Delt Interfraternity Leader Discusses Postwar Obligations of Fraternities

THE belief is general that fraternity life will be different after the war, but no one seems to know what the difference will be. Yet, unless we have some idea, at least of the direction of the impending change, how can we be ready for it when it arrives?

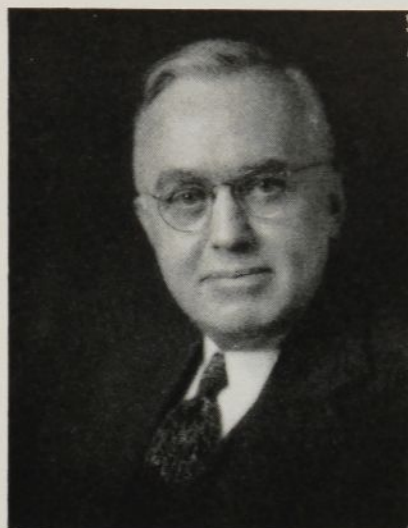

We have considerable data on which we can base some conclusions:

Social and Economic Factors

1. This war is merely a phase of a social revolution which has been sweeping over the face of the earth for decades, whose objective, to quote Governor Bricker, is to "rediscover the place of the individual in society." It is the penalty we are paying for the loose, if not unmoral, thinking of the past half century, for our emphasis on the material, and our rejection of the intangible. The financial burden of the war will be spread over at least the next generation, and it would be foolhardy to expect the "American way of living" to return soon in all its questionable glory. The individual will have less money, a better sense of values, and will insist upon a more adequate return. We shall hear more about democracy in its real sense, for the individual cannot recover his place in society except on a democratic basis of self-determination. There will be a day of reckoning for many a delusion with which we have been nursing ourselves into a sense of false security. The perverted doctrine of the superiority of races or groups must fall by the wayside; superficial and arbitrary distinctions will seem less tolerable. We may even have to work and save for our own security instead of counting on handouts.

Education's Problem

2. The educational program seems due for drastic overhauling, for it is inconceivable that an im-

Editor's Note: Alvan E. Duerr, well-known interfraternity leader, writes a column, One Man's Opinion, for each number of Banta's Greek Exchange. We reprint his column from the July issue with acknowledgement to the George Banta Publishing Company. Herein Dr. Duerr, who has a wealth of background on fraternity problems, discusses the postwar place of the fraternity in the educational field.

poverished and war-weary people will tolerate a philosophy of education which has made possible two world wars in one generation. If the individual is to be restored to his place in society, education must rediscover him, abandon the technique of mass production, and concentrate on the development of the individual as a responsible member of society. It must assume a large share of the blame for the loose thinking of the past, and repair the damage. It must restore the recognition of the intangibles, that means the humanities, among other things. Unless the war is teaching us nothing, the Liberal Arts college should come into its own again and stand at the focal point of all education.

The present domination of the technical is a war measure, which must be abandoned with war, unless we want a state of perpetual war instead of the peace for which we say we are fighting. Teachers must be held to a stricter accountability to society; their teaching must be more constructive. Men must leave college with something approaching a philosophy of life, which connotes firm convictions and a sense of social obligation.

Ex-Service Men in College

3. Men who have been in the service will return to college in large numbers. There is talk even of the Government's financing a college education for many of them to soften the impact of general unemployment. These men will have had a brutalizing experience, and the reaction against the discipline and the hardship they have undergone will be sharp. The question will arise whether, as happened twenty-five years ago, they shall set the mores for the campus, or an intelligent effort shall be made to restore normal attitudes and standards.

Status of the Fraternities

4. The college fraternities are in a stronger position today than ever before in their history. Fewer institutions would be without them. They have never received so much sympathetic help from college administrations as they are receiving during this crisis. For, if we read present trends correctly, the greater emphasis on the social competency of the individual points more than ever to the need of organizations which concern themselves primarily with training the individual in the practical art of living effectively in a group. And it follows that the fraternities could easily be indispensable to education in its task of developing the individual in terms of his place in society. That augurs a greater sense of responsibility on the part of the college for what fraternities are and do. As the college is subjected to rigorous scrutiny and revision, so it in turn will subject every agency on its campus to the same scrutiny and revision, and will insist that it conform to the revised educational program. That means a closer relation between college and fraternity, a more direct supervision of the fraternity, a recognized share in the educational program, and greater responsibility to the college for its performance.

If this line of reasoning is correct in its broad principles, it should not be too hard to formulate a postwar program that will enable the fraternities to start off on the right foot when normal conditions prevail once more, and then to play a really significant rôle in undergraduate life. Let us therefore examine in some detail a few of the changes in our past practice which seem imperative if we are to fit into the new order of things. This new order should make its start in our educational system, since that must give to the individual the disposition and the equipment to do what needs to be done.

Democracy

There is nothing basically undemocratic about the college fraternity; yet the charge persists. The real difficulty is that our whole concept of democracy has been illogical, socially unsound, and contrary to the laws of nature. If we are to have progress, we may not attempt to keep everyone on the same level; that contravenes the law of selection and of the survival of the fittest. If education is a realistic preparation for life, as was so ably set forth by the N. P. C. in its recent presentation of the case to one of our foremost institutions, we must prepare the student for the constant operation of this law of selection in myriads of ways throughout life.

But the fraternities might well make less of the mere fact of membership. A man or woman is no better for being elected to a fraternity; he merely has a better opportunity to make something better of himself; and the opportunity may easily be neglected. There should be less publicity and less flaunting about the whole performance, and the attempt to carry out into life any suggestion of superiority or privilege based on mere membership in this or that fraternity is an amusing overstatement of the finality of judgment of young college boys and girls. If fraternity membership is priceless, it requires no artificial respiration. If fraternity life is a good way of living, it will not make it harder for others to live. The postwar world will hardly tolerate that weakness of ours, which the unsympathetic call snobbery, but will insist that we think more of our responsibility and less of our privilege, if in fact we have any. Hence, as posit No. 1, let us develop some of that consideration which is the crown of social competency, and let us learn to function in greater understanding of the rights of the entire group—the student body. We exist for the good of our members and for the good of our college. In solving our own problems we may not create unnecessary problems for others.

Social Competency

The college fraternity has contributed much to the social competency of its members, as an inevitable consequence of group living and democratic self-government. But this has been the by-product rather than the deliberate objective of fraternity life. It should now become the premeditated product. There should be a conscious program of personal development, not technical or professional, but an awareness of the student's purpose at college, a subordination of group activities to that purpose, and a deliberate molding of the member's attitudes and directing of his conduct so as to enable him to achieve results commensurate with his ability and his opportunity. Social competency includes the performance of one's obligations in a given society, and in a group of students every idler, every man who doesn't carry his share of the load, is a social liability.

Moreover, the fraternity cannot be true to its own idealism if it refuses to be its brother's keeper. A man's environment is judged by its positive influence and not by vicarious results. The college has a deep responsibility to the student's parents for the environment with which it surrounds him and for the influence that it exerts in his behalf. When the college delegates to the fraternity the privilege of furnishing this environment—and we ask it to do so—we may not shirk the accompanying responsibility.

It will be harder for men to finance a college education; this fact, and the tremendous responsibilities which the coming generation must assume, both make for greater seriousness of purpose and greater insistence upon an adequate return. The advantages of fraternity life will have to be more than vicarious if the fraternities are to appeal to the substantial element in the student body. Parents, college, and student will join in forcing this realization upon us. New standards of adequacy await us.

And finally, we need more realism in college and fraternity life. A college course is not a good preparation for life if it tolerates standards of conduct or performance which are not in harmony with what will be required for noteworthy achievement in the world at large. Men should not have to unlearn what they learned at college before they can begin to make good. Excepting only the dean's office, there is no finer agency on the campus for driving home this truth than the chapter house. The chapter must not help its members to get away with anything which in later years will exact a heavy price.

Salvaging the Returning Service Men

The problem of what can and must be done to help the men who return to college from the war was discussed at some length in the last issue. But it must have a place in any postwar program that we adopt. What we do to help the college to solve this problem will go far toward establishing the position of the fraternities in the years ahead. It is too good an opportunity to neglect.

Relations With the Colleges

The relations of the fraternities with the colleges have been becoming more and more co-operative in recent years, and this movement will continue in the very nature of things. For the fraternities are performing a function of the utmost importance to the educational process, and neither college nor fraternity nor member can afford uncertain results. The same standards should obtain for all three, and the same accountability. The new social concept for the individual entails a self-discipline that has been unknown to us all, and adds weight to its axiom that the only value in education comes through self-education. That removes the artificial barrier between the college and any of its groups or individual students, because there are no divergent interests, and the fraternity's entire setup should proceed from this base.

As an agency of the college, even from the standpoint of their own selfish interests, the fraternities might well assume real leadership in raising the tone of student life, and measure their own value in terms of usefulness to the college and its student body as well as, more selfishly, to their own members. In later life men's achievements are appraised in accordance with their value to society. In college life the same principle should apply beyond mere "activities."

The fraternity is under no obligation to assume any of the academic responsibilities of the faculty, such as repairing the damage of inadequate teaching. But it is everlastingly under obligation to create in its chapter houses an atmosphere making for ability and desire to gain a maximum benefit from the faculty's instruction.

The National Fraternity

Religion, patriotism, parental influence, loyalty to college, fraternity, all belong to the intangibles of life; they cannot be organized, in fact, dissipate with organization; for they are the spontaneous and uncontrolled product of related action and conduct. Those who deal in the intangibles too often make the mistake of imitating big business, which deals in the material; and so church, college, and fraternity have gradually lost sight of their precious heritage in their absorption with organization. They too need to rediscover the individual, and his place in the scheme of things.

One of the severe criticisms of the fraternities is the claim that their national officers are never interested in helping the college to raise fraternity life to a higher level on its campus. But organizations exist only for the good of their members, and imagine refusing to vitalize one's own raison d'être! If national organizations will not join hands with the colleges, why should they continue? We need to adjust some of our ideas and our unconscious objectives. For our failure to co-operate, I am sure, is due only to the fact that it has never occurred to us that that is primarily what we are here for.

A Simple Way of Implementing the Plan

The trouble with even the best plan is to know where and how to begin to put it into operation. No plan we make to which the college does not subscribe will be wholly effective. For the college knows better than we do the probable trend of its own program and the demands which it must satisfy and in turn must exact from all its component parts. Moreover, if we are to co-operate with the college, we must know what the college expects of us, and weave that into our own thinking. That connotes a receptivity to the college's point of view which has not always been characteristic of us; but after all, the college is the final judge of what may and may not be done on its campus.

Any theoretical plan drawn up for all the chapters of a given fraternity will hardly be practical, for local conditions vary too much. And fraternity attitudes and practices are influenced more by local tradition than by any formulated policy of the national fraternity. In fact, the national fraternity is generally powerless to make sweeping changes, no matter how desirable, in its own chapters, if these changes run counter to local custom. To wit, our ineffective campaigns against hell week.

It follows then that any postwar plan, to be effective, must originate with and be carried out by a local interfraternity group rather than by single chapters or single national fraternities. Only when all the fraternities on a campus operate under the same plan and the same conditions may we expect significant results and any great enthusiasm in achieving them. And that makes this whole procedure democratic, formulated by men on the ground who will themselves carry it out. That assures a reasonable amount of zeal and interest in bringing the project to a successful conclusion. To be sure, real democracy requires that this program should be the work of the undergraduates themselves; but young men hardly have the breadth of outlook and experience that is essential. And just now they are otherwise occupied.

The first step is then to gather a group of alumni representing all the fraternities on a given campus: men of sufficient maturity and character to visualize the proper relation between college life and post-collegiate living; men who are keenly enough interested to be willing to work hard. This group should begin its activities by meeting with the administrative officers of the college—the president and the dean of men. Two questions should be asked them: 1. What has been good and what has been bad about the way in which the fraternities have functioned on their campus in recent years. 2. As they visualize the future of the college, what part do they wish the fraternities to play in their program.

The answers given by the college to these questions will pose the specific problem confronting the fraternities and will indicate the objectives about which their postwar plan must be constructed. The alumni committee is now in a position to proceed with the formulation of a program adapted to local conditions which will strengthen what has been good in the past, will eliminate what has been bad, and will fit into the college's own program in so far as that can be known. The college has furnished the foundation on which the plan has been erected, and so is morally bound to co-operate; in fact, will co-operate with enthusiasm, since it has been anxious for years to see some of these things done.

Then, as the undergraduates begin to return to college and normal activities are resumed, the alumni will be ready for them, and the tactful job of winning the younger members over to a new concept of fraternity life must be undertaken, and the alumni will have the opportunity of their careers to be useful to their college, their fraternity, and their younger brothers. With such leadership and such co-operation, there can be no serious doubt that the fraternities will emerge into the era of their greatest power and usefulness.

In carrying out this plan we must not lose sight of the fact, however, that younger alumni too often are a source of trouble for both the college and the fraternities. Neither college nor fraternity has succeeded hitherto in imbuing these men with a sense of their responsibility, and thoughtlessly they regard their return to the campus as an excellent opportunity to blow off steam or to advertise their newly won independence. It has happened repeatedly that they have therefore been a serious obstacle in the way of maintaining high standards of conduct. But this can be prevented easily by circularizing the alumni of each chapter, informing them of the new plans, of the responsibility of every alumnus to help to make them effective, and soliciting their co-operation. The results will be gratifying beyond expectation, for help will be forthcoming from unsuspected quarters, and few men will refuse their support, once they understand the reason for any change.

There is nothing complicated about all this. It is as simple as a sick man's abnegation of the things that made him sick; and as sensible. We need only have faith, determination, and a reasonable amount of consecration.

Our play days are over, and we shall have much company. Let us now become a living force for a finer concept of the American way of living. Let us furnish some of the leaven that will rededicate college life in America. We cherish the priceless ideals of democracy and fraternity. Let us vitalize them beyond our front doors.

WRITE TO A DELT
IN THE SERVICE

Beta Kappa Diplomat

Now that the greatest army Germany has ever put into a combat theater is retreating steadily and painfully before the incessant hammering of Russian divisions, it is sometimes difficult to remember it was only two short years ago that the fall of Moscow seemed inevitable and imminent.

In the late fall of 1941, Nazi artillery was shelling the outskirts of Moscow continuously. The Luftwaffe was raining bombs on the city day and night. The Russian government was moved to a temporary capital at Kuibyshev—all but Josef Stalin, the man of steel, who remained behind. Press correspondents and most other foreigners left for safer regions. One of the few Americans who did not go was Llewellyn E. Thompson, Jr., Beta Kappa (Colorado) '27.

Thompson, second secretary of the American embassy and the U. S. consul in Moscow, still was in Moscow with a single assistant when the government officials and correspondents returned, once the Germans' supreme bid for the city had been stopped. Unused was the automobile which had been left with him as a possible means of escape in the event the Nazi drive had succeeded.

Since then several books of the war in Russia have mentioned Thompson.

By next February Thompson will have completed three years of service in Moscow under three American ambassadors, Laurence A. Steinhardt, Admiral William H. Standley, and W. Averell Harriman, who was appointed only recently. Normally after three years of service at a single post he would be eligible for a new assignment but in view of the increasing importance of American - Russian collaboration moves, Thompson's friends are wondering if the U. S. state department will not keep him in Moscow for some time yet.

Thompson has received three promotions in rank since he first was assigned to his present post and now is a foreign service officer, class 4.

Born in Las Animas, Colo., thirty-eight years ago, Thompson is the third of four sons of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson, Sr., who still live in Las Animas.

Three of the Thompson's sons are Beta Kappa Deltas and the other, M. A. Thompson of Las Animas, was pledged Delt at the University of Colorado but became ill before he was initiated and never returned to the University. The oldest of the four brothers is Eldridge C. Thompson, operator of a bus line at Gainesville, Tex., and the youngest is Gunter Thompson, Denver, Colo., insurance executive.

Llewellyn E. Thompson, Jr., who is "Wally" to his friends, took one year of his undergraduate work at the University of Washington and was graduated with an A.B. degree at the University of Colorado in 1927. Shortly thereafter he entered the state department as a "career man."

After a period of training in Washington, he was named vice consul at Colombo, Ceylon, in 1929. His next assignment was to Geneva, Switzerland, where he remained until he was recalled to Washington in 1939.

In January, 1941, he started the long journey from Washington to Moscow by way of Tokyo and the Siberian railroad and arrived at his present post the following month.

New President of Southern Division

By Dabney S. Lancaster, Beta Iota (Virginia), '11

Former President of Southern Division

DELTA TAU DELTA is to be congratulated upon securing the services of Don C. Wheaton, of Sweet Briar, Virginia, as President of the Southern Division of the Fraternity.

Don Wheaton possesses all of those qualities that mark the ideal member of our Fraternity. He has ability, initiative, personal charm, dependability, and enthusiasm. These qualities, reinforced by years of splendid experience in the fields of business and finance, fit him admirably for his new duties.

Don's interest in Delta Tau Delta has never diminished. He has been in touch with his own chapter at Kenyon College ever since his initiation more than thirty years ago. His active life has given him an opportunity to study fraternity problems in general and he is confident that the fraternity has an important part to play in the life of the American college.

Don Wheaton was born on December 11, 1889, at Norwalk, Ohio. He entered Kenyon College at Gambier, Ohio, where he soon became active in many phases of college life. His career got off to an auspicious start when he became a Delt pledge during his freshman year. No better evidence could be had of his interest in Fraternity affairs than his election to the presidency of Chi Chapter at the beginning of his senior year. His versatility and outstanding ability made him manager of the football team and editor of the College paper, The Collegian.

While finding time for these activities, he nevertheless put first things first and applied himself assiduously to his studies. As a result he was awarded the degree of B.L. in 1913 with honors, and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Don's record at Kenyon was so outstanding that his friends predicted for him a future that would be marked by fine accomplishments. He has not disappointed them.

Immediately after graduation in 1913, he entered the employ of Harris, Forbes and Company, one of the largest and best known of the investment banking firms in the country. His success in this firm was so marked that after the comparatively brief period of thirteen years, he was made a partner. In 1931 when Harris, Forbes and Company consolidated with the Chase National Bank interests, he became a vice-president of the consolidated company, which became known as the Chase-Harris, Forbes Corporation. In this organization Don had charge of twenty branch offices and supervised the work of some fifty representatives. He had direct responsibility for public relations, advertising, and publicity. Not content to confine himself to these important activities, he made a detailed study of the accounting end of the business and effected substantial savings in operating costs. He negotiated contracts totalling more than $75,000,000 and was the firm's representative on a number of Boards of Directors.

Because of Federal legislation affecting the investment affiliation of national banks, Chase-Harris, Forbes Corporation was dissolved and Don became a partner of Starkweather and Company, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Later he became president of Don C. Wheaton and Company, Inc., general distributors of the National Investors Corporation.

In spite of his many exacting duties in the business field, Don, has found time to give his alma mater the benefit of his experience and since 1934 he has been a trustee of Kenyon College, and chairman of the investment committee. In this capacity he has managed the endowment funds of the College successfully during a difficult period for all investment activities.

In August, 1942, Sweet Briar College was so fortunate as to secure Don Wheaton's services as Treasurer. No doubt his close contacts with college affairs at his own institution developed in him a love for campus life, and his fine business experience will make him invaluable in this new connection.

Don has a charming wife and three children. His son is now serving with distinction in the Southwest Pacific area.

In the years to come, it is certain that all good Deltas, who will be so fortunate as to know him, will be grateful for his leadership and will be charmed by his delightful sense of humor, his personality and his keen interest in Fraternity affairs.

Delta Tau Delta is proud to welcome this son of the Fraternity to a position of leadership in our great organization.

DELTS IN THE SERVICE

LT. RICHARD T. CELLA, Beta Nu (M.I.T.), '39, was awarded the Air Medal, and LT. GEN. GEORGE C. KENNEY wrote his father the letter reproduced here, pointing out his pride in the young Americans fighting under him, as typified by Dick.

APO
July 10, 1943.

Dear Mr. Cella:

Recently your son, Lieutenant Richard T. Cella, was decorated with the Air Medal. This award was made in recognition of his courageous, fearless service to his combat organization, his fellow American airmen, his country, his home and to you.

He was decorated for meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flights in the Southwest Pacific Area from September 26, 1942 to June 5, 1943.

He participated in more than twenty-five operational flight missions during which hostile contact was probable and expected. These flights included interception missions against enemy fighters and bombing planes and aided considerably in the recent successes in this theatre.

Almost every hour of every day your son, and the sons of other American fathers, are doing just such things as that here in the Southwest Pacific.

There is a very real and very tangible contribution to victory and to peace.

I would like to tell you how genuinely proud I am to have men such as your son in my command, and how gratified I am to know that young Americans with such courage and resourcefulness are fighting our country's battle against the aggressor nations.

You, Mr. Cella, have every reason to share that pride and gratification.

Very sincerely,
GEORGE C. KENNEY,
Lieutenant General,
Commanding.

Mr. Christopher Cella,
144 East 45th Street,
New York, N. Y.

Information from his family advises that JAMES KENNETH KEELEY, Gamma Gamma (Dartmouth), '34, an Army Air Surgeon, is a prisoner of war in the Philippine area. He has been in the Philippine Islands since November, 1941.

MAJOR GEORGE P. GUTHRIE, Beta Phi (Ohio State), '26, is credited by Associated Press dispatches with being one of the key men behind big field Howitzers, a decisive factor in the American conquest of New Georgia and its Munda airfield. A field artillery officer, in civilian life Major Guthrie was an architectural engineer. In his college days he was an outstanding athlete.

CORP. ANGUS NICOLL, Beta Tau (Nebraska), '41, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for having completed two hundred hours of long-range bombing flights into territory where hostile action might be anticipated. Enlisting in January, 1942, Corporal Nicoll went overseas in a short time, had his training in Australia, and has been on New Guinea since December, it is believed. His letters give little information as to where he is, and none about his own exploits. "Scotty" had been production engineer for KFOR-KFAB for several years before entering the service.

From June 12 to September 16, twenty-three of the many applications reaching his desk were from Delts, two from his chapter.

Lieutenant Faris reports that the Navy wants more officers and that qualified Delts should review carefully the opportunities of a U. S. Naval Reserve Commission in answering their call to Uncle Sam's military requirements.

WALTER LOUDON

WALTER LOUDON, Gamma Tau (Kansas), '43, indeed has held up his part as the younger brother of a family of Delts. His three older brothers were all members of Gamma Tau. His oldest brother, Earl R. Loudon, '31, is credit manager and accountant for the Cerophyll Laboratories in Kansas City. All three brothers were very active in the chapter, with the latter brother being responsible for the organization of the Topeka Alumni Chapter and president of that organization before moving to Kansas City.

Not to be outdone by his three older brothers, Walt became a member of Gamma Tau in 1937. As he was working his way through entirely on his own, he could only attend off and on and it was not until September, 1943, that he finished his work for his B.S. degree. Graduating with a major in zoology, the younger Loudon during his last summer in school acted as president and treasurer of the chapter and was largely responsible for getting the chapter so well prepared to carry on through another war year. Now planning to enter the School of Dentistry of the University of Kansas City as a member of the U. S. Army, Walter was presented with a gold identification bracelet by the chapter as a farewell gift in appreciation for his loyal and devoted service to the Fraternity.

▼ THE DELT ALUMNI CHAPTERS ▼

Boston

So many Boston Deltas are in the Armed Services that it has been necessary to curtail drastically our usual activities. No evening meetings are planned for the immediate future, although we are still holding our regular weekly luncheon meetings every Thursday noon at Patton's Restaurant, on Court Street, in Boston.

Regular attendants have been Anthony Shallna, Beta Alpha and Beta Omicron; Heick Chase, Gamma Zeta; Frank Gaddis, Delta Eta; "Dunc" Newell, Gamma Gamma; Bob Wright, Mu; and a very strong Beta Mu contingent, "Shorty" Brothers, Joel W. Reynolds, Ralph Woodcock, Paul Wren, Ralph Charles, Ferdie Brigham, "Dinty" Howe, and Dave Young.

Recently Beta Mu turned out in large numbers at a Thursday luncheon to greet Walt Bullard, Beta Mu, '19, who is manager of the Associated Factory Mutual Insurance Companies, in New York City, and who was visiting the home office in Boston.

I am sure you have read with a great deal of interest Ferdie Brigham's, Beta Mu, '12, intensely interesting articles on France in THE RAINBOW. Ferdie rarely misses a Boston Delt alumni affair.

Ralph Charles, Beta Mu, '23, is specialist with the U. S. Civil Service Commission in Boston, recruiting men for professional, technical, executive and administrative positions for governmental departments.

Bill Peabody, Beta Mu, '15, is now chief accountant at the National Company, in Malden, Mass., who have large contracts for building radio equipment for our Armed Services.

All visiting Deltas and local Deltas are urged to attend our weekly luncheon at Patton's every Thursday at noon.

DUNCAN NEWELL.

Cleveland

The Friday luncheon meetings constitute the chief activity of the Cleveland Alumni Chapter during these hectic days. The regular attendance is pretty much limited to the bald-head, bi-focal class, for most of our younger men are in military service. Although from time to time we have an interesting outside speaker, our most enjoyable meetings are those at which one of the boys in uniform drops in unexpectedly and spends an hour or so telling of his experiences.

Our president, James P. Riley, is giving more than the usual amount of time to direct Delt affairs and is constantly on the alert for new ideas which will keep the chapter going at top speed. At the present time a dinner meeting is planned for November and a party, to include the ladies, for the Christmas holiday season.

A few personals about some of our men may be interesting:

Capt. Bill Hecker of the Air Corps Combat Intelligence was in town for a few hours recently. He is now stationed at William Northern Field in Tennessee.

Sgt. Harry Hoffman, a ski instructor, is at Camp Hale, Colorado.

Jack Bartels, who is in training with the Bomber Ferry Command, has been transferred to Texas for further instruction.

Frank Aldridge was recently appointed deputy director of the War Production Board's Fifth Region.

John Franklin Cover becomes president of the Industrial Credit Company.

Some months ago a full-scale Delt wedding was held in Cleveland—the groom was a Delt, the bride a Delt sister, and the fathers of both bride and groom were Deltas. Here are the details. The beautiful Jean Townes, daughter of Clayton F. Townes, former mayor of Cleveland, was married to Lt. Robert A. Weaver, Jr., son of Robert A. Weaver. Deltas everywhere know Bob Weaver, head of Ferro Enamel and one of Cleveland's most prominent business and civic leaders.

Tom Herbert, Attorney General of Ohio, has been elected president of the National Association of Attorneys General.

R. L. Whaley, who is business consultant for the Cleveland office of the U. S. Department of Commerce, has checked in with us and is taking an active part in our chapter.

We're mighty proud of Lt. Bill Berkley for the citations he has received for bravery in action during raids on Japanese forces in Burma, Thailand, and other spots in the Pacific theater.

Roland C. Caley, who was active in Cleveland affairs for many years, is executive secretary of the Ohio Good Roads Federation with headquarters at 63 South High Street, Columbus, Ohio.

Karl Ertle is secretary of the Stadium Yacht Basin which recently was awarded the Army and Navy "E" for its excellence in turning out mine sweepers for the Navy.

We could go on and on with this "personal" data about the Cleveland Deltas. This is an extremely busy wartime city and members of the local chapter are doing more than their share in every line of activity.

We know that there are many Deltas who have come to Cleveland in recent months. We would like them to share the pleasure we enjoy in our Fraternity, and herewith extend a cordial and sincere invitation to them to affiliate with us.

RANDALL M. RUHLMAN.

Columbus

At our September 8 luncheon, the Columbus Alumni Chapter of Delta Tau Delta elected new officers for the year 1943-44, as follows: President, C. Curtis Inscho (Ohio State, '33); first vice-president, Howard S. Sterner (Purdue, '17), in charge of alumni-undergraduate relations and the Postwar Delt Placement Program; second vice-president, W. Edgar West (Ohio Wesleyan, '23), in charge of membership and alumni chapter finances; secretary, Don C. Van Buren (Western Reserve, '11); and, treasurer, Walter F. Heer, Jr., (Dartmouth, '37).

In addition to the above, the following past presidents of the Columbus Alumni Chapter of Delta Tau Delta were elected to the Board of Directors: Richard E. Riley (Miami, '20); Thomas S. Reed (Washington & Jefferson, '34); George R. Schoedinger (Ohio State, '06), and Robert H. Campe (Cornell, '34).

Over the summer period our weekly luncheons have been consistently well attended.

The Delt Shelter at 80 Thirteenth Avenue has been taken over by the Dean of Women and is now being used as a dormitory for freshmen girls. The undergraduate chapter has leased a house at 141 East Fifteenth Avenue, corner Fifteen and Indianola, and has moved in for the duration. Only a few fraternities are maintaining an undergraduate existence at Ohio State, so we report with considerable pride that Beta Phi Chapter will carry on this fall and winter.

Prof. John N. Hart (Ohio State, '31) has been commissioned lieutenant (j.g.) U. S. N. R. He reported for training at Quonset Point, R.I., several weeks ago. For some years he has served as chief of the research division of the Ohio Department of Taxation.

Also commissioned a lieutenant (j.g.) U. S. N. R. is Attorney Harold B. Hughes (Ohio Wesleyan, '28) of Newark, Ohio. He also reported for duty at Quonset Point, on August 31. Before leaving, Brother Hughes called at our office to say goodbye and paid $2.00 for annual dues to the Columbus Alumni Chapter, all of which we appreciate very much.

Our honor guest at the Wednesday meeting, August 4, was Hugh Shields (Indiana, '26), Comptroller and Manager of the Central Office of Delta Tau Delta, 333 N. Pennsylvania St., Indianapolis.

Howard Sterner (Purdue, '17) and Curt Inscho (Ohio State, '33) engineer and architect, respectively, still travel extensively throughout the middle-west on government building projects.

Attorney Joseph W. Kennedy (Wooster, '15) of Cleveland was in Columbus August 11, on business.

Major John M. Shank (Ohio State, '36), U. S. A., is now stationed at the Marietta Air Field, Marietta, Ga.

2nd Lt. Garth B. Slater (Miami, '38), A. U. S., formerly field secretary of Delta Tau Delta, is now in Columbus with the Fifth Transportation Zone Office, 52 S. Starling St. (Tel. Ma. 6361). He recently graduated from O. C. S., New Orleans, La.

On June 26, 1943, a son, Fredrick William, was born to the Walter F. Heers, Jr., of Columbus. We have already extended a bid to this young man, and he will be available for initiation about the year 1960.

Major George P. Guthrie (Ohio State, '26), U. S. A., was featured in the Columbus Dispatch, Tuesday, September 7, as "one of the key figures behind the performance of the U. S. Army field artillery, a decisive factor in the American conquest of New Georgia and its Munda airfield."

Several weeks ago Ensign James D. Logan (Kenyon, '42), U. S. N. R., stopped over in Columbus to attend a Wednesday luncheon, after a period of ten weeks Atlantic Sea duty with the U.S.S. Kimberly.

The evening meeting of the month will be held at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, October 19, 1943, at the new Beta Phi Shelter, 141 East Fifteenth Avenue, corner of Fifteenth and Indianola Avenues, Columbus. The event will be a smoker and housewarming for the benefit of all Columbus alumni. This will be your opportunity to meet the undergraduate chapter and the current pledge class of thirteen men. Don Mossbarger, president of Beta Phi Chapter, told me several times during rush week how much they all appreciate alumni support. So please make a special effort to be with us October 19, and see for yourself how well Beta Phi is doing in spite of the many handicaps imposed by World War II. Curt Inscho is president of the Beta Phi House Corporation and Bob Zimmer, treasurer.

Saturday, October 9, 1943, Beta Phi initiated five men of the summer pledge class, as follows: William S. Schleckman, 5306 Olen-tangy Road, Worthington; John A. De Victor, Jr., 1015 West Second Avenue, Columbus; John K. Scott, 60 East Norwich Avenue, Columbus; Edwin H. Johnson, 6800 North High Street, Columbus, and William H. Adelberger, R.R. No. 9, Valley Pike, Dayton.

John Scott is a son of the late Merle Edison Scott (Ohio State, '14), and Ed Johnson is a son of Edwin Howard Johnson (Carnegie Tech, '22).

On Sunday, September 28, Mu Chapter at Ohio Wesleyan held an initiation. Clemens R. Frank, President of the Northern Division, and your Secretary drove to Delaware for the ceremony. The initiation took place in University Hall, due to the fact that all fraternity houses were taken over by the Navy early in the spring.

Chapter Adviser Bob Grove and President of Mu House Corporation Ed West are giving careful attention to the affairs of Mu Chapter. They are maintaining a sound undergraduate chapter awaiting the day when fraternity property will be returned to its true owners.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served at Bun's Restaurant which was attended by about twenty ty. The four pledges initiated at this wartime ceremony are: Floyd Mussard, 36 South Washington Street, Delaware; John Moss, 114 Caroline Street, Saratoga Springs, N.Y.; James Kratt, 1158 7th Street, Lorain, and Kenneth Morgan, Edgemont Drive, Gallipolis.

In a recent newsletter we reported the death of Captain Douglas C. Weaver (Ohio State, '40) U. S. A., in China in May. The Chicago Sunday Tribune of August 15, 1943, carried a full-page story on "The Sky Dragons—Their Exploits Over China," which relates in detail many of the exploits of the 14th U. S. Air Force in China.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Clarence (Dad) Pumphrey (Buchtel College—now University of Akron, '74). No Delt in Ohio has spent more years in the service of his Fraternity than Dad Pumphrey. We all wish him a speedy recovery, and sincerely trust that he may be with us again in our Founders Day Party next March. You may write to him at Room 524, Bethesda Hospital, Oak Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt (Wooster, '12) of the Ohio Supreme Court, was recently nominated to receive the 33rd degree of the Masonic order at the 131st annual meeting of the Supreme Council, 33rd Degree Masons, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, Northern Masonic Jurisdiction.

Robert V. Clapp (Cornell, '20) moved to Columbus last June. He is state director of the National War Fund, Ohio Division—address, 630 Beggs Building; residence, 356 Stanberry Road, Bexley.

Rev. Franklin McElfresh (Ohio Wesleyan, '82) attended one of our recent Wednesday luncheons. We were sorry to learn that he had been ill during the summer, but are glad that he is up and around again. Reverend McElfresh celebrated his 86th birthday anniversary on September 4. We wish him many happy returns!

Heard from Lt. (j.g.) Harold B. Hughes (Ohio Wesleyan, '28) U. S. N. R., at Quonset Point, Rhode Island. He and Lt. (j.g.) John N. Hart (Ohio State, '31) U. S. N. R. are undergoing training together. Mail may be sent to them:

Platoon Seven N.T.S. (I) N.A.S., Quonset Point, R.I.

Captain Fritz Eberle (Purdue, '17), Chapter Adviser of Chi Chapter, writes from Gambier: "We expect to have an initiation at Kenyon shortly and hope the Columbus Alumni Chapter will honor us again with a delegation."

Field Secretary John B. Stauff (U. of Pittsburgh, '42) of the Central Office, Indianapolis, Indiana, called on us Monday, October 11.

James Melton (U. of Georgia, '25) will appear in Columbus, Tuesday evening, November 9, as soloist with the Cincinnati Orchestra.

We regret to record the passing to the Chapter Eternal of Professor George M. McClure (Wooster, '12), head of the Department of Agronomy in the College of Agriculture, Ohio State University. He died September 24, 1943, at his home, 1473 Cardiff Road, Columbus, following an extended illness.

DON C. VAN BUREN.

Denver

The Denver Alumni Chapter is making every effort to maintain its schedule of one luncheon and one dinner meeting each month. Although the attendance at the meetings has not been so large, the standard of the meetings remains exceedingly high. The following men have been guest speakers: Harry Field, Director of the National Opinion Research Center at Denver University; Eugene M. Ardel, Director of Glider Construction and Training, a government-sponsored program, and Ensign Ray Evans, of the United States Coast Guard, who described his experiences in the South Pacific.

A group of alumni was selected to conduct the initiation of four pledges at the Chapter house in Boulder, September 26. The initiation team was made up of Ralph Hubbard, William Williams, Allen Beck, A. Kimball Barnes, George Phillips, Fred Holmes and Ken Penfold. Philip S. Van Cise gave an inspiring talk at the banquet following the initiation. Henry O. (Dad) Andrews, of Boulder, administered the charge.

We are pleased to announce that Beta Kappa is making every effort to operate as an active chapter. There are approximately twenty five men on the campus, including four or five transfers from Delta Lambda at Oregon State. The attitude of the men in school is fine, and four new men have been pledged in recent weeks.

The alumni chapter would like to pay tribute to J. Perry Bartlett, chapter adviser at Beta Kappa. Perry has done an excellent job since taking over as adviser last winter. The excellent financial condition in which the chapter finished the year was a result of Perry's work. He has spent many hours during the summer and fall in an effort to further the chapter's existence during these trying times.

We are sorry to announce that Lt. (j.g.) Jack Broady, Beta Kappa, was killed in an airplane crash in Florida a few weeks ago. We believe that the late Brother Broady is the first man Beta Kappa has lost in World War II.

A. Kimball Barnes, Sr., Beta Tau, proudly announced that A. Kimball Barnes, Jr., Beta Kappa, '36, was married in Washington, D. C., in September. We all wish Kim, Jr., all the luck in the world. Incidentally, Kim, Jr., is a first lieutenant in the Army.

Our President, Ralph L. Carr, was a guest speaker on the radio program "Town Hall of the Air." Ralph gave a very good account of himself.

Leo Stasica, Beta Kappa, former University of Colorado football great, is now playing professional football with the Washington Redskins. Leo was recently placed in 4-F.

Lt. (j.g.) George S. Lesser, Beta Kappa, is spending his spare time on the beach of Waikiki. It is rumored that he is in communications, but is no doubt spending much of his time assisting Admiral Nimitz with the direction of the Pacific Fleet.

The alumni chapter has elected Ken Penfold as treasurer to fill out the unexpired term of George Gordan, who became a marital casualty.

It is difficult to get the announcements of Delt meetings posted at the local Army centers, and it is hoped that all men in the service who are stationed in Denver will make an effort to attend some of our meetings. Our luncheons are held at Daniels & Fisher Tea Room on the second Wednesday noon of each month. The evening meetings are held at the Oxford Hotel on the last Wednesday evening of each month. Come to see us.

FRED G. HOLMES.

Ft. Lauderdale

It is difficult to assemble information regarding our local alumni during the war, and here in Florida we are handicapped by the fact that many of our group reside in the North during summer months and return during October, November, or December. We are counting on having a luncheon sometime in November when some of the advance guard return.

Lt. Leard Rickard, who is still stationed in Miami, is a frequent visitor here. Bill Ogden is still with us and in the bond business. E. C. Kelco is now doing construction work for the government in Key West. Rolf Weidling is auditing for Henry Kaiser in Berkeley, Calif., but expects to return to Tallahassee after the war and resume his duties as auditor for the state comptroller. Rolf has a large collection of cups won in bridge tournaments in different meetings throughout the South. Representative John Burwell is a successful realtor in these parts. We have several of our younger members now in the service. Any Delts who might happen to visit Ft. Lauderdale this winter will be heartily welcomed by our members. If they will call the writer by phone he will be glad to show them around.

CARL P. WEIDLING.

Indianapolis

The Indianapolis Alumni Chapter has rounded out a full year of activity. One of the high lights was the annual summer party the afternoon and evening of August 27 at the Highland Country Club. The men held a golf party while the ladies played bridge. They got together for dinner and a fine evening of entertainment.

The climax of the year just ended was the annual fall banquet held at the Riley Hotel October 1. Business was combined with pleasure as the brothers adopted by-laws for the chapter, devised plans for the new year, and elected the new officers, who pledged to carry out these plans. Officers for the 1943-44 year are: President, Bill Martindill, Beta (Ohio), '32; first vice-president, Rex Rafferty, Beta Beta (DePauw), '17; second vice-president, Fred Hill, Beta Alpha (Indiana), '31; secretary, Walter Jenkins, Beta Upsilon (Illinois), '41; treasurer, Tom Jenkins, Beta Zeta (Butler), '40; and Joe Morgan, Beta Zeta (Butler), '89, President Emeritus. The wives also met and reorganized the "Delt Dames," our auxiliary.

Vice-president Rafferty is chairman of the membership committee and is carrying on an aggressive campaign to induce the more than 400 alumni in the Indianapolis area to make this a 100 per cent membership year.

Vice-president Hill is chairman of the entertainment committee and is planning many social activities for the year. Interesting programs are promised for the members at the monthly night meetings.

Luncheon meetings are held every Friday at the Columbia Club on the Circle at 12:15 p. m. and are well attended. Visiting Delts are cordially invited to attend these meetings. All Delts in the Indianapolis area are urged to renew their membership and participate in the activities of the chapter.

Bowman Downey is organizing a Ritual Committee to aid the Indiana Chapters with the initiation ceremony.

The alumni chapter is planning to publish a directory of Delts in the Indianapolis area.

WALTER JENKINS.

Kansas City

Our luncheons every Thursday are being better attended than they have for a number of years. The luncheons are held at the Business and Professional Women's Club, 1005 Walnut Street.

The rushing at Kansas University is being taken care of as in former years although the man-power shortage is well reflected on the campus. The house at Columbia, Missouri, is still in the hands of the Army, so it looks like our activities at Columbia will be very much curtailed this year.

A number of the Delts who are in military service have dropped in and have had lunch with us on Thursdays.

We appreciate having Delts drop in for our Thursday noon luncheon.

PAUL JORDAN.

Los Angeles

October 19 at 12 o'clock noon is the time set for our meeting to honor past presidents of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter. It is hoped that all of our past presidents who are in Los Angeles at that time will meet with us for lunch at the University Club.

The success of any organization is due, in a great part, to the type of leadership which it is able to command. Our alumni chapter is no exception. Its progress is directly attributable to the outstanding men who have guided it. Such men as Paul Hoffman, Nat Fitts, Ruben Schmidt, Howard Mills, Don Ferguson, Barry Hillard, Roy Crocker, and William Ogden, not to mention many others, indelibly stamped their mark on our alumni chapter during the time they served as its president. We deem it a real privilege to dedicate a meeting each year to leadership of this caliber.

To those of our past presidents who cannot be with us on this occasion, we take this opportunity of sending special greetings and of expressing our appreciation for their outstanding and unselfish service to Delta Tau.

M. PHILIP DAVIS.

Milwaukee

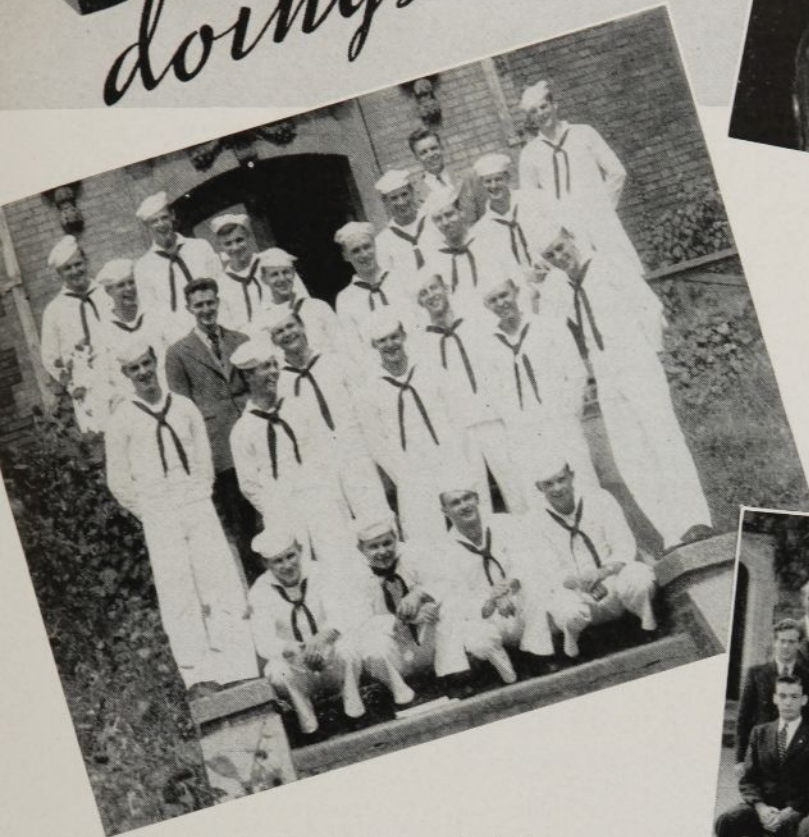

E. Winston Pengelly, former secretary, is now an ensign in the Navy, and Curtis W. Boyce will be Milwaukee's Delt news reporter beginning with the February number.

present. Brother McCracken suggested that consideration should be given to possible ways in which the chapter could assist Delts demobilized from the Armed Forces in their search for civilian careers. It was agreed that this subject should be given careful consideration at the next luncheon, at which time it is expected that a special committee will be appointed and the beginnings of a program formulated. Delts in this vicinity who are unable to attend the luncheons, but who might wish to give their support to such a program, are asked to communicate with the secretary, 247 Park Avenue, 4th Floor, New York City, 17.

The chapter luncheons are held regularly at the Hotel Sheraton, corner of 37th Street and Lexington Avenue, at 12:30 on the third Wednesday of each month. The established ceiling price of the luncheon is $1.25.

HERMON K. MURPHEY.

Capt. Paul A. Johnson, Missouri, rejoined us for luncheon recently when he was in St. Louis for a few days. Paul is stationed at Camp McCoy.

Will Beck, Lawrence, visited with George Buchanan, North Carolina, recently en route to his station in the Canal Zone. In spite of a couple of bouts of malaria, Will is in good health.

Lt. Don S. Holt, North Carolina, writes of some interesting experiences somewhere in the Pacific and says he would like to attend some of our luncheons. Thinks this will have to be postponed for a while though.

Our regular Monday luncheons continue. We would like for more of the brothers to attend if possible and of course would welcome any Delts passing through. Among those in attendance during the past month have been Capt. Paul Johnson, Earl Page, Bruce Stake, Bud Rollins, and Bill Gentry, all of Missouri, Dave Thomas, Minnesota, and George Buchanan, North Carolina.

How Many?

The question is often asked respecting the number of undergraduate chapter houses leased to institutions for war programs. See the Directory of Undergraduate Chapters and Advisers on Page 30 for the answer.

A Change

Reduction in size of the undergraduate chapters and the proportionate reduction in activities on the campuses have brought an expected dearth of undergraduate news. Beginning with this volume, THE RAINBOW is designed to give the maximum news in the minimum space. When you have read your copy, forward it to a Delt you know in military service.

Soldiers' Christmas

Thousands of Delts will not be at the home hearth for Christmas. Letters from you to your Delt acquaintances would make an important contribution for the Delt military man's Christmas. Send them early.
