RECOMMENDATION TIME

It's that time once again. Delta Tau Delta's success depends upon its new members. It must continue to initiate men who measure up in character and ability to the high standards of the Fraternity.

We again ask for your co-operation in contributing to the future strength of Delta Tau Delta.

Fill in the recommendation blank below and send it at once to the Central Office, Delta Tau Delta Fraternity, 3242 North Meridian Street, Indianapolis 8, Indiana.

Karnea Accents Summer's Conventions

THE REPUBLICANS are convening this summer in Chicago to nominate their candidates. The Democrats will gather on the West Coast to make their selections. And at the opposite end of the United States, Delta Tau Delta will assemble to elect new national officers, consider Fraternity legislation, hold seminars on successful chapter operation, and enjoy fellowship and good times, in a manner and to an extent that the two competing conventions cannot nearly approach.

President Francis M. Hughes will retire after four years at the helm of the Fraternity. Karnea delegates will be called upon to elect his successor. Time and place for the 1962 Karnea must be proposed and selected. Delegates will have an opportunity to propose and vote on constitutional changes. Undergraduates and alumni will participate in round-table discussions of chapter operation. It will be possible to absorb some New England culture and pastimes by attending a New England clambake, with all of the trimmings, and by visiting some of the many points of historical interest in and near The New Ocean House at Swampscott.

It is hoped that the Fraternity's two United States Supreme Court Justices, Tom C. Clark and William J. Bren-

Karnea Chairman Joel W. Reynolds has completed the assignments of his committee members to specific duties. The Karnea program has been worked out. The New Ocean House is prepared to accept reservations. And time is drawing near.

Fraternity policy and Fraternity history are traditionally formulated and made at Delt Karneas. The 1960 Karnea promises to be no exception. Following, set forth in detail, are the Karnea committees and the program. Let's all meet in Swampscott for the Sixty-fifth Karnea June 22 to June 25, 1960.

After they've been cooked and uncovered the lobsters and clams for the clambake will look like this.

Becherer, Griffin, and Wallace Named To Selection Committee Of Advanced Study Scholarship Program

AS ANNOUNCED in the September, 1959, number of THE RAINBOW, Delta Tau Delta has established an Advanced Study Scholarship Program, to be effective with the college year, 1960-61. The scholarships which will be available under the program are of two types. General scholarships will be available in any field of specialization. Special scholarships will be offered in specific fields of training, as specified by donors who establish the scholarship.

A Selection Board of three members shall make examinations of all applicants and make recommendations to the Supervisor of Scholarship. Their recommendations shall be binding except under unusual circumstances, in which event the Supervisor of Scholarship shall submit a report to the Board of Directors of the Fraternity, which will then make the final selection.

Members of the Selection Board are appointed by the President of the Fraternity. They shall all be members in good standing of the Fraternity, two of them shall be members of college faculties and one shall be from business or professional life. In accordance with these requirements, President Hughes has appointed to the Selection Board Robert C. Becherer, Purdue, '23, president of Link-Belt Company; Russell A. Griffin, Hillsdale, '29, Dean of Students and professor of English at Western Reserve University; and Leon H. Wallace, Indiana, '25, Dean of the School of Law, Indiana University.

The general scholarships shall be known as the Alvan E. Duerr Graduate Scholarships, in honor of the former President of the Fraternity who was such an outstanding leader in the fields of fraternity scholarship and the National Interfraternity Conference. These scholarships shall be five in number, in the amount of $1,400 each, more or less, for one year's study at a recognized institution for graduate training and research. The scholarships shall not be renewable and, generally, shall be used in payment of living expenses and not in payment of tuitions. The scholarships shall be allocated one each to the four Divisions. The fifth one shall be made on an at-large basis.

The special scholarships will be in an indeterminate number, depending on the number of donors desiring to establish them, and will be awarded on an at-large basis. One such special scholarship has already been established. The contribution has been made by John W. Nichols, Oklahoma, '36, former member of the Arch Chapter, for graduate study in either petroleum engineering or petroleum geology.

The requirements necessary to be eligible for consideration for one of the scholarships, together with the necessary application forms, can be obtained at the Central Office of the Fraternity, 3242 North Meridian Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Obtaining qualified men to serve on the Selection Board is a vital part in the new program. The Fraternity is indeed fortunate in having three such competent individuals comprising the initial board. As president of Link-Belt Company, Mr. Becherer is one of the nation's leading industrials. He has been associated with the company since his graduation from Purdue in 1923, receiving a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering. In 1955 his alma mater bestowed upon him the honorary degree of doctor of engineering. He is a director of the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago and of the American Fletcher National Bank and Trust Company of Indianapolis. He is a trustee of Illinois Institute of Technology, a member of the executive committee of Machinery and Allied Products Institute and of the Citizen's Committee of the University of Illinois. He is also a director of the Economic Club of Chicago.

RUSSELL A. GRIFFIN

ROBERT C. BECHERER

Russell A. Griffin is Dean of Students, Associate Dean of Adelbert College, and associate professor of English at Western Reserve University in Cleveland. He received his bachelor's degree from Hillsdale College in 1929, a master's degree from Western Reserve in 1932, and the degree of doctor of philosophy from Western Reserve in 1940. Dean Griffin has been at Western Reserve since 1935, except for the period between 1943 and 1946, when he was on leave of absence to serve with the United States Navy. He was cited to the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter in 1958. He is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa (currently serving as a member of its national committee on scholarship awards), Sigma Tau Delta, and Theta Alpha Phi.

Dr. Wallace obtained both a bachelor's degree and a degree of doctor of jurisprudence from Indiana University, the latter in 1933. He was admitted to the practice of law in Indiana following his law school graduation and was engaged in the active practice of law in Terre Haute, Indiana, from 1933 until 1945. He became an associate professor at the Indiana University School of Law in 1945, becoming a professor of law in 1947. He served as acting Dean of the School of Law in 1951 and 1952, and has served as Dean of the Law School since 1952. He is a member of the Indiana State Bar Association, the American Judicature Society, the American Academy of Social and Political Science, and the Academy of Political Science. He is a frequent author of contributions for various professional publications. He is a member of both Phi Beta Kappa and the Order of the Coif.

Moore Elected to Educational Fund Advisory Committee

THE ARCH CHAPTER of the Fraternity has recently elected F. Darrell Moore, Ohio, '16, to a five-year term as a member of the Delta Tau Delta Educational Fund Advisory Committee. He succeeds Dr. Henry M. Wriston, Wesleyan, '11, former president of Lawrence College and Brown University, who has served on the committee since January, 1946.

Following graduation from Ohio University, Mr. Moore attended Harvard Business School. For several years he was engaged in the banking industry, before turning to the teaching profession. He was a professor of accounting at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute for approximately 18 years. During World War II he worked in Utah as an accountant for a manufacturer of arms and ammunition. Following the war, he returned to the midwest accepting a position on the faculty at Purdue University. He continues to this date as a professor in the accounting department at Purdue.

Darrell Moore's Fraternity experience is wide and varied. He has served as Vice-President and President of the Eastern Division. He has been Supervisor of Scholarship for the Fraternity. For many years he served Gamma Lambda Chapter at Purdue as chapter advisor. Over the years, he has always accepted every assignment offered him in behalf of the Fraternity. His contributions to his own chapter, Beta, are too numerous to mention in any sort of detail. His most recent contribution was the compilation and writing of the history of Beta Chapter, the oldest chapter in the Fraternity from the standpoint of continuous operation.

There are few if any Deltas more loyal to the Fraternity than is Darrell Moore. He will make a most valuable member of the Educational Fund Advisory Committee.

Two Fischbach Scholars Named

The Fischbach Residency Foundation Committee has announced two appointments for the year ending June 30, 1961.

James R. Black, Pittsburgh, '53, has received a scholarship of $375 in connection with his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Temple University Hospital in Philadelphia.

The other appointment, also for $375, has been awarded to Don N. Smith, Kentucky, '55, in connection with his residency in pediatrics at Charity Hospital of Louisiana in New Orleans.

Mayer and O'Brien Elected to Phi Beta Kappa at Tufts

Eugene S. Mayer, Tufts, '60, and Thomas O'Brien, Tufts, '60, have both been elected to Phi Beta Kappa at Tufts University. In addition to achieving high academic standings, both men were active in campus affairs. Gene served as IFC president and Tom was president of the student council.

Certainly, these two brothers from Beta Mu illustrate that top grades and topflight campus performance are compatible.

Do You Know Spann, Broyles, Berg, and Thomason?

THE OFFICIAL responsibility of the vice-presidents of the four Divisions is to supervise the activity of chapters in their particular localities. So, members of the Southern Division should recognize the name of William B. Spann, Jr., those of the Western Division should be familiar with the name of Gordon B. Broyles, Arnold Berg should be recognized by Northern Division members, and those from the Eastern Division should be acquainted with the name of Mims Thomason. For these four men are Division vice-presidents.

For many years the constitutions of all four Divisions of the Fraternity provided for the election of the vice-presidents at Division Conferences. In the past several years, the necessary constitutional amendments have been passed to provide that Division vice-presidents shall be appointed by the Division President. This change was made for the purpose of assuring that men would be serving as vice-presidents who had the time and the inclination to participate in Fraternity affairs. Under the former system, that of election at Division conferences, men were sometimes elected through popularity contests who were, unfortunately, not in a position to devote time and attention to Division affairs.

The Division vice-presidents are expected to attend Regional and Division Conferences. They are expected to visit the undergraduate chapters in their close geographical vicinity. They are called upon to make special investigations for the Fraternity, especially in cases where possible sites for new chapters have been proposed and approved. Frequently, they will represent the Fraternity at various Founders Day celebrations and other alumni gatherings. But perhaps most important of all, these are the men from whom the selection of the Division Presidents will be made. Consequently, the experience that they have as vice-presidents is invaluable in preparing them for future duties as Division Presidents and members of the Arch Chapter.

It can truly be said that Division vice-presidents are coming to play an increasingly important part in the smooth functioning of Fraternity government and operation. Consequently, it is felt that it is of interest to the Fraternity as a whole to know who these men are and what they are doing. In this issue of THE RAINBOW will be presented Brothers Spann, Broyles, Berg, and Thomason. Future issues will bring articles on Harry C. Green and Charles Morgan, Jr., of the Southern Division; Kenneth C. Penfold, of the Western Division; Frederick W. Hibbert, of the Northern Division; and Frederick H. Parsons, Robert N. Craft, and Malcolm M. Beers, of the Eastern Division.

William B. Spann, Jr., Emory, '32,

WILLIAM B. SPANN, JR.

has been a vice-president of the Southern Division since 1955. He is engaged in the practice of law in Atlanta, Georgia, as a partner in the law firm of Alston, Sibley, Miller, Spann & Shackelford. Born in Savannah, Georgia, he attended Georgia schools, completing his preliminary education at Boys' High School in Atlanta in 1928. From high school, Willie entered Emory University, was elected to Phi Beta Kappa in his junior year, and was graduated with honors in 1932. Following graduation from Emory, he entered Harvard University School of Law, receiving the degree of bachelor of laws in 1935.

Mr. Spann is a member of the bar of the Supreme Court of Georgia, the Georgia Court of Appeals, and the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. He belongs to the Atlanta Bar Association, the Georgia State Bar Association, The American Bar Association, Inter-American Bar Association, the International Bar Association, and the American Judicature Society. He served as president of the Atlanta Lawyers' Club for 1951-52. He is a director of the Atlanta Legal Aid Society and has been chairman of the advisory board of the Fulton County Juvenile Court since 1954.

Among his many positions of service in the Fraternity, Willie served a term as president of the Atlanta Alumni Chapter. He was acting chapter adviser for Beta Epsilon Chapter at Emory for three years, beginning in the fall of 1935. He has been active on committees of the house corporation at Emory and was particularly active on committees for building the present Shelter at Emory, as well as the committee responsible for the later addition to the Shelter.

During World War II, Brother Spann served in the United States Navy. He was on active duty from April 15, 1942, to June 3, 1946. He became a lieutenant commander in the Reserve Corps and is a member of the Reserve Officers Association. He now lives in Atlanta with his wife, two sons, and daughter.

It was in the Southern Division, too, that Gordon B. Broyles, Emory, '37, Texas, '37, got his start. Born in Metcalf, Arizona, Gordon attended Sewanee his first year at college and was initiated at Beta Theta Chapter in 1934. He transferred to the University of Texas, receiving his bachelor's degree from Texas in 1937. Following graduation, he enrolled in law school at Texas but a possible career in law was interrupted by World War II. His service in that war was as a major in the Army Air Force, being stationed at the Eglin Field Proving Ground Command.

Except for the time spent in college and in Air Force service, Gordon has lived in Palestine, Texas, since 1920, except for two years in Tyler, Texas, as an employee of the Humble Oil & Refining Co. For the past ten years he has been an independent oil operator. He has been active in the development of some of our younger Delt chapters now functioning so well in the great southwest.

A native of northern Iowa, Arnold Berg, Indiana, '32, is now vice-president of Indianapolis Life Insurance Company. Following graduation from high school, Arnie went to the Chicago area, where he was employed for two years. While so employed in northern Indiana, he became acquainted with Indiana University and entered Indiana University, where he was initiated by Beta Alpha Chapter. Following graduation from college, he went into the insurance business with Equitable of Iowa at Bloomington, Indiana. While in Bloomington, he served as chapter adviser to Beta Alpha Chapter for six years. He was with Equitable of Iowa for 20 years, serving in Bloomington, Des Moines, and Omaha.

He was in the Army infantry in World War II. In 1952 he retired from the active reserve of the Army infantry as a lieutenant colonel. He is now a member of the retired reserve.

An active member of the Beta Alpha House Corporation and the chapter's alumni supervisory committee, Arnie has a son, Edward E. Berg, who is now an undergraduate member of Beta Alpha Chapter. He is active in the Indianapolis Alumni Chapter, having just completed a term as president of the chapter.

The Bergs live in Indianapolis where Arnie is easily reached for Fraternity assignments.

The fourth vice-president to be introduced in this issue is the Eastern Division's Mims Thomason, Tennessee, '31. Born in Lynchburg, Virginia, Mims entered the University of Tennessee in 1927. While in college he was treasurer of the freshman class, managing editor of the college humor magazine, editor of the student newspaper, business manager and treasurer of the dramatics club, a student member of the publications council, chairman of the junior prom, and president of the interfraternity council. Following graduation in 1931, he began newspaper work as a reporter and later city editor of papers in Knoxville, Tennessee. Subsequently, he was with papers in Detroit and Suffolk, Virginia.

Mims Thomason began his career with United Press International in 1934 as manager of the Raleigh, North Carolina, bureau. Later, he was transferred by United Press to New York, and then to Detroit and Chicago. In 1943 he was named central division manager in charge of United Press news and business operations in the midwest, with headquarters in Chicago. In 1952 he was elected vice-president and general manager of United Press Newspictures. In 1955 he was appointed general business manager of United Press International. He is currently a member of the board of directors of United Press International and is vice-president and director of six subsidiary and affiliated companies. He was named first vice-president of United Press International in 1958.

Mims Thomason and his wife, Betty, live in Greenwich, Connecticut. They have one daughter who is a college junior, a son who is a college sophomore, and another daughter who is a high school freshman.

Who are Spann, Broyles, Berg and Thomason? They are four men who are leaders in the professional life, business life, and community life of our nation who have been willing to take time from their busy, overcrowded schedules to continue to work for the advancement and continued progress of our Fraternity. They are four of our Division vice-presidents, leaders in their businesses and leaders in our Fraternity.

The Adventurous Life of C. E. Meyer

By FREDERICK L. HAGEN, Syracuse, '25

HALF A CENTURY AGO Gamma Omicron Chapter of Delta Tau Delta was established at Syracuse University. Many of its charter members have long since passed to the Chapter Eternal. Among the few remaining survivors is one who has travelled far geographically and has progressed far in status and accomplishments.

Clarence Earle Meyer was born in East Ashford, New York, on August 14, 1891. After completing his preparatory education at Griffith Institute, Springville, New York, in 1909, he enrolled at Syracuse University. He was soon pledged by Gamma Omicron Chapter. This association with the Fraternity was one of the two associations that he made at Syracuse which have continued down to this date. The second one was his acquaintance with a Chi Omega, Theresa Heidecke, who was later to become Mrs. C. E. Meyer. Early in life, he was nicknamed "Chief," after the well-known New York Giant baseball player of the time. This name has stayed with him throughout his life.

The lives of Chief Meyer, his wife, and their four children, Mrs. Mary Louise Beemer, Mathewson B. Meyer, Mrs. Phyllis Burgard, and Malcolm H. Meyer, have all been greatly influenced by the growth and initiative of Standard Oil Company in the Orient. Mrs. Beemer and Mathewson Meyer are residents of Singapore and Bombay, respectively. The other two are residents of New York State.

Chief Meyer was a pioneer in breaking the barrier of isolation that characterized America prior to World War I. At that period in history, the United States foreign service was a mere embryo consisting of a few ambassadors, ministers, and consuls, selected mainly on the basis of political patronage. The Standard Oil Company had already made a bigger start toward a foreign service. As early as 1890 the company had established a small organization throughout a widespread foreign field. They had stationed men at large seaports for the purpose of receiving and selling at wholesale to local merchants the cargoes of kerosene oil shipped from the United States. As time went on it became apparent that this lucrative trade in countries dependent on kerosene for lighting, could be greatly expanded by bringing the cost of the kerosene within the reach of the vast potential consumer market. Consequently, programs were undertaken to tranship the case oil to interior points and sell it there to interior merchants. This policy led to the acquisition of transshipping facilities, such as river vessels and interior wharves and warehouses. The transition was made from sailing vessels to tankers for the overseas shipments.

In 1912, Standard Oil commenced a practice which its successor companies still follow; that of recruiting college graduates for overseas service. These young men served as company representatives at all key points of distribution and instructed the natives in American methods of merchandising and distribution.

Chief Meyer, inquisitive and adventurous by nature, learned of this program and, following his graduation from Syracuse in the spring of 1913, applied for and was accepted as a candidate with Standard Oil. He was sent to New York City for a four-month training and indoctrination course. Upon completion of the course, he was one of those selected for overseas assignment in Hong Kong, headquarters of the South China division of the company. He was in that division for 18 years.

During most of his earlier years with the company, he was stationed in cities in the interior of China. In 1915 he took his bride to Kongmoon, on the West River. During their four years in Kongmoon, their first child, Mrs. Beemer, was born. She was the first American to be born there. Chief's next assignments were at Foochow and Canton. Between assignments, he served for short periods at headquarters in Hong Kong.

In 1931, after having been promoted to assistant general manager, Chief Meyer was transferred to Shanghai, the head office of the North China division. In 1935 he was transferred to Japan as general manager of the company's operations in the Japanese Empire.

Meyer's career with Standard Oil coincided with political events of great importance and significance in the Orient. It was during this period that Chiang Kai Shek's Nationalist government came into being; and at the time when Japan was building up her military and naval strength to the extent that later culminated in the attack on Pearl Harbor.

From 1925 to 1935, Meyer's principal responsibility was to co-ordinate the efforts of the American and British oil companies then operating in China in overcoming the burdensome taxation imposed by the new Nationalist government. This work necessitated continuous negotiations with top officials of the new regime.

From 1935 to 1941, his main task was to negotiate with the Japanese government with the purpose of avoiding submission to the terms of the Japanese Oil Control Law of 1934. This law attempted to require all oil companies operating in Japan, both foreign and domestic, to carry heavy noncommercial stocks. To carry out his assignment, Chief Meyer kept in close and continual co-operation with the United States Ambassador in Tokyo. Successful in achieving his objective, Meyer, nevertheless, found it was held against him when hostilities broke out at Pearl Harbor and he was arrested as an enemy national. He was held by the Japanese in solitary confinement in a five-by-eight-foot cell at Gomyoji prison near Yokohama for six and a half months. On April 8, 1942, he was formally charged with espionage. The preliminaries connected with a trial were slowly carried out. Finally in early June, during a seige of illness, he was informed by prison officials that they were planning to ship him back to the United States on an exchange-of-persons basis. Late in June, Chief was taken into court once again. The court then ordered him released from detention but not from charges. He was ordered permitted to return to his own country.

The exchange of American and Japanese nationals took place in Mozambique, South East Africa. The M. S. Gripsholm, which had carried Japanese nationals from the United States, retraced its path to New York, via Rio de Janeiro, arriving late in August.

Exactly one year later, Meyer was departing from LaGuardia Airport, bound for London. He had been named by the United States government to the post of petroleum attaché to the American embassy. There he worked two years, serving the American Armed Forces and British authorities in the important field of providing and allocating fuel for the war in Europe.

Meyer returned to Standard-Vacuum Oil Company at the conclusion of World War II, as a director of its New York City headquarters. In 1946 he was promoted to vice-president of the company. In that capacity, he had occasion to travel extensively, not only to China and Japan, but to India, Burma, and other countries in South East Asia he had never before visited.

In 1950, Paul G. Hoffman, Chicago, '12, persuaded Chief to retire from Standard-Vacuum and re-enter government service. His first assignment was with E.C.A., as director of the mission at Seoul, Korea. This job was soon terminated by the events of the Korean War in December, 1950. His next assignment, at Vienna, Austria, proved to be the pinnacle of his overseas service. His four years of service there were highly rewarding ones, as only service in co-operative, international efforts can prove to be. Late in 1954 he was assigned to Japan. He continued to serve there until 1957. He reports most enthusiastically on the high spirit of co-operation and the friendliness of the Japanese with the United States.

Chief Meyer is now retired—for the third time. He and Mrs. Meyer reside in Washington, D. C., and are comfortably and pleasantly occupied with the international community. Chief is presently the president of the Japan-American Society of Washington, an organization active in furthering good relations between the two nations. This year marks the centennial celebration of the opening of Japan to trade and commerce, so the Society's calendar of events is heavier than usual.

The Meyers have eleven grandchildren, and although but three of them are regular residents of the United States, three others are presently in this country while attending school here. Consequently, they are able to spend part of their vacation periods with their grandparents.

Chief and his wife, Tess, have a huge reservoir of memories of their experiences in many lands. Many of them are of dangers and hardships, while many others are of happiness and comfort. Nevertheless, neither of them is inclined to dwell too much in the past. They are both thoroughly enjoying the present and anticipating the future. There are still a few countries they have never visited and they hope to be able to include some more foreign travel in their future plans.

It has been a long road for Chief Meyer since his graduation from Syracuse in 1913. It is a road well posted with worth-while and significant accomplishments. It has seldom, if ever, been a dull one. Certainly, Chief Meyer ranks as one of Delta Tau Delta's most outstanding adventurers.

National Capital Sets Founders Day Pace

By ROBERT E. NEWBY, George Washington, '24

NATIONAL CAPITAL Founders Day dinners in the National Capital are always well attended. The first of our second century of dinners was no exception. There was a large and enthusiastic turnout of alumni to hear Judge Leonard P. Walsh, Minnesota, '27, recently appointed to the Federal bench in the District of Columbia. Brigadier General Alvin C. Welling, Kentucky, '32, Engineer Commissioner for the District of Columbia, as master of ceremonies, kept the program moving at a fast pace. Immediately following one of those famous National Press Club dinners, the Maryland chapter started off the entertainment program with several song numbers. L. Noel Patterson with W. Tom Brown at the piano, led all the assembled Delts in spirited singing of several familiar Delt songs. Among the distinguished Delts seated at the head table were Justice Tom C. Clark, Texas, '22, Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court; Hugh Shields, Indiana, '26, Executive Vice-President of the Fraternity; James S. Shropshire, Kentucky, '29, President of the Southern Division; C. Burr Christopher, George Washington, '28, immediate past President of the Southern Division; Col. Daniel C. Eberly, George Washington, '29, president of the National Capital Alumni Chapter; Dr. Joseph A. Jeffries, Virginia, '03; Maj. Gen. Edwin P. Parker, George Washington, '12; John L. Jones, Maryland, '52, president of the Delta Sigma house corporation; and Rev. James R. Adams, Nebraska, '55, and George Washington, '55, assistant rector, St. Johns Episcopal Church, Georgetown branch, who rendered the invocation. Justice Clark presented the National Capital Alumni Chapter's annual award to the outstanding undergraduate Delt in the area, Leo P. Balsamo, Maryland, '61, president of his chapter. General Parker presented "gold certificates" to three Delts who were initiated into the Fraternity more than 50 years ago. They were Dale D. Drain, Nebraska, '07; Joseph

B. Matre, Cincinnati, '12, and Charles D. Shoemaker, Ohio State, '04. There were nine 50-year Delts in attendance who had previously received the certificates. Hugh Shields was on hand to represent the Distinguished Service Chapter in presenting its award to Major General Edwin P. Parker, George Washington, '12, formerly provost marshal general of the U. S. Army, now retired. The remarks of Judge Walsh were timely and very well received by the undergraduates and alumni. He pointed out the advantages of fraternities, based upon his own personal experiences, and cautioned his listeners to be ever alert to the forces constantly working for the destruction of national institutions such as fraternities and similar organizations. Interest among our local alumni appears to be increasing to the point where weekly rather than monthly luncheons will be held every Monday, 12:15 p.m., at O'Donnell's Restaurant, 1221 E Street, N. W., where Bill Watts, Western Reserve, '31, is the manager. He should be contacted in the event you plan to attend any of the weekly luncheons. Our last three monthly luncheons attracted 32, 39, and 35 alumni Delts, respectively—hence our plan to meet weekly. Send nominal contributions to R. E. Newby, secretary-treasurer, National Capital Alumni Chapter, 7515 Radnor Road, Bethesda 14, Maryland, in the event you wish your name to be placed on the mailing list to receive notices of special luncheons and events to be held by the chapter. Looking forward to seeing you at the Karnea.

S. J. Sackett and Leon H. Ellis Cited to DSC

TWO MORE OUTSTANDING members of the Fraternity have recently been cited to membership in the Distinguished Service Chapter. A Citation was presented to Samuel Jefferson Sackett in Chicago, Illinois, on February 26, 1960. Former chapter adviser to Delta Kappa Chapter at Duke, Leon Hubbard Ellis was presented his Citation in Los Angeles on March 9, 1960.

The text of Brother Sackett's Citation reads as follows:

SAMUEL JEFFERSON SACKETT
Delta, '03

Chairman of the committee which recommended major revisions in the Constitution and Bylaws of the Fraternity in 1933; a vital factor in reactivating Delta Chapter at the turn of the Century; through leadership, advice, and untiring effort, he gave strength to the chapter over the years; Chapter Adviser for Beta Pi Chapter, where his influence on the Chapter and members was an outstanding contribution; a citizen of distingtion, whose life exemplifies the ideals of Delta Tau Delta; an inspiration to all who know him.

The text of the Citation presented to Brother Ellis reads:

THE DELT ALUMNI CHAPTERS

Akron

The Akron Alumni Chapter plans to have a meeting in the near future. We had a most enjoyable joint meeting with Delta Omega Chapter at Kent State. It was a combination of Founders Day and the tenth anniversary of the installation of Delta Omega Chapter. A good turnout met for the event at the Akron City Club. The events leading up to obtaining the Charter and the installation of the chapter were reviewed. This was followed by a résumé of the chapter's progress during the past decade.

Several members of the Akron Alumni Chapter were honored with citations by Delta Omega Chapter in recognition for their outstanding contributions to the welfare of the undergraduate chapter. Those receiving such citations were John Hart, Ohio State; Dr. Louis P. Carabelli, Kenyon; Willis Edmund, Ohio; Robert Stopher, Wabash; Randall Truogg, Ohio; and Arthur Briggs, Ohio.

The oldest alumnus present, Harry Post, Wooster, was given a standing ovation. He has been a Delt for almost 50 years and has always been a loyal and spirited member.

We extend to Delta Omega Chapter our best wishes for success and outstanding accomplishments as it starts on its second decade.

DR. LOUIS P. CARABELLI

Boise Valley

The April meeting will be the annual election of officers. Planning will start next meeting on the annual stag picnic. The annual picnic is in honor of local Delt rushees. I noticed in the paper that Kenneth Egbert was named commissioner for the Ore-Ida Council of the Boy Scouts. Ken is district manager of the Idaho Power Company. I picked up a Delta Mu review for May, 1949, and saw in the "Do you remember page," Ross Moser was a county extension agent in Preston, Idaho and was instructing veterans in agriculture; Richard Still was attending Stanford University and taking economics; Dr. Wesley S. Nock had set up practice in Miami, Florida; Jack Haymond was an engineer for the Idaho Title Company and secretary of the Boise Valley Alumni Chapter of Delta Tau; Carlyle Briggs was a consulting engineer in Boise and still is; and Jack Morgan was a logging contractor. We get news from the alums mainly through Delta Mu Chapter. They do a great job keeping the alumni informed and, I am ashamed to say, without too much help from the alumni chapter.

Chicago

The setting for the Chicago Alumni Founders Day Banquet was the Prudential Plaza on February 26. A total of 85 alumni and undergraduates was in attendance.

A complete surprise to Samuel J. Sackett, Michigan, '03, was the presentation by Charles F. Axelson, Chicago, '07, of a Distinguished Service Chapter Citation to him for his outstanding contribution to the Fraternity and to the fields of education and research. Congratulations, Sam! we're all mighty proud of you.

Waldo A. Fisher, Northwestern, '28, the main speaker of the evening, gave a comprehensive address on scholarship and other inducements in the field of college athletics. As assistant athletic director of Northwestern University, and former head basketball coach, he is in the center of this often controversial subject. His remarks were discussed at the Monday luncheons for several weeks.

Wayne O. Viner, Wabash, '28, reminded those present of the great history of our Fraternity and the great strides made in recent years.

Undergraduate chapter reports were heard from John Olin, president of Gamma Beta Chapter, and George Platz, president of Beta Pi Chapter.

A resolution was passed creating a board of trustees to work with the officers in directing the activities of the chapter. Elected to the board for one-year terms were Rodney Lang, Michigan, '50; Clarence R. "Duke" Lindeman, I.I.T., '41; C. Richard Locke, DePauw, '39; Gurrie C. Rhodes, Cornell, '58; John Ryder, Michigan, '50; Ernest Conrad Schmidt, Wisconsin, '17; Roy E. Smith, Purdue, '22; and Richard J. Wolf, Northwestern.

Elected to another one-year term were Jerome W. Pinderski, Northwestern, '47, president; Wayne O. Viner, Wabash, '28, vice-president; Burton R. Foss, Northwestern, '53, secretary; and Hugh A. Solvsberg, Northwestern, '52, treasurer.

As we go to press Harry R. Axelson, Chicago, '12, will have moved permanently to California. Harry, who holds the record for regular attendance at the Monday noon luncheon table, will be missed by his many friends. We wish him well in his new home and hope he will make every effort to return to Chicago as often as possible.

New faces seen at the Monday noon luncheons at Hardings Restaurant, 7th Floor, The Fair Store: Barney Brown, Ken Query, Donald G. Hoffner, R. E. Gravor, Sam Leland, Ferd Bing, and K. G. Sundstrom.

Karl Digel dropped in to one of the recent luncheons. He is now taking it easy at 1229 South Owasso Street, Tulsa, Oklahoma. It was good to see him again after such a long absence from Chicago.

The board and officers would welcome ideas and suggestions for future activities from all Chicagoland alumni. Drop in to the Monday luncheon or call or write to any of the officers or board members.

Cincinnati

The Cincinnati Chapter is meeting in May at the Summit Bowl to view a newly prepared film in color and sound of the high lights of the University of Cincinnati Bearcats' highly successful 1959-'60 basketball season, featuring the fabulous Oscar Robertson. Other functions being planned are a summer picnic, the annual Coney Island party, and the Christmas Party.

Denver

Founders Day at Denver was an outstanding success this year. Seventy-two alumni and 52 undergraduate Deltas gathered at the famous Tiffin Banquet Room for the year's biggest event.

The program was exceptional. After an unusually fine steak dinner, which featured prize beef from the Colorado stock show, President C. O. "Spike" Frisbie introduced three famous guests, all of them Deltas. Sonny Grandelius, Delt alumnus from Michigan State and football coach at Colorado University, was principal guest and speaker. Sonny gave a most interesting and entertaining talk on football high lights at C.U. and added some optimistic comments for the coming year. John Palonchek, another famous Delt who is assistant coach at C.U., narrated movies of the 1959 games. Delt Carroll Hardy, also of athletic fame, was the third guest speaker.

Fortunately, the enthusiasm of the Founders Day Banquet is continuing. Active membership has picked up, and attendance at the weekly luncheons and monthly parties is excellent. It looks like a really enjoyable and successful year for Denver Deltas.

B. C. EMERSON

Houston

Our group has met only one time since the installation of the Delt chapter at Sam Houston State College, Huntsville, 70 miles from Houston. President Eldridge Thompson reviewed briefly, at this meeting, the Huntsville developments and received praise from the 36 Deltas present for the outstanding job he did in "working up" this new chapter. Already he has information that a strong group of pledges will be coming along there in September.

Many of the alumni from this new chapter were present at the luncheon held in March and many more have indicated their desire to be on hand for future gatherings. Quite a number of new faces were included in the automatic roll call that preceded the luncheon business session.

Wayne Ogden told of the effort being made at the University of Texas to build a new Shelter and money was appropriated for use by those actives in contacting some of the Texas alumni. Some of these undergraduates plan to be at our May meeting.

SILAS B. RAGSDALE, SR.

Indianapolis

On March 19, at the Indianapolis Athletic Club, the Indianapolis alumni held their Annual Founders Day Banquet. In view of the attendance of more than 300 alumni and undergraduates, it was felt that this was one of our most successful State Days. A basketball tournament in the morning and afternoon provided lively competition between the undergraduate chapters. Beta Psi at Wabash College won the tournament by defeating Beta Beta at DePauw University. The Gamma Lambda "engineers," from Purdue University, engineered a victory in the annual stunt competition with some smooth singing. Pretty as a picture was our queen of the day, lovely Kathleen Goe, age 18, from Chicago. She attends the University of Wisconsin and represented Beta Psi of Wabash College.

We were honored at the banquet by the presence of our native son, brother, and Fraternity President, Fran Hughes. Speaker of the evening was the Honorable Carl V. Weygandt, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Justice Weygandt is a graduate of Wooster College, '12, and member of the Distinguished Service Chapter. While the brothers sat at the "banquet board," the ladies had their own luncheon with 81 present. Following the banquet was the annual state dance attended by 155 couples.

We were privileged last summer to hold a very successful rush party at the mansion of Indiana's governor, Brother Harold Handley. If the Governor's busy schedule permits, we plan to meet at the Mansion again this summer for another rush party.

C. W. HULETT

Long Beach

When it was learned that President Hughes was to be the speaker at the Founders Day dinner of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter on March 9, it was decided that we should take advantage of the opportunity to greet and hear our President instead of holding our own dinner, as planned. A number of our members journeyed to Los Angeles that evening and were well repaid. The dinner was attended by alumni from the entire Los Angeles metropolitan district, and the active chapters from U.S.C., U.C.L.A., and Santa Barbara. All were awarded by an excellent program and an evening of traditional Delt fellowship. Brother Hughes gave an eloquent and inspiring address, which was appreciated and enjoyed by everyone. The Los Angeles Alumni Chapter is to be congratulated for making this such a memorable occasion.

We continue to have luncheon meetings on the second Tuesday of each month and are making arrangements for the members and their ladies to meet for dinner and an evening of entertainment on Sunday, May first, at the Long Beach University Club.

We know there are members of the Fraternity who are connected with the armed services and stationed in the vicinity of Long Beach. You are cordially invited to attend our luncheons and social gatherings whenever your duties will permit.

roll call by memory of the chapters represented at the dinner and made a flawless performance. We were honored that evening to have as our main speaker Mr. Branch Rickey, who spoke to us on his new position as president of the Continental Baseball League. After his speech, Mr. Rickey was very kind to answer many questions from the floor. The high light of the evening was the presentation of an award to Branch Rickey by Mr. Herb McCracken and Bruce Bielaski, both past Presidents of the Fraternity. The award was a duplicate of the Distinguished Service Chapter Citation presented to Mr. Rickey in 1934 and subsequently lost in a fire. Mr. Rickey had expressed a desire to have a duplicate many times, having cherished the origi-

Mr. Rickey had no knowledge beforehand and was very pleased to receive this duplicate. The following inscription appeared on the award, in addition to the original citation:

The Committee believes that after a span of twenty-six years, the 1934 Citation should be up dated, for this occasion—as follows—

LEWIS DESCHLER, Miami, '26, was honored on March 3, his birthday, by members of the United States House of Representatives. Although not a member of the House, he literally is the man closest to the Speaker's ear, for he is the House parliamentarian. On his birthday he was praised by both Republican and Democrat members of the House for his ability, fairness, helpfulness, and patience. He went to Washington, following his graduation from Miami University, for the purpose of studying for the foreign service. He got a job with the House as timekeeper at the Speaker's desk. In leisure moments he busied himself reading the House manual and other rule books. In 1927 he was appointed assistant parliamentarian and in 1928 was appointed parliamentarian, a job he has continued to hold to the present time.

MARVIN H. HARPER, JR., Emory, '53, son of Dr. MARVIN H. HARPER, SR., Emory, '23, an engineer for Radio Corporation of America, had a hand in the construction of the United States' first weather satellite. He worked on two phases of its development. Nine months' time was spent in studying how material used on the surface of the satellite would affect the balance of heat on the inside. The second phase of the work, which also lasted nine months, consisted of putting the "boxes" inside the satellite together and making sure they functioned properly. The boxes contain "sub systems" which control devices in the satellite such as the camera and transmitters. Mr. Harper has now begun work on a newer satellite, Tiros, II, which will also be used as a weather satellite.

ways been—and is today—an inspirational and dynamic leader. Countless thousands of young men during his lifetime have been guided into manly responsibility by his wisdom and sympathetic understanding. If it is true, as he himself has said, that "luck is the residue of design," then it is as surely true that the respect and affection which he commands are the residue of a lifetime of compassion and accomplishment. Delt everywhere are proud to call him "Brother."

St. Petersburg

The annual business meeting was held March 2. New officers elected were: H. Marion Monroe, president; John Wallace, vice-president; Jack Francis, secretary and treasurer; Rex Rafferty, Bill Volk, Dr. Myron Scofield, Ted Anderson, and Dr. P. Guinand, to the board of directors.

THE DELT CHAPTERS

Alabama—Delta Eta

The first six months of 1960 have been the most eventful half year Delta Eta has experienced in recent years. Since we went into orbit at the beginning of this semester, we haven't stopped.

Rush week was the first order of business when we returned for the new semester. Many enjoyable social events were planned for that week, but the one which rated tops was our final party, with music furnished by The Flares. Immediately following rush, 12 new brothers were initiated into Delta Eta. Brother Joe Stewart was named outstanding pledge of the year. The honor of being named the outstanding freshman ROTC cadet, over 500 other freshmen, as well as his straight A average, merited his selection.

Brother Wyner Phillips will guide the chapter as president for the coming year. Other new officers include Ronald Stewart as vice-president. Brothers Burwell Anders and Reggie Hamner will serve as recording and corresponding secretaries, respectively. Johnny Owens was elected treasurer and Brothers Joe Stewart and Joe Lewis were named guide and sergeant at arms, in that order.

After having been canceled last year, "Bama's Jasons" Jamboree made a great comeback this year and Delta Tau Delta with it. The two names have become synonymous at the Capstone. Brother Earl Whatley directed the brothers in this year's production, which he also wrote. The skit, "Safari So Good," was centered around that well-known jungle couple, Tarzan and Jane. Brother Tommy Waigand entered the individual competition category and set a new precedent by winning first place in that division. His number was a piano medley of music made famous by Eddie Duchin.

The Delta Eta ballot box stuffers were extremely successful in the SGA elections this spring. We ran three men for legislative seats and all won handily. Brothers Shan Wilcox, Burwell Anders, and Gary Jackson are the newly elected legislators. Brother Wilcox was also elected secretary of IFC for next year. Brother Earl Whatley was elected to the editorship of the campus humor magazine and Brother Johnny Owens won the office of business manager of the campus newspaper.

Several of the brothers have been tapped for membership in a number of campus honoraries. These include: Johnny Owens, ODK; Ronnie Clements, Tau Beta Pi; Buddy Drewry, Joe Stewart, and Pledge Mike Straughn, Phi Eta Sigma. Brother Stewart was also elected vice-president of Phi Eta Sigma.

At the honors convocation held each spring, Phi Mu Sorority was named as the recipient of the Delt Trophy as the "Outstanding Sorority of the Year." Brother Wyner Phillips made the presentation.

Congratulations are in order for Brother Gary Jackson and his alumni relations committee for the fine job done in initiating Delta Eta's first Founders Day Banquet. The new event replaces the annual gathering held each year in conjunction with homecoming. Prior to the banquet, our new chapter publication, The Capstone Crescent of Delta Eta, was distributed. Editor Gary Jackson announced that it will be printed quarterly with the exception of the quarter when the Bama Delt will continue to be published.

April 8 and 9 was another busy week end for Delta Eta. We hosted the Regional Conference of the Fraternity. Southern Division President Shropshire was among those in attendance. Miss Carol Crouch, of KKG, led the annual Rainbow Ball the same week end. Her escort was Chapter President Wyner Phillips. The dance was held in the Cherokee Ballroom of Hotel Stafford.

During spring holidays, the brothers went on a house party to Panama City, Florida. Prior to finals, the brothers enjoyed a final outing at the Rosenfeld Lodge and lake, followed by a dance at the Shelter in the evening.

In intramural competition, Delta Eta is in strong contention for the all-sports trophy as we go to press. Brother Travis Bowden is to be congratulated for the fine job he has done in guiding Delta Eta to one of its most successful years in campus athletics.

The best news of the year came when it was announced that plans for disposing of our present Shelter were to proceed and an architect would be commissioned to draw plans for a new one, which is to become a reality in the near future.

REGGIE HAMNER

Allegheny—Alpha

Alpha Chapter started out the spring semester by pledging 13 outstanding men. They are: Graham Weaver, Al Johnston, Joe Zaccari, Dick Todd, John Swanson, Joe Roth, Dick Larkin, Noel Kitlowski, Roger Gurner, Bob Grimes, Jay Fahey, Jim Baxter, and Jim Hoffman. They are currently working under Brother Byers, who is taking over in place of our ill pledgemaster, Jim Brumage. The initiation team is busy practicing for initiation which is set for April 24.

Thus far this semester the big social event has been the pledge dance. The dance was planned entirely by the pledges under their social chairman, Joe Roth. At intermission the pledges read their poems about their big brothers; after which they were paddled by their dates, much to the delight of the brothers and dates. Graham Weaver was awarded first prize for the best pledge paddle. The social committee, under Chairman Thomason, is busy preparing for the spring party, parents week end, and the spring formal, which are packed into the four weeks between Easter vacation and final exams.

In a recent election, Brother Byers was elected rush chairman and Brother Kepple his assistant. They are currently preparing for next year and hope that anyone knowing of a man coming to Allegheny will drop us a line and let us know.

This spring was the annual "Block A" banquet, which honors the past year's lettermen. The following brothers received letters: Walther, Matthews, Leech, McCreary, Kepple, Ingram, and Edwards. Pledges receiving letters were: Grimes, Kitlowski, Baxter, Weaver, and Hoffman. With spring sports coming up, Alpha Chapter is well represented. In baseball we have two starting pitchers in Brothers Hiweller and Squire. In track we have Brother Edwards and Pledges Baxter, Weaver, Gurner, Zaccari, Kitlowski, and Hoffman. Brother Erny is presently slated for one of the top slots on the tennis team.

On the intramural scene, the Deltas have pulled within seven points of second place. Much of the credit for this goes to our first-place bowling and table tennis teams. The bowling team, made up of Brothers Squire, Denson, Matthews, Hiweller, MacIvor, and Francis, had an undefeated season with Brother MacIvor taking all-college honors for having the highest season average. In table tennis, all of Alpha's men made the quarter finals, with Brother Bernard taking first, Brother MacIvor second, Brother

Squire third, and Brother Love fifth.

Our alumni banquet is planned for Saturday, June 5, and we hope to see as many Delt alumni as possible.

JIM MERCHANT

Arizona—Epsilon Epsilon

After a pause for Christmas vacation, Arizona Dels returned to Tucson to tangle with first-semester exams. The results were pleasing as Epsilon Epsilon finished fourth scholastically among Arizona's 26 fraternities. Soon after, the Arizona Chapter initiated seven men and entered the second semester with a nine man pledge class.

The second semester's social calendar opened with a February "Riverboat" party held "on board" the Shelter. The chapter house was converted into a gambling boat, complete with roulette, chuck-a-luck, and "21." Betting was reckless but nevertheless the "house" failed to garner a cent.

With the onset of warmer weather, the Arizona social spotlight has switched to the out-of-doors, focusing on "boondockers" (Arizona beach parties without the water). Get-togethers at Seven Falls and Gate's Pass have given guitarists and chefs a chance to display their talents at these night barbecues.

Greek Week, held late in March, again highlighted the year's Greek calendar. Banquets, exchanges, and the Greek Week Olympics filled the week of events. Finale was the Greek Week Dance, staged at Davis Monthan Air Force Base and featuring Billy May and the orchestra.

Next up was the Delt "Shipwreck" party—a unique experience in island living. Complete with palm fronds, grass shacks, and transplanted beach, the back yard was converted into a South Sea Island. To add to the Tahitian effect, drinks were served à la coconut style. Brother Pedderson and date took "island" honors for the evening, being selected as the couple who appeared to have been "shipwrecked" the longest.

Intramuralwise UA Dels maintain a hold on ninth place in over-all Greek standings. A mere point out of eighth place, we intend to overtake the Betas with a strong baseball team.

Baile de Oro, Epsilon Epsilon's spring formal to be held May 14, will climax the spring semester. Rancho del Lago, a private guest ranch, will provide the setting for the all-day affair, which will include an afternoon of swimming, followed by a buffet dinner and the dance.

Following this week end, UA Dels will brace for exam week; disperse for the summer months; then return in September for the crucial fall rush

JON WARDRIP

Auburn—Epsilon Alpha

Here it is spring quarter at Epsilon Alpha and winter quarter is just a memory. High lights of winter quarter include such events as festive parties, election of new chapter officers, a rush program of promising nature, and a visit by our field secretary, Bill Earnshaw.

One of the most outstanding social affairs was the Greek party, a feature of ours that climaxed the college's Greek Week. This Greek Week is an annual affair sponsored by the IFC honoring the fraternities and their active role on campus. All the brothers and their dates came dressed in sheets and armor, illustrating the dress of that period. This party fitted in perfectly with the Greek Week theme. Winter quarter also brought the election of new officers to head the chapter. Elected were: president, Bill Martin; vice-president, Norm Bundy; corresponding secretary, Dave Archer; recording secretary, Rick Volland, and sergeant at arms, Dave Wall. The full faith and trust of the chapter are behind these men and they seem destined to lead Epsilon Alpha to many fine accomplishments.

The Auburn Dels played a full schedule of intramurals during the winter but did not rank as high as usual. We placed as runnerup in the bowling championship and too far down on the basketball list to write about. We entered all the basketball games and discovered that it's not whether we win or lose but how we play the game. All the brothers are eager for the season to roll around again in order to redeem themselves.

The Dels here at Auburn University open the new quarter with a pledge class of eleven outstanding men. We hope to increase this number during the quarter by a personal rush plan. Rush is important to us here and already many good rushees are being considered.

Another event of great interest will be the initiation of three members of the winter pledge class. The men destined to wear the golden square of Delta Tau Delta are Harris Atkins, Eugene Komegay, and Bob Bartley.

Brother Bill Earnshaw was kind enough to pay us a visit during the winter and gave us help on various phases of fraternity life. By giving us detailed information on other chapter's plans for such things as scholarship, rush, and even social responsibilities, Bill enabled us to look clearly at our own programs in these fields and improve them. We are always open to any suggestions in the hope that we may be able to apply some of the ideas to our advantage.

Various honors bestowed on the brothers are many and varied. We are proud of the tapping of Dave Archer to Steerage, a naval honorary. The initiation of Brothers Bob Barrier and Dewitt Burns into Pi Sigma Epsilon, a national professional management fraternity, should be included in the list of accomplishments. Also, a pledge by the name of Charles Wilson is making a name for himself in the dramatics group on campus. Other honored brothers include Dick Roll, editor of our school newspaper, The Plainsman; Ken Stephens, a member of Scabbard and Blade; Brothers Fred Martin and Graham MacDonald, honored as charter members of Circle K, a branch of college age people of Kiwanis International.

JIM SHIPMAN

Baker—Gamma Theta

Gamma Theta has once again maintained the top position among fraternities on the Baker campus.

This year we pledged 27 new men. This was by far the biggest and best pledge class garnered by the chapter in some time. Since the beginning of the year 22 men have taken the Delt Oath and received the Golden Badge.

Gamma Theta has dominated the scene in both varsity and intramural sports. Besides having five starters on the football team and three starters on the basketball team, Louis Roller is the No. 1 tennis man and Dels comprise more than three-fourths of the track and golf squads. Since THE RAINBOW last went to press, the intramural athletes have added two more trophies, plus the cherished first-place trophy in the Delt invitational basketball tournament. We are currently well on our way to our eighth straight intramural sweepstakes championship.

Leadership in campus activities is again dominated by Dels. Lloyd Williams and Chuck Caywood have leads in the spring play. Stewart Entz and Gordon Schrader will serve next year as president of the Young Democrats and the IFC, respectively. Roger Popkess had the honor of being elected this year's "Campus Clown." The Delt Trio, composed of G. D. Blackwood, Dick Driver, and Sam Higdon, and better known as "The Worried Three," have been quite active and are undoubtedly the best musical group on campus.

An outstanding event of the second six weeks was the pledge party. It was initiated and organized by our 27 pledges and was one of the finest of its kind. Its theme was "Bali Hi" and it was decorated in true South Sea Islands flavor.

One would think that with all this going on, the Delts would have little time for study. But nothing has been untended in this year's full schedule. Gamma Theta led all men's organizations in scholarship during the first semester and is striving to retain that position.

And so the record stands up to the present. Looking ahead we see new challenges. To direct us in meeting these challenges we have elected officers for the coming year. Gordon Schrader was chosen president and Stewart Entz is vice-president. Clarence Abell was re-elected to the treasurer's office, after doing a fine job last year.

One of Gordon's first and most pleasant duties was to be present when the contract for our long-awaited new house was signed on April 3. Actual construction was started on April 12. We have high hopes that we will be in it when school starts next September.

The crowning event of every year on the Baker campus is the Delt Orchid Ball. Plans are well under way and by all indications this event, with even more grandeur, will add the lustre to the quality that typifies Gamma Theta of Delta Tau Delta.

California—Beta Omega

Another sterling semester is now history in the annals of Beta Omega, and the brothers are anticipating an equally fine spring semester. Some of the high lights of the fall semester were our capturing of the intramural football crown, the work of Don Alves and Brian VanCamp as junior class prexy and lower division representative, respectively, and the numerous successful social functions that took place.

Our "Vikings" party turned out so successfully that nary a maiden rat was found on the premises for months. The entertainment offered by our neighbors on the hill has proved itself quite beneficial in the attainment of relaxation and enjoyment on the part of the brothers. Bob Boynton and Wicker Gamble are "heading" a committee on further research into that field.

Dave Grether has graced our halls as our first Phi Beta Kappa in two years, the last one being Hugh Tjardon.

Many social events are forthcoming this spring, including our boat party with the DU's and Sigma Nu's and our annual overnight in the Santa Cruz Mountains. Whit Nicholas, our social chairman, has done a superb job in solving any problems that have arisen due to conflicting study schedules and has ensured that each and every one of us fully understand the complexities involved in such planning.

On the seventh of May, we have planned a gigantic reunion for our alumni and have already received more than 100 acceptances for the event. Dick Neuman has done a remarkable job in planning the agenda for this event, and the chapter owes Dick a big hand. Much hard work and co-operation is necessitated on the part of the brothers in order to make this a successful operation.

JOHN HENROTIN

Carnegie Tech—Delta Beta

The past few months have not passed uneventfully at Delta Beta. In intramural basketball the Delts easily made the playoffs, but were then defeated in a series of tough, exciting games to end up in second place in the league.

The intramural softball season is now in full swing and the Delts started out the season by winning their first two games. Coach Phil Hodge reports that the team is looking forward to a very successful spring season.

Although the recent loss of our house-mother, Mrs. Annis, was a considerable loss, we are now pleased to report the finding of an excellent replacement, Mrs. Dingfelder. Mrs. Dingfelder has proven to be an outstanding personality and we are sure that she will be a great asset to us.

In the social aspect, spring carnival, the biggest social event of the semester, will be coming to the Tech campus shortly after the Easter vacation. With the excellent planning of the social committee, headed by Dave Reber, we at Delta Beta are looking forward to a very outstanding and enjoyable carnival week end.

The election of new officers was recently held, ending a very successful year under the leadership of President Bill Montgomery and Vice-President John Metro. The chapter wishes to take this opportunity to publicly congratulate these two fine men on a job well done. Our new officers are: John Metro, president, and Bob Kelly, vice-president. We have also chosen our representatives to the upcoming Karnea. The representatives of Delta Beta will be John Metro, president, and Dave Reber, social chairman.

BOB NIELSEN

Cincinnati—Gamma Xi

Gamma Xi Chapter is now enjoying a period of great success. One major portion of this success can be attributed to the work on the annual "Kampus King" contest, which saw Delta Tau Delta's candidate win for the second time in three years. In 1958 Dale Heckmann won and in 1960 John Betz took honors. John's recent victory climaxed an intense campaign which was supported by every man in the chapter. John, a Cincinnati, was initiated at Beta Omicron at Cornell and affiliated with Gamma Xi upon transferring to Cincinnati in the fall of

JOHN BETZ
Gamma Xi's
"Kampus King"

1959. John's perfect manners and his friendship with the coeds of the campus proved valuable assets throughout the campaign. Also, his excellent tenor voice, coupled with the Deltones Octet led by Brother Ted Smith, became quite the rage of the campus. All things considered, the victory was a great compliment to John and the chapter.

Another successful portion of Gamma Xi is its newly initiated brothers. This last pledge class was exceptional and helped the chapter in many ways; such as intramurals, committee work, and campus activities. Two of the members of the class, Larry Goodridge and Paul Marshall, were tapped by Sophos, the freshman honorary society. The class as a whole was magnificent in scholarship as it was second out of 17 fraternities in total cumulative average for pledge classes.

Chapter elections this year yielded fine choices for the respective offices. President, by unanimous decision, is Harold Whitney. The vice-president is Carl Rue; Jackson Ramsey is treasurer; Charles Stevenson is assistant treasurer; John Tansey is corresponding secretary; Bill Strawbridge is recording secretary; Jerry Hoffman is guide; Neil Norkaitis and Don Jordan are sergeants at arms.

The brothers have been busily working toward campus honors and some recent achievements are: Sam Fisher was initiated into Tau Beta Pi and was elected vice-president of Pi Tau Sigma; Richard Foley was elected corresponding secretary of Pi Tau Sigma; and Jim Thomas was initiated into Tau Beta Pi.

Spring rush has resulted in ten men pledging themselves to Delta Tau Delta. These are Al Bocklet, John Mather, John Pratte, Bob Slater, Don Baldwin, John Ehrmin, Roger Van Wyngorden, Bill Bessey, Don Schroer and Walter Peak.

JACOB DOTY

Colorado—Beta Kappa

This has been a very successful year for the Delts of Beta Kappa. Besides our monthly functions with sororities, our social events have been ample and enjoyable. We had our annual pajama party at Evergreen, which is about 50 miles from Boulder and all the brothers and their dates rode up on buses. The ride on the buses proved to be a party in itself. Next, we decorated for and held our "Saints and Sinners Ball" at the Shelter. The upstairs was designed to represent Heaven and the basement represented Hell. This last March we held our spring formal at Grandby, which is just 20 miles north of Winter Park skiing area, and everyone spent the day of the formal skiing at Winter Park. That night we had a "swinging" combination of dancing and partying and Miss Patty Fosdick was crowned Delt Queen of the gala affair. The week before Easter vacation, we, along with the Pi Phis, combined to give a party for some orphans from Boulder. Our next and final social event is the Klondike party. All of the brothers will dress up as old miners and loggers, and if we can only find an empty mine shaft to hold it in, we will have the complete atmosphere of the 1850's.

Our chapter has been well represented all over campus this year. First of all, Bill Lennartz was president of Silver and Gold, a freshman honorary. Bill Weakly was president of Phi Ep Phi, sophomore honorary, and Bill Caile was treasurer. Also this spring, nine of 36 new members of Phi Ep Phi were Delts. Hank Brown reigned as president of Hammers, junior men's honorary, and Gary Gisle was treasurer. Four Delts were also initiated into this honorary this semester. Bob Weakly has been vice-president of Sabers, the senior men's honorary. Fritz Ieuter is president of Beta Alpha Psi, an accounting honorary and four out of 20 members of the all-school academic honorary, Sumalia, are Delts. Sophomore Larry Miller is president of the Rocky Mountain region N.S.A.

In the political light, Dave Belote bowed out as president of the interfraternity council and last week Hank Brown was elected president C.U.'s student body, replacing another Delt, Swede Anderson, who was the last president.

We are defending intramural champions this year and so far have copped first place in fraternity water polo and first place in all-school wrestling. Two Delts took first place in their weight division in wrestling. We have placed high in all other sports completed and still have to finish out the tennis and volleyball season.

As for varsity sports, Delts have been very active. Three Delts were on the wrestling team and two of them, Bill Bullard and Jim Copeland, received letters. Hank Brown, the third member, was out much of the season because of injuries. Four men in the Shelter were on the football team. Tom Wilsam, Chuck McBride, Denny Krueger, and Tom Siratovitch all contributed heavily to Colorado's successful season. Next fall, four of our freshmen will move up to the varsity, giving us a total of eight, since none of the letterwinners are graduating. Four Delts are on the track team, and two of them are standout sophomores who have broken the school record in their event. Don Meyers has broken the school record in the pole vault, going 14' 7", and has broken the school record in the broad jump with a leap of 24' 8". Bob Crumpacker has broken the school record in the shot put, with a heave of 53' 10". Denny Krueger, another trackman, also throws the shot, and Larry Stalarzick is one of C.U.'s top hurdlers.

With a new slate of energetic officers and a freshman class, of which we are proud, moving into the Shelter next year, we hope to add another very fruitful year to the history of Beta Kappa Chapter.

GEORGE P. LINDNER

Cornell—Beta Omicron

Beta Omicron started off the semester by pledging eleven new men. These new pledges are in many activities on the campus. The chapter is going to initiate summer rushing techniques this year and since this is something new for us we hope it will prove worthwhile. As the result of recent chapter elections, these are the new officers: Tony Seaver, president; Pete Eveleth, vice-president; John McCullough, recording secretary; Bo Huenefeld, corresponding secretary; Bob Jacoby, treasurer; and Denny Daly, assistant treasurer. Under the leadership of these capable men, the chapter should continue to be successful.

The high lights of Beta Omicron's social life this spring have been IFC week end, which included a formal banquet, the annual pledge formal, a serenade for several of the brothers recently pinned, and the pledge party. The outstanding social event of the season is spring week end, which takes place early in May. On March 19, Beta Omicron was host to the Regional Conference. Delt chapters from Tufts, Syracuse, M.I.T., R.P.I. Maine, and Dartmouth were represented. Field Secretary Jack McClenny, who was at the chapter during the Conference, offered many helpful suggestions to the new administration.

The sailing of Delts Roger Demler, Tom Barney, Tom Halsey, John Hosmer, Fletch Street, and Chuck Baker is going to make the Cornell sailing team hard to beat this year. Our other spring athletes are Lou Nees, Tony Seaver, and Art Berry on the lightweight crew; Dick Nelson on the rugby team; Bill Huenefeld on the lacrosse team; and John Custer on the spring soccer team. At the intramural track meet we put in a very good showing, taking first in the track events and third place overall. We also took third place in the annual interfraternity skit night this year.

BOB WINANS

Dartmouth—Gamma Gamma

Gamma Gamma weathered a rather difficult winter season, living through the growth of its one-animal zoo, Boots or El Rae, depending on one's attitude toward the dog. Ed Daumit prepared to retire from his exalted position as "Keeper of the Hound," amongst mixed feelings in the chapter.

Winter also brought Carnival. The Dartmouth Delts celebrated in their usual fine fashion. Social Chairman Cy Lourel and his sophomore right-hand man, Jack Fitzgibbon, led us in our festivity. Saturday night we enjoyed a costume party based on the theme of "Some-People-Go-to-Africa-and-Some-Don't." Charlie Mascal helped by keeping intact our record of building a suitable statue faster than anyone on campus.

The interfraternity play contest found Gamma Gamma sweeping all competition to win first place. John Hansen directed the play, Pierre Patelin, a medieval French farce. Bob Elmore won first prize for the best leading actor and Pete Weldy received honorable mention. Terry Corbett won second prize for the best supporting actor. Charlie Mascal won a special award for original set design. Two special awards were given by members of the cast to Dave Downee for prompting under the most difficult handicaps, and to Jake Gillespie, the special NADA award for work on the play.

Around the Dartmouth campus Delts have been very active. Fritz Kern and Bob Elmore were both tapped for Dragon, a senior society. Hap Dunning, senior Phi Bete, won a Reynolds fellowship to the London School of Economics. John Hansen has turned himself to the dramatic aspect of school life, taking part in both "Guys and Dolls" and "The Lower Depths." Sophomores Terry Corbett and Dave Park were chosen for Green Key, the junior honorary society. Bob Elmore was the skimeister in the interfraternity ski competition. Pete Parke and Archie Gulf were elected to Moth, a very elite club.

As spring comes to Hanover, the Delts begin to look forward to next year. New officers are Fritz Kern, president; John Hansen, vice-president; Chuck Ardvard, recording secretary; John Wooster, treasurer; Jake Gillespie, corresponding secretary; Pete Weldy, assistant treasurer; Bob Elmore, rushing chairman; and John Hadley, social chairman. Also, Les Heap succeeds Dan Wilkinson as "assistant bed-maker."

Spring will bring Green Key week end and Parent's week end. The two week ends should be the highlights of an exciting season at the Delt house before we look forward to the Karnea and rushing next fall.

JACK GILLESPIE

Delaware—Delta Upsilon

After a hectic and successful spring rush, the Shelter is settling down to normal. This year's pledges are striving to match the spirit and accomplishments of last year's pledge class, who accomplished, among other things, winning the pledge scholarship trophy for the highest scholastic index among fraternities on campus. They are now planning the spectacular "Apache" party, which is planned and put on solely by the pledges.

Elections were held and elected were: Paul Wellborn, president; Patrick McClary, vice-president; Jon Peterson, treasurer; Skip Gainor, corresponding secretary; Dick Bullock, recording secretary; and Steve Spangler, house manager. The "Outstanding Delt" for this year was selected. The chapter's congratulations and thanks go to Eugene Joseph Saville for his outstanding contributions to the chapter. Gene is a senior and the chapter will be sorry to see him leave this spring.

Although Delts slipped a little scholastically, they took fourth place, falling from second, on campus.

Brother Ken Shelin continues to be an almost indispensable part of the E52 University Theater. He and Brother Mike Lewis are the touring company for the 13th annual touring Children's Theater. They were also in E52's major production of "Carousel," which was very successful.

For the third consecutive year Delt Week End, the highlight of the spring social season, will be held at the Northeast Yacht Club.

In spring sports this year, Brother Paul Wellborn, lacrosse, and Pledge Cliff Losee, track, represent the Delts.

Incidentally, Brothers David Kiefer

and Cliff Simon hope to win more trophies at hill climbs, gymkhanas, and SCCA races this spring and summer. A Chevrolet "Special" and Saab "Special" are being completed and will see action soon.

WALTER T. PRICE

DePauw—Beta Beta

Beta Beta is excelling in all areas this spring. We have six men representing us in spring football, seven in baseball, four in track, and one in golf. Currently, four of the brothers are conditioning for DePauw's "Little 500" and hope to better last year's record of second place. In swimming, Brother Jim DeArmond took second place in diving in the Indiana Collegiate Conference, and in track, Brothers Gernot Doetsch and Phil Dunham were two of the three men setting a new pole vault record at the Wabash Relays.

Campus activities are not being slighted either. We are very proud of Brother Dick Schaefer, who was elected president of the Union Building, and Brother Tom Evans, who was elected president of the Sailing Club. Also, Brother Pete Kries was initiated this spring into Phi Beta Kappa.

Within the chapter, we initiated 12 men on February 28. Two fathers of the initiates were Beta Beta alums. Bruce Damstra was named the outstanding pledge. Our chapter officers have been elected for 1960. They are: George Mendenhall, president; Dick Schaefer, vice-president; Tom Evans, treasurer; Al Hutchinson, assistant treasurer; John Noll, recording secretary; and Chip Wilhoite, corresponding secretary. Song practice is daily now, with senior pin serenades coming up. So far this amounts to five serenades, but we are hoping. Our plans for the new addition have been completed and construction will begin any day. It will consist of 13 new study rooms and the house will then facilitate around 70 men.

Socially, efforts are being concentrated on plans for the spring dance, April 23. It should prove again to be one of the outstanding dances on campus. Spring rushing is also occupying our time, and we hope to have an outstanding spring pledge class going into fall rush.

DePauw Initiates and Mascot.

With all of these activities, the close of this school year will find Beta Beta on top.

CHIP WILHOITE

Duke—Delta Kappa

Spring rush highlighted another tremendously successful semester as Delta Kappa pledged 20 freshmen and three sophomores, a pledge class generally acclaimed, even by our rivals, to be the finest pledge class on campus. Congratulations are definitely in order to Rush Chairman Mark Slater and his committee for a terrific job. Barry Howe was elected president of the pledge class and is presently readying his forces for the annual pledge-brother football game. The pledges have already demonstrated their athletic prowess by smashing all competition in the Greek Week track meet. Led by the dash men, John Zwerner and Rob Seymour, the Delt pledges amassed 46 points while their closest rivals could garner only 15.

Speaking of track, the Delt track men are going great guns again, as usual. Tom Bazemore, senior middle-distance star, was elected captain of the track team and has been outstanding thus far in the season. Jerry Nourse, Wain Barnes, and Jim Ginther have been turning in some sterling performances for Duke's highly successful track team, while almost half a dozen Delt pledges have been outstanding in freshman track. In other varsity sports, John Birmingham is one of the top golfers on the defending conference champion Duke team, which finished seventh in the National Collegiates last year. Bob Turner and Jim MacBean are playing on the Blue Devil baseball team. Meanwhile, let us not forget the Delt intramural teams, which have accounted for a league championship in basketball and a "near miss" in volleyball. The softball season is about to get underway and enthusiasm is high in the Delt training camp.

On the social scene, Miss Tobey Piercy, fiancée of Brother Bob Milne, was selected Delt Queen at our annual Queen Dance just before the seasonal migration to Lauderdale, Nassau, and all points south. Once again, the belated New Year's party was a "spirited affair," with many costumes and many grins. Now we are looking forward to "Joe College" week end, the Wannamaker Ball, and Beach week end at Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

Campus and fraternity elections are also in the news this semester as Brother Bob Windeler was elected representative to the publications board and Pledges Sid Nurkin and Chuck Zimmer were elected president of the rising sophomore engineering class and ath-

In the fraternity elections, Lee "Sy" Seybert was elected president; Al Tatum, vice-president; Bob Frey, corresponding secretary; Matt Wood, recording secretary; Fred Ritts, executive secretary; and Pat Rogers, treasurer. Past President Ed Greene did an excellent job as president and Delta Kappa is looking forward to future successes under Brother Seybert!

Emory—Beta Epsilon

In standings released last quarter, Beta Epsilon ranked first on the row scholastically fall quarter.

The high point of winter quarter was the Rainbow Ball, at which Miss Becky Brown, a Kappa Kappa Gamma at Emory, was crowned the Delt Sweetheart.

Also, last quarter Beta Epsilon held a reception in honor of two new housemothers on the Emory campus. Under the direction of Jim Spence, the chapter presented a successful skit for Skits-O-Frenia.

George Slade has recently been chosen secretary of the interfraternity council. Bill Garland was named managing editor of the Emory Wheel. Jimmy Cowell was elected a vice-president of Wesley Fellowship; Ben Lacy was elected cocaptain of Emory's wrestling team.

With the finals in campus elections coming up in two weeks, we look forward to winning several important positions in campus politics.

On April 24, the chapter will initiate nine into its membership. The first week in April, Beta Epsilon was cohost with Gamma Psi to the Southern Division Regional Conference, held in Atlanta.

Jim Prevatt, David Marsh, Ike Hancock, Bob Shoemaker, and Bob Godwin recently toured with the Emory Glee Club to New Orleans.

The chapter has recently elected new officers. They are: Ben Lacy, president; Bill Garland, vice-president; Jimmy Cowell, corresponding secretary; Jud Sapp, recording secretary; John Chunn, treasurer; Ike Hancock, guide; John Salmon, sergeant at arms; and Bill Kennedy and Bob Shoemaker, assistant treasurers.

The chapter is looking forward to Dooley's Frolics, the main event at Emory.

Looking back over the first two quarters, Beta Epsilon can claim one of the most successful years in the history of this chapter.

As we look forward in anticipation of securing several positions in the upcoming elections, and winning the scholarship trophy, there promise to be even better things ahead for Beta Epsilon.

Florida—Delta Zeta

Delta Zeta has enjoyed a fine school year in every phase of campus life. We have done well in scholarship. We are fighting hard in intramurals. We have a fine new sweetheart. We came out ahead in politics. We have the best pledges on campus, and our parties have been great.

The first-semester grade report found Delta Zeta third on campus and first in its league. We had an over-all average of 2.4 while the men's average was 2.25, in a four point system.

In intramurals, the Delts went to the semifinals in basketball and handball. We have swimming coming up, and presently our softball team is rolling along behind the speedball arm of Brother Glenn Holiman.

During the annual fall frolic at Florida, Delta Zeta chose a fine new sweetheart. We are proud to be represented by Miss Carolyn Sue Bagg, a Tri-Delt sophomore from St. Petersburg.

Politics were good to the Delts this year. Despite a little mudslinging, the party we were backing went in by a landslide. Brother Gavin O'Brien was elected chancellor of the Honor Court.

Delta Zeta's 17 initiates.

We are honored to have four other men on the executive committees of their respective schools: Jim Kidd, engineering; Homer Spense, journalism; Bill Nelson, agriculture; and Glenn Rose, physical education. It will be a good experience to have a few pieces of the political pie.

To be tapped for Florida Blue Key is a great honor on the Florida campus. At present, the Delts are represented by four outstanding members: Buck Bradford, Emmett Anderson, and our two newly elected members, Larry Stewart and Wayne Williamson.

Delta Zeta is proud of its 17 newly initiated brothers. We know they will make a great improvement in our chapter, and they will serve Delta Tau Delta to the fullest extent.

Delt pledges brought highest prices in the slave auction, which allows a girl to have the services of a man for one hour.

The best men go to the highest bidders. The money goes to the campus charity fund.

As the year closes the Delts at Florida are looking forward to a great summer rush program and another great year when we return. We would like to extend good wishes to all other chapters.

Georgia—Beta Delta

Everyone was glad to see spring quarter roll around at Beta Delta, after one of our wettest and coldest winters in quite a while (snowed three times within a seven-day period, four big Georgia inches the last time).

Spring quarter saw the old softball emerge for what will be single eliminations this year. Press time having rolled around, the Delts have advanced into the semifinals. Carl Duvall and Dick Renaud are scheduled to do the pitching this year, supported by such sluggers as Robert Walls, George Reeves, Ollie Mason, Ron Robinson, Jim Abercrombie, Bill Davis, Jack Hobbs, and Rhett Tanner.

The annual Masters trip to Augusta got under way in early April with Durwood Poland, Jack Hobbs, Arthur Willare, Dick Renaud, and Tom Culpepper touring down. The biggest crowd in the history of golf saw Arnold Palmer win his second Masters title.

May is the month for our formal this year, as well as beach and river parties. A breakfast will follow the formal.

Pledges Lynn Hoffman and Bill Ridley, along with Brother Carl Duvall, collectively gathered four first-place finishes in the annual intramural track meet this year. Lynn threw the shot 36' 11½", topping his nearest rival by three feet. Ridley placed first in both the 880 and the high jump, while Carl aced the low hurdles. Art Murdock, Rhett Tanner, and Fred Hubley rounded out the point getters for the Fraternity.

Beta Delta's spring informal rush got under way in the middle of March and five new pledges were added in quick measure. They are LeRoy Smith, Jimmy Rutland, Dan Panter, James Morrison, and Lynn Hoffman.

Exams will soon be here as Beta Delta chalks up one of its many great years.

Georgia Tech—Gamma Psi

Initiation was held at Gamma Psi soon after the Christmas holidays, and 27 men are now proudly wearing the Delt badge. These 27 represented 71 per cent of the pledge class, a better percentage than any other fraternity on campus. After the initiation ceremony, the chapter adjourned to Aunt Fanny's Cabin, one of Atlanta's best known restaurants, for the traditional initiation banquet. Dekle Rountree received the "best pledge" award at the banquet.

Gamma Psi made a good showing in winter intramurals, taking first place in its bowling league, under the able coaching of Bill Abercrombie. The Delt basketball team placed second in the league in a heated race.

Our bridge foursome captured first place in the school competition, beating out all other teams.

Scholastically, the Delts took seventh place among the fraternities. With 27 fraternities on campus, this represents a position in the upper third.

In the race for the coveted IFC trophy, Delta Tau Delta is far ahead of the pack. With the nearest competitor more than 30 points behind us, we are anxious to bring the trophy home to our trophy case.

Three new pledges of Gamma Psi Chapter are James Davis, Gene Oliver, and Woody Thompkins. Woody is a member of the freshman swimming team.

Highlighting our winter social season was the Rainbow Ball, held the week end of February 26. The brothers moved out of the house and their dates moved in as our house party got under way on Friday afternoon. Friday night found the Delts at East Lake Country Club for our formal dance, followed by an informal party Saturday night. At the formal Friday night, Pat Fisk was crowned Rainbow queen. Shortly thereafter she was married to Brother Pete Gissing.

Gamma Psi elected its new slate of officers in the winter. They are: Steve Bowen, president; John Walker, vice-president; Bob Massey, corresponding secretary; Leo Parrish, recording secretary; and Dell Sikes, treasurer.

A new program of alumni contact has been instituted wherein newsletters, an alumni directory, and an issue of the Gamma Sigh will be forthcoming.

Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic honorary society, selected Danny Hartley, Neal Tharp, and Bill McCaslin for membership. Tau Beta Pi, national engineering honorary, elected Bill Abercrombie and Ray Herbert to its select membership. This is another honor for Bill, who is a recognized leader on the Tech campus.

In April, Gamma Psi and Beta Epsilon, Emory, were hosts to the Southern Division regional conference of Delta Tau Delta. The sessions were held on the Tech campus and the delegates were guests at our house for meals Saturday. Present were Hugh Shields, Executive Vice-President of the Fraternity; G. Sydney Lenfesty, Secretary of the Fraternity; James Shropshire, President of the Southern Division; and Willie Spann, Vice-President of the Southern Division. Delegates from Florida, Florida State, Emory, Georgia, and Tech attended the conference.

Delts who have recently been elected to important positions of leadership on the campus are Ray Herbert, president of Briarean Society, which is a co-op honorary, and John Walker, who was reelected president of Pi Delta Epsilon. Steve Wilencheck was elected Pi Delta Epsilon representative to the publication board.

One-third of the men selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities from Georgia Tech were Delts. The brothers who attained this outstanding honor were Steve Wilencheck, Bill Haralson, Grey Hodges, Paul Hodgdon, Charles McGuirt, and Bill Abercrombie.

The Delts closed out the winter quarter by capturing fourth place in the school gym meet and third place in paddleball.

Hillsdale—Kappa

We are pleased and proud to announce that a new Delta Tau Delta Shelter will soon be built. As to the definite date of completion, we cannot be specific. Owing to our limited financial resources we cannot maintain an absolute construction schedule. It would indeed facilitate our project if contributions were offered. In the past, we have appreciated the financial support of alumni who have responded to fraternal demands with alacrity. It goes without saying that our Fraternity has the distinction of creating and maintaining an "esprit de corps" which is indeed symptomatic of the success and popularity of Delta Tau Delta.

We are confident that our ten new members will carry on and represent the qualities of integrity and leadership that has been the foundation of our Fraternity.

The men of the chapter are especially proud to announce that one of our new actives, Bill Dallavo, has the distinction of being elected into ODK leadership fraternity. Ordinarily, one is not eligible for this distinguished honor until his junior year; however, Bill has shown such outstanding qualities of leadership and academic achievement that an exception is being made in his case.

Jim McCall is now on the staff of the Towerlight Magazine as art editor.

In the sports world here at Hillsdale College, Don Eugenio and Al Haller are on the baseball team; Tom Purdy is captain of the tennis team; and Bob McClaren and George Hastings are running track.

The week end of May 6, the Deltas will hold their annual spring formal. Furthermore, a party will be given in honor of Mother's Day at the Hillsdale Country Club the following night. All mothers of Fraternity members are cordially welcomed to share in the festivities which should be a refreshing respite from their routine, and oftentimes unlauded, domestic duties.

TOM E. SMITH

Idaho—Delta Mu

The spring semester at Delta Mu has been highly successful. Chapter President John Fitzgerald was elected student body vice-president, and Brother Dick Rene was elected to the executive board. Brother Bob Schumaker was also running for executive board, but was narrowly defeated.

Due to the efforts of our scholarship chairman, Leo Unizicker, the chapter had a 2.5 grade point average. This tops last year's high of 2.48 and ranks second among the other fraternities on campus. Our pledges also finished second among the pledge classes on campus. Brother George Dickenson, Delta Mu's newly elected scholarship chairman, is keeping up the fine program set up by his predecessor and it looks like we will continue to maintain our high scholarship.

DUANE ALLRED, outstanding intercollegiate "Knight" at Idaho.

As the school year draws to a close Delta Tau Delta leads all fraternities in total intramural points. Only softball, track, horseshoes, and golf remain and Delta Mu has traditionally been strong in these spring sports. Dick Rene, leading the championship horseshoe team, almost assures the chapter of another trophy, while the softball team showed its championship form by trouncing Theta Chi 12 to 1 in the season opener. The bowling team is battling for second place in the final rounds of the bowling tournament. Both the A and B division basketball teams placed second, and the ping-pong team finished in fourth place.

In varsity athletics, Ron Adams, Gary Michael, and Jay Doyle headline the Idaho track team, while Lynn Hansen is a mainstay on the golf team. Idaho is blessed with several fine young half-backs this spring and one of the best is Delta Mu's Ron Kulm.

The help week project this year is under the direction of Rob Tyson and Tom Schmidt. The chapter plans to paint the city swimming pool and landscape the grounds. The chapter won the trophy for the best project last year, and it looks like we might win it again.

An alumni party is being planned for the seventh and eighth of May for all the alums on campus for Mother's Day, and all others who are able to attend. Alumni Relations Chairman Jay Doyle has planned a full program for both days and hopes that many alums will be on hand.

Spring finds Delta Tau Delta active in many activities on campus. Brothers Paul Sokvitne and Gary Michael were recently tapped for Pershing Rifles, along with Bud McDougal for Alpha Epsilon Delta, a premed honorary. Duane Allred was selected as this year's outstanding intercollegiate knight and elected secretary of the organization. Duane's activities as an "IK" include the chairmanship of the Miss University of Idaho pageant committee. Other Delts out on campus include Dave Iverson, treasurer of Sigma Delta Chi, and Social Chairman Bill Scholes, who was recently elected president of the social co-ordination council.

Socially, Delta Mu has started a new program of inviting sorority officers from both the Idaho and Washington State University chapters to visit the Shelter. Their president, social chairman, and pledge class president are being invited to Wednesday and Sunday dinners. This enables us to get better acquainted with both chapters, and better relations. This year Delta Mu worked with Pi Beta Phi and Farmhouse Fraternity on the campus chest booth. Campus chest is an annual fund-raising affair, and this year we built a Japanese marriage booth. Brother George Dickinson supervised the booth and the project was highly successful.

Six new pledges moved into the Shelter at the beginning of the second semester. This is twice the number of men that Delta Mu usually pledges at the semester break. Rush Chairman Dick Davies is planning a strong rush program for the summer and next fall, and judging by his success this spring, Delta Mu will procure another great pledge class.

TERRY HOLCOMB

Illinois—Beta Upsilon

Beta Upsilon marked its 1959-1960 school year by a considerable rise in social, athletic, scholastic and activity fields of endeavor.

Election of officers initiated the second semester: Tom Roos, rush chairman, was promoted to the chapter presidency; Jerry Manley, vice-president; John Schrader, treasurer; Dale Hartwig, recording secretary; Dave Beal, corresponding secretary; Bill Reno, sergeant at arms; and Neil Anderson, guide, round out the new officers.

Bill Tate, backfield star of the 1953 Illini Rose Bowl champs and Beta Upsilon Delt, is our new chapter adviser. Bill has been working very closely with the chapter and we are all very pleased to have his assistance. Completing another of her many years of service to Illinois Delts is Mrs. Lillian Griffith, our affable housemother.

Beta Upsilon's rush program has been considerably sharpened due to the work of Rush Chairman Dale Hartwig and the excellent support of the chapter. Since formal rush in the fall we have picked up eight additional pledges. Our rush program has basically been oriented toward good scholastic prospects, as scholarship is, unfortunately, a weak point in over-all chapter strength. Our chapter is now at full capacity and many of the brothers are living out this semester.

Financially speaking, we are very strong. Treasurer John Schrader and Dave Eickemeyer, assistant treasurer, have performed monumental tasks in organizing an accounting system that functions very efficiently.

We have climbed far up the social ladder in the last year. This last semester exchanges were held with Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Gamma, and Alpha Epsilon Phi sororities. The Tri-Delts were our partners for Sheequon, the campus spring fair. For co-rec sports, we were paired with Chi Omega Sorority. Plans are now under way for entering Stunt Show in the fall.

Once again Delt Mystery Day was a success. A Florida party and a "hobo" party were added attractions for the social schedule this spring. Our spring formal, held at the chapter house in May, was an extremely successful event. House dances were held throughout the semester, as well as Sunday evening cook-ins. Under Song Chairman Pete Legendre, serenades were given to Delta Delta Delta, Alpha Gamma Delta, and Alpha Delta Pi sororities. A joint party with the ATO's was another new feature of the social calendar.

In early May, Mother's Day week end once again made a hit. The mothers took over the house, moving their Delt sons into the living room for the week end.

On the sporty side of campus affairs, the Delts at Illinois are always at the top or near the top. In intramural football, we were eliminated by the eventual champions. The same misfortune hit us in basketball, when the Phi Delts, whom we had beaten earlier in the season, edged us out and then won the championship. We are within the top ten of 58 fraternities competing in intramural events.

Stan Yukevich and Joe Wendryhoski are playing on the first-string football squad in spring practice for Pete Eliot's Orange and Blue. Sophomore Terry Diero is also on the squad. Delts are also represented on the golf, wrestling, and baseball teams.

Academically, we are still lower than we would like to be, but we did shoot up ten places in the standings last semester, a clear indication of improvement. Two pledges, Bob Pfeiffer and Jim Potter, are now Phi Eta Sigma initiates. Pfeiffer now has over 60 hours of straight "A."

Activitywise, Freshman Bill Allison is one of 18 freshmen on the freshman council. Freshmen Bill Bauer, Mit Beres, Larry Long, Steve Mugg, and Steve Smith are on Star Course, the organization bringing names such as Ahmad Jamal, Shelley Berman, and the Kingston Trio to campus. Sophomore Jerry Manley and Junior Tom Roos also work for Star Course.

Bruce Duff, Bernie Wall, and Mickey Gross are active in Union activities, while Dave Eickemeyer is basketball manager. Neil Anderson was recently initiated into Scarab.

In closing, the chapter would like to request that rush recommendations be sent to Tom Roos at the Shelter in Champaign. We would certainly appreciate hearing from any alumni regarding prospects for rush week next fall.

DAVE BEAL

Illinois Tech—Gamma Beta

With the weather in our favor, Gamma Beta's new Shelter is taking shape. As the construction now stands, our September moving date is fast becoming a reality. Many fond memories are going to be left in the old Shelter but we feel that our new house will afford us cause for many more.

Gamma Beta initiated 14 new brothers into the chapter on March 27. We at Gamma Beta are certain that they will make good Delts all their lives.

In sports this year, Delts have made outstanding showings in all major sports. Dave McGuire and John King both received letters in wrestling, while Bill VanSanten, Lyle Clugg, Bill Anderson, Bob Yoerg, and Bill Miller received letters in swimming. Basketball gave John Olin, Don Neal, Mike Wayte, Dan Benovich, and John Love their well-deserved letters. These men were the starting lineup a good part of the season. In baseball, John King is the team manager and Mike Wayte and Dave McGuire are two of the pitchers on the team. As far as team captains go, we have our share also. Dave McGuire is captain of the wrestlers, Bob Yoerg and Bill Miller are captains of the swimming team, and Mike Wayte is captain of the basketball team.

Construction of new Gamma Beta Shelter progresses.

In interfraternity sports this year, we made the final play-offs in basketball and expect to win the IF track and baseball competition this spring. Both these sports are well supported by the men in the chapter.

We are happy to announce that in the scholarship race last semester, Delta Tau Delta jumped up two positions in the ranking. We feel that this is indicative of a trend that will put us on top of the list in the near future.

On the social scene, we find several events on the calendar for this semester. March 13 found the brothers and their dates in pajamas at the annual "P.J." party, held in the Shelter. Dancing, refreshments, and entertainment from some of the pledges highlighted the evening. The spring forest sing party will be held April 23. An afternoon-evening affair, this day will be marked by games in the afternoon and singing and dancing by firelight into the late hours of the evening.

Reservations have been made for the annual Rainbow Formal. This year the Sherry Hotel has been contracted for May 14. This dance is the highlight of the social season at Gamma Beta. Much work has been devoted to making this dance the most memorable one in years, and with all this effort we feel that it can't fall short of our expectations.

and we expect much from them on their road towards Deltism.

GEORGE BOVIS

Iowa—Omicron

Throughout the present school year, Iowa Delts have excelled in sports, activities, social functions, and many other aspects of S.U.I. student life.

We started our whirlwind of activities this year with post-football game buffets and parties in the evening. These were followed by our first house party, "Hell's Holiday," with the traditional "Satan's court" and a swinging Delt combo. Later in the year was our winter formal, perhaps one of the most successful in many years. Of course, no house would be without get-up-and-go parties, and the Delts were no exception, holding them frequently—about two a week—and with new and original twists. Accompanying these will be spring rush parties and picnics with the coming of warmer weather on the campus.

The Shelter has had numerous awards placed on the trophy mantel as a result of achievements in intramurals and activities. The Delt golf team started the season off with a bang, bagging all-University honors in the fall. Our homecoming float entry was awarded first place in the beauty division in the pre-game regatta. Placing high up in all fall intramurals, the Delts went on to acquire two bridge trophies. A short while ago, the Delt chorus won a place in the University sing finals to be held Mother's Day. With a large group of returning "lettermen" the Delts will be the team to beat next year.

Participating individually in campus activities, the Delts displayed again this year their interest in the life of S.U.I. Jim Farrel headed the activities of the Greek Week committee. Bryan Clemons was appointed to the Central Party committee as chairman of the publicity division. Vic Yanchick, our newly elected president, served on a Union Board subcommittee and presently holds a position on the Union Board proper and the Orientation committee. Terry Breheny worked in conjunction with Greek Week, and Spencer Page served on the Central Party committee on decorations as a subcommittee member.

Representing the Delts in sports were the following: Al Miller, varsity football standout; John Stoy, varsity tennis player; Mike Carr, sophomore hurdler on the Iowa track squad and Bud Howard Heid, S.U.I. swimmer. Freshman athletes included Jim Maurice, free-style swimmer, and Jack Pillmore, freshman pitcher.

All things taken into consideration, the Delts can look back to a very successful year and, more importantly, to the promise of an equally accomplishing new year at the Delta Shelter.

SPENCER PAGE

Iowa State—Gamma Pi

Spring's late arrival was greeted by 15 newly activated members of Gamma Pi Chapter.

The brothers from Omicron Chapter and their dates are to be a part of our traditional Orchid Formal held in Des Moines on April 22. This is the first time an Orchid Formal has been held in conjunction with the Omicron Delts, and Social Chairman Wally Fuchs says we will have other joint social affairs in the future.

Prominently displayed in the trophy case is the huge intramural traveling trophy, awarded to the chapter with the most intramural points per man during the quarter. The Delts swept away all opposition, capturing the trophy with an astounding 21.8 points-per-man average. We are well on the way to keeping the trophy permanently by winning class B volleyball this quarter.

The campus took notice of the number of Delts in high activities positions. Ray Story recently became rush chairman of the interfraternity council, a position held by Delt Tom Acuff this past year. Publications chairman of IFC is again held by Jay Wollin this year. Jim Rice is now a cabinet member of Cardinal Guild, the student governing body. Veisheathon, the crowning event of Veishea (the largest student-managed event in the nation), will have Tom Kline to head its program as MC. Also represented on Veishea is Jack Kingery, who is chairman of the architecture open house. Chapter President Jay Dockendorff, is the president-elect of the student union board. Three of the brothers, Bob Ross, Bob Hansen, and Tom Ransford, hold offices in the social bureau.

Even though participating in intramurals and activities, Gamma Pi Delts have raised the house grade point average to the highest spot in years.

New officers of the chapter are: Jay Dockendorff, president; Tom Kline, vice-president; Jerry Kolchowsky, rush chairman; Tom Schuppe, pledge trainer; Jay Wollin, corresponding secretary; Gary Thiele, recording secretary; and Gene Onken, house manager.

We all hope that this successful year is an indicator of the years yet to come.

JAY WOLLIN

Kent—Delta Omega

As the brothers of Delta Omega returned from their spring vacations, some Florida-tanned and the others envious, we are beginning our spring season. The winter quarter was an especially good one here at Kent. Dick Bracken planned the chapter's tenth annual Founders Day program. It was held in Akron and attended by the Akron alumni chapter, headed by Dr. Louis Carabelli, with John Hart, Beta Phi, as the keynote speaker.

In on-campus activities this spring, the Delts are again leading the way. The campus newspaper, The Stater, is well staffed with Delts. Dick Keough is the business manager; his assistant is George Newkome. Mike Roeder is the ad manager, with Joe Focer as the sales manager.

The annual student spring production of "No Time for Classes" this year is "Annie Get Your Gun." The N.T.F.C. participants are Dick Bracken, one of the major leads, and Chuck Vajda and Jerry Maston, also in the cast.

Representing the spring athletes are Dick Kahler, varsity track, and Bill Pirtle, Ron Turby, and Jack Schiller, on the swimming team. Larry Nosse is pitching in the Detroit Tiger baseball system.

The winter pledge program, under the direction of Dave Miletich, has just been culminated with activation. Prior to this, the pledges visited the Kentucky, Ohio University, Michigan State, and Indiana chapters. We wish to thank the brothers of these chapters for their hospitality and courtesy extended to our pledges.

Mrs. GEORGIANNA WEISENBACH is Delta Omega's housemother.

The winter week end was a hit of the K.S.U. social season. It began with a buffet, then our winter formal dance, and followed by a Danish Smorgasbord. The following day the brothers went tobogganing, wiener-roasting, and dancing at a nearby lodge.

Elections were held during the latter part of the spring quarter. The officers for the next year are: president, Dick Keough; vice-president, Ron Ross; treasurer, Russ Peterson; recording secretary, Jack Huber; corresponding secretary, John Miller; guide, Dick Kahler; and sergeant at arms, Al Ardale.

Representing the chapter with straight A's for winter quarter are Dennis Cooke, Bob Wink, and Jock Huber.

Also in the scholastic line is the receipt by Brother Don Hicks of a grant-in-aid in the amount of $6,500 to Delaware. He will complete his master's work there.

Always a big issue on the Kent campus is the campus elections. This spring we have just completed the mock democratic convention and will later move into the elections of the student body officers. In the mock convention the Delts represented two states, Virginia, headed by Brother Jack Huber, and South Carolina, by Pledge Donn Botzum. In the campus elections, we have Brothers Tom Cooke, Jack Huber, Ron Ross, and George Newkome running for membership on the student council and Dick Keough for membership on the University social committee and chairman of Campus Day.

On April 4, the men of Delta Omega were proud to honor their housemother, Mrs. Georgianna Weisenbach, on her birthday. Mrs. Weisenbach is the senior housemother at Kent and in her ten years as "Mom," has seen many a Delt at Kent. Mom grew up in Edmonton, Alberta, and later moved to Cleveland. While in Cleveland, Mom was urged to come to Kent. She was new both to Kent and to housemothering and warned the president on her arrival, "If I don't like it, don't be disappointed if I leave." Delta Omega men for the past ten years have been grateful that her fears proved groundless. During the summer months, Mom devotes most of her time to travel, both in Canada, for which she still holds a special fondness, and in the U. S. Mom has now become an inseparable part of the Kent campus life and inspires us all in our daily activities. According to Mom, "the school changes, but the Fraternity goes on the same as always."

JOHN G. MILLER

Kentucky—Delta Epsilon

Welcome, spring! Time for water-skiing, picnics, and midterm exams. It is time, also, for such things as the Lambda Chi pushcart derby, for which Delta Epsilon Chapter is busily preparing to win for the fourth consecutive year. It is time, too, for the annual formal, which this year will once more be at Elmendorf Farm. The whole week end is busily rounding itself into shape. Friday evening will feature a picnic at Boonesboro Beach. Saturday afternoon will sport a jam session. It will oil the rusty rhythm of the chapter for the evening formal.

Delta Epsilon was extremely busy rushing during the first part of the semester. It is happy to report that it pledged eleven boys: Clyde Baldwin, Bob Baugh, Bob Carpenter, Dick Coons, Fred Holt, Bill Hylton, Dave Olney, Charlie Russell, Bill Whitedge, Jim Wells, and J. C. Armstrong.

After initiation there was the usual banquet and a meeting of the "polar bear club" in a March swimming. It was quite the rage. A chance at last to see the girls in their summer uniform. Unfortunately, the majority was too cold to see anything but purple.

A L'il Abner party was the big event of the month of February. A rush party, it was really swingin'. The Empires supplied the music. They were new on the campus and available until after that night.

A number of other usual "after the basketball game functions," a few parties with some of the sororities, and the usual number of juke box dances, filled out the rest of the social calendar.

The athletes are busy now with spring sports beginning and it looks as if Delta Epsilon is supplying the punch to the squads.

Bob Linkner and Ken Beard talk of their favorite game, baseball. The putters lie all over the place with Lary Heath, Jack Crutcher, and Mort Harkey fussing about their golf games. The track team sees four Delta Epsilon members wearing the blue and white and seldom getting winded: John Baxter, Buddy Gum, Jerry McAttee, and Ben Patterson. Freshman squads show Bill Hylton swinging a loaded bat and Juddy Knight bogeieing his way around the course. Two transfer students wait for a chance to utilize their skill next year: tennis "great," Dave Polk, and baseball's new "hero," Lamar Herrin.

Everyone else around the house attempts to help Delta Epsilon bring home the intramural all-participation trophy. So far this semester, Delta Epsilon has captured the bowling, wrestling, and basketball crowns. As this is written, it holds a hundred intramural point edge over the next nearest competitor.

Chapter officials were elected last February. In this issue, a fond adieu must be given to last year's fine officers and a welcome to an equally fine aggregation in President Lary Heath, Vice-President Eddie Thomas, Treasurer Waller Hullette, Recording Secretary Ken Beard, Corresponding Secretary Dick Wallace, and Guide Lamar Herrin. The whole gang will be at our Founders Day banquet in May.

BEN PATTERSON

Lafayette—Nu

Once again Nu Chapter has been amply represented on our campus, in both athletic and scholastic activities.

Bud Larrabee, a Delt mainstay on the Lafayette swimming team, closes out the winter sports season, while baseball, track, and tennis will now occupy the time of other brothers. Phil Bollman returns to first base for the Leopard nine, a position he has held for the past three seasons. Rob Mueller is busy on the tennis courts with the varsity squad and Jim Oehlert is a half-miler for the track squad. Jim was a consistent front runner on the cross-country squad last fall and has been named cocaptain for next year. Other brothers on the track squad include Freshmen Bob Funk, a hurdler, and Charlie Rau, a sprinter.

On the intramural level, Nu Chapter terminated a fine basketball season with a game against our brethren, Beta Lambda from Lehigh. A tight-fought contest was finally captured by the brothers of Nu, six points being the final difference. A successful party at the Shelter culminated the day's activities.

Since the beginning of good weather, our softball team has started spring training and looks fairly powerful. In the one exhibition game so far, we walloped last year's campus champs 15 to 3. We have the team to go all the way to the campus finals this spring.

On the track front, intramural workouts will begin shortly and Nu will field a strong squad in this competition. We have been consistent winners, especially in the relays, over the past years.

Scholastically, two of our seniors, William Hagen and Paul Luscombe, have been named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Both of them have also been nominated for the Pepper Prize, given to that senior who most nearly represents the Lafayette ideal. Approximately 50 per cent of our 13 seniors are going to graduate schools of their choice, the rest entering either the business world or the service. From our junior class, Fred Schillinger has been elected into Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering society, while Ron Geesey and Pete Mitchell were taken into Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalism fraternity. Geesey is also the editor-in-chief of the college newspaper and a member of Phi Alpha Theta, national honorary history society.

Our social functions are not overlooked, however. The annual spring interfraternity week end is first on the agenda. Saturday of that week end the Nu brothers and their dates will travel to Ross Common Manor, in the Poconos, for a leisurely day out of doors, followed in the evening by a party and dance at the inn. This is an annual event which always brings a lot of alumni back to the Shelter. A party is planned for our folks the following week end, which is parents day. Step Singing, an interfraternity competitive song fest, takes place at this time. Our group, under the leadership of Dave Roper and Dave Tamburro, is hard at work to better the second place they received last year.

Election of officers was held in February and Robert Mayer is the new president for 1960. Dave Tamburro is the vice-president; John Wardell, the recording secretary; Ted Shmanda, corresponding secretary; Walt Daller, the new guide; and Joe Carey, sergeant at arms. Jim Oehlert had previously been elected treasurer.

All things considered, this has been an excellent year for Nu Chapter. With this year almost gone, plans for next year are already under way.

BRUCE VAKIENER

Lawrence—Delta Nu

Delta Nu Chapter ended the 1959-'60 year tops in all fields. In scholarship, the Delts were first on campus with an average of 1.71 on a 3-point system. This is the highest fraternity average to appear at Lawrence in many years. Our pledge class also kept up the Delt academic standards by winning the IFC pledge scholarship award. In addition, Tom Steitz, only a sophomore, has won a scholarship to the M.I.T. biophysics department. Partly due to our emphasis on scholarship, we activated the largest and best pledge class on campus on February 21. Nineteen men were initiated.

The Delts, however, haven't let their scholastic performance handicap their social activities. During the year, the Delts have held parties with the campus' top sororities. Informal parties were held with Kappa Alpha Theta, Pi Beta Phi, and Delta Gamma. The Theta pajama party was especially a success. As usual, the Delt "Playboy" party was the Lawrence second-semester social high light.

Lawrence's "Carnivology," the college's annual talent show, was almost completely a Delt production. Bill Dyer arranged all of the show's musical numbers, while Tom Oakland served as both technical director and stage manager. This same talented pair wrote much of the show's material. Gary Larson, Mark Johnson, and Steve Pfarrer had important roles in the production.

In campus politics, the Delt sophomores are also campus leaders. Dan Brink was elected president of the school's most important student government committee, the union committee. Wally Glascoff was elected chairman of Lawrence's convocation committee. A third sophomore, Bob Anderson, was selected to head the Lawrence homecoming committee. Delt President Motz Drew was elected president of the IFC. In addition, Pledge Steve Meyers is president of the freshmen men. Eleven Delts were chosen for the Lawrence Encampment, a meeting of Lawrence's campus leaders. In the field of political science, Tom Weber was chosen to represent Lawrence at the American Assembly Conference in Green Bay, Wisconsin.

Delts also lead the campus in cultural activities. Duke Watts has held the male lead in two of Lawrence's major theatrical productions. Tony Bok leads the Contributor, the school's literary magazine, while Tom Baer is a member of Lawrence's Film Classic's board, which he will eventually head.

In sports, the Delts again dominated the winter scene at Lawrence. Chico Kaufman, the 137-pound wrestler, lost but one match during the entire year and collected several pins. Wrestling in the Midwest Conference meet for the first time, Chico placed third in the 137-pound class, called the toughest division in the meet. A premed student with high scholastic honors and only a sophomore, Chico brings honor to Delta Nu in many areas.

Captain Pete Switzer finished his college swimming career by placing high in two different events in the Midwest Conference meet. The former Delta Nu president has been the mainstay of the Lawrence swimming team this past year. For the second straight year he was the team's high point man.

Don Bergman, only a sophomore, ended the varsity season in fine fashion, aiding the basketball team consistently and averaging over 12 points a game. Don is to be counted on heavily in the future.

Delt freshmen have been quite active in the sports scene this past season. In swimming, Jack Grenzebach is considered an outstanding prospect. He already holds a frosh record, and was cited by Coach Gene Davis at the recent awards banquet as "... having the greatest promise for years to come." Tom Barton and Hap Sumner were the two outstanding wrestlers on the freshman team this year. Both are expected to shine in varsity competition next year. In basketball, Paul Lange, although hampered by an ankle injury part of the season, is considered a sure bet to be a consistent performer on next year's team.

Delts have played a prominent part in indoor track this spring. Bill Stout has been a star in the two-mile event. The speedy sophomore placed fourth in the conference meet, and no less than third in the other meets. Frosh Herb Weber is considered one of the brightest track prospects to hit the campus in some time. In the Wisconsin A.A.U. track meet, Herb placed fifth in the 1,000-yard against the state's top runners. Dan Brink has been a consistent point getter in the shot put. Besides Weber, several other Delt frosh have done well in track. Reed Williams is the top freshman distance runner and George McKann excels in the middle distances.

Lawrence's baseball team seems to be dominated by Delts this year. Karl Franke will be the team's starting moundsman for the third straight year. Gary Larson, a letter winner, is expected to start at first. Chico Kaufman, Don Lichty, and Don Bergman should all be playing in the outfield. Dick Pizza, leading frosh batsman last year, is destined to start at third base.

In tennis, Motz Drew, Tom Hurvis, and Boomer Anderson will be in the starting line-up. Drew and Hurvis are letter winners and Anderson was last year's leading freshman.

In nonschool sports, the chapter entered the Appleton AA industrial league, and completely mastered all its opponents. A beautiful trophy now rests atop our TV set, signifying first place in the league. In interfraternity action, the Delts also have done quite well.

All in all, the past year has been extremely successful for Delta Nu.

RICHARD YOUNG

Lehigh—Beta Lambda

We've been living in our new Shelter for over a year now and it's finally beginning to feel like a home instead of a show place. Although the Shelter was built to accommodate 36 men, it has been decided to enlarge our capacity to 38 men by eliminating an extra room.

Six seniors are graduating this June: Charles Rohleder, Walt Schmidbauer, Doug Somerville, John Roglieri, Carl Tindall, and Jack Singlevich.

We are very fortunate to have obtained 17 freshman pledges from 300 freshmen who pledged to a fraternity, and in competition with 29 other fraternities. Of special concern this year was the scholarship level of the incoming freshmen. We were fortunate again not to have sacrificed quality in this approach. Those pledges who will be moving in this fall are: Sam Tucker, John McGregor, Jr., Charles Emley, Jr., Pete Bennett, Tom Vogeley, Paul Sproul, Jon Bassett, Nick Smith, Tony Carvette, Bob Hubach, Fred Schoeller, Chris Cole, Dean Muller, Rich Maceyko, Bill Kring, Vince Sottosanti, and Carl McRae.

Our new officers have been elected: Walt Krzesiewski, president; Jim Williams, vice-president; Barry Holmes, corresponding secretary; Dick Eelman, recording secretary; Denny Maus, treasurer; and Bill Nichols, assistant treasurer.

Interest in extracurricular activities is

TIP GALYON
of Lehigh

high this year. Tip Galyon has been elected captain of the cross-country team. Marty Bentley was chosen as president of Alpha Kappa Psi. Dick Vogt rallies in lacrosse; Ronnie Johnson participates in glee club and baseball; Carl Tindall is a medal winner in swimming. The other brothers have found time to obtain positions on class cabinets, the Young Republicans, wrestling (Barry Holmes won an all-University wrestling tournament), and varsity football, track and cross-country.

Spring houseparty was a great show. High lights were Friday afternoon's "Happy Hour," the dance that night with the Glenn Miller and Lester Lanin Orchestras, as well as the Four Freshmen, and a picnic the next afternoon on a farm.

On the social schedule a while ago was a combined party with Nu Chapter at Lafayette. In a hard-fought basketball contest on the Saturday afternoon, Nu won 61-56. They hosted a buffet dinner and a moving "rock-and-roll" party that night.

We are looking forward to another parent's week end this semester, hoping to approach the success of last year's fete. At that time we showed the two movies that the Central Office sent us of the Karnea, and served 120 persons at a banquet in our new recreation room.

President Krzesiewski recently reported on a successful Regional Conference held in New York City and announced that a good representation will be present at the Karnea this summer.

We at Beta Lambda will be looking forward to meeting everyone at the Karnea in June.

JIM WILLIAMS

Maine—Gamma Nu

Another school year has ended with Gamma Nu making a fine showing here at Maine. At the Winter Carnival, Gamma Nu won the snow sculpturing contest with its own rendition of "Scrooge" McDuck at a cash register. All the brothers worked hard on this project, but a big hand should go to John Merrill, who was our capable organizer in the project.

Under the direction of Tom Lindsey, rush chairman, Gamma Nu saw a very successful rushing season. In filling our quota of 20 men, we feel that this pledge class is one of the best Gamma Nu has seen for many years. They have organized the float project for Maine Day and are practicing diligently on the interfraternity singing.

The annual Jamaica party was held in March. Many of the brothers felt that this was the party of the year. The gals wore sarongs while the guys had matching shirts. While it was Jamaica inside, Maine held to its tradition by coming through with a snowstorm. Quite a paradox.

In the sports department, Gamma Nu has had a successful spring. We are all proud of Brother Pete Forbush, who won the coveted first-base position on the U. of Maine baseball team. It was a position sought by many men this year. The basketball season found our chapter in the intramural basketball finals and losing the championship by only a narrow margin. For their efforts on the team, Brothers Stan Weeks, Pete Forbush, Ron Allen, Rog Holmes, Stan Allain, and Jim Wakefield deserve congratulations.

Academically, we were among the top fraternities on campus. Pete Haynes recently was elected to Tau Beta Pi, honor society, and Waite Weston and Greg Brown were elected to Alpha Zeta. Wendell Noble, Pete Haynes, and Orm Wade are now members of Sigma Pi Sigma, physics honorary.

Gamma Nu sent Brothers Greg Brown, Doug Skillin, Waite Weston, and Ken Winters to Beta Omicron Chapter at Cornell for the Regional Conference. They returned greatly enlightened, after having shared various problems and successes.

In closing this year, we look forward to even greater success under the direction of our newly elected officers: president, Dave Robinson; vice-president, Frank Woodard; recording secretary, Stan Allain; corresponding secretary, Pete Haynes; and treasurer, Ken Hartz.

See you at the Karnea!

TIM ROBBINS and DAVE ROBINSON

Maryland—Delta Sigma

The spring semester began with the election of new officers. The new officers and their respective positions are: Leo Balsamo, president; Tom Brown, vice-president; Kirt Bass, corresponding secretary; Jerry Welty, recording secretary; and James Foscett, treasurer. Other cabinet officers are: Kirt Bass, pledge trainer; Bill Ferguson, sergeant at arms; Tom Allen, guide; Bill Hall, house manager; Mark Whitmore, scholarship chairman; Terry Horman, activities chairman; and Jim Putnam, rush chairman.

During the month of March, initiation ceremonies greeted two new brothers into Delta Sigma Chapter. Our pledge class, consisting of 23 men, is one of the largest and best pledge classes in the school.

In athletic circles the Delt volleyball, bowling, and softball teams are all in practice for the spring intramural program, with Pledges Jack Haughton, Stu Slocum, Dale Carbonier, and Wayne Keller expected to be standouts. The present time also finds the entire chapter practicing for the oncoming interfraternity song contest, under the direction of Delta Sigma Alumnus Noel Patterson.

On campus, the Maryland Dels are well in evidence. Brad Becker was recently elected treasurer of the Student Government Association and Jerry Welty was appointed publicity director of the school's cultural committee.

We are all looking forward to two big social events in the future: the National Capital Alumni Chapter's Founders Day Dinner and our big spring formal, to be held on May 14. Both of these events, plus our great parties, should make the spring social season an unforgettable one.

Scholastically, the chapter has been doing well, placing in the upper five among fraternities in the University's scholastic ranking. Leading the chapter last semester was Jerry Welty, with a 3.5 average, and Brad Becker, with a 3.23.

Plans are now under way to secure a new housemother for the fall semester. With the retiring of Mrs. Dowling at the end of this semester we find ourselves without a housemother. I'm sure all the present Maryland Dels and Delta Sigma alumni would like to express their thanks to her for all the years of devoted service which he gave to Delta Tau Delta.

Following a Delta Sigma tradition, we will continue to be well represented in the Air Force ROTC department. Headed by Captain Edward St. John, we also have Lieutenants Terry Horman, Jim Putnam, and Bill Corbin.

We of Delta Sigma would like to take this opportunity to wish all brothers a happy and healthy summer.

NEIL J. WELTY

M.I.T.—Beta Nu

The steady grind of study at M.I.T. has been relieved by many fine Delt parties the past year. Halloween found the Delt Shelter festooned with pine boughs and the recreation room floor covered with hay, lending an unusual atmosphere to the Halloween costume party. Rick Huffman, dressed as Frankenstein and reading poetry from a moonlight-illuminated coffin, maintained a ghostlike aplomb despite the guitar music from an adjacent room. A late fall beach party among the sand dunes of the southern Maine coastline, with the roar of the ocean challenging "Animal's" guitar playing, proved very successful. The annual Christmas party featured Tom Massaro as Santa Claus. Not requiring much padding to resemble Saint Nick, Tom proved most generous with kisses when passing out presents to the girls.

During spring vacation, some of the more adventurous Delts banded together and sailed from Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, to the Bahama Islands. Under the watchful eye of Captain F. O. Jackson, they thrived on fresh-caught ocean fish and visited many of the numerous islands which dot that area.

Delts and dates at Beta Nu costume party.

Our annual chapter elections, spiced with the usual campaign promises and long winded orations, have been recently completed. The new officers are: John Crissman, president; Terry Bray, vice-president; Nelson Stephany, treasurer; Chuck Fadley, assistant treasurer; John Cervenka, recording secretary; Bill Weber, corresponding secretary; Tom Massaro, sergeant at arms; Phil Schneider, guide.

Taking full advantage of the wide variety of both intramural and varsity sports offered at M.I.T., the Delts have been riding high, as usual. Our intramural football team captured third, which is no small accomplishment since M.I.T. has no varsity football team and would-be gridders take vengeance in the intramural league. In lacrosse, Dan Michael is a regular on M.I.T.'s defending national class "C" championship team. Joe Verderber, defender of chivalry around the Delt Shelter, captured the New England saber championship. New Initiate Tim Sloat was captain of the freshman swimming team. The old salt of the Charles, Gary Helmig, acquired the cherished Vois Cup, when he won the undergraduate sailing championship. In golf, the Delts can boast of Bob Larson, who captains this year's varsity.

Contrary to the maxim that fun and studies do not mix, the Delts were in the top quarter, scholastically, of the M.I.T. living groups. Delts landing membership in scholastic fraternities were: Gary Kincaid, Chi Epsilon; Bob Larson, Tau Beta Pi and Eta Kappa Nu; Joe Verderber, Tau Beta Pi and Pi Tau Sigma; Milt Reed, Tau Beta Pi; Hank Wagner, Pi Tau Sigma; and J. David Powell, Pi Tau Sigma.

Two of the major organizations on the M.I.T. campus are under Delt leadership. Joe Verderber is president of the interfraternity conference, while Hank Wagner is president of the M.I.T. athletic association.

An improvement of the Delt Shelter this last year has been the installation of an acoustical tile ceiling in the recreation room. Also installed in the ceiling, challenging the acoustical tile, are three hi-fi speakers.

We at Beta Nu have set our sights on still further improvement, both scholastically and socially, and hope to achieve a high score for Delta Tau Delta.

MOTNAHP CERVENKA

Miami—Gamma Upsilon

Miami Delts this year have been fortunate in taking 27 top men in the deferred rushing program in February. Under the guidance of the newly organized and oriented pledge education committee, headed by John Zink, we hope to build some solid future Delts.

Many Gamma Upsilon men have distinguished themselves and the chapter alike in campus activities this year. President Bud Schoen has recently been elected to Phi Beta Kappa; recording secretary Pete Chretien is a senior vice-president of Delta Sigma Pi, business fraternity; past President Bill Ludeke was recently initiated into Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honorary. Brothers Ludeke and Ken Marshall have been doing some part time teaching of freshman courses in Spanish and French, respectively.

John Zink is out for football for the third year and will be playing first string in the fall in a halfback position. Paul La Spina seems to be a man to watch in track, particularly in shot put, being ranked among the top four shotmen in the state. Joe Simone is instructing swimming classes three times a week and is again on the varsity team.

Gamma Upsilon has been inactive on the Miami campus this semester as a result of disciplinary action by the University. Plans for reopening next fall are being formulated by the officers of the chapter and we feel that "we're really gonna be big!"

AL GEORGE

Michigan—Delta

"In the spring a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of —." And so with Delta Chapter, the accent this spring is on the social. As the bronzed bodies come ambling back from a vacation well spent in Fort Lauderdale, big plans are already being made. Michigras, the big all-campus week end, is just a couple of weeks away. For three days studies are forgotten while the entire campus is turned into a gigantic carnival. The Delts, headed by Tom Sweeny, have decided to enter into the fun and competition in this biggest of all big campus week ends. It's been decided that a refreshment booth will be built with the theme of outer space. With the Kappa Deltas as partners, tagging along for laughs, it is expected that everyone will have a real fun time. If the Delts win first prize for the booth, it will be the third year in a row that they have taken the trophy in their division.

Those Florida tans, kept alive by a little Man Tan and the aid of a sunlamp, will get a chance to show themselves off in about three weeks. That's the week end of the Tahitian party. Sarongs and beach-comber outfits will be the order of the night, while the Shelter will be transformed into an island paradise. There'll be dancing and fun amid white sand, palms, and sparkling waterfalls. Here's a world outside of tests and bluebooks. This world is meant for fun.

The following week end the mood changes completely. This is the time of the spring pledge formal. In the subdued sophistication of a formal party, the brothers get a chance to honor their pledges. Here is where that circle of unity between pledge and active is drawn even closer. Ray Heald has been doing a fine job in planning for this most special of all nights.

The Delts are once again flung into the midst of competition the following week. That's the I.F.C. sing. The brothers have always taken a great deal of interest in this event, and this year they're hoping to top themselves by one from last year and sweep away first place. They're singing a medley of two spirited Russian songs, ably led by Jack O'Brien.

The I.F.C. sing is no sooner over with than more laughs and fun appear. It's Mothers' week end. Here the mothers get a chance to experience just exactly what fraternity living is really like. George Ehrnstrom and Dick Knab are in charge of seeing that they're royally treated.

In both University and intramural sports, the Delt's are showing outstanding ability. Sophomore Fritz Kellerman is Big Ten champion in wrestling in his division. Steve Williams, another sophomore, took second place in the high jump event at the Big Ten track meet. In the intramural realm the Delt's are now in fourth place, with high hopes of increasing their standings in the spring sports.

Finally, the brothers plan to drop in on final exams for a few laughs. And after the sweat has dried from the last one, it's home for the summer; but not without fond memories of a year well spent at the Shelter, and the anticipation of an exciting fall semester.

STEVE VANDERVOORT

Michigan State—Iota

With the term well under way indications of a successful term to cap a highly successful school year are beginning to take shape for Iota Chapter.

On the social side, Iota greeted rushees this spring with one of its most successful parties. Senior Mike Miller put forth his greatest effort as chairman and decorated the Shelter in a South Seas setting. Palm trees and a large Polynesian idol greeted the couples as they entered the house. Punch was served in coconut shells, each garnished with an orchid. While on the subject of rushees, much credit goes to Bob Lintz, who turned in a truly fine job as rush chairman.

Bob Andringa, president of his pledge class, received the additional honor of being awarded the outstanding pledge trophy, as voted him by his pledge brothers. Bob Tinker was the proud recipient of the scholarship ring, awarded each term to the neophyte who maintains the highest point average while pledging. Spring rush saw Iota initiate eleven new pledges.

Academically, Iota distinguished itself last term. The fraternity rating showed the Delt's to be ranked fifth scholastically among all fraternities at Michigan State. Special mention should go to Brothers Larry Osterink, Russ Peppet, and John Forsythe for maintaining perfect four-point averages during winter term.

On the sports slate, the Delt hockey team, not to be outdone by the football and bowling squads who won all-University titles, battled its way to the championship by defeating Evans Scholars, 6-3. Brothers Gary Bell, Russ La-Beau, Chuck Pfaff, and Dave Smith are to be commended for their fine play, which enabled Iota to add still another trophy to its growing collection. The softball team, under the direction of Lou Hoos, is hoping to continue the trend and bring another first place to the chapter.

Brother Ron Henry looks to be a sure candidate for this spring's Spartan tennis team, which Coach Stan Drobac calls, "one of the finest I've ever coached." Henry racked up a record of six wins and a single loss on the southern training trip, playing in a singles spot.

With campus elections just around the corner, many of the brothers are looking toward positions on the various campus organizations. In elections already completed, John Forsythe and Dave Pierson have gained posts on the Union board of directors, taking over the reins from Brothers Mark Harold, vice-president, and Bruce Johnson, publicity chairman, both of whom have served for three years on the board. To round out the slate of Union board members, we should mention Jim Dobrei, Jerry Myers, Jim Shaul, Bill Myers, Jerry Hableman, and Doug Shadwick for their newly-gained position in this organization. Special mention goes to Jerry Hableman for his appointment to frosh-soph council. Completing the card of newly elected brothers, congratulations go to Joe Day for his recent appointment as corresponding secretary of Michigan State's interfraternity council.

In another campus activity, the Delt's and the Pi Phi's are pooling their efforts with hopes of building a winning float for the annual water carnival, which is held every spring on the M.S.U. campus. Bob Dall is working hard as our chairman and we're hoping to end the year with another trophy.

In closing this last issue of THE RAINBOW for this school year, we at Iota would like to extend an open invitation to all brother Delts to visit Iota's Shelter whenever possible.

BARRY BONE

Minnesota—Beta Eta

Spring has finally come to the Minnesota campus, and the Delts are getting ready for Campus Carnival and river-banking.

Winter quarter was a busy one for the Delts. New officers were elected in February. The following slate shows the victors: Todd Lewis, president; Dick Elster, vice-president; Bill Hallberg, recording secretary; Ross Lourey, corresponding secretary; Gene Ihrke, sergeant at arms; and Bob Davis, guide.

For the fourth year in a row, Beta Eta has placed on top in campus Greek Week activities. This year the Delts placed high in IFC songfest, progressive parties, and olympics, to capture the all-participation trophy for the third time in four years. We hope that our Campus Carnival show, Liz La Strada, will also be a first-place effort.

Athletics played an important part in winter quarter. The bowling team placed second in interfraternity competition while the basketball team made the semi-finals.

The Delta Zetas won the Delt invitational sorority basketball tournament with the Alpha Chi Omegas placing second. The all-star sorority team was so great that we almost matched them against the Golden Gophers. Brother Ron Johnson, cocaptain of the Gophers, just returned from Denver and olympic competition.

Activities will also play an important part in the Delt chapter next quarter. Ten of the members of the Shelter are freshmen camp counselors, giving us the largest percentage of any fraternity on campus. As for the honoraries, Dan Danielson, Jon Wicklund, and Denny Gladhill are members of Phoenix, Silver Spur, and Iron Wedge, respectively. Other positions are held on the student senate and orientation commission. Dan Danielson is chairman of the Big Ten conference for sororities and fraternities.

With spring quarter comes the best parties of the year. A "come as you are" party was held last Saturday with brothers dressed in everything from ROTC uniforms to bathing trunks. Canoeing, bike hikes, and ball games are being planned as outdoor parties for the remainder of spring quarter. The brothers who went to Fort Lauderdale and Nassau during spring break were happy to meet Delts from many other chapters around the country.

Athletically, our prize winning softball team is out practicing in the rain hoping to come out in first place again this year. We're recruiting new pledges for the baseball team now and will continue during the summer.

ROSS LOUREY

Missouri—Gamma Kappa

Although final exams and the end of another school year are coming to a close, all the time in the Delt Shelter isn't limited to pleasant retrospect of the pleasure-filled hours of studying, campus activities, and dating. On the contrary, the Delts are only working harder to build up the chapter even more, because they are not content to rest on their laurels.

Always an intramural softball power, this year is no exception. In four pre-season games the Gamma Kappa Delts have beaten the ATO's, the Phi Psi's, and the Phi Delts twice. The delts have a good defensive infield and, in the early games, Larry Bollinger's hitting and fielding, plus the pitching of our staff ace, Rich Joy, have been unbeatable. Rich has also contributed a grand slam home run to his cause. Veteran Manager Wayne Schindler feels that this will be the most productive season in our history.

On the always powerful Missouri varsity baseball team the Delts have six players, four of them are regulars, and the team captain, Gary Starr. They are Starr at third base, Steve Lewis at second base, Bob Meyers in center field, and John Meives in right field. Sophomore Outfielder Buddy Knoll has appeared in every game to date and Paul Knopf, veteran hurler, is sure to see a lot of action. In another spring sport, spring football practice, there are three Delts participating. They are linemen Jim McKinney, John Odowd, and Larry Sieckmann. Buddy Knoll, a halfback, is busy with baseball.

In baseball, Jim Pound is the varsity manager and Jim Carothers is the freshman manager.

This year, 13 men were initiated into Gamma Kappa Chapter. In open rush, the Delts have picked up ten new pledges. Gamma Kappa also improved scholastically, due mainly to the fine job of Scholarship Chairman Andy Kantis. The grade point leaders of the chapter were Bill Zander, with a 3.78 for the actives, and Dave Dodge, with a 2.65 for the pledges.

In campus activities, the Gamma Kappa Chapter took second place in the interfraternity sing, even though matched with very rugged competition. We are also entering the annual "Campus Town Races." The team has looked very good in its workouts. Three Delts, Jim McKinney, Mark McKinney, and Jim Pound, were in the Missouri work shop play "Inherit the Wind."

High school week end is the big project at the chapter now. It will be under the supervision of our hard-working rush chairman, John Silver. Invitations were sent to 150 of the most promising high school seniors ad there have been 50 acceptances to date. A record turnout is expected. The featured events are a campus tour, a college baseball game, a party with a combo at the Shelter, and an after-hours party at the "Hink"

This is a time that has only one sorrow, the thought of the chapter losing the seniors who have taught so much and have set high standards for those of us who will return to the Shelter next fall. Those graduating are Larry Bollinger, Rich Joy, Gordon Kempf, Paul Knopf, Steve Lewis, Bob Meyers, Gary Starr, Wayne Schindler, John Silver, and Bill Zander. These men are examples of the potential leaders in their fields that have been produced from the ranks of Delta Tau Delta. Their success brings on a feeling of optimism for the ones of us who are still learning through working out our problems with the aid of our brothers. At Gamma Kappa, progress is our most important goal.

MARK MCKINNEY

Nebraska—Beta Tau

Mother nature couldn't keep Beta Tau from holding its annual spring formal. Neither the snow nor the cold dampened the success of the long-awaited event. Mrs. Janice Pennington was chosen Delt Queen and received the traditional bouquet of roses, a gold cup, and a kiss from her proud husband, Brother Dave Pennington.

MRS. JANICE PENNINGTON, Beta Tau's Delta Queen.

The Omaha Alumni Chapter hosted Beta Tau's March initiation of 17 new Delts. The ceremony and banquet took place in the Blackstone Hotel. During the program which followed the banquet, Jim Lake was awarded the William B. Webster scholarship and Jerry Simmons was declared "squab best." A special high light of the evening was a pleasant talk by Beta Tau's first pledge, Mr. Robert Manly. An extremely enjoyable time was had by all and the active chapter is truly grateful to the Omaha alums.

Social Chairman Hal Hoppe is wrapping up the social slate in fine style with a date dinner, French party, and squab scramble. The squab scramble will feature the traditional paddle exchange between pledges and their pledge fathers.

Greek Week will find the Delts tough competitors in all events. But Beta Tau will especially guard its chariot race championship. The Nebraska Delts will add a new twist to the Ivy day sing this year as they harmonize a song entitled Springtime on the Campus. The composition is written, directed, and produced by Brother Steve Joynt.

In spring athletic competition, Steve Smith is turning in commendable performances as a Husker trackman. Brothers Gene Johnson and Ralph "Bud" Williamson have positions on the varsity golf team. Bob "Doc" Harry completed another season as a regular starting center on the varsity basketball team.

As yet, it is too early to judge closely the quality of the Delt intramural softball team; however, early outings indicate a successful season.

Brother Jim Samples survived the IFC screening and will be backed by the Greeks in the upcoming student council elections. Jim is also Delt rush chairman and is busily preparing summer rushing strategy.

North Dakota—Delta Xi

The Western Division regional Conference of Delta Tau Delta was held April 1 and 2 in Grand Forks. The late spring snow did not dampen the spirits and the Conference was considered a great success. Delegates from ten chapters of the northern region of the Western Division attended. We were very happy to have with us Division President George Fisher, of St. Louis, Missouri, and Division Vice-Presidents Ken Penfold, Boulder, Colorado, and Gordon Bryles, Palestine, Texas. As a climax to the convention, a banquet was held at the Riviera Ballroom, at which University President Geo. W. Starcher was the featured speaker. A dance followed with the "Blue Notes" furnishing the music.

Some of the visiting Delts enjoyed participating in our annual "Sally Sunshine" contest. Following an early morning invasion of the Gamma Phi Beta house, Brenda Oland was chosen to wear the crown for the coming year.

The new officers elected this spring are: president, Ron Johnson; vice-president, Don Torgerson; recording secretary, Gary Dewing; corresponding secretary, Don Schmid; treasurer, Lee Nelson; assistant treasurer, Duane Sanderson; guide, Dennis Levi; sergeant at arms, Durand Ward.

Doug Beito, field secretary of Delta Tau Delta, visited our chapter April 8-11.

Brother John Rustvold was chosen outstanding pledge of Delta Xi. Brother John Kjelshus will be presented the Hallenberg Key at the spring formal.

Among other spring activities was initiation of five new brothers. Also, seven men were pledged during informal rushing. Brother Dick Ode is our new interfraternity council member. Brother Paul Vondracek is our student council representative.

Delts and dates at Delta Xi's Division Regional Conference dance.

Early in May the Delts and Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority plan the annual trip to the North Dakota Children's Village at Fargo. The purpose of the trip is to spend several hours with the orphan children and entertain them.

Our annual spring banquet and formal will be held May 21. Music will be provided by the "Blue Notes."

Dennis Levi was elected president of the United Campus Christian Fellowship.

Northwestern—Beta Pi

As the winter quarter drew to a close, last year's officers exited to make room for Beta Pi's newly elected leaders. President of Beta Pi for the 1960-61 term is Dick Unholz. Other newly elected officers include: Dennis Kyros, vice-president; Gerry Ball, corresponding secretary; Roger Kuppinger, recording secretary; Dave Vonder, guide; and Wayne Capurro, sergeant at arms. The treasurer's office is held by Brian Pape, elected in January for the year 1960.

When the Northwestern grade point averages for winter quarter were published, the Delts once again shone scholastically. Remaining above the All Men's Average, the scholastic average of the men of Beta Pi ranked in the top one-third among the NU fraternities and "tops" among the "big houses." This shows how the men of Beta Pi are carrying on the true spirit of Deltism.

Delts lettering in varsity sports during the past quarter included Don Millican, in wrestling; Bill Cacciatore, in basketball; and John Glerum, in swimming. Ken Lutgens and Bill Woislaw received freshman numerals in basketball.

Jack Cvercko, brother of Delt All-American tackle, Andy Cvercko, is currently working out with the varsity football team in spring practice. Jack will be trying to break into NU's starting lineup next year as a sophomore. Steve Newcomer, last year's Illinois state mile champion, is practicing with the freshman track team. Jerry Tanselle hopes to be one of the mainstays on this year's Northwestern golf team.

Beta Pi, always strong in spring intramural sports, is attempting to climb back to the top in the race for the Sweepstakes trophy. Chuck "Scoop" Mount's baseball team won a 16-15 slugfest in its opener against Lambda Chi. Behind the hitting of returning veterans Gerry Ball, Terry Hogan, John Humbert, Andy Cvercko, Bill Gall, Brian Pape, Dick Soderberg, and Bob Bartels, Delta Tau Delta expects to go all the way to the baseball crown. Although the team is predominantly the same as last year's squad, Freshmen Bill Johnson and Fred Schlegel will also bolster the attack.

Coach Mount also expects to win the volleyball championship for the second consecutive year. Besides Humbert, Pape, and Hogan, returning veterans include Don Muth, Sam Serhant, Fred Dale, and John Glerum.

As has always been the tradition, the Delts value their social development on the campus. Thus, the spring quarter calendar is filled with fun and excitement. First comes our annual "Mystery Party." Later in May we will hold our spring dinner dance formal at the Sherman Hotel. Probably the most fun, however, will come from the many beach parties, exchanges, serenades, and other informal parties which will soon be scheduled now that warm weather has arrived.

Not to be outdone on the campus, the Delts are deep in campus activities. Fred Schlegel, Bill Kunkle, and Al Spooner hold important elected offices in their respective freshman dorms. Schlegel, Kunkle, and Ed Bryant are members of the freshman class council. Bryant was a co-chairman of the recent freshman variety show. John Doolittle, earlier elected treasurer of junior interfraternity council, was named to the student governing board activities and organizations committee. In other activities, Roger Kuppinger is a member of Wildcat council and George Wyatt is in the cast of Northwestern's nationally famous "Waa-Mu Show."

On January 31, 1960, 15 men received the Delt Badge. During winter quarter open rush, Tom Butterfield and Steve Newcomer became new pledges of Beta Pi.

On June 13, ten Delts will end their undergraduate careers at the University commencement exercises. Among the graduating seniors are George Platz, Kent Mallquist, Sam Serhant, Don Vacin, Bob Allin, Roger Clarke, Dick Urevig, Tom Vana, Bill Wolter, and Chuck Wonderlic. Of these ten graduating seniors, seven plan to attend graduate school, thus enriching their already rich cup of knowledge.

Ohio State—Beta Phi

Spring quarter offers Beta Phi members a diversified schedule of events this year. The coming of May Week is being looked forward to as we plan to participate in the events of the week. Last year Beta Phi copped the May Week trophy and we hope to win it again this year.

We are anxiously awaiting this year's Founders Day Banquet, next month, with Mu Chapter. It is usually one of the most outstanding functions of the spring. It gives the men of both chapters the opportunity to socialize on a personal level and gives the opportunity to hear many fine speakers. Thomas J. Herbert, former governor of Ohio; Branch Rickey, and many other famous alumni top the list of speakers. It is hoped that soon this function will be state-wide.

Activities have found Beta Phi members in demand. Pat McCarthy was recently elected, in a campuswide vote, to represent the senior class in the student senate. Mark Philips was elected to represent the sophomore class.

Don Welch has recently been selected for membership in Ohio Staters, a well-known campus service organization.

Dramatics, too, have claimed Beta Phi's Ted Sawyer. Ted is currently in "Shadow and Substance," and is known for his acting ability.

We were very happy with the success of our "Goldiggers" candidate, Chuck Coryn. Chuck was a finalist in a campuswide vote. He was chosen by the women of the campus as one of the men with the best looks and personality. The men of Beta Phi enjoyed giving skits and campaigning for their candidate.

In the field of athletics, we find Gabe Hartman and Don Conners trying for positions in spring football practice. Hartman and Don Young played first-string guards in the fall season.

Gary Milliken finished the basketball season winning a varsity "O." Gary played guard on this year's national championship team.

The intramural scene finds excellence, too. Last year's championship softball team remains undefeated again this year. We have high hopes for our bowling, golf, and track teams, too.

Our social calendar finds a diversified schedule of events. Several theme parties are on the itinerary.

TIM HERR

Ohio Wesleyan—Mu

While awaiting the results of first-semester scholarship competition to see if Chapter Mu would win the Ohio Wesleyan All-Fraternity scholarship award for the sixth straight semester, the brothers plunged into a host of other activities, collectively, and as a chapter.

As a chapter, all the brothers greatly enjoyed the campus elections. In a hard-fought contest, Brother Bruce Buchanan was elected treasurer of the student government. Many other positions of responsibility have been falling, as usual, into the hands of members of Chapter Mu. Brothers Welch and Lehman were appointed chairmen of student government committees, Brothers Lacy and Schwindt helped us maintain our traditional control of campus publications by becoming business managers of The Transcript and Le Bijou (of which Brother Appleyard was past editor).

Of course, numerous brothers are participating in varsity spring sports. A fair sampling of these would include Brothers Lehman, Olson, Welch, DeHaven, Keating, and Cotterman (who recently won three first places in a triangular track meet).

The spring intramural sports are off to a strong start. At this writing both the volleyball and softball teams are undefeated. A high light of the spring season has been the fire-balling of pitcher Terry Ross.

The chapter received one other award which most fraternities would cherish but which was to us rather a disappointment. In the annual interfraternity songfest the chapter won second place for the sixth consecutive year. We don't think second is ever good enough and we'll try to change that next year.

In addition, we seem to be developing a more pleasant new tradition. For the past two years now the chapter has won the trophy for best Greek Week display. This should make a pleasant complement to our traditional monopoly of the fall homecoming decoration award.

We're all looking forward to the new "Shelter" which will be built next year. We all love the old one, but we remember that in fraternity life as well as mathematics Delta always stands for change.

JESSE SELL

Oklahoma—Delta Alpha

After completing a very successful fall semester, we at Delta Alpha are striving to complete this school year with our finest record yet.

Scholastically, Delta Alpha placed second on campus for the fall semester, barely below the No. 1 spot. We hope to do even better this semester and capture the No. 1 position for the entire year. Brother Bernie Hulme has been awarded the Cabot Carbon Company's scholarship for being the top-ranking engineering student here at the University.

Always active in the intramural sports

ARTIE PALK, BILL HOLLISTER and Randy Franklin winning first place in their weight divisions. Both A and B softball teams are undefeated in league play thus far. Sophomore varsity trackman, Brother Richard Sinclair, is one of OU's top prospects in the 100- and 220-yard dashes. Brothers Bill Cochran and Jerry Sealy are now engaged in varsity baseball.

program, we at Delta Alpha are trying hard to capture the trophy this year. Recent events include placing second in boxing, with Brothers Don Sherwood and Randy Franklin winning first place in their weight divisions. Both A and B softball teams are undefeated in league play thus far. Sophomore varsity trackman, Brother Richard Sinclair, is one of OU's top prospects in the 100- and 220-yard dashes. Brothers Bill Cochran and Jerry Sealy are now engaged in varsity baseball.

Our biggest house party of the year, the Delt Dive, was held in March. The theme this year was the "Deep Dive," and decorations throughout the house carried out the deep sea theme. Costumes included various sea characters, beachcombers, and mermaids. Needless to say, it was a great success! We are planning a party at a nearby lake in May, where skiing, swimming, and beach parties will be enjoyed by all.

Delta Alpha Deltas have always engaged in activities here on campus and this year is no exception. Five brothers were named BMOCs recently. The top three student organizations on campus are headed by Deltas: Brother Jerry Tubb is president of the IFC and also president of the Big Eight IFC, Brother Buzz McDaniel is president of the Union activities board, and Brother Jed Johnson is president of the student senate. Six brothers are student senators. Brother Jed Johnson is chairman of the general assembly of the campuswide model United Nations, and Brother Gene Arnn is chairman of the security council. Two Deltas hold positions on the general staff of Air Force ROTC and one is on the Army ROTC staff.

The entire chapter is practicing hard for the annual University sing which is held on Mother's Day. We are very proud of our record in this event, having won it 16 out of 21 times.

We at Delta Alpha are proud of our chapter and Fraternity. We hope our accomplishments will continue and all our goals will be reached in the future.

BOB RAY

Oklahoma State—Delta Chi

With the opening of the spring semester, Delta Chi Chapter wishes to congratulate its new officers for the 1960 school year. They are: Marvin Kline, president; Kip Moore, vice-president; Charles Phillips, treasurer; Ed Heald, recording secretary; Richard Hollis, guide; Larry Blackledge, interfraternity council; and John Werner, sergeant at arms. With this slate of officers, we are planning to go far in the coming year.

The first event of the semester was the initiation of ten new brothers into the fraternity. Eighty-five per cent of the pledge class made eligible grades, which was the highest initiation percentage on campus. The pledge class average of 2.66 was second highest among the fraternities on campus. Brothers Bill Lee and Richard Brand made over a 3.5 and are now eligible for Phi Eta Sigma, honorary freshman fraternity. With their initiation into this fraternity, Delta Chi will have four active members in this organization. Brother Ted Dittman received a $50 scholarship award, along with the outstanding pledge trophy. Delta Chi Chapter has raised its scholarship average to fifth on campus and is hoping for the coveted interfraternity scholarship improvement trophy.

Among other Deltas on campus, Kendall Johnson has just been initiated into Pi Tau Sigma, honorary mechanical engineering fraternity, and is eligible for Sigma Tau, national honorary engineering fraternity. Brother Richard Hollis received a $1,200 Texaco scholarship at the annual Engineering awards banquet. Richard is also the vice-president of the Lariats, a new men's scholastic service fraternity, just established on the campus.

In the field of intramural athletics, the purple and gold teams of Delta Tau Delta won the league championships for the second year in a row in basketball and volleyball. With returning all-College pitcher, Warren Bennett, the Delt softball team has won its first two games; and we are again favored to take the league championship. In the finals, we are hoping to better our all-College third position of last year.

Delt Vernon Haddox is O.S.U.'s No. 1 low hurdler on the varsity track team and is the anchor man on the championship 880-relay team.

In on-campus activities, Distinguished Military Student Ed Heald has just been promoted to cadet lieutenant colonel. Ed is also associate editor of the Oklahoma State Engineer. Brother Gary Brown has just been promoted to lay-out editor of this same magazine.

The big news of the spring semester is the Delt annual orchid formal. With the orchids being flown in directly from Hawaii, the men of Delta Tau Delta will select their queen for the coming year. The candidates are: Sarah Coley, Pi Beta Phi; Nancy Green, Kappa Alpha Theta; and Karen Ludwig, Chi Omega. The spring social calendar will be rounded off with a "Bundle" party and a "River Bottom" party. The Deltas plan to finish the semester with the all-campus spring serenade.

KENDALL JOHNSON

Oregon—Gamma Rho

Gamma Rho Chapter started off the spring season with the usual frivolities. When the neighboring Tri-Delts attempted to steal the trophies out of the Delt den, they were apprehended and punished adequately. All in fun, the Tri-Delt pledges were able to get the brothers just as wet as themselves in the following water fight.

During winter term, the Deltas picked their new Delt queen. The queen selections start early in the term with nominations from sororities and women's dorms. The candidates are brought up to the Shelter twice before eliminations begin. In the first eliminations twelve semifinalists were chosen. After the dinner with the twelve semifinalists, the five members of the court were chosen by ballot. The results were not known until announced over the air that same night.

The crowning of the queen came the evening of our winter term house dance, "Midwinter Night's Dream." The Delt choice was Karen Lindquist. She is a sophomore in liberal arts and is affiliated with Delta Gamma Sorority.

Karen was escorted to the dance by Bill Doolittle, social chairman, and was crowned and presented with flowers by Chapter President Dan Murphy. The other members of the court were Denise Cypcar, Kathy Streuver, Sue Burke, and Linda Beardsley.

Warren Rucker is leaving his office as business manager of the Oregon Daily Emerald, University of Oregon's daily campus paper. It may be pointed out that Oregon's school publication is the only self-sustained campus paper on the west coast. Warren also took a second place in the "Ugly Man" contest. The contest was sponsored by World University Service and the Deltas raised $310 in four days.

Brent Smith has been spending a considerable amount of time on Greater Oregon. Greater Oregon is a program with the intention of finding and convincing promising high school students to come to Oregon.

Ed Winter, Gerry Bertrand, and Bernie Fipp were the organizers of the Delt's "Friday at Four." This function is a talent show put on by different organizations on campus in the Student Union. Ed Winter's singing was so popular that he was called back a few weeks later.

On the junior week activities, Richard Tetley is the production chairman of the Canoe Fete. This job entails co-ordinating floats, music, staging, and script. Don Evans is in charge of the floats. This year the fete should be one of the best the campus has ever had. Rich is also the first-element leader on the University of Oregon Air Force drill team. The drill team is looking forward to a championship season.

John Beer is trying out for one of the "Yell Dukes" on Oregon's rally squad. John is known as the little man with a lot of spirit.

Ed Winter is also starring in the current University Theater production "Brand." Ed is playing the lead role of Brand.

Don Evans has gone out for varsity football quarterback this spring practice. Don has had college quarterbacking experience at Humboldt State College, where he played on a winning team in his freshman year. Don hopes to be seeing a lot of action behind the Duck line next fall.

Gerry Bertrand is playing varsity baseball this season, as catcher for the Webfoots. Gerry played brilliant ball last year at Louis and Clark College.

This year Sophomore Tony Johnson showed promise on the varsity swimming team by taking a sixth place in the Northern Division swimming meet here in Eugene. Tony also got three second places and one third place in regular competition.

Even though Freshman Spike Brownell was not able to swim the entire season, because of injuries in his leg, he was able to win a fourth in one meet.

President Dan Murphy has gone out for varsity golf. His first round this year was a two-under-par in non-competition.

Gary Detherage and Huck Chase made the frosh tennis team and are expecting a rewarding season.

John Beer, freshman, and recording secretary for Gamma Rho, gave a beautiful display of skiing this year. John took a first and a fourth in the slalom at Santiam Pass, Hoodoo Bowl Ski Area, in two different races. John also participated in the intercollegiate winter carnival at Mt. Hood, where he took fourth place in the downhill and ninth in the slalom. These were both unclassified events, including all Oregon colleges.

Gary Parks coached Springfield High School to a winning season on the student teaching program. Gary has wrestled on Oregon's team for the last three years.

Louis Turk was awarded a trophy for outstanding rifleman on Oregon's rifle team. This is the second year in a row he has won this honor.

John Parker was presented with an Oregon blanket, an honor usually bestowed on third-year lettermen. John, a junior in wrestling, was paralyzed very similarly to Roy Campanella in a wrestling match injury at the beginning of the year.

LOUIS TURK

Oregon State—Delta Lambda

The Delta Lambda Delts recently installed an outstanding group of eleven new chapter officers for the coming year. Ken Durant is the newly-elected president. Other officers include Gale Schluter, vice-president; Dave Hitchcock, manager; Jerry Anderson, treasurer; Denny Ellison, assistant treasurer; Dick Groves, recording secretary; Jack Dortch and Steve McCue, social chairmen; Jim Woodcock and Don Wrenn, rush chairmen; Fred Warnock, scholarship chairman; and John Turner, intramural chairman.

The main event on the Oregon State campus during spring term is the election of student body and class officers. When the primary results were tabulated and the two top candidates for each position chosen, five Delts were selected as finalists for major political posts. Jim Grinnell has a good chance of gaining the office of student body treasurer. Scott McKean is heavily favored to win the election for senior class treasurer. Mike O'Mara is a strong candidate for sophomore class sergeant at arms. Three Delts are finalists for important senatorial positions. Ed Schroeder drew the largest number of votes for engineering senator in the primaries. Tom Schooley is the outstanding candidate for senator from the school of business and technology, and Lou Parmenter's bid for pharmacy senator is uncontested.

The chapter grades for winter term showed a good improvement and four Delts made honor roll grades of 3.50 or better according to Scholarship Chairman Fred Warnock. The top students were Nick Goyak, Doug Coughenower, Al Palmer, and Larry Cushing. Goyak had a straight-A average, except for one B, which gave him an outstanding G.P.A. of 3.82.

Jim Woodcock and Don Wrenn have the chapter rush program rolling in high gear. The college preview week end for visiting high school seniors held last term was a complete success, since we had over 30 prospects staying in the Shelter. The chapter has another senior week end planned for May 6-7, and several rush functions will be held this summer. New pledges include Ted Coman, Jim Dolan, and Mark Rostvold.

Several Delts are competing in varsity sports this spring. Marv Tyler is throwing the javelin for the varsity track team. Larry Bissonnette and Billy Wold are on the baseball team. Bissonnette is a third baseman and Wold plays left field. The Delts are represented on the golf team by Bill Aubry and Fred Warnock. Aubry recently played in the Western Intercollegiate golf tournament at Santa Cruz, California. Pledge Tony Mohr is doing a good job on the freshman crew.

Near the end of winter term the Delt intramural crew team won the crew trophy for the third consecutive year by winning the championship race by over two boat lengths. Members of the crew team are Lynn Cannon, Jack Dolan, Steve Kummert, Ken Durant, and Steve McCue. Intramural prospects for spring term are also quite promising. The track team, under Jack Faia's leadership, looks exceptionally strong with Doug Thompson and Faia in the sprints, Scott McKean and Wade Harrison in the middle distances, John Turner and Ron Kalina in the weights, and Cliff Worley and Mike O'Mara in the high jump. Jerry Anderson is working with the softball team and is looking forward to a good year. Jim Chapman and John Kramer will make a strong bid for the golf championship.

Chairman Jack Dolan has initiation scheduled for May 22.

PHIL SHULTZ

Pennsylvania—Omega

At the annual Founders Day Banquet, undergraduate and graduate members of Omega Chapter honored a faculty member and two undergraduates for their scholarship and service to the University of Pennsylvania. In addition to a framed parchment scroll, both undergraduates received stipends of $25, presented by the Philadelphia Alumni Chapter.

The chapter honored Dr. Froelich G. Rainey, director of the University Museum, and professor of archaeology. Brother Rainey is one of two representatives of the United States who will direct the evacuation of archaeological treasures for the United Nations, with regard to the Aswan Dam project. An undergraduate award was presented to Bernard E. Berlinger for outstanding service to the University. Barney was captain of the 1959 Ivy League championship football team, gaining all-Ivy honors for the second consecutive year. He is cocaptain of the track team, vice-president of the senior class, Pharisee of Sphinx, senior honor society, and recipient of the Class of 1915 Award for service to the University. The chapter further honored Vincent A. Colianni for outstanding scholarship. Vincent had accumulated the highest cumulative average in the chapter during four years. He is a member of the pre-law honor society and the English honor society.

In further activities on campus, Harry Bruder and Mike Krug were elected into Mask and Wig Club, joining Bob Holt, Larry Turns, Pete Reed, and the newly elected undergraduate chairman of the club, Ted Irvine. "Bunky" McPherson and Wil Derby were recently elected into the Kite and Key Society; Wil in turn being elected president of this group. Larry Turns is the newly elected president of the Christian Association, while Peter Schantz has been chosen as next year's wrestling captain. Doug McKay is holding down center field on the red and blue baseball team, while John Daubman is a varsity defenseman for the Quaker lacrosse team. Tony Palms, Al Doering, Tim String, and Dave Robinson are seeking berths on the Penn varsity crew.

With the return of Skimmer Day to the U. of P. spring social season, the annual spring formal and pledge party, plus a few get-togethers at the seashore, Social Chairman Pete Eustratiades will keep Omega Chapter hopping on the late spring week ends.

CONRAD DESANTIS

Penn State—Tau

The "Tau" Delts look back on a socially, scholastically, and athletically outstanding year. Under the able direction of the new officers, Dave Mooney, president; Gene Raiford, vice-president; Dick Whittaker, treasurer; and Jim Thompson and Jim Abbey, the recording and corresponding secretaries, respectively, the brothers and pledges turned April 29 and 30 into a most memorable spring week end. With help from the Theta's, a 30-foot whale was constructed for the float parade, our theme was Pinnocchio, and the Carnival brought us profits for the first time.

In varsity sports, a number of men in the chapter have demonstrated their exceptional ability. Dave Erwin, Dick Bullock, and Skip Berents have been noted by the campus publication, The Daily Collegian, as lacrosse stars. This proved to be a well-founded statement when Brother Bullock was chosen captain of the Lion squad. Earl Kohlhaas leaves soon for Montreal to play professional football. Howie Farrer, one of the finest soccer players in the East, plans to return to the Shelter next fall. He will join Gene Raiford and Jim Geisel, as they attempt to turn in another successful season.

In intramurals, the chapter did rather well. In basketball, Dave Mooney, Ken Ebert, George Campbell, Red Whittaker, and Marty Lane led the team to the respectable showing of second place out of 56 houses on campus. Our high-scoring sub was Skip Reeder and Dick Babcock was especially helpful in securing an oxygen tank for the final game.

Dellie Krieser and his "Ivy Rocks" look forward to a summer of rock-and-roll at Bay Shores in Ocean City. He and his group are well known and in great demand at Penn State.

Brothers Dave Espenshade, Bob Dockety, and Charlie Richardson leave shortly for their respective Naval assignments. Brother Espenshade was selected for flight duty and will be stationed at Pensacola, Florida.

As we look back on the year of achievement we feel a certain pride, in ourselves and of Delta Tau Delta. We will miss the graduating seniors: Brothers Espenshade, Lane, Kent, Reeder, Dockety, Richardson, Kreiser, Geisler, Schimmel, Bridge, Kohlhaas, Bullock, and Campbell, but we feel confident in our ability to carry on the precedent before us.

JAMES ABBEY

Recent initiates at Tau Chapter.

Purdue—Gamma Lambda

The spring semester at Purdue has been a difficult one, but Gamma Lambda's members have worked hard to maintain the good record carried over from last fall. Our scholastic index for the first term was comfortably above the All Men's and All Fraternity Averages, and one of our seniors, Tom Thomas, finished his second semester in a row with a perfect grade report.

After electing a slate of new chapter officers, headed by President Jon Reynolds, Vice-President Dominic Fatta, and Treasurer Tom Kaminski, Gamma Lambda undertook to complete its rush program, pledging a class of 14 freshmen at the end of the fraternity rush period in February. To finish the familiar cycle, the six veteran pledges were initiated during ceremonies held March 12. We were fortunate in having the editor of THE RAINBOW, Edwin Hughes, as guest speaker at the banquet following initiation. The spirit of the new initiates was evident a week later when Purdue won the chapter stunt trophy at the annual State Founders Day celebration, held for the five Delt chapters in Indiana.

Our new social chairman, Bob Harrington, has worked hard to keep the chapter life interesting and relax the tiring school grind. A typical example occurred when he volunteered Delta Tau's help to the Chi Omega pledges on the occasion of their walkout. At 2:30 Saturday morning all the brothers with cars were pulled out of bed to drive the girls to their sorority house from the residence halls. The pledges also met at the house after classes that morning and had lunch here before leaving campus in a chartered bus. Along the same line, we had trade parties with Kappa Kappa Gamma and Alpha Chi Omega sororities, and during sorority rush our songleader, John Dzien, arranged for us to serenade Alpha Pi Delta and Phi Mu.

Gamma Lambda has been active in both intramural and varsity athletics. We are high in the interfraternity athletic standings and are working towards the trophy awarded to the fraternity with the highest number of intramural competition points. The chapter's vice-president, Dominic Fatta, was the outstanding member of the Purdue wrestling team this year. Named captain of the team early in the season, Dom went undefeated for the team's full season and placed fourth in the Big Ten and national wrestling tournaments. Also a letterwinner on the wrestling team was Sophomore Chip Rose, who participated in four meets during the season. Both Fatta and Rose will be returning next year to continue their present success. Delta Tau Delta is well represented on the tennis team by Jack Buckman, Bob Berg, and Dick Berg. The Berg twins were rewarded for their fine work on the team by being selected for membership in the Gimlet Club, a fraternity honorary for distinguished men in the junior and senior classes. Sophomore Rich Bell earned the unique position on the varsity cheerleading staff of portraying "Purdue Pete," the traditional symbol of the Purdue Boilermaker. The second Delt in three years to hold this job, he will be present in full Boilermaker regalia at all football games in the fall.

Many of the brothers have been chosen for campus honoraries and awards this spring. Junior Dave Fleming was pledged into Scabbard and Blade, a military honorary for advanced ROTC students, and John Dzien, Jack Thomas, Dick Gapen, and Ed Strickler were pledged into Skull and Crescent, an honorary for sophomore fraternity men prominent in campus activities. Darrell James was selected for Sigma Gamma Epsilon, a metallurgy and geology honorary, and Jack Stauffer was pledged into Omega Chi Epsilon, a chemical engineering honorary. Tom Thomas was voted senior of the year in the school of forestry, and Gil Churchill and Dick Moll, past chapter president and treasurer, were cited for their fine scholastic averages and campus activities by Purdue's engineering school magazine.

The roster of men leading the various campus organizations for the coming year contains many Delts. Bill Walker and Jay Verneuil both hold jobs in the interfraternity council; Bill is outgoing editor of the IFC newspaper, The Purdue Greek, and is assuming the new position of senior executive. Jay is the new editor of the Greek and is the third Delt in a row to hold this position. The job of scholarship chairman in the IFC is being taken over by another Delt, Ed Strickler. The staff of the Exponent, Purdue's student newspaper, lists three more men from Gamma Lambda. Jack Thomas and Dick Gapen both hold positions as night editors and Dick Antle is junior photography editor. Finally, George Williamson is personnel director of the office of student services workshop.

Gamma Lambda has the opportunity and the ability to carry on its present leadership, and is looking forward to another year of fraternal and campus activities.

DOUG ROBY

Sam Houston—Epsilon Zeta

As the spring semester closes at Sam Houston, Epsilon Zeta looks back with satisfaction on the months since January 9, its installation date.

For the second year in a row the intramural basketball team took first-place honors. They have gone unbeaten for 22 consecutive games.

Chapter officers for 1960 are: president, Jerry Rutledge; vice-president, Jim Carey; treasurer, Tom Grant; corresponding secretary, Joel Barnard; and recording secretary, David Bratz.

The local chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, took three of the Sam Houston Delts into the chapter this semester. They are Joel Barnard, Phil Warner, and Alan Gage.

Western Week, one of the largest social events of the spring semester, saw the Delts in top shape as usual. This chapter, along with the local chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha, ran a dunking stool during the week with great success and many laughs. The operation also proved quite profitable financially.

At the annual Western Week talent show, the Delts captured third place over 13 entries. Like the dunking machine, this was entered with the Sam termen in basketball, football, and baseball. Fortunately, all these men have great coaching ability and are invaluable in intramurals. They helped coach us in the fraternity bowl, a football game played in the fall between Delts and the ATO's. It is a regulation game with uniforms, college officials and college time. Proceeds go to the Sam Houston student council. At present, intramural baseball play is in full swing and the Delts are right on top.

Varsity athletes are: Tommy Paterson, Dan Ray Hooks, Jerry Franklin, Tommy Leatherwood, and Guinn Hugh Murray.

The Epsilon Zeta Shelter is presently having a bit of remodeling done to the living and dining rooms. Everyone is anxious to get the job finished, for if it turns out as expected, we will have the nicest on the campus.

Brother Terry Carlton holds the position of cadet commander of the Sam Houston corps of cadets this year. Joe "Butch" MacKenzie was selected "Zeta Beau" for 1960. MacKenzie was given an engraved lighter with the Delt Crest on it.

For the past two years the Sam Houston Delts have won the Marlboro contest, sponsored by the Philip Morris Co. So far we have won a 21-inch television set, a portable stereo record player, and an Eastman movie camera and projector. The highest number of Marlboro boxes turned in by the chapter has been 25,000. This semester the prize will be a Zenith console stereophonic record player.

Jerry Rutledge, president, and David Bratz, recording secretary, have been chosen to represent Epsilon Zeta at the Karnea this summer. They are looking forward to the event and hope to bring back many new ideas for the coming year.

Plans are presently being made for a chapter publication, which will probably be published in the late spring or early summer. The name will be E Z LIVIN'. Beginning in the fall it will be published quarterly in newspaper form.

Ending Western Week, the Sam Houston Rodeo Club sponsors a two-day rodeo. Entries are limited to students and organizations at Sam Houston.

The Delts entered the wild cow saddling contest and was the only team to saddle their cow and ride it across the finish line at the first show. The time was four minutes and five seconds. At the last show the team failed to do as good as the day before. They didn't get any time at all; however, the time in the first day's show was good enough for a second place.

The first semester as a chapter of Delta Tau Delta was indeed a great one. We worked hard, learned much, and had many good times. We of Epsilon Zeta are confident that each succeeding year will be even better!

Sewanee—Beta Theta

Beta Theta started the second semester of the 1959-60 school year with the initiation of eight pledges on February 7, 1960. The same meeting was the occasion of the installation of the new officers by Chapter Adviser Bishop Frank A. Juhan. Officers for 1960 are: Sam Swann, president; Gilbert Green, vice-president; Thomas Byrne, treasurer; Park Ticer, recording secretary; Dan McNut, corresponding secretary; Charles Kiblinger, guide; and George Freeman, sergeant at arms.

Following the initiation and installation, all of Beta Theta enjoyed the annual Rainbow banquet, with the newly initiated actives as the honored guests. Special guests included Chapter Advisor Bishop Frank A. Juhan and Mrs. Juhan, Dr. George B. Myers, former chapter adviser, and Mrs. Myers; and local alumnus, Mr. Eric Cheape and Mrs. Cheape. The banquet was a great success.

Midwinter's week end, from February 19 to 21, was one of the most enjoyable the chapter has sponsored recently. The climax of the week end was a spaghetti dinner with all the trimmings, served at the Shelter to all Delts and their dates and guests. The atmosphere was appropriately Italian, and following the highly successful meal, everyone enjoyed a colorful "Beatnik" dance. The festivities ended with a continental breakfast in the early morning hours.

Our intramural softball team is one of the best we've had in several semesters, and the number of wins promises a good season. Delt players were also quite successful in the badminton tournament, and we were quite proud of the work and accomplishments of the Fraternity basketball team this year. Brother Gordon Peyton, our expert marksman, has been made captain of the rifle team of the University's Air Force-R.O.T.C. detachment.

The chapter is very proud of two of its senior brothers, Charles A. Powell and William Craig, who were elected to Phi Beta Kappa, and initiated in March. Brother Powell was also the recipient of a Woodrow Wilson scholarship.

Spring week end at Sewanee has always been a big occasion for Beta Theta. This year's week end, from May 5 to 8, features a concert by famous jazz artist, Louis Armstrong. Beta Theta starts the four-day celebration with an "Old German Cheese Feast," followed by a dance in an appropriate beer garden atmosphere, and finished off with the traditional continental breakfast Saturday, May 7, will be the big day for Delts. That afternoon the Shelter will be the scene of a party in the best mood of spring. This is followed by a banquet for all the brothers, guests, and alumni; and then all will enjoy the annual Rainbow Ball. Everyone surviving to the end will be treated to another continental breakfast. The week end will conclude with Sewanee's customary "tomato juice gathering" Sunday morning after church.

As this semester ends, Beta Theta looks back with pride on a year of success and considerable advance. A number of second-semester pledges will make next year's chapter even larger, and plans are now underway for improvement and expansion of the chapter's house facilities. Socially, athletically, and scholastically, Delta Tau Delta at Sewanee has enthusiastically participated in all phases of campus life. The accomplishments of this year promise even greater growth and progress in 1960-'61.

ALLEN SATTERFIELD

South Dakota—Delta Gamma

We at Delta Gamma have just completed a very successful and happy winter and with the coming of spring things are looking even better. Our winter was climaxed with a first place in the annual campus vaudeville show, Strollers. We entered with the Chi Omega's, and our act was a satire on Macbeth. First prize was $150 and two trophies.

The long-awaited moment of initiation finally came for 15 of our pledges. The rites were followed by a banquet given in honor of the new initiates.

In the March elections for campus government, Delt Bob Daughters was elected student body president. A few other Delts elected to offices on campus this year have been Milt Schwartz, captain of Scabbard and Blade and president of History Club; Marc Rhodes, president of Hippocrates Club; Dan German, president of Political Science League; Buzz Posz, secretary-treasurer of the interfraternity council; and Doug Leafstedt, secretary-treasurer of Phi Eta Sigma, men's freshman honor society.

Our annual Sweetheart Ball, held February 20, was a wonderful success. Pat Callan, Chi Omega, was officially crowned as our sweetheart and representative for the year.

In the field of intramural sports, Delta Gamma is looking forward to a very successful spring season. Our softball team has done well for itself so far this season and we have some great possibilities for competition in the track meet which is yet to be held. We are ahead at the present in the intramural debate tournament and also have great possibilities in golf and tennis competition.

Under the direction of Tom Taylor and Larry Gunner, we pledged five of the top men on campus, which raised our second-semester pledge class to a total of eleven men. Our five new pledges are Steve Arnold, Tom Looby, Bob Brown, Quenten Norman, and Tom Rosenbaum. With Tom Taylor as our rush chairman, we have a strong summer rush program planned.

Scholarship has not fallen off in the middle of this work. We have raised ourselves to second place and are now working hard for first place.

But there is still a great deal of work to be done before summer arrives. On the week end of the 23rd we have our Founders Day planned. This will include an informal gathering, an outside barbecue, and a speech by Mr. E. Broder-son, an alumnus who lives in Nebraska. The week end following Founders Day is the week end of our annual spring formal, which will be held at the Isaac Walton Club in Sioux Falls, and the week end following that is, of course, Mother's Day and the interfraternity sing, which we are now practicing hard for.

We at Delta Gamma are very proud of our new chapter adviser, Mr. Vern Cadwell. He is a real swell guy and already has done a tremendous job in helping the chapter and every individual in it. We are looking forward to many years of brotherhood with Vern, a great chapter adviser and a true Delt.

Stanford—Beta Rho

Beta Rho started off this spring quarter by pledging 21 new members to the chapter. The rushing parties with which these freshmen were enticed ranged from the annually devastating "Forty-Niner Western" to a pandemonium inspiring "Teenage Stomp," featuring Sylvester Grisby and his mombo band.

Athletically, the Stanford ruggers were honored this quarter with a trip to New York, where they competed with Dartmouth in a nationally televised "Sports Spectacular." The Delts that made the trip included Sidney Garber, Armond Jaques, Rod Sears, Kirk Reed, Gary Pike, John Clark, and John Brandin.

Brothers who will participate in other varsity sports this spring are Distance Runner John Northway; putter of the shot, Jerry Winters; and nationally prominent swimmer, Paul Hait. Our intramural effort this quarter is to be composed of our baseball, volleyball, and bowling teams. All three of these teams are hoping to win trophies again this year.

Scholastically, the chapter has been complimented by the election and initiation of Craig Bushman into Tau Beta Phi, engineering honorary fraternity. There have been a number of Delts accepted for Stanford's branches in Germany, France, and Italy. Among these are Walt Kirsh, Mike Omen, and Bob McKenzie.

The chapter has recently elected new officers. Heading this list is Bob Harrison, our new president; Joseph MacAnerny, vice-president; rush chairman, Tom Walsh; and our new fun monitor, Marcus Sisk.

We are now in the process of preparing for this year's spring sing effort. Tom Glover, who last year coached us to the sweepstakes, will undoubtedly make another all-out attempt at it this year.

Another event in which the chapter always participates in the spring is the Santa Cruz surfing festival. This year's Delt contenders will be last year's champion, Steve Rinard, and Stan Lewis.

Concluding the quarter's activities will be the spring overnight party at Lake

Tahoe, which will be followed shortly by finals and the end of another school year.

BOB MCKENZIE

Stevens—Rho

With the change of weather Rho Chapter is coming to the close of the most successful year it has experienced in decades.

Reviewing this past year's athletic activities, Rho placed second in the league in softball, was co-champion in football, took top honors in basketball (with a team that has been undefeated in three years), nipped the squash trophy in a thrilling championship playoff, and placed No. 1 in ping-pong. We are currently in third place in bowling. On the varsity scene, letters will be received by Delts in all Stevens sports.

This year, at our annual IFC spring sports formal, Rho will be certain to receive six trophies of the nine to be awarded; football, basketball, squash, ping-pong, all-athletic (this will be the tenth time in the last 11 years we have taken this one), and the coveted activities trophy. Bowling competition has not been completed but our chances are excellent. The annual sing trophy will be presented to the best quartet at the formal. Rho will be fighting for this one.

This year Rho Chapter experienced one of its most rewarding rush seasons in history. After being deprived of the last three days of closed rushing for a rushing violation of which we were not guilty, we pledged 28 top flight men into the fold. Congratulations are in order for our rush chairman, John Stamm, for the outstanding job he did.

Rho has also done well in class leadership with officers in the classes of '61 and '63, and an alternate officer of the class of '62, as well as leading position in the clubs and activities of the Institute.

And so we near the close of another year. With graduation not very far off, 18 Rho seniors are preparing to receive their well-deserved sheepskins and invade industry with their dynamic personalities and vaulting ambitions. We need not wish them well for we know they will succeed in anything they attempt. Delts have a way of doing that.

ROBERT SINATRA

Tennessee—Delta Delta

When the Tennessee Delts came back from vacation last fall, they were determined to work hard and make Delta Delta one of the best fraternities on the Tennessee campus. And the Delts have done just that!

With an intensified rush program, led by Rush Chairmen Charles Hoskins and Jerre Haskew, the Delts have increased their membership by about 200 per cent. We have now taken our place among the Greek groups in campus extracurricular activities. In politics, Brother Charles Hoskins ran for vice-president of the junior class. Bill Spielmann, the chapter's political representative, was also very active in campus politics, serving as vice-president of the U.T. interfraternity conference. He represented the University at the southeastern IFC convention. Bill is also serving as cochairman of the "Carnicus" publicity committee.

Playing an important part in the life of any fraternity man is his social life, and Tennessee Delts had about the best around. The social calendar was full of parties, teas, and dances.

To start things off, we had a hayride following the Georgia Tech football game. The halloween party was another success of the past year. A "showboat" party was one of the more rousing parties of the winter quarter, as was the annual "Greek" party which once again proved to be tremendously successful.

One of the more successful teas this year was that held for Kappa Delta Sorority. The pledges gained some experience in party planning last winter when they threw a party in honor of their sweetheart, Alice Young, Alpha Xi Delta. But the really big social event of the year was the annual Rainbow Ball, held on April 23, at which the Delta queen was presented.

The Delts were tops among the Greeks as far as scholarship was concerned. The actives placed third in ratings of last fall, while the pledges were second.

The chapter held its own in the school intramural program. We participated successfully in tennis, bowling, basketball, and softball, to mention a few. Brothers Harry Tunison and Bill Spielmann helped the bowling team take second place. The basketball team, led by Brothers Dick Jones, Charles Hoskins, and Jerre Haskew, also made a good showing.

In spite of our successes of last year, we are looking forward to an even more successful next year. New pledges who should be of tremendous value next fall are: Fred McMurray, Bill Roark, Ronnie Helms, Gene Watkins, Matt Harmon, Wendell Howard, Bill Hoskins, John Garrett, Jackie Rhymes, Sam Fields, Wayne Morrison, Dave Kirby, and Max Cooper.

To insure a successful year, the chapter has elected new officers. The outgoing officers who played such a big part in the Delta Delta rebuilding program are: President Jerre Haskew, Vice-President Joe Kerigan, Corresponding Secretary Boyce Simpson, Recording Secretary Bill Spielmann, and Treasurer Fred Gentry. Replacing them are new officers: Chris Clements, president; Joe Kerigan, vice-president; Harry Tunison, treasurer; Bill Helton, corresponding secretary; Fred Gentry, recording secretary; Jerre Haskew, assistant treasurer; and Bob Boyd,

Texas Christian—Epsilon Beta

Rounding out its fifth year on the TCU campus, Epsilon Beta Chapter of Delta Tau Delta can look back on a rewarding year of service and social activities.

Sports played an important part in this year's chapter life with the annual Delt invitational basketball tournament drawing a field of 24 teams from all over Texas and as far away as Kansas. Winning the intramural football championship again this year, with a 7-0 record, the Delts have retained their perfect undefeated record for the last five years. With softball under way, the Delts are out to win, thus regaining the intramural trophy lost last year.

Repeating last year's performance, the Delts won first place in the annual Greek review with an excerpt from "Mr. Roberts." Twelve fraternities and sororities were entered in the review, with all the proceeds being donated to the Campus Chest charity. The Delts racked up another trophy by sweeping all events in Greek Week, an all-fraternity, sorority participation event, climaxed by a chariot race on Saturday, which was a "run away" for Epsilon Beta.

The social year was completed by the spring formal, but by far the most successful of the season was "Suppressed Desire" party held late in March. Guests were asked to come as the person they would most like to be. As a result we were honored with the presence of "Davy Crockett" and "Fidel Castro." An old car was purchased and two sledge hammers were provided. The car became the object of pent-up tensions and by eleven o'clock the car was a wreck and nerves were eased. The Delt "Bowery Ball" and a "Jungle" party also sparked the campus' year.

For their service activities, the Delts hold various holiday parties for the orphans and the less fortunate of the area, giving the members an opportunity to perform a useful service for the community and enrich their own fraternity life. To go to one of these parties, it is hard to tell who is enjoying the party the most, the orphans or the Delts.

Epsilon Beta recently elected officers for the coming year. They included Gary Hamrick, president; Alfred Heizer, vice-president; Wayne Brown, recording secretary, and Bill Lewis, corresponding secretary.

The Delts had a big year in rush, filling their quota in formal and open spring rush with a total of 22 men being pledged, bringing the chapter up to full strength.

Looking at the fine pledge class and the large anticipated initiation, the Delts are looking forward to an even better year in the fall.

JOHN TILLINGHAST

Tufts—Beta Mu

Spring finals return to bring a great semester to a dull halt. The semester was given an initial surge with the frenzy of rush week, its South Sea Island party, and the climax when 21 boys were pledged.

Not forgetting the IFC dance, the pledge party, and many others, the high light of the social semester was the combined pledge formal and spring week end held in Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

Successful in a more subdued vein, the Parent's Day held in April, gave many of the freshmen's parents their first chance to see the house and meet the brothers.

The final statistics for the Trophy of Trophies are not in, but after winning both IF and all-college volleyball and sweeping the swim meet, at which Nordic Bruce Anderson set IF records in the 50 and 100 with John Dowling second in both races, the Delts' chances look good. Robbie Oscar took a first in the 25 and the relay team also set a meet record. It must be noted, however, that the meet could not have been won in such spectacular fashion had it not been for Brother Dave Troy's exhibition on the diving board. Not to be outdone, Dave also set a record; however, it seems that the fellow with the most points is chosen winner—pity. The deciding factor for the trophy will be softball, and the Delts have won all their games so far. The only other event remaining is the relay carnival and high hopes are placed on the team of O'Brien, Jeffries, Nichols, and Wozmak, who should put on quite a show in the two-mile relay.

Captain of the chapter sleeping team, John Hervey, is sporting a broken ankle which he claims was broken while fielding a high, hard, liner; but rumor has it that he rolled out of bed during a 14 hour marathon snore.

Again returning to that facet of college life to which all else is subordinated, academics, three brothers have received honors. Tom O'Brien and Gene Mayer have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa and Mike Covell to Tau Beta.

To be sure, the senior class is, in most cases, graduating; but the Delts cannot help but expect an even better coming year.

VAN FOSTER

Tulane—Beta Xi

Beta Xi Delts approach the end of their 72nd year at Tulane able to look back on a year full of fine achievements and memorable experiences.

This year scholarship skyrocketed at Beta Xi. We not only topped all Men's average, but were among the top three fraternities on campus. We initiated 63 per cent of our pledges, fourth highest percentage among Tulane's 16 fraternities.

The Delts have not been idle in campus politics this year. Charles North was elected president of his class in architecture school, while Al Derbes won the vice-presidency of his class in engineering school. Brothers Mickey Michel, Jimmy Robinson, and Hutson Finke dominate Greenbackers, the major spirit group on campus.

Beta Xi, long famous for its fabulous parties, showed that this year was no exception. The "Delt Orgy," Beta Xi's version of the traditional toga party, highlighted this second semester. This party was decorated with loads of Spanish moss at first, and later by crushed grapes, as the brothers decided to turn the living room into a vineyard.

Later in the semester, the Delts played host at a Sunday afternoon reception to about 40 young ladies who are to be rush girls for the chapter during next year's rush week.

The semester was climaxed by our own Delt formal, the "Fiji Flop." This South Sea island party was highlighted by the appearance of all the brothers in white ties and grass skirts.

Throughout the year, the parties had been sparked by the Deltones, Beta Xi's rock 'n' roll combo, led by Neal Schafer. So it was no surprise to us when they won top honors in a campuswide talent show.

Beta Xi's Mothers Club has been doing a terrific job on behalf of the chapter this year. They have sponsored various events, including a spaghetti dinner which was a huge success, as well as several book reviews for wives and mothers of alumni.

Under the leadership of the new slate of officers: Bob Clark, president; Al Derbes, vice-president; Ray Salassi, recording secretary; Hutson Finke, corresponding secretary; and Kirk Webster, rush-chairman, Beta Xi Chapter has already begun to lay plans for an even more eventful year, beginning with rush week next September.

We of Beta Xi extend a hearty invitation to all Delts everywhere to visit us whenever you are in New Orleans.

HUTSON FINKE

U.C.L.A.—Delta Iota

Under the capable guidance of President Phil Thompson, the Delts are well on their way to making 1960 the best year ever. As the spring came upon us, hearts were gladdened and goblets filled to commemorate the return of the great white whale, Rod Fagerholm, back from a nine-month tour of the world that was financed by quick thinking and speed afoot.

Coming off the fall semester in first place in intramural competition, the Delts are determined not to relinquish their lead. Thus far in the spring we have captured the all-U volleyball championship, and appear a cinch for the softball crown. If predictions hold true in track, swimming, and the minor sports, we should have no trouble taking over-all honors. Seeing action on the varsity level recently have been rugby players, Kenny Gunn, who captained the team, Ron Johnson, and Pete Fielding. Also, Frank Eppler stood out on the frosh swimming team.

Socially, the Delts have advanced far in their quest for the annual championship. Tri-weekly parties thus far have included the Pajamarino, initiation dance, and the "Los Delts" hoodlum party. Weekly gatherings around our newly-acquired stereo set provide further opportunity to turn our thoughts to those of guess what. The traditional over-nighter with the Mother's Club has been canceled this year to allow full attention to our annual bashout, the infamous Barbary Coast. Catalina Island will be the scene of the destruction, and barring the loss of any self-styled channel swimmers, this party should again prove to be the year's most successful.

Last, but not least, is our scholastic record which continues to be amazing, but at the same time continues to improve—it has to.

U.S.C.—Delta Pi

With Easter vacation just finished, Delta Pi is preparing for the spring social fling which will include our annual spring formal, the Delt-Theta luau, and the Mardi Gras. With an eye toward prospective rushees, Delta Pi has elected Randy Hall as its new rush chairman. Under his capable guidance, our spring rushing will, as usual, put us in an advantageous position next fall.

This semester a number of the brothers have distinguished themselves on campus. Eight members of the chapter are on the U.S.C. crew. Bob Hillman, Mike McLellan and "Bulldog" Kelley were key members of S.C.'s rugby team. Denny Devine, Lance Larson, and Mike Wilke are members of the S.C. swimming team that recently captured the NCAA championships. Mike Gingrich, vice-president of the chapter and one of our leading men scholastically, was initiated into Theta Kappa Nu, honorary electrical engineering fraternity. Bart Porter, another scholastic leader, is not only in charge of S.C.'s songfest, but is becoming known as one of the key men behind U.S.C. campus politics.

Bob Hillman, song chairman, has led the Delt-Pi Phi entry through preliminary judging for U.S.C. songfest. We are presently considered one of the leading contenders in this event, which will take place in May. We are currently in third place in IFC athletic competition, but with track coming up we are counting on Steve Depatie and Dave Bryan to lead us into first place. In the near future we are planning a volleyball tournament with the Santa Barbara Delt Chapter.

Thus far, this has been a very successful semester at Delta Pi and we are sure there is more to come.

BOB KILPATRICK

Beta Psi's trophy-winning basketball team.

Wabash—Beta Psi

With spring finally upon us, the men of Beta Psi Chapter and the 13 newly initiated brothers, are looking back on the past successful months with a contented feeling and into the next few months with high expectation.

Capturing the spot light in March was the Beta Psi performance at the 1960 Indiana Delt Founders Day. In the afternoon basketball tournament, we walked off with first place, and later that night the Beta Psi sweetheart, Miss Kathy Goe, was chosen as the 1960 Indiana Delta Queen. Because of the scarcity of queen candidates on the Wabash campus, Miss Goe was imported from Wisconsin University.

As the basketball and wrestling squads put their equipment in moth balls, six new varsity letters entered the Delt Shelter. Receiving letters for basketball were Junior Charlie West, Sophomores Jim Johnson and Bob Templin, and Freshman Bill Wilson. The Delt Freshmen dominated the freshman basketball team with three of them playing first string. Receiving freshman numerals were Bill Dickerson, Glenn Pride, and Lee Nickerson. Leading Wabash to a third place in the Little State wrestling tournament were three Delts, including last year's letterman and cocaptain, Al Witt. Freshmen John Doherty and Steve Jay received their letters this year, finishing second and third, respectively, in their weights at the tournament.

At present the Delt varsity athletes are concentrating on spring sports and again are placing men in every sport. Already picking up points for the Wabash track team are freshman hurdler, Glenn Pride, and field men, John Strickland and Hank Rogers.

A two year letterman, Wayne Cobb, is again holding down a position on the team. Two freshmen, Lee Nickerson and John Dicks, are carrying the Delt name on the diamond, and Tom McGee and Warren Ford are holding down positions on the golf squad, along with Senior Don Good. Past Delt president and three-year letterman, John Johnson, is carrying his share of the responsibility of the young and inexperienced tennis team, which has only two lettermen back this year. Other Delts bidding for positions on the team are Dave Rose, President Austin Brooks, Terry Anderson, and Steve Jay.

The Delts are finally edging their way toward the top in intramurals, after floundering around in sixth position for the first part of the season. This is the lowest we have been in five years and for the last two years, we have carried away first two times and second the other. Last month we knocked off the indoor track trophy and ended up the basketball season in fourth place. Brothers Good and Jack McHenry were chosen to the IM all-star basketball team. Presently, the softball squad is preparing for action and things look bright for the team this year.

As usual, the Delts have their share of campus leaders and activities men. Vice-President Tim Conlon was appointed managing editor of the Bachelor, the school newspaper. Junior Lee Andreas is holding down the mail circulation manager's job for the second semester. Freshman Ned Shorter and Junior Cobb are on the news and sports staff, respectively. The yearbook is busy getting ready for spring publication and on the staff are Delts Rose, as business manager, Rusty

Beta Psi's victorious State Day Queen, KATHY GOE, and escort.

Duvall, as sports editor, and Andreas, as sports writer.

Sophomore Jim Johnson was elected to the IFC as the Delt representative. Bill Kilgore was elected to occupy the Delt seat on the Senior Council.

The Delt senior class is in the spot light now, as graduation approaches, and the class members receive various honors and awards. Of the seven seniors, six are going on to graduate school. Three will find themselves in medical school next year; Johnson at Stanford, Bob Winter at Duke, and Goode at Indiana. Bob Kryter received an Atomic Energy Commission fellowship for graduate study at any one of 48 institutions.

The social scene reached its peak last month when we converted our Shelter into an authentic oriental home with a Japanese garden, fountain and the works, and staged our 1960 initiation dance in honor of the 13 new initiates. The festivities began with an oriental meal in typical style and fashion. Most of the credit for the construction and decorations goes to the cosocial chairmen, Denny Greathouse and Bob Latham, and special technical engineer, John Hodges. Honored at the dance were Nickerson and Ford, voted best pledge and best scholar, respectively, of the 1959-'60 pledge class. At present, the social committee is making plans for the annual Pan Hellenic dance, known in these parts as the biggest "blast" of the year. Also, in the social spot light for the near future will be a jazz concert, the Mother's Day sing and an exchange with the DePauw Kappas.

LEE ANDREAS

Washington—Gamma Mu

This has been an outstanding year for Gamma Mu. The year was highlighted with the election of Wally Tweden as student body first vice-president. But the Delt rise in campus activities didn't stop there. Shortly after Wally's victory, it was announced that Bill Morse, a Gamma Mu initiate, had been selected for the University yell staff. The spring quarter was yet early. Since then Fred Putney has been elected treasurer of Scabbard and Blade, the national ROTC honorary, and Lee Noorda, vice-president of Compass and Chart, a Navy ROTC honorary. Rounding out the year of "Delts on campus," the combined efforts of Thetas and Delt, for the second consecutive year, have won the trophy for the annual University of Washington songfest.

On the spring sports scene, Carl Olson swings a big bat for the University of Washington nine. Dave Kinley is rowing first boat for the crew. Larry Turnbull and Dave Kingsbury are kicking up the cinders for the track team. In swimming, another promising first-year man, John Webster, is training for the national swimming competition.

In interhouse activities, the new slate of officers has been selected. Wally Tweden (a big year for him) was elected president; Dave Kinley, vice-president; and Bob Bailey, recording secretary. These three are juniors. Among the sophomores, Pete McCallum is the new corresponding secretary; Jerry Lee, guide; and Dennis Key, sergeant at arms. Jim Moore has been selected as the incoming rush chairman. We are confident Jim can continue the success attained by last year's chairman, Dave Kinley.

Twenty-three pledges have met the requirements and are now neophytes in the active chapter. Of this year's maximum of 38 pledges, Gamma Mu still has a total of 33 first-year men, and we hope to initiate the remaining pledges early fall quarter.

With Vice-President Bob Gilley heading the speaker list, the Founders Day Banquet was a great success. During the course of the evening, John Engstrom and Lee Noorda received the pledge scholarship trophies, and Bill Morse was announced as outstanding pledge.

The night following the Founders Day Banquet found all Delt, attired in stately fashion and present at the spring formal.

The predictable future shows the Delt with an excellent chance of winning the intramural baseball championship. With Dave Cortelyou pitching, and most of last year's squad returning, a good season is assured.

And with the house party and Steak-Mush Dinner yet in the offing, this year could mark a big step upward for Gamma Mu.

PETE MCCALLUM

Wesleyan—Gamma Zeta

Continuing to achieve athletic, academic, and extracurricular honors, the Gamma Zeta Delt maintain their position of prominence on the Wesleyan campus.

First to be mentioned is Jan Hogen-dorn, who just received a Fulbright scholarship to study West African labor problems at the London School of Economics. Jan, who is retiring college body secretary-treasurer, is one of the top debaters in the country. He was first speaker at the MIT Eastern States tournament and eighth at the Pittsburgh National Invitational tournament. Jan is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Al Williams, in addition to maintaining his 90-plus average, was elected captain of the wrestling team for the second year in a row. Al was New England champ at 137-lbs., after placing second in that weight class his sophomore year. Al is also cochairman of the CB curriculum committee, a pivotal position now that the academic organization of the college is changing.

Once again the house dominates the student newspaper, the Argus. George McKenzie is managing editor, Bruce Butler, sports managing editor, Jim Schroeder, circulation manager, and John Harvey, photography editor. John Huss, Frank Dotti, and Dean Schooler represents the Delt on the radio station, WESU.

In the freshmen senate, Bill Grossman is parliamentarian and on the publicity committee, while Lew Whitney is chairman of the publicity committee. Dave Linton, Alex Aikman, and Bill Roberts also hold down positions on the publicity, finance, and social committees, respectively.

In addition to Al Williams, Brian Lloyd, and Ron Loose were wrestling letterwinners while John Lutton received his swimming "W." This spring, Andy Schrader and Bill McGowen are performing for the track team, major-league prospect, Tom Buchovich, is playing second base on the baseball team, and George McKenzie is playing lacrosse.

The chapter is also pleased to announce the election of the following officers: Fred Scherrer, president; Andy Schrader, vice-president; Bill Haffner, treasurer; Keith McBride, steward; Bruce Butler, corresponding secretary; Bill Everett, recording secretary; Keith Willis, assistant treasurer; Don Valentine, assistant steward; and Jim Schroeder and Bruce Butler, senators.

Academically, the chapter achieved the distinctive honor of producing a Dean's List average of 83.5 per cent for the first semester.

However, the chapter is not forgetting its social obligations and several parties are planned for this spring. The high light will be spring house parties, featuring a science-fiction party in addition to the traditional "Dirty River Day" Festivities.

Looks like it's been another good year for the Wes Delts!

GEORGE MCKENZIE

Western Reserve—Zeta

This year, on February 20, Zeta Chapter held initiation for eleven new members. The initiation was culminated by a party welcoming the new initiates as brothers.

Western Reserve University's Greek Week was held from April 3 to 11. As usual, the crowning point was the show, this year Babes in Troyland put on each night during the week. Three members of Zeta Chapter, Al Robinson, Nick Schrock, and Dick Porter were in the cast, and other members participating were Rex Hyre, stage manager; Bob Boerner, assistant stage manager; Bob Weiss, assistant business manager; and Ed Crum and Ed Hummel, who worked on the stage crew. Jim Chatterton took part by playing the drums in the orchestra. Another event coming soon is Singout, involving all house and quartet competition among the respective fraternities. Brother Pat Walsh is in charge of organizing this year's Singout for the IFC, and Zeta is already preparing for it.

We have managed to maintain our lead in intramural competition. The "A" league basketball team remained undefeated and went on to win the University championship by defeating the faculty. The "B" team came through in fine style by winning its division championship. More indicative of the support given intramurals by everyone is the fact that we have won the badminton championship for the third straight year and are making a good showing in handball, with a chance to win although the competition is not yet over. This year the Zeta Chapter basketball and volleyball teams represented Western Reserve at the P.A.C. intramural tournament. Gary Deonise also fenced for Reserve.

Zeta has managed to keep up its scholarship and record in campus affairs. Five of the brothers were taken into Phi-Society, freshman scholastic honorary. They were: Bob Weiss and Tom Reichert, who were also selected among the top ten in the freshman class, Bob Boerner, Jerry Ault, and Jerry Lane. Brother Ault was also selected student council representative from the Student Union, and with spring elections drawing near, Brother Jim Chatterton has been nominated for president of the sophomore class and Rich Morgan to occupy a student senate seat.

Westminster—Delta Omicron

On February 28, the Westminster Delts initiated 16 fine new men. Attending this ceremony were several prominent alumni and the banquet following was enjoyed by all. Bill Wallace received the outstanding scholarship award and Jack Higgins was awarded the best pledge plaque.

Under an accelerated social program,

Delta Omicron has had two fine parties this past month. Taking advantage of the late snows, we participated in a combination skating and sledding get-together at one of the nearby resort areas. A zoo party was also held, sponsored by the sophomores. A barn was the scene and the apple cider and music kept even the hay fever victims in good spirits.

The Delt basketball squad had another fine season, as it placed second in intramural competition. Along with good showings in handball and bowling, we retained second place in the race for the athletic supremacy trophy. As of now, our volleyball team is undefeated and with experienced spikers averaging 6' 5" we should go all the way.

However, Delta Omicron is not lacking in varsity participation. Dave Wright was named all-conference in basketball for the third consecutive year, the track team is aided by the return of Bill Dodson and Bruce Jones, Bill Bennett, Jerry Powell, and Lyman Bishop anchor the baseballers, Lyle Breeding, tennis captain, leads the former conference champs in their bid for another title.

The next few months promise to be busy ones here at Westminster as the sample week end of April 22-23 finds us in St. Louis for our Founders Day Banquet on Friday, while Saturday we return home for the annual pig roast. Despite this crowded schedule we look forward to the spring season and hope that it will be as successful for us as the last two.

West Virginia—Gamma Delta

Gamma Delta launched its second semester social season with a "Shipwreck" party. A toast to Phil Lang and his committee for a job well done. Plans are being made for a "Dogpatch" party, a "Gunsmoke" party, and our annual spring formal, to be held later in the semester. We are also looking forward to Greater West Virginia week end in May, at which time we are going to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the founding of our chapter.

In recent chapter elections, Joe Johnson was elected president and John Lukens, retiring sophomore class president, was elected chapter vice-president. In University elections, Emil Johnson and Frank Schneider won student legislature seats.

We are now proudly displaying our newly remodeled recreation room. Dave Rowe and Mike Hull displayed a hidden talent for carpentry as they put up the paneling. A project now under way is the construction of a paved basketball court and general improvement of the back yard. Jan and Joel Dykes and John Thackston are the chief engineers of this project.

In addition to our parties, the chapter made campus headlines scholastically. Of the 19 fraternities, Gamma Delta Chapter ranked second. We are now striving to gain first position for the year. Our first-semester pledge class captured top scholastic honors.

Gamma Delta workers relax after remodeling rec room.

Gamma Delta "Shipwreck" party launched.

Nineteen new Delts were initiated in February. Mr. Sam Boyd, chapter adviser, was the speaker at the initiation banquet. A second-semester rush program paid off with ten outstanding new pledges.

Judy Coyne, Gamma Delta's candidate, was selected as yearbook queen by the Kingston Trio. Bruce Meredith, Dave Rowe, and Glen Hunt are pledges in Fi Batar Cappar, mock honorary. Joe Watson was initiated into Sphinx, senior men's honorary.

We are well on our way to completing one of our most prosperous and outstanding years. We are looking forward to continuing our campus leadership into the next school year.

Whitman—Delta Rho

As the academic year of 1959-1960 draws to a close, Delta Rho Chapter looks back on a very successful year of campus activity. The big news from Delta Rho comes after a hard campaign that ended as Brother Kirk Prindle was elected president of the Associated Students of Whitman College. As in the past, the politically active Delts have proved their worth. This victory is the result of a year of hard work and intensive campaigning by all members of Delta Rho.

Scholastically, the Delts turned in a fine record with the election of Brothers Jack Thomas and Melvin Davidson to Phi Beta Kappa. This is the culmination of a long record of scholastic achievement and recognition for both.

The Delts showed their originality in social functions. An all-day dinner-dance at a dude ranch, with riding and swimming, took the place of the usual formal dinner-dance. Other interesting functions, such as "High School Oo Oo," featuring old rock and roll records, spiced up the Whitman social atmosphere.

As for sports, Whitman Delts made their traditionally fine showing by winning the IM volleyball championship and doing well in swimming and football, as well as other sporting events.

As in the past, Delta Rho is again looking forward to next year for continued success.

Wisconsin—Beta Gamma

Once again, Beta Gamma is overflowing with activity in the spring semester. This year the Delts and DG's are paired for campus carnival. Elaborate plans have been made for a participating booth called "Shoot the Bull," and Brother John Eddy is directing the efforts of both houses toward the big event on May 7. Another area of concentration is Tournament of Song. The group is being organized and directed by Brother Jerry Best and many practice hours are being spent in preparation for some stiff competition. Early in the semester, Brother John Emlen organized a Delt double quartet, to be the center for the Tournament group and for our sorority serenades. The double quartet has worked out so well that they're singing for Friday nite suppers too.

The social schedule, thanks to Social Chairman Chuck Repsner, is bursting with theme parties. Among the most prominent social events were the Dixie Bash, held with the Theta Delta Chi's, and the spring formal, which was based on a Hawaiian theme. We featured authentic leis, in place of corsages, and two Hawaiian dancers. The big party of the semester was the newly instituted Roman Party. Brothers Bruce Rohloff and Jerry Best combined initiative with lots of hard work and planning to come up with one of the smash successes of the social season. The 30-foot dining-room table was dismantled and the top put on the Persian rug in the living room. The table was loaded with food whole loaves of bread, slabs of meat and cheese, bunches of grapes, and pounds of other fruit, and the "nectar of the gods" was brought to the table in pitchers. Togas, sandals, and sheets were the dress for the evening and Romans and their goddesses reclined on cushions around the table. Entertainment was provided by an "exotic" dancer and some "beatnik Roman" who gave a speech: "Friends, Romans, actives—I come to bury Rushee, not to praise him!" It was just like the good old days!

A constructive initiation week was again very beneficial. The main project, under the direction of Brother Joe Pokorney, was the construction of three new steel sections for our pier. Along this line, Brother Rohloff directed a campaign for two sailboats for our water sports enthusiasts. At the end of the week, Beta Gamma proudly initiated 17 fine men.

LOYALTY FUND LIFE MEMBERS

Since the establishment January 1, 1926, of Delta Tau Delta's Loyalty Fund, its endowment fund, 22,444 men have become Loyalty Fund Life Members. Four hundred thirty-eight have been added to this group from January 28, 1960, to April 15, 1960.

Notes signed at the time of initiation have been paid in full by the following, who are now Loyalty Fund Life Members:

tivity are the rise in the chapter's grade point (now 16th out of 32 and much above the All Men's Average, with the pledge class 11th on campus) and the speaker program organized by Brother

Fritz Hasler. After dinner lecturers at the Shelter have included Professor Thatcher of the economics department, whose topic was the construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway, Professor John T. Emlen (Brother Emlen's father) of the zoology department, who spoke on his trip to Africa, Milt Bruhn, Badger football coach, and Professor Harry M. Schuck, of the commerce department, who spoke on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. All lectures were accompanied by excellent films and the program has been met with great enthusiasm.

With the coming of warm weather our athletic program, under Athletic Chairman Lynn Lee, has taken a sharp turn for the better. After two games our softball team is basking in the glories of a 7-1 win over AEPi and an unprecedented 35-1 thumping of the Phi Gams. Our tennis and golf teams look strong, as does our track team, which will compete in the new interfraternity track meet.

Senior Matt Iverson's long list of honors now includes his election to Phi Beta Kappa. Matt, who will go to law school next fall, is graduating with a 3.62 overall, has served as vice-president of the student body this year and has been nominated for the senior of the year award. Mart Gharritty, Badger cager, will round out the year by playing varsity golf.

Through a very thorough informal rush carried through the semester by Rush Chairman Bill Schaars, we have reached and pledged some top men. All but three of the men bid this semester have pledged Delt. We appreciate the efforts of our alumni who have helped us a great deal with their recommends and we hope that you will continue to send us the names of men you consider prospective Delts.

The Delta Creed

- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta for the education of youth and the inspiration of maturity, so that I may better learn and live the truth.
- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta as a shrine of international brotherhood: her cornerstone friendship, her foundation conscience, her columns aspiration, her girders self-restraint, her doorway opportunity, her windows understanding, her buttresses loyalty, her strength the Everlasting Arms.
- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta as an abiding influence to help me do my work, fulfill my obligations, maintain my self-respect, and bring about that happy life wherein I may more truly love my fellow men, serve my country, and obey my God.
