Adult Education, American Safeguard

By ELMER SCOTT, Ohio Wesleyan, '91

"ADULT EDUCATION" is a term that "covers a multitude of sins." The Russians are using the process to extol Communism and to foster hatred of the United States. It takes form in anti-Semitism in many sections of the world. The partisan politician engages in it when he "points with pride" or "views with alarm." Propaganda in its worst form is a species of Adult Education. It also takes a subtle form in advertising. It is manifest for good or ill through people we associate with or whose behavior or accomplishments or opinions influence us.

On the other hand, there are forms of Adult Education whose aims, ostensibly or really, are laudable. These, it seems to me, fall into at least three categories.

THE SMALL STUDY GROUP

One of these includes the vast number of small study groups, or clubs, knit together rather loosely by common interests or bonds of friendship. A great many utilize their own membership for leadership on topics assumed to be of interest to the membership. The service on the part of these leaders may not be particularly impressive, but as they act in the capacity of leaders, their efforts in preparation have a by-product of self-improvement; while their auditors at least have had their minds exposed to a topic of some concern. Other groups in this category are in constant and frequently futile search for speakers who will add prestige to the organization as well as seeming value to the membership thereof.

Professional Adult Educators have frequently and thoughtlessly given too little weight to these informal and more or less obscure efforts. While in many instances the end results are not startling, the aggregate effect is an addition to the cultural leaven of the country, and this is all to the good.

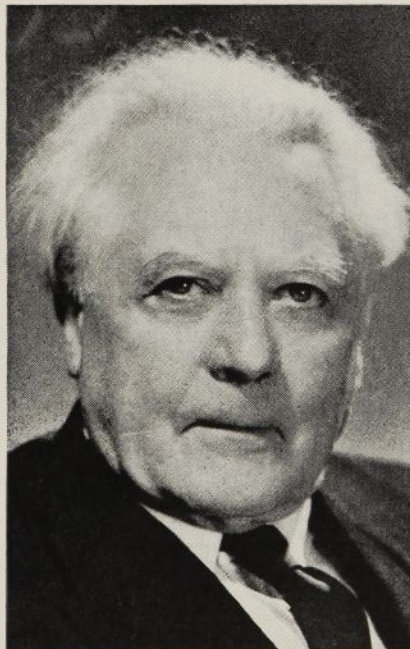

THE PROFESSIONAL FIELD

The second category includes the professional field. In this area there are patterns, blueprints, and all sorts of gadgets, as well as expert guidance, to produce tailor-made leadership. This reference by no means implies a denial of need of skill in the organization, conduct, and leadership of Adult Education. But while a perfect machine in a factory may be expected to produce perfect products, the machine in Adult Education deals with the human element, variable in experience, handicapped by prejudices and by preconceived notions, and often with fixed convictions. These and other circumstances pose a problem to leadership which they seek to solve by carefully wrought-out plans of procedure. There are, it is true, certain elements in Adult Education who hold to the "Conflict Theory" contending that, if there is enough heat in a meeting, even in the absence of light, the session has been a great success.

For the American citizen, education must be a continuous experience. If we are to preserve democracy and chart a course toward higher levels of civilization, our adult citizenry must be well informed. Here are the means for attaining this goal.

In the area of "Platform Education," Adult Educators have had a passion for "getting out a crowd" by engaging widely publicised and illustrious speakers in line with the experience of the motion picture industry whose box office is more advantaged by the stars in the cast than by the real quality of the production. Especially in the governmental and international field, such topflight speakers, for political and diplomatic reasons, repeat platitudes for safety's sake and give the auditors little real light on the topic.

Omar Khayyam's Rubaiyat contains the quatrain:

"Myself when young did eagerly frequent doctor and saint, and heard great argument about it and about but evermore came out by the door wherein I went."

With personal reference to the second category, I have a distinct preference for the "retail" business rather than the "wholesale." I find no fault with the public lecture to large audiences provided (a) that the speaker is an authority on his topic and not a mere box office attraction, and (b) that the auditors have a distinct interest in the subject matter rather than the personality of the speaker.

My personal interest in the small group lies in the best end results. I fear that some Adult Educators hope to raise the level of public intelligence through their own efforts. In my opinion, the membership of a discussion group or round table may themselves be an educational leaven in the community and thus multiply the means of cultivating sound public opinion.

SELF-EDUCATION

The third category I would mention might be called self-education for want of a better term. I do not in this connection refer to the "cloistered thinker" who, remote from realities, fashions a theory or opinion of his own. I am thinking of common men and women who are affected directly by human relations, community needs, economic life, and the moral atmosphere, and more or less indirectly by the national government and international relations. I am thinking further in terms of the circumstances, situations, and conditions over which he may to some extent at least exercise a certain control by his influence. So long as they do not affect the common welfare, I have no quarrel with one's concern for intelligent self-interests. But, after all, it is obviously desirable that the community in which he lives should be a good place for everybody to live in.

GOOD REASONS FOR SELF-EDUCATION

Every community has its social, political, cultural, economic, and moral problems. Right at home we have every reason for "self-education." Whether or not the ordinary citizen can divest himself from selfish self-interest or from prejudices or half-baked notions is beside the point. While the individual is the important factor in our American life, the moment he divorces himself from the common welfare, he ceases to be a good citizen. Every circumstance that affects the well being of his fellow citizens calls on him to be "his brother's keeper."

Self-education with respect to the local community problems is usually stimulated by what might be termed a crusading group in behalf of a specific cause—the Juvenile Court, Municipal Government, Zoning, Traffic Control, Water Supply, Health Measures, and so on through a long list. Out of the welter of pros and cons and even in the face of a lack of technical knowledge, the citizen who honestly wants to see the public and private affairs of his community serve the common welfare, will diligently seek guidance to arrive at a sound conclusion.

In the field of the arts and literature there may be ways to lure people away from the comic strip, the jukebox, and potboilers long enough to be exposed to good art and good music and good books with a new appreciation in higher levels.

In the area of the national government and especially in foreign affairs and international relations, the total situation is more obscure and perplexing. Even the more intelligent of our citizenship have little experience or accurate knowledge in the ramified problems of government or international relations. Under these circumstances the best recommendation I can make is based on these observations, viz.:

(a) That there is scarcely a single area of conflict lying between nations that does not prevail to some degree in the American community. This also is apparent in connection with our national government.

(b) That the serious national and international problems should by necessity be wrestled with by duly elected or appointed representatives.

RIGHTEOUS CITIZENSHIP

If racial hatreds, religious antagonisms, sectional conflicts, menaces to health, acts of violence, poverty, and crime, as in evidence throughout the world, prevail in the American community, the attitude of the local citizenry toward these evils sets a pattern for the public feeling about world affairs. But even an alert and humane citizenry lacks expertness and competence supremely needed to deal constructively with world problems. However, if given the right impulses as cultivated by dealing with community problems, they could, as an electorate, by careful selection, draft public officials to represent them in the higher levels of public service activated by the same social philosophy. Thus Adult Education may be said to operate in the broad area of righteous citizenship.

I hold no brief for any one of the categories I have cited. I do not advocate an "either-or" attitude—as Dr. Eduard Lindeman would put it. All have certain merits and potentialities for marked service.

A FOUNDATION FOR ADULT EDUCATION

I am frank to say that even with some 35 years' experience at the grass roots in a local community project, I am not prepared to offer a blueprint or pattern as a guide to successful Adult Education. But I do have certain philosophical leanings as to the foundation which must be laid if Adult Education is to have a profound effect on our American civilization. These may include the following:

(a) If our American civilization is to survive, its survival can be assured only by the behavior and social intelligence prevalent in the American communities.

(b) If, as Mirabeau Lamar said over 100 years ago, "Cultivated mind is the safeguard of Democracy," there needs to be an interpretation of what the term "cultivated mind" means. It is not, in this writer's opinion, measured by scholarly attainment or the accumulation of knowledge, both of which have their merits. For example, I see no great value in an extensive knowledge of history—unless along with it is a conscious endeavor to interpret it. In other words, historic events are of no particular significance unless they are evaluated in terms of their effect on human welfare. It is by these means that the citizenry can chart a course toward higher levels, with past errors and achievements as guides.

(c) All this leads to the observation that Adult Education can never reach a high level until each group session is an "exploring expedition." I have no special quarrel with any man merely because of his "opinions," no matter how violently expressed.

Thus it seems to me that the first task an Adult Educator must perform is to persuade his group that it is not a mere debating society where "the winner takes all" but a deliberative body examining all aspects of a topic.

Quoting R. H. Tawney, noted British educator and former president of the Workers Education Association of England: "The purpose of the Association is to provide for men and women, who want to take their bearings on the world, opportunities of co-operative study, in congenial company, with a teacher who knows enough of his business to be, not only a teacher, but a fellow-student."

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: In 1913 Elmer Scott gave up a highly responsible position in business to devote himself to adult education. From 1917 to 1951 he served as executive secretary of the Civic Federation of Dallas, which is believed to be the leading institution of its kind in the world. In the forefront of many other civic enterprises, he received the Louis S. Weiss Memorial Award for leadership in adult education last year.

Mr. Scott, who has been an active Delta through the years, is a member of the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter. He has attended both of the last two Karneas.

Activity Stirs in All Four Divisions

THE STANDARDS of Delta Tau Delta marched across the length and breadth of the nation during February, March, and April as the Fraternity's four Divisions gathered for full-scale Conferences and Regional Conferences.

Biennial Conferences were held in the Western, Northern, and Southern Divisions, while the Eastern Division sponsored Regional Conferences at three separate sites. Here is how they worked:

WESTERN

Western Division Delts really took Horace Greeley's "Go West, Young Man, Go West" to heart when 150 delegates and onlookers raced to the Shelter at Oregon State College February 27 and 28. Forty-one official delegates and others from 23 chapters started to arrive Thursday, coming into Corvallis, Oregon, by rail, plane, bus, and private car.

The Fraternity's biggest subdivision, the Western Division Conference represented chapters from North Dakota to Texas and California to Washington.

Actives and pledges of Delta Lambda Chapter moved in with OSC's 29 other social fraternities and turned the house over to Conference participants.

Registration was Thursday night and Friday morning. The Conference opened sharply at 9:30 a. m. Friday with Robert W. Gilley, Western Division President, pounding the gavel.

lege Dean of Men, extended a welcome to the campus. He warned fraternity men of becoming self-satisfied and urged the Greek leaders to work towards improvement. He asked each chapter to develop a loyalty towards the institution of which it is a part.

The Conference ran the conventional gamut of discussion topics, including pledge training, alumni relations, chapter finance, rushing, campus leadership, internal organization, scholarship, and social activities.

The Conference passed one resolution with all the enthusiasm that could be afforded an idea. The delegates urged the appointment or election by each chapter of an officer whose duty would consist of compiling a list of potential rushees to be sent to the Central Office, from which point they would be forwarded to the respective chapters.

Friday night's activities included a salmon buffet at the Delta Lambda Chapter House. More than 100 persons were served baked salmon, turkey, ham, and all the salads and trimmings.

Delegates watched Oregon State College beat its arch rival, the University of Oregon, in a hotly contested basketball game for a night-cap activity Friday.

Robert W. Gilley of Portland was unanimously elected President of the Western Division. He had been appointed earlier to fill the vacancy left by John W. Nichols, who was upped to national Secretary. Nichols attended the Conference.

Four chapter advisers were present. They were Dr. Paul Jones, Santa Barbara; Donald Holt, Oklahoma A. &

M.; Matt Mathes, Oregon State; and Earle Zander, Oregon.

A combination Portland Alumni Chapter Founders Day and Western Division Conference banquet wound up the two-day convention at Hotel Benton Saturday night.

Martin B. Dickinson, national President, was the main speaker. Darrell Johnson, of Portland, was toastmaster. Ralph Peyton represented the Portland Alumni Chapter.

Ed Hagemann, new Delta Lambda president, and Bill Kessinger, retired Delta Lambda president, checked on the activities for the affair.

Honor initiates recognized at the banquet were Bruce Bedynek and Mel Schult of Delta Lambda and Phillip Lewis and Ronald Ricketts of Gamma Rho. They received the awards provided by Karl Greve, Gamma Rho alumnus, and Marion Headley, Delta Lambda alumnus.

High light and surprise of the banquet came when Hugh Shields presented Matt Mathes, Delta Lambda chapter adviser, a Citation to the Dis-

NORTHERN

Delegates of the 25 undergraduate chapters and several alumni chapters of the Northern Division gathered for the biennial Division Conference March 6 and 7 at the Netherland Plaza Hotel in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Cincinnati Alumni Chapter, Gamma Xi Chapter (Cincinnati), and Gamma Upsilon Chapter (Miami) served jointly as hosts.

High light of the Conference was the banquet on March 6, which served also as the annual Founders Day Banquet of the Cincinnati Alumni Chapter. Principal speaker was Martin B. Dickinson, President of the Fraternity, whose address outlined the fundamental aims of the Fraternity.

Toastmaster for the occasion was Robert Heuck, Cincinnati, '13. He was introduced by Alfred F. Porter, Miami, '26, president of the Cincinnati Alumni Chapter. The toastmaster prefaced his introduction of distinguished Delts with droll remarks delivered in authentic German dialect.

Besides President Dickinson, five other members of the Arch Chapter attended the Conference. Vice-President Joel W. Reynolds, Treasurer W. Edgar West, Supervisor of Scholarship Francis M. Hughes, Southern Division President Marion K. Coley, and Northern Division President Ernest L. Miller all spoke briefly at the banquet.

Superlative entertainment was provided by the Glee Club of Delta Epsilon Chapter (Kentucky), introduced by Executive Vice-President Hugh Shields. The chapter's quartet, composed of Jimmy Woodward, Gus Kalos, Jimmy Moore, and Tom Hutzler, also sang several numbers to the delight of assembled undergraduates and alumni.

The Delta Epsilon quartet recently won first prize on Horace Heidt's Youth Opportunity program, and the foursome appeared in Louisville to sing on a nation-wide radio broadcast of Heidt's show. Winner of the University of Kentucky interfraternity sing 14 of the last 16 competitions, the Delta Epsilon Glee Club was debarred from this year's contest under a new rule which prohibits the victor of the previous year from participating.

The banquet was concluded with the traditional Delt Walk-Around, led by the senior Delt present, Walter A. Draper, Ohio Wesleyan, '93, chairman of the board of the Cincinnati Street Railway Company.

Banquet arrangements were handled by Forrest E. Maddux, Jr., Pennsylvania, '34, Cincinnati, '34.

Business concluded during the two-day sessions included naming Beta Upsilon Chapter at the University of Illinois as host to the 1955 Conference. Ernest L. Miller, Indiana, '27, was elected to a second term on the Arch Chapter as President of the Northern Division.

Representatives of all undergraduate chapters delivered reports on the condition of their respective organizations, and the Division heard from its vice-presidents in attendance: George H. Larkin, Cincinnati, '29, and John H. Hutchinson, Northwestern, '22.

Round-table discussions on a variety of subjects were led by undergraduate delegates and summarized by alumni. A special round-table for chapter treasurers was held, to enable the fiscal officers to exchange ideas.

Vice-President of the Fraternity Joel W. Reynolds addressed the convention on the importance of good ritualistic performance, while Supervisor of Scholarship Francis M. Hughes spoke concerning programs to improve the scholastic performance of chapters. Treasurer W. Edgar West discussed the relationship which exists between a chapter and its house corporation.

The Conference was adjourned late Saturday afternoon following a short discussion of miscellaneous topics suggested by the chapters.

EASTERN

This being the year for sectional meetings in the Eastern Division, three one-day Regional Conferences were held at State College, Pennsylvania; Bethlehem, Pennsylvania; and Middletown, Connecticut, from March 20 to March 23. Tau Chapter (Penn State), Beta Lambda Chapter (Lehigh), and Gamma Zeta Chapter (Wesleyan) were the respective hosts.

In all instances, undergraduate delegates were quartered by the host chapter and business sessions were conducted in the Shelters. Besides undergraduate representatives, many chapter advisers and house corporation officers attended the meetings.

Such sectional meetings have no legislative function. They are, rather, workshops of chapter management, seminars in which ideas for improving chapter programs may be discussed and exchanged.

This year's round of Conferences, conducted by Eastern Division President Forrest H. Witmeyer, considered the following discussion topics: rushing, pledge education, scholarship, chapter finance, alumni relations, internal organization, campus activities, and social programs. Time was also allotted for the discussion of other topics suggested by the delegates.

mers A. Peairs participated in the meetings in their respective areas.

SOUTHERN

Meeting in Birmingham, Alabama, on April 24 and 25, the Southern Division Conference adopted significant legislation incorporating the Regional Conference system in the framework of the Division.

The Southern Division has now followed the pattern established in the other three Divisions of the Fraternity. Each has a biennial Conference involving all chapters in the Division, with sectional meetings in alternate years.

The Southern Division's decision came after a study of two years, initiated at the 1951 Conference in Knoxville, Tennessee. The move recognizes the merit of regional meetings, which are actually clinics of chapter leadership and management.

Sessions were held at Birmingham's Tutwiler Hotel, under the gavel of Marion K. Coley, Division President. All chapters of the Division except Delta Kappa (Duke) and Phi (W. & L.) were represented by official delegates.

Climax of the Conference was the banquet at the Tutwiler on Saturday night. President of the Fraternity Martin B. Dickinson gave the main address of the evening. D. Davis Campbell, Alabama, '38, well-known Birmingham radio announcer, served as toastmaster.

Other officials of the Fraternity attending the meeting included Supervisor of Scholarship Francis M. Hughes and Executive Vice-President Hugh Shields. Richard L. Heffington, Alabama, '50, was chairman in charge of local arrangements for the Conference.

Delegates voted to hold the next biennial meeting at Lexington, Kentucky, where Delta Epsilon Chapter and the Lexington Alumni Chapter will serve as hosts.

Marion K. Coley was re-elected President of the Division for another two-year term. The following were named Division vice-presidents: C. Burr Christopher, George Washington, '28, of Alexandria, Va.; Henry A. Mentz, Jr., Tulane, '41, of New Orleans, La.; Penrose T. Ecton, Kentucky, '29, of Lexington, Ky.; and Wallace W. Taylor, Jr., Alabama, '46, Emory, '46, of Atlanta, Ga.

The Conference was concluded with a ball at the Tutwiler Hotel.

Several chapter advisers were on hand to participate in the meetings. Among them were Arthur D. Gray (Tennessee), Phares A. Frantz (Tulane), and Wallace W. Taylor, Jr., (Emory). Birmingham alumni also attended, including Edmund C. Armes, Sewanee, '12, who was one of the original sponsors of Delta Eta Chapter when it was chartered in 1925.

Organized Flood Relief in Record Time

WHEN HE HEARD the news of Holland's disastrous floods, Clarence G. Michalis, Stevens, '07, a New York banker who had headed American Relief for Holland, went into action.

Within 24 hours, he had organized Holland Flood Relief, with such sponsors as Herman Baruch, former Ambassador to the Netherlands; Francis Cardinal Spellman; John J. McCloy; Dr. Grayson Kirk; and Bishop Horace Donegan.

Mr. Michalis, who is president of the Seamen's Bank for Savings, turned over its facilities to Holland Flood Relief. Within two weeks, $500,000 had been collected and money has continued to pour in. The $300 million damage done by the flood set back Holland's postwar recovery by an estimated three years. With 1,000 farms inundated, relief needs will require tremendous funds. Mr. Michalis has set no time limit on the campaign.

Besides his banking interests, the Stevens' Delt is also director or trustee of several insurance companies and business firms. He is widely known for his outstanding public service and the diversity of his welfare work.

Besides being treasurer and trustee of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, he is also president of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York and a director of the Federation of Protestant Welfare Agencies. He is a trustee and member of the executive committee of the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation and treasurer and director of Veterans Hospital Camp Shows.

Mr. Michalis serves as a trustee for both the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis and the Museum of the City of New York. Among many other interests, he is also a director of New York City's Welfare Council, the Y.M.C.A. of the City of New York, the Josiah Macy, Jr., Foundation, and the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

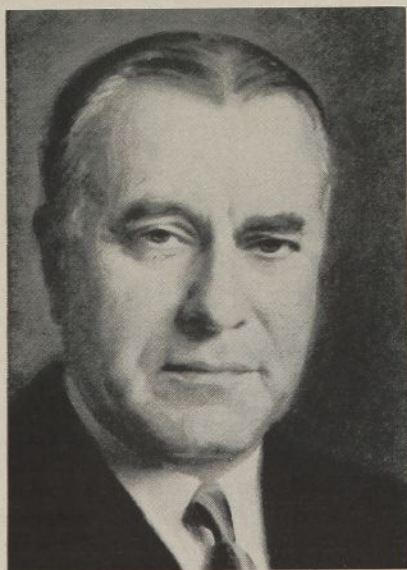

Engineers Advances in Aircraft Industry

WILLIAM B. BERGEN, M.I.T., '37, vice-president of operations of The Glenn L. Martin Company, in the space of a relatively few years has accounted for a number of notable developments in the aircraft industry.

He has been with the firm which produced the Air Force's famed B-26 Marauder since he left college and has been a key figure in the organization's aeronautical research.

His engineering duties have included important assignments in connection with the design and testing of such noted World War II aircraft types as the Martin PBM Mariner series, the Mars, and the Maryland, as well as the Marauder. International recognition was given Mr. Bergen's engineering achievements in 1943, when he received the Lawrence Award of the Institute of Aeronautical Science for his "theoretical and experimental investigations of dynamic loads on aircraft."

His first Martin assignment was in stress analysis, but six months later he was transferred to the newly formed Vibrations Department. In August, 1939, he was advanced to chief vibrations engineer. Four years later he became chief flight test engineer. This position combined responsibility for flight testing of the Company's airplanes with his former supervision of the vibrations group.

CLARENCE G. MICHALIS

WILLIAM B. BERGEN

Mr. Bergen's contributions to the industry have been significant. He participated in the first controlled flight flutter test made in this country. He directed the construction of the first dynamically similar flutter model of an airplane—which was subsequently tested in the wind tunnels at Langley Field.

In November, 1945, he initiated pilotless aircraft development for the Company and was made chief of the newly formed Pilotless Aircraft Section. In 1948, he was promoted to director of the newly established Special Weapons Department, comprising the electronics, electro-mechanical, pilotless aircraft, and fire control sections.

Mr. Bergen was made chief engineer in 1949 and subsequently became a vice-president. He was promoted to his present office in April of this year.

A resident of Baltimore, Mr. Bergen is a member of the Baltimore Alumni Chapter.

For Chapter Presidents

HERE'S A TIP FOR chapter presidents. It comes in the form of a sign which is said to hang in the dressing room of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball club, as follows:

"Organization is the art of getting men to respond like thoroughbreds. When you call on a thoroughbred, he gives you all the speed, heart, and sinew in him. When you call on a jackass, he kicks."

Gamma Eta Observes Golden Jubilee

By THOMAS K. POTTER, JR., George Washington, '53

AUTOMOBILES and the Twentieth Century were new then, and the United States was enjoying "long pants" prestige as an adolescent world power. Washington, D. C., still had muddy streets and the North Pole awaited the arrival of Admiral Peary. The Panama Canal was only an "engineer's dream." It was the beginning of a new era that was creeping upon Americans who were unmindful of the future shaping up before them.

These were some of the thoughts recalled from a world of a half-century ago by six Gamma Eta charter members when they joined more than 200 other Delts from 82 different chapters at a recent Golden Jubilee celebration in the National Press Club, Washington, D. C. The occasion was Gamma Eta's 50th Anniversary. Using the Golden Anniversary as a special theme for the annual Founders Day festivities, the National Capital Delt Alumni Chapter, Gamma Eta Chapter at George Washington University, and Maryland University's Delta Sigma Chapter combined efforts in making Seated are the following charter members: WILL C. THOM, JAMES G. SHIBLEY, C. W. FAIRBANK, A. BRUCE BIELASKI, WILLIAM W. BURRELL, and WILLIAM A. HEINE. this a memorable day for Delta Tau Delta in the Washington area.

Following initiation ceremonies which got the Golden Jubilee Celebration under way early that afternoon, former National President A. Bruce Bielaski, himself a Gamma Eta Delt and the chapter's second president, placed the five decades since the 1903 chapter installation in its proper perspective Fraternity-wise when he gave his banquet address, "Fifty Years of Gamma Eta—Its Future."

"I don't know what the future may hold for Gamma Eta," Bielaski said, "and neither does anyone else. But, if she continues like she started, she'll go a long way."

What Brother Bielaski referred to was a gauge that 50 years cannot corrode, but a gauge that is not readily applicable until the passage of time and accumulation of experience ready the subject for measurement. By this gauge—Who's Who in America—a chapter's comparative worth can be measured over the time-span of a half-century. Trophies may become tarnished and broken, campus honors may mould in dusty old yearbooks, and successful social seasons may fade into pleasant memories, but a man's accomplishments for his fellow man will live in the reputation he forges from the years.

Since that day in 1903 when 22 young men became Delts at the old Columbian College in the Nation's Capital, 442 men have followed their footsteps and joined the ranks of Delta Tau Delta at the school which later changed its name to George Washington University. Nearly five per cent of these initiates have attained the distinction of Who's Who in America.

Twenty-one men, representing professions ranging from Pulitzer Prize-winning cartoonist to first chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and from Secretary General to the Far Eastern Commission to Provost Marshal of the General Department of the Army, have brought distinction to themselves in the fields of law, teaching, diplomacy, medicine, banking, veterinary science, government, journalism, and the armed services.

It was a Gamma Eta Delt who as Congressman from Ohio's fourth district authored the Federal Corrupt Practices Act. It was a Gamma Eta Delt who pioneered motion picture photography of surgical operative techniques. Gamma Eta Delts have served as an assistant surgeon general of the Navy, as a judge on the Supreme Court of South Dakota, as an editor of one of the Nation's outstanding metropolitan dailies—The Washington Star—as a vice-president of the Investment Bankers Association of America, as a Dean of the School of Veterinary Science, Speaker BRUCE BIELASKI recalls humorous moments in the early days of the chapter. A charter member of Gamma Eta, he was national President from 1919 to 1925. In background is R. ROY DUNN, Purdue, '25.

University of California, and as a president of the Federal Bar Association.

Although Gamma Eta's sons have gone forth to find their places in the world, Gamma Eta is still searching for hers. Fifty years have passed since her foundation and the chapter is still looking for a permanent location in the environment of a "trolley car campus"—a university situated in the downtown area of "the crossroads of the world."

In 1903, Gamma Eta Chapter was housed only a few doors from its present location which is two blocks from the University Yard. And, today, Gamma Eta is situated in a University-owned building which will soon give way to the construction of a new law school. This is a problem which faces many of the other fraternities on this campus located only three blocks from the White House. It is a problem compounded by the high cost of real estate in a downtown area.

This is the challenge of the Golden Jubilee Year. And Gamma Etans, young and old, are out to lick this problem which has plagued them since the chapter's 1947 reactivation after a wartime hibernation. To meet this challenge, members of the Gamma Eta Supervisory Committee, a policy group composed of chapter alumni; officers of the National Capital Delt Alumni Association; and the vice-president of the Southern Division have drawn up tentative plans for the Frank S. Hemmick National Memorial Fund. As outlined by Mr. Robert van Sickler, Sr., president of NCDAA, the purpose of the fund will be to situate permanently this chapter which has contributed so much to Delta Tau Delta during the past 50 years, and, also, to provide here in the National Capital a home for the many traveling Deltas who visit the present Gamma Eta Shelter on an average of four and five every week.

One of the most illustrious names in the annals of Delta Tau Delta, the late Frank S. Hemmick, a Gamma Eta charter member, culminated a life-long interest in Delta Tau Delta when he served as an early editor of THE RAINBOW. He later became a member of the Distinguished Service Chapter. In his later years, Brother Hemmick concentrated his interest in Delta Tau Delta at his own chapter. A regular attendant at all Delt functions in the Washington area, Brother Hemmick was instrumental in the reactivation of Gamma Eta Chapter during early postwar years. As the virtual "godfather of Gamma Eta," Hemmick made one of his last contributions to Delta Tau Delta when, shortly after his death, Gamma Eta received his 50-year collection of Delt memoirs.

Endorsing the proposed memorial fund which carries the name of his pledge brother, former President Bielaski indicated his interest when he recently expressed a desire to serve on the project committee.

This, then, is the Golden Jubilee goal. The anniversary festivities set for the annual Rainbow Ball and Spring Initiation will observe only the past. Remembering that a progressive future comes only through hard work in the present, Gamma Eta sets forth on the long road toward her Centennial Celebration confident that she will gain her goal and confident that she will send more of her sons out to acclaim themselves and Delta Tau Delta.

Public Service and Science Combined in Distinguished Career

DR. ARTHUR GRAHAM GLASGOW

DR. ARTHUR GRAHAM GLASGOW, Stevens, '85, is an engineer of outstanding international experience, who has recorded significant service both to the advancement of science and to his country.

Holder of several patents in gas technology and author of numerous technical papers, he is a Gold Medalist of the Franklin Institute and the American Gas Association. Two years ago Stevens Institute presented him its Alumni Award Medallion.

In 1892 he established the firm of Humphreys and Glasgow in London, England, to introduce in Europe and the East methods of gas manufacture then unknown in these countries. A few years later, another Delt, Dr. Alexander C. Humphreys, Stevens, '81, became active senior partner and established the office of the firm in New York City.

When Dr. Humphreys became president of Stevens Institute, the partnership was dissolved and Humphreys and Glasgow, Ltd., was formed. Today the corporation extends to such far-away places as New Zealand, New South Wales, and India.

Dr. Glasgow retired as chairman of the board January 1, 1952, and as a director on May 30, 1952, the 87th anniversary of his birthday. He has also served as board chairman of Building Supplies Corporation of Norfolk, Virginia.

Devoted to his Alma Mater, the famous engineer was president of the Stevens Alumni Association in 1906-07. He served on Stevens' board of trustees for a number of years and was vice-chairman for part of the time. In 1929 he was elected a permanent member of the board.

Dr. Glasgow has been awarded honorary degrees by Stevens (1928), Washington and Lee (1930), and Wabash (1950). He is a life member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers, Institute of Mechanical Engineers, and Institute of Civil Engineers.

He has served his country well. In 1917-18 he was vice-chairman of the Red Cross Mission to Rumania. Later he served in the munitions department and as Fixed Nitrogen Administrator under the Secretary of War. He established the U. S. Fixed-Nitrogen Laboratory, which is now administered by the Department of Agriculture.

His portrait with that of his sister, Ellen Glasgow, the famous Virginia authoress, is hung in the permanent gallery of the Virginia Historical Society in Richmond, Virginia.

The Elkhart Flyer, Speed Unlimited

By JAMES L. PARKS, Kansas State, '55

THANE BAKER, Olympic track star and a Delt of Gamma Chi Chapter, is well under way to his greatest season at Kansas State College in this, his senior year.

Baker, a dashman, has won his races in every major track event in the Midwest and has rolled up a string of 16 indoor victories this year without a defeat. He has left in his wake, moreover, an impressive chain of new cinder records, which include equalling for the second time in his career the world's indoor record for the 60-yard dash.

Last summer, in Helsinki, Finland, Thane was in the international spotlight as he mounted the Olympic victory stand to receive a silver medal, which marked him as one of the world's two best athletes in the 200-meter run. The modest speedster sprinted the distance in 20.8 seconds, behind Andy Stanfield of the United States. Stanfield tied the Olympic mark of 20.7, set by Jesse Owens in 1936.

Baker's achievement was the climax of a great track season and marked a long series of A.A.U. appearances which started in May, when he copped both the 100- and 200-meter runs and was anchor man on the winning K-State 400-meter relay team in the Missouri Valley A.A.U. meet in Kansas City.

At Helsinki, Thane was one of 118 men entered in the 200-meter event, which meant that he had to win in the preliminaries, quarter-finals, and semi-finals before reaching the finals and a chance for the big prize.

Baker, who hails from Elkhart, Kansas, received his medal on the Olympic pedestal just 16 years after another Elkhart boy, Glenn Cunningham, came in second in the 1500-meter run in the Berlin Olympics.

STRING OF 16 VICTORIES

The Elkhart Flyer, as Thane is known in Kansas, returned to Kansas State to continue his record-shattering habits. He completed the spring indoor track season this year with a string of 16 consecutive sprint wins. This can be added to six straight wins he chalked up last year after his second-place finish in the 75-yard dash at the Michigan State Relays.

In the season opener with Nebraska, Baker won the 60-yard dash and clipped off the 440 in 50.0 to claim a double victory. He also anchored the winning mile relay team.

In a dual with the University of THANE BAKER, co-holder of the world's record in the 60-yard dash, warming up the cinders.

Kansas, he took the 60 and 440 and anchored the Wildcat mile relay team. He set a new meet and K-State field house record with his 6.1 time in the 60, which tied the world's mark.

At the Michigan State Relays, Baker was the outstanding performer with wins in the 75 and 300. He ran a 49.6 440 in the sprint medley relay, as the Wildcats set a new record of 3:29.8, the only new mark of the meet.

He captured the only Wildcat firsts of the Big Seven indoor track meet this spring as he equaled the meet record of 6.2 in the 60-yard dash and won the 440 in 50.3. He set a 440 record of 48.6 in the preliminaries.

In a triangular meet with Colorado and Iowa State, Baker set a new K-State field house and meet record with his 48.9 time in the 440. He won the 60-yard dash in 6.2 and anchored the winning mile relay team.

At the Colorado Invitational, he won the 60 and the 440 dashes, although hampered by a bad cold.

Moving to outdoor sports, Baker has remained undefeated. At the Texas Relays, he won his first 100-yard dash victory in that event, having finished second in both his sophomore and junior years. He also anchored three K-State relay teams to second places.

At Missouri University, the Elkhart Flyer was a triple winner. He equaled the meet marks in the 100 and 220 and ran the 440 in 48.8 seconds to establish a new standard. Baker's time in the 100 was 9.8 and he ran the 220 in 21.3 seconds. He was high man for the afternoon.

EARLY START AS SOPHOMORE

But this is only part of his record, in his four years at K-State.

In his first varsity track meet, as a sophomore, he was barely nudged out of first place in the 100-yard dash at the Texas Relays. He went on to win first in the 100 at the Kansas Relays, second at Colorado, and had his best day of the season against Nebraska as he won both the 60 and 440, and ran on the winning mile relay team.

His junior year took him to even greater heights. In the first indoor meet in the new K-State field house, Baker was the only double winner of the meet as he broke the tape in the 60 and the 440-yard dashes. At the Nebraska meet he tied the Big Seven indoor track record of 6.2 seconds in the 60 and also won the 440.

Baker was one of nine members of the K-State track team to go to the Michigan State relays to compete against some of the strongest track aggregations in the nation. He came through with flying colors as he set a new Relay record in the 300-yard run with a time of 30.8. He also copped second place in the 75-yard dash.

Baker was a double winner in the Big Seven indoor meet of 1952 as he took first in the 60 and the 440.

Going on to Colorado, he tied the world's record for the 60-yard dash with a time of 6.1, which set a new meet and field house record. It was also a new K-State varsity record. In the same meet, he set a new meet and field house record and tied his own varsity record for the 440.

Sprinting the fastest century of his career, Baker defended his 100-yard dash crown by breaking the tape in 9.5 seconds at the Kansas Relays in 1952 on a soggy track. Again at Colorado he won the 100 and was anchor-man on three relay teams. He came up with two records in the 100 and 200 in the Kansas University track meet.

He led the 'Cats to victory over Nebraska by three wins in the 100, 220, and 440, besides running a sensational anchor lap in the mile relay.

Summing up his junior year, Baker was top pointmaker on the 'Cat indoor team, was listed as third among sprinters in the 1953 world indoor ranking of the Taraken Field News, and set records in the 60, 440, 100, and 220.

FAVORITE MAN ON CAMPUS

With nearly all of his time taken up by training, Thane still manages to be an integral part of the chapter and of the student governing body of the College. He has served as social chairman for the past two semesters and has been a driving force in all chapter functions since his initiation.

He was chosen "Favorite Man on Campus" last fall and was elected president of the lettermen's K-Club for the school year. He is a member of the student council and has a consistently high scholastic standing.

With all of these achievements,

Baker has made a permanent mark in Kansas State history and will long be remembered in Gamma Chi as an inspirational leader of Delts.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Since this story was written, Thane Baker has continued his winning ways. On April 18 he became the first man in history to win the Kansas Relays' 100-yard dash three years in a row. He also ran a 46.7 quarter on the Wildcats' winning mile relay team.

MAJOR GENERAL CHARLES L. DASHER

MAJOR GENERAL Charles L. Dasher, George Washington, '23, commands the 24th Infantry Division in Korea. He has been fighting in Korea since May, 1952, when he was assigned as assistant commander of the Third Infantry Division. He assumed his present command last November.

General Dasher's World War II service covered opposite ends of the earth. He went to Europe in 1943 as assistant artillery officer of the XIX Corps. In July, 1944, he assumed command of the 32nd Field Artillery Brigade and in January, 1945, was named artillery commander of the 75th Division.

From July to November, 1945, he served as artillery officer of the XVIII Corps in the Pacific Theater and then was assigned to the Mediterranean Theater as commander of the Rome (Italy) Area Command.

In April, 1947, General Dasher entered the Strategic Intelligence School of the War Department General Staff, and the following November was appointed military attache at Madrid, Spain. Subsequent duty has included information officer in the Office of the Chief of the Army Field Forces and assistant commander of the 8th Infantry Division at Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

General Dasher is a graduate of the U. S. Military Academy, the Field Artillery School, and the Command and General Staff School. He has instructed at the Military Academy and was assistant to the graduate manager of athletics there for a time.

He has the Bronze Star Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster, the Legion of Merit, and the Army Commendation Ribbon with Oak Leaf Cluster.

General Dasher recently sent regrets that he could not attend the anniversary celebration of his chapter.

"Some day," he wrote, "maybe I'll be fortunate to be near enough to attend an anniversary or to visit the Delt House. I'm always looking for a Brother Delt in the service, but since leaving the Academy, I've run into very few. Some day I'll advertise in the Division 'Taro Leaf' for Delts to make themselves known when I inspect their units. . . ."

General Leavey Accepts Position With Industry

Major General EDMOND H. LEAVEY (Ret.), Rensselaer, '22, has been elected vice-president of the International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

General Leavey, who retired last year, occupied key posts during World War II in both the European and Pacific Theaters. Long a prominent figure in the Corps of Engineers, he also had served as chief of the Transportation Corps with headquarters in the Pentagon.

In the spring of 1945 he became commander and chief of staff of the U. S. Army Forces, Western Pacific, after directing the logistical support of the combined Army, Navy, and Marine operations. As chief of staff, he acted for General MacArthur in accepting the surrender of the Japanese from General Tomoyuki Yamashita.

In 1951 he was named assistant chief for logistics by General Dwight D. Eisenhower, an important post in the North Atlantic military command.

The Good Fellowship of Singing

International President, SPEBSQSA*

EDWIN S. SMITH

EVER SINCE OWEN CASH, the founder of The Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., made the famous pronouncement, "What this country needs, even more than Tom Marshall's five-cent cigar, is some good old-fashioned barbershop quartet singing," a rapidly expanding group of good and true citizens, all male, have gone about the business of satisfying those requirements.

At the moment there are some 25,000 of us—a goodly number when it is considered that the growth has been almost entirely spontaneous. The society was organized at Tulsa, Oklahoma, in 1938. It has followed the pattern of the service clubs in its physical structure. It is divided into 14 districts which contain some 700 chapters extending into all sections of the United States and Canada as well as the territories of Alaska and Hawaii.

Its membership is composed of adult male citizens, any and all of whom like to sing and will do so at the drop of the hat. The Society encourages the formation of quartets and choruses and holds contests within the districts and on an international basis as a stimulus to the improvement of the artists and the advancement of the Art.

It was gratifying to me to learn through the pages of THE RAINBOW that the colleges are now holding interfraternity quartet contests and that my own Epsilon Chapter was a recent winner of such a contest. And now that the word has moved around that I am a Delt, I am being continually surprised to find that many of my associates and acquaintances throughout the Society are turning out to be Delts. An all-Delt quartet made the finals in an international contest a few years ago, and at least two of those boys are now singing with high-ranking quartets.

I think that people like barbershop quartet music because it is one of the most genuinely American things in America. It is wholly a spontaneous product of American society—like baseball or horse racing. And men like our Society because it affords them an opportunity to participate in one of the finest of pastimes with others of the same ilk.

Not all of the members sing, by any means. Many are crows, but they all enjoy music, and particularly the kind of a cappella music we identify as barbershop. This is attested by the tremendous enthusiasm that attends our gatherings and the fact that our people sometimes travel hundreds of miles just to be present at them. Even now, two months prior to our annual convention, every available registration has been made and paid for, nearly

There is a good deal more to barbershop quartet singing than meets the eye—or even the ear at times. No wonder the Delt chapters eat it up!

5,000 of them. Our conventions are limited only by the size of the auditorium which the convention city can furnish, but they are always completely subscribed.

We are called a fun organization! I have no quarrel with that designation. Our members do not join to elevate themselves or anyone else. They gather together, pay their money, and sing their songs to have fun. But there is much more to the barbershop society than that designation implies. Last year, for instance, our Society sent quartets into Germany, Austria, Korea, and Alaska to entertain our Armed Forces and to instruct the boys in the art of barbershop quartet singing.

A vigorous collaboration program has been conducted between the Armed Forces and the Society for the past three years, with the result that many singing groups have been formed all over the world where our boys are located. The Air Force is sponsoring a quartet contest of its own which is to be held this coming June at Selfridge Field in Michigan. Many overseas quartets are now in training and will return to participate in this event.

The Armed Forces collaboration program is only one of many activities which testify to the inadequacy of the term, a fun organization. Our membership includes many of the country's most talented musicians, and they, along with many talented amateurs, have been making a very real contribution to American music through their efforts in the behalf of the Society.

Our educational program is reaching into the high schools and many of the colleges. The song arrangements of our leading arrangers are now receiving wide publication and many of them may be purchased at any good music store. The international headquarters contains a music library that houses nearly any song that your memory can bring to mind.

Hundreds of the members, under the director of a committee of expert musicians, are continually composing and arranging songs. Others are conducting research into the many phases of music. These activities go somewhat beyond the fun stage and give substance and stature to an organization. Nevertheless, there is real enjoyment in being a part of a barbershop chord, and also in being a good listener.

Archie Blyer, the famous orchestra leader with Arthur Godfrey, attended a barbershop concert in Boston at Symphony Hall a few weeks ago and had this to say: "It's impossible to hold an audience for three hours with any kind of entertainment, yet I have sat here for three hours in this packed hall and the people are still insisting on more of the same thing. It's phenomenal!" And that is the way it seems to be wherever there is a barbershop concert.

In one large city the symphony orchestra and the barbershop group stage a joint concert annually. That assures a packed auditorium for the symphony group and serves notice on the public that barbershop quartet singing is not the frivolous thing that many have taken the Society's name to imply. One of our biggest and most challenging and most pleasurable jobs has been the task of making the title S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A., Inc., a name of respect and accomplishment.

The Delts and the barbershoppers have a common ground on which to meet—a love of Harmony. And I hope that, as our Delt brothers leave college, they will affiliate with a barbershop chapter in their own community. "Delta Shelter" makes a marvelous barbershop number and should be heard in many communities in America.

staff, from October, 1943, to October, 1944, and then as assistant commander until July, 1945, when the Division returned to the United States.

When the Division was moved, however, General Stokes remained in Europe as chief of staff of the 15th Corps. Shortly afterward he was named deputy commander of the Allied Control Commission for Hungary, with station at Budapest. He served for two years as military attache at Budapest.

In July, 1949, General Stokes became chief of staff of the Central Military District at Presidio of San Francisco, California, and in April, 1950, he was appointed chief of staff of the Sixth Army. He moved to his present post in August, 1951.

A graduate of West Point, General Stokes saw duty in World War I as battalion intelligence officer and company commander with the Eighth Infantry at Coblenz, Germany. Between various tours of duty in the twenties, he returned each fall to the U. S. Military Academy to serve as assistant football coach.

General Stokes, who is a graduate of the Army's Command and General Staff School, has been awarded the Silver Star with one Oak Leaf Cluster, the Legion of Merit with one Cluster, Bronze Star Medal, and Army Commendation Ribbon.

His foreign decorations include the Russian Order of the Wars of the Fatherland, the French Croix de Guerre with Palms and Legion of Honor, and the Czechoslovakian War Cross.

Delt Pucksters at R.P.I. Are All-American

BOB FOX, Rensselaer goalie, keeps out opponents' pucks. He was honorable mention on the All-American team.

THREE DELTS of Upsilon Chapter led R.P.I.'s hockey team this year to the third-best rank in the nation. In doing so, all of the trio earned All-American honors.

At the N.C.A.A. hockey tournament this spring in Colorado Springs, Colorado, where R.P.I. represented the East, the Delt wrote new records into the book, and their clever play kept spectators in breathless excitement.

Albert "Abbie" Moore, the player's player, sparked the club in both tournament games. It was his four unassisted goals in one game that broke the backs of his opponents. They also were entered into the record book as a new N.C.A.A. mark.

FRANK CHIARELLI (left), stellar attackman and All-American first string, skates down the ice with ABBIE MOORE, center and captain of the third-ranking R.P.I. hockey squad.

As cocaptain and center of R.P.I.'s pucksters, he journeyed to Colorado as the second highest scorer in the East and third in the nation, with 34 assists and 30 goals. On his return trip he was heralded as the second most valuable player at the tournament and carried with him an Honorable Mention for All-American.

Frank "Chico" Chiarelli, sophomore, was the fireball of a fast-attacking squad that finished third in the N.C.A.A. tourney. On the All-American second team last year and the first team this year, he has led the East as high scorer for the past two seasons. It was his new modern scoring record of 81 points last year and his 66 points this year that have made him a national figure in the hockey world. His speed, hard drive, and play-making won for him the title of the third most valuable player at the tournament and a place on the All-Tournament second team.

R.P.I.'s stellar goal tender, Bobby Fox, kept up the old Delt tradition and caused havoc for his opponents. His lightning-fast reflexes enabled him to limit Rensselaer's opponents to 2.16 goals per game for the past season. To his record of being on the Dean's List for his three semesters at R.P.I., he may now add an honorable mention for All-American goalie.

Outstanding Service to Community Recognized

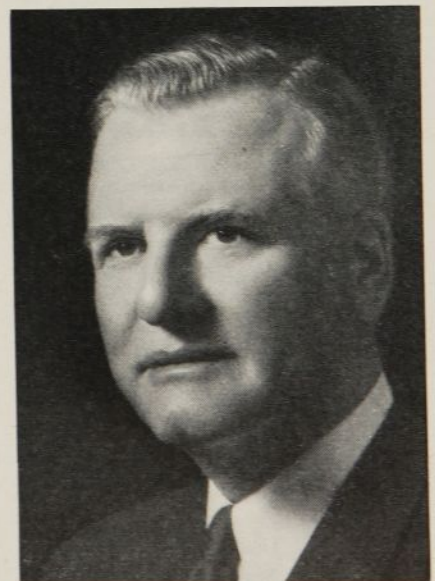

NEIL PETREE, Stanford, '19, civic and business leader prominent in California, was the recipient in February of the Service Watch annually awarded by the Los Angeles Realty Board to the citizen considered to have performed the most outstanding service for the community in the preceding year.

Mr. Petree is president of the California State Chamber of Commerce and president of Barker Bros. in Los Angeles.

The presentation took place at the Board's golden anniversary and inaugural banquet, held in the Pacific Ballroom of the Statler Hotel in Los Angeles. A thousand members and guests witnessed the presentation and heard an address by PAUL G. HOFFMAN, Chicago, '12.

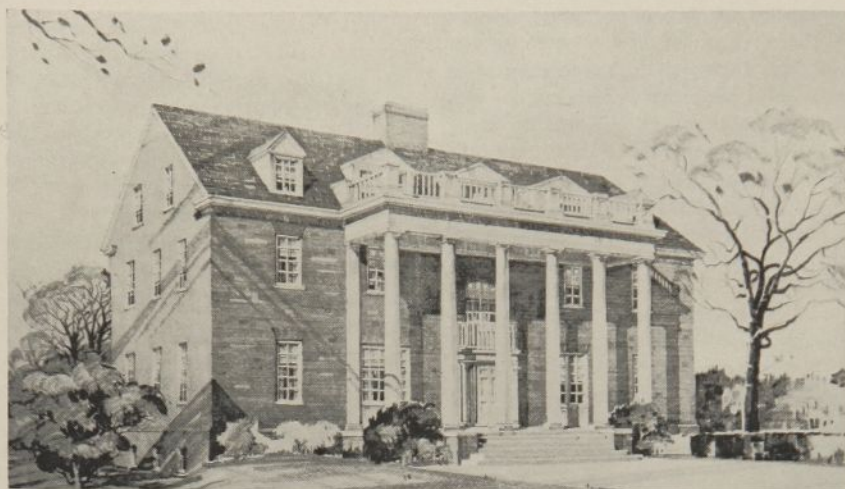

Another honored guest was CHARLES B. SHATTUCK, California, '23, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

Mr. Petree, who has been president of Barker Bros. since 1938, is also a director of several corporations, including Douglas Aircraft, Bank of America, and Southern California Gas Company. His other civic responsibilities include being president of the Hollywood Bowl Association, trustee of the Philharmonic Association, and director of the Community Welfare Federation.

Maryland Readies for New Shelter

Architect's sketch of the fraternity house now under construction at the University of Maryland. It is part of a fraternity-sorority row being built by the University. Delta Sigma Chapter hopes to move early in the fall.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND Deltas are packing up and preparing to move. By next fall they hope to occupy one of the ten new houses which will comprise a fraternity-sorority row on the College Park campus.

Workmen broke ground last February on the University-sponsored student housing project which will provide attractive new homes for five fraternities and five sororities. Built in the Georgian style of architecture, the units are arranged in a horseshoe-shaped development near the heart of the campus. Deltas will have the first fraternity house at the open end of the horseshoe.

Each structure consists of three floors above a full basement. Designed to accommodate 36 members, the new Shelter will also provide attractive quarters for a housemother. The dining room, kitchen, and a chapter hall will be in the basement. Private rooms for two officers of the chapter are located on the first floor, in addition to the living room, center hallway, housemother's suite, and a library. Ample parking space for automobiles has been provided in the rear.

This latest move to strengthen Maryland's fraternity system has developed under the guidance of Dr. H. C. Byrd, President of the University. Officers of the five fraternities involved have been conferring since February with Dean of Men Geary F. Eppley on plans for setting up sound operations in the new location.

The houses will be rented to fraternities unfurnished, and each group must provide its own equipment and furnishings. For Delta Sigma Chapter, quartered since its installation five years ago in a smaller Shelter, a considerable outlay will be required.

Fortunately for the chapter, officers of the chapter's house corporation, formed at the time Delta Sigma was chartered, have kept in constant touch with the situation and have gone into action to make sure that the young chapter enters into its new and more vital Fraternity experience properly equipped.

From nearby Baltimore, G. Russell Page, Kentucky, '24, and Keith R. Clark, Wesleyan, '36, president and treasurer respectively of the house corporation, have announced the formation of a committee to undertake the solicitation of funds from Delt alumni for the purchase of adequate furnishings.

Committee chairman for the Baltimore area is Emil K. Meacham, Pittsburgh, '36, and chairman for the Washington, D. C., area is C. Dell Floyd, Washington, '09. The campaign was touched off at the National Capital Founders Day Banquet on February 28 when Mr. Meacham laid the committee's plans before Delt alumni. The response was immediate as on-the-spot contributions got the drive off to a flying start.

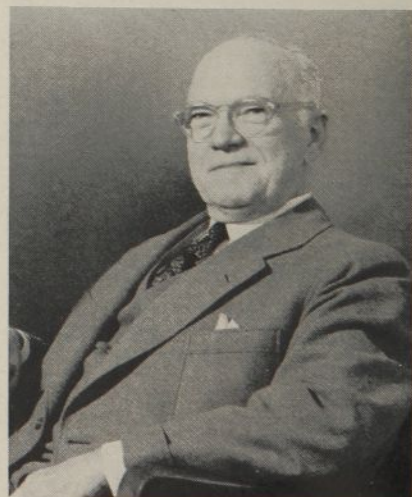

Sponsors of the movement to help Delta Sigma visualize the acquisition of the Shelter as a highly significant milestone in the development of a young chapter and an opportunity to entrench Delta Tau Delta as a greater force for the education of youth on the University of Maryland campus.

He has also been prominent in church affairs. He is a vestryman of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Elkins Park, where he also teaches Bible. He is a licensed lay reader, granted special privilege to compose as well as to deliver sermons.

DR. JOHN E. GEE, Bowling Green, '29, will become director of the Department of Education of Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio, effective September 1, 1953. His present position is director of secondary education of the University.

Dr. Gee obtained both his master's and doctor's degrees at the University of Pittsburgh. He has also studied at Columbia, Ohio State, and Duke Universities. He is a member of Kappa Delta Pi and Phi Delta Kappa, educational honorary societies. He has been a member of the Bowling Green faculty for seven years.

Dr. Gee is chapter adviser of Delta Tau Chapter. His son, JOHN P. GEE, is an active member of the chapter.

CHARLES R. FLEISHMAN, Washington, '18, has been named president of the Florence Crittenton Home Association in Los Angeles, California. He had served on the Crittenton board of directors for four years.

A Delt with a keen sense of civic responsibility, Mr. Fleishman is also vice-president of the Los Angeles Boy Scouts and is a director of the Salvation Army, the Welfare Council, and the American Library of Information.

Mr. Fleishman is president of the A. J. Bayer Company and is a member of the board of directors of the Union Bank & Trust Co., the L. A. Brick & Clay Products Co., and the Metal Trades Manufacturers Association.

Another Delt, ROBERT S. BARRETT, Sewanee, '98, has been president since 1925 of the National Florence Crittenton Mission, with which the Los Angeles branch is affiliated.

Robert Morris Associates has announced the establishment of an award fund in memory of RAYMOND W. DUNING, Western Reserve, '19. Mr. Duning served consecutively as assistant secretary, assistant treasurer, and secretary-treasurer. From June, 1949, until the time of his death in April, 1950, he was executive manager.

Mr. Duning was for many years active and had served as an officer in the Philadelphia Alumni Chapter of the Fraternity.

ROY V. WELDON, Tufts, '22, has been elected a director of the Great Northern Paper Company, of Millinocket, Maine. Mr. Weldon has been associated with Great Northern for 31 years and since 1950 has served as vice-president in charge of engineering.

He has under his direction at the present the design and installation of a huge new paper mill and boiler plant project whose cost is estimated at $20 million.

ROBERT D. HOLMES, Oregon, '32, state senator of Oregon, was named "citizen of the year" by the Oregon Education Association at its annual convention in Portland on March 16. He was chosen because of his outstanding contribution in the field of education.

Senator Holmes's citation was especially significant since this was the first presentation of the award. Actively concerned with Oregon school problems for a long period, he has served on the advisory committee on elementary and secondary education. He was a member of the state senate's education committee during the 1951 session and is chairman of the committee for the current session.

Dr. E. VINCENT ASKEY, Allegheny, '17, past president of the California Medical Association and the Los Angeles Board of Education, was the principal speaker at the annual Founders Day dinner of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter of the Fraternity. Dr. Askey spoke on the voluntary health insurance plan which, he said, has been adopted by America as the answer of a free people to socialized medicine.

JOHN N. HART, Ohio State, '31, has been named director of employee relations for the B. F. Goodrich Company of Akron, Ohio. In the new assignment, he will be responsible for all corporate employee relations activities except union relations.

Prior to his recent advancement, Mr.

Hart had been acting director of the Akron personnel of the company. He joined B. F. Goodrich in 1945 as a member of the business research department. He was formerly a faculty member of Ohio State University and director of research for the Ohio Department of Taxation, a field in which he attained national recognition.

JOHN N. HART

During World War II, Mr. Hart served with distinction in the European and Pacific Theaters as an officer in the U. S. Navy. He is a member of the American Economic Association, The American Statistical Association, and the American Marketing Association. He is author of a number of articles on public finance and economics.

He has been prominent in community activities, including child welfare programs, and is currently a member of the Child Welfare Board in Summit County. He is also a member of the Department of the Church and Economic Life of the National Council of Churches.

An active member of Delta Tau Delta, Mr. Hart served as chairman of the installation committee which guided the chartering of Delta Omega Chapter at Kent State University in 1950.

JOHN B. RICE, Dartmouth, '53, received honorable mention on the All-American soccer squad. A former president of Gamma Gamma Chapter, Rice served as president this year of Casque and Gauntlet, honor society, and was a member of the Undergraduate Council.

GLENN C. BAINUM, Illinois, '13, who is retiring after 27 years as director of bands at Northwestern University, was honored at a dinner sponsored by the alumni council of the Northwestern school of music on April 16.

Nearly 200 alumni, faculty members, and friends joined in the tribute to the bandmaster, who was a pioneer in the use of animated band formations.

Mr. Bainum, who retires at the end of the present academic year, has been director of the Northwestern bands since 1926, when the band first came under supervision of the school of music. He was also the first director of bands for the college all-star football games in Chicago and is a past president of the American Bandmasters' Association.

ROBERT H. PHILLIPS, Kent '50, who is a photographer for Life magazine and does free-lance photography in Washington, D. C., photographed the grandchildren of President Dwight Eisenhower in March. A series of Phillips' pictures appeared in Life during the month of March.

O. W. FRIEBERG, South Dakota, '22, is president of the National Retail Credit Association, an organization of 32,500 members, consisting of credit grantors and businesses extending credit either on the retail or consumer level.

Mr. Friberg is assistant vice-president of the monthly loan department of the head office of the American Trust Company in San Francisco, California. He is instructor and lecturer of the American Institute of Banking, giving courses in business administration, money, and banking in San Francisco.

It is interesting to note that another Delt, FRANCIS AUGER, Florida, '29, is current president of the Associated Credit Bureaus of America, and at the same time that W. HAROLD BRENTON, Iowa State, '20, is president of the American Bankers Association.

Three Delts are among the original members of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute's new General Development Council, made up of volunteer leaders from every segment of American life. They are: ERNEST L. WARNCKE, Rensselaer, '27; ROYCE F. WARD, Rensselaer, '31; and GEORGE J. SCRANTON, Rensselaer, '36.

Rensselaer's trustees have decided to embark upon a continuing development program, "designed to respond to the demands of this country's rapidly advancing technology." The program will be carried on by the Development Council.

Mr. Warncke is president of the W. P. Herbert & Co., of Troy, New York. He is also president of Upsilon Chapter's house corporation, which has undertaken a fund-raising campaign among the chapter's alumni to provide a new Shelter.

Mr. Ward is vice-president of John A. Johnson & Sons, Inc., and Mr. Scranton is connected with the Ford Motor Company.

ROBERT M. IVES, Columbia, '21, has been appointed to the rank of brigadier general in the Texas National Guard. The appointment was confirmed on March 2 by the Governor of Texas.

A veteran of World War I, he moved to Houston, Texas, many years ago and became active in the 143d Division of the Texas Guard. During World War II, he went overseas as an officer with the fighting 36th Division of Texas and led his men ashore at Salerno. He won many decorations and held the rank of lieutenant colonel when hostilities ceased.

General Ives in civilian life is vice-president and general manager of the Wilson Company, a large stationery and furniture house in Houston.

The Reverend HARRY A. FIFIELD, Florida, '33, has accepted a call as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta, Georgia. He had been pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Lynchburg, Virginia, since 1946.

In his new assignment, Rev. Fifield will serve a church which is 105 years old and which has 2,300 members.

In Lynchburg, he had served on the Lynchburg School Board, was vice-president of the Kiwanis Club, a member of the Mayor's committee on price control, and a member of the board of Lynchburg's chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. He served as a Navy chaplain in World War II.

O. GORDON DELK, George Washington, '33, has been appointed a special consultant on organizational and management matters in the Internal Revenue Bureau. Mr. Delk worked on wartime economic problems in North Africa when President Eisenhower was United States Army commander there.

A veteran Federal employee, he served for five years as assistant director of the Corporation Audits Division of the General Accounting Office.

ROBERT A. COLLIER, Texas, '40, has been named by the House Judiciary subcommittee investigating the Justice Department to help organize an investigative staff and make a preliminary probe. An FBI agent for 11 years, Mr. Collier was "recommended highly" by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, according to Congressman Chelf, committee chairman.

Mr. Collier joined the FBI in 1941.

GENERAL ROBERT M. IVES

He was assigned to posts in South America during the early part of the war and was stationed in Washington from 1946 until last October, when he resigned to enter private business.

Another Delt figured in the story. LEONARD P. WALSH, Minnesota, '27, president of the District of Columbia Bar Association, offered that organization's support in lining up other investigators.

D. LANE TYNES, Texas, '24, executive director of Blue Cross-Blue Shield in Kentucky, has been appointed to the Blue Cross Commission. The Commission is the national governing body of the Blue Cross Plans that now cover more than 44 million persons.

WILLIAM P. RAINES, Pittsburgh, '48, and WILLIAM J. CATROW, Pittsburgh, '46, have been advanced by the Koppers Company, Inc.

Raines has been appointed assistant advertising manager, while Catrow has been named assistant manager of the press and publications section. Catrow is also editor of Koppers Magazine.

JAMES E. GERHARDT, Texas, '53, was one of seven men to whom the 1953 Texas Relays was dedicated.

Gerhardt, a member of the United States Olympic team last summer, finished eleventh in global competition in the hop, step, and jump. He was not on hand for the ceremony, since he has been on active duty with the Navy since January.

D'ARCY QUINN, U.C.L.A., '33, is currently serving as Mayor of Alhambra, California.

IRVING C. JORDAN, U.C.L.A., '36, was recently elected president of the Building Contractors Association of California. He is a businessman of Los Angeles.

Delt Cagers Rate All-American Rank

IF YOU WERE asked to select this year an all-Delt All-American basketball team, you would doubtless begin with the great playmaker of Indiana's national champions: Bob Leonard. It was Leonard's outstanding floor game all year and in many instances his deadly shooting that carried the Hoosiers to the Big Ten title and the NCAA crown.

The rangy Indiana guard was named to the Associated Press All-American third team and earned a place on numerous other all-star selections. He rated high praise in particular for his clutch shooting in the first game of the NCAA finals against Louisiana State in Kansas City, when he hit so many consecutive baskets that fans were beginning to wonder if he ever missed. A junior, Leonard will be back for more honors next season.

You would also be sure to select U.S.C.'s great captain, Ken Flower, whose inspirational play earned him the sobriquet "the old pro from fraternity row," bestowed by Los Angeles sportswriters. He was honorable mention on the A. P. All-American. He was selected to play with the College All Stars on their tour with the Harlem Globe Trotters, and he played for the West in the postseason East-West All-Star game sponsored by the Kansas City Shriners.

As a sophomore, Flower hit the national spotlight when his co-operation with authorities enabled police to put West Coast gambling fixers out of business. Since that time, he has continued to gain respect in sports circles by his all-around class on the hardwood court.

Ken's abilities, incidentally, extend far beyond the art of splitting nets. He is sportscaster for the Trojan radio station, KUSC-FM; he was University homecoming chairman last fall; and he is a member of Blue Key, leadership honorary. A senior, he plans to make radio a career.

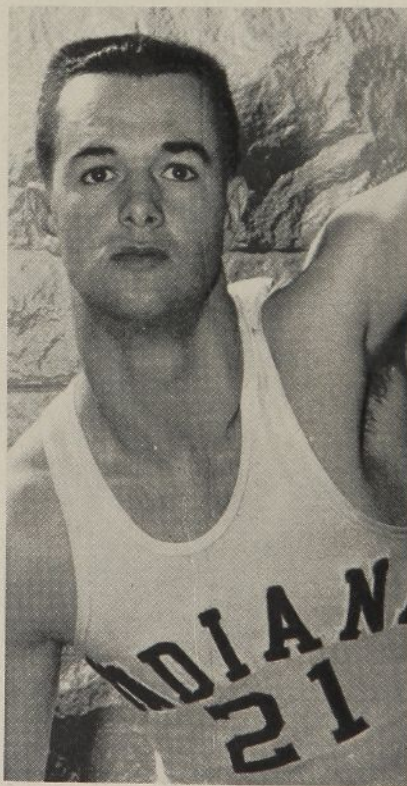

For a forward position, you could hardly deny a sophomore who broke the Stanford one-year scoring record formerly held by Hank Luisetti, the all-time all-timer. That's what Ron Tomsic did, racking up a total of 467 points for the season, two ahead of Luisetti's 1938 one-year standard.

Tomsic, who is only 5' 10", achieved the feat by canning 16 points in the last game, although he was accorded an unusual amount of attention by the opposition, U.C.L.A. A great jump-shot artist, he has two more collegiate years in which to shatter other records.

From here on out you could get yourself some fine arguments, no matter which way you jump. You might choose Sophomore Bart Leach, 6' 4" rebounder for Pennsylvania's Ivy League champs, or you could name Mike Hibler, stellar pivotman of U.C.L.A. You would certainly have to consider Art Bunte, Colorado's sophomore forward, who led his team's scoring, was third high in Big Seven scoring, and was selected on the All Big Seven line-up.

Nor should you overlook Vic Nadaskay, R.P.I.'s high scorer for two consecutive years, and John Alviggi, Lafayette captain and this year's selection as most valuable player. There are also Bill Person, first-string forward at W. & L. in his freshman year; Dick Gettings, Hillsdale captain; and George Zaninovich and Don DeLong, both starters for Stanford.

There are some of the best of them. Take your pick.

DELTS IN MANY CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Delta Tau Delta is making a sizable contribution to campus offices and positions. Jack Howie, senior and past president of the chapter, was elected president of the I. F. C. With Jack's election came many changes in the constitutional makeup of the organization.

This year the college administration started a system of student proctors in freshman dorms. It is quite an honor to be appointed to one of these positions. Of the 12 men, two were Deltas. Jack Olofson and Dane Hannum held these proctorships. The selections for next year include four Deltas in the 12. Those chosen are Dan Bratton, Dane Hannum, Jerry Cotton, and Alrik Monstrom.

Before the spring recess Allegheny held its annual fund drive for the foreign student fund. Serving in important positions in this drive were Chris Conway, Bud Schorr, Dan Bratton, and Jack Howie.

Just preceding spring recess, the Allegheny Undergraduate Council elections were held. Chris Conway was elected senior class representative and Jerry Cotton, junior class representative.

Along the competitive side of the campus activities was the annual Porter Singing Contest in which four Deltas were entered. They were Dane Hannum, Harrison Shields, Tim der Kinderen, and Ray Leuenberger.

One of the big hits of campus lately is the Freshman Octet, composed of eight Deltas. They have become very popular as a result of singing for shows, banquets, and serenades. The songsters are Ed Gooding, Hass Shields, Chuck Nichols, Dick Bender, Vic Mazura, Tim der Kinderen, Fritz Fries, and Jim Eakin.

SCHOLARSHIP REMAINS HIGH

Delta Tau Delta was again successful in the scholarship standings at the end of the first semester. The Deltas were second of the seven fraternities. The average was above the All Men's Average. For the last three years the Deltas have been either first or second in the fraternity standings. The men who were on the Dean's List with averages of 85 or above were Dave Bailey, Tom Blasco, Fred Brown, Bob Eaton, and De Myers.

INITIATE 21 NEW MEMBERS

Following a very successful pledge period under the leadership of Ned Curtis, Alpha Chapter initiated 21 of the top men on campus. This brought the chapter roll to 66, the largest in years. The initiation was held on Sunday, February 22, following an interfraternity pledge banquet. One of the high points of the day was the initiation of Timon der Kinderen,

SCHOLARSHIP SOARS TO FIRST PLACE

Beta Chapter is quite proud to have been named first in campus scholarship during the 1952-53 fall semester. The pledge average helped considerably in bringing to Beta Chapter this honor, and we were above the All Men's Average. Tom Cole was awarded the key for outstanding improvement in scholarship, and Don Pease was awarded a similar key for outstanding chapter scholarship.

The fall pledge class won the IFPC essay contest, whose topic was "Is Fraternity Life Conducive to Scholarship?" Bob DiCiccio, secretary-treasurer of the class, won Beta's Pledge Scholarship Award.

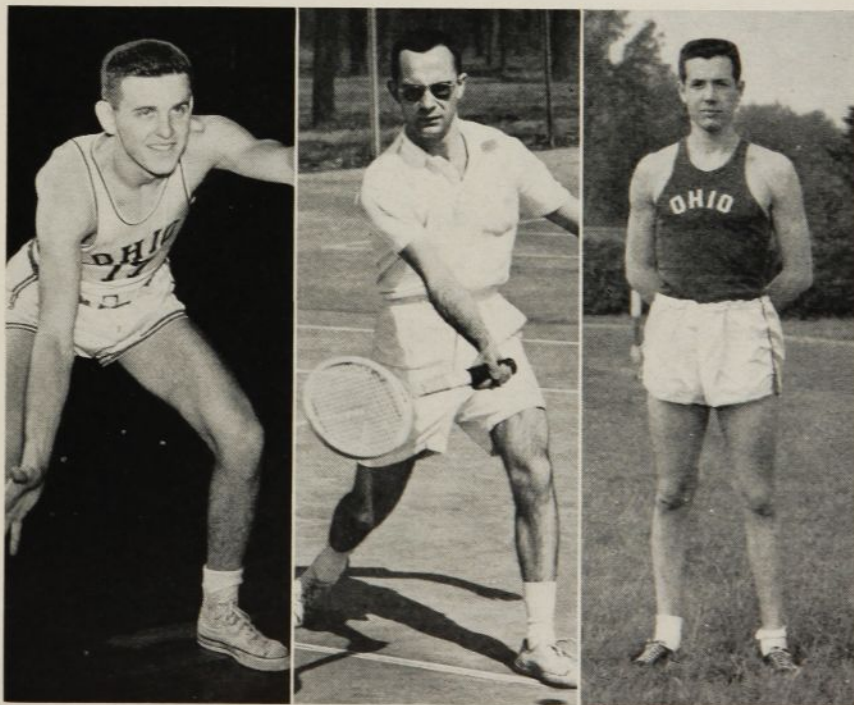

On March 1, eleven new men were added to Beta's ranks, making a total of 1,019 initiates. Among the guests and alumni at the Initiation Banquet were Darrell Moore and Frederick Kershner.

ODK TAPS DORAN AND GOODRICK

At a convocation on March 30 Brothers Dick Doran and Dick Goodrick were tapped for Omicron Delta Kappa, junior-senior men's honorary. Brother Doran's many activities include: past president of MUPB, Student Council, J-Club, past president, Class of '53, Blue Key, Debate Team, TKA (speech honorary), and Footballers. A few of Brother Goodrick's activities are: O. U. Post editor, J-Club, Student Council, Sigma Delta Chi, president of Ohio Collegiate Newspaper Association, assistant editor of freshman handbook, WOU! announcer, and East Green Council.

HOUSEMOTHER SERENADED

Our very popular housemother, Mrs. June Kimble, fondly called "Mom K.," recently was serenaded by Beta's Glee TRIO OF OHIO ATHLETES: BOB STRAWSER, the only sophomore letterman in basketball; BILL LAGANEGRO, Number One man on the tennis team; JIM LAUGHLIN, sprinter, member of team which set a new record in mile relay.

Elected to OΔK were these two Beta Chapter men: RICHARD GOODRICK (left) and RICHARD DORAN.

Club under the able baton of Watson Burnfield. Roses were presented to Mom K. Soon, Brother Burnfield announced, the Glee Club will be competing for its third consecutive win in the annual Torch Sing.

AIM FOR I-M "BIG CUP"

In intramurals the Delts are a close second in the over-all statistics but have a good chance of moving up for the "Big Cup" when the spring sports get in full swing. We ended in third place in basketball. As of this writing, we are second in ping-pong and bowling. In wrestling we were a close third and had a champion in Tom Malik, who was the heavyweight king of the campus, AND ONLY a freshman.

The football team was represented in spring practices by Tom Malik, John Brown, Bob Shepard, Ed Grazzini, Chuck McMillan, and Dan Cooper, the latter two being lettermen. In the regular spring sports A. McGhee was one of the returning lettermen in baseball. Len Stroble, Ed Grazzini, and Paul Frederick are three of the most promising of the newcomers, and one or all of them have a good chance of being in the starting line.

In track we are well represented by Mike Liles, returning letterman in the hurdles and dashes, Lacy Rich in the mile, and Dan Cooper in the 440.

CHAPTER STRENGTH AT 40

The W. & J. Delts are now the second largest fraternity on campus with a membership of 40. We were one of three fraternities on campus to get our full quota of pledges in the fall, and then in the spring rushing, we came up with eight more. Also within the last year we have moved from ninth in the scholastic standing to second fraternity on campus.

LOSE FIVE OUTSTANDING SENIORS

With graduation this spring we lose five actives who have made real names for themselves and for the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity on this campus. John Inglis, a pretheo, was president of the chapter and also president of the Interfraternity Council; his brother, Bill, a premed, was president of the Student Council and a member of many honoraries on the campus. Al McGhee was high-point man of the interfraternity basketball league for two years, and a two-year letter winner in baseball; Bob Lynch was a premed and president of the premed society; and Dick Jones was one of the high men scholastically on the campus.

Epsilon—Albion

STAR IN SOPHOMORE FOLLIES

Many of the sophomore Delts took part this year in the annual sophomore class follies, "If You Knew Susie." Brother Jim Murray, the sophomore class president, was in charge of one of the six skits, and Dick Swanson, Epsilon's president, was in charge of another.

Bob Reynolds, who has given professional dancing lessons, nearly took the show over with many dance routines of his own. In addition, he trained a large number of the sophomore men to take part in other dancing skits. Bob did a soft shoe routine in one of the skits, but the most outstanding one was "The Monkey Who Peeked." Against a background of blue, red, and white lights, Bob whirled and dipped with his partner, Carol Ranson, doing a modernistic and graceful dance showing excellent precision and talent and many hours of practice. Jim Hill, a Delt pledge, was one member of a men's chorus line, and later he was one of four scrubwomen who executed a novelty can-can.

Bill Ash took part in the skit directed by Murray. It was a take-off on Bay View Summer College, then and now. Using Bay View as the background, it was, naturally, a comedy.

It has been generally agreed that this year's "Follies" was the best of all, due in no small part to the efforts of many Delts.

MISS SALLY PALMER, 1953 Delt Queen at Albion College.

WINTER RUSHING NETS SEVEN

Winter rushing ended Monday evening, the third of March. The chapter formally pledged seven men, rounding out four weeks of concentrated work and several months of ground work under the direction of Committee Chairman Herb Fenske. The Wednesday following the pledging, the actives honored the new pledges by giving them a banquet at the Shelter.

Representing the chapter at the Northern Division Conference held in Cincinnati were Don Pietz, Noel Black, Tom Misner, and our chapter president, Richard Swanson. They brought back inspiring reports to aid Epsilon in the coming year.

TWO FRESHMAN SCHOLARS

Recognition was awarded to Joseph Munk and Richard Humphrey, who were elected to the freshman honorary society, Phi Eta Sigma, after achieving over the 2.5 average (on 3.00 basis) required for election.

Albion College's swimming team elected Brother Bill Kessel cocaptain. The swimming team was very successful this year, winning all but two of its meets. Supplied with an excess of talent, it has given Albion College a good name in swimming. We are quite proud that one of the brothers was elected to share the captainship this year.

RUSHING HITS PAR

Reserve Delts rang in the new semester by initiating seven neophytes into the Fraternity. Greeting them with a smile, the brothers have meshed them into the flock and all are working together for a better fraternity.

The open season in rushing this semester proved that the Reserve Delts can still bag their game with agile marksmanship. The list of new pledges extends to nine, which is about par for the course at Reserve. Much credit is due our rushing chairmen, George Devaul and Frank Luard, for their excellent work.

A touchy and vital part of any fraternity is scholarship. The past semester the chapter has attained a cumulative average of 2.30, which was third highest on campus. The breakdown of the average shows that the town men's average was 1.82 and the Shelter average was 2.61. The significance of this discrepancy has not been disclosed by higher authorities. Big-brother teams are working with the pledges to assure a clean slate for their initiation.

WIEDMAN CAPTAINS TRACK

Headlining the track team at Western Reserve is Captain Charles Wiedman, the Shelter's Veep. Wiedman, a pole vaulter, is joined on the track team by Brother Norm McCreary, a high jumper, and Pledge Tony Brown in the high hurdles.

The termination of the Reserve wrestling season shows that Brother Bill Moley led the wrestling squad in total points gathered during the season. Besides this, Moley racked up extra honors by placing fourth in his division in the MAC wrestling tournament. Moving over to tennis, Brother Ralph Engle, an old-timer, is still available for action on the courts for another season. The pitching staff of Reserve's baseball team includes Brothers Bob Theiss and Gordon Bower. Both are veterans of past seasons and will be seeing plenty of action in the coming baseball season.

The Delts are, per usual, running off with top honors this year in intramural sports. The "A" basketball team rolled up ten victories in eleven games to cop its divisional championship. It is now preparing to enter the final games for determination of the all-University championship. The "B" basketball team won eleven of twelve games to take the championship for the second consecutive year. The bowling team, with a record of 9-1, is a hot contender for its league championship. In the boxing tournament, Pledge Andy Mooney fought his way to the championship in the 155-pound class.

BLOOD FOR RED CROSS

Delegates to the Northern Division Conference were Brothers Ralph Engle and Francis Cuppage. The boys had an enriching experience and returned to relate some good ideas to the chapter.

The annual Red Cross blood donation drive received many contributions from Zeta Chapter men. Twenty-two young stalwarts went to the well and bled for their Fraternity.

PRESIDENT OF MEN'S COUNCIL

Vern Dresback, elected recently as president of Kappa Chapter, has been elected president of the Men's Council of Hillsdale College.

Dick Gettings did it again. Besides being president of the Senior Class, past president of Kappa Chapter, captain of baseball and basketball, et cetera, he was chosen as "King of the Mardi Gras." At the annual Mardi Gras, Delts captured the trophy for the best concession and took a close second in the skit.

Jack Dunn has recently been appointed as cochairman of student assemblies. Jack is a past vice-president of the chapter and is a top-notch pitcher on the varsity baseball team.

SIX DELTS ON DIAMOND

Delts are well represented on the baseball, tennis, and track teams. Besides Captain Gettings, there are Norm Boyea, Jack Dunn, "Bud" Neale, and Don Richl returning from last year's diamond squad. Jack Rossetti, a freshman, is batting his way up to the top.

On the track team we have Lee Wyatt, Ben Wilcox, Hank Nephew, and Tom Rowe. Tom travelled to Kansas City recently to participate in the Kansas Relays.

Dominating the varsity tennis squad are Bob Morey, Fred Riffin, Art Burns, and "Pepper" Rehn.

NEW ADMINISTRATION TAKES OVER

After the chapter elections, Lynn Learey emerged victorious as our new president, and Cecil Burkhart resigned from the position of housemanager to accept the new position of vice-president. The chapter wishes them the best of luck, since prospects for the future convince us that it can be one of Mu Chapter's most prosperous years.

ACQUIRE NEW CAMPUS POSITIONS

With regard to the campus elections, the Delts were successful again this year. We ran Al Brant for treasurer of the student body and Lowell Benson for senior class president. Thanks to the competent work of Brother Joe Somma, the campaign manager, both men came through with flying colors.

In addition, we must mention that Lynn Learey and Jim Ziegler are the new co-editors of the school yearbook and Duncan White is a new co-editor of the school newspaper.

LEAD AGAIN IN SCHOLARSHIP

Mu Chapter again won the Northern Division Scholarship Award and hopes to come out on top in campus scholarship. Individually, recognition should be paid Ron Long, who made junior Phi Beta Kappa, and to our other "Phi Betes," Dave Smith and Jack Cole.

PINNED VS. UNPINNED

Just before spring recess, the Delts invited dates to the Shelter for dinner, after which, all went to Edwards Gym for the annual basketball game between the pinned and unpinned men. Great enthusiasm, fun, and spirit were displayed as the unpinned men, having to endure no coaching from the side lines, finally edged out a victory over the pinned men in a hotly contested battle.

ALUMNI ATTEND INITIATION

ALVIGGI NAMED MOST VALUABLE

This year Nu Chapter is forming a tremendous baseball team so that it can regain the campus title. In basketball Brother John Alviggi, captain of the Lafayette team, was awarded a trophy for being chosen by the students the most valuable player on the team this year. The house has recently purchased a basketball backboard which it intends to put up in the near future.

At the annual K. R. T. Skit Night the house presented a skit satirizing different kinds of fraternity rushers. The skit was well received by the student body. The house is now preparing for the annual step-singing contest to be held in the late spring.

A formal dinner-dance party was one of the most successful parties staged by Social Chairman Mike Koltusky. Plans are now being made for Spring I-F.

KEES DE VENITE and DICK LEMEN

RUSHING BREAKS ALL-TIME RECORD

As a climax to two tremendous weeks of rushing, Rho Chapter recently pledged 29 new men. This not only was tops on campus for this year but also broke the all-time record for Stevens. The total house membership is now 68 men. The new pledges are readily adapting themselves to the house and have shown a great deal of interest in all Fraternity functions. The new pledge class is well represented around the campus in extracurricular activities.

SPORTS CHAMPS FOURTH YEAR RUNNING

The Delts recently cinched the sports trophy again for the fourth consecutive year. Last year we retired the three-year trophy and it seems as though we are well on our way toward retiring the new one. The trophy will be presented to the house at the I.F.C. formal on Spring Sports Week End.

ALL-AMERICAN HONORS IN LACROSSE

Springtime at Stevens is a time when everybody in the Delt house is busy and this year is no exception. We have more than our share of members on the school athletic teams. The lacrosse team is made up largely of Delts with Johnny Bartholomew in the goal, Chic Hedberg on defense, Dick Rogers, Paul Langhans, Bob Jones, and Watson Smith at midfield, and Dave Martin, Vic Berent, and Gene Valley on the attack.

Dave Martin, who is cocaptain of the team, is playing his last year for the Red and Grey. Last year Dave was named Honorable Mention, All-American Lacrosse Team, and this year is expected to rise to even greater heights.

On the baseball team we have Bob Lan-ker as catcher, along with Don Max, Dick Ricci, and Bob Woodward as pitchers. Lou Calvino and Jack Horsefield play outfield for the team.

Two outstanding candidates for the tennis team are Harold Bossung, who recently captured the Stevens Squash Championship, and Chuck Morgan, who last fall won the Stevens Freshman Tennis Tournament.

It is easy to see that the Stevens Delts are interested in the Fraternity and school activities. In spite of the fact that they are hard pressed by school work, they never lack time to lend a helping hand to one another, and they are proud of the record they have achieved during the past year.

DELT HOOPSTER HIGH SCORER

The winter has worn away but not without its standouts at the Delt Shelter. "Vic" Nadaskay made sure of that when he closed out the 1952-53 basketball season by leading the R.P.I. hoopsters with 66 field goals and 84 foul shots, to give him a total of 216 points. This was his second straight year as high scorer.

BEEBE LEADS DIAMOND SQUAD

With spring coming on, Don Beebe is now out on the base path acting as co-captain for R.P.I.'s baseball team. This year's R.P.I. lacrosse team is off to a tremendous start with its share of Delt players. Dave McGarvey is defending the goal, and Ronnie Secrest is holding down the center position. Dick Ryder is a key defense man and Don Freund is backing up that first line.

With elections of all sorts coming up, the Delt Shelter has nine men running for office. Frank Chiarelli was elected co-captain of next year's hockey team and is this year's president of BOR. Abbie Moore just became president of the "R" Club and is now running for senior class president with Dick Dolvin as vice-president.

REPEAT FOR SING TROPHY EYED

With Parent's Week End coming up, the Shelter halls are ringing with songs as we loosen up the vocal cords for the IFC Song Fest. Maybe the old Delt inherited singing ability will win for us the first-place trophy again this year.

Phi—W. & L.

CHAPTER PRESIDENT ELECTED O.D.K.

Phi Chapter started off the new semester by holding its annual elections. Bob Smith, junior from Jacksonville, Florida, was named president. Bob, the foremost leader of his class on campus, was the only junior elected to ODK, national leadership society.

Many Delts finished the first semester with scholastic honors and are still keeping up the good work that is sure to put us at the top in fraternity averages. Hap Weber was recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He has been a consistent honor-roll student for four years.

SPORTS DOMINATED BY DELTS

On almost every W. & L. athletic team the Delts are stars. Gib McSpadden, a freshman, held a perfect record in Southern Conference wrestling meets. He finished second in his weight in the Conference wrestling tournament.

Gib has been W. & L.'s strongest competitor in any sport. Also on the team were Joe Hanaway, Watty Bowes, and Lee White.

GIB McSPADDEN

Bill Person, another freshman, was a first-string forward with the basketball team this year and has a promising future ahead of him. Bob McHenry was also on the team. Keith Belch, still another freshman, was the house's contribution to the swimming team, a starter in the 220 and backstroke.

The lacrosse team, as usual, is completely dominated by Delts. Even the coach, Ken Spence, is a member of the Fraternity. Starring on the team are Marv Bobbitt, Pat Flannigan, Bill McHenry, Mike Ryan, and many others too numerous to mention.

DELTS TAKE LEAD ON CAMPUS

In every activity on campus Delts are leading. Dave Fisher, literary genius, is a constant contributor to the humor magazine. Fred Easter recently starred in a Dramatic Club presentation. The house octet has been singing at various schools in Virginia. Led by Jim Lewis, they have provided many enjoyable evenings for the chapter. Randy Bradley and his fine orchestra, including Don Stine and Harrison Stone, have also been in great demand around the campus.

FLORIDA MIGRATION

The Chi Delts have just returned to the Kenyon campus from their ten-day spring vacation. Many of the brothers took the opportunity to travel, the greatest number going to Florida; ten in all visited the Land of Sunshine.

Two of the ten were Brothers Ryan and McMasters, first and second men on the tennis team which played several Florida schools during the spring training.

TWO ARE MOUND ARTISTS

Hopes are high for the baseball team this spring, with Brother Williams and Pledge Schwarz on the pitching staff. Pledge Bob Rowe is the first-string catcher, and Pledges Block and Hagan are members of the outfield.

Lacrosse, the big spring sport at Kenyon, has eight Delts on the team, three of whom are returning lettermen.

Chi will lose eight brothers by graduation this spring, several of whom are being graduated with honors and who intend to go on to graduate school. The rest of the chapter extends to their brothers the best of luck in years to come.

WILLIAM WENDT

STAR OF IVY LEAGUE CHAMPS

This year Omega Delts were well represented on the University's athletic teams. Omegans were especially proud of Bart Leach, who held down the forward post on Pennsylvania's Ivy League champion basketball team.

Bart, a 6' 4" sophomore, began his prowess on the basketball court last year by breaking the freshman record with 296 points. This year he has continued his fine job, especially in the rebounding division. He was among the top five rebounders in the Ivy League.

OARSMEN VIE FOR VARSITY BERTHS

Omegans are proud of a great rowing tradition, and this year finds our newly elected house president, Chuck Shaffer, and Pledge Paul Yager both competing for starting positions in the varsity shell. Chuck competed last year in the Olympic tryouts for four-without-coxswain shells, and Paul stroked the freshman oarsmen.

RIEDER AND TROUT AWARDED HIGH SENIOR HONORS BY UNIVERSITY

George Rieder, former Omega president, and Monroe E. "Spider" Trout were the only two male undergraduates who received awards for scholastic achievement and all-around excellence at the University's Founder's Day Celebration. Spider and George, both members of Friars Senior Honor Society, are prominent in many other campus activities. Spider is chairman of Undergraduate and Interfraternity Councils, while George is a member of the Mask and Wig Club and also a varsity trackman. Both men are nominees for permanent class officers and for Senior Honor awards.

Omegans are looking forward to Skimmer Day on May 2. This is the day on which Penn meets Yale and Columbia in the annual Blackwell Cup crew race. This year will mark the fourth annual Open House to which the Delts have invited the entire Pennsylvania campus. We are certain that it will prove a success as in the past.

WILLIAM GALLAHER

Beta Alpha—Indiana

LEONARD SPEARHEADS DRIVE FOR BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Beta Alpha's Bobby Leonard from Terre Haute spearheaded Indiana's drive to the NCAA basketball championship.

Bobby, who was initiated in October, was the second highest scorer on the Big Ten championship team. He is the playmaker and floor general for the ball club.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

Jack Bailey was elected to the office of president in the February elections. Jack is a senior and a student of business at Indiana. The other officers elected were Edward Frickenschmidt, vice-president; Bob Drake, treasurer; Jerry Miller, recording secretary; and John Heiney, corresponding secretary. The appointed officers are Dick Walsman, scholarship chairman; Bob Glen, scholarship chairman; James R. Slaughter, rush chairman; Don Caley, social chairman; Guy Matthew, pledge trainer; and Dick DeBoest, Interfraternity Council.

MARCUS NAMED OUTSTANDING PLEDGE OF YEAR

Merritt Marcus of Louisville, Ky., was named outstanding pledge of this year. Beta Alpha's housemother, Mrs. Amelia K. Neely, resigned last month because of illness. She was replaced by Mrs. Tourner.

DOOG DELMAR BILL, III, RESIDES AT SHELTER

Don C. Caley and his brother, an alumnus, presented Beta Alpha a beautiful Boxer puppy last fall. The dog, registered as Doog Delmar Bill, III, was finally called "Doog" after a continued argument. We were afraid for sometime that we might have to dispose of the dog after a car accident early last fall; however, Doog recovered and has developed into a beautiful Boxer.

REDECORATED SHELTER IS EYECATCHER

After being redecorated, complete with a new carpet in the front room, the Shelter is an eyecatcher.

We are now in the midst of rush, and have a high quota of pledges as our goal.

OUTSTANDING IN INTRAMURALS

Beta Alpha has been outstanding in intramural athletics so far this year. We advanced to the semifinals in football, won the swimming meet, and are defending champs in track and softball.

JOHN H. HEINEY

Beta Beta—De Pauw

MEMBERSHIP INCREASED BY SEVENTEEN

With Beta Beta's initiation ceremony on March 29 our active membership increased by 17 men. A banquet was held following the initiation at which time the new initiates gave brief, impromptu speeches.

The high lights on the Delt social calendar this spring are our Sweetheart Banquet honoring pin-women and relatives of Delts, and our annual spring dance on the front lawn, for which the "Salty Dogs" of Purdue have been contracted to play.

BETA BETA SHINES AT FOUNDERS DAY CELEBRATION

At the Annual State Founders Day Banquet and Dance, sponsored by the Indianapolis Alumni Chapter and held at

DELTS TURN OUT FOR SPRING SPORTS

The Delt intramural basketball team with a strong finish gained fourth place in our league. Guard Jim Kelly and Center Don MacLean were voted to the All-Star Team. Right now our volleyball team, well on its way to the league championship, is the team to beat.

The house looks rather deserted in the afternoons with spring sports in full swing. Three Delts are assured starting positions on DePauw's baseball team and several others are showing promise. Ten Delts form the nucleus of the track team, while we have two men on the tennis squad.

SEVERAL TAPPED FOR CAMPUS OFFICES

Several men in the house have been elected to offices in campus organizations this spring. Jim Rowlette is the new vice-president of the Union Building Board. Travis Kendall is vice-president of Kappa Tau Kappa, Interfraternity Council, and was recently elected president of the Methodist Student Movement. John Weise is the new treasurer of the Student Senate and Student Body. In addition to these offices, Delts hold the presidencies of four honorary clubs. Tom Driscoll and Jim McClenahan, graduating seniors, have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa. And two freshmen, Andy Adsit and Clark Taylor, are members of Phi Eta Sigma, freshman men's scholastic honorary.

DONALD A. JOHNSON

BASEBALL TEAM READY TO CINCH CHAMPIONSHIP

The Delts at ole U. W. are well on their way to becoming the top-notch fraternity on the Madison campus. The reasons are evident in every phase of Beta Gamma's activities: sports, scholarship, and social. The intramural baseball team, captained by Mal (Casey) MacArthur, looks like a shoo-in to regain the University championship. Stalwart Pitcher Don Wahls is backed up by power hitters Earl (Babe) Schultz and Charlie Forsberg. Add to this the experience of the Morton brothers, Ray and Don, Marv Malik, and Dave Miller, and the Delts will be virtually unbeatable. Tennis Players Wally (Pancho) Lange and Elroy Thiele will be gunning to raise the Fraternity's third-place finish last year to a championship, and it looks as if they'll do it.

STRIVE FOR ASTOUNDING SCHOLASTIC HEIGHTS

Although there are no Phi Beta Kappas or Rhodes scholars around the Beta Gamma Shelter, Scholarship Chairman Ray Morton is pushing the grade point to unheard-of heights. Pledges and actives alike are regularly attending bi-weekly study halls and the midsemester results are astounding.

CHAPTER HOLDS SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL

with the SAEs, Betas, and Sig Chis. The entire campus got in on festivities they'll never forget: food, beverages, and dancing on the beach of Lake Mendota to the music of a Dixie band housed on the Shelter's front porch.

SHINE IN CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Delts in campus activities are animal husbandry Student Jim Miller, a member of the U. W. livestock judging squad; Bill Cotanch, member of the University's musical comedy Haresfoot Club, and premed Student Ted Fox, letter-winning member of the varsity wrestling team.

Beta Delta—Georgia

BETA DELTA FIRST IN SCHOLARSHIP

Out of nineteen fraternities Beta Delta ranked the highest in fraternity averages. Contributing to the excellent average was Brother Dave Lamb who made the Dean's List. Beta Delta has always maintained a high scholastic average on the Georgia campus.

RECENT ELECTIONS HELD

In recent elections held at Beta Delta, Willie Russell was elected president. Other officers are vice-president, Paul Smith; treasurer, Dave Crane; corresponding secretary, Charlie Godfrey; and recording secretary, Bob Troup.

HATS OFF TO PLEDGES!

Our hats are off to our pledge class for the fine job it is doing. For a project, the pledges have enlarged the parking area and redecorated our housemother's quarters. New pledges for the quarter include Jack Curtiss, Jared Durrence, John Richardson, and Lloyd Smith.

SHINE IN ATHLETIC COMPETITION

In the field of sports Beta Delta shone by producing top-notch athletic teams which brought home many victories for the purple, white, and gold in intramural competition.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY HELD

Beta Delta held its annual Christmas Party for underprivileged children of Athens. The children were sponsored by the Salvation Army and received such gifts as guns, pants, shirts, games, and candy.

FORMAL CLIMAXES SOCIAL SEASON

The zenith of the social season at Georgia was Beta Delta's annual "Spring Formal" which was held April 17 at the Georgian Hotel. The high light of the evening was the coronation of our new sweetheart for the coming year.

CHARLES E. GODFREY

Beta Epsilon—Emory

ADOPT LITTLE SISTER

The Deltas at Beta Epsilon have recently adopted a "little sister"—something of a novelty they think. At a party on April 3 they celebrated a double occasion—little sister Rosalie Cooper's 14th birthday and her formal installation as junior sponsor. Miss Carolyn Alford, Delta Darling of the chapter, presented Rosalie with a "badge" in honor of her position. Deltas at Emory are helping to pay Rosalie's expenses at school.

HOLD EASTER EGG HUNT

The Easter week end saw many of the brothers and their dates assembled on the Shelter grounds to watch children from the nearby Methodist Children's Home scramble for hidden Easter eggs. The festivities of the afternoon culminated in the serving of refreshments on the newly finished terrace adjoining the Shelter.

ANNUAL DOOLEY'S FROLICS TO BE HELD

Excitement during the spring quarter at Emory generally runs high, with Doo-ley's Frolics, the annual party week end complete with elaborate lawn decorations, and a host of lesser social events such as house dances and outings of various sorts.

FIVE PLEDGED

During the winter quarter five men, who have the makings of outstanding brothers, were pledged by the chapter. The election of new officers and a highly successful Winter Formal also marked the quarter.

ROBERT C. FOY

Beta Eta—Minnesota

NEW ADMINISTRATION TAKES OVER

Beta Eta Chapter began its spring quarter activities with new officers. Coming out on top in the March elections were: Tom Bell, president; Bob Erskine, vice-president; John Rasche, recording secretary; Ron Dick, corresponding secretary; Bob Daun, guide; Paul Marschewski, guard. Red-hot campaigning did not create any change in fraternal spirit, and the chapter has again welded into a cohesive group backing the new administration.

FIRST BRIDGE TOURNAMENT HELD

The first annual, Delt-sponsored, interfraternity-sorority bridge tournament was a big success. Teams from 20 Greek organizations were on hand for the first eliminations held at the Shelter February 17. Everyone commented that they "had a wonderful time," and that they were "looking forward to the second annual event." Theta Xi emerged as champion and placed the beautiful trophy on its mantel. Needless to say, we are also looking forward to the second one. Good publicity.

SPRING QUARTER PROGRAM LINED UP

Projects for spring quarter include a booth for the Campus Carnival, the Spring Formal, intramural softball, and a new scholarship program. The activities committee, spearheaded by Bob Daun, is concocting a masterpiece which is sure to draw the attention of everyone at the Carnival. Bob Larsen, newly appointed social chairman, is drawing up plans for the formal. The softball ten is being whipped into shape by Junior Dick Gillingham (who, incidentally, just signed a pro contract with the Cincinnati Reds). The scholarship program is being directed by everyone in the chapter. We hope to be leading the campus very shortly.

KORN ELECTED TENNIS CAPTAIN

In athletics, two-year letter-winner Don Korn was elected to the captainship of the 1953 Minnesota Tennis Team. Don is a junior in business administration. Rog Anderson swings a bat almost as well as he swings a coal shovel. At least that's what we claim after our house manager led the Gopher team with two home runs in the recent southern trip. He is also showing the boys how the first-base position should be handled. Max Schmitt covers the left Gopher field and is hitting .312 to date.

WINTER PARTY HELD

"One of the best parties in many years" was a comment flowing around Delta Hall following our annual Winter Party. And indeed, it was a fine party. Over 80 Deltas and dates migrated to the White Pine Inn the afternoon of February 7 to enjoy the fine facilities for skiing, skating, and tobogganing. A fine dinner was followed by dancing to the music of a "crazy" combo. Have you ever tried dancing in ski boots?

RON DICK

ELECTION OF OFFICERS HELD

With the beginning of second semester, Beta Theta again prepared to assume the forefront in campus activities. The first duty of the chapter was, of course, the election of capable officers to lead the chapter during the many events to follow. Brother Tom McCrummen was elected to the office of president; Gilmer White was elected vice-president; Wilson Stearly, recording secretary; Ed Bell, corresponding secretary; Richard Hayes, treasurer; Peter Knapp, assistant treasurer; Rolf Spicer, guide; and Bill Emmons, sergeant at arms.

JOURNEY WEEK HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL

The opening portion of the semester saw eager pledges journeying to all corners of the globe to do the actives' bidding on the traditional journey week. Troy Martin and Sidney Francis were pleasantly surprised at Frankfurt, Kentucky, where they found themselves the guests of the congenial Secretary of State, and eventually the subjects of an article in one of the better-known papers of that city. At the same time Pledges Herbert and Knapp managed to break into radio in another part of the country, after which they visited Warm Springs, Georgia, where they presented a gift of cash to the Polio Foundation. Unfortunately two of the pledges were singularly unheralded on their journey, thus Charles Keller and Lis Steele returned with little to show for their efforts, excepting two pairs of sore feet. At the conclusion of journey week, however, the active chapter elected Lis Steele the best pledge of the 1952-53 pledge class.

COFFEE HOURS HELD

Continuing the social whirl, Beta Theta Chapter held several Coffee Hours, the best of which was the Coffee Hour for the members of Phi Gamma Delta. Such gatherings give the Deltas and the members of the other fraternities on the Mountain a chance to establish closer bonds of friendship.

VISITORS ENTERTAINED

During the course of the semester, Beta Theta Chapter has been honored to entertain the members of other Delt chapters in the vicinity. Among these visitors were members of the chapters at the University of Tennessee and the University of Kentucky. The Sewanee Delts are always happy to welcome such guests, and herewith extend a standing invitation to all Delts, assuring them that there will ever be a warm welcome for them at Sewanee.

BANQUET HELD

One of the high lights of the social season was the recent banquet held in honor of our faculty advisors, both past and present. Here in an atmosphere of quiet fraternity, the members looked back upon a past of distinction and forward to a future of greater accomplishments for Beta Theta Chapter and the whole of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

PERSONAL RECOGNITION

The two best Sewanee distance men this year should be Brothers Patston and Oxarart. Last year they carried the colors of Delta Tau Delta to honor, and it seems likely that they will not only repeat again this year, but also go on to greater glory.

Brother Ed Bell was elected to the Discipline Committee of the Order of Gownsmen, and Gilmer White represents the Purple and Gold on the Executive Committee of the Order of Gownsmen.

BLUE KEY SING

It looks as if the chapter will shine in the Blue Key interfraternity sing this year, under the capable leadership of George Hall, Fred Fuller, and Richard Hayes. Last year the Delts took second place in this event, and it is hoped that this record will be bettered. One of the outstanding reasons for believing that the goal may be reached is the fact that most of the members participating in this activity are members of the well-known Sewanee Choir, which, besides visiting many portions of the country to sing, has also recorded for NBC.

J. E. BELL, JR.

Beta Kappa—Colorado

ANNUAL KLONDIKE HELD

Skiing and a smörgasbord were the order of the day at the annual Klondike of Beta Kappa. This year the Klondike was an informal affair with members and their dates going to the Hidden Valley ski slopes early in the afternoon of March 14. Whether an expert skier or just a "snow bunny," all agreed that the snow was just right.

Following the skiing, all proceeded to the Aspen Lodge in Estes Park, where our host had a fine, all-you-can-eat variety smörgasbord dinner waiting for us.

After a much needed rest, the evening's entertainment included a series of skits containing such talent as Don McCallum, Bob Newcomer, and Bo Parkins. The program consisted of take-offs on popular radio shows. Following the planned entertainment, dancing and singing took the spotlight. Since the party was a costume affair, many spent much of their time planning and getting together appropriate garb. Costumes varied from logging boots and plaid shirts to straw hats and vests.

PLACE FIFTH IN SCHOLARSHIP

Delta Tau Delta, as usual, ranked high on the campus in scholarship. The chapter's average of 2.309 placed fifth among the 23 fraternities, a mere 0.043 behind the first-place fraternity, and well above the All Fraternity Average of 2.118.

Delts who distinguished themselves scholastically included Dave Blanchard who received a Chicago Herald Tribune medal in connection with his ROTC unit for attaining the second highest average of all-Naval Science II students. Dee Hubbard was awarded a similar medal for maintaining the highest average of all-Air Science I cadets. Dave was also honored by being tapped for Sumalia, junior men's honorary, as was Ron Johnson.

STAR IN VARSITY ATHLETICS

This spring, as always, Beta Kappa is well represented in varsity athletics. Carroll Hardy, Ron Johnson, and Mel Schauerma are displaying their talents on the baseball diamond, and are doing very well. Both Ron and Mel are pitchers, while Carroll holds down center field. Delts who are out for track include Dick Boblit, Red Scarff, John Creighton, Pat Hindman, Dave Lewis, Denny Plooster, Ralph Hanna, and Fritz Hageboeck. Art Bunte, a sophomore, was selected to the Big Seven all-conference team. Art led the Buffs in scoring and was the third highest scorer in the league. Whitey Gompert, a senior, received an honorable mention award.

HOLD ELECTIONS

Bob Peacock was elected Beta Kappa house president for the coming year at recent elections. Elected with him were Dee Hubbard, vice-president; Jo French, treasurer; Dave Blanchard, recording secretary; and Duane Hampton, corresponding secretary. Peacock succeeds Tim Campbell as president.

PLUNGE INTO RUSH

With the start of the second semester here at Lehigh in February, Beta Lambda plunged headlong into the important task of rushing. The campaign began with a party which incorporated elaborate decorations and a dance band which seemed to go over very well with those being rushed. Upperclassmen as well as freshmen were scrutinized very thoroughly and, as a result, we have eleven new pledges.

HOPE TO RETAIN VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Looking at the sports picture to date, Frank Dunne can be proud of his showing in interfraternity wrestling. Frank not only pinned all three of his opponents, but he also walked off with the best score of the whole tournament with ten points. Art Schifflin, in his second year at Lehigh, has proven invaluable to the basketball team this year and he has two good seasons ahead of him yet. For the third straight year the Delts have won a play-off berth in the volleyball league. The finals will take place in the near future and it is hoped that Beta Lambda will again retain its championship.

SANDFORD COACHES VARSITY TRACK TEAM

In spring track the Delts are well represented. Heading the list is Pete Sandford, former sprint star, who has been appointed by the University to coach the varsity track team this year. This is a splendid opportunity for Pete, for it is seldom that a student ever gets the chance to be the actual coach of a university team.

Delts expected to make a good showing on the track team are Don Bell, Middle Atlantic Conference shot-put champion, Duane Jennings, Delaware state champion in the one-half mile, and Bill Stempfle. In varsity baseball Ed Van Brunt is once again expected to take over the mound chores for the Brown and White. Dick Sperry will be in the number one spot on the golf team this year and Bill Dengler will captain the tennis team.

DELT HEADS UP ANNUAL MUSIC FESTIVAL

In activity participation around the campus Beta Lambda has once again placed men in important positions on the supervisory staff of Lehigh's annual spring Music Festival. Heading the whole show is Warren Stevens as co-ordinator. Warren has been getting able assistance from Henry Franz as Technical Personnel Director and Bedford Wooley as Special Projects Director. Other brothers connected with the show in various capacities are Bob Linck and Duncan Cook. Pledges included in the production are Dick Thompson, Dave Franz, Warren Benzinger, Henry Benjamin, Tom Henderson, and Bob Fouchaux. Frank Dunne captured more honor for the Shelter and himself by being elected president of Alpha Kappa Psi, which is our honorary business fraternity at Lehigh.

CHAPTER PLAYS HOST AT REGIONAL

One of the most interesting events occurring here at the Shelter was on March 21 when Beta Lambda had the honor of being host for the annual Eastern Division Regional Conference. Student delegates from Pennsylvania, Cornell, Lafayette, Syracuse, Delaware, Lehigh, and Toronto were in attendance. In addition to the undergraduate representatives, Beta Lambda had, as guests, such notables as Joel Reynolds, Vice-President of the Fraternity; Hugh Shields, Executive Vice-President; and Forrest Witmeyer, President of the Eastern Division. Such problems as internal organization, rushing, and alumni matters were the topic of general discussion. After business matters were dispensed with the delegates got into the swing of things by attending a Lehigh dance, and after that, a party at the Shelter with dates provided by the brothers.

HENRY FRANZ, IV

WIN INTERFRATERNITY BASKETBALL CROWN

After a wild and woolly season, the Beta Mu basketballers emerged victorious in a play-off game with Phi Epsilon Pi to win the interfraternity basketball crown. Oddly enough, high scorer Bob Doane, who went into the game with a 14-point-per-game average, was blanked for the first time this year, but made up for it with his excellent floor play and rebounding. Charlie Burnham topped the scoring column and put on another of his Cousy-like dribbling performances to keep the ball from the Phi Eps in the closing minutes of the game.

Elsewhere in the sports picture we are well represented. Sophomore Parker Calkin earned his letter on the track team by running the 220 and the relay. Distance man Dick Brito did his part for the swimmers, and Bill Schmid and Fred McCurdy took almost all firsts and seconds in the fancy diving. Fred also placed third in the New England, and was elected cocaptain for next year. Deltas are participating in all the spring sports, and we boast another captain in Tiny Imboden, who pilots this year's tennis team.

GLEE CLUB READY TO DEFEND TITLE

Musically we are also very active. The glee club is hard at work preparing to defend its title at the annual Spring Sing, and the "Deltones," the house octet, recently entertained the Boston Alumni Chapter at the Founders Day banquet, and are now practicing for the Varsity Club Minstrel Show.

WINTER CARNIVAL WEEK END HELD

Winter Carnival week end was the scene of a Paul Bunyan party, complete with "Babe," the blue ox, who looked suspiciously like a moose, comfortably pastured in the front yard. "Hot" was the word for the Jazz Party featuring George Weins from famous Storyville in Boston. We are still looking forward to our annual spring formal and beach party at Magnolia on the north shore.

Beta Mu Chapter says that these new initiates show initiative at Tufts. One of them made a straight A average in premed.

SAM HEDRICK ADDRESSES INITIATION BANQUET

The chapter was addressed by Sam Hedrick, Gamma Theta, '32, at the initiation banquet held on March 29. Brother Hedrick, a professor of theology at Boston University, spoke to us on the ideals embodied in The Delta Creed. Lloyd Miller is our new president, along with Fred King as veep and Fred McCurdy as steward. Other officers elected were Gil Potter, Howie Rockwell, Bob Bienvenu, and Carl Raine.

NEW INITIATE MAKES STRAIGHT A

Newly initiated Frank Coglianò gave the chapter something to shoot for when he made five A's for a perfect average in his first semester as a premed. Frank also finds time to throw the hammer and the shot for the freshman track team. Bill Schmid has distinguished himself through his admittance to Tufts Dental School next year, although he is now only a sophomore. Other graduate students include Tiny Imboden and Frank Reed, who have been accepted at Georgetown Law School, Paul Wiggin, who will go to Harvard Divinity School, and Don Lynch who goes to Tufts Dental School.

CARL RAINE

Beta Nu—M. I. T.

Beta Nu is anxiously looking forward to the high light of the M.I.T. social season, the annual I.F.C. week end. The formal dance on Friday opens the festivities and is followed by numerous parties at the various fraternities.

PLACE IN INTRAMURALS

Our winter intramural athletic program earned for us a second place in bowling and a third in swimming. The chapter is now looking forward to the softball season with high hopes for that first place that has thus far eluded our grasp. We are quite proud of Brother Warren Lattof who placed fifth in the IC4A 60-yard high hurdles held last month in Madison Square Garden. We are looking forward to even better things from Warren in his two remaining years at Tech.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

The officers elected for the coming year are: Fred Bowis, president; Larry Coffin, vice-president; Phil Meyfarth, recording secretary; Dave Reed, corresponding secretary; Karl Reuther, assistant treasurer; and Bill Bacon, house manager. We only hope that they will do as good a job as this year's retiring officers have done.

DAVID L. REED

NEW OFFICERS FORMALLY PRESENTED

Looking back to the end of the first semester, Beta Xi held its annual formal dance at the Gold Room of the Roosevelt Hotel. Deltas presented their dates orchids which were flown in from Hawaii.

At the formal the new officers were presented: Robert McClure, president; John Mazza, vice-president; Donald Freidl, recording secretary; John Bartizal, corresponding secretary; and James Jobe, treasurer. The new president at that time introduced Brother Dwight Settle, who presented the pledge award to Wiley Sharpe, Jr.

INFERNO RATES PRESS NOTICES

After finals, the annual Delt Inferno party was staged. Invitations were sent to all fraternities here at Tulane. The party rated a story in the social column of the New Orleans Item.

LEADS PAN-HEL IN POINTS

Before school adjourned for spring vacation, Beta Xi was tied for first place with another fraternity in the Pan-Hel competition. The last night, however, Beta Xi placed second in the annual Pan-Hel Song Fest, earning six points. This placed the chapter on top for the year in the Pan-Hel race with 23 points. It's going to be a close race to the finish, and here's hoping that Beta Xi pulls through.

JOHN F. BARTIZAL

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Following the recent elections, Beta Omicron's new officers include: Jim Guild, president; Jim Pigman, vice-president; recording secretary, Bill Moyer; and corresponding secretary, Tom Stafford. Jim Pigman was recently appointed chairman of the Interfraternity Social Committee.

DELTS REPRESENTED ATHLETICALLY

Clyde Barker, probable number two man on Cornell's tennis team this year, posted consecutive victories in the first six matches which included the highly touted Maryland and Virginia squads. As a result of trials held during spring vacation, John Holton, Bob Winship, and Don Corey will be rowing in the first boat for the frosh 150 crew, while Barry Hart seems assured of a first-boat position on the varsity 150's.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS AT THE SHELTER

One of the best parties of the year at the Hill was given March 14 when the Delt Gambling Den was opened to the campus. A variety of games and a Dixieland band provided the entertainment. Junior Week End and the pledge formal were both highly successful affairs.

FOURTEEN INITIATED

On Sunday, March 8, 14 men were initiated into Beta Omicron. Bob Wilson, Eastern Division vice-president, spoke at the initiation banquet. The Shelter took on an improved appearance for the official ceremonies as informal initiation was channeled partly into constructive work for the chapter. Floors were sanded and refinished; the kitchen was repainted; and various other improvements were made.

TUFTS TRANSFER AFFILIATES

John Massey, from Beta Mu, has transferred to this chapter this term. He is a sophomore in the Civil Engineering School.

DELTS WIN CAMPUS HONORS

Several Delts have been tapped for membership in honorary fraternities this year including Bill Johnson and Gene Leinroth in Pi Tau Sigma (for Mechanical Engineers); Alpha Epsilon Delta, a premed honorary, elected Bob Lindymeyer; Gene Leinroth was also elected into Kappa Tau Chi, another mechanical engineering honorary; Scabbard and Blade, a military honorary, elected Bob Morrison; Larry Hitchon was chosen for membership into the Red Key; and Ed Sutherland, who is also active in the Delta Club, and Hank Reckfort were elected into Pi Tau Pi Sigma, a Signal Corps society. Jack Cane was appointed to the Executive Committee of the Frosh Orientation program.

Beta Pi—Northwestern

SAMS HEADS CHAPTER

Beta Pi Chapter has elected Jim Sams to head Delt activities at Northwestern for the coming year. Jim will be assisted by Veep Lloyd Israels, Recording Secretary Bob Leigh, Corresponding Secretary Bob Christensen, Treasurer Buck Weaver, Guide Byron Chrissis, and Sergeant at Arms John Damore.

WIN LEAGUE INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL CROWN

A fine record was established this winter by Beta Pi in intramural athletics. Winning the league crown in basketball, the Delt five was edged in the semifinals of the all-University championships by Phi Gamma Delta.

Beta Pi's IM baseball squad is rated tops. Built around Pitcher Harv Wahls, the Delt team is one of the finest nines of recent years at NU.

CONTEND FOR IM SWEEPSTAKES CHAMPIONSHIP

A strong baseball showing, plus good records in golf, tennis, and volleyball will make Beta Pi one of the top three houses on campus contending for the honor of I.M. sweepstakes champs. This is the highest position in IM athletics that Beta Pi has won in 20 years of competition.

ACTIVE ON CAMPUS

Northwestern Delts were active in campus organizations through the winter. Buck Weaver holds the second highest post on the interfraternity council, that of representing the council on the ruling body of the University, the Student Governing Board. Jim Sams, our newly elected president, is chairman of the Student Congress political party. Bill Lennen and Jim Paul are cadet majors in the AFROTC, while Midshipman Jim McGinn commands a company in the Navy's ROTC unit.

SPRING FOOTBALL UNDER WAY

Spring football practice is under way at NU with eight Delts receiving varsity positions. Five brothers, returning lettermen, have been slated for first-team assignments. Leading the list of power hitters on NU's baseball team is Jack Tosh, one of last year's leading sluggers. Dick Kline, after sparking IM competition, has won a berth on the varsity golf squad. Bob Christensen has won his second letter in wrestling. Christensen recently won second place in the NCAA national finals, losing in the 115-pound class to Olympic star Hugh Perry of Pittsburgh.

CHRISTENSEN MAINTAINS STRAIGHT-A AVERAGE

House scholarship was raised considerably during the winter, pulling Beta Pi into the upper half in average grade ratings. Bob Christensen paced the house with five A's. Christensen has a straight-A average in Tech school and is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, honorary fraternity, and Tau Beta Pi, engineering honorary, along with Harv Wahls.

CAMPUS HOUSEMOTHERS ENTERTAINED

Campus housemothers were entertained at the Shelter during February at the annual Delt Housemothers' Party. This traditional event had 27 housemothers from fraternity and sorority houses at the Shelter for dinner and an evening's entertainment.

ALUMNI JOIN CHAPTER FOR BANQUET

A Founders Day banquet was held by Beta Pi alumni during April. Gathering from all over the area, alumni joined

DELTS ACTIVE IN SPRING SPORTS

In the springtime the athletes of Beta Rho usually pace the Stanford teams and this year is no exception. On the baseball diamond the heavy bat of Chuck Essegian is providing the power section for Coach Everett Dean's league-leading baseballers. Chuck, now a senior, is enjoying a good season both at the plate and in the field and is expected to finish the season strong. Also lending good outfield support to the Stanford nine is Dick Cole, a senior from Yakima, Washington. On the mound Sophomore Ken Brown has seen heavy relief action and is expected to hit his stride as the season progresses.

In the pool, Sophomore Larry Heim played a prominent part in Coach Tom Hanies' plans in the Nationals. Heim paced the Stanford Mermen in New York with a third in both the backstroke and the freestyle. Another sophomore, Don Koll, has shown promise and is a strengthening factor to Stanford's relay team.

On the Rugby field, Senior Jack Bonetti has won honors, by being selected on an all-star team to tour the Pacific islands and Australia this summer. Jack was also prominent in Stanford football in 1951. Other ruggers from Beta Rho include Ted Tanner, Ron Cook, and Mike Berberian.

CHAPTER EXECUTIVES ELECTED

In the annual spring house election several members of Beta Rho were elected to executive positions. They are Ted Tanner, president; Fritz Kunzel, vice-president; Fred Aurel, rush chairman; Pete Larmer, corresponding secretary; Pat Riordan, recording secretary; and Heath McLendon, intramural chairman.

PLEDGE TWENTY

Beta Rho has completed a successful rushing season and has pledged 20 outstanding freshmen who are expected to contribute much to the functioning of the house.

Beta Tau—Nebraska

NEW OFFICERS ANNOUNCED

At our recent elections Jerry Paulson was elected president of the chapter. He is a two-year letterman and starting right guard on the football team. Jerry hails from Dell Rapids, South Dakota. Other officers are Walt Wright, vice-president; Bert Sample, treasurer; Dick Wells, recording secretary; George Regan, corresponding secretary; Jack Nelson, assistant treasurer; David Olson, sergeant at arms; and Douglas Hanson, guide.

MORE THAN 100 ATTEND ALUMNI FESTIVITIES

More than 100 parents and alumni braved the elements on Tuesday, February 10, to attend the annual Parents and Alumni Night held at the Shelter. The purpose of this festivity is to become better acquainted with Beta Tau parents and alumni, and, in turn, to acquaint them with our duties, our activities, and our goals. Entertainment was provided by Roger Sack at the piano, Dick Grant on the cornet, and humorous readings by Bob Williamson. The Delta Alliance treated all to cake, pie, and coffee.

TWO DELTS LEAD GYMNASTIC TEAM TO CHAMPIONSHIP

Two Delts, Max Kennedy and Don Hodge, both of Beatrice, Nebraska, led the Nebraska gymnastic team to the Big Seven conference championship. Max won the tumbling event with Don taking second place, and the two boys tied for first place on the trampoline. Max also lettered in football as a defensive half-back, while Don is a cheerleader for the Scarlet and Cream. Delt Burrell "Mick" McMaster is considered the most outstanding freshman gymnast.

SOFTBALL TEAM WORKS TO RETAIN CROWN

Spring finds the all-University championship Delt softball team hard at work to retain its crown. Seven members of last year's championship team form the nucleus of another powerful contender; however, the squad will sorely miss the services of their star pitcher Ernie "Keith" Skalla through graduation.

RECEIVES CAMPUS HONOR

Beta Tau received another campus honor when Bill Adams, Innocent and vice-president of Kosmet Klub, was selected one of Nebraska's six Eligible Bachelors at the Coed Follies annual show.

Thirteen men will receive the Delt badge in initiation ceremonies April 12. A dinner at the Shelter for the neophytes and their parents will follow the ceremonies.

FRENCH PARTY OPENS SOCIAL PROGRAM

Under the able leadership of our social chairman, David Olson, the French Party, held March 21, opened the spring social program. Our annual formal and the crowning of the Delt Queen will take place April 17, at Cotner Terrace. Beta Tau plans to attend a big Delt get-together at Marysville, Kansas, along with Gamma Pi, Gamma Tau, Gamma Chi, Delta Alpha, Delta Omicron, and Gamma Theta, April 25 and 26. Athletic contests are scheduled for Saturday and a banquet is planned for Sunday. The annual Squab Scramble will close out the social festivities.

Beta Upsilon—Illinois

RANK HIGH IN SCHOLARSHIP

When the final averages were released, it was found that Beta Upsilon ranked high in scholarship for the fall semester. We were tenth out of the 57 fraternities on campus and our pledge class was sixth out of 57.

ELEVEN INITIATED

Eleven men from the class of '56 were initiated here on the afternoon of February 28. President John Williams presided over the ceremonies.

DINNER HELD

A dinner for the brothers and their dates was held at the chapter house on March 28 prior to the annual Interfraternity Ball. The dinner and the dance provided an enjoyable evening for all.

SPRING CARNIVAL WORK IN FULL SWING

All the brothers are busy at work along with the Delta Gammas to get our show ready for the annual University of Illinois Spring Carnival. Our show this year is a movie entitled "Vine, Vimmen, and Sarong." The filming has been completed and we are now busy at work on publicity and construction.

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE BEGINS

Spring football practice began last week and three Delts are proving their worth on the gridiron. Team Captain Bob Lenzi is again proving that he will be the "big man" of the line come next fall. Two newcomers to the Illini varsity are Freshmen Don Casper and Tom Miller. Don is striving for a starting quarterback assignment, and Tom is working for the position of center.

OTHER SPORTS

John Greenleaf, former high school state tennis champion, promises to be a big asset to the tennis team this year. Rex Berry and Charles Rodgers are eagerly awaiting the beginning of freshman baseball practice. Rex is a southpaw pitcher and Charles is an outfielder.

INITIATED TO JOURNALISTIC HONORARY

Lou Keesey, a junior in journalism, was initiated last week into Sigma Delta Chi, national honorary journalism fraternity. Lou is assistant sports editor of the campus newspaper, The Daily Illini.

JERRY CARTER

Beta Chi's sterling pledge class. Seven of them were elected to Brown's Vigilance Committee.

Beta Phi—Ohio State

HELL WEEK INTO HELP WEEK

Beta Phi men helped set a new and growing trend on the OSU campus of "safe and sane" pre-initiation rites during winter quarter. More than one-half of the University's 53 fraternities set their neophytes to work in social service activities and welfare agencies in Columbus.

"Scummies" Don and Jack Kindler, Marsh Galloway, Will Lang, Bob Dieckbrader, and Ron Lankenau survived painting, scouring, and similar duties at Columbus' South Side Settlement House to swell Beta Phi's ranks.

BANQUET HONORS GRADUATES

The March Senior Banquet honored graduating seniors Preston Scott, Al Trotter, and campus "activity man," Keith Olds.

PLEDGES SHINE IN ACTIVITIES

Pledges Jerry Hardacre and Ralph Stortz have made Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic honorary, and Jerry is also a member of Eta Sigma Phi, classics honorary. Pledges shine in athletics, too—Dick Garver and Dick Wagner are on the freshman baseball team, Ben Bachulus on the frosh fencing team, and Frank Machinsky moves up to varsity football to join scholastic All-American Quarterback John Borton as Buckeye spring practice gets under way.

LOOK TO TWO OUTSTANDING EVENTS

As spring begins and this report goes to press, Beta Phi men are looking forward to two outstanding annual events: the Founders Day banquet with alumni and guests from Ohio chapters and its glee club competition; and, of course, the Spring Sweetheart Formal.

OFFICERS SLATED

Beta Phi feels it has very capable officers in this year's slate of Jerry H. Haller, president; John R. Borton, vice-president;

Bill Adams, treasurer; Ken Ledford, corresponding secretary; Bob Verhovitz, recording secretary; and Dick Collier, guide.

BETA CHI PLEDGES 23 FRESHMEN

Beta Chi started off the second semester of the school year by pledging 23 freshmen. We are especially proud of the men because we feel that quality was not sacrificed for quantity. Immediately proving their merit, seven of the pledges were elected to the Vigilance Committee, a group of 24 freshmen whose job it is to orientate next year's newcomers at Brown.

LEAD CONTENTION FOR COVETED TROPHY

Our hard-fighting basketball team romped through the interfraternity league only to have an off day in the finals, losing the championship by three points. We are still in contention for the coveted Lampher Cup, the interfraternity athletic trophy. Currently, Beta Chi is in the lead by a slim margin of 27 points.

REPRESENTED IN SPORTS

Beta Chi was well represented in winter sports. Brothers Bill Brigden and John Bosler were mainstays on the swimming team. Pledge Jack Corcoran contributed much to the Brown track team, and, as per usual, Dave Seaver excelled in wrestling.

RUSH UNDER WAY

Realizing that rush is the backbone of the Fraternity, we have carried on an active spring rushing program including rush parties on campus and at Turkey Run State Park, visits to prospective freshmen in their homes, and much correspondence. We have a good start. We have had fine response to our rush parties and excellent help from our alumni.

Our summer rush program is prepared and we're ready to go into action. Rush Chairman Jay Koehler is doing a hard job well.

NEW INITIATES

Beta Psi is proud of her nine new initiates. Three of these men had better than 2.0 averages. Ron Grimes won the best-pledge award and Stan Matheny the pledge scholarship award. We are happy to welcome these men into the chapter.

ACTIVITIES

The last house dance of the year, our Initiation Dance, was a successful affair with decorations in the blues theme. Even the chaperones had a fine time.

The big social event of the year was the Pan-Hel Dance. The carnival theme and Les Brown and his band made it a real week end.

Several men found time to take over the top offices in campus organizations. In Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, we find John Pantzer, president, with Warren Howe and Bob Reinke, vice-presidents. In the Wabash College Radio Club there is Jim Tate, trustee.

Beta Psi is represented in spring sports by Ron Grimes and Stan Matheny.

ALUMNI REUNION

Beta Psi is planning to end the year with a rush of activity. We have planned our alumni reunion and second-semester initiation for the Commencement week end. No one will have to worry about lack of activity. At our banquet we will honor Larry Sheaffer, chapter adviser and friend, for his long and faithful service to Delta Tau Delta.

Remember, alums, the banquet is Friday night, June 5. If you did not get our letter, consider this your invitation. We of the active chapter would like to meet some of the names in the alumni files. See you in C'ville.

Beta Omega—California

INITIATE TEN

Beta Omega's calendar has been quite full this spring. The chapter initiated ten neophytes on March 27. Bruce Towne won the award for outstanding pledge scholarship, and Gene Geritz won the outstanding pledge award. There were several interesting speakers present, and all in all the initiation was well done.

DELEGATES CONVEY IDEAS OF CONFERENCE

Joe Gwerder and Jim Bryan attended the Western Division Conference at Corvallis earlier this semester, and brought back reports to the chapter regarding the ideas on various matters, such as rushing, proposed at the Conference. They also brought news related to house bills and chapter governments from other chapters in the Division.

NOVELTY PARTIES PLANNED

As for the social calendar, we've done very well. Besides the usual bimonthly parties, we've either had, or had planned, several so-called "novelty" parties. The first of these was an "Apache Dance" on a French Quarter theme. This party was a good week in preparation and decoration, but proved to be well worth the effort involved, as everyone attending enjoyed himself immensely.

Also coming up are two other novelty parties; the "Hard-Times" party, wherein the house is messed up considerably and everyone has an opportunity to become as casual as possible before the big midterms, and the annual "Beachcomber" party held jointly with Beta Rho Chapter at Stanford. This party has gained the reputation on campus as being one of the very best.

REPRESENTED IN ATHLETICS

Beta Omega is well represented in the field of athletics, also. It is spring football time at Berkeley now, and Tackle Jere Brooks, Fullback Steve Dimeff, Quarterback Doug Stowell, and Halfback Pete Crebbin are knocking heads for a varsity spot next fall. In basketball, Terry McGrath did a good job on the "Blues" as a soph, and is considered good varsity material. In track, two freshmen, Bruce Towne, one of the state's top high school hurdlers last spring, and Denton Holmes, a middle distance man, appear to be doing quite well.

Gene Geritz has established himself as one of the Bears' frosh top swimmers this year, and things look bright for a varsity spot next spring. In baseball, two fellows, freshman Outfielder Fred Beresford, the top hitter in the frosh line-up, and Doug Stowell, a soph pitcher on the varsity, are doing well.

In tennis we have the number one and two in northern California, Ron Woods and Jud Ostle. They are playing one and two on the frosh team, and they are excellent prospects for next year on the varsity.

Ron Burris, one of our new spring pledges, is doing an outstanding job, although only a freshman, on Cal's varsity gymnastic team. He has taken top places throughout the season and is rated to take honors at the Pacific Coast Conference meet at Los Angeles this spring.

DOUGLAS D. STOWELL

LEAD IN ACTIVITIES RACE

At the time of writing we are tied for the lead in the activities trophy race, as we gained first place in bowling, seconds in football and golf, third in basketball, and we hope to gather more points soon in the ping-pong and tennis play-offs. Our tennis team is currently undefeated.

With such events as the IF sing, swim, track, baseball, and Junior Week pageant remaining, we hope to win the trophy by a wide margin. A win in the sing this year would retire our second cup in a row, as we have won five out of the last six years.

SEVEN NEW DELTS INITIATED

Seven new initiates were added to the chapter roll last March 15. Dick Hughey was elected the outstanding pledge of the fall pledge class.

ZEKES NAMED OUTSTANDING PLAYER

Terry Francino and Dave Geupel were recently pledged to Phi Eta Sigma, the freshman honorary. In the all-star basketball game, Bob "Ich" Zekes was honored by being elected outstanding player in the IF league this year. "Ich" was top scorer, averaging 25 points a game. Ron Johnson, Terry Francino, Matt Merfeld, Paul Schutt, and Chet Keyser recently tried their hand at acting in a campus play, The Coffee House, produced by a Delt, Dave Jordan. Six of the 13 male parts were filled by men from the house.

Barring any unforeseen occurrences, Bob McWhorter, physics; Bob Cook, mechanical engineering; Jerry Bugler, mechanical engineering; Frank Sheehy, mechanical engineering; and Mac Curless, fire protection engineering, will be leaving their college days behind come June 12. Upon graduation, McWhorter, Cook, and Sheehy will be commissioned ensigns in the Navy.

MORTGAGE BURNING CELEBRATED

The men at Gamma Delta have been busily preparing for what will undoubtedly be the most memorable occasion of our Shelter's history, the initiation of our pledges and the burning of the mortgage on the Shelter on the week end of April 19.

That date will climax a 21-year period during which our Shelter was built, mortgaged, and finally paid for. On hand to welcome returning alumni and guests will be Anthony McCue, who has headed the house corporation for many years and who has raised a considerable amount of money from the alumni to help retire the chapter house debt. The final payment was made on the mortgage early in April.

On April 19, Mr. McCue will see his, and our, dream realized when the mortgage goes up in smoke.

ALUMNI COVERAGE ON MORGANTOWN

In an attempt to provide an event fitting the occasion, past President Walter Bullington and his initiating group have worked hard to present a flawless program. Jim Bailey, our alumni chairman, has sent invitations to alumni throughout the country and has received acceptances from brothers in California, Maine, Florida, Michigan, and many other points.

The week end will begin officially at noon, Saturday, when the house corporation will meet with the new chapter officers, headed by President Leonard A. VanDyne, to discuss plans for future improvements on the Shelter.

The Rite of Iris will be held at midnight, Saturday evening, following an informal smoker.

On Sunday morning the initiating ceremonies will be held, after which the initiates, actives, and alumni will have a banquet at the Hotel Morgan.

When dinner is over, the mortgage will be burned and we Delts in attendance will have realized the end of a financial debt, and, more important, another chapter of our heartfelt gratitude for having leaders like Brother McCue.

Gamma Zeta—Wesleyan

PROMOTED IN RADIO WORK

Brothers Pete Cheney and Dick Burrage have assumed their new positions at Radio Station WESU. The former serves as treasurer, while the latter has the title of sports editor.

Bud Johnson is now president of the Raymond Dodge Psychology Club, and Jim Hopkins has been elected captain of next year's squash team.

Junio and the Paycock, one of the more recent '92 Theater productions, allowed Charlie Hoyt and Snuffy Smith once more to display their acting abilities. The effective lighting for this play was entirely under the supervision and direction of Doug Hurd.

HOST TO REGIONAL CONFERENCE

On March 23, Gamma Zeta was the scene of a stimulating and informative Regional Conference. Vice-President of the Fraternity Joel W. Reynolds and President of the Eastern Division Forrest H. Witmeyer were present, in addition to delegate guests from Delt chapters at Brown, Dartmouth, Maine, M.I.T., Rensselaer, and Tufts. A banquet culminated the two-session day of discussions.

Other events which served to bring the house together as a unit included the Interfraternity Sing and the Delta Tau Delta Sub-Freshmen Week End. This week end, initiated this year by Rushing Chairman Bud Johnson, showed considerable promise of insuring Gamma Zeta of a successful rush period in September. A cook-out, followed directly by a campfire sing and later by a "High Street Five" jazz "concert," highlighted the numerous activities.

Delt class of 1956 at Wesleyan, initiated in February.

Both JAMES MEROW (left) and THOMAS FARLEY were elected to Phi Beta Kappa at George Washington.

EDWARD WILSON (left) is also a Phi Beta Kappa of Gamma Eta Chapter. ROBERT VAN SICKLER won one of the University's prize scholarships this spring. (See text).

EGGERS AS BASEBALL CAPTAIN LEADS SPRING SPORTS PARTICIPATION

Spring sports at the University saw Russ Eggers as captain of the baseball team, which included Delts Bill Roche and Jim Hopkins. Turning in a successful performance on the cinders were Bob Brown and Dick McMahon.

Dale Lott and Tom Plimpton represented the house favorably on the freshman track team, whereas Craig Stone, who sports his recently-acquired squash numerals, was a prominent man on the frosh tennis team.

All of us at Gamma Zeta wish Delts everywhere an enjoyable and profitable summer.

ED KONOPKA

Gamma Eta— George Washington

HONORS SHOWERED ON DELTS

Like pennies from heaven, a veritable rain of awards and honors poured down on Gamma Eta scholars, sailors, wrestlers, basketballers, and cadets during the recent semester and showered ten actives and two pledges with three Phi Beta Kappa keys, a $100 scholarship, intramural athletic awards, a berth on the mythical All-U cage team, an elective office in the newly-formed AFROTC Pershing Rifles, membership in Gate and Key honorary society for fraternity men, and a team victory over Navy in George Washington's annual Frostbite Regatta.

Scholarship-conscious Colonial Delts, who rolled up a pledge-active scholarship average of 2.72 during the fall, boast three Phi Betes this academic year. The most recent addition to the "Phi Bete Fold" was Delt Junior Classman Tom Farley, who took his 3.89 average and joined newly-initiated Phi Bete Delts Ed Wilson and Jim Merow during recent tapings of the scholastic honorary. Winner of four academic prizes during his freshman year, Farley is a lab assistant in the University chemistry department and also served as chapter recording secretary.

Following the pace set by his key-dangling brothers, University of Cincinnati Transfer Bob van Sickler staked out his scholastic "claim to fame" by nabbing the Eugene and Agnes E. Meyer Foundation scholarship of $100, which is annually presented by the University "to assist promising students . . . in meeting the costs of furthering their education." Van Sickler, a mechanical engineering major, is active in Alpha Phi Omega, national scout fraternity, and was recently elected chapter guide.

Fraternity and ROTC campus organizations also added more Delts to their membership this semester. House Manager Bill Evans and Student Council Member Jim Awtry were tapped at the recent Pan-Hellenic Dance for membership in G.W. fraternity honorary, the Gate and Key Society, while AFROTC Cadet Jay Howard, chapter rush chairman, was elected first treasurer of the newly-formed chapter of the National Society of Pershing Rifles.

In the sports world, Delt Skipper Lorenz Schrenk, a Gamma Eta pledge, led G.W. sailors to victory over Navy in the Tempest class of the fifth annual Washington birthday Frostbite Regatta. Matmen Roy Schlemmer, Gene Sabol, and Pledge Class President Tom Topping garnished the All-Fraternity Wrestling trophy and second-place All-U honors for Colonial Delts during March matches with Greek and Independent teams. On the hardwood, a high-point man on the two-time Delt championship basketball quintet, Center Charles Clark, was named to the honorary All-Fraternity cage squad for the third consecutive year.

Baker Delt JACK KENDALL, who played the title role in "The Man Who Came to Dinner," makes up another Delt, FRED HUFF, who had a supporting part.

QUEEN CROWNED AT RAINBOW BALL

Though Washington lacks the lustrous beauty of cherry blossoms (long since wind-blown), Gamma Eta's annual Rainbow Ball lacked no such brilliant beauty when Delt-sponsored University Homecoming Queen Virginia Leetch stepped forward to be crowned Delt Queen during the Spring Formal at the Cloud Room of the Washington National Airport. A member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority, Ginny is (and we like to remind everybody) daughter of a Delt, niece of a Delt, and pinned to a Delt.

TOM POTTER

Gamma Theta—Baker

THREE CLASS PRESIDENTS ARE GAMMA THETA PRODUCTS

Gamma Theta of Delta Tau Delta has once again proved itself tops by way of all-round campus achievements for the scholastic year 1952-1953.

To begin the year, the Delts at Baker U. captured three of the four class presidencies. Neil Malicky was elected president of the Freshman Class, Frank Terry was elected as president of the Sophomore Class, and Don Shelby was elected as president of the Senior Class. By way of royalty, George Schrader, past president of Gamma Theta, is president of the Student Commission and has done one of the most outstanding jobs in this position in the history of Baker. Bill Eddy, present vice-president of Gamma Theta, is president of B Club (athletic organization).

Beginning the year in intramural sports, the Delts captured the softball trophy with an undefeated record, and with the close of the basketball season it naturally follows that the Delts are again on top.

JOHN LEWIS
Popularity King
Winner of 12 varsity

LEWIS BECOMES THIRD ATHLETE IN BAKER HISTORY TO EARN 12 LETTERS

John Lewis, second-semester senior, was recently elected Popularity King of the school. John has also made excellent achievements in sports, being the third man in Baker's history to earn 12 letters in major sports, the maximum number of letters in major sports.

The Delts have always participated whole-heartedly in campus activities. This year, during the annual Community Chest drive, the Delts raised $100 to be contributed to the Leonard Wood Memorial Leprosy Foundation. Our method of raising such funds was a pancake supper, which was attended by students and townspeople. This amount was the largest raised this year by a single organized house.

SCHOLARSHIP REMAINS ON TOP

For the scholastic year 1951-1952, the Deltas were tops in scholarship among the fraternities on the campus. At semester time this year, the record had not changed.

When the cast for the all-school play was announced, three Deltas held key positions. The play was "The Man Who Came to Dinner," by Moss Hart and George Kaufman. Jack Kendall had the lead as the illustrious Mr. Sheridan Whiteside. Jack did an excellent job in keeping the audience in side-splitting laughter with the subtle satire, and in the opinion of the director, Jack is one of the best-rounded actors who has ever been under her direction. Two other Deltas—Fred Huff and Randy Kiene—were in the supporting cast.

At the annual Founders Day Banquet held in Kansas City, five chapters competed for a trophy by giving skits, and the trophy this year went to Baker. The skit consisted of a one-man act by Randy Kiene, who did a take-off on Sam Spade. Likewise the alums went in a big way for a "Dragnet" skit put on by five of the Gamma Theta men.

Gamma Iota—Texas

DELTS AID LONGHORN BID FOR COLLEGIATE BASEBALL CROWN

Gamma Iota is well represented in the University of Texas spring sports. Some seven Texas Deltas are figuring prominently in the varsity picture.

A threesome of Gamma Iotans—Paul Mohr of Scottsbluff, Nebraska, and Travis Eckert and Conrad Werkenthin, both of Austin—are playing key roles in the Longhorn bid for the national collegiate baseball crown. Mohr, a Yankee turned Texan, last year's top SWC defensive first baseman, and Eckert, hard-hitting and neat-fielding center fielder, are generally considered as top all-Southwest selections. Werkenthin, reserve catcher, is seeing action aplenty and simultaneously is being primed to assume regular back-stopping duties next year. All three are juniors.

Bob Brodnax, a Houston product, carried Gamma Iota to the national lime-light, finishing third in the NCAA diving meet in March. Named to the All-American diving team last year, he is almost sure to repeat this season.

Bill Penn, of Austin, unbeaten as this edition goes to press, has been the stand-out in both singles and doubles golf competition for Texas' unwhipped squad.

Bill Bonham, who hails from Navasota, also has yet to absorb a loss (as of April 10) in both singles and doubles tennis play for the Longhorns, currently ranked with the nation's best.

Fonse Ragland, of Dallas, was one of the Southwest's most highly-rated swimmers this spring. He surprised many sports followers by finishing second in SWC play for the first time in years.

GAMMA IOTA'S REPRESENTATION IN CAMPUS HONORARIES INCREASES

Howell Finch and Dave Williams are Gamma Iota's newest selections for the two campus honoraries for men. Finch, chapter president, was named to Cowboys late in March, and Williams, recording secretary, was chosen for Silver Spurs. The two additions run Gamma Iota's Silver Spur representation to ten, Cowboy representation to three.

Don Eastland and Dave Blackstock, both Gamma Iotans, are presidents of Cowboys and Silver Spurs respectively.

Rush Moody, president of the U.T. student body, has been tapped by the highest campus honorary for men—Friars. Don Eastland was previously selected. Moody's nomination gives Gamma Iota two of the eight Friars chosen for the 1952-53 year.

SCHOLARSHIP REMAINS ON TOP

Once again Gamma Iota took the role of leader in scholarship among the major fraternities at Texas on the basis of first-semester grades. The chapter won the national Fraternity's award in 1951.

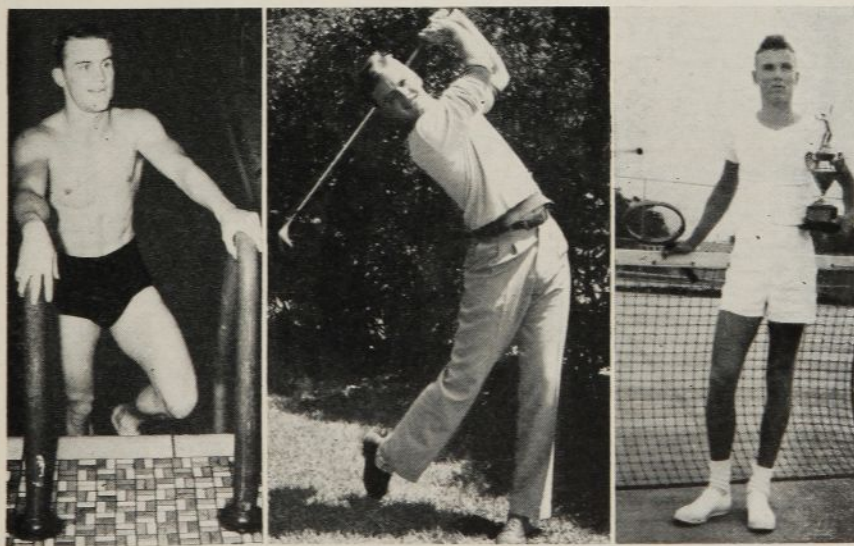

In rugged intramural competition, the Deltas are currently making a strong bid for the All-Year Trophy. As this issue goes to press, the Texas Deltas are in second place, just shy of first, among the 30 campus fraternities.

Three freshmen—Joe Davis, William Morris, and Jimmy Stovall—have been initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honorary.

NEW REC ROOM CONSTRUCTED

Early this winter the Shelter began to resound with the pounding of hammers and the buzzing of saws. Were the Gamma Kappa Deltas finally getting a new house? Alas, no, but they were building themselves a new rec room.

The partition separating the chapter room from the rec room was removed and the walls covered with knotty pine. Booths were constructed in each corner, and indirect lighting was installed overhead. Windows were filled with glass bricks, and exhaust fans were installed to provide ventilation. The floor of both the new and old rec room was covered with pale green tile and our Greek letters, in pale yellow, were set in the center.

VOLLEYBALLERS FACE SHOWDOWN

As this is written, the volleyball team is facing its biggest test. The team has reached the intramural finals and will soon begin to battle its way to first place.

New officers for the next year are: president, Ronald Luther; vice-president, Gerry Forbes; corresponding secretary, Tom Skinker; recording secretary, Frank Frier; and treasurer, Dave Hubert.

Initiation followed by a banquet was held March 1, 1953, for 14 men. The chapter is indeed proud of these men.

PLEDGES ATTAIN HIGH RANK

At the beginning of the spring semester we were proud to pin the square badge on 14 of our fall pledges. Congratulations are in order to these men; because, as a pledge class, they were rated fourth scholastically out of 39 pledge classes. These scholars are: David Baier, David Brain, Trent Davis, Louis Fatta, John Fleenor, David Grenier, Pierre La Berge, Bill Hughes, George Meister, Richard Morton, James Mulhaupt, Bill Murakowski, Jack Swanson, and Gary Windell.

ACTIVES ALSO WIN HONORS

More Deltas were added this spring to the honor roll. Don Eusey and Arnon Lundborg were chosen for the Purdue Order of Military Merit. Eusey was also picked for Chi Epsilon, the civil engineering honorary. Karl Snepp and Jack Langston are now actives of the Gimlet Club. George Meister has been chosen for Pershing Rifles. John Zimmer and Dick Crain are Skull and Crescent pledges, and Gary Garvins is carrying the banners of Phi Eta Sigma, the freshman scholastic honorary.

In athletics we are proud to report that Delta Tau Delta is in fourth position in the race for the participation trophy. More trophies were added to our shelves this year with Gary Purviance, Bruce Shepherd, Larry Taylor, and Rich Fleenor bringing home two championships in table tennis. Under the direction of Don Eusey, our new athletic chairman, our softball team should have another undefeated season.

SEVEN SENIORS DEPART

The joy of the coming summer vacation will be saddened by our loss of seven seniors. Those being graduated will include the following: Dale Cox, Paul Eubanks, Jack Langston, Sam Reed, Robert Ragains, Karl Snepp, and Howard Thompson. Each of them will be remembered for his interest in and contributions to our safest Shelter.

Gamma Mu—Washington

IN MEMORIAM

Sad news was recently received at the Gamma Mu House when it was learned that Ken Walters, captain of the Washington crew of 1951, was killed in a plane crash in Jacksonville, Florida. Ken was serving as a Navy flyer with the rank of ensign at the time of the accident. During his college career, Ken was one of the outstanding men on campus and was a member of the Big W Club, Varsity Boat Club, Oval Club, and Fir Tree. Indeed, Ken shall always remain firm in the memory of those who knew him—an outstanding Delt, a great American.

WINS $2,000 SCHOLARSHIP

Bill Beachner received a $2,000 scholarship to Columbia, presented by the Woodrow Wilson Foundation. Bill plans to take up study at Columbia in the fall of this year.

The Father-Son-Daughter Banquet, held in April, was a greater success than ever before. It is an annual event designed to acquaint the alumni's children with the Fraternity and, furthermore, to enable them to become more familiar with college life. The Alumni-Undergraduate Golf Picnic, held in May, was equally successful.

Bill Staples, Roger Mehl, and Dick Green have moved out of the house temporarily to take up quarters at the crew house. The University adopted a rigid training program for crew members this year in an effort to strengthen the possibility of Washington's again becoming the nation's top crew.

SEEK SOPHOMORE CARNIVAL WIN

Gamma Mu and Delta Gamma are entered together this year in the Sophomore Carnival, one of the most important all-University events. It is hoped that we'll regain the first-place title, an honor which we have won four times in the past seven years. Warren Miller succeeds Dom Driano as Carnival Chairman for '53—both are Gamma Mu Deltas.

FOUNDERS DAY CELEBRATED

The Founders Day Banquet, held on March 13, proved to be an inspiring occasion for all Deltas present. "Sweeney" Corum, alumni president, made an address summing up the activities of the alumni association and announced plans to revitalize it completely. From the tremendous support he has received, it looks as though his goal of making the Gamma Mu alumni organization the most active fraternal alumni body at the University of Washington will become a reality.

Appreciation was expressed for the loyal support given by such men as Ed Stuchell, Carlos Flohr, Jim Bradford, Tom Tomasi, and Ed Campbell—to mention but a few. Especially inspiring was the presentation by DeWitt Williams of the Distinguished Service Chapter Citation to Lane Summers—certainly, one of the most deserving of all Deltas. Dee's talk made one realize even more clearly that Delta Tau Delta is not merely a college organization, but is, rather, a fraternal association dedicated in spirit and practice to the life-long brotherhood of its members. Indeed, few fraternities can evoke such a deep bond of loyalty among its members.

NEW OFFICERS LEAD CHAPTER

Gamma Nu has elected new officers for the 1953-54 term. Paul Marcoux is our new president; Bob Smith, vice-president; John Hunter, recording secretary; Neil Fox, corresponding secretary; and Larry Stinchfield, treasurer. The chapter is confident that these new men will lead us through another successful year.

Thirteen men were welcomed into the Gamma Nu chapter room last February 23. Prior to the ceremony, a banquet was held in honor of the initiates. We had the good fortune to have past Chapter Adviser Bill Schrupf on hand to give us an excellent talk on the history of the chapter.

STAR IN SHAW PRODUCTION

Ernie Johnson and K. B. Ward gave outstanding performances in the Maine Masque's recent presentation of G. B. Shaw's Saint Joan. The play was found to be an all-around success, in no small way attributable to the performances of Brothers Ward and Johnson.

TWENTY ASSUME PLEDGE PINS

Gamma Nu put on an extensive rushing program this year and was fruitfully rewarded with 20 outstanding men from the freshman class. Week-end parties, climaxed by the Purple Grotto party, were held during the rushing period.

With the coming of June, several Deltas will be leaving us. The graduating seniors are: K. B. Ward, Ernie Johnson, Peter Drivas, Doug Vollmer, Don Erickson, Galen Leathers, Bob Packard, Charlie O'Dell, Pat Dionne, Harry Jose, and Bob Pelletier. We wish our brothers the best of luck in whatever they may undertake in the future.

ENT WILL LEAD CHAPTER

In a recent election, the following men were selected by the chapter as its leaders: Robert Ent, president; Arn Forster, treasurer; Bill Kleine, corresponding secretary; Jerry Carlson and Don Wagner, recording secretaries; Ken Berlage, vice-president; Paul Nieberding, guide; and Wes Ritchey, sergeant at arms. Other important posts are filled by Bob Connelly, pledge trainer; Frank Edenas, rush chairman; and Don DeVaux, song leader.

HECKLE SPEAKS TO INITIATES

The initiation banquet was held at the Shelter immediately after the rites on March 1. The key speaker was Paul Heckle, who showed pictures of his recent trip to occupied Austria. This was a departure from the usual theme, but Brother Heckle showed what the college graduate can expect as far as Russian conduct in Austria is concerned. Jack Bagby was in charge of the dinner.

During Brotherhood Week, which was conducted with emphasis on improving the Shelter, the pledges painted the third floor, installed clothes cabinets in the rooms, and cleaned every corner of the house. The chapter hall also received a coat of paint, thanks to Brother Micheau.

HOUSE MANAGER RED-BLOODED

The chapter is grateful for the work being done by Brother Dan Wheeler as house manager. With a song in his heart and a feeling of red-blooded American youth, he is supervising an outside planting project to beautify the grounds for fall rushing.

Brother Art Jacobs, our new chapter adviser, should also take a bow for the time he is putting in for the chapter.

PLEDGES STEP OUT ON CAMPUS

The pledge class has followed the lead of the brothers by showing signs of life and gradually making its mark on campus activities. Roy Place, president of his Skytop Dorm, was publicity chairman of Frosh Week End. Bob Jordan and Stu Leslie are both holding down a section of the Men's Glee Club. Chuck Rowell, in between serving on the WAER campus radio staff with Pledge Art Maahs and heading up committees in Westminster Fellowship, pulls a mean oar on the freshman crew.

Water-minded lads are Howie Rekers and Bob Latham, who contribute a great deal to the sailing team and yacht club. We are also proud to find that Pledges Chuck Rowell, Art Maahs, Ted Wolff, and Dave Evans are all Dean's List men.

CHOSEN ADVERTISING EDITOR

George Wilcox has been chosen advertising editor of the Module, the architect's yearbook. The drama representative in the house, John Wood, has a part in the new School of Speech production, "Western Star."

Bill See was recently pledged to Alpha Kappa Psi, business administration honorary, and John Diaz added the sixth honorary to his list by pledging Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary.

PRESIDENT WINS DESIGN PRIZE

Gamma Omicron's president for the coming year is Bill Markley, who is active in the St. Thomas More House. Last semester honor came to Bill when he won a $150 second prize for his design of an Erie Canal Museum.

Installed as vice-president was Jack Duddy. A member of the IFC admission committee, he was co-editor last fall of Meet the Greeks. Bill See, treasurer, is a chapel usher and IFC representative. Bob Lefko will again fill the position of corresponding secretary. Bob, a Daily Orange junior editor, recently became the new co-editor of the annual IFC publication for freshmen.

Dan Russell, recording secretary, is editor in chief of the School of Architecture yearbook. He is also co-chairman of the Hill Red Cross board. Guide John Wood is our chapel representative and president of the Christian Science organization on campus. John Brand, sergeant at arms, has spent a good deal of time and effort as chairman of the poster and float committee and as the chapter's house and grounds chairman.

BOB LEFKO

Gamma Pi—Iowa State

VEISHEA SKIT OKAYED

Gamma Pi's variety skit is one of four which will be given at Veishea Vodvil this year. The skit was selected from over 50 which tried out in December.

With our skit in Vodvil, a float in the Veishea parade, and many from the house working on outside Veishea committees, things will be humming around the house this spring.

Plans for Gamma Pi's new house are coming along well. Bids from contracting companies were received at the Shelter April 7, with the contracts to be let in 30 days. A large number of alumni will be present for the proceedings.

NAB SCHOLASTIC HONORS

Scholastically, Dean Karns has been elected to Phi Kappa Phi, senior scholastic honorary. Freshman Ken Ruch will be initiated this spring into Phi Eta Sigma, freshman men's scholastic fraternity.

Karns has also been chosen to head the school's Phi Mu Alpha-sponsored Sinfonia Sing, men's group singing contest. Karns is secretary of Phi Mu Alpha. In addition, Karns has been chosen to serve as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission's Veishea Open House.

MARSTON NAMED YEARBOOK EDITOR

Ted Marston has been chosen as editor of the Bomb, Iowa State yearbook, for the coming year. He was also recently elected as secretary of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism society.

Bob Campbell will serve as business manager of the Iowa Agriculturist for the coming year. He will supervise the business affairs of the magazine which has been judged the best college agricultural publication in the nation for the past two years.

Gamma Pi's entrants for the all-College elected "Mr. Formal" are Dave Swanson, Jerry Bolin, and Jack Faulkner. Bob Rubey is in charge of the contest on the Iowa State campus.

SEVENTEEN PLEDGES TOP LIST

The second semester at the Shelter got off to a good start as we led the other fraternities on campus by installing 17 new pledges. Our hats are off to Bud

JACK NELSON

Hodgin, who did an excellent job as rushing chairman.

Spring Carnival week saw the Deltas and Chi Omega combine forces to put on a show titled "Connecticut Yankee." Under the guidance of Dick Sisson, our show was received with much enthusiasm and praise by the University.

SOFTBALL CROWN LOOKS SECURE

In interfraternity competition, the softball team is well on its way to another championship. The track team is also running toward top honors.

SENIORS HONORED BY SPRING DINNER

To climax the school year, the spring dinner formal will be held in honor of the graduating seniors. Another entertainment attraction is the annual Baseball Banquet on May 4 at the Pittsburgh Athletic Association. After the dinner and speeches, the group will adjourn to Forbes Field to witness a ball game.

ROBERT RUNGER

Gamma Upsilon—Miami

NEW REGIME INSTALLED

A new regime has taken over the Shelter here in Oxford, Ohio. Hank Ciesicki was elected president and Bob Schuette, vice-president. Both of these men are veterans; so the house is in capable hands. To assist Hank and Bob, Fred Jackson, Jack Nelson, Bill Trumbo, and Doug Thompson hold down the offices of recording secretary, treasurer, corresponding secretary, and sergeant at arms, respectively.

In the sports line, we copped the Interfraternity Football Championship this fall. The I-F All-Sports Trophy is in our possession at the present time, and there is a very good chance that Delta Tau Delta will once more triumph on the campus of Miami University.

TWO GRAPPLERS RANK HIGH

Gamma Upsilon is well represented on the various varsity athletic teams. During the past winter Bob Nellis, Jack Nelson, Jim Rushing, and Joe Anderson did their bit for the wrestling team. Nelson and Nellis both finished in second place in their individual weight class at the Mid-American Conference Tournament held at Toledo in March.

Chuck Dorsten, Bob Tingle, and Ted McNamara are pitching for the Redskins, with Don Puls and Ken Smith on the receiving end. Fred Tilleman and Fred Lick are our cindermen, with Tilleman in the high hurdle events and Lick's specialty, pole vaulting.

CHAPTER INITIATES 25, PLEDGES 22

Twenty-five men were recently initiated as Delt brothers. These men make up the larger part of Gamma Upsilon and are the ones who are building the fires to make sparks fly.

On February 27, 22 men were pledged to our chapter. Among these men are athletes, scholars, and activities men—a well-rounded group in anyone's language.

FIFTH ANNUAL RAINBOW BALL

Insofar as social activities are concerned, the undisputed high light of Gamma Psi's year was our fifth annual Rainbow Ball, formerly called the Artist's Ball. This year the event, under the able supervision of Gus Randolph, was held on the gaily decorated Rainbow Roof of the Ansley Hotel. During intermission, our Delt Queen for the coming year, Miss Sally Towery, appeared with her court and was crowned; Sally is engaged to Brother Syd Anderson.

CAGERS ANNEX CHAMPIONSHIP

With the support of the entire chapter, our athletic teams are continuing the fine record they started at the beginning of the year. Most successful was our basketball team, coached by Bert Astrup, which was without a doubt the best squad we have ever had. With a record of ten wins and no defeats in regular season play, we took the league championship with little difficulty. In the intramural school play-off, however, we were defeated in the finals, giving us second place.

John Gielow, with a total of 111 points, led the team in scoring for the season, with Ben Carver and Syd Anderson not far behind. Bill Billingsley and Bill Davidson were the two other mainstays of the squad.

This year the success of our athletic teams is of special significance, for at the present time we are one of the leading contenders for the Interfraternity Council Trophy, awarded annually.

Out of the 26 fraternities on the campus, we now place third in points and have a good chance to be in first place by the end of the year.

SOUTHERN BRIDGE CHAMPIONS

In the recent National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament, two of the brothers, Bob Heard and Oscar Hefner, succeeded in winning the Southern Division Bridge Championship.

Miami's Delt pledges—a well-rounded group in anyone's language, says the chapter correspondent.

The election of new officers was completed by the end of January, and the new men who are going to serve for the coming year are: Gus Randolph, president; John Alderman, vice-president; B. B. Taylor, treasurer; John Howey and Herman Bolton, assistant treasurers; Hal Homer, recording secretary; Joe Heard, corresponding secretary; Bill Britton, guide; Bobby Clarke, sergeant at arms.

Delta Alpha—Oklahoma

TWENTY-FIVE INITIATED

Initiation was held in the chapter house on the morning of Sunday, March 22. Twenty-five men were initiated. At the initiation breakfast held immediately afterward in the dining room, awards were given to the outstanding pledge and the ideal Delt. Ronnie Browning, freshman from Oklahoma City, was chosen as the outstanding pledge, while Bus Bates, Norman sophomore, received the ideal-Delt award.

LIPSKI RECEIVES TATE FRY AWARD

The annual Founders Day banquet, a joint affair with Delta Chi Chapter at Oklahoma A. & M. College, was held this year at A. & M. Ewing Gafford was the speaker. Also on the program for the evening was the Delta Alpha glee club, under the direction of Bus Bates. Alex Lipski was given the Tate Fry award. This award is made annually to the outstanding sophomore member in the house.

WIN BOXING CROWN FOR THIRD TIME

In the field of sports, the boys have been doing pretty well. For the third year in a row we have brought back the intramural boxing crown. Although the win wasn't as decisive as it was last year, we did have two champions. Bus Bates took the honors in the 175 class and Jim Edwards walked off with the 165 title.

Delta Alpha's recently enlarged Shelter, showing the addition which was built in the back.

Twenty-five new Dels at Oklahoma, initiated March 22.

The table tennis team went to the semifinals before going down. Lloyd Waner, Bob Robison, Don Bobzien, and A. T. Stair, members of the team, all did a fine job. Waner and Stair are still in the individual tournament.

LEO COX

Delta Beta—Carnegie Tech

PLEDGE FIVE

Delta Beta started off the semester by pledging a group of five outstanding men. These were John Durr, Everett Parker, Clarence Eason, Bob Buckner, and President John Skalvo.

GREEK SING HIGHLIGHTS SOCIAL PROGRAM

The social calendar was highlighted by the Greek Sing and Swing, an interfraternity sing competition and dance, and the Waikiki Whing Ding, a pledge party with a Hawaiian flavor. Delta Beta placed a good fourth in the Greek Sing competition, and the pledge party featured a smoking volcano which was constructed mainly through the efforts of Fran Wickham, House Decorations Chairman.

SERENADE CHAMPIONS

During the past few months the men of Delta Beta have, on occasion, given Morewood Gardens, the women's dormitory, a serenade. On two occasions we were, in turn, serenaded by the girls from Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority. This series of serenades was climaxed last week by one in which the men marched down to Morewood Gardens carrying blazing torches and lighted kerosene-soaked boards which flared out ΔΔ during the serenade. This triumph established Delta Beta as undisputed serenade champions of Carnegie Tech.

SPRING CARNIVAL APPROACHING

The annual campus madness known as Spring Carnival is fast approaching. The Dels set a new record last year when they took first place in both the float contest and the "buggy push," and we are hoping to repeat this year. Every year we wear some sort of distinctive costume for the Spring Carnival week end. This year we are going to be very Bermudian with white bucks, long tan socks, flannel shorts, cord jackets, black knit ties, and straw hats. This outfit, we believe, should at least prove distinctive.

GEORGE BANGS

CAMPUS VICTORIES HIGHLIGHT THE END OF THIS YEAR

For the second consecutive year, Delta Gamma won the coveted first-place honors in the annual University Vaudeville show. The winning act was titled "Vaudeville in Venice."

The chapter showed its athletic ability by winning first or second in every event in intramural sports. The swimming team, led by Jerry Moen, tied for first place. Moen took three firsts, breaking all existing University records in the 100-yard free style, 50-yard free style, and the 75-yard individual medley.

The bowling team, comprised of Don Buxton, Walt Leye, Jack Hamilton, Hank Solem, and Clay Smebakken, walked away with top honors for the second year in a row.

In ping-pong, Don Buxton and Clay Smebakken combined their talents to take first place in doubles competition.

Brother Smebakken fought his way to the finals in the singles.

Of four teams entered in intramural basketball this year, two brought honors to the Chapter. The "C" team placed first in its division and went on to the all-school finals where they copped second place. The "A" team won second-place honors in its league.

"DELT COMBO" FORMED

A colorful addition to Delta Gamma has been the formation of a nine-piece orchestra known as the "Delt Combo." It originated from a jam session held at the Shelter and built up to the point where they now play numerous dance jobs in the surrounding area.

PHI BETA KAPPA TAPS TWO

Brother Charles O. Jones, a senior government major, and Brother Keith Wrage joined the ranks of Phi Beta Kappa this spring.

MARVIN KNITTEL

TOTAL OF TEN PLEDGED

Delta Delta Chapter started off its projected year-round rushing program in January with a great degree of success. Nine men were pledged after a week of lively parties. One other man was pledged late in the winter quarter, giving us a total of ten pledges during this period. Preparations are under way at the present for the spring program. The chapter intends to pledge fifteen good men during the spring quarter.

CHAPTER BOASTS OF BEING INTERNATIONAL

The chapter now boasts of being an international chapter. Two of our new pledges are originally from distant shores. Bill Moody claims as his home town Ballymean, Ireland. He is quickly becoming completely Americanized, however. Bill is a junior majoring in Business Administration, and is very active on the campus. Our other international representative is Bud Brown from Toronto, Canada. Bud was born in Detroit, Michigan, but grew up and went to high school in Toronto. Bud, incidentally, is an ex-paratrooper who made two combat jumps in Korea. Our handsome young "Canuck" is a sophomore in Liberal Arts, majoring in speech. We are expecting big things from Bill and Bud.

UNDER NEW LEADERSHIP

The March election of officers turned out some good results. The new officers are Hugh L. Gregory, Jr., president; George J. Henderson, Jr., vice-president; Ed Lawson, treasurer; Don N. Hummel, recording and corresponding secretary; and Richard Iddins, sergeant at arms and pledgemaster. Under this new leadership, the chapter feels it is headed for new heights.

EXTEND INVITATION TO ALUMNI

Delta Delta Chapter continues to invite all Deltas and Delt alumni to drop in at the Shelter whenever they are in Knoxville. We can manage to stir up some pretty good parties on short notice. Alumni are given a special invitation to come by the Shelter on Wednesday evenings. The chapter is sponsoring a weekly banquet honoring alumni and University of Tennessee dignitaries. The time is usually about seven o'clock. The chapter welcomes any and all recommendations from other chapters and alumni for men coming to U.T. Deltas everywhere are invited to drop us a line about any boy coming to U.T. who you think will make a good Delt.

ATTENTION DELTA KAPPA CHAPTER

We didn't forget your sheepskin. Look around, its probably hanging on your wall. Sorry we were late.

CHAPTER WINS NATIONAL RECOGNITION IN SINGING ACTIVITIES

Delta Epsilon has continued this year to gain recognition in singing activities. The Deltones, a quartet composed of Jim Woodward, baritone; Gus Kalos, lead second tenor; Jim Moore, first tenor; and Tom Hutzler, bass, won first prize on a Horace Heidt Youth Opportunity Program. Singing their usual best on "Joshua Fit De Battle," they went on to Louisville to sing on a national broadcast of Heidt's program. With the Barbershop Quartet Contest coming up early in April, the quartet is now preparing to win the contest for the third consecutive year and thus gain permanent possession of the trophy.

MICKEY SMOCK
Chapter President
Kentucky

The chapter was the honored guest at a banquet given by the Northern Division at its Conference on March 6 in Cincinnati. With Jim Moore accompanying on the piano, the Glee Club provided musical entertainment of the usual caliber with such songs as "Come Sweet Death," "Old Mother Hubbard," "Lil' Liza," and "Po' Old Lazarus." Our prize-winning quartet did its usual exceptional job.

Having won 14 of the 16 all-campus sings held at the University, the chapter was ruled ineligible for participation in this year's sing in order that the interest of other fraternities in the annual event might be revived. We are looking forward to next year, however, to begin another winning streak.

SEVENTEEN MEN INITIATED

Seventeen new brothers were initiated by Delta Epsilon on Saturday, March 14. Judging from the accomplishments of these men in University-sponsored activities and in chapter functions during their pledge training period, we can expect great things from them in their new status as actives. The initiation was followed by a banquet at Lexington's beautiful Campbell House at which the new initiates were presented their paddles by their big brothers, and Brothers Jack Nelson and John Perrine were awarded keys for having the highest scholastic standing in their pledge class.

CHAPTER NEWSPAPER IS PUBLISHED

This spring saw the publication of The Depsilon, a chapter newspaper directed especially to the interests of alumni of Delta Epsilon. Brothers Max Smith and Don Lennartson are to be commended for their untiring efforts on this publication.

SPRING SPORTS VIEWED WITH INTEREST

The intramural spring sports are well under way, and the chapter is actively engaged in preparing to better the 1952 record of runner-up in track, bowling, and wrestling, and to capture the softball championship for the third consecutive year.

SPRING FILLED WITH IMPORTANT EVENTS

Looking to the events coming up in the near future, we find that the greatest part of the year lies ahead. May 9 will be quite a busy day for everyone, for not only will we be participating in the University's colorful May Day Parade and Dance, but we will also be observing our twenty-ninth Founders Day. The Founders Day festival is one of the biggest events of any year, and this year promises to be no exception with Brother Hugh Shields, Executive Vice-President of the Fraternity, and Marion Coley, President of the Southern Division, being the speakers at the evening's banquet.

The annual Orchid Formal is to be held this year on May 15 at the Boiling Springs Country Club. Every member remembers the wonderful time he had at last year's formal, so everyone is looking forward to this annual event.

GARY NEWTON

Delta Zeta—Florida

GARNER SECOND PLACE IN VOLLEYBALL

Although we started the intramural year rather slowly, the Delt volleyball team garnered a second place with Johnny Tringas and Harry Ensey leading the way. Looking forward to water basketball, Delta Zeta is hoping to retain its championship. With a host of new pledges and 27 new initiates, the Florida Deltas can be counted upon to finish the season a strong contender.

MANY PARTIES HELD

Socially the Deltas got the new year rolling with a L'Apache Party. Then we followed with Military Ball and Rainbow Ball in that order. Dancing to the music of Dean Hudson in formal dress was a far cry from the Hobo party at the Shelter the following night. This along with a full-dress parade by the R.O.T.C. made the military week end a huge success.

Rainbow Ball was an extravaganza which will long be remembered around the Delt house. Friday night was the formal dance which was climaxed by the crowning of Queen Loretta Haley. Loretta is a freshman coed from Miami. Her presence at the Shelter for the coming year will be looked forward to by everyone. Swimming, boating, and softball were the high lights of a picnic Saturday at Juniper Springs. That night everyone stomped back to the house for a suppressed desire costume party. Plans are being made for Spring Frolics, which falls near the end of April.

VIE FOR POLITICAL POSITIONS

Politically speaking, the Deltas are vying for important campus positions. Bill Benson is campaigning for vice-president of the student body. Bill was also a member of the University of Florida debate team which finished ninth in a recent national debate contest. Homer Spence is running for yearbook business manager, a post now held by Brother Tom Moore. Don Patton, running for executive council from the School of Architecture, and Pledge Bob Huntsman, for executive council from the freshman class, round out the Deltas' candidates.

Dave Thomas and Clarke Nichols have recently been chosen as members of the campus Hall of Fame. Both are active in campus politics, Dave being Secretary of the Interior, and Clarke the present organizer of our political party.

PETE MANZ

Delta Eta—Alabama

OFFICERS SLATED

Delta Eta has elected a fine new set of officers. They are Brothers Thomas DeWine, president; Richard Hill, vice-president; Jack Bohner, secretary; William Berry, treasurer; Max Bailey, sergeant at arms; and Jimmy Gould, corresponding secretary.

BRIGGS DIRECTS BAMA DAY ACTIVITIES

Brother George Briggs, who is a law school student, recently directed the activities of Bama Day, the most outstanding campus event of the spring. Sharing the Bama Day spotlight were Brothers Craig Wesson and Raymond Perdue, who acted as publicity chairman and beauty contest chairman, respectively.

LAND SECOND IN JASON'S JAMBOREE

After three straight wins, the Alabama Deltas landed second place in Jason's Jamboree, an annual skit contest produced before about 4,000 students. The second-place skit, titled "Smoke Signals," was written by Brother Charles Morgan, who also handled the job of director.

PREPARE FOR SING CONTEST

pare for Step Singing. It is hoped that they will be able to improve on their second-place showing of last year by walking away with the first-place cup.

Plans are all in order for the annual Rainbow Ball. Rushes from all over the state will be here May 14 as the band starts playing. Also expected to attend the dance are many alumni and parents.

WADE KNOWLTON

Delta Iota—U. C. L. A.

JACK ELLENA WINS WRESTLING CROWN

Delta Iota athletes have been turning in some fine records. Jack Ellena won the Pacific Coast Conference heavyweight wrestling crown, and placed fourth in the Nationals. This is the first time that Jack has tried his hand at the sport. He is also on the Bruin rugby team as are George Stephenson and Bill Davis. Mike Hibler had another great year as center on the basketball team.

DELTS STAND OUT IN SPORTS

This year Larry Muentner is captain of the U.C.L.A. crew. Don Staib and Ned Barry are also trying for a third letter in crew. Bill Zerkie, Palmer George, and Ron Cheadle are turning in standout performances for the swimming team. Track calls Bob Hunt, Mike Hibler, Mal Riley, and Charley Corbato. Pledge Frank Ernaga is holding down a starting berth on the baseball team, and is assisted by Joe Yzurdiaga and Dick Lievers.

TWO OUTSTANDING FORMALS HELD

Two outstanding formals have been recently held. First was the Delt-DeeGee at the Miramar Hotel. This one is an annual affair and everyone had a ball. The second was the Initiation Party at the Bel Air Country Club. This was in honor of 14 new initiates. At the annual Parents Banquet, Dave Owen received the award as the outstanding pledge for the fall semester. To further the work of Uni-camp, for underprivileged children, Deltas and TriDeltas presented an open house with all proceeds going to the camp.

STILL 65 STRONG

New officers include Dick Lievers, president; Ken Kendall, vice-president; Chuck Manuele, house manager; and John Chandler is the new chapter adviser. Although the chapter has lost more than a dozen men to the service, we are still in a strong position with about 65 members.

BID FOR THIRD STRAIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP

This year we are making a bid for our third straight intramural championship. Right now we are only a few points behind the Fijis, and if our swimming and softball teams come through we will probably make it. Our volleyball team, headed by Dick Williams, Don Famliton, and Rolf Engen, won the Southern California College title, and will play in the National tournament at Omaha later this month. This is about the best intramural team that U.C.L.A. has ever had. Only a short time ago was the Delt invitational volleyball tournament. Dick Williams and Don Familton took first place in a field which included several other Delt teams as well as those from other fraternities. Pledge Bob Dutcher, who was all-Northern California at Fresno, should boost football stock next fall.

JERRY HARRINGTON

WIN BEST PLEDGE CLASS AWARD

Greek Week, sponsored by Duke's Interfraternity Council, offered a competitive program for all pledge classes. Beginning with a chapel service on February 25, the program included work periods in an underprivileged section of Durham, a field day, banquet, and an interfraternity dance on February 28. Based upon participation and field day performance, an award was offered to the best pledge class.

The pledge class of Delta Kappa received that award and a two-foot trophy now stands above the television set in the chapter room. Because of enthusiasm and spirit the Delt pledges boasted 100-per-cent participation in every activity and captured first place in the field day. First places won by Deltas are as follows: Andy Lewis, high jump; Bob Ruffini, 440-yard run; Don Sims, baseball throw; Pat Cogan, golf chipping, and the four-man 880-yard relay. Andy Lewis led the team with nine and one half points. The field day was ably directed by Roger Turner, a Delt, who was assisted by Dale Arn, a Delt pledge.

Following the interfraternity dance on February 28, the pledges were given their assignments. Among the more interesting and enjoyable tasks assigned were interviews. Every group of three pledges had to interview and fill out note cards on fifty Duke coeds.

INITIATE 18 NEOPHYTES

Initiation of 18 neophytes on Saturday afternoon, March 7, brought to a close a very successful rush program and pledge training period. Bill Bogart and Doug Kennemore, both seniors, served as rush chairman and pledge trainer, respectively. The initiation ceremony was held in the home of Dr. Leon Ellis, chapter adviser. After the initiation, a banquet was held followed by an informal party at Brother Bill Goebert's home.

BEST PLEDGE AWARD ANNOUNCED

Terminating social events before the spring vacation, Delta Kappa held an informal dance at Forest Hills Country Club on March 13. Music was provided by Brother Harry Duft and his combo. During intermission, Neophytes Terry Taylor and Jesse Yow entertained the brothers with guitars, hillbilly songs, and original verses to popular ballads. Pledges

Scotty Moffat read "Bogey at the Bat," a rehash of the popular poem and descriptive of Delt personalities. Also during intermission, Pledge Trainer Doug Kennemore announced Andy Lewis to be the winner of the best pledge award. His name has been inscribed upon a paddle containing previous pledge winners. The decision was based upon pledge exam grades, scholastic standing, spirit, activities, and contributions to the Fraternity (Andy's field day performance), said Kennemore.

NEW OFFICERS

Perry Stewart, from Yellow Springs, Ohio, was elected president of the Delta Kappa Chapter on March 16. Perry had been treasurer. He is co-assistant program director of WDBS, treasurer of Alpha Kappa Psi business fraternity, and a member of Phi Eta Sigma honorary society.

Other officers have been elected as follows: Jim Cranwell, vice-president; Paul Tuerff, corresponding secretary; Andy Lewis, recording secretary; Warren Leibfried, treasurer; and Bob Ruffini, assistant treasurer.

PAUL TUERFF

NEW HEADS

Newly elected officers for Delta Lambda are Ed Hageman, president; Jim Fisher, vice-president; and Ted Wells, manager. Ed, a junior in the School of Agriculture, did a bang-up job as intramural chairman last year. Fisher is a junior in B and T. Jim turned in an impressive performance as rush chairman with Delta Lambda pledging 29 men. Wells, a junior in the School of Science, is a top rusher in the Redmond area of eastern Oregon. Other officers are Mel Schult, treasurer; Bob Hermesen, secretary; Bill Strader, social chairman; Dick Boeninghausen and Jack Reider, alumni and rushing chairman, respectively; and Mike Headly, scholarship chairman.

BIG EVENTS

Biggest event of the winter term was the Western Division Conference held at Oregon State College February 27 and 28. The Conference saw approximately 150 members and alums from 23 Delt chapters west of the Mississippi at Corvallis. Friday was the opening session of the meeting in the O.S.C. Memorial Union. After Friday's session the delegates were served a large buffet supper at the Shelter. High light of the evening was the visit during the meal by A. L. Strand, President of O.S.C., Dean of Men Dan Poling, and Delt Dad L. E. Darlington, assistant Dean of Men.

Fred Zwahlen, '49, past chapter prexy, was general chairman of the event and did a bang-up job of organization.

A D.S.C. FOR MATT

The big moment of the dinner for the men of Delta Lambda came when Executive Vice-President Hugh Shields described the Distinguished Service Chapter and then presented a Citation to Matt Mathes, our chapter adviser. Matt received the Citation amid a standing ovation from all present.

DELTS ON CAMPUS

Dick Coyner was recently selected editor of the college yearbook, the Beaver. Dick has been working on student publications since his freshman year, and the honor of being chosen editor of the yearbook as a junior is believed to be unique. Dick was recently initiated into Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic honorary. Dick was also house treasurer, as well as being active in campus dramas.

Other Deltas in campus activities include Bill Strader, another thespian, and sports editor of this year's Beaver.

On the honorary side of OSC activities Don Guinn was initiated into Tau Beta Pi, the Phi Beta Kappa of engineering. Bob Hermesen was selected for membership and elected secretary of the local chapter of Phi Eta Sigma, national freshman scholastic honorary.

LARRY MUENTER (left), captain of the U.C.L.A. crew, and DON STAIB, ready for action.

In athletics, the past house president, Bill Kessinger, started the season off for the OSC golf team as number one man, while fellow Delt Bill Sundstrom played the number two spot. Kessinger is the team's captain. Bruce Bedynek is one of the most promising turnouts for spring football, and Bill Smith holds a berth on the varsity crew.

In intramurals the local Deltas finished in a tie for the league championship in basketball, only to be defeated in a play-off by the eventual all-school champs. The DTD five had beaten the mural champs in league play. The Deltas also had two runner-up teams in the doubles matches in table tennis.

SIGN OF SPRING

Rushing holds a high spot on this year's calendar. A rush party was held in Portland over the spring vacation. The OSC Delt Mothers' Club provided a grand feed for a successful event. Another rush party, the annual lake outing, is planned for the latter part of the summer.

PLAY MAJOR PART IN CAMPUS ELECTIONS

Elections, both in the chapter and on campus, have played a major part in the current goings on here at Lawrence. Our chapter balloting resulted in the election of Hank Spille as our new president. He will be ably assisted by Ken Harbinson as vice-president, Dan Sprich as treasurer, Bruce Kapitzke as recording secretary, and Phil Weber as corresponding secretary. Our former president, George Oetting, was elected to the office of student body president by a large majority. His election to this post is the climax of his career as a leader in campus activities. Other Deltas who were elected to various campus offices are: Hank Spille, homecoming cochairman, Harry Gronholm, social cochairman, and Ken Cummins, new student week chairman.

HELP SOLICIT BLOOD DONATIONS

The Deltas here at Lawrence recently joined forces with the other fraternities on campus in aiding the Red Cross in soliciting blood donations. Due to our combined efforts, a very large number of pledges were handed in.

FIGHT TO RETAIN SUPREMACY TROPHY

The Delt interfraternity basketball team captured the championship here, and the bowling team is a contender in the bowling league. Both groups are helping in the battle to keep the Supremacy Trophy in Delt hands.

PHI BETA KAPPA CLAIMS MOORE

PLAN COSTUME BALL

Delta Nu Chapter plans to finish out the year in grand style with a gala costume ball. Harry Gronholm, the chairman of the committee for the event, promises to come up with another roaring success.

Delta Omicron—Westminster

INITIATE SEVEN

The annual spring initiation was held March 15, and found seven men taking their vows before their Fraternity brothers. Attending the ceremony and principal speaker at the initiation banquet was Bill Tate, class of 1949.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Campus activities find our newly elected president, Dick Smith, initiated into Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalism society, and also into the Skulls of Seven, local senior honorary society. Dick serves these organizations as their very capable treasurer. The spring formal, our last big social event, will be held May 16. The usual number of alumni are expected.

JOINS CLEVELAND INDIANS

The Delta Tau Delta brothers have maintained a steady lead in the bid for the coveted Athletic Supremacy Award. Only one more sport, volleyball, stands between them and complete success. Ken Whitehead, a star of past seasons, has joined the Cleveland Indians Organization at Daytona Beach, Florida, and certainly will be missed. The Delt house finds a large number out for spring sports. Bob Strano, Dave Steinmeyer, Bruce Bronson, Vince Allen, are all out for baseball. Norman Freiburger, Lee Denner, Pete Macleod, Dick Fischer, are all out for varsity track. John Gunn, Jack Jefferson, and Bill McCue (last year's tennis captain) are all three competing for the six-man team.

SCHOLARSHIP EXCEEDS ALL MEN'S

Scholastically the house average was above the All Men's Average. Delta Omicron placed fourth out of eight fraternities on the campus. By continued diligence, we intend to raise this mark even more this semester.

NORMAN FREIBERGER

Delta Pi—U. S. C.

DELTA PI INITIATES FOURTEEN MEN

Soon after the beginning of the semester we brought 14 men into the brotherhood of Delta Tau Delta. They were honored with a banquet at the Nik-a-bob Restaurant and they were given a very inspiring talk by Nat Fitz who told them of his many experiences as a Delt.

PLEDGE TWELVE MEN

During a hectic spring semester rushing season our chapter came out tops on the "row" with 12 new pledges. The average on the "row" was six men. We are extremely proud of ourselves for this

MARDI GRAS

The coming month will be a very busy one for all of us here, for we are preparing for our fourth annual Mardi Gras. It is held in the back yard of the chapter house and is a costume party that the whole "row" attends. It is hard on the grounds and on the brothers but it creates so much good will that it is well worth it. Bob Hoshaw is in charge of this party.

SCHOLARSHIP COMES UP

With all our social and athletic activities we still find time to keep up our grades. Most of us, that is! Last semester, our grade point average was above the All Men's Average and we increased our standing among fraternities from twenty-second to fourth. We are aiming for first place this semester.

This is all for now. Anyone in this neighborhood drop in and see us, you are always welcome!

FORMER PLEDGE SAVES TWENTY-TWO

Former Delta Rho Pledge Reis Leiming recently visited our Shelter. Leiming was credited with saving 22 lives at Hunstanton, Norfolk, in the February European floods. Reis was awarded the George Medal, England's second highest civilian medal, by Queen Elizabeth II. He was the first American to receive such a medal in peace time. He provided an interesting evening for his old friends by telling of his English experiences. Reis left Walla Walla to journey to Washington, D. C., to be congratulated by President Eisenhower.

RETAINS SCHOLARSHIP CUP

Delta Rho has retained its scholarship cup, after computation of the first semester's grades. We are very proud of our record and hope to continue it throughout the year.

Former Pledge REIS LEIMING, hero of Europe's flood disaster, is honored by Whitman Deltas. Here he is (left) with Chapter President JACK KULP.

SEVERAL HOLD LEADS ON CAMPUS

Newly elected chapter officers are: Jack Kulp, president; Keith Coombs, vice-president; Bill Henry, recording secretary; Klindt Vielbig, corresponding secretary; and Ev Harris, guide. Ted Rogers was re-elected treasurer.

Jack Kulp has one of the leading roles in this year's musical comedy "Girl Crazy." Terry McCann and Terry Townley are working on the stage crew for this production. Carl Haugrud was recently elected to the Whitman Knights, sophomore men's honorary.

LATEST SOCIAL FUNCTIONS SLATED

The latest Delt social functions were a hamburger feed and an Easter dinner which were enjoyed by all. The social committee is in the midst of preparing for Delta Rho's greatest dinner dance yet.

Delta Sigma—Maryland

CHAPTER HOUSE CONSTRUCTION UNDER WAY

The biggest news around the University of Maryland campus here at College Park is Fraternity Row, and this means a new chapter house for Delta Sigma. Construction is now under way as a part of the University building program on ten new houses—five fraternity and five sorority houses. One of these is for Delta Sigma. The new house, a Georgian-style colonial, which will house from 36 to 40 men, is scheduled to be completed in September. Plans are now under way for furnishing the new chapter house as well as the planning necessary for the efficient running of a house this size.

PLAY TRADITIONAL GAME WITH GAMMA ETA

For the past three years a traditional football game is played with our Gamma Eta Chapter at George Washington University for the Henry Lipscomb Trophy. Although the game was slightly delayed this year, we played host to the George Washington chapter in March. After a hard-fought game, which ran into two overtime periods, both teams failed to score and the trophy was retired for another year bearing a 0-0 tie.

INFORMAL RUSH NETS NEW PLEDGES

Delta Sigma carried out a successful informal rush period which netted us some of the finest men on campus. Stag smokers as well as parties were given for the rushees, as well as bringing the men around to the Shelter during the daytime. It all goes to show that informal rushing may be just as effective as the two formal rush periods.

SPRING FORMAL PROGRAMMED

Plans are now under way for the Spring Formal to be held at the Crystal Ballroom of the Willard Hotel in Washington, D. C., at which our Delta Queen for 1953 will be crowned. Jack Morton has been signed to play for the dinner dance.

BOB WAGNER, swimming captain at the University of Delaware.

PLANS LAID FOR ALUMNI ORGANIZATION

Several recent alumni are now working out plans for a Maryland alumni organization. The nearest alumni chapters are now located at Baltimore, Maryland, and Washington, D. C. We would like to wish them the best of luck. This is real proof that Delta Tau Delta is not just a four-year proposition.

Delta Tau—Bowling Green

HOLD EASTER EGG ROLL

Delta Tau Chapter celebrated the Easter season with its Third Annual Bud Gallier Easter Egg Roll. Over 400 children competed for prizes and then joined in a mad scramble for the 120 dozen Easter eggs hidden by the chapter in the City Park. Credit for the success of the event is due to Dan Springer.

The chapter entertained the business people of Bowling Green at the Annual Businessmen's Smoker which is held in connection with the Easter Egg Roll. Entertainment was MC'd by Ron Lauber and the evening was concluded by a buffet dinner prepared by Don Hiliker.

Cliff Rovelto excellently directed the events of the evening.

BOHEMIAN BRAWL HELD

The biggest success of the year was the Bohemian Brawl. The Shelter was completely decorated to resemble a waterfront mill, including a jazz combo. Couples, dressed in French costumes, entered the Shelter through a second story tunnel. The success of the Brawl is attributed to Nester Cellighin, who was assisted by Dick Jones.

BREAK TWO TRACK RECORDS IN INTRAMURAL

The Delts broke two track records at the intramural track relay in which they captured a second place. In the relay, the Phi Delts barely edged our team out of first place by a score of 28 to 27½.

DELTONE QUARTET APPEARS

The Deltones, a quartet composed of Chuck Bonser, Ray Fernandez, Bob Murphy, and Chuck Green, recently appeared in B. G.'s largest department store, singing a variety of Easter selections.

WIN OUTSTANDING SERVICE AWARD

The Wood County Interfraternity Council presented the chapter with the outstanding service award at a banquet held at the chapter house.

SEVEN PLEDGED

SEVERAL STAR ON CAMPUS

In collegiate sports, Brothers Don Doran, Jack Gee, and Pledge Tom Mote are on the baseball team. Brothers on the track team include Bob Slager, a returning letterman, Dan Springer, and Ron Bracewell. In campus activities, Chuck Bonser was elected treasurer of Greek Week and Dick Jones was elected vice-president of the Booster Club. Brothers Joe Zingale and Hal Van Tassel won disc jockey tryouts and now have their own shows on local stations.

Delta Upsilon—Delaware

SOCIAL CALENDAR IS A FLURRY OF ACTIVITY

The final weeks in the second term at the University of Delaware ushered in a flurry of activities which kept the men of Delta Upsilon plenty busy. One of the social high lights in the middle of the spring term was the tremendously successful Apache Party towards the end of March. The biggest item on the social calendar, though, was the annual Delt Week End which covered three glorious days—April 24, 25, and 26. Once again, Schaefer's Restaurant in Chesapeake City, Md., was the scene of a gala formal dinner dance. Our lovely Delt Queen, Miss Toni Hulbert, presided over the various festivities of the week end, which included the formal dance, a house party put on by our dates, and a picnic held at the farm of Alumnus Andy Anderson. Other red-letter days of the Delaware Deltas were May 8, when we had our first Father and Son Banquet following the initiation of our February pledge class, and May 16, the time of the Senior Send-off and Delta Upsilon alumni reunion.

OFFICERS NAMED

As a result of elections held earlier in the second semester, Preston "Diz" Day is now handling the duties of president, Wendell Wheatley is vice-president, Bob Strothman is recording secretary, while our hardworking social chairman of the past year, Warren Beh, was elected as corresponding secretary. Spen Hedger continues as IFC alternate; Bill McCauley also is continuing his job as pledgemaister. Bill, incidentally, has had his hands full during the past two and a half months supervising perhaps the largest and finest pledge class in Delta Upsilon's history.

SEVERAL ARE HONORED CAMPUSWIDE

Dave Menser, president of the University's sophomore class, received another honor just before spring vacation, when he was elected as corresponding secretary of the Student Government Association by the student body. Sportswise, another one of our brothers, swimming ace, Bob Wagner, was honored when he was elected captain of the University of Delaware's 1953 swimming team.

THREE CONTRIBUTE TO MUSICAL SUCCESS

Three men of Delta Upsilon, Dave Allen, Spen Hedger, and Jim Sabo, all contributed to the success of the University musical, "Bloomer Girl," with their acting in the production.

GOOD LUCK, GRADUATES!

In this final issue of THE RAINBOW, the underclassmen of Delta Upsilon wish the 12 graduating seniors good luck and Godspeed in setting out on the voyage of life.

successfully under the guidance of John M. Kinsaul, and we have pledged 19 of the finest men on campus. These men have shown a lot of spirit and interest in the Fraternity. Already they have had five work parties.

PHI BETA KAPPA CLAIMS SAM BLOUNT

The annual pledge-active basketball game will be played Friday, March 27. The loser will provide the winner with a party.

We are quite proud of Sam Blount who was recently initiated into Phi Beta Kappa Fraternity. Sam is a senior who has maintained an A average most of his time in college.

FOUNDERS DAY BANQUET HELD

A Founders Day banquet was held March 7, and most of the charter members and alumni were present. It was followed by an informal dance, enjoyed by the entire group.

FOUNDERS DAY OBSERVED AT A. & M.

The Delt Shelter at Oklahoma A. & M. was bustling with activity the early part of March as A. & M. was the site of the state Founders Day banquet. About 150 guests attended the dinner that was held in the Student Union. Ewing Gafford, the principal speaker, gave a moving speech. Charles Duffy was the toastmaster.

ORCHID FORMAL HELD

The next night the Delt Orchid Formal was held in the Circus Room of the Student Union with the music furnished by the Aggieaires. The decorations consisted of a huge silver orchid with colored lights playing on it and purple and white streamers dropping from the ceiling.

SEVEN NEW PLEDGES GARNERED

An intensified spring rush under the direction of Homer Hutton garnered seven new pledges. Joe Marsh, Larry Carling, George Sallee, Charles Wickware, Gene Howard, James Keefer, and Don Doty bring our total to twelve second-semester pledges.

TWO OUTSTANDING IN R.O.T.C.

Two Deltas have been outstanding in the R.O.T.C. program at Oklahoma A. & M. Brother Ira Winfrey, this semester, is Corps Commander and Brother Joe Benson is Regimental Commander of the Composite Regiment.

OFFICER SLATE PRESENTED

Eddie Morris was elected house president for the spring semester. Elected with him were John Farley, vice-president, Keith Wise, treasurer, and Parke Bucher, recording secretary. Morris succeeds Joe Benson as president.

RAISE FIVE NOTCHES IN SCHOLARSHIP

Ending on the cheerful note we are glad to say that Delta Tau Delta has raised five places in the scholastic standings on the A. & M. campus with five men making the Dean's honor roll.

Delta Psi—Santa Barbara

RUSH NETS FOUR

Spring rushing netted four pledges for Delta Psi. Wearing the white and gold pledge button are Paul Washburn, Bob Garretson, Ron Magoffen, and Bill Gabel. New Initiates Don Hastings, Jess Walker, Duane Mittan, Lenart Palme, Craig Powers, and Bob Magruder were feted at a spaghetti feed following the formal ceremony at the Shelter.

STRIVE FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE TITLE

Deltas again are prominent on the Gaucho Varsity baseball team this spring, as the squad opens the quest for its second straight CCAA title. Leading the parade is ace Right-Hander Jerry McIlvaine, all-conference hurling choice last year. Backing him up on the mound are Wynn Smallwood and Duane Mittan, while Ron Magoffen serves behind the plate. Infielder Herb Christian and Outfielder Bob Dullea complete the roster. The intramural basketball squad, led by sharpshooting Wendell Long, took runner-up laurels in the league. The table tennis trophy was retained on the trophy shelf. The softball team, led by Hurler Bill Myers, hopes to regain possession of that title won four times in the last five years by Delta Psi.

BUGS BUNNY PLACES SECOND

A float representing Bugs Bunny entered by the Gaucho Deltas took second place in the Easter Relays parade. The lifelike replica of "Bugs" was created under the guiding hand of Don Hastings, assistant activities chairman. Bill Kindell was selected as a prince in the recent A&M King of Diamonds contest.

ANNUAL ELECTIONS HELD

Annual elections resulted in the following roster of officers: Charles Ben-gochea, president; Wynn Smallwood, vice-president; Bob Dullea, recording secretary; Bob Holland, corresponding secretary; Herbert Christian, treasurer; and Wendell Long, guide. Representing the

NEW OFFICERS TAKE OVER

Delta Omega has elected new officers for the coming year. They are: Calvin Ratcliff, president; Donald Hambleton, vice-president; Donald Anderson, recording secretary; Harold Mayhew, guide; John Faulds, sergeant at arms; and Roy Eaton, corresponding secretary.

PARTICIPATE IN CAMPUS EVENTS

As the spring quarter begins here at Kent, the chapter begins to brace itself for the coming events. Soon Campus Day will be upon us and we will be out to win the song fest trophy for the third straight time under the guidance of Jim Tushar. Our float chairman this year will be Bill Sutcliffe. Bud Mays, Tug-of-War chairman, is beginning to make plans for another trophy to adorn the mantle of the Shelter here at Kent State.

DOMINATE NEWSPAPER STAFF

Once again, the student newspaper, the Kent Stater, is filled with the men of Delta Omega. Cal Ratcliff is business manager, Jerry Dougher is assistant advertising manager, Carl Titgeneyer, Dick Fedosh, Wally Malmer, and Jack Berrey are edition managers, and Ed Sickles is circulation manager. Wayne Alley, Hal Mayhew, and Tom Duke are on the editorial staff.

ACTIVE IN CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

In activities, Jim Tushar, Bud Murray, and Cal Ratcliff have been elected to Blue Key Fraternity. Ron Rice, listed in Who's Who, recently won the Ohio State Championship in peace oratory and is now at the University of Michigan competing for the national championship. In spring sports, Don Rhude, intramural chairman, is hoping to win ping-pong, track, and baseball. Delta Tau Delta is represented on varsity teams by Hal Mayhew, Cliff Hanks, and Dave Skinner in track, and Don Peeler in baseball.

Field Secretary Jim Morison recently visited the chapter and Delta Omega wishes to thank him for all the wonderful deeds and actions that he imparted while at Kent State.

TRIBUTE TO HERB BULLARD

This quarter we would like to turn the spotlight on Herb Bullard, one of the most outstanding members of Epsilon Alpha. Herb transferred from the University of Alabama to Alabama Polytechnic Institute for the sole purpose of adding another worthy link to the chain of Delt chapters. His first quarter at A.P.I. was the winter quarter of 1950. Ken Nall, now serving in Korea, also transferred with Herb. These two men started to work immediately.

Rushing was difficult because they had nothing materially to offer to the rush-ees. Their only hope was to find men who were interested in building a future for tomorrow. The road was long and rough and very slow to travel. Due to the loss of men as a result of the Korean war, it was two years and five months later when we were granted a charter.

HERB BULLARD

Spade-lifter for new chapter.

This is Herb's last quarter in college. He has a lot to be proud of as he not only has acquired a good education but has also established a chapter of the best Fraternity known to man. We, as members, are proud of Herb because, if it were not for him, we would not be Delts.

THE DELT ALUMNI CHAPTERS

Akron

The first Founders Day Banquet of Delta Omega Chapter at Kent State University was held in conjunction with the meeting of the Akron Alumni Chapter on March 3 in the beautiful Student Union Building on the campus. It was a decided success, with a good number of alumni from Akron attending. The chapter did itself proud in the management and arrangements.

Dr. E. Turner Stump, Miami, '18, head of the department of speech of Kent State, skillfully carried on proceedings as toastmaster and Clemens R. Frank, Western Reserve, '19, former Arch Chapter member, gave the main address. His talk, including reminiscences of days gone by, was enjoyed by actives as well as old-timers. We sincerely hope that this event will become an annual affair, bringing together all Delt alumni in Akron and vicinity.

We were glad to welcome Jim Morison of the Central Office and sincerely hope to see more members of the staff come to visit us in the future.

DR. LOUIS P. CARABELLI

Boise Valley

The January meeting was conducted by outgoing President Al Kiser. The principal business was the election of officers. Jim Matthews was elected to the chair. The new vice-president is Russ Viehwig.

The major qualification for vice-president is that the candidate be handsome.

This is borne out by the fact that Jim Matthews was the last vice-president.

The new secretary-treasurer is Len Bielenberg. Morey Byrne succeeds himself as corresponding secretary.

President Matthews wielded the gavel at the February meeting and at that time announced the new program. "Dave" Tate was appointed chairman of the committee to arrange for and conduct the annual stag picnic. Fred Rieger will assist Chairman Tate. The March program featured an interesting and informative talk by "Wiff" Janssen. The subject of his talk was a complete biography of Larry Thielke.

President Matthews is credited with mustering the largest attendance in recent years at the March meeting. Among those present were Nathan Scott, "Doc" Paulsen, "Wiff" Janssen, Morey Byrne, Larry Thielke, Vern Otter, Frank Chapman, Loen Weeks, Jim Matthews, Jack Haymond, Russ Viehwig, Russ Bielenberg, Jerry Evans, Gene Hutteball, Al Kiser, Dave Tate, Fred Rieger, "Chick" Donaldson, and in the honored seat to the president's left was Arthur Hayes, our senior member.

Each meeting our diabolical president orders one of the brothers to introduce all present. If the brother misses, he is fined two bits for each miss.

M. E. BYRNE

Boston

The 94th Founders Day Banquet was held on Tuesday, March 31, at the Ninety-Nine Club with fourteen chapters represented in addition to a fine representation from Beta Mu.

The dinner was preceded by a social hour where many old acquaintances were renewed and many new acquaintances made.

A delicious dinner preceded the evening's entertainment which began with Fran Young, president of the Boston Alumni Chapter, calling for a roll call of all present.

The Beta Mu "Troubadors," led by Paul Wiggin and Johnny Bernasia, provided us with some fine Delt harmony. A new arrangement by Paul and Johnny of a "Delt Marching Song" was introduced and received with great enthusiasm, as was their rendition of "We Were Sailing Along" with variations.

Henry Merrill, prominent Boston realtor, member of the Distinguished Service Chapter, former vice-president of Eastern Division, member of Gamma Gamma house corporation, and active Boston Alumni Chapter member, spoke briefly on the general activities of the Boston Alumni Chapter and its importance as a link in the Delt chain of alumni and undergraduate chapters throughout the country.

"Jasper" Peairs, vice-president of the Eastern Division in charge of New England chapters and professor of law at Boston University, was introduced and spoke briefly on his recent Delt activities.

The speaker of the evening, popular Joel Reynolds, Vice-President of Delta Tau Delta, chapter adviser to Beta Mu, former Eastern Division President, member of the Distinguished Service Chapter, president of Tufts Alumni Association, life trustee of Tufts College, and active Boston Alumni Chapter member, was introduced by Fran Young. Joel, who recently returned from a round of Founders Day banquets, familiarized us with the very fine standing of Delta Tau Delta in the present fraternity world. He amazed us with the Fraternity's assets and its many accomplishments during the past years.

A beach party for Delt and their sweethearts is being planned for this summer with notices to be sent out later on.

Our weekly luncheons are held at Patens on Thursday and we invite all Delts in this area to stop in and enjoy our fellowship.

The renewed spirit which has prevailed at our recent meetings and the enthusiasm of our newcomers give assurance that the Boston Alumni Chapter is headed for its prewar standing of one of the most prominent alumni chapters.

RUDY HELGESON

Chicago

The Chicago Alumni Chapter held its 1953 Founders Day Luncheon and Annual Meeting March 8 at the Union League Club. President John Roddy acted as toastmaster. Election of officers went its usual smooth way. New prexy: David B. Rogers; veep: Walt A. Sommers; secretary: Bran Fanning (finally put me to work); treasurer: Jerry Pinderski.

Reports were given by officers or recent grads from the nearby undergraduate chapters. Al Bruncker, Omega, '03, member of the Distinguished Service Chapter and guest of honor, reminisced about the "old days." A report on the Karnea closed the official part of the luncheon.

The Monday lunches continue, as in the past, to be held at the Fair Store. The Chicago Tribune's bridge column and political opinion are alternately defended and torn to bits. Nothing is ever settled, but everyone has a good time. Any Delt, old grad or new (and we have both), is welcomed at these lunches.

Plans are now being made for the late summer rushing party and our new president promises something new and spectacular for the program, but he is keeping it a secret for now.

BRANWELL D. FANNING

Cincinnati

The week of March 1 to 8 was an eventful one for Delta Tau Delta in Cincinnati this year. On Sunday, March 1, Gamma Xi Chapter presented 17 new initiates of the 97th and 98th initiations to the Delt world at a banquet at the Delta Shelter. Brother Paul Heckel, vice-president of the LeBlonde Machine Tool Company, presented slides and a talk on his recent trip to Austria where he was a member of a group of American industrial leaders who acted as consultants to the Austrian industry on American "know-how." Brother Heckel briefed the initiates, alumni, and actives on the world they will have to face.

Gamma Xi and Gamma Upsilon Chapters were the hosts to the Northern Division Conference held at the Netherland Plaza Hotel on March 6 and 7. Forrest Maddux, chairman of the banquet on March 6, provided a program which was full of good food, good entertainment, and good fellowship. Brother Martin Dickinson, President of the Fraternity, was the principal speaker.

Alumni thrilled to the singing of the University of Kentucky Delt Glee Club, winners of 14 of the last 16 interfraternity sings at their school.

Thanks are due Brother John Maescher, who was chairman of the hospitality committee, and Al Porter, alumni chapter president, for their part in the Conference.

RICHARD REIMAN

Clarksburg

Before the June issue of THE RAINBOW appears, we of the Clarksburg Alumni Chapter will have helped to burn the mortgage on the Shelter of Gamma Delta Chapter at West Virginia University. A banquet is planned, so large that it will be held at the Morgan Hotel.

We are expecting to have in attendance Brother Anthony McCue and most of the 147 Deltas who made it possible to pay the house debt. All credit, however, goes to Brother McCue for saving the Shelter and putting it on a sound financial basis, which only a few fraternities can equal. We are going to help him celebrate the occasion in the good old Delt way.

Cleveland

The Cleveland Alumni Chapter, under the leadership of President Harlow Greenwood, is enjoying a very interesting and worth-while activities program. The weekly luncheon meetings, held every Friday at the Nanking Restaurant, are well attended and are the focal point for local Delt fellowship. During the past few months there has been a very wholesome pick-up in attendance by the younger alumni.

During the early summer months a number of traditional functions will be held including a baseball party, golf tournament, and family picnic. These events will all be staged in a manner to provide rushing facilities for active chapters in the Cleveland area.

Approximately 125 Deltas attended the annual Founders Day Banquet held at the Tudor Arms Hotel on February 24. Following our custom, this annual dinner also celebrated the Zeta Chapter initiation if seven fine new Deltas. It was a grand affair. Carr Liggett, Beta, '16, did a masterful job as toastmaster and Dr. E. Turner Stump, Gamma Upsilon, '18, delivered an all-time-high Fraternity inspirational address.

The Cleveland Alumni Chapter again extends a cordial invitation to all Deltas in the Cleveland area to join with us in any and all functions.

RANDALL M. RUHLMAN

Dallas

The first meeting of the Dallas Alumni Chapter for 1953 was held on February 3 at the Dallas Athletic Club. Election of officers for the year resulted in the following line-up: Byron Cain, Gamma Iota, president; Bill Webb, Gamma Iota, vice-president; Lloyd W. Birdwell, Gamma Iota, secretary; and Don Wolf, Gamma Xi and Gamma Iota, treasurer. This meeting was well attended. The year 1953 promises to be one of our most active years.

On March 22, in accordance with our plans to have a social event at least once each quarter with our Delt ladies as guests, a party was held at the Dallas Petroleum Club. More than 40 couples attended, including Brothers Tom Law, Bob Hobbs, and Whitfield Collins from the Ft. Worth Alumni Chapter. Many Deltas who attended this party met friends they had not seen in many years, and the opportunity for renewed fellowship is offered other Deltas who desire to affiliate with our chapter.

Newcomers to Dallas and old members who have not been active are encouraged to join us by contacting Lloyd W. Birdwell, 3900 Greenbrier, so that you may be put on our mailing list. Deltas living outside Dallas are also invited to affiliate and be placed on our mailing list. Meetings are planned for once a month subject to the call of the president; we have established an efficient method of notifying our members by mail, and we desire to have all Deltas in the Dallas area in our directory.

Notice has gone out of a meeting on April 7 at the home of Brother Zach Brinkerhoff. We are all looking forward to Brother Brinkerhoff's hospitality, and to an evening of fellowship.

DEAN BURFORD

Denver

The Denver Alumni Chapter held its annual banquet April 10 at the Park Hill Country Club, honoring Founders Day, Beta Kappa Chapter, and our members of the Distinguished Service Chapter: Philip S. Van Cise and L. Allen Beck.

The inimitable Ben Hillyard held his own as toastmaster, Ken Penfold talked about the Distinguished Service Chapter and its connection with the Fraternity, and the members of Beta Kappa gave us lots of fine singing and several entertaining skits.

A fine representation was present from both Beta Kappa and the alumni, and once again a great time was enjoyed by all.

If there are any alumni in the Denver area who are new to the Mile High City and haven't been contacted, please get in touch with the writer, 3415 Ash St., and we'll be sure that you are advised of the future activities of our group.

BOB HEISTER

Houston

As RAINBOW deadline closed in, eleven Houston Deltas had signed up to go to Gamma Iota's Founders Day observance April 12 in Austin. These included Jim Douglas, Claxton Parks, Silas Ragsdale, Sr., and Jr., Hirst Shuffield, Otto Wymer, Jim Hunter, Bob Ives, Mitchell Baldwin, David Wynne, and Charles Westmoreland.

At the February meeting Stuart Godwin, Jr., Gamma Iota, gave us an interesting talk on European travel with particular emphasis on the British coronation. Stuart is connected with a travel bureau in Houston. His talk was illustrated with color movies.

March's meeting was sparked by a talk on "Modern Trends in Building and Building Materials" by J. W. Northrop, Jr., Wesleyan, veteran architect of Houston. Brother Northrop treated his subject in an exhaustive and painstaking manner and made it highly interesting.

Silas Ragsdale, Sr., has been elected president of the Rotary Club of Houston, fourth largest Rotary Club in the world. He and Mrs. Ragsdale plan to attend the international convention in Paris, France.

Silas Ragsdale, Jr., is now connected with Rio Vista Camp for Boys, located near Kerrville, Texas. His duties have taken him out of Houston quite a bit and we have missed him at some of the monthly luncheons.

Jess Neely, Vanderbilt, '23, who is observing his 30th year as a football coach, recently "made" the "Neighbors of Note" column in the Houston Chronicle. He is athletic director and head football coach at The Rice Institute, where he has served since the end of the 1939 football season.

The vice-president of our Houston alumni chapter, Robert M. Ives, Columbia, on March 2 was promoted from colonel to brigadier general and became assistant division commander of Headquarters 36th Infantry Division, Texas National Guard. General Ives, who was given an ovation at our March luncheon, has a record of 35 years continuous service in the armed forces, having started as a private in the infantry in World War I. He entered World War II a captain and came out a colonel. He has been active in reserve officer and national guard work over the years when not actually giving full time to Army duties. In civilian life General Ives is general manager of Wilson Stationery and Printing Company, Houston.

SILAS B. RAGSDALE

Indianapolis

The Indianapolis Alumni Chapter held its annual Founders Day Banquet and Dance at the Indianapolis Athletic Club on February 21. More than 235 alumni and undergraduates from the five state chapters attended.

Lt. Governor Harold W. Handley, Indiana, '32, delivered a challenging address on "America Today." Beta Beta was awarded the annual chapter scholarship plaque for the highest scholastic record among the five state chapters. Beta Beta also received the banquet attendance award for having the highest percentage of members attending the banquet. Beta Zeta received the banquet entertainment plaque for its excellent stunt.

Beta Zeta Chapter invited the alumni chapter to the Shelter on March 28 for a splendid roast pig dinner. More than 300 people attended and many alumni and their wives had an opportunity to see the new Shelter for the first time. Many thanks to Beta Zeta!

Alex M. Clark, DePauw, '37, Indiana, '38, Mayor of Indianapolis, and John R.

At Beta Zeta Chapter's Pig Roast, to which Indianapolis alumni were invited, are EVERETT M. SCHOFIELD, '09, who provided the porkers; ROBERT R. BATTON, '12; and ALEX CLARK, DePauw, '37, Indiana, '37, Mayor of Indianapolis. That's the main course on the table.

Barney, Butler, '31, city comptroller, attended the atomic bomb blast exhibition at Yucca Flats in March. John related a first-hand account of the event at the regular noon luncheon March 24.

At the Northern Division Conference in Cincinnati March 6 and 7, Ernie Miller, Indiana, '27, was re-elected Division President, and Ed Hughes, DePauw, '43, was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Delegate Everett Schofield, Butler, '09, and Fran Hughes, Ohio Wesleyan, '32, also attended.

AL FERNANDES

Kansas City

The 93rd Anniversary of Delta Tau Delta was celebrated at the 1953 Kansas City Founders Day Banquet by 155 alumni and undergraduates representing 16 chapters.

Martin B. Dickinson, national Fraternity President and the principal speaker, reported on the progress of the Fraternity and high lights of the recently held Western Division Conference. In reviewing local Fraternity progress, he stated that the future house at Kansas State College, Manhattan, Kansas, will be equal to any other fraternity house in the country. The new house will be ready for occupancy sometime in August of this year.

Joe Biery, a Miami University graduate and banquet toastmaster, introduced the honored guest of the evening, the venerable Frederick C. Gunn. Mr. Gunn, a graduate of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1887 and prominent architect, reminisced on the college and fraternity life of 66 years ago.

After being primed with a fried chicken and trimmings dinner, the undergraduate chapters from Baker University, Kansas University, and Missouri University presented skits in competition for the Kansas City Alumni Cup. The

M.U. plea for funds to build a new house was built around the "Dragnet" theme and the K.U. skit was the "development of a pledge through graduation." However, Gamma Theta of Baker went home with the Cup after their presentation of "Sam Spade" and "Dragnet." The unnamed star performer who played both "Sam" and "Sgt. Thursday" may well be destined to become our next Bob Hope. He received a 100-per-cent Hooper rating for his performance.

D. ROBERT BONEBRAKE

Minneapolis

Beta Eta's Annual Founders Day Banquet, held February 23 at the Curtis Hotel, drew Delts from Iowa and Wisconsin to attend the celebration. Since it was Beta Eta's 70th Anniversary, the event had an extra special meaning and there were a goodly number of Delts in attendance.

Beta Eta's own George E. MacKinnon, '27, was the main speaker with Otto A. Silha, BH, '40, doing the honors as toastmaster. Some of the brothers were literally "swept out" of the place as they sat around discussing various affairs of state until the wee hours of the morning. We wish to thank all of the Delts who attended to help make it a successful event, and our special thanks go to Al Chambers, BH, '43, and Dewey Johnson, BH, '49, who made the arrangements and did the planning.

Each alumni meeting that we have had seems to attract a few new alumni. We are in hopes that they will try to attend as many meetings as possible. As a rule, our meetings are held the third Monday of every month unless some special event such as Founders Day comes along to cause a shift in the schedule.

One of our biggest projects will be the alumni directory. If there are any Beta Eta Delts or Delts living in the Twin City area who are not on our mailing list, we wish that they would either write or call Tom Allen, 3701 Garfield Ave., So., Minneapolis 9, (Lo 2358). If there are any Beta Eta Delts living outside of the Twin City area for whom we do not have correct addresses, we would appreciate their sending their new address as we want our alumni directory to be as accurate as possible.

TOM ALLEN

National Capital

The 94th Founders Day dinner dance attracted more than 200 Delts to the National Press Club on the evening of February 28. The program started with a joint initiation by the George Washington and Maryland chapters, with 12 actives from the Delaware chapter also in attendance. This ceremony was followed by a dinner with 162 Delts enjoying one of those famous roast beef platters served distinguished international visitors to the National Capital when they are guests of the Washington newspaper fraternity.

Gold-covered souvenir programs were distributed commemorating the 50th anniversary of Gamma Eta Chapter and containing a photograph of the original chapter. Six of the 18 charter members were seated at the head table. Their pictures and names appear elsewhere in this issue of THE RAINBOW.

Also seated at the head table were the Honorable Jackson E. Betts, Kenyon, '26, Congressman from Ohio; R. Roy Dunn, Purdue, '25, president of the Potomac Electric Power Company; Dell Floyd, Washington, '09, a charter member of his chapter; William T. Sheris, Pittsburgh, '41, president of the alumni chapter; and Raymond R. Dickey, George Washington, '38, toastmaster.

Brother A. Bruce Bielaski, George Washington, '04, a charter member of Gamma Eta, whose name is synonymous with our Fraternity, appropriately reviewed the events of the past 50 years and predicted some good tidings for the future. His remarks could not have had a more receptive audience.

Alumni awards were presented to Undergraduates Dorrance Barrell, Delaware, '53; Eugene Sabol, George Washington, '53; and Melville Eaton, Maryland, '53. The singing of Delt songs was led by Oliver Hoyem, Columbia, '16, with Ralph Wray, Colorado, '20, at the piano.

The dinner portion of the program was concluded with the election of Robert van Sickler, Cincinnati, '29, president; Joseph B. Matre, Cincinnati, '12, vice-president; and Robert E. Newby, George Washington, '24, secretary-treasurer. The executive committee will include John C. Benson, Kentucky, '30; C. Burr Christopher, George Washington, '28; Raymond R. Dickey, George Washington, '38; Daniel C. Eberly, George Washington, '29; and William T. Sheris, Pittsburgh, '41.

A formal dance was held in the Press Club ballroom to end an historical Delt event, long to be remembered by those fortunate enough to be in attendance.

Our weekly luncheons at Bonat's Restaurant are being well attended. A talk on Mexico, illustrated with Kodachrome slides, by Karl W. Doering, Penn State, '34, drew a capacity crowd of Deltas to the first of a series of "special luncheons" being planned for the remainder of the year.

ROBERT E. NEWBY

Pittsburgh

What with the Boston Braves going to Milwaukee and their schedule falling into the hands of the Pittsburgh Pirates, it was a wonder that the chapter finally did get straight on the date for its Seventh Annual Baseball Program.

May 4 was the day that emerged from the schedule confusion, and the St. Louis Cardinals the visiting team for the occasion. As per tradition, the program included introduction of the Delt "chapter" within the Pirate organization and featured an address by Brother Branch Rickey, general manager of the Buccos.

Being a combination celebration this year, including the usually separate Founders Day dinner, the May 4 program at the swank Pittsburgh Athletic Association Annex saw the election of officers for the 1953-54 term.

William L. Collins was elected president of the alumni chapter, culminating an impressive record of service, which included repeated terms as secretary and treasurer and, most recently, the office of vice-president.

Also named to office were William P. Raines, vice-president; James B. Ludwig, secretary; and Louis McLinden, treasurer.

Plans for the first Delt Alumni Spring Formal have been completed and announcements are in the mail. The dance, a radical departure from the previously all-male Delt dinners and golf parties, will be held at the South Hills Country Club on Friday, June 19. A committee which includes Bill Collins, Jack Kelso, Harris Hawkins, Bob Soles, Dick Berg, and Sam Werlinich, is giving expert guidance to this first local venture on the co-ed plan.

Dates for the summer golf tourneys will be set soon and announcements will be mailed out several weeks in advance.

Members of the Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter were saddened in February to learn of the passing of Brother Ralph Ballard Dimmick, Cincinnati, '06, of Butler, Pa.

Results from the annual request for dues have been encouraging, but many of the brothers have not yet replied.

Funds collected in this manner are used to underwrite the annual program by paying the cost of sending out announcements and maintaining our large mailing list.

If you have not yet sent in your 1953 alumni chapter dues, please mail your check for two dollars to Treasurer Lou McLinden, c/o William Penn Hotel, Pittsburgh 19, Pa.

Remember, luncheons continue through the summer months, too. Danny's Restaurant, every Tuesday at noon.

BILL RAINES

St. Louis

Continuing our policy of having guest speakers at the monthly meetings, we invited Bill Veeck, owner of the St. Louis Browns, to provide us with some interesting baseball stories. This was the February meeting at Le Chateau.

Founders Day banquet at the University Club was an evening thoroughly enjoyed by all. George Fisher, the principal speaker, gave us a more complete understanding of "What is the Purpose of the St. Louis Alumni Chapter?"

Based on information received from the Central Office, a winner for the St. Louis Alumni Chapter Scholarship Trophy has been determined. Baker University Deltas, for the college year 1951-52, had an impressive average, 14.84 per cent above the All Men's Average. The 16-inch trophy is being presented for their permanent possession.

A number of local Deltas have recently been discharged from the service. Among them are Bill Jackson, Don Fleck, Art Kirkpatrick, and John Altheide, whom we expect to add considerable strength to our chapter.

For the benefit of newcomers to the St. Louis area, we invite you to our luncheons of good fellowship every Tuesday at the American Hotel.

H. M. MANESS

St. Petersburg

Those unfortunates who leave Florida about the last of March do not know that they are leaving behind them the most glorious month of the year, April, that is.

James Russell Lowell and others may have their June, but we of Florida—well, April is the month for us. It is the month when the water in the Gulf becomes exactly the right temperature for swimming; it is a month when it rains hardly at all, yet the days are not too hot, the nights are pleasantly cool, and the flowers burst out all over—and the sand flies and mosquitoes have not yet warmed up to their work. For those whose proclivities run to fishing, April is the month in Florida.

Señor Ponce de Leon was no slouch: he knew what he was about when he chose April 8, 440 years ago, as the day to discover Florida.

The St. Petersburg Alumni Chapter has had a very active and successful winter season, and we expect to remain active during the summer months. One of our most active winter members, Lewis M. Sutton, W. & J., '93, will soon be leaving for his home in Clarksburg, West Virginia. While only 83 years of age, he strokes a neat 83 score on the golf course.

Carl Greenleaf, Chicago, '99, had to cut his season short this winter and return to Elkhart, Indiana, because of illness in the family. Gene W. Lawton, Michigan, '04, is back with us after a flying business trip to his home in Racine, Wisconsin.

Dr. H. G. Harmon, Iowa, '24, is considering the possibility of practicing in either Dallas or Corpus Christi, Texas. One of our oldest resident members, who attends Delt affairs frequently, is John B. Amazeen, Wisconsin, '96.

The April luncheon was held at the Elk's Club, with 13 members present (count them): Harry R. Hewitt, Wisconsin, '02; Gene W. Lawton, Michigan, '04; Dick Forgham, Rensselaer, '41; Robert Mack, Virginia, '29; John Wallace, Amherst, '16, Pennsylvania, '17; Lewis M. Sutton, W. & J., '93; John W. Amazeen, Wisconsin, '96; Edwin F. Papworth, W. & J., '13; George W. Bartlett, Wisconsin, '22; Dr. H. G. Harmon, Iowa, '24; A. B. Walling, Ohio State, '11; Dr. Myron C. Schofield, Tufts, '46; and Robert S. Arthur, Illinois, '08.

Saturday, April 11, is the date chosen for a picnic party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Papworth. Beach, shuffle board, boating, fishing, swimming, bridge, and other activities will be at the disposal of the guests; also eats! What more can one ask: a picnic in Florida, in April, at the Papworths' beautiful home on Boca Ciega Bay.

Charles Belden, M.I.T., '09, and Mrs. Belden sailed for Europe in April aboard the S. S. Liberte. Mr. Belden, an active member of our group during the winter season, is a well-known Western and cowboy photographer.

SERVICE

Phi Chapter received word last fall that FRANCIS T. GLASGOW, II, W. & L., '49, has been killed in the service of his country in the Korean battle zone. He became the 12th Delt to lose his life in the Armed Forces since the outbreak of the Korean hostilities.

Familiarly known as "Wink," Glasgow as an undergraduate invented a device which enables crew coaches to train their teams in college gymnasiums. He was coach of W. & L.'s crew during part of the time when he was in college.

Another member of Phi Chapter, CLARENCE W. WHEELWRIGHT, W. & L., '53, has been declared missing in action in Korea since last September.

JAMES F. RIDGE, Bowling Green, '51, who has been on active duty with the Air Force since July, 1951, has been assigned as a special agent to the 1005th Special Investigations Group (IG), USAF, Bolling Air Force Base, Washington, D. C. He expects to be assigned to a district office in May and given an overseas assignment next fall.

LT. THOMAS R. GRALING, Virginia, '46, is serving as an instructor pilot with the Naval Air Station in Hutchinson, Kansas. The squadron uses the P4Y-2, a four-engined patrol plane, to train naval cadets for the Navy's advanced training command. Completion of the training gives the cadet his Navy wings.

Lt. Graling expects to remain at his present station for another year.

Pfc. JAMES S. AGGELIS, Florida State, '52, recently joined the 28th Infantry Division in Europe. Now in southern Germany, the 28th is receiving intensive field training as part of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Army.

Pvt. THOMAS R. GANDRUD, Minnesota, '56, recently arrived in Korea and is serving with the 2d Infantry Division. The 2d Division captured "Heartbreak Ridge" in October, 1951, and took "Old Baldy" last July.

First Lt. GEORGE B. HECKLER, Penn State, '45, is a recent graduate of the newly-established Medical Field Services School in the Korean combat zone. He has been assigned to a unit with the Eighth Army.

The school was created to supplement the normal eight-week medical officer training course, heretofore at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, by giving the doctors actual experience in the field in addition to a shortened four-week course at Fort Sam.

Cpl. ROBERT L. MACUMBER, Washington, '53, recently was graduated from the XVI Corps Leader's School at Camp Matsushima, Japan. The school gives intensive training in Army tactics, organization, and administration.

Macumber, a member of the 8603d Administrative Area Unit, has served in the Far East for more than a year. He is a veteran of the Korean conflict.

Lt. Col. WILLIAM F. THOMAS, Carnegie Tech, '41, recently was assigned executive officer of the 20th Engineer Brigade in France. He formerly served as operations chief for the 20th, which is charged with operational control of all Engineer construction units in Base Section of the Communications Zone in France.

Before being stationed with his present unit, he served as engineer instructor of the Turkish General Staff College at Istanbul from December, 1948, to April, 1952. During World War II, he served with the 28th Infantry Division during the campaigns in Normandy, Northern France, the Rhineland, Ardennes, and Central Germany.

Capt. JACK P. MERCER, Western Reserve, '45, is a recent graduate of the Medical Field Service School in the Korean combat zone. He has been assigned to a unit within the Eighth Army.

First Lt. HARRY E. MASON, JR., Stanford, '45, is also a graduate of the Medical Field Service School and has been assigned to the Eighth Army.

A veteran of World War II, Lt. Mason re-entered the Army in November, 1952, and arrived overseas in January. He took his medical training at the Boston City Hospital and the University of Michigan Hospital.

The Reverend ROBERT G. DONALDSON, Sewanee, '52, has entered the United States Air Force Chaplains' Corps for extended duty.

Second Lt. GEORGE W. OBER, Missouri, '50, has completed 30 missions in Korea with the 4th Fighter-Interceptor Wing and is credited with damaging two MIGs.

Second Lt. JAMES C. BUTCHER, Missouri, '52, has been assigned to Biggs Air Force Base, El Paso, Texas, where he will take up duties as Air Police Officer.

THOMAS P. BEAL, Tulane, '52, Nebraska, '52, is on active duty with the Air Force. BERNARD SPRAGUE, Nebraska, '54, has entered the Marine Officers Training Corps.

Second Lt. WILLIAM H. BRISBIN, Miami, '51, recently completed a course in chemical warfare at the Eta Jima Specialist School in Japan. The two-week course is designed to teach defenses against chemical, bacteriological, and radiological warfare.

Sgt. CLARENCE H. TABLER, JR., Kent, '53, is serving in Korea with the 25th Infantry Division. He has been in Korea since June, 1952. He is currently assigned as a squad leader in the 27th Infantry Regiment's Company I.

He has been awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge.

Ensign KENNETH Q. WALTERS, JR., Washington, '51, was killed in a plane crash at Jacksonville, Florida, early in April. The attack bomber he was piloting crashed while he was practicing landings.

Captain of the University of Washington crew in 1951, Walters was chosen a member of the 1951 All-American crew selected annually by the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. While in school, he was a member of the Big W Club, Varsity Boat Club, Oval Club, and Fir Tree.

Walters went on active duty following his graduation in 1951 and won his Navy wings last January.

GEORGE G. DOWD, George Washington, '51, is currently attending the Navy's Officer Candidate School in Newport, R. I. He expects to receive his commission this summer. A former president of Gamma Eta Chapter, he was a delegate to the 61st Karnea last summer.

JOHN W. ROBINSON, George Washington, '52, recently returned from Korea attendance on record; 10 local alumni members and one alumni visitor and 20 undergraduate Delt visitors, all from Northern colleges.

In addition to the pleasure of having so many fine young Northern Dels with us, we were especially pleased to have W. Harold Brenton, past national President of Delta Tau Delta and recently elected national president of the American Bankers Association.

Most of the credit for this record attendance goes to Gene Leonard and Don Van Buren. In addition to a talk by past President Brenton, our own Don Van Buren spoke in regard to the possibility of having the Karnea in Fort Lauderdale in 1956.

Undergraduates attending included: Bill Ash, Noel Black, and Harry Marson from Albion; Joe Somma, David Hunt, Dale Walker, Dick Surbrook, Tom Payne, Lynn Learey, Les Lash, Carver Hendrix, Phil Nixon, Don Boden, Nick MacCollum, and Dave Smith from Ohio Wesleyan; and Houston Sandford, Frank Dunne,

OFFICIAL JEWELERS

Delta Tau Delta Fraternity is served by three official jewelers. They are: L. G. Balfour Company, Attleboro, Massachusetts; Burr, Patterson & Auld Company, Detroit, Michigan; and Edwards, Haldeman and Company, Detroit, Michigan.

Only these three firms are authorized by the Fraternity to reproduce the Delta Tau Delta insignia in articles of jewelry.

Preston Seidel, Alexander Murdoch, and Todd Cornell from Lehigh.

Alumni who attended were: W. Harold Brenton, Iowa State, '20; Eugene Leonard, Baker, '30; John D. Ritchey, W. & J., '25; F. Laird Rickard, Florida, '29; Carl P. Weidling, Ohio State, '99; John S. Burwell, Florida, '27; Rolf S. Weidling, Georgia, '21; William A. Ogden, Jr., Cincinnati, '23; Dr. David R. Shull, Kansas State, '16; D. Arnold Phillips, W. & J., '25; and Phil H. Fairchild, Florida, '38.

PHIL H. FAIRCHILD

Topeka

Not much news to report from the Topeka alumni group this issue. We continue to have regular luncheon meetings the first Tuesday of the month. Our president, Gail Wilson, is on a vacation trip to California.

Our former president, Fred Conger, the manager of Radio Station WREN here in Topeka, has just returned from Florida, where he was a guest of the Naval Air Reserve, on a Media Orientation Cruise along with about 40 other radio and newspapermen from Kansas and Missouri.

Another member, Robert Mize, has recently opened his own office in Topeka as a C.P.A., and he has our best wishes for success in his new venture.

Our annual election is always held at our June meeting, when we hope to plan our usual summer picnic.

FRANK F. HOGUELAND

Tulsa

The Delta Chi Chapter of Oklahoma A. & M. College at Stillwater, Oklahoma, was host at the Founders Day Banquet on March 6. Pledges, actives, and alumni from both the Delta Alpha (University of Oklahoma) and Delta Chi Chapters gathered together at the new Student Union for an evening of good fellowship and reminiscing. Tulsa alumni in attendance were Jack Harlow, Bob Bates, Bob Dow, Bill Bauman, Gene Buchanan, Ronnie Johnson, Dale Edmondson, Claude Gordon, and Jack Stewart.

Distinguished Delt Bob Bates introduced the toastmaster, Charley Duffy, of Ponca City, who gave a brief summary of the growth of our Fraternity through the years. Ewing Gafford, of Lawton, Oklahoma, gave the Founders Day address. His theme was "What's the Use."

At the conclusion of the address, the Delta Alpha Glee Club sang several selections which topped off the banquet in grand style. The Dels returned to the chapter house for a musical interlude supplied by a Sooner combo from the Norman chapter.

Under the leadership of our president, Bob Dow, the Tulsa Delt Alumni Chapter has staged another social high light with our spring dance held in the Topaz Room of the Hotel Tulsa. The event was held April 4 with a wonderful crowd of Tulsa alumni, actives from both Delta Alpha and Delta Chi, and guests. As usual, when Dels get together, a fine time was had by all.

JAMES D. LIGHTBODY, famous Olympic star of early days.

Olympic Star Succumbs

JAMES D. LIGHTBODY, DePauw, '06; Chicago, '08, one of this nation's greatest athletes of all times, died on March 2, 1953.

Mr. Lightbody was widely known for his feat of winning three first places in one Olympic meet, which stands among the most remarkable individual Olympic performances of all time. The achievement is all the more significant because his victories were earned in distance races.

The great runner turned in his extraordinary solo performance in 1904 at St. Louis, where the 3rd Olympiad was held. He won the 800-meter run in 1:56, the fastest Olympic time to that date. He was first in the 1500-meter run with a time of 4:54, which also established an Olympic record. For his third gold medal he captured the 2500-meter steeplechase.

To top off his stellar performance, Lightbody ran as a member of the U. S. relay team that secured second place. He was also a member of the championship one-mile relay team. Scoring the greatest number of points of any participant, he was declared the Olympic Individual Champion of the 1904 Games.

He came back in 1906, at Athens, Greece, to retain his title as 1500-meter champion and garner his fourth gold medal.

Lightbody began his collegiate athletic career at DePauw University but transferred to Chicago University in order to compete against the nation's best distance runners. His Olympic point-scoring record was not equalled until 1936.

He expected to be entered in the Olympics at London in 1908, but an accident just two days before the Games completely ruined his chances. Following the London Olympics, he entered and won several invitational races in Europe and finally settled down as a student at the University of Berlin, Germany.

Here he continued his track activities and became not only the German champion but also the European champion at his favorite distances. So grateful were the Germans for the athletic pioneering that Lightbody has instilled, the famous Berlin Sports Club awarded him the Golden Eagle, the highest award of its kind, and which never before had been pinned upon a foreigner.

Mr. Lightbody's business career was in insurance and investment banking. He was a resident of Charleston, South Carolina, at the time of his death.

HERE YOU ARE, DELTS — A NEW SWEETHEART SONG!

"My Delta Tau Sweetheart"

*John Hummon
Delta Tau Chapter
Albion, Michigan*

My heart once longed for some - one to share my dreams with me. Through the lone - ly hours I wait - ed, with a wish in love to be. And then one night I found her, in the moonlight soft and low. Like an an - gel sent from hea - ven was the girl I longed to know. My Del - ta Tau Sweetheart has won my love it's true. Her love - li - ness en - dour - ing is fresh as morning dew. She is the golden reward of our in - ter - ni - ty.
 Del - ta Tau Sweetheart is the on - ly girl for me.

This song was written by JOHN HUMMON, Albion, '53, two years ago when he was a sophomore. Epsilon used it that year in the interfraternity sing and won first place. It has grown in popularity since that time and has been requested by other chapters. The author is a philosophy major at Albion. He plans to take up graduate work under a four-year scholarship at the University of Michigan. He will study international law.
