Introducing . . .

Delta Tau Delta's Twenty-Fourth President

By CHARLES T. BOYD, North Carolina, '21
Eighteenth President

FOR THE FIRST TIME in the Fraternity's long and eventful history, the son of a former President has been named to the office once held by his father.

At the Sixty-third Karnea held in Houston, Texas, in August, 1956, Francis M. Hughes, Ohio Wesleyan, '31, son of Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, Ohio Wesleyan, '89, deceased, was elected President of Delta Tau Delta.

In making this selection, the Fraternity honored itself as well as our new leader, as the Hughes name has been emblazoned in the history of the Fraternity during many years. Indeed, it is difficult to envision the progress and growth of the Fraternity to its present place of eminence and leadership in the college fraternity system without a knowledge and understanding of the many and varied contributions made by Bishop Hughes, Francis M. Hughes, and others bearing this illustrious name. It is a matter of real Fraternity interest that the Hughes family, beginning with the Bishop, has given us 19 members. It is believed that this is the largest number from any single family.

PRESIDENT 1899 TO 1901

Delta Tau Delta takes great pride in the career of Bishop Hughes, who gave to the Fraternity so much love and loyalty, and so much distinguished service. He was President from 1899 to 1901, Editor of THE RAINBOW, and a member of the Distinguished Service Chapter. He was responsible for a revision of the Ritual, and served in many other capacities. Nothing gave him greater pleasure than participation in the work of his beloved Fraternity. Although he held many positions of honor and trust in the framework of our organization, perhaps his greatest service was his constant and persistent elucidation of the meaning, worth, and value of Delta Tau Delta, and of fraternity, as he appeared at Delt functions throughout the nation and as he went about from place to place in connection with his work in the Methodist Church. He never failed in his loyalty, interest, and devotion, even to the day of his death. Bishop Hughes never tired of speaking of the moral idealism of Delta Tau Delta, referring to it as the Beacon Light of the Fraternity.

President FRANCIS M. HUGHES

"DELT PEDIGREE"

With this background and connection, which "Fran" refers to as his "Delt Pedigree," it was only natural and logical that our new President should rise rapidly in the work of the Fraternity. This he has done, with the happy result that the Fraternity now has at its head a man versed in Delt history and tradition and thoroughly familiar with its organization and objectives.

He comes to the Presidency in his own right as well as by virtue of a great name and a great heritage. Francis Hughes is a man of ability, integrity, courage, sympathy, and religious devotion. As a brother Delt, his interests have extended through his family connections and have come to fruition at the undergraduate, graduate, and national levels. Deltas everywhere welcome him in his new position, the highest honor the Fraternity can bestow.

INDIANAPOLIS ATTORNEY

Fran is a lawyer and lives and practices in Indianapolis. The family residence is 706 Sherwood Drive. His wife is the former Bettina Beach, who is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma from Ohio Wesleyan. Her father is Donald E. Beach, Ohio Wesleyan, '04. Mr. Beach has for many years been associated with Branch Rickey, also Ohio Wesleyan, '04, they having been classmates at Ohio Wesleyan.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes have three children: Donald E. Hughes, a junior at Ohio Wesleyan, and, of course, a member of Mu Chapter; David Hughes; and Sharon Ann Hughes. President Hughes has two Delt brothers, both from Mu Chapter: Edwin Holt Hughes, II, and Ebbert M. Hughes. Because of these connections, and others, Francis Hughes is inextricably tied in with Ohio Wesleyan University and Mu Chapter.

Following graduation from Ohio Wesleyan in 1931, Francis entered the Law School of the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, from which he was graduated in 1934. He then began the practice of law in Indianapolis. His firm is Barney & Hughes. His partner, John Barney, is a Delt from Butler University. Edwin Holt Hughes, III, a nephew, and a Delt from DePauw and Indiana Universities, is also a member of the firm. Barney & Hughes engages in the general practice of law, specializing in real estate law. Mr. Hughes has been very successful in the practice of his chosen profession.

Like his father before him, Mr. Hughes is a Methodist, and is recognized as one of the most active laymen of that church in the United States. A few years ago he received an award at the Indiana Conference for his services to the church. He is constantly associated with some religious project and gives to the church much of his time and energy. He is also interested in educational, civic, and philanthropic projects.

KNOWN AS A GREAT DELT

To be a member of an outstanding family, a successful lawyer, an active churchman, and an interested civic and educational worker—these are sufficient attributes and achievements to constitute a full and well-rounded career for even an exceptional man, but we, as Delts, prefer not to think of Francis Hughes as a lawyer, as a churchman, or as a pillar of the community. We prefer to think of him as a great Delt, for in this field we have our closest association with him, and we know that in this field he has labored long and well and has achieved much.

Francis Hughes was undoubtedly a Delt before he ever became a Delt by initiation. It could not have been otherwise, having grown up in the household of Bishop Hughes. However, all relationships have to be formalized, and Fran, having entered Ohio Wesleyan University, was initiated by Mu Chapter on February 22, 1928. While a student at Ohio Wesleyan, he held several chapter offices, including that of president. A member of the class of '31, he earned numerous college honors, including Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Delta Kappa, and Pi Delta Epsilon, the latter a journalism honorary.

In recent years, as an alumnus, he served a term as president of the Ohio Wesleyan Alumni Association.

SUPERVISOR OF SCHOLARSHIP

After graduation, Fran continued his active interest in the Fraternity. He served as secretary-treasurer of the Northern Division for many years. He has been president of the Indianapolis Alumni Chapter. He was General Chairman of the Fifty-ninth Karnea held at French Lick, Indiana, in August, 1948.

At the Fraternity's national level, Mr. Hughes served as Vice-President from 1948 to 1950 and as Supervisor of Scholarship from 1950 to 1956. Since 1944 he has served as legal counsel for the Fraternity. He was elected President on August 18, 1956, at the Houston Karnea.

THREE GENERATIONS OF DELTS are represented in this photograph taken in 1940 on the DePauw University campus. The late BISHOP EDWIN HOLT HUGHES (center) was President of the Fraternity at the turn of the century. More than 50 years later, his son, FRANCIS M. HUGHES (right), has assumed the Presidency. EDWIN HOLT HUGHES, III, DePauw, '43 (left), is grandson of Bishop Hughes, nephew of the new President, and in his own right a Delt of whom the Fraternity will hear a good deal in the future.

EDWIN HOLT HUGHES, Ohio Wesleyan, '89, as he looked to the Fraternity in 1899-1901, when he served as President of Delta Tau Delta.

FRANCIS M. HUGHES, Ohio Wesleyan, '31, as he looked in undergraduate days, when he was serving as president of Mu Chapter at Ohio Wesleyan.

Delta Tau Delta guards zealously its position in the Fraternity world and undertakes to bring into its leadership men who are conversant with the workings of the fraternity system in general and who know thoroughly its own procedures and operations. Through his years of fraternity work, Francis Hughes has developed a love for and devotion to fraternity, as such, in addition to his great love for his own Fraternity. In serving Delta Tau Delta he has served the membership of all fraternities.

One of Fran's particular attributes has been his willingness to carry out all assignments given to him, whether they be large or small, and regardless of the labor and minutiae involved.

Delts Win Gold Medals

By RICHARDS D. BARGER, Indiana, '49

Three new Olympic records established as four Delt participants gain top awards in their events in 1956 Games at Melbourne.

WHEN ALL THE FINAL reports came in from the 16th Olympiad in Melbourne, Australia, this year as in years past, Delts from the United States brought home more than their share of gold, silver, and bronze medals.

Leading the field of Delt competitors was Al Oerter, Kansas, who won a first-place gold medal in the discus, leading a United States sweep in that event. Not only did Oerter pull the upset of the day in defeating Fortune Gordien, but he also won the event with a throw of 184' 10½", a new Olympic record.

Oerter looks like a good bet for the next Olympiad also, for he's just a sophomore at the University of Kansas. A native of New Jersey, he chose the Midwest for his education.

Another Delt who made quite a record for himself at Melbourne is Thane Baker, Kansas State. Baker came away with gold, silver, and bronze awards.

The gold medal he won as a member of the world and Olympic record breaking United States 400-meter relay team. He won his silver medal for his second place for the United States in the 100-meter dash, and his bronze medal was won for his third-place finish in the United States sweep of the 200-meter dash. Some record in anyone's book!

In a post-Olympic event run in Australia, Thane Baker was a member of the United States 800-yard relay team that broke the world's record for that distance.

Two more Delts who brought home gold medals are Ron Tomsic, Stanford, and Bob Jeangerard, Colorado, both of whom were members of the winning United States basketball team. In several of their games against international competition, Tomsic and Jeangerard were high point men. The United States court representatives set a new Olympic single game scoring record in defeating the Philippines by the score of 121 to 53 in the round-robin tournament.

Rounding out the list of Delt com-

Delt RON TOMSIC, Stanford, '56, drives in for a lay-up against the Philippine team at Melbourne in a game which established a new Olympic record. The United States won 121-53. Philippine players are L. Marquicias (9) and A. Villamor (10).

Delt BOB JEANGERARD (13), Colorado, '55, goes high in the air to score against the Japanese team at Melbourne. The United States won 98-40 and went on to capture the Olympic crown. Jeangerard and Tomsic were key scorers.

petitors at Melbourne were Bill Ross, U. S. C., and Bob Frojen, Stanford, both members of the fifth-place United States water polo team. This sport is usually dominated by the teams from Eastern Europe, and this year the United States aggregation did a good job in holding its own against fast competition.

Ross was a member of the swimming team at U. S. C. and was a member of the water polo team there. He was with the team that competed in the Pan American games in Mexico in 1955. This year, as a member of the winning Southern California Swim Club water polo team, he made the trip to Melbourne.

Frojen while attending Stanford University was captain of the swimming team and was a member of the water polo team. The team he competed on four years ago just missed going to Helsinki in 1952. He too was a member of the United States water polo team that competed in the Pan American games in Mexico City, and he was also on the Southern California Swim Club water polo team that won the Olympic tryouts in Los Angeles.

Al Oerter's gold medal in the discus event continues the tradition of top-flight Delta performances which began back in 1904 when the late James D. Lightbody, DePauw, '06, & Chicago, '08, turned in one of the most remarkable individual performances of all time. In that Olympiad, he won three gold medals, scoring firsts in the 800-meter run, the 1500-meter run, and the 2500-meter steeplechase.

Mr. Lightbody returned in 1906 to win his fourth gold medal by retaining his title in the 1500-meter run.

Another gold-medal winner was Robert W. King, Stanford, '28, who captured the high jump title in 1928. Clark Scholes, Michigan State, '52, won a gold medal in 1952 for his victory in the 100-meter free-style swim.

All in all, the Delts who competed in the 16th Olympiad at Melbourne, Australia, acquitted themselves quite well. We believe, however, that they will remember the words of Baron Pierre de Coubertin, who stated, "The important thing in the Olympic games is not winning, but taking part. The essential thing is not to conquer, but fighting well."

Three New Delt Governors

By HERBERT R. HILL,
Butler, '22

Governor of Indiana

THE NEW GOVERNOR of the state of Indiana is a member of Beta Alpha Chapter of Delta Tau Delta, class of '32. Thus he becomes yet one more wearer of the Square Badge who has achieved distinction in the field of public service.

Harold W. Handley was born in LaPorte, Indiana, in 1909. His grandfather was a pioneer furniture manufacturer there, and in turn his father, Harold L. Handley, conducted the business.

The future Governor of Indiana was graduated from LaPorte High School in 1928, and then chose to go downstate to Indiana University to be graduated with an A.B. in economics in 1932.

Returning to LaPorte, he engaged for the next 10 years in the wholesale furniture business. He also organized and became the first chairman of the LaPorte Young Republican Club.

Thereafter in many ways his career rather paralleled that of another Beta Alpha graduate, William E. Jenner. Like Senator Jenner, Handley ran for the Indiana Senate, and was elected in 1941. Like Jenner, he entered the United States Army in 1942. Like Jenner, he returned to an active political career after the war.

Handley had been active in ROTC at Indiana University. So he went into the Army as a first lieutenant. Four years later, having served a long hitch in the Infantry (85th), he emerged as a lieutenant colonel.

Back in civilian life, Handley became midwest sales representative of the Kling Motion Picture and Television Studios of Chicago and Hollywood and also vice-president of B. N. Darling Associates. Then, in 1948, he ran for the same seat in the Indiana Senate from which he had resigned in 1942 when he went into uniform.

Handley served in the Indiana Senate from LaPorte and Starke Counties in the regular sessions of 1949 and 1951, and also in the special session of 1951 in which Indiana defied Washington bureaucrats to seize control of local administration of public welfare.

He was elected Lieutenant Governor of Indiana in 1952. This position also made him State Commissioner of Commerce and Industry, State Commissioner of Agriculture, Chairman of the State Legislative Advisory Commission, and a member of a number of boards and commissions.

As Commissioner of Commerce, Handley co-ordinated a campaign which has resulted in bringing more than one new industry per week to Indiana. As Commissioner of Agriculture, he made more than 800 public appearances in every Indiana county.

Then, in June of 1956, he won the Republican nomination for Governor. On November 6 he received more than 1,000,000 votes—first Hoosier nominee for Governor ever to poll that total—and won by a majority of more than 227,000 votes in a state which is noted for its close political contests.

Handley becomes Governor for a four-year term on January 14, 1957.

Despite his many official duties, and his seemingly tireless, incessant travel throughout the state, Handley has found time for numerous civic duties. In 1953 he was chairman of the State Mental Health Fund Campaign which won Indiana first place national rating.

Handley is a devoted member of Meridian Heights Presbyterian Church in Indianapolis, and a member of the Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite, Shrine, Elks, Eagles, Moose, Lions, and American Legion.

While at Camp Young in California, Handley met a Red Cross worker from Wisconsin whom he married on February 17, 1944. They have two children—Kenneth, age 11, and Martha, age 8. He is a good fisherman and is a devotee of classical music. But his most widely known forte is as a public speaker.

Hard work, a winning personality, an easy conversational style of speaking, and an all-round knowledge of government gave Handley his latest political victory. He stressed "constitutionalism and moderation" in his 1956 campaign. He was supported enthusiastically by AFL labor unions, business groups, farm organizations, and veterans' organizations.

Three weeks after his election Handley observed his 47th birthday with a speech to 1,500 Indiana business leaders at the annual luncheon of the State Chamber of Commerce. He will emerge from the Indiana Governor's chair just turned 51. And he will have an unusual and broad experience behind him, eager and able for other jobs still ahead.

Governor of Kansas

ONE OF THE MOST remarkable victories of the 1956 elections was that of George Docking, Gamma Tau (Kansas), '25, the first Democrat to be elected Governor of Kansas in twenty years, and one of the very few Democrats ever elected to state office in that normally "one-party" state. Factional strife in the Republican Party had made Docking's election a possibility, by a small margin. Actually, Docking defeated his opponent by 115,000 in a total vote of 834,000. He ran only 87,000 behind the President, on the opposite ticket, and 183,000 ahead of Mr. Stevenson. To those who know Kansas, these figures indicate a remarkable confidence in the man himself. Delts of Gamma Tau have known the basis for that feeling for many years.

Governor Docking was a "town boy," a resident of Lawrence, when he attended the University of Kansas, from which he was graduated in 1925. He was initiated into the Fraternity in Gamma Tau Chapter, and participated in its activities until his graduation.

While still on the Hill, he met Virginia Blackwell, a member of Gamma Phi Beta, who became his wife. It was often stated that Mrs. Docking was an even more vigorous campaigner than her husband. Together, they thoroughly covered a large state.

After a few years in Kansas City and Topeka, Governor Docking returned to Lawrence in 1931 as cashier of the First National Bank, of which he has been president since 1942.

The return to Lawrence was early in the most difficult peacetime period Gamma Tau has faced. Chartered only in 1914, and competing with chapters as much as forty years older, it had erected and occupied its then commodious present home in 1927, complete with the outsized mortgages usual at that period. When the house was erected and budgeted, fraternity houses in Kansas were exempt from taxation, but that decision was shortly overruled. At the same time, there was a substantial shrinkage of enrollment at the University. The students who did enroll had very little money, so that few of them were able to afford such luxuries as fraternity house bills of even $45.00 per month. The result was hard times for Gamma Tau.

Governor Docking took an active interest in the welfare of Gamma Tau from his return to Lawrence. Early in 1932 its difficulties caused it to be placed on probation, as was the practice in those days. Docking was appointed one of the three members of the alumni committee appointed to supervise the affairs of the chapter, and to guide it to a resolution of its difficult problems. Before the summer was over he had become acting chairman, by reason of the removal from the area of both the other members. Doubtless partly because the chapter was indebted to the First National Bank, Docking did not become chairman, but continued as the only member resident in Lawrence, and therefore the most active member, under the chairmanship of Martin B. Dickinson. Docking continued as a member of the committee through Dickinson's chairmanship, which ended shortly after he became President of the Western Division, in late 1933, and thereafter until long after the chapter had been removed from probation, in 1934, the Alumni Supervisory Committee being continued. Docking's work was vital to the success of the chapter in meeting its problems well enough to stay alive in that difficult period, so long ago that few remember how impossible it seemed to keep going.

Governor Docking has maintained his warm association with Gamma Tau through the years, with frequent financial advice and consultation with the undergraduate chapter, and more recently, appearance as principal speaker at its special occasions. The undergraduate chapter dedicated the 1955 edition of its annual publication, The Keltz, to him.

Governor Docking has also fulfilled his responsibility to his college. As treasurer of the University of Kansas Student House Association for 14 years, he aided in the purchase of and payment for five residences, housing 160 students working their way through the University. As a non-profit cooperative organization, this association of working students bought and paid for these houses without outside solicitation or donations. This was essentially the same operation as applies to the acquisition of fraternity houses, except that the latter may have some aid from their own alumni and from their national organizations.

Both houses of the Kansas legislature are over two-thirds Republican, so Governor Docking will not have a free hand. His first comment was that he expected to be able to get along and work with the politically hostile majority in the legislature. Among the Delts in that majority are at least two State Senators who are Gamma Tau men, Theodore A. Sanborn, '26, and Glee S. Smith, '43.

Gamma Tau Deltas know that the state of Kansas will be well run the next two years, so far as the Governor can do it. That confidence is based on George Docking's record as a loyal Delt.

Governor of Oregon

ROBERT D. HOLMES, Oregon, '32, a relative newcomer to politics but a candidate nonetheless with great personal popularity, won Oregon's highest office in the November elections. A Democrat, he upset the incumbent Republican Governor, Elmo Smith, following a lively race.

Governor Holmes, who lives in Gearhart, Oregon, and manages Radio Station KAST in Astoria, first entered politics in 1948. At that time he changed his registration from Republican to Democrat and ran for election to the state senate. He won that race and has won every succeeding contest that he has entered, and he has served the legislature since 1948 as the first Democratic senator from Clatsop County since 1884.

As a state senator, he earned almost instant recognition and began his ascent as a person of importance and popularity with both sides of the aisle. He served on the powerful ways and means committee and particularly distinguished himself for his solid support of education and the state school system. In 1953, Oregon teachers named him "Citizen of the Year" in recognition of his work on the senate education committees.

His successful political career has been marked time and again by his firm adherence to his convictions, with disregard for political expediency. He voted, for example, for the coloring of margarine, despite the fact that he represented leading dairy counties in the state. He voted against a loyalty oath for teachers at a time when public sentiment stood solidly on the opposite side. In the long run, however, he was admired for his honesty and forthrightness.

The new Governor was born in Canisteo, New York, on May 11, 1909. He was graduated from West High School in Rochester, New York, in 1925, where he played a good deal of football. The following year his family moved to Portland, Oregon.

He entered the University in 1928 to study journalism, with emphasis on advertising. As a pledge of Gamma Rho Chapter, he made such good grades that he was honored by the Portland Alumni Chapter's model initiation. Two years later he was elected chapter president at Eugene and served a successful term in that office.

Governor Holmes left school during the depression to work in various advertising agencies in Portland. He also did sales promotion for the Portland Gas & Coke Company before going to Bioproducts, Inc., at Astoria as sales manager of the vitamin firm in 1937. While at Bioproducts, he published Columbia Empire Furs, a Northwest trade magazine that went to mink and fox ranchers.

In 1943 he returned to advertising and radio when he went to work for Station KAST in Astoria. In a few years he rose to the position of station manager. He also became a constructive citizen of the community, where he has been chairman of the school board and president of the Astoria Rotary Club.

One of the most likable political traits of Bob Holmes, say his friends, is his ability to wage a light-hearted campaign. He seldom if ever reflects tension and has the knack of keeping people around him relaxed and cheerful in times of stress. Endowed with a natural love of singing, he even wrote campaign songs for some of the Democratic leaders.

The Governor is described as a "warm, approachable person," whose optimism and good humor never fail him. His political differences with people have never prevented him from remaining on close and friendly terms with them. Actually, some of his staunchest supporters are found in the opposite political camp.

Portland Deltas are most proud of their new Delt Governor and are planning a celebration dinner in his honor some time during January or February.

The Holmes home, a modest rural dwelling, is situated on ten acres of Clatsop peat bog at Gearhart. Here Governor Holmes and his charming wife enjoy receiving their many friends, and here, too, they enjoy their sons, their daughter-in-law, and their new granddaughter. The sons are Robert, Jr., 21, and John, 18. The daughter-in-law is Sarah, or Mrs. Robert, Jr., and the granddaughter is Deborah.

Mrs. Holmes, incidentally, turned out to be quite a campaigner herself. At first, she said, she felt somewhat shy about campaigning, but when she found that she was treated with friendliness the state over, she really put her shoulder to the wheel and found that she enjoyed it.

Governor Holmes was first encouraged to enter politics by the late Dr. Will Charles Davis, Portland physician and onetime Newport newspaper owner. Dr. Davis predicted in 1948 that Bob Holmes would some day be Governor of the state.

He was also a close friend of the late State Senator Merle Chessman. A Republican and editor and publisher of the Astorian-Budget, Chessman died before finishing his term. Mr. Holmes was elected to the term and served during the 1949 session.

In being elected to serve out the term of the late Governor Paul Patterson, the new Governor begins a paradoxical cycle of having been elected to complete the unfinished terms of two friends at both the legislative and executive levels of government.

Another Supreme Court Justice

With the appointment of William J. Brennan, Jr., two Delts now serve on the nation's highest judicial body.

JUDGE WILLIAM J. BRENNAN, JR., Pennsylvania, '28, New Jersey jurist, was chosen by President Eisenhower late in September to serve on the United States Supreme Court. He joins another Delt—Tom C. Clark, Texas, '22—as a member of the nation's highest judicial body.

Judge Brennan is serving under recess appointment, pending confirmation by the Senate. He fills the vacancy created by the retirement on October 15 of former Associate Justice Sherman Minton.

Formerly a member of the Supreme Court of New Jersey, the new Justice comes to the post with a record of distinguished service behind him. As chairman of the New Jersey Court's Committee on Calendar Control, he did a great deal of work to relieve congested court calendars in that state. It was said that he received high endorsements from many legal authorities, and it was understood that President Eisenhower had asked for the records of all federal judges and state Supreme Court members to help guide him before reaching a decision.

Prior to his appointment to the New Jersey Supreme Court on March 19, 1953, Judge Brennan was a member of the appellate division of the New Jersey Supreme Court. Before that he had been assigned to the trial division of that court. At the age of 50, he is the youngest member of the Supreme Court at this time.

A native of Newark, New Jersey, Judge Brennan attended public schools in New Jersey and was graduated from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, with a B.S. in economics in 1928. He was graduated from Harvard Law School in 1931 and became associated with a Newark law firm in 1937. He eventually became a partner in the firm of Pitney, Hardin, Ward & Brennan.

In 1942 he entered the Army as a major and was assigned to legal work in the ordnance division. He later had assignments with the labor-manpower branch of Army ordnance and worked under James P. Mitchell, then chief of the industrial personnel division, Army Service Forces. Mitchell is now Secretary of Labor. Brennan was decorated with the Legion of Merit for his wartime service.

Judge Brennan is a member of the American Bar Association, New Jersey State Bar Association, and the American Judicature Society. A member of the Catholic Church, he is also affiliated with the Holy Name Society. He is a trustee of Newark College of Engineering.

He was married in 1928 to the former Marjorie Leonard of Orange, New Jersey. They have three children—William J., III, 23, a Marine lieutenant; Hugh, 20; and Nancy, 7.

Among those present for installation ceremonies in Washington, D.C., was Justice Brennan's former roommate at the Delta Shelter in Philadelphia. He is David D. Palmer, Pennsylvania, '29, of Davenport, Iowa.

It is a unique circumstance for two members of the same fraternity to serve simultaneously on the Supreme Court. Associate Justice Clark received his appointment during the summer of 1949. Prior to his elevation to the high court, he had served four years as Attorney General of the United States.

In recent years, Mr. Clark has been honored as principal speaker at two of Delta Tau Delta's national conventions: the French Lick Karnea of 1948 and the Houston Karnea last August.

All Delt Football Line-up, 1956

Sharpen your pencil and have a try at selecting your own All Delt All America eleven.

BOYD DOWLER, sophomore quarterback at Colorado, star of the 1957 Orange Bowl.

DELTA FOOTBALL fortunes for the 1956 season were paced by five team captains and outstanding individual performances by Delta Tau Delta's grid-iron representatives.

Team captains or co-captains included Guards Jim Murphy of Nebraska and Larry Seidl of Western Reserve and three quarterbacks—Max Galler of Lawrence, Frank Ellwood of Ohio State, and Richard Fleaser of Kenyon.

Among the rank and file of other Delt performers were all-conference selections, most valuable players, leading ground gainers, and the like—plus representatives in all four of the major Bowl games on New Year's Day.

Here is your official Delt program:

QUARTERBACKS

The All Delt eleven has abundant material in the strategy department, including our three team captains. Ellwood of Ohio State, moreover, won a position on the Scholastic All American, and Dowler, only a sophomore, paced Colorado to a victory in the Orange Bowl classic. Erway, president of Nebraska's "N" Club, would doubtless have been All Big Seven if he had not been sidelined with a knee injury.

First String: Don Erway, Nebraska; Richard Fleaser, Kenyon; Max Galler, Lawrence; Boyd Dowler, Colorado; and Franklin Ellwood, Ohio State.

Reserve: "Poss" Ellenburg, T.C.U.; Max Schmitt, Minnesota; William B. Hayes, Brown; and Thomas M. Good, Lafayette.

HALFBACKS

High on the list for the halfback position would be Northwestern's McKiever, who earned All Big Ten honors. Gorgodian and McTigue were Brown's leading ground gainers. Keith Brown has been Kenyon's leading scorer for two years. Hillsdale's Borgne won All MIAA honors, while W. & L.'s Briscoe was named "most valuable" in last season's Homecoming game.

First String: Corky Briscoe, W. & L.; Robert McKiever, Northwestern; Keith Schroeder, DePauw; Keith Brown, Kenyon; Jim Lee, Baker; John McTigue, Brown; George Gor-

ENDS

Fred Kriss, another fine student at Ohio State, was a member of the 1955 Scholastic All American. Bob Jewett, Michigan State, turned in an outstanding performance in the 1956 Rose Bowl but missed action this year with a leg injury. Roger Chancey, West Virginia, was rated one of the best wingmen in the East this year.

Tennessee pledges gain unique experience as they run their own show in Delta Delta Chapter to assure strong future leadership on Knoxville campus.

By ROBERT E. LEE, JR., Tennessee, '51

A SOMEWHAT UNIQUE experiment is under way this year at the University of Tennessee's Delta Delta Chapter as pledges are "running the show" while their actives sit placidly on the sidelines like proud mother hens.

Primary reason behind this unusual departure is the nature of the pledge class itself.

While there are only 18 men, they are generally considered one of the best pledge groups on the Tennessee campus, and they are reported by Resident Adviser Fred Smithwick, Jr., to be "18 potential chapter presidents."

Smithwick has been at Tennessee only a few weeks now, but already is affectionately termed "Aunt Freda" by these young new Delts. He has helped organize this "pledge-operated chapter" on a very efficient committee system which places virtually the entire pledge group in responsible positions of leadership.

Handling over-all steering and planning is an administrative committee whose chairman is social chairman as well. Secretary of the committee is also chairman of the publicity committee.

Other committee chairmen are also members of the over-all committee. The committees are designated alumni, rush, intramurals, activities, and house.

These outstanding pledges are determined that they shall all be initiated together at the beginning of the winter quarter. If their aspirations become reality, they will be one of the few groups of pledges of Delta Tau Delta (or any other fraternity) ever to become "actives" without ever having known the unpleasant life of "the pledge."

Maybe this will be surveyed by some as a rather far-fetched reward. But Tennessee Delts are extremely proud of these men.

As an example of their far-sightedness, this pledge class conceived early this quarter some plans for their Delta Shelter which would relegate separate and distinct fraternity activities to separate and distinct Shelter areas.

When they had the chance to explain their plan to the alumni house corporation, they were met with an eager response which will see the realization of their dreams by the time the winter quarter begins following Christmas vacations.

Plans called for converting the entire third floor of the Shelter into library study quarters, confining all sleeping and dressing to the second floor, and retaining the main floor and basement for recreational activities and entertaining.

The Delta Delta Plan is somewhat unique for chapter houses, and is now visualized as a valuable rushing asset as well as a vital contribution to the chapter's scholarship record.

The third floor study room will provide individual compartments for each man living in the Shelter. The walls are knotty pine and the ceiling is re-finished with acoustic tile. Fluorescent lights bathe the entire area with shadowless light for minimum eye-strain.

The room is heated with electric units and is equipped with a new four-ton air conditioner.

Little wonder that the men who will enjoy these facilities visualize highly successful supervised study sessions in an atmosphere which will surely be conducive to the highly desirable "will to study."

This news was met with eager response by the many alumni of Delta Delta who came to the chapter's 32nd Annual Homecoming this November 3.

For this meant that three decades of an outstanding chapter's record would be continued in strong fashion.

Mute reminders of this background are evidenced in the cups and plaques at the Shelter which were won for first-place scholarship records, for winning the student All-Sing, the highly competitive Carnicus competition, and the Homecoming decorations.

Some of the men who contributed to this past record at Tennessee are continuing to leave marks on the business world.

Alan Mims Thomason, '31, is now vice-president of the United Press Association. Gordon A. Gaskill, '34, was until recently in an editing position with American Magazine, and most lately has had some creative fiction presented on television.

John Fisher, II, '38, is vice-president of Indiana's Ball Brothers Company, and Horace L. Harper, '28, is president of his Knoxville Paper Box Company. B. Y. Morris, '23, is assistant manager of the Rain & Hail Department of the Aetna Insurance Group, Chicago.

TACKLES

Dick Guy, still another Ohio State scholar, placed on last year's Scholastic All American. Bibb of W. & J. received Tri State honors. Zwahlen of Oregon State played an outstanding defensive role in the 1957 Rose Bowl.

First String: Dick Nordmeyer, Illinois; Andy Cverko, Northwestern; Kurt Riesler, Kenyon; Douglas Potts, Alabama; James Harmon, Albion;

BOB HARDY, Kentucky's fine All Conference quarterback of last season, now a law school student.

James Bibb, W. & J.; and Richard Guy, Ohio State.

Reserve: Paul Adams, Illinois; Dick Cross, DePauw; Dave Krause, DePauw; Don Moore, Kentucky; Roger Sharp, Missouri; James Woods, Ohio;

Ernie Zwahlen, Oregon State; and Alex Nagy, Ohio State.

GUARDS

Two team captains were Jim Murphy and Larry Seidl. Seidl was selected Western Reserve's "outstanding lineman" and named to the all conference team. Murphy was widely regarded as the best performer in the Cornhuskers' forward wall. "Most valuable player" awards were voted to both Turner of DePauw and Conway of Kenyon.

CENTERS

Among the best pivotmen is Brown's Carolan, iron man of the Bruin squad. In 1955 he played a total of 433 minutes, more than any other Brown player.

First String: Pete Doyle, W. & L.; Peter Peterson, Allegheny; Chuck Brown, Baker; Walt Bredeson, Lawrence; Raymond Molsen, Western Reserve; Herman Maschman, Western Reserve; and Richard Carolan, Brown.

Reserve: Dan Smith, Kenyon; Robert Stevenson, Kenyon; Dan Davis, Idaho; Russell Jeffery, Idaho; Fred Wicke, Baker; Richard Johnston, Albion; Dan Peterson, U.C.-L.A.; Jim McKim, Colorado; Tom Anderson, Michigan State; Wallace Hood, Ohio Wesleyan; and Joe Roe, Tennessee.

PRESIDING at the fall event was VINCE BAILEY, Albion, '31, president of the Toledo Alumni Chapter.

THE FALL STAG PARTY sponsored by the Toledo Alumni Chapter for Deltas of the Toledo area brought 52 brothers from 23 different chapters to the Sylvania Country Club on November 8 for a genuine, old-fashioned fellowship session to spark the new leadership of the chapter.

Vince Bailey, Epsilon, '31, is president, succeeding Herbert M. Sharp, Gamma Beta, '05, and Fred Hibbert, Mu, '52, is the new secretary-treasurer, succeeding his father Wilfrid, Mu, '18.

Bob Patneau, Kappa, '36, was in good voice and led the singing around the banquet board—which also revived many memories drifting back over about a half-century.

So soon after the election, of course, there were echoes of the big political hurricanes of recent weeks and through the talks of speakers ran humorous and serious threads of discussion about freedoms, constitutional issues, rights, and patriotism. Toledo Councilman John Yager, Delta, '42, was given a thorough fourth degree concerning local affairs at the bull session following the main events. Brother Yager proved equal to the occasion.

Guest of honor was Clem Frank, Zeta, Cleveland, and he was introduced by his long-time buddy, Judge Donald C. Van Buren, also Zeta, now presiding over the Court of the Common Pleas, Fulton County, at Wauseon, Ohio.

At the speakers' table were: VINCE BAILEY, alumni chapter head; CLEMENS R. FRANK, Western Reserve, '19, guest speaker from Cleveland; and Judge DONALD C. VAN BUREN, Western Reserve, '11, from Wauseon.

Around the banquet board (left to right) are: DR. ERNEST BACH, Hillsdale, '14; DR. LAWRENCE C. JACKSON, Kenyon, '08; ROBERT PATNEAU, Hillsdale, '14; FRANK POWELL, Michigan, '14; WILLIAM SCHOMBURG, Michigan, '14; and HUBERT PAUL, Kansas, '17.

Photographs by LYMAN CLOSE, Illinois Tech, '15.

The Judge allowed that it was the first time in his recollection that he had ever had a chance to talk ahead of Clem so he could at least have the choice of his few remarks.

But they both dove-tailed their talks into a fine plea for a return to sound American patriotism through such institutions as Delta Tau Delta, as representative of the finest in American tradition.

They interpreted some actions of the Houston Karnea and recent Fraternity developments in a fine spirit of legal discussion and judicial consideration which gave a big lift to the Toledo Deltas.

The Rev. R. Malcolm Ward, Chi,

'22, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Maumee, gave the group an appraisal of what a college fraternity had meant to him in shaping his life and his ecclesiastic career.

Some color movies of outdoor sport, shown by Bob Evans, Beta, '34, provided an entertainment feature.

Incidentally, the gathering fattened up the local treasury a bit and paid off big dividends in renewed acquaintanceships among the alumni of Delta Tau Delta in these parts of Ohio.

Other out-of-town guests included Ed Heminger and Gordon Macklin from Findlay and Roger Small from Defiance.

Publication Awards to Mu and Gamma Iota

CHAPTER PUBLICATIONS awards for the college year 1955-56 were announced last fall as follows:

MAGAZINE FORMAT

FIRST PLACE

Duplicate Awards to
Mu (Ohio Wesleyan)
Gamma Iota (Texas)

HONORABLE MENTION

Gamma Pi (Iowa State)
Gamma Tau (Kansas)
Delta Alpha (Oklahoma)
Delta Eta (Alabama)
Delta Lambda (Oregon State)

NEWSPAPER FORMAT

No first-place award made

HONORABLE MENTION

Mu (Ohio Wesleyan)
Nu (Lafayette)
Phi (W. & L.)
Beta Psi (Wabash)
Gamma Psi (Georgia Tech)

The first-place award consists of a $50 cash prize, to be invested in furnishings or equipment suitable for a chapter hall or chapter house.

Editors of Mu Chapter's prize-winning magazine were Bill Armstrong, Dave Davis, Don Hughes, and Ed Whipps. Bill Armstrong was also one of the editors of last year's prize-winning publication from Mu Chapter.

Editor of Gamma Iota's publication, The Texas Delts, was Johnny Stuart, who last year contributed two feature stories to THE RAINBOW.

Although Gamma Iota has frequently in years past scored in the honorable mention column, this award marks the first time that the chapter has achieved first prize.

Mu Chapter is a repeat winner from last year and in the newspaper format classification has been in the first-prize column on two previous occasions. Mu won the first award for newspapers in 1937-38 and was co-winner in 1946-47.

The committee declined selecting a first prize in the newspaper format division because it was felt that entries submitted for 1955-56 did not measure up, either in frequency of issue or general effectiveness of presentation, to a standard consistent with previous award winners.

Awards for undergraduate chapter publications were established in 1937.

As a guide to chapters competing for the annual publications award, the awards committee suggests attention to the following points.

Winners are selected on the basis of general appeal and interest of material to alumni (or to rushees if the publication is also sent to prospective members); manner in which the material is written and edited; and attractiveness in typographical layout and printing. The number of issues presented during the college year is taken into consideration; however, more than three issues will not influence the award.

Chapters using professional services in publishing their papers or magazines are not eligible for the award, but the committee is authorized to confer honorable mention to such chapters.

Readers of the September 17 issue of Life magazine may have been surprised to see a photograph of BRANCH RICKEY, Ohio Wesleyan, '04, in which the well-known baseball executive was plainly still wearing his Karnea Hound badge which had identified him at the Houston Karnea.

Apparently the itinerant Mr. Rickey rushed directly from the Karnea to Estes Park, Colorado, to participate in the first national meeting of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Started two years ago, the organization endeavors to use the influence of sports heroes in spreading spiritual values among young people.

At the Estes Park meeting hundreds of young athletes came to receive religious guidance and tips on athletic technique from such celebrated experts as Mr. Rickey, Coaches Biggie Munn of Michigan State and Dean Cromwell of U. S. C., and pro football stars Doak Walker and Otto Graham.

Ed Dodd Rives With a Frow

ED DODD, Georgia Tech, '25, is at it again. Making interesting headlines, that is.

This time the well-known creator of the syndicated comic strip "Mark Trail" is gaining recognition for his efforts to restore some of the lost arts of America's pioneers.

The pioneers, Ed will tell you, had it rough. Out of necessity, they made things with their hands. They wove baskets of oak strips. They bottomed chairs with cowhide. They rived shingles out of a block with mallet and frow. (Editor's Note: Not a misprint. They really did rive with a frow.)

Ed Dodd, of course, does not have it rough. He feels, however, that someone must preserve the art of making things by hand, of materials from the field and wood, without the help of modern conveniences.

So it is that Mr. Dodd carries on with the lost arts at Lost Forest. Ed Dodd's Lost Forest, moreover, is the real-life counterpart of the Lost Forest which is depicted in his strip. It is 130 acres of rolling, rocky, wooded land which lies not much farther than stone-throwing distance from the Chattahoochee River, and likewise not much farther from Atlanta's northern limits.

Despite its proximity to the metropolis, Lost Forest is an almost untouched haven for the artist and the wildlife he likes to conserve. It is here that he is enlarging on his efforts to preserve the lost arts of the pioneers.

Only recently Mr. Dodd discovered an old gentleman who knows some of the vanishing secrets of getting shingles out of a white oak tree. A willing pupil, Ed learned how the bark of a tree must feel if it is to yield shingles freely. And now he has a frow—a dull, splitting instrument with which shingles are split from a block.

He has also learned how to split strips of white oak for chair bottoms and baskets from tender saplings. He has personally bottomed chairs with the cured hide of cows from Lost Forest.

Among other arts being recaptured, Ed is planning to make a pioneer hickory broom. He is also looking for someone who knows the secret of the corn shuck rug.

Mr. Dodd's preserved arts of the pioneers do not go unappreciated. He has a guest book which shows that 2,000 people from all over the country have visited Lost Forest to get a firsthand look.

Promoted to Major General

GENERAL OTIS O. BENSON, JR.

MAJOR GENERAL Otis O. Benson, Jr., Iowa, '29, Commandant of the Air Force School of Aviation Medicine, received word in October of his promotion from brigadier general by the President.

General Benson thus became one of only four major generals in the Air Force Medical Service.

The appointment is regarded as reflecting the increasing importance of the School, now at Randolph Air Force Base, as the medical branch of the Air University. General Benson returned from Air Force Headquarters in September to resume command of the institution.

Announcement has been made of the appropriation by Congress of $8,800,000 to build a new establishment for the School at Brooks AFB. The new installation, with greatly expanded facilities, will be a major center for teaching and research in the Air Force, and will call for a two-star general as its commander.

Only 54 years old, General Benson has a distinguished background in both medical education and research, as well as a notable record as Surgeon of the Air Forces in the Mediterranean during World War II. In his previous tour as Commandant, from 1949 to 1953, he was largely responsible for planning the new headquarters to be set up at Brooks.

For his medical contributions to the advancement of flying, General Benson has received the John Jeffries Award of the Institute of the Aeronautical Sciences and the Lyster Award of the Aero Medical Association. He is a former president of the Aero Medical Association, and is vice chairman for Aviation Medicine on the American Board of Preventive Medicine, which grants certificates to qualified specialists in aeromedicine.

Kansas Delt Selected Typical B47 Pilot

JAMES H. GOODELL, Kansas State, '44, has been selected the typical B47 test pilot as a result of a survey conducted by Boeing Airplane Company's Wichita Division.

Named "Mr. Average Pilot," Goodell is a 33-year-old veteran of nearly 17 years flying experience. Since soloing at Kansas City, Missouri, in 1938, he has logged approximately 4,500 hours in the air. Before joining Boeing four years ago, he flew for Trans World Airline out of Kansas City.

A native of Vesper, Kansas, Goodell is three years younger than the average age of the men who have accumulated thousands of hours putting the swept-wing, 600-mile-an-hour Boeing jets through their paces. As a college engineering graduate, the experimental pilot has somewhat more education than the average Boeing B47 crewman.

Mr. Goodell also recently joined the "1,000-hour Stratojet Club," one of the most select organizations in the aviation world. To qualify, of course, one must log at least 1,000 air hours in the Stratojet.

The Delt test pilot was one of four to pass the 1,000 mark. Logging the 4,000 miles which they accumulated between them is equivalent to remaining airborne approximately 24 weeks. Assuming that all of the flight time was at a 600-mile-an-hour speed, the distance covered would be equal to about 24 trips around the world.

The four Stratojet crewmen are part of a relatively small group of 30 pilots, co-pilots, and observers, most of whom are assigned to making production checkouts on each new bomber that rolls from the Boeing factory. Other members of the veteran group, who during the past five years have test hopped B47s a distance equivalent to more than nine trips to the moon, carry out experimental flight test programs on the 200,000-pound airplane.

Since the rollout of the first production Stratojet at Wichita in March, 1950, Boeing crews have accumulated about 11,000 hours, making almost 5,000 B47 flights. Based on an average speed of 460 miles per hour, they flew the aircraft about 4½ million miles.

Robert Hoover Roch was initiated by Epsilon Beta Chapter at Texas Christian University on May 6, 1956, with a straight "A" scholastic record.

Delt President

He gives thorough attention to every task which he undertakes.

President Hughes is an eloquent speaker and orator. He has appeared on the program at many Delt functions, including Founders Day banquets, alumni meetings, Karneas, Division Conferences, and other Delt assemblies. He is possessed of a dry wit, and most of his speeches contain some display of wit and humor. The composite of his speaking qualifications is an address listened to with great interest and pleasure by all his hearers.

It can quickly be seen from the foregoing that Francis M. Hughes, twenty-fourth President of Delta Tau Delta, is well prepared for the duties which are his to perform. The Fraternity is both privileged and fortunate to have him in command. Under his sound and inspiring leadership we may expect Delta Tau Delta to maintain its position as a great leader among American college fraternities. We extend to President Hughes our greetings and best wishes.

START OFF YEAR WITH SUCCESSFUL RUSH WEEK

Through the collective effort of an enthused chapter, guided by Rush Chairman Lew Oliver and President Ramon Perdue, Delta Eta emerged from one of her most successful rush weeks of recent years. A concentrated summer rush effort, together with fine chapter cooperation in the fall, netted Delta Eta 30 new pledges.

DELTS NAME SORORITY OF THE YEAR

Delta Eta's rotating annual Sorority of the Year Trophy was awarded to Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alabama's most outstanding for 1955-56. President Ramon Perdue presented the trophy to Kappa President Martha Lowe at the Annual Spring Women's Honors Convocation in an impressive ceremony culminating long weeks of intersorority tension.

CHAPTER PUBLICATION WELL RECEIVED

Volume 3, No. 3, of the Bama Delt was put together this summer a day late for distribution at the Karnea. The pocket size edition, issued annually in recent years, depicts chapter organization and spirit with side glances into life as Delts live it at Alabama. Entirely the work of Brother John Wagon, this magazine has done much towards aiding successful rushing. That it has done much to bring Delta Eta into the spotlight of the national Fraternity is evidenced by numerous inquiries by other chapters into our Sorority of the Year program.

JOHN WAGON Mahout EDITOR

Brother John Wagon was elected last spring to editorship of the new Alabama campus humor magazine, the Mahout. This new publication replaces the Rammer Jammer of old, and will be more along literary lines than was its predecessor. Recently released for student consumption, it is enjoying more than favorable student reception. Under John's capable editorship we know it will attain even greater heights of popularity.

DELTS WIN JASON'S JAMBOREE

Repeating her performance of six previous years, Delta Eta won her sixth Jason's Jamboree cup in the last seven years. Combined directorial talent of Brother Forrest Wilson with the Delt Chorus and Brother Del Carraher with the cast, ushered Delta Eta into another of her almost traditional triumphs. Jason's is the most widely publicized event on the campus in the field of interfraternity competition. Demonstrated leadership in this as well as in all competitive fields is fast becoming a Delt tradition.

DON COE RECEIVES FORD GRANT

At Alabama's first fall student convocation Brother Don Coe received a $500 scholarship given in the name of Henry Ford II. The scholarship is presented to the leading student interested in Industrial Journalism in a leading Journalism School in the United States, and this year was presented by Henry Ford II.

NEW SHELTER BALL ROLLING

Under the able leadership of Jerry Timmons, Epsilon began the new semester in grand style with the initiation of 28 of the best young men. Although it was a large group, organization made a harmonious and successful help week possible.

Epsilon hosted its alumni at a Homecoming banquet served in the Shelter preceding the annual alumni meeting. Topic of discussion was the new Shelter. The ball is started now; we all must keep it rolling.

SEVEN DELTS ON SOCCER SQUAD

Things have started in a big way here at Alpha. Seven actives are on the soccer squad, one on the football team, two in the band, and one as band director. Brothers Butz (our prexy), Brooks, Snee, Kennedy, Jack, and Bell compose much of Allegheny's soccer team.

Pete Peterson is holding down the job of first-string center in varsity football. In music, Al Berkebille and Dick Smith hold responsible positions in the R.O.T.C. Band. Also in the band is Brother Shaffer, who is the band director this year.

SCHOLARS REPORT HIGH MARKS

Aside from sports, Alpha Delts are active socially and scholastically too. We are planning our Fall Party for October 26 and our Fall Tea for freshman women October 21. On the scholastic credit list go the names of: Doug Bedell, Bruce Bell, Bill Jack, Peter Peterson, George Scieford, and Richard Smith. These actives got averages of 85 or better. Doug Bedell was among the top students in Allegheny with an average of 90.80. At Allegheny, any average of 85 or better is truly remarkable.

PLEDGE INDUSTRIOUS GROUP

Fall rush at Epsilon Alpha, a week of smokers and parties, culminated in a banquet at which the Assistant Director of Student Affairs was the speaker and a pledge swap which coincided with a visit by Southern Division President Burr Christopher. The result of rush was that Auburn Delts secured a select, industrious group of new pledges.

Epsilon Alpha was the host of two sororities in a recent "Night in Paris" costume party. Social Chairman Bob Lynn has initiated plans for many more social events throughout the quarter.

TWO BATTALION COMMANDERS

For the past two years, A.P.I. Delts have copped Student Senate positions. In an attempt to continue the practice, Pledge Robert Sclater is waging a vigorous campaign for Freshman Senator.

Two Delts selected for battalion commanders and also Distinguished Military Students in the Army R.O.T.C. were Milton Russell and Charles Blackburn. They wear the rank of cadet lieutenant colonel.

A comprehensive quarterly alumni newsletter, to be sent to all alumni of Epsilon Alpha, is now in the planning stages.

For the annual "Wreck Tech Pajama Parade" the Delt pledges fabricated a huge power mower float for the theme "Mow 'em down."

WENDELL ALDERMAN

Baker—Gamma Theta

NAMED JUNIOR CLASS PRESIDENT

Rush week again this fall was successful, with Gamma Theta pledging 22 of the top men on the Baker University campus. Each pledge has excelled in either athletics, scholarship, leadership, or all three during his precollege days.

FOUR GRID STARTERS

Seven Delts are on the football team and four are starters. Scott Mann and Lyle Haberbosch both are regulars at ends. Chuck Brown is a 60-minute man at his center slot. Jim Lee starts as blocking back in Baker's short punt formation. Both Mann and Brown should receive mention on the Kansas Conference all-league team.

The Sixty-Seventh Annual Chicken Fry which was to have been held this fall was postponed until spring. This was requested by the state fire marshal because of the hazardous conditions created by the drought.

Delts have three of the five male parts in the annual fall play, "The Bishop's Mantle," a dramatization of the book by Agnes Sligh Turnbull. John Layle has the lead, while Eric Errickson and Henry Rector have strong supporting roles.

Delt softballers are tied for the league lead at the time of this writing.

Bob Haynes, a freshman, was chosen cheerleader by the student body.

FOOTBALL DIVISION CHAMPIONS

Thus far this year the Delts are doing quite well in intramurals. We have won the championship of our division in football, and at the time of this writing are leading the intramural bowling league.

Joe De Luca and Dale Huston are members of the varsity football team. Joe is playing his last year of football.

Wes Boughner and Dick Rose are members of the varsity swim team. Wes does the backstroke while Dick is a free-styler. Dick Rose was a member of the conference title swim team last year.

Sophomore John Smith is wrestling in the 137-lb. class for the matmen this year. Last summer John received an all-expense invitation to participate in the tryouts for the Olympic wrestling team at Los Angeles.

DELTS IN LEADING POSITIONS ON CAMPUS

Elwood Darken has been named chairman pro tem of the elections committee. Jim Polack is on the board of directors for Circle K. Robin Turner has qualified for a post on the varsity debate team.

Dick Kamieniecki has been named president of Phi Eta Sigma, scholarship honorary, and has been elected treasurer of the Jazz Club. Jim Wheeler has been named treasurer of Phi Eta Sigma, while Ward Ryan is the new vice-president of the Jazz Club.

George Howick, president of the chapter, is now the vice-president of the Interfraternity Council, a member of the Spirit and Traditions Board, and on the Committee on Student Leadership and Services. Howick is also a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, leadership honorary.

ENTERTAIN 120 ALUMNI

Edward Diehl, charter member of Delta Tau Chapter, has returned after four years of service in the army.

Sophomore Steve Takacs is the head student manager of the varsity football team.

The chapter entertained more than 120 alums, who returned for Homecoming week end, October 27-28.

BOB OLESEN

Brown—Beta Chi

LEADING SCORER AND GROUND GAINER

When the men of Beta Chi returned to the house this fall, they again looked forward to an active and rewarding year. This was particularly well seen as the 1956 football season got under way. Beta Chi is proud of its large representation on the team roster. Joe Miluski, a junior this year, fills the starting fullback position. His hard running and fine offensive play have made him Brown's leading scorer. Joe is also active in campus affairs. He is a member of the Brown Key, as is Pete Howard, a junior and one of our outstanding students.

Maintaining a strong center and sparking the defense, Dick Carolan, also a junior, is rapidly adding to his fine record of last year when he played more time than any other member of the team.

Sophomores John McTigue and George "Coco" Gorgodian are continuing their own fine performances as starting halfbacks on the freshman team of 1955 by pacing the varsity team again from the halfback position. With "Coco" number one leading ground gainer, and John number two, the future looks secure.

That Beta Chi is proud of its representation on the '56 team is indeed an understatement.

SCHOLARSHIP RANKS SECOND ON CAMPUS

Our pleasure and sense of accomplishment were increased greatly in another aspect too. When the college scholarship report came out this fall, the Delts were pleased to see that they were rated second position out of all the fraternities on campus, and were well above the All Men's Average. Our over-all average for the past semester was 2.427 (on a 4.000 basis). An even greater satisfaction lies in the fact that this average is one of the highest in Beta Chi's history.

These accomplishments and the ones we look forward to throughout the year combine to give the Delts a great sense of satisfaction, achievement, and pride.

JAMES HACKETT

California—Beta Omega

SHINING STARS IN PLEDGE CLASS

Starting off another good year at Cal is generally achieved by securing a good pledge class. Rush Chairman Wylie Keeler, assisted capably by Tony Torrance, directed our efforts toward our 20-man pledge class. Among these are five student body presidents and six other high school leaders of note.

Pledges Dick Dumke and Don Cinek were all-state high school football players, Dumke at tackle and Cinek at end. Jack Finney and John Tegtmeier were both All-Coast prep basketball stars. Reed Hertford and Skip Marquard were both standout distance men at their respective JC's, and, along with weight man Jim Serventi, are expected to bolster Cal's cinder efforts in years to come.

UPPER FIFTH SCHOLASTICALLY

The Delt house stood 10th out of 52 fraternities scholastically last semester. We expect to halve that record this semester.

Carnegie Tech—Delta Beta

POINT FOR LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

With the start of another school year at C.I.T., Delta Beta can boast a fine group of pledges to carry on the Delt tradition. Under the leadership of their president, Jim Linduff, they have begun their pledge training in great style. Two pledges, Bill Lane and Jack McDonough, are members of Tech's football team and five others are playing on the Delt intramural team.

The Delt team is once again favored to take its league championship in touch football. With such all campus standouts as John Mihm, Ken Laughery, and Wayne Dickinson to lead the team, another trophy is certain for Delta Beta.

ENTERTAIN ALUMNI AT HOMECOMING

The big social event on Tech's calendar, Homecoming, was a huge success for the house. The many alumni who returned for the week end were happy to see the enthusiasm with which they were greeted, and an enjoyable time was had by all. A tour through the new fraternity houses was conducted to give the alumni an idea of what we need in the way of a new Shelter.

SUCCESSFUL RUSH SEASON

Before starting a new school year, the Delts at Gamma Xi Chapter would like to make an important introduction. We would like everyone to meet Mrs. Rose Sawyer, our new housemother. A more formal introduction will be made at the Open House, in her honor, on October 21. All are welcomed to meet and like her as well as the Delts here.

As the Delts came back to school this year, the first enterprise was a full two-week rushing schedule. Some of the parties were held at the homes of the alumni of the chapter. We owe a great deal to Alumni Brothers Dick Pfalzgraph, Dick Farrel, Bob Ent, and Herb Schroth. Brother Dick Baker, sports-caster for WSAI, was a speaker at a house dinner. One of his topics was the prospects of the Cincinnati Redlegs to take the National League pennant, which of course, interested all Cincinnatians.

A Delta Carlo gambling party was another high light of the rushing season. A prize was awarded to the big money winner of the evening. The money was fake, but the fun was real. Close to the end of the rushing schedule, pledging started taking its part in the activities. The Delts had a successful rushing season as 37 men were pledged. We would like to congratulate Brother Gene Mapes and the rest of his committee for their fine work during rushing.

NEW LIVING ROOM

The Gamma Xi Delts are now looking forward to seeing their practically new living room. It is to be completely redecorated with new drapes, new furniture, and a combination television, radio, and phonograph set.

At present, work is being done on the Homecoming float. This year, the theme must commemorate some holiday. We, at Gamma Xi, have picked United Nations Day. Our float will consist of a large rotating globe, surrounded by wreaths of green fern. Good luck to Brother Dean Voyer on his float, as he and his committee have put in much time and effort. The Delts are behind them completely, win or lose.

NORMAN A. HIRSCH

SIX OF ELEVEN INTRAMURAL CROWNS

The first entry in the log of Beta Kappa Chapter for 1956-57 begins with the pledging of 32 outstanding freshmen. The pledge class is spirited, and constitutes one of the finest all-around groups in the chapter's history.

Intramuralwise, the Delts are again known throughout the campus as the source of the finest in athletic teams. Last year Delts compiled the impressive record of six out of a possible eleven all-school championships, and they backed it up with two second places. As of November 1, a Delt intramural team is yet to taste defeat. Both the football and water polo teams have passed through the majority of their seasons with sizeable victories.

HALF DOZEN DELTS IN GRID WARS

Six Delts represent the Fraternity on the varsity football field. Boyd Dowler, quarterback; Jim McKim, center; Otis Rhodes, end; Dick Golder, guard; Bob Hughes, guard; and Jim Hudson, half-back, are all members of Coach Dal Ward's highly esteemed single wing. Boyd Dowler, first-string quarterback, currently leads the nation in punting with a 51.5-yard average.

The Delts finished sixth out of the 24 fraternities scholastically last year, with one man, Bill Drogumuller, making Phi Beta Kappa. Six men were tapped by Phi Epsilon Phi, sophomore men's honorary; two of these were elected officers.

The new color T-V set graces the Delt recreation room, and it's been well received, especially on Sunday evenings when the Delts bring their dates to dinner. The 2,800 square foot concrete slab behind the Shelter has been poured and landscaped. Perhaps the new court will improve last year's second place in volleyball.

PLEDGING RESULTS GRATIFYING

The handshaking and backslapping of rushing are over, and Gamma Gamma has attracted a stellar aggregation of pledges. The widely diversified group has its athletes, its scholars, and its student government leaders. This serious, sobersided group should do much to keep the house in its top position on campus.

The social outlook is, naturally, bright. With "Spike" Lane as entertainment chief, the three football week ends should be good fun.

We were fortunate this past week end to be able to send an excellent delegation, the "Traveling Circus," down to Brown for the football game. We were glad to see all the Beta Chi's, and we extend our condolences on this year's football game.

With our pledges holding down key positions on the house football team, we should roll in the old Delt fashion. We should do extremely well in golf and tennis, with veterans returning in both sports.

FIVE DELTS IN SOCCER

Five Delts are holding down first-string posts on the Dartmouth soccer team: Charlie Pinkerton, Ron Chilcote, Bob Holland, Jim Kennedy, and Randy Malin. Randy Austin returns for the Big Green basketball team, and Fred Bag-nall is star goalie on the hockey team.

A new emphasis on scholarship is in evidence at Gamma Gamma this year. Among the reasons are the presence of veterans in the house and a strong desire to improve our national standing, which could have been higher last year.

That's it. We hope to see a lot of you other Delts at the Gamma Gamma Shelter this year.

SHELTER MODERNIZED

The brothers of Delta Upsilon Chapter began the new school year on a note of activity by finishing up final details on the Shelter which was rewired, re-modernized, recarpeted, and repainted over the summer months. The chapter voted congratulations to House Manager Chuck Heckert and his assistant, Fred Steinke, for their fine job.

On October 5 the brothers threw a combination house party and open house for freshman women; the Shelter was overrun, and that was satisfying indeed to everyone.

The week end of October 12 was designated as Homecoming Week End by the University and was a great week end for Delta Tau Delta. Our float took third place among all the campus entries and we currently stand second in the race for the Cheerleaders' Spirit Trophy. Many chapter alumni returned to the Shelter to see the old buddies again and expressed delight at the improvement of the Shelter.

ANNUAL SCHOLASTIC DINNER

On October 24 the annual scholastic steak dinner, featuring dinners bought for the winners by the losers in the index race, will be held at the Royal Oaks Restaurant; we hope to attend the affair attired in our new yellow and black hood hats, recently ordered by Bart Rinehart.

The chapter topped the All Men's index again this semester, receiving plaudits from the Dean of Students for the feat.

DePauw—Beta BetaFALL RUSH NETS SIXTEEN

Under the supervision of Rush Chairman Bud Johnson, Beta Beta pledged 16 outstanding men. A dance was held this fall, honoring the new pledges. The theme of the dance was "Autumn Leaves," with the entire first floor of our spacious chapter house decorated with murals and leaves. This successful dance was directed by Tim Ubben.

EXCEED ALL MEN'S AVERAGE

Scholastically, the Delts at DePauw remained above the All Men's Average for the past semester.

Our speedball and golf teams are doing well this year, keeping us in the running for the campus intramural trophy, while our intramural tennis team, including Brothers Dave Stone and Jess Pritchett, has won the championship.

The boys are certainly becoming music-minded lately, with the Delt Dixieland Combo and the Delt Quartet being formed to perform for campus social functions and house parties.

Duke—Delta KappaUNIQUE HOMECOMING DISPLAY

Even though we do not have rushing at Duke until second semester, Delta Kappa opened up its school year with a full list of activities. One of the campus-wide activities of fraternities during the fall is the construction of Homecoming displays for Homecoming Week End. Our project, even though we did not win first prize, was the biggest on campus. It consisted of a huge coffee cup (about 15 feet high) made of chicken wire and paper napkins with a large doughnut in the vague form of a wild mustang. The doughnut was moved up and down in the cup as if the doughnut were being dunked in the coffee. The lighted caption above the display read: "LOOKS LIKE WE'LL DUNK 'EM, DO-NUT?" (Duke was playing the wild mustangs from S.M.U.)

DELTAY CLUB GETS GOING

Delta Kappa has started a new alumni project—THE DELTAY CLUB—which looks as if it is going to be a winner. The club is composed of alumni who have promised to pay $10 a year as dues. The money is used partly to send letters and notices out to alumni concerning the activities of brothers who have been graduated and the activities of the chapter as a whole. The remainder of the dues is spent on housing improvements in the Delta Kappa Chapter. So far, we have had a large response from the alumni, and the Deltay Club seems to be a great success.

On the sports field Fraternity President Jim Matthews is playing first-string soccer, while Bill Kephardt and Dave Kreidler are holding down the reserve end of the team. Sandy Hinkle is representing the Fraternity on the golf team. Out in front of the football cheering section is Bob Crews, a junior from Winston-Salem, N. C. Bob, who was a cheerleader last year, is now Duke's head cheerleader.

FRANK CAMP

Emory—Beta EpsilonPLEDGING SMASHES ALL RECORDS

Rush Week this year was a smashing success: we broke all records by pledging 27 men. This pushes our total membership above the fifty mark and could place us in the "large fraternity" category.

Thanks to the House Corporation, we have a new television set to replace the one that "disappeared" during the summer.

MUSIC COMMITTEE FORMED

Another new addition to the scene is a music committee under the direction of Brother Kennedy. Preparations are now in full swing for the IFC Sing.

The social lag after Rush Week was shorter than usual this year—the rush girls were entertained on a hayride, there have been a few small house dances, and recently there were a pledge swap and a stag dinner.

With mid-term grades coming out, a scholarship drive is beginning. Bets are being placed, and a study hall for the pledges is being instituted again this year.

Nancy King is again with us as sponsor, and, of course, Grandma is back. With those two to boost the morale, this year is off to a fine start.

TOM BYRD

Florida—Delta ZetaCELEBRATE COMPLETION OF NEW ADDITION

Happy Delts were everywhere on returning to see the newly completed $100,000 addition to the Florida Shelter.

It has already been christened by several events, including two informal dances, three postgame barbecues, and, of all things, a South African Mau Mau party. The music for these has been through the hard work of Clay Choate and Lucas Paskalakakis, who built and installed our hi-fi set. With ten speakers throughout the main floor, we literally have music everywhere!

Our rush week, headed by hard-working John Wyman, netted Delta Zeta 42 fine new pledges. The total after informal rush ended put the number at 74.

BORDE WINS FOUNDATION AWARD

Dick Borde was the first student at the University to receive the Haskins F. Sells Foundation Award for excellence in accounting. With the honor, presented in October, was a check for $500. Dick further distinguished himself earlier by being chosen for Beta Gamma Sigma honorary in his junior year. His marks placed him among the top three per cent of students.

RON WOODBURN

George Washington—Gamma EtaMODERN SHELTER EMERGES

In its 53rd year at GWU, Gamma Eta takes pride in its newly-redecorated house. A summer of work by in-town brothers and two weeks of hell for returning actives transformed our Victorian dwelling into a fair counterpart of a modern Shelter. Two weeks of rushing following this left a house full of tired but happy Delts and 16 new pledges.

UNIVERSITY CHAMPIONSHIP FORECAST

Fall at George Washington means football and Homecoming and Gamma Eta is in the thick of both. With last year's league-winning intramural team strengthened by some brawny pledges, our chances for copping the All-University championship look good indeed. We have two teams entered in different leagues and with any luck we could make the championship play-offs an all-Delt affair. Pledge Trainer Dick Jam-borski is co-chairman of Homecoming Week End this year and his urgings should be the extra spark to bring the Homecoming Float Trophy back to Gamma Eta. After wins in 1953 and '54, we placed second last year, which is an added inducement to all-out chapter effort now.

The Delt combo warms things up for some good entertainment Gamma Psi style during rush week in Atlanta.

Noted cartoonist Ed Dodd, a Delt from Gamma Psi Chapter, holds a fascinated audience at a Georgia Tech rush smoker.

Gamma Psi Chapter experienced a highly successful rush week, as this photograph of new pledges testifies.

The fall social season got under way with a series of rush parties, coffee hours, and sorority exchanges; and Social Chairman Pete Dyer promises no let-up in this enjoyable grind. Future parties slated include pregame pep rallies, a parents' tea, an alumni Homecoming party, more exchanges and coffee hours, and several costume parties, including a repeat of our well-remembered Basin Street jazz blowout.

PAUL FANNING

Georgia Tech—Gamma Psi

OUTSTANDING PLEDGE CLASS

To speak of Gamma Psi's rush season as a success would be an understatement. For, through the tremendous co-operation shown by the brothers and under the able leadership of Rush Chairman Don Endom and President Jack Leverette, we Tech Delts pledged a most outstanding group of 42 men. They are of top calibre as evidenced by their fine high school backgrounds in leadership and athletics.

The entertainment for rush season was also outstanding, featuring a talk by our own Ed Dodd, creator of the comic strip Mark Trail; Graham Jackson, noted pianist and entertainer; Nancy Collier, who brought down the house with her folk songs; and a host of others. Our own Delt combo, led by Jess Yow, also lent an unusual and original air to the entertainment.

The parties during rush season were as successful as they were unusual. These included a New Orleans party, a hayride, a house dance, and a mystery party where only a few actives and none of the rushees knew any of the details.

High point in George Washington rush week was a "Playboy" party. Behind the cover of the special "college issue" was fun for all and a course in "how to get along with women without really trying."

This mystery party was held in an old deserted Atlanta city prison and was outstanding enough to be featured on the cover and by a four-page spread in the last issue of the Georgia Tech Alumni, a magazine sponsored by the school's alumni association.

As usual, our housemother, Mother Wilson, has been of invaluable aid both in and out of rush season.

HOMECOMING ENJOYED BY ALL

The Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets came through in fine style for Homecoming by swamping Tulane 40-0, much to the pleasure of a great many Delt alumni and friends who frequented the Shelter during a week end which featured our annual Ramblin' Reck parade and saw the Delts take third prize in the Homecoming decorations.

SCHOLARSHIP CONSISTENTLY GOOD

It was announced by the office of the Dean of Students recently that Gamma Psi was one of the two Tech fraternities to have been consistently above the All Men's Average for the last eight years.

PRESIDENT OF SCHOLASTIC HONORARY

Phi Kappa Phi, a national senior scholastic honorary, has elected Lee Edwards president. Don Bearden is at the helm now as president of Tech's glee club. Along this same line, we have Bob Marbut as editor of The Technique (newspaper), Joe Pinnell as editor of The Blueprint (annual), and Pat Bolger as president of the Student Council. Bob, Joe, and Pat were just elected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

BILL KILLIAN

Hillsdale—Kappa

TWO VARSITY CAPTAINS IN 1956

Maintaining the fine tradition of Delt champion intramural teams, the football squad of Kappa Chapter is off to a fast start this fall. With a record of 3 wins, 1 tie, and no losses, we are looking forward to another undefeated season.

Varsitywise, Delts Toby Finizio, Jack Thierbach, John Sommers, Ron Perian, and Pledge Don Eugenio bolster Hillsdale's championship undefeated football team of 1956.

With the opening of the track and golf seasons in the spring, Brothers Jack Thierbach and Len Winzer will captain Hillsdale's thinclads and golfers, respectively.

PLAN STATE DELT CONCLAVE

Socially speaking, this year's Homecoming Week End is planned to be tops for activity and festivity, with an extra effort being given to recapture the Homecoming award trophy we won last year.

Over the past summer the alumni improved upon the Shelter, replacing doors, laying new carpeting, and completely painting the outside of the house.

This year the men of Kappa Chapter will play host to our brothers from Albion College for our annual football game. We also hope to organize a conclave of all the Michigan Delt chapters for a week end of intramural competition and merrymaking at Hillsdale.

WILEY SWORD

Idaho—Delta Mu

COP HOMECOMING PRIZE

With Dick Shern acting as rush chairman, Delta Mu started off what looks to be a great year by pledging 18 top men. Determined to better last year's success, the brothers immediately set to work in almost every activity on campus, from football to politics.

Thanks to the able leadership of John Rosholt and the artistic talent of Dick Parsell, Delta Mu's entry in the Homecoming parade was in a class by itself for the second straight year. The parade theme was based on alumni relations and the Homecoming game with the Arizona State Sundevils. The float was a replica of a newspaper, the Alum News, with the headline "Eclipse—2:00 p.m."

House President Dan Davis hasn't seen much action at his position of center on the football team due to a bad knee. Soph Russ Jeffery has been switched from guard to center to help plug the hole left by injuries. Delta Mu is doing all right in intramural football also. At the present we are tied for the campus fraternity championship, but we don't expect much competition for the title.

TWO ELECTED TO BLUE KEY

Don Nevile-Smith is occupying the managing editor's desk of the Argonaut, the University newspaper, and will be a great help in editing our chapter publications.

Juniors Ernie Davenport and Jack Cole were recently tapped for Blue Key, national junior-senior men's honorary. Ernie is also president of the Associated Engineers, and Jack is chairman of the Students Events Council.

Next week Delta Mu will receive a plaque for having achieved the highest pledge scholarship on campus.

Socially Delta Mu took the lead on campus with a very enjoyable all house exchange with the Kappas. The annual Pledge Dance is scheduled for November 3.

THAD SCHOLES

Illinois—Beta Upsilon

FOUR BROTHERS WITH FIGHTING ILLINI

The football season is in full swing at this writing, and all of the Beta Upsilon brothers are very proud of our four members on the Fighting Illini grid squad. Heading the list is Sophomore Pledge Dick Nordmeyer. Nord is currently holding down the first-string left tackle spot. His speed (Dick was 440 state champ his senior year at Tucson High School) makes him adept at clearing holes for the Illini backs.

Besides Nordmeyer, Beta Upsilon has Paul Adams, tackle; Eddie DeLong, halfback; and Bob Salata, fullback. Paul is pushing Nord at the present time for a shot at the first-team spot. DeLong, a quarter and half-miler for the Illini track squad, uses his lightning speed to the utmost as a breakaway halfback during the football season. Bob Salata, crunching reserve fullback, is also top contender for the heavyweight spot on the wrestling team as soon as his chores are finished on the gridiron.

Besides these muscle men, we have diminutive Don Harvey, who nailed down the starting shortstop position on the Illini baseball team during fall practice.

SHELTER REMODELED

With the House Corporation furnishing the gold, the Shelter got extensive remodeling over the summer in preparation for the coming year. As a result of this, plus some super-rushing, we pledged 15 topnotchers from all parts of the state. Under the leadership of Kent Dobson, pledge prexy, and Larry Moore, pledge work-manager, the class of '60 is diligently working on the plans for their forthcoming pledge dance.

October 6 was a memorable day for Donald Harvey, Thomas Hall, and Bernard Richards. On that day President Wayne Marthaler presided over initiation ceremonies as these men took their fraternal vows. Initiation was followed by a banquet in the chapter house and a party at the Tumble Inn.

MAKE DAD GLAD

Plans for a gala Homecoming celebration are under way. Bill Borchelt is chairman, and all of the brothers are working feverishly on the annual Homecoming decoration for the front lawn. Another gala event, Dad's Day, isn't too far in the future. Verle Besant, Dewey Kessler, and Bernie Richards are heading this program, their motto being "Make Dad Glad."

ALL PLEDGES QUALIFY

Gamma Beta is off to a good start this fall, athletically, fraternally, and academically speaking.

Last semester's pledges all made their grades and are slated for initiation. Pledgemaster Hank Bates did an excellent job of instilling the Delt spirit in these men, and has received the chapter's heartiest congratulations.

Eighteen freshmen have made their pledge to Delta Tau Delta and have started the road to brotherhood. Guiding their way is Pledgemaster Harry Hayer.

NAB I-M SWIMMING CROWN

The chapter got a tremendous jump on the rest of the houses by winning the IFC Swimming Meet. A strong team, paced by Pledges Murschel and Parshall, but bulwarked by old regulars like Mock, Cowperthwait, Horvath, Gruninger, Kutil, and Ravetto, walked away with the honors.

HOLD LEADING POSITIONS

Delts are showing why they are the best on campus by putting men in leading positions in many organizations. Brother Folgers was the IFC rush chairman for the fall semester, and Brothers Kutil and Thomson have been appointed Technorama business manager and student activities chairman, respectively. Brothers Bates and Ravetto are the executive officers of the Navy and Air Force R.O.T.C. Gene Hodge has been appointed to the ITSA Who's Who committee. Dick Wadsworth and Dave Gibbs have each won major letters, Dick in wrestling and Dave in golf.

The top man in the house scholastically, Hank Bates, has been initiated into Tau Beta Pi and Phi Lambda Upsilon.

PLEDGE CLASS NUMBERS 25

Beta Alpha Chapter sponsored an excellent rush program last summer. When the rush season came to a close, we had a 25-man pledge class. We have many fine boys and are looking forward to a good year.

Initiation for our spring pledge class was held November 4.

SCHOLARSHIP RANKS THIRD

Beta Alpha is proud of its high scholarship rating this year. Last semester we were ranked third among all fraternities and are trying for even higher goals this year.

Our first fall event this year was the annual Delt street dance. Everyone on campus was invited to dance to the music of Victor Knight and his sextet. The weather was nice for the dance and we had a large crowd, estimated at 3,000.

DELTS LEAD CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

This fall found Omicron Delts heading many campus activities. Jack Laughery has been elected president of Central Party Committee. Jack was chairman of the Miss S.U.I. Pageant, which was the Homecoming queen contest.

Completing a second year as a member of Union Board is our chapter president, Dick Hansen. Chairman of Freshman Orientation Week this fall was Bob Bateson. Receiving a role in the University play "Finian's Rainbow" was Jim Tilton.

John Dockendorf has been chosen chairman of the coming Mecca Ball. Continuing the list of Delts heading campus social events is Bob Bateson, who will be chairman of the Greek Week Formal.

The S.U.I. Dad of 1956 is Mr. E. A. McCardell, of Newton, Iowa. Mr. McCardell is a former president of Omicron Chapter.

TOP BASEBALL PROSPECT

Several members of our pledge class have shown an early interest in campus activities. Dick Duff plays the drums with Iowa's marching band. In the University chorus are John Miller and Jerry Chiles. Miller is also a fine baseball prospect. He is one of four freshman pitchers invited to fall practice. Ralph Wentzein was elected secretary of the Interfraternity Pledge Council.

After successfully establishing a Delt alumni chapter in Sioux City, plans are now under way for a similar chapter in Des Moines. These chapters have proved to be very helpful to us in many fraternity affairs, especially rushing.

Iowa State—Gamma Pi

PLEDGES HIGH IN SCHOLARSHIP

At the conclusion of rush week this fall, the Gamma Pi Delts were the proud fathers of 25 new pledge sons. This group of the best pledges on campus boasts, among many other potentialities, a high school grade average of 3.35 on the four point system and has five men selected to be in the NROTC.

CHAPTER LEADERSHIP RISES

A special election held this fall saw Robin Thompson elected chapter president and Keith Erickson, vice president. Robin and Keith continue to lead the brothers in activities this year. Robin is presently serving as secretary of Interfraternity Council and has held the position of chairman of the scrap heap scramble and pep rally for Homecoming, 1956. Keith has remained active in campus life through his selection to Cardinal Key, his presidency of Union Board, and his participation in Cardinal Guild (the student governing body) as a committee chairman.

DELTS IN GREEK WEEK

The Delts were well represented in Greek Week which was held November 15-17 this year. Jack Kingery served in the position of business manager and Newt Dodds and Bill Dickson were co-chairmen of the Greek Week Kickoff.

The Week was a big success; a concert by George Shearing and various Greek activities were enjoyed by all.

DELT QUARTET ON STATEWIDE TV

The Silhouettes, a quartet of Delts, have captured the fancy of the campus. They have sung for Homecoming, various college banquets, and appeared on television to sing and raise interest in Homecoming festivities. The members of the quartet are Ron Taylor, Bob Dittus, Stefan Paciotti, and Roger Reitz.

ON TO THE OLYMPICS

"On to the Olympics" was the cry this fall as Al Oerter, Gamma Tau's contribution to the U.S. Olympic team, prepared for the trip to Melbourne. In the final workouts before going "down under," Al was eclipsing the Olympic record in the discus by over two feet! By now Al should be on his way home, and we have a hunch that he won't be returning empty-handed.

On the cross-country scene, Jerry McNeal, number two man on Coach Bill Easton's strong harrier team, has helped to continue KU's domination of that hill and dale track meet. Returning Letterman Grant Cookson has also done well this fall.

COLVER ACHIEVES TBII

Phil Colver is typical of many Delt scholars. Phil was recently elected to Alpha Chi Sigma, honorary chemistry fraternity, and Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering society. We are placing even more emphasis on scholarship at Gamma Tau this year, and we are aiming for 100 per cent initiation of this year's pledge class. But by no means are they bookworms. Led by pledge class president Jerry Nelson, who is also a stand-out end on the freshman football team, the Delt pledges have already made quite a name for themselves on the KU campus. Jerry and Jim Richards are playing freshman football, Pat Pitner and Don Gardner are on the freshman basketball squad, and Louis Graves and Bill Nichols represent the Delts on the swimming team.

FRESHMEN SEEK FIRST HONORS

As a leading candidate for freshman class president, Glenn Hedquist is a top candidate for future B.M.O.C. honors. Ted Hall is another future Delt B.M.O.C. Although he is only a freshman, Ted has already been elected to the All Student Council. Other activity-minded pledges are Don Culp and Dick Hoch, both of whom were elected to offices in Froshawks, the freshman men's pep organization.

Roger Stanton has already been recognized for his tremendous acting ability. Participating in the first play of the season, Roger's performance was lauded as the best of the play. And Roger is only a freshman. Look out, Brando!

Kansas State—Gamma Chi

PLEDGES ADVERTISED IN "AZTEC"

Starting off the year with the true Delt spirit, Gamma Chi pledged 34 men and finished rush week with the largest pledge class at K-State. Five of the new pledges are town men. A complete list of the new pledges' activities has been published in the Gamma Chi newsletter, "The Aztec."

Striving to improve the house and grounds, Gamma Chi has paved the driveway that leads into the parking lot back of the Shelter. The actives and pledges help build the forms and trowel the cement. A redwood fence has been anchored to the limestone wall that was laid this summer to keep water from washing through the parking lot. The House Corporation furnished the materials for the new improvements.

SCHOLARSHIP STANDS HIGH

Last semester, Gamma Chi rated fourth scholastically among 22 fraternities at K-State. The chapter average was several points higher than the All Men's Average. Brother Dan Hutchins is the new scholarship chairman and Gamma Chi has high hopes of raising its scholastic standing still further this semester.

The annual dinner-dance meeting of the Kansas City Alumni Chapter is to be held December 15 in the Advertising and Sales Executive Club, 913 Baltimore Ave., Kansas City, Mo. Gamma Chi is planning to be there in full attendance. We hope to see several alumni at this meeting.

In intramurals, Gamma Chi is undefeated in football and is pushing for first place under the coaching of Brother Harry Shank. The swimming team placed third. Brother Jim Mairner placed first in two of the swimming events. Brother Pat Loyd was the coach for the swimming team.

MANAGES RADIO STATION

New manager of the student radio station, KSDB-FM, is Brother Dub Gunter. Harry Shank is program director for the station. Of the nine student committees that govern the student union at K-State, Gamma Chi has four of the chairmen. Brother Gary Rumsey is serving on the student union governing board. Brothers Jim Mairner, Phillip Young, and Richard Hotz were recently appointed to Student Council committees. Business manager for the Kansas Ag Student magazine this semester is Phillip Young.

COMBO OPENS GAS STATION

The DELTS is the name of a newly formed combo that has originated at Gamma Chi. The combo has played in the "Dive" at the student union and recently played for the opening of a gas station. The combo has two trumpets, a trombone, bass horn, trap drums, and an electric guitar.

Thane Baker, well-known Olympic dash star, was transferred to the Air Force R.O.T.C. detachment here at K-State. He helped us in rushing this year. Thane is a Gamma Chi alumnus. He recently went to Melbourne, Australia, to compete in the 1956 Olympiad. Thane was sent to K-State early this summer for training purposes.

NAB FULL QUOTA OF THIRTY

Delta Epsilon started the year off right again by getting the full quota of thirty pledges. If this is any indication that we will do as well as, or better than, last year, it looks like another good year to be a Delt at Kentucky.

Our shelves are hungry for an intramural trophy, which we may get this year. So far, we have men at the top in tennis, croquet, horseshoes, football, and golf singles. This football team of ours just won't be stopped. In three games we are undefeated and unscored upon.

FIRST BASEBALL SCHOLARSHIP

In University athletics, Brother Jim

Host, a sophomore, has the distinction of receiving the first baseball scholarship ever given by the University of Kentucky. Jim had a fine record on the freshman team last year; we hope he can do something with our lagging varsity.

We are represented on the football team by Brother Don Moore. "Big Don," a junior, plays tackle for the Wildcats. If these two boys can follow the steps of Brother Bob Hardy, who ended his football career with the honor of being All Southeastern Conference quarterback last year, we can say we are well represented.

GEN. DECOURSEY VISITS CHAPTER

Here for a short visit recently were General Elbert DeCoursey and his charming wife. General DeCoursey, a charter member of this chapter, is commandant of the Army Medical Research Hospital at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

At our homecoming game against Vanderbilt on November 10, we expected and received a good turnout of alumni. We had the usual after-game entertainment, followed by a buffet at the lodge and a dance that night. We hope to see our alumni back for Founders Day.

year with many of its members placed in high positions throughout the campus, both scholastically and on the athletic fields.

Dick Fleser was elected to lead the 1956-57 football team as first-string quarterback and co-captain. He is accompanied by eight other Delts who made the team: Kurt Riessler, Jim Conway, Todd Bender, Dan Smith, Bob Edington, Keith Brown, Bob Stevenson, and John Beese. On the soccer field, we have three outstanding Delts: Al Halverstadt, Thatcher Schwartz, and William VanDyke. Bill was voted the outstanding soccer player of the College last year, and even though he was a freshman, he was voted an honorary position on the 1955 All-American team.

KENDRICK SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT

Insofar as student organization goes, the Delts are far out in front. Ron Kendrick was elected president of the senior class, while holding other important positions, such as a post on the Student Council. Lowell Arnold, president of the chapter, was elected secretary of the Pan-Hellenic Council, which is the power controlling the rushing rules and regulations. Todd Bender was chosen the editor in chief of Hika, a student literary publication. Theodore Kurrus was chosen art editor of Hika, the college paper, and the yearbook, as well as being elected president of the College Intramural Board.

Chi Chapter has obtained two new pledges, William Beese and David Bray. The college is initiating mid-first semester rushing this year instead of the regular second semester rushing that has been used until now; as things stand at this point, the brothers of Chi are very optimistic and are looking forward to a successful pledge class come Christmas. The Delts worked very hard, especially the two pledges of the Fraternity who have to take the brunt of things to a certain extent, on their Homecoming display this year, and managed to pull second place, although there was much partial opinion regarding the decision. Intramural-wise, the Delts have held the 14-game undefeated streak that they started last year in football, and things are looking up for the intramural trophy.

REPEAT SECOND PLACE IN SCHOLARSHIP

As a result of a successful rushing program led by Brother Don Kress, the Nu Delts have pledged twenty top men. The new pledges have already taken an active part in campus and Fraternity affairs under the successful guidance of Pledgemaster Bob Stein.

We have once again taken second place scholastically of the 19 fraternities on campus. We are confident that next semester we will be in first place. Two brothers, Ed Curley and Bob Dahlin, made the Dean's List.

CALLS SIGNALS FOR GRID WARS

Our intramural football team got off to a good start by winning its first two games. We are also getting ready for the intramural cross-country meet in which we made a good showing last year.

Brother Bill Rude is once again one of the strong members of the varsity cross-country team. Brother Tom Good has seen a good deal of action as quarterback on the winning Lafayette football team. Pledge Jack Maldonado is starting on the freshman soccer team, and Pledge Don Onegian is playing first-string freshman football.

We are once again working on the Interfraternity Week End decoration. Last year we took first-place honors and are confident we will repeat this year.

NEW COAT OF PAINT

Over the summer the chapter house received a new coat of paint. Upon returning, the brothers got together and painted the kitchen. Through the efforts of Gordon Jones, our house manager, we have also put in new shrubs in front of the chapter house. We are planning to expand our chapter room.

DANCE HONORS NEW PLEDGES

Another year has begun at the Delta Shelter and Delta Nu feels that we're really off to a great start. On September 23, we pledged 20 of the finest men in the freshman class, and they've already justified our faith in them. With Homecoming approaching, they're hard at work on what we feel certain will be a first prize float for the parade.

The first social event of the year was held October 13, when Delta Nu presented its pledges at a formal dance. Held in conjunction with Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, the dance featured a dinner and the music of Ron Harvey's Orchestra. In attendance were one hundred couples, as well as Dr. Douglas Knight, president of Lawrence, and Mrs. Knight and other members of the college faculty.

MAX GALLER LEADS CRIDERS

Intramural sports are off to a good start this fall and Delta Nu is once more engaged in the battle for the fraternity Supremacy Cup. Brother Lee Wolf and Pledges Junior Knope and Chuck Gardener copped second in golf, while Brother Gaar Steiner and Pledges Tom Hurvis and Bob Tait took second in tennis. The touch football crown is being fought for in a very close race. With less than half the season to go, the winner is far from being determined.

Delta Nu is proud to have four brothers in the starting line-up of the Lawrence Vikings. Brothers Walt Bredeson, center; Pete Dohr, guard; Max Galler, quarterback; and Ron Manthey, end, have done a great job in guiding the fortunes of this year's squad. In addition to his starting role at quarterback, Max has been elected co-captain of the team for this year. Representing the Delts in freshman sports are Mike Harris and Doug Logan, football, and Tony Bok, Carl Franke, and Ward Keil, cross-country.

The Lawrence detachment of AFROTC has 25 men in the Advanced Corps and of these, ten are Delta Tau Deltas. Second in command of the Corps is Cadet Major Rolf Dehmel, who is also president of the Lawrence student body.

DELTS INSTRUMENTAL IN SUCCESS OF STUDENT UNION

Instrumental in the success of Maine's relatively new Student Union have been Larry Thurrell, George Casavant, and Eric Bolen. Bolen is a member of the dance committee and lecture series committee, while Casavant is chairman of the special events committee. Thurrell's three years of unfailing efforts have helped make our Union Building the acclaimed success that it is. Larry is a member of the activities board and was recently elected to the governing board. He has been given the opportunity of representing the University of Maine at a regional Union conference which is to be held at the University of Rhode Island.

Gamma Nu has two prospective politicians who are thick in the fall campaign battle. Pete Muzeroll and Norm Merrill are running for the vice-presidency of the Junior and Sophomore Classes respectively.

CHAPTER SCHOLARSHIP CLIMBS

In scholarship, we boosted ourselves from ninth to fourth position among the 17 fraternities on campus. Elected to Sigma Pi Sigma, national physics honorary society, were Dave Johnson, Paul Fehlau, and Lee Allain. Harry Beterson was elected secretary of Kappa Phi Kappa, national education honorary society.

Chosen to attend a state-wide leadership conference here at Maine were Pete Muzeroll and Rod Ross.

There is a bright outlook for Gamma Nu's basketball aggregation. In addition to having all but one of last year's winning group back, Coach Art D'Elia will have seven promising pledges. These pledges' average height is six-two.

SCORE FOR RIFLE TEAM

Pledges Greyson Lane and Ron Richardson have been outstanding on the Maine rifle team. They have consistently fired with the top ten men both in freshman and varsity R.O.T.C. competition. The freshman team has won 95 per cent of its matches and the R.O.T.C. group is batting 1000. In one gigantic contest, the Maine sharpshooters topped all other collegiate and Army rifle teams in the First Army area. The First Army area includes New England, New York, and New Jersey.

Maryland—Delta Sigma

OPEN YEAR WITH 19 PLEDGES

Delta Sigma opened its ninth year on the University of Maryland campus with prospects bright for the greatest year in its history. After leading all fraternities on campus in scholarship during the preceding year, we tackled rush week enthusiastically. The results measured up to our high expectations and Delta Sigma emerged with 19 top rate pledges.

NEW HOUSEMOTHER WELCOMED

Delta Sigma welcomed a new housemother into its Shelter this fall. All the brothers are looking forward to a long and pleasant association with Mrs. Frankie Dowling.

Due to the resignation of the chapter president, Jerry Hartdagen, a special election resulted in the elevation to the presidency of Jack O'Neil. Everett Joslyn was elected corresponding secretary.

Two big events are being eagerly awaited by Maryland Delts. One is the second annual presentation of the Delta Tau Delta Sorority of the Year Award to be presented at the Panhellenic Pledge Dance. The other is Homecoming. We are looking forward to greeting all the "old" alums of Delta Sigma. We are sure they will be just as proud of the growth of our chapter as we are.

ALL HANDS TURN TO FOR REDECORATION OF SHELTER

The Delts on Beacon Street launched their fall campaign at M.I.T. immediately after Labor Day by "turning on the fan" and redecorating the Shelter previous to Rush Week. With the removal of a temporary wall, the front hall was greatly enlarged, and a large, ornate fireplace was uncovered in the process. New carpeting was laid in the living room and front hall, the first floor walls and woodwork repainted, and the rest of the Shelter whipped into sparkling brightness. With these contributions, the house emerged from work week looking the best it has for years.

Beta Nu came through rushing with flying colors and ten new pledges. With Rush Week came the first big parties of the year. To get better acquainted with the new men and to celebrate their pledging, a dance was given in their honor.

INTRAMURAL PROSPECT BRIGHT

Cheers rang out from the sidelines as the men of Beta Nu opened another intramural season with a 32-0 win in football. Tym's passing to Michael, Fowler, or Dan Holland is proving to be a hard combination to beat. The boys are also looking forward to a good season in hockey with "Canuck" Bryson of Montreal acting as captain of the ice gang. Repeat championships in bowling and volleyball are likely with Brothers Speer, Holland, McCarty, Timms, Johnson, Irons, and Craven sparking the teams.

LEADERS IN VARSITY SPORTS

Urged on by past tradition, the Delts have firmly entrenched themselves in the field of intercollegiate sports. All-American lacrosse and soccer star "Leaky" Dyke, '56, left behind a spot to be filled by McCarty, Timms, Nash, Bracken, or Turano. Bryson has a good chance to win the New England Diving Championship, having finished second last year. Brother Bob Broker and Pledges Paul Eigbrett and Ralph Harris are on the swimming squad. Brothers Timms and McCarty coach frosh football while Pledges Dan Michael, Dave Powell, and Joe Verderber do the work on the field. The Delts also have representatives on the sailing, wrestling, rugby, golf, pistol, rifle, tennis, and track teams! Mike Flint is a top contender in both wrestling and sailing and Jack Richards a consistent winner on the sailing squad.

Leaders in M.I.T. activities are Dan Holland and Joe Timms, who hold executive positions in the Beaver Key. Sophomore Ernst Flemig is in charge of the annual Field Day festivities. Brothers Wishart, Johnson, Irons, and Pledge Al Wolford manage varsity sports. Brother Bruce Blomstrom is president of the Q-Club, while Sophomore Campbell Francisco is chairman of an IFC committee.

CANINE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Michigan Delts started the new year by taking 19 outstanding pledges and initiating 16 new brothers. The pledging period is getting under way under the leadership of Nort Stuart, with Dick Rieder and Budge Sherwood assisting as pledge trainers. Our total membership now stands at 78.

On October 19 twenty canine guests gathered at the Shelter to help our Great Dane, Major IV, celebrate his birthday. To entertain the two-legged as well as four-legged visitors, games were played, including musical chairs and an ice cream eating contest. The party was under the direction of Dick Hartman and Dave Evans, and special guests included Bill Cross, Assistant Dean of Men, and Dr. Lee Danielson of the Industrial Relations Department. A giant cake was cut and everyone sang "Happy Birthday, Major."

COLORFUL HOMECOMING DISPLAY

In I-M sports our football team, captained by Jack Demorest, should go all the way. With good size and balance, we've reached the first place play-offs by winning three straight games. In those contests, the team has racked up 63 points to our opponents' six.

A campaign is under way to raise funds for the kitchen and room addition. Preliminary plans have been completed and it is hoped that ground will be broken in the spring.

Homecoming excitement ran high on October 29 as the Wolverines met Minnesota in the battle for the Little Brown Jug. Chairmen George Bihler and Jerry Coon were responsible for the colorful display featuring Pinocchio and a nose that grew, accompanied by the slogan, "Pinocchio Nose Michigan's Power Grows and Grows."

Michigan State—Iota

HOMECOMING EFFORTS REWARDED

Iota Delts came back to a completely redecorated Shelter and a beautiful Michigan fall this year, and this has sparked the chapter to new heights.

We have one of the largest and best pledge classes in the history of Iota. Thanks to the efforts of Rush Chairmen Bob Marsh and Bob Wolfgram, we have 31 of the finest men on campus.

Homecoming, the biggest event of the fall quarter, was its usual success with alumni coming from near and far for the day's activities which included: luncheon, dinner, and an excellent party. The team came through by beating Indiana 53 to 6. Iota's Homecoming display took fourth among the fraternities. It was a huge weather house, almost three stories high. The theme was "It's Always Fair Weather." Jack Lundstrum, chairman, led the chapter in an all-night vigil to finish the display about 15 seconds before the judges arrived Saturday morning.

SCHOLARSHIP HITS HIGH MARK

We are especially proud of our scholarship for the spring quarter. The Delts were third among fraternities, being beaten only by Farmhouse and Alpha Gamma Rho. Our average was a 2.508, way above the All Men's Average.

Intramural football is under way again and the Delts are on the top of the heap. Sparked by the quarterbacking of George Clifford and the coaching of Ollie Still, our team has yet to lose a game. Outstanding members of the team include Dean McConkey, John Coleman, Bob McDonald, Larry Walker, Doug Hafke, Tom Starling, Jon Shepherd, and Larry Rowe.

Captained by Delt Ken Dennings, our bowling team tops its block. Keglers include: Bob McDonald, Don Shepherd, Bob Urban, and Dean McConkey.

NAMED TO BLUE KEY

Iota is proud of Rog Bennett, head of the 1956 Water Carnival. Rog has just been elected to Excaliber, senior men's honorary for outstanding participation in campus activities. We are also very proud of Tom Anderson, varsity center, who has just been voted into Blue Key, national men's scholastic honorary.

We are all wondering when that little black cloud is going to stop hanging over the head of varsity end Bob Jewett. Bob broke a bone in his foot in the Stanford game and may be out for the season. The chapter was rooting for center Tom Anderson, who played a fine game against Indiana. We hope to see a lot more of Tom as the season goes on.

BILL ROWE

Minnesota—Beta Eta

PLEDGE GROUP ACTIVE ON CAMPUS

To date Beta Eta boasts a pledge class of 30 men. This is the largest class to come along in about seven years. The activities among the men in the pledge class are numerous and varied. There are men in Freshman Cabinet, boxing, wrestling, swimming, football, hockey, campus productions, and most other phases of campus life.

Great thanks go to Don Feidt, our rush chairman, for the tremendous job he has done. He has great drive and really showed us the way.

ALUMNI ASSIST IN IMPROVEMENTS

Due to the work and contributions of our Minnesota Alumni Chapter, the inside of the Shelter has been completely redone. We have new chairs, end tables, and a rug in the living room. There are new chairs in the dining room and new light fixtures throughout the house. The house has been completely repainted and a new entrance door has been installed. All this, plus the redoing of the kitchen and bathroom last year, gives us one of the nicest houses on campus.

In campus activities, several of the brothers are going ahead by great strides. Pete Vaill, who is already very active on campus, has been elected to the vice-presidency of the All University Congress. Milt Iossi is the chairman of S.L.A. Week and doing a good job at organizing the week's activities.

The future at Michigan looks bright, what with a fine new pledge aggregation like this one.

Major, IV, chapter mascot at Michigan, celebrates his birthday with a party in his honor at the Shelter. Twenty canine guests attended.

Bill Brewster is our new vice-president. He took over from Pete Vaill, who found that he did not have the necessary time to do an adequate job.

CONTRIBUTE TO VARSITY

In varsity athletics, the Delts are starting to shine with Bill Chorske and Max Schmitt in football, Bill Warner, Bill Comstock, and Jack Comstock in swimming, and Lloyd Olsen in golf. In I-M sports we expect to do much better this year than last, because our potential and spirit are considerably up from last fall, and our coach, Bill Warner, has a program of organized practices, which should help a bit.

JOHN W. LAING

Missouri—Gamma Kappa

SCHOLASTIC ACHIEVEMENT

As a crowning achievement, Gamma Kappa announces that it has far surpassed the All Men's Average this past semester. This was achieved by the superior scholarship program adopted last winter, along with the help of all the brothers.

PIG ROAST TOPS SOCIAL CALENDAR

The annual autumn Pig Roast highlighted the fall festivities. Some 70 Delts, pledges, and their dates spent the afternoon and evening on October 20 at the Pinnacles, near Columbia. The evening was sparked by the lively pledge skit followed by group singing around a hearty bonfire. No one went home hungry, as 120 pounds of barbecued green pork were consumed.

SUCCESSFUL RUSH NETS 20

After a successful summer of rushing, 20 men pledged Gamma Kappa. Pledge Trainer Kemp Bond is getting the pledges off to a good start both in the University and The Delt Development Program. Included in our talented pledge class are three baseball players, two basketball players, one freshman gridder, and two trackmen. In the line of music, we have a piano, trumpet, clarinet, saxophone, and a harmonica player, only to be exceeded by a drummer.

DELTS HEAD CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Dave Ober was appointed Dance Committee Chairman of the Student Government Association. He has complete charge of booking bands and shows for the University of Missouri. Larry Bollinger was elected as freshman representative for fraternities in the Student Government Association. Gregg Smith was appointed ad manager of the campus newspaper, the Maneater. He is also our IFC representative.

PHIL WAHL

Nebraska—Beta Tau

PLEDGE 25 NEW MEN

The chapter had one of the year's social high lights on Saturday, October 20, when the annual Hangover Party was held. All the brothers and their dates had a big evening at the costume affair. Social Chairman Dick Arneson was in charge of the gala event which followed the Indiana-Nebraska football game.

Beta Tau pledged 25 new men this September. The new pledge officers are Dick Hove, president; Tom Novotti, vice-president; Dick Hodge, treasurer; Sam Hall, secretary; Bud Arneson, sergeant at arms; Rex Engebretson, assistant sergeant at arms; and Jerry Bean, social chairman. "Judge" Noble is this semester's pledge trainer.

During the early weeks of this year President Bob Cook made several appointments. He named Tom Neff as rush chairman, Sam Olson as intramural chairman, Bob Aden, house and grounds, and Mick Neff, scholarship. Dick Walker and "Gus" Elwell are in charge of the chapter singing and Dick Bond headed the chapter's Homecoming activities which included the Missouri-Nebraska football game on November 3.

THREE FROM OTHER CHAPTERS JOIN

Three new men were initiated into Beta Tau on Sunday, October 14. They are Gordon Anderson, Dick Arneson, and Skip O'Halloran. Dick transferred to the University from Kearney State Teachers College at the beginning of the second semester last year.

Three brothers also joined us from other chapters. Dick Mapes, a law school freshman, came to us from Omega Chapter, Mike Smith from Gamma Pi, and Jerry Amos from Gamma Gamma.

The brothers went in force on the official Nebraska migration to Boulder, Colorado, for the Husker-Buffalo football game. It's always a great week end in the mountains and this year Beta Tau even chartered a bus for the October 27 trip. A great time was had by all.

VIES FOR STARTING POSITION

Bob Harry, a sophomore and Beta Tau rush chairman this summer, is a member of the University of Nebraska varsity basketball team. "Doc," standing 6-6, is in the thick of the fight for a starting forward spot.

Mrs. Bernice Hinds, "Mom" to us, is Beta Tau's housemother for the fifth consecutive year. The chapter would find it hard to get along without her.

The Delt intramural football team has been rolling along in fine fashion and at this time was considered one of the top three fraternity teams. The passing of Leonard Lindgren and the fine all-around play of "Tito" Mladovich have sparked in early games. Last year the Delts were runners-up in the fraternity division, winning the All-University crown the year before that.

GARY FRANDSEN

CHAPTER COPS HOMECOMING AWARD

Delta Xi Chapter of Delta Tau Delta has begun what appears to be a successful year with the pledging of 20 men through October 17, 1956. Through the efforts of Glenn Muir and Felix Vondracek, co-rush chairmen, Delta Xi has pledged more men the first month of school than in the same period in previous years.

Delta Xi's float won first place in the men's division of the University of North Dakota's Homecoming parade held October 20. The float was cited by many as the best float in years at UND.

SECOND PLACE IN FOOTBALL

In intramural touch football, the Delts won second place, paced by the fine play of Jim Anderson and Pledge Jay McCallum.

On Saturday, October 13, the actives and pledges played a touch football game with the final score reading, Actives 6, Pledges 0. Following this strenuous exercise, the Delts had a picnic with the Delta Delta Delta Sorority.

Delta Xi's Homecoming float, which won first place in North Dakota competition.

Delta Xi is now looking forward to November 17 when the annual Hard Times Party will be held. December 15 is the date of the annual Christmas Formal.

GLENN MUIR ACHIEVES D.S.M.

Two Deltas are in high position in the Army ROTC program at UND. Dennis Holweger, a cadet second lieutenant, is a platoon leader, while Glenn Muir, a cadet captain, is the S-1 on the battalion staff. Glenn was just recently selected as a Distinguished Military Student. This is the highest honor given to a senior in advanced ROTC based upon scholarship, attitude, and proficiency in drill. One with this honor has the opportunity to apply for a regular Army commission. Glenn was also elected treasurer of the Army ROTC Cadet Officer's Club at a recent meeting.

Glenn was chairman of the annual Blue Key Steak Fry held this year in the massive new fieldhouse. Glenn also held the post of chairman of finance on the 1956 Homecoming Committee. Now Glenn is working with his debate partner in preparation for a debate with Oxford University of England to be held in the Student Union on November 12.

In basketball, Gary Muralt and Jim Anderson are out for the varsity squad, while Pat Haddican is playing with the frosh squad. Pat was the winner of the 100- and 220-yard dashes plus the broad jump in the North Dakota State High School Class "B" track meet last spring.

NAMED LEADING STOCK JUDGE

Phil Braeger, freshman from Fessenden, was selected by the Future Farmers of America in North Dakota as their leading judge in the state livestock judging contest. As a result, Phil received a trip to the National FFA contest at Kansas City where he paced North Dakota to third place nationally.

James Votova, another freshman, won first place in the North Dakota State Science Fair last spring. As a reward, Jim received a trip to Oklahoma City for the Nation Science Fair. In the national contest, Jim won third place.

TWENTY-THREE PLEDGE DELT

After completion of a successful Rush Week, Beta Pi pledged 21 of the finest men on campus. Two men, pledged during open rush last spring, brought the total to 23. Co-Rush Chairmen Frank Magee and Rick Bremhorst are to be congratulated for their fine efforts in directing this year's Rush Week.

MCKIEVER RETURN SPARKS WILDCATS

Bob McKiever, returning to the Wildcats squad from two years of service football, is carrying on in the fine tradition of Delt athletes. From his left halfback position Bob has accounted for three-fourths of Northwestern's scoring, in addition to playing a splendid defensive game at safety.

Andy Cvercko, a varsity sophomore, already a veteran lineman and Jim Wozny, a freshman gridder, promise to continue keeping the Beta Pi Deltas on the sports page.

DELT PAJAMA RACE

In its 28th year, the annual Delt Freshman Pajama Race officially opened the 1956-57 Northwestern social calendar. Each men's housing unit chose a relay team of its four fastest freshmen. The Deltas' relay team almost stole their own show by coming in second place. Later, from freshman candidates selected by each women's housing unit, Miss Sally Schinnerer of Delta Delta Delta Sorority was chosen by Deltas of the senior class as Delt Pajama Queen of 1956. But the most coveted prize was a kiss from the Queen to the man wearing the most bizaare pajamas. This year's event was organized by Co-chairmen Frank Manta and Buzz Peterson.

APPOINTED TO SENATE COMMITTEE

Don Vacin, Bob Hamady, and George Bilby are on auction committees of the Student Service Fund auction which takes place later this fall. Don is also a member of the parade committee for Homecoming. George Bilby won a position in the 1956-1957 Dolphin Show cast, and is an alternate on the Wildcat cheerleaders' squad.

Dave Tompkins is editor of the Men's Student Directory, a member of the debate team, and a representative to the National Student Association.

Jim Maher and Wes Snyder have entered the radio field. Jim works at WNUR, the Northwestern station, while Wes is an announcer at WNMP, a local station here in Evanston. Ben Moggi and Bob Flinn are administration officer and company executive officer, respectively, in the NROTC unit. Frank Manta, a sophomore from Chicago, was recently extended an appointment to work on the Senate sub-committee on Juvenile Delinquency. The appointment was made by Senator Kefauver and came about as a result of Frank's work with a youth group.

BETA DELTS WIN HOMECOMING TROPHY

The Deltas at O.U. certainly started the year off right, for in the Homecoming house decoration competition, they copped the first-place prize. The returning alums found the front of the Shelter decorated like a convention hall, as a political scene was used to suggest that the O.U. football team would defeat Miami. A donkey and an elephant flanking a player held the winning ticket, while a huge slogan read "Ballots In—Bobcats Win." Decorations Chairman Jerry Lewis and his committees worked many hours on the prize-winner, which all proved most worth while, as evidenced by the bright new addition to the trophy case.

TWENTY NEW DELTS INITIATED

Twenty new Beta Deltis were initiated October 7, and then feted at a banquet that afternoon. A talk by Chapter Advisor Frederick Kershner gave the entire chapter a chance to congratulate him on being named Supervisor of Scholarship for the Arch Chapter at the August Karnea.

MRS. EMMA JONES NEW HOUSEMOTHER

The new year also found the Deltis with a new housemother, Mrs. Emma Jones of Youngstown. Mom Jones is already well acquainted with the Athens chapter, as two of her sons are Beta alums.

RUSH WEEK RECORD IS 46 OF 47

Certainly no one can deny that Beta Phi Chapter opened the year 1956-57 with more enthusiasm than was ever seen before. Taking advantage of an entirely reorganized rushing program which worked hand in hand with the other eight Delt chapters throughout the state, this chapter offered 47 bids to rushees and had 46 accepted. We feel fairly certain that no other fraternity on campus met with such great success.

Tradition has been known to bring about some strange doings, and undoubtedly one of the strangest is this chapter's annual Sadie Hawkins party. With its origin way back in the annals of time, the party is supposed to be a representation of human beings today forgetting about their problems and adopting a style of action, dress, and behavior that would be suitable only in the imagination of the great Al Capp. The party has always been an interesting high light, and we feel that this year will be no exception.

DELT MEETING IN STANFORD GAME

Ably complementing this year's varsity football team at Ohio State are three famous Deltis: Frank Ellwood at quarterback, Dick Guy at left tackle, and Fred Kriss at right end. It was anything but a dull encounter when State played Stanford on October 6, because opposing our three Deltis were seven Deltis on Stanford's varsity. I'm sure many people doubted that the game was an intercollegiate affair, for it appeared as though it was nothing but an intra-fraternity Delt affair.

With Homecoming around the corner, we have made many plans for a (we hope) prize-winning decoration. Our final result we feel sure will meet with much widespread praise from Wisconsin as well as Ohio State.

MU PLEDGES 24 OUTSTANDING MEN

Sixty-six active members of Mu Chapter returned to the Ohio Wesleyan campus in September, and thanks to the leadership of President Bill Armstrong and Jim Barnett, rush chairman, and the concentrated efforts of all the men in the chapter, we pledged a class of 24 outstanding men. Of these men, 13 were members of a local honor society or of the National Honor Society, and two were N.H.S. presidents. Two men were student body presidents, and eight others held some student body office. Nineteen of the men won one or more varsity letters in high school, and one was editor of his high school yearbook. We expect great achievements from this class and are looking forward to the time when they will be active members of the chapter.

DELTS LEAD YEARBOOK TO NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Ohio Wesleyan's 1956 yearbook, Le Bijou, was awarded an All-American rating in the American Collegiate Press contest. Mu Chapter was especially pleased with this honor, because Bill Armstrong, Mu, '57, was editor of the book, and Ron Vidmar, Mu, '56, was the managing editor. We extend our heartiest congratulations to Brothers Armstrong and Vidmar.

The high light of the social calendar thus far was the pledge formal held on October 20. The pledges were served a roast beef dinner by the active chapter. The pledges and their dates spent the rest of the evening "Dancing on the Delta." The music was provided by the Campus Quintet, and decorations were in a New Orleans theme.

CEREMONIES WELL PERFORMED

Delta Alpha recently distinguished itself from a mere social organization by the completion of two well-executed ceremonies. Bob Welles, Tom Foster, Gary Curran, and Bailey Word were initiated in mid-September. The new formal pledging ceremony was also a confirmed success, as new pledges gave their oaths of loyalty and service.

HELP SORORITY WIN TROPHY

Because of the proximity of exams and homecoming week end, the Interfraternity Council decided against the building of house decorations. As a result, we constructed the winning sorority decoration for Gamma Phi Beta. The quotation or saying, "Big Red has something to crow about," was displayed with a huge 15-foot red rooster which raised and lowered its head while crowing, and which clutched a bobbing Kansas State worm in its claws. For this we were honored with a delicious barbecue supper.

Our next big concentrated effort will be forced upon the 1956-57 Sooner Scandals, O.U.'s annual variety show. Our act will recognize the 50th anniversary of the state of Oklahoma. Our already well-known glee club will provide the music and continuity for a show which should bring another trophy to our chapter house.

This year the Texas and O.U. Deltas had a combined party at the Insurance-Man's Club in the new Statler Hilton in Dallas, Texas. This chapter migration to Dallas is practically a habit around here.

WELCOME EXCHANGE STUDENT

Living with us this year is Herman Walnick, a German exchange student on a Fulbright Scholarship. Herman's major is physics, and his hobby is electronic computers. Any day now we expect a new I.B.M. or Univac to solve all our chapter problems.

The Delta Chi members are pleased with the progress of the pledge class. The pledge class will hold its annual dinner-dance November 3. The decorations will be based on the Playboy magazine theme.

WRESTLING CHAMP DEFENDS CROWN

Wrestling season will soon be here, and the 167-pound all College champ, J. B. Hoobler, will be back to defend his crown. Our chapter last year placed third.

Our fall formal will be held November 17.

DELTS RETIRE BUNION DERBY TROPHY

The Oregon Deltas kicked off the fall term by winning the Annual Bunion Derby for the third consecutive year, thus retiring the Derby Trophy by this triple win and taking over another revolving award. This activity involves flying visits by the men's living groups to the women's organizations on campus, allowing a seven-minute stopover for dancing.

ATHLETICS—GAIN & LOSS

The chapter lost an able representative on the varsity backfield this year in Chuck Osborne. Chuck suffered a torn ligament in practice and is benched for this year; however, a transfer from Pomona, California, Marlon Holland, is part-time halfbacking for the "Ducks" and keeping the chapter on the sports page.

DELTS ON CAMPUS

With 29 pledges this term, and nearly 50 living in, Chapter President Bob Frank has his hands full scheduling activities and assigning committees to cover literally every campus project. Dan Frank, Tom Waldrop, Bill Hallock, and Tom Wieland are disc-jockeying at campus Radio Station KWAX. Tom Royston was homecoming finance chairman. Jim Carroll is one of the school's leading symposium speakers. Ron Rohner reached the finals in the "Joe College" contest. The Oregon Daily paper, The Emerald, is staffed with many Deltas, including Bob Frank, Tom Leahy, and Warren Rucker.

CAMPUS UNDER DELT SPELL

A sensation this year is the hypnotic spell Roy Dwyer is casting throughout the Oregon campus. Under the guise of an Hypnotic Retention Experiment, which he has proved possible, Roy and the Deltas have been the biggest draw for every sorority "dessert." He has found it difficult to spell-bind the doubtful females, but has had many a brother eating lemons with great gusto and performing otherwise impossible feats.

DELTA LAMBDA TO GET NEW SHELTER

The last bids have been accepted, and the new Delta Lambda Chapter house will be finished by the fall of 1957. The new location of the house is about the same distance from the campus, but offers more parking space and a larger landscape area. We wish to extend our thanks to the many alumni who have helped us gain this marvelous physical structure.

DAVE BEADLING INITIATED TO BLUE KEY

David Beadling, '57, one of the most remarkable students on the OSC campus, has been initiated into Blue Key. Blue Key is a senior men's service group and includes the 14 most outstanding senior men on campus. This honor climaxed Dave's brilliant college career which has included being tapped for Tau Beta Pi, Sigma Tau, Phi Kappa Phi, and Phi Eta Sigma national honorary fraternities, being a member of the American Society of Civil Engineering, the Tech Record editorial staff, the business staff of the school paper, Pershing Rifles and Scabbard and Blade military fraternity. He is presently serving as house president of Delta Lambda Chapter. Dave also receives a well-deserved Consolidated Freightway scholarship.

The Delt candidate for Homecoming Queen, Joan Norman of Pi Beta Phi, served as one of the princesses of the Homecoming court. Joan did a fine job of representing Delta Tau Delta in the ceremonies.

Congratulations are due to Gary

SCHOLARSHIP PLAQUE HONORS
MEMORY OF WILLIAM H. JOHNSON

The members of Tau Chapter, class of '54, have donated a bronze plaque to the Shelter in honor of William H. Johnson, Tau, '54 in memory of his outstanding love and service to Delta Tau Delta. The plaque which is permanently affixed in the trophy room will be awarded each year to the pledge with the highest scholastic average for the year. The pledges' names will be engraved upon the trophy. A past president of Tau Chapter, Bill Johnson was killed last February during an Air Force training flight.

RECORD VAULT FORECAST

The Delts at Penn State are showing their athletic prowess both in intramural and varsity sports. John Behne and Dan Reese represent Tau Chapter on the lacrosse field, while Harry Fuehrer, top pole vaulter for the varsity track team, is expected to reach 14'6" this year. Herb Hollowell, outstanding distance man on last year's squad, will be sidelined this year due to a torn Achilles' tendon he received in last spring's Quantico Base track meet. On the intramural scene, the tennis doubles team of Jim Quinn and Ty Moyer are at present in the quarter-final elimination round.

The chapter's bowling team, which took top honors last year, is a favorite again in this year's matches.

TWO ENTER SKULL AND BONES

The Delts at Penn State are well represented in campus activities. Harry Fuehrer and Roger Alexander have been tapped by Skull and Bones, senior men's honorary society. Fuehrer is a varsity track man, and Alexander is editor of The Daily Collegian and a member of Lion's Paw, senior honor society. William Joyce has also been named a senior member of the student tribunal.

ANNUAL FACULTY RECEPTION

Approximately 200 members of the faculty and their wives attended the fifth annual faculty reception held at the Shelter recently. The reception was planned by the Delts, along with Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority, in an effort to improve student-faculty relations on the campus. The affair was termed a success by everyone who attended.

SAINT NICK JOB OPEN

With Christmas fast approaching, Tau Chapter will make the holiday season a bit brighter for 100 underprivileged children when the chapter, along with Tri Delt Sorority will sponsor a Christmas Party for the children. Our last year's Santa Claus, however, has transferred to another school, and we are still looking around for another Saint Nick for the party this year.

In keeping with the spirit of the season, the brothers and pledges of Tau Chapter would like to take this opportunity to wish a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to our alumni and to Delts all over the world.

RUSHING DEEMED GREAT SUCCESS

Pitt Delts began the fall semester with three weeks of intense rushing. They were spiced with stag lodge parties, house dances with a Pitt sorority and women from Chatham College, with music supplied by a combo from the Delt chapter at Carnegie Tech, and open house every day for two weeks. When the final results were in, Gamma Sigma picked up 18 pledges who are tops on campus for quality.

The new pledges are already proving themselves valuable additions to Gamma Sigma's interfraternity football team, which is undefeated in five games. Two pledges, Lou Jordan and Jim Entress, are also on the freshman basketball team.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATION

George Buerger was recently elected treasurer of the senior class of the school of pharmacy. Brother Buerger's election gives Gamma Sigma eight officers in student government, more than any fraternity on campus.

The Pitt Delts are presently working on the house front and float for Pitt's Homecoming the week end of November 17 when Army plays the Panthers. This year's Homecoming theme is nursery rhymes, and our topic is Humpty Dumpty. Gamma Sigma has high hopes of taking two trophies again as we did last year.

THE START OF ANOTHER YEAR

After the dust of fall house cleaning had settled, and the scrambled confusion of rush week was pieced together, we found ourselves with 18 new pledges. When time had oriented the new future Delts, we welcomed into the Shelter 14 new brothers. Along with the new faces in the chapter room came new ideas and suggestions.

STUDENT VARIETY SHOW

With the newness of the old routine of studying came the many hours of practicing for the student variety show, which is held each fall. Once again we teamed up with Wood Hall, a girls' residence hall, to put on one-whale-of-a-show. Two big football week ends, Dad's Day and Homecoming, provided huge quantities of excitement and good fellowship.

Towards the last of November, with jokes, stories, and all sorts of seemingly important things stuffed in our heads, we left for home, Thanksgiving, and Mom's cooking.

VIVA ZAPATA PARTY

Things are beginning to roll here at old Delta Psi. The school work is under control, and the brothers are plotting social soirees. Planned for early November will be a Viva Zapata party, which the pledges will organize and throw for the actives. The site will be a picturesque cantina, sequestered in the Santa Ynez mountain range. This haven of delight has had a long and glorious past which dates back to the days when the stages ran between Santa Barbara and San Francisco. As an aftermath, the chapter will have its annual Christmas formal at bountiful Rocky Nook.

RUSH NETS 25

The crew did well during rush, adding 25 pledges of tremendous character, who will do the chapter proud. These splendid men will carry on the good work of those men who have distinguished themselves on campus. Among others, we find Dick Goode still holding the reins of Student Body President; Art Herman, who is one of the three Men's Representatives-at-Large; Morlan Lewis, who is chairman of the Board of Athletic Control; Bob Rolph, who is vice-president of Interfraternity Council; and Jim Bailey, who is the hot-dog chairman of the Special Events Committee. El Gaucho, the school blurb, profits from the experience of Delts Max Caulk and John Stephenson.

SLATED FOR CENTER POSITION

Five Delts have turned out for varsity basketball, including a 6' 7" lad, named Jim Comstock. Jim's long legs and long arms promise to bring him the first-team position of center.

FOURTH TROPHY IN FIVE YEARS

Delta Gamma started off the 1956 fall term with hard work during work week and rush week which resulted in the pledging of 19 top freshmen.

Dakota Day, USD's homecoming, as usual was the biggest event on the campus this fall. Delta Gamma, as in the past, spent many long hours before D Day working on the float and house decorations. The results of this labor proved it worth while when the float won first prize as the most beautiful and the house decorations placed second. This is the fourth first-prize float for Delta Gamma in five years.

DAKOTA DAY CHAIRMAN

Chairman for Dakota Day was Delt Jim Dickson, whose work resulted in a record-breaking crowd of 35,000. During half-time ceremonies roses were presented to the queen by the top four men's organizations on campus. Representatives included Delt Bob Frieberg, president of the Interfraternity Council; Delt Mick McCahren, president of the Dakotans, a men's service organization; and Delt Chuck Allan, president of the O-Dakota-Ki, a men's honorary fraternity.

Delta Gamma thus far this fall has come through strong in the intramural athletics. At the present time we are tied for first place in football. The bowling team has broken scoring records, and the golf team came in second in tournament play. Pledge Mike Gibson tied for first as medalist, but lost in the play-off.

Two Delts, Bob Nason and Ken Ingalls, were elected to the Strollers organization this fall.

Plans are now being made for the annual Delt Fall Formal which is to be held November 2. The sweetheart of Delta Gamma will be crowned at this event.

HELPING HAND FROM WOMEN'S CLUB

Last spring's pledge class became members of Delta Tau Delta on October 12. Harry Lagerwall, George Kosboth, Erling Maine, and Raymond Kent Edwards took the oath of a Delta. Guest speaker was Gamma Omicron alum, Forrest Witmeyer.

Again The Women's Club of Gamma Omicron has given us a helping hand. New drapes were made by Brother McArt's mother. A new twist to the game of rushing was the aid that Mrs. Currier gave us. Since Ed Currier was rushing chairman and had over 1,000 summer rushing brochures to send out, Mrs. Currier lost no time in helping Ed in this big project.

STUDENT BAND DIRECTOR

Brad Bowers, music education major, was appointed student band director.

He helps plan all football half-time shows and is in charge of the band throughout the game. The house boasts of six other members in the SU One Hundred Men and a Gal Band.

WEST POINTERS ENTERTAINED

One of the greatest week ends on the social calendar this year was the Army-Syracuse Week End. Everybody had open house for the cadets from West Point. After the game we had a buffet at the house and a "Green Door" Party that night. The house was bursting with week-end guests, alums, brothers, and their dates along with the men in uniform. It was rumored that the Delts had the largest group of cadets at their party.

One of the last social functions at the house this fall was a coffee with Delta Delta Delta Sorority. Our "sisters" noticed the oar that Alum Bernie Dawson had given the house and immediately took a fancy to it. It wasn't long before they had taken it down from the living room wall and were headed homeward. Delts are planning a coffee with the Tri Delts in hopes of recapturing our oar.

OUTSTANDING PLEDGE CLASS

From out of the Land of the Smokies comes the vigorous call of "Hi gang," and fraternal greetings to all Delts.

Delta Delta Chapter came through this fall's rush with an 18-man pledge class which is acknowledged campus-wide as an outstanding group in every respect.

Typical of the whole bunch of wildcats is John White, contestant for the University honor, "Joe College." Much difficulty was encountered in trying to select a candidate, since each of the prospective Delts was vieing for the honor, particularly Bill (Ernest Borgnine) Barbee, of Manassas, Virginia, who managed to get his picture in the local papers on the first day of rush. Ever since hitting the front page, Bill has been an irrepressible publicity hound.

STUDY-LIBRARY BLUEPRINTED

The Shelter has had considerable work completed on it already, and many new furnishings were purchased prior to the opening of school. Plans now being expedited call for a tremendous study-library on the third floor.

SCHOLASTIC CHALLENGE

In the realm of scholarship, the pledges have shown an interesting—and encouraging—talent for making good grades. Fairly confident of their abilities, the Delta Delta pledges challenged the Gamma Eta class at George Washington to a trophy on the basis of the highest class average. The leading contender for "Miss Tennessee" was invited over by some humor-minded pledges to have lunch on the Delt lawn during the campus elections in October. Deborah Bovine, being run by the "Good Government League," had to decline the invitation because of a prior commitment—she was providing milk for the afternoon lunch at another fraternity house. Debbie, by the way, was a pure-bred Holstein being run as a candidate in the Miss U-T contest as a good-natured protest to political alliances familiar on many campuses. News reports claimed that more than 1,500 votes were cast over a normal ballot—a fitting tribute to Miss D.B.

Westminster transfer Peter Childs was put right to work as treasurer at Delta Delta. A financier in his own right, Pete has succeeded in buying half-interests in nearly all the brothers' personal property. We're beginning to wonder just what is behind all this buying spree, and will probably pass it on to you in the next issue.

PAINT FLOWS FOR HELP WEEK

Gamma Iota began the fraternity year with one of the best rush weeks in the Fraternity's history. We picked up 33 pledges under the direction of Brother Fred Nagle and his assistant rush captain, Frank Nagle. Soon following, Delta Tau Delta moved into initiation of last spring's pledges. The high light of pre-initiation was the Help Week and the painting of the cook's home.

On the social scene, Gamma Iota has been having an informal party after each of the Texas University football games and brunches before the game. The biggest of these meals before the game was the homecoming, Dad's Day, Texas-S.M.U. lunch at the Shelter. It was a time of old Delts, Dads, and dates to fill the house to capacity and many ate in the back yard.

SHELTER ENLARGEMENT PLANNED

October 15 was the start of Gamma Iota's drive for a remodeling fund to enlarge the present Shelter. All active members under the direction of Treasurer Roy Moore have turned their time to helping in sending out literature, making contacts, and in general helping the alumni who are leading the drive.

Intramurals have found the Delts doing the best that they have ever done in football and basketball. With four of the leading teams in these two sports, Gamma Iota, under the direction of Brother Kenneth Voelkel, has done well on the sports scene and is again among the leaders for the Intramural Trophy.

The Christmas month finds that Gamma Iota has its hands full with the annual Fraternity Sing-Song, the Christmas party, and a party for the underprivileged of Austin. In Sing-Song, Gamma Iota is the defending champion.

RUSHING IS REWARDING

An efficient rush week proved rewarding to Epsilon Beta this fall, with the pledging of 16 outstanding men. Buddy Young, rush captain, deserves the cheer for co-ordinating the five-day party called rush week. We can't forget Toler Brannon, editor of our rush publication, "The Horned Frog Delt" or as we called it, "Ace-in-the-hole."

THREE NEW BRETHREN

No sooner had the smoke of rush week settled, when Epsilon Beta welcomed three new members into the active chapter. John Cantrell, Jerry Ray, and Joe Sparks were initiated Sunday morning, October 14, at the Hilton Hotel here in Ft. Worth. We're also proud of our complete new set of ritual robes, part of which were donated by Kathy Massey, wife of one of our alumni.

VICTORY CELEBRATION

Following the game with Arkansas (October 6) all of the Delts, including old married alums, were gathered at the Hilton for a Bring-Whom-You-Can function. Arch Thompson, Jim McCord, and Don Leaman represented some of the returning colonizers.

REDECORATION BY MOTHERS AND WIVES

Another busy social fall is under way at Delta Theta. The redecorating of the house by the Mothers' and Wives' Club has made a wonderful improvement. The living room and dining room have been repainted and new furniture and lighting have been added to the living room. The basement is now the lower lounge, and provides an extra room for parties. All alumni should drop in and see the "new look."

ACKERT IS SWIMMING CHAMPION

Last spring John Ackert won the inter-collegiate championship in swimming and earned his varsity letter. Bruce Faulkner won his varsity letter in sprinting. These two Delts have been well publicized in the campus daily. Also in the field of sports, Keith McIntyre and Dick Bentham won their faculty athletic letters for their endeavors in hockey.

Coming up soon on the social calendar are the homecoming week end, October 20), a wiener roast at President Crysdale's home at Aurora, and the alumni-active stag. Of course the big social event of the year will be the formal to be held at the fabulous Fantasy Farm on January 18.

DELTS FIGURE PROMINENTLY IN TUFTS UNDEFEATED GRID TEAM

It is impossible to enumerate here all the outstanding accomplishments of the Beta Mu Delts this fall. Here are a few of the highest points.

Delts have played an important part on the thus far undefeated Tufts football team. Left End Bill Callahan deserves special mention for his outstanding play which was instrumental in our decisive win over Harvard. Center Dan Murphy, Right End Scotty Provan, and Left Tackle Dick Bogosian have all played well, especially in our 52-20 drubbing of Trinity on Homecoming Week End. As manager, John Banas has done a fine job.

Homecoming Week End was most rewarding at the Shelter too. Sixty alumni and their families returned to the Shelter to reminisce and partake of the buffet dinner. Many commented favorably to President George Ryan concerning the improvements in the newly repainted Shelter and on the other aspects of our Homecoming greeting. We in turn enjoyed meeting and talking with them again.

POLK JOINS WREN IN TBII

Scholastically, Graham Wren joined Jim Polk in Tau Beta Pi. Deltas in important campus positions include Delt Vice-President Courtney Bourns, who is also Senior Class vice-president, a member of the Student Council, and member of the Tower Cross, the senior honorary society. President Ryan and Junior Ed Cardone are members of the Interfraternity Council, Ryan being treasurer. Junior Bill Callahan is treasurer of the Inter-Dormitory Council. Sophomore Class President Jack Leckie, Bob Buckley, Bob Watson, and Jack Doykos are all members of the sophomore honorary society, Sword and Shield. Buckley is vice-president; and Watson is also the sophomore Student Council representative. Dick Chess is Commander of the Navy R.O.T.C. unit and Jay Kerby is lieutenant colonel of the Air Force unit.

LEADING IN INTRAMURAL RACE

In interfraternity athletics we have an excellent chance for first place. Last year we were in a virtual tie for second; and in football we have already shut out last year's winners.

In successfully keeping Delta Tau Delta on top at Tufts, we have been fortunate to have Joe Reynolds' invaluable assistance. Joe, past President of Delta Tau Delta, has been our chapter adviser for 23 years.

TOM BARTLETT

SIX STUDENT BODY PRESIDENTS

To begin the semester, Delta Iota, under the leadership of President Jim De Mille and Rush Chairman Bob Anderson, added 24 new pledges to the chapter roll. This includes six of the eleven high school student body presidents who went through rushing here at U.C.L.A.

As President De Mille puts it, "We seem to have put our fingers into more pots than usual this year."

Ted Robinson edits, and a Delt staff writes, The Pacific, a weekly campus magazine. Gary Bamberg has just been elected president of the 4,000-member freshman class.

and Brian Kniff are playing frosh basketball.

Intramurally, we've won our flag football league, beating out seven other fraternity teams. We're well on the way toward our goal of all-U champs.

Socially, we've held our annual French Apache party at the Shelter and the Delt Queen Formal at the Riviera Country Club. Planned for December is a weekend exchange upstate with the beauties of KAΘ at Santa Barbara College.

HONOR OLYMPIC ATHLETES

Homecoming this year at U.C.L.A. is in honor of the nation's 350 Olympic athletes who will be leaving from Los Angeles for Melbourne, Australia. The parade has "Olympic Daze" as its theme and will be seen nationwide on television. We'll be building our float with the Tri-Delts and hope to bring home some prizes.

HIGH SCHOOL STARS IN PLEDGE CLASS

Delta Pi wound up with 35 top-notch pledges, which brings a total of around 130 men in our house now. Among the men we pledged this fall are: Jim White, Mike Fryer, John Warhase, and Bill Bloom, all of whom won All State basketball honors in high school and are starters for the freshman basketball team here at S.C.

Another man we will be hearing a lot of in the future is Pledge Jerry Persenger, who won All State football honors as a fullback in high school. Still another pledge, Fred Tissue, won All-American honors in swimming, and placed 6th in the Olympic trials.

Jim Rogers, Ben Benjamin, Hugh Sponsel, and Pledge Fred Walker are all out for crew.

CAPTAINS WATER POLO TEAM

All-American Swimmer Jim Steveson is captain of the water polo team. In football, Laird Willott, in his senior year now, and Doug Kranz are first-string guard and second-string halfback respectively.

Ken Pearson will be playing his second year as first-string center for the Trojan basketball team.

Pacific Coast two-man volleyball championship honors went to Delt Ron Lang, who has been helping us out tremendously in our interfraternity sports. Chuck Collins is a yell leader at all S.C. football games.

RENT THREE ELEPHANTS

Among events that will be coming up is the S.C. Homecoming parade, for which we have rented three elephants to parade down Wilshire Boulevard in downtown Los Angeles. We will also have a float entered.

CONDUCTS RALLY FOR IKE

Jack Casey, president of Trojan Knights, an honorary organization, and voted Mr. Trojanality by the student body, received a personal call from Fred Waring, who wants Jack to conduct a rally for President Eisenhower in Washington, D. C., in the latter part of October. All expenses paid, Jack left October 19 for a week in Washington.

TAKE EARLY LEAD IN I-M RACE

Beta Psi has jumped to an early lead this year in the all-school intramural race, one of the campus' keenest forms of interfraternity competition. In touch football we went undefeated through our nine-game schedule. During the season our opponents scored only eight points on the brilliant defensive unit, while our offensive squad was piling up in excess of 200 points.

The cross-country squad (which went undefeated last season) ran its undefeated streak to 12 with its first win this year. In the mass meet, the Delts won over three other houses and will run two more times.

RIGHT GUARD FOR CAVEMEN

Beta Psi Delts are well represented on the Wabash College grid squad. Fred Pipin, sophomore, has nailed down the starting right guard position. The coaches (as well as the fans) have been impressed with his determination and showing thus far and are even talking of possible All State rating later on. Harold Traviolia, junior, has been playing varsity second-string left halfback thus far this season, and has seen a lot of action. Bob Damm, freshman, has been given the extra point try assignment by Coach Garland Frazier. In this capacity, Bob has been quite effective thus far.

ENDORSE NEW PLEDGING CEREMONY

Early this year Beta Psi was one of the first chapters to use the new pledging ceremony. Bowman Downey and Jim Morison, co-authors of the new ritual, were on hand to officiate. Following the ceremony, a banquet was given in honor of our new pledge class. This pledge class includes 14 men, of which six have won college scholarships and many others are definite BMOC material. At the banquet, Don Mitchell, Delt professor of math, was on hand to deliver the major address.

OFFICERS IN CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

Beta Psi, per usual, this year holds down many key campus political positions or offices. In addition to the many vice-presidencies in the house, other major office-holders include: Tom Dewey, business manager of the yearbook; Don Caplinger, member of the Board of Publications; Dave Schreiber, president of Delta Phi Alpha and Sigma Pi Sigma; Hank Sheldon, president of the Interfraternity Council; and John Pence, board member of the Political Union and Public Affairs Forum.

Other Delts have been named or elected to various other campus honorary organizations. Buck Dennis and Red Traviolia have been initiated into Sphinx Club; Charles Spurgeon and Fred Burry have been elected to Delta Phi Alpha; Bob Little has been selected for membership in Sigma Pi Sigma; Hank Sheldon, Don Caplinger, and John Pence have been made charter members of a new political science honorary organization, Political Union.

FORTY PLEDGES TAKE DELT PIN

Under the guidance of Tom Peterson, rushing chairman, Gamma Mu completed its most successful rush week ever by pledging 40 top men, including eight from Seattle. The other 32 are from various points in Washington and Idaho, except for Jim Flint, who came all the way from Freeport, New York.

Newly elected officers of the class are Pat Glenn, president; Chuck Slater, vice-president; Nich Scheuch, secretary-treasurer; and John Backus, social chairman. The class includes athletes, class officers, and honor students, and has an average grade point of 3.1.

COP CARNIVAL TROPHY THIRD TIME

Activitywise, Washington Delts rank with the leaders, having won the coveted Sophomore Carnival trophy for the third time in the last eight years, and also taking third place in the ensemble division of the annual songfest. The Delt ten-piece band, "The Deltones," which has participated in many campus events and made an appearance on television, is anticipating a win in the Village Band Concert, after finishing second for the last two years. The band plans to play a Harry James arrangement of "Two O'Clock Jump."

Individually, active Delts include Larry Johanson, elected Inter-Relations Counselor of the I.F.C.; Varsity Gymnast Chuck Michaelson, lending Delt spirit to the University yell squad; Marsh Johnson, art editor of Columns, the University magazine; and Ken Langton, president of Bachelor's Club.

WIN IN GYMNASTICS AND SKIING

In athletics, Gamma Mu has won its share of the trophies by copping the intramural gymnastics trophy and taking the men's slalom ski trophy, with the aid of Tom Monroe, a member of the U.S. Junior Olympic team. The Delts also placed second in volleyball competition.

NEW RUSHING RULES

Rushing this year at W. & J. will not take place until the second semester. The Delts have been on the lookout for prospective pledges. The chapter hopes to get about 19 neophytes.

BIBB RECEIVES HONOR

The Delts of Gamma Chapter are making a good showing in sports this year. James Bibb, a sophomore, won honorable mention on the Tri-State team (Penna., W. Va., Ohio) last year. This year he is also doing very well as tackle. Walter Terpin, a sophomore, is a varsity lineman playing guard. Andrew Puglise, a junior, and Sophomore James Welsh are prominent prospects for next year's varsity team. This is Andy's first year for college ball. Jim was injured last year and was unable to play most of the games. Delt Arthur Nowak is head manager of the football squad.

CAPTAINS RIFLE TEAM

William Temple is the captain of W. & J.'s rifle team. Jack Raymond is also a first-string man on the rifle team. Both men are doing fine for the team.

DALE JOHNSTON

PHI PLEDGES THIRTEEN

Phi Chapter pledged 13 men during the week-long rush at the opening of the University this fall. These men were outstanding in every phase of high school and prep school activities, and we feel that they will continue to maintain this excellence at W. & L. Phi Chapter owes this outstanding pledge class primarily to the efforts of the Rush Chairman Bruce Keeling and his assistant, Arnold Groobey.

DELTS ACTIVE IN SPORTS

The opening of the fall sports season finds 15 men participating on two varsity teams. Again leading the football team is Delt "Corky" Briscoe, winner of the Most Valuable Player Trophy awarded by the W. & L. alumni for his outstanding performance in the Homecoming game. Other first stringers are Jim Lewis, Fred Heina, and Pete Doyle. In reserve are Delts Andy McThenia, Tore Cacella, Bruce Keeling, and Clark Lea, and Freshmen John Silver, Courtney Noe, Bill Young, and Dick Young.

Morgan Schaefer is captain of the soccer team; he is ably assisted by first-stringers Bill Boyle, Bill Russell, and Jay Phillippe.

DELTS HEAD CHARITY CHEST

Don Fowler from Parkersburg, West Virginia, and Rodger Doyle from Pensacola, Florida, have been selected by the University Christian Council to be co-chairmen of the 1956 Charity Chest Drive on the W. & L. Campus. This drive combines all the national charities into one concerted effort on campus, the Charity Chest. The organization of this drive has taken weeks of hard work and planning on the part of Don and Rodger. With the drive only six weeks off, these men feel they will better the $4,000 raised last year.

Beside their work with the Christian Council, Rodger has played varsity football for the past three years and Don has been a varsity wrestler for the same number of years.

BILL YOUNG NOMINATED UNIVERSITY E.C.

Bill Young, Delt pledge from Louisville, Kentucky, was nominated by the Independent Party of Washington and Lee University to the position of Freshman Executive Committeeman. Bill was active on his high school student council, a consistently high (94.3) scholastic student, and a five-letter man in varsity sports. The position of Executive Committeeman is the only elected office open to freshman students. The E.C. posts are perhaps the most important and responsible on campus, because it is this body which governs, operates, and enforces the widely known W. & L. Honor System. Best of luck to Bill in the forthcoming election!

SUCCESSFUL RUSHING SEASON

Working under Wesleyan's immediate rushing program, Gamma Zeta Chapter concluded its most successful rushing season in several years with the pledging of nine top freshmen on September 19. To do this, we returned two weeks before classes began. The first week was spent in extensive redecorating of the inside of the Shelter; the second week was taken up with the actual rushing program—a strenuous one on this almost all-fraternity campus. Already our new pledges are taking an active interest in campus and house activities.

STAGE CAMPUS DEMONSTRATION

Following the pledging ceremony, the Delt brothers and pledges led a spontaneous all-campus rally and demonstration from the Shelter to the other end of the campus, picking up the men from the various houses as we moved along. The high light of the rally was the serenading of President Vic Butterfield and Director of Admissions Bob Norwine with the Alma Mater and other Wesleyan songs, the singing of which, incidentally, was led by Brother Whitey Johnson, '56.

DELTS GREET NIXON

When Vice-President Nixon landed at Bradley Field, Hartford, Connecticut, at 2:30 a.m. at the beginning of October, he was greeted by an enthusiastic group from Wesleyan. One-fourth of this group were Delts from Gamma Zeta Chapter. The Vice-President, obviously tired from his very extensive campaigning, nevertheless stopped to shake hands and talk with the Wesmen.

SEIDL CAPTAINS RED CATS

Zeta boasts of having the best balanced chapter on Reserve's campus. It has men in key posts of all the extra-curricular organizations of the University. In all organizations from sports to publications the important men are Delts.

Brother Seidl, president of the chapter and one of the two junior men elected to Phi Beta Kappa, was picked as the captain of the Red Cats' football team.

We were fortunate this year in being able to repeat what we have done in the years previous—having the largest and finest pledge class on campus.

DIVISION CONFERENCE IN CLEVELAND

Work is now being done on our Homecoming decoration which will far excel anything we have ever built. And in the next issue of THE RAINBOW we hope to tell you just how good it was.

We will be looking forward to seeing many of you at the Northern Division Conference here in Cleveland. Preparations are now under way and we assure all who attend of having a good time.

tiation of the men occurred in early September when George Sleight, Sonny Lombardi, Chick Edwards, and Al Bruegeman donned the badge of Deltism.

Rush Week ended in one of the most successful Delta Omicron sweeps in recent years. Seventeen top-notch freshmen are now wearing the pledge pin of Delta Tau Delta on the Westminster campus.

The annual event of Dad's Day will take place this year on October 20. The Delts have won the track event seven years in a row and so again will be out in force to win the honors of the day.

HICKS STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT

Tom Hicks, past chapter president, has recently been elected student body president here at Westminster. We all wish Brother Hicks lots of success in this honored office.

Dick Smith, former Westminster Delt returned from the wars, was elected president of the chapter and Stan Chirnside took over the treasurer's post in chapter elections held at the beginning of the fall semester.

DELT RECEIVES ALL-AMERICAN MENTION

The day was October 13, when West Virginia University lost to Syracuse. The loss, however, could not be pinned on any one man, especially 220-pound Right End Roger Chancey. This Delt gave a sterling performance of football ability against one of the strongest lines in college football. Even in defeat, Chancey received much attention and credit, when time after time he was solely responsible for throwing a Syracuse back for a sizeable loss. Only a junior this year, this brother is well on his way to a mythical dream team in the future.

wonderful start in our fall rushing. Each city gave a fabulous party that was a big success.

Tom Lantz, our rush chairman, did a very commendable job this year with the spirit and relentless energy he put into rush week. When rush week was over, our final count of pledges came to 38. We feel, however, that with this large quantity we still have the best of quality and a wealth of excellent Delt material.

A HECTIC WEEK END

Our annual mud-bowl game (pledges vs. actives) and a Western party were held on October 13. As is customary, the actives always manage to come out on the long end of the score. This game always provides many laughs and muddy faces for the spectators as well as the players. That same evening we had a Western party that was typical of the "old West." Richard Strugill, who was responsible for house decorations, did a great job of fixing the house up like a saloon, with paintings, player-piano music, and poker tables. David Grimes, our social chairman, contributed, as always, more than his share to the success of this party.

CHANCEY, BARILLE IN HONORARY

John Barille, runner-up heavyweight Southern Conference wrestler, and Roger Chancey, regular West Virginia University right end, were recently pledged in the mock men's honorary, Fi Beter Kaper, for outstanding men on this campus. These men are selected on outstanding grades, leadership, personality, popularity, and campus activities.

CHAPMAN CUISINE AT ANNUAL PICNIC

This is the first opportunity to report what a grand success the annual picnic was. The traditional cuisine was arranged for and planned by Frank Chapman, who was drafted for this duty for at least the fourth time. It may be more times than that; on second thought, however, Frank isn't that old.

Frank Bevington was there with his Yul Brynner haircut. (Did we say "hair-cut"?)

Out at the Army Reserve, Command, and General Staff School who should come in several weeks ago but Major Ed Iddings. Ed is still in Government service, U. S. Department of Agriculture. He has just transferred from Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. He is the loan officer for the Farmers Home Administration.

We now have an up-to-date list of Boise Valley Delts. Copies will be sent to Delts who write me at 213 Mobley Drive, Boise, Idaho.

SPONSOR GIANT RUSH PARTY

August 28, 1956, saw one of the most tremendous rush parties ever sponsored by the Chicago alumni. The Beaubien Room of the new Prudential Plaza Building overflowed with alumni, undergraduates, and guests.

Everyone took a tour around the Observation Deck on top of Chicago's newest skyscraper before the dinner and program began. Don Sheridan, Gamma Gamma, '44, the speaker of the evening, gave us a truly magnificent talk about the new Prudential Building, his undergrad days at Dartmouth, current college alumni activities, and the Fraternity.

Don Cranston, Wabash, '17, and Ken Bates, Kansas, '19, president and vice-president, respectively, of the Chicago alumni, have embarked upon a gigantic membership drive. Every alumnus in the Chicago area will be contacted. Watch your mailbox!

PLAN DIVISION CONFERENCE AND ZETA ANNIVERSARY OBSERVANCE

Attendance at the Thursday luncheon continues to increase and hardly a week goes by without a new face being added or an old one returning to the fold.

Included among the more recent graduates are Jim Rosenthal, Alex Prisley, Fred Stanbro, Al Himelick, Jonathan Bell, Leon Lee, Ralph Fenesy, Jim Branigan, Jim Ziegler, Hal Sayre, and Jerry Duerr.

Renewing old acquaintances have been Bill Trowbridge, Jack Baskin, Harry Hoffman, Dick Seaman, Harold Bell, and Carl Wagner.

Plans are afoot for combining the Northern Division Conference and Zeta's Seventy-fifth Anniversary in March, 1957.

Another visitor was ex-Governor Tom Herbert, recently elected to the Supreme Court.

Resigning his bachelorhood was Ron Rice, a happy August bridegroom.

RUSH PARTIES BEGIN FALL ACTIVITY

The Denver Alumni Chapter has had an interesting, though somewhat quiet, summer season. Due to the tremendous growth of the Denver area, everyone finds it a bit difficult to squeeze 25 hours into every day, to say nothing of taking care of extracurricular activities. There was a great interest displayed in the Karnea this summer, however, and our representative, Zack K. Brinkerhoff, Sr., Michigan, '04, attended and returned with a full report on the activities. Ken Penfold of Boulder, Colorado, also attended as alumnus representative of Beta Kappa Chapter, University of Colorado.

During the summer, we continued our monthly get-together at Cherry Hills Country Club. The distaff side attendance was good and quite attractive. We are attempting to increase interest in this attendance.

As we approached the beginning of the fall opening of school, we began to work out details for the rush season. After meeting with the actives of Beta Kappa undergraduate chapter, several rush parties were planned. Our President, J. Ellis Chaney, Baker, '30, held an outdoor hamburger fry at his home which was attended by rushees, actives, and alumni. Malcolm Crawford, Colorado, '45, followed with a similar outdoor rush party at his home which was also well attended. To these two outings, we added our Rush Dinner held at Lakewood Country Club on September 11. Approximately 150 attended. Don S. Stubbs, Colorado, '32, was toastmaster and a vote of thanks also goes to Spike Frisbie, Don Fullerton, George Phillips, and Al Stewart, as well as to our president.

At the present time, we are looking forward to an active winter with renewed interest in our regular doings as well as some new ones.

We extend a fraternal welcome to all Delts who may come to the Denver area.

CHAPTER BATS .250 IN RUSHING

Findlay Delts in August entertained a large number of Findlay Senior High School graduates of this year who were entering colleges and universities this fall where Delta Tau Delta is represented. The rush party was evidently successful in that nearly 25 per cent of those attending the event have ended up wearing Delt pledge pins at various chapters.

Findlay's Delt Congressman Jackson E. Betts, Kenyon, '26, addressed the group and told of his own experiences in college and with the Fraternity.

The buffet dinner was held outdoors at the home of Edwin L. Heminger, Ohio Wesleyan, '48, and was presided over by newly elected Alumni Chapter President E. J. McCarvey, Miami, '32. Also newly elected is Vice-President Gordon Macklin, Brown, '50.

The annual meeting and election were held in July at the Findlay Country Club with a luncheon that was well attended.

JEWELLED BADGE PRESENTED TO RETIRING CHAPTER HEAD

Jack W. Ewing, University of Southern California man, was elected president of the Houston Alumni Chapter of Delta Tau Delta at the annual meeting October 17. Other officers named included David G. Wynne, University of Texas, vice president, and John J. Robertson, also from Texas, secretary-treasurer.

The group, assembled at Pine Forest Country Club, heard extended accounts of the Karnea held in Houston. These were given by the chapter's two delegates, Eldridge C. Thompson, retiring president, and Silas B. Ragsdale, Sr.

John V. Singleton, who served as general chairman of the Karnea arrangements committee, paid a tribute to Brother Thompson for the long hours and faithful service he gave in connection with Karnea affairs. This was followed by presentation, also by Brother Singleton in behalf of the Alumni Chapter, of a jeweled Delt pin to Thompson.

Jim Douglas, Jr., retiring secretary-treasurer, gave his report which showed that financially the chapter had made gains during the past year.

The chapter will continue its monthly meetings on the second Friday and at the Lamar Hotel unless different arrangements are made by the incoming officers.

Kansas City

LAKE LOTAWANA RUSH PARTY

Lake Lotawana was the scene of the annual summer rush party held by the Kansas City Alumni Chapter on August 4 for high school grads of the greater Kansas City area who were preparing to attend schools which have Delt chapters. Brother Charles Daniel arranged for the use of the Lake Lotawana Yacht Club for our function, which was attended by over sixty alumni, undergrads, and prospective rushees.

Quite a variety of activities was offered with swimming, water skiing, and boat rides during the early afternoon followed by a feast with ham, beef, and ribs with all the trimmings which could be enjoyed while watching the yacht races on the lake. Everyone seemed to enjoy himself thoroughly, and it is hoped that the undergraduate chapters derived some benefit from the party when it came time to rush these boys on their respective campuses.

Plans have now been laid for the annual Christmas Party of the chapter which is to be held on December 15 at the Advertising and Executives Club, 913 Baltimore St. From the sound of the preparations being made, it should be quite a gala affair.

The weekly Thursday luncheons of the chapter are going strong at the University Club, and we invite any Brother Delts who happen to be passing through Kansas City to stop in.

BOB TAPLIN REPORTS ON KARNEA

The Long Beach Alumni Chapter heard an excellent report from Bob Taplin, our delegate to the Karnea in Houston. Such a good report was given and all Delts here envied the flight Bob and his wife Drusilla made to Houston. This outstanding report formed the main topic of interest for the September meeting.

Good get-together meetings continue with the good Delts of the Long Beach area each month at the University Club. All visiting Delts in Long Beach are cordially invited to these monthly informal meetings. It looks as if an unstated rivalry is beginning to develop with the alumni chapter of Beta Theta Pi. Their group meets the same noon and at the last meeting it looked as if the turn-out was on an even basis.

Harold Tucker has invited the Long Beach Delts to his home in Garden Grove for the November meeting. A dinner meeting with our ladies fair is planned for an early time during the new year. This is always a fine time and we are looking forward to meeting the wives of all members. Information on these meetings can be secured from the secretary by calling HE 91-100 in Long Beach.

Louisville

KENTUCKIANA CHAPTER REVITALIZED

The Louisville Alumni Chapter has been reorganized and rejuvenated during the summer months. Co-operation on the part of Delta Epsilon undergraduates, Louisville alums, and the national office have made it possible for the Louisville chapter to develop into the working organization that it had been in the past. Within a period of four weeks, some fifty Delts have attended organization meetings. Starting very simply with eight Delts, attendance has grown to 28.

A group worked for two months bringing the alumni roster up to date. Many new Delt alumni residents have been turned up. Along with this list we have used a chain telephone campaign which has enabled the group to arouse interest and contact new alums.

Jim Morison from the Central Office met with the new Louisville chapter at an early meeting and helped organize the functional phase of the chapter. Thus our new officers have taken over the reins. These new officers are: president, Claire M. Stewart, Jr., Western Reserve and Bowling Green; vice-president, Ben Cooper, Kentucky; and secretary-treasurer, Roger Scott, Kentucky.

The chapter objectives and programs have been put in the hands of capable committees. Attendance and program committees are headed respectively by Brothers John W. Mylor, Kentucky, and Merritt E. Marcus, Indiana. Interest and co-operation are at a high level; so with the coming year we feel certain of a successful alumni chapter here in Louisville for a long time to come.

The Louisville chapter wishes to extend the welcome mat to all Delt alumni in the Kentuckiana area to attend our dinner meetings. These meetings are on the second Wednesday of every month at Bauer's Restaurant, 3612 Brownsboro Road.

MCCRACKEN REPORTS ON KARNEA

Delts in the Greater New York area have embarked on their fall and winter schedule of luncheons. Under the direction of President George Whitney, the September meeting at the Penn-Stevens Club heard a report from past National President Herb McCracken on the Houston Karnea. Herb delivered a fast-moving chronological talk covering all the the high lights.

Plans are now under way for the moving picture taken at the Karnea to be shown at our December meeting.

and the Canadian government. It was brought to us by Charles Gallow (Toronto, '35), who is in the Canadian Consul General's office in New York.

A high light of the New York Delts' fall program will occur at our November luncheon meeting when Major General Edmond H. Leavey (USA, ret.), president of International Telephone & Telegraph, will speak. We look forward to the largest turn-out of the fall for this event.

Monthly luncheons continue for Delts working in the Wall Street area at the Chamber of Commerce Club, 56 Liberty Street, the first Tuesday of each month. The downtown luncheons are informal affairs with no speakers. On the other hand, the uptown luncheons on the second Thursday feature fifteen-minute talks and are held at the Penn-Stevens Club, 106 West 56 Street. If you're new in New York, call Cal Sinclair, BE 3-2800, for details. He will put you on the mailing list, too.

EIGHTH ANNUAL GOLF OUTING

The Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter this year, as in years past, had its annual Fall Golf Outing on August 29 at the Butler Country Club in conjunction with alumni from the Butler, Pennsylvania, area. This was the Eighth Annual Golf Outing at Butler and as usual, all those who attended had a pleasant afternoon on the golf course and a delicious dinner. In charge of the Outing this year was Bob Schar of the Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter, who was assisted by Ed Sutton and Vern Wise from Butler and President Lou McLinden, Bill Swanson, Bill Blackstock, and others from the Pittsburgh group. About fifty brothers from the Pittsburgh-Butler area attended the affair, and most of them seemed certain that they would be back again next year.

The Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter continues to have its luncheons on Tuesday of every week. We now have a private dining room on the 11th floor of Kaufmann's, corner of Fifth Avenue & Smithfield Street, downtown Pittsburgh. This is undoubtedly the nicest eating place the alumni group has had for many years, and we would welcome any Delts in the Pittsburgh area or any who are visiting on business or pleasure.

On September 18 at the luncheon, the group was entertained by Walt Cummings, an assistant football coach at the University of Pittsburgh, who gave a rundown on the prospects and material of the University of Pittsburgh football team for the 1956 season.

The Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter is happy and proud that the City of Pittsburgh was chosen for the location of the 1958 Karnea and preliminary preparations are already being made by the group to make this Karnea one of the most successful ever.

If there are any Delts in the Pittsburgh area who are not receiving notices of the affairs of the Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter, please notify either Bill Swanson or Lou McLinden and your name will be put on the mailing list.

CHARTER BUS FOR INSTALLATION AT WASHINGTON STATE

We have been a busy group. In July we held our annual Golf Tournament. In past years we have combined the golf tournament with a picnic. This year, however, the golf function was just for golfers. This change proved to be a good one. We had an excellent turnout and discovered some real "pros" among our Delt wives. Brother John Ekstrom, Gamma Rho, '50, walked off with the cup as per usual. Next year we are changing the handicap system so Brother John will not have a chance. We have had enough and Ekstrom "has had it."

In August we had our annual picnic. Brother George Butler, Gamma Rho, '39, offered us his beautiful home and grounds on the Sandy River for this function. Over 80 Delts, Delt wives, and Delt children had a wonderful time. We will repeat this next year with probably twice the turnout then.

On October 19, we had a strictly social function for Delt alumni and their wives. This was a combination buffet dinner, bridge, canasta, and dancing affair at one of our more popular dine and dance restaurants. Seventy-two Delts and wives attended this function with everyone having a terrific time. Brother Harry Swan, Upsilon, was chairman of this and did a wonderful job.

Next on the agenda is a proposed charter bus trip made up entirely of Portland alumni to go to the Washington State Installation at Pullman, Washington, December 1.

December 22 marks the date of our annual Christmas dance. We invite activities from the nearby chapters. This function is always a big and successful one.

SUMMER LUNCHEONS WELL RECEIVED

The regular monthly meetings of the St. Petersburg Alumni Association are now on a 12-month basis. The group will meet the first Wednesday of each month at Tofennetti's, corner of 1st Avenue and 2nd Street North, St. Petersburg, in the "New York Room," at 12:00 noon, for the regular luncheon meeting.

This is the first summer that this chapter has attempted a summer luncheon program and everyone is highly pleased with the successful turn-out the past months. A highly entertaining winter season is being planned and all Delts vacationing in and around our area are cordially invited to attend our meetings.

Brothers Ray Carroll and Bill Ryan were our delegates to the recent Karnea in Houston. Both returned with fine reports of business accomplished and are looking forward to the next Karnea.

We are sorry to advise that Brother Harold D. Colt, Alpha, 16, joined The Chapter Eternal July 30.

We would like to request that all Delts in the west coast area of Florida drop this office a note and give us their names, addresses, chapters, years, and telephone numbers. Just jot such information on a post card and send it to P. O. Box 1645, St. Petersburg.

Brother Robert S. Arthur has been hospitalized the last few months, but we are happy to tell everyone he is now fully recovered. Brother Arthur is the local alumni chapter president.

Toledo

ENJOY CHUCK WAGON DINNER

Toledo Delts gathered at the home of Harry Hansen, Beta Phi, '14, September 11, for a Chuck Wagon Dinner. The brothers and guests enjoyed croquet, horseshoes, shuffleboard, Harry's gardens, and good conversation. Dinner featured corn picked while the water was boiling and our honored guest, Donald Van Buren, Zeta, '11, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Fulton County.

Vincent Bailey, Epsilon, '31, was elected president for the coming year and Fred Hibbert, Mu, '52, was elected secretary-treasurer.

The meeting closed with a Walk-Around and the singing of "Shelter" led by Clarence R. Ball, Beta Beta, '16.

The Toledo Alumni Chapter's next event is a Fall Stag at Sylvania Country Club, November 8. Delts from Findlay, Bowling Green, Monroe, and Detroit have been invited.

Topeka

TWO ARE CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE

Topeka alumni monthly luncheons have been maintained all summer and fall with some increased attendance. No special social activities, but we hope to have a party for the ladies this winter.

Members Roy Bulkley and Ferd Voiland, Jr., are both candidates this fall, Bulkley for county attorney and Voiland for state printer. Cliff Stratton keeps us informed as to the political situation, and will return to Washington in January for the session of Congress. Mike Oberhelman, vice-president of the Central National Bank, is serving as an official for college football games, and will continue to work as an official during the basketball season. Gail Wilson has returned from his summer trip to California, and Louis Howard is busy with his duties as water commissioner of the city of Topeka.

We regret to lose Fred Conger from our group, who has bought an interest in Radio Station KWBW at Hutchinson, Kansas, and has moved to that city. John Koger is with the Kansas Contractors' Association with headquarters in Topeka.

Best wishes from the Topeka group, who hopes that any visiting Deltas will contact the secretary.

NEW ALUMNI CHAPTER CHARTERED AT LAFAYETTE, INDIANA

On April 26, 1956, the first meeting of the Wabash Valley Alumni Chapter was held in the Gamma Lambda chapter house at West Lafayette, Indiana. The meeting was called by Gary Garvens, retiring president of Gamma Lambda, and several other seniors, who provided a steak dinner for the occasion. At this time a petition for a charter was signed by the 14 alumni present. This charter being subsequently granted, the group is now meeting regularly on the first Monday in each month.

Seven chapters were represented by the charter members, whose graduation classes cover a span from 1908 to 1956. The current membership of 24 represents nine chapters.

The officers are Karl M. Snepp, Jr., president; James C. Shook, vice-president; George T. Schilling, secretary; and James R. Lowe, treasurer. At this writing the total membership includes: Hiram G. Kerlin, GL, '21; F. Darrell Moore, B, '16, and U, '16; George T. Schilling, BA, '40; Robert J. Tam, GL Chapter Adviser, GL, '50; Carroll Weisiger, Jr., DE, '36; Charles W. Beese, GP, '15; Woodson C. Immel, Charter Member of GL, GL, '08; Merrill M. May, GA, '35; Charles M. Maddox, GL, '24; Charles T. Maddox, GL, '51; Benjamin L. Sheaffer, GL, '51; John W. Bliss, GL, '53; Jack L. Day, GL, '50; Karl M. Snepp, Jr., GL, '53; Charles Moore, B, '55; Henry R. Stegeman, Jr., GL, '53; William F. Hughes, GL, '56; James R. Lowe, BA, '49; Dr. Richard R. Hughes, BB, '40; Harry L. Pogue, BZ, '31; and Robert E. Hall, BZ, '24.

The intention of the chapter is to promote Delt fellowship and to support Delt activities on a regional basis, and to that end it issues an irregularly appearing newsletter, The Wabash Valley Cannonball, to the alumni of the area. Attending alumni have already come from as far north as Kentland and as far south as Indianapolis—roughly fifty miles in either direction. Meetings have included a barbecue dinner in June, a bean supper expertly prepared by Brother Darrell Moore, and a steak dinner hosted by the Lebanon members in November.

The chapter is especially interested in aiding rushing for other chapters as well as GL, and will be happy to channel information received to the proper quarters. Plans for the future list the establishment of an annual award to an outstanding undergraduate of GL, and assistance in the fiftieth anniversary celebration of that chapter in the spring of 1957.

The chapter cordially invites Deltas living in the area or passing through Lafayette to write or call Karl M. Snepp, Jr., 629 University St., West Lafayette (Ph. 3-6125), for further information concerning the chapter.

DR. ELI S. HAYNES, Missouri, '05, professor emeritus of astronomy at the University of Missouri, died September 13 in a Kansas City hospital.

Dr. Haynes, a resident of Columbia, Mo., retired about two years ago as an active professor. He had been a member of the faculty at the state university since 1905. In 1923 he had obtained the rank of professor.

GEORGE H. REDDING, W. & J., '13, president of the Massey Concrete Products Corporation in Chicago and prominent civic leader, died November 23 in an Evanston, Illinois, hospital.

A life trustee of Washington & Jefferson College, Mr. Redding was president of the Community Chest of Wilmette and a past president of the Union League Club of Chicago.

CHARLES G. CRADDOCK, Virginia, '11, & Pennsylvania, '15, retired president of the Craddock-Terry Shoe Corporation of Lynchburg, Virginia, died October 18 in the Virginia Baptist Hospital in Lynchburg.

Mr. Craddock stepped down last January 28 as head of the shoe manufacturing firm he joined 44 years ago. He had served as president of Craddock-Terry since June of 1944. He also had an earlier term at the helm from 1923 to 1930.

★
DR. L. T. KINCANNON, Mississippi, '15, & Virginia, '14, well-known eye-ear-nose-throat specialist of Birmingham, Alabama, died November 28 at a Birmingham hospital. He was a member of the American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology.

RANDALL E. POINDEXTER, Northwestern, '18, recently retired as senior vice-president and director of R. R. Donnelley & Sons Co., died in Evanston, Illinois, late this fall.

As senior vice-president, Mr. Poindexter was responsible for sales throughout the organization. He formerly served as a vice-president in the firm's New York office. He also was a director of O. E. McIntyre & Co. of New York, a member of the Northwestern University board of associates, and the Chicago Athletic Association.

DR. MORRIS B. SIMPSON, Baker, '10, widely-known physician and leader in medical circles, died November 10 at his home in Kearney, Missouri. An eye-ear-nose-throat specialist, he had practiced in Kansas City since 1919.

Known for his interest and efforts in the advancement of his profession, Dr. Simpson was a former president of the Missouri State Medical Association and other professional groups. A member of the American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology and of the Pan American Ophthalmology Society, he was a diplomate of the American Board of O. A. L. and R.

FRANK H. WEST, Northwestern, '02, well-known church and YMCA leader, died August 12 in Milwaukee.

Mr. West was a YMCA secretary for more than 30 years in various parts of the U. S. and in France. He was the organizer and executive secretary of the Greater Chicago Churchmen, the layman's division of the Church Federation of Chicago. Previously he had organized and was for seven years director of the Bureau of Financial Service of the National Division of Education of the Methodist Church. He also organized the Evanston Council of Churches and served as executive secretary.

at work on their pledge manuals, and have worked on their "sneak" and Pledge Dance under the able guidance of Active Tucker.

TOP FOUR ON SKI TEAM

Although Delta Rho has no members on the varsity football squad, we make up for this when it comes to basketball and skiing. In basketball, Chris Lunn, Johnnie Granath, and Buck Sellars are turning out. And in skiing, we have, in the persons of Bill Stevens, Don Brunski, Clint Pelt, and Bob Hodgson, the four top men on the Whitman varsity ski team.

In scholarship, Delta Rho did well, coming out second among the men's groups for the year.

The high light of the fall semester in social life was the Pledge Dance, "High Society." Delt and dates came costumed as high society—high society, that is, in any place from Walla Walla to Southeastern Tanganyika, and all places in between the two. Pledge exchanges have been held with all sororities, and have consisted of informal get-togethers.

SCHOLASTIC STANDING CLIMBS

The big news from Beta Gamma is that the scholastic picture reflects respectable improvement. Climaxing a drive on scholarship, we placed eighth of 35 fraternities at Wisconsin. Our average was well above the All-Men's Average and we of Beta Gamma intend to keep it there.

Athletic Chairman Fred Tichenor has organized teams for intramural activities, with football, volleyball, and bowling the only sports now active. Strategy talks take up much of the pre-game time. We are looking forward to a successful year in the quest for the Badger Bowl.

CAPTAIN RIFLE AND PISTOL TEAMS

Big men in little known activities on campus are Jerry Grout, Mike McPhee, and Mark Biehl. Jerry and Mike are captains of the NROTC rifle and pistol teams respectively; while Mark is the biggest man in the University of Wisconsin Marching Band.

DEX FREE

The Delta Creed

- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta for the education of youth and the inspiration of maturity, so that I may better learn and live the truth.
- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta as a shrine of international brotherhood: her cornerstone friendship, her foundation conscience, her columns aspiration, her girders self-restraint, her doorway opportunity, her windows understanding, her buttresses loyalty, her strength the Everlasting Arms.
- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta as an abiding influence to help me do my work, fulfill my obligations, maintain my self-respect, and bring about that happy life wherein I may more truly love my fellow men, serve my country, and obey my God.
