CENTENNIAL KARNEA

Bethany, W. Va., 1858

Pittsburgh, Pa., 1958

By EDWIN L. HEMINGER, Ohio Wesleyan, '48

Former presidents NORMAN MACLEOD, FRANCIS PATTON, CHARLES BOYD, BRUCE BIELASKI, RAY CARROLL, HAROLD THARP, HAROLD BRENTON, HERBERT MCCrackEN, and JOEL REYNOLDS.

THE FIRST ONE HUNDRED YEARS. Pittsburgh's Golden Triangle appropriately provided the setting for Delta Tau Delta's Centennial Karnea. Well over 800 Delts gathered within the shadow of where a century before eight young college students first met and organized the Fraternity.

A hundred years of progress and achievement were evident in Pittsburgh, as Delts from 87 undergraduate chapters and more than a score of alumni chapters gathered to open officially the Fraternity's second 100 years.

Any Karnea is one of the Fraternity's richest experiences, when the full and inspiring character of Delta Tau Delta as an international institution comes strikingly into focus. But Delta Tau Delta's 100th anniversary Karnea was all of this and more. It was indeed the Karnea of Karneas.

Delt dignitaries from throughout the world were in Pittsburgh to participate. All but one of the Fraternity's living former Presidents were able to be on hand to share in the experience. A record number of Karnea Hounds turned up to register. Seven Delts who were present 50 years ago at the Fraternity's half-century Karnea, also held in Pittsburgh, returned for the Centennial Karnea. Everything needed to make it a great Karnea was present. And a great Karnea it was.

Well planned, well attended, well executed, it rang with success from the opening of registration on Tuesday, August 19, to the final singing of "Delta Shelter" at the Karnea banquet Saturday evening.

Delegates arrived in every conceivable way. Many arrived by car, including a 1929 limousine, some by plane and train, a few by bus and even trolley car. One delegation arrived by river boat.

The Oregon University delegation brought bounty for the mayor of Pittsburgh. Gamma Rho's chapter president, Larry Cromling, presented Pittsburgh's chief executive with an Oregon rose bush, a fir seedling, cheese, and Columbia River salmon, as gifts from the state of Oregon.

The Karnea fittingly opened with a Memorial Service Tuesday evening in the Heinz Chapel, on the University of Pittsburgh campus.

The Karnea glee club, comprised of undergraduate Delts from West Virginia University led the impressive white-coated procession into the chapel, as they sang "Sing to the Royal Purple."

Dr. Clifford Barbour, Pittsburgh, '19, past moderator of the Presbyterian Church of the U.S.A. and president of Western Theological Seminary, and Dean N. R. High Moor, Kenyon, '14, of Trinity Cathedral in Pittsburgh, conducted the inspiring service.

Dr. Barbour, speaking on the Fraternity's rich past, stated, "Some people live on their heritage, while Delta Tau Delta lives up to its rich history."

"Delta Tau Delta has consistently been realistic in its judgment, but idealistic in principle," Dr. Barbour commented.

Speaking on the Fraternity's "tomorrow," Dean Moor pointed out that the Fraternity's growth must be like that of a tree, reaching upward but founded in good roots that go deep into the soil. "As tree roots go down for their strength, they develop power, and it is this kind of strength that will be ours in Delta Tau Delta."

The inspirational service was appropriately concluded with the singing of "Delta Shelter."

Wednesday morning brought the opening of the first Karnea business session, when National President Francis M. Hughes, Ohio Wesleyan, '31, brought down the gavel on the 17th floor meeting room at Pittsburgh's Penn-Sheraton Hotel.

The legislative affairs of Delta Tau Delta received careful consideration before the business sessions of the 64th Karnea. Since most of the business was first handled by committees, the opening session of the Karnea was devoted to reports of the Fraternity's officers, who presented a record of "good health" for the Fraternity in its 100th year.

Subsequent sessions were devoted to round-table discussions, which are always a popular feature of any Karnea, particularly with the undergraduates who take advantage of the opportunity to share experiences in the various phases of chapter management.

A unique and well-received feature of the Centennial Karnea were addresses before general business sessions by two past Presidents of Delta Tau Delta, W. Harold Brenton, Iowa State, '20, and G. Herbert McCracken, Pittsburgh, '21.

Former President Brenton in his talk before the Karnea business session Thursday morning, discussed the "challenge today of the assault on the world by Communism." He underscored the need today of "uncommon men in America" to meet successfully the challenge.

"You undergraduates will soon be carrying the problems of the world, and you must meet these problems with wisdom and understanding," the Delt banker declared.

"The side that wins this struggle must out-think and out-work the opponent in serving the needs of the underdeveloped nations of the world, which are on the move, seeking self-determination in their affairs. The United States is an island of abundance and as such we have peculiar responsibilities toward these nations," former President Brenton declared.

"We must compete by developing our own positive program. We have the resources and the know-how, and we must convince the underdeveloped nations of the world that free enterprise offers them the greatest hope of obtaining their aspirations," he concluded.

G. Herbert McCracken in his talk before the Karnea the next day, outlined the characteristics of a responsible leader. In encouraging the undergraduate chapter officers to live up to their responsibilities, he declared that "we need the yardstick of our heritage to measure our performance today."

"A responsible leader is one who acts in accordance with the ethical standards of all men of good character. A responsible leader must also effectively fulfill his obligations. A leader must have a trained, informed, well-disciplined mind that is aware of the great thinking of the past."

"The world revolves around responsible individuals who shoulder their duties," the former All-American grid star concluded.

Wednesday evening, the Karnea witnessed a model presentation of the Fraternity's Ritual. A crack initiation team, composed of selected undergraduates from surrounding Delt chapters conducted the model initiation in flawless manner, demonstrating the impressive ritualistic work of Delta Tau Delta.

Thursday noon, the Karnea set aside a special program to recognize some of the Fraternity's most distinguished sons with a luncheon in their honor. Many of Delta Tau Delta's most successful leaders in business, the professions, and the arts were on hand to receive personally the Fraternity's honors.

The Fraternity's "Who's Who" came to life with the assembling of more Delt dignitaries than ever before in one place at one time. Fraternity pride soared as the distinguished Delts entered the banquet hall to take their places at the head tables.

The names of these honored Delts are listed elsewhere in this issue, and a reading of the list makes clear why this occasion was one of the Fraternity's finest hours. Not only Delts, but the entire world, were given a brief display of the "uncommon men" who distinguish this Fraternity.

The invocation for the luncheon was given by Bishop Marshall R. Reed, Albion, '14, Methodist Bishop for the Michigan area. Music was again provided by the Karnea glee club from West Virginia.

Norman MacLeod, Pittsburgh, '17, former President of Delta Tau Delta, and General Chairman of the Centennial Karnea, offered a welcome to Pittsburgh. Later in the program Chairman MacLeod was presented a silver tray, bearing the engraved signatures of the Karnea subcommittee chairmen, in appreciation of his leadership in organizing the Karnea.

Scholarship awards were presented by Supervisor of Scholarship Frederick D. Kershner, Butler, '37. Chapter publication awards were presented by RAINBOW Editor Edwin H. Hughes, III, DePauw, '43.

National Vice-President Robert W. Gilley, Washington, '30, recognized the chapter advisers present, and also presented the Fraternity examination award plaque to Delta Theta Chapter at Toronto.

Kenneth R. Query, Ohio, '30, who served as chairman of the Recognition Luncheon committee, introduced the 80 Delt dignitaries who were honored at the luncheon.

Branch Rickey, Ohio Wesleyan, '04, chairman of the board of the Pittsburgh Pirate baseball club, addressed the noon meeting, declaring, "We all thank these distinguished Delt gentlemen for bringing honor and credit to our Fraternity."

Citing colorful examples from his rich experience in the world of sports, "Mr. Baseball" strikingly emphasized that "inspiration and devotion to duty lead to accomplishment. Intelligent adventure wins ball games. I infinitely prefer the errors of enthusiasm to the do-nothing of wisdom."

He inspiringly challenged all assembled to live up to the abilities within them and to dedicate themselves to the purposes of The Delta Creed.

As the meeting was concluded with the reading of The Delta Creed, led by A. J. Murphy, Jr., Penn State, '38, and the singing of "Delta Shelter," the Delts present unanimously felt they had just participated in one of the Fraternity's greatest occasions.

That evening, the Karnea focused its attention on the dedication of Carnegie Tech's new Shelter. Delts travelled across town to visit the new chapter house which typifies the ever present growth of Delta Tau Delta.

George L. Wilson, Jr., Carnegie Tech, '48, chapter adviser at Delta Beta, presided at the ceremonies, and the members of the West Virginia glee club again provided music for the occasion. They sang "Centennial Eulogy," written especially for the Fraternity's 100th anniversary by Carr Liggett, Ohio, '16.

Participating in the ceremonies were: Horace H. Johnson, Carnegie Tech, '23, former chapter adviser and chairman of the chapter's building fund program; Dr. Herbert Spencer, Carnegie Tech, '21; Robert Gilley, Washington, '30, Vice-President of Delta Tau Delta; Robert Wilson, California, '27, President of the Eastern Division; and H. Russell Vincer, representing Carnegie Tech's administration.

But of course, a Karnea isn't all business. Many features of entertainment are always scheduled to vary the pace. Wednesday evening, the Delts were treated to a Centennial Choctaw Reception, where fellowship prevailed and professional entertainment, including the Fraternity's own James Melton, Georgia, '25, added to the enjoyment.

In connection with the entertainment schedule, a particularly full program of activities was provided for the ladies. A woman's committee, headed by Mrs. Arthur Stroyd, outlined a busy schedule for the wives attending the Karnea.

Boat trips to theater parties were arranged for the ladies, who agreed it was one of the best planned affairs ever as far as they were concerned.

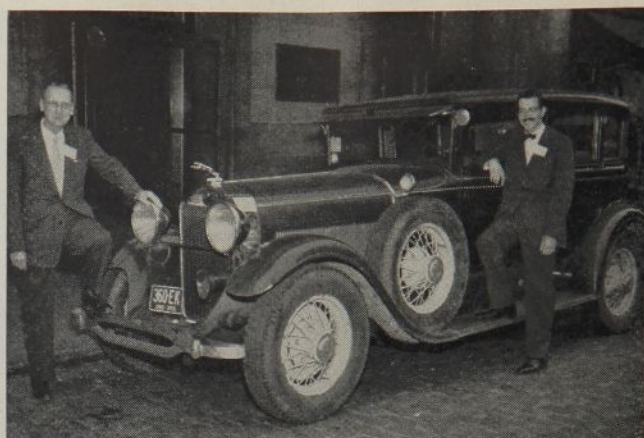

Highlighting the entertainment program was the Friday afternoon outing when the Karnea moved ten miles from Pittsburgh into Pennsylvania's mountain terrain for an afternoon of golf and swimming at the University of Pittsburgh's Wildwood recreation center.

The afternoon of relaxation was topped off by a barbecue supper at Wildwood that evening, followed by a dance. The Karnea Committee's super-efficient date bureau saw that visiting undergraduates had suitable dancing partners, and music long filled the air.

Saturday morning, the Karnea returned to work and dealt with the Fraternity's business in earnest. Throughout the day viewpoints were exchanged and the Fraternity's course Francis M. Hughes was re-elected President of Delta Tau Delta for another two-year term, and Boston was named as the site of the 1960 Karnea.

With business concluded, the 64th Karnea was climaxed by an impressive banquet on the final eve of the five-day event.

Delts and their ladies filled the giant banquet hall at the Penn-Sheraton. The Rev. William G. Birmingham, W & J, '50, assistant minister of Fairmont Presbyterian Church in Cleveland Heights, Ohio, gave the invocation.

Norman MacLeod, as Karnea Chairman, introduced the toastmaster, Alan D. Riester, Pittsburgh, '30.

The West Virginia glee club provided musical entertainment.

A Bruce Bielaski, George Washington, '04, presided at the presentation of five Distinguished Service Chapter Citation awards, described elsewhere in this issue.

Principal speaker for the occasion was Benjamin M. McKelway, George Washington, '19, editor and publisher of the Washington Star and president of the Associated Press.

Mr. McKelway, in his talk at the Karnea banquet, described the era in which the Fraternity was founded at Bethany in 1858. He pointed out that there were 32 states in the Union at the time, the trans-Atlantic cable had been laid that year, the famous Dred Scott decision was less than a year old, and Bethany was located some 200 miles northeast of the population center of the United States.

Depicting statistically what the average student of that day at Bethany would have been, Editor McKelway pictured the youth as a serious student of 20 years of age, scholastically inclined, with deep religious convictions, financially poor, preparing for one of the professions, of Scotch-Irish descent, from Virginia, and with sympathies for the Southern cause in the war which was soon to erupt.

The journalist Delt pointed out that this "statistical Delt" born in 1938, would have lived until the year 1911, witnessing in that period the growth to maturity of the fraternity system and the growth of his own Fraternity from one chapter to 56 chapters.

Carrying forward with the next generation of the "statistical Delt," who would have been 20 years old in 1911, Mr. McKelway told of the unprecedented technical advances witnessed by this generation.

In speaking of the Delt generation of the future, the Washington newspaper publisher stated "the Fraternity must aid these future Delts in leading constructive lives."

"The social prestige offered by fraternities is not enough. They must offer the concept that recognition carries with it a high degree of responsibility. In the modern space age, we need men of unusual capabilities, and the men of Delta Tau Delta should be among those men."

"Scholastic achievement is one area in which the Fraternity must assume an increasing responsibility. Mental discipline is necessary for wisdom, and knowledge without wisdom is useless."

"The college fraternity must grasp its opportunity to meet this challenge," he concluded.

Following the singing of "Delta Shelter" the 64th Karnea of Delta Tau Delta was officially closed. But the enthusiastic Delts were not to leave without first participating in the traditional Choctaw Walk-around, led by Harley Carpenter, Allegheny, '09.

Although the Centennial Karnea thus ended, like a good book its memory and recollection live on.

Reflecting on the Karnea, one realizes a Karnea just doesn't happen. It takes two years to plan, months of execution of details, and five fast-moving days of putting into operation all the details that have been anticipated during the planning stages.

Pittsburgh's hard-working Karnea Committee was headed by Norman MacLeod, former national President of Delta Tau Delta. A veteran of 18 Karneas—more than any other living Delt—General Chairman MacLeod well knew how to proceed. The smooth operation of all Karnea details clearly told of the capable management that had gone into it.

While Norm MacLeod directed the affair, he assembled a team of 150 capable Pittsburgh area Delts to share enthusiastically in the job. Whatever the event, Pittsburgh Delts were on hand to help make certain the event went smoothly. A remarkable number of Pittsburgh area Delts had a share in hosting the Fraternity's Centennial Karnea.

Contributing much to the successful occasion were the behind-the-scenes operations of the Fraternity's Central Office staff of ubiquitous individuals.

Typical of the high degree of organization was the press conference held for Delt dignitaries prior to the Thursday Recognition Luncheon. Pittsburgh's three daily newspapers presented excellent coverage of the entire event. A special edition of the Sun-Telegram carried the news and pictures of the Karnea on the front page.

Going onto the airways, Delt luminaries Thursday evening presented a 30-minute television panel program, discussing the "College Fraternity, Builder of Men" over Pittsburgh's educational channel. Participating in the event were Delta Tau Delta President Francis M. Hughes, who served as moderator; Loy W. Henderson, Northwestern, '15, Deputy Undersecretary of State for Administration; Congressman Richard M. Simpson, Pittsburgh, '23; and Porter M. Jarvis, Iowa State, '24, president of Swift and Co. The TV program was filmed for later showings at colleges and universities.

The approximately 850 Delts who attended the Centennial Karnea represented every phase of the Fraternity, past Presidents, former Arch Chapter members, DSC members, Karnea Hounds, chapter delegates, alumni, chapter advisers, and just plain Delts. They each brought their own individual experience in Delta Tau Delta with them, contributing their bit to the Karnea.

But significant as their separate contributions may have been, perhaps the presence of eight Delts was most of all responsible for the feeling of success that lingers over the Centennial Karnea. These eight Delts actually never registered, but they did attend every session, every banquet, every luncheon, and their presence was felt at every great moment in Pittsburgh.

They made more meaningful the heritage of Delta Tau Delta.

Who were these gentlemen? Brothers Bell, Alfred, Cunningham, Hunt, Lowe, Johnson, Tarr, and Earle, who one hundred years ago founded this great Fraternity.

THE PAST AND THE FUTURE

So, we meet on this occasion to conduct the business of our Fraternity and to pay honor and tribute to its Founders in our one-hundredth year. A century appears, at first blush, to be an endless period of time. Yet we must bear in mind that we have some brothers living today who have been members of the Fraternity for more than two-thirds of the period of its existence. In that sense we are a young fraternity, and as a young fraternity we are possessed of the same spirit and idealism which occasioned the founding of Delta Tau Delta. Still in our youth, we may readily find the urge and the inspiration to move forward into our second century.

The primary concern of Delta Tau Delta, in my judgment, is twofold: The development of character in young men through the instrumentality of group living, and the formation of close, lifelong friendships. These are the primary purposes of fraternalism.

In an American shipyard there appears this sign:

"We build good ships here.
At a profit if we can,
At a loss if we must.
But always good ships."

Whatever is to be said as to the future of our Fraternity, we must be mindful that our responsibility is to build men of character, of ability, and of wisdom.

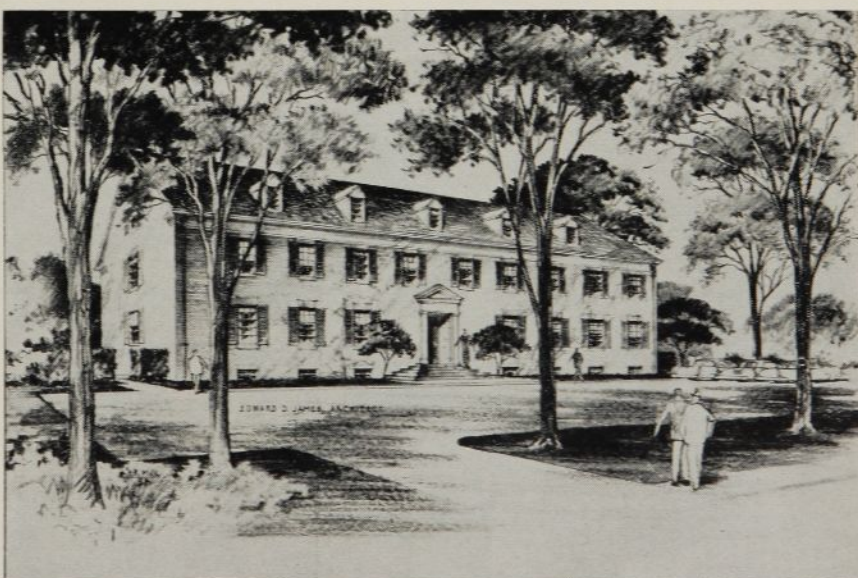

May we move into our second century of existence with that object firmly in mind.

Five D. S. C. Citations Presented at Karnea

AT THE CENTENNIAL Karnea Banquet, five Distinguished Service Chapter Citations were presented. Following are the texts of the Citations:

FORREST H. WITMEYER
Syracuse, '28

Devoted to the ideals of Delta Tau Delta; past President of the Eastern Division; officer of his undergraduate chapter; and treasurer of the Harold Hopkins Alumni Building Fund of Gamma Omicron Chapter, and faithful counselor to its graduates; loyal alumnus to his University. Through the dormant years of Gamma Omicron Chapter, 1935-1948, he carried the torch and led the way to its glorious reactivation. After the retirement of the chapter's housemother, the late Margaret Gibbs, he was a good son to her during the long years of her loneliness and illness, arranging care for her befitting the great Lady that she was. He is an exemplary father, husband, churchman, businessman, and civic worker; a truly Good Delt.

WILLIAM HENRY MARTINDILL
Ohio, '23

For thirty years a working Delt, constant in his devotion to the Fraternity as an undergraduate leader in Beta Chapter, member of the house corporation Board of Directors, Vice-President and President of the Northern Division, Treasurer, Secretary of Alumni, and Vice-President of the Fraternity, member of the Delta Tau Delta Centennial Fund Advisory Committee. His unselfish service is marked by sound judgment, wise counsel, and a willingness to give full measure of his ability to every responsibility he undertakes in behalf of the Fraternity.

RUSSELL ALFRED GRIFFIN
Hillsdale, '28

An alumnus of Kappa Chapter of outstanding helpfulness and devotion to his Chapter and to his Fraternity. He has attained national recognition for his work as Dean of Students of Western Reserve University; he has participated regularly at Division Conferences, Karneas, and National Interfraternity affairs. His work as a friend and counselor has endeared him to undergraduates and alumni, and he has exemplified those qualities of the good life enjoined in the initiatory rite of our Fraternity.

WILLIAM FREDERICK REICHERT
Allegheny, '27

For more than two decades a willing and devoted worker for Alpha Chapter and the Fraternity without regard to the duties or the difficulties involved. Chapter Adviser during the critical war years, 1940-1946, and twice thereafter, in which position he now serves with undiminished vitality and enthusiasm; house corporation officer since 1936; currently chairman of the fund raising campaign to obtain a new home for Alpha; regular participant in the Conferences of the Eastern Division; his record of allegiance to the ideals of the Fraternity and his achievements mark him as the Good Delt.

ERNEST LE GENE MILLER
Indiana, '27

Beta Alpha Chapter, the Indianapolis Alumni Chapter, and the Northern Division acclaim him for more than thirty years of constructive service in the ranks and in positions of leadership. Member of the Beta Alpha house corporation Board of Directors, Treasurer of the house corporation now beginning his twentieth year, twice President of the Indianapolis Alumni Chapter, Vice-President and President of the Northern Division; his generosity, sincerity, and unassuming manner characterize his distinguished Delt career.

Religion for use as part of that school's new campus. This sale has made it possible for the Butler Dels to make plans for the construction of the new chapter house, to be completed and ready for occupancy by September, 1959.

EDWARD D. JAMES, Butler, '21, consulting architect for the Fraternity, has completed plans for the new construction. It will be of early American design and is to be located on the lot already purchased for Beta Zeta on Haughey Avenue near 43rd Street, Indianapolis. Plans call for the building to be situated some 200 feet back from the street, permitting parking in the motor court for approximately 40 cars.

The lower level activity room and dining room will open onto a large terrace overlooking a canal and lowland to the northwest of the site. The structural system will be fire resistive type construction of masonry and steel with the exterior of brick veneer.

The house will provide study rooms and sleeping facilities for 38 men and will have dining accommodations with a range from 38 men to 80 men. In addition to the activity room, the lower level will include dining room, kitchen, chapter room, storage, and utility room. A central foyer on the first floor leads to an oak-paneled living room, trophy room, and housemother's quarters. Several study rooms, bath facilities, and ladies' powder room will also be situated on the first floor. The entire second floor will be devoted to use for 2-men study rooms and bath facilities. The third floor will be used as a dormitory.

Beta Zeta is progressing remarkably well in its quest for the ultimate in chapter house facilities. Other chapters which may tend to become discouraged over inadequate housing facilities can take heart in the Butler story. The Beta Zeta brothers, too, had a tendency to be discouraged just a few short years ago.

Division and Biennial Scholarship Winners Announced

The Centennial Karnea Recognition Luncheon was chosen for the time and place of announcing the Division Scholarship Award winners for the academic year of 1956-1957, as well as the Biennial Scholarship Award for the academic years of 1955-1956 and 1956-1957.

Supervisor of Scholarship Frederick D. Kershner, Jr., presented appropriate plaques to the Division winners, as follows:

SOUTHERN DIVISION: Duplicate awards presented to Beta Theta (Seewanee) and Delta Epsilon (Kentucky).

WESTERN DIVISION: Delta Alpha (Oklahoma).

NORTHERN DIVISION: Duplicate awards presented to Mu (Ohio Wesleyan) and Beta (Ohio).

EASTERN DIVISION: Gamma Omicron (Syracuse).

Karnea Recognition Luncheon Sets Precedent

Delt Leaders in All Fields Honored

IN KEEPING with a centennial celebration, special tribute was paid to many of the Fraternity's outstanding sons who have achieved noted success in business, the professions, and the arts at the Centennial Karnea in Pittsburgh. The special luncheon affair, held on Thursday noon, featured Branch Rickey, Ohio Wesleyan, '04, as main speaker. In addition to recognitions customarily conferred at Karneas, such as scholarship and publication awards, special tribute was paid to approximately 80 Delts who have achieved positions of prominence in their chosen fields. These men presented a most impressive array. Though aware that many of our well-known and prominent brothers were unable to be in attendance, and thus are not included in the list which follows, the response was so gratifying and the justifiable pride in seeing so many great Delts gathered together was so great, that it is felt that similar events will quite likely become a standard part of future Karneas.

Imagine, if you will, the great amount of talent and achievement represented at the speaker's tables as you read the following list of Delts in attendance who were honored by their Delt brothers: Arthur C. Allyn, Chicago, '08, investment banker and president of the Midwest Stock Exchange; James T. Berryman, George Washington, '24, cartoonist for the Washington Star and King Features Syndicate; Alfred W. Beattie, Allegheny, '22, superintendent of schools for Allegheny County (Pittsburgh), Pennsylvania; James E. Bennett, Cornell, '11, general counsel and secretary for the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., former judge of the Ohio Court of Appeals; Reed Bricker, Western Reserve, '17, Cleveland investment broker; John G. Brosky, Pittsburgh, '42, judge of the Allegheny County Court, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Kenyon S. Campbell, Ohio Wesleyan, '19, president, American Alumni Council; Charles L. Carr, Nebraska, '28, vice-president of Potomac Electric Power Co., Washington, D. C.;

Sanford M. Chilcote, Allegheny, '28, Pittsburgh attorney; John F. Cover, Western Reserve, '17, president of Cleveland's Industrial Credit Co.; Robert D. Cowen, Western Reserve, '29, president of Monongahela & Ohio Coal Co.; Levi B. Duff, M.I.T., '14, director of Allegheny County (Pittsburgh) Department of Works; John W. Fisher, II, Tennessee, '38, vice-president of Ball Brothers Co., Inc.; Charles P. Fiske, M.I.T., '14, former executive vice-president of General Motors Acceptance Corp.; Marcus A. Follansbee, Pittsburgh, '14, former president of Follansbee Steel Corp.;

Elgin Groseclose, Oklahoma, '24, economic consultant and former treasurer general of Iran; Samuel R. Harrell, Pennsylvania, '19, president of General Grain Co. and a trustee of the University of Pennsylvania; M. S. Hauser, Iowa, '26, manager of public relations for the Ohio Oil Co.; Eugene B. Hibbs, Kansas, '33, president of Dura-Crates, Inc.; Paul E. Have you made your contribution to the Fund? It may be made on an annual basis in an amount of $25 or more, cancellable at will. The purpose of the Fund is to make available to recently or newly established chapters secondary financing for construction of chapter houses.

Arch Chapter Adds Two New Members

TWO NEW FACES have been added to the membership of Delta Tau Delta's Arch Chapter, following the proceedings of the 64th Karnea.

The new additions to the Fraternity's governing board are G. Sydney Lenfestey, Florida, '34, who was elected by the Karnea to serve as Secretary, succeeding W. Edgar West, Ohio Wesleyan, '23, and Edwin L. Heminger, Ohio Wesleyan, '48, appointed by the President to serve out the unexpired term of Northern Division President Robert L. Hartford, Ohio, '36, who was elected Secretary of Alumni by the Karnea.

President Francis M. Hughes, Ohio Wesleyan, '31, was re-elected by the Karnea to serve another two years as head of the Fraternity. Other national officers re-elected were: Robert W. Gilley, Washington, '30, Vice-President; Howard D. Mills, Western Reserve, '18, Treasurer; and Frederick D. Kershner, Jr., Butler, '37, Supervisor of Scholarship.

The other three members of the Arch Chapter are Southern Division President Burr Christopher, George Washington, '28; Eastern Division President N. Robert Wilson, California, '27; and Western Division President George A. Fisher, Jr., Purdue, '33.

President HUGHES

The Fraternity's newly-elected Secretary is not, however, serving on the Arch Chapter for the first time. Syd Lenfestey has had previous Arch Chapter experience by virtue of his former position as Southern Division President from 1949 to 1951. Such previous experience will be most welcome as it will help him pick up the duties so capably filled during the past two years by Ed West, who served as Secretary of Alumni and Treasurer prior to his term as Secretary.

Robert L. Hartford, newly-elected Secretary of Alumni, merely continues his contribution to the Fraternity through a different office. His election caused a vacancy in the office of Northern Division President, an office most capably handled by Bob since 1955. His previous experiences of service, together with the rich Delt heritage which is his, will assist him in taking over for John W. Nichols, who leaves the Arch Chapter after serving faithfully and well as Secretary of Alumni, Secretary, and Western Division President.

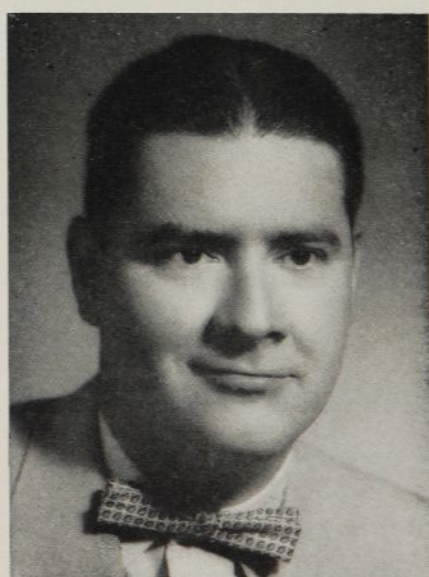

The only completely new addition to the Arch Chapter, never previously having been a member, is Edwin L. Heminger; however, his record of service to the Fraternity has been such that he was an obviously easy choice to make for appointment as President of the Northern Division. Following his graduation from Ohio Wesleyan in 1948, Ed served approximately two years as field secretary for the Fraternity, a post he filled with distinction. After leaving the field staff for a tour of duty with the Armed Services, he joined his father in the publishing business in Findley, Ohio, publishing the Findlay Republican and operating radio stations in both Findlay and Columbus, on both the 63rd and 64th Karneas. He will be a valuable and constructive member of the Arch Chapter.

Delta Tau Delta is indeed fortunate to find such capable men to serve voluntarily on its governing board—men of experience, ability, and interest to furnish continuity to the efforts of those loyal and capable brothers they follow in positions of trust and responsibility on Delta Tau Delta's Arch Chapter.

Undergraduation chapter publication awards were first established in 1937. The awards are made in two divisions, magazine format and newspaper format, with first-place awards of $50 cash for the winner in each division.

Chapters using professional services in publishing their newspapers or magazines are not eligible for first-place awards, but the committee is authorized to grant honorable mention for such publications.

Winners are selected on the basis of general appeal and interest of material to alumni, or to rushees if the publication is also distributed to prospective members; attractiveness in typographical layout and printing; and the originality and quality of writing and editing. The number of issues published during the school year enters into consideration; however, issues in excess of three will not influence the award.

Last year Gamma Tau (Kansas) was awarded first place in the magazine format division and the newspaper format winner was Beta Alpha (Indiana).

The committee was of the opinion that the entries submitted in both divisions this year were unusually good. Consequently, the margins of differences in the final judging were slight. Other publications, not singled out as winners or for honorable mention, closely pressed those selected.

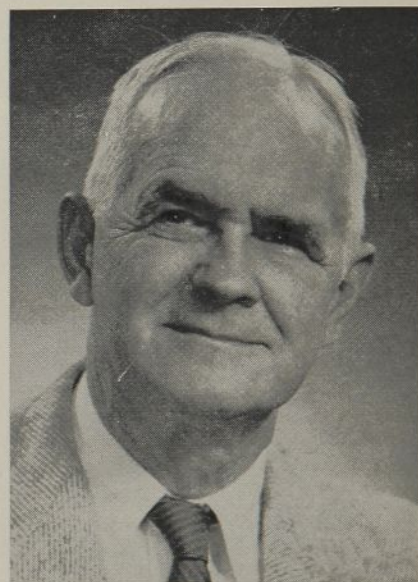

Beta Theta (Sewanee), the magazine format winner, was not honored last year. Neither was Gamma Pi (Iowa State), Gamma Tau (Kansas) was the winner in this division last year and received honorable mention in 1955-1956.

The newspaper format winner, Gamma Zeta (Wesleyan), was given honorable mention in the same division last year. Last year's winner in

UCLA Names Dickerson Head Coach

GEORGE DICKERSON

GEORGE DICKERSON, UCLA, '37, eighth in the line of UCLA football coaches since the Bruins inaugurated the sport in 1919, is truly "Mr. UCLA Football."

Following the sudden death of the well-known Red Sanders, Dickerson was named to succeed his greatest teacher as head coach "for a period of more than one year." Such wording of the announcement would indicate that the appointment was not in the nature of an "interim appointment."

Dickerson has been on the UCLA staff for 12 years, serving as freshman head coach, varsity assistant, and senior assistant. Since returning to UCLA from the Navy in 1946, George Dickerson has had a strong hand in such vital grid duties as recruiting prospects, counselling football players about their academic programs, scouting, and the various coaching duties from freshman coach to senior assistant.

When Red Sanders was appointed head coach at UCLA in 1949, George was the only man retained by him from the previous staff. On many occasions since 1949, Sanders remarked that "keeping George was the smartest move I ever made."

George Dickerson was born in Galion, Ohio, in 1913, but moved with his family to southern California in 1922. While a student at UCLA he was an outstanding tackle on the football team from 1934-1936, serving as captain of the 1936 team. Following graduation from college, George coached high school teams at Arroyo Grande, Tracy, and Union High. Then followed four years in the Navy prior to returning to UCLA as a freshman coach in 1946.

In addition to playing football in college, Dickerson was also a four-year letterman in rugby and was a heavyweight boxer at 174 pounds. His hobbies are golf, ocean surfing, and handy work around the house. George is married and the father of 14-year-old, George, Jr.

George was president of Delta Iota Chapter in his senior year. He has been a leader of men ever since, as captain of his college football team, as a lieutenant in the Navy, as a high school coach, as a college assistant coach, and now as head coach of one of the nation's leading collegiate football teams. In his new position, he follows other outstanding Delt head coaches, such as George Sauer at Baylor and Jess Neeley at Rice.

"The Colonel" Retires

expanded, and the difficult problems arising from the veterans' influx after World War II were administered.

The U. S. Army was responsible for bringing Colonel Shoemaker to the I.U. campus. He had entered military service as a student at Cornell during World War I, served at numerous Army posts, including posts in Panama and in Hawaii, and had been graduated from both the Infantry School and the Staff and Command School of the U. S. Army. He came to Indiana University in 1939 as a major of infantry to teach on the ROTC staff.

The outbreak of World War II found the Colonel serving as head of the school's military department. In this capacity he directed the training of more than 9,000 men in the country's second largest collegiate training unit. Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalism fraternity, awarded him the "Brown Derby" as the University's most popular professor and the University's board of trustees took the unusual action of conferring on him its first, and to date its only, official citation for "exceptional meritorious service."

After having been promoted to full colonel in 1944 Colonel Shoemaker was called to serve on a staff position with the Fifth Service Command at Ft. Hayes, Ohio. From Ft. Hayes he was assigned to Ft. Breckenridge, Kentucky, as commanding officer. With the end of the war, he retired from active duty in the Army to become I.U.'s Dean of Students.

Dean Shoemaker relinquished the University post two years ago because of ill health. Since then, however, he has retained responsibilities as head of military information, advising students on military service problems.

"The Colonel" will be missed as Dean of Students at I.U. He has contributed much to many throughout the years. He was always fair and always firm. Every student who ever had occasion to appear before him, whether it might have been for advice, for counsel, seeking a consideration, or in answer to a summons, was treated with respect, consideration, and thoughtfulness.

If the undergraduate student is making a man of himself, he is doing the world's most important job. Growing and working, thinking and gaining power, reflecting and gathering insights, the student justifies his life; the future may safely be left to its own devices.

JOHN HANDLY WRIGHT, Vanderbilt, '28, has been elected vice-president in charge of the public relations department of the Association of American Railroads. Prior to his appointment, Mr. Wright was midwest partner of Selva & Lee and executive vice-president of the public relation firm's Chicago operations. He is an author of note, including a widely used college textbook on public relations.

The above plaque was presented by citizens of Albion, Michigan, to FLOYD E. STARR, Albion, '10, this past spring. HUGO A. RIEGER, mayor of Albion, designated May 13, 1958, as "Floyd Starr Day." A testimonial dinner was given Brother Starr, which was attended by friends and dignitaries from across the nation. The principal speaker at the banquet was Judge GEORGE EDWARDS, of the Michigan State Supreme Court of Justice. Congratulatory messages were received from the White House and from Governor G. MENNEN WILLIAMS of Michigan. FLOYD STARR founded the Starr Commonwealth for Boys in 1913 in an old barn. In 45 years the Starr Commonwealth has grown to 4,500 boys and has achieved national recognition.

THE DELT CHAPTERS

Alabama

As the spring semester came to a close, there was great excitement about who would win the rotating Delt Trophy for "Outstanding Sorority of the Year." When the points were tabulated, Pi Beta Phi emerged with the trophy.

Under the direction of Brother Gerry Waddell the 1958 edition of the Bama Delt is now being printed. We are planning to use the Bama Delt for rush week in the fall, in addition to informing the alumni of our work here at Delta Eta.

Delta Eta had a successful year in intramural sports this year. Our team won first place in the track meet and took the bowling championship. We finished high in the standings for the all-sports trophy. The high light of the intramural season was when we were awarded the trophy for best sportsmanship.

The complete air-conditioning here in the Shelter is appreciated by the members in school this summer. We have the only fraternity house on campus with four floors of air-conditioning. This should be a great assist during rush week.

Brothers Sam Hamner and Jim Dilworth have been elected to the student government legislature. Jim has been elected president pro tem of the legislature.

Albion

As the school year at Albion closes for summer recess, we of Epsilon look back on a very memorable spring semester and anticipate the coming of fall and the events which will take place upon return to school. May was a very busy month, socially, for on May 9 we held a spring hayride and house party. Based on a prison theme, couples danced to the music of our own Delt combo. These men who make up the combo comprise the nucleus of Albion's 16-piece band playing under the name of "Charlie Brown." We're all proud of them since they have been engaged all over the state of Michigan, and are receiving great praises of merit for their true "big band" sound. Under the leadership of Social Chairman Bob Bartlett, Epsilon held its annual pledge formal at the Elk's Temple in Battle Creek. The dance was expertly planned.

On the 19th of May Albion held its annual Interfraternity Sing. The Deltas sang "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God," and "You'll Never Walk Alone." The selections were expertly done under the watchful eye of Director John McCord, and we took a very close second.

Turning to sports, Cocaptains Bert Dygert and Chuck Nebel guided the Deltas to a third-place position in the standings for the intramural all-sports trophy. In varsity sports, Deltas as usual made significant contributions to their respective teams. In varsity track, Deltas Jim Taup, George Grein, and Gary Barnes sparked Albion's team to victory after victory. The Britons of Albion have for many years been the leading team in the MIAA.

In varsity baseball, Deltas Kirk Flack, Joe Radzik, Bill Deer, Dave Smith, Larry Stone, Dave Althouse, and Lou Maceroni aided the Britons to a successful season.

Scholarship was also in the headlines here at Albion since we missed the Interfraternity Scholarship Cup by 0.01 points. Scholarship Chairman Gary Robertson has high hopes of bringing the trophy back to the Deltas who have won it for four straight years.

Summer always brings joy and relief to exhausted college students, but it also brings sorrow in that many of the brothers will be leaving us. For those of us who remain we wish them all the success they could possibly have and fervently hope that they will return often to visit us in the coming years. Good luck to all of you.

BRUCE LACEY

Allegheny

The last part of the second semester at Alpha began with Help Week. The activities of this week consisted, partly, of the pledges conducting a drive to raise money to help a needy family in town. Another evening was devoted to the active chapter's being amused by a night of home entertainment, arranged and presented by the pledge class. Two of the remaining nights were spent in treasure hunts and a special court which gave the active chapter a chance to question any individual pledge and find out how he might feel about the Fraternity. At the end of Help Week we were pleased to initiate a class of 13 men. Following initiation, the undergraduates and the area alumni met for a banquet and to review the success of the '58 class. Much of the credit for the good fortune of this class is due to the work of its president, Jim Ingram. The outstanding pledge award, because of a tie, was presented to Dick Martin and Jim Merchant.

For our spring party the social committee, headed by Roger Neubauer, planned a picnic at the chapter house. In the afternoon there was volleyball, croquet, badminton, and a game of softball. In addition to the dance in the evening there was a bonfire which brought the group together in singing.

At the President's review of the ROTC corps, several Deltas were honored for their participation and outstanding merit throughout the year. The brothers who were given awards were Fred King, Bob McCreary, and Jim Ingram.

The annual spring formal was held at a nearby country club.

Class Day at Allegheny brought three awards to Delt brothers. Ward Secoy was honored for having the outstanding project in geology. The award for high achievement in the field of economics went to Brother Dick Engle. Bruce Bell was accredited for being the outstanding junior at Allegheny in academics.

In softball, Alpha was tied for second place at the close of the season. Our intramural standing now is looking better than ever.

The semester ended with graduation and an alumni banquet. More alumni have come back in the last two years than in any past years, and we hope they have been favorably impressed with what they saw. At this alumni meeting, plans were started for a building campaign for a new Shelter.

WALTER VIEHMANN

Baker

Our annual Stag Nite last May 31, brought us closer to the realization that a new Shelter for Gamma Theta Deltas is more than just a dream. A heavy rain postponed ground-breaking ceremonies scheduled during the stag. The site, one block east of the gym, has been purchased, and the preliminary plans for the new house have been prepared. According to Ralph Polson, chairman of the finance committee, a brochure picturing the plans and progress to date will be mailed to every Gamma Theta Delt. Cash pledges of $3,555 toward the house were made at the stag and an additional $1,439.75 was donated the same evening. Brother Dewey Short, former congressman from Missouri and presently Secretary of the Army, was our speaker.

Baker Deltas again last year contributed heavily to the success of varsity athletic teams, campus organizations, and activities.

Delta Tau completely dominated the intramural race and won a sixth consecutive I-M title. The traveling trophy was retired to permanent Delt possession for the already bulging trophy case. Delt teams won seven championships and tied for two others out of a possible 13.

Orchid Ball, our annual spring formal and high light of the social season at Baker, was another success. Keith Smith was chairman and did a fine job of organizing and co-ordinating the many duties. Miss Diann Watts of Tri-Delta was crowned as Orchid Ball Queen by Jarrett Clinton, chapter president.

Gamma Theta Deltas won their share of the spring sport letters issued by the school. In track, eight of the 14 lettermen were Deltas. Jim Kean won the conference high jump. Kean also won the coveted Goetz Athletic Scholarship Cup awarded by the school for high grades and athletics prowess. Three Deltas won tennis letters and five of the six golf lettermen were Deltas. Conference championships were won by Baker in both golf and tennis.

Three Deltas were initiated into Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic society, and four were tapped for membership in Baker players for their work in campus dramatic presentations.

Pete Johnson was selected by school officials as the Garrett Memorial Scholarship winner for his outstanding work in the mathematics department.

MEL HAWK

Bowling Green

Highlighting the pregraduation ceremonies was the selection of Brother Edward Ward as the University's outstanding senior man. Ed walked away with just about every possible honor. Finishing up his four years as a prelaw student, Ed was announced as one of the members of SicSic, an anonymous spirit booster organization on campus. Very active with the Fraternity, Ed has served as social chairman and played on our softball teams which have lost only three games in two years.

Miss Marcia Conner, Delta Gamma, was voted by the brothers of Delta Tau Chapter as their Delt Sweetheart at a banquet for all the candidates. Her pin mate, Brother Jerry O'Conner, was voted earlier in the year as the Delta Gamma "Anchor Man."

In a very fine display of floats, the Deltas placed second in both the Kappa Sigma Chariot Race Float parade and the May Day Float parade. This was the first year that so much spirit was expressed by all fraternities and sororities, and we walked away with honors in both events.

Four Deltas took first places in the fraternity track meet this spring, with Dan Canterbury setting a new record in the 440 in the qualifying heat. In softball, the Deltas, after losing two games to weak teams, finished strong with six straight victories to finish third in the fraternity softball league.

Two Deltas were honored by the Army ROTC unit here on Honors Day. Brother Dave Humbert was named the outstanding junior cadet and Otto Laursen was voted as the most improved bugler of the ROTC drum and bugle corp. Brother Bob Disbennett received the same honor last year.

The new officers were elected for next year at the May 27 meeting. They are: Kennadall Kjoller, president; Nicholas Gallo, vice-president; Bill Woodward, recording secretary; Jerry Zulch, treasurer; and Bernard Shepard, assistant treasurer.

The school year was finished up in high spirits by all members and we are all anticipating an equally fine year next fall!

TOM LINDY

California

As another year draws to a close, we of Beta Omega can look back upon a successful year. We have had many good times and have worked very hard, thus striking a happy medium which has brought to us a most eventful year.

At the initiation banquet on May 2, Jerry Christie received the Knudsen Memorial Award as the pledge who rendered outstanding service to the chapter. Albert T. Horn, Beta Omega, '34, was toastmaster at the ceremonies, and Edgar "Eggs" Manske, Beta Pi, '33, was the guest speaker. The banquet was quite impressive, and everyone enjoyed an eventful evening.

Elections were held just before the close of the semester, and the following men were elected: John Wilson was elected president; Jerry Christie was elected vice-president; and William Gasset was elected house manager. The remaining house offices will be decided next semester, for the terms of these offices extend into next year.

Athletic participation ranked high on the list of activities in which we participated last year. The following Deltas lettered in varsity sports last year: Bill Gasset, swimming and water polo; Gary Wulfsberg, track; Roger Peterson, track; Skip Marquard, cross country; Gulden Lloyd, tennis; and Tel Falk, baseball. Our freshmen also did very well in athletics, as evidenced by the fine work of the following lettermen: Pete Steidl-mayer, football and basketball; Ned Salisbury, crew; Kevin Scarpelli, baseball; and Dave Amoroso, baseball.

We feel that the great job that the brothers did on Cal athletic teams last year was an inspiration to all of us and that their achievements deserve merit. Our participation in intramural sports has also been very enthusiastic, for we placed high in the final standing of the intramural league.

As we close the books and head for our respective homes, we here of Beta Omega can look back upon this year and remember many things—mainly the content and happiness enjoyed by all at the Shelter.

Carnegie Tech

As the spring semester came to an end, Delta Beta found two of its members among the prominent students on campus. The first Delt to make campus news was Bruce Bowen. Bruce, a graduating senior, was elected the "Intramural Man of the Year." This award is given to the senior student who is not only an outstanding athlete, but who has also given a lot of extracurricular time to promoting the I.M. program on campus.

The second Delt to come into the news on the Tech campus was Dick Sphon. Dick was the recipient of two honors during the course of the semester. He was elected to the presidency of C.F.P. and was also initiated into Tau Beta Pi. Dick, a former president of the chapter, is now in his senior year. He has an outstanding record both scholastically and activity-wise, and is one of the most prominent men on campus.

Another important event on the Delta Beta calendar, preceding the Karnea, was our taking possession of our new house. A five-day work session was held to ready our new home for our possession next semester. With most of the work being completed on time, we are now anxiously awaiting Karnea week.

The big Delta Spring Weekend again proved to be a great success with the brothers' dates taking over the Gamma Xi chapter house. Calypso, the theme of the Friday night party, was carried out with costumes, big straw hats, and a terrific Calypso combo. The formal on Saturday night was well attended by Delt alumni. Although everyone was tired by Sunday, the affair ended with a picnic in Kentucky—swimming, baseball, and other sports. The high light of the weekend was the awarding of the Delt honors. Bob White was named "Mr. Delt" and Art Raible received the intramural award. Don Plane again walked off with the scholarship plaque, and the "outstanding pledge" trophy was shared by Jim Sackenheim and Dick Stafetas. Tapped for Delt Pillars, as outstanding workers in the chapter, were Jim Arnn, Dick Foley, Ken Lehr, Don Plane, Art Raible, Jack Vedra, and Harold Whitney.

Again there is a new addition to the Gamma Xi trophy case. When the trophy for the most popular booth in the Sigma Sigma Carnival was awarded to Delta Tau Delta for its "Dunk-A-Delt" booth, all the brothers dunked Jim Sackenheim in the tank of water used in the booth. Jim was chairman of the Delt booth.

Many of the brothers have been getting top leadership positions on campus. Brother Blaine Cunningham was named World University Service chairman recently. Brother Jerry Keyes is the new business manager of Mimmers Guild, the campus dramatic group. The chairman of the 1959 University Sing recently was announced as Brother Dale Heckmann, who was also tapped for membership in Cincinnati Service Society. Besides being the new associate editor of the News Record, campus newspaper, Brother Jim Arnn is editor of the Interfraternity Council Rush Booklet, and Hermes, the Greek newspaper. Brother Jack Vedra is the feature editor of the Cincinnatian, yearbook, for the coming year. Recently named to the Men's Advisory Board were Brothers Jim Arnn, Russ French, Ken Lehr, and Don Plane.

After much thought and planning, the new addition to the Shelter is in the process of being built. With its completion, Delta Tau Delta will have the most modern fraternity housing facilities on the Cincinnati campus.

JACK A. VEDRA

Cornell

The spring term at Cornell was marred by the death of Brothers Wick Minns and Jim Hughes in an automobile accident. Beta Omicron held a Memorial Service in order that brothers and friends could pay tribute. A memorial fund has been set up in their honor.

Many Beta Omicron Deltas have recently been elected to positions in various campus activities. Bob Boehlecke and Junius Brown control the two managerial positions on the Cornell Men's Glee Club. Jack Youngs was elected publicity chairman of the Junior Class. Bob Beales was elected to an interfraternity council committee, and Bruce Beck is a representative on the Student-Faculty traffic committee.

Other Deltas have received scholastic recognition: Dick Ball received the award for the Outstanding Military Cadet in the electrical engineering school at the annual Presidential Review. Brother Bill Krell received the same award last year. President Jack Evans was elected into Pi Tau Sigma, the mechanical engineering honorary.

In athletics the Deltas are again well represented. Joe Conroy is a member of Cornell's baseball team, while Tom Barney and Clayte Root have spent the spring sailing on Cayuga's waters. Clayte represented Cornell in the Olympic sailing trials.

Foremost on the spring social calendar was the traditional spring week end. Beta Omicron "stole the show" at Fraternity-Sorority Carnival with a genuine "Rat Race." The profitable booth was engineered by Bob Steele and manned by our entire pledge class. Bob Nagler designed the Delt float which rated high in the pageant class during the annual Float Parade. Other social events included a "Have Gun—Will Travel" party and an exchange with Delta Delta Delta.

The loss of the two brothers slackened house activities this spring and will, no doubt, dampen spirits for some time to come. We all sincerely hope other chapters are never afflicted with such a tragedy.

May the next 100 years be as successful as the first 100 for the Fraternity!

Randy Malin, a junior, has been All-Ivy League soccer goalie for the past two seasons, as well as All-Ivy League lacrosse goalie in his sophomore year. This spring Marlin has been a constant standout in the lacrosse nets, and the chances are quite good that he will repeat for league honors this season. In addition to his athletic accomplishments, Malin was recently awarded the $2,000 Scott Paper Co. prize for the outstanding junior entering the Tuck School of Business next year.

Questionnaires were sent out recently to all our alumni to gather information about their careers and families. A good response provided the material for the revival of the Gamma Gamma newsletter, The Four Star Final. This newsletter will be sent out to all Gamma Gamma alumni in the latter part of May.

Sophomores Chuck Richardson and Rory Mullett won the Interfraternity Debating Contest for Gamma Gamma. Competing against a strong field of 23 teams, our boys displayed a fancy use of the language to bring home the honors.

THOMAS V. SEESSEL

Delaware

Delt Weekend, the high light of the social season, took place in April. The three-day fete consisted of a dinner dance at the Northeast Yacht Club, a house party in which the brothers' dates provided the entertainment and a Sunday picnic. Awards were made to Elaine Crittendon, Delt queen; Dick Henson, outstanding Delt; and Dick McCracken, outstanding pledge.

The brothers have been busy renovating the house and grounds. "Operation face-lift" included a new coat of paint for the Shelter and complete landscaping for the yard.

Delta Upsilon was host to over 35 high school upperclassmen during the annual Senior Experience Day. The men, who expect to attend Delaware next fall, received tours of the Shelter and the campus. Speakers, including Dean of Students John C. Hocutt, spoke on how to get along at college. Our Mothers' Club provided a buffet supper for the guests.

On Mother's Day, parents were treated to the annual Parents Tea at the Shelter. The graduating seniors were honored at the Senior Sendoff that was held Sunday, May 11.

Those who were feted at the Sunday picnic were: John Terres, Phil Reiss, Bruce Furman, Edwin Haugh, Walter Holt, Edmund Howell, James Lawson, Robert McAlpine, Robert Meyer, Benjamin Payne, John Pichette, Raymond Sneller, and George Webber.

Hats off to our new officers. They are John W. Koch, president; Harold Hultman, vice-president; Gene Saville, recording secretary; Jim Gear, corresponding secretary; and Fred Trutt, treasurer.

GEORGE L. CARLISLE

DePauw

Our spring rush provided a good example of the success of the past spring. Thanks to the efforts of Rush Chairman Jim McElwain, the rush committee, and the combined work of the chapter, we had 12 outstanding men who provided a great boost in this year's fall rush.

Congratulations are due to the house baseball team for a fine job this spring in winning the league and in finishing well in the play-offs. In varsity athletics, Seniors Tim Ubben and Dick Locke received letters in golf. Football this fall will see Sophomores Bill Shuck, Art Maine, Butch Colin, Bill Gerber, and Jim DeArmond, Junior Keith Evans, and Seniors Dick Cross and Ron Turner working for positions on a team which promises to be one of DePauw's finest in recent years.

On campus this spring several men of Beta Beta gained new positions, and the chapter is looking forward to the activities which fall will bring. Juniors Joe Noel and Phil Richardson received new positions on the Mirage staff, the campus yearbook, with Noel holding the office of business manager. Sophomores Schaefer and George Mendenhall and Junior Phil Richardson will be group leaders on the University's orientation staff for incoming freshmen, and Jim McElwain will be one of the co-ordinators for the same group. Pete Kries has been named to the University disciplinary board, taking the place of Delt Pat Ewing.

The chapter was pleased to see Senior Ewing selected for the coveted Gold Key membership, which is based upon outstanding achievement in a wide field of activities, including athletics, campus and fraternity offices, and scholarship.

Under the direction of Social Chairman John Williams the dance this spring was one of the high lights of the year. A band was hired from Indianapolis and played on the balcony while couples danced in the sunken garden below. This dance concluded the social activities for the year, but plans are already being made for several things this fall, including the annual hayride and pledge dance.

The DePauw graduating class this year was privileged to have as a Commencement speaker, British Prime Minister Macmillan, who added much to an outstanding alumni week end. At the Delt house we had almost twice the usual number of alumni, one group of which was the class of 1933, returning for its 25th reunion. In addition to the usual activities, our retiring house-mother, Mrs. Ada Phipps, was presented with gifts from the chapter and the seven classes which were graduated during her tenure, and from the house corporation.

Beta Epsilon had a busy spring quarter. We all enjoyed working on our gala production of "The First Oil Well" for Dooley's Frolics. Our oil derrick was about 50 feet tall, thanks to steeple-jack brothers, Massaro and Sims.

Our chapter was successful on the campus political front spring quarter. Brother Nat Long was elected president of the College Council. Brother Bill Fackler is the new president of the Wesley Fellowship, and Brothers John Chunn and Robert Jones are serving as vice-presidents of the same organization. Brother Linn Wagner is the new treasurer of Circle K. We feel that we are well represented in campus organizations and activities as many of the newer brothers have joined various service clubs and many have been elected to honorary fraternities and organizations. Brothers Leonard Turner and Sid Kennedy have been tapped into Phi Beta Kappa. Brother Robert Jones was elected to Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramatics fraternity, and also won the Emory Players award of "Best Actor of the Year" for his performance in "Teahouse of the August Moon." Brother Jim Underwood was selected for membership into Pi Sigma Alpha, honorary political science fraternity. Brother John Chunn won the Dean Tate award for the outstanding freshman of the year.

We of Beta Epsilon have planned what we believe to be an effective rush program. Summer rushing events are now in progress, and we expect to pledge many good men during rush week this fall.

JERRY DIXON

Florida State

In connection with Delta Tau Delta's celebration of its centennial anniversary, Delta Phi Chapter celebrates an anniversary of a different sort. The Florida State University chapter plans to recognize its tenth anniversary next spring.

In the ninth year of its existence, however, Delta Phi Chapter made noticeable progress and noteworthy achievements.

Named "Host of the Year" by the 15 sororities in the spring of 1957, Delta Phi started the 1957-58 school year with the largest pledge class in its history. A total of 36 pledges were counted in the late fall. Of these pledges, 18 were initiated in February, 1958.

In the spring semester, Delta Phi had a total of 14 pledges, including a few holdovers; however, the chapter was at record strength—48—with the new initiates.

Following the fall semester, two Deltas were tapped for Phi Eta Sigma, the freshman scholastic honorary. Mike O'Connor and Bernie Abbott, who made over the required 3.5 average were named to the society. O'Connor was elected president of the Phi Eta Sigma for the following year. Delta Tau Delta won the Phi Eta Sigma scholarship trophy for the year.

Honors were accorded Delta Phi President Don Ayres during the spring. Don was named Air Force ROTC Junior "Cadet of the Year" at the spring formal inspection. He was commander of the Arnold Air Society in 1957-58.

At the same awards ceremony, Bernie Abbott was awarded the scholarship trophy for the Army cadet corps.

Bob Wolfenbarger won the annual Grantland Rice Scholarship given by the FSU school of journalism. He was offered a summer position with the Atlanta Constitution in competition with ten other students in the school.

Officers for the coming year are: Don Ayres, president; Mike Pou, vice-president; Bill Sellars, recording secretary; Bruce Greenwood, corresponding secretary; Ken Norton, treasurer; and John Fleming, assistant secretary.

Delta Tau Delta won the plaque for the most parents present at the Circus Week End, the annual circus performance by the FSU "Flying High" circus.

In scholarship, the Deltas finished in the upper three this spring, according to the IFC counselor. They finished seventh on campus in intramurals.

As another school year came to a close at Gamma Eta, the rattle of mugs and swish of skirts was once again replaced by the rattle of hammers and swish of paint brushes. Once again the in-town Deltas had to work feverishly to make the necessary repairs and improvements to the Shelter before fall rush began.

ever. A great host of couples turned out for this affair, but particularly noticeable amongst the crowd were Brothers Jim Hill and Bill Smythe and Pledges Wes Wheeler and Andy Birznies. This happy foursome turned out in dinner jackets and Bermuda shorts. The big event of the evening, of course, was the crowning of 1958 Delt Queen Jeanne Barnes by President Bernie Degen and 1957 Queen Carol Hollett. After the chapter had sung "Delta Queen," a number of the brothers entertained those present with a selection of Delt songs.

After final exams were over, the chapter once again migrated to Ocean City, Maryland, for several days of uninterrupted relaxation.

ATWOOD S. BARWICK

Georgia Tech

Even as the last weeks of school flew by, news of Delt accomplishments at Georgia Tech kept pouring in.

Jim Smythe has added to his honors the presidency of Omicron Delta Kappa and membership in ANAK society. Both are outstanding senior honoraries. ODK, a national organization, stresses scholarship, and ANAK, a Tech organization, stresses leadership.

In addition to these honors, Jim was elected editor of the Rambler, Tech's feature magazine. Delt Grey Hodges will be Jim's photography editor.

Jim Hardee was promoted from organizations editor of the yearbook to the position of managing editor. Steve Wilenchek, this year's fraternities editor, is the new associate editor.

On the newspaper, Paul Hodgdon and Bill Abercrombie, associate news editors, have been promoted to news editor and features editor, respectively. Bill Wild will be an associate features editor, and John Walker will be an associate sports editor.

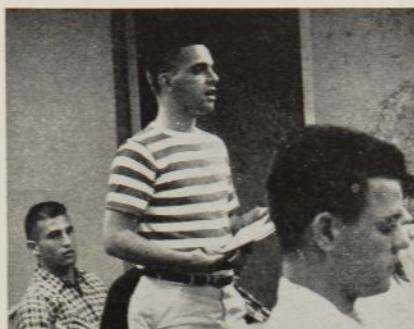

Bill Abercrombie has also been elected to the Student Council as chairman of the junior class in a class-wide election. Bill Haralson, another Delt, is also a junior class representative.

Both have been given major responsibilities on the council. Abercrombie will serve as secretary of the advisory cabinet and chairman of the senior ring committee. Haralson will be a member of the faculty-student honor board and chairman of campus government.

Jim Hardee was elected president of the Society for the Advancement of Management, one of Tech's largest and most active departmental societies.

John Reed, an Air Force cadet, is the new president of Scabbard and Blade, military honor society. His secretary is Delt Midshipman John Krummel.

Military Honors Night brought more honors for the troops of Gamma Psi. Here are the men and their awards:

BILL HARALSON, junior class representative.

BILL ABERCROMBIE, junior class chairman.

Bill Abercrombie, outstanding army sophomore; Leo Parrish, outstanding artillery freshman and outstanding army freshman; and John Fletcher and Bobby Massey, best-drilled cadets. At a separate ceremony, Brother Charles McGuirt was honored as the most outstanding Air Force sophomore.

Roy Leonard has received news of his eagerly-awaited appointment to the United States Air Force Academy.

Paul Hodgdon and Bill Abercrombie have earned the enviable membership in Koseme junior honorary society. Both are outstanding in scholarship as well as extracurricular activities.

Three of the four new officers of Pi Delta Epsilon honorary journalism fraternity are Deltas. They are Bayley Walker, president; Grey Hodges, vice president; and Jim Hardee, secretary. Newly elected members of the organization include Paul Hodgdon, Bill Abercrombie, Jimmy St. John, and Steve Wilenchek.

In other organizations, Chip Gaver has been elected to the Bulldog Club executive committee and to the homecoming committee. John Krummel has been elected to St. Patrick's Council, the organization that sponsors Georgia Tech's famous Engineers Week exhibits.

Dave Mayo, Alabama, one of Gamma Psi's finest and most sincere chapter advisers, has resigned prior to moving to

JIM HARDEE

JOHN REED

Florida. His interest and service will be a great loss.

Delt Queen Anita Merrifield, and Pat Cowley, a member of her court, have been selected by Steve Allen to be members of the Year Book Court.

Last but far from least are the Delt athletic accomplishments. Roy Forward, the Delt contribution to Tech's varsity golf team, led the team to a victory over Florida State. He also played in six other matches, including the Southeastern Conference.

In the intramural track meet, Gordon Clayton smashed the mile record with a fast 4.55. He is the Delt who last year placed second out of almost 1,500 freshmen in the Freshman Cake Race.

BAYLEY WALKER

Idaho

The close of the 1957-58 intramural season found the Deltas in third place in campus standings. Delta Mu was the top fraternity. Behind Ace Runner Theron Nelson the Deltas easily swept the track meet. Although winning only two championships, high standings in almost all sports were enough to out-distance all other Greek living groups.

After recuperating from a fabulous "Russian Ball," Delta Mu topped the social scene with its "beauty and beast" spring formal. All dates were informed that the dance would be a "complete formal." Chauffeurs picked up the dates and escorted them to the Shelter. When all the dates were comfortably seated in their formals, "the beastly" Deltas stomped in. Much to the girls' surprise the brothers were dressed in levis, old shirts, and such. A western band added to the enjoyment with dancing from 9-12; however the night didn't see the end of the festivities, for the next day bright and early, the whole chapter and their dates were off to Lake Chatcolete for the annual spring picnic. By evening all were ready for another five days of classes.

Delta Mu saw three of its brothers: Brody Conklin, John Fitzgerald, and George Dickenson, tapped for I.K.s. Beside the I.K.s Delta Mu has kept its high position in activities by following President John Rosholt, Bob Bernard, and Jack Acree, who has recently added Hell Divers prexy and social Co-ordination prexy to his list of activities.

Although only six pledges were initiated into the brotherhood at semester, a second-semester drive resulted in all first-semester pledges making their grades and all but one of the second-semester pledges making a 2.00.

SCOTT VAUGHT

Illinois

Beta Upsilon's spring semester climaxed a great year for the Delts at Illinois.

Athletic-wise, Beta Upsilon finished in the top ten in intramurals. The football championship last fall was the biggest single point getter in our "seventh of 58" finish.

In spring varsity athletics, Jim Cvik and Don Harvey were awarded baseball letters in recognition of their performances on the diamond, and Hap Georlett won a golf monogram. All will be back next year and are being counted on heavily by their coaches.

In activities, Bruce Duff was named chairman of "Sheequeon," campus spring carnival, for next year. Bob Rankine was honored as retiring president of the Arnold Air Society, and Ed DeLong was named Wing adjutant of the AFROTC unit at Illinois.

The big social note was the spring formal held May 9. The theme, "Plantation Gardens," was beautifully carried out. Spanish moss draped the trees on the Shelter's lawn, and a fountain's spray was lit by colored lights. Miss Ellie Bucyiak, Theta Upsilon, was crowned Delt Sweetheart in a ceremony that highlighted the evening.

Andy Phillip, BU '44, one of basketball's all-time greats, announced his retirement as a player with the Boston Celtics at the end of the season this spring. Andy will still be in pro basketball, though, as coach of the St. Louis Hawks.

sented to the most well-rounded fraternity on campus as determined by varied interfraternity competition.

Contributing heavily to our victory were our successful intramural teams. After taking a third in baseball, we successfully defended our track championship, giving us five of nine possible first places in intramural competition, three more than any other fraternity possessed.

Six Delts have earned varsity letters for performances on varsity teams. Dick Wadsworth has been elected secretary of Honor I, Illinois Tech's letterman's club.

Socially speaking, we dined and danced at the Rainbow Ball in the Shoreland Hotel. After the Ball was over, the pledges treated the actives and their dates to a picnic at a nearby forest preserve. Dave Anderson hosted all of the brothers and their dates at a get-together early in March. Our semiannual "active chapter-alumni" party was held early in May. On March 19, the Founders Day Banquet at the Prudential Building was attended by many from Gamma Beta.

Sophomore John Olin was recently elected to the presidency of his class and a seat on the Illinois Tech Student Board. He also was pledged to Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic honorary. John once again broke the "3.5 barrier" and managed to be high scorer on the varsity basketball team.

Junior Terry Lindquist has been appointed as secretary-treasurer of the Student Union Board, while Dick Ward heads the election commission. Dave Beal is assistant news editor of the Tech News. Dick Brandt is IFC secretary and Dave Gibbs is next fall's interfraternity rush chairman. Tom Garner served as president of the IF glee club, with Dale Parshall, Dave Roberts, Terry Lindquist, and Bill Van Santen making up a sizable portion of the group.

Seniors George Kush and Ken Folgers have been chosen to share the honors of Gamma Beta's "most valuable senior." Both served as president of their class. They have been very active on campus and, along with Mike Moloney, have been honored with a Who's Who listing.

Bob Delaclyuse is again rush chairman, and, with increased finances and good organization, a top-priority rushing program is being mapped out. Two brothers yet to be named will tour the country early in August in order to contact personally distant rushees. We have five senior counselors, Bob Delaclyuse, Dick Ward, Dale Parshall, Paul Christofferson, and Terry Lindquist, who will be very helpful during rush week.

President Dick Ward is supervising the production and distribution of a summer Delt News and an alumni directory. These two publications will soon be sent out to all alumni for whom we have correct addresses. Rough sketches of our new Shelter have been drawn and a final plan is now being drafted, soon to be approved.

"A bright past leads to a brilliant future." Such a saying would depict Omicron Chapter's activities for last year and this coming one. Individual Delts distinguished themselves in various ways last semester. Past President Don Sherk climaxed his four years by earning the "Most Outstanding Greek on Campus" trophy presented by University President Hancher. Don also was awarded a Fulbright Scholarship for this year and is now studying in Australia. Don was a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, the most sought after men's honorary, which chooses its members according to scholarship, character, and leadership. Jim Tilton has been elected to this fraternity to keep alive the tradition of having at least one Delt representative there at all times.

Another tradition was kept alive with the election of Jim Farrell as president of Central Party Committee, the organization that plans and controls all University parties, dances, and functions. Jim succeeds Delt's Jack Laughery and Jim Kanealy at this post.

All the gals in the dorms at Iowa like the Dels too. They elected Keith Linn to preside over the Inter-Dorm Dance as its king. Gretchen Green, our candidate for interfraternity council queen, brought more royalty to the Shelter as she was crowned with this honor.

Group activities brought just as much distinction. Intramurally, a sharp improvement in several sports was shown. Behind fine pitching by Dick Berry, a second-place trophy was captured in softball. Brothers Zastrow, Benner, Burton, Sproat, and Flower walked away with the championship golf trophy; Zastrow and Flower were co-medalists.

Socially, the biggest hit of the year was scored by the Dels. With the revival of the French party, with all of its costumed hilarity, the Dels became the rage of the campus with this "party of parties."

vised a different type of summer rush program than those previously used at Omicron. Every individual rushes the area around his home town or the town where he is situated during the summer. Considerations are made in the areas around which no one is situated. Rush parties and a rushing pamphlet augment this individual program.

In all-University sports, a noticeable gain has been made. John Stoy has two years left to play tennis on the squad which, with his help, won the Big Ten championship. Keith Zastrow, a consistent point winner last year, also has two more years to swim for the Hawks. Al Miller, first-string freshman end last year, will be seeing much action this year on the Big Ten championship football squad. Before he can hold down the end spot, though, he must get ahead of Brother Doug MacKinney. The majority of the basketball squad on the floor at one time may very well be Omicron Dels. Chances are good that Frank Mundt, Earl Nau, and Mike Heitman will be playing together at one time on the court.

So, although the past year was most successful, we expect this coming one to surpass it in many respects.

As has been the tradition for over 50 years, Gamma Pi held its "Lucky Pierre Party" spring quarter. A scaled Eiffel Tower adorned the entrance as the guests were met with colorful decorations upon entering the Shelter.

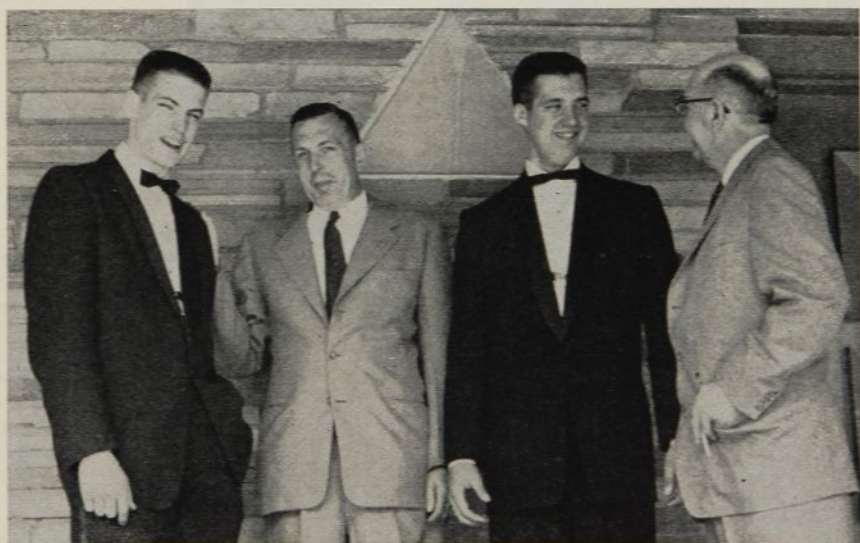

The living room was decorated cafe style with waxed bottles and candles while out on the patio a picturesque water fountain with revolving colored lights gave the proper French atmosphere for couples while they danced.

Fourteen men were initiated last spring and 12 seniors left us this year. With the vigorous efforts of Leigh Linsley, rush chairman, and the rest of the chapter rushing this summer and fall, we plan to increase our enrollment considerably.

Again the Delts have jumped into campus activities with Tom Acuff getting radio co-ordinator for Homecoming and Open House chairman for the Memorial Union. Tom Lettington has been appointed administrative assistant and treasurer of IFC and Leigh Linsley is publicity chairman for the IFC rush committee.

Jack Kingery was initiated into Tau Beta Pi, engineering honorary, and Jay Dockendorff was initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic honorary.

A start in landscaping was made this spring when eight evergreens were planted around the Shelter. We were fortunate to receive the landscaping plans for the grounds from Don Williams, '56, and in the near future plan plan to fix the grounds with shrubbery and various plantings.

During the past year Gamma Tau has managed to collect seven presidencies. Bill Witt heads the senior class for next year. Dick Jones is president of the I.F.C. and has the difficult job of inaugurating a new preferential rush system here at K.U. next fall. The Delts continued their monopoly on pep this year with Dave Wilson as president of the upperclassmen's pep club and Chuck Elliott as president of the freshmen pepsters. Rounding out the monopoly is Dick Jones, head cheerleader, and Howie Ellfeldt, assistant head cheerleader. Paul Nielson leads Arnold Air Society, honorary AFROTC organization. J. P. Feighner had the honor of being chosen president of Westminster Fellowship, Presbyterian college youth group. Bill Wilson was president this year of Phi Delta Kappa, honorary education fraternity.

The men of Gamma Tau have established the Al Oerter Delt Man of the Year award to express their appreciation to Al and to remind future Delts of the great Olympic discus champion who lived in the Shelter. The award consists of a large traveling trophy and a smaller individual trophy. The traveling trophy will remain in the Shelter and carry the names of all award holders starting with Al Oerter in 1958.

ical windfall this spring. Dave was one of the founders of the new political party on campus and needless to say, the Delts were in on the ground floor. For many weeks Dave was on the phone holding the party together and increasing its membership. Brother Howie Ellfeldt ran for an all-Student Council seat (of which there are only 27 for a student body of 9,000) and won. We gained several A.S.C. committee appointments with Brother Ellfeldt being appointed chairman of the important elections committee, Mac Johnson to the chairmanship of the traditions committee, Dick Meidinger to the health committee, Ted Hall to the disciplinary committee, and Dave Wilson to the athletic committee.

Max Dunlevy has been appointed to design a new university ring. This is quite an honor since Max's design will probably be in effect for many years. Max is a jewelry major and is vice-president of Alpha Gamma Rho, honorary jewelry fraternity.

Everyone enjoyed himself at Gamma Chi's biggest social function of the year, the annual Rainbow Ball. At the Ball, Charlotte Riley, a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority, was crowned as the new Singing expertly under the apt direction of Songleader Larry Foulke, the K-State Delts took second place in Interfraternity Sing from talented competition. Interfraternity Sing trophies are highly prized at K-State. We will be after first place in 1958-59.

Mike Dole is the newly elected treasurer of Gamma Chi. The new assistant treasurer is Edward Cochran.

Brother Don Morton has been elected as junior representative on the interfraternity council. Joe Kashner, our senior representative, has been elected president of the council.

Three men of Gamma Chi have been honored by membership in Blue Key. These men are Bill Patton, Gary Rumsey, and Dwight Bennett. Brother Patton was elected president of this senior men's honorary. This is one of the highest honors a senior can receive.

As usual, Gamma Chi is very well represented in positions in the Student Union. Brother Larry Foulke has been selected as chairman of the Student Union program council. He will replace Brother Lowell Novy who was chairman this year. Delts received three of seven appointments for the Student Union governing board. The men appointed are Lowell Novy, Max Bishop, and Gary Rumsey. There are 12 men of Gamma Chi holding positions on next year's Union committees.

Brother George Rood is the new vice-president of the engineering council. Brother Curtis Zeigler is the president of the AFROTC association.

Gamma Chi is planning several summer rush parties. We have had a very successful year and are hoping to do even better during the 1958-59 year.

Delta Epsilon finished the spring semester with its formal at Elmendorf Farm near Lexington with the giant Haggen Columns serving as a background. In the afternoon before the formal the chapter had a jam session featuring the music of Kaye Winding and combo.

Brother Roy Woodall received the Sullivan Medallion as the outstanding senior man from the class of 1958. This is the third such award received by a brother since 1952.

Brother Jim Hampton was recently appointed editor of the Daily Kentucky Kernel for the coming term. This is the first time the paper has been published on a daily basis. Brother Dan Millott will also be on the news staff as editor of the Tuesday edition.

Brothers Dick Howe and Jerry Johnson were recently elected to the UK Student Congress and Brother John Anderson was recently elected as president of the Student Union Board. Brother Dave Becker has recently been appointed as chairman of the Judiciary Board.

Brothers McDaniel, Hampton, and Becker have been tapped for Lamp and Cross, the senior men's honorary; Brother Godsey was recently initiated into Lances, the junior men's honorary.

Delts were well represented in spring sports. Jim Host performed well as a pitcher on the UK baseball team; Roger Gum ran track; and Brothers Heath, Darnaby, Livesay, and Hoe were all on the golf team.

The Delts, for the second straight year, captured the Lambda Chi Push Cart Derby title behind the driving of Brother Quisenberry and the pushing of Brothers Godsey, Jackson, Linkner, and Pledge Dickerson.

Delta Epsilon is planning an extended rush program for the summer with parties in Lexington and northern Kentucky, as well as in the Owensboro area.

DAN MILLOTT

Lafayette

Without a doubt, spring activities at Nu Chapter were highlighted by our interfraternity week end. At a formal dinner held at the Shelter on Friday, April 25, Annette Stoldt, date of Brother Bob Dahlin, '59, was honored as Lafayette's Delt Queen. Later in the evening, the Delts attended the Spring Interfraternity Ball, where they danced to the music of Lionel Hampton. Bright, but not too early Saturday morning, Nu Chapter, plus dates, adjourned to Ski-

Hi Lodge in the Pocono Mountains, where a day of outdoor activity was concluded with an informal dance. The brothers all agreed that it was one of the finest spring week ends ever.

The Delts have been active in three of the varsity sports this spring. Phil Bollman, '60, holds down the first-base position on the Lafayette starting nine, which this year went as far as the NCAA college world series at Omaha. Tim O'Donnell, '60, one of the campus' flashiest netmen, generally plays second man on the varsity tennis team. Dick Shelling, '60, is a member of the varsity track team and also ran in cross country last fall. In freshman sports, Nu chapter has contributed Bill Remaly, baseball, and Jim Oehlert and Mel Smart, track.

As usual, the Delts have been in the forefront of activities on the Lafayette campus.

John Fulmer, '58, one of the most active men on campus, was one of ten nominees for the Pepper Prize, which is awarded annually to the student who most nearly represents the Lafayette ideal. He was also recently named one of two recipients of the Pi Delta Epsilon prize for the students who have contributed the most to Lafayette journalism.

Ed Curley, '59, has been selected for the Knights of the Round Table, the junior-senior honorary society. Named to other honorary societies were Paul Luscombe, '60, and Don Ohnegan, '60, Maroon Key; and Ron Geesey, '61, and Pete Mitchell, '61, Calumet.

In the spring class elections, Paul Luscombe was elected junior class treasurer and Ron Geesey was elected president of the sophomore class.

For Nu Chapter, this has been a year of increased participation, both in Fraternity activities and campus activities. The growing Delt spirit can readily be seen in the work done by brothers and pledges in redecorating the Shelter. Scholastically, our chapter is improving with every semester. Last term we ranked second among all the fraternities on campus; this term we hope to be first. Athletically, there has been increased activity in varsity and freshman sports and tremendous interest in house participation in intramural sports. In all fields of activity, the Lafayette Deltas have been striving toward that degree of excellence which membership in our Fraternity not only expects but demands.

RON GEESEY

Lehigh

As was stated in the last copy of THE RAINBOW, rushing did have quite an effect on all members of the chapter. It was by far the busiest part of the spring semester and was also the most important. As a result of extremely fine co-operation by every brother, we pledged the top 15 men on campus. Nearly everyone in the chapter rushed two nights a week for the first eight weeks of the semester and a solid two weeks immediately after returning from spring vacation. This enthusiasm, along with precise and careful organization and planning on the part of Rushing Chairman Bob Freeman, led us to our goal, the top pledge class at Lehigh. Included in this group are three members of the Class Cabinet, three members of the football team, two wrestlers, and two lacrosse players. We are confident that all 15 men will make traditionally great Deltas.

During the spring, Lehigh's lacrosse team was led by four extremely talented Deltas. Three of the five top scorers on the team for the season were Deltas. This group was led by Jack Sweitzer, sophomore star, who was second highest scorer on the team with 13 goals and also contributed with several assists.

The end of the spring season also brought about winning ways in the field of intramural sports. Although we failed to win the league title in softball, Walt Schmidbauer and Bob Gaido copped the all-fraternity badminton championship and an aggregation of Deltas, led by Carl Tindall, won the all-university individual swimming championship.

During the spring, Brother Jim Swenson was elected president of Alpha Kappa Psi, honorary business fraternity. Jim's election carries to a total of four the number of Deltas who have been president of this group in successive years. Jim, who was high man in the house for the spring semester with a 3.6 average, is also a member of Cyanide, junior class honorary, and is a member of the Class Cabinet.

Social events were also popping all through the spring with Spring House Party as the high point. The Shelter was decorated with vines and thatching as the brothers and dates, dressed as natives, lived in an African jungle for the week end. The formal dance Friday night, with Duke Ellington, and the wild panic Saturday afternoon kept everyone hopping and gave them memories which will last many years.

We are all looking forward to a busy summer since many of the Deltas will be going to the Karnea and a few graduating seniors are getting married. We are especially happy that our new Shelter will be finished near the end of the next semester when we will be able to move in.

BOB ELLIOTT

Maine

This year, the first time in many, Gamma Nu held a spring initiation for two men. The new initiates are Bob Barton, '60, and Bob Ingoldby, '60. They are, in order, a civil engineer from Waterville, Maine, and an engineering physics student from Fairlawn, N. J. We feel sure that both men will be a big asset to the chapter.

For other brothers in the news, Grey Lane was elected captain of the varsity rifle squad for next year. Larry Thurrell was the successful house chairman of the President A. A. Hauck Memorial Auditorium Fund, attaining our full quota, a feat not duplicated by any other fraternity. President Dick Twitchell is serving as president of the Maine chapter, student affiliates of the American Chemical Society.

With Brother Grey Lane and Pledge Dave Robinson leading, we placed second in the annual Interfraternity Sing. This year's selections were "Sing to the Royal Purple," and "There Is Nothing Like a Dame." Brother Pete Muzeroll was in charge of the Maine Day student-faculty skits.

Socially, we have been very active. With our Jamaica Party, "the party with the big beach," we scored again. The party was complete with a sawdust beach, palm trees, and all the other comforts of the islands. This year's party was as great a success as last year's.

Our spring house party was a great success, with Imogene Mollison crowned as Queen of Gamma Nu. The following day, Deltas and dates motored to Bar Harbor for our annual outing. Chef Larry Thurrell served an excellent meal of barbecued chicken. Poor weather dampened spirits, but a good time was had by all.

Graduation found the chapter house in excellent condition, ready to welcome alumni, as well as parents and friends of the graduates. A dinner was served for the 12 graduates, their parents and guests, by Chef Ray Thibeault.

With the coming year the 100th year of Delta Tau Delta, it is the 50th year of Delta Tau Delta at Maine. At present, we are planning to have a tremendous stag party for all alumni. The final details will be released as soon as possible. Even the Maine Bear says "Welcome Deltas." We hope to see you then.

Maryland

With the advent of fall, the Delta Sigmas can look back upon an eventful spring, graduation, and summer.

Following the Delt Spring Formal, the big event before graduation was the annual outing at the Kinahan place in Elkton, Md. On May 17, preceding the final examination period at Maryland, the majority of the Deltas spent the day and evening swimming or relaxing in the sun with the Kinahans whose daughter, Cindy, is pinned to Delt Leonard M. Hendricks.

June graduation cost the Delt Shelter some 15 brothers and August graduation another two.

The June graduates were Richard E. Abel, George W. Burns, M. Michael Carpenter, Thomas G. Cherrix, Lewis Johnson and Robert B. Herbert. Others were Ronald K. Hunt, James A. Long, III, Joseph F. Meadow, Royden K. Whitford, III, Donald E. Witten and George A. Weinkam.

Hugh R. Hunsinger completed his course of study on the Maryland campus and has been accepted for medical school. Two other graduates, Richard F. Allen and Lawrence N. Patterson, received their master's degrees.

The two August graduates were Leonard M. Hendricks and Reginald A. Trauband.

Of the June graduates, Delta Sigma's old standby, George A. Weinkam, came through with honors in the college of Business and Public Administration. Weinkam also received an award from Pi Delta Epsilon, journalism honorary fraternity, as the outstanding senior in publications. He worked as business manager of the University yearbook, The Terrapin.

Another Delt, Donald E. Witten, was tapped for Pi Delta Epsilon and awarded a key for two years of service as reporter and news editor of the campus newspaper, The Diamondback.

The Delt Shelter at Maryland was maintained all summer with a total of 10 residents, the housemother, and cook. Brothers Norton N. Gillette, Jr., and William E. Valente served as treasurer and house manager, respectively.

Many of the Delta Sigmas attended Camp Letts during the first part of September in an effort to increase the fall rush complement. The IFC maintains a program every September at Camp Letts in Maryland to acquaint new Maryland students with the activities and opportunities at Maryland, and fraternity representatives are invited to sponsor their individual fraternities.

One final award that should be mentioned is the new Delta Sigma annual P.O.T.S.'s award presented this year to Dewitt W. Platt for his year-long activities. His association with this chapter proved very enriching.

DONALD E. WITTEN

Second term at Beta Nu was marked by an increase in rushing activity; and the M.I.T. Deltas were rewarded by the addition of three pledges to their roster: Chuck Neff, '61; Bob Larson, '60; and Emil Bataat, '59. Chuck was a member of the freshman crew squad, while Bob and Emil are both on First Dean's List. During the past term, Bob lettered on the varsity golf team and Emil was elected vice-president of Tau Beta Pi.

The close of the social season provided an occasional lift for study-worn Deltas. IFC Week End was the social high light, and each Delt was a standout, coming to the formal dance bedecked in white tie, top hat and tails.

Graduating Beta Nu's reminisced over, and had a chance to clear up, certain "rumors" they had accumulated over the past four years, during their speeches in the traditional "Swan Song" party.

The chapter trophy to the "Outstanding Athlete" of Beta Nu was awarded to "Blob" Timms and John McCarty, while the "Leaky" Dyke Bull Throwing Trophy was unanimously awarded to "Crock" Kennedy. The departing chapter advisor, Jerry Austen, presented the chapter with a plaque for the "Senior Who Furthers Most the Name of Delta Tau Delta on Campus," which this year was awarded to past-President Dan Holland. The G. L. Hobsan "Outstanding Pledge" award was given to Bob "Natural-Born" Andrews. The prize for the "Senior Who Best Represents the Name of the Fraternity in All-Campus Riots" was won by Arthur Thrash.

Last term also marked the renaissance of the Beta Nu's, the chapter newspaper, due to the spirited editorship of Al Woffard.

A great high light of the term was the valor of a determined band of industrious freshmen, who, working deftly and artistically with meager tools, completely redecorated the main dining room, thus ending the traditional "grubby chow."

ARTHUR LLOYD THRASH

Miami

Gamma Upsilon ended a fine spring season with a successful spring formal. Deltas and their dates danced in a French atmosphere, thanks to the hard work of Brother Dick Howell. Don Burcham's I.F. baseball team didn't fare too well this season, garnering only one victory. Brother Bill Chambers earned a starting position at shortstop with Miami's baseball team which ended the season with a string of five straight wins.

Brother Gordon Pade, who is currently in the Navy, hopes to return to Miami in the fall on a Navy scholarship.

Plans are being formulated and money is being raised to build a new addition to our house in the near future. This activity and an energetic rush program will occupy our summer.

BOB MORGAN

Nebraska

The last half of the spring semester saw the Deltas ranking high in interfraternity competition. Delt Queen Marilyn Miner rode the Delt Chariot to victory in the all-Greek week end events and ruled over the Interfraternity Ball. Charley Smith and Lynn Schottler showed marvelous speed and stamina by pulling Beta Tau's queen and chariot over the ground in record time.

In the annual Spring Day events, the Deltas took second in the men's events when two push balls collapsed during the hard-fought contests. The finals were not played, giving the Delt opponents a tie in place of the sound drubbing they probably would have received. Push ball is one of the Beta Tau's better sports.

Adding points in the Spring Day events was Roger Olson. In the recent election in N club (varsity lettermen organization), two Deltas were chosen to be officers. Larry Navioux, starting half-back next fall, was elected vice-president and Bob Harry, a basketball standout, is the new sergeant at arms.

Tom Neff, Beta Tau's president, was tackled as a new member of the Innocents Society, a senior men's activities and scholarship organization which each year is made up of the 13 top activities men on the campus.

Representing Beta Tau on the mound for the baseball team was veteran pitcher, Dwight Siebler. A junior, Dwight had 9 hits in 25 times at bat for a .360 hitting average. He also had the top pitching record of 7 wins and 2 losses, and the lowest earned run average of 3.11.

At Nebraska's All-Sports Day, the Deltas again entertained 45 high school athletes, invited to the campus as prospects for future Cornhusker teams. Former Cornhuskers and Delt Alums were on hand to help make the Delt All-Sports Day banquet a great success.

At the spring alumni smoker, Jim Jones received the award for "pledge best." Al Ohlen received an award for the pledge with the highest average and Harry Dingman received the Jerry Bingham memorial award. Sam Olson was voted the Delt "Intramural Athlete of the Year" and received a trophy from the Lincoln Delt Alumni Chapter.

Closing out the spring social events were the Spring Date Dinner, the French Party, and the Squab Scramble. The Beta Tau Mothers' Alliance served the very delicious meal for the date dinner and arranged all the decorations, which gave the brothers and their dates a very impressive evening at the Shelter.

The French Party this year was a "smashing" success. The last event of the year on the social calendar is always the Squab Scramble. This year the pledge class entertained the entire chapter and dates for fried chicken and refreshments at Linoma Beach. The brothers spent the afternoon playing "Frisbee" and swimming. The evening eating fried chicken and singing songs around the bonfires was enjoyed by all.

SKIP O'HALLORAN

North Dakota

Last June, Delta Xi lost four men by graduation. They were: Brother James Anderson, of Bismarck, North Dakota; Brother Bruce Listoe, of Fergus Falls, Minnesota; Brother Glenn Muir, of Inkster, North Dakota; and Brother Lew Schoeneman, of Bismarck, North Dakota. The degrees that these four men received were: Brother Anderson, bachelor of science in chemical engineering; Brother Listoe, bachelor of law; Brother Muir, master of arts in business administration, with a major in accounting; and Brother Schoeneman, bachelor of science in business administration. Last June Brother Moody Farhart, of Ross, North Dakota, received the degree of bachelor of philosophy. Brother Farhart is still with us and is working for his degree of bachelor of law, which he expects to receive in June, 1959.

Delta Xi ended its social activities in a big way last spring. Our annual spring banquet and formal was a huge success. It was stated by many who attended that it was the best social event that Delta Xi has had in a long time.

Delta Xi is again making an all-out bid for participation in the homecoming festivities this year. Last year we won second place for our float in the parade. The year before we won first place. Heading the float committee both years was Brother Listoe. This year we will be without his able direction, but we still intend to "bring home the bacon."

Delta Xi cordially invites all alumni and friends to visit them during homecoming, October 18. Special events are being planned in connection with the 75th anniversary of the University of North Dakota.

JAMES O. JOHNSON

High lights of the spring quarter for Beta Pi centered around the intramural sweepstakes play-offs. The Delts reached the semifinals in baseball and took first in the league and second in all-school volleyball; however, failure to win these sports dropped Delta Tau Delta to a fourth place finish in the sweepstakes race.

George Platz and Steve Fitzsimmons recently received awards for outstanding academic achievements in speech school. Dave Tompkins, last year's vice-president of Norlegamma, junior men's honorary society, is now chairman of Hoover Commission. Fitzsimmons and Bob McKeiver also received honors from Profile magazine.

Beta Pi's representatives at the Karnea last August 19-23, were Tom Vana and treasurer Dick Unholz.

GERRY BALL

Ohio

The brothers at 32 President Street finished the semester in the "old" Beta Chapter fashion by proving to the campus that we are still the top singing fraternity at O.U. Under the able direction of Gary Crissey, the Delt Glee Club took an enviable second place in the Omicron Delta Kappa Torch Sing. Although we didn't win the trophy, we received many favorable comments from the students and the faculty. Immediately following the Torch Sing, Brother Duane Emerson was tapped into O.D.K. Brother Emerson earned this reward by being president of Beta Chapter, business manager of the O.U. Post, a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Blue Key, J-Club, Delta Sigma Pi, and carrying a 3.68 cumulative average.

Bob Matson, assistant dean of men and Beta Chapter advisor, will move to Indiana University and take over as dean of fraternity affairs. Brother Tom Lyons, graduate of '58, will assume Brother Matson's duties as assistant dean of men at Ohio U.

In athletics, Coach Dave Behm led his team to the fraternity championship in volleyball. All the brothers participated in the winning of the championship either by playing on the team, or by cheering the team on to victory. Even though our softball team did not win a trophy, we played scrappy ball and threatened the league leaders.

As in other years we invited our "moms" to the Shelter to spend Mothers' week end. We enjoyed many hours of fun and laughter showing our "moms" the campus and the house. Later, the little brothers challenged the big brothers to a tug-a-war across the Asylum pond. Naturally the big brothers won, but only with the help of a big tree.

The year officially ended with the seniors marching down the aisle to get their diplomas, signifying four years of work well done. Those who graduated to the rank of alumni are: Ron Johnson, Jim Hartman, Al Ludlum, Chuck Bloom, Jim Dow, Ron Campana, Tom Lyons, Frank Gillespie, Barry Connors, Jim Lynch, Jack Towle, Dale Walker, Bob Forloine, Roger Swardson, Gary Conlan, Earl Witthoff, and Ron Pitts. Their absence will be felt both in the chapter and on the campus.

DAVID J. LARCOMB

Ohio Wesleyan

Taking our second consecutive IFC first-place scholarship trophy, a due reward for great interest in the area of scholarship, Chapter Mu adjourned for the summer confident of returning in the fall to find a third trophy resting between the other two. Emphasis on scholarship did not exclude the Delts from extracurricular activities: Jack Batty has been functioning as editor of the Transcript, the student newspaper, while Dick Smith was recently appointed business manager of the same publication. Numerous Delts occupy many important positions with Le Bijou, our annual, with Bryce Collier serving as business manager. Delt Don Hughes, producer and director of "The Lamp," a documentary film for and about Ohio Wesleyan, has since formed a company, Delta Motion Pictures Productions, and plans to enter the documentary film field. He produced a film of the Pittsburgh Karnea, a production soon to be completed.

In the area of student government, Bob Olson, Merritt Rudolph, Dave Yutze, and Steve Whitehead are presently serving as four of 12 committee chairmen, while Don Saliers is president of Ohio Wesleyan's class of 1959. Vick French was recently elected to the position of vice-president of the interfraternity council, and also served as editor of the IFC rush brochure, a nationally acclaimed publication.

Under the direction of our new song leader, Don Saliers, we presented a serenade during final examination week, an event which proved a welcome study break for the coeds. This serenade was a climactic finish to a very successful year for our song group, a season highlighted by the IFC songfest, in which we took second place out of 14, and the serenade to our Delt pinmates on the night of our spring formal. The song group plans to record a host of favorite Delt songs next fall and make this record available to all interested alumni and present members.

The Delts formed a nucleus for Ohio Wesleyan's Ohio Conference championship track squad this spring, with Phil DeVries, Jon Mallard, Dick DeHaven, Rog Cook, and Doug Cotterman all participating. Doug won the discus event at the conference meet and also set a new Ohio Wesleyan field record. Baseball, a spring sport in which Ohio Wesleyan took an undefeated Ohio Conference championship, found Delts Bob Olson, Rick Nesbitt, John Welch, and Dave Lehman on the field. When the varsity football team takes the field next fall, nine Delts will play an important role in its success. Chuck Hansen, Bob Morrill, and all-Ohio Conference Dick DeHaven are returning starters, while Terry Ross, Dick Heaston, and Ed Metz will be vying for starting roles.

In various other extracurricular activities, Mu Chapter has 11 men in Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism honorary, with Dave Yoder serving as president. Seniors such as Ed Whipps, Men's Court chief justice; Jim McHolland, student body president; and Paul Stout, who set an all-time record for obtaining funds for Ohio Wesleyan's campus chest committee, leave voids in campus positions which will be difficult to fill.

Although final examinations are long finished and men retired to homes all over the nation for the summer, the Mu Rushing program was by no means inactive. Headed by Rush Chairman Bob Olson, we conducted one of the most extensive summer rushing programs ever to be carried on. Rush parties were held in Cleveland, New Orleans, Washington, New York, and Cincinnati, to name a few. This type of program exemplifies our high interest in rushing and our hopes of successfully pledging another fine class, as we have done for so many years in the past.

Due partially to the numerous Delts living in the vicinity of Pittsburgh, Chapter Mu was well represented at the Karnea in August. John Raine and Roy Dodd, our two alumni delegates, were informed that nearly 50 per cent of our 90-man chapter was present. Following the Karnea, Mu returns to campus, eagerly awaiting rush week, and beginning another year, its 92nd on campus, as a very important contributory agent toward the success of Ohio Wesleyan University.

STEPHEN WHITEHEAD

Oklahoma

This has been one of the greatest years that Delta Alpha has ever had. The members have excelled in scholarship, activities, and sports.

Of course, the first important event of the year was rush week, in which the Delts received 42 pledges, the largest pledge class on the campus. From this successful start the Delts continued to progress steadily throughout the year.

In scholarship, the Delts ranked fifth on the campus. Six freshmen members were initiated in Phi Eta Sigma, freshmen honor society. This was more men than any other organization had. Ed Buchner was elected vice-president and Bernie Hulmes treasurer of Phi Eta Sigma. There were two members and two pledges who made 4.00 averages during the first semester. They were respectively: Paul McDaniel, Jim Hall, Ed Buchner, and Bernie Hulme.

In activities, the Delts also ranked high. Paul McDaniel and Jim Hall were in numerous activities and Jim Hall received one of the highest awards from the Navy ROTC program. Again the freshmen received many honors. Ed Buchner was on several University activities committees. He was also elected president of the U. A. C., one of the larger organizations on the campus.

The Delts really excelled in sports this year as they won or reached the finals in every major event. During football season Pat Taylor, with his terrific passing ability, spurred the Delts to third place in the finals while losing only one game.

This was only the beginning of a string of victories for the Delts. In basketball, both the "A" and "B" teams reached the quarterfinals before losing out. They each won their individual leagues. Next came the boxing season, in which the Delts won their eighth consecutive championship. In the Delt house the mantel above the fireplace is devoted entirely to boxing trophies.

However, the Delts weren't through winning yet. In volleyball the "A" team won its league but lost in the finals, while the "B" team brought home another trophy as it defeated both the Greek and independent teams in the finals. The winning streak continued as the Delts won both the league and interfraternity championship and also defeated the champion independent teams in both "A" and "B" softball. These two victories gave the Delts an undisputed claim to the intramural trophy.

The Delts, by winning nine trophies during the year, including a mug for winning the barbershop quartet contest and the all-University Sing for the 15th time in the last 20 years, truly had one of their best years in all phases of fraternity life since Delta Alpha was started at the University of Oklahoma.

Oklahoma State

The men of Delta Chi returned this fall full of vim and vigor and anxious for another eventful year.

Everyone was pleased to see the effects of the summer rush program that Kendall Johnson, our summer rush chairman, had promoted so effectively.

Social high lights at the Delt house this year will include the annual fall and spring formals and the various house parties.

In intramural sports, Delta Chi is expected to walk off with top honors in every event.

Considering the potential ability that is in the Delt Chapter, this should be one of the strongest years for Delta Chi on the Oklahoma State University campus.

JERRY MARLOW

Pittsburgh

The Pitt Delts started the spring semester impressively when the basketball team stormed through interfraternity competition without a defeat and captured the first-place cup. This victory gives us the second leg on the athletic triple crown. We walked away with football, and only softball remains. Much of the success of the hardwood quintet was due to the efforts of Captain Russ Sweely, High Scorer Bill Kinter, Tim Sheerer, and Henry Suffoletta.

In addition to the first in basketball, Gamma Sigma picked up third places in both swimming and wrestling. Our athletic success has also given us a four-point first-place spread in the race to capture the coveted all-sports trophy.

During the Greek Week festivities early this spring our sweetheart, Ann Pongratz, was crowned interfraternity sweetheart. Ann is a sophomore and a member of Chi Omega sorority.

On the week end of April 12 most of our chapter journeyed to Penn State to spend the week end at Tau Chapter. The week end was successful, both from the standpoint of social activity and in cementing interchapter relations. As is usual at these combined week ends, festivities were climaxed with an athletic contest. After declining to compete against the Gamma Sigma stalwarts in both track and softball, Tau agreed to a game of frisby. Much to the chagrin of Pitt Delts, the ensuing contest proved the State boys superior in handling the Pluto Platters. This Tau victory puts the inter-chapter series at 1-1, since the Pitt men were victorious in football last fall.

In addition to the eight seniors from Gamma Sigma who have been accepted to graduate schools, Russell Garman has been accepted to law school. Brother Garman plans to attend either Columbia or Pitt for law school. Jim Donahue is again undefeated this year in the 100-yard dash in two meets.

All the actives and alumni here at the host chapter for the Centennial Karnea on August 19-23 are eagerly awaiting the visit of Delts throughout the country. We hope that as many as possible have the privilege of participating in the well planned events for this biggest of all Karneas.

JAN SWENSEN

Purdue

June at Purdue saw the Delts here finish up one of the most outstanding and memorable years in recent history of the chapter. Our 16 graduating seniors are leaving some pretty big shoes to fill, but we are confident that the underclassmen and our new pledge class, one of the largest on campus, will develop into Delts capable of filling these responsibilities.

Among the 40 fraternities on campus, Delts came through in at least the top ten in every event, including intramurals, University Sing, and decorating contests. Many new first-place trophies, among them those for the softball championship, Christmas display, and Greek Week Carnival, are displayed in our trophy case this year; and although a campus-wide scholarship listing has not yet been compiled, an unusually large number of brothers and pledges were selected for scholastic honoraries this past semester.

Delts continued to take the lead in military organizations also, as Jerry Churchill was elected president of Scabbard and Blade, while Bob Smith was elected secretary of this organization. Nelson Ringmacher and Bob Lindberg were chosen president and secretary, respectively, of the Purdue Order of Military Merit.

Hal Stout was elected president of the managing board of Purdue's radio station WBAA, and Tom Hall was voted to the presidency of the interfraternity council. Jim Reynolds is the new financial director in the Office of Student Services, while Bob Huheey will direct the activities of the Purdue section of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Indoor shrubbery, fountains, lanterns, and a barn, transformed the Shelter into a country scene for the spring house dance, "Road's End," where Miss Helen Crosby reigned as Delt Queen, with Misses Pam Raunitz and Nancy Hadley forming her court. Another important part of the spring social life were the weekly beach parties with several sororities.

On Mothers' Day Week End, we turned the house over to our mothers while we sought sleeping space at any available corner of the campus. They were entertained at the traditional Mothers' Day banquet, and by University Sing, which we followed up with a party at the house. Here the Delts and their mothers danced together to music by the newly-formed Delt Combo.

We hope to make many new acquaintances at the Centennial Karnea in August.

JIM REYNOLDS

Sewanee

Beta Theta takes pleasure in its new members and its new alumni. In the first category six new men were initiated at Sewanee on June 5, 1958. J. Robert Carter, president of Beta Theta, officiated. Beta Theta initiated a total of 16 men this year; the student body at the University of the South is approximately 550 members large. There are nine fraternities on campus.

Eight is the magic number for our alumni. Eight seniors left Sewanee this year; six of them plan postgraduate work at some time in the future. Richard C. Lindop, of Maplewood, New Jersey, will attend the London School of Economics next fall. Past President Arthur Leo Speck, Menard, Texas, and Harvey Allen, Lubbock, Texas, were both pre-med students in biology. Robin Moore, Fosters, Alabama, was an economics major, and Henry Cordell, of Sanford, Florida, majored in forestry. George Kiker and Craig Casey, Augusta, Georgia, and Memphis, Tennessee, were both graduated with honors in philosophy. Craig is a past president of the chapter. Both plan to enter the Episcopal ministry, and George is returning to Sewanee next year for seminary. Walter George, of Nashville, Tennessee, makes the eighth man in the group. He and Henry Cordell actually finished at the end of first semester.

Although it is a relatively small group, Delta Tau Delta can surely feel proud of her Sewanee graduates.

One hundred years of operation is a proud achievement for Delta Tau Delta, and the Sewanee chapter was proud to help celebrate this occasion last April. The 75th anniversary of Beta Theta and the centennial of the University occurred simultaneously with this important date.

To honor these three anniversaries the chapter gave a banquet at which President Francis M. Hughes was the main speaker. Beta Theta also was proud to host the Regional Conference at this same time. Delegates came from the undergraduate chapters at Tennessee, Alabama, Kentucky, Maryland, Tulane, and Washington and Lee. Burr Christopher, President of the Fraternity's Southern Division, presided at the meetings. Various problem areas and common fields of activity in the chapters were discussed. Mr. Christopher was most pleased with the interest shown and the progress made at the Conference.

Included among the other activities of the week end was a coffee in honor of President Hughes, Mr. Christopher, and Mr. Hugh Shields, Executive Vice-President, and their charming wives. This also served to introduce members of the Fraternity and alumni to Mr. Hughes and the other distinguished visitors.

At the banquet, toastmastered by John Hodges of Sewanee, Mr. Christopher introduced Mr. Hughes to the Fraternity, alumni, and visitors. President Hughes spoke to the audience on "Loyalty" and its importance in our lives today. He emphasized the usefulness and obligations derived from being in and loyal to the fraternity. Mr. Hughes is a very impressive speaker and Beta Theta was delighted he could make this visit.

The high light spring event of Delta Tau Delta at South Dakota was the annual Spring Formal. The scene of the affair was the Sioux Falls Country Club, which cordially catered some 65 couples in formal attire. Besides the undergraduates, many alumni from all parts of the state attended.

The Delts participated in the annual Mothers' Day Sing, which finds all the fraternities on campus in competition. The songs sung by Delta Tau Delta were: "Wunderbar," and "Look for the Silver Lining." Tony Zarifis acted as song leader for the sing. As part of the Sunday festivities the Delts entertained the Mothers and their guests at the Shelter by serving a 150-plate banquet, prepared entirely by the houseboys. This banquet is the only one of its kind given on campus, thus gaining much prestige in the eyes of the administration.

On campus, the Delts have received many positions and honors. Recently, Delt Kenny Ingalls was elected president of Strollers, men's vaudeville organization. Delt Pat Reagan is the new editor of Blast, campus humor magazine. Delts Bob Frieberg and Don Debolt have been duly initiated into Pi Sigma Alpha, honorary political science fraternity. Delt Jerry Armstrong has been tokened, "Assistant Dakota Day Chairman," for the South Dakota homecoming.

Athletically this spring, the Delts won first place in the intramural swimming meet with Gib Schwartz performing the most outstanding performance of the team.

Delta Gamma of Delta Tau Delta is planning an extensive rushing program for the coming year with chairmen appointed in every major locale for work this summer, with this program to be correlated in September.

TONY ZARIFIS

Stevens

As the fall term begins to take shape, the campus once again finds Delt men dominating many of the key positions. Heading the student council is George Murphy, '59; Earl Greenleaf, president of the class of 1961, represents his class; and Jim Casey, athletic commissioner, represents the Athletic Association.

In the field of athletics we have Bob Schwab, '60, captaining two of our four major sports teams. Bob has been elected captain of the basketball and soccer teams.

Ed and John Dalton hold the positions of president and secretary in the Newman Club, and are major editors of the Stute.

Dick Clement, our president, represents us in the Arnold Air Society and George Murphy and Bob Schwab in Gear and Triangle and George in Khoda.

The sports trophy, which was awarded at our spring week end, will once again reside in the Delt house. In addition to this, we won the ping-pong, basketball, squash, and second place in the quartet singing contest. To start off the new IFC season properly, we walked off with the softball championship.

We are all now looking forward to a very successful year here at Stevens.

DICK KOCH

Syracuse

Syracuse Delts will be working when school reopens this month to keep up the good year we have just had so that another will follow. With the new officers and many campus honors which have been reported throughout the past year, we have a lot to live up to.

Our fall rushing will be of paramount importance and over the summer Rushing Chairman Rog Perschbacher has worked hard to lay a solid foundation for our campaign. It is appropriate here to tell briefly a little about the men who were graduated this past June, and that will show that there are many important replacements to be made this year.

Ed Currier, of Shaker Heights, Ohio, former social chairman and on PEC, will be in the Air Force for three years; Chuck Hill, of Carmel, New York, former social chairman, pledgemaster, and president, will stay at Syracuse to complete work for a master's degree in education; Don Kessler, of Pittsfield, Massachusetts, will enter the Syracuse Medical School; Karl Lerch, of Penn Yan, New York, and Craig McArt, of Shaker Heights, Ohio, will enter the field of industrial design; John Sly will pursue his work in forestry utilization, after a career as treasurer of the chapter; and Chuck Wade, kitchen-mate of our celebrated Mrs. L., will work in the Army military police. Special mention here is given to Craig McArt for his tremendous rushing campaign last fall.

The members will be spending a week at the Shelter before classes start to get everything in shape for the new year.

PAUL MOREHOUSE

Texas Christian

Epsilon Beta enjoyed its best year ever during the 1957-58 school year. Dominating the campus in every phase, the Delts have leaders in the most important offices for next fall. Paul Youngdale was recently elected president of the Texas Christian Student Body for the 1958-59 school year. This is, of course, the highest office a student can attain at Texas Christian and Paul is already making plans for a great year and high standards for the students. Dave Freeman was elected to the Student Congress on the junior class representative ticket. This is David's second year on the congress.

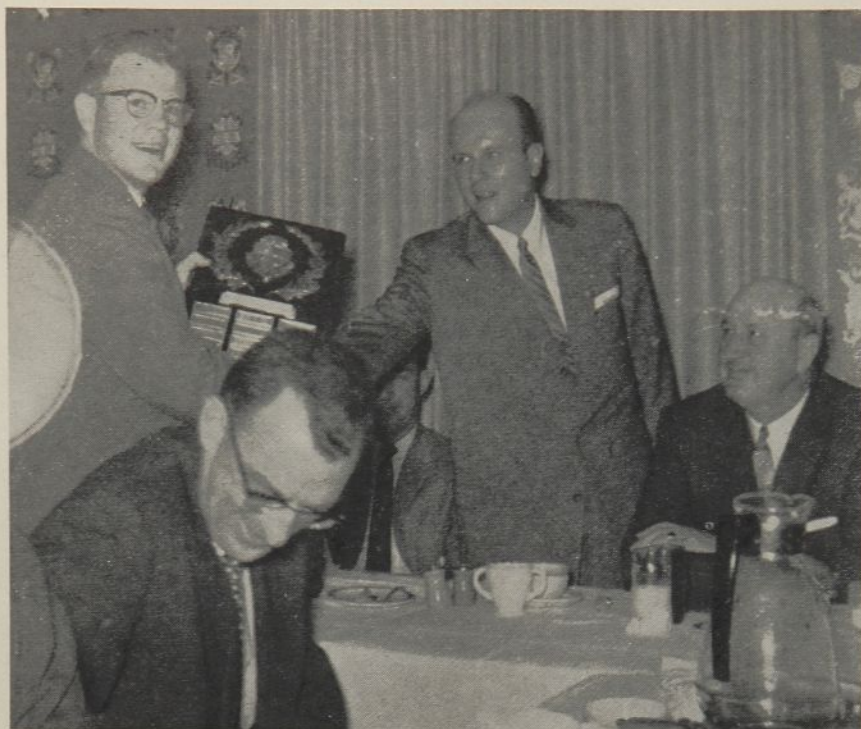

Summer rush and fall rush are the main objectives of the Delts at the present. Last year's pledge class was tops on campus and it's in the mind of all the Delts for it to repeat. Ed Myrl Moore and Fred Forrest are the summer rush captains and will get aid from Bryan Haney, Bob Roch, and Jerry Ray. Rush parties have been scheduled at local country clubs each month this summer. One joint rush party with the Ft. Worth alumni has been planned for the Ft. Worth boys going to school at Texas Christian, Texas U., and Texas Tech.

This past year was topped off by the annual Delt Formal at the Ft. Worth Boat Club. Miss Pat Bean was presented as the Delt Sweetheart. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and had recently been chosen Valentine Sweetheart at the annual Valentine Dance, an all-school function.

The Founders Day Banquet was held at Cross Keys early in May. Judge Jack Langden was the principal speaker. The annual awards were presented with Myrl Moore winning the alumni award; Bob Roch taking the scholarship award for the second straight year with a 2.81 on the 3-point grade system; Warren Rudolph won the "Hawghead" award for outstanding participation in intramurals; and Norman Ashley received the Best Pledge award.

In the annual Zeta Tau Alpha Song Fest held in May, the Delts won second place after many hours of practice under the guidance of Songleader Dave Orr.

Jackie Shatley was elected president of the Bryson Club, the only social club on campus other than fraternities. Jackie was also vice-president of the sophomore class last year.

Winning first place in football and softball and taking second in swimming and volleyball compiled enough points for the Delts to win the first interfraternity council intramural trophy. The Delts won the softball championship over the Sigma Chi's 17-2 in the final game. It was the second consecutive year the Delts have gone undefeated in softball. On the all-intramural softball team, composed of nine players, the Delts placed six. Jerry Ray, the pitcher, had one no-hitter and two one-hitters.

John Cantrell and James Livergood won track letters. Cantrell is a weight man while Livergood specializes in the 880. Harold Key paced the TCU baseball team, picking up all-conference honors as catcher.

As football is once again here, the Delts will have Carlos Vacek and Walter Ince fighting for starting rolls. Vacek is a two-year letterman at halfback and will see plenty of action this fall. Ince, a tackle, will be depended on also.

On December 11, 12, and 13 the Delts will hold their Third Annual Basketball Tournament for Fraternities. This is the biggest fraternity project at TCU. This year teams are entered from Oklahoma, Southern Methodist, North Texas, Texas Tech, Texas University, University of Houston, and TCU. If any Delt Chapter is interested in this tournament please contact the Epsilon Beta Chapter.

Texas Tech

The spring semester at Texas Tech has come to an end, but the memory of Epsilon Delta's first year of existence will never come to an end in the minds of those who shared it.

The spring semester was filled with many exciting events for the members and pledges of Epsilon Delta. The annual Tech Spring Festival meant the all-campus bicycle race. Those riding for the Delts were Charles Smith, Jerry Brooks, John Stokes, and Gregory Wilemon. The Delts didn't win, but everyone enjoyed the race which had 32 teams competing.

The softball season ended with the Delts taking fourth place. The team made good showings in all of the games, and Morris Scales and Hamilton Jenkins were placed on the all-fraternity team. Tommy Priddy, intramural director, was the coach of the team.

The IFC and Panhellenic Sing was a big event for all of the Tech fraternities and sororities. Epsilon Delta's music chairman, James Thruston, did a fine job of directing; and the Delts, who were the smallest group entered in the contest, won third place.

Brother Charles Gafford's grandmother treated the entire brotherhood of Epsilon Delta to a week end retreat at her ranch. She supplied the entire group with food and sleeping accommodations. No appreciable amount of business was accomplished, but the brotherhood and fun were enjoyed by all.

The spring Big Brother-Little Brother breakfast was an outstanding success with the pledges presenting paddles which ranged in size from small balsa wood slats to five-foot planks. Jerry Brooks received the "Brick Award" from the pledge class, and Jean Rawlinson received the "Best Pledge" award from the members. The pledge class also presented the "Pledges' Friend" award to John Sporar.

The Rainbow Formal was the big social function of the spring semester. A before-dance party was given for the Deltas and their dates by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Allen of Lubbock. The Allens are the parents of Brother Harvey Allen of Beta Theta Chapter. The dance was held in the Hotel Lubbock ballroom, which was decorated with a giant rainbow. The Deltas presented their dates with their favors under the rainbow. Following the presentation of the favors, Miss Ellen Edwards, a member of Delta Delta Delta, was crowned as Epsilon Delta's first Delta Queen. Epsilon Delta's president, Jerry Wood, crowned the queen and presented her with a dozen roses and an engraved silver tray. Brother Norris Green escorted Queen Ellen, who was serenaded with "Delta Queen." The dance was ended with the singing of Delta Shelter."

The newly-elected officers of Epsilon Delta, who took office in April, are: Jerry Wood, president; Morris Scales, vice-president; Glenn Himmelberg, corresponding secretary; Don Grimes, recording secretary; Jerry Lobdill, treasurer; Dan Moore, assistant treasurer; Pat Groves, pledge trainer; Wayne Lambert, guide; David Shoemaker, sergeant at arms; and Bob James, IFC representative.

Those seniors leaving Tech and Epsilon Delta are Paul Ragland, who has a graduate fellowship in geology from Rice Institute; Charles Smith, who will do graduate work in English at Oregon State; Charles Gafford, who will attend S. M. U.; and Gerald Dabbs, who will attend the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School.

So ends the first year of the Epsilon Delta Chapter of Delta Tau Delta.

GERALD DABBS

Tulane

The new officers of Beta Xi Chapter have been elected. They are: Ronnie Reso, president; Jim Larose, vice-president; Jim Kincaid, treasurer; Henry Harris, assistant treasurer; Bill McIntosh, recording secretary; Ronnie Joseph, corresponding secretary.

The administrative committee, composed of the officers, has selected a new housemother. She is Mrs. Compton, formerly a housemother at Southern Methodist University. The members were very pleased with the choice and expect a good year with her help.

Sam Rosamond, rush chairman, has been busy making some excellent plans for rush week parties which will begin on September 11. The high light of rush week promises to be our annual Playboy Party.

In March our Rainbow Formal was held. Janice Lewis, a junior at Newcomb College, reigned as Queen of the Rainbow Court. Janice is a Phi Mu. The formal was preceded by a party at the Southern Yacht Club and stuffed toy dogs were given to the members' dates as favors.

Beta Xi captured first place at Tulane's Campus Carnival by raising the most money for charity with the original idea of raffling off a car.

Plans are being formulated to turn the back yard into a patio. This is but one of the many projects being carried out to beautify our lawn.

RON JOSEPH and
BILL MCINTOSH

UCLA

June brought to a close a very successful year for Delta Iota, with the latter months climaxing a very enjoyable year.

During spring vacation we migrated to Laguna for a week of activity. The afternoons were highlighted by water skiing and beach parties, while the evenings were spent party hopp'n and other forms of relaxation. A most enjoyable time was had by the members, many of whom found it necessary to return to the classroom in order to catch up on lost sleep.

The famous Barbary Coast was the climax of the social season, not only at the Shelter but at UCLA as well. This year over 800 people attended the gala affair. Music was provided by the immortal Elvira Redd, from Las Vegas, while a five-piece bongo group kept the late party goers content until dawn. The decorations included the construction of a frigate with a main deck capable of holding 40 people. The ship was so constructed that the house became the inside of the ship and the backyard the beach of a tropical island. A wharf was constructed, as well as a two-story waterfall. Over six tons of sand were used to cover the ground. Refreshments included a polynesian fruit drink served in coconut shells . . . made from a recipe known only to Delta Iota.

In student body offices, Gary Bamberg won the junior class presidency after sweeping to victory over a wide list of candidates. Gary is hoping that this new post will provide him with the necessary advantage to push him into the ASUCLA presidency next year.

Intramurals ended with baseball, where we won our league championship. In the over-all ratings we placed first in sportsmanship and third in competition. All in all, it was a very successful season and we are looking forward to gaining both first places next year, a task that we have accomplished many times in the past.

With the semester at an end we started drifting home for summer vacation. Many of us will be working, while some of us will be visiting Europe and other places of interest. Still a small group of Deltas will enroll in summer sessions and while they attend classes in the morning, they're sure to spend the afternoons at the beach. But the summer months are sure to go by fast and a new school year will be beginning in the fall. We are all anxious to return once again and we are already mapping the beginnings to a very successful rushing schedule.

DON BRIGGS

Washington

Gamma Mu Deltas ended the summer and came back to the Shelter full of enthusiasm for rush week. Rush Chairman Lee Kueckelhan scheduled several rush parties around the state which seem to have paid big dividends. Lee concentrated his efforts in two areas—Seattle and Eastern Washington—because these areas are weak in chapter membership. Two men who were pledged last spring kicked off the new rushing program. Playing a huge part in helping Lee, by sending in names and addresses of prospective Deltas, were the alumni, to whom the undergraduate chapter is indebted for their aid in this all-important function.

Another large trophy was added to our collection last spring as the Deltas and the Kappas took first place in sophomore carnival. This win marks the fifth time we have taken first place in the annual event in the last ten years. Deltas have copped several seconds and thirds in the interim years; last year we took third place with the Alpha Phis.

Last year's win was the perfect climax to many hours of hard work and planning. The KKGs spent several weeks planning, making the costumes, and dreaming up the dance routines, while the construction was planned and supervised by General Chairman Tom Vaught. Originality was the main concern and it paid off with victory. The theme, "The Old Rockin' Shoe," portrayed nursery rhymes with "rock and roll" tunes. The "old lady's shoe" turned out to be exceptionally realistic, which, when combined with the dances, made a real winner.

The Delt water polo team took second in the all-University intramural program last year. John Tharp, Warner Talso, and Nate Thomas scored the three Delt points.

As regards the new Shelter, the alumni society is very active. Several committees have been organized, each one to plan various aspects of the building, financing, and organizing of the big project. One of the obstacles to overcome is the actual financing. The three lots, across the street from the present Shelter, were purchased a year ago and are now about half paid off. Construction will not commence until the rest of the debt is discharged. This fall should see some big strides being made regarding the construction.

Rob Thomason, chapter president, was named vice-president of Beta Gamma Sigma, business administration honorary, last spring. Rob, a general business major, has been active in the group for some time. Because of his scholastic prowess, he has been recognized by winning a Boeing Airplane Co. scholarship.

John Temple and Lee Kilburn were also honored last spring. John won a spot on the Washington yell staff for the 1958-'59 school year and will help boost the Huskies at all of their sporting events. Lee was initiated into Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary. He will enter Columbia University's medical school this fall.

ROBERT MONTGOMERY

Epsilon Gamma, under the able leadership of its new president, Tom Askew, is launching herself as a new ship in campus leadership. Askew, a senior, has shown a determined and able spirit in his first semester in office. The continued building of Epsilon Gamma is being furthered by our able officers: Chuck Lucas, vice-president; John Ableson, treasurer; and Roger Milnes, secretary.

We are lucky to have as house manager-treasurer, a very capable man, John Ableson. Under John's management, we are sure of a sound financial year.

A new Shelter will welcome returning members and rushees when they come to Pullman this fall. Epsilon Gamma is expanding from an old 20-man Shelter to a 45-man Shelter; making us the closest fraternity to the campus. This new location will mean a great deal when rushing, and our new capacity will help us in financing our own Shelter when the four-year college contract expires.

Along the scholastic line, Larry Swanson has been tapped by Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honorary. Larry Swanson and Terry Bech were tapped by the freshman and sophomore honorary, Intercollegiate Knights. This year we have four members in the Rhodes Scholar study group. They are: John Abelson, Stell Newman, Douglas Hipp, and Terry Bech.

Brother Bill Lind led the house in participation in campus politics with his election as IFC president. In sports we have Tom Askew on the varsity swim team. We are represented on numerous ASSCW committees and also in debate by Bill Priest and Ray Kronquist. A sizable number of Deltas are also members of the college band and orchestra. Jeff Stillman was the stage manager for the school's opera workshop which presented "The Bartered Bride."

In the social spot light this year were our annual dances: the pledge dance and spring formal. The pledge dance had a skid row theme that was effectively presented with the decorations. Abstractions dominated our spring formal with the walls designed as modern creations. A strong bond of common interest has brought nearly 100 per cent attendance to all house activities. The success of each function points to a brighter future as we expand into the new Shelter.

During the summer months Epsilon Gamma will have co-operated with neighboring chapters in an effort to have again a successful pledging in the fall. Each section of the state has been assigned a rush co-chairman who will work under the co-ordinating rush chairman of the chapter.

TERRY BECH

Wesleyan

Spring at Wesleyan saw the Delts outstanding in all phases of campus life. As a group, led by Ed Roberts, we were an extremely close second in the Interfraternity Sing. Spring house parties, the first week end in May, stands in our minds as a gala affair. At Saturday afternoon festivities, our fortress-like craft led the field in our heat of the Dirty River Day Race, and we finished with an over-all first-place tie. The strong crew which ably piloted home our boat was composed of Elliott Snow, Bruce Butler, Tom Sorensen, Bert Edwards, John Lutton, and Pete Leermakers. Back at the Shelter that evening, our "Wild West" party was clearly superior to all other parties on campus. Winning prizes as most authentically costumed were Bob Kirkpatrick and his date, and Ted Bromage with his. Too soon after the parties, however, final exams descended upon us.

As a break from studying, one Saturday afternoon no less than 25 brothers and pledges turned out to carve a trench out of the stubborn back yard, so that we could install a sorely-needed sidewalk.

Important positions on campus were garnered by Delts this spring. Elected as president of the Cardinal Key was Bob Kirkpatrick. In elections of the Atwater Club, the school's chemistry club, Bert Edwards was named president. The Parker Prize to the outstanding sophomore debator went to Jan Hogendorn, making the second time in three years that a Delt has received that honor (two years ago it was won by Mike Hennessey). Brother Hogendorn was also elected to Delta Sigma Rho, the national forensic honorary fraternity.

On the campus athletic scene, we had representatives in many sports. Jess Hafer played on the golf team. Ed Collins roamed the outfield for Wesleyan's baseball team, while Ed Webster efficiently managed the team. Ron Loose also got into the managing action, his work being with the track squad. George McKenzie was a consistent performer with the lacrosse team, while Tom Buckovich held down third base for the freshman baseball team.

The Delt softball team was again a powerful aggregation, losing just two of the league games. Each of these losses was heartbreakingly close, with the score both times being six to five.

We are very fortunate to be able to boast of two of the outstanding scholars in Wesleyan's senior class, Pete Leermakers and Dick Donohue. In his field of chemistry, Pete has compiled a record seldom excelled. As a result of the work done on his research grant last summer, Pete won the Connecticut Regional Award for outstanding chemistry research. Then he received the American Cyanamide Fellowship as an outstanding chemistry major. His election to Sigma Xi, the honorary scientific fraternity, was followed shortly by news of a National Foundation Fellowship to the graduate school of his choice, which is Cal Tech. As a result of his over-all record, Pete has the great honor of being awarded his degree with High Distinction.

While pursuing his study of music, Brother Donohue has achieved a record no less impressive. Two summers ago, Dick was named the Most Valuable Singer at the Tanglewood Music Festival. He has been the leading tenor for the Wesleyan Chapel Choir and the Wesleyan Choral Society, and is widely recognized as the most outstanding musician at Wesleyan in three generations. Dick has been featured in several concert series here on the campus. In addition to his work at school, he has found time to direct the choir at a local church and to teach piano. Dick is the recipient of the E. E. Murphy Fellowship for study at the graduate school of his choice, and he plans to begin graduate work at Yale, where he has been awarded a scholarship. Besides being elected to Phi Beta Kappa, Dick is also graduating with High Distinction, making two of the seven High Distinction degrees going to Delts.

Two brothers have Wesleyan grants for summer study. Skip McAfee is to attend the University of Iowa's summer camp for geology, and Jan Hogendorn's grant is for an African tour this summer.

On June 6 we held our annual alumni banquet, and our efforts were well rewarded by a record turnout of about 70 alumni. Noteworthy was the return of four members of the class of '08. Brother "Hike" Chase, '08, was presented an engraved Revere bowl by the undergraduate chapter as a token of its appreciation of his 50 years of untiring service to the chapter. Following the banquet was the annual meeting of Phi Rho Literary Society, our alumni corporation, at which time the graduating seniors were elected to Phi Rho.

Representing Gamma Zeta at Pittsburgh this summer will be Bob Kirkpatrick, '60, and Jim Brands, '59. Alternate representatives are Bert Edwards, '59, and Elliot Snow, '59. In addition to these men, we expect a large number of brothers to attend the Karnea, and we look forward to seeing you Delts from other chapters.

JAMES E. BRANDS

Western Reserve

Under the capable direction of Ray Najem, Zeta Chapter sounded exceptionally good in the interfraternity sing, which was a part of the May Day festivities at Reserve. We didn't place in the competition but most of the good voices will be back to sing next year, so we should have an excellent chance of winning. Honor's Chapel was also held on May Day. Joe Macys was given the Lux Freshman Award for outstanding work on the yearbook. Nicholas Schrock was awarded the Woodward Oratory Award and also the Rostrum Award for outstanding speech and debate achievement.

Other Delts have been elected or appointed to important posts in campus affairs. Mike Ostergard was elected vice-president of the sophomore class, Alan Robinson was elected president of the junior class, and Gary Deonise was elected to the position of Student Union representative to Student Council. Paul Schupp was named chairman of the Student Court and he was also elected to the post of vice-president of Phi Society. Pat Walsh was elected secretary of the Student Senate. Mike Ostergard was appointed fraternity representative to Student Council and circulation manager of the University newspaper. John Gigax was appointed a coeditor on the 1959 yearbook, band manager, and treasurer of Kappa Kappa Psi. Al Robinson was elected assistant treasurer of the chapter to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Dick Rush.

Jerry Hejduk and Al Robinson are the rush chairmen for the summer and they are doing their utmost to get about 30 of the top freshmen in the fall rush program.

Concluding the year was the Spring Formal at Hillbrook Country Club. The club was acquired for the evening through the efforts of Jack McLeod and it was another excellent formal.

JOHN H. GIGAX

Westminster

Delta Omicron closed out its 1957-58 term with a spring formal built around a Mardi gras theme. The formal featured hundreds of helium-filled balloons dotting the ceiling and one of the finest bands on campus. Mrs. Peter Childs was crowned queen.

Looking back in retrospect, the year was a success in many ways. Although the intramural program needed revamping, Delta Omicron could boast that of the 55 varsity lettermen returning this year, almost a fourth were Delts. Six Delts competed in baseball, four in track, and one each in swimming and basketball. In addition, Chick Edwards stepped from his track captaincy of last year into the presidency of the "W" Club. Don Otto was elected captain of the baseball team for the second consecutive year, and also secretary-treasurer of the "W" Club for the second year in a row. In addition, three Delts received provisional letters in track. They are Ben McDougall, who threw the discus; Fred Cory, who tossed the javelin; and Wayne Wilke, a hurdler.

Concerning athletics, Bill Elliott gave to Delta Tau Delta the M.C.A.U. conference low hurdles championship for the fourth consecutive year. In a photo-finish in which his natural speed gained him decisive inches, Elliott repeated the crown which Tom Hicks, '56, had annexed for three years in succession.

Moving into the realm of campus politics, Bailey Word, Delt president, was elected treasurer of the intrafraternity council and Chick Edwards was elected sergeant at arms of the student body. Other officers were: junior class—vice-president, Dave Wright; secretary-treasurer, Ben McDougall; sophomore class—vice-president, Wayne Wilke; secretary-treasurer, Paydie Adams.

At commencement on June ninth, five seniors left Delta Omicron for the last time as active members: Don Ames, Bill Bishop, Bob Fehrenbach, Fred Johnson, and Marv Schmidt.

BOB FEHRENBACH

Bob Fehrenbach, former president of the chapter and an active participant in college and fraternity life, was honored by being named to the annual Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, one of seven on campus to receive the honor.

Bob Richards, a Delt from Brentwood,

Missouri, was chosen to spend his junior year abroad in study at Forman Christian College in Pakistan. Bob, a preministerial student, should return to Westminster for his senior year.

The summer break came as a welcome relief from an especially grueling final week, but with the 1958-'59 term having begun, new responsibilities will crop up demanding new and different men to work to replace the loss which was felt at graduation this past year.

The biggest social event in the spring of every year is the annual dinner dance; this year was no exception. Prior to the dance we held our customary picnic near the Columbia River on a sunny afternoon. The main attraction at the picnic (besides the food) was water-skiing. Just about everyone had a chance to show his talents on the skis and a lot of people ended up wet! After the picnic everyone retired to prepare for the dance.

The high light of the evening was when President Leroy Leisile announced that the new queen of Delta Rho Chapter was Jan Lusk, a junior and member of Alpha Phi sorority. Pat Eckart, our past queen, presented the trophy to Jan. Other awards given out that evening were for outstanding senior of the year (this year we had two), Ralph and Leroy Leisile; pledge father of the year, Alan Pasco; and the freshman scholarship trophy, which went to Ross Kennedy. As usual, our spring dinner dance was a hit.

Scholastically, we of Delta Rho have done quite well. We took top honors on the campus this year by winning the scholastic trophy. Credit is due our scholarship chairmen, Jack Thomas and Tom Harris, and, of course, to all the guys who studied so hard. Bob Hodgson, senior and past president, was tapped for Order of Wailatpu, an honorary society at Whitman; Dave Coxwell and Ion Magown were chosen to represent us in the sophomore men's service club, the Whitman Knights.

Athletically speaking, Delta Rho turned in many fine performances—we had eight varsity lettermen: skiing team members were Don Burneski (N.W. slalom champion), Bob Hodgson, and John Miller; tennis: Jack Thomas and Bill Knorp; championship track team, Don Mair, Val Lewton; Holden Brink in golf; and Bill Grable, baseball. In the all-intramural race, the Delts came in second. We took the championship in tennis, under the capable direction of Coach John Miller, and in baseball the Delts managed to tie for second. Jim Ellis was at the helm and did well with what he had to work with. Jim graduates this year and he will be a great loss. Larry Mead managed the track team to a third place against strong competition but has his sights set for a championship next spring. In bowling we took another third, with Bill Brundswig doing most of the trundling. Bill was quite disappointed with a third and will be out for revenge next year.

So another year at Delta Rho comes to a close and when we look back one thought comes to our minds, we are growing up, we are getting big; Delta Rho is no longer the small chapter it was five years ago. Each year shows an increase in pledges and we hope to have our largest yet, come September.

Wisconsin

Beta Gamma ended the school year in a blaze of glory. Under the guidance of Chairman Bob Hebal, Beta Gamma won first place in Campus Carnival. The carnival, held annually for the benefit of charity, is a campus-wide event. This year, some 30 groups participated, and over $6,000 was taken in.

On May 24, with Brother Don Jefferson directing, Beta Gamma won first place in the all-university competition, Tournament of Song. We were fortunate to receive two trophies: best of fraternities, and all-campus.

On a different note, Beta Gamma lost nine good men in the graduating class of 1958. Included in that group are: Don Hoffman, past president of the Wisconsin Student Association; Howard Brown, AFROTC cadet colonel; Bill Breuch, Army ROTC cadet colonel; and Phil Skinner, editor of the 1958 University of Wisconsin yearbook. These, and the rest of the graduating seniors, contributed greatly to both Beta Gamma and the University.

One of the best parents' week ends Beta Gamma ever had was held this May. About 80 parents turned out for the week end, which was climaxed by our winning Tournament of Song and a party after.

Ending the year successfully, with triumphs in two big events, and although we are losing nine good men, things look very good for Beta Gamma this fall.

On August 7, 1958, Carl F. Kuehnle, Iowa, '19, passed on to the Chapter Eternal. For more than 40 years Brother Kuehnle contributed his time, his wisdom, and his energies to the Fraternity. He founded the Loyalty Fund of Delta Tau Delta. His death prompted the Sixty-fourth Karnea to adopt a resolution of commemoration. The resolution is set forth here in full, not solely to pay tribute to this Good Delt, but also as a memorial to all of those Delts who have given so freely of their talents, their loyalties, and their love, to the end that the Fraternity has prospered and grown for a full century. The living greats of Delta Tau Delta have recently been granted recognition. May we now give pause to pay tribute to those Brothers who have advanced to the Chapter Eternal, leaving, in their passing, a stronger Fraternity than it had been before it felt the impact of their love and devotion.

Following is the text of the resolution adopted with respect to Brother Kuehnle:

"Whereas, It is with profound regret that we report the death on August 7, 1958, of Carl F. Kuehnle, University of Iowa, Class of 1919, who was a leader in his undergraduate chapter, a former President of the Western Division, and the founder of the Delta Tau Delta Loyalty Fund; therefore,

"Resolved, That our distinguished brother, the late Carl F. Kuehnle, be officially commemorated in the record of this, our Centennial Karnea.

"Resolved, That we feel deeply the loss of our numerous other loyal brothers in Delta Tau Delta who, since our last Karnea in Houston, Texas, have been summoned to the Chapter Eternal."
