Practical Contributions of Fraternities¹ to Colleges²

1. A prime objective of fraternities is to improve the scholastic ability and performance of members, resulting in a much higher degree of persistence toward graduation than nonfraternity students³ and steadily increasing grades.⁴

2. Fraternities with their ideals, IFCs and alumni advisers develop responsibility for student self government and save disciplinary costs for the colleges.

3. They create a home away from home atmosphere, which is difficult for the college to create and actually is not its purpose. They effectively teach good manners toward required standards of conduct.

4. They stimulate healthful intramural programs by supplying the participants and the competitive spirit.

5. They put campus charity drives and programs over the top and are important factors in promoting campus cultural events.

6. By providing substantial capital for housing they release capital of the college for other purposes.

7. They contribute substantial local taxes, relieving the pressure on the tax free college to help pay for local and campus public services.

8. They are substantial contributors to the local economy through their purchases of food and supplies, and home maintenance and hiring of full and part time workers.

9. Graduate fraternity members give more generously to college funds and supply a larger proportion of volunteer workers in raising them.

10. Fraternity members constitute the majority of most college boards of trustees (except in some state institutions where they are politically designated).

The Queen City Karnea

By EDWIN H. HUGHES, III, DePauw, '43

"THE LEGISLATIVE POWER of the Fraternity shall be vested in the Karnea."

"The ranking member of the Arch Chapter present at any Karnea shall act as its temporary chairman."

"The Karnea shall meet biennially, and each Karnea shall recommend to the Arch Chapter the time and place of the next session."

Any Delt would know that the foregoing statements in connection with a Karnea are factual. Any Delt who has ever been privileged to attend a Karnea would know that such statements only begin to tell the full story. No constitutional provision can foretell the enthusiasm, the excitement, and the inspiration that have become established as traditional and inherent parts of all Karneas.

The Fraternity's Sixty-seventh Karnea met at the Netherland Hilton Hotel in Cincinnati, Ohio on August 25 through August 29, 1964. The assembled delegates legislated, the ranking member of the Arch Chapter served as temporary chairman, and the time and place of the next Karnea was recommended to the Arch Chapter, all in accordance with the Constitution. The Karnea story is, of course, how all of this was done and who took part in doing it.

Cincinnati proved to be an ideal choice as the place to meet. If the August weather in Ohio might have been a little more hot and humid than many of us might prefer, the air-conditioned comfort of the Netherland Hilton served to make us unaware of such conditions.

The foyer of the Hotel's Hall of Mirrors served as the place for the official registration desk. By Tuesday evening a goodly number of Delts had passed from desk to desk presenting credentials, filling out registration forms, receiving official identification badges, and, finally, paying their fees and costs at the end of the line to the traditional and official cashier, the Reverend Grover C. McElyea, Ohio Wesleyan, '48. The large bulletin board soon started to fill with names of the registrants, grouped by chapter, for the convenience of those wanting to check the arrival of friends, classmates, and old acquaintances.

There was no planned activity for Tuesday night, but many informal reunions and activities were found evident throughout the hotel and at nearby restaurants.

The first formal session of the Karnea was opened on Wednesday morning with President John W. Nichols, Oklahoma, '36, serving as temporary chairman. Reverend "Tex" McElyea changed from his cowboy boots and pronounced the invocation. President Nichols appointed Field Secretary Jack McClenney, Florida, '50, as secretary, and Paul W. Marshall, Cincinnati, '64 (a man very much in evidence throughout the entire Karnea, not only because of his physical size but due to the great size of his contributions), as sergeant-at-arms. The Karnea was officially on the way.

Dr. Glen Yankee, Illinois, '39, chairman of the Credentials Committee, reported that there were properly accredited delegates present from 70 undergraduate chapters and 14 alumni chapters. The number of properly accredited delegates continued to increase throughout the morning and early afternoon until there were 86 undergraduate and 21 alumni chapters represented.

Carl C. Gill, Westminster, '65, and Bert M. Wilhoite, DePauw, '65, were the first undergraduates to get their names entered in the official minutes when Carl moved that the temporary officers be made the premanent officers and Bert seconded the motion. Appointments to the various standing committees were announced by Chairman Nichols. Introductions of Arch Chapter members, field secretaries, former Presidents, and various distinguished guests were made. Ronald J. Rockwell, Jr., Cincinnati, '60, General Chairman of the Karnea, welcomed the delegates and announced details of some of the forthcoming events and activities. Thus the preliminaries were completed and the delegates and officers were ready for the work at hand.

President Nichols presented his report to the Karnea. The report illustrated the healthy condition of the Fraternity, as President Nichols recounted the accomplishments and progress of the past two years, and forecasted the plans and aims for the future. At the conclusion of the report the assembled delegates gave the President a standing ovation.

throughout the morning and afternoon, members of the various standing committees met together during intermissions and luncheon breaks for the purpose of completing their assigned tasks. Signs and posters became noticeable around the registration area and in the meeting hall as advocates of New York City, Denver, and Portland began campaigns designed to have their respective locations selected as the site of the 1966 Karnea.

Another Karnea attraction was the splendid seminar on scholarship presented on Wednesday afternoon by Supervisor of Scholarship Frederick D. Kershner, Jr., Butler, '37, and a fine panel comprised of Stephen A. Powers, Michigan State, '66, and William C. McGrew, III, Oklahoma, '66.

All of the available time at a Karnea is not allocated to work and business sessions. An example of other activity was furnished Wednesday evening as the sounds of an authentic German band welcomed Delts and their ladies to the Pavillon Caprice for the "Over the Rhine" reception. In addition to dancing, this event afforded an opportunity for singing Delt songs during band intermissions.

Late hours and little sleep often present a problem to some of the delegates, insofar as prompt attendance at the next morning's business session is concerned. However, the Thursday morning session was called to order at 9:14 with very few of the delegates not present. One reason for good representation was the promise of an informative and interesting seminar on Public Relations. Chairman Norman MacLeod, Pittsburgh, '17, former President of the Fraternity, and a panel consisting of Northern Division President Joseph D. Boyd, DePauw, '48; Ward L. Quaal, Michigan, '41; and former Eastern Division President William P. Raines, Pittsburgh, '48, more than fulfilled all that had been expected of them. These men, all experts in the field of public relations, focused attention on the many practical ways available to improve the public relations of our undergraduate chapters. Participation in the discussions on the part of the delegates was gratifying.

At one place or another on the agenda of every Karnea is found a provision for promoting sectional pride. We are referring to the traditional Division luncheons. Karnea Chairman Rockwell arranged for such luncheons to be held on Thursday noon. Upon adjournment of the morning business sessions the delegates divided into geographical groups with the Southern Division walking in one direction, the Northern Division in another, and members of the Eastern and Western Divisions seeking paths in yet other directions. These meetings were held on a rather informal basis with the respective Division Presidents presiding to such extent as the occasion dictated.

The fourth business session, taking place Thursday afternoon, featured a pledge training seminar most capably moderated by former Northern Division President Edwin L. Heminger, Ohio Wesleyan, '48; Edward Malinzak, Western Reserve, '65, and T. Ronald Casper, Lehigh, '65. This session adjourned at an earlier hour than usual to permit Delts and their dates to get to the river front in time to board the chartered "paddle steamer" for the trip up the Ohio River to Coney Island amusement park. The weatherman was completely cooperative as was the boat's skipper. The latter returned the boat to the wharf from midstream to pick up several who arrived too late for the original launching. Coney Island, a truly beautiful amusement park, was exciting and fun. A fried chicken picnic supper was delicious. While waiting for the after-dinner dancing to commence, many of the Delts tested the rides and concessions of the park. Even some of the Karnea Hounds—Delts who have attended five or more Karneas—were detected riding the giant roller coaster. After an evening of delightful dancing at Moonlight Gardens, the steamer was again boarded for the return trip down the river to Cincinnati. Some expressed the opinion that the return, in the moonlight, was even more enjoyable than the afternoon trip up river.

Friday morning's business session was begun with the seminar for chapter advisers, with Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark, Texas, '22, as chairman of the panel. Those serving with Judge Clark were four chapter advisers, one from each of the four divisions. Edwin H. Hughes, III, DePauw, '43, chapter adviser at Beta Beta; Robert W. Kroening, Westminster, '45, adviser to Delta Omicron; Carlisle Myers, Kentucky,

'43, adviser to Delta Epsilon; and Joel W. Reynolds, Tufts, '23, adviser to Beta Mu and a former President of the Fraternity, were the four chosen for the panel. Originally intended solely as a workshop for advisers, it was expanded for presentation to the entire Karnea. It is hoped that some of the thoughts and ideas presented will be useful not only to other chapter advisers but as a stimulus to interest other Delts in serving as advisers in the future. This seminar was tape recorded by WLW, Cincinnati, for possible future use and evaluation.

The Awards Luncheon took place Friday noon. Robert A. Hardt, Nebraska, '23, retired president of Armour Pharmaceutical Co., the featured speaker, presented an inspiring address. At the conclusion of the luncheon the delegates assembled for the sixth business session. The entire afternoon session was devoted to discussion of the Fraternity's membership qualifications. Many delegates took the opportunity to present their views and to suggest ways to strengthen the membership in the future. No conclusive action was taken and it was voted to continue the discussion at the Saturday morning session.

enth Karnea's model initiation. The honor initiate was Jerry M. Trimble. Members of the initiation team were Daniel L. Earley, George S. Huffman, Paul R. Kuntz, Jeffrey H. Moore, Dwight J. Zeman, Clyde C. Waddell, Jr., J. Stephen Hardy, Richard W. Holmes, David L. Argabright, and James W. Duning. Chapter Adviser James R. Hyde delivered the charge. The entire initiation was well performed and served as both a model and a challenge for the delegates to take back to their chapters.

Impromptu and informal chapter reunions took place at scattered spots throughout the hotel on Friday evening. In addition to good fellowship and fun, some political discussion and planning took place aimed at Saturday's final business sessions.

The work of the Karnea moves inevitably onward, day by day, toward the climactic actions of the final day's sessions. Delegates were in their chairs promptly on Saturday morning, ready to take concluding action on the matters placed before them. The first item of business was a resolution on membership qualifications and selection presented by former President of the Fraternity Charles T. Boyd, North Carolina, '21. Mr. Boyd's resolution was adopted by vote of the Karnea. Albert J. Murphy, Jr., Penn State, '38, gave an address entitled "Delta Tau Delta—the Opportunity for Creativeness." Final reports of standing committees were presented and adopted.

At the beginning of the afternoon, and final, business session, more committee reports were presented and accepted. A seminar on "Hell Week—A Substitute" was conducted by a panel consisting of Paul W. Marshall, Cincinnati, '64, chairman; Daniel J. Reschly, Iowa State, '66; and William B. Johnson, Oklahoma State, '66. The Committee on Time and Place, by its chairman, Carlisle Myers recommended Denver as the site of the Sixty-eighth Karnea. Donald G. Kress, Lafayette, '58, president of the New York Alumni Chapter, spoke on behalf of New York City. C. Scott Kayser, Ohio State, '63, extolled the virtues of Denver. Gordon A. Walter,

The final act before adjournment was the election of new officers. Former President Norman MacLeod presented the report of the Nominations Committee. The report was accepted and the nominees were unanimously elected. Past Treasurer Arnold Berg, Indiana, '32, is the Fraternity's new chief executive. Re-elected Vice-President was Justice Tom C. Clark, Texas, '22. DeWitt Williams, Washington, '29, and Dr. Frederick D. Kershner, Jr., Butler, '37, were re-elected Second Vice-President and Supervisor of Scholarship, respectively. Replacing President Berg as Treasurer is Albert J. Murphy, Jr., Penn State, '38, and taking over as Secretary in place of retiring Robert L. Hartford, Ohio, '36, is William H. Andrews, Jr., North Carolina, '20. The new officers accepted their charges to a standing ovation by the delegates.

J. Stephen Hardy, Cincinnati, '65, led the singing of "Delta Shelter" as the final session of the Sixty-seventh Karnea was adjourned.

Last event on the agenda, the Karnea Banquet, took place on Saturday evening. The dinner was superb, the entertainment excellent, and the address by the Honorable Jackson E. Betts, Kenyon, '26, Congressman, State of Ohio, was inspirational. The Committee of the Distinguished Service Chapter made the following citations to membership: G. Sydney Lenfestey, Florida, '34; W. Dayton McKay, Northwestern, '26; L. Carlos Flohr, Washington, '27; Albert J. Murphy, Jr., Penn State, '38; Robert Heuck, Cincinnati, '13; and James H. Garrison, Cincinnati, '19.

The lights were dimmed. "Delta Shelter" was sung and another great Delta Tau Delta Karnea became a matter of history. Following the banquet Saturday night and continuing on into Sunday, groups of delegates started scattering from Cincinnati to all parts of the country, on the way home to their respective chapters, full of a sense of accomplishment, reaffirmed in the strength and pride in their Fraternity, and already making plans to meet again in Portland in 1966.

The Influence of Delta Tau Delta On Your Future

Address by ROBERT A. HARDT, Nebraska, '23, to the Awards Luncheon, Sixty-seventh Karnea

TODAY WE HAVE a well stratified audience—mature college graduates, recent college graduates, potential college graduates, and their ladies—yet all of us have many things in common. Not the least of these is the broad subject of leadership and more especially the influence fraternity life can have on training for leadership.

All of us, including the very young men in this audience, are fully aware of the influence of both good and bad leadership in our lives as well as in the national and international scene. In our culture we hold leadership to be among the pre-eminent of qualities, but the mental picture which we sometimes carry of a leader is often invested with qualities which are not necessarily those which lead men. For example, a display of arrogance may sometimes be considered an attribute of leadership, but arrogance should not be mistaken for courage; it may be insolence brought about by fear or irresponsibility, but not necessarily by the quiet certainty of courage. Arrogance is a flag of inner uncertainty; insolence is what the weak substitute for courage.

A leader does not force people to follow him; he makes them want to follow. A good comparison can be drawn between Napoleon and Bismarck—people begged to follow Napoleon, Bismarck ordered his people to follow. A leader initiates, guides, conducts, counsels, listens, persuades, importunes, or even cajoles, but yet he controls. An outstanding quality of a leader is usually self-discipline; he must control or discipline himself before he can control or lead others. Another quality is decisiveness. Lack of decisiveness may be a worse fault than the occasional error. Mostly we are judged—or at least should be judged—by our successes, not by our failures.

Unfortunately, in the contemporary scene we frequently have celebrities rather than leaders. These all too frequently set the standard of conduct.

ROBERT HARDT's pickpocket story breaks up NORM MACLEOD.

It is most unfortunate when people endow with hero-worship the vapid acts of celebrities, which are often self-aggrandizing or based on a set of unsound glamour values.

Men do not usually become leaders by reading how-to-do-it books or attending seminars on leadership. Leaders develop themselves in a climate which is not suppressive, such as college fraternity life can provide. To allow development of leadership on the part of an individual, potential leaders working under present ones must be allowed experimental thrusts even though some may be in error. How a man will develop into a leader can be well divined by how he reacts under the strain of an error. He will not be a leader, will not gain stature or respect by blaming his error on subordinates, by side-stepping or otherwise rationalizing errors.

Some years ago, while serving as marketing director of a firm with a sizeable field staff, my associates and I prepared a list of the signs of leadership and another of attributes a follower seeks in a leader. The lists are lengthy but worthy of careful thought.

SIGNS OF LEADERSHIP

1. A low voice and, frequently, slow and thoughtful speech.

2. A neat appearance in moderate style.

3. Rarely in a hurry.

4. Looks you squarely in the eye without staring—this is usually accomplished by looking at the bridge of the nose.

5. Does not show all he feels and thinks.

6. Punctual.

7. Orderly.

8. Accurate.

9. Decent.

10. Laughs only when he means it, and then, under control.

11. Rarely interrupts.

12. Rarely uses the perpendicular pronoun "I."

13. Is not afraid to have others think he doesn't know, when he doesn't.

14. Rarely tells everything he knows.

15. Makes sure you know the difference between his opinion and his facts.

16. Easy to meet and easy to leave.

17. Enjoys a contest of wits and a game of chance.

18. A good loser.

19. Is bored with too much logic.

20. Hard to sweep off his feet.

21. Quickly gets to the point.

22. Never takes himself too seriously.

23. Likes to do what he does through others.

24. Likes people.

25. Has self-assurance.

26. Not inclined to sit still for long.

27. Has a good memory.

28. Has a good-neighbor manner.

WHAT A FOLLOWER SEEKS IN A LEADER

1. He wants to follow a leader who is not afraid—not afraid of his position, not afraid of his own boss, not afraid of a tough job, not afraid of honest mistakes—theirs or his.

2. He wants a leader who believes his work is important.

3. He wants a leader who gets a kick out of his work and helps his followers to get a kick out of theirs.

4. He wants a leader who gets a kick out of seeing a man do what that man thought he would never be able to do.

5. He wants a leader who will fight for him if the leader believes him to be in the right.

6. He wants a leader who will tell him what's what when he knows darn well what is coming to him, and a leader who will do it without losing his temper.

7. He wants a leader who recognizes him as a person, regardless of his experience, school, or training, his religion, race, station in life, or the lodge, union, or fraternity he belongs to.

8. He wants a leader who knows most of the answers but who will admit it if he doesn't know, and get the answer.

9. He wants a leader who is predictable—that is, one he can depend upon to be the same all of the time.

10. He wants a leader he can't put anything over on but who is human enough to look the other way when he occasionally makes an ass of himself.

11. He wants a leader who he knows understands him, to whom he is not afraid to go when he has been a fool, when he's ashamed, or when he's proud and happy.

12. He wants a leader he can get to when he really needs him and can get away from when he is through with him.

13. He wants a leader who can show him how to do a job without showing off or showing him up.

14. He wants a leader who will give him a chance to try something hard he has never done.

15. He wants a leader who will listen to him when he has something to say but remembers an appointment when he drives.

16. He wants a leader who he believes sincerely wants him to succeed and who will be proud of him when he does.

17. He wants a leader who seems to be trying to work himself out of his own job and his boys into it.

18. He wants a leader who respects his pride, never corrects him in the presence of others, or gossips about him.

19. He wants a leader who knows all that's going on first-hand and turns a deaf ear to gossip.

20. He wants a leader who, if he can't be loyal to his company or supervisors, quits rather than work for them and talk about them at the same time.

Now you may have some interest in knowing what it is that I consider college fraternity contributions to leadership training, and more particularly those of Delta Tau Delta and my own chapter, Beta Tau, at the University of Nebraska.

1. Training in some of the social graces.

2. Strangely enough, table manners.

3. Experience and training in identifying oneself with a heterogeneous group.

4. The stimulating and motivating experience of belonging to a group with an objective.

5. The opportunity to observe the good habits and techniques employed by those in the group who are making the best progress scholastically and in campus activities.

6. The privilege of meeting mature alumni who freely passed along helpful information, particularly about self-improvement.

7. I was a student in the College of Pharmacy. It was helpful and broadening for me to meet students in law, medicine, dentistry, business administration, geology, and other fields of endeavor . . . but mostly the living with a group whose goals were similar to my own.

8. Ritualistic meetings and initiations served to build respect for the Fraternity as an institution, and for the officers of the chapter. Some social influences were exerted by constructive Fraternity members which could not, in my opinion, have been possible even for a parent to impose without resentment. This was because the desire to "belong" was even more powerful than the desire to belong to a family group.

I could do no better than to close with a statement we Delts have heard before but which bears frequent repetition:

"Hardly an hour passes in the life of a chapter without its opportunity to fortify the character and spirit of some member who is tempted to do the easy, the foolish, or even the harmful things which would by just so much defeat the purpose which has brought him to college. That is the responsibility which your college has laid upon your shoulders. That is the opportunity which has been given you to exercise an influence for good in the life of your members, and thus in the life of your college."

A HOUSEBILL from Beta Tau Chapter at Nebraska for 19 consecutive years! This incredible record is well on its way to realization for Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tooley, of Columbus, Nebraska. The Tooleys, owners and operators of an extremely popular drugstore, saw Bill, the youngest of the five sons, keep alive a tradition of always having a Tooley in the Delt House at Nebraska, when he pledged Delta Tau Delta this fall. Bob started the Tooley saga in the Beta Tau Chapter with his pledging in 1949, Dick followed in 1952, Mick in 1954, Pat in 1959, and Bill this fall as a member of the Class of 1968. Because of service breaks and additional schooling, at least one of the boys was in school every year since 1949. Anyone like to buy a fraternity house?

Karnea Chooses Arnold Berg as Twenty-Seventh President

Murphy and Andrews Elected to Arch Chapter

ARNOLD BERG

By FRANCIS M. HUGHES
Ohio Wesleyan, '31

THE ELECTION of Arnold Berg, Indiana, '32, at the 1964 Karnea, brings to the presidency of Delta Tau Delta a man intensely devoted to the Fraternity and of proven executive leadership.

The story of Brother Berg's life has been a story of goals and accomplishments. On graduation from high school at the age of 17, Arnie left his home in Minnesota to work in a Chicago bank, and after two years became a production clerk in the mills of Inland Steel Company.

A year later, realizing the value of a college degree, Arnie entered Indiana University. Completing two years at the University, he returned to Inland for a year, and then completed his junior and senior years. In the depths of the depression, he worked his way through college without one penny of outside financial assistance, waiting tables, firing furnaces, carrying newspapers, and working during Christmas, spring and summer vacations.

With three other undergraduates at Indiana, he founded and later became the sole publisher of the Bored Walk, the campus humor magazine.

Having obtained his education by his own efforts, Brother Berg then turned his attention to his life work. Graduating from Indiana University's School of Business Administration in ARNOLD BERG, the twenty-seventh President of Delta Tau Delta.

1932, he entered the life insurance business in Bloomington, Indiana, with the Equitable Life Insurance Company of Iowa.

Arnie, who received the Chartered Life Underwriter designation in 1938, has had successful experience in all phases of agency operation, including personal production and agency development, having served as an agent, district manager, field supervisor, and superintendent of agencies. He has had extensive experience in the development of pension trust business as well as other forms of business life insurance. The first twenty years of his insurance experience were with the Equitable of Iowa. In 1953 he became Vice President and Director of Agencies of the Indianapolis Life Insurance Company, the position which he presently holds.

Brother Berg served with the 81st Infantry Division in the Western Pacific in World War II, and is retired as a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army Reserve.

Arnie has a long record of service on behalf of Beta Alpha Chapter at Indiana University. On graduation, he served for a time as Assistant Dean of Men at Indiana, under the guidance of the late Clarence E. Edmondson, Indiana, '06, known throughout the educational field as the "Dean of Deans." Arnie also served Beta Alpha as chapter adviser for a number of years, and was a director of the Beta Alpha House Corporation until his election as Treasurer of the Fraternity at the Swampscott Karnea in 1960.

No man becomes President of Delta Tau Delta without the consent of his wife. And that consent was readily given by Arnie's charming wife Gertrude, his constant companion at Delta functions, who will serve the Fraternity as a gracious first lady. And the author, himself the son of a President of the Fraternity, knows that Arnie and Gertrude's only son Edward E. Berg, Indiana, '62, is proud of his father's elevation to the leadership of Delta Tau Delta.

Brother Berg, as President of the Fraternity, will give to Delta Tau Delta effective and sustained leadership. It is indeed a tribute to the fraternity system that a man of his ability is willing to devote himself to its aims and ideals.

ALBERT J. MURPHY, JR.

By WILLIAM P. RAINES
Pittsburgh, '48

WHEN THE CINCINNATI KARNEA elected A. J. "Bud" Murphy, Jr., Tau, '38, as the new treasurer of Delta Tau Delta, it called back to the Arch Chapter a Delt whose service to the Fraternity spans more than 25 years.

In 1938, Bud Murphy joined the field staff of the Central Office. In two and a half years as a field secretary, he became thoroughly experienced with the problems as well as the opportunities that challenge fraternity leadership. In 1948, Delta Tau Delta called upon this experience when Bud was named President of the Eastern Division and a member of the Arch Chapter—a position that he filled with distinction.

ALBERT J. MURPHY

In addition to his service to Delta Tau Delta at the national level, Bud Murphy has been president and is now treasurer of Tau Company, the house corporation for Tau Chapter at Penn State University. Not one to limit his efforts to his own chapter, Bud is a former adviser at Delta Beta Chapter at Carnegie Tech. He is also an active member of the Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter of the Fraternity, served as vice-president of the Eastern Division for the Pittsburgh area and was co-chairman of the Centennial Karnea which was held in Pittsburgh in 1958.

Bud Murphy has been associated with Westinghouse Electric Corporation since 1944. He is currently Administrator of Management Training, a position he has held with his company since 1956. Prior to this, he was responsible for the graduate students hired by Westinghouse from colleges and universities around the country.

Bud is the father of two grown children. He is an active churchman, having been clerk of session at his United Presbyterian Church, a member of the church planning committee, superintendent of the Sunday School, and a church school teacher of an adult class. He has been on the board of directors of Boys Clubs of America and formerly was a member of the board of management of the YMCA. Bud's own profession has paid him the honor of election as president of the American Society of Training Directors.

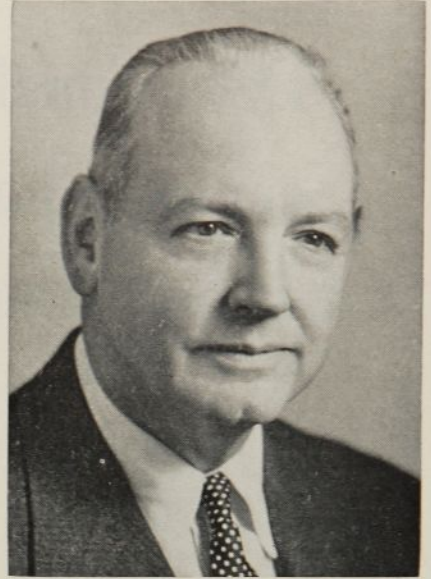

On June 12, 1964, Bud Murphy was cited to membership in the Distinguished Service Chapter of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity. Perhaps the following quotation from the DSC Citation best characterizes the new Treasurer of the Fraternity: "His honesty, his ability, his courage, backed by an unquenchable desire to do the right thing, his dedication to worth-while projects, and his willingness to serve as a member of the team or as a leader, always with a maximum effort, is indelibly written in the history of Delta Tau Delta and in the hearts of all privileged to know him."

WILLIAM H. ANDREWS, JR.

By CHARLES T. BOYD
North Carolina, '21

THE NEW SECRETARY of the Fraternity is William H. Andrews, Jr., North Carolina, '20, of Greensboro, North Carolina. He was elected to this position at the Queen City Karnea held in Cincinnati, Ohio, in the latter part of August, 1964.

Bill Andrews has been an active worker in the Fraternity, and a participant in its affairs, for many years. He was a charter member of Gamma Omega Chapter at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill. He was one of the leaders in this organizational effort and became well acquainted with all members of the chapter in its early days.

WILLIAM H. ANDREWS, JR.

Bill has served the Fraternity in many capacities. He has been vice-president of the Southern Division, has attended many Fraternity meetings throughout the nation, has been especially interested in the formation of new chapters, has served as Phonarch Especial, and is a Karnea Hound and a member of the Distinguished Service Chapter. In all respects he is a worthy and dedicated Delt leader. His spontaneity and enthusiasm are sources of inspiration to all with whom he comes in contact.

Brother Andrews has made his mark in the insurance industry, having been connected with the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company since 1920, in which year he graduated from the University of North Carolina. He has been President of the three most important life insurance organizations, the National Association of Life Underwriters, The American Society of Chartered Life Underwriters, and the Life Underwriters Training Council. In 1962 he received the John Newton Russell Memorial Award, the highest individual honor in the life insurance business. He has recently retired as manager of the Greensboro agency of his company, and will devote himself to individual production.

Bill has also been active in the promotion of sale of United States Savings Bonds, having served in many capacities. He has also been active in local civic, educational and religious enterprises.

Distinguished Service Chapter Citations Presented

THE KARNEA BANQUET at the Netherland Hilton in Cincinnati was the occasion for a presentation of six citations to the Distinguished Service Chapter of Delta Tau Delta. The text of the citations follows:

GEORGE SYDNEY LENFESTEY
DELTA ZETA, '34

Secretary of the Fraternity; President and Vice-President of the Southern Division; President of the Tampa Alumni Chapter; Treasurer, House Manager, and Vice-President of Delta Zeta Chapter; he has maintained an active and dedicated interest in the Fraternity since the hour of his initiation. Trusted friend and adviser of the undergraduate, imbued with the ideals of the Fraternity, willing and energetic in every call to service, he stands in the hearts of his brothers as the personification of the Good Delt.

WILLIAM DAYTON MCKAY
BETA PI, '26

For consistent, devoted service to Delta Tau Delta for more than thirty-five years; generous with his time and his talents in promoting the best interests of his undergraduate chapter at Northwestern University and the National Fraternity. Chapter adviser for many years, member and officer of the Beta Pi House Fund, officer of the Chicago Alumni Chapter, and member of numerous Karnea Committees, having attended more than twelve Karneas, his Fraternity service has never been lacking. His warm friendship marks him as a symbol of faith and confidence and establishes him in the hearts of his Brothers as a dedicated Delt.

LOUIS CARLOS FLOHR
GAMMA MU, '27

Endowed with exceptional enthusiasm for everything fine in Delta Tau Delta, during forty years he has been found in the forefront of many Fraternity projects, whether large or little, always leading or laboring with loyalty to protect and promote its purposes, while still making sacrifices to serve his whole community in civic matters. By his effective endeavors he has distinguished himself as a Good Delt.

ALBERT JAY MURPHY, JR.
TAU, '38

President of Tau Chapter, whose leadership ability brought him appointment as field secretary in which position he served with distinction for three years; Assistant Dean of Men at Carnegie Tech, working for the fraternity system which he so firmly supports; chapter adviser of Delta Beta Chapter at Carnegie Tech; President and Treasurer of Tau house corporation; vice-president and President of the Eastern Division; cochairman of the Pittsburgh 1958 Karnea which marked the century of progress of Delta Tau Delta; consultant to the Arch Chapter on important special assignments; a leader in defining the position of the fraternity system in the constantly changing field of higher education. His honesty, his ability, his courage, backed by an unquenchable desire to do the right thing, his dedication to worth-while projects, and his willingness to serve as a member of the team or as a leader, always with the maximum effort, is indelibly written in the history of Delta Tau Delta and in the hearts of all privileged to know him.

ROBERT HEUCK
GAMMA XI, '13

For over fifty years a devoted alumnus, ever willing to serve his chapter and the Fraternity. He has been active in the affairs of the Chapter House Association of Gamma Xi Chapter and the Cincinnati Alumni Chapter, occupying several offices, including the office of President of the Alumni Chapter. He regularly attends and actively promotes all Delt functions. Now retired from active business, politics, and the United States

New Distinguished Service Chapter members GARRISON, MURPHY, FLOHR, MCKAY, and LENFESTEY.

Army, he continues his service as a loyal alumnus of the University of Cincinnati, as a respected, faithful, and good friend of all who know him, and as a truly Good Delt.

Because of the death of ROBERT HEUCK before the presentation of the citations, his scroll was accepted by his grandson, KENNETH HEUCK, JR., Cincinnati, '66. NORMAN MACLEOD makes the presentation.

JAMES HARWOOD GARRISON
GAMMA XI, '19

Quiet, unassuming, and of deep purpose and sincerity, he has been continuously active working for the welfare of Gamma Xi Chapter, the Cincinnati Alumni Chapter, and the Fraternity. As treasurer of the Chapter House Association of Gamma Xi Chapter, he has been greatly responsible for its sound financial record. Retired from a successful business career and now devoting his talents to several philanthropic organizations, this highly respected Delt continues to bring only honor to himself, his family, and his Fraternity.

Prior to the Karnea, other presentations, not previously quoted in THE RAINBOW, were made to William H. Andrews, Jr., at Tuscaloosa, Alabama; W. DeWitt Williams, at Seattle, Washington; Berley Winton, at East Lansing, Michigan; and James C. Parks, at Houston, Texas. Their citations read as follows:

WILLIAM HENRY ANDREWS
GAMMA OMEGA, '20

Charter member of Gamma Omega Chapter; Vice-President of the Southern Division; enthusiastic participant in Delt affairs, with regular attendance at Fraternity functions; a consistent interest in the establishment of new chapters, especially in his own Division; periodic assignments as Phonarch Especial; a life-long, dedicated, and loyal Delt, he has combined his talents as a Fraternity leader with national life insurance leadership to forge an enduring and outstanding record of laudable service.

WARD DEWITT WILLIAMS
GAMMA MU, '29

Leader and ever-willing worker in alumni affairs; inspiration as adviser and friend to the men of Gamma Mu; participant in the foundation of four chapters; distinguished lawyer and teacher; wartime Navy veteran; devoted family man and churchman; service to his Fraternity, his profession, and his country distinguishes him as a Good Delt.

BERLEY WINTON
DELTA EPSILON, '22

Charter petitioner of Delta Epsilon Chapter; eleven years a Director and nine years President of the Iota House Corporation; twelve years Iota Chapter Adviser; distinguished scientist and servant of his government; worthy representative of a great Fraternity whose work, faith, and character helped shape Iota Chapter during its formative years and enriched the lives of more than four hundred young men. His friendship, his loyalty, and his high ideals and expectations of his Fraternity and his Fraternity Brothers have epitomized and summoned from others the finest qualities of Delta Tau Delta.

JAMES CLAXTON PARKS
GAMMA IOTA, '15

For distinguished service to Delta Tau Delta for over half a century, president of his undergraduate chapter, and founder of the Houston Alumni Chapter and periodic president from its organization until 1946. He was for many years a director on the Gamma Iota House Corporation, giving generously of his time; a key man in all activities of the Fraternity, he has served in some capacity every year, to this very day. In addition to his dedicated service to our Fraternity, he is a highly successful business man, an outstanding civic leader, and a devoted member of his church.

Tufts Delts Continue Tradition Of Leadership

ARTHUR H. HOUSE, Tufts, '64, became the fifth Beta Mu Delt to win the "Mr. Tufts" award since its inception in 1956. The award, determined by vote of students, faculty, and administration, is given to the outstanding senior, on the basis of campus citizenship and contribution to student life. The first "Mr. Tufts" was a Delt, Francis D. Cogliano, '56, now a doctor, who also won one of the Fraternity's Fischbach Residency Foundation grants. The other Delts who have been thus recognized as the outstanding seniors at Tufts in their respective years are, in order of the award, John C. Hervey, Jr., '60; William G. Meserve, '62; and Peter R. Collins, '63. How Beta Mu managed to slip up in 1957, 1958, 1959, and 1961, deponent saith not, but five out of nine is a pretty fair average for such an honor.

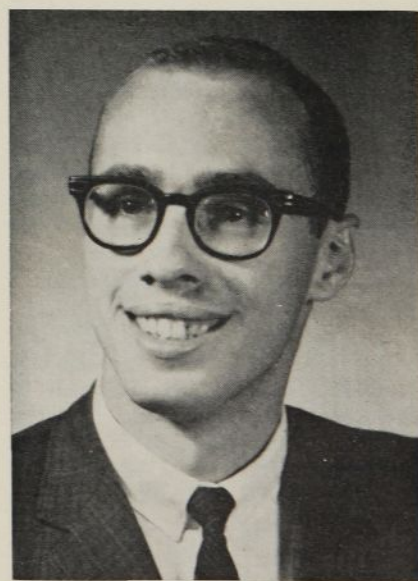

Phi Chapter Shelter Destroyed by Fire

A FIRE which broke out in the early hours of September 5 resulted in the total loss of the chapter house at Washington and Lee University. Only the brick walls of the 150-year-old structure were left standing. There were no injuries, as no one was in the house at the time of the fire, but personal belongings of six members, who had returned to campus early for fall football practice, were destroyed.

The Fraternity is working with the chapter's house corporation in developing plans for new permanent housing; meanwhile, the chapter has been fortunate in obtaining temporary facilities in a house recently vacated by another fraternity chapter on campus.

Bruce Jones Joins Field Staff

The Fraternity's field staff was rounded out to a full four-man complement with the appointment of Bruce D. Jones, Westminster, '62, of DeSoto, Missouri. Bruce, whose studies were interrupted by military service, returned to Westminster and completed his work for the B.A. degree in the field of economics this year. He served Delta Omicron Chapter as athletic chairman, rush chairman, interfraternity council representative, and president, and was chairman of the committee which made the arrangements for the Western Division Regional Conference held at Westminster College. Bruce earned letters in track for three years, and was captain of the track team his senior year. In addition, he found time to be sports editor of the campus newspaper and the school yearbook in this same busy senior year. Delta Tau Delta is proud to have Bruce on the team, where his experience, enthusiasm, and devotion will be directly applied for the benefit of the chapters and the Fraternity.

BRUCE D. JONES

Advanced Study Scholarship For 1964-65

THREE OUTSTANDING Delt scholars have been awarded the Alvan E. Duerr Scholarships for graduate study for the school year 1964-65. These awards, in amount of $1,400 each, are to cover living expenses of the recipients, and not tuition, since it is felt that those meeting the high standards of selection will have no difficulty in obtaining tuition grants or scholarships from other sources. The Selection Board recommended, and the Fraternity's Board of Directors approved, Duerr Scholarships for W. David Hager, Wesleyan, '64; Paul W. Marshall, Cincinnati, '64; and John A. McDonald, Texas Christian, '64. This brings to a total of 23 the number of scholarships awarded since the inception of the Advanced Study Scholarship program in 1960.

Funds for the scholarships are derived from gifts made by alumni of the Fraternity which may be made for either the general (Duerr) scholarships, or designated for some special field of study, such as the award for study in the field of petroleum engineering or petroleum geology established through the generosity of John W. Nichols, immediate past President of the Fraternity.

Dave Hager, whose home is St. Louis, Missouri, was graduated from Wesleyan University, with a degree in chemistry and a liberal arts minor. He was elected to Phi Beta Kappa after his junior year, a signal honor at this early stage. In addition to his studies, Dave earned letters in swimming during his sophomore and junior years, and served as chairman of the Phi Rho Literary Society, co-chairman of the College Body Committee, and a member of the Wesleyan Parley Committee. In the summer of 1963, he spent seven weeks in a village in northern Nigeria with a team of American, Canadian, and Nigerian students participating in "Operations Crossroads Africa"; as a result of their efforts, a newly built junior primary school is serving the village.

Dave is now enrolled in the Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons. He is not fully decided on a medical specialty, but indicates an interest in service in the church, and a possible return to Africa. Perhaps we shall see another Dr. Schweitzer in a few years' time.

Paul Marshall, from Xenia, Ohio, majored in electrical engineering. He was first in his class in the College of Engineering at the University of Cincinnati, where he was on the Dean's List 10 quarters, and was elected to Tau Beta Pi, engineering equivalent of Phi Beta Kappa. Paul was also elected to Eta Kappa Nu, Phi Eta Sigma, and Omicron Delta Kappa, serving as president of the latter. He was president of the Cincinnati Interfraternity Council which won the coveted Iron Man Trophy awarded by the National Interfraternity Conference to the outstanding IFC. Paul held numerous chairmanships in Gamma Xi Chapter, and served in the offices of vice-president and president.

Now pursuing a master's degree in business administration at the Harvard School of Business, Paul anticipates a career in management. There is also a good possibility that he will continue his graduate studies to earn a doctorate and then enter the teaching profession on the college level.

John McDonald, who hails from Pendleton, Oregon, was graduated from Texas Christian University. His major field was history, with a minor in religion. John also attended the University of Oregon, and during his college career was on the Dean's List $3\frac{1}{2}$ years. While at Oregon, he served Gamma Rho Chapter as pledge trainer, and at T.C.U. served Epsilon Beta Chapter as president. On campus, John is president of the student body, and has been active in Student Congress, Hospitality Committee, and the Campus Chest Committee. He is a member of the Alpha Chi and Chi Delta Mu honoraries.

John has entered the Brite Divinity School of Texas Christian University, working toward a Bachelor of Divinity degree, after which he will go into the pastoral ministry. Eventually, he plans to take further advanced study and became a professor of religion.

Delt Doctors Receive Fischbach Residency Scholarships

THE FISCHBACH RESIDENCY Foundation has made scholarship awards to three Delt doctors for the 1964-65 year, to assist them in pursuing their medical studies in the residency program.

Jerry M. Hardacre, Ohio State, '55, received his M.D. in 1959, also from Ohio State, then completed internship and one year's residency before entering the Air Force for a two-year tour of duty. Dr. Hardacre has now resumed his residency in surgery at the University Hospitals at Ohio State University.

Kenneth C. Morley, Brown, '56, earned his M.D. from Boston University in 1960. After a year's internship, he entered the Navy and served three years. Dr. Morley began residency, in surgery, this year at Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center.

Richard H. Sisson, Pittsburgh, '55, continued at Pitt and was awarded his M.D. in 1959. His military service was with the Army. Dr. Sisson has entered residency at the Mayo Clinic, also in surgery.

Dr. KENNETH C. MORLEY

Gopher Delts Win Woodrow Wilson Fellowships

BETA ETA CHAPTER enjoys the distinction of having two of its members as recipients of Woodrow Wilson Fellowship award for 1964-65. These awards, which are for one year's graduate study, cover full tuition and fees as well as a stipend of $1,800 and dependency allowances. Recipients are asked to consider seriously a career in college teaching, although this is not a condition of the awards.

The Delts who were honored are Thomas B. Jones, Minnesota, '64, of St. Paul, and Gale R. Mellum, Minnesota, '65, of Hibbing.

Delt Wins Rotary Fellowship

JACK C. PARKER, Sam Houston, '64, has been awarded the Texas Rotary International Fellowship, which covers all major expenses for one year of study abroad. He chose Birmingham University in England for his graduate studies.

Jack has served as treasurer of Epsilon Zeta Chapter and was active in student government and other extracurricular activities, while maintaining a 3.9 grade point average. His major was accounting, and he was president of the Accounting Club. He won the Wall Street Journal award and the Delta Sigma Pi key, and was elected president of Alpha Chi scholastic honorary fraternity.

More Scholarships Won by Delts

A GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP has been awarded to James H. Head, Kansas, '64, who will work on the nuclear reactor at Kansas University. . . . William E. Odum, Georgia, '64, has won a $3,200 fellowship to study marine biology at the University of Miami. . . . Robert W. Rieder, Jr., Willamette, '64, is now in Duke University Law School on a scholarship. . . . Winner of the J. Hillis Miller Award as the top senior academically in the College of Agriculture, Robert M. Scully, Jr., Florida, '65, also received a $3,500 scholarship to work toward a master's degree in horticulture at the University of Hawaii. Bob will complete his undergraduate work at Florida before taking advantage of the graduate scholarship.

FUNDS NEEDED FOR ADVANCED STUDY SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Gifts to the Delta Tau Delta Educational Fund from which the Advanced Study Scholarship Program grants are made qualify as tax deductible items under the Federal Income Tax law.

Rainbow Gets Editorial Board And New Editor

By EDWIN H. HUGHES, III, DePauw, '43

IF READERS OF THE RAINBOW detect any differences in style, format, or contents in this issue, there is a very good reason. Responsibility and editorship of our magazine has passed into new hands. Actually, there will probably not be many recognizable changes quite this soon but your new editor has some ideas that he is anxious to try out in the near future.

JACK A. MCCLENNY

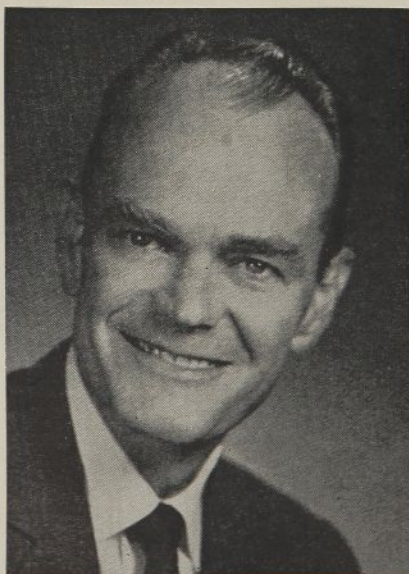

In line with a long held idea that the editorship needs full-time attention, the Fraternity's Board of Directors appointed Jack A. McClenny, Florida, '49, as Editor.

Jack McClenny needs no introduction to the Fraternity as he has served as a field secretary for ten years and is well-known to undergraduates and alumni alike. Though journalism is a new field for Jack, he brings to the position a wealth of experience in all phases of fraternity operation. Jack's subtle good humor and wit will permeate his work and the magazine

EDWIN H. HUGHES, III

In his new assignment Mr. McClenny will be primarily responsible for Fraternity journalism. However, he will continue to be available for spot assignments in the field. He will be present and playing important roles at installations of new chapters, regional and Division conferences, Founders Day events, and Karneas.

To assist Jack McClenny in his new role, a three man Editorial Board has been appointed. Serving on this board will be Edwin L. Heminger, Ohio Wesleyan, '48, publisher of the Findlay, Ohio, Republican-Courier, former field secretary, and former President of the Northern Division; Gordon L. Jones, Nebraska, '41, former field secretary and Editor of THE RAINBOW from 1946 to 1957; and Edwin H. Hughes, III, DePauw, '43, Editor from 1957 to 1964. The first meeting of the new board will take place in the latter part of October.

It has been my privilege to know and to work with Jack McClenny since he first joined the field staff of the Fraternity. I know that his dedication, sincerity, and knowledge of the Fraternity will serve him in good stead as he takes up his new duties. THE RAINBOW will flourish under his leadership. As the 25th Editor of the Fraternity's magazine (the 15th Editor of THE RAINBOW), Jack McClenny will produce the kind of product that will maintain Delta Tau Delta as a leader in fraternity journalism.

A Salute to Ed Hughes

By HUGH SHIELDS

WE SALUTE Edwin H. Hughes, III, who has retired as Editor of THE RAINBOW. He served the Fraternity with distinction in this important capacity since 1957. When Gordon Jones left the Central Office staff for a business career, Ed was drafted to the editorship. He has burned the midnight oil and made countless personal and professional sacrifices to get the job done, in true Delt tradition.

Always an active Delt as an undergraduate, this young redhead has amassed a service record during the past 15 years which is second to none. Living in Indianapolis, he has been chapter adviser to Beta Beta Chapter at DePauw University at Greencastle since 1949. This duty involves a round trip of 100 miles. He has served the Northern Division as secretary and treasurer since 1949. Participating as a panelist, moderator, and in numerous other activities, his Karnea record is something to behold. It seemed like it was too much for the Fraternity to ask Ed to assume the editorship, but he answered the call.

Heavy duty in behalf of the Fraternity has never dismayed Edwin H. Hughes, III. He bears the name of that illustrious Delt, his grandfather, Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, who served in the ranks and as Editor of THE RAINBOW, Ritualist, and President of the Fraternity. His father was Edwin H. Hughes, II, and his uncle, Francis M. Hughes, a former President of the Fraternity, kept the Delt spirit alive in this young Delt-to-be.

It is a matter of interest that there are 16 members of the Hughes family, beginning with the Bishop, who are members of Delta Tau Delta. So steeped in the Delt tradition, we are of the opinion that Ed did not know that another fraternity existed until he entered DePauw University. He told me the other day that he is still not sure there is another fraternity in existence.

The Fraternity has achieved great stature as a result of the voluntary efforts of men such as Ed. We again extend our thanks to him for his work as Editor, and we are grateful that he will serve as a member of the Editorial Board. He will continue his devotion to Delta Tau Delta and make many constructive contributions to the growth and development of the Fraternity in the years ahead.

Miles Wolff Elected President Of American Society of Newspaper Editors

MILES H. WOLFF, North Carolina, '19, editor of the Greensboro Daily News, has been elected president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, thus attaining the top elective office in his profession. This honor comes as a result of a distinguished career in journalism which began forty years ago.

A native of Dallas, North Carolina, Miles was exposed to the newspaper business early, as a carrier in Concord. He prepared, however, for a teaching career, taking his undergraduate work at Roanoke College in Virginia, and his master's (in history and government) at the University of North Carolina, where he was initiated into Delta Tau Delta as a graduate student. Following a short period of teaching, Mr. Wolff again became interested in newspaper work, and worked as a reporter for the Charlotte News and the Charlotte Observer, before joining the Associated Press. He was with the Associated Press, in the

MILES H. WOLFF

Charlotte Bureau and the Baltimore Bureau, until 1934, when he joined the staff of the Baltimore Sun, becoming managing editor in 1942. When the position on the Greensboro Daily News became open in 1949, Miles Wolff came home to North Carolina.

In addition to his professional interests, Mr. Wolff is active in a number of civic organizations, including the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, United Fund, and the Symphony Society, having served as president or chairman of each of these organizations. He has long been in great demand as a speaker locally, and since becoming president of ASNE he has been called upon to speak at a meeting of the Inter American Press Association in South America, and a meeting of the World Press Institute held in St. Paul, Minnesota. He has served on the Pulitzer Prize jury eight times, including this year. Mr. Wolff is married to the former Nan Webster of Belair, Maryland. They have two daughters and a son.

THE DELT CHAPTERS

Alabama—Delta Eta

Delta Eta extends a cordial greeting to all fellow Delts as we begin another year. It is indeed exciting to know that in less than a month we will be living in our fabulous new Shelter.

Last year was a year of one accomplishment after another for Delta Eta Chapter. Scholastically, we were number three, of 27 fraternities on campus. Sportswise, Delta Eta captured the intramural football crown and was runner-up in softball and track. Politically, we once again provided the leaders on campus: Donald Stewart served as Student Government president, Winston Groom was editor of Comment, Clay Lilienstern was advertising manager of the Crimson and White, and Ted Daniel was sales representative for the Corolla. Delts also served on many committees.

The social season was marked by many highlights. The Rainbow Formal, Bowery Ball, and Champagne Party will all be long remembered.

Extensive summer rush activities were carried out by the brothers in their respective home towns. Close contact was maintained between the members and the rush chairman and sub-committee chairmen. Summer rush was climaxed by a central rush party which was a tremendous success. Despite inadequate (temporary) physical facilities, Delta Eta pledged 21 outstanding future Delts. Rush Chairman Buddy Schleusner is to be commended for the fine job he did.

As for the future, all of us, of course, look forward to the new house. Many activities, such as pledge swaps, coffees, and after-game parties have already been planned.

Through pledge study halls and Big Brother supervision, we feel sure our pledges will be started on the right path. Pledge Trainer Larry Grant and his assistant, Bill Stevens, are both doing excellent jobs.

Among Delts to hold office this year are Winston Groom, editor of the Ma-hout; Clay Lilienstern, business manager of the Crimson and White; Skip Ames, circulation manager of the Crimson and White; and Earl Campbell, Spirit Committee chairman.

With a year of accomplishment behind and a bright future ahead, Delta Eta is ready to continue.

SEABIE KENNAMER

Albion—Epsilon

Epsilon Chapter started the 1964-65 year off with a very productive Help Week. Eighteen outstanding men went through initiation. They are: Tom Armstrong, Ric Carlson, Travis Charbeneau, Steve DeOrlow, Don Hagge, Dave Ringler, Doug Halladay, Jim Hewitt, Bob Hitzemann, Wayne Johnson, Tom Kaufman, Tom King, Paul Mesack, Lou Ognisanti, John Pickelman, Tom Ross, Rich Wells, and Steve Wilkins. At the same time nine brothers left because of graduation. Jules Scheffers, the outstanding student of Albion's psychology department for last year, has gone to Wayne for graduate work, along with Dave Rank. Going to the University of Michigan to continue their education are Jim Baker, Bob Northway, and John Phelps. Bob Gardner has gone to Chicago Osteopathic School. Also leaving the house are Randy Garber, Jim Martin, Tom Clark, and Paul Walton.

Scholastically, Epsilon raised its 1963-64 spring semester average over the previous fall semester to such an extent that we will surely receive the Interfraternity Scholastic Improvement Trophy. Lou Ognisanti, as scholastic chairman, is going to lead the Delts through another rewarding year with the books.

Athletically, the Albion Britons are being led by Delts. Captain Russ Wallis, Durand senior, has led the football team to overwhelming victories in the first two games. With his hundred-plus yards-per-game average, his diffuse motion should lead him towards a thousand yard season. Russ is regarded by Morley Frazer, the Britons' coach, as one of the finest ball players ever in Albion's history. Tom Pantlind, swimming captain, will lead Albion's swimmers hopefully to their third consecutive championship.

Looking ahead, Epsilon is confident of another productive year in the scholastic, social, rush, and brotherhood fields.

FRED ADAMS

Allegheny—Alpha

After many years of hard planning the dream of all Alpha Delts is finally materializing before the eyes of Allegheny College. The old Delt Shelter on Highland Avenue, which has served the fraternity since 1911, is in the process of being torn down and a new Shelter will be erected on the same site. The new Shelter, which will house between forty and fifty men, will be completed by September of 1965.

In June of 1964 Alpha Chapter held its annual Alumni Banquet. The evening was begun with a smorgasbord dinner, after which a business meeting was held with both undergraduates and alumni present. An evening of brotherhood and reunion of old classmates was enjoyed by all.

Alpha Chapter is looking forward to a very successful year of social activities and rushing. Even though we are without a fraternity house as such, we do not expect this to hinder our activities at all. Social events are being held every weekend by the chapter at various places on campus and the fact that we have a new Shelter in construction will more than assure a successful rush program.

Right now Alpha Chapter is in the process of preparing for intramural football. Under the leadership of Brothers Bob Harden, Roger Rice, and John Miller, Alpha Chapter is proving that Delta Tau Delta will be right up there on top at the end of the season.

GERALD JEPPE

Arizona—Epsilon Epsilon

The men of Epsilon Epsilon began the new year with 40 members returning to put on a top-flight rush program. Driving hard for about a week, the Deltas managed to pick up a 35-man pledge class, and even work in some good times on the way.

With the excitement of rush dying down, the chapter is now starting to buckle down to make this the most successful year on campus. New committee heads have been chosen, new programs are in the planning stages, and best of all, the chapter is no longer on social pro.

The new officers are: John Yeoman, scholarship chairman; John Hanson, rush chairman; Larry Louthan, recording secretary; and Bill Flint, vice-president. Under the direction of Scotty Welker, president, Epsilon Epsilon is going to put into effect many of the programs used successfully by other chapters, as brought out at the Karnea this summer in Cincinnati.

As it is still early in the year, time has not permitted the brothers to really get started in many activities as yet, but with the potential of the new pledge class and the enthusiasm and leadership of the active body, the chapter is destined for nothing less than its most successful year.

DAVE LOCEY

Baker—Gamma Theta

Gamma Theta has again made a successful start toward an outstanding year. A good rush week headed by Rush Chairman Jim Hutton yielded a crop of 24 fine young men.

As for scholastic achievement, we again plan to be in contention for first place on the Baker campus. Our co-operative tutoring system, as well as our rigorous study table, serve as models for other houses on campus.

Athletically, Gamma Theta captured the intramural sweepstakes trophy for the twelfth consecutive year, and plans a repeat performance again this year. In other intramural activity, the Deltas captured the golf, track, and sportsmanship trophies. On the varsity side Deltas again play an important role. Thirteen Deltas are on this year's football squad with Brothers Mike Philpot, Bill Berner, Jim Hutton, Bob Franklin, Wayne O'Dell, and Roger Reese in starting roles.

Political offices are also occupied by Gamma Theta Deltas: Brother Reed Black is presently vice-president of the Student Commission, while Brother Keith Guthrie is serving as president of the Interfraternity Council. Four brothers have presently won preliminary election for class offices and are working toward a final victory.

Preparations are currently underway for the seventy-fifth annual Delt Chicken Fry which will be held in late October.

The Gamma Theta Deltas are looking forward to a prosperous and rewarding year, and we hope all the other Delt chapters will fare equally well.

DON MEYER

Brown—Beta Chi

We closed out last year with a flourish, finishing third on campus academically (with nine men on Dean's List) and making a determined bid for the over-all sports trophy, barely missing, and finishing second. The majority of our graduating seniors last year are now enrolled in various grad schools.

Our pledge class numbers 22 and promises to be one of the strongest yet. There are many athletes and scholars in it, being skillfully guided by our pledgemaster, Terry Walsh. The pledging program is by far the most ambitious one attempted in this chapter.

Social Chairman Nick Outchunis has such a large and varied social calendar arranged that dues were raised to accommodate it.

Athletically, we are well represented on the football and soccer fields, especially with the co-captains of both sports, Ralph Duerre and Jack Myslik, respectively. We are also determined to make this our year for the intramural sports championship.

FRANK PETTRONE

Butler—Beta Zeta

Beta Zeta finished last semester on a glorious note by winning the All-Sports Trophy for Intramurals. After a summer of physical conditioning we hope to be stronger than ever. Our chapter has gotten off to one of its best starts in many years. We were gratified upon our return to Butler by the sight of a newly-constructed colonial porch. Our Shelter now stands as one of the most beautiful examples of what Deltism means to the Brothers of our Fraternity.

One of the most efficient rushing programs was initiated at Beta Zeta this year. Our pledge class numbers 25, and promises to add to the strength of our chapter.

We have a number of our members on academic scholarships: Bruce Hazelett and Bob Cargill on half tuition scholarships, and Mel Piefo and Allen Armstrong on full tuition scholarships. Also Bruce Hazelett has a half tuition athletic scholarship, and Toby Stan, Bill Sherry, Gordon Klawitter, and Jeff Brodine are on full tuition athletic scholarships. A number of the brothers are leaders of campus organizations: Frank Louis is president of the Presidents' Council, secretary of Interfraternity Council, and on the Men's Judicial Board; Brad Piniak is art editor of our yearbook, and chairman of publicity for the Y.M.C.A.; Bob Cargill is secretary of the junior men's honorary, Sphinx, and secretary of the Y.M.C.A.; Steve Jones is chairman of membership on the Y.M.C.A.; Jack Newsom is vice-president of Kappa Psi; Bruce Hazelett is vice-president of the sophomore class; and Denny Lovell is student coordinator of S.A.M.

We are now making plans for the Homecoming decorations scheduled October 24. We've won our first intramural football game and hope to repeat as football champs. Our first set of tests are just around the corner, so the studies are getting top priority.

GENE HEATH

California—Beta Omega

The activities of Beta Omega in the spring semester were frequent and varied. Perhaps the hallmark of the successful social calendar was embodied in the World War I party near the end of the semester. Jerry Eggers, social chairman, and the brothers of Beta Omega transformed the Shelter into a battlefield similar to that encountered by the "Doughboys" at the Marne or Verdun. With representatives from both the Allies and the Axis present, a "gassing" time was had by the brothers and their dates.

Other noteworthy events last spring were the chapter's successes in the intramural sports program. The brothers compiled a very favorable record in softball, soccer, basketball, skiing, and swimming.

Upon returning to the Shelter for the fall semester the members of Beta Omega conducted a very successful rush. Using a two division system, led by Ed Boyle in Northern California and by Jerry Eggers in Southern California, the chapter met during the summer and pledged in the fall 14 superior men to Delta Tau Delta. These 14 men will no doubt help Beta Omega receive once again the Western Division award for the most improved chapter in scholarship for the year.

Currently the chapter has won second place in the University's intramural swim meet. Hoping to achieve similar success in the field of athletics, the chapter has organized powerful football and basketball teams. To date both are in the top part of their respective divisions for the championships.

On the social calendar for the current semester are the annual canoe trip, barn yard party, gargoyle party and Christmas party. The canoe trip was the highlight of the early season when the brothers and their dates paddled 14 miles down the Russian River.

Most important, this semester all the members are thoroughly engrossed in their respective studies, and it appears at this writing that Beta Omega will surpass its already high marks in scholarship.

The elected officers for the chapter this semester are Steve Beilock, president, Bill Worthington, vice-president, and Tom Hensley, recording secretary. These officers and the brothers of Beta Omega wish to extend to all the members of Delta Tau Delta best wishes for a successful year and a warm welcome to drop by the Shelter.

RAY WILLIAMS

Carnegie Tech—Delta Beta

The first major event of the school year for the Delta Beta Chapter was the initiation of three men from last year's spring pledge class. The new brothers are Selden Campen, Carl Bryan, and Barry Rabkin.

Well, once again it's fall and time for Delta Beta to swing into action for another year. Our social calendar started with a mixer, followed several days later by a barbecue for freshman women. Both were huge successes. Under the guidance of Albert Marino, our social chairman, we plan to have a fine year.

Intramural athletics is an important segment of our participation in campus activities. Both the football and tennis teams organized so far are looking forward to successful seasons.

Scholarship, of course, is the primary concern of the chapter. Last year one out of every three brothers made the Dean's List. Needless to say, there is still much room for improvement; we hope to do better this year. Our steak and mush dinner tries to foster more motivation for excellence in scholarship. All the brothers are paired up as closely as possible on the basis of past grades. When marks come out this semester the brother with the higher factor in each pair will eat steak while the other brother is compelled to eat mush.

We at Delta Beta anticipate our best year ever and send regards and best wishes to the Fraternity at large.

SELDEN CAMPEN

Cincinnati—Gamma Xi

The men of Gamma Xi are once again looking forward to a fine year at the Shelter and the University of Cincinnati. Recalling the highlights of the past few months, the Gamma Xi Deltas have made several gains in various fields. Near the close of the last school year the Deltas copped first place in the All-University Sing. Scholastically, the Deltas finished third out of 21 fraternities on U.C.'s campus; this standing was one notch higher than the 1962-63 school year.

Throughout the summer months the Gamma Xi Rush Machine, led by Fred "Granny" Hamer, was in high gear and proved to be highly successful, as evidenced by the 33 fine pledges we have in our possession. From this year's class we anticipate the usual fine spirit and productivity that characterize Gamma Xi pledge classes.

Now that rush is over the Deltas are preparing for Homecoming, which occurs October 31. One of the highlights of Homecoming is the Float Competition in which the Deltas have placed first the last two years and are pushing hard for an unprecedented third victory which will retire the trophy.

Many of the Gamma Xi Deltas are still reminiscent of the Sixty-seventh Karnea that took place here in Cincinnati in late August. We hope that all those Deltas who were fortunate enough to participate in the Karnea were able to enjoy the offerings of the Queen City. The men of Gamma Xi wish to sincerely thank all those who helped to make the Karnea a success. Best of luck to those gentlemen who are making preparations for the next Karnea, to be held in Portland, Oregon.

Back at the Gamma Xi Shelter, the year is just beginning and there are many challenges to be met and goals to be achieved. Gamma Xi is near the top, if not on top, on U.C.'s campus, and the men of the chapter will be out to maintain this status for the 1964-65 school year.

Best of luck to all of the other Delta chapters for a fine year on their respective campuses.

RICHARD J. SEMPLE

Cornell—Beta Omicron

Beta Omicron Chapter has made a number of improvements since my last writing. The Deltas here at Cornell have progressed from 35th on the Hill to 18th scholastically out of 53 fraternities. This puts us well above All Fraternity Average, and about even with All Men's Average. Progress on our new Shelter has come a long way, and ground is due to be broken for it after the first thaw in the spring. In intramurals, the Delta teams finished second in a heavily contested hockey season, and did very well through the softball season.

We finished up a fine social calendar with our Spring Weekend. In addition to a hay-ride, we led the party circuit with a Sunday afternoon featuring the well-known "Hot-Nuts." It was a great success, and much of the campus attended. This year, we already have several parties planned, including a freshman mixer, where freshman girls get a chance to see the Shelter and meet the brothers. For Homecoming this year, October 24, the brothers decided to combine Parents' and Homecoming Weekends.

Summer rush activities went well and the house is presently engaged in fall rushing. Prospects for a good fall pledge class are excellent. On September 20 Beta Omicron initiated 12 pledges after a vigorous weekend of cleaning the house and working for the city of Ithaca.

We at Beta Omicron look forward to seeing any Deltas, and welcome their visit at the Shelter whenever they are in the area.

KENDALL SMITH

Delaware—Delta Upsilon

Brothers Tony Lotz and Brian Kelly, who represented Delta Upsilon Chapter at the 67th Karnea, congratulate the brothers at Gamma Xi for being excellent hosts, and helping to make this past Karnea the best!

Fall rush for upperclassmen is almost finished, and the prospects look very good. We began our rush before any other fraternity on campus, which entitles us to the best selection naturally.

Classes are only about two weeks underway, but already the Deltas lead in the hotly contested battle for the spirit trophy. Once again Delta Tau Delta foresees no serious threat to capturing the Homecoming Float Silver Cup for the fourth consecutive year. Furthermore, Miss Chris Russo will bring high honor to DU chapter by unquestionably being elected Homecoming Queen!

Smaller convention-type gatherings took place over the summer as Brother Ken Butler married Margaret Ann Guthrie; Brother Bob Eastman married Lillian Bagdon; Brother Cal Horn married Peggy Evers; and Brother Jim Rambo married Nancy Shaw (last year's Delta Queen). Brothers Barry Hamory and Bob Reck also took wives in September.

BRIAN G. KELLY

DePauw—Beta Beta

What better way is there to start a new year than with a good pledge class?

Twenty-three smiling pledges at DePauw.

This year, due to the efforts of our rush chairman David Wilson and assistant rush chairman Bert Wilhoite, we did a fine job. It is a well known fact on campus that the Delts took the top pledge class. Our 23 new pledges are: John Baker, Fred Ball, Randy Bubeck, Brair Campbell, John Bryant, Bill Dennison, Jim Fisher, Dan Fleetwood, Jim Fornoff, Tom George, Bill Gost, Tom Hamilton, David Harbottle, Bob Hartley, Rick Johnson, Ken Knudson, Jeff Liebman, Rod Musselman, Steve Orcutt, David Siff, Doug Smith, Steve Sanger, and John Stimson.

Our 34-3-2 record in intramural football in the last four years really gives us something to live up to, but with such standouts as Bert Wilhoite, Kelly Goodwillie, Dick Baumgartner, and Chuck Freeman back this year, it looks like another fine season. Our prospects also look very good in intramural golf and tennis this fall. On the varsity level senior Chuck Peck is again starting at his middle guard position on the DePauw football team and sophomore Bob Orthy has nailed down a starting position at defensive halfback.

Scholastically, the house has quite a record to live up to. Last semester only three fellows out of our chapter of 76 men got less than a C average. There was no other fraternity on campus that came close to us in this category.

Socially the house is looking forward to football games, hayrides, our fall house dance, and the many other activities that go along with this time of year.

CHUCK BRIGGS

Duke—Delta Kappa

This summer found several Delta Kappa Delts staying over for summer school here at Duke. On the weekends and spare afternoons they relaxed from their hot pursuit of knowledge by cooling off in the lake at Charlie Gault's place, and enjoying the female companionship. Charlie, i.e., Lt. Col. Charles Gault, is a Delt from the University of North Carolina, class of '31, and now has a house on several acres of land near Duke. The first floor of his house is available for Delts to have parties, cookouts, etc., and is a year-round favorite with the Delta Kappas.

With the summer over, the Delts returned to the Shelter, to find we had lost a few really great brothers to the heavy arm of the Quality Point Ratio. Since Duke has rush for frosh deferred until the second semester, most of our efforts are concentrated in the field of upperclassmen, and so far we have taken in two good men, Ron Schmid and Craig Wellborne, both sophomores. The Delta Kappa Delts have recently had an Open House for freshman girls. This gives the brothers a chance to meet the new crop of girls, and also an opportunity to get girls to rush for us in the spring.

The Duke Delts gave impetus to a new tradition that is forming. Each fall the Duke Nursing School has a formal Capping Ceremony for the sophomore students that marks their entrance into actual clinical work. To honor these girls, and especially those pinned to Delts, the chapter attends the ceremony en masse, and offers personal congratulations afterwards. The idea is now beginning to be picked up and copied by other fraternities.

Delts continue to distinguish themselves around campus. John "Bull" Walden is the editor of the DukeEngineer, the engineering school magazine. This marks the sixth straight year this position has been in able Delt hands. Steve Barnes is chairman of the Interfraternity Council Investigating Committee, perhaps the most powerful body on campus. Hugh McQuillan holds the seat of news editor for the Duke paper, The Chronicle, and is copy editor for Peer magazine. In the campus YMCA, Harry Nurkin is director of public relations. Three brothers hold the respected position of housemaster for the freshman dorms. Delts have the honor of being selected to fill about one third of the positions on the lay staff in the Duke University Psychiatric Center, a hard job to qualify for. The list could go on, but the point is clear: Delts are active in every phase of campus life. This certainly includes the social side, with a $3,000 budget and some really big parties planned.

It is with an eye for the future and prospects for a great year that Delta Kappa looks at 1964-65.

TOM ROBERTS

East Texas State—Epsilon Eta

As the fall semester begins at East Texas State, all indications point to another year of success for the Epsilon Eta Delts. With a grade point well over that of the All Men's Average, Epsilon Eta rated second scholastically among the fraternities on campus for last year.

Due to the leadership of Jack Gray, rush chairman, and the hard work of every member, summer and fall rush can be termed a complete success. Summer rush included a stag party in Ft. Worth, and two stag parties and one date party in Dallas. Fall rush on campus ended with the Delts obtaining 43 pledges. This is 22 more than last fall and 11 more than the next largest fraternity pledge class this year. Those pledging Delta Tau Delta include:

Epsilon Eta initiated 11 men on October 2. Those going through the initiation rites were: Duane Allen, Rick Bayless, Elliott Boyles, Frank Branson, Billy Joe Garner, Scott Hunt, Neil Mayfield, Weldon Parkhill, Dennis Powell, Jerry Stringer, and Jerry Thornton.

The ET Deltas are in full swing in campus politics. Twelve brothers are in the running for seats on the Student Senate and ten are in competition for class officer positions. Cliff Wood and Larry Clinton have recently been appointed to serve as Supreme Court justices.

Football season finds Delt Pledge Johnny Jackson serving on the winning Lion team. Also boosting Big Blue as varsity cheerleaders are Deltas Tom Ker, Joe Ondrusek, and James Nance.

Epsilon Eta wishes for its brother chapters across the United States and Canada the most successful and profitable year ever.

JAMES NANCE

Florida—Delta Zeta

After a summer vacation accented with many rush parties throughout the state, the brothers of Delta Zeta returned to the Shelter to begin a new school year and prepare for Fall rush. Rush began after a week of preparation. Brother Bill Croucher led the rest of the brothers in rush which was a week of exhaustive work by all those involved. Our goal was to have the best pledge class on campus and we achieved this by pledging 46 men to carry on Deltism in the future.

As soon as formal rush had ended, the brothers and pledges began preparing for fraternity intramurals. At this writing, our water basketball team has won two games over the KA and SAE teams. Our goal this year is the President's Trophy for intramurals, and all signs now point in that direction.

In the recent Fall campus elections, two pledges won positions on the student legislative council. Pledges Rob Blue and Dave Shull both won by large majorities.

This year the University of Florida football team has three Deltas at starting positions. Brothers Sid MacLean and Allan Poe are currently holding down line and back positions. Pledge Larry Gagner is currently a first string guard playing alongside Brothers Poe and MacLean. This is the first time that Delta Zeta has had three members on the starting team, and we are proud that they are representing Delta Tau Delta in this capacity. Sid MacLean has received lineman of the week honors for his playing efforts in the SMU game. Poe received the same honor last year but for the backfield position.

Brother Doug Lynn was recently elected as the administrative vice-president of the IFC. He follows in the footsteps of Brother Charley Maloy who served as president of the IFC during 1963-64.

SID MACLEAN, Florida tackle.

ALLAN POE, Gator halfback.

Brother Bob Scully recently received the J. Hillis Miller Memorial Scholarship Award. This is an award given to only ten students annually. Also he has been awarded a $3,500 scholarship to do his Masters research in Horticulture at the University of Hawaii. Bob is another fine example of Delt leadership on campus.

Delta Zeta is looking forward to another great year. This fall we will initiate 21 new brothers which will bring our membership to 150 brothers and pledges to carry on the fine standards of our Fraternity.

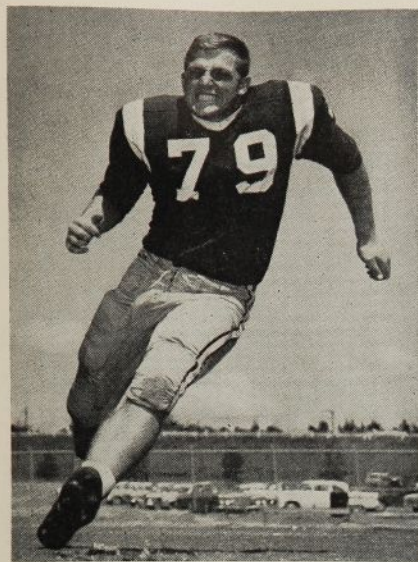

CALVIN HAYDEN

Florida State—Delta Phi

The fall trimester is once again upon us and the brothers are looking forward to the academic and social activities ahead.

Last year was an impressive one for Delta Phi. In sports we finished one-half a point from first place. In doing so we placed first in track and pre-season basketball. Academically we had a successful year, finishing higher than the men's over-all average. Socially the Deltas entertained on campus with their own band, "The Embers," who also have been featured in many campus activities.

The key point of the fall trimester is rush. Glenn Milling, our rush chairman, deserves our thanks for his efforts in making rush successful. We have 32 pledges, the majority freshmen, with more junior college transfers pledging each year. Nic Kerns, pledge trainer, and John Wilds, scholarship chairman, have already started our new pledges on the road to the ways of Delta Tau Delta.

Delta Phi is proud to announce the initiation of the following neophytes: Bob Cruickshank, Nic Kerns, Jay Layman, Tim Cowin, Jeff Waxman, Tom McCurdy, Harry Childers, Earl Long, John Hancock, Ted Williams, Jim Eaves, Pat Conway, Frank Pennie, Tom West, Tony Gero, Joe Avezzano, Harlan Newton, Doug Thompson, and Joe Petko.

Intramurals play a leading role in fraternity life at Florida State. With football first on the agenda, Coach Ray Perez has been working hard to prepare the team for a clean sweep. To complete the trimester in sports activities, we will have teams competing in volleyball and swimming.

Socially, the Delts were proud to present their Sorority of the Year award to Delta Delta Delta. Florida State meets Kentucky for FSU Homecoming and the chapter will again have a top name band to help celebrate the victory. We will be decorating our float with Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

A closing reminder to all graduates to send us their activities letter no later than November 20, 1964.

RANDY CAMERON

GMI—Epsilon Iota

With the start of another school year the men of Epsilon Iota Chapter are looking back with pride upon the successful rushing program staged during the summer months. The unique cooperative education system at GMI, which has one section of students in school while the other section is at work in GM plants throughout the country, enabled the Delts to hold rewarding rush parties in many states. A slide presentation of the previous year's chapter activities was made at each of these and was well accepted. This coordinated program directed by Brothers John Shaw and Bob Spencer, rushing chairmen, was capped by Rush Weekend festivities at the Shelter early in July. The efforts met with unprecedented success as a total of 72 houseguests at the Shelter exceeded all previous years.

Interior improvements at the Shelter continued their forward advancement with the installation of carpeting in the dorm area, and a water cooler in the basement. House and Grounds Chairman Nick Bozich announced plans for a complete remodeling of the basement to be completed as soon as possible. This will include new floor tile and an acoustical tile ceiling. Other plans for the near future include the purchase of new desks and chairs for all study rooms, and improved facilities in the kitchen.

Under the direction of Social Chairman Bob Williams, a top-notch Playboy Party was held last month. The brothers and their dates enjoyed the impressive decorations and the band, and made the most of the evening. Another dance and an open house also contributed to the social program.

A great amount of excitement at the Shelter was provided by tales of the Karnea told by delegates Joe Toth, Jim Abel, Pete Cumbo, Paul Pataky and nine other brothers who made the trip. They were all very impressed by the activities and events and referred to it as "a rewarding experience every Delt should enjoy."

With the coming of winter the Delts are once again hopefully looking forward to the start of intramural basketball tournaments. Epsilon Iota Chapter has dominated these for the past two years and prospects are bright again for this season with some promising freshmen picking up the slack left by the departure of last year's talented seniors. This past section Brother Wally Palma topped all other fraternity entrants in the individual bowling tournament.

Looking back to last year's outstanding accomplishments the Delts are once again anticipating high rankings in scholarship, athletics, and campus leadership. Enthusiasm is high to bring the scholarship and athletic trophies to the Shelter this year. Chapter president Pete Cumbo was elected representative-at-large to the student government executive council, and vice-president Tom Snyder was appointed editor of the school newspaper. With spirit high, the Delts of GMI are looking forward to another successful year.

WALLY PALMA

Georgia—Beta Delta

Fall quarter began early for the Delts at U. Ga. with lots of work being done on our house. The outside was repainted this summer, and we brothers completely repainted the interior and bought new drapes and rugs.

We of Beta Delta are looking forward to two successful rushes this quarter, the first which began September 27 for upperclassmen who are in good scholastic standing, and the second which will begin after mid-term for freshmen who have maintained a good scholastic standing. This system of rush will be new to us at U. Ga. but we, like the other fraternities, feel that it will stress the importance of good scholastics in fraternity life.

Our social activities this fall will be climaxed by three important events, the selection of a new sweetheart, an alumni banquet Homecoming week end, and Homecoming Weekend itself. Other than these events, we will have about four parties planned evenly over the quarter. October will be a very important month to us. Not only will we have new pledges from fall rush, but also we will have four new brothers from fall initiation. They are Wayne Clark, Winder, Ga.; Steve Mattox, Indianapolis, Ind.; Bill Trussell, Atlanta, Ga.; and Bob Woodruff, Rome, Ga.

We hope to have another successful year in intramural sports. As in the past we will participate in all sports, which begin with football this fall, and end with golf in the late spring.

Two of our brothers who graduated this past spring received very fine honors. Howard Abney of Athens, Ga. was accepted for Medical School at Augusta, Ga. and is doing very well. Bill Odum received a $3,200 per year fellowship to study marine biology at the University of Miami.

We are hoping to have a very successful Alumni Banquet for Homecoming. All of our alumni are invited to join us in this reunion along with any other Delts who may live near enough to come.

The brothers of Beta Delta want to wish all of our brother chapters a very successful year.

DAVE WOLFE

Georgia Tech—Gamma Psi

Gamma Psi ended the 1964 school year taking top honors or placing high in every fraternity competition. During Greek Week, the Delt's candidate for Greek Goddess, Miss Sandy Sommerville, was judged second among the contestants. For the second year in a row, Delts took top honors in the Greek Week IFC Sing.

In intramurals last spring, the Delts were again the team to beat. Gamma Psi finished third in the school in track, and the tennis team, coached by Mike Travis, easily captured first place honors. The Delt softball team, coached by Steve Grote, finished first in the league and second in the school. By their outstanding play, Brothers Grote, Williams, Harwell, and Johnson won the distinction of being elected to the softball all-star team.

Gamma Psi came out ahead not only in sports, but also along scholastic lines. Pledge Doug Hayes, whose 3.8 over-all average is the highest in the Mechanical Engineering Department, was selected for the Georgia Engineering Society Award. Brother Pat Nettles, who also has a 3.8 average and is top man in the Physics Department, was the only fraternity man on campus to win the IFC 4.0 Award.

The Delts made themselves felt in other areas as well. Three brothers were selected for the Student Council this year: John Shields, Harvey Taylor, and Val Coerver. Jim Harberson and Bill Thomas were chosen as two of the four statutory members of the Student Lecture and Entertainment Committee for the coming year.

The 1965 school year promises to see the Delts doing as well as they did in the previous year. Rush is progressing excellently under the direction of Rush Chairman Paul Johnson and President Ken Kennedy; at least 35 good boys are expected to pledge this quarter. The Delt football team will be among the strongest on campus this fall, and Gamma Psi's winning volleyball team is ready to take the trophy again this year.

WILLIAM THOMAS

Construction on the Shelter addition at Idaho.

Idaho—Delta Mu

Delta Mu Chapter of Delta Tau Delta opened its door this fall to an extremely promising school year. Thanks to the good work of Beta Chi, our house corporation, the generosity of our alumni, and a loan from the national Fraternity, Idaho Delts were welcomed home to a messy, but new, Shelter.

Fall term of 1963 saw the chapter start a $140,000 addition and remodeling project. Several study rooms, a living room, and a shower were finished. During the spring term Delta Mu Delts lived amidst falling bricks and perspiring carpenters. Throughout the summer the major construction continued, and we started school with a new three-story addition and a complete remodeling of the old Shelter.

The coming of rush saw much scrambling and cleaning to clear up the construction debris. Rush for us this year surpassed all expectations. The benefits of our rush program, under the leadership of Rush Chairman Duane Goicoechea and President Jim Berry, proved self-evident with the popularity of the Delts during Idaho rush. During spring vacation a rush tour over western Washington, and northern, central, and southern Idaho was made by members. Throughout the summer rush continued, with many rush parties held by both the undergraduates and alums. Good conscientious rushing and the Delts' fine reputation enabled us to fill the house to capacity, and then some, with the 33 best men from rush. The addition of these men as pledges made Delta Tau Delta not only the best, but now the biggest fraternity at the University of Idaho.

Plans for the upcoming year are big and promising. Last year the Delts were second in scholarship for the fourth straight year, and this time we plan to break the jinx and come out on top.

Campus activities are starting, and the Delts are eagerly stepping into them. Intramurals look good again this year, and we hope to get the trophy again. All in all, we are expecting another big year ahead.

Dedication of our new Shelter is set for October 24. We welcome any brothers or friends to drop by then, or anytime, to take a look at our new home.

TONY VAUGHT

Illinois—Beta Upsilon

The Delts of Beta Upsilon can testify to the familiar adage that there is no substitute for hard work, the finished product being a spanking new pledge class of fifteen. Behind the excellent leadership of Vice-President and acting Rush Chairman Paul Smith, the brothers held several rush parties to pledge good men. Sites for the rush parties were the Illinois State Dunes and the Delt House in Champaign. Already programs for the pledge class have been drawn up to introduce them into the circles of social life and activities. Every pledge is responsible for entering at least one campus activity. At the same time there is a program designed to guide the Class of '68 in scholastics.

The highlight of the first week at Beta Upsilon was the initiation of seven men: Jim Wengert, Jim Daly, Bill Fenton, Gene Lamkin, Jim Woodburn, Jim Thompson, and Chuck Middleton. The formal initiation into the Fraternity was given these Delts the first week end of the Fall semester. On Sunday of the same week end a tea was held, for the parents of all brothers to become acquainted.

The next big event on the social calendar is the annual Pledge Dance. One of the three big dances common to all Greek houses on the campus—the other two the Winter Formal and Spring Formal—the costume Pledge Dance is always eagerly anticipated by the brothers.

The goal that the brothers have set for themselves is to match the prosperous Spring semester of 1964. Under the same president, Pat Dyer, this could easily be realized. In the final semester of the 1963-64 school year a marked improvement was registered in academics. At the same time the chapter advanced in athletics to a lofty finish of fourth place among all 57 fraternities in intramural points. The Delts finished second in outdoor track, third in indoor track, first in the football league, and second in bowling. The largest improvements were made in track where the house advanced 39 intramural points above the previous year's record, and in bowling by gaining 30 intramural points on the 1961-62 season. The football team has its eyes set on the All-Fraternity Championship this year with its "best team in the last four years," according to Pat Dyer. Last year's starting quarterback, Denny Tilles, is back, and players Mike Gallo, Pat Dyer, Paul Smith, Art Danner, Jim Daly, Dean Olson, Bob Andersen, Mike Henson, Gene Stefaniak, Joe Weyhrich, and Pat Meehan all have at least one year's experience, many of them more.

In University athletics the Delts are represented by Lynn Stewart and Tony Parola on the varsity football team, ranked by many as the best team in the nation. Mike Gallo is No. 1 man in the indoor 1,000-yard run, No. 1 in the indoor half mile, and third leg on the mile relay.

BOB ANDERSEN

Illinois Tech—Gamma Beta

Life is just beginning to settle down at the Gamma Beta Shelter after a lively rush week. Athletics and academics, as well as other activities, are now in the planning stage.

The Delts at IIT are particularly proud of a project which our chapter will try to manage this semester. The brothers are going to sponsor a tutoring program for willing high school students who feel that they are not getting enough out of school. This will consist of regularly scheduled teaching sessions amounting to about three hours a week.

We will be looking forward to a tough athletic schedule this semester. Last year Gamma Beta took firsts in basketball, football, and swimming, with a second in tennis. The Delts also supported the IIT varsity baseball team with six starters. Sophomore Bob Jewett is returning this year with one of the school's three athletic scholarships.

Academically, our chapter managed to reconcile itself to being third on the Greek Row, with a 2.52 GPA. Our second-semester pledges were first. We hope that the brothers can repeat this performance in the coming semester.

Other school activities engaged in by

Illinois Tech's bumper crop of pledges.

Delts include the IIT newspaper for which Joe Pandey and Dick Koomjian are now writing. Art Deemer was elected president, and Jim Seemann treasurer, of the sophomore class. Junior Les Bunch was elected engineering representative to the undergraduate student governing body.

A sincere effort by Rush Chairman Chuck Barsamian helped Gamma Beta Chapter to pledge one of the largest classes in its history. This year's group includes 28 men with allegiances ranging from Hawaii to Norway. The talents and interests of the pledges encompass many fields. Among the usual quota of athletes and scholars, there are five musicians, a racing driver, and an international sailor. As there are only 31 brothers in the house this semester, we are looking for quite a sporting time with this year's pledge class.

JAY BURNS

Indiana—Beta Alpha

The Beta Alpha Delts are really going places this semester—thanks to a rousing finish last year and to a tremendously successful rushing program which was run by Brother Claude Warren, Jr. We have 24 new pledges at this time, and plan to add about 15 more. We have established this "man-power buildup" program in preparation for moving into our new Shelter in February. The new Shelter is to be one of the finest Greek structures in the nation.

Our new pledge class is outstanding both academically and socially! Pledge representation on the football field is small in quantity, but magnificent in quality, with two starting players on the roster: Randy Biesler, a 6' 5", 235 pound tackle from Gary, Indiana, and Don Dilly, a 6' 5" back, also from Gary. Russ Diller, our third football player, is playing behind All-American hopeful Tom Nowatzke.

The pledge class is filled with talent in many other fields as well: two guitarists, a fine piano player, a drummer, and many fine ex-high school athletes who should add sufficient strength to our intramural teams to boost us from third of 33 last year to first.

The Delt Street Dance, an annual campus-wide affair now going into its eighteenth year, was held October 2, and drew a crowd conservatively estimated at 5,500. We will try to get pictures of the dance into the next issue of THE RAINBOW.

Beta Alpha received a new mascot from the last pledge class—a jet black Great Dane named "Athena, Goddess of War" but, by her friends, called simply "Tina."

With an extremely heavy social schedule including exchanges with various sororities, week-end dances, the annual Pledge Dance, and a Homecoming dance, the Beta Alpha Delts will be busy this semester.

ROBERT KIRKPATRICK, JR.

Iowa—Omicron

The highlight of the summer for Omicron Delts was a rush party held in Davenport on July 25. It was a combined effort by undergraduate Delts and alumni of the Davenport area which was very successful. We are especially grateful to Dick Phillips who opened his home for the affair.

Carrying the same spirit into rush week this fall Omicron boasts 20 of the top men on campus behind the four stars. They are: Bob Behrends (Monticello), Bob Brueggeman (Cedar Rapids), Jay Buckner (Maquoketa), Denny Deischer (Webster City), Ron Glassner (Rock Island, Ill.), Bob Farrington (Darien, Conn.), Bob Heggstad (Denison), Neil Hitchcock (Muscatine), Dave Kehe (Waverly), John Loughran (Iowa City), Doug MacDonald (Wichita, Kans.), Buster Miller (Davenport), Jim Otto (Readlyn), Mark Puddicombe (Joliet, Ill.), Larry Rathje (Davenport), Lyle Rondabush (Brooklyn), Mark Steil (River Forest, Ill.), Pete Frantz (Deerfield, Ill.), Tom Staack (Waterloo) and Mike Wagner (Waterloo). Our special thanks to alums who sent recommendations and to those who responded to the summer alum letter.

The Iowa Delts literally opened the football season this fall. Brothers Terry Mulligan, Dan Hilsabeck, Lee Weston, Rich O'Hara, and Dave Recher represented the Hawks on the field while Bill Parisi led the marching band as drum major and Dean Sieperda opened his season as Herky, the Iowa mascot. During the game the Pep Club, of which Brother Larry Herb is president, initiated the Hawkeye Cheering Block, M.C.'ed by Brother Larry Goettsch.

Omicron also boasts of Brother Pete Wells, who is serving as one of 12 elected directors of Union Board, an organization which encompasses 215 active members, and Bill Parisi who, in addition to serving as drum major, finds time to serve as director of the Miss SUI Homecoming Pageant, member of the executive cabinets of Project AID and Young Republicans, vice-president of the Central Party Committee, Producer-Director of the SUI Variety Show, member of Orientation Council and Greek Week Committee, and IFC representative. Steve Trecker, in addition to doing an outstanding job as alumni relations chairman, is an IFC Court justice and orientation leader. Ted Pastras and Jim Mathews placed our house combo as one of the best by playing for the entire University Variety Show. Jim Carlton is publicity chairman for the Central Party Committee and is a member, along with Dave Hvidston and Larry Goettsch, of the Old Gold Singers. Larry Foster is a member of the Spring Festival Committee and Dick Mundy is Student Senate Commissioner of City Relations. Rich Edler assisted the new students this fall as University Orientation General Chairman. In the area of activities the house is proud of having more Delts represented in Omicron Delta Kappa than any other house on campus.

In addition to the men on the gridiron, Brothers Denny Pauling, Joel Jessen, Neil Hitchcock, and Tom Chapman are members of the basketball squad; Ron Glassner, swimming; Dan Price, Steve Trecker, and Doug MacDonald, wrestling; Rich O'Hara, Carl Brunst, and Tom Staack, baseball; and Dave Kehe, Tom Chapman, and Dick Wilson, golf.

Omicron looks forward to a very active fall. In addition to post-game parties we are planning a Dads' Day banquet on November 14 at the Mayflower Restaurant.

We at the chapter house want to take this opportunity to invite all Delts, and especially Omicron alums and their families, to come to Iowa City this fall for Homecoming, October 24. In addition to the pep rally, the parade and the crowning of Miss SUI on Friday night, we invite you to join us at the Shelter for a breakfast in honor of all alums on Saturday at 10:00 a.m. Afterwards there will be transportation for all alums to the big game with Purdue. Just leave your car at the house. You are, of course, invited to the party Saturday night. The response from alums has been very enthusiastic so if you haven't answered, please do so immediately. Address responses to Steve Trecker at the Shelter.

Looking forward to these events, Omicron welcomes another year on the Iowa campus.

Iowa State—Gamma Pi

Gamma Pi Chapter has started the year off with a boom on Iowa State's campus. After the successful initiation of 100% of our pledges last year—23 men—we were set for another good year of rush. Much hard work brought us 30 new pledges at the end of rush week this fall. This is the largest pledge class on the Iowa State campus, and it sets the future of Gamma Pi on firm ground.

Scholarship at Gamma Pi was outstanding this past year. We finished thirteenth among 33 fraternities on campus, and were well above the All Men's Average. We are also looking for another excellent year in scholarship for Gamma Pi.

The Shelter had taken on a new look when we returned to classes this fall. We had finished a complete remodeling of the downstairs and living room, with freshly painted walls, new furniture, and a new carpet.

The activity side of Gamma Pi is well represented by the pledges. Al Hanks is G. S. B. vice-presidential assistant and Ron Lammars is the varsity basketball manager. Besides these men, many others are getting started in activities.

Last year was an outstanding one for the Delts at Iowa State, and this year promises to be as good, if not better.

EDWARD M. MYERS

Kansas—Gamma Tau

The year 1963-64 was one of the best in the history of Gamma Tau on the University of Kansas campus. Besides breaking a national Delt scholastic record, many of the brothers earned prominent positions in Hill activities. Leading the line of outstanding Delts on campus is Brother Bob Enberg, president of Student Union Activities, and vice-president of Sachem, the senior men's honor society. With Reuben McCornack finishing out his term as president of the student body and national coordinator of People to People, John Benson stepped into another important post on the All Student Fall pledge class at Iowa's Omicron Chapter.

Council, being elected representative of the School of Business. Graduating Senior Jim Head received a full graduate scholarship to work with the staff of the K.U. nuclear reactor. Jim Gossett became general chairman for the Homecoming festivities, featuring a concert by Harry Belafonte.

The K.U. Delts also made their presence felt in the field of sports. Led by Big Eight champion javelin thrower Tom Purma, the Delt trackmen scored 27 points in the conference meet and helped lead K.U. to another Big Eight championship. Footballers Fred Heidinger and John Adams will bolster the Jayhawker line in the future at tackle and end. This year the Delts have also placed three men on the cheerleading squad.

Last year also found Delta Tau Delta involved in numerous social activities. Besides sorority functions, the Delts' Paddle Party, Christmas Formal, and Pajama Party always rank high as social affairs on the campus. This year we also plan to have a Dads' Day during one of this fall's football weekends in addition to our regularly scheduled events.

Gamma Tau came through summer and fall rush with another excellent pledge class, and we hope that we can continue with our outstanding scholarship and leadership among the chapters in the national Fraternity.

CLIFF LAKE

Kansas State—Gamma Chi

The men of Gamma Chi recently completed one of the most successful rushes in recent years. As always, K-State Delts tried to pledge a variety of men. We were not disappointed this year, as we got 37 pledges active in all phases of student participation at K-State.

Intramural competition last year saw the Delts capture fifth place. We look forward to an even higher over-all rating this year, as we have many men back from last year in addition to our new pledge class.

Again, as in past years, the Delts are the strongest group on the hill in activities. Several union committee chairmanships and positions on the Union Governing Board are held by Delts. Gamma Chi is also active in campus honoraries, and claims the business manager of the Royal Purple.

In 1963-64, we placed fifth in scholarship among the 23 fraternities. Of a total of 33 pledges last year, 29 made their grades and were initiated. This represents one of the highest percentages of initiates at K-State.

Our first major social function, the barn party, was an overwhelming success with many alums in attendance. We are anticipating the Paddle Party and Homecoming and many spontaneous functions throughout the semester.

Gamma Chi is well represented in varsity sports. Track, football, wrestling, and basketball all have at least one Delt in participation.

With 65 actives and 37 pledges, we are one of the strongest and largest houses at Kansas State. Our prospects for the coming year appear limitless. It looks like another excellent year for the Gamma Chi Delts.

DOUG MORGENSON

Kenyon—Chi

As the 1964-65 school year commenced, the hustling metropolis of Gambier was greeted by 34 returning Delts. After rush is concluded on October 3, Chi will return to normal, and follow the schedule of our intramural football team which may average over two hundred pounds.

Our Karnea representatives, Ned Newcomer and Hogs Wentworth, termed the convention a "filling experience" and noted that they were able to wedge in some social activity along with the business sessions. Also during the summer, the chapter followed the newspaper reports depicting alum Mike Reed's adventurous chase of a white whale off the Atlantic port of Newcomb Sound.

We here on the hill will strive for two goals in the coming fall term. In addition to working toward a fine dance weekend on November 20, we will be fighting for the Scholastic Cup which has recently eluded us.

GENE LITTLE

Lafayette—Nu

Again the Nu Delts are looking forward to a rewarding year and hope to increase their prestige further on the Lafayette campus as a leading house in the academic, athletic, and extracurricular fields. This will be the last year for eighteen seniors who promise to make this the Delts' finest year in campus activity. In addition to their efforts, the sophomore and junior classes are making noteworthy contributions to insure Delt leadership for years to come.

On the academic side three seniors and a junior made the Dean's List. Pete Bukowick, Earle Pickens, Jim Larkin, and Louis Potts led the Shelter as the Brotherhood as a whole kept the house well above the All Men's Average. Larkin has been elected to the Lafayette Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa for his academic excellence throughout his four years. Bukowick and Larkin are also doing honors research in chemistry under a National Science Foundation grant as is Pickens in biology. Special mention should be made of Bill Reyburn's consistency since he has achieved an 83 average each semester while at Lafayette. This has earned him the Russell C. Brinker Award as the top civil engineer at Lafayette.

The athletic picture, both in intramurals and in intercollegiate play, is the brightest in years. Junior Gary Quintiere is vying for a starting guard position on the Leopard football team, and Sophomore Ron Angevine and Junior C. B. Gebhard have won starting positions on the undefeated soccer team, the former playing fullback and the latter at center-forward. Don Johnson, a sophomore soccer fullback, could give the Delts a monopoly on this position by next year. Meanwhile Louis Potts starts his third campaign as football manager.

In intramurals we have very nearly reached the top. Last spring we won the league softball crown by dropping only one game, making our season record 26 wins versus one defeat. The leading hitters included Potts, Terry Burton, Slamin' Bill Reyburn, the Louisville Slugger, and Gebhard. In the intramural track meet we placed a strong second as Gebhard captured the mile and half-mile races and Quintiere took the shot put. These two were aided by two second place finishes by the 440- and 880-yard relay teams. Since every member returns this year, there are high hopes of taking the meet. In intramural football the team has gone on the rampage by averaging five touchdowns a game versus one scored by the other teams. Assuming the role of favorites, we are assured of a place in the play-offs and could very easily take the championship. This team is led by Tricky Dick Rau and Rich the Wrecker Alexander at the halfback slots, Hands Reyburn and Glue-Fingers Ireland at the ends, Frank the Tank McKinnon at tackle, Slimy Sam Wakeman at center, and Earle the Bomb Pickens, backed by Golden Arm Turrell, at the quarterback post. Terrible Terry Burton, Mad Man Miller, and Blade Nixon are the defensive specialists.

Louis Potts again leads the house in extracurricular activities. He has been named managing editor of the college yearbook, is the national advertising manager for the college newspaper, and is a member of Maroon Key, the junior honorary society, as is Gary Quintiere. Pete Turrell is again the business manager of the newspaper this year besides belonging to Scabbard and Blade, the honorary ROTC society. President Earle Pickens is secretary of the Interfraternity Council and vice-president of the Pre-Medical Society. The Sophomore Class Council includes Delt representative Ron Angevine.

Summer activities included Sam Wakeman's unsuccessful venture as a crew member to bring the "Easterner" home first in the America's Cup Trials. However, he gained valuable experience and looks upon his summer as being most rewarding in spite of the setback. Gordon Bailey, Distinguished Military Student, took part in the National Rifle Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio. He finished third in the Marine Cup Match and should lead the college rifle team for the fourth successive year.

In all, the prospects are as bright for future Delt successes as the past has been, and we are awaiting rushing so as to get another outstanding pledge class to carry on the fine Delt traditions at Lafayette.

JOHN IRELAND

Maine—Gamma Nu

Under the capable leadership of Bill Flewelling, our president, Gamma Nu completed another highly successful year this past June.

Senior Banquet honors housemother at Maine, Mrs. LYON.

Spring House Party was the biggest social event of the spring semester. Carole Taylor was crowned Sweetheart of Gamma Nu during this dance. In May the seniors held a banquet in honor of our housemother, Mrs. Lyon.

Delts Vern Walker and Jim Ballinger along with Pledge Paul Gray received their letter sweaters and jackets for their efforts on the outdoor track team. These awards were presented at a banquet in honor of all the outstanding Maine athletes. At the completion of the spring semester the academic standing of Gamma Nu was fourth among the 16 fraternities on campus.

This summer Gamma Nu was well represented at the Karnea by Brothers Bill Flewelling, Jim Ballinger, and Dick French. Our delegates learned very much from their experiences in Cincinnati, and during the next month they are planning to give a report to the chapter on their trip.

The brothers returned to the Shelter this fall to find several major improvements. The exterior of the house had been given a new coat of paint, and several weeks ago the kitchen got the same treatment. A new fryolator and mixer were purchased to make the going a little easier for our chef, Amasa "Stubby" Sherman. Stubby is back for his second year as our chef and his cooking is as good as ever. Another veteran returning for her second year is our housemother, Mrs. Lyon. Her gracious manner and pleasant smile are an inspiration to all of the members, and we hope that both she and Stubby will be with us for many years to come.

Our pledges, 18 strong, are living and working in the Shelter with only two exceptions: one has a proctorship in the dormitory system and the other joined the Peace Corps during the summer. The pledges are working very well together, and the pledge duties are being done faithfully. This fine group of young men is going to be a great asset to this chapter.

Sportswise, Gamma Nu is bracing for the intramural football season which is almost upon us. Under the careful eye of Coach Arnie Amoroso, this team with seasoned veterans and sharp-looking newcomers is definitely going to be the team to beat. In varsity football Vern Walker is plugging up the holes as defensive tackle for the Maine Bears.

In honorary campus groups, Dave Simard and Paul Harden are Senior Skulls for the year 1964-65. Doug Weaver, a pledge, was chosen to be a Sophomore Owl. Jim Ballinger is serving as the treasurer of the junior class.

At the time of this writing the brothers here at Gamma Nu are looking forward to Homecoming Weekend, October 10. We certainly hope that the alumni Delts will turn out in force and come back to their Shelter for this big weekend.

THOMAS LOTHROP

Maryland—Delta Sigma

The Delta Sigma Chapter greets all chapters with a proud revelation of activities of the past year. We maintained our high scholastic rating while keeping a well-balanced intramural schedule. Never finishing below fourth place in any sport, we proudly took second place in the intramural swim meet, losing only to the largest house on campus.

Due to heavy loss by graduation, which dropped us from the large to the small chapter category, we announce a new slate of officers. The new president is John Prusch, and he is backed up by Robert Liskey as vice-president, Frank Cirillo as corresponding secretary, Al Biniasz as recording secretary, and Ray Lorber as treasurer. Our new resident adviser is Larry Howell, alumnus and past president of Delta Eta Chapter at the University of Alabama.

Maine's Sweetheart, CAROLE TAYLOR, with happy (but anonymous) escort.

Throughout the summer we took definite forward steps. With the aid of our house corporation we completely refurnished the Shelter's main floor and chapter room. We also maintained a strong summer rush program which rewarded us with eight fine pledges: Wade Nicholson, Dave Calvin, Bob Ritter, Tim Clarke, Nelson Hallman, Dave Duffas, Chris Washburn, and Bob Stevens.

Our new Delt Queen is beautiful sophomore Sandy Stine, who is pinned to Brother Andy Hongell.

FRANK CIRILLO

Miami—Gamma Upsilon

The scholastic achievements of Gamma Upsilon were outstanding over the past semester. We moved up 11 places, according to the University's tabulation of Greek organization averages.

Much of the credit for the grade improvement can be given to a well planned and effective rush. Our pledge class ranked fourth of 22 on campus. The credit does not end here, however, as the active chapter's grades also improved considerably over previous years.

The Deltas were not to be forgotten at sports either. Our handball team took first place honors last spring. They did an outstanding job, and are expected to be on top again this year. Our congratulations go to Brothers Jim Kidd, Dave Stambaugh, Gary Pogalies, and Rich Johnson, for their fine efforts.

The fall semester should be an exciting and fruitful one. Several rush and social parties are scheduled for the coming weeks.

We hope all Delt chapters are enjoying the same success and pleasure as the members of Gamma Upsilon. Good luck for the coming year.

DALE S. NEPSA

Michigan—Delta

The enthusiasm that marked the fall semester of 1963 was intensified even more last spring, as the brothers of the Delta Chapter continued the academic year under the leadership of incumbent officers Philip Carlson, president; Robert Ross, vice-president; Bill Litzenberg, treasurer; Art Schueler, recording secretary; and Ray Franzen, corresponding secretary. Again, the emphasis was placed on studies, with remarkable results. The chapter average ranked above the All Men's Average at the end of the semester, as it did in the fall. This average was supported by 27 brothers with 3.0 or better, including Bob Hildreth who had 31 hours of 4.0, and Kurt Neumann, who had 16 of the same.

Activities were at a peak also in the spring semester. The spring pledge formal, under the energetic direction of Brothers William Buesser and Lloyd Redlin, culminated a semester of popular social events. One of the high points was the Michigras weekend, which proved to be a very active one at the Delta Chapter. Bob Buter is especially to be acknowledged for his direction and planning of the Michigras activities.

Sportswise, the Delta Chapter finished in the top nine of the 44 fraternities competing in intramural sports. This ranking included a championship in softball and a second-place finish in a hard-fought basketball season. The outlook is good for a repeat of this performance, too, with our softball team already on its way to a second championship this fall under the excellent pitching of Barry Sammons.

Rush this fall was particularly challenging. We were able to be especially selective due to the large size of our active chapter, which is 70 strong. However, under the leadership of rush chairman Larry MacDonnell we acquired 11 pledges who we feel will prove to be an added asset to the chapter.

Football will be the password this fall, as many of our social activities will be centered on the week-end games. The Delta Chapter is especially fired up over this year's season because Bob Timberlake, the starting quarterback, and Dave McLaughlin, an end, are both brothers. The big week end will be Homecoming. We take on Minnesota and are gearing our schedule to the many alumni that we expect. We anticipate a good season and a good semester, and hope to meet many Deltas from other Big Ten universities.

BILL GRAY

Michigan State—Iota

Iota Chapter was proud to receive the Northern Division Scholastic Achievement award for 1962-63 at the recent Karnea, held in Cincinnati. In an attempt to improve further Iota's scholastic standing, Brothers Steve Powers and John McQuitty, delegates to the Karnea, are busy evaluating the innovations and programs presented by the various chapters.

Activity in campus politics continues for Iota brothers. Steve Powers, named Union Board vice-president last winter, has taken on the additional responsibility of J-Hop general chairman. A. J. Harris and Pete Wade are presently serving as president and treasurer, respectively, of this year's senior class. Wade, in addition, was general chairman for the annual Career Carnival held in October, with John McQuitty acting as publicity chairman, and Brother Paul Kinney as staging chairman.

Brother Gary Dilley, a sophomore, won a berth on the 1964 Olympic swim team with an upset victory at New York's Astoria Pool in September. Dilley scored a stunning victory in the 200-meter backstroke, with a time of 2 minutes 12 seconds.

GARY DILLEY, Iota Chapter's Olympic swimmer.

Brothers of Iota Chapter are anxiously awaiting the start of construction on our new house, scheduled for occupancy in January of 1966. The house, to be located on Harrison Road, will replace the eighty year old Shelter presently in use.

The brothers welcome to Iota Chapter and Michigan State University transfer student Gilbert Harrell, from Delta Chapter at the University of Michigan. A junior, Harrell is presently living in the Shelter, and acting as crew chief in charge of the kitchen.

An excellent first term rush was recently completed, with Iota getting ten top pledges. The brothers are grateful to Bob Fanning, whose hard work as rush chairman accounts for the fine selection.

KYLE C. KERBAWY

Minnesota—Beta Eta

As the school year draws nearer, we Delts at Beta Eta feel well prepared for it.

Over the summer months, we spent a great deal of time together preparing for the coming year. To keep up our name as one of the largest fraternities on campus, we planned several summer functions for prospective pledges. Under the leadership of Tom Stevenson, our rush chairman, several barbecues, swimming parties, and smokers were held in order to acquaint as many fall rushees as possible with the members of our chapter. We feel the fact that 14 boys pledged during the first fall rush indicates how successful our pre-rush parties were in acquainting the incoming rushees with the members of DTD. Also this summer the actives spent many days in fixing up the Shelter to prepare it for the two formal rush periods of fall, for the coming parties, and for the harsh weather of winter and early spring.

Within the last few weeks, the committees have gathered together to plan specifically for the fall. The scholastics committee reports that the study techniques for the house will be the same as those of last year. This means that there will be silence in the Shelter from 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. every weeknight. We feel that this sort of atmosphere in the Shelter is conducive to studying, and the fact that last quarter we had the highest grade point average for the large fraternities on campus proves that our "quiet requirement" is an effective help in studying. The athletic committee reports that it is setting up teams in all fall intramural sports. The captains of the football and cross-country teams are diligently making plans and lining up players to defend the first-place trophies won last year. Also planning their strategy for this fall are the captains of bowling, paddle ball, and the other sports, all of whom have high hopes of taking back to the Shelter a first-place trophy.

For social activities, Dick Roth, our social chairman, has planned a full calendar of events. These range from sorority exchanges to a variety of parties. The homecoming formal and the annual Delt-sorority pledge pajama party should prove to be the two big events on the fall social calendar.

In conclusion, we at Beta Eta have formulated a general outline of what we want to accomplish during this, our greatest year as Delts on the Minnesota campus, and have also made specific plans for what we will be doing during fall quarter.

TERRENCE WILLIAMS

Nebraska—Beta Tau

Beta Tau at Nebraska completed a successful summer rush by pledging 19 outstanding men, including five class valedictorians, the state high school tennis champion and the state half-mile record holder. Instrumental in this success were Co-rush Chairmen Gerald Bailey and Tom Nystrom. Outstanding rush parties were the "Riverboat Party" on the Missouri River and a party held at Johnson Lake near Lexington. With the newly added potential we should be among the leaders at semester's end.

Among other things of which Nebraska Delts are proud is the increased beauty of the Shelter's interior. New carpeting, brick tiling, and many other improvements have greatly enhanced the house.

The new school year will find Delts in many activities. Not the least of these men active on campus are John Lydick, student body president; Wally Weeks, Kosmet Klub fall show chairman; and John Mullins, national Chief of Staff of Pershing Rifles. These men and many others keep the Delts' name well known on campus.

On the social side the Annual All-University Street Dance was once again attended by two to three thousand people. Picnics, woodsies, and house parties have and will continue to keep members busy on fall weekends.

In general the 1964-65 school year at Beta Tau has the potential to be the best witnessed in a long time. Interest and spirit seem to have been awakened anew and all appear ready to meet the challenges in all fields of endeavor.

JIM ENSZ

North Dakota—Delta Xi

This fall saw Delta Xi off to another successful year. Rush, under the able direction of Brother Neil Fleming, produced 20 top men. The officers of this pledge class are George Orff, president; Barry Johnson, vice-president; Gene Larson, secretary-treasurer; Steve Ehrick, social chairman; and Fred Bott, sergeant-at-arms.

Four men were initiated into the chapter here this fall. They are Dennis Anderson, Thief River Falls, Minn.; Dennis Lum, Minot; Nathan Burlingame, Grand Forks; and George Fuchs, Huntington, N. Y.

Graduation at UND was highlighted by the commencement address of National Vice-President Tom C. Clark. After the address Justice Clark visited with Delta Xi alumni and undergraduates at the Shelter.

Justice TOM CLARK visits with alumni and undergraduates at North Dakota, after delivering the commencement address.

Last spring Delta Xi sponsored a sorority basketball tournament. This fun-filled event was won by Alpha Phi sorority, with the Tri Delts second.

About six o'clock one May morning, the Delts invaded the Delta Gamma's to crown their new Sally Sunshine. Chosen the best looking girl without make up was Marcia Howland.

On the sport scene, Delta Xi captured three intramural trophies last spring in basketball, bowling, and horse shoes.

Scholastically, Delta Xi was sixth among fraternities on campus, and the pledge class was second.

JOHN ARTZ

Northwestern—Beta Pi

The brothers returned this fall with every reason to expect a great year for Beta Pi.

Most important, the chapter scholarship average had improved immensely during spring quarter, with 44 per cent of the brothers achieving a 3.0 ("B" average) or better, and our chapter average was above any of the other big houses at N.U.

Last year for the first time in Northwestern's history, Beta Pi won the all-school intramural sports sweepstakes trophy, under the capable direction of I.M. Chairman Dick Cwiklinski.

"It was a team effort all the way," Brother Cwiklinski modestly commented. "The brothers all contributed and they came through in the clutch."

The brothers, under Rush Chairman Steve Schlegel, worked hard throughout the summer, and their efforts were rewarded. During Rush Week, 28 of the finest freshmen on campus pledged Delt. All of the brothers agreed that the group is potentially the strongest class ever pledged by Beta Pi Chapter.

The pledges, to say nothing of the rest of the chapter, are looking ahead to the quarter's first social event, the annual Delt Pajama Race Party, the only all-campus activity sponsored by a fraternity. This year's gala gathering promises to kick off another fine college calendar for the N.U. Delts.

Homecoming is only a few weeks away and the brotherhood is eagerly awaiting the annual pig roast. The event provides a fine opportunity to greet Beta Pi alums, and to showcase extensive redecorating to the Shelter. Enthusiasm reigns at Beta Pi.

JIM CLARE

Ohio—Beta

Beta Delts are seeking another semester as successful as last spring's, when Brother Gary Richetto won first place in the Mr. Fraternity competition. Brothers Ken Bachman and Jed Frost were co-chairmen of the Mock Republican National Convention, one of the biggest events in Ohio University's history, and the brothers as a group jumped to third place in scholarship among 19 fraternities. The spirit from Delta Tau Delta's fine spring semester was unfortunately dampened by the death of Brother Steve Walker in a June automobile accident.

The brothers came back to find the Shelter extensively redecorated, thanks to the work of Chapter President Mike Tedrick. Brother Mike cleaned, carpeted, and painted the greater part of the first floor and stairways of the chapter house.

Fall rush is still going on under the direction of Brother Tim Sidley. Although the results are incomplete, Beta Chapter already has five new pledges: Doug Alinger, Tom Clifton, Walt Harrison, Terry McDowell, and Jeff Tierce. Pledge training will be done by Pledgemaster

Harry Dennis and Workmaster Bob Becker.

Last spring's big pledge class had its initiation banquet September 24. The speaker for this occasion was Dr. Joseph D. Boyd, President of the Northern Division of the Fraternity. In addition to honoring the pledge class, Mrs. Leah Corio, Beta Chapter's housemother, was presented the Delt Sweetheart pin.

Brother Ken Bachman has been invited to attend President Johnson's reception for outstanding campus leaders. Brother Ken will fly to Washington, D. C., meet the President and attend a party thrown by the President's daughter.

Prospects for a new Shelter seem brighter than ever, with only the precise location to be determined. The local alumni have been active this summer raising funds, checking on property values, and negotiating for land with private individuals and the University.

Although the fall semester is just beginning, there is already good organization within the chapter. Brother Stan Mortenson is mobilizing the brothers into a glee club for October serenades; Brother Bob McCarthy has organized football and tennis teams, with good chances of capturing intramural honors; Brother John Marksbury has scheduled prominent members of the administration to come to the Shelter to speak; and Brother Dave Van Fleet has formed a social schedule with parties and breakfasts or teas with nearly every sorority on campus.

BILL HARMON

Ohio State—Beta Phi

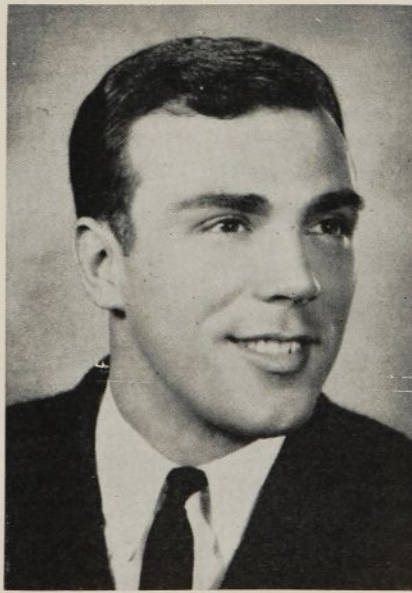

The changing of the seasons and the beginning of a new school year gives Beta Phi its cue to swing into its typically full schedule of fall activities which sets the pace for Ohio State's Greek system.

An analysis of last spring quarter found us once again the workhorse of campus activities. Tom Workman and Steve Starr served as student senators, where Tom heads the influential Student Affairs Commission. Jim Williamson and Harry Field served as freshman senators. Phil Giessler, elected top activities man of the chapter, is vice president of Buckeye Political Party, and has held chairmanships of last year's May Week Carnival and the Greek Week publicity committees, and is currently serving as secretary in the Fraternity Affairs Office. Dave Stitsinger, chapter treasurer, was co-chairman for last fall's Dad's Day and also headed a May Week committee. Ron Essary has held some nine different chairmanships during the past year. Delts also participated in many other campus activities, including Ohio Staters, campus service organization, Glee Club, drill teams, and various political organizations.

Delt activity and scholarship performances during the year netted several members of Beta Phi berths in various honoraries in last spring's tappings. Jim Williamson and Terry Settlemyre were initiated into Romophos, sophomore men's honorary. Tom Workman was selected for Bucket and Dipper, junior men's honorary and also received the award as the Army's outstanding military cadet of O.S.U.'s sophomore ROTC class. Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic honorary, initiated Delts Dave Dixon and Steve Arlin.

Spring quarter had its usual fine selection of parties and week end frolics. During May Week, the brothers finished second in all-campus Tug-O-War contest, and doubled with Pi Beta Phi sorority in constructing a booth for the May Week Carnival. Also occurring in spring quarter was the All Day Picnic, Founder's Day Banquet, and Champagne Formal. Highlight of the formal was the presentation of chapter awards. Harriet Miller of Delta Gamma was voted Delt Sweetheart. Members of the Queen's court included Karen Stout of Delta Gamma, Gwen Bock of Pi Beta Phi, Roz Bissell, and Kathy Salzman. Brother Bill Cromley was named "Mr. Delt" while Bob Cowan received the intramural award and Jim Williamson the model pledge trophy. Ed Merrell was given the Tough Break award.

As fall quarter began, Beta Phi's housemother, Mrs. Mildred Barnes, beginning her ninth year in that capacity, welcomed back her boys to the Shelter. The first week of the quarter was devoted to rush, and the week's efforts, guided by Rush Chairman Roger Reynolds, resulted in the pledging of 41 new men. This number, coupled with the 28 holdover pledges from last spring, brings the grand total to a startling 69, certainly the largest pledge class on campus. Included in this number are men from every phase of campus activity, from athletics and scholastic honoraries to glee clubs and political organizations. Pledge trainer Bill Cromley and aides are already well underway in the awesome task of welding this pledge class into a group able to assume the responsibilities involved in wearing the Badge of Delta Tau Delta.

Once again this fall the Delt social program is an active and interesting one. Weekend parties are planned throughout the quarter, several of which are theme parties. The main social events will be the Homecoming Dance and the annual Christmas Dinner. A long list of serenades and exchange dinners has already been planned with most of O.S.U.'s leading sororities.

The Delt's interest in football this year is heightened by the efforts of John Palmer, Ron Kaylor and Bob Funk on the Buckeye football squad. Place-kicker Funk scored nine points on Ohio State's opening 27 to 8 victory over S.M.U., while all the Delts saw action. With such fine examples set on the varsity level, the men of Beta Phi have high hopes for its intramural football team, which is the primary fall campus competition.

Beta Phi Delts are looking forward to a successful year, with a fine group of pledges and actives to strive for the high goals set by the chapter.

RICHARD MABEN

Ohio Wesleyan—Mu

Returning to the Shelter for the 1964-65 academic year, Mu Delts took time to review the past year's achievements. The chapter ranked second out of 14 fraternities in scholarship for the entire year. Five new intramural trophies decorate the house mantle. Brothers Ron Wenger and Rick Roberts were elected Men's Court justices, junior Dave Doan was chosen as executive vice-president of the Interfraternity Council, Mike Wise was named IFC rush chairman, and Rich Sweat was tapped for Omicron Delta Kappa. Brother Gerry Bechtle continues as student head of ROTC, and Tony Barelli as leader of the University Jazz Band. Mu Delts maintain their positions in campus activities by controlling two Student Government committees, two IFC committees, and the business offices of the college newspaper and yearbook.

This year shows good promise for Delt athletes in both intramurals and inter-collegiate competition. Among the key men participating this fall will be Branch Rickey and Gary Lewis in soccer, George Ellis and Chad Lammert in basketball, Tom Purcell and Steve Curfman in swimming, and Don Smith in wrestling.

The Delt social calendar will also be full again this year. The first month of school began with a spectacular open house, a hay ride, and a pie-throwing booth at the Campus Carnival. This fall the social program will be rounded out with the pledge class formal, a Homecoming float, another hayride, and the traditional Ozark Party.

The success of Mu Chapter's summer rush program, conducted by Ed Guthrie and Clay Johnson, was quite apparent when last week the Delts pledged 31 of the best men in the freshman class. The following men were pledged: Pete Anderson, Noank, Conn.; Skip Auch, Greenwich, Conn.; Drew Buchanan, Hillsdale, Mich.; Jim Carper, Leawood, Kansas; Rob Craig, Wooster, Ohio; Steve Curfman, Cincinnati, Ohio; George Ellis, Columbus, Ohio; Bob Fenning, Coshocton, Ohio; Mike Flack, Maumee, Ohio; Jim Goodman, Findlay, Ohio; Glenn Gordon, Norwich, Conn.; John Hinton, Mechanicsburg, Ohio; John Holmes, Sandusky, Ohio; Jim Jenkins, Berea, Ohio; Chad Lammert, Mt. Lebanon, Pa.; Jon Leibach, Sandusky, Ohio; Keith Locke, East Liverpool, Ohio; Doug Macalister, Tenaflly, New Jersey; Mike McCormick, Ravenna, Ohio; Ralph Nemir, Wilmette, Ill.; Rick Patterson, Bay Village, Ohio;

Here are 48 of the 50 pledges taken by Oklahoma, with housemother, Mrs. AMMONS.

Dick Penton, Bay Village, Ohio; Tim Rardin, Portsmouth, Ohio; Jim Rector, Lakewood, Ohio; Scott Sattler, Tiffin, Ohio; Rick Scheid, Sandusky, Ohio; Rick Stager, Avon Lake, Ohio; Bob Stout, Marion, Ohio; John Stroh, Indianapolis, Indiana; Keith Walker, Continental, Ohio; and Bob Winter, New Castle, Pennsylvania. It is the chapter's sincere hope that with this new pledge class the Mu Deltas can not only maintain their present level of attainment on campus but reach an even greater height in the coming year.

Oklahoma—Delta Alpha

Sooner Deltas closed out the 1964 spring semester in fine fashion. Academically, Delta Alpha finished third second semester, and placed third over-all among the campus' 24 fraternities for the 1963-64 school year. Delta Alpha's second semester pledge class scholastic average was bettered by no one, as Delta captured the IFC scholarship plaque for the second consecutive year.

Remodeling of the Shelter's study hall with improved lighting, air conditioning, new furniture, drapes, and sound-proofing material, should further improve Delta scholarship this year.

Intramurally, Delta Alpha placed third over-all fraternally among campus jocks. This was slightly disappointing, since Sooner Deltas captured the intramural trophy just one year ago. The chapter did, however, manage to cop three individual championships.

With the close of the spring semester, Sooner Deltas began their summer rush program. Under the direction of Rush Chairman Richard Chapman, Delta Alpha undertook a stringent program which included barbecues, dances, ski and swimming parties, and many personal rush functions.

With the fall semester beginning, Sooner Deltas look forward to another fun-filled, successful year of books, parties, athletics, and activities.

BOB WILLIS

Oklahoma State—Delta Chi

The school year has started again, and Deltas at Oklahoma State returned to the campus with a great deal of spirit, ready for rush week. A successful summer rush and a more successful rush week saw the men at Delta Chi pledge 28 fine men. The pledge class brought the house to full capacity, and it looks as if the school year will be another good one for Deltas at OSU.

The summer proved to be a very interesting one for many OSU Deltas. Brothers Bill Oden and Chris Burnett spent the summer in New York City as Sooner Guides at the Worlds Fair, Brother Mike Mullman spent his summer working in Oslo, Norway, and David Gibson worked for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration in Houston at the Manned Spacecraft Center.

The Deltas at OSU finished within the top eight teams intramurally, and second in scholarship to be one of two fraternities to attain such an honor of high rating in both intramurals and scholarship. The intramural program is already in full swing, with football, tennis, and bowling underway. The Delta bowling team will be stronger than ever this year, with its goals set on the All-University title. With fine active-chapter intramural material and a potentially strong pledge group, this should prove to be a banner year for Delta Chi in intramurals.

The Deltas plan to remain tops in scholarship ratings this year under Bob Fowler, scholarship chairman.

The social life of Deltas at Oklahoma State started off with the annual River Bottom Party at Yost Lake, which was a big success. Other parties planned for the fall term are the Spook Party in Oklahoma State's fall pledge class.

October and the Fall Formal Dinner-Dance to be held in November. Homecoming is already being planned by Brother David Martin, who wants to repeat last year's first place victory for fraternity house decorations.

Delts are proud to have Mrs. T. B. McClendon, our house mother, back with us for her 12th year of service to Delta Chi Delts.

We at Delta Chi would like to wish all Delt Chapters the best year ever for Delta Tau Delta, and hope your success will always be good.

ROBERT GIBSON

Oregon—Gamma Rho

Oregon's Delts launched their fifty-first year with a bang, pledging the third largest pledge class on campus. These included: John Clemons, Portland, Oregon; Stan Murphy, San Francisco, California; Jack Seiford, Portland; Kent Washburn, Anchorage, Alaska; John Clinton, San Mateo, California; Ken Paxton, Sacramento, California; Phil Gregg, North Hollywood, California; Dale Roberts, Hollister, California; Sid Christie, Rockaway, Oregon; Bob Collins, Medford, Oregon; Martin Ritchey, Klamath Falls, Oregon; Rod Phillips, Astoria, Oregon; Mike Williams, Eugene, Oregon; Pete Hallock, Rod Hoff and Bill Zurow, all of Portland.

One of Gamma Rho's major problems, lack of manpower, was partially solved by the fact that five of the pledges are sophomores and able to move in this year.

With the marriage of Edd Phillips to Sandra Allen (Pi Beta Phi) this summer, last year's vice-president, Leon Flinchpaugh, was elevated to Brother Edd's position as chapter president. Other brothers claimed by marriage were Bruce McKeel to Virginia Hassey of Portland and Doug Sterling to Roberta Heberle (Alpha Chi Omega).

Other changes in chapter officers included Andy Smith, treasurer, and Barry Sullivan, social chairman. Dick Nicholas, recording secretary and Mike Gleeson, corresponding secretary, retained their positions from last year.

Versatile Brother Gleeson, besides his house office of corresponding secretary, was co-rush chairman with Jim Kronenberg, Karnea delegate with Mike Schaefer, Dapper pledges at Oregon State had a collective high school GPA of 3.10.

fer, and is maintaining a B+ scholastic average. Mike sends a special hello to Chi Chapter Karnea delegates.

In a review of spring quarter activities, Gamma Rho Chapter placed sixth on campus in intramurals, thanks to a third place in softball and our strong finish in tennis and bowling.

The chapter grades for spring term showed a moderate improvement, while the Delt pledge class zoomed to fourth place among Oregon fraternities with a healthy 2.7 GPA. With two academic scholarships among the new pledge class, this position should definitely be held or improved upon.

This fall Gamma Rho welcomed Will Swenson, a graduate of the University of Idaho and a member of Delta Mu Chapter there. Brother Will will function as resident adviser at the Shelter while completing his master's study in Business Administration. His efforts for the house so far have been greatly appreciated and his experience will be invaluable because of Gamma Rho's lack of a senior class.

Oregon State—Delta Lambda

Delta Lambda Chapter invites you to review another Delt success at Oregon State University.

SPRING TERM 1964

In OSU student body elections Scott Thompson wins senatorship for the School of Education. Mike Dennis is named editor of the Oregon State Beaver (school annual). Tom Moon is selected as business manager. Carl Donovan joins Delt staff to act as editor of all military activities. Walt Samuelson gets nod as assistant business manager. Delt Rich Hansen is choice to edit the Barometer (school newspaper). John Salzer is named sports editor of the Barometer. John Herr backs up Salzer in sports department. Don Cook acts as national advertising manager for the newspaper. Pete Walz relinquishes position as business manager of Barometer to take seat with Student Senate and to act as public relations chairman for the Oregon State Student Body. Dave Korzan wins executive vice-presidency (second in command) of IFC. Delts capture second place in all-fraternity softball league. Randy Rothman pitches "shot" to a second place in all school track meet. Delt Rod Trask leads Oregon State varsity baseball team in batting average. Golfers Jon Paauwe and Bill McCrae hold down starting positions on varsity and freshman golf teams, respectively. Owen Lucey leads unbeaten Rook (freshman) tennis team to victories in both double and single matches.

Delts hold initiation. The following 13 are welcomed as new brothers: Gary Allen, Salem, Ore.; Tony Bowman, Pendleton, Ore.; Don Cook, El Cerrito, Calif.; Lee Doan, Atherton, Calif.; Tom Faia, Carmel, Calif.; Ken Largent, Portland, Ore.; Owen Lucey, Burlingame, Calif.; Tom McDowell, Portland, Ore.; Tom Neel, Burlingame, Calif.; Tom Oberg, Milwaukie, Ore.; Dave Ramberg, Portland, Ore.; Bob Rothschild, Palo Alto, Calif.; and Mike Taylor, Portland, Ore.

Delts place well above the All Men's Average in grades. In Fraternity standings the house jumps eight notches to fifth rank scholastically on campus among 33 fraternities.

Delts top social calendar with house dance. Two tons of sand used to convert Delt Shelter to "Beach Bungalow." Exchanges with Thetas, DG's, Alpha Phi's, and Pi Phi's are still talked about—favorably!

SUMMER 1964

With organized backing from Delt chapters in Washington and Idaho, Delta Lambda battles through for Portland Karnea in 1966. Delt from Oregon State win trophy for having the most number of delegates traveling the farthest distance to convention.

NOW—FEATURING—PREVIEW FALL 1964

Delts take 18 pledges during formal rush. Concentration on scholarship is reflected by a 3.10 high school GPA. The House welcomes the following prospective Delts: Tim Barnes, Palo Alto, Calif.; Jerry Black, Boise, Idaho; Robert Burr, Redmond, Ore.; Dick Carbon, Salem, Ore.; Rob Cook, Pendleton, Ore.; Rick Davis, Portland, Ore.; Richard Hammer, Indianapolis, Ind.; John Herr, Salem, Ore.; Jim Henry, Medford, Ore.; Marc Hollingshead, Corvallis, Ore.; Bruce McIntosh, Corvallis, Ore.; Greg Mecklem, Milwaukie, Ore.; Tony Quinn, Myrtle Creek, Ore.; Randy Sell, Salem, Ore.; John Shafer, Lincoln, Nebraska; Randy Stewart, Lake Oswego, Ore.; Donald Suva, Portland, Ore.; and Mike Vollmar, Salem, Ore.

Pledge dance already in planning stage. Exchanges with Alpha Chi's, Kappa's, and Theta's eagerly awaited. Post-football game function with brothers from Gamma Mu (Washington) drawing near.

Rothman, French, Allen, and Lucey begin working out for varsity basketball. Kicking specialist Don Cook is held out of varsity football for a year. Cook will be a great asset to intramural play. All-Northern California halfback Tim Barnes takes starting position on frosh football team. Gordy Lowell and Jack Taylor return to positions on varsity wrestling team. Guy Moore and Gene Burreson begin working out for varsity swim team. John Shafer keeps arm limber for pitching duties on varsity baseball team. Rod Trask turns down bonuses from Phillies and White Sox to continue his education.

CONCLUSIONS 1964

Noted improvement in scholastic position coupled with key positions held on campus again make the Delts one of the top houses at Oregon State. An outstanding pledge class provides an encouraging future.

DON ANDERSON

Pennsylvania—Omega

The fall semester here at Penn has brought back many old faces in search of new experiences. The months to come hold in store many events which the brothers are looking forward to with great anticipation. Fall is analogous with football weekends and, of course, post game celebrations.

Headlining the list of these weekends is homecoming. This year it will be centered around the Princeton game. The brothers will be working closely with the Omega Alumni Society in welcoming back all Delts to their home Shelter. On the football field that Saturday the Delts will again be well represented. This year, participating on the varsity level will be Tom Elgar, Gerry Gates, Dale Sommer, Dick Fraser, Paul Woody, Ron Hadsell, Carl Bertram, Jerry Brady, Bill Jorden and Don Schubert. Other fall sports have also attracted many Delts. Tom Read and Bob Baer are returning lettermen in 150 lb. football. Ward Rushling is on the soccer team and Kevin Cronin holds down a position on the crew.

This year the Omega Alumni Society is trying an experimental program to aid the scholarship of the chapter. The brothers have welcomed Bill Berberich into the Shelter as a scholarship adviser. He is a graduate student at Penn, selected by the Omega Alumni and the undergraduates, who will work closely with the brothers to determine their individual problems and possible solutions. He will also be corresponding with the faculty and faculty advisers of the brothers for the same purpose. In the short time he has been here, Bill has already shown the brotherhood prevalent trends in the academics of the chapter.

Again on the extracurricular activity level, the brothers have been holding down many prominent positions. Tom Elgar, Norm Hetrick, Dick Fraser and Bob Baer were recently elected to membership in the Sphinx Senior Honor Society. Bob also has the honor of being at the top of his engineering class. This may perhaps explain his great efficiency as treasurer of the chapter and his speed in turning out the bills. The chapter is amply supplying the Glee Club with the voices of Dick Costello, Jim Holmes, Norm Hetrick and Bill Garner. Bill is also the coordinator of our speaker program. In this capacity Bill invites prominent figures from both inside and outside the university community to discuss their specialized fields with the brothers. In other important posts are Tom Elgar, who is president of the Kit and Key Society, and Stu Clymer who is a member of the IF Council. Norm Hetrick, the president of Omega Chapter, is also the president of his senior class.

Under athletic chairman and coach Baer Barnhill, the Delt Drones IF football team hopes to retain its university championship. Although hurt by the loss of many regulars, the Drones still have the abilities of Brothers Postal, Vanderwoude, Shields, Santa Maria, Bishop, and Irace to help carry them through the campaign.

GERALD KOENIG

Pittsburgh—Gamma Sigma

Once again the Gamma Sigma Chapter at the University of Pittsburgh has gotten off to a great start this year. Many of the brothers returned to school early to put the house into top shape and, under the leadership of president Don Capone, plan for fall rush. At the end of rush we once again acquired the top pledge class on campus, totaling 24 men. A great deal of credit must be given to Rush Chairman Jim Dockey and his able assistant, John Gildea, for doing a really fantastic job in organizing our program and keeping us all on the go.

As usual the interfraternity athletic program attracts a great deal of attention at the Shelter. Last year our chapter won the All-Sports Trophy, and we are certainly planning on repeating this year. Our softball team, led by Wes Skeen, John Gildea, and Larry Burch, is presently in the thick of championship play. The football team appears to have great possibilities in quarterback Jim Dockey, Grant Stewart, and flankerback Sandy Hill. We are expecting great things of these two teams this fall.

The Delts have also been active in campus activities. Jack Koury is vice-president of the Interfraternity Council, and Bob Knight is a member of the Central Rush Committee. On school publications Wes Fitzsimmons was business manager of the freshman yearbook, The Polaris, while Sandy Hill is a member of the Homecoming Committee. In varsity athletics the Delts are very well represented on both the football and soccer teams. Bill Bodle is the starting right halfback on the football team, Carmen Sporio and Bill Beck are playing fullback, and Bob Taylor is a reserve center. The two halfback positions on the soccer team are ably filled by Brother George Sommer and Pledge Jim Snyder. Pledge Bill Zwrzolo has been a standout on the freshman team.

Probably the most marked improvement at the Delt House last year was our scholastic standing. The final statistics showed us with a 2.5 over-all Q.P.A., which was good enough for third place among the fraternities. This was also considerably higher than the All-Men's Average at the University.

We are all confident here at Gamma Sigma that we shall exceed our successes of last year, and we know that through the efforts of President Don Capone and newly-elected Vice-president Mike Ranck we shall remain the top fraternity at the University of Pittsburgh.

GEORGE SOMMER

Purdue—Gamma Lambda

The brothers of Gamma Lambda returned this fall to a rejuvenated Shelter. The living room has been completely refurnished, including rugs and drapes. The old furniture and rugs were used to furnish a secondary bumroom and to add a touch of luxury to the study rooms, for which new desks and chairs were also purchased. A gleaming new stainless steel kitchen along with a gleaming new cook won shouts of approval from the brothers.

Gamma Lambda wound up the previous school year by taking third place in fraternity intramurals and by successfully rushing five outstanding men from high school. Our fall pledge class consists of Tom Graham, Bill Gillilan, Doug Miller, Jim David, and Bill Wise.

During the football season Brother John Berlakovich and Pledges Bob Hadrack, Larry Kaminski, Jim Mewha and Carl Schneider will be fighting to uphold Purdue's reputation as the Spoilermakers. Bob was elected All-Big Ten last year and appeared on Playboy magazine's All-American second team. Pledge Gary Kirsh directs the activities of the Office of Public Relations, a student government agency.

One of Gamma Lambda's biggest concerns this year will be chapter scholarship. A pledge study table has been reserved for weeknights to assure the pledges of good study conditions.

With our remodelled Shelter, fine pledge class, and full social calendar, we have every reason to look forward to a promising year.

DAVID ASHLEY

Sam Houston—Epsilon Zeta

The brothers of Epsilon Zeta have begun another fine year with the pledging of 14 men of excellent quality. These men have the honor of being the first pledge class taken by Epsilon Zeta Chapter under the new pre-registration rush program.

Our summer rush program was again very effective under the leadership and guidance of our rush chairman, Brother Fred Bradley. His systematic program of rush spread the good name of Delta Tau Delta to many rushees from all over the state.

Currently, our Shelter is taking on a new look with the complete remodeling of its interior. Much inconvenience has resulted from this project, but upon completion the Delta Shelter at Sam Houston State will be the most modern fraternity residence on campus.

Brother Pat Sims, activities chairman, has announced tentative dates for some of the events that the Epsilon Zeta Deltas will present in the coming year. On November 7, Homecoming, sponsored annually by the EZ Deltas, will be unreel. October 31 will bring about the Delt Halloween Party which is a big event on campus yearly. On March 15 the Delt Soap Box Derby, in which all fraternities and sororities on the Sam Houston campus participate, will be presented for the third straight year. On April 10 our annual EZ Relays will unfold. This event draws fraternity participation from all over Texas. These events and many more will lead the EZ Deltas to greater heights in 1964-65.

Fall elections have recently taken place and those elected to lead Epsilon Zeta for 1964-65 are: Marvin Clark, president, Fred Bradley, vice-president, John Sitta, treasurer, and Jim Hermes, secretary. Under the leadership of these men, the EZ Deltas will again rate highest on the Sam Houston State campus.

SID MALLORY

Santa Barbara—Delta Psi

The spring semester of 1964 was a good one here in Santa Barbara. We worked hard on our housing problem, and as a result we are now closer than we have ever been before to building a permanent Shelter for Delta Psi. It looks like nothing can stop us from beginning construction this fall semester.

Our chapter placed a good deal of stress on scholarship this past semester. The pledges were fourth out of ten, with a 2.47 GPA.

Every now and then we relaxed from our studying to have a party. The biggest was our annual Luau, which turned out, as always, to be a big success.

In intramurals the Deltas are always the team to beat, and last year we showed the reason why, by winning championships in football, basketball, and baseball. This year our championship football team, led by Dennis Kuttler, is taking up right where it left off, by scoring overwhelming victories in its first two games.

This fall we got things started off right by taking an excellent pledge class, which is now in the process of being shaped up. The new pledges are: Steve Cady, Skip Carrier, Kent Daft, Tom Dunlap, Joe Flax, Dick Hallett, Ken Hyatt, Jerry Olio, Joe Trammer, Jack Wall, John Wallace and Steve Webb.

We also have many of the brothers doing well this year in intercollegiate athletics, including Jay Urban and Jerry Takahashi, football; Tom Lee, Tom Dunlap, and Dick Hallett, basketball; Dave Caswell, Mark Merlin, and Bob Stoll, track; Mike Garrigan, tennis; and John Frantz, swimming.

We would like to thank John Curran for all the help he has given to Delta Psi. Unfortunately, he was forced by business reasons to resign as our chapter adviser. Our new adviser is Robert Bletcher, Stanford, '59.

The officers are Nick Javaras, president; Ed Schuler, vice-president; Ron Mullenaux, treasurer; Donald Guild, recording secretary; Mike Foster, house manager; and Fred McCarl, social chairman.

South Dakota—Delta Gamma

As the new school year gets under way at South Dakota, Delta Gamma has many things to be proud of. Heading the list is Mrs. Sigelman, our new house mother. Already this year "Mom" has shown us that she is going to be a great asset to Delta Gamma.

Delta-Theta entry in Strollers Show at South Dakota.

After a hard summer of rush, which included three highly successful rush parties, Delta Gamma is proud to claim the top pledge class on campus with 35 men wearing pledge pins. Under the leadership of Ralph Tufte, rush week was an overwhelming success. The finale of the week included a barbecue Friday night, with pledging ceremonies Saturday morning. The men pledged by Delta Gamma are: James Adams, Sioux Falls; Mike Austin, Vermillion; James Benson, Clark; Thomas Brandriet, Watertown; Robert Burns, Sioux Falls; David Chaussee, Elk Point; Thomas Cody, Yankton; Richard Dell, Paulina, Iowa; Gary Denison, Miller; James DeSaix, Sioux Falls; Joseph Dobler, Madison; Richard Gris-

ROD STEELE, Dakotan.

The first week of school, Brothers Rod Steele and Roger Smith were pledged to Dakotans, a junior men's honorary which sponsors such highlights as Dakota Day, Miss University contest, and the Interfraternity Sing. Since last writing, Delts have been elected to many offices on campus. Frank Messner was elected to Omicron Delta Kappa, Tim Hopkins was elected vice-president of Hippocrates Club, Tom Bennett is president of the Dakotans honorary, and Bill Srstka is president of the Strollers honorary. Bill is also president of the YGOP Club on campus.

With the rush over and school well under way, we are turning our attention to intramural sports. Last year, Delta Gamma dominated interfraternity sports and we plan to continue our winning ways this year. Delts are also taking an active part in varsity athletics on the South Dakota campus. Roger Smith, Jerry Hauck, Tim Hopkins, and Don Tracy are all playing an important part on the South Dakota football team. Delts playing on the Coyote freshman football team include Jim DeSaix, Rich Qualset, and John Wood.

With such a fine start and the fall season in full swing, Delta Gamma looks forward to another year as South Dakota's top fraternity.

LARRY NELSON

Stanford—Beta Rho

During the early weeks of the summer vacation, Stanford Delts could be found in all parts of the country. Craig Ritchey journeyed to New York to work at the World's Fair. There he met Steve Thurlow, who after graduation, began training with the New York Giants. Bobby Cox, Pete Middlekauff, George Lawson, and Ron Yett spent the early weeks of the summer in Hawaii with the Stanford baseball team. Brother Barc Johnson, home in Hawaii for the summer, kept the Delt representatives on the team well entertained during their stay. Meanwhile, at Fort Lewis, Washington, Jim Brown, Dave Riegels, Dave Hedges, Phil Arnaudo, and Bob Rath were getting their first taste of army life at the ROTC summer camp there.

With the brothers so dispersed during the summer, it is amazing they could assemble for the social events of the summer months. John Issacs held an Independence Day party for the brown-skinned Southern California contingent of the Beta Rho Chapter. With the large number of pinnings and engagements in the house last spring, it was only natural to expect a few weddings. These occurred during the early part of the summer as Dick Leeuwenberg and Tyce Fitzmorris each entered married life. The brothers were on hand in Palo Alto for the two ceremonies and celebrations.

The summer wasn't all play and parties, though. Craig Crockwell, now president of the Stanford Class of 1965, had programs and committees for the next year to organize. Dave Robbins, who in addition to his duties as pledge trainer, is responsible for the pre-registration program this fall, returned to school in the middle of the summer to begin planning the pre-registration activities. For 18 Delts playing football this fall the summer was a period of body building and conditioning. Leading the ball team through the early practices was co-captain Guy Rounsaville from Bakersfield, California. Working with him closely were Brothers Jim Anderson, Bob Blunt, Delos Brown, Jack Chapple, Tom Elliot, Ferg Flanagan, Ken Fraser, Bruce Kehrl, Dick Leeuwenberg, Jim Mills, Bob Oar, Bill Ostrander, Bob Rath, Craig Ritchey, Carl Schrader, and Phil Wagner.

With the beginning of the new fall quarter, this year's pledges gathered for the fall house cleaning. Assembled for the first time together was our 17-man pledge class: Steve Anderson from Bellevue, Washington; John Aronson from San Jose, California; Bob Blunt from Escondido, California; Eric deGooyer from Sacramento, California; John Elving of San Mateo, California; Tom Elliot from Denver, Colorado; Ferg Flanagan from San Francisco, California; Pete Goodson from La Crescenta, California; Jim Higgins from San Diego, California; Doug Montgomery of Sacramento, California; Jerry Neslen from Whittier, California; Bob Oar from Aberdeen, Washington; Bill Ostrander from Temple City, California; John Propstra from Phoenix, Arizona; Dan Reynolds from Los Angeles, California; and Mike Sorem from Roxana, Illinois.

As the remainder of the brothers returned to the Shelter, acquaintances were renewed and plans were made for what should be a very good year for the Stanford Chapter.

JAMES BROWN

Stevens—Rho

Rho Chapter, in keeping with its tradition, has once again captured the IFC

All-Sports Trophy. This is the fourteenth time in fifteen years the Delts have captured this title. The presentation of this and three other trophies (basketball, squash, and ping pong) was made during the Spring Sports IFC Formal. This affair was held at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in New York City last May. The following night was spotlighted by a costume party, the theme being Country and Western. The week end came to a close Sunday afternoon with a picnic at Bear Mountain, New York.

The quest of this year's All-Sports Trophy is already underway, with the Delts in the lead by winning the softball championship. Athletic Chairman Al Zorner has the football "machine" practicing at every available moment in order to maintain our unblemished seven-year record. Strong teams in volleyball and basketball are also anticipated this year.

Delts dominate intercollegiate sports on campus with 13 Delts playing varsity basketball and six on the soccer team. All officers of the Varsity "S" club are also Delts: president, George Minish; treasurer, John Thielke; secretary, Robert Rawley. Other positions on campus which are held by Delts are: vice-president of Student Council and Senior Class, George Minish; treasurer of Student Council and president of Junior Class, Armin Steuber; Student Council A.A. representative, George Adamec; Honor Board secretary, Larry Babbio; A.A. representatives, Don Baxter and John Greenip; and president of Interfraternity Council, George Greene.

With the fall term now underway, we are looking forward to Father and Son Day, our Halloween Costume Party, and Winter Carnival Weekend. The Mothers' Club is once again holding its annual card party in the Stevens Center. This card party made possible the purchase of living room furnishings for our new Shelter. The furniture, rug, and large trophy case have enhanced the beauty of our living room.

In an effort to encourage alumni-undergraduate relations, Rho Chapter was approached by the New York City Delt Alumni Association to participate in the Alumni Guest Speaker Program. Last term Rho Chapter had four such programs, which proved very interesting. This year we may have the honor of being the host to the distinguished Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court and Vice-President of the Fraternity, Tom C. Clark.

The Delts are looking forward to improving their academic standing this year to supplement our strong positions socially, athletically, and in alumni and administrative relations.

BOB DALIE

Syracuse—Gamma Omicron

A full house of brothers and pledges returned to Syracuse this fall anxious to start a successful year. John Rowse and Bob Thoresen were our delegates to the Karnea and they returned with two awards for Gamma Omicron and a great many ideas for improving our chapter.

We have a new cook this fall, Mrs. Hunt, and she has convinced us in just a few short weeks that she is the best cook on campus. We invite any Delts in the Syracuse area to drop in for a meal and see if we're not right.

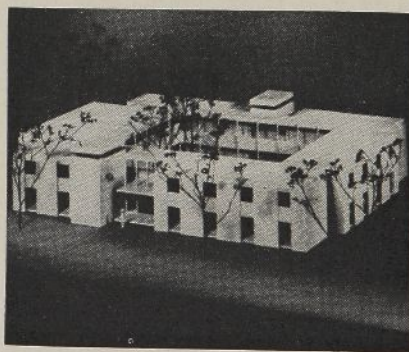

The social calendar for the fall semester promises to be the best ever. Highlighting the schedule is a combined parents-alumni weekend. Also planned are a billiards party, a Roman party, a Roaring Twenties party, and the annual Christmas benefit party.

All in all, it promises to be a very successful semester with all the brothers contributing towards retaining our number one scholastic rating on campus and having a successful upperclass rush.

THOMAS WALLACE

Tennessee—Delta Delta

After a most successful 1963-64 school year, the Delta Delta Delts returned to Tennessee ready to strive for even higher honors. Last year found the Delts placing fourth in Homecoming, second in intramurals, second in All-Sing, fourth in scholarship, and first in brotherhood. Brother Joe Ashley served as chairman of Homecoming, in addition to being elected vice-president of the Naheeyali Governing Board and president of Omicron Delta Kappa.

Projected Delt Shelter at Tennessee.

Delta Delta had tremendous success socially last year. Our annual Founders' Day Banquet was held at Deane Hill Country Club and produced around one hundred happy alumni by the time that the party was over. The alumni banquet, however, was topped by the Rainbow Ball, followed by the luau beach party, which Brother Leatherwood found particularly enjoyable.

Last spring we had a banquet and a dance for area high school seniors. This summer we entertained rushees with several rush parties. Our efforts paid off handsomely this fall as Delta Delta pledged 36 of the best men participating in rush at Tennessee. We would like to express our appreciation to everyone who sent us recommendations. They were a great help to us in our rush program. After just completing rush week, we are now involved in deferred rush.

Delta Delta is making plans for the Southern Division Conference to be held in Knoxville this April. Socially this quarter Delts have planned several parties including the annual Homecoming Banquet and the Pledge Sweetheart Ball. We would like to cordially invite all alumni and brother Delts to visit us at any time—especially on November 14 for our Homecoming Banquet.

Thanks to the preparations made by Brothers Tom Roark and Dave Brown, Delts are looking forward to another fine year in intramurals. Last year we placed first in bowling, first in tennis, first in basketball, and first in volleyball. Bob Smith, a Delt pledge, was voted the most valuable athlete in intramural basketball.

We at Delta Delta are looking forward to a great year, and especially to moving into the new $200,000 Delta Shelter. Please feel free to stop by and see us at any time. You will always be welcome at the Delt House in Tennessee.

LARRY CUNNINGHAM

Texas—Gamma Iota

After a fine summer, which included four well-attended rush parties around the state, the men of Gamma Iota returned to the UT campus for a very successful rush week. Under the very capable leadership of Rush Captain Courtney Townsend and President Joe Bill Watkins, we pledged 44 of the finest men going through rush—the largest and probably the best pledge class in Gamma Iota's history.

Our success in rush week, however, was not a complete surprise; our chapter now is bigger and stronger than ever. For the third year in a row we were second in intramurals and for the second time in three years we were presented the Intramural Sportsmanship Trophy by the Texas Cowboys.

Delts ended up third in scholarship this past year, ranking only behind two small local fraternities. There was no other large fraternity with a scholastic rating close to ours.

On the lighter side, our social program is moving at a quick pace. Our five parties to date have been enjoyed by all, and our post-game and match parties planned for the coming months promise also to be successful. We are especially looking forward to our annual party in Dallas following the Texas-Oklahoma football game, at which we will be joined by our brothers from Oklahoma and Texas Christian.

Another big event on our calendar is, of course, the Thanksgiving Day game against our agrarian rivals to the east, Texas A. & M. This year we are having a brunch at the Shelter beginning at 11:00 a.m. before the game, and all alumni and guests are invited to attend.

In campus activities Delts again hold many places of distinction. Ron Bandy, Ned Price, Eugene Mitchell, Sandy Sansford, Mike Cotten, and Joe Bill Watkins are Cowboys, while Courtney Townsend, Charles Leeper, Tevis Herd, Charles Talbert, Bill Keach, Mike Eledge, Dean Hester and Leon Graham are Silver Spurs. Charles Leeper, Jim Mims, and Lloyd Birdwell are Goodfellows. Lloyd is also associate editor of the Texas Ranger. For the second year, Jay Brim is varsity cheerleader.

Among Gamma Iota's many varsity athletes, Tom Currie and Diron Talbert are starting on the Longhorn football team, currently rated No. 1 in the nation. George Spear recently took All-American swimming honors for the second year in a row. Steve Carter, Bob Itner and John Bush are looking forward to successful seasons on the UT hardwood. Ron Bandy and Robert Oliver are starters on the baseball team; All-American first baseman Butch Thompson plans to sign with the majors this spring.

After rush week we initiated our spring pledges. These new initiates, together with our fall pledge class of 44, make us by far the largest chapter on campus. Our present facilities for a chapter of this size are wholly inadequate. To remedy this situation we have begun plans for a new Shelter. In addition to our old lot at 2217 Nueces, we have acquired more property across the street so that we will have ample parking space at our new location. We have already cleared a basic loan from the Fraternity to help us break ground, and with continued strong support from alumni Gamma Iota should be able to start construction early in 1965. As in the past, it appears that this year will be a great one for the Delts at the University of Texas.

TOMMY BROWN

Texas Christian—Epsilon Beta

As the fall semester opens, Epsilon Beta is looking forward to its best year. Our new officers for the fall semester are Jim Lane, president; Jay Langhammer, vice-president; John Jackson, treasurer; Dick Newsom, corresponding secretary, and Cliff Card, recording secretary. Our new pledge trainer is Richard Ratliff, and F. L. Matthews is the rush chairman.

Now let's recap the highlights of one of Epsilon Beta's best springs. Things got off to a good start with the election of John McDonald as Student Body president. Then Jay Langhammer was elected vice-president of IFC. In intramurals, the Delt softball team won the championship behind the fine pitching of Tom Buckley. Brothers Buckley, Langhammer, and Walter Roach were named to the fraternity softball all-star team.

Summer rush, under the direction of F. L. Matthews, was pretty successful and 24 top boys were pledged in Formal Rush. The new pledges are Andy Bowen, Kelly Clark, Tony Cueto, Paul Fruge, Terry Guerrant, Mickey Hallyburton, Bill Huddleston, Ken Kenyon, George Ladd, Bryan Montgomery, Mike Moore, John Moser, Chip Oswalt, Chuck Potter, Bert Praytor, Jim Prout, Rickey Ray, Ralph Reavis, Ricky Schmidt, Phil Seitz, Alan Smith, Bill Stokes, David Towson, and Tommy Williams.

Our new house has gotten favorable comments from everyone who has seen it. We sincerely appreciate all the time and effort put forth by our chapter adviser, Dr. William Hulsey. He's the main reason for our house being the nicest on campus. The house features a living room, study room and meeting room on the first floor, and two floors of members' rooms. All the members of Epsilon Beta are extremely proud of it and extend an invitation to any of the brothers from other chapters that might like to see it.

Brother Eddie Nelson has just been named as TCU's outstanding freshman for the 1963-64 school year. Eddie, a pre-med major, received a $200 scholarship for posting a 4.00 grade average for his first two semesters in college. Another of the brothers, John McDonald, was granted an Alvan E. Duerr scholarship for graduate study. John got his scholarship on the basis of a 3.8 grade average for 4 years of college.

Our intramural football team has been working out regularly and is expecting to better last year's second place finish. Much help is expected from the new pledge class. Meanwhile, our varsity athletes are once again playing a major part in the TCU athletic picture. Quarterback Kent Nix, center Ken Henson, and guard Porter Williams have seen quite a bit of action for the Frogs. Pledge David Towson is playing guard on the freshman team and Lynn Ross is working as a student coach for the freshman squad.

Eddie Smith, last year's golf captain, and Bob Farmer, No. 2 man on the varsity tennis team, both led their squads in victories and were given trophies for their efforts. Both will return next spring. Neil Newsom was the only TCU freshman trackster to place in competition, and will be one of the top prospects on the varsity track team this spring. Pledges Bill Stokes and Andy Bowen will be out for the freshman track team.

Jim Lane, John Jackson, Jay Langhammer, Richard Ratliff, and Tom Ambrose attended the Karnea and came back with many new ideas that should make our chapter even stronger. Our representatives really enjoyed getting to know the brothers from other schools. We would like to congratulate the members of Gamma Xi for their work in making the Karnea a success.

JAY LANGHAMMER

Texas Tech—Epsilon Delta

The brothers of Epsilon Delta are off to a busy year on the Texas Tech campus. Many activities are in the planning stages while others are actually underway. We have some specific goals in the lines of scholarship, finances, and alumni relations which we hope to accomplish. Our internal organization is in sound condition, under the competent leadership of our president, Bill Dunn, who was elected last spring.

We had a successful Help Week before school started this fall, which included a community project for Lubbock. Pledges and actives worked together for three days cleaning up city parks. On September 28 we then initiated 21 new members.

Here at Texas Tech the fraternity system operates under a deferred rush program, in which a student must complete one semester at this college before he may pledge. Thus our pledge class this fall, which we won't take until the end of October, will be all upperclassmen. We have a full schedule of dances, smokers, and T.G.I.F. parties in progress. Our main emphasis in rush this fall is on individual rushing by each member.

As the result of elections last spring there are many Delts in leadership positions on the campus. Kent Hance is vice-president of the Student Body, and Steve Henderson is a member of the Student Council. Bob Wood has an eye on the entire fraternity system as president of the Inter-Fraternity Council. Charles Waldrum is vice-president of the Board of Student Organizations. Ron Siler is a varsity cheerleader.

On the varsity football team are Delts Reg Scarborough, starting center, and Richard Perry, kicking specialist. In chapter intramurals we have a football team about to begin play and will have basketball and softball teams during their seasons.

Some other upcoming activities of the chapter include building a Homecoming Float, having mixers with sororities, having our annual social functions such as the Playboy Formal this fall and the Rainbow Formal and the Pig Roast in the spring. We are looking forward to a successful year for our chapter.

MAC K. JOHNSON

Tufts—Beta Mu

As in the past, the Beta Mu Delts are active in all phases of campus life at Tufts this fall. In the area of varsity athletics, the fall teams have a good percentage of Delts leading Tufts into what we hope will be a winning season. The football team is fighting hard with Delt Co-Captain Bob Long leading the way. Right behind Bob are brother Delts Steve Karp, Tony Day, Ralph Warrington, Bob Mastrovita and Dick Meserve. These brothers are the backbone of the team, and five out of the six are starting this fall. On the soccer field Beta Mu is represented by three top-notch players, Gregg Bishop, Al Welch, and Dean Nicholson. Brother Clyde Ward meanwhile has been taking the leading position on the cross-country team.

There are also many Delts in important positions of class and student government. Sophomore Delts John Stewart and Ken Bouchard are vice-president of the class and Student Council representative, respectively. The sophomores from Beta Mu who are members of the sophomore honorary society are Ken Bouchard, Ted Carpenter, Rich Miselis, Dean Nicholson, Eric Sacknoff, and John Stewart. In the junior class, Brothers Gene Falco and Paul Shagoury are the Student Council representatives for their class. In the Ivy Society, the junior class honorary society, seven out of the ten members are Delts, which must be a new record. Brother Dick Meserve is the president of the Ivy Society. In the senior class the Delts hold many of the most important positions. The vice-president of the senior class is Steve Karp, while the Student Council representative is Tom Francoline. The vice-president of the Student Council is also a Beta Mu Delt, Bob Hornats. The senior honorary society has two Delts as members, Lorry King and Bruce Burleigh. Other leaders on campus are Leo Barile, who is the vice-president of the Inter-Dormitory Council and Bill Duvel who leads both the Tufts Chorus and the Beelzebubs, the latter a very popular male singing group at Tufts and in the New England area.

The brothers, as well as working on campus activities, are active in keeping Beta Mu the top house on campus. Last spring the chapter celebrated its seventy-fifth birthday. There was a large party to which all Beta Mu alumni were invited. The party was a great success and all had a really fine time. This fall the Beta Mu Delts are fighting hard to win in all events of interfraternity athletics. We also all are looking forward to a good Homecoming Weekend and to another fine pledge class this year. Good luck to all Brother Delts from Beta Mu.

BRUCE G. WHITMORE

Tulane—Beta Xi

In every field of human endeavor, he that is first must perpetually live in the white light of publicity. Whether the leadership be vested in a man, manufactured product, or a social fraternity, emulation and envy are ever at work.

The reward and punishment are always the same. The reward is recognition; the punishment is the follower's effort to depreciate and destroy.

More so than ever before, Beta Xi Delts have become the standard for the entire fraternity system at Tulane. The fraternal spirit, evidenced by extensive brother-to-brother summer correspondence, accentuated to all the academic and social excellence Beta Xi enjoyed for the 1963-64 school year. Over the summer, Beta Xi acquired a Shelter annex, as it became the first of 18 fraternities at Tulane to have two (adjoining, no less) chapter houses. With continued hard work and superior pledge classes, Beta Xi looks forward to the realization of a long-time dream, a new "super" Delt house—second to none.

We are proud, and rightly so, of the 28 most sought-after freshmen at Tulane—our pledges: Phil Baur, Chris Becker, Larry Curran, John Early, Mike Fowler, Bahman Fozouni, Doug Freswick, Larry Fullerton, Ed Genz, Randy Gunter, Chuck Hall, Vince Hamilton, Bob Johnson, Mike Lanciault, Bobby Lonsdale, John Morrison, Ed Odachowski, Chet Parker, Steve Purcell, Bruce Rogers, Bob Rosemont, Joe Sigman, Fred Smith, Bill Urban, Bob Viles, Paul Wickman, Dave Womack, and Arthur Wright.

President Tim Hoff will again pilot the Delt ark through the often turbulent waters of the fraternal sea. To say that newly elected Vice-president Dave Eckardt and Treasurer Don Cobb will provide able assistance is an understatement. Taciturn Ken Tacony and peremptory Russell Rocke complete the crew as recording and corresponding secretaries, respectively.

As we are preparing for Homecoming we anticipate the active social schedule ahead: hayrides, picnics, the wild and festive tradition of Mardi Gras, and of course, the annual Sweetheart Formal. This year too, with the aid of our beloved steward, Beta Xi will not only be the best partied fraternity at Tulane, but also the best fed. All in all, despite the futile efforts of the other fraternities to replace Tulane's standard, we shall have quite a year, which only goes to confirm the superiority of that which they are trying to exemplify—Delta Tau Delta.

RUSSELL ROCKE

U.C.L.A.—Delta Iota

Delta Iota started off the fall semester by securing one of the most talent-laden pledge classes on the Row. Our pledge class includes many outstanding athletes and a few potential campus "wheels."

Last year's fifth place finish in the final All-University intramural standings cannot help but be improved with the help of this semester's pledge class. The Delt intramural football team is already on the winning trail. Later this fall we will be teamed with the Delta Delta Delta sorority to defend our coed volleyball title of last year.

The men of Delta Iota once again achieved a chapter average above the All Men's Average, led by Pete Sidell who will be initiated this month with 15 hours of A.

The forthcoming Delt Queen Contest, held in conjunction with the Initiation Formal, will highlight our busy social program this fall. In addition, a Parents' Banquet will be held this semester to show off the Shelter to the parents of our new members.

Prospects look bright for this semester, and we at Delta Iota hope the other chapters started the year off as well as we have.

ALEX BANACHOWSKI

U.S.C.—Delta Pi

The termination of the spring semester brought to an end an unusually fine year for Delta Pi. The climax of our social calendar was the annual All-School Mardi Gras for which all the brothers worked diligently to transform the Shelter into a living replica of some of New Orleans' most famous attractions. The affair was so successful even the Dean of Men decided to honor us with his presence. Brothers Gary Wilder and George Toberman displayed exceptional talent in providing the improvisational entertainment. The site of the Mardi Gras, in the aftermath, was converted into a playground for pre-final funnies, and now stands ready for the construction of our proposed new Shelter.

Scholastically, Delta Pi finished very well in comparison with the All-Men's Average. Scholastic Chairman Rich McGeagh reports a house average of 2.6, with Brother Greg Bartlow achieving an erudite 4.0. Our megacephalic spring pledge class also achieved a commendable 2.6 average. Delts Dick Fenton and Larry Alessio returned from an enjoyable spring semester at the University of Vienna, Austria.

The newly-elected officers of Delta Pi are: Bill Lawless, president; Dave Walker, vice-president; Dave Levene, social chairman; Terry McDowell, treasurer; Charlie Compas, rush chairman; and Kent Welton, corresponding secretary.

Athletically, Delta Pi is indeed honored and proud of our three brothers on the Olympic swim team; an achievement that probably no other fraternity can claim. Brothers Roy Saari, Rich McGeagh, and Bob Bennett will represent the United States in the 1500 meters, backstroke, and butterfly, respectively. Roy Saari and Rich McGeagh are currently the world record-holders in their respective races. Perhaps a little less significant, but nevertheless exemplary of the versatility of Delta Pi, is the strong second place finish in the Interfraternity Iron Man contest. This was made possible largely by Greg Bartlow's upset win in ping-pong.

The dynamic new leadership of Delta Pi coupled with the enthusiasm of all the brothers has resulted in a very successful rush program that saw a trip to Caliente, Mexico, top off an unrelenting summer social program. Stressing quality before quantity, Delta Pi took 25 good men as fall pledges. The new pledges are: Don Albert, Jim Black, Kelly Boyd, Rich Bruno, Bob Bundy, Bob Dietrich, Ron Dye, Bob Ebright, Ray Finkle, Brian Flynn, Al Goode, Dave Ladd, Howard Lucas, Tom Pyle, Pat McLaughlin, Mike Morey, Dan Murphy, George Pabst, Rusty Pudenz, Barry Silver, Tony Stella, Tony Ward, Glen Warriner, Carl White, and Mike Worther.

The only blight on a successful and purposeful year for Delta Pi was the tragic death of Pledge Randy Martin after a brief illness.

Delta Pi wishes the best of luck to all Delts in the coming year!

W. & J.—Gamma

October marked the beginning of classes and another busy fall semester for Gamma Chapter. Rushing activities, intramurals and varsity level sports, and several social functions, in addition to the many campus activities comprise the schedule for the first term.

The brothers are looking forward to a successful year in all fields, with the additions of last year's pledges to the Fraternity. The new brothers were initiated in September and the chapter expects fine things from this group of men.

As always, the brothers are participating in intramural soccer, volleyball, and tennis, with high hopes for a trophy to add to the collection.

Social life begins almost immediately, with "Greek Swing Out" scheduled for October 2, and Homecoming set for the end of the month. Decorations are being planned with an extra effort to cop the first place trophy, after the second of two years ago.

The Fraternity is represented on the football squad by Jim Stasik, who plays defensive end. Jim led the team in tackles the first game, and already has a blocked kick to his credit to set the pace for W. & J.'s defense. He is a junior and is starting his second year on the first unit.

Gamma Chapter extends its best wishes to Delts on all campuses for a successful year in and out of the class room.

TERRY HANCOCK

W. & L.—Phi

With the first semester just under way,

Phi Chapter is already showing its traditional leadership in all phases of campus life. We rank fourth scholastically, thus retaining our position from the previous semester. As always, Delts are dominating W. & L.'s athletic teams. We have six captains of varsity sports and we are well represented on both the general football and soccer squads. In addition, Delts are again taking an active part in other campus activities, such as committees, publications, etc. In short, the outlook is for another fine year for Phi Chapter.

One serious problem which has naturally concerned us all is the loss of our house, which burned to the ground only two days before the start of rush week. Despite this severe loss, Phi Chapter again did well in rush, getting 13 promising pledges. We all are eagerly awaiting the completion of our new house, which should be ready sometime next spring. In the meantime, we have completely refurbished our temporary home and are back to the normal routine of campus life. We wish to take this opportunity to again thank all alumni whose financial support was very much appreciated.

The loss of the house certainly has not affected our social life. Social Chairmen Lindsey Short and Jamie Andrew have continued to provide us with top-notch entertainment, including such "name" stars as The Shirelles and James Brown.

In closing, the Delts would like to thank their housemother, Mrs. Chaney, for another fine job this past year. Bob Spessard and especially Frank Morgan should be commended for their thorough job on the old house.

JIM BOARDMAN

Wabash—Beta Psi

The opening of school saw Beta Psi Chapter with new housing facilities, a new president, and 26 outstanding freshman pledges. The chapter last spring purchased a Victorian mansion located less than a block from the present Shelter; all members now enjoy the option of living in either building.

Jim Graham, formerly vice-president, was elected president of the chapter when it was learned that Kurt Behrman would not return to school. Bob Forsythe was chosen to fill Graham's term as vice-president.

A new program of pledge education was formulated by Pledge Trainer Denny Whigham. It incorporates closer supervision of freshman scholarship, and a point system as a basis for initiation. The 26 pledges are: Mike Akers, Jay Alexander, Stan Baker, Bob Brash, James Byrn, Dick Callaway, Jim Childress, Bob Dawson, Tom Dean, Bob Furnish, Ed Garrigan, Mark Harrison, Scott Klika, Wayne Kornas, Bill Nie, Dave Noland, Ramon Parra, Bill Peelle, Nick Pitz, Walter Riesing, Ron Shearer, Mark Sutton, Gordon Thompson, Jim Tully, Rick Wheeler, and Jim Williams.

New recruits for the Little Giant Delts at Wabash.

In varsity athletics, Beta Psi is well represented; Mike Hall, last season's Most Improved Player, is a starting guard on the Little Giant squad and Paul Robinson has seen considerable action at blocking back. In addition, four pledges are on the freshman squad.

Beta Psi's intramural teams have turned in several outstanding performances, having already captured the cross-country championship, and are as yet undefeated in tennis and football. The Delts are seeking improvement over their third place standing of a year ago.

The social picture is expected to brighten within the approaching weeks, as a series of dances are scheduled and preparations for Homecoming are being completed.

PHIL WESCOTT

Washington—Gamma Mu

Another rush week has come and gone here at Washington. The following men wear the pledge pin of Delta Tau Delta:

Mike McCallum are to be congratulated for a job well done.

Regressing a moment to happenings of interest last spring we saw the Delt-Tri Delt Songfesters triumph once again, thus retiring the Mixed Group Trophy. George Bray was elected vice-president of Husky Swim Club for this coming year. Steve Dillaway showed his athletic prowess in the 440, earning his second set of frosh numerals. R. B. Calkins, Bob McSorley, Pete Pruesser, Chuck McCaffree, Carl Presley, and Doug Whalley put in a successful season in crew. The house party at Mallard Cove prior to finals was the highlight of a complete social program.

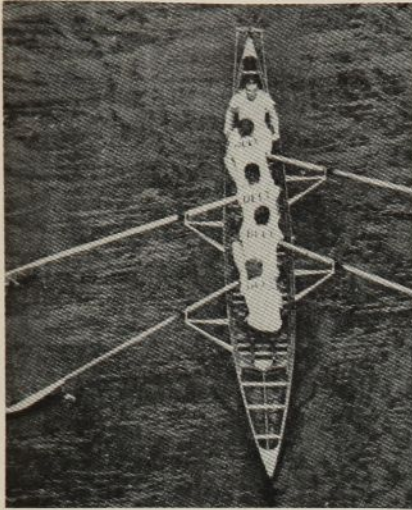

Summertime saw improvements to the Shelter which greatly enhanced its beauty and utility. The basement was remodeled into a chapter room and a recreation area, all of the walls were wood panelled, and fluorescent lighting was skillfully added to make the lighting indirect. Our World War II vintage bunk beds were replaced with 50 new ones. Also our entryway is now enlivened with a large Fraternity crest in cast iron. Once again we must thank our co-operative alums, whose contributions made these improvements possible.

We were proud to learn this year at our pre-rush banquet that Carlos Flohr, who has given so much of his time and efforts to Deltdom, was elected to the Distinguished Service Chapter. I am sure that I speak for the Gamma Mu alumni as well as the undergraduate Delts when I say that there is no man who deserves this distinction more than Brother Flohr.

Fall activities saw Delta Tau Delta well represented on I.F.C. Rush Committees. Dave Guthrie and Jeff Noyes handled the I.B.M. Committee and Brian Wickerski and Jim Beyers headed the Bountiful harvest from rushing at Washington.

Intramural crew champs are Washington's STEWART, TUCKER, ULLIN, and TAVERNER.

Rush Registration Committee. Serving as their assistants were Mike Stewart, Jerry Dokken, Bob Groeschell, Dan Berschauer, Pete Bianchiwhop, and George Bray. Under Delt leadership Rush Registration was a smashing success. Looking ahead we see that John Gordinier will be serving as a committee chairman for the People-To-People program, which incidentally was established at the University largely due to the efforts of Brother Ron Dietz in 1962. Steve Ellis will be leading the speaker committee for the Political Union for the coming year.

We are looking forward to a lively year socially, thanks to the efforts of our excellent social chairmen, Knute Berg and Glen Johnson. Our exchange schedule is second to none. Beside this we will be highlighting the quarter with the Pledge Dance. There is an outside possibility that we of Gamma Mu will be able to have a joint function with the Oregon State Delt Chapter after the football game. Finally our Homecoming Casino Party promises to be an even greater success than the one we had two years ago.

We are proud of the fact that we have once again been selected as one of the living groups on campus to house a foreign exchange student. Our guest this year is Odd Haddal who is a native of Oslo, Norway. This program has been a rewarding experience for us in the past and will continue to be so because of the opportunity of association and discussion with these top students from places around the globe.

We Delts at Washington are looking forward to another year of collegiate activity which is engendered by progressive leadership and up-to-date programs which insure our advancement socially, scholastically, and athletically.

GEORGE BRAY

Washington State— Epsilon Gamma

Formal rush is over at Washington State, and we find Epsilon Gamma with six new pledges and all the men working hard to make it sixteen. The social year is already in full swing, including a Snake River party and several exchanges. New Social Chairman Teri Hewson is hard at work planning this year's activities, among which are the Christmas Smorgasbord, the 8th of May celebration, the Sally Sunshine contest, and the Spring Formal.

The fall of 1964 brings with it some minor faceliftings in the Shelter, which was formerly WSU's first Chemistry building. A new linen closet, along with brand new wallboard in the stores room, really puts the place in A-1 shape. Extensive painting was done before rush, and new throw rugs adorn many of the rooms.

Intramural Coach Larry Link is beginning to get the Delt football nine in shape for the season. New addition to the line is Pledge Jim Poe, a junior college transfer, tipping the scales at 250. The line average this year should fall close to 190. Backfield strength has greatly increased, with Brother Larry "Brick Wall" Link returning as blocking back. Tennis and coed volleyball will also be under way in the near future.

Scholastically, the chapter placed well above the All-Fraternity Average at Washington State, with Brothers Dunn and Link taking first and second place honors on the grade list. They and others will be honored at the bi-annual scholarship dinner.

The year ahead will be a challenging one for Epsilon Gamma, but we are confident it will be rewarding. All the men are working hard to make the name of Delta Tau Delta even more respected on WSU campus.

MIKE ULRICH

Wesleyan—Gamma Zeta

Gamma Zeta Delts formally began the fall activities with the initiation of 20 men pledged last semester. Mr. Fred Trevithick, chairman of the Phi Rho House Association, was the guest speaker at a gala banquet in honor of the new initiates.

Several Delts who are members of the Wesleyan Tutorial Plan are forming a special program to instruct underprivileged Negro children in remedial reading. The brothers, led by Hassan Janmohamed, are renovating a dilapidated downtown store which will serve as headquarters for the project. Special reading machines and other facilities will produce an excellent classroom.

The chapter fund-raising drive is now in full swing. Already $25,000 has been raised for the house addition which will provide extra living quarters and recreational facilities for the growing brotherhood.

The Delts are contributing again to fall sports. Harold Brands, back from Germany, has added much fire to the soccer team's attack. Red Robinson at fullback is responsible for the tough and persistent Cardinal defense. Red, who has started for four years, plays rugged, consistent ball. Red and Harold are joined by Juniors Woody La Forge and Doug Werner, starters in the stalwart line.

Ted Smith and Dave Griff are both ends on the football squad. Chuck Plunge and Bill Sargent are running cross-country.

Jim McInteer has been elected president of the newly-formed Delt Outing Club, which will organize fishing, camping and rock-climbing trips. One successful weekend has already been spent in the hills near the Connecticut River.

DANIEL CHARBEAUX

Western Reserve—Zeta

Keeping up the old tradition of putting on a good first semester rush, the Zeta Delts netted 17 top notch men. These include Jake Arnold, George Alexander, Gary Forsberg, Walt Gleason, Jeff Gustafson, John Hendrickson, Ken Holland, Dick Larrabee, Steve Lazarides, Frank Neubecker, Rich Neal, Dave Palmer, Bill Parry, Frank Pokorny, Dick Polivy, Bill Rogers, and Woody Westlake. This year's rush program was directed by Tom MacFarland during the summer and Jim Sadowski during orientation week and the first week of classes. The program included three major functions: a riverboat party which saw the Shelter decorated as the S.S. Delta Queen, a steak dinner, and our 1964 Miss Watermelon Bust Contest emceed by a local disc-jockey.

Scholastically last year the Western Reserve Chapter compiled a 2.62 accumulative average, and 11 men made the Dean's list. The second semester pledge class compiled a 3.00 average with Don Burke leading his pledge brothers with a 4.00 average. In addition, all but three of last year's graduating seniors are attending graduate school. Topping off the year, the Zeta Delts were awarded the scholarship improvement trophy for the Northern Division.

In intramurals the Delts are looking forward to a better year under the leadership of Mike Beck and Bill Kuendig. Last year the chapter won the intramural "A" football, first semester "A" basketball, second semester "B" basketball, were runners-up to university champion in basketball, track champions, and golf champions. At last year's All-Ohio Delt Basketball Tournament, President Ed Malinzak was named to the All-Ohio Delt basketball team.

Delta Tau Delta is well represented in varsity sports at Reserve. Tom MacFarland and Vaughn Tittle bolster the Red Cat football team which is in first place. Doug Nolfi and Chuck Alexander are booting for the soccer team. Cross-country finds Don Burke and pledge Jeff Gustafson. The basketball team finds two Delts, Bill Loue (captain) and Don Burke. Jerry Roach is getting in shape for the wrestling team. Roger Pitkin is still hitting tennis balls and splashing away for the Reserve tankers. Bill Loue, Bob Greenberg, Bruce White, and Dick Hays are toning their muscles for track, and Doug Nolfi, Chuck Alexander and Bill Borner are out on the links representing Reserve. Last year Nolfi won an award as an all-conference player in PAC golf. This year he is looking forward to the PAC championship. And finally, Brother Tittle is looking forward to the baseball season.

On campus the Delts are well respected and represented. Keith Koepke is the IFC president and a member of the university choir. Mike McMenamin is president of the World Affairs Forum, political columnist for the newspaper, and a member of the Student Educational Policies Committee, along with Ed Malinzak and Eric Eberhard. John Gerstenmeier is chairman of recreation for the Student Union. Dan Ault is chairman of the Student Film Series, along with Walt MacNamara, who is attending the American University for a semester. Roger Pitkin is treasurer of the Senior Class, president of the Student Union, a member of Omicron Delta Kappa and the student council. Ed Malinzak was elected secretary of Omicron Delta Kappa and vice-president of Pi Delta Epsilon journalism honorary. Dick Lowe is social chairman for the Cleveland Area Intercollegiate Conference, which includes 11 area colleges. Last year he organized a dance for all 11 colleges at a nearby indoor shopping center. In addition he was in charge of the Greek Week Games, along with Tom MacFarland. Bob Gwyther is corresponding secretary for the Student Senate, a member of the university singers and university choir, and treasurer of the Student Senate. Eric Eberhard is our IFC representative, chairman of student senate activities fair, and an usher at Severance Hall, assisted by Don Burke, Ed Malinzak, Terry Craig, Mike McMenamin, and Charles Maresh. Chuck Alexander is secretary of the Junior Class, and Rich Neal is president of the Sophomore Class.

Social highlights of the first semester will be homecoming and our annual winter weekend. The Zeta Delts are aiming at winning the homecoming house decorations trophy for the 4th year in a row, this year under the leadership of Pete Thompson. Dick Lowe is putting the final touches to our winter weekend which will be held at Seven Springs Ski Lodge in Pennsylvania, December 19 through 21. Initiation, Thanksgiving dinner, two theme parties, two interfraternity parties, and two informal parties round off the rest of the social calendar.

During the summer months the Zeta Shelter was inhabited by Delts from Ohio State, Northwestern, Kenyon, and Pittsburgh. In addition Delts from G.M.I., Hillsdale, Kent, and Wabash visited the Shelter during our rush. The brothers of Zeta Chapter welcome all brother Delts and wish each and every Delt chapter a bigger and better year.

Westminster—Delta Omicron

After a very busy summer of fraternity rush activities and the Karnea, the men of Delta Omicron returned to the Shelter in Fulton ready for a busy and fruitful rush week. All our work was rewarded when we took 17 of the most outstanding freshmen in the new Class of 1968. All of them have outstanding scholastic and athletic backgrounds and are anxious to be formed into good Delts.

Academically, last year was a good one for us. We finished in second place over-all on campus, just a bare 0.06 of a point behind first place. With the fine freshman class we took, plus the scholastic efforts of the men already in the Shelter, we should have no trouble coming in first this year.

A particularly significant year for our chapter is 1964 because we are celebrating our Silver Anniversary. We have been planning for quite a few celebrations to take place within the next few months, and the Anniversary committee, headed by Curt Kent, has been especially busy preparing for a party on December 2, our "birthday." We hope that as many alumni and former housemothers as possible will come back to Delta Omicron and see the changes that have occurred over the last quarter-century.

As in years past, athletics is another strong point. The Delts have two varsity basketball starters, plus the coach and five members of the track team. Our basketball team, second last year, will be the one to beat this season because of the new freshmen and fired-up actives. Bowling is very strong; most of the team returned to school this fall, and we have an excellent chance of capturing that event's first place, after placing second last year.

Ron Ruegge, our new social chairman, has promised another year of full social activities, including the regular vic dances, pig roast, Casino Party, Christmas Dinner and Dance, and numerous other planned and unplanned upcoming events.

The Shelter was able to purchase new carpets for the first floor and staircases, a new leather couch, and two smaller couches that will go on either side of the fireplace in the living room. All these new additions have added grace and beauty to our attractive Shelter.

This next year at Delta Omicron will be outstanding; what with the Anniversary celebration, our new pledges, and our scholastic, athletic and social plans, 1964 could turn out to be the most outstanding year in the history of Delta Omicron.

Willamette—Epsilon Theta

The academic year, 1963-64 came to an exciting close at Willamette for Delts, when Miss Betty Shelton was crowned Queen of Delta Tau Delta at our spring formal dance. The chapter feels the princess program has been a success, and it now begins its third year.

Student body elections were also held last spring, and the Delts certainly proved they have become leaders on campus. Brother Ed Cole is the new student body president, while both senator-at-large positions are also competently filled by Delts, Brothers Wes Armstrong and Steve Yoshihara.

Because of deferred rush, the chapter will not have its new pledge class until February; however, all but two of our his service as vice-president of the Midwest Region—a position to which he was unanimously re-elected. Mr. Berkeley, a retired Air Force lieutenant colonel, is a former president of Zeta Chapter at Western Reserve.

Another title was won by JOHN R. BIRMINGHAM, Duke, '61, as he triumphed in the Western Pennsylvania Open golf tournament. He was Pennsylvania Amateur champ in 1961, but this time he edged out the pros as well. A 45-foot putt enabling him to birdie the 17th hole, was a big factor in the win, as he finished with a score of 138, 1 point up on the second place finisher. Later, John qualified and played in the U. S. G. A. National Amateur golf tournament.

CARTHY, U. S. C., '48, has reported for duty at Charleston Air Force Base, South Carolina, with a unit of the Military Air Transport Service.

BERNE B. McCLASKEY, Indiana, '09, was recently paid tribute in a special newspaper issue. He is a retired circuit judge, and has sat on the Supreme Court of South Dakota. In 1963, Mr. McClaskey made a substantial gift to Beta Alpha Chapter, which was used, at his request, for redecorating and refurnishing the main living area of the Shelter.

Promotion to the rank of colonel in the Air Force of THOMAS E. MORGAN, JR., Ohio, '41, has been announced. Colonel Morgan, a deputy comptroller, is furthering his professional education at the Air War College, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama.

WILLIAM PERDUE

The Public Utilities Advertising Association at its annual convention in Minneapolis elected as president WILLIAM L. PERDUE, Kansas, '43. Just a short while before that honor Mr. Perdue had been elected vice-president of area relations for the Kansas Power and Light Company.

The Gold Key Award of the American Congress of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation has been presented to Dr. GEORGE M. PIERSON, Pennsylvania, '02. He is emeritus professor of medicine and a former dean of the Graduate School of Medicine of the University of Pennsylvania.

The University of Michigan has announced the establishment of the S. E. Quaal Fellowship Fund, through an initial gift of $10,000 by WARD L. QUAAL, Michigan, '41, a son. Ward Quaal is executive vice president and general manager of WGN, Inc. He spoke as a member of the public relations panel at the Sixty-seventh Karnea this past summer.

Dr. FREDERICK ROHLES and friend. The doctor says he is the one on the right.

Dr. FREDERICK H. ROHLES, DePauw, '42, has been presented with the Raymond F. Longacre Award for outstanding accomplishment in the psychological and psychiatric aspects of aviation medicine. Before his retirement from the Air Force, Colonel Rohles was Chief of the Comparative Psychology Branch, 6571st Aeromedical Research Laboratory at Holloman Air Force Base, New Mexico. Dr. Rohles pioneered in behavioral studies of animals under conditions of space flight, devising means and measurements to ascertain whether an animal could perform in space a task learned on the ground. These studies, of course, were essential preliminaries to exposing humans to conditions of space flight.

Named an outstanding graduate in his class of over 800 Air Force officers at the Squadron Officer School at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, was Captain SAMUEL R. ROSS, Pennsylvania, '58. The selection considered such factors as high moral character, academic achievement, professional competence, and physical stamina.

Captain KENNETH G. SCHOOFF, Michigan, '57, has been assigned to Burderop Royal Air Force Station, England, after having completed the Air Force orientation course for medical officers. He will practice as a physician.

NIC Display At World's Fair

AN EXHIBIT entitled "Young Partners in Free Enterprise," sponsored jointly by the National Panhellenic Conference and the National Interfraternity Conference in co-operation with the American Economic Foundation, was displayed for a three-week period last summer. Display panels illustrated six values of fraternal life—loyalty, training, scholarship, standards, management, and citizenship. Hostesses and hosts were members of the staffs of various national fraternity and sorority headquarters.

Prominent American and Canadian personalities have endorsed the exhibit and the concept of the values of fraternal life, including Senator Margaret Chase Smith, Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark, Faith Baldwin, Canadian Prime Minister Lester Pearson, and Mrs. Norman Vincent Peale. Their endorsements are quoted in a leaflet distributed at the exhibit. Among other interesting facts, the leaflet points out that more than 75 per cent of the funds contributed by individuals to colleges and universities are given by fraternity and sorority members, although on most campuses the Greeks comprise a distinct minority of the student body.

THE ALUMNI CHAPTERS

Dallas

The Dallas Alumni Chapter is especially proud of the up-to-date, good-looking membership roster edited and published by Brother John Harbin.

The first activity of the fall was a dinner meeting at Lucas' B & B Restaurant on Wednesday, October 7. In addition to a short business meeting, the filmed highlights of the Dallas Cowboys' 1963 professional football season were shown. It had been hoped that a Delt alumnus or two could be found on the Cowboys' roster.

Many new faces were seen at the meeting, mostly recent graduates settling in the Dallas area. All Delt alums in the Dallas area who were not notified of this function are urged to contact Dan Beaird at RI-7-8273 or Francis Shannon at LA-1-2579.

SHANNON FRANCIS

Denver

Denver Delt alumni activities were highlighted this summer by the annual chartered bus trip to Central City August 15 for a picnic supper as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Beck at their summer home.

Central City, once a booming mining town in the late 1800's, has been revitalized by the Central City Opera Association summer season of Broadway-cast plays. The Denver Delts and wives enjoyed the hospitality of the Becks, followed by a pleasant evening attending the play, "Barefoot in the Park," held in the historic old Central City Opera House.

Special events planned in the months ahead include a winter dinner dance scheduled for December 4 at the Denver Club.

The Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs will be the scene on February 20, 1965, of the Western Division Conference and Founders Day Banquet, for Delts and wives. Weekly luncheon meetings are held each Monday noon in the Tea Room at the Denver Dry Goods.

RICHARD ARNESON

Houston

September for the Houston Alumni Chapter is "Jess Neely Time," and true to tradition the famous football coach (and athletic director) of Rice Institute again appeared before his fraternity group. Jess, initiated at the old Vanderbilt chapter, is both witty and informed when it comes to the topic of football, and the 30 Delts present at the Houston Petroleum Club thoroughly enjoyed his grid stories and his views on the current situation.

Scheduled for early November is the annual meeting which will be an evening affair, featuring a talk by George Butler, who was honored at the statewide Founders Day Banquet here last spring as Delt of the Year. At this meeting, officers for the coming year will be elected, according to President John Evans.

It is expected that Lloyd Birdwell of Dallas will be in Houston at the time of the annual meeting to "talk up" plans for a new chapter house for Gamma Iota Chapter at the University of Texas.

Lucian Smith is serving as chairman of a committee which is compiling a new directory of Delts who reside in Houston and vicinity.

New York

Summer meetings, held the second Thursday of each month at the Williams Club, have been well attended. Speakers were F. Sydnor Kirkpatrick, Jr., W & L, '41, who advised us on "Pesticides—Friend or Foe?"; Paul F. Mosher, Wesleyan, '45, who had intelligence on "The Secret of Financial Writing"; and William E. Murray, Lehigh, '52, who pumped us full of knowledge about "Some Interesting Centrifugal Pump Applications."

Tampa

The Tampa Alumni Association reports a full year to date, under the able leadership of President Robert L. Allen, III. Since our last report, we continue to hold monthly meetings, and have participated in a very successful football listening party (Florida-S.M.U.), a swim party, and a sailing outing. On tap for the fall is a football train trip to the Florida-F.S.U. game in Tallahassee.

Denver Alumni Chapter Sponsors Duerr Scholarship

At a meeting last January, members of the Denver Alumni Chapter subscribed $1,400 to provide one Duerr Scholarship, and the chapter plans to make this an annual project. THE RAINBOW commends these Good Delts for this far-sighted and most worthy undertaking, and suggests that other alumni groups consider adopting such projects. Any contributions for this purpose, since they would go to the Fraternity's Educational Fund, are tax-deductible.

present pledge class achieved grades, and will be initiated this fall.

Delts who graduated last spring are already leading successful lives. Brother Bob Rieder, who graduated summa cum laude, is on a scholarship to Duke Law School. The Peace Corps now has Brothers Wayne Thompson (Peru) and Ken Rich (Malawi) in its ranks, and Brother Francis Wong is now at Columbia University on an engineering program.

Wisconsin—Beta Gamma

Second semester terminated well for Beta Gamma as the chapter finished fifth out of 32 fraternities in the annual Badger Bowl athletic competition, and, as usual, ranked a formidable seventh of 34 houses in scholarship.

Summer activities found most Wisconsin Delts entertaining at North Woods cabins or traveling to Sheboygan for the annual Brat Day.* Keith Grant joined the jet set and toured Europe, while Dave Engel and John Coburn journeyed to Lima, Peru, to work there for peon wages. Our housemother, Mrs. "C," visited Seattle and Vancouver with friends.

Alumni Day for Beta Gamma, scheduled for February 27, plans to be special this year as we are dedicating it to the woman who has done so much for us and received so little in return—our housemother, Mrs. Consigny. Special booklets have been printed and are being sent to alumni all over the country, so if you've lost contact with us don't hesitate to give us your new address. We hope to see all those from '03 to '63 here on February 27!

Weygandt, Rowan, Smith Pass to Chapter Eternal

A LONG AND DISTINGUISHED career was closed September 4 with the passing of Carl V. Weygandt, Wooster, '12, chief justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. He was 76, and had served 30 years as chief justice of the Ohio Supreme Court, and a total of 38 years on the bench. He had been, at various times, a teacher, legislator, lawyer, football official and coach, as well as judge.

Justice WEYGANDT

Born near Wooster, Ohio, June 14, 1888, Carl Weygandt attended the College of Wooster, where he was considered one of the greatest full-backs developed in Ohio. Following his graduation in 1912, he taught at Wooster until 1915, when he moved to Cleveland. In 1918 he received his doctor of laws degree from Western Reserve University, and entered the practice of law.

In 1920, Judge Weygandt was elected to the state legislature—one of only two Democrats to survive the Harding landslide; in 1930 he was elected to the Court of Appeals, and in 1932 he was elected chief justice of the state Supreme Court, which position he held for the next 30 years. Judge Weygandt was universally respected as a distinguished jurist, and as can be seen from the photograph, he looked every inch the part.

Judge Weygandt's interest in the Fraternity never flagged. Although his own Psi Chapter at Wooster was lost, he was "adopted" by Beta Chapter at Ohio University. He participated in the installation of Delta Tau Chapter at Bowling Green State University, Delta Omega Chapter at Kent State, and Delta Chi Chapter at Oklahoma State. He was principal speaker at the Fifty-ninth Karnea, and toastmaster at the Sixtieth Karnea Banquet, and spoke at innumerable Delt affairs, on the local and regional level. Judge Weygandt was elected to the Distinguished Service Chapter of the Fraternity in 1938.

Richard W. Rowan, Brown, '16, and Columbia, '16, died August 12 in Jersey City at the age of 65. Mr. Rowan, an authority on espionage, was the author of "The Story of Secret Service," published in 1937, which was Literary Guild selection and was translated into six languages. He also wrote "Spy and Counter Spy," "The Pinkertons: A Detective Dynasty," "Secret Agents Against America," "Terror in Our Time," "Cuba the Big Red Lie," and "Spies in the Next War." In the latter book, written before World War II, his predictions of new techniques in espionage were borne out with surprising accuracy.

Mr. Rowan was born in Philadelphia. He wrote his first short story, which was published by the Saturday Evening Post, at 17. He has had numerous stories and articles published in other national magazines. An article by him appeared in the June, 1951 issue of THE RAINBOW and he was the author of numerous chapter reports, having served both Beta Chi Chapter and Gamma Epsilon Chapter as RAINBOW correspondent.

Charles S. Smith, Iowa, '97, died August 21, in his home in Carlsbad, California. He was 89 years of age. A native of Albia, Iowa, Mr. Smith was a graduate of the State University of Iowa, and took postgraduate work in Columbia University's School of Journalism. He worked on newspapers in Des Moines, Omaha, Nashville, and Washington, D. C., and then joined the Associated Press where he rose to be chief of the foreign service in the 1920's.

He was a correspondent in China during the Boxer Rebellion, in Belgium just ahead of the German invasion of the First World War, and in Russia at the time of the Kerensky Revolution and the later Bolshevik

Beta Zeta Shelter Gets Face-Lifting

THE CHAPTER HOUSE at Butler University has a new look. Over the summer, a complete new front entrance was added, vastly improving the beauty of the comparatively new structure. The effect of the project, which cost $13,000, can be seen by comparing the accompanying photograph with the cover picture on the Winter, 1964, issue of THE RAINBOW.

Revolution in which Lenin seized power. He was wounded in a bayonet encounter in Harbin, Manchuria, in 1918. In 1920, he was decorated by the French government. At various times he served in London, Moscow, Berlin, and Peking.

Following his retirement from the Associated Press, Mr. Smith lived in Maryland and Florida, and traveled in the Caribbean, before settling in Guatemala. He wrote accounts of the 1954 revolution there. One such account appeared in the September, 1954, issue of THE RAINBOW. In 1958, he returned to the United States, and made his home in California until his death.

Mr. Smith served the Fraternity as President of the Southern Division during the time he was located in Nashville, Tennessee.

Hardly an hour passes in the life of a chapter without its opportunity to fortify the character and spirit of some member who is tempted to do the easy, the foolish, or even the harmful thing which would by just so much defeat the purpose which has brought him to college. That is the responsibility which your college has laid upon your shoulders. That is the opportunity which has been given you to exercise an influence for good in the life of your members, and thus in the life of your college.

ALVAN E. DUERR

1925-1927

The Delta Creed

- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta for the education of youth and the inspiration of maturity, so that I may better learn and live the truth.
- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta as a shrine of international brotherhood: her cornerstone friendship, her foundation conscience, her columns aspiration, her girders self-restraint, her doorway opportunity, her windows understanding, her buttresses loyalty, her strength the Everlasting Arms.
- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta as an abiding influence to help me do my work, fulfill my obligations, maintain my self-respect, and bring about that happy life wherein I may more truly love my fellow men, serve my country, and obey my God.
