessity of forever disarming the Germans so that they will never be able again to start a world conflict.

One of our brethren, Dr. Leon Ellis, professor of history and head of the Foreign Relations Department at U. S. C., gave us some interesting background on the important families of Japan; many of us learned for the first time that the ruling family, of which Emperor Hirohito is the present head, is one of the minor families in the ruling group and that Hirohito is, and his predecessors were, nothing more than figureheads.

The forums resulted from a new policy adopted by President Earl Adams, by which a chairman designated for three months, presides at and arranges the meetings during that period. For the first three-month period, Ben McNeill has been the presiding officer and has done a splendid job.

Attendance at the luncheons has been very gratifying, notwithstanding the fact that many of those who heretofore regularly attended are now in the service.

M. PHILIP DAVIS

Miami

We salute the other active and alumni chapters of  $\Delta T \Delta$  throughout this great country of ours and wish to say that we too are doing our share to promote the war by working hard, sacrificing, buying bonds and doing whatever is necessary when called upon. Members of our alumni chapter are spread throughout the world now and our hearts and prayers are with them.

The man who has been a workhorse for the Miami chapter is Jack Horning and he is at Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio. His wife, Betty, and the three children remain here. Brother Irving Tutt is an Ensign in the Navy and is stationed at Chapel Hill, N. C. Brothers Bill and Ed Mitchell, Bill Jackson, Clyde Crabtree and many others are in the armed forces of our country and are doing their part. Brother Gordon Certain is in the air force and is stationed in Texas.

Brother Ted Buhler is the head of a large shipbuilding concern that is turning out ships for Uncle Sam in this area in a remarkable way and we understand his concern has been awarded the coveted "E" and it was well merited. Brother Bill Duncan has been made head coach of the famous Miami Edison High School "Red Raiders" football team and is doing a swell job. The old reliable Brother Jack Thompson is on about every important committee in Miami and is one of those on the Orange Bowl Committee which promotes the Orange Bowl each year and this year's game was a tremendous success with Alabama taking the measure of Boston College by the score of 37 to 21.

Our meetings are not regular due to the tremendous burden put on all of us by the war conditions. We did manage to have a banquet for rushees in the fall which turned out well. When this war is over and we can all settle down to normal lives we expect our chapter to pick up its active program again. The war may keep us apart but the Delt spirit will not die and we look forward to brighter, better days when there is international peace and good will among all men.

ELROY DECKER

New York

The New York alumni are continuing with their luncheon speakers from their own group who prove to be highly instructive and more than extraordinarily interesting. These luncheons are held every third Wednesday of the month at 12:30 at the Winthrop Hotel on Lexington Avenue at 47th Street. At our last luncheon Don Campbell, Colorado, '16, Eastern Sales Manager for the Wheelco Instruments Company gave us an interesting talk upon control devices for preventing explosions in furnaces and heating ovens. He brought with him demonstration equipment and showed how fuel oil to a furnace can be cut off in the event the fuel supply to a furnace is discontinued for any reason. Without the protective devices any continuance of the supply of fuel oil may create an explosive condition in the furnace or oven with disastrous results. One device operates with a photo-electric cell and is controlled by the light emitted within the furnace or oven. Another device which is of the electrode type works on the principle that electric current is transmitted through a flame and if the flame should be extinguished the control device operates to shut off the fuel supply. Brother Campbell showed how this device operated very effectively through a small flame.

At our next luncheon to be held January 20, Brother John D. Reifsnider, Kenyon, '00, is expected to be our speaker. He was General Manager of the Pacific Cable Co. in Japan. He has spent 35 years in Nippon and left only a few weeks before Pearl Harbor so that he knows the country and its people intimately. This talk, without doubt, will be interesting and cannot help but be most instructive.

Plans are being made for our Annual Founders Day Banquet to be held early in March. As soon as the arrangements are completed all Metropolitan New York Dels will receive a notice.

JOHN M. MONTSTREAM

Philadelphia

The Philadelphia alumni resumed their monthly luncheons in December by holding a meeting at Kugler's Restaurant. A representative group attended the meeting and several plans were considered for improving the luncheons. A most important decision was reached when it was decided to hold future meetings in a less palatial location which would better lend itself for our informal discussions. A suggestion was also made that a day other than Saturday be made our meeting day.

December 18 a special meeting was held at the Electrical Association dining room for the purpose of voting on the proposed change of date of the Karnea. Those attending the meeting were enthusiastic to voice an opinion in this matter and although notice of the meeting was short, there was a good turnout.

In January each year the Philadelphia alumni hold election of officers. The results of this year's election give us George Doyle (Penn State, '10), president; Howard A. Foster (Pennsylvania, '19), secretary; and, Charles C. Gray (Rensselaer, '33), treasurer. The retiring officers are Herbert Rader (Penn State, '09), president for the past year, and Charles C. Gray, secretary-treasurer for the last five years. The writer has enjoyed serving as secretary; however, the addition of another officer will be welcome assistance in handling the affairs of our association.

CHARLES C. GRAY

Pittsburgh

The main holiday activity of the Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter consisted of the annual church service with Dean N. R. H. Moor officiating. Approximately 250 Pittsburgh Dels were in attendance and this particular event has become the outstanding affair of the year. I think it took on a special significance this year, because of the approximate 100 Pittsburgh Dels now in the armed services.

Our regular luncheons have been changed to the H-Y-P Club—taking place each Tuesday. This move has greatly increased the attendance, which now averages 25 to 30.

The first record of any casualties among those in the armed forces took place within the past two weeks—George Boggs, Gamma Sigma, '31, was reported "killed in training camp in Florida." The others insofar as we are able to trace are reported in the best of condition.

St. Louis

Our regular Monday luncheons appear to have succumbed to the war conditions although we hope to maintain some organization and probably have less frequent meetings.

From brothers in the service we have had recent communications from Lt. Paul A. Johnson, Missouri, who writes that on his post they occasionally are favored with venison on the menu—and plenty of cold weather on tap.

Lt. Don S. Holt, USN (North Carolina), has finished training at Quonset Point and at last report was stationed in California.

Lt. George Seielstad, USA, Albion, writes from Edgewood Arsenal that he has been transferred to CWS and will be at Edgewood for a while.

We will be glad to hear from or of any Delts from this vicinity in the Service.

Will Beck, Lawrence, last reported ill has fully recovered and is back at work.

San Diego

Editor's Note: We regret to learn that the secretary of the San Diego

Alumni Chapter, Stuart N. Lake, is in the U. S. Naval hospital at San Diego and reports that he is unable to give us news for this issue.

Wilmington

The Wilmington Alumni Chapter held a dinner at the Hob, October 26, 1942, at which we had a fairly good number of members. Mr. Clarence A. Fulmer, principal of the Wilmington High School, was the guest speaker.

The Wilmington chapter is continuing the weekly luncheon meetings at the Hob on Mondays, but the press of war activities seems to seriously interfere with the attendance of most members so that, outside of a few "regulars," we do not have the number present we would like to have with us.

No social events for the chapter have been arranged for the winter so it would seem that a Founders Day meeting will possibly be the next event on the calendar, as the annual meeting and election of officers usually falls on that date.

Point Pleasant (W. Va.)

Since I have not been around Athens for a year and a half, I have sent no news of the Athens Alumni Chapter. I have been with the General Chemical Defense Corporation since March last. My position is employment supervisor. It was a strange coincidence, but the first man I hired for our company was a Delt, Don D. Smith, from West Virginia University. Don is now a supervisor in the Accounting Department. Some of the other  $\Delta T \Delta$ 's here are Ed Shuey, former football great at Pennsylvania, who is assistant purchasing agent; Augustus A. Caesar, supervising chemist from Tufts or Brown; Ben Duffy, supervising chemist from Tufts or M.I.T., I believe; Harold Gahn, Ohio U., is a guard; Jack Bishlock, Ohio U., was here in the capacity of a buyer in the Purchasing Department, but left to join the Navy; and, Ed Swanzey, of Brown, a supervising chemist, who left to join the Air Corps.

THE DELT CHAPTERS

Alpha—Allegheny

Alpha at the present moment is facing one of its greatest problems. Due to the lack of man power it has been on a poor financial basis; however, due to the fact that the school is allowing the Freshmen to move in, Alpha sees great hopes for a new future.

At the beginning of September the house was in excellent condition. A new roof was put on this summer, plus laying of a new carpet for the stairway, and the repainting of the interior of the house. This made rushing quite a success. We pledged nine men plus the holding over of two upperclass pledges. Looking at it from the man-power side of view, we did better than any other house on the campus. The pledges are excellent, industrious, and doing everything in their power to put Alpha back where it should be.

At the present time a large number of pledges and actives are in various branches of the enlisted services. We are losing, at semester's time, Charles Zimmerman, our efficient treasurer, Richard Hastie, who will attend Pitt Dental School, and Howard Troop, who will be called into the Army Air Corps in several months. Howard plans to work as a welder in some industry in Pittsburgh until he is called. Ted Sampson, our president, has been deferred until June to complete his education. Phil Coulter, our social chairman, and Robert Owen, vice-president, are in the Enlisted Reserve and are hoping to complete their courses this June.

Rushing, as far as the semester is concerned, will be rather lax because incoming Freshmen are scarce. However, there are a few men who are friends of the fellows in the House whom we hope to pledge the second semester providing they are good Delt material.

The Delt Development Program has been a great success. The pledges have learned practically all to be known during pledgeship and have shown great interest along these lines. At the present moment, initiation will take place about the first week in February and we are planning to initiate ten men.

We have learned that the school has received a bid from the United States Army to train three hundred men who are arriving in a few weeks. In the future there will be another group of men arriving which will cause quite a housing problem; this will enable the Freshmen to move into the house.

All in all, Alpha is looking forward to complete a successful year.

ROBERT OWEN

Beta—Ohio University

Beta is again well on its way towards achieving another one of its big years that have become so much of a habit here on the Ohio University campus. Its activities in all directions this year have done much to add to its prestige here on the campus.

Rushing was especially effective this fall, and Beta assembled a strong pledge class. Fred Heslop, pledge president, was chosen president of the newly-formed Interfraternity Pledge Council.

Socially the Deltas were right on top with their dances and parties of the fall semester. The Winter Formal was again a satire on college life as the Second Annual  $\Delta T \Delta$  College session. The dance was patterned after campus scenes, with the invitations in the form of college bulletins and campus scenes.

Other top social events were the pledge dance and Halloween party. The pledge dance was a "Selective Service Hop," and actives and dates were put through a "commando" obstacle course before they were admitted.

Bill Heinz, John Fekete, Joe Riccardi, and Jack Clark all earned letters as members of the Bobcat varsity football squad. Heinz and Fekete were picked as members of the United Press All-Ohio team, while that news association also chose Fekete as the back-of-the-year in Ohio.

Bill Heinz also serves as president of Varsity "O," while Bill Haselbach, Sophomore, is going very good in basketball and appears to be a certain letter-winner. John Stauffer is head varsity cheerleader.

Beta chapter placed three men out of eleven chosen from the campus for "J" Club, Junior men's honorary. Those picked were Joe Foster, Don Irons, and John Stauffer. Bill Heinz and Ed Umbarger are members of "Torch," Senior men's honorary.

Homer Dybvig, a pledge, has had the leading roles in two of the plays presented this fall by the University Playshop.

On the publications this fall the Deltas scored a grand slam when Joe Foster was chosen editor of the Post for the second semester and Rey Brune was picked as sports editor.

During the past few months, the chapter has received notice that Pat Patterson and Emerson, graduates of the chapter, have received citations for conspicuous service beyond the line of duty, as members of the armed service.

The death of Pupchen, Delt mascot, was mourned all over the campus. The only dog in Athens County that was half a dog high, and two dogs long, Pupchen was picked two years ago by National Collegiate Digest as the most educated dog in America. On campus he has been feted with banquets and dances held in his honor. He passed away during Christmas holidays following a case of gastric acidity.

REYNOLD W. BRUNE

Gamma—W. & J.

Although the war has seriously affected the status quo of Gamma in sundry ways, Gamma has tried to go ahead as usual. We started the year off well by pledging thirteen men, of whom two are Sophomores.

The annual pledge dance honoring the pledges followed in October in the George Washington Hotel.

On Founders Day and Homecoming, October 24, many grads came back to see the old Gamma Shelter. The front of the house was decorated for the week end thus helping to make it a gala occasion.

The evening of Sunday, December 6, found the whole chapter making its annual trip to Pittsburgh to attend the vesper services of Dean N. R. H. Moor in honor of the Delt chapters from W. and J., Pittsburgh, and Carnegie Tech. After the services, refreshments were served and everybody joined in singing Delt songs.

With regard to extracurricular activities, Gamma has been quite active. We had John Murray as editor-in-chief and Bob McFadden as assistant business manager of The Red and Black, school paper. Harry Butson was also on the business staff. The Pandora, annual yearbook, had John Vester and John Van Horne on its staff. Gamma led the other fraternities here in the number of elders in the College Church with Fred Wilson, Bob McFadden, Jim Locke, Alex Sherrard, and Harry Butson on the board.

In athletics, Del Paris was captain of the football team, which also was strengthened by Don Woidke and Walt Reese. Warren Ketler's leg was broken in scrimmage early in the season. John Van Horne was Freshman football manager.

In intramurals, we came close several times to winning first place, coming in second and third usually. Next semester it is going to be tough, since we lost several brothers at mid-year graduation who gave our teams a lot of impetus.

Fred Wilson, Bob Younkin, Del Paris, Craig Moore, and Gene Weimer are the brothers who graduated in December. Most of them will be or are already in the armed forces.

At the election of officers to take the places of those gone, Bob McFadden was voted to lead us through the next semester as president with Harry Butson as vice-president. Alex Sherrard was elected treasurer;

Ken Cushman, secretary; and John Vester, corresponding secretary.

At present we are making plans for initiation early in February. We hope to have many alumni back, as this initiation will probably be our last for the duration of the war.

JOHN W. VESTER

Epsilon—Albion

Facing a not too rosy future, Epsilon has come through the year thus far with things breaking right.

At the beginning of the semester we pledged 29 very good boys and in spite of the army situation we still have 27 pledges with us. Fourteen of these fellows will have been initiated at the time of this publication and this will greatly aid our active chapter.

Athletically Epsilon again came through with flying colors. Our football team, backed by a peppy rooting section, again won the interfraternity football championship to retire the cup for us. At the close of the season we placed five fellows on the all interfraternity football team. The chapter has also been well represented on the varsity squad this year. All four of the blocking backs were Delts, Millis Peet, George Linn, Bob Mohr, and Bill Finni, and our president, Bruce Stevens, again starred for the school. Bob Sparling, Tom Thomsen, and Don Sherman also gave their all for Alma Mater. Basketball is just getting under way so not much has been decided there as yet although Epsilon is sure to give the other teams a run for the championship. Delt Paul Meli is again sinking buckets for the college varsity.

Personal citations have come to Gordon Clucas, newly elected president of the College "A" Club, and Bruce Stevens, who has been chosen for representation in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Several much-needed improvements have been made around the Shelter. New linoleum, which was a gift from one of the fathers, has been laid in the halls, and new equipment for the kitchen has been purchased. New additions have been made to the living room furniture as well as new tables in the dining room.

Although this year is a difficult one for college men, Epsilon is doing all that it can to further the things that it stands for.

F. MORSE NEIL

Kappa—Hillsdale

Although the chapter's activities have been slightly curtailed because of the demands made on her members by wartime duties, Kappa is carrying on in the fashion approved by a country at war.

With the male population of the college steadily dropping due to the call of the armed forces, the group of men to be pledged was perforce smaller than in previous years; however, of the twelve in the pledge group, four are scholarship winners and three others have enviable prep school athletic records.

Our chapter has been comparatively fortunate in that only five of its active members have been called into service and that the entire remaining group is in a reserve of one type or another. With these men as a nucleus, and with the pledge group very well fitted to step into active status, Kappa's worries concerning the future of the chapter are at present very slight.

In the realm of athletics, our president, Burr Manby, had an enviable record in football as he made the all-conference team for the second consecutive year at the fullback slot, was chosen as the most valuable man on the squad, and was elected captain of the team for 1943.

In this he is following the lead of his brother Bob, Kappa, '42, who was also president of the chapter, an all-conference selection for three years, and captain of the team. Burr has also succeeded his brother in many other campus offices, among them being two class presidencies and the presidency of the Interfraternity Council.

Brown Pettit was also a letter-winner in football and three of Kappa's pledges were numeral winners.

The touch football team was forced to be satisfied with second place in the intramural league, but at present our basketball team is battling for first place, with an excellent chance of copping the pennant.

Another fact of which Kappa is particularly proud is that in February the mortgage now carried on the Shelter will be retired, making our chapter the only one on campus to own its own house. For the celebration to be held in honor of this event, Willfred O. Mauck, ex-president of Hillsdale College, and former Supervisor of Scholarship for Delta Tau Delta, has promised to leave his government duties long enough to add his presence to that of the many alums expected to return.

NED HAVENS

Mu—Ohio Wesleyan

Mu begins the second year of war with still a strong chapter, thanks to the various armed service reserve corps. What the next semester will bring forth, however, is yet to be seen. There are rumors and there are rumors, but it does appear that several of the brothers will be called to active service.

With a successful rushing season culminated in the pledging of sixteen fellows, Mu got off to a good start. The use of The Delt Development Program showed its worth as a pledge-training system and much of this credit is due to Brother Rahn who really did a bang-up job. Due to gathering clouds of call from school for the armed services, the pledge class, to a man, was initiated December 14.

In the field of athletics, Mu has contributed her share. Art Doak, Jack Quinn, John Knapp, John Secrest and Bob Matthews made us right proud of them on the gridiron last fall. Also in fall sports was pledge George Kuestner who paced the Freshman class and placed second in the University in the open intramural cross-country run. In basketball it is our efficient intramural manager, Bob Millbourne, who represents Mu. Behind these fellows in the field of athletics were our managers. Art McElfish was senior football manager assisted by staff managers, Bob Cook, Gordy Newell, Bob Kurtz, and Roy Wisinger.

In other phases of student activity we have John Secrest as president of the Junior class. "Prexy"

Norm Scrimshaw is president of Omicron Delta Kappa and secretary of Delta Sigma Rho, debate honorary. In Phi Mu Alpha is Ron Tollafield, Bob Rahn, Jack Frieg, and Roger Turrell. Tollie also is in Theta Alpha Phi in addition to being kept pretty busy as house manager. Brother Rahn is president of the Y.M.C.A.

In the University marching band this year were Drum Major Bob Thompson, Bob Bruce, Ron Tollafield, and Roger Turrell. In the a cappella choir are Grady Lynch, Jack Frieg, Doug Funsett, and Don Geyer. Providing plenty of solid stuff to the campus dance band are Bob Sinclair, Ez Luessen, Bob Bruce and Roger Turrell.

All the Deltas and all their dates are still talking about the swell Christmas Formal we held December 12. We had one of the toughest bands in central Ohio, the house was beautifully decorated, and all in all it was really one smooth affair. Out hats are off to Social Chairman Jim Hader who planned the affair as well as other various and sundry occasions when good Deltas and their dates got together.

Yes, along with all other organizations, Mu expects to be hard hit during the coming year but we have managed before and we have the will and determination to carry on again.

ART MCELFISH

Omicron—Iowa

Omicron opened its fall season with the pledging of nine Freshmen. Chapter losses to the services have been remarkably small so far, and the return of a former active has enabled Omicron to start the year with a full house.

In athletics Omicron will be well represented this year. Gene Curran played left guard on the varsity football team and Roger Kane was a Sophomore tackle. Kane also garnered an interfraternity wrestling championship certificate, heavyweight class, for the House last spring. Howie Wicke, Freshman numeral winner of last season, is expected to have a berth with the varsity swimming squad this year. Bob Kenworthy, who sports Frosh track numerals, will be going after a varsity position this year.

Omicron initiated the social activities for the season with a hayride and picnic. The annual informal Fall Frolic was presented in October. For the Thanksgiving holiday there was a formal dinner-dance at the chapter house.

Walt Beggs, '46, was busy snapping pictures for the campus humor magazine, Frivol, while Dick Anderson blew his horn with the University band.

Uncle Sam has "pledged" five of the brothers of last year. John Buzard, '42, is now a Naval Air Corps trainee, and Bob Cullison, '42, is with the "walkin' Army," as is Bob Bunz, '44. Bob Asprey, '44, is building a road for Uncle Sam in Alaska. John Krabbenhoft, '44, is now a fighting Marine.

Omicron has entertained several of the brothers who are now in Iowa City at the Naval Pre-Flight School. Cadets Jim Rude, Emory, Cal Hutchinson, Miami, and Clark Jennings, Pennsylvania, have been frequent visitors at the house on week ends.

That's about all, except to say that we of Omicron are looking forward to one of the best years that Delta Tau Delta has ever had at Iowa.

DICK ANDERSON

Rho—Stevens

The new season began with pledging. The fall initiation came next on our calendar.

The formal fall pledging period, set aside for Freshman pledging, was our next event during which six men were pledged.

Following this pledging period was a Freshman welcome party, which introduced our new social season. This was followed by a series of house parties given in conjunction with school dances.

The year 1942 was brought to a close with a Christmas party held at the house. There were exchange gifts among the members and the Freshmen gave two plays for the enjoyment of the brothers and the visiting alumni.

The Annual Delt Formal is to be held, as last year, in conjunction with the Theta Xi Fraternity. Plans are being made to hold it at the Hotel Astor on February 13.

DAVID J. RESCH

Tau—Penn State

Tau will surely feel the loss of its members who either graduate or who find it necessary to leave due to a call by the Army, Navy or Air Corps. Having lost twelve men in these many ways we of Tau are finding it necessary to have a rushing season of our own and we have been having outstanding success in this field. In spite of the fact that we will miss the services done us by the graduating seniors, we are also fortunate in that we have a strong, but depleted, group of initiates and a very capable set of officers to take over their work. Sixteen new men were initiated last year and contributed greatly to the chapter's campus record.

Scholarship has not been neglected in our House this past year. In spite of the fact that our House was in the lower fourth of the campus fraternities scholarship roll, we managed through the utmost in co-operation of the members to pull up to the first fourth amongst our competitors. Undoubtedly the best record was compiled by last semester's Junior class which took campus honors for scholarship in that class. Although we had no men place on the Dean's List, we had eight fellows who missed by only .15. With co-operation like this we cannot fail to come to the fore.

Tau cannot be omitted from the school athletic program. Bill Pritchard was a star in the scoring department on our varsity soccer team. Reid McCloskey was a member of the varsity football squad which had such a successful season. We also have had eleven men out for other varsity positions in the winter sports program.

Among the managers in the house we had Allen Bollinger as the manager of wrestling and John Csaklos was the manager of the swimming team. We also had Larry Doyle as an assistant in soccer and Pete Lohmann as an assistant in lacrosse.

After the recent elections we had Barrett Heckler as our new president, Frank Gryska as vice-president, Robert Keiser as corresponding secretary and Robert Barbour as recording secretary. Frank Ali was elected the president of the pledge class.

Tau was well represented in the campus honoraries. Jack Whitlinger was honored with Delta Sigma Pi, honorary for business students; Bill Lahner, our treasurer, was elected to Phi Delta Phi, law honorary; Allen Bollinger and John Csaklos were elected to the Blue Key; Hank Phirman was elected to Druids.

Among the men who participated in activities which were outside of the sports line we had Joe Surace who was pianist in a campus band and who also sang in the college choir; John Csaklos also sang in the college choir along with the Glee Club; Bill Lahner, Don Probert and Jack Whitlinger are all members of the advanced R.O.T.C. unit at Penn State. Harry Locke was a member of the Interfraternity Council.

Tau has just passed through a profitable but trying year in the annals of the chapter and is looking forward to more successful semesters if it is at all possible.

PAUL A. METZ, JR.

Upsilon—Rensselaer

The seniors at Upsilon graduated from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute on December 23, 1942, so as we start 1943, we have about fifteen of our pledges living at the Shelter. These pledges along with five or six others will soon be initiated.

In the fall we elected new house officers. They are Hollis Haltom, president; William Baker, vice-president; Robert Strohecker, treasurer; and Lindsay Collins, corresponding secretary.

Also in the fall Baker was elected by popular vote at the college as president of the Rensselaer Union, the student government at our college. Baker, along with John Cooper, was "tapped" for Phalanx, the senior honor society. Baker is also a member of Tau Beta Pi.

Not only are our members doing well on the campus, but also our pledges. Robert O'Neil won the Sax prize for impromptu speaking. James Duke was second, and John Durgin was a runner-up.

In the line of sports our boys did fine. Baker and Robert Peck won their letters for varsity football while William Peace did the same for varsity soccer. Collins and Robert Campbell won their numerals for varsity soccer while Pledge Tom Davis did the same for varsity football. Other pledges who won numerals for Freshman sports were Jim Duke, William Coleman, Robert Calvin, and John Hamilton.

For the next seasons Hollis Haltom was elected manager for varsity tennis while John Cooper was elected for varsity football.

Upsilon now stands third out of 20 fraternities in the half-completed sports contest for the Barker Trophy. Campbell is our excellent house sports chairman.

We have three members in Phi Delta Epsilon, journalistic society; two on the senior board of the yearbook; three on the senior board of radio station WHAZ; and three in Alpha Psi Omega, national college dramatic society.

Among the graduating seniors there was Jack Arnold who was elected to membership of Sigma Xi, national honorary engineering society. Also there was Norbert Kirchgessner, who was elected as an associate member to the above-mentioned Sigma Xi.

We of Upsilon are trying to carry on as usual.

LINDSAY COLLINS

Chi—Kenyon

Starting off last October with football, Chi has stood foremost on the campus in intramural events. We took our league without losing a single game out of five starts. Upon the close of the football season, we repeated by taking the championship of the school in volleyball.

Chi is now on the verge of entering the basketball season, and despite the loss of several last year's Freshmen to the varsity, we are plunging in with our hopes high.

It is the hope of every Chi man to repeat last year's triumph by retaining the Intramural Cup given at the end of each academic year to the fraternity standing foremost on a percentage scale over all intramural events.

Chi initiated the men who were pledged in the summer and fall, December 12. This initiation was the first in which some of the initiates had only ten scholastic credit hours. These pledges were initiated early because of the war situation and because several of them were about to be called by the armed services.

We were fortunate to have several alumni and other prominent Delts present at the ceremony. There were two fathers of initiates, and one of an active. The President of the Northern Division, Clem Frank, and Brother Van Buren of the Columbus Alumni Chapter were present. Both gave valuable words of advice to the chapter pertaining to the days which lay ahead.

This year Chi's roll of honor is outstanding. In December Ken Knopf graduated from Kenyon with summa cum laude honors and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. We have the president of the College Assembly in ex-Chi president, Ken Dalby, and also the presidencies of the Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman classes; Bill Lane, Don Knapp, and Brayt Lincoln in these capacities.

Besides these signal honors several of Chi's men are members of the College Literary societies, Nu Pi Kappa and Philomethesian. At recent meetings Doug Meldrum and Bill Hull were elected to Philo and N.P.K., respectively.

For the past four years, Chi has had virtual control of every publication at Kenyon. We now have the business manager of both the college magazine, and the college newspaper. We boast the editor of the Hika, the literary publication, and the editor of the Kenyon College yearbook, Revellia. We have eight men on the staff of Hika, and three on the newspaper, the Collegian. All in all, we are extremely interested and take an active part in every phase of literary endeavors at Kenyon.

Chi was well represented in Kenyon football this past season. Six starting berths were filled by Delts, and five other Delts were members of the squad, two of whom saw enough action to receive their letters. Sophomores Morgan, Knapp, and Vail; Juniors Lane and Ross; and Senior Herrick were the six starters. Captain Paul Herrick, leading his team to four victories and two defeats, and Don Ross led the Kenyon offensive. Herrick was a constant threat because of his great passing and punting ability; he had a punting average of fifty yards. Halfback Ross handled the brunt of the running assignments. Knapp and Vail were outstanding on defense. The new Freshman rule which allowed Freshmen to play enabled first-year men Graves and Lincoln to win their "K's." Freshmen Maritz, Cook, and Peterson were members of the squad. Maritz was awarded the Kenyon Sportsmanship Trophy.

Chi placed four men on the basketball squad this year. Bob Davis, one of the four returning lettermen to the squad, is playing center. David Cannon, star of last year's Freshmen team, is holding down one of the guard positions. Earl Peterson and Jim Graves, two promising Freshmen, complete the Chi foursome.

CHI'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE ARMED FORCES

Chi Chapter's enrollment in the armed forces of the Allies, in both active and reserve status, is little short of unanimous. Twenty-seven men, recently actives at Kenyon, are now either seeing active service, undergoing basic or advance training, or completing their college work as reserves, awaiting call to active duty.

Jim Logan, former Chi President, is now an Ensign in the U.S.N.R.; Bob Weaver, recently president also, is a 2nd Lieut. in Canada's Army; Gil Collyer is a corporal in the same army; Ben Roselle, current prexy of Chi, is eagerly awaiting active duty call in the Marines; John Goldsmith, former Chi vice-president, is an Ensign in the Naval Supply Corps; Bob and Don Hoffman, sons of our national President, are respectively enlisted in the Army's Signal Corps and Coast Artillery; Ken Dalby, Paul Herrick, and Bill Lane are finishing their college work prior to Deck Officer Training in the U.S.N.R. The Army Enlisted Reserves will some day boast the active enrollment of Brethren Don Knapp, Bud Southard, Brayt Lincoln, Dave Cannon, and Doug Meldrum; Andy Morgan is receiving mail at Camp Perry; Donal Ross is a 2nd Lieut. in the Army Medical Corps. The Naval Reserve V-1 program lays claim to the talents of Sparky Vail, Jim Grantham, Herb Long, Bob Davis, Lloyd Maritz, Ed Broadhurst, Jim Graves, Bob Miller, and Jack Shepherd.

JAMES GRANTHAM, JR.

Omega—Pennsylvania

The Delts made a great deal of noise each Saturday of the football season. Bob Lowd is manager of the band and seven others are members. Also down on the field was diminutive cheerleader, Ed Hoffman.

The script for this year's Mask and Wig show, Paoli Local, was written by Rai Senior. Rai, as Aunt Blossom Lily, was the star of the show. Bob Brumbaugh was in the glee club chorus and several specialties.

"Hank" Peele was goal tender on the varsity soccer team.

This year the emphasis has been on informality in our social events. However, the big event of the fall was the formal dance after the Navy-Penn football game. Since we had school the week between Christmas and New Year's Day, it was possible to have a swell dinner-dance at the house on New Year's Eve. At every function at the Shelter, the ingenious motifs of Rai Senior's decorations committee added much to the evening's success.

Rushing at Pennsylvania was limited to the two weeks after Thanksgiving. Rushing chairman, Bob Lowd, and his committee proved their worth by the results of our rushing season. Sixteen fine fellows from Maine to Indiana were pledged.

Because of the accelerated program of the University, all but one of our seniors will graduate in February. Thus, it was necessary to hold elections during this fall term. The new president is Ed Hoffman from Old Greenwich, Connecticut. John Cooley from White Plains, New York, is vice-president, and Bob Braunworth from Stamford, Connecticut, is recording secretary. Ned Cathcart of Lakewood, Ohio, is Omega's corresponding secretary, and also is pledge master of the new class. Bill Stewart is treasurer and Johnny Van Cott is his assistant.

Beta Alpha—Indiana

Beta Alpha started the second year of the war in good shape. The boys were able to enjoy the vacation more than usual this year for they had completed their finals and finished their semester during the last week of school before Christmas. The new semester started out with active rush, which shows every indication of being successful. The new pledges include Jim Schneider, Liberty Center, Indiana; John Carmack, Indianapolis; Foster Reuss, Lebanon; and Al Chulay, East Chicago, Indiana.

Along with the new pledges, we welcome to the Shelter five transfer students from other chapters. These are: Ed Svetanoff and Jim Weatherholt from Beta Beta, Jim Bopp from Pi, Hugh Thornburg from Beta Zeta, and Howdy Davis from Phi. With the aid of the new affiliates, the chapter adopted an organization different than that used in the past semesters. Under the leadership of new officers, John Galanatti, president; Jim Weatherholt, vice-president; John Anderson, corresponding secretary, and Bob Knight, treasurer, the program started rolling as soon as the semester began.

The social committee under Bill Fraser has scheduled the winter formal for the second week in February. Beta Alpha is among the first of the fraternities in intramurals, having won the code-ball championship last semester. Pat Ronzone heads our intramurals this semester.

Many of the fellows have answered Uncle Sam's call to the armed forces during the last semester. Jim McDaniel, Steve Jarvis, and John Curtis have enlisted in the Army Air Corps. Bill McCullough is now in the Mechanized Cavalry, and Dick Retterer in a seaman first class at Memphis, Tenn. Our former president is in Officers Training School. Art Baron, newly initiated, left for the army early in January.

Even though many have gone to the armed forces, Beta Alpha at Indiana is looking forward to a very successful 1943.

JOHN R. ANDERSON

Beta Beta—DePauw

A retrospective view of Beta Beta's activities in 1942-43's first semester finds the men of DePauw's Delta Shelter carrying on from the flying start they got in fall rush—when the chapter emerged with one of the campus' largest pledge classes.

Athletically, we hovered right near top position as our speedball team took second in league play; this boosted our intramural standing on its way to the present third-place niche. The Senior class turned out very nearly en masse for football. Five out of these six men had never donned uniforms for the varsity squad, yet they all survived "cuts" and showed up well in play. The sixth—big, veteran John Long—had been bolstering the DePauw backfield for the past three years, and John finished another hard-played and well-fought season. This large turnout of players with no college experience uncovered excellent performance at end position by Dick Fillbrandt. Dick was our rush chairman and pledge trainer, played all-state football in high school. At present, Brothers Tom Sturm, Dean Dooley, and Fillbrandt are holding down important positions on the DePauw basketball team. Third-year men Dooley and Fillbrandt are regular men in the starting line-up.

The Sophomore class kept up their good work in scholarship—the same good work that gave them second-place standing in last year's Freshman scholastic competition.

Prexy Bob Glass walked away with the lead in Busman's Holiday, which was presented by the DePauw Little Theater for Dad's Day. In other activities, Beta Beta placed two men in the local campus writing honorary, two men in Sigma Delta Chi, and one in Alpha Delta Sigma—advertising fraternity. Many Deltas responded to the newly-formed Student Radio Guild's cry for talent—placing one man, Bill Hadley, on the executive committee as script director and many others in program participation. Leroy Lacey and Sandy Charters gained positions as junior editors of The Mirage—student yearbook.

Unique socially was the Delt faculty dinner wherein fourteen DePauw professors let their hair down and enjoyed a stag dinner, complete with jokes and tall stories that proved they were just "some of the boys" at heart.

Inasmuch as many members are in reserves, Beta Beta looks forward to the spring semester anticipating another successful five months. Our contribution to the armed forces via the draft has been Howard Parrish, '42; Horace Hadley, '45; and Bob Hatch, '44. We are making an effort to keep up Delta Tau Delta's high traditions in scholarship, athletics, and activities as our contribution to America's war effort that our men may go into the services better equipped to serve their country in the present global conflict, in the reconstruction that is to follow, and in the peace that is to result.

DON J. OWEN

Beta Gamma—Wisconsin

Beta Gamma, after having its active chapter cut in half by graduation and the draft, started out the new year with fair success. The pledge class was boosted to thirty-one members and five were initiated. The chapter was boosted by the affiliation of Ted Kennedy, Beta Psi, who is taking graduate work in the School of Speech.

Beta Gamma started out the year with an entirely new administration staff. Jim Jude was elected president; Allen Everitt, vice-president; Bob Reisinger, secretary; Ted Kennedy, treasurer; Hugh Gibson, corresponding secretary; Hale Wagner, assistant treasurer.

The boys made fine showings in the intramural sports, but were unable to come through with any first trophies. Incidentally the trophy collection was diminished to a few when the chapter co-operated with the all-fraternity scrap trophy drive.

Beta Gamma had another rousing social semester with many informal parties and a Christmas Formal. An annual "Spook" party went off with much success. Members and guests had to crawl in through a basement window and pass over a "commando" course before they were able to reach the party rooms.

Delt Eddie Saltz's Band had a successful year and will play along with Gene Krupa at Junior Prom this year.

Frank Davies received his appointment to West Point and now is in training there. Bill Skye, last-year graduate, is now a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps and is stationed in Iceland. Gene Kuehlthau and Fred Reynolds are in midshipman school in New York. Charles Yerkes is in a meteorological school in Chicago.

The chapter hopes that with its quality and quantity of men now present we will be able to keep going through the war crisis.

JAMES M. JUDE

Beta Delta—Georgia

Beta Delta enjoyed a very successful rush season this fall despite the great decrease in enrollment at the University of Georgia. The rushing was ably assisted by our very popular new housemother, Mrs. Seymour, and by the fact that we had moved to a new house which was a great improvement over our previous location.

Gene Gledhill is ably serving as our president. Gene, who plays a sour trumpet in the Georgia Bulldogs swing band, has proved himself to be a far better president than a musician. Other officers of the chapter are: vice-president, Douglas Thornton; treasurer, Osgood Bateman; recording secretary, Julian Miller; corresponding secretary, Bill Keith. Paul Perry serves as president of the pledge class and as athletic director. Gledhill and Keith are Interfraternity Council representatives.

The fall social season was highlighted by the Homecoming celebration. We had the pleasure of entertaining Delt brothers from Gamma Psi, who departed very dejectedly after Tech's crushing defeat at the hands of the Rose Bowl Bulldogs. A large buffet supper was our chief contribution to the social festivities of the week-end.

Beta Delta's scholarship for the fall quarter was excellent. Although the final standings haven't as yet been released, Beta Delta will certainly be among the first three with a splendid chance of being first among the seventeen fraternities on the campus. Edwards, Thornton, and Keith all had 90 averages. Our fraternity average was five whole points above the all-campus average.

This year, we hold our usual high place in regard to campus activities despite the fact that we do not have a single fourth-year man in the House. We are especially strong in regard to publications, music activities, and leadership organizations. Our "big shots" are led by Walter "Bip" Edwards, the pride of Jacksonville, Fla. "Bip," besides possessing a 94 average, is secretary-treasurer of Blue Key, vice-president of Phi Eta Sigma, secretary-treasurer of the International Relations Club, Student Director of the Little Symphony Orchestra, and holds membership in the Glee Club, Gamma Sigma Upsilon honorary chemistry fraternity, the football band, the Georgia Bulldogs, and the military band. Bill Keith, our journalistic genius, is a member of the International Relations Club, Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, acts in the University Theater productions, and serves as assistant news editor of the Red and Black. Bill is also publicity representative for the University Theater, the Georgia Bulldogs, and the Glee Club. Douglas Thornton is president of the International Relations Club, retiring president of Junior Cabinet, Battalion Sgt.-Major in the R.O.T.C., and a member of Biftad and Phi Eta Sigma, honorary societies, and the Little Symphony orchestra. Osgood Bateman is a member of the Glee Club, International Relations Club, Saddle and Sirloin Club, and Demosthenian debating society. Boone Byron Boggs, the rejuvenated Yankee from Illinois, is assistant business manager of the Red and Black, on the Pandora staff, on the varsity rifle team, and was recently elected to Junior Cabinet because of his outstanding work in the Sophomore class. Julian Miller is on the track team and a member of the International Relations Club.

Bobby Tanner, Vernon Gillis, Ralph Durr, and A. C. Pitts left school at the end of the fall quarter to enter the armed forces. Perry and Thornton expect to be called to duty in March with the Enlisted Reserve. It is hard on any fraternity to lose boys, but we must remember that we all must make sacrifices to preserve the democratic way of life. The college fraternity is certainly a leading example of the inherent freedom that we wish to preserve for our future brother Delts.

BILL KEITH

Beta Epsilon—Emory

With the winter social season coming up Beta Epsilon is looking forward to the annual winter formal to be held this year at the Piedmont Driving Club, January 29. The Senior banquet is being combined with the formal since the Seniors who went to school last summer will be graduated in March instead of June. Social functions last quarter included house dances, picnics, a hike to paradise (when the gas got low), the annual Halloween party, and were climaxed by the traditional Christmas party at which time the chapter played host to six underprivileged children with a visit from Santa.

Social functions galore have not made scholarship take a bow, for even with the Christmas party the week end of exams the chapter ended the fifth consecutive quarter in first place.

The coming of the intramural basketball season promises to give the athletes a chance to bring our average up from fifth place in the league. After finishing poorly in football the chapter team did much better in tennis.

The chapter house got some improvements just before rush week. Grass planted—Delts panted; house painted—all fainted.

And speaking of rush week, we ended up with ten men which is sufficient for the needs at present.

The winning of two cups at Emory's annual Parents' Day made it one of the most successful for the Delts in recent years. One cup was for the best stunt in interfraternity competition and the other was for the largest attendance of both students and parents at the banquet. The stunt, suggested by the pledge class and written by Ed Campbell, was a burlesque on army medical examination for induction. During the day parents went to class with their sons, ate lunch at the house, saw a football game in the afternoon and attended the banquet that night.

Extracurricular activities have not been slighted by other interests and "key-chasers" are kept jumping to the tune of "Jingle, Jangle, Jingle." Justus Gower, former president of the chapter, did an excellent piece of work as chairman of Parents' Day Program. He is president of the Student Lecture Association and chairman of the Interfraternity Council. Justus has originated the first two-bit formal, which will be held this month. Carl Stipe is vice-president of the revived Emory Players and also president of the IRC. Gray Fountain has been on the Wheel staff for two years and is a prominent member of the ECA, being one of the supervisors for the Freshman ECA. Carleton Powell has been active in church work and is on the ECA Council also. He is a member of the Junior Board of Stewards, Chairman of the Community Service and Forum Committees. Carleton is a member of the IRC. President Adair Moore now holds two high positions on publications—assistant managing editor of the Wheel and associate editor of the Phoenix. He is publicity chairman of the Emory Players and a member of the IRC. Adair was recently elected to Sigma Delta Chi.

GRAY FOUNTAIN

Beta Zeta—Butler

Beta Zeta started off to what promised to be a very successful year. Only twenty actives returned this year, but these were supplemented by twenty-four good pledges. Since the start of school the active chapter has lost two members and the pledge class has dropped to nineteen.

We started the year's activities off with a bang by winning the Homecoming decorations. A 45-foot submarine was constructed which was expelling a torpedo to sink the DePauw Tiger marooned in a rowboat. A large banner hung from the housetop with the words, "Sighted Tiger, Sank Same." Our decoration was planned and supervised by Brothers Bob Pitcher and Joe Cantwell.

Beta Zeta has also gained the recognition of being the best singing group on the campus this year. Several impressive serenades, under the guidance of Brother Bill Wildman, have been given.

The Deltas went ahead in their usual manner to win the Collegian Christmas Cheer Drive. This is the collection of any articles which can help a needy family. It is almost a tradition with the chapter to win this worthy contest.

There is plenty of spirit and fight in the chapter, and unless college reserves are called this next semester we will have an outstanding year.

ROBERT WILDMAN

Beta Eta—Minnesota

Though Beta Eta didn't win any trophies this fall in the intramurals, everybody had a good time trying. In touchball we worked ourselves up to division champs. In the semifinals, however, our traditional rivals, Alpha Delta Phi, trounced us, eliminating us. In basketball we got off to a good start by defeating the above-mentioned Alpha Deltas, only to be beaten the next week by a team from the Navy electricians' training school on the campus.

Some of the twenty-two men from Beta Eta who enlisted in the Golden Gopher Squadron last spring are back from the Iowa City Pre-Flight School to Minneapolis for their preliminary flight training; as they drop over to the house every once in a while we do have some chance to see them. Jim Rude, last year's prexy of Beta Eta, is among these hearty lads. A pledge of last year, Jim Horst, has just been commissioned a lieutenant in the Army Air Force.

This fall was really good to Beta Eta. This year, though expense was kept at a minimum, there were the usual fraternity and sorority decorations at Homecoming. We were lucky enough to capture first place in this event. The winning design was thought up by Glenn Carlson, a transfer student from Delta Zeta Chapter. Later this fall, during campus elections, Bob Larsen was elected Senior class president, which puts an added feather in our cap.

A wager was made with the Michigan Deltas on the outcome of the Michigan-Minnesota football game; the prize to be a brown jug, and is to go back and forth each year just as its original namesake. As you all know, Minnesota won. The Iowa Deltas were also unwise enough to offer a bet with us, this time on the Iowa-Minnesota football game and for a sheepskin. Again Minnesota won. Luckily, we didn't bet with Illinois, Indiana, or Wisconsin.

Some really fine parties have been held by Beta Eta this fall, all but one being held at the Shelter. Our first party was Homecoming, October 24, and was held at a ballroom in the neighboring village of St. Paul. Needless to say, it was a very successful party. November 28, the Shelter was thrown open for a costume party featuring surrealism as the theme. The Shelter was appropriately decorated and a good time was had by all. Several record dances were held in the house after football and basketball games, in addition to the other parties.

Beta Eta started off the fall quarter with thirty-three men and added eight during the quarter. This letter is being written during the winter formal rush period, which is the big rush of the year. Our prospects for this rush are good enough so that we are confident that we will be able to remain open as long, if not longer, than any of the other twenty-five fraternities on the campus.

JAMES GEBHARD.

Beta Iota—Virginia

Every few days Beta Iota is having the war brought closer home. An alumnus of the Class of 1941, who recently saw action with the Marines in the Pacific, came back for a brief visit. E. H. Clay Goss is a member of the Army Pack Artillery. Albert Allen, of the Class of '42, recently received his Ensign commission in the Navy. Robert Murray has completed his pre-flight training and is now receiving his flight instruction in St. Louis, Mo. Newell Woodworth was recently called into the Army Air Corps. The remaining active brothers are all in one of the reserve corps of either the Navy, Army or Marines.

As usual, Beta Iota continues to be well represented in the various sports of the University. Last fall Bob Godfrey earned himself a place on the varsity tennis team by his fine play during fall practice. Victor Salvatore was a member of one of the best soccer teams that Virginia has produced in recent years. This term the chapter's three fine varsity swimmers find themselves placed in "dry dock" for the duration, as the University has abandoned this sport due to transportation difficulties. Arch Ogden, captain and mainstay of the team; Mark Hannan, captain of last year's Freshman squad; and Hal Tufty, ace backstroker, will have to do their splashing in the bathtub until after the war. Sam Graham, however, finds that the college still has a basketball team on which he can complete his varsity career of playing.

Walt McClelland continued adding to his ever-growing list of honors by being elected to the P. K. dance society and Raven, honorary scholastic and extracurricular society. Brothers Salvatore, McDonald, and Hannan were elected to Lambda Pi honorary society. Arch Ogden was taken into the "V" Club, a society comprised of men who have won major varsity letters. John Gordon was elected to Alpha Kappa Psi, national honorary economic fraternity. Brother McClelland was also recently elected secretary of the University Center, the social organization sponsored by the University. Victor Salvatore was re-elected secretary of the University Field Club, another University-sponsored organization.

In the Medical School, Brothers Camp and Gallagher were elected respectively to Calcanon and Nu Sigma Nu, professional fraternities.

Beta Iota continued its monopoly of the officerships of the new Twelve Squared Society when at a recent meeting Lloyd Curtiss was elected president, Ed Tierney, vice-president, and Victor Salvatore, secretary. Due to his fine work in extracurricular activities, Bob Godfrey was taken into this society.

In spite of the dark outlook that confronts all fraternities for the next college year, Beta Iota intends to continue its high standards in all phases of college life until the end of the school year. Beta Iota realizes full well that now more than ever before the Delt spirit must be shown to the utmost.

VICTOR SALVATORE, JR.

Beta Kappa—Colorado

Beta Kappa pledged a class of thirty-two. In quantity this ranks us second on the campus, first in quality.

Beta Kappa's Klondike once again was a pace-setter in the University's social world. The recreation room was furnished and decorated like an old-fashioned barroom, where Delts and their guests quenched their thirst with punch.

Also prominent on the Delt social calendar were a number of successful radio dances. The pledge class made a hit at sorority exchange dinners with a "slap-happy" can-can. Man, what a leg show!

Celebrating Homecoming at Colorado, 125 alumni and friends dined at a buffet supper at the house after Colorado's only conference football defeat by Utah.

"Colorful" Carle Stearns, Big Seven all-conference back, was Beta Kappa's outstanding contribution to this season's great Buffalo eleven. On the traveling squad were Square Badgers Bill Bradley, Gordon Bundgaard, and Ray Hayes.

Beta Kappa's touchball team was eliminated in the semi-finals only after a hard season. The Delts finished second in intramural volleyball and ranked high in the annual swimming meet.

Chet Riley and Keith Miller were on the basketball squad previous to the cancellation of all inter-collegiate sports at Colorado. They are now bolstering the Delt intramural cage team.

Among Beta Kappa's B.M.O.C.'s on the Colorado campus last quarter were: Mal Crawford, business manager of the Dodo, C. U.'s humor magazine; Bob Wehrli, vice-president of Scimitar, Sophomore men's honorary; and Lenny Tripp, circulation manager of the Silver and Gold.

Initiation is anxiously awaited by the pledges. John Falkenburg and Keith Miller will be honored in a special initiation by an alumni team from the Denver Alumni Chapter. This practice was instituted last year, and the two pledges with the highest grades are initiated by this team.

KEITH MILLER AND DICK MERRILL.

Beta Lambda—Lehigh

Beta Lambda had a successful rushing season this fall, pledging ten men, some of whom have become active on the campus. The Freshman pledges had what was judged as one of the best five out of twenty-nine skits at the traditional pajama parade before the Lehigh-Lafayette game. Dick Elliott, pledged last January, was initiated early in December.

On our return to school this fall we found that the house had been redecorated this summer through the efforts of Jim Eppes, our chapter adviser, and Jim Morris, our vice-president. These improvements were put to good use for dances, house parties, and Homecoming. Just before Thanksgiving the chapter held a dinner and party for eleven underprivileged children from the town. It was a success, and difficult to decide whether the children or the undergraduates had the better time.

Since many of the officers elected last February were here this summer, and will graduate in the near future, it was necessary to choose temporary officers to act until the regular elections in March. Officers elected were Hugh Boyd, vice-president; Marty Taylor, treasurer; Mike Barrett, sergeant-at-arms; and Paul Franz, assistant treasurer.

The House seems still to be on top as far as campus activities are concerned. Beta Lambda won the house decoration cup at alumni Homecoming week end, chiefly because of Phil Powers' work. The whole House helped make a Dad's Day luncheon a success. The idea for the student-government-sponsored luncheon began with Bob Whipple, president of the House, and of the student council, and Al Garland, our chef, carried out the culinary arrangements.

Bob Whipple was one of Lehigh's twenty seniors and accelerated juniors selected to appear in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Recently Scabbard and Blade, military honorary society, made Mike Barrett a member, while Phil Powers and Hugh Boyd were

GRACE HALL

"Bill Binder Night"

Because of Bill's ability as a player and because of his outstanding record at Lehigh University as a basketball player, the Athletic Department has set this night aside as "Bill Binder Night."

Not only because of his record or his ability to play all around basketball but also because of his outstanding qualities of leadership his name will go down in Lehigh athletic history and will serve as an incentive to future basketball players. Lehigh is proud to honor Bill tonight.

HIS RECORD IS AS FOLLOWS:

	Games Played	Points Scored	Average Per Game
Freshman year .....	8	134	16.7
Sophomore year .....	16	243	15.2
Junior year .....	15	251	16.7
Senior year .....	3	70	23.3
Total .....	42	698	16.6

BILL BINDER is the first athlete in the history of Lehigh to be so honored by the University. Not only was BILL outstanding in basketball, but he also won letters in varsity track and tennis. Gifts he received upon this occasion included a wrist watch from Beta Lambda, a pen and pencil set from his teammates, and a silver trophy from the University. His basketball participation in his Senior year was cut short by early graduation and "he has left to score for Uncle Sam."

initiated by Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering society. Bill Belser was initiated by Alpha Kappa Psi, honorary business society, and Hugh Boyd is a member of Pi Tau Sigma, mechanical engineering society.

Beta Lambda is active in sports this year. Fred Attaway won his letter as end on the varsity football team. Bob Mussina is cross-country manager, and Don Diggs is another one. Bruce Thayer was out for the team. Paul Franz was a football manager, and Bill Kerr was a Freshman manager. Jim Morris, Quin Raney, Bob Pfisterer, Emmy Heyworth, Ralph Dougherty, and Hugh Boyd made a stab at junior varsity football, with Jim Morris doing most of the playing for the House at tackle.

On the varsity basketball team are Captain Bill Binder, and Dick Kitzmiller, while Ralph Dougherty, Miles Orth, and Jack Shipherd are on the J. V. squad. Bill Taylor is Senior Freshman manager, and John Dunning is a Freshman manager. The House team won the month-long, five-man fraternity distance swimming contest. Bob Pfisterer won the individual first-place medal in this event by swimming 15,000 yards.

Bill Binder, captain of the 1942 Lehigh basketball team, and the greatest player ever to play for Lehigh, played his last game December 16, since he graduates in January. Fitting tribute was paid him as the entire university turned out for a "Bill Binder" night. Bill received a cup from the dean of undergraduates, a watch from his fraternity brothers, and countless congratulatory telegrams. During three and one-half seasons, Bill played 1503.5 out of 1650 minutes, having missed an entire game due to illness. In 41 games, playing as a guard, he made 676 points.

Alumni who have been back this year include Whitey Elmer, Dukes Wooters, Bud Loux, Jim Gordon, Dick Strobe, Bob Marshall, Baldy Croot, George Motheral, and Zern Freeman. Let's see more of you fellows when you can make it!

Four members of the chapter are graduating in January: Jim Morris, Bill Binder, Bill Taylor, and Bill Peck. All of them have been active on the campus and in the House, and will be greatly missed.

Since the E. R. C. juniors and seniors will stay in school until May, our House will be fairly full next semester, unless the Army or Navy takes it over. Besides the graduating seniors, we expect to lose not more than five men.

HUGH BOYD.

Beta Mu—Tufts

With the armed services cutting into the upper classes, this year's pledge class is keeping Beta Mu up with the rest on the campus in fine style, especially in the sporting field. Three '46'ers won their numerals in football, including Bill Hooper, the captain of the team. There were two each on the soccer and hockey teams and one for cross-country.

At this writing, the program has just gotten underway but there is always a good turnout and the future looks bright. Any improvement in intramural sports will mean first place, since Beta Mu finished a close second among all fraternities last year.

The chapter continues to be active on the campus. Walt Brady, house president, is vice-president of the Interfraternity Council. The president and two members of the Sophomore honorary society, Sword and Shield, are Delts. Norm Nicholson has been elected a member of the honorary dramatic society. One of our new pledges, Warren Kernander, has been selected as a member in Tau Beta Pi, and is the president of the A.S.M.E. Bill Hooper is president of the Class of 1946, as well as the pledge class. Dick Mooney was recently elected vice-president of the A. I. Ch. E., while Dave Riley is the presiding officer of the Math Club.

As usual, the social committee kept on their toes and presented a well-rounded program of house parties. One big night was the banquet for the alumni, but the highlight of the fall term was the Pledge Formal held at the Women's Republican Club in Boston.

The accelerated program forced Beta Mu to hold elections early this year. Walt Brady, for whom we thank Phi Chapter, from where he transferred last year, is our new president; Don Abbott is vice-president; John Hally, treasurer; Gordon Holmes, guide; Bob Jones, re-elected sergeant-at-arms; Dick C. Smith, recording secretary; and Bob Cochran, corresponding secretary.

Beta Mu along with Beta Nu, played host to the Eastern Division Conference this year. For two days the Hotel Statler echoed with Delt activities, and the banquet was one not soon to be forgotten.

BOB COCHRAN.

Beta Omicron—Cornell

About the twenty-first of September, the boys started coming back to Ithaca for the fall term. We had thirty-seven men return to the chapter this fall. Win Silas, '45, has transferred to the University of Texas; Wendall Veach, '45, is at Northwestern; Bob Schaefer, '45, is at the University of Illinois; Clark Kee, '44, is at Harvard; "Ham" Howry, '44, is at Columbia; and Bill Littlewood, '44, has entered the Army Air Corps.

Many of us were surprised to see the change that had taken place in the house. The floors on the first floor had been scraped and varnished, and a new set of curtains had been bought for the downstairs rooms.

As soon as the house had been put in order, we made plans for rushing. Under the guiding hand of G. Bovier Marchev, '43, the boys in the house turned in a good job this year. At the end of the second week of rushing, we had pledged seventeen men.

The Delts have again been active in athletics on the hill. Ted Lansing, hindered by several injuries, including a broken arm received in the Yale game, again played at right end for the Big Red. "Tiny" Swanson was a tower of strength at his right tackle post. This was Tiny's third and last year with the varsity squad. Gene Hook, '45, saw quite a bit of action at his end position and also took care of the kicking for Cornell. William G. Eberle and Steve Cable were both out for Frosh ball. G. Bovier Marchev was out for the 150-pound squad, but an injury early in the season prevented him from starting any games. Dan Nehrer, stalwart blocking back on last year's varsity, was unable to play this year, but he was an assistant coach for Carl Snively. Bill Hunt, '45, and Fred Bailey, '44, are both playing basketball. Hunt, star of last year's Frosh team, looks particularly good this season. He has been switched from his center position to forward. He started at this post against Seton Hall.

When Coach Nicky Bawlf issued his call for hockey players, four Deltas took to the ice, Phil McGinness and Keen de la Roza of last year's varsity, "Sandy" MacCallum, and Ernie Adolph, who played on last year's Frosh team. Both McGinness and de la Roza turned in admirable performances at the Lake Placid hockey tournament.

Herb Smith, '45, is swimming the fifty-yard and hundred-yard free style for Coach Scotty Little's varsity.

The Class of '45 has been very active in managerial competitions this year: Hank Gordon was out for football and is now assistant manager of junior varsity football; Bill Coulter is a crew compet; George Fitzpatrick, soccer; and Bob Rost, basketball.

Stewart Underwood has been elected business manager of the Cornell Daily Sun. Rod Richards and Bill Ebersol are both on the business board of the same paper.

Ted Lansing was elected vice-president of Aleph Semach, junior honorary society. Stew Underwood has become a member of Sphinx Head, and Jorl Swanson is a member of Quill and Dagger. These are senior honorary societies. Carroll Pennock is new member of Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering society.

Many ensigns are now stationed at Cornell to receive training in Diesel engineering. Quite a few of these men are Deltas from chapters all over the country. We have had many of them down to the house for parties and dinner and have enjoyed their company very much.

John Hansen, '42, spent several days with us this fall. During his stay at Cornell, John announced his engagement to Joan Shaver, '44. John is now an ensign in Naval Ordnance. Lt. Clarke Brinckerhoff, '42, was married to Inger Hansen, sister of John Hansen, November 17. John Caperton, '42, is now an ensign and is stationed here at Cornell. Lt. Sterling Blakeman, U.S.A., our last year's president, is now stationed in California. Ensign C. Roy Tunison, U.S.N.R., is also in California. Ensign Louis M. Acker, U.S.N.R., is stationed in Brooklyn, New York.

Fred Bailey, '44, is planning to enter Cornell Medical College in April. Herm Norton, '42, is now at McGill Medical School in Montreal. Alexander MacCallum, '45, has been accepted by the Cornell Veterinary College in Ithaca.

With the prospect of the Army taking over fraternity houses next term, and the fact that many of us will be leaving then, we are not sure just what the future holds in store for us. Wherever we are, in Army camps or in other universities, we will always be looking for fellow Deltas.

BOB ROST.

Beta Pi—Northwestern

It is reported that officials are now working on a plan to move the publications offices from Scott Hall to the basement of the Delt house, for out of the seven top positions in this field on the campus, four were awarded to Deltas.

On the staff of the yearbook Sylabus, Jim Vynalek is editor, Jack Zahringer, business manager, and Joe Walker, junior picture manager.

Will Micklish, co-editor, and Don Gridley, managing editor, fought through a series of maddening delays to edit the '42-'43 Northwestern Directory.

Another publication, the Purple Parrot, chose as its business manager, Paul Larson. However, Paul chose to forego this honor and achieve greater ones by serving his country as an officer in the Marines. Bob Dageford, artist extraordinaire, cranks out illustrations for the Purple Parrot.

Leaving the literary lads, we see the outdoor boys. Footballer Junie Franck bursts into the house, closely followed by Larry Savage, outstanding player on the Freshman squad, and John Kroeger.

Captain Dave Allen, Bill Curry, and Bob Hedges, of the wrestling team, come in next. George Gregg is on the baseball team, Tom Goble is on the swimming team, and Jim Vynalek is on the track team.

Chapter President Tom Hutton holds the position of treasurer of the Interfraternity Council, and

DONALD GRIDLEY.

Beta Rho—Stanford

Although many would-be seniors of Beta Rho entered the service last summer, many returned to finish their final year of schooling. And Beta Rho completed a successful first quarter with a full house of members.

Rushing under Stanford's deferred winter quarter rushing plan, which was inaugurated last year by Interfraternity President Jim Haugh, '42, is the big activity this quarter. Despite the uncertainties of wartime conditions, prospects are good for another strong class. Ward Walkup, '44, varsity baseball catcher, is house rushing chairman.

On the activities front, several Beta Rho men stood out in campus life. Shelly Parker, '43, house president, is chairman of Cardinals, campus activity organization. Another senior, Cal Setzer, is a member of the Senior class executive board. Hugh Alvord, '43, was promoted from major to lieutenant-colonel this quarter and now is second highest ranking officer in Stanford's field artillery division. Ferris Boothe is Junior class president, an Encina sponsor, and was recently named associate editor of the Stanford Daily.

Two sophomores played on the Stanford football team which started out as an unorganized, punchless outfit and finished the strongest team on the coast. And a great deal of the improvement was due to the performance of Don Zappettini, house spaghetti-eating champ. The "Zapper," former Piedmont High School flash, earned himself a first string halfback berth near the end of the season as a result of his improved play. He went for two touchdowns against Washington State and then started Stanford on its 26-7 destruction of California, our traditional rival, by galloping nineteen yards for the first touchdown. Bob Hall alternated at an end position, while Burt Avery and Harlan Geldermann were reserve linemen.

Basketball finds Jerry Lamb, '43, playing second-string forward. Hall, a first team Frosh player last year, may go out if he recovers from football season in time.

Water polo last quarter saw Paul Egeler, '43, and the Carpenter brothers, Jack, '44, and Bud, '45, play a prominent part. Jack won a starting berth at forward and Bud was second team goalie. All three will compete on the swimming team this year as will "Tricky Dick" Williams, '45, a diver.

Although Vern Hart, '43, who won the Pacific Coast Conference high jump crown last June, entered the Naval Air Corps in July, Beta Rho will have strong representatives on the track team. George Grimes, Frosh 880-yard star last year, will return to the track as will Duane Zamzow and Burt Avery in the shot put and javelin throw.

Baseball will find Beta Rho supplying the first-string battery with Harry "Doc" Mason, '45, pitcher, and Ward Walkup, '44, catcher. "Doc" and Ward played together for three years at Sequoia High School and are together again at Stanford. Ward was first team catcher last year while Mason pitched varsity ball at the conclusion of the Freshman season.

Socially, the quarter has been fairly quiet, although Beta Rho has had several successful firesides and informal parties. This Christmas, Frank Card, '42, announced his engagement to Marge Duhig, Theta, '45, in Los Angeles, while Bill Boyer, '42, was married to Amy Jean Miller in Chicago.

Although this year may bring many changes in the college and fraternity life as we have known it, Beta Rho enters 1943 with a strong House financially and socially and with lots of confidence in the future.

FERRIS BOOTHE.

Beta Tau—Nebraska

Except for war interference, Beta Tau is looking forward to one of its best years.

Beginning scholastic reports indicated a very noticeable improvement over last year. The start of the new school year found Beta Tau seventh from the top scholastically among the social fraternities.

Nebraska's football line-up was aided by three Delts, Ed Nyden and Gerry Kathol, ends, and Harold Hungerford, halfback. The intramural basketball outlook is bolstered by two former high school all-state performers, and the return of four regulars from last year's third-place squad. The intramural tennis team, intact for the third consecutive year, expects to bring home the first-place trophy instead of the last year's runner-up emblem.

The social calendar has been limited but good. The annual "Squab Scramble," which was sponsored by the pledges, sent the actives home happy. The Christmas Stag party also exposed much hidden talent in our "squab" class. The Delt Winter Formal is scheduled for January 16, and promises to be one of the big events of the year.

Beta Upsilon—Illinois

Beta Upsilon's activities got off to a successful start in September, when a week of intensive rushing effort was terminated by the pledging of twenty-three men.

With the beginning of school, the Delts set about distinguishing themselves in various ways. A varied and successful intramural program was supervised by Roger Downs and Mike Eberle. Pledges Bill Krall and Julie Rykovich were the mainstays of one of the best Frosh football teams in recent Illinois history, while Bob Swann and Sam Young also aided the Illini football season, the former by serving as a student manager for the varsity gridgers, and the latter by supervising the effective student cheering section.

The chapter was also active socially, with several informal parties and dances and the traditional Christmas Pledge Formal in December.

The advent of the basketball season also finds Delts participating in varsity athletics as All-American Andy Phillip is one of the mainstays as Illinois seeks to retain its Big Ten Championship. Playing capable basketball as reserve center is Beta Upsilon's Al Shirley.

Although the chapter has already suffered the loss of nearly ten men to the armed services, and faces the loss of at least twenty-five more to the Enlisted Reserve Corps and Selective Service within the next few weeks, it is well supplied with Naval Reservists and Marine Corps

Officer Candidates who will be able to carry on for at least another semester. In addition, Bill Amling, Sam Young, Jim Stalker, Jack Hartzell, Ernie Pool, and Mike Eberle, are Advanced Corps Cadet Officers in the University R.O.T.C., and will be active in the chapter for some time to come.

Thus, even in these troubled times, Beta Upsilon finds herself able to face the immediate future with some degree of confidence and hope for a successful second semester.

JAMES K. STALKER.

Beta Phi—Ohio State

The perilous situation abroad has failed to dampen the spirits of the men of Beta Phi. In September, after a strenuous rush week, Beta Phi pledged 41 men, making a total chapter membership of 89, an increase of 14 men over the membership this time last year. At a time when many other fraternities are facing a somewhat uncertain future, Beta Phi feels secure about its position as a top fraternity at Ohio State because of this increased membership.

As for sports, Beta Phi's Bill Vickroy, Les Horvath, Don McCafferty, and Dante Lavelli contributed their share to the outstanding success of the Ohio State gridiron. Basketball season finds our two hopefuls, Dante Lavelli and Johnny Schenk, "pushing that ball around." In activities both Jack Archer, of the Student Senate, and Ken Lucas, of the Fraternity Affairs Office, have received their appointments as sophomore secretaries in the respective offices. The latter of the above two men has been elected to Ohio Staters Inc., an upperclassmen's organization on the University campus.

In addition to the weekly record dances held at the Shelter, Beta Phi has had band dances after two of the more important football games. The highlight of this year's social season was the Annual Fall Formal held at the Fort Hayes Hotel.

Beta Phi was indeed fortunate to obtain the Honorable Carl V. Weygandt, Chief Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court, as the speaker of the evening at an informal smoker of both alumni and chapter members. With such a fine past record behind us, Beta Phi is eagerly looking for-

Beta Chi—Brown

Football was the only interfraternity fall sport, and we made the finals in this. The varsity football team saw Beta Chi represented by three backfield members. Jay Pattee, quarterback, continued his string of successful conversions to 28, but finally missed one in the Princeton game. During the past season, though, he made 22 points-after-touchdowns. Bruce Remick, fast-starting fullback, contributed his share of Brown's touchdowns, while Bob Babcock demonstrated his wizardry at throwing passes.

The fall social season featured a formal in November and another in December. Informal dances also helped to occupy Saturday nights. Of the two banquets this fall, one was in honor of the initiates and the other in honor of the pledges.

During the fall rushing season we were one of three houses to get our full quota of ten men. Congratulations for this feat are due to Bob Klie, the rushing chairman and newly-elected president.

Newly-elected officers include President Bob Klie, who follows in his brother's footsteps, and Russ Wilson, the vice-president. Tom Risinger was installed as secretary and Jay Pattee as treasurer.

The Deltas are represented on the Cammarian Club, the senior governing society, by two members—Don Marshall, track manager, and Austin McCabe, the Brown band leader. The Brown Key, the junior honorary society, has Bruce Remick, Jay Pattee, and Butch Harding from our midst. Russ Wilson received a Francis Wayland scholarship, and Butch Harding is now manager of the varsity swimming team.

The draft has taken two of our men, John Lyman and Frank McDonough, and another, Bill Stoops, applied for and received active service under the Navy V-5 program. This February will see the entire House called to the service. This includes three Marines, ten ERC members, twelve future Ensigns and five Army pilots.

CLARKE BUDLONG.

Beta Psi—Wabash

First, meet our new actives: Jim Liddle, a native of Blue Island, Ill., our house manager, and a tackle on the football squad; Norman McDaniel, who hails from South Bend, Ind., is a member of the Sphinx Club, Sigma Delta Psi, and a basketball letterman; William Trapp, who is from Maywood, Ill., plays end on the football team, and is a member of Sigma Delta Psi; Robert Bludorn, also from Maywood, Ill., who is a member of Sigma Delta Psi, the choir, and plays end on the football squad; and Charles Hertel, of Batesville, Ind., who manages the Wabash football team. These men were all pledged since last winter, with the exception of Jim Liddle, and their acquisition gave us a big push in prestige.

Curiously enough, the war has not as yet harmed our chapter. In fact, Beta Psi seems to thrive on this atmosphere of emergency. This year we have more boys in the chapter, and more boys in extracurricular activities. Here is the dope.

Early last spring, President Al Scott and Rush Chairman Jack Ellis got the rush season going in due respect for the student problem during wartime. Some of our alumni: Roy Massena, '02, N. Cory, '28, Marshall Pipin, '24, Don Frist, '20, and others, helped us rush, and when school began we had twenty new pledges. One fourth of these pledges were independents who studied the other fraternities on the campus before choosing us. Altogether, we had 40 men in the chapter. Compare last year's figure—thirty-two.

When the football season began, Coach "Pete" Vaughn found "Bear" Trapp, Jim Liddle, Bob Bludorn, "Rube" Holt, Ralph Paich, Ed Washburn, "Hank" Buzzard, Willis Johnson, and Ed Adair ready to go. Trapp and Liddle were stalwarts in Vaughn's line during most of the season. "Chuck" Hertel and Bob Hale were head manager and junior manager respectively. "Mac" McDaniel, in his capacity as trainer, took care of the boys' muscles and injuries.

At this moment, basketball is in the limelight, which naturally puts Joe Blum and "Mac" McDaniel there, too. "Mac" is a veteran of many seasons, and is one of Coach Davis' dependables. Joe is one of the team's stars. Before coming to Wabash, he was all-state center at Joliet Junior College for two years.

John King, of Speedway, Ind., and "Red" Wunder, of Evergreen Park, Ill., are representing us on the Frosh basketball team. Julian Hughes, Ed Adair, and Jerry Luse are on the cross-country squad. Fred Massena is writing articles for the Bachelor. Chet Francis, Bob Bludorn, and John King sing in the Wabash choir.

A week before Christmas, John "Slippery" Holden, left for the Iowa Pre-Flight School. "Slippery" was a swell guy and we hated to see him go.

"Matty" Matthews and Don Jay dropped in to see us during Homecoming. Matty was on a furlough from midshipman's school (he is now an ensign) and Don was resting from his duties as a sergeant in the Army. "Woody" Romine, '42, former Wabash choirmaster, is married to "Becky" Banghart, of South Bend, Ind., and is an ensign in the Navy. Bruce Warren and Joe Miller, who were both graduated last June, are in the Navy Air Corps and Army, respectively. Joe Herron, '41, writes that he is picking pebbles off the beaches of North Africa. These boys are only a few of the many of our alumni in uniform.

Of the boys in Beta Psi, 90 per cent are in either the Navy, Army, or Marine Reserve Corps. We have finished the first semester as a compact group, but what the future holds, we do not know.

CHARLES SAUERS, JR.

Beta Omega—California

War and the call to arms thundered through Beta Omega this fall, leaving untouched only a few gaudy remnants of college life and drowning out even the fall football season. And, with the reserves now being called up, the route will soon take on the aspect of a General Sherman march through Georgia.

Exchanging the blue and gold of U. C. for the khaki and navy blue of the services this semester were Ward Madiera, '43, and Hal Moller, '45, both draftees; Harry van der Brock and Fred Parsons, both '46, and both Marines; Bob Brown, '45, Bob Lampmann, '45, Marty Hoffman, '44, Jack Ford, '44, and Sumner Peck, '44, all Army Air Corps pilots; and Harvey McGee, Charles Dole, and Ed Merrill, all '46 and all now Navy airmen.

And on the campus as well as the war front Beta Omega Delts were as successful and high-lived as ever. Though ineligible for half the season, Ron Naess, '46, won a tackle position and class numeral on the Frosh football team. Wayne Hooper, '46, is at present leading the Frosh basketball squad through its most victorious casaba season in years. On the social side, House President Jack Yeager, '43, and Sumner Peck, '44, joined Sam Shannon, '43, Russ Pearce, '43, and George Parrish, '43, in Skull and Keys, highest interfraternity honorary society; Baker Lee, '45, and Ed Kruse, '45, were both initiated into Triune, honorary sophomore society. Footnote to all the activity and life of the House this semester, however, was the unprecedented number of Delt pins given by Beta Omega members; putting their best foot forward in that ultimately fatal step were Curt Mitchell, '45, Bill Paden, '45, Ed Kruse, '45, Fred Dutton, '45, Sam Fortier, '44, Jim McCarty, '44, and George Parrish, '45.

Highlight and climax of all Beta Omega activities, the bi-annual Beachcomber dance was the finale of a memory-rich college semester that, it seems, will be the last for a long, long time.

FREDERICK DUTTON.

Gamma Gamma—Dartmouth

Gamma Gamma fortunately did not have its membership cut to pieces with brothers leaving for the various branches of the service during the fall semester. However, with the December graduating class taking away fourteen seniors, and with at least ten more going into the services in January, we are planning to carry on with a much curtailed membership for the duration.

The past semester found Gamma Gamma men active in all campus activities. The varsity soccer team was ably assisted by Conn Young, John Furfey, and Lou Wiederhold, who started each of the games on the schedule. Pete Tewkesbury was one of the members of the cross-country team which was undefeated in dual and triangular meets. Now that the winter sports have begun, Roy Briggs is competing for one of the defense posts on the hockey team, and Bob Ehinger is one of the reserve guards on the "Big Green" basketball team. Joe MacFarland is expected to make a place for himself on the varsity speed-skating team this season and Mac Corner earned a position as one of the varsity cheerleaders. Doc Rudolph, this year's basketball manager, has graduated, so he won't be around to fulfill his duties in this capacity.

Intramural athletics have found the Delts near the top again as Rudy Whitten and Frank Sherwood teamed to take the Interfraternity Tennis Doubles Championship to retire the trophy by winning for the third straight year. The soccer team reached the quarter-finals before being eliminated, but added to the touch football and other intramural results the Delts rated third in the fraternity standings near the end of the semester.

In the nonathletic competition the Delt team of Frank Sherwood and Pete Tewkesbury came through to win the Interfraternity Debate with the help of Jim Doucette, who substituted once when Pete was away. Pete, incidentally, has taken part in most of the plays given by the Dartmouth Players this year.

The last house party for the duration was ably organized by social Chairman Lloyd Holton. With about fifty dates, which was the largest group on campus, staying at the house every brother had a "big" time.

Scholastically the Delts managed to finish third among the twenty-two houses on the campus. At the same time we contributed two Phi Beta Kappas to the Dartmouth group as Conn Young and Dave Hoffman joined that select group.

Rushing begins near the end of January, and despite the fact that our first rushing chairman is now in the Air Corps and the second one has transferred to another college, we are looking forward to a successful season, which may well be the last for fraternities at Dartmouth for the duration.

ROBERT EHINGER.

Gamma Theta—Baker

Gamma Theta opened the year with a new pledge class of seventeen men and immediately started working on the fire for the fifty-third annual Chicken Fry. Continuous rains on the week ends muffled the bright outlook for the big fall party, but the boys finally found some sunny afternoons and the center fire was finished in time. Plans were made for approximately 200 alums and boys from Gamma Tau and Gamma Chi, but attendance far exceeded the plans and around 280 Delts and their dates assembled at the fire.

The Delt Development Program which was installed at Gamma Theta last year, is again in use this year, and is bringing fine results, being beneficial to the actives and pledges alike.

In varsity sports, the Delts had four lettermen on the undefeated and untied Baker eleven and five men are reporting for basketball practice. Jim Irick and Leroy Deyo have been starting at forward on the quintet.

The annual pledge party was held December 4, with the "Delter Air Raid Shelter" the scene of much fancy rug-cutting and first aid practice. "Moneybags" Selzer was highly decorated winner of the first aid contest.

Gamma Theta has several men who are high in scholarship. As the end of the first semester rolls around, we are striving to maintain the reputable position of first on the campus.

Sunday, January 3, marked a dark day in the history of Baker University, as the Taylor Building, which housed the girls' and men's gym and several classrooms, burned to the ground. The total loss was estimated at $125,000. Baker now has a basketball team without a gymnasium. Due to the fire, the intramural program has been discontinued. However, the Delts still retain the only two trophies awarded, the All-Sports Champions trophy and the Participation Champs trophy.

Of the twenty-six men in Gamma Theta, only five are not enlisted in some form of reserve. Nine of the boys are in the Enlisted Reserve Corps, and if rumors prove true, these boys will be reported missing around the middle of February. But

Gamma Theta will march on and to quote A. C. "Cap" Runyan, '20, "Not even the legions of Hitler nor the madmen of Japan can stop the forward march of Delta Tau Delta, your fraternity, my fraternity, the your Fraternity, my Fraternity, the Fraternity we love . . ."

Gamma Iota—Texas

It is almost trite to begin this letter by saying that Gamma Iota has suffered the loss of many key men to armed services, as this is evident. However, despite this loss, we continue to stand at the top among the fraternities at Texas.

Opening the year with a very successful rush week, we pledged twenty-seven men. Several of these Freshmen have already taken very active part in our intramurals and other activities. One of them, Jack Chote, was elected yell leader by the student body. Jimmy O'Neil has been chosen for the Longhorn Boxing Squad, and Eddie Burke is playing freshman golf. James Anderson is a member of the Men's Glee Club, and Blair Reeves and Edbert Schutze are members of Alpha Phi Omega, Scout service fraternity, here on the Texas campus. Herb Reid is well known for his golfing ability, and Peyton Park is leader of one of the most popular campus bands. His music has added much to many of the Delt functions also. So, with this list of accomplishments, it can be seen that we have reason to be proud of the pledge class which we chose.

Also, the pledge class had a project during the scrap metal drive. Lending their support to war production, they collected 10,000 pounds of scrap metal—a sizable contribution to the war effort.

Athletically we have had a good year. Besides the pledges cited above, many others have participated in intramural sports or other athletic events. Bill Kittrelle is one of the four senior intramural managers. This position is one of importance, as the management of the entire intramural program is in these four men's hands. Bill Roden is continuing to play excellent golf. He is one of the mainstays of the varsity golf team and won second place in the San Antonio Open. Grady Hatton is a returning letterman of the varsity baseball squad and returns as captain of that nine. Little Billy Andrews, manager of the Southwest Conference's winning football team, the University of Texas Longhorns, is expected to play an important role in baseball this year. Last spring he was elected captain of the Freshman nine.

Gamma Iota is also well represented in the scholastic side of school life. Aside from our nine Phi Eta Sigma members, we have three members in Alpha Epsilon Delta, honorary pre-medical fraternity: Ray Harrington, Theo Painter, and Jack Chewning, Jack being president of both Phi Eta Sigma and Alpha Epsilon Delta. Buddy Cain has been elected to Kappa Kappa Psi, national honorary music association. Joe Nash, our house manager, has added another accomplishment to his full college career, being elected to Beta Alpha Psi, honorary accounting society. He is also vice-president of the Board of Directors of the Students' Cooperative Buying Association of the University of Texas, a serviceable organization which was organized under the auspices of J. C. Nelson, an alumnus.

Delts are leaders in all phases of campus activities. Bob Sneed, a member of Cowboys, honorary service organization, was chairman of arrangements for an Interfraternity-Independent Banquet designed to promote good will between these factions. The banquet was held at our chapter house. Brother Sneed is also on the varsity Debate Squad. Theo Painter was recently elected to the Student Assembly from the Arts and Sciences School. Three Delts, Banks McLaurin, Buddy Cain, and Edbert Schutze are active in the Naval R.O.T.C. Unit on the campus and Brothers Cain and Craig Boyd are members of the Longhorn Band. Billy Andrews was recently elected to Cowboys, honorary service organization.

However, the above list of accomplishments must not be construed as to mean Gamma Iota is not active socially, for the Delt Ranch party was acclaimed one of the best of the semester. A Christmas party for members and their dates was a big success. Numerous buffet suppers and Sunday lunches have rounded out a full social semester.

Of course, we can't expect to carry on next semester quite as well extracurricularly as we have done before, but we are determined that with such a precedent of accomplishments before us, we shall not rest on our laurels. Many alumni who are good Delts are now good soldiers, sailors, and Marines. They are scattered over the globe and the rest of us, yet to be called, are resolved that we shall uphold their standards of achievement.

THEO. S. PAINTER, JR.

Gamma Kappa—Missouri

In spite of expected wartime difficulties, Gamma Kappa has had a very successful year. One big aim of the active chapter seems to be near accomplishment. At mid-semester the deficiency average of the actives ranked among the first four on the campus, and we are sure that we will be able to maintain and improve this high scholastic position during the year.

Gamma Kappa has lost three members of this year's Senior class by graduation. Brother Dale Bowling was graduated shortly after mid-semester because of the excellence of his grades. Chapter President Jack Stevenson graduated from the School of Journalism at the end of the semester, and Bill McGinness received a degree in Business and Public Administration.

With a change in the University which permitted mid-semester initiation of pledges who were not deficient, Gamma Kappa initiated four men. We expect these four to go a long way in replacing our losses to the armed forces.

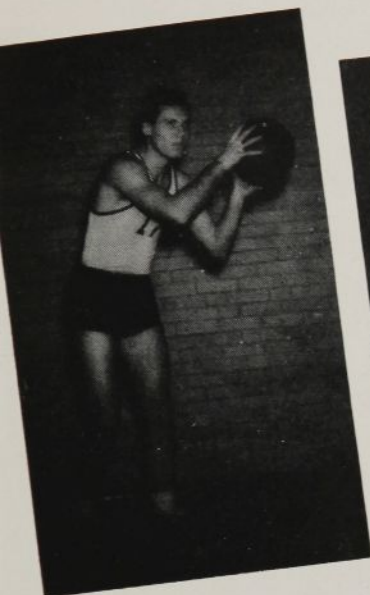

Sophomore Jim Austin starred at left half for the Tiger football team. Jim received his "M" jacket at the end of the season, and is now seeing plenty of action with the varsity basketball squad. Brother Hugh Cort played with the polo team, and Mel Sheehan earned his numeral in Freshman football.

Bart McDowell came up with the male lead in the University Workshop production of My Sister Eileen, and gave an outstanding performance. Both Bart and Hugh Cort are busily preparing the chapter skit for the annual Savitar Frolic. Chess expert John Bliss reached the semifinals of the school tournament before he was defeated. At present, the entire chapter is lending its whole-hearted support to the scrap drive, and has already collected a ton as a contribution to the war effort, and we expect to rank near the top of the fraternities competing in the drive.

After a disappointing intramural football season, the Delts turned to basketball. Despite a slow start, the squad soon rounded into peak form and has won its last three games by decisive scores. It is rated as one of the most dangerous fives in the league. The bowling team has had a successful season to date, and we expect several of our table-tennis experts to place high in that tournament.

Nor have the Delts neglected their social activities. In a year when better than average dances were the rule rather than the exception, Gamma Kappa's Orchid Ball was acclaimed as one of the best of the year.

Despite the loss of about half the active chapter over the summer, and over half our pledge class to the armed forces, Gamma Kappa is looking forward optimistically to a successful second semester.

ALFRED M. FREDERICK.

Gamma Lambda—Purdue

Purdue's Delts have just returned to school from a ten-day Christmas vacation and are now all set to start on a new semester with new officers a new batch of seniors, and a slate as shiny and clean as the bright new cords the seniors are wearing.

Paul Miller, our politician supreme, has been elected president for the coming year; Bill Spieth is vice-president; Bill Harger is treasurer; George Heidenreich continues as house manager, and Phil Jenkins has taken on the most difficult job in the chapter at the present time as rush chairman.

In spite of the fact that like all American young men, the Purdue Delts are thinking more and more in terms of what they may do in the nation's war effort, they have still found time to become leaders in the campus activities. Our prexy, Paul Miller, is president of Student Senate; Bill Spieth and George Heidenreich are Senior baseball managers; Jim Petty is advertising manager of the Purdue Exponent. Art Hunter and Ted Chapman are already members of the Gimlet Club, senior activities honorary, while Petty Miller and Spieth are all logical candidates for membership at the next election. Bill Lester has also been a Senior representative on Student Senate for the past semester.

Among our Juniors, Bill Simpson is a junior editor of the yearbook; Dick Collister is a vice-president of the Student Union, Jim Mitchell is junior baseball manager; and Dave Appel and Phil Jenkins are grooming themselves for junior jobs with the Student Union.

Chapter alumni will be pleased to hear that our adviser, Charlie McCabe, has been honored by an appointment to serve an unexpired term as judge of the Superior Court of Tippecanoe County. Charlie also became the proud father of a charming daughter shortly before the fall term opened.

In spite of the fact that the prospects for the coming semester look unusually good, we are going to feel very strongly the loss of the boys who graduated at Christmas. We wish them all the luck in the world.

The entire chapter also extends its heartiest congratulations to Dwight Zeller and Ann Garland, who were married in Pittsburgh last December 22.

JIM PETTY.

Gamma Mu—Washington

Despite the exigencies of the war, Gamma Mu has continued to stand high upon the roster of the University of Washington in all fields. Her men have placed in activities both scholastic and extracurricular. Again in social events and chapter management Gamma Mu has earned a high place in the estimation of Washington fraternal organizations.

At the end of fall quarter, the Gamma Mu active scholastic average was third among University organizations, the pledges ranked fourth, and the House average was third for the campus. On the Interfraternity Council Honor Roll were pledges Jim Briggs, Jim O'Hearne, Bill Robinson, and Bob Rowse; actives who had above a 3.20 average were Jack Barnes, Elvin Carlson, Keith Kolb, Ben Lindsay, John Mc-Guinness, and Bob Vinson. Brother Lindsay also was awarded a Certificate for High Scholarship for the Junior year.

Fraternity social life at the U. of W. has been geared to a wartime program, with all functions, school and chapter, held on the campus, and formals eliminated. The annual Pledge Informal was held under an eerie atmosphere on Halloween Eve. A two-day celebration of Homecoming brought many alums to the Shelter. Several very successful firesides and exchanges rounded out the calendar. The Social Committee, under Chairman Bob Mosher, inaugurated a novel Waffle Supper after the annual University Varsity Night Ball.

The success of The Delt Development Program as administered by Pledge Trainer Dick Dunnington is evidenced by the fact that this year Gamma Mu will initiate its largest class in recent years. We hope once more to win commendation for the best employment of the program in the Fraternity.

Ben Lindsay and Burt Waldo received mention in Who's Who as outstanding college men in the country. Bob Whiteley won a sweater award as senior manager of intramurals. Waldo is also Public Relations Counsel for the Interfraternity Council. Lindsay was initiated as a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary; he also was selected as the outstanding cadet in the Quartermaster Corps. Bob Vinson was initiated into Phi Mu Alpha-Sinfonia, music honorary. John Reid is secretary of the Junior Interfraternity Council.

As a portion of their aid to the war program, thirty members left school for two days to pick apples in the Wenatchee orchards. The men who stayed behind enrolled en masse in the scrap drive for the same period. At the end of the present quarter we anticipate the loss of one half the membership, providing the reserves are called for duty. Gamma Mu has eighty stars on her service flag, with a prospect for forty more very shortly. Each star stands for an officer or officer's candidate as there are no enlisted men in the Army from this chapter.

A. H. "Tut" Greening, formerly of Beta Beta at DePauw and Delta Pi at U. S. C.; Al Bauscher, former treasurer at Delta Mu (Idaho); and James W. Woods, Gamma Rho '38, now on naval duty in Virginia, former resident adviser of Gamma Mu, are new affiliates at Gamma Mu.

The Gamma Mu chorus serenaded twelve of the campus sororities during the quarter, several of which were to announce "pin-plants" in the House. Bob Vinson and Bob Whiteley have had musical scripts accepted by the University as part of an annual student production. The drama department also used Vinson's setting of the lyrics for a Noel Coward play in a recent six weeks' production.

We are sorry to hear that Hugh Shields is on leave from the Central Office, but it is an honor to have Gamma Mu Harry Green in the saddle.

ROBERT VINSON

Gamma Nu—Maine

We had made tentative plans this year to operate on a skeleton basis with only a few members, but fortunately our plans were unnecessary. Upon returning to school last fall, we found forty-five men waiting to live in the house, including Ken MacIntosh, a transfer pledge from Delta Mu. It was a bit crowded, but we thought it would be unfair to cut down the number, as it might be the last opportunity that many will have to enjoy the benefits of living in the Shelter.

As you may remember, we had thirty-nine men pledged last year. Although a few of them didn't return, we still had a staggering number of pledges to train and initiate. We initiated twenty-two of them this fall. Bud Babcock and Bob Gunther from Beta Nu, M.I.T., were present at the initiation and the banquet which followed. Jack Stauff spent a couple of days with us shortly after this.

The year started in a very promising manner with our intramural touch football team taking first place in the tournament and winning the trophy. The team was coached by Fran Murphy and it did much to convince any doubters of the fact that we had some swell athletic material. It is interesting to note that we were never behind in any of the football games. Now, we are well on our way toward the same goal in basketball, with the team, still coached by Murphy, undefeated as yet. There are a lot of winter sportsmen in the Shelter, which should give us a good standing in this event. With the winning of basketball and winter sports, we will be well on our way toward winning the Intramural Cup.

Delts on Parade: Hal LaCroix, Lee McCobb, Charlie Markee, Harry Honeyman, Lindy Bond, Bob Foye, and Don Hodges, all in Advanced R.O.T.C. . . . Tom Moriarty, president of the Newman Club . . . Ed Piper, treasurer of Gamma Nu, chronicler of Alpha Zeta, Agriculture Club, Phi Kappa Phi, scholarship . . . Dit Mongovan, vice-president of Gamma Nu, ski team . . . Marlowe (Perk) Perkins, president of Gamma Nu, Maine Masque, assembly committee of Men's Student Senate, Interfraternity Council, Student Senate . . . Norm Mosher, corresponding secretary of Gamma Nu, treasurer of the Maine Outing Club, Pack and Pine . . . Fran Murphy, Intramural Association, coach of Gamma Nu's intramural teams, member of National Board of Approved Basketball Officials, referee of freshman games . . . Stan Murray, scholarship, accompanist of Chapel Choir, accompanist of Glee Club, slide rule award for being highest ranking Technology freshman last year . . . Bob Harlow, sergeant-at-arms, Pale Blue Key . . . Dick Bloom, business manager of Maine Masque . . . Sam Collins, news editor of Maine Campus . . . Ralph Emerson, Maine Masque . . . Art Geary, varsity cross-country manager . . . Bob Krause and Fran Murphy, co-authors of "Bear Tracks," sports column in the Maine Campus . . . Frank Rogan, orchestra, elected to Mu Alpha Epsilon, honorary musical fraternity . . . Cliff Davis, football.

We had our annual fall house party during Homecoming. It was a Halloween party and contributed greatly to the successful week end. Before Christmas vacation we had a stag Christmas party with a tree and Santa Claus by Dit Mongovan. We planned a sleigh ride for New Year's Eve. It was intended as a novelty, but the success of the event seems to indicate that Leigh McCobb and his social committee will be arranging more of them.

Pete Macomber, initiated at Gamma Phi, left school this fall to join the Army. Frank Rogan, Cal Conant, and Pledge Art Buswell have been drafted.

We have planned an alumni program which includes a revival of our chapter paper. Our rushing program will be ready if the University decides to have rushing this year. It is extremely difficult to know what to do and to keep on under the constant threat of the possibility of the closing of the Shelter by the University. However, we are doing all that we can possibly do to raise our prestige on campus as high as possible before the war exhausts our active membership.

NORMAN W. MOSHER.

Gamma Xi—Cincinnati

Gamma Xi can report a very successful year to date, despite the mounting restrictions due to the war. Our rushing program was extremely successful, and the pledging of thirty-seven of Cincinnati's most promising Freshmen seems a glowing proof of the fact. Our pledge trainer, "Cap" Dooley, put these men through a concentrated pledge training, and, when initiations were moved up, they formed a group of twenty-four new Delts, the largest ever to be initiated into Gamma Xi. Before initiation, however, the actives once more showed the pledge class a few of the finer points of football by defeating them, 33-0, in the annual Thanksgiving-Morn Pledge-Active football classic.

One of the high points of our fall activities was the Homecoming Parade at the U. C.-Georgia football game. Through the efforts of Brandon Cordes and Ray Wuerth, we again won the coveted trophy for entering the most effective float.

The social season never begins nor ends at Gamma Xi, for there is always some big event just around the corner. The Pledge Formal, Christmas Formal, Christmas Party given by the Mother's Club, tea dances, record dances, and two of those unforgettable Old Clothes Parties constituted the major part of a well-rounded social program. The football banquet, honoring one of the best gridiron seasons in the history of the University, was attended by some forty enthusiastic Delts, who were sincerely proud of the showing made during the season by Joe Babcock, star quarterback, and two of our pledges, "Doc" Coburn, guard, and Joe Townsend, back.

The most outstanding Delt at Cincy is "Bud" Vorwerck, whose activities keep him well known and well liked all over the campus. In addition to being head-cheerleader, a member of Ulex, intramural manager, and on the baseball squad, he also is active on the Cincinnatian staff, in the University "Y," and the Men's Senate. Bud is not alone, however, in his activities, for Jack Strubbe, Joe Babcock, "Doc" Coburn, Frank Fielman, and Dick McKee are also members of Ulex, honorary activity fraternity. Our president, Bob Reiman, is a member of Delta Kappa Sigma, honorary civil engineering fraternity, and also represents the civil engineers on the Engineering Tribunal, while Ray Wuertth and George Bruestle are members of Phi Eta Sigma, honorary scholastic fraternity. George Bruestle is also president of the Cincinnati Glee Club, and Rick Nielsen adds his voice to the bass section of that organization. Since the majority of Delts are signed up for some branch of the armed services and are awaiting their call, we have lost comparatively few men to the Army so far. Ed Burton, Sheldon Boyce, "Soup" Campbell, George Papas, and Louis Thomas are the boys we hope to see back soon, taking their places, as usual, in the activities of the chapter.

Lint "Bud" Vorwerck was elected the new president of Gamma Xi for the coming year and, in his new duties, he has the whole-hearted support of every member of the chapter. George Raible is the new vice-president, while George Bruestle is secretary, and Walt Bertsche has the important position of treasurer for 1943. Gamma Xi is going into the new year with a resolve to keep Delta Tau Delta on top of the heap at Cincinnati.

RAY WUERTH.

Gamma Pi—Iowa State

This last year Gamma Pi started out with one ear cocked toward the war news and achieved their aim of pledging the large pledge class of twenty-six men. We now have the house full and hope to keep it that way for the duration. So far we have lost only one man to the draft and three men have gone to active service through the Army and Navy Air Corps Reserve. Ronald Dirks and Ken Obye, who were just initiated, fill out the count of twenty-one active members.

The new officers for the next year are John McKee, president; Ted Thomsen, vice-president; Frank Ewing, treasurer; Larry Scott, recording secretary; and Robert Knox, corresponding secretary.

We had the usual number of fireside dances and the pledges gave a Sadie Hawkins fireside dance, which, with the original decorations, stirred up much favorable comment. The winter formal took place January 9.

In activities were Ben Brown, appointed editor of the Iowa Agriculturist, and initiated into Sigma Delta Chi; Rush Benson, initiated into Phi Mu Alpha, and Sid Moore, initiated into Scabbard and Blade. The Delts came through with first place in the all-fraternity obstacle course race, and the pledge touch-football team won the class C award.

Gamma Rho—Oregon

Fall term of 1942 saw a wonderful scholastic improvement here at Gamma Rho. Led by Ray Schrick, King Martin, and Bob Mueller, who were on the University honor roll, the Delts rolled up to the top spot among the campus fraternities.

The recognition we received bears special significance this year because all the male students are competing for academic marks that will enable them to remain in school under the present military reserve system.

Although acting in accord with the University of Oregon's wartime policy of emphasizing no social frills, Gamma Rho Delts still maintained a full social program during spring and fall term, 1942. By literally filling the house with hundreds of flowers for the spring term informal house dance, and by contrasting with this an animal-inhabited fall term barn dance, the Delts were able to forget, temporarily, about their curricular worries. In addition, the traditional stag formal, with the presence of Mrs. Carter, housemother, provided a great deal of fraternal spirit with which to close our fall term. Besides leading the fraternities in grades for fall term, the Delts again proved that they were war-conscious by winning first prize in the University scrap drive and by receiving the huge service flag for having more men in the armed forces than any other fraternity on the campus.

The intramural program at Oregon has found the Delts active and successful. During spring term of last year the House baseball team, behind the stellar pitching of Chuck Larson, finished close to the top after losing one game by one run. This fall the House football team had a hard season because of the loss of its best men to the armed forces; however, we managed to hold our own and garner our share of points. The volleyball team had a good season which ended with a close loss after reaching the semi-finals of the all-campus tournament. Basketball is next, followed by baseball and providing we don't lose any more key men, the House is looking forward to top teams in both events. All teams have shown fine spirit, which has helped to bring the chapter near the top in the intramural standings. Lee Kilburg, Chuck Larson, Bill Hoyt, Don Shelton, and Ken Stanley have given an outstanding account of themselves in all events, and with their help we should be even more successful in the future.

KING MARTIN.

Gamma Sigma—Pittsburgh

We started rushing this fall with a bang. We continued to hold such events as the Father-and-Son Dinner and the Mother's Tea. Rushing was climaxed by the pledging of twenty-two men. The pledge class was very active. Probably their most outstanding event was the annual Bowery Brawl, which consisted of everybody dressing in their oldest clothes and having the time of their lives.

Several members of the pledge class received Panther Keys, symbolic of outstanding Freshmen.

Our president, Dick Griffith, is president of the Interfraternity Council; Ed Cornelius was varsity football manager as well as being very active in R.O.T.C.; Jack Foley is a very busy man as varsity basketball manager; on the journalistic front we have Don Lingenfelter. Don is business manager of the Owl, the University yearbook.

Ken Alexander is our activity wonder. He has a list which would make anyone stop and take another look. Some of them are: Druids, Y. M. C. A., Owl staff, Pitt Rifles, Freshman Key, Freshman Camp staff, and member of the Promahula dance committee. Around the house Ken has time to be recording secretary and an active participant in all fraternity sports.

As Delt representatives of the football team we have Jim Clowes and Bergy Steytler. Jim was converted from end to center after the season started. In spite of the handicap of playing a new role, Jim played stellar ball all season.

On the basketball front, we are upheld by Ken Alexander and Ted Bloomer.

In the intramural athletic program we are doing exceedingly well. Last spring we won the tennis championship, repeating this summer. We came out second in mushball and are now in a tie for first place in badminton.

Social affairs have been excellent and numerous this fall under the direction of Carl Bauer, our social chairman. The Winter Formal was held this year at Longue Vue Country Club. The Candle Light Dinner was held at the house just before Christmas. House dances have been held every few weeks. At the recent Interfraternity Ball, our sing team won first place. At the end of the dance our winning team sang over a local radio station.

Gamma Upsilon—Miami

By the beginning of October the forty actives and pledges who had come back to Miami had the situation well in hand at Gamma Upsilon. Most of the boys were no longer subject to selective service, having joined one of the reserves. Every branch of the service except the Coast Guard is represented in the House. Despite the well-designated future for most of the boys, we have had more spirit this year than in many years past, and the indication of a great year has so far been shown true.

Very shortly we will feel the weight of mid-year finals; it is the realized duty of every one of us for our chapter and personal pride to raise the scholastic standing.

Miami's football team started out with ten Delts; early in the season two of the best backfield men were injured, but despite the absence of Small and Woodworth from the team, the Delts remaining on the varsity really did themselves proud. Wenzlau, Russell, Gall, Pizza, and Bussard were in there fighting most of the time. Meanwhile, Moulton followed along in the footsteps of Herb Williamson by working diligently as assistant manager of the team.

During October we held one of the finest initiations the Shelter has ever seen. Eighteen men became actives at once, and very proud ones, too.

Homecoming at Miami this year was without decorations, and without the return of more than a handful of alumni. Regrets were received from many who felt that their job must come first, though they would have enjoyed nothing more than an evening back in the Shelter.

For the second consecutive year the softball team, behind the stellar pitching of Wayne Clapp, came out on top with the championship. By virtue of three years at the top, the Delts were awarded the permanent possession of the cup. Though bowling has fallen down, and first round basketball has been hit by vacation and exams, the intramural manager reports continued hopes of success.

Naturally we had our big turkey dinner previous to the Thanksgiving holiday. On Thanksgiving day most of the boys saw the best game of the entire football season in Cincinnati—a one-day vacation that was over so fast that assignments didn't have time to pile up.

On December fourth, our Bill Foote led Miami to a good time at the Sophomore Hop. The next night we had our Fall Formal; George Bahm and Bert Stohlman were responsible for the affair, which, it must be said, was the finest social event I've seen in the last three years.

Shortly thereafter our treasurer, Hal Feldmaier, received notice of his being chosen for membership in the roster of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. We are very proud of Hal's achievements, including his masterful work as treasurer and his recent election as vice-president of the Y.M.C.A. at Miami.

We are really expecting to see Wayne Clapp burn up the hardwoods in the coming weeks of the basketball season; Chub Russell and Glen Schmakel are working hard, too. It was Schmakel who was one of the most dependable runners on Miami's outstanding cross-country team this year.

Up to the present time, Gamma Upsilon has not lost one active to the services. Pledges Buettner, Jordan, and Williams have gone to work for Uncle Sam so far this year. What the future holds for the chapter is entirely dependent upon the conduct of the reserve programs by the Army and the Navy. A high percentage of our alumni of the past five years is now in service, and most of these men are officers. It is the hope of each man in the present chapter to win his commission and join in the fight, with the idea of making the peace come more quickly.

To wind up this letter, we want to thank all the chapters and alumni who have so generously sent us recommendations for prospective pledges. They've been a great help, and from our pre-rushing season view, very valuable to us.

DICK LEININGER.

Gamma Phi—Amherst

Amherst College, and as a consequence, Gamma Phi, like most other institutions of higher learning throughout the country, inaugurated an accelerated program that has necessitated many changes in fraternity life.

Not the least of these changes concerns the February graduation of seven members of the Senior class. This fact, combined with the fact that many former members of the Class of 1943 were required to leave sometime last year, leaves this chapter with but two Seniors. Members of the graduating class include David B. Carson, Youngstown, Ohio; Philip J. Driscoll, West Roxbury, Mass.; Robert L. Farwell, Kenilworth, Ill.; William A. McNamee, Scarsdale, N. Y.; Carlos Margardia, Toa Baja, Puerto Rico; Ove K. Martinsen, West Brighton, N. Y., and Warren J. Wallace, Detroit, Mich.

Because several of the officers were either graduating or being called into the service at the end of this semester, President Harry Keefe announced that elections would be held before the end of the first semester. The results of the elections found Robert S. Freeman, Wayne, Pa., elected president; Charles E. Pierson, Akron, Ohio, vice-president; Charles R. McCallum, Jr., Milwaukee, Wis., recording secretary; William B. Cecil, Grosse Pointe, Mich., corresponding secretary, and Ralph S. Goodale, Withersfield, Conn., house manager.

In the three fall sports that claimed Amherst Delts, the Lord Jeffs maintained an unbeaten, untied record. On the gridiron was Dick Donaldson, end, competing on one of New England's top football teams, and the Little Three championship squad. Ralph Goodale played center forward on Amherst's New England and Little Three championship soccer team. This was Goodale's second year as a member of an unbeaten Amherst soccer team. Also included in Amherst's fall athletic program, for the first time in the history of the school, was an obstacle course team, which raced several service teams during the fall, and maintained an unbeaten, untied record. Running for Amherst and representing Delta Tau Delta were Bob Farwell, Warren Wallace, and Morgan Kelly. At various times during the fall season, Farwell and Kelly held the course record.

With more than a fourth of the Amherst Masquers also members of Gamma Phi, it was not unusual to find the program of the Eve of St. Mark literally chuck full of Delts. Members in the cast of the play were Phil Driscoll and Dave Carson; managing the business was Bill Mc-Namee, and managing the stage was Charles McCallum. Many more were included in the program as assistants.

The new national advertising manager of the Amherst Student is Mike Hill, who assumed duties last fall in the final competition for business manager of the campus publication.

Elected to Phi Beta Kappa in the fall elections was Bob Farwell, the second member of the active chapter to be a member of the scholastic honorary. The other member is Warren Wallace, who was elected as a Junior.

BILL CECIL.

Gamma Chi—Kansas State

Gamma Chi, since last spring, has been setting somewhat of a record, both in and out of school. Only a few of the activities of this chapter can be mentioned here.

Gamma Chi, for the second consecutive year, won the all-fraternity championship trophy with a total of 1,167 points to the nearest competitor's 668 points. The all-school softball championship was won, with St. John, Horacek, and Buser being the sparkplugs. Also in the all-school championship bracket came volleyball with its regulars—Horacek, Hornsby, St. John, and Buser. Swimming was again won by Gamma Chi, for the fourth straight year. Jim Garvey, a one-man team, took four firsts, and was ably assisted by the chapter. Davis and that man Buser won the fraternity table tennis championships.

Gamma Chi proudly announces having three varsity captains this past year: Horacek, captain of the tennis team, and also of the basketball team; Hornsby, captain of the baseball team; and Kalousek, captain-elect of the swimming team. Also representing Gamma Chi on the baseball team were Bell and Conrad. In addition to Horacek, St. John also represented Gamma Chi on the basketball team; and Kalousek and Scott were on the swimming team.

In the Frosh group Garvey, swimming, Seiler, track, and Merriman, football, won numerals. In this current football season, Merriman and Conrad have proven themselves perpetual threats to K-State foes.

Gamma Chi got off to a good start with the spring formal, which was a huge success, and along with the annual Bar-B-Que, the chapter has upheld the old saying, "Be a man among men." Gamma Chi placed high in Interfraternity Sing, and numerous house dances climaxed the social calendar.

The chapter stood forth in the social fraternity scholastic standing last year, and this year promises to be one of even greater merit. Copeland, Shidler, Parker, Perkins, and Davis were the men leaning close to that cherished three-point average.

Rush Captain Davis, with his able assistant Rector, hit a new all-time high this current rush week, supervising the pledging of a total of 35 men. Each and every man is true Delt material and with careful guidance of the active chapter should prove himself so within a very short time.

Honorary and other extracurricular organizations claim many Gamma Chi men this year. Scabbard and Blade has as members Bergman, Smith, Shidler, and Wilson; Mortar and Ball, advanced Coast Artillery organization, initiated Bell and Scott. The K fraternity, organization for varsity letter men, claims Kalousek and Scott.

Now for the news from outside of the chapter, but concerning Gamma Chi men. Ensign Richard Jacard, Gamma Chi, '39, has recently been cited for the Distinguished Flying Cross, and as a radio operator he had Gabe Sellers, Gamma Chi, '40.

RIDGE L. SCOTT.

Delta Alpha—Oklahoma

Forty-four members returned and at the completion of an extensive rush program in September nineteen pledges had been brought into the fold. Immediately following fall rush, six boys were pledged off the campus. This success was largely due to the publication of the Sooner Delt by George Anthony, describing Delta Alpha, its activities and accomplishments. Formal initiation was held for the ten members of the spring pledge class November 19.

Although recognizing the University's policy of confinement of activities in keeping with the war effort, Delta Alpha once more has excelled on the O. U. campus in the field of activities. Around the campus, Dick Boyd received the annual Dad's Day award for the outstanding University Senior and citation in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities; Bill Price was appointed to the President's Class of outstanding Juniors; and Bill Bender, Delta Alpha's scholarship chairman, was elected to Junior Phi Beta Kappa and to Interfraternity Council; Jim Evans and Don Phelps are running for class officers in a hotly contested battle; George Anthony and Frank Dobyns were appointed advertising managers of the Oklahoma Daily, student publication; Herbert Keener brought out his publication of the Sooner Shamrock, engineering magazine. Our serenade of November 15 met with noteworthy praise from all the campus. At a banquet December 10, President Brandt, president of the University and founder of Delta Alpha, addressed the chapter on national defense and its relation to college students; Savoie Lottinville, chapter adviser and director of the University Press, explained the position of the Fraternity as a chapter through the coming months in relation to the war.

In Scabbard and Blade, honorary military organization, Joe Enos was elected president and three boys, Joe Owens, Maurice Lewis and Tom Ingram, were initiated, making the nineteen members from Delta Alpha the largest representation of any fraternity on the campus. The inauguration of Frontier Week with picnics, square dances, and cowboy regalia, was further livened up by the music of the Delt Trio, John Robie, Sheldon Brink, and Paul Buhl, in the University Union.

Under Paul Fielding's coaching, Delta Alpha won the Intramural Football trophy and placed three men on the All-University eleven, more than any other organization on the campus. Our tennis and softball teams went to the semifinals and the basketball team is developing nicely. Walter Moore and Wayne Smith teamed together in tennis and went to the finals. Walt also took honors in ping-pong singles.

To inaugurate the social season on the campus, Delta Alpha entertained pledges of six sororities with a series of buffet suppers. December 5 found the Delts and their dates celebrating the William and Mary game with a formal dance in the University Union ballroom. Again, following the performance of Louis Armstrong, the Delts entertained at a Christmas party in the Shelter. For the annual Texas-Oklahoma classic in Dallas the Delts turned out en masse and, thanks to Mr. Bryan Payne and Bill, the Delts won't soon forget that trip. On November 14 and 15 twenty-five rushees from all parts of the state got their first glimpse of college life when they were guests at the Shelter.

Bill Bender, scholarship chairman, though active B.M.O.C., found time to organize an effective study program which resulted in the highest scholarship average the House has turned in for years. Withstanding unforeseen events, the wandering scholarship cup will again return to its place in the Delt lounge this year.

Although the armed services have taken many outstanding men, Delta Alpha has remained strong and developed as full and effective a chapter this year as in the past.

DICK LUNN.

Delta Gamma—South Dakota

Delta Gamma started a different and difficult year for most chapters with a full house, a redecorated first floor, a mascot, and 21 new pledges.

With some financial aid and plenty of work by those of us who stayed for summer school, the entire first floor and part of the second has been refinished and the floors sanded, a new carpet for the living room and new linoleum for the kitchen, and the dining room decorated by Bob Miller with a large, painted crest along one wall. Not satisfied with all of that, we even acquired a mascot, a springer spaniel pup. Though he's lazy, fat, and "slightly" pampered, he's "Dud, the Delt's dog," to us.

Because there was no homecoming parade, our first big event of the season did not come until our fall party based on "Lil Abner," with all of Dogpatch turning out for the frolic. Because of the present conditions, our winter party will be semi-formal this year.

In activities, the Delts as usual had a large representation with Bob Erickson as editor of the Volante, and Keith Miller as sports editor of the same publication; Clair Harding and Bill Kunze, business manager and assistant business manager of the humor magazine, The Wet Hen, and Gil Paulton and Veryl Johnson holding the same positions on the yearbook, The Coyote. In dramatics, Bob Christol has had the male lead in the three plays of the season, ably supported by Bob Koehn, Odell Stoughton, Gil Paulton and Joe Manning. We also have our share of officers in other campus groups. Robert Schwab is secretary-treasurer of both Spanish Club and Radio Workshop. Joe Manning is president of Newman Club, Bob Erickson of Dakotans, honorary men's organization, and Bob Merrick is president and librarian of the University band. Chuck Berg, another of the musically inclined boys in the house, is pianist for the Varsity Men dance orchestra.

Bud Ebert, Bob Raw, Bob Miller, and Bob Christol are graduating this semester, having finished their advanced R.O.T.C. training here. Most of the boys here are taking advantage of the training and organizations which the military department offers. There are a number of men in Pershing Rifles, and Bob Antony, Bob Erickson, and Jim Sladek were initiated into Scabbard and Blade.

Basketball has always been in the Delts' forte. Ebert, Don Doohen, and Sed Stuart are lettermen on the varsity squad, and have more than proved their abilities. Last fall Gene Graham, Sophomore, made quite a name for himself on the varsity football squad. In intramural softball, we finished a close third, and placed four men on the all-intramural first team.

This winter we were sorry to lose our chapter adviser, Major Ralph Wade, military instructor at the University, who was called into active service. Major Wade was one of the original initiates into Delta Gamma when it became part of Delta Tau Delta in 1924. We wish him the best of luck—and also to the others of Delta Gamma in the services of the country. From the letters we've received here at the house, we know they are "doing us proud."

Delta Gamma's newly elected officers for the coming year are: Bob Erickson, president; Sed Stuart, vice-president; Clair Harding, treasurer; Lee Gilbert, secretary; and Bob Schwab, corresponding secretary.

ROBERT M. SCHWAB.

Delta Delta—Tennessee

One week before rushing began in the fall quarter, it was evident that Delta Delta was on the way to one of the best years in its history. The unanimous and whole-hearted spirit shown in getting ready for rush week was more than repaid by one of the best pledge classes of all time. Our pledges were found to have a wide diversity of interests, three becoming members of the publication staff of The Tennessee Engineer, another becoming a football cheerleader, two being elected members of the Association of Collegiate Engineers Governing Board, two having entered the field of dramatics and now appearing in a student play, The Eve of St. Mark, by Maxwell Anderson, and still another organizing the Delta-Shelter Glee Club, which has made quite a name for itself by performing at various campus and civic functions. When rushing was finished we found that there were men in the house from all parts of the country, one from California, a transfer from Delta Zeta at Florida, another from Cleveland, Ohio, and one from New York.

During the fall quarter, Delta Delta was entertained with a hayride and steak fry on the farm of the parents of Brother Walter Gentry, who recently transferred to Delta at Michigan, where he has become captain of Scabbard and Blade, a military honor society. Also a Halloween house dance was held, during which "The Witch Queen" was elected and presented with a black cat captured in a near-by alley.

Highlights in the fall quarter were visits of Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, of Ohio Wesleyan's Mu Chapter, who attended a Methodist convention here and of Colonel Lippert of Beta Delta, connected with the joint Army-Navy-Marine Corps recruiting committee. Delta Delta was host to aggregations from Gamma Xi of Cincinnati and from Delta Epsilon of Kentucky for their respective football games with Tennessee.

Delta Delta made football trips en masse to Birmingham and to Nashville for Tennessee's games with Alabama and Vanderbilt, respectively. In the intramural volleyball tournament, the Delts were defeated only after reaching the final bracket.

The members of Delta Delta have achieved many honors this year and hope for continued work toward even greater honors in the future. The president of the chapter, George Gleaves, has been elected president of the Circle and Torch, an honorary society. Brother Hugh Shackelford and pledge Tom Allen are members in Scabbard and Blade. Robert Schwab, illustrator for the publication, The Tennessee Engineer, has become famous on the campus for his caricature murals portraying various types of engineers which were used in decorating the Engineers' Ball.

Over the holidays Delt parties were held in Memphis and in Nashville. At the present time, Delta Delta is preparing for its annual formal dance which promises to be one of the best dances of the year. Preparations are being made for Greek Week on the Tennessee campus. Greek Week is a week in which the pledges are feted and sent to various fraternity houses to foster interfraternity good will and to prepare the pledges for initiation which follows. Plans are under way for a pledge dinner given by the active members of the Chapter, in which the places of the active and pledge are reversed. With a good background of singing practice Delta Delta's chances of winning the University Sing are very good.

Only two actives and four pledges have entered the armed forces, so our ranks have not been thinned out to a great extent. One pledge, Jerome Butler, has entered West Point. It is felt that with the fairly light loss of men to the armed forces, Delta Delta should go on to even better things in the future.

CHARLES D. MOAK.

Delta Zeta—Florida

The close of the first semester found Delta Zeta with the largest active chapter in its seventeen years of existence. Recent initiations make the membership twenty-six, while pledges bring the total to forty. Approximately 70 per cent of these are in some reserve program.

The chapter launched its first, and what we hope to be annual Rainbow Ball the week end of November 20. Dates arrived Friday afternoon for an exploratory hike through Warren's Cave, one of the local geological oddities. That evening members and their guests ate in candlelight during the banquet, which was followed by the formal dance at the chapter. Miss Janie Clark, sister of pledge Phil Clark, was crowned Queen of the Rainbow Ball. Saturday afternoon featured a hayride to a log cabin owned by an alumnus, where canoeing and dancing were events of entertainment. Coincidence cannot explain the fact that several orders for sister pins were placed in the mail before the dates were safely put on the train Sunday. Much of the success of this Delt affair can be directly credited to George Shaw, our social chairman.

The chapter was favored with a visit from Burwell Jordan, one of our most faithful Tampa alumni. His interest and encouragement inspired the members toward activities which will be advantageous to Delta Tau Delta.

Delta Zeta continues to keep up the athletic pace it has set for itself in Florida's famed intramurals program. Our horseshoe, football, basketball, shuffleboard, and volleyball teams advanced well along the line toward final victory.

The chapter is making a conscientious effort to effect an improvement in its scholarship program, which last year, due to uncertain world conditions, suffered somewhat and fell below the chapter's self-appointed standards.

Delta Zeta realizes its loss with the mid-year graduation of Jack Gruber and James Wattenbarger, both of whom leave with "honors" and Phi Kappa Phi keys.

Members returned from Christmas vacations ready to meet whatever events face them in the coming semester with characteristic intelligence and unemotional action.

GRADY DRAKE.

Delta Eta—Alabama

Delta Eta got off to a fast start this fall in spite of a number of difficulties. President "Bunny" Sarver did not return to us in September, having taken the marriage vows in June. Ed Starkey was elected to replace him and though new to the job wasted no time in getting everything well organized. In spite of the war and its drain on college man power we had a good number of actives back and they all co-operated beautifully with our new president to make the fall term a success.

The seventeen returning members did not find the rushing picture any too bright as the university enrollment had dropped considerably due to the war effort. In spite of all this we had one of the most successful rush seasons in recent years. When the rush season ended we had pledged twenty-two fine boys and prospective Delts. We had a number of fine recommendations from Delt alumni in several sections of the country.

Delta Eta's football prospects appeared to be good in the early fall, but we encountered difficulties which dimmed our showing quite a bit. Most of our good players were in engineering school and the many afternoon labs kept them from many of the games in addition to the practices. In spite of these difficulties the Delts always had a team on the field at starting time and the opposition knew they had been in a game at the final gun. With our new volleyball court we started practice early and were ready for a top showing in the volleyball tournament when it was postponed until the spring. We had beaten every neighboring fraternity in practice games and when spring comes it looks like the Delts will be the team to beat. Right now basketball preparations are under way and our prospects look fairly good. The boys are starting to get in some hard practices and we may turn up with a top team.

This year because of the war effort, we have tried to keep our social affairs on the informal basis with an eye to economy. We have had several informal house dances and parties and two barbecues in the backyard over our new barbecue pit.

The pledges gave a "Bowery Ball" in mid-fall which was quite an event. The house was decorated in the style of the "Gay Nineties Bowery" and the members and their dates were dressed to suit the occasion. Just before Christmas, we had our formal house dance and party. The house was decorated with Christmas lights and greenery and the presents were under the tree.

The chapter has set out this year to give our scholarship a good boost. The first quarter averages have not been released as yet, but we should have climbed a number of notches judging by the members' grades. Our high grade men of the past continued their fine work and many of the other men really outdid themselves this time. Top honors go to President Ed Starkey, with a 2.5 over in engineering school.

The men of Delta Eta are trying to keep their fingers in college activities regardless of the fact that most of them are in some kind of war training and the school is on the accelerated basis. Ed Starkey was elected to Theta Tau in the engineering school, which is a mark of high achievement in the field of engineering. Keith Yoder, Bob Haig, and Ed Eudy are members of Delta Sigma Pi which is a similar honor in commerce school. Jerry Goode was elected vice-president of the Junior class in Chemistry School and is rapidly becoming one of the top men in that branch of the University. Frank Gaddis is one of the active members of Blackfriars Dramatic Society. Frank is also president of the Newman Club and one of that organization's national officers. Bus Waite and Ed Schurick are active members of the Spirit Committee. Schurick, now a Senior, continues to be active in all phases of the Chemistry School as well as his other activities. A very good number of the chapter is in some type of war training. Ed Schurick, Dick Van Horn, George Merwin, Andy Dailley, Bill Wright, Keith Yoder, Jerry Goode, Bus Waite, and Ed Eudy are in advanced R.O.T.C. working for commissions in the Army. Ed Starky and Bill Hiering are ensigns in the Naval Reserve. John Dehn, Dick Myers, Tom Holloway, and Frank Oleri are in the Air Corps Reserve. Now many of our younger men are going into various reserves. The Navy and Marine Corps seems to be the big attraction with many of them.

At this time Delta Eta has many of her men in the service of our country. We know where some of them are and many we have lost track of during the course of their travels. Lt. Charley Knop, '42, is now navigating bombers over Europe. Lt. Marion Coley is still out in Hawaii. Lt. Bud Williams, '41, visited us the other day having just arrived from Panama, where he had been for over a year. He is now going to be stationed in this country. Lt. John Long, '40, has been missing in action since last April. He was in Australia with the Army Air Corps. Bill Walker is a civilian engineer with the Air Corps in Northern Ireland. He said that he had run into Lts. Gerard Heimer and "Doc" Baker over in that part of the world. The last word from Frank Lineberry, '40, divulged him to be with a Marine construction outfit in Trinidad. Other members of which we have word are Aviation Cadet Bill Beatty in Texas, Pvt. Scotty Ames in Kansas, Corp. John Voyer in Texas, John Prutton in Mississippi, Pvts. Ed Ginn and "Bromo" Selzer in South Carolina, and Rhodes Thomas in North Carolina. We wish that all Delt alumni in service would keep us posted as to their whereabouts, and all alumni not in service who know of other Delts who are would give us all the information they can. We want to start a service plaque and there must be many of our Delts in service that we do not know about.

Happy New Year to all Delts everywhere from the members of Delta Eta.

B. EDWIN EUDY, JR.

Delta Theta—Toronto

This year, when the fall term began, we were seriously handicapped by the small number of actives who returned to school. Many of our boys were on active service. However, we began rushing and obtained a fine group of pledges, two of whom were not pledged soon enough to be announced in the November issue. They are Jack "Slim" McCarthy and Frank "Whitey" Belshaw, both hailing from Brantford, Ontario, and both taking Mechanical Engineering. "Whitey" has proved himself to be a very fine pianist. Pledge Jack Mackay was successful in being elected vice-president of the first-year class in Engineering.

The biggest event of the fall term was the Annual Hard Times which was held at the Shelter and was attended by approximately 35 couples. The house was decorated from stem to stern with soft lights and Varga drawings. In the past we have usually decorated with straw and newsprint wallpaper, but since the house corporation redecorated the living rooms beautifully this year, we decided that we should dispense with this. Second only to the Hard Times Party was the Mothers' and Wives' Party. Everyone had a good time, especially the grads, when they were dancing with the actives' girl friends. We don't blame them. We think they're pretty nice, too. The proceeds of this party went to buy Christmas presents for the boys overseas, and by now they have these parcels, packed with such care by the Mothers' and Wives' Club.

Johnny Northwood once again is right up there with the top swimmers of the University. This year he has been instructing at Hart House. John Feldhans continued his fine track career. "Stew" Graham played football for the Senior "School" team and starred in the backfield. Dave Craig, our star gymnast, will be back on the bars again this year, and pledge Doug Heustis will accompany him. Skiing has just started, but it looks as if Keith Sproule will give a good account of himself in this sport.

During the past month, one of our brothers has gone to his eternal rest in the service of his country. Flight Lieutenant Herbert Elgin Mitchell, 3T5 B. Comm., died on active service with the R.C.A.F.

Brother Jim Davidson is now serving as a sub-lieutenant in the Canadian Navy. Pledge R. O. B. "Tip" Williamson left in November for Gordon Head, British Columbia, as an officer-cadet in the artillery. Pledge Jack Mackay is waiting to follow Tip as soon as possible. Every member of the University, who is not on active service with some unit, must take C.O.T.C. training seven hours every week.

God bless America. God save the King.

FRED A. BELL.

Delta Iota—U.C.L.A.

In reviewing the fall and winter activities of Delta Iota, the biggest event for our chapter was the success of the U.C.L.A. football team. For the first time in history, U.C.L.A. beat S.C. in the annual cross-town game and in so doing received the Rose Bowl nomination. Delta Iota is proud to claim Chet Miller, senior manager of the team, as well as Bob Reber and Declan Ford, trainers, and Jack Howard, manager. In the line of sports, Delta Iota is well represented in basketball by Dick Harris, senior manager, and by Jack Baddeley, Ains Bell, John Fryer, all first-string players. The chapter has also done very well in interfraternity athletics and is now heading into the finals in basketball.

Delta Iota has not let the war, dimouts, or gas rationing prohibit its social activities. Our booming pledge class of twenty gave a Christmas Pledge Formal at the chapter house which was considered one of the best pledge parties on record. New Year's Eve was the occasion for a combined New Year and Rose Bowl celebration, also held at the chapter house, with members and dates "walking" to and from the party. These parties, along with several exchange dinners, have kept Delta Iota men socially active.

Our chapter has had several highly successful alumni dinners and Mother-Father banquets. For these we owe a great deal of credit to Jack Seiter, our new chapter adviser, and to the very active Delt Mothers Club. The Mothers Club also came to bat when due to the war we developed a "cook shortage."

Delta Iota has contributed many men to national defense and can boast of men serving in the Solomons, in Africa, in Hawaii, and in England, as well as in all parts of the continental United States, from San Francisco to Miami, Florida. As for men active in the house, all are in either Army or Navy R.O.T.C., or in one of the reserves. In connection with Army and Navy R.O.T.C., Bill Duddleson, Gordon Hewson, and Phil Hutchins were recently tapped for Scabbard and Blade membership.

In closing, Delta Iota wishes to extend a hearty welcome to all Delt service men who may be stationed near Westwood or passing through Southern California, and an invitation to drop in at any time.

ED SORVER.

Delta Kappa—Duke

Delta Kappa is still booming this year in spite of the draft situation and the prospect of the Army and Navy taking over the universities. Although the armed forces have drawn numerous Delt from this chapter in the past year, their departure has only tended toward drawing us closer together in the Delt bond of friendship.

Weekly open houses characterized the social activities of Delta Kappa during the football season this year. Open houses, country banquets and cabin parties have also played their part in making a success of the social end of the first semester of 1942-43. Due to an interfraternity ruling, fraternity dances are banned this year at Duke because of the war.

Dick Sanborn was our outstanding University cheerleader this year, doing a swell job each Saturday for the team and for the fans. The wrestling and basketball trophies are in the offing for Delta Kappa as the intramural season is rapidly coming to a close. Al Farley and Steve Berte are doing a grand job on the mat. A new trophy case was purchased this year, so for once we will not have to crowd additional trophies in our prize collection.

Delta Kappa's scholastic average for this semester promises to be exceptionally high. Most of the brothers are living proof that one can have a good time in college and at the same time make good marks. Bill Dackis is sure to maintain his all "A" record and continue on toward Phi Beta Kappa, and our Dean's list members promise to increase in number.

Dick Sanborn was elected to the Student Government Association this year. Some of our members also wear badges of the following honorary organizations: Pi Mu Epsilon, Kappa Delta Pi, Tau Psi Omega, Hesperian Union, Pre Med Society, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Beta Omega Sigma, and Phi Eta Sigma. Five Deltas are on the Freshman Advisory Council, while we also had men on the Freshman and Sophomore "Y" Councils. John Mills holds the post of office manager of the campus newspaper.

Last year's prexy, Gerry Smith, is now an ensign in the Navy, and Dick Haines, who began this year as president, has left for pilot training in the Navy, accompanied by Joe Pansing and Bill Kough. Steve Berte and Tom Moore have received their commissions in the Medical Reserve Corps of the Army, while Ed Smith, Al Farley, and Dave Morton are still holding out for theirs as pre-med students. Twelve of us are in various Army and Navy reserve groups. Another way in which Delta Kappa is helping in the war effort is by co-operating with the other Duke fraternities in buying war bonds.

Five freshmen open houses have been held with great success in view of the war situation. We are confident of drawing many freshmen this year, especially those in reserve groups. Rush week comes in February as part of Duke's delayed rushing plan. We are putting on a greater-than-ever rush campaign this year because of the war situation, so that we may maintain or augment our number of members and pledges and in that way assure the continued success of Delta Kappa.

MORRIS W. PITTS.

Delta Lambda—Oregon State

Delta Lambda started its fall term by pledging twenty-four Freshmen, which promised to be one of the best pledge classes Delta Lambda has ever had. Due to the war, the chapter lost two members and five pledges to the armed services. By maintaining an intensive rushing program we were able to replace the lost pledges.

The annual pledge dance was held early in the term and this was followed by the pledge dinner. The pledges brought their dates to the chapter house and the members waited tables and served the pledges. Plans are now being made for the winter formal dance, which will be the House dance of the school year.

Cal Schmidt, the chapter president, was elected, at last spring term's election, vice-president of the Associated Students of Oregon State College. Schmidt was also listed in the college's Who's Who, and initiated into the Senior men's honorary, Blue Key. Bill Beeson, the house manager, was elected president of the Co-Op Managers Association and also the Withycombe Club. Melvin Look was initiated into the band honorary, Kappa Kappa Psi.

Marvin Markman won his third letter in varsity football this last fall term. Dorval Binegar, a senior member, is the assistant director of intramural sports at Oregon State. Delt Freshmen pledges Charles Apple and Bill Powell made their numerals in Freshmen football, and Freshmen Alex Peterson, an All-City Portland High School basketball star, is quite prominent in Freshman basketball and has a chance to play varsity this winter term.

Fifteen of the twenty-four pledges made their grades and the chapter is looking forward to the initiation of these men and their entrance into the chapter. The chapter was saddened by the news that two of our alumni were killed in action in the armed services.

OMER T. TAYLOR.

Delta Mu—Idaho

This year Delta Mu has been doing its part in furnishing men for the armed services. We now have over twenty-five of our fellows in the various branches of the service and when the Enlisted Reserve Corps is called to active duty, we will lose nine more of our group. Early in the year our chapter adviser, Allen Janssen, was called to serve in the Navy. Don Corless is now acting chapter adviser for Delta Mu. Despite our depleting ranks we are looking forward to a successful second semester here at Idaho.

This year we had a very successful rushing season. The rushing committee, headed by Ralph Didriksen, did a remarkable job considering that they obtained fourteen pledges when there were only four members who were able to return to school this year.

The social highlight of the year was our annual Russian Ball, which was ranked first among all campus social events for the post-holiday season by the editor of the Argonaut, the University's weekly publication. In October, the pledges were honored at our yearly Pledge Dance. This, too, was a very colorful and successful dance. Immediately preceding the holiday the pledges, here at Delta Mu, entertained at a gay and humorous Christmas party. Throughout the party the pledges put on skits characterizing the different members. Social Chairman Jack Julian has promoted a goodly number of enjoyable firesides and exchanges. In particular, the dinner exchange with Alpha Chi Omega was especially successful.

This year we were forced to hold a special election of officers due to the fact that all but one of the officers who were elected last year were in the armed services or unable to return to school. The administration which was chosen at this special election was: James Spofford, president; Kinsley Brown, vice-president; Ralph Didriksen, treasurer; Jack Berry, assistant treasurer; Robert Nelson, recording secretary; and Jack Berry, corresponding secretary.

This year we have again put into operation The Delt Development Program. Kinsley Brown is in charge of this program and under his direction the pledges have been conducting the classes. This year the pledges seem to be taking a more active interest in this program and, therefore, they are deriving even more from these classes than they did last year.

Delta Mu initiated five men the first semester.

JACK H. BERRY.

Delta Nu—Lawrence

This fall the returning Lawrence Deltas found themselves without a president, for George Hedge had enlisted in the Signal Corps and had begun training in Chicago. Rather than disrupt pledging activities it was decided to postpone the election of another president until after pledge week. The entire chapter then united behind Rushing Cochairmen Wally Patten and Herb Boge and pledged twenty outstanding freshmen. A welcome and tireless visitor during rush week was Beta Eta's Johnny Date, who stopped over en route to Naval Aviation Training.

We chose as our new president Delta Nu's gift to swimming, song-writing, and the fair sex, Wally Patten. Herb Boge is vice-president, and the offices of secretary and treasurer are filled by Ev Turley and Milt Promer, respectively.

When the undefeated, untied Lawrence football team took the field last fall, four Delts supplied a very powerful nucleus. Quarterback George Lucht is the first man in the history of the College to be elected captain in his junior year. Small, scrappy Joe Greco has been called by impartial observers the most valuable man on the team. If our opponents attempted to run our ends they were stopped by either Bill Burton or Paul Maertzweiler. On the bench, ready for action and usually getting plenty of it, were reserve tackles Jim Steward and Ed Nye, and end George VanderWeyden. On the Frosh squad the Delts were represented by numeral winners Bob Baker, John Bryden, and Dick Zeinemann.

At Homecoming time the Delts spurred the team to victory with their house decorations, which won first prize. As a sign of the times, we received an "ersatz" trophy, which is now proudly displayed in our library.

Taking their cue from our varsity performers, the Delt football team went through the interfraternity league undefeated and thus won the first leg of the Supremacy Cup race. Our top rating was further strengthened when Gordon Butke, medalist for the day, led a strong Delt golf team to victory in the school golf tournament early in the fall. At present our interfraternity basketball entrant is tied for first place in a very tight race.

The Lawrence swimming team is rapidly being whipped into shape by the student-coach, Wally Patten, and his assistant Captain Ev Turley. Other Delts on the squad are Jack Nowak and Louis Traas, who had a sensational season as Frosh breaststroker last year. Bob Hefferen has taken over the managerial duties on the team which makes it practically a complete Delt institution.

This year the nationally renowned Lawrence a capella choir is fortified by twelve Delts, who carry their experience over to the Delt choir to make it the finest on the campus. Already we have sung at several civic gatherings, the football awards banquet, and have been asked to entertain during the intermission of a basketball game in the near future.

To prove that the Delts of Delta Nu are versatile, three of our members were prominent in the fall presentation of Squaring the Circle, by the Lawrence College Theater. Our leading thespian, John Wadd, who spent the summer in stock "out East," was elected to Sunset, national honorary dramatic society, after his performance. Capably assisting him were deep-voiced Wally Chilsen and a talented pledge, Steve Meyer.

The Delts have been kept on their toes socially by the fortunate appointment of Bob Nystrom as social chairman. We have had frequent house parties and our Winter Formal, held early in December, was the highlight of the social season. Bob has made the chapter a very popular promise to throw a gala South Sea Islands party, and he has many other novel plans for the future.

The majority of us here at Delta Nu are anticipating and welcoming the call to service in the near future. This is serving as an added stimulus to us to instill the principles of The Delt Development Program in our pledges, in order that they may keep the foundation of the fraternity strong throughout the war, and that when victory is won Delta Tau Delta will still be a source of inspiration to her sons.

JOHN D. DYER.

Delta Xi—North Dakota

Delta Xi started the 1942-43 school year with a repainted, re-shingled house and an active chapter of seven men. Twenty prospective members have been pledged, and with last year's returning pledges, the house is filled to capacity.

Continuing our high standards of scholarship, Delta Xi rated second highest among fraternities in scholarship last semester. Again, our average was above the all-university average. With a very promising pledge class, we are confident that we will again be back in first place at the end of this semester.

Prexy Clifford Anzjon, '43, is cadet captain, adjutant, of the R.O.T.C. Unit; president of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity; and secretary-treasurer of the Interfraternity Council. Russell Kruger, '43, was elected president of the Kampus Keglers, university bowling league. Ronald Fett, '45, was selected as a member of Kappa Kappa Psi, honorary band fraternity. Theodore Naslund, '45, is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Freshman scholastic fraternity. We have three members in A.I.M.E., one member in A.I.E.E. and one member in A.S.C.E.

Highest social honors came to Delta Xi when Pledge Julio Marcolini was crowned "Dream Man" at the annual Spinster's Skip. Coming from Brooklyn, "Butch" captivated the hearts of all the UNDCoeds and received an almost unanimous vote.

Highlight of the social season was the Winter Formal, which was held at the chapter house early in January.

RONALD FETT.

Delta Omicron—Westminster

Delta Omicron opened its fall semester by pledging eighteen of the best men on the campus. The draft took two of our pledges who made the varsity basketball team. It is very possible that the draft will take several more before this semester is over.

Our new president, George DuToit, has been elected president of Alpha Phi Omega. John Bondurant, who will leave at the end of this semester, is our representative in the Student Council. Wallace Odell is the new associate-editor of the Columns, Westminster's student newspaper. Evert Erlandson is a member of the Skulls of Seven, Westminster's disciplinary group. Robert Ehrenberg, our past president, has been nominated to Who's Who in American Colleges and Uni- versities. John Bondurant, Frank Winters, and Gilbert Jordan hold student assistantships in the biology department. Frank Winters, John Bondurant, Evert Erlandson, and Gilbert Jordan are members of Phi Rho Epsilon, of which Bondurant is past-president, and Jordan the new secretary-treasurer. Wallace Odell is the newly elected vice-president of Y.M.C.A., and Bill Broderick is on the cabinet. E. Turley Perry, one of our newly initiated members, is President of Philologics, Freshman Literary Society. Jack Carson and Dick Watkins represent the House on the Pan-Hell Council.

Delta Omicron has, in the last two semesters, obtained the highest scholastic average to be made on Westminster campus. We are now the proud possessors of the George W. English Scholarship Trophy, by virtue of maintaining a two-semester average of 87.98. We are all striving hard to finish the present semester with as good a record.

Our first formal of the present semester was the Pledge Formal, held in October. The house was attractively decorated with the pledge pin as the main scheme. Large paddles and plaques added to the atmosphere, and small paddles were given as favors.

Delta Omicron's next formal dance was the much looked-forward-to Christmas Formal. As this was possibly our last formal dance for the duration, everyone present was all out for a good time.

After starting the season with a tie for first place in softball, the Delts have been out of the limelight in intramurals. In tennis and golf we got off to a poor start, but were able to finish in third place in both sports. With basketball coming up in a few weeks, we are confidently looking forward again to leading the campus athletics.

Many active alumni are now active in the armed forces of the United States. These men include: Ensign Ronald L. Somerville, who was recently commissioned in the Naval Air Corps at Jacksonville, Florida; Ensigns Gene and Richard Booth, along with Theodore R. Zickos, represent us in the Naval Reserve through V-7; Ensigns J. R. Jackson and E. R. Larson, represent us in the Naval Air Corps Reserve. In the Army we have Lt. Roddy, Lt. Hustad, Corporals Downs and Canon, and Privates Brantley, Payne, and Braham.

Many actives in the house are in Reserves and expect to go into active service shortly. These men include: Robert Fisher, Dick Watkins, Robert E. Orten, Robert Ehrenberg, John Williamson, Jack Carson, Wallace Odell, William Icenogle, and H. D. Gardner in the Naval Reserve. Joseph Brisley is our only active in the Army Reserve. In the Medical Administrative Corps, AUS, are John Bondurant, Frank Winters, Evert Erlandson and Robert Terrill.

We extend a most hearty welcome to all our brothers who are now stationed near Delta Omicron.

JOHN L. OWEN.

Delta Pi—U.S.C.

The year 1942-43 has promised great things for Delta Pi. To start the semester off with a bang, the Delts brought together the largest and one of the finest classes yet to wear the pledge button for this chapter. Twenty fellows, full of spirit, sincerity, and ideas joined the Delt forces. Jerry Beck was elected pledge president and led the yearlings through a semester of clean fun and serious study.

The chapter's scholastic standing was again tops on campus—the second consecutive semester. With an average of 1.520, Delta Pi won the Dean Francis Bacon Cup for scholarship, based on a yearly grade average. With confidence of continued success, the fellows look for another year of leadership in scholastic competition.

Delta Pi has steadily gained recognition on the campus of the University of Southern California. With the same progress, the chapter has outgrown its chapter house. More fellows desired to "live in" than could be accommodated, so something had to be done. This something took the shape of a spacious sleeping porch. With this addition, the number of Delts living in has been almost doubled. Never known to relax their vigilance, the chapter hopes to find it necessary to acquire still more room for the still greater number hoped for in the near future.

Our ever-faithful Mother's Club played the part of Santa Claus this Christmas, and presented the chapter a complete set of bedspreads. Very active, and appreciated by all of Delta Pi, the Mother's Club is always ready to help the chapter house to be a real home to its boys.

Delta Pi has successfully competed in interfraternity activities on campus. Now she has proven herself to be among the top chapters of Delta Tau Delta. The chapter paper, Delta Troy Delta, was selected as the finest publication of all Delt chapters. The fellow who did 99 per cent of the work and deserves credit of the same proportion was Bob Reynolds, who, as quiet and unassuming as he is, presented the house with a truly great paper.

Brother Barry Hillard, Delta Pi's faithful adviser, presented the chapter a beautiful silver cup as a Christmas present. Barry stipulated that the cup shall be a perpetual trophy to be awarded by the chapter to that member voted to be most outstanding for the year. The Barry Hillard Cup shall long be a symbol of Delta Pi's true Delt leadership.

The new treasurer of Delta Pi Chapter is S. M. Hufstедler. S. M. succeeds Ken Morse, who has given much of his time and effort to the betterment of the chapter. The newly elected assistant treasurer is David Dow.

Service uniforms are now being worn by several members and pledges who were with the chapter at the beginning of the spring semester. Brother Lance Mason reported to Kelly Field, Texas, in October, 1942. Lance's grade on the Army Air Corps test was one of the highest in the Southern California area. Bicknell Showers was inducted into the Army, via the draft, January 7, 1943, and Pledge Bob Merritt beat him in by just four days. The balance of the chapter is, at this writing, intact. Every reserve program is represented in the chapter. Every one of Delta Pi's reservists is ready to perform active duty if so instructed, but the chapter will continue to be one of outstanding success until the last of its members answers the call to arms.

KENYON V. CRAWFORD.

DOING DOUBLE DUTY

JEWELRY FOR THE ARMED FORCES
AND FOR THE FRATERNITIES

We Are Proud of Our Double-Duty Service

What Your Official Jewelry Contract Means NOW

We are honored to serve the men and women in the armed forces of our country and we also take pride in continuing to serve the fraternities and sororities.

In these troublesome days, your official jewelry contract means more for your protection than ever before . . .

In spite of increasingly greater restrictions and difficulties in securing raw materials; in spite of diminishing man power, your Official Jeweler carries on, serving each chapter with insignia and fraternity jewelry.

In the 1943 BALFOUR BLUE BOOK, you will find many gifts and favors in a wide price range. Many chapters are presenting a gift to those members who have entered the armed forces. We offer many suggestions for your selection.

MILITARY SERVICE PASS CASE

Leather bill fold—pass case has proved the most popular accessory used by the men in service.

Four celluloid wings carry passes, pictures, identification cards, licenses, and other important notes. Cover features hand-tooled effect design for each branch of the Service. Suntan cowhide for long wear. Style 565-43, Page 24, 1943 BLUE BOOK.

★ . . Write for BLUE BOOK . . ★

ROLL OF HONOR SCROLL

To Honor Members in the Service—Every chapter should honor the members serving in the Armed Forces. A white parchment scroll has recently been completed fully engraved in gold, red, and blue.

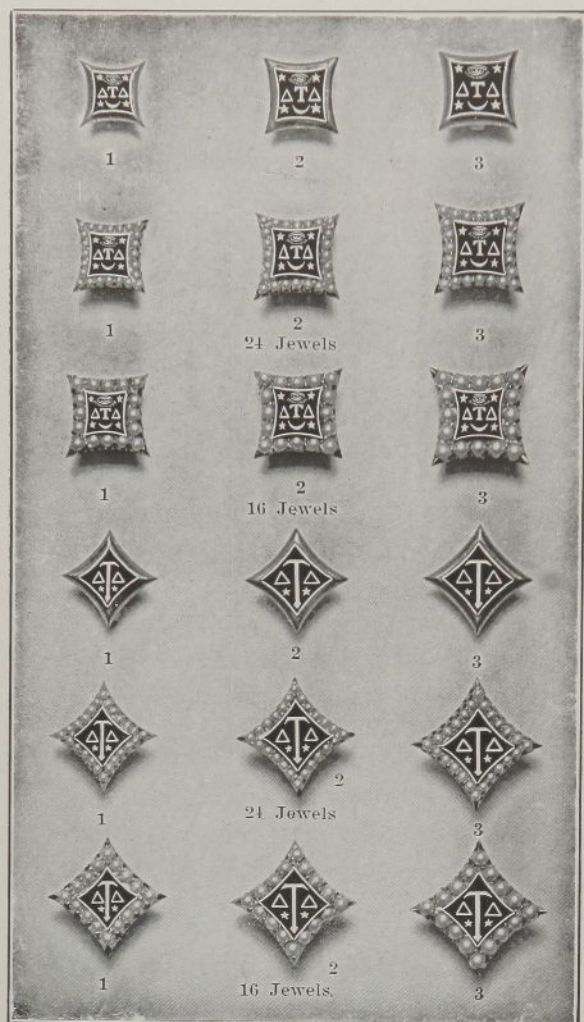

Fraternity and chapter hand-engrossed as well as names of all members in the Service. Reasonable cost. Scrolls are furnished plain or framed. See the Balfour representative.
