Hugh Shields

Hugh Shields, Indiana, '26, Executive Vice-President of the Fraternity, known to Delts everywhere as Mr. Delta Tau Delta, passed to the Chapter Eternal on April 9, following a brief illness.

President of Beta Alpha Chapter as an undergraduate, serving Delta Tau Delta full time since graduation, and its chief administrative officer since 1930, Hugh Shields compiled a record of devotion, service, and accomplishment unexcelled in the fraternity world.

Details of his distinguished career will be reported in a special issue of THE RAINBOW, authorized by the Arch Chapter as a tribute to Hugh Shields.

New Shelter at the Capstone

By JAKE WAGNON, Alabama, '56, and

REGGIE HAMNER, Alabama, '61

NO LONGER is the old familiar phrase, "They're going to start the new house in the spring," heard in Tuscaloosa concerning the Delta Eta Shelter. After many hopeful years, the brothers at Alabama have seen a dream become a reality—the dream of a new Shelter, to replace one that had been outgrown.

Last March construction began on what is surely one of the most beautiful as well as one of the most practical fraternity houses in the South, if not in the nation.

The new Shelter is located on a beautiful wooded street known as New Fraternity Row. This location was selected by the University in its long range program of campus expansion, and as fraternities have outgrown the old houses, the new ones have been built in this area. There are now seven new houses finished, with two more to be completed in the near future. The excellent financial structure of the Delta Eta House Corporation enabled us to have priority in the selection of a lot. This was a distinct advantage, in that our lot is the only one suitable for a full basement.

The Shelter was completed just in time for the annual Homecoming Weekend at the Capstone, and after a nomadic existence for some two years the brothers didn't hesitate to forego one night of partying to move in.

Built of brick, and air-conditioned throughout, the house is of Georgian-Colonial architecture with perhaps the most outstanding features being the arched floor-length windows

Typical two-man study room

Card room; bridge, anyone?

The formal living room

across the front. The entrance from the circular front porch, supported by large columns, into the foyer is through double doors. All floors in the public rooms are teakwood, excepting the dining room, which has tile.

Located on the main floor is the spacious suite for our housemother, the formal living room, a combination TV-trophy room in rubbed paneling, a card room, and the formal dining room with a seating capacity of one hundred. The kitchen, also on this floor, is furnished in stainless steel throughout.

The party room, the George Briggs' Memorial Library and the chapter offices are all in the basement, which has an outside entrance in addition to the interior stairwell. The basement is complete with a refreshment area.

The second floor is divided into two wings, separated by a large shower room. Each of the 21 rooms will accommodate two men. All of the furniture in the rooms is built in, with the exception of the study desks and chairs. The beds are the height of a top bunk, with a large shirt closet and chest of drawers under each. Additional storage space is provided by full-length closets in each room. The second floor also has a refreshment bar and telephone booths.

One project to be begun in the future is a large patio between the living room and dining rooms which had to be deferred to stay within the construction limits. The cost of the house is approximately $225,000 and an additional $30,000 for interior decorating. It may be of interest to know that the interior decorating was done by the same person selected to do the interior of the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs. The new Shelter was financed with accumulated earnings, the sale of the old Shelter, and loans from the Fraternity and the University.

This brief description is intended to give some idea of how magnificent the house is, but the true beauty is in the detail treatment used throughout. There are few, if any, of the brothers who would say that our new Shelter isn't worth waiting for.

We of Delta Eta, both actives and alums, are very proud of the new Shelter and would welcome the opportunity to show it to you. Our formal dedication is scheduled May 8, 1965. We can only feel, with a past history of fine accomplishments, that the new Shelter will enable us to reach still greater goals.

FOR A NUMBER of years THE RAINBOW has presented an annual Delt football team. Chapter letters have given mention during these years to Delt participants on varsity basketball teams. Occasionally, a feature article has appeared on the subject of Delt members of an Olympic basketball team or concerning an outstanding Delt coach such as Ray Mears or a Hall of Fame player such as Stretch Murphy.

Obviously, it is high time that the basketball-minded of the Fraternity came into their own.

In response to a basketball questionnaire, we were presented with a roster of 70 players, representing 31 different chapters. Jay Langhammer of Epsilon Beta Chapter, who aided considerably in compiling information for this year's All Delt football squad, helped out by submitting a list of 20 players, several of whom had not been included in the chapter replies.

Eight Delts served as team captain. These men and the teams they ROY SAARI, U.S.C., '66, once again proved himself to be one of the world's great swimmers by taking his second straight triple crown and leading Southern California to the NCAA swimming title. The Delt Olympian broke his own record in the 1650-yard freestyle by more than 9 seconds. Saari also set new records in the 500-yard and 200-yard freestyle events. In last Fall's Olympics, he took a gold and a silver medal.

The national finals, which were held on the campus of Iowa State University on April 3, also saw three other Delt Olympians in action. Gary Dilley, Michigan State, '67, took first place honors in the 100-yard and 200-yard backstroke. In winning the 100-yard event, Dilley dethroned American and collegiate record holder Bob Bennett, U.S.C., '65. Dilley won the race in 52.6, erasing the 53.1 mark posted by Bennett a year ago. Bennett finished second in the NCAA event.

Also swimming in the national finals was another Delt Olympian, Rich McGeagh, U.S.C., '66.

Delts dominated the roundball team at Stevens as 12 out of the 13 players were from Rho Chapter. Four Delts played for Kenyon. The teams playing for Santa Barbara, W. & L., Wesleyan, Western Reserve, George Washington, Oregon State, and Iowa each included three Delts.

The complete roster is as follows:

Inevitably, some outstanding Delt performers have been overlooked. This we sincerely regret. Perhaps in future years we will have sufficient information furnished to assure that all Delts who participated in varsity basketball during the season will be included on the squad.

Knoxville Is Site for Southern Division Conference

By LARRY H. CUNNINGHAM, Tennessee, '66

DELTA DELTA CHAPTER was the proud host as the 15 chapters and one colony of the Southern Division met in Knoxville, Tennessee, on February 25 and 26. Delegates were housed at the Andrew Johnson Hotel, with the business sessions on the University of Tennessee campus.

Division President William R. Earnshaw welcomed the delegates to the Conference, with an especial word of welcome for the representatives of the Eastern, Western, and Northern Divisions. It is our hope that they benefited from the interchange of ideas as much as we did.

The first item of business—reports by each chapter of its condition, program, and problems—proved of such interest that more than the scheduled time was given over to it. Overall, the reports indicated that the chapters in the South were generally healthy, and progressing on their campuses; however, there were enough mutual problems to make for a lively and useful discussion which brought out many practical suggestions.

In addition to the informal coverage which grew out of the chapter reports, topics of major interest and concern were covered in scheduled round-table discussions. Such topics were rushing, pledge training, finances, and chapter organization and administration.

A matter which has long been of concern to Delts in the South, expansion of the Fraternity in this area, was the subject of much discussion. As a result of diligent efforts by men such as President Bill Earnshaw and Vice-Presidents Bill Fraering and Carlisle Myers, a number of expansion opportunities in the South have been discovered and are being exploited. We feel that the addition of the Western Kentucky colony will prove to be a great boon to Delta Tau Delta and the Southern Division; certainly if Rick McClure and Ed VanMetre are representative of the colony, fraternity leadership will be a tradition for Delta Tau Delta at Western Kentucky. Conference delegates were enthusiastic, too, about prospects for the Fraternity entering "Ole Miss" and L.S.U.

BILL EARNSHAW is attentive as Dr. KERSHNER expounds scholarship

A number of amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws of the Southern Division were passed, including authorization for the use of Division funds to bring chapter advisers to Division and Regional Conferences and to promote expansion within the Division, and an increase in Division dues to finance these programs.

National President Arnold Berg, who had planned to attend the Conference and make the principal address at the banquet, was grounded in Indianapolis by a blizzard. We regret very much that he was unable to be with us. Taking over for Brother Berg as banquet speaker was Dr. Frederick D. Kershner, Jr., the Fraternity's Supervisor of Scholarship. Dr. Kershner was a refreshing speaker, and presented many challenging ideas concerning fraternities.

"The Gentrymen," a trio composed of Tennessee Delts Andy Garverick, Jerre Haskew, and Jim Shuptrine, provided entertainment which was enthusiastically received by the brothers.

Due largely to the promotional efforts of Brother Joe Smith of Delta Phi Chapter at Florida State, the next Southern Division Conference will be at Tallahassee, Florida. Delta Delta expresses its gratitude for the opportunity of being host to the 1965 Conference, and our Shelter is always open to our visiting brothers.

Delta Delta's housemother sets the pace

"LET'S MAKE SOME changes and improvements this year," was the theme in planning for the 1965 Western Division Conference. First, a place was established—the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs, Colorado. "Let's have a three day conference this year so the delegates can have a day to see the sights, and enjoy a little vacation." The machinery was set in motion and the Conference was set for the middle of February.

At 9:45 a.m. on Thursday, February 18, in the Oval Room of the Broadmoor, Kenneth Penfold, Colorado, '37, President of the Western Division, called the Conference to order. In his opening remarks, he set the theme of the Conference, stating that the key factor in solving all chapter problems is ATTITUDE, along with proper respect for the Fraternity and its ideals. With this idea in mind, the Conference promptly got rolling.

During the opening day, discussions were held on the topics of chapter finance, internal organization, pledge education, social activities, and rushing, all led by panels of experienced alumni and able undergraduates. It was quite evident that the theme of ATTITUDE was the actual watchword of the sessions, and the first day of Conference activity ended with all delegates enthusiastic with the results of the day's work and discussions.

In accordance with the precedent-shattering plan, Friday was left completely free. The delegates had a real chance to take a break and get to know one another, while seeing the sights surrounding the beautiful and luxurious Broadmoor Hotel. Most delegates were up early to enjoy an interesting tour of the Air Force Academy. Vice-President Bob Kroening, Westminster, '45, led the way wearing a ten-gallon hat and wrap-around sunglasses. The afternoon was open, and many delegates went skiing (or tried to) while others went sightseeing around the beautiful resort area. A few rented Hondas for their expeditions. There was, regrettably, one casualty, as Dick Miller of the Nebraska chapter broke an ankle on the ski slope.

Highlight of the day was the Founders Day Banquet at the hotel, held in conjunction with the Denver Alumni Chapter. Division Vice-President and Toastmaster "Toby" Tyler, Colorado, '37, livened things up with a few tall tales. During the program the Philip S. Van Cise Award, for outstanding service to Beta Kappa Chapter and the Fraternity, was presented to Jim Bartlett, past president of Beta Kappa, by Denver Alumni President Paul Holleman, Kentucky, '53.

The principal speaker for the evening was Arnold Berg, Indiana, '32, national President of the Fraternity. Brother Berg brought the audience up to date on Delta Tau Delta's expansion plans, and spoke on recent achievements of the Fraternity, dwelling on the Fraternity's ideals. At the conclusion of his talk, President Berg received a standing ovation from the delegates, alumni, and guests.

Refreshed by the day of recreation, the delegates dug into their second day of business Saturday with renewed vigor and purpose. Again, undergraduate and alumni panels led discussions, with the topics covered including alumni relations, scholarship, faculty-administration relations, housemothers, house property, and hell week activities in the morning session, and activities and Ritual in the afternoon session. Reports of the standing committees were made and the election was held, with Robert W. Kroening being unanimously chosen as the next Western Division President. President-elect Kroening led the Conference in a standing ovation for President Penfold for the excellent job he did during his two terms as President of the Division.

Comments were invited and received from the delegates representing the other Divisions of the Fraternity, and from the Western Division vice-presidents. President Penfold then gave his closing remarks, and the 61st Western Division Conference was adjourned.

This conference was very successful; there was virtually 100 per cent attendance of delegates at all the sessions, all the different areas of operation were discussed freely, and everyone participated. The positive aspect of the Conference theme, ATTITUDE, was conspicuously present, showing what can be accomplished when there is true interest in improvement.

Snow in April as Northern Division Meets

By THEODORE R. KENNEDY, Wabash, '41, and Wisconsin, '41

THE WEATHER MAN is apparently not a Delt, at least not a Northern Division Delt. The Conference had been originally scheduled for February 27 and 28, but the Northern Division was buried, along with everything else in the Midwest, under a foot of snow. Quick action on the long distance telephone lines caught all delegations in time to advise them of postponement, excepting that from the University of Illinois, which had left by train. Also the representative from the Western Division, John Salzer of Oregon State, arrived by plane only to learn the overriding authority of Midwestern winter.

President Joe Boyd re-scheduled the Conference for April 2 and 3, with the full cooperation of East Lansing's Inn America, the Michigan State University Student Union (site of the Conference meetings), and Iota Chapter. April 1 dawned bright and clear and remained so until approximately 10 a.m., when clouds moved in and unloaded some six inches of snow, nicely distributed by gale force winds. However, this time Delts were undeterred, all delegations arriving safely and promptly, and the weather grudgingly cooperated, except for establishing some record low temperatures.

Twenty-four of 26 undergraduate chapters were represented (Chi and Beta Beta being the absentees) and two alumni chapters, Indianapolis and Lansing. In addition to John Salzer, who valiantly returned, Gale Wilkinson of Oklahoma State represented the Western Division; Gerald Jeppe, of Allegheny, and James Utter, of Tufts, represented the Eastern Division; and David Travis, of Georgia Tech, represented the Southern Division. Each of these men reported on operations and problems of his chapter, as did the delegates of each of the Division chapters.

In the course of two days many aspects of successful fraternity operation were discussed in the general sessions. On Friday afternoon and Saturday morning smaller discussion groups concentrated on the special problems of rushing, pledge education, internal organization, and chapter finances. While each chapter and campus is unique, much was gained from this exchange of ideas and solutions to common or similar difficulties. Friday afternoon Iota initiated 16 new Delts before the Conference delegates, and this ceremony provided a basis for a discussion of the Ritual at the Saturday morning session. At the final session, Dr. Joseph T. Boyd was unanimously re-elected President of the Division, amid expressions of appreciation for his outstanding service and leadership. Appreciative resolutions were also extended to other Division officers, to Hugh Shields and Al Sheriff and the Central Office staff, and to host Iota Chapter.

The luncheons and dinner were also held at the M.S.U. Union. Brother Louis Hekhuis, Michigan State, '59, assistant to the M.S.U. Dean of Students, spoke at the Friday luncheon, emphasizing the urgency of the fraternity coordinating its functions with the educational aims of the college or university. He expressed the belief that if the fraternity system did so respond, its future was assured.

At the Friday evening banquet, Brother Edmund Willis, Ohio, '28, gave an interesting and stimulating address entitled, "Count Up." Mr. Willis, an official of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, described in memorable terms some of the challenges and opportunities facing young Americans today. The banquet was followed by a dance at Inn America highlighted by the intermission entertainment of Iota actives, Joel Higgins and Hap Dunne.

At the Saturday luncheon, Dr. Boyd read a letter from the Supervisor of Scholarship, Dr. Fred Kershner, which analyzed in some detail the scholastic strengths and weaknesses of Northern Division chapters. This informative and lugubrious report set forth realistic and challenging targets for each chapter and for the Division as a whole.

Beta Alpha at Indiana University was chosen as the host chapter for the 1967 Conference.

At adjournment the consensus indicated that the Conference had been most beneficial for all participants, and mutually enjoyable for both visiting delegates and members of host Iota Chapter. Unfortunately in the change of dates, arrangements for publicity were not re-scheduled; hence no accompanying photograph.

Western Division

ment. Of tremendous effect was the participation of the Division vice-presidents, who were all present for the Conference. The work of Tom Barron, South Dakota, '37, Darrel Johnson, South Dakota, '40, Bob Kroening, Bob Otto, U.S.C., '53, Hirst Suffield, Oklahoma, '34, and Toby Tyler, under the direction of Ken Penfold, shows what a potent factor a hard-working division staff can be.

So . . . this year's Conference is over, but we will continue to reap benefits from it. As they looked for the last time at the snow covered mountains before dispersing to their chapters, the delegates must have agreed with this thought expressed by one, "Yes, you can have a good time and get a lot accomplished. This word ATTITUDE can sure have a big effect."

ASSEMBLING IN BOSTON on March 6 and 7, the Sixty-fifth Eastern Division Conference was honored by the attendance of three former Presidents of the Fraternity, representing a total of more than one hundred twenty-five years of fraternity experience, service, and leadership. One of these men, Francis M. Hughes, Ohio Wesleyan, '31, was on hand as principal speaker for the Conference Banquet. The others, present as chapter advisers, were Norman MacLeod, Pittsburgh, '17, a member of the Executive Committee of the National Interfraternity Conference, and Joel W. Reynolds, Tufts, '23, a former president of the NIC and currently president of the Interfraternity Research and Advisory Council.

Friday's roll call was answered by all the Division's 20 chapters. After a report on the "State of the Division" by Division President H. Watson Stover, Butler, '21, chapter delegates directed their attention to serious discussion of the fundamentals of chapter operation. These discussions continued Friday afternoon and Saturday, with panels and seminars being conducted by Division vice-presidents, chapter advisers, and by undergraduate delegates chosen from chapters with outstanding programs in the areas under discussion. Undergraduate leaders showed a real awareness of the need for increased emphasis by the chapters on individual and group scholarship, constructive pledge education programs, community and campus citizenship, and, in general, a better public image. At adjournment Saturday the delegates were unanimous that this two-day exchange of ideas had been mutually helpful, and that the programs discussed presented a challenge to chapter leaders to put them into effect.

The luncheon Friday featured Dr. Frederick D. Kershner, Butler, '37, national Supervisor of Scholarship, who discussed the scholastic position and problems of the Eastern Division and its chapters. Armed with statistics and records, and employing a reliable crystal ball, Dr. Kershner made forecasts for individual chapters—for some predicting improvement, for others a further slide into the "pit of darkness."

Friday night the Conference joined

Beta Nu Chapter (M.I.T.) in celebrating its Seventy-fifth Anniversary at the Banquet. Dean of Residence Frederick G. Fassett, Jr., of M.I.T., welcomed the 170 delegates, alumni, and guests to Boston. The principal address, delivered by Fran Hughes, was both thought-provoking and inspirational to alumni and undergraduates alike. A surprise event of the evening was the presentation of a citation to membership in the Distinguished Service Chapter of the Fraternity to Joseph G. Flagler, Rensselaer, '35, for his long and devoted service to Delta Tau Delta and to Upsilon Chapter at Rensselaer.

Saturday's luncheon was educational as well as nourishing, as delegates were brought up to date on interfraternity events and developments by Norm MacLeod and Joel Reynolds.

The delegates expressed their appreciation to Division President Stover and their continued confidence in his leadership by re-electing him unanimously to a second two-year term to head the Eastern Division. After a vote of thanks to host chapter Beta Nu and to all whose preparation and participation made the Conference so successful, the final session was adjourned late Saturday afternoon, and the delegates began to disperse to their chapters.

The Sound of Nine

By MICHAEL T. BROVSKY, Colorado, '62

From the left, the Singers are TOMMY TIEMANN, BROOKS HATCH, JOHN MADDEN, MIKE BROVSKY, DIANE DECKER, BOB YOUNG, JON ARBENZ, LAUREE BERGER, and BRYAN SENNETT

WHAT HAS 9 LIVES, 2 coiffures, one pair of glasses, plays banjo, guitar, Congo drums, bass fiddle and sings? The Serendipity Singers! The ancient Greeks gave the word serendipity its origin—meaning “The unexpected discovery of a new and happy event,” but modern audiences throughout the world experience their own private “serendipity” when they hear the nine most versatile and appealing young performers on the music scene today.

The story of the Serendipity Singers begins about two years ago at the University of Colorado where six members of Delta Tau Delta, who were all interested in folk type music, decided to band together and form a large group. Bryan Sennett and Brooks Hatch had sung before as a duo and Mike Brovsky, Jon Arbenz and John Madden had formed a trio with some limited regional success; however, the small groups were limited both vocally and instrumentally, so in their senior year at Colorado the guys joined forces and added Bob Young, who was a wizard on the bass fiddle. Lynne Weintraub, a beautiful brunette with a powerful alto voice (and an honorary Delt) rounded out the original group.

The Serendipities performed at Delt rush parties and soon their popularity grew until everyone wanted them to sing at sororities, clubs, school organizations, conventions, etc.

After making some commercials for a local oil company and savings bank, the group recorded a demonstration record and sent it to record companies and agencies throughout the country.

From this an agency contract was secured.

After graduation the group traveled to New York to seek its fortune. They decided to add the fantastic talents of Tom Tiemann, a big Texan, and blonde, beautiful Diane Decker, both from the University of Texas.

Now at last the group was complete—9 different talents that blended beautifully into one powerful group.

While in New York the talents of the “Serendipity Singers” came to the attention of night club operator Fred Weintraub, discoverer of such notables as Peter, Paul, and Mary; Woody Allen; and Bill Cosby. He booked them for three months at his famous Bitter End Coffee House in Greenwich Village and also became manager and foster father of the group.

The producer of the "Hootenanny" television series heard them perform at the Bitter End, and asked to have them do a show. The response throughout the country from this first TV show was so great that they were immediately signed for seven more "Hootenanny" shows.

About this same time the Serendipities' first recording on Phillips label of "Crooked Little Man" started zooming up the popular music charts. At a time when the Beatles held the first four positions in the country, Crooked Little Man was No. 5. After this the albums "Serendipity Singers," "Take Your Shoes Off With the Serendipity Singers" and "The Many Sides of the Serendipity Singers" were high on the best seller lists for many months. The fourth album, "We Belong Together," was just released and is probably the finest and most unusual thing a large group has ever done.

Other TV appearances include the Ed Sullivan Show, the Bell Telephone Hour, the Jack Parr Show, the Tennessee Ernie Ford Show, the Orson Bean Special, Shindig, Hullabaloo, Hollywood A Go Go, and several television specials.

The Serendipity Singers have had amazing college concert success, with most of the major schools in the U. S. providing them with sell-out crowds and standing ovations. The Singers just finished an extensive tour with the Oscar Peterson Jazz Trio, sponsored by the Ford Motor Company.

The group is one of L.B.J.'s favorites. It performed at many White House functions, at the National Democratic Convention in Atlantic City, and was among the few groups ever to be invited to the inauguration of a President of the United States.

With the upcoming tour of Tahiti, New Zealand, Australia, and Japan, and a Fall tour for the State Department behind the Iron Curtain, the Serendipity Singers are quickly becoming ambassadors of the American image abroad.

Among the awards won this year were the "Best New Vocal Group of 1964" by Cash Box magazine and "Best New Group of 1964" by Record World magazine. "Crooked Little Man" is also a "Grammy" nominee for the best song of 1964.

Future plans call for a movie, a possible television series and more of the knockout recordings and performances that the Serendipity Singers have become famous for.

The Serendipity story of success is certainly a fitting testimonial to the close bonds forged by Delta Tau Delta and the fraternal system.

SS at GO

By JOHN ROWSE, Syracuse, '66

IN THE FALL of last year the brothers of Gamma Omicron became aware of the fact that several members of the Serendipity Singers—six to be exact—were Delt Brothers. At Christmas time, Murray Bernthal, of Famous Artists Series in Syracuse, announced that he would present a concert with the Serendipity Singers on March 13, 1965.

Acting for the chapter, Brother John Rowse contacted Mr. Bernthal and made arrangements, through the group's agent, for the house to entertain the young artists after their concert.

At 8:30 on Saturday, March 13, 1965, the concert began and the brothers of Gamma Omicron Chapter and their dates were in the front row. The evening's entertainment, which included some twenty-odd songs, complete with pantomime and full stage blackouts, was fun for all.

After the concert, the Serendipity Singers—Misses Diane Decker and Lauree Berger; Tommy E. Tiemann; and Brothers Jon Arbenz, Bob Young, Bryan Sennett, H. Brooks Hatch, John Madden, and Mike Brovsky—were met backstage and escorted to the Shelter for a reception and a late night supper. Both the brothers and their dates enjoyed the opportunity to meet and talk with the members of the group. Most important of all, we learned that performers are just like any other people who enjoy life and like to have fun.

Reports From Missouri and Tennessee

THE RAINBOW thanks Interfraternity Views and News for permission to reprint the two items below. The one from Missouri is condensed from a report by Mr. Charles J. Hartmann, Jr., and the one from Tennessee is from Robert F. Bonitati, who are the university officials dealing directly with fraternities on their respective campuses.

The favorable results of the summer pledging program at the University of Missouri should be food for thought for a number of schools facing the problem of dwindling rush registration. Missouri is another of the major campuses which has recently revised rushing to be less restrictive and more open; others include Illinois and U.C.L.A.

Some may be surprised at the reactions of new pledges to the rush program disclosed in the report from the University of Tennessee, as to the elimination of bands and girls, and the lack of influence of rush books, but all may be reassured by the seeking for brotherhood and scholastic assistance, to which we hope all chapters will give ever-increasing emphasis.

SUMMER PLEDGING AT UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

In the fall of 1962, a proposal containing characteristics of the University of Illinois IFC rush plan was recommended to the Missouri IFC. An IFC committee then gathered information pertaining to summer and spring pledging systems at other institutions and recommended in early 1963 to adopt a system of summer pledging on a one-year trial basis.

Results from our first summer experience indicate that larger, well-financed and better organized fraternities used the summer pledging opportunity to advantage. A number of smaller houses demonstrated that regardless of size or financial position, their houses now have an opportunity to pledge a substantial number of men prior to rush week.

An investigation of the geographic areas represented in pledge classes of the five fraternities which pledged the most men during the summer of 1964 does not reflect any more extreme grouping than prevailed in past years. On the contrary, it may be that intensified summer competition induced some groups to broaden the scope of their rushing to new areas of the state.

It is believed that the number of men depledging in order to pledge a different fraternity will not be substantially larger than under previous rush procedures. The responses indicate that more men are being rushed under the new system. The increase in men rushed was somewhat larger than the increase in men pledged.

The total number of 1964 pledges is approximately 36 per cent more than 1963.

"Does the New System Favor Any Houses Over Others?" The large fraternities adopt the view that small houses were benefited because they did not have to compete with the large group in the close confines of rush week. Smaller groups think that the manpower and financial resources of the large groups make the new system operate in their favor. Both groups take the position that the rewards are sufficiently beneficial to their own houses and the fraternity system to merit its continuation.

WHAT TENNESSEE LEARNED FROM STUDYING RUSHING

Six hundred fifty men who accepted bids participated in a study of rushing at University of Tennessee. They generally voiced dissatisfaction with the requirement to visit so many houses and with the small time (half hour) allowed in each.

They said the IFC had too many rules and asked to eliminate the bands and girls; they wanted to get to know the brothers and the houses.

Four hundred twelve said the rush booklet did not influence them. "You cannot tell about a house by reading about it."

Two main things the rushees expected to get from a fraternity were:

Brotherhood: 392 checked this, denoting friendship, life-long friends, [and their desire] to be more than a number.

Scholastic Assistance: 204 noted they expected this from their affiliation.

Does your rush program meet these objections and do your fraternities practice Brotherhood and offer real Scholastic Assistance?

Diamond Anniversary Observed at Beta Nu

By JAMES C. MACMILLAN

M.I.T., '64

THIS PRESENT school year is the 75th since the founding of Beta Nu Chapter at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Thus we found it fitting to celebrate the occasion with a reunion of alumni. The planning for this event was begun early in the year, and our target date was sometime in March. After consultation with the Central Office, it was determined to hold the reunion in conjunction with the Eastern Division Conference, already scheduled to meet in Boston on March 5 and 6.

Both the chapter and the house corporation went to work with great enthusiasm, seeking to enlist the support of as many alumni as possible. As plans solidified, they were publicized in two issues of the chapter newsletter, The Beta Nu's. At all stages we received magnificent help and co-operation from Eastern Division President H. Watson Stover, and from the Central Office.

The initial event, a cocktail hour at the Beta Nu Shelter on Friday evening, March 5, was very well attended. Present, in addition to alumni and undergraduate members of Beta Nu, were many delegates to the Conference.

The gathering adjourned to the Somerset Hotel a few blocks distant for a banquet which was the highlight of both the Seventy-fifth Anniversary celebration and the Division Conference. Total attendance was about 150 Delts. Through the much-appreciated efforts of past President Joel Reynolds, Tufts, '23, a singing group from Tufts University provided entertainment during the dinner.

The after-dinner speaker was Francis M. Hughes, Ohio Wesleyan, '31, a past President of Delta Tau Delta. Fran gave an excellent talk containing a message of value to all fraternity men, which was very much in the festive spirit of the occasion. Dean Frederick Fassett of M.I.T. gave the group both his own and the Institute's felicitations. Both men's remarks were well received and contributed greatly to the success of the banquet.

Following the sessions of the Conference the next day (Saturday) a party was held in the evening at the Shelter. It was well attended and was a resounding success.

This reunion was the most successful held at Beta Nu for many years. Because our alumni are very widely dispersed over the nation and the world, we were most gratified by the attendance; however, it is planned that this will serve merely as a starting point for the cultivation of ever better alumni relations, and will therefore be only a forerunner of bigger and better alumni reunions in the future.

Alumni who attended expressed their enthusiasm for the celebration, and indicated their intention to sup-

Al Sheriff Named Executive Vice-Pres.

ALFRED P. SHERIFF, III, W. & J., '49, was appointed Executive Vice-President of the Fraternity at a meeting of the Board of Directors on April 10. President Arnold Berg expressed the complete confidence of the Board, and of the Arch Chapter, that Al will carry forward the administration of Delta Tau Delta in an efficient and dedicated manner.

In various offices in Gamma Chapter and in the Cleveland Alumni Chapter, as a field secretary, as a veteran Karnea staffer, and especially as Administrative Assistant for the past four years, Al has learned thoroughly the operation of the Fraternity. He was hand-picked by the Board of Directors, with the hearty concurrence of Hugh Shields, to succeed to the position of Executive Vice-President upon Hugh's retirement.

Unhappily, Al has been thrust into the responsibility sooner than anyone had anticipated, and under most sad circumstances. Yet the building of Delta Tau Delta must go on, and the Arch Chapter calls on Al, as on all Good Delts, to forward the work so well advanced under his predecessor and mentor.

port actively future reunions by urging their classmates to attend. For this we will be grateful. We thank everyone who helped make our Seventy-fifth Anniversary a memorable occasion, and we underline our hope that this is an indication of closer alumni relations for Beta Nu.

THE DELT CHAPTERS

Albion—Epsilon

Epsilon looks forward to its 86th spring on Albion's campus led by recently elected President Duane Nelles; Rick Carlson, vice-president; Bob Newman, treasurer; Paul Mesack, assistant treasurer; Emil L. Ognisanti, recording secretary; Steve DeOrlow, corresponding secretary; Dave Ringer, sergeant at arms; and John Pickelman, guide.

Brothers John Pickelman and Rich Wells will serve on the Dean's staff this fall as resident advisors in the dormitory system. With the conclusion of spring sports, Brother Steve DeOrlow will finish his job as sports editor of the weekly college paper, The Albion Pleiad.

With a powerful surge, Epsilon copped the intramural football crown. In varsity action Brother Russ Wallis, halfback, made an excellent showing as he co-captained the Briton football squad to an undefeated season, meanwhile breaking the old school record for most yardage gained. Tom Pantlind made another fine showing for Epsilon as he co-captained the swimming team to a championship season, while making good times in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle events. Epsilon salutes these two hard-working brothers, as they have done a fine job for the chapter.

Brothers Duane Nelles and Bob Newman were recently accepted to Omicron Delta Epsilon, national economics honorary. Beta Beta Beta, national biology honorary, this spring welcomed Bob Wood. Under the disciplined eye of Jim Miller our scholastic program has shown definite improvement, with 20 per cent of the chapter on the Dean's List. All of our ten graduating seniors are entering graduate school next fall. We are going to miss those senior-instigated snowball fights (but not the broken windows!).

Epsilon was besieged with serious difficulties in its fall rush program; however, the chapter was fortunate to have secured the most outstanding man in the freshman class as its spring pledge. We welcome pledge Greg Northrop to our ranks.

Brothers Ed Hill and Tom Kaufman represented the chapter at the Northern Division Conference at Iota Chapter. Ideas for rush and attitudes of brotherhood gathered at the Conference have greatly encouraged Epsilon. We have launched a rigorous program for the summer rush of incoming frosh, hopefully in conjunction with other Michigan chapters, and hope to see more inter-chapter cooperation concerning rush programs.

Epsilon's sociable social chairman, Tom Ross, helped us forget winter for a while with the annual Delt Luau, complete with plenty of gorgeous hula girls. We are all anxiously awaiting our spring formal and, of course, final exams!

STEVE DEORLOW

Allegheny—Alpha

Winter term at Alpha Chapter started with rush week. Without the facilities of the Shelter, a very successful program was completed at the YMCA with the pledging of 19 men. This term three more were pledged. The pledges were under the capable and firm leadership of Brother Bob Harden. The pledge program, emphasizing academics, unity, and a close brother-pledge relationship, culminated in the initiation of 13 new brothers. Pre-initiation Week included a community service project for the Salvation Army.

Following rush, new chapter officers were elected: Gerald Jeppe, president; Norm Seifreit, vice-president; Steve Paul, treasurer; Paul Lambert, corresponding secretary; Don Hoffman, recording secretary; and David Brush, rush chairman. With these new officers and their committees, Alpha is now running at peak efficiency.

A very successful alumni newsletter, the Choctaw, is edited by Brothers Al Hays and Bob Kendall. We are particularly interested in information regarding the old "Choctaw Ritual." Would anyone having any information regarding it please contact Alpha Chapter.

Alpha Deltas have been busy on and off campus this last term. Brothers Seifreit and Paul attended the Eastern Division Conference, while Brother Jeppe was a representative of the Eastern Division to the Northern Division Conference. David Brush has the privilege of a summer in Spain under the auspices of The Experiment in International Living, while Tom Parker will help research a National Science Foundation physics project. Brothers Norm Levine, Dave Wolf, John Buyck, and Mike Pelc represented Alpha on various Allegheny athletic teams. Rich Brandt and George Dull were elected president and vice-president of the senior class, respectively. Alpha Chapter leads the latest campus activity, side-walk surfing, with Brothers Dull, Lambert, and Maloney comprising the most successful team at Allegheny.

Alpha Chapter moves into the Spring term with ground-breaking of the new 43-man Shelter imminent. Spring intramurals, our annual pinmate serenades, an excellent social program provided by Chairman Walt Conte, and academics will surely make up an interesting, exciting, and successful term for the men of Alpha.

PAUL LAMBERT, JR.

Arizona—Epsilon Epsilon

The election of chapter officers at Epsilon Epsilon highlighted the start of the spring semester. The new officers are: president, John Yeoman; vice-president, Ray Clark; treasurer, Doug Doyle; recording secretary, John Burch; corresponding secretary, Bob Nichols; guide, John Hanson; and sergeant at arms, Steve Greger.

Spring rush ended with a pledge class of 10 new men. Our fall semester brought us an excellent pledge class of 30 men, with 20 of them becoming brothers—incidentally, this was the second-highest initiation percentage out of 28 fraternities on campus.

So far this spring we have had four theme parties at the Shelter, and four exchanges—with Kappas, A D Pi's, Pi Phi's, and A E Phi's. More social events are planned, with a spring formal to top off the semester, and of course our annual "Shipwreck" festivities. Socially, our fall semester was a truly great success, with parties, exchanges, and a fantastic Christmas formal that definitely lived up to Delt standards. Also during the fall semester, the Delt homecoming float placed first in the fraternity division, under the driving leadership of Float Chairman Dave Meador.

Epsilon Epsilon's first place float

As far as athletics go, Epsilon Epsilon is holding its own, just last night winning two intramural volleyball games. With continuing victories like this, we are looking forward to a successful season in softball and other sports.

With spirit high, Epsilon Epsilon Chapter hopes for a successful and enjoyable spring semester, and wishes the same to all Delt chapters!

BOB NICHOLS

Auburn—Epsilon Alpha

In many respects Winter quarter was an explosive one for Auburn Deltas. The house was very literally shaken by the devilishly clever explosives set off by Brothers Olson and Bohannon, while Brother White, our much feared scholarship chairman, shook up the fireworks experts (and the rest of the chapter as well) with his well-timed and sneakily placed fines which eventually helped to lead to a first-place scholastic rating among Auburn fraternities for Epsilon Alpha.

We also found ourselves with a new set of officers, who emerged from the clouds of smoke created by the cigars given out by our numerous newly pinned brothers. Red-eyed but happy, they are Tom Goodwin, president; Roger McClellan, vice-president; Walter (Scrooge) Schoditsch, our second term treasurer; Stetson Reid, recording secretary; Tom Bohannon, corresponding secretary; John Faulkner, guide; and Jerome Olson, sergeant at arms. Also, getting out into campus politics, we were able to sneak Roger McClellan into the nomination for Senator at Large, where it is hoped that he will craftily corrupt the entire campus, and convert everyone to the Delt cause, which shall remain unnamed at this writing.

Since we can open the windows and let out some of the smoke, Spring quarter affairs at the Delta Shelter should be conducted in a clearer, but no less hectic atmosphere. It is hoped (especially by the demolitions experts) that we can hold on to our first place in scholastics (and at the same time keep a tighter hold on our wallets) while electing a new Sweetheart, putting five neophytes through a brand new type of Help Week (introduced by the Cincinnati chapter and brought to us by Field Secretary Jack Patrick), rushing, and converging on Panama City for the three days of riotous living known as the Florida Houseparty (or, Days of Beer and Sandspurs).

For, although in the words of the song, "It's not for knowledge that we came to college," we've managed to be studious—and have fun too. Do not despair—it really can be done. Best of luck to all our brother chapters across the land; keep up the good work.

THOMAS J. BOHANNON

Baker—Gamma Theta

The second semester at Baker is off to a good start as the chapter is again hitting the books to maintain a high scholastic average.

A new slate of officers for the coming year has been selected. Our new president, Bob Mead, from Kansas City, Missouri, will be leading the chapter this year. He will be backed by Vice-President Mike DeFeo, Recording Secretary Don Meyer, Corresponding Secretary Bill Lawter, Treasurer Bary Marquardt, Guide John Garner, and Sergeant at Arms Jim Rubow.

The Deltas at Baker are once again playing a dominant role in varsity athletics. Four brothers were on the basketball team with Brother Don Sharbutt winning a position on the KCAC All-Conference team. There are also three Deltas on the track squad and five brothers on the baseball team.

It looks like we will win the Intramural Sweepstakes trophy for the 13th year in succession. A highlight of the basketball season was our tenth annual Delt Invitational Tournament. The Kansas University Deltas, the Missouri Deltas, and the Kansas State University Deltas participated as well as some other campus teams.

Deltas are once again active in campus politics with Keith Perkins serving as president of Business Roundtable, John Garner president of the "B" Club, and Bob Mead president of the Interfraternity Council.

The social highlights scheduled this Spring are the pledge party, "Surfin' Shelter," and the Orchid Ball, as well as several informals.

We at Baker are looking forward to a fine and prosperous semester in all phases of campus activities, and hope that all the other Delt chapters will do equally well.

BILL LAWTER

Bowling Green—Delta Tau

Delta Tau Chapter started the Spring semester with its annual elections of officers. Ed Crockett, varsity wrestler, was elected president for the new Fraternity year. Jim Townsend was elected to the vice-president slot, while John Bury continued the Bury Dynasty in the treasurer's office, as he was elected to take over for his brother Tom. Jerry Konowal was the only officer to be re-elected, as he is now starting his second term as recording secretary. His roommate, Mark Valsi, was elected corresponding secretary. Steve Worstell and "Jase" Baber were appointed as social co-chairmen.

Athletically, the brothers have the most improved house trophy wrapped up, as we are currently among the top five houses on campus in the IM program. Our high point of the sports season so far has been our second-place finish in the wrestling meet, where the team was paced by John Polanc, the 137-pound champion. The baseball team looks good for the Spring season and should be among the contenders for the championship. On the varsity front, Brother Tom "Pancho" Manning is the tennis team's new captain.

Academically, our bright spots this Spring are Brothers Phil Armstrong's ODK and Phi Beta Kappa and Dave Zacharias' 4.0 average for last semester. Brother Armstrong is currently in charge of the University's new IBM Computer Center in the new Administration Building.

In Spring rush, Delta Tau pledged 21 fine men to carry on the traditions of the chapter. Our social life has been flavored by many house parties, including the famous Flintstone Fling and many brotherhood parties at the Club H a Go Go. Brothers Gillberg, Townsend, and Valsi would like to extend thanks to the brothers of Delta Zeta Chapter for the fine brotherhood shown them when they made a pilgrimage to the sunny state of Florida.

MARK J. VALSI

Butler—Beta Zeta

Beta Zeta is really moving along in trying to advance Deltism. Not only have we excelled in athletics and social activity, but now our scholastic capabilities are finally being realized. Two of the brothers, Bob Cargill and Gene Heath, belong to Sphinx, a junior men's honorary. Also two of our new initiates, Melvin Piepho and Alan Armstrong, obtained 3.62 and 3.57 grade averages, respectively, last semester, and are candidates for Phi Eta Sigma, a freshman honorary. Jim Paff, one of the new sophomore pledges, is already a member of Phi Eta Sigma.

Beta Zeta is growing rapidly as can be seen by the initiation of four men last semester and 11 this past March. Those initiated last semester were John Bak, Jeff Brodine, Gordon Klawitter, and Jack Ragonyi. On March 21, we initiated Alan Armstrong, Larry Blagg, Jim Burke, Alan Crapo, Dave DeGlopper, Pete Grosbach, Rich Katzbauer, Jay Larkin, Mel Piepho, Bill Shery, and Bob Tigar. Not only has this been an excellent year in the growth of Beta Zeta (30 active members), but we placed second in vying for the scholarship trophy. With football and basketball season well behind us, the athletes in the Shelter will improve their scholastic standing, and we will win the scholarship trophy this semester.

Second semester rush was very successful for Beta Zeta. Seven new men were pledged, and this number, coupled with the nine holdover pledges, surpasses any previous total of second semester pledges at Beta Zeta for several years. If future rushes are as productive we will be adding a new wing to the Shelter in a year or so.

This year's chapter officers are: Bob Cargill, president; Steve Jones, vice-president; Denny Lovell, recording secretary; Gordon Klawitter, corresponding secretary (and pledge trainer); Bruce Hazelett, treasurer; Pete Kambiss, sergeant at arms; and Jack Newson, guide.

Beta Zeta is right in the heat of campus activities. Bob Cargill is Sphinx secretary and Y.M.C.A. secretary, Bruce Hazelett is sophomore class vice-president, Jack Newson is vice-president of Kappa Psi, and Jay Larkin is the secretary of the freshman class. Right now we are preparing for Spring Sing and also our Trik-la-Tron—a take-off on the Indianapolis "500." Beta Zeta is outstanding on the athletic field, too. We have already won the I.M. football championship, placed third in wrestling, and are on top in baseball, winning our first game 8-1. We have a good chance of winning the All Sports trophy for the second year in a row.

GORDON KLAWITTER

California—Beta Omega

California Delts closed out the fall semester in excellent condition and entered into the spring semester with hopes of an even better year. With the new administration, seven new pledges were added to the fall class of fourteen. John Rice, the rush chairman, hopes to increase this number to 20 during this spring.

Beta Omega's scholastic average for the fall exemplifies the success of our extensive scholastic program. After a mediocre showing last spring, the brothers embarked on a program which led to the thirteenth spot among the 48 California fraternities, and acceptance of former Scholarship Chairman Mike Crawford into Phi Beta Kappa. With this new incentive, California Delts are endeavoring to make this semester even more successful.

Athletically, many of the brothers are engaged in varsity sports. Greg Palamontain, Troy Cox, Del Henry, and Jack Selman (a junior college All-American nominee) have been recruited to play spring football. Gale Newman is presently playing center field for the varsity baseball team, and John Hoefer is rowing in a top position as the crew season gets under way. Jim Thompson has led the California rugby team to an unprecedented season, and will travel to Australia this summer to play for the Bears on their international tour. At the close of the fall semester, Rod Stiefvater, Terry Miller, and Ken High (a high school All-American), played first string on the frosh water polo team. Ken and Terry went on to compete on the swimming team, while Rod competed for California on the diving squad. Along with our strong intramural record, California Delts have been duly represented on almost all varsity teams.

With an extensive social calendar, including the Jungle Party, the Viking Party, and the spring overnight, and the forthcoming Alumni Day, the brothers are looking forward to an enjoyable and entertaining Spring. Hoping to go to Squaw Valley, if the snow continues, the brothers are especially looking forward to the overnight.

We at Beta Omega look forward to seeing any Delts, and welcome their visit whenever they are in the area.

JIM WHEARY

Carnegie Tech—Delta Beta

The beginning of the second semester has been characterized by reaping the benefits of more than the usual amount of hard serious work during the first semester. For instance, in spite of the school's new deferred rush policy, we picked up ten good upperclassmen in off-season rush. A lot of credit, and a lot of thanks, is due to Field Secretaries Larry Howell, Jack Patrick, and Sam Yocum for the help they gave us during this rush. Also, our first semester house factor took a tremendous jump. We averaged 2.54 against an All-Men's Average of 2.39. The last time any fraternity on the Tech campus was that high was in 1958.

The second semester looks good for scholarship too, with several men being invited to join honoraries around the campus. In addition, two senior roommates have been offered over $45,000 in fellowships, scholarships and assistantships to graduate schools around the country. So far in rush this semester we have pledged 16 men, and we're looking forward to many more.

Athletically, although we haven't had any trouble finding space for our first place trophies, we can say that if throwing brothers into the showers ever is recognized as an intramural sport, Delta Beta has an excellent reserve of talent in this area.

The big social event of the year, Spring Carnival, is coming up on the weekend of May 8, when the brothers will let off a little steam from the past year. Then, as at any other time, all Delts are welcome.

JOE CROSS

Colorado—Beta Kappa

For the spring semester we have initiated three new programs at Beta Kappa Chapter. The first is an exchange dinner with a sorority every other week, with half of our members going to the sorority house and half of their members coming to ours. Another is a dinner and an informal talk, with a faculty member as our guest, every few weeks. The third is an Orphan's Party to be held Easter Sunday in conjunction with the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. It will be the first time anything of this type has been held on campus.

Besides these new programs we have held our regular activities, the largest of which was our Saints and Saints pledge formal on March 12. Also, our intramural sports have been doing very well. Our latest conquest was the winning of Gold Division handball, and at present we are leading in volleyball and softball.

TERRY HILL

Cornell—Beta Omicron

The Delts of Beta Omicron Chapter have so far had an excellent scholastic, social, and athletic year. The end of the fall semester found the Delts 13th out of the 53 fraternities on the hill, academically, with an average above the All Fraternity and the All Men's Averages. We expect continued scholastic improvement this semester, as the average of our pledge class is one of the highest on the hill. We are very enthusiastic about our 23 man pledge class, which includes members of the freshman crew and baseball and track teams. Delts this year have represented the University on the crew, track, 150-pound football, fencing, and ski teams, and our intramural teams have done very well in fraternity competition.

Our social life has been very enjoyable, thanks to the fine organizational efforts of Social Chairman Ken Smith. The Delt Freshman Tea (during which 60 "hand-picked" freshman coeds were introduced to the Delts and the Shelter), Fall Weekend, and IFC Weekend were very successful. We are looking forward to the forthcoming Spring Weekend, and the advent of warm Saturday afternoons and crew races.

The new chapter officers, elected in March, are: president, John Sullivan; vice-president, Alan Solander; treasurer, Brian Boehlecke; recording secretary, Dudley Bouck; and corresponding secretary, Donald Samson.

We recently held formal ground-breaking ceremonies for our new Shelter, which will be ready for occupancy next fall. The Shelter will house 45 of our 70 members, and will be equipped with the latest scholastic and social facilities.

We would like to extend an invitation to any Delts who are visiting in the area to stop in and see us whenever possible, and we would be happy to acquaint them with life in Beta Omicron and Cornell University.

DONALD SAMSON

DePauw—Beta Beta

The men of Beta Beta installed new officers in late March. They include

John Lusk, president; Robert Hisrich, vice-president; John Thomas, recording secretary; and Thomas George, corresponding secretary.

The spring social calendar is a busy one for the DePauw Delts. Rush takes the spotlight as Rush Co-Chairmen Richard Pither and Frederick Ball set their sights on Spring pledging ten or eleven men. The social life reaches a peak when the spring house dance arrives on May 15.

Come Spring, the annual "Little 500" becomes the outstanding event on the DePauw campus. Bike riders Charlie Freeman, Dale Wood, Bill Barksdale, and John Bryant provide Delts with the team that is favored to capture the event.

The Delts have moved up among the top four teams in intramurals as a result of a first place in wrestling. Curt Bush and John Lusk captured the runner-up spots in their weight classes, while Bill Barksdale and Ken Knudson went home with the first place crowns in their weight divisions. The IM picture looks bright for the DePauw Delts as they are favored to win the baseball competition.

TOM GEORGE

Epsilon Eta's new initiates

East Texas State—Epsilon Eta

Epsilon Eta Chapter at East Texas State began the Spring semester with 14 new pledges and 17 new initiates.

Officers for the 1965-66 school year will be: Joe Ondrusek, president; Cliff Wood, vice-president; Jack Wills, corresponding secretary; Rick Bayless, recording secretary; Jack Gray, treasurer; James Nance and Mike Watson, pledge trainers; and Bruce Frazier, sergeant at arms.

Charles Wharton, one of the new initiates, has just been elected cheerleader for the coming year.

The brothers of the chapter are looking forward to coming events of this semester which include a Spring formal, a costume party, the annual outing, and several other dances.

But there's also work to be done and the entire chapter has been busily preparing for the Delt Relays and the annual Sing-Song contest.

DAVID DEES

Emory—Beta Epsilon

Our new addition to the Shelter has finally been completed! The Delts now occupy the largest house on the Row here at Emory. The size of the Shelter has been doubled, making it possible for 18 more brothers to move in at the beginning of the quarter. This addition is the realization of the hopes of the chapter for many years past. We are all looking forward to using our new facilities which include a fireplace, a flagstone patio, a porch overlooking the athletic field, and a new paneled and carpeted TV room. The completion of the addition, together with the fact that 26 of our 29 pledges are eligible for initiation, makes the coming Winter quarter look like a good one at Beta Epsilon.

BRUCE J. MCINTOSH

Florida State—Delta Phi

This has been another successful year for the Delts at Florida State University. We will return to school in the fall on the most sound financial basis we have enjoyed in recent years. On campus our image as a well-rounded fraternity is continually being strengthened. Brother Bill Chanfrau's election as president of the sophomore class has helped us politically, the one area in which we were hitherto weak. Brother Joe Smith has been appointed chairman of next year's homecoming parade; Brother Bob McAfee was elected vice-president of I.F.C.; Pledge Randy Scott was selected as the outstanding disc jockey on the F.S.U. radio station; Brother Larry Campbell was honored as Sigma Kappa's Man of the Year; and Brother Don Johnston was chosen as the outstanding Air Cadet graduate for this year. The Delt-Pi Phi float was selected as Most Appropriate in the Homecoming Parade. The Delts also received a plaque for contributing more to Campus Chest than any other organization. This was accomplished through our annual Slave Auction and by private donations from the brothers.

Next year a new fund-raising activity will appear on the Florida State campus, a carnival with every fraternity and sorority represented, sponsored by Delta Tau Delta. It will join our Slave Auction and the Sorority of the Year Award—recently presented to Kappa Alpha Theta—as campus-wide activities promoted by the Delts.

Recently we celebrated our annual weekend with a Roman Festival theme, once again providing the climax to a tremendous year. At the weekend banquet our annual awards were presented with the following members receiving recognition for their contributions to the chapter: Marty Sobol—Active of the Year; Tom McCurdy—Athlete of the Year; Alf Haeger—Pledge of the Year; and Barbara Van der Mark chosen as Sweetheart for the coming year. For his outstanding scholastic achievement during the fall semester and for leading the Delts to a fifth place rank in scholarship among the fraternities, Mike Brennan received awards for Highest Average and Most Improved Average, and shared with Bill Phelan the Mickey Millis Memorial Award for highest room average.

Many Delt brothers and pledges excel on varsity teams. These include Randy Cameron in tennis, Dave Manning in track, Ray Perez and Monty McBryde in baseball, Dave Sparks in basketball, and Neal Allen and Bob Cruickshank diving for the undefeated F.S.U. swimming team. Also three Delt brothers were named to the first string All Delt football team in the last issue of THE RAINBOW—Frank Pennie at tackle, Joe Avezano at guard, and Joe Petko at halfback. These men, along with quarterback Tony Gero, tackles Tom West and Charlie Pennie, and safety Pat Conway, led the Florida State Seminoles to a 9-1-1 football season and a victory over Oklahoma in the Gator Bowl.

On the intramural level the Delts once again proved outstanding in every sport among the 19 fraternities on campus. An overall second place rank was accomplished, with a first place finish in track, second place finishes in football and basketball, third place in volleyball and softball, fourth in swimming, and sixth in wrestling.

The present chapter officers are Tim Cowin, president; Ray Perez, vice-president; Bill Phelan, corresponding secretary; Harry Childers, recording secretary; and Marty Sobol, treasurer. We look forward to another productive rush in the fall, once again relying on the Embers—the five-piece Delt combo—and our impressive reputation to insure our position as the Number One Fraternity on the Florida State campus.

BILL PHELAN

G.M.I.—Epsilon Iota

The G.M.I. Delts have been pretty busy in the past few months. Our rushing committee, armed with a new rushing brochure, is preparing for the big summer rush. Thirty-eight Delt pledges are nearing completion of our revised pledge education program. These and other committee activities are being keyed to the introduction of dorms to the G.M.I. campus in the Fall of 1966.

New A-Section officers have been elected for the coming year. Leading the chapter will be: Tom Snyder, president; Dennis Reichert, vice-president; John Vitovsky, corresponding secretary; Wally Palma, recording secretary; Bob Johnson, guide; and Jim Cotsman, sergeant at arms. These men will join Brothers Varga, Greenland, and Sincroft, who were previously elected as treasurer and assistant treasurers, respectively. The new B-Section officers will be elected soon, and their names will appear in the next issue.

Our intramural basketball team, the strongest in several years, is comfortably in first place. We have quite a bit of young talent on the team, so we hope to maintain leadership in this field in ensuing years, also.

The brothers were honored to receive an award for the Gamma News, our alumni newspaper. Under the leadership of Co-Editors Tom Bruner and Dennis Reichert, we captured second place in the Newspaper Format division. Congratulations, Tom and Dennis!

Our delegates to the Northern Division Conference, including Northern Division Vice-President Bob Stapp, one of our alumni advisors, reported an excellent and rewarding weekend. It was good to see the brothers from other chapters, and we hope to see you again at the Portland Karnea.

George Washington—Gamma Eta

Gamma Eta is completing another successful year as the leading fraternity on campus.

Concentrated rush efforts by Rush Chairmen Joe Salopek and Tom Harris paid off by nearly doubling the chapter's active enrollment this year, from 29 to 54 men. We are presently carrying 18 spring pledges. The number of actives is significantly above what the chapter has operated with in the past. We feel these results have been most beneficial.

The Delts retained their supremacy in the traditional Delt-Theta (sorority) versus SAE-Kappa (sorority) football game with a slim 6-0 victory. A cocktail party at the Delt House and a dinner dance at the SAE House followed. After the IFC Sing, and in honor of our trophy, all Greeks were welcome to an open house-beer dance. The annual Chi Omega before-final fling will mark the end of our social year, which included social events with over half of the sororities and five different fraternities.

With a superior, well-rounded team effort and Jim Ungar leading the attack, the Delt "A" football squad rolled over all opponents to complete an undefeated season. In an effort to retain the intramural athletic trophy for the fourth straight year, the Delts amassed 1200 points in ten days. Our victories included first place in volleyball, badminton (George Montalvan in first place, Allen Ashley in second place), and bowling; and a second place in wrestling (Chip Dismukes, "Outstanding Wrestler Award"). This brought us from a 500-point deficit to first place by well over 200 points. With only track and baseball left, the outlook is very bright. Delts are well represented in varsity sports, with seven men in football, four men in basketball, ten men in crew, and one each in baseball, tennis, and golf.

We have elevated ourselves from the brother to the father stage by adding to the fraternity our adopted son from Korea, Lee Hyo Sung ("Oddjob"). He is only 11 years old, but he is efficiently performing his end of the rush duties in the Far East.

The Gate and Key Society, a national fraternity honorary, presently includes nine Delts. Brothers Ric Duques and Rolf Russart are recognized by Who's Who in American Colleges. Brothers Bruce Jetton, Larry Self, and Art Hardman hold positions in the university student government. Joe Salopek was selected as a Southern Division representative to the Western Division Conference.

The officers of Gamma Eta—Jim Fishenden, president; Larry Self, vice-president; Pete Julicher, treasurer; Jon Gunderson, recording secretary; Fred Heck, corresponding secretary; Bill Bohley, guide; and Tom Cerul, sergeant at arms—wish to all of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity an outstanding and productive coming year.

Georgia—Beta Delta

The recently elected officers of Beta Delta are: president, Jerry J. Bigner; vice-president, Needham B. Bateman; corresponding secretary, Howard M. Abney, Jr.; recording secretary, David M. Wolfe; guide, David B. Larkins; and sergeant at arms, Robert S. Kile.

These officers have pledged to work together to achieve an increased membership and a higher scholastic average. Out of the 15 pledges we had returning from winter quarter, we are initiating seven. They are: Collier Ayers, Pierce Bateman, Allen Carter, Frank Chastain, Lloyd Dutchenson, Bill Pagani, and Bill Russel. These neophytes had a group average of 81. To improve the scholastic average the chapter (which is above the All Men's Average at Georgia) is building a study hall in our previously unused attic. We hope to have the study hall completed and put to good use before the end of this quarter.

Since there is no formal rush at Georgia during spring quarter, the fraternities must use an informal system called "wildcat rush." We have been very successful in this rush. Four boys have been pledged. We have rush parties and sorority socials during the week, with a band composed of Delts entertaining. We have planned four socials this quarter and will have three weekend parties. The big one will be Rainbow Formal, with Dee Clark entertaining.

We are hoping for a highly successful spring quarter academically and socially, and we anticipate a very successful rush season.

HOWARD M. ABNEY, JR.

Georgia Tech—Gamma Psi

Since the beginning of the school year, Gamma Psi Chapter has excelled in many fields. During the Fall 44 bids were given out. Of these 36 were accepted. The Delt homecoming display took highest honors, while Mrs. Val Coerver was chosen first runner-up in the Mrs. Homecoming contest.

In athletics Gamma Psi placed first on campus for the fall quarter, winning the school volleyball tournament, and settling for a fourth in the interfraternity swimming meet and a fifth in the interfraternity cross country meet. Brothers Robert Paul and Steve Grote were picked on the All Star volleyball team. Winter quarter saw Gamma Psi pull a second and a fourth place respectively in basketball and ping pong.

The Georgia Tech Delts are also active in varsity athletics. Sandy Sanders earned a letter in football. Joe Watkins, for two years captain of both the cross country and track teams, holds the school record in the cross country and is hoping to break the school record in the two mile run. Jim Field fought his way onto the varsity basketball team as the only non-scholarship player. The Delts placed four men on the varsity wrestling team. Dave Ayer wrestled at 191 lbs., Keith Meinert at 157 lbs., Andy Harvill at 147 lbs., and Jim Little at 137 lbs. This spring Don Dodson will hold down the first string position on Tech's freshman baseball team.

In the winter Gamma Psi not only attended the Southern Division Conference, but also sent representatives to the Northern and Eastern Division Conferences. New officers were installed: president, John Shields (also an IFC representative, a Publications Board member, and the junior representative to the Student Council); vice-president, Jerry Buhler; treasurer, Mike Travis; recording secretary, Jim Jackson; and corresponding secretary, Mel Arbaugh.

The annual Rainbow Weekend was held on Feb. 19-21. The dates moved into the house for these three days. Friday night, awards were presented to Robert Paul as the best Delt athlete of the year, to G. I. James as the most improved scholar, and to Jerry Buhler for the highest overall achievement in academics. Miss Marcia Hartick, previous sweetheart, passed on her crown to Mrs. Bonnie Arbaugh. These festivities were followed by breakfast at the Top of the Mart. On Saturday night the Delts were entertained at their combo party by Dee Clark.

This spring the Tech Delts have hopes for taking first place in both interfraternity softball and tennis, and they wish to continue their winning tradition in the IFS Sing. With an active spring quarter, Gamma Psi will have another successful year.

MEL ARBAUGH

Hillsdale—Kappa

The semester began with the election of Pat McCarthy as president, Mike Fitzpatrick as vice-president, Kent Lamkins as treasurer, Carl Ciccone as corresponding secretary, Edward Aduss as recording secretary, Mike Dibble as sergeant at arms, and B. Jutting Engel as guide. Their first duty was the initiation of Robert Potter, George Cook, Ken Ward, Alan Shaffer, Howard Smith, Norwood Johnston, and Geoff Currier.

Rush ended with the pledging of Dave Ramando, T. C. Ramsey, Rico Martinez, Tom Bear, Dean Cutshall, and James Baum. Only 40 men went through rush, as this was the "off" semester at Hillsdale.

Social functions included two informals, one a Tom Jones theme, the other Tim Flanagan's Wake.

A. JAMES BRODIE

Idaho—Delta Mu

With the oncoming of Spring the Delta Mu Chapter at the University of Idaho can look back on a very active first semester this year and look forward to an even better second semester.

The new addition to the Shelter last summer aided the chapter in taking a bumper crop of pledges in the Fall. Twenty-one new initiates are now attending chapter meetings, and through second-semester rush, and the efforts of our rush chairman, Pat Underwood, we have 11 pledges living in the Shelter.

Scholastically, the Idaho Delts attained third place standing among fraternity living groups with a 2.63 house average; Delta Mu pledges achieved fourth place overall among fraternity pledge classes.

A second-semester pledge and one of the newly initiated brothers were pledged to Phi Eta Sigma, freshmen's scholastic honorary. These two men are Ken Hill and Brian Evans. Sophomore and junior class presidential positions are now held by Brothers Dick Rush and

JIM BERRY accepts the ALLEN REEB award for chapter service from CHUCK DONALSON

Robert Dutton respectively. Brother Rush was also recently pledged to Alpha Zeta, national agricultural honorary. Three of the brothers, Dave Christensen, John Brookman, and Dick Rush, were initiated into Intercollegiate Knights, national service fraternity. After initiation Brother Rush was honored by being unanimously elected Duke and Brother Brookman was elected Honorable Executioner. Brothers Jim LaRue, Brian Evans, and Rob Pabst were accepted for pledge-ship into Intercollegiate Knights.

Socially, the Delts were at their best with the Pledge Dance, Christmas Fireside, Odd-Ball Dance—and to climax the year—the 34th Annual Russian Ball. Faculty guests, all sorority housemothers, and special guests started the all-day function at noon with a banquet consisting of 34 different dishes; afternoon activities for the affair included non-profit gambling, and lavish fun and games. The dance at the Student Union Building was the grand finale of the day with the members, their dates, and the chaperones all dressed in colorful Russian costumes.

Sportswise the Delts are hitting it strong, striving to beat last year's fourth place on campus intramurally; they now hold third place, taking championships in volleyball, weightlifting, billiards and skiing. Delta Mu is looking to John Shelt, Doug Bishop, Brian Evans and Jack Danforth for football honors next year with spring practice already having started for them.

With the coming of spring the Delts are planning the final steps of remodeling the Shelter. Landscaping and construction of a basketball court are projects now being planned. With their new house, an excellent pledge class and strong campus position, Delta Mu Delts see even better things to come in the future.

ART PEAVEY

Illinois—Beta Upsilon

Through the efforts of our past rush chairman, Jim Thompson, the Delts of Beta Upsilon rounded out the first semester with 33 of the best men on campus. Their record stands for itself, as they came in second in the intramural touch football playoffs, and many participated in campus activities ranging from Junior Interfraternity Council to University Theatre.

The big highlight for 16 of the pledges this semester was initiation, held on March 13, 1965. With the initiative they showed as pledges, they will certainly be an asset to the chapter.

Socially, the Beta Upsilon Delts are on the move. With two house combos, the Delt "Violators," a rock and roll combo, and the Pete Simmon's Trio, a jazz group, the Delts are being well advertised on campus. With these two combos, we have had many fine open houses and are looking forward to more.

In intramurals, the Delt basketball team is now in the playoffs for the University championships. We hope to take that honor and with the other spring events coming up, we hope to go on to improve our record of last year.

In University athletics, Lynn Stewart rounded out a fine college career on the football team this year. Mike Gallo continued his fine performances in track by setting a new record for the 1,000 yard run at the Milwaukee Journal Games.

The Beta Upsilon Delts, with a fine year coming to a close, are already preparing for next year. Don Johnson, our rush chairman, and his committee are hard at work getting ready for formal rush. With our successes this year, the future looks bright indeed for the Beta Upsilon Delts.

DENNIS TIERNEY

Illinois Tech—Gamma Beta

Under the new administration of Les Bunch, Pat Schrickel, and Bob Bailes the Delts at Gamma Beta are well into what is shaping up to be an eventful semester. The pledge formal "Castle in the Sky" held in November is soon to be sequed by the "Rainbow," a formal held in honor of the seniors. These two events are high points of a semester which saw the Delts taking first place in football and basketball as we did last year, finishing second in swimming, and fourth in bowling. The interfraternity sports schedule will be rounded out by volleyball and baseball for which Gamma Beta is fielding strong teams.

While Delts were bringing athletic honors to the chapter, Gamma Beta also provided IIT's wrestling, baseball, basketball, and tennis teams with winning talent. Bob Jewett enjoyed another superb year on IIT's basketball team, proving that he rates the athletic scholarship he holds, one of three for the entire school.

Delts making their way around campus include chapter President Les Bunch, engineering representative and vice-president for student government; Art Deem-er and Jim Seeman, president and treasurer of the sophomore class; and Dick Koomjian and Bob Stone, holding down top positions on the campus newspaper.

Congratulations also go to Jim Elliott, immediate past president of Gamma Beta, on his selection to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. In the last three years, five members of Gamma Beta have been named to this honor.

Everybody is looking forward to our annual "Las Vegas Day," to be held on May 9 this year. This gives the brothers a chance to get together with the parents and alums for an afternoon of "serious gambling." The tutoring program for high school students in Chicago area is progressing well. With two semesters of experience behind us we are mapping out plans for a more streamlined program next year.

With the initiation of 12 men into the chapter our thoughts are turning back to rush. This year we are starting early by writing prospective rushees before Spring vacation so that the brothers can visit them when they go home. We plan that the brothers will continue this active correspondence through the Summer, preparing for a successful rush in the Fall.

ED COOKE

Iowa—Omicron

It is with a great deal of pleasure that the Omicron Delts submit this report to THE RAINBOW. The most recent news in the chapter is the initiation of 11 men. Participating in Construction Week and the sacred ceremony were Brothers Lyle Roudabush, Dave Kehe, Tom Staack, Pete Frantz, Bill DeGroff, Neil Hitchcock, Buster Miller, Bob Farrington, Dave Harken, and John Loughran.

Earlier in the semester, during the all-campus elections, the Delts distinguished themselves by having several men elected to important positions. Through the hard work of every member of the chapter, we were successful in getting Brother Bill Parisi elected Student Body president; this is the second time in three years that a Delt has held this position. Dick Mundy was elected senator-at-large, and Steve Trecker as senator from the Interfraternity Council. These brothers have worked extensively in student government, and are now receiving the recognition they have earned. Congratulations to all three!

The Delts continue to be well represented in sports competition, as is our tradition. Terry Mulligan, Lee Weston, Gary Larson, Rich O'Hara, and Dan Hilsabeck will participate in spring football. On the basketball court, Denny Pauling, Tom Chapman, and Joel Jesen played for Iowa varsity, while Neil Hitchcock, Tom Staack, and Eric Atha saw much action with the freshman squad. Pauling, who will be captain for the 1965-66 season, was named to the All-Big Ten Scholastic Basketball Team. On the mats, the chapter was represented by Dan Price and Steve Trecker.

Omicron ranks seventh in the all-university fraternity scholastic standing, well above the All Men's Average. We look for an even better showing in the current semester and hope by next fall to move from seventh to first place.

In addition to the foregoing accomplishments, Omicron can boast of Rich Edler, vice-president of the Central Party Committee and vice-president of the senior class; Bob Behrends, president of the Junior Interfraternity Council; and Jim Mathews, recently tapped for Phi Beta Kappa.

In spring rush the chapter has 11 pledges, who we are confident will uphold the good name of Omicron Chapter: Eric Atha, Bob Behrends, Jay Buchner, Denny Deischer, Mike Duffy, Ron Glassner, Bob Heggstad, Gary Larson, John McKean, Mark Steil, and Mike Wagner.

In the social vein, Omicron sponsored three major parties, as well as the Founders Day Banquet (at which we honored Mrs. Ethel Birdsall, who has been our housemother for 15 very good years). The first of the parties was a "yard-and-a-half" party, which lived up to billing as one of the best on campus. The second party honored the new initiates. The third party will be the spring formal—the "Kappa Ann" party—consistently the greatest of the school year.

All in all the situation at Iowa is good and we are looking forward to even more rewarding years.

DAVE KEHE

Kansas—Gamma Tau

The chapter wishes to extend hearty congratulations to these Gamma Tau Delts:

Al Oerter, who was recently selected as the "Outstanding Athlete on the North American Continent for 1964."

Glee Sid Smith, who was named President Pro Tem of the Kansas Senate.

Finally, to the new officers of the chapter—Cliff Lake, president; Mike Hurt, vice-president; Leo Dreyer, recording secretary; George Fletcher, corresponding secretary; Bob Betts, guide; and Gary Schwartz, sergeant at arms.

Their first job was the initiation of 22 men who posted an almost unbelievable cumulative grade point average of 2.06 on K.U.'s 3.00 system. Honor Initiate was three-pointer Jim Perkins, and Dan Chilcoat was named Outstanding Pledge.

Spring has finally set in at Kansas with its usual frenzied pace, but the chapter's accomplishments in the first two months are shaping the semester as possibly the best ever.

In scholarship, Gamma Tau is well on its way to setting another all-time national scholarship record. Posting the highest grades ever in relation to the All Men's Average for the first semester, the chapter is attempting to smash the 30.0 index for the year.*

Yet, if this goal is attained, it will not be because other areas of fraternity activity have been slighted. In intramurals, for instance, the basketball team completed a fine season by taking the championship trophy at the Baker Delt Tournament. The team also placed Jim Kern and Most Valuable Player Al Bryant on the all-tournament team. Our thanks go to Gamma Chi at Kansas State and Gamma Kappa at Mizzou for making valiant (but hopeless) efforts, and to Gamma Theta at Baker for a fine tournament.

In volleyball, the Delts came within two points of being fraternity champions, bringing back trophies for a Division Championship, and second place. Now they are looking forward to the coed volleyball tournament with the "jocks" of Kappa Alpha Theta. And Mike Hamilton is loosening up his aged arm for his second consecutive Hill Championship in tennis.

Nor will campus activities be slighted. With only a few of the activities elections completed, the Delts have compiled an impressive record. Brother Rick Harrington, still suffering from the mentally depressing effects of marring a straight A record with a B in a one-hour Western Civ course, takes over next year as vice-president of the Student Union Board. Dale Sprague will join him as public relations chairman. Bob Enberg, the retiring president, brought such successful concerts as Harry Belafonte and Henry Mancini to the Kansas campus.

In other areas, All-Student Council member John Benson, IFC Treasurer Byron Loudon, the three varsity cheerleaders, "Mr. Jayhawk" John McArtor, and the Delt members of all the campus honor organizations are working to make sure that their efforts will be carried on by qualified people (i.e., Delts). Jim Perkins has already been named new president of the KU-Y.

Varsity athletics? Yes, the scholarly Delts have members there too. Correction, in track, other fraternities add a few men to the "Delt" track team. In the tradition of Kansas great Al Oerter, the Delts alone scored 33 points in the Big Eight championship meet last year, which Kansas won. Every Delt who scored those points returns this year. Already, Brothers Tom Purma and Gary Schwartz have picked up first place

* That is, a chapter average of plus 30.0 relative to the All Men's Average.—Ed.

KU Delts at song practice break medals in the javelin and discus at the Arkansas Relays. John Donner's mile in the four-mile relay at the Texas Relays helped Kansas set a new record. Hurdler Bill Chambers is looking forward to breaking any of the numerous records he holds.

In other sports, congratulations to Delt foreign student Esam El-Shafey, who was named NCAA "Fencer of the Year" and placed on the All-American Team. And the foxy footballers are out for spring football.

Despite a distinct cockiness on the part of the singers, G. H. Pro is working to capture the Delts' fourth consecutive IFC Sing first place trophy.

Then there is the spring social life, and the epitome for the Delts—the spring pajama party. A multiple sclerosis drive is also on tap this spring with the Gamma Phi's (as opposed to the usual sense of "on tap").

And so it goes at its hectic pace. Delts on nearly every important committee, Delts on the athletic fields, Delts working to maintain and increase the excellence for which Gamma Tau has been known for so long.

GEORGE FLETCHER

Kansas State—Gamma Chi

Gamma Chi has always been known as a well-rounded chapter at Kansas State, and 1965 has proved to be no exception.

Participation in student government is strongly encouraged by Gamma Chi. K-State Delts hold several committee chairmanships in the Student Union and two Delts are on the Union Governing Board. In the recent campus elections, three Delts ran for Student Senate and Jerry Metz was campaign manager for the University Party. Delta Tau Delta also claims the business manager of the Royal Purple, K-State's yearbook.

Gamma Chi Delts are well represented in campus honoraries. Junior Keith Stuesi was elected to Blue Key, senior men's honorary, for the coming year. Other brothers are active in Alpha Kappa Psi, Arnold Air Society, Scabbard and Blade, Sigma Delta Chi, and physical education honoraries.

Intramurals have been rewarding to Gamma Chi this year. We are presently third in competition and look forward to a higher standing by the year's end, as Gamma Chi is traditionally strong in the spring sports. We placed third in an invitational tournament of Delt basketball teams at Baker University. Twelve Deltas participate in varsity sports, including track, football, basketball, baseball, gymnastics, and swimming.

In March, we initiated 15 men, with talents in nearly all phases of college life here at K-State. With an effective on-campus rush program, we have a second semester pledge class of 16.

Rounding out life at Gamma Chi, first semester Social Chairman Ron Gers-ter planned the Barn Party and Paddle Party, both of which had more than 175 in attendance. Doug Drew, second-semester social chairman, arranged the successful George Party and the annual Rainbow Formal. At the formal, Marilyn Singer, a member of Delta Delta Delta, was crowned our 1965 Sweetheart.

Chapter elections resulted in the election of Eric Norberg, president; Steve Polson, vice-president; Tony Kimmi, treasurer; Jack Konitz, corresponding secretary; Bob Steiger, recording secretary; Norb Andrews, sergeant at arms; Keith Stuessi, guide; and Kenny Bard and Steve Patterson, IFC representatives.

MASON WHITNEY

Kentucky—Delta Epsilon

After a prolonged absence Delta Epsilon returns to the pages of THE RAINBOW. Much has been done, many changes have been made, and more are planned. For example, an addition to the Shelter is in the planning stages. We have a new administration—energetic and enlightened—consisting of the following: Herb Ligon, president; Frank Dickey, vice-president; Richard Wade, treasurer; Art Walker, recording secretary; Bill Hamilton, corresponding secretary; Bill Moore, intramurals; David Switzer, rush; Arthur Litton, social; Charlie Ben Ashby, public relations; Rick Wakeland, alumni relations; Jim Pope, scholarship; Louis Sutherland, IFC representative; and Joe Humphreys, house manager. Our housemother, Mrs. Mary Booth, is on the job for the fourth year; without her careful planning and alert supervision the Shelter could not operate efficiently.

For the year 1964-65 the chapter was first on campus academically, first in the Southern Division, and second in the entire Fraternity, according to information recently released by Dr. Kershner, the Supervisor of Scholarship of Delta Tau Delta. Last semester Steve Beshear, president of Student Congress, and his brother Dave, a recent initiate, ranked in the upper three per cent of their respective senior and freshman classes. Bob Goodman, another recent initiate, made straight A's, after compiling a 3.8 average the previous semester.

Ted Gum was elected president of Omicron Delta Kappa, a national leadership-scholarship-service honorary; Larry Kelly is vice-president, while other Delt members are Bob Young, editor of The Kentuckian (school yearbook); Walt Maguire, track and field man; and the aforementioned Steve Beshear. Jim Mahan was elected president of Block and Bridle, national animal science honorary, and is also drum major with the University Band. Finally, Elbert Thompson was elected secretary of Lamp and Cross, a senior men's honorary.

Members of Delta Epsilon were outstanding in intramurals, taking several championship and runner-up trophies. Currently we are in third place overall. We placed second in basketball, after winning it for 14 of the last 15 years. In wrestling Bill Davis and Bill Moore won their divisions, while Christopher Morgan and Bob Goodman took seconds; D.E. won the overall wrestling championship. Roscoe Mitchell won in ping pong singles, and then teamed with Joe Humphreys to win the doubles championship. D.E.'s bowling team won the championship in a thrilling one pin victory over A.G.R. Our first softball game was a disaster, a 9-2 loss.

In varsity athletics, Delta Epsilon had men on the basketball, baseball, swimming, and volleyball teams. Terry Mobley, a recent initiate, started at guard on the basketball team, averaged 10 points per game, and was the team leader, receiving the A. B. Chandler Leadership, Character, Ability, and Scholarship Award.

Terry acquired the nickname "Wrong-way" in the Tennessee game in Lexington. At the start of the second half he got the tip and drove down the floor to make an unopposed layup. The only trouble was that it was Tennessee's goal. However, the field goal was nullified, as a Tennessee man was in the center circle too early. The final score was 61-60, Kentucky.

Another member of D.E., Randy Embry, played sixth man and was captain of the basketball team. Little Randy, at 5' 10", was a hustler and floor leader, and was praised for the spirit he sparked in the team. He also plays third base on the baseball team and is batting over .400 at present. Bob Gibbs plays right field and pitches on the team. He hit .375 last year and is hitting .225, a slump from last year. Brother Gibbs leads the team scholastically, maintaining a 3.05 overall and having a 3.7 at mid-term this semester.

In track, three of the four men on the record-breaking relay team are members of D.E. Brothers Bill Arthur, Walt Maguire, and John Cox, all returning lettermen, have won a variety of first and second place medals in meets from Milwaukee to Florida. Arthur runs exclusively on the relay team, but Maguire and Cox run in several individual events. To date Cox has set a track record in the 440 at the Ohio State meet and Maguire won the 120 high hurdles at the Milwaukee Journal Games. The relay team as a whole won a gold medal at Milwaukee and finished second in the Mason-Dixon Games.

In volleyball, Tom Tanner and Rye Taliaferro ("Jolly Green Giant," at 6' 5" and 210) lead the team and Taliaferro is a potential All-American if the season goes well.

The award for Most Improved Delt Athlete this year went to John "Hammer" Broghammer by acclamation. "Hammer" made the All-Patio Basketball Team and was weight-lifting champion of the chapter.

For those who saw the Kentucky vs. Tennessee basketball game in Lexington the four members of "The Folksingers," Tom Jordan, Russell Prow, John Polk, and Frank Dickey are brothers of Delta Epsilon.

Our annual Founders Day Banquet was held at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington. Delta Epsilon Alum Penrose Ecton was the main speaker and Deltas from as far away as Los Angeles, California, attended the banquet. Herb Ligon received the Jim Shropshire Leadership Award and the Outstanding Pledge Award for 1964; Charles Ashby received the Outstanding Pledge Award for 1965; Michael Houlihan received the Outstanding Delt Award. This highly regarded award is not based on a single year, but is given on the basis of four years' service to the chapter. Mike was an officer in his pledge class, chapter treasurer in his sophomore year, vice-president in his junior year, filled in as president when former President Ken Brandenburgh graduated, and was pledge trainer in his senior year. Brother Houlihan has done more, and blown his own horn less, than many who have preceded him. He has served in the true spirit of Deltism, and is properly to be given much credit.

The brothers of Delta Epsilon were quite satisfied with the outcome of rush, both in the fall and in the spring. We pledged 15 men in the fall, who are socially adept as well as excellent in academics. In the spring semester we pledged 18 men, with an overall average of 3.01; these men not only make a tremendous contribution scholastically, but add much to the character of the chapter.

ROGER AUGÉ

Kenyon—Chi

The men of Chi Chapter have managed to survive a long winter of monastic social inertia by engaging themselves primarily in administrative affairs within the Chapter and College and with much participation in both varsity and intramural athletics.

Peter White was elected to succeed Ken Klug as chapter president. Other officers chosen were: Peter Poetker, vice-president; Dave Haserot, recording secretary; Tim Holder, treasurer; and Edward T. Telling, corresponding secretary. It is hoped that these men will be able to continue the excellent progress of the previous administration.

As usual, Chi has placed many of its members in high positions of campus leadership. Ken Klug has been a member of the Campus Senate and was recently succeeded as president of the Interfraternity Council by Peter White. Klug has also served outstandingly as captain of the Kenyon football, basketball and baseball teams. Brother Dave Thomas has acted as the coordinator of affairs in Peirce Hall, the student union and dining hall at Kenyon.

The Lord swimming team, captained by Brother Tom Sant, has been bolstered by outstanding performances from Brothers Telling, Young, and Holder, and Pledges Wright and Hale. Steve Newcomer, a Chi Chapter senior, finished out a flashy four-year career as a member of the Kenyon basketball squad. Steve's devotion to the team and his outstanding ideals have made him an inspiration to all Kenyon athletes.

Ocki "Kulva" Ray captained a spirited wrestling team to one of the best seasons in that squad's history. Ocki, who has been pinned only once in his mat career, has also found time this winter to perform countless feats of high scientific merit in the chemistry lab.

On the intramural scene, Brothers Troll, Lehmann, and high-spirited Craig

All but one of Lafayette's 32-man pledge class

Jackson led the Delt basketball team to unprecedented success this year. This squad, hurt sorely by the loss of center Tide Moran, fought bravely through the schedule of league games, attaining an enviable record for Delta Tau Delta.

Within the Shelter, Brothers Burke, Koe, Landis and Crocker have achieved great heights in the field of television-viewing, despite desperate competition from card-players Michaels and Cuff and ardent intellectual Newcomer. Congratulations are due each of these men for their diligence.

Among other worthwhile projects, Brothers Haserot, Thomas, Telling and White have taken it upon themselves to "bring back the twist." Though their success has been limited, the devotion of these men deserves recognition.

Chi looks forward to a spring of increased social affluence with the annual Parents' Weekend in April and Spring Dance in May. We hope to see many Delt brothers whenever possible.

PETER A. WHITE

Lafayette—Nu

Here at Nu we started the second semester in the hurry and confusion of a concentrated rushing program. The college had revised the program, cramming the whole period of rushing into four days and nights, before classes started for the second semester. If results are a criterion for judging the effectiveness of this program, we at Nu must say that it is successful in spite of the hardships of the short time allotted. It is undisputed here at Lafayette that our 32-man pledge class is the best on campus. The pledge class average for the first semester is 79.00 (that's 2.01 points above the All Men's Average of the college and 4.13 points above the freshman class average). The class includes five Dean's List students, four freshman counselors for next year, two football players, three swimmers, three lacrosse players, two wrestlers, and two baseball players. The following men comprise the pledge class: George Avril, Craig Blouin, Reed Booth, Michael Boyer, Joseph Cady, Donald Chasen, Robert Cottom, Vincent DeGennaro, David Doughty, William Douwes, Robert Fisher, Joseph Hagy, John Hammond, Donald Harjes, David Hatcher, David Jacobs, Frederick James, Randy Johnson, Peter Jones, Scott King, Marty Kurtyka, Philip Ludeke, Roy Miller, John Morber, David Patten, James Quay, Stuart Robinson, Tony Rossi, Gilbert Schill, Duncan Sibley, David Stern, Richard Stiefken.

Recently Nu elected its officers for the coming year. Larry Hillegas, a psychology major and varsity baseball player, was elected president. With especial tact and finesse, he is a fitting image of the chapter in the many campus activities in which he so ardently participates. Louis Potts, a Dean's List student who is captain of the hockey team and business manager of the school newspaper, is the vice-president. Lou has also taken the reins of a rapidly moving rushing program. Other officers elected are Treasurer Harry Beyer, Corresponding Secretary Richard Hendry, Recording Secretary Todd David and Sergeant at Arms Roger James.

The Deltas placed third in the annual all-campus trophy awarded to the top living group on campus. We are vying for a first place in this award for the coming year, in taking a fifth place in intramural wrestling competition, a fourth in swimming, and a third in volleyball. The baseball and track prospects for the season look very good.

We also have a good representation of the brotherhood in varsity sports. Louis Potts and Tom Heatherington both started on the ice hockey lineup. John Ireland has moved into a varsity pitching position, starting two out of the first four games. Jack Moffat is threatening varsity track records in the relay and short distance departments, while Brothers Mike Kijanka and Scott Miller are contenders in the low hurdles and javelin throw respectively.

This year's senior class is spreading far and wide after graduation in June. Five men are headed overseas in the Army, after completing four years of Army R.O.T.C. Brothers James Larkin and Earle Pickens have confirmed acceptances at Johns Hopkins Medical School. Peter Bukowick has accepted a fellowship at North Carolina in chemical research. A number of seniors are still undecided as to which of the many job offers, some including further schooling, they will accept. All things considered, Nu has experienced a very successful semester and is looking forward to an even more productive one in the next year.

Lawrence—Delta Nu

With the truly memorable athletic, scholastic, and social accomplishments of the past two terms behind us, the Delts of Delta Nu prepare for equally significant achievements during the spring.

In January a well organized rush program under the capable leadership of Rick Detienne produced another fine class of pledges. The class of 16 includes: Greg Maloney, Al Manteuffel, Phil Berghausen, Bill Mittlefeldt, Rick Disbrow, Steve Fiji, Larry Breeding, Dick Briden, Eric Dyrud, John O'Boyle, Jay Slobey, Chuck Radovich, Ilja Gregor, Criss Hartzel, Steve Rosenfeld, and Bill Buerstatte. The task of training the pledges fell to Gus Murphy, ably assisted by Mike Lee and Bill Benowicz.

Once again Delts were well represented in the Lawrence intercollegiate and interfraternity program. The varsity wrestling team was led by senior Captain Bert Hansen and Sophomore Rich Agness, who placed second in the 178 pound division at the conference meet. Sophomore Roger Thompson, Junior Mike Lee, and Dave Stamps were also members of the team. Brothers Larry Wilson and Nick Vogel competed for the swimming team. Bill Benowicz played varsity basketball. In interfraternity sports, the Delts placed second in basketball, and captured first place in handball behind the undefeated efforts of Gus Murphy and Rick Detienne.

New chapter officers were elected in March. John Ishikawa was selected to succeed Bill Gustafson as president. Other elected officers were: Gus Murphy, vice-president; Jim Kaufman, recording secretary; Steve Landfried, corresponding secretary; John Hein, treasurer; Bob Simmons, guide; and Todd Soli, sergeant at arms.

Spring sports action will find many Delts playing an important part. The track team has the highest representation, with seven brothers. Bob Pepper, the conference pole vault champion, will serve as captain of the squad. Other members of the team include Mike Gannett, Henry Kaiser, Dave Gray, Prep Wilson, Rog Bjornstad, and Dave Crowell. Junior Chris Isely aims for another successful baseball campaign as Lawrence's only starting lefty. John Grandin and Nick Vogel are on the tennis team. Finally, the golf team will be bolstered by the presence of Gus Murphy.

Socially, the house is looking forward to those annual spring activities which characteristically enliven the final ten weeks of the school year—the Bowery Party with the Theta's, the Toga Party with the Pi Phi's, the Beer and Brats at Deltland, and the Foxes' games. Greek Sing, with our rendition of Bach's Prelude, and our Easter party for the faculty children are also activities for the spring term.

In other campus activities, the Delts have taken over control of the local news media. H. Gibson Henry was recently named editor of the school newspaper. At the same time John Grandin was appointed copy editor and Jack Peters, photography editor. Brother Jim Kaufman has been selected station manager of the university radio station, WLFM.

In conclusion, we, the underclass members of Delta Nu, would like to express our thanks to our graduating seniors for the many contributions they have made to the chapter and the University in the past four years.

Lehigh—Beta Lambda

When the spring semester arrives at Lehigh, there is seldom an unoccupied moment at the Beta Lambda Chapter. To begin with, our rushing program proved extremely successful, with 15 top men being pledged in early February. Their cumulative class average ranked tenth of 30 among the pledge classes in the University. These men show many and varied interests, with freshman sports competition ranking high—Tom Halverstadt, Austin Miller, and Rich Miller were members of the freshman football team; Pete Sorenson saw action on the soccer field; Bill Gill, Pete Sorenson, and Dick Whittier are currently playing lacrosse; and Bob Gebert is on the track squad. These pledges are also active in other outstanding campus activities, including many of governmental nature, and various clubs. Scott Jaeger, Denny Stone, and Rick Roberts are members of their class cabinet, with Denny also serving on the Freshman Life Committee, and Rick with Arcadia Associates. Fred Klein is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, national freshman scholastic honorary.

The Delts have also made a valuable contribution to varsity spring sports. Art Thomas, Hal Yeich, and Scott Kalisch are playing baseball, while Bob Adelaar, Floyd Koch, and Charley Weaver are bolstering the lacrosse team, and Dick Smith and Ken Bareford are on the track squad. Participation in varsity athletics has not hurt our intramural sports program however, as Beta Lambda ranks third of 30 in the overall intramural standings.

New officers were also elected this spring, with Hal Yeich taking over as president and Pete Miller as vice-president. Senior Ron Casper, former president of the chapter, is vacating his post as president of IFC with the coming of the annual elections in the near future.

Socially, our spring semester, as usual, has been headed up by the Delt Faculty Formal, IFC Weekend, and Pitt Weekend. The top event of the semester, Spring Houseparty, will be April 30-May 2. An event which we are looking forward to very much is Alumni Weekend, June 4-6, and we are sincerely hoping to see many of our alumni return for this occasion.

M.I.T.—Beta Nu

The 1964-65 academic year is another successful one for the brothers of Beta Nu.

The Delts are again in contention for the coveted Beaver Key Trophy, awarded for highest participation in intercollegiate athletics. Last year the Delts won this trophy for the third year in a row, thus making it a permanent fixture in the Shelter. The brothers are entertaining high hopes of making the first installment on a second trophy this year.

Being in contention for this prize again is the result of a great house effort. Fifteen of the 18 intercollegiate teams at M.I.T. found Delts on their rosters. Outstanding individual efforts were given by Frank Yin who helped lead Tech's varsity basketball team to its greatest season, and Bill "Moose" Kosinar who is a starter on both the varsity hockey and lacrosse teams. Bill is a tough defenseman who has a good chance to make the All-New England Lacrosse Team. The house's athletic supremacy is sure to be maintained in the years to come, due to the strong showing of the freshmen class. The freshmen averaged over two sports per man, with Dave Dimlich giving the most outstanding performance. Dave was a starter on both the soccer and hockey teams and was the hockey team's second high scorer.

On the political scene the brothers fared well also. The freshman class made a fine showing by placing five of its members, Gordon Logan, Joe Thrift, Geoff Smith, Stan Gottschalk, and Mike Thomas, on the Freshman Council. Gordon Logan also strengthened the house's influence in the Interfraternity Council by being elected its social chairman. Bruce Powell, who is president of the Beaver Key honorary society, was elected to the Senior Class Executive Committee without a campaign. Bruce was in the hospital with a broken leg during the election and still received more votes than any other candidate.

Scholastically the Beta Nu Delts showed a great improvement. With the senior class leading the way, the overall house average was raised four-tenths of a point to bring the Delts above All-Men's Average. The senior class averaged over 4.0 with Mike Long hitting the top with a 5.0.

The high point of the Delt social year was the Seventy-fifth Anniversary weekend celebration held this March in conjunction with the Eastern Division Conference in Boston. The weekend included a reunion cocktail party and dinner for the Beta Nu alumni and a swinging rock-and-roll party attended by the delegates to the Conference. This rare combination of a Division Conference and alumni reunion made an eventful and memorable weekend.

MICHAEL W. THOMAS

Maine—Gamma Nu

So far this year, we have gotten 19 pledges, and hope to get a few more. Their scholastic average last semester was about 2.4, which was above the

All Men's Average of 2.3. The members also came through last semester with a third place average of 2.42 among the 16 fraternities on campus. Thirty-nine members and initiates were above the All Men's Average, and 25 were below. On September 18, 1964, eighteen of "us" were initiated to full membership, and several of us have assumed positions of leadership in the chapter.

We participated actively in all intramural sports this year, and have a good representation in the varsity sports. Vern Walker has been on the first string football team, Bruce Cary has been on the notorious Maine baseball team, and Jim Ballanger has been especially active in the hurdles in track along with, in other events, Wayne Andrew, John White, and Vern Walker.

As usual we had our Christmas party for the underprivileged children in the Bangor area. There were gifts, games, food, and Santa Claus. The brothers have as much fun as the kids do!

Of course, we had and will continue to have our gala house parties. The one that everyone looks forward to each year in particular is The Jamaica Party, which will be held April 16 this year.

STEPHEN B. SWIFT

Maryland—Delta Sigma

Since our last report Delta Sigma has made great strides on the Maryland campus; we hope all chapters have had as much success as we.

First, due to the untiring efforts of Rush Chairman Stan Fisher, we started the spring semester by pledging 14 of the most sought-after men on campus.

Then, under the guidance of President Frank Cirillo, Maryland Delts began to saturate many campus activities. We now have columnists on the University newspaper, athletes competing on the intercollegiate golf and lacrosse teams, and brothers with important positions on the Interfraternity Council.

We are especially proud of Brothers Frank Cirillo and Rick Tynner. Frank was elected to Chi Epsilon Honor Fraternity, for academic excellence, while Rick was elected secretary of the University Men's League. We also point with pride to Brothers Ray Lorber and Doug Zier. Ray is chairman of the biggest political party on campus, and due largely to his leadership the party won all the major campus elective offices. Doug is a member of the famed Gymkana Troupe, which tours the state giving exciting gymnastic shows.

Sportswise, our bowling team manager, Jack Brown, happily reports that the team holds the University record with an 833 set. Led by Captain Danny Arnold, the team progressed to the University finals and posted an admirable record.

Looking ahead, Social Chairman Wally Bixby plans a fantastic spring formal for Delta Sigma. Wally has rented a colonial inn and lodge, and has many surprises up his sleeve.

Lastly, Delta Sigma wishes all its brother chapters the best of success, and extends a welcome to any brothers who might chance to visit College Park.

ROBERT RITTER

Missouri—Gamma Kappa

The election of officers for the Spring semester saw Jim Bryant elected president and Mike Lloyd vice-president. Jeff Roitman was elected recording secretary and Bill Van Kirk will serve as treasurer for another semester. Brother Bryant has appointed Butch Bixler as social chairman and Mike Thompson as athletic chairman. We are also proud that our housemother, Mrs. Tatum Ketchum, has decided to renew her contract for another year.

The Mizzou Delts are dominating this Spring's Greek Week activities. Ray Snoddy is the IFC Greek Week Chairman and Brother Lloyd is the Exchange Dinner Chairman. Mike Thompson and Mike Fisher, along with Brother Snoddy, are heading up the panel of seven judges that will elect the 1965 Greek Week Queen.

Socially, our annual Pajama Party was its usual success. Currently we are planning on a Spring Formal to replace the Christmas Formal that could not be held last semester. Several more high school weekends are planned before summer rush starts in June. As a sidelight, our annual Mother's Weekend was held in March and was attended with enthusiasm by all the mothers that were able to make the trip. Once again Mrs. Ketchum proved herself the best housemother on campus with the way she took care of the mothers who came up for the weekend.

Tony Savage will once again act as M.C. for the all-campus talent show to be held in May. He was also recently appointed Assistant Homecoming Chairman for next Fall's Homecoming.

We at Gamma Kappa are anticipating a fine close to this semester, and the plans are already made insuring a successful semester next fall.

MIKE THOMPSON

Nebraska—Beta Tau

The men of Beta Tau returned to the Shelter after semester break determined to continue the fine work they had begun in the fall. Bill Coufal took over the presidency from Al Spore. Other officers include Jim Ensz, vice-president; Carlton Clark, recording secretary; Ray Muehling, corresponding secretary; and Don Walton as treasurer.

Nebraska's JOHN LYDICK

The Delt participation in campus activities continues. John Lydick serves both as president of Student Council and president of the Constitutional Convention. Bill Coufal is also quite active in Student Council and served as vice-president of the Constitutional Convention. Several Delts serve on the Interfraternity Council: Dan Isman is chairman of the Pledge Education Committee and other members are Bob Royal, Les Hellbusch, Bob Ensz, and Bill Tooley.

The spring pledge class of 18 has now grown to 21. Tom Wolf, rush chairman for first semester, can be given a great deal of credit for pledging these additional men and for putting the house attitude for rush where it should be.

All of our attention, however, has not been devoted fully towards rush, as the chapter strives to improve its scholastic rating. Gerald Fankhauser and Les Hellbusch pulled the two highest pledge averages of 8.3 and 7.3 respectively. Scholarship Chairman Paul Readhead reports progress in achieving a grade point average above the All Men's Average.

In athletics, Beta Tau is rated in second or third position after a good performance in track and basketball. Such upcoming sports as softball, tennis, and golf make the Delts a strong choice to win the intramural trophy. Jim Williams will again try for the all-intramural golf trophy.

Beta Tau has two men on the varsity wrestling team, Dale Huff and Dan Isman, and varsity football players include Bill Earl and John Vujevich. Outstanding pledges include Marvin Mueller, freshman football player; Les Hellbusch, freshman track member; and Bob Bauer, Bill Tooley, and Terry Tonniges, freshmen baseball players.

On the social scene the Delts have been quite active. The highlight was the initiation banquet held in Omaha. The banquet was planned and financed by the Omaha alumni under the leadership of Bob Hasebrook. The guest speaker was an alum of Beta Tau, Robert Hardt, '23. His talk was very inspirational to the new initiates as well as the others attending the banquet. Beta Tau was proud to initiate 11 new members into the active chapter: Bob Ensz, Les Hellbusch, Bob Royal, Tom Rutz, Bill Tooley, Tom Connors, Bill Earl, Jim Williams, Jim Belmont, Farrell Bolz, and Gary Petersen. The Squab Best award went to Bob Ensz.

Beta Tau's social chairman, Rich Miller, and the other social committee members are now busily planning for their annual Spring Formal to be held on May 7. The social calendar also reminds us of the upcoming Miss Natural Contest with the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, "woodsies," and house parties.

With the conclusion of Spring semester Beta Tau awaits the beginning of Fall and another full year of events and functions.

RAY MUEHLING

North Dakota—Delta Xi

Spring has arrived at UND and along with it one of the biggest events on campus. The annual Delt Sorority Basketball Tournament is to be held on April 29 and 30, and May 1. Last year the event was won by Alpha Phi. At the conclusion of the tournament, an open house is held at the Shelter, at which trophies are presented.

New officers for the coming year are Roger Blestrud, president; Thomas

Dahle, vice-president; James Rose, treasurer; John Artz, corresponding secretary; George Fuchs, recording secretary; Steven Kramer, assistant treasurer; Ron Craft, guide; and Kenneth Medd, sergeant at arms.

The new chapter sweetheart selected at the Christmas Formal is Judy Stowe of Grand Forks. Judy is also Miss Grand Forks, and a member of Gamma Phi Beta.

Brother Ron Craft was elected to Student Senate on April 2 after an extensive campaign.

Parties held since the last report were the Hardtimes Party in November, the Christmas Formal in December, the Pledge Princess Ball in February, and the Toga Party in March. Coming up in May is the Spring Formal.

The bowling team and the volleyball team finished second and third respectively in their intramural leagues. Other sports in which the chapter competed are basketball, hockey, touch football, table tennis, track, and wrestling. Competition in various spring sports will begin after Easter.

JOHN F. ARTZ

Northwestern—Beta Pi

Scholastic improvement and athletic achievement have marked Beta Pi Chapter this year. We were above the All Men's Average fall quarter with an average of 2.50, good enough to place 12th among Northwestern's 29 fraternities.

Five brothers participated in winter varsity sports: Jerry Nelson, John Martz, and Dick Shaeffer in basketball, Ken Jaeggi in wrestling, and Ray Zeason in swimming. Going into Spring quarter the chapter leads in the all-school intramural competition, after winning the football and indoor track crowns, placing second in bowling, and third in basketball. With a strong showing next quarter we can easily defend our title as Intramural Sweepstakes champions. Brothers Kastner, Murphy, Zolezzi, and Wodder were named to the All-IM Football Team, and John Seehausen received the sportsmanship trophy in basketball.

In other house activity, on January 10 the chapter initiated 22 new members. Rick Dyer, Bruce Scharschmidt, and John Taylor pledged, and the chapter currently has nine pledges. Initiation will be held on April 11. In the chapter elections Steve Schlegel replaced Terry Jones as president; Jim Clare was elected vice-president; John Lee, recording secretary; Forman Friend, corresponding secretary; Mike Henneberry, treasurer; and Dave Anderson and Ray Laffin were elected as rush co-chairmen.

In the upcoming Student Senate elections, Fred Radewagen is running for vice-president. Tom Waymire played a key role in Northwestern's Symposium Week.

Spring quarter finds the chapter pointing toward further scholastic improvement, retaining the intramural title, and continued participation in campus politics.

FORMAN FRIEND, JR.

Ohio—Beta

As the Spring session opens, the Delts at Ohio are looking toward another successful semester. The hard work of the brothers has landed a large number of honors in every phase of campus activity.

Ohio's KEN BACHMAN

Spring rush, under the leadership of Tim Sidley, yielded 19 top men. The new pledges, under the direction of Pledgemaster Bill Hovevar, are proving to be even more promising than anticipated. The new pledges are: Mike Bannon, Youngstown; Bob Clevenger, Marysville; Brad Cooper, Cincinnati; Denny Crawford, Warren; Steve Cross, Middletown; Dave Demor, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Bob Green, Cleveland; Vince Hughes, Euclid; Jim Lewis, Warren; Skip Martin, Toledo; Bill McMillan, Stow; Dick Merritt, Lakewood; Roger Penske, Toledo; Don Perry, Dayton; John Pyle, Greenfield; Russ Trupp, Cincinnati; and Tim Specht, Lewistown, New York.

The Delts at Ohio have had an outstanding year in athletics under the leadership of Chairman Bob McCarthy. Intramurals have provided several awards as the Delts took second place in All-Fraternity football, wrestling, and tennis. Individual awards went to Tom Wolfe, elected to the All-Campus Intramural Football Team, and Bill Jeffries, who became All-Campus Wrestling Champion in his weight division. Bob McCarthy and Bob Hendricks finished first in campus bridge competition. In varsity sports, Dick Merritt (pledge) set a new Mid-American Conference record in swimming the 200-yard medley. Other pledges in varsity sports include Tim Specht in swimming, and Bob Green and Roger Penske in hockey. Spring sports are expected to produce even more honors.

Prospects for a new Shelter seem brighter than ever, with only the precise location to be determined. The local alumni have been active in raising funds, checking on property values, and negotiating for land with private individuals and the University.

The brothers have heartily congratulated Ken Bachman for being initiated into Phi Beta Kappa and also for being selected as "Mr. Fraternity" at Ohio University. Ken was chosen for this honor as being representative of the ideal Greek in campus leadership, service, and scholarship. This is the second year in a row that a Delt has received this outstanding award.

In other campus activities, Delta Tau Delta is again among the most active of fraternities at Ohio. Chapter participation in campus projects such as Mock United Nations is an example. John Marksbury, Bob Besecker, Ken Bachman, Jim Koeller, Jim Gillespie, and Vince Hughes have all been selected as national ambassadors, with the remainder of the house serving as delegates. For the annual all-campus Torch Sing, Stan Mortenson has shaped the chapter glee club into fine order.

Socially, the Ohio Delts again pace the campus with a full schedule of parties, teas, and mixers. The Playboy Party and Christmas Formal proved to be overwhelming successes. The brothers, as well as the remainder of the campus, are now looking forward to the annual Delt Regatta to be held May 8.

This has been an exciting year at Ohio University for Beta Chapter, and with greater endeavor the coming year looks to be even more promising. We have striven to uphold the fine traditions of Delta Tau Delta, and will work even harder in the future to maintain our leadership position in campus activities and in brotherhood.

JOHN GREENFIELD

Ohio State—Beta Phi

In the areas of scholarship and intra-

Beta Phi's president, JIM VAUGHAN (right) accepts Greek Week trophy for chapter

murals, Beta Phi has made significant gains; in the area of Greek and campus activities, Beta Phi has become the undisputed leader at Ohio State. This is the general picture as we enter the third quarter of the 1964-65 school year.

Fall quarter began with a rush week that secured 70 pledges giving us the largest pledge class on the campus. We went on to initiate 19 new members into Delta Tau Delta, again the greatest number of neophytes of any of the houses on the campus.

John Palmer and Bob Funk represented Beta Phi on the OSU gridiron, John a first string end and Bob a place kicking specialist. Both men were mentioned for the 1964 All-Delt football squad, John earning a position on the first team. The chapter itself made an admirable showing in Fall intramurals, the actives securing a first place in football and the pledges a first place in volleyball.

In Greek and all-campus activities, Beta Phi made an outstanding contribution. The concentrated efforts of the chapter gave us a second place trophy for homecoming decorations (a motorized, 30-foot high, replica of the cartoon character "Snoopy," kicking a Wisconsin badger through the goalposts). The chapter also won a first place for its participation and its unique theme in the homecoming rally. Beta Phi went on later to secure a first place in Dad's Day decorations and bring its trophy total for Fall quarter to five.

Most significant of all of our achievements Fall quarter was in scholarship. Beta Phi ranked 13th out of the 43 fraternities at Ohio State, taking a second place among the largest five fraternities. The results for Winter quarter have not yet been compiled, but it is thought that grades will generally be good.

In addition to the initiation of 12 new members into Delta Tau Delta, Beta Phi also held the election of new officers: president, Jim Vaughan; vice-president, Phil Pitzer; treasurer, Karl Barnhardt; recording secretary, Bucky Byrne; corresponding secretary, Bill Stratton; assistant treasurers, Jim Williamson and Bill Manby; guide, Terry Settlemire; sergeant at arms, John Keener. Now serving in the chairmanships are: rush, Jim Ervin; rules, Harry Field; social, Steve Lusk; alumni relations, Bill Stratton; activities, Harry Field; publicity, Jim Williamson; house manager, Bob Verne; scholarship, Steve Starr; sorority relations, Ted Dann; steward, Roger Underwood; song chairman, Phil Giessler; pledge trainers, Dan Frey and John Keener; historian, John Core.

The highlights of Winter quarter at OSU are Greek Week, campus elections for Student Senate, and Goldiggers. Beta Phi's achievements in these activities reflect its undisputed leadership of OSU's Greek and campus activities.

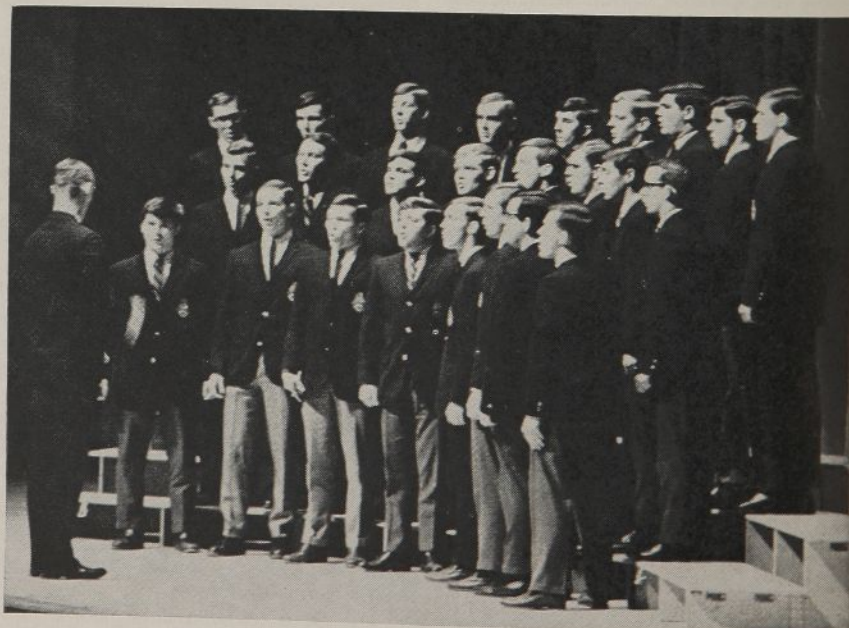

In amassing 153 out of a possible 167 points for participation at the various activities throughout Greek Week, Beta Phi earned the 47-inch, first-place trophy. Figures like 105 members at the talent show, 91 members at the Chad Mitchell Trio concert, and 102 members at the Greek Week Sing reveal the enthusiasm which earned us this trophy. In the most important function of Greek Week—the Blood Drive—Beta Phi supplied 94 blood donors, 87 per cent of the chapter. In the individual events of Greek Week, Beta Phi did equally well. Wells Lyman's Spanish guitar solo at the

Beta Phi's TOM WORKMAN

Talent Show was outstanding. Rider Brice's artistic talents gave us a third place in the window decorations on the Greek Week theme "Progress Through Unity." Under Doug Bradt's leadership, the brothers transformed the Shelter into a rustic German scene and earned us a fourth place in this category. Under Bill Stratton, 25 of the brothers won a first place in the Greek Week Sing.

In the all-campus elections, Tom Workman was named president of the Student Body for the coming school year, with the support of many Deltas who campaigned vigorously for him. Soon after the election Harry Field was chosen president of the Buckeye Political Party.

In Goldiggers competition Pledge Dave Shinaberry, running as a candidate from his dormitory, was elected to a position on the King's Court.

Highlight of Beta Phi's athletic activity was the All-Ohio Delt Tournament in which, for the third year in a row, Beta Phi won the first place trophy.

BILL STRATTON

Oklahoma—Delta Alpha

Riding on the crest of enthusiasm generated by their first 50-man pledge class, the Sooner Deltas have been busy adding to their list of honors and awards. The "Deltones" quartet started the year off right by winning first place at the annual O.U. Dad's Day Quartet Contest. This same quartet won second place last year, and is known campus-wide for its performances at serenades.

Clark Musser and Kyle McCarter were named two of O.U.'s Top Ten Freshmen Men—making the second year in a row that the Deltas have landed one-fifth or more of the men named for this honor. During the annual O.U. Greek Week, Bill McGrew and Phil Horton were recognized as two of the Top Ten Greeks on campus.

The Deltas were fortunate to have both the president and vice-president of the senior class on their roll this year, as well as one of the five finalists for Man of Distinction. The Deltas have had a finalist for this award every year since it was established.

One of the greatest honors we received this year was having Bill McGrew named recipient of a Rhodes Scholarship. Bill is the second Rhodes Scholar to come from Delta Alpha Chapter.

In first semester scholarship, the Deltas finished third among Oklahoma's 24 fraternities. With second semester grades still to come, Sooner Deltas have a good chance to win the scholarship trophy this year. Roger Brady won the Jay Myers Award for the freshman athlete with the highest grade average, thus making the second year in a row a Delt has won this award. The Deltas also had three men named to Phi Eta Sigma, national freshman scholastic fraternity.

Intramurally, the Deltas have excelled this year. With one team championship, five second place and two fourth place finishes, we currently lead all fraternities in the race for the intramural championship. Good showings in the remaining sports will give us the championship for the second time in three years.

On the social scene, we have had numerous parties along with our Christmas Dance. Coming up is the annual Delt Dive, a two-night affair featuring the Americans and the Crickets. We will end the year with the Spring Statewide Rush Party and the Spring Formal.

In Delta Alpha's recent election of officers, Grayson Van Horn was chosen president of the chapter. Other officers are: Bob Willis, vice-president; Ted Dubie, treasurer; Steve Vargo, assistant treasurer; Bill Spear, recording secretary; Gerry Fisher, corresponding secretary; Robert Martin, guide; David Lewis, sergeant at arms; and Clark Musser, I.F.C. representative.

With the end of the year in sight, the Deltas at O.U. are preparing for a final drive toward wrapping up what has been a very successful year.

GERRY FISHER

GALE WILKERSON, Oklahoma State

Oklahoma State—Delta Chi

The Greek stage found many Deltas in the spotlight at Oklahoma State. Delta Chi Chapter is especially proud of Gale Wilkerson who was recently unanimously elected president of the award-winning OSU Interfraternity Council. Three Deltas, Robert Gibson, Everett "Butch" Murphy, and Charles Miller, will represent the State of Oklahoma as World Fair guides. During the run of the World's Fair 10 per cent of all Oklahoma's guides have been OSU Deltas. Brother Dennis McFeely remains a staunch member of the Oklahoma State Regional bowling champions who are now vying for the national title in Lawrence, Kansas.

Individual standouts on the Delt intramural squads also won acclaim. The playoff-slated volleyball team placed Gary Toussaint on the All-University and All-Fraternity teams, and Jay Tucker on the All-Fraternity unit. Tom Pettegrew, All-Fraternity basketball ace, led a well rounded roundball team into playoff competition.

Scholastically, Delta Chi Deltas placed first on campus among rushing fraternities, with 22 of 26 pledges making the initiation grade point requirement.

The Spring semester finds Fred Emry, president, and Bill Kidwell, vice-president, heading the new slate of chapter officers. They will lead a membership of 55 as strengthened by the following new Deltas: Mike Eischen, Steve LaGrone, Bob Leslie, David Evans, Jr., Stan Williams, Jay Hoberecht, Dick Starr, Lynn Ruffin, Joe Millar, David McCarty, Jerry Barnett, Chip Woodward, Mike O'Toole, Mike Henry, Louis Loeffler, Phil Lankford, John Randle, Ron Winkler, Paul

Delta Chi's Bundle Party

Wilkes, Ken Ontko and Outstanding Pledge Steve Brainerd.

The Bundle Party, which includes dates selecting their mate's costume, highlighted the March social scene. Spring Rush Weekend and the Rainbow Formal will be feature events of the remaining social calendar. Spring Sing will also see Delts in action, in collaboration with Sigma Phi Epsilon. With strong emphasis on rush, Delta Chi Delts plan to maintain top-flight standing on the OSU campus.

STEVE LEE EPPS

Oregon—Gamma Rho

With the coming of Spring term and good weather, the Delts of Gamma Rho are looking forward to a term full of activities. Last term, a contest was instituted in the chapter, with the improvement of scholarship as our goal. The idea proved to be successful beyond most expectations, with grades rising above any term in recent years.

Besides stressing grades last term, we also participated in numerous activities. The seniors living in received the traditional millracing last term, which concluded with the presenting of the Outstanding Big Brother award by this year's pledge class to Sandy Sanborn, a senior who was graduating that term.

Social prospects promise to take up a good part of Spring term at Gamma Rho, with Delts Barry Sullivan and Paul ("Turkey") Thomas working as publicity chairman and float chairman, respectively, for Mothers Weekend. Teamed with the AOPi's this year, we are working hard to capture the award for the best float in the Canoe Fete, an award that has barely escaped us in past years. Ron Meese is shaping up the golden voices of Delta Tau for the annual Spring Sing, in which we are teamed with the ADPi's this year. Delts are proving that their musical talents are manifold, for Brothers Nicholas, Paxton, and Nosler organized a rock and roll band, which is now the top one on campus. Exchange dinners are planned with the Gamma Phi Betas and the Alpha Phis in the coming weeks, with the house dance at the end of the term to round out the year.

The newly elected officers include Jim Kronenberg, president; Jim Kavalier, vice-president; Leon Flinchbaugh, upper-class president; Paul Thomas, recording secretary; Mike Gleeson, corresponding secretary; and Andy Smith, treasurer.

The end of last term was unfortunately marked by the death of one of the brothers, Dick Howard. The brothers of Gamma Rho are grateful for the many responses of those who knew Dick, and the donations are being put into a fund for a memorial room in the house. It is at times such as these the true meaning of Delt brotherhood becomes most evident.

BOB COLLINS

Oregon State—Delta Lambda

Delta Lambda Chapter of Delta Tau Delta continues to represent the ideals and goals of modern fraternity living at Oregon State University. During the past two quarters our well-organized drive for success has paid off.

Scholastic standards have not fallen. . . . Delts were ranked fifth of 34 fraternities in listings of Fall term grades. Of those that were ahead of us, only two could be categorized with Delta Lambda in the major fraternity group (80 or more active members). Grade listings for Winter term should again find the Delts within the top ten and, as in Fall term, well above the All Men's Average.

Leading the way in house grades have been Jay Schmoll and Bruce MacIntosh. During Winter term the two received the Matt Mathes Scholarship Trophy given to the member and pledge with the highest grades. Matt served as chapter adviser for nearly 30 years. His leadership and advice in the field of scholastic activities have kept the Delts at OSU consistently above the All-School, All Men's and All-Fraternity grade averages.

To balance this scholastic eminence the Delts have remained among the leaders in varsity and intramural sports. Spence Powell, all-state tackle from Salem, was a stalwart on the freshman football team. With Spring practice under way, he is using all his 250 pounds in an effort to make the starting eleven. Joining Spence on the football squad is kicking specialist Don Cook.

Larry French, Randy Rothman and Gary Allen gave the Delts top representation on the varsity basketball team. French, a 6' 6" sophomore, was a starter most of the season at the forward spot. His work on the boards and his clutch shooting helped Oregon State to a winning season.

Jack Taylor and Gordy Lowell grappled for positions on OSU's seventh ranked wrestling team. Gordy, all five-and-a-half feet of him (170 lb.), was a real crowd pleaser. Owen Lucey is currently holding down the number two position on the varsity tennis team. Bill McCrae holds down the number one spot on the varsity golf team, while Mike Vollmar and Marc Hollingshead are trying to duplicate this performance on the freshman squad. John Elliot has won a starting spot on OSU's eight-man crew. Rod Trask turned down a bonus contract this Fall in order to finish out his eligibility on the baseball team.

Highlights of Fall term include: Winning of the Greek division of the homecoming display—approximately 200 persons watched each performance of the beheading of an Indiana Hoosier; Gary Allen winning the Joe College award, given to the school's ideal sophomore; Five Delts—Mike Dennis, Rich Hansen, Dave Korzan, Bill Milne, and Scott Thompson—being chosen for Blue Key, senior men's honorary—as many as have ever been tapped from one fraternity for this 20 man group; Winning a skin from the Washington Delts—our after-game function between the two chapters was a great success; And our subsequent loss of a skin to some Michigan school at the Rose Bowl.

Winter term was equally successful. Nick Mecklem received an invitation to join Kappa Psi, pharmacy honorary.

Bruce MacIntosh and Dick DeClerck were initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic fraternity. Mike Dennis adds Phi Beta Phi to his growing list of honoraries.

Bruce MacIntosh was also one of a dozen students to qualify for study in Pavia, Italy next year. Scott Thompson, school of education senator, and Rich Hansen, school newspaper editor, were among a group of ten chosen as outstanding seniors.

The Deltometer, our alumni publication, received an honorable mention in the Fraternity's publication awards. Walt Samuelson has taken over from brother Delt Tom Moon as business manager of the school yearbook while Tom McDowell is the new managing editor of the book.

Gordy Lowell turned over his position as student insurance director to Brian LeVee.

Intensified rush paid big dividends as eight top men were pledged during informal rush. Four high school senior rush weekends have been held. Over 80 interested high school seniors have visited the Shelter.

Ted Carlson has become our new chapter adviser and has contributed a great deal already in the way of advice.

House elections in February resulted in the traditional change of powers. John Salzer, economics major from East Lansing, Michigan was elected president. John Bigler was elected to the vice-president's position. The new pledge trainer is Walt Samuelson, while Bill Dierdorff took over Walt's job as house manager. Tom McDowell and Owen Lucey are recording and corresponding secretaries, respectively. Tom Oberg will be our representative on IFC.

Initiation Fall and Winter terms added 13 new men to the ranks. Those initiated were Bill Dierdorff, Larry French, Bill McCrae, and Frank Ramig, all from Pendleton; Major Defoe, Junction City; Larry Cheldelin, Corvallis; Chuck Clarke, Los Angeles, California; Rich Johnston, Palo Alto, California; Ron Jorek, Milwaukie, Oregon; Dick Hammer, Indianapolis, Indiana; Kurt Langfelt, Portland;

Doug Paulsruide, Olympia, Washington; and Bill Wymore, San Francisco, California.

WANTED: Information concerning the whereabouts of a "Green Duck."

Penn State—Tau

Tau Chapter this Spring completed a highly successful rush program with the pledging of 23 good men. We feel that this pledge class is one of the best in recent years; they are fine students and quite adept socially.

Nine men recently initiated are Michael Beahan, Robert Yuckman, Daniel Hughes, Hunter Wilcox, George Sykes, Dennis Falvey, Greg Weaver, Eric Roemer, and Robert Tozer.

The new chapter administration includes Michael Beahan, president; Harlow Todaro, vice-president; and Daniel Hughes, treasurer.

On the sports side, Tau was represented on the varsity wrestling squad in the person of Matt Dunne. Matt compiled an impressive 3-2 record against very stiff competition in the 191 and 177-pound brackets, winning against West Virginia, Syracuse, and Cornell, and dropping matches to Pitt and Navy.

Tau will also have two men on the varsity lacrosse team, with both Bob Yuckman and Matt Dunne working out this Spring in preparation for the competition. Much of State's hopes rest on their shoulders.

On the varsity track squad Jim Chirieleison will run the 100 and 220, while Tom Herr will pole vault.

In intramurals this Spring Hunter Wilcox, Doug Goodman, and Bill Hammell have shown excellent skill with the billiard cue, having compiled a 9-3 record to date in the pocket billiards competition.

All in all we are looking for Spring to be a highly active and successful term at Tau.

Pittsburgh—Gamma Sigma

Once again, in 1965, Gamma Sigma Chapter at the University of Pittsburgh has gotten off to a great start. The year's activities started on January 9, with the initiation of 14 new brothers from the Fall pledge class. Following the initiation ceremony, a dinner, attended by the entire chapter as well as several distinguished alumni, was held in honor of the new brothers. A few weeks later, under the leadership of Winter Rush Chairman Bill Lerach, the chapter took in a fine pledge class of which we are very proud. A great deal of credit is due Bill for the terrific job he did in making that rush as successful as it was.

The highlight of the Winter social program was the annual Delt Winter Weekend, held in the Laurel Mountain ski resort area. In addition to indoor parties and recreation, there was also ample opportunity for skiing and tobogganing. A terrific time was had by all. In March, the Deltas took an active part in the annual Greek Week activities, placing high in overall point totals, and third in Greek Sing, under the fine direction of Wes Skeen. The Greek Sing trophy was presented at the Greek formal which climaxed the week's activities.

As usual, Deltas were active in intercollegiate as well as interfraternity sports. Bob Lovett, a junior and forward on the varsity basketball team, led the Pitt team in rebounds and was among the top three scorers. Bill Bodle, who played both football and baseball as well as wrestling, won the Charles C. Hartwig Award, given annually to the student who has done the most to promote athletics at Pitt. The award is named for a Pitt Delt and former football coach here, now deceased. In interfraternity sports competition, the Delt teams, organized by Athletic Chairman Nish Vartabedian, took second place. With the aid of John Gildea, George Sommer, and Mike Ranck, the Deltas easily took first place in squash, as well as first places in swimming and track. The outlook for an overall first place next year is good, and the brothers are looking forward to it with anticipation.

Although the University has not as yet officially released the fraternity grade averages for the Fall trimester, it is probable that the Deltas were within the top two fraternities on campus, with a good chance of being first. There is no doubt that the Delt average will be higher than the All Men's Average. This year's scholarship awards of $50.00 each, donated annually by the Alumni Association, went to Clark Margolf, brother with the highest grade average (3.81), Bob Cole, Fall pledge with the highest grade average (3.80), and John Oakes, whose grades showed the most improvement over the preceding term.

As the Winter trimester draws to a close, we at Pitt are confident that the coming school year will be even more successful than the past one. Through the efforts of the entire chapter, our newly-elected president, Mike Ranck, and our adviser, Norm MacLeod, we are sure that Delta Tau Delta will remain the top fraternity at the University of Pittsburgh.

Purdue—Gamma Lambda

Gamma Lambda's recent activities have basically been devoted toward the continuance of a superior chapter. The first four weeks of the semester were spent in a hectic rush period, at the end of which 19 new pledges were taken. Memorable events during this period were the yearly Hawaiian Party, a semi-formal dance, and a "high school" party.

Several weeks later, the Fall pledge program was culminated, with initiation on March 19. The new neophytes, who were able to wear their badges proudly during Spring vacation, are: Joseph R. Bankoff; C. John Bobeck; William J. Gillilan, III; Douglas A. Miller; Charles R. Van de Carr, IV; and William G. Wise, Jr.

A major effort is being made to continue and improve upon last semester's scholarship record. The program, under the direction of Scholarship Chairman Keith Oberbeck, was a great success, with Gamma Lambda moving up from 37th to 13th place in the all-fraternity standings.

The chapter ended a successful intramural basketball season by finishing second in the competition, losing only the final game of the season, and that by one point in an overtime period. Practice has already begun for the Spring softball season, but has been slowed by the rain-out of the first scheduled practice game. Strong competition is expected, with Gamma Lambda one of the major competitors.

Rensselaer—Upsilon

Upsilon, having just completed its second semester rushing program, looks forward to the April 25th addition of 13 new brothers to complement its current 46-man brotherhood. These pledges represent a cross-section of RPI men, with a wide range of participation in sports, academics, publications and campus politics.

Several brothers have distinguished themselves in varsity athletics this year. Those sports include ice hockey, football, tennis, track, lacrosse, and baseball. For example, John Spillane returns to the varsity baseball squad after having copped "Rookie of the Year" honors as a sophomore. In interfraternity competition, as judged after the completion of a majority of the sports, Upsilon Deltas will again place within the top 10 out of 30 houses on campus.

Academically, 13 of Upsilon's 46 brothers made Dean's List honors, while several brothers achieved President's List. Recently the position of sports editor of the campus newspaper was turned over to Bob Hayden, and Upsilon has 5 other brothers in top publication positions.

In recent chapter elections, the following brothers assumed the duties of office: David Littlefield, president; Michael Sarro, vice-president; Dane Battiatto, corresponding secretary; Thomas Wood, recording secretary; John Martin, treasurer; Richard Rose, guide; and Thomas Gruzleski, sergeant at arms.

Upsilon congratulates all the new officers of Delta Tau Delta around the country!

Sam Houston—Epsilon Zeta

The Fall semester started off with Epsilon Zeta pledging another hard-working group of young men, 11 strong. This was the second year of pre-registration rush.

In the annual homecoming activities which the chapter always sponsors, our float with the theme "World Peace" took first place honors. Our homecoming party was well attended by undergraduates and alumni alike.

Fall intramurals saw Epsilon Zeta capture the first place trophy in football. This trophy had been absent from our trophy case for the past few years. Our field secretary, Terry B. C. Opp, helped to cheer us on to victory in our championship game over Sigma Phi Epsilon, 12-6. The volleyball team helped to add to our intramural points by placing third. Our roundballers, who had not lost a championship in eight years, found the going rough this year due to injuries to key players. The basketball team also journeyed to Texas Christian University, where it participated in the invitation tournament sponsored by our Delt brothers of Epsilon Beta Chapter.

Miss Kay Smith, a sophomore member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority, was chosen as Epsilon Zeta's Delt Sweetheart for 1964-65. Mrs. Naomi Compton, our former housemother, was also honored at the annual Sweetheart Banquet.

The following men were elected to lead Epsilon Zeta: John Sitta, president; Sheldon Hayes, vice-president; Jerrell Burke, treasurer; Mickey Evans, recording secretary; and Terry Dwire, corresponding secretary.

We again pledged an excellent group of men for the Spring: David Earle and Andrew Lowery, Texas City; Eddie Philpott, Port Neches; Tommy Dotson, Hearne; Franklin Thomas, Corpus Christi; Albert Choate, Galveston; Bill Lemon, Hebron, Ohio; Robert Ellisor, Cleveland, Texas; Jerry Stewart, Groesbeck; Randy Morgan, Madisonville; Carl Spiller, Port Lavaca; and Don May, Houston.

Our intramural baseball team, led by ace pitcher Rodney Folschinsky, is favored to capture the loop crown. We are also favored in track, because of our strength in the sprints, relays, and field events. Preparation is under way for our annual EZ Relays, a track meet featuring teams from fraternities throughout Texas and bordering states, to be held May 8.

This Spring semester we have strong representation on the varsity baseball team which was NAIA champion in 1963—Brothers Ralph Klatt, Roger Tedford, Alan Symington, and John Skeeters, and

IM football champs at Sam Houston

Pledges Albert Choate, Eddie Philpott, Franklin Thomas, and Tommy Dotson.

Everyone in the chapter is proud of our high ranking in scholarship last year, when we were above the All Men's Average for the fifth straight year. We are now working to pull our scholastic average to an all-time high.

This semester there are numerous social functions planned. The Spring party, which is the biggest of the year, will take place April 30; the all-weekend affair will honor our alumni in the nearby areas.

The annual Delt Soap Box Derby was held during March, with a record crowd on hand to watch races in the girls' and boys' division. A special added attraction was a skate board contest.

We were honored by a visit from a distinguished Brother Delt this semester. He is Dr. Andrew Holt, president of the University of Tennessee, who visited the Shelter while on campus for the inauguration of our new college president.

Summer rush looks bright, with committees already set up under the direction of Rush Chairman Gary B. Ashe. Rush brochures are also being prepared, and several rush parties have been set up in various cities and towns across the state.

TERRY DWIRE

Santa Barbara—Delta Psi

We of Delta Psi have had another good year at Santa Barbara. Our newly elected officers, including Louis Olio, president; Dennis Kuttler, vice-president; Larry Smith, corresponding secretary; Bob Stoll, recording secretary; Mike Horst, treasurer; Mike Bray, house manager; and Mike Critelli, social chairman, have helped in maintaining the Deltas' top position on campus.

Under the leadership of Rush Chairman Mike Foster, we again held a successful Spring rush, as shown by the 12 outstanding new pledges.

Unfortunately, we have slipped to number two in intramurals. We took second place in football and basketball and third in swimming. With softball and track coming up, we are still optimistic that we will regain our number one position in intramurals. Incidentally, the Delt softball team has been asked to represent Santa Barbara at an All-University of California Sports Weekend at U.C.L.A.

The warm weather, the beach, and the beautiful girls have promoted another fertile social semester for Delta Psi. As usual, we sponsored many T.G.I.F.'s and various other spontaneous parties. The highlights of our social year have been the cocktail parties, the Rock 'n' Roll Party and the three day Ski-Trip Formal over semester break.

Again, we are very hopeful of obtaining a new Shelter, which would be Delta Psi's first permanent Shelter. We would like to welcome all our brothers to Santa Barbara.

LARRY SMITH

Sewanee—Beta Theta

From rush last Fall through this Spring of 1965, Beta Theta has been in the forefront of fraternity life on "the Mountain." Under the guidance of Chapter Adviser Frank A. Juhan and a dynamic new administration, maintenance of this leadership position seems assured. Officers for the new year are: Robert A. Parmelee, president; Donald A. Wilder, vice-president; Walker Duvall Spruill, treasurer; Frank T. Daut, recording secretary; Terry Daniel Payne, corresponding secretary; Wayne C. Hartley, guide; and David J. Jockush, sergeant at arms.

The chapter has perhaps shown its greatest improvement in the area of scholastics. A conscientious effort, especially by the pledge class, has raised the chapter's academic standing from ninth of ten fraternities to fifth of eleven. A great deal of the credit goes to Scholarship Chairman Don Wilder. We are especially proud of three new initiates, Jim Overstreet, Bernie Gooding, and Rusty Napier, who maintained well over a 3.0 grade average. As a result of Summer School preparation Jim and Bernie are now Gownsmen, an honor conferred on very few sophomores.

Beta Theta's new initiates are: Peterson Cavert, Tuscaloosa, Alabama; John Bernard Gooding, Savannah, Georgia; Ashton Holloway, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Rusty Betterton Napier, Loring A.F.B., Maine; James W. Overstreet, III, Savannah Beach, Georgia; Paul T. Prentiss, Jr., Nashville, Tennessee; and Frank Bivin Murchison, Corsicana, Texas.

Second semester saw the addition of Thomas Aiken Bell, Birmingham, Alabama, to the pledge class.

Three distinguished senior actives have just received high honors. Jack Sanders, our past president and member of Phi Beta Kappa, was selected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and tapped into Blue Key, the highest honor for leadership and academic ability that one can attain at Sewanee. Thomas B. Hall, a consistent 3.6 student, was initiated into Phi Beta Kappa. Allen Lear has received a $2,000 scholarship to the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy.

Athletically the Delts are now in strong contention for the Intramural Trophy. There is a great deal of optimism for success in Spring sports, especially after a great year in basketball and handball. Brother Dave Watkins, displaying previously hidden talents, led Beta Theta to its first basketball championship in seven years. A real workhorse, Dave was a threat from any position on the court. He was assisted by 6' 7" freshman Paul Prentiss, all-star backcourtman Bobby Canon, and gunner Dick Ide. In handball Jay Reynolds won singles hands down, and, with the assistance of Randy Johnson (a pro California surfer during the summer, and last year's pledge master) took the doubles game just as easily. In forthcoming sports it looks like a certain victory in badminton and golf, and a chance of success in softball and tennis. Neophyte Rusty Napier is now number two man on the varsity golf team. Intramural hopes in golf rest on the massive shoulders of Wayne "Kraut" Hartley and Craig Stanfill, a Mexican stormer from El Paso. Wayne and Craig, if they continue to tear up the links as they have in the past, will walk off with the golf trophy.

Socially, Delts at Sewanee are looking forward to a great Spring, with the highlight being the Spring Weekend festivities. It will be hard to beat Mid-Winters, which featured a champagne party in honor of the new initiates, but thanks to the parsimonious Chuck Kuhnell, former treasurer, the Spring Weekend activities show great promise as far as wine, women, and song are concerned.

All in all, the year ahead looks like a good one, and all the brothers are looking forward to a successful Summer and early preparation for Fall rush. Brother Dave Jockush, big alumni relations man, is preparing an alumni newsletter which he hopes to have ready within the next year. Good luck from Beta Theta to our brother chapters for the summer term.

TERRY PAYNE

Stanford—Beta Rho

Stanford's Delt Chapter is perhaps the most active house on campus. Six of our members are actively participating in the lower ranks of student government, and 23 of our members are presently out for Spring football. Outstanding members of the upcoming 1965 squad include Bob Rath, Bob Blunt, Ferg Flanagan, Craig Ritchey, Bruce Kerhli, and Glen Myers, all of whom are returning lettermen.

Beta Rho is also proud to have three members playing varsity baseball. Bob Cox, a senior switch-hitter, is currently leading the league with a fantastic batting average of .500, making him a definite candidate for All-American. Ron Yett is a hard hitting junior outfielder batting .370, and, like Bob Cox, is a returning letterman. Sophomore John Propstra is a strong hitter and versatile fielder who will undoubtedly see lots of action this year and in years to come.

Our president, Bob Stoecker, is another exceptional athlete and fine representative of Beta Rho. Bob, whose forte is track, throws the discus 176 feet, puts the shot a consistent 52 feet, and hurls the javelin 220 feet. Dave Robbins, a junior who is once again rowing for the first boat on Stanford's crew, has been very active in student affairs and hopes to run for student body president this Spring.

Rush this Spring has gone exceptionally well for the Delts. Thirty fine scholars and athletes join to make perhaps the most highly diversified pledge class in the Delts' history. With the Spring quarter progressing at its usual frantic pace, the Delts anxiously await the annual alumni football game, after which we will once again have our traditional Alumni Banquet here on the hill.

DAN REYNOLDS

Stevens—Rho

Rho Chapter, after experiencing a successful Fall term, is trying to reach greater heights this Spring. The Delts have won the IFC All-Sports Trophy for the 15th time in 16 years. We also won the championships in basketball and squash. These three trophies will be awarded at the Spring Sports Formal which is to be held at the New York World's Fair.

Recently Alan Zorner was elected president of the IFC, succeeding Brother George Greene. Other men active in school affairs are George Minish, vice-president of the student council and senior class; Armin Steuber, president of the junior class; George Adamec, president of the Athletic Association; Larry Babbio, Honor Board chairman; and Don Baxter and Bernie Rehm, Athletic Association representatives.

In sports, John Millard was named All-Star Goalie of the Middle-Atlantic Coast Conference for his fine work on the soccer team. The Stevens basketball team consisted of 12 Delts out of 13 players. There are nine Delts on the lacrosse team, eight on the baseball team and three on the tennis team. Also the captains of all these teams are Delts. The Varsity "S" Club, the varsity association of Stevens, is also dominated by Delts, with Bob Sergeant as president, Bert Rehm, treasurer, and John Millard, secretary.

Rho Chapter, under the new leadership of President Don Faul, is placing a large emphasis on scholarship this term, even though the chapter average has improved satisfactorily. The other new officers are Marc De Rossi, vice-president; Wade Merrick, treasurer; Ron Hollmann, recording secretary; and Bob Dalie, corresponding secretary.

The chapter recently completed a very successful rushing period by pledging 23 men. The brothers are eagerly looking forward to the social highlight of the Spring term, which is the Spring Sports Weekend. Also in May is the father-son softball game.

The Delts of Stevens are well represented in campus activities. Recently we have also gained scholastic prominence. Now Rho Chapter can work to further strengthen these positions and possibly broaden itself to more services.

RON PARISI

Syracuse—Gamma Omicron

With the start of a new year, the Syracuse University Delts held their elections. The new officers are: president, Tom Wallace; vice-president, Steve Wood; treasurer, Brian Kes; recording secretary, Mike McCombs; and corresponding secretary, Jon Bird.

Hard work and cooperation among the brothers resulted in a successful Spring rush. We now have a total of 14 new freshmen pledges, with more expected. Special thanks go to our local alumni and to the national Fraternity for their help during our rush season. We feel that our pledges represent some of the finest freshmen on the S.U. campus. Already, the pledges are participating actively in chapter functions and in sports: lacrosse, swimming, and skiing.

Athletically the S.U. Delts participated in basketball and volleyball intramurals this Winter. In varsity sports, the S.U. ski team, captained by Brother Bob Thoresen, with able assistance from Brother Ron Stocum, made its power felt throughout the season.

Socially the Delts enjoyed a wide variety of events, ranging from target parties and a costume party, to a reception for the Serendipity Singers when they performed in Syracuse. Six of the nine members of the group are Delts from the University of Colorado.

With our new pledge class came a new program for the S.U. Delts, a sorority girl "big sister" for each pledge. The big sisters for the pledges came from Delta Gamma, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Chi Omega.

JON BIRD

Texas—Gamma Iota

With the waning days of the semester now upon us, we of Gamma Iota are able to look upon the school year with pride and expectations. Our pride is shown in the many things the chapter has accomplished, and our expectations lie with the 35 promising young men whom we initiated this Spring.

Intramurals, in which we have been second for the last three years, look very promising, with us now leading in points. To date the Delt teams have taken All-University trophies in football, swimming, and water basketball. Delts Mike Lucas and Joe Bill Watkins are ranked, respectively, first and third in All-University individual intramural points. Watkins also has the fine record of having been picked to four all-star intramural teams.

With the Fall semester fraternity averages having been published, a quick glance at the list of 32 fraternities reveals Delt to be ranked fourth. This is very good, considering the Delts have the largest chapter on campus.

A look at the lighter side shows that socially the Delts have had a fun-filled year. In early April we celebrated Roundup, being entertained by the music of folksingers Rusty and Doug. Another big event to come is our house party in May at which time the Delts, with date and drink, will head for Padre Island. On the 10th of April we held our annual Founders Day Banquet, and undergraduates and alumni had a good time.

Our Summer rush program looks to be a very active one with parties being planned in Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, and Austin. The Delts will rush and party to the music of big name combos.

In campus elections this year we have been more than successful, living up to our campus reputation as a political powerhouse. Recently Jay Brim was elected head cheerleader for the next school year. John Willoughby and John Goodman, respectively, were elected the junior and freshman C.B.A. presidents, and Lamar Lawson won a seat on the Arts & Sciences Assembly. Also many of our young men have been very active on the Freshman Council.

This semester Lloyd Birdwell was elected to the Friars, a highly desired honorary organization on campus. With Leon Graham and Mike Cotton the Delts now have three Friars, a number no other Fraternity can boast. Also this spring Tommy Graves was tapped by the Cowboys, and Gale Hasselmeier, our new president, was tapped by the Spurs. We now have seven Cowboys and nine Spurs in the chapter. This is more than any other Fraternity has.

The Delts of Gamma Iota are also proud to announce that a Texas Delt, Bill Keach, has won a Rhodes Scholarship and will continue his studies at Oxford next year.

The Delts are well represented in varsity sports this Spring. On the current University baseball team there are four Delts, All-American Butch Thompson, Ron Bandy, Buddy Young, and Robert Oliver.

In swimming the Delts also shone. Besides varsity lettermen Greg Thompson and Jim Spillane, we have freshman swimmers Tom Cunningham and Chuck Worrell, who recently journeyed to swim in the national A.A.U. swimming meet. George Spear, a two-year All-American, is now coaching the freshman team.

Other accomplishments of Gamma Iota have included winning the trophy for the "Best All Around" sign in the Aggie sign contest; and winning second along with the Phi Phis in Sing Song.

With this fine record, and with plans for a new Shelter in the near future, the Delts of Gamma Iota are quite confident that we will obtain the Fall pledge class by which we will remain Number One on campus.

JOHN WEISSERT

Texas Christian—Epsilon Beta

Epsilon Beta opened an eventful Spring semester by electing a new slate of officers. They are John Cawthron, president; Steve Nance, vice-president; John Jackson, treasurer; Roy Ferguson, corresponding secretary; Chuck Oswalt, recording secretary; and Eddie Nelson, sergeant at arms.

Other officials include Paul Rachal, social chairman and scholarship chairman; Lynn Ross, pledge trainer; Mike Kennedy, assistant pledge trainer; Pat Hunter, assistant treasurer; Ray Meadows, intramural chairman; Jay Langhammer, rush chairman; John Reagan, activities chairman; John McKinley, house and grounds; Neil Newsom, guide and rules chairman; George Ladd, chaplain; and Dick Berry, alumni relations.

Campus elections found Delta Tau Delta once again stepping to the front. John McDonald was re-elected to a second year as Student Body president and John Jackson was elected Student Body treasurer. Eddie Nelson, after serving last fall as a Student Court justice, was elected to Student Congress. Epsilon Beta's past president, Jim Lane, was elected president of the Interfraternity Council, succeeding Jay Langhammer, who served as last year's IFC vice-president, on the executive board of IFC.

Epsilon Beta has done very well in other campuswide events. Our homecoming float won first place in its division, thanks to the time and effort of Brothers Cawthron and Berry. This Spring, Songleader Chuck Oswalt led the chapter to a third place finish in Greek Songfest.

Our varsity athletes have had good years also. Quarterback Kent Nix and guard Porter Williams will be first-stringers on next Fall's Frog football team. Neil Newsom has been a top-notch runner for the track team, running the 440, the mile relay, and the 440 relay. Captain Eddie Smith has been the number one man on the golf team, and Bob Farmer did a fine job for the tennis team.

Epsilon Beta's intramural footballers didn't do as well as expected, but still finished with a winning record. End John Jackson was a bright spot for the team all season with his outstanding pass receiving, and was picked for the interfraternity All-Star Team. After the season ended, many of the members took part in the pledge-active football game, which saw the actives take the victory. Travis "Possum" Vanderpool, a mid-semester graduate, donated a trophy which will be engraved with the winners' name each year. The game has been appropriately named the "Possum" Bowl.

Basketball started right after the football season ended and the Delt roundballers finished in a tie for second place.

Our top performers in basketball were Mickey Hallyburton, Rex Nolen, Cliff Card, Mike Kennedy, Chip Oswalt, and former Wog starter Glenn Middlebrooks, who got married halfway through the season and missed the last few games.

Epsilon Beta took first place in the fraternity swimming meet. The strong swimming of Pledge Pete Van Bever provided the winning margin. Other members of the team were Brothers Chuck and Chip Oswalt, Jim Lane, Roger Houze, Paul Rachal, and Pledges Richard Couron and Bob Harrell.

With only three starters back from last year's championship softball team, Epsilon Beta found the going rough this Spring. Also the absence of all-star pitcher Tom Buckley, who got married last Summer and had to work, hurt the team. The play of catcher Pat Hunter, shortstop Jay Langhammer and outfielder Cliff Card gave Delt rooters something to cheer about.

Epsilon Beta's social season continued at a fast pace all year long. Last Fall's big events were the Suppressed Desire party and a Christmas party with the SAE's. On this Spring's docket was a South Sea Islands party and the Delt Formal which was held at Fort Worth's Blackstone Hotel. At the formal our new Delt Sweetheart, Karen McDaniel, Delta Delta Delta, was presented. Her court included the following Duchesses: Miss Tracy Broussard, Delta Gamma; Miss Pam Collins, Delta Gamma; and Miss Ginny Liles, Zeta Tau Alpha.

Three members of Epsilon Beta have been making quite a name for themselves in the music world. Brothers John Reagan, Bill Huddleston, and Rick Bandas are members of the "Danes," who have had several big records in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Their newest release "To Make Me a Man" reached the top 10 in Fort Worth in three weeks. Besides entertaining at many of our parties, they have also played for the East Texas State Deltas and the Oklahoma University Deltas. Reagan plays lead guitar, Huddleston, rhythm guitar, and Bandas, bass guitar.

Brother Tom Clark visited the chapter on February 11 and spoke at an Interfraternity Council banquet in the TCU student center ballroom. Jim Lane was the chairman of the affair. All the brothers truly enjoyed meeting Justice Clark.

Our pledge class during its Help Week built a large playhouse and presented it to the All Church Home for orphans. The project was one of the best goodwill jobs that the chapter has done in the past few years thanks to the work of Terry Guerrant. The chapter also sponsored its annual orphans' Christmas party with Pi Beta Phi.

Our Founders Day Banquet was held May 7 with Western Division President Bob Kroening as the main speaker. At the banquet, awards were presented to the following members: Travis Vanderpool—Alumni Achievement Award (best active); Ralph Reavis—Best Pledge; and Jay Langhammer—"Hoghead" Award (best intramural athlete). Luther King was voted by the Chapter as its outstanding alumnus. Eddie Nelson received the Scholarship Award. He posted his third consecutive 4.0 semester average.

Best wishes to all chapters for a good Summer rush and a top Fall pledge class.

JAY LANGHAMMER

Tufts—Beta Mu

The Beta Mu Chapter of Delta Tau Delta has successfully completed the first semester of the academic year. With 14 of the brothers on the Dean's List we placed second in scholastic averages among fraternities on campus, and were well above the All Men's and All Fraternity Averages. Special recognition goes to Paul Tebo and Tony Day, who joined Ralph Warrington in achieving membership in Tau Beta Pi, the national honorary society in engineering.

But we did more than study all Winter. Eight Beta Mu Deltas—John Tinker, Rich Miselis, Eric Sacknoff, Al Welch, Bill Roberge, Jim Slater, Bill Hilley, and Lance Stewart led the swimming team to its best record in recent years. John Tinker captained the mermen, and Eric Sacknoff was chosen Most Valuable Player. In indoor track, Ron Felix captained the team, and was accompanied by Clyde Ward, Frank Ruderman, and Clay Zucker.

The end of first semester also marked the annual smokers for freshmen. Second semester opened with rush week, with its meal bids, party invitations, and finally bids to pledgeship. The 20 men who comprise our pledge class are already making their marks at Tufts. Dick Linden is vice-president of his class; Jay Sampiere is an Inter-Dormitory Council representative; Jack Roccio is on the freshmen baseball team; Wiff Peterson wrestles; Bob Rix is on both indoor and outdoor track teams; Mark Hochgesang and John Mahar (president of the pledge class), are swimmers on the frosh team; Steve Beatty was an outstanding fullback this past Fall; Bill Hamilton was part of the indoor track contingent; and Jay Benson is looking forward to playing on the frosh tennis team this Spring. The interests of the rest of the pledge class range from drama to world wide travelling; from skiing to sky diving; and from pre-meds to government and chemistry majors.

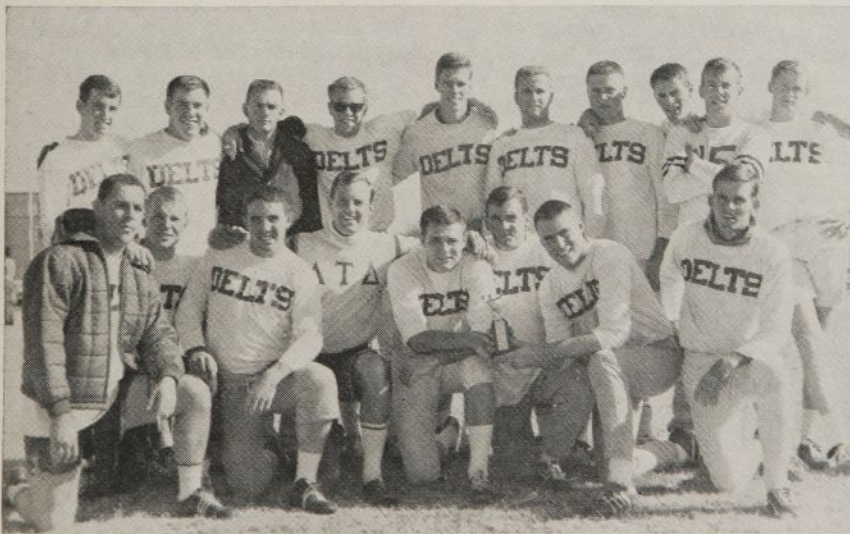

In other fields, Toni Robinson, fiancée of Bill Hilley, was chosen as IFC Queen; we placed third in Christmas Sing, but are looking forward to a first place finish in Spring Sing; we sponsored our annual Orphans' Party this Christmas and it was a huge success; and finally 13 Beta Mu Deltas were awarded dormitory proctorships, out of a field of over 200 applicants for 41 openings.

Tulane—Beta Xi

With the coming of Spring to the Crescent City, all the Deltas here are managing to catch a few rays in the afternoons. By no means have we been idle, however, as evidenced by a second semester pledge class of 12—the largest on campus—thanks to a successful second-semester rush.

James Hinds, a senior in electrical engineering, and Fritz Hedges, a senior in civil engineering, were selected for membership in Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering society. Kirk Wood, a sophomore in Business School, has been accepted for Junior Year Abroad; he plans to attend the University of Manchester, England. Larry Curran, a sophomore in the School of Engineering, represented Tulane at the National NCAA swimming meet.

Everyone was pleased with the pledge project, as the remodelled backyard patio now provides an excellent place for Spring barbecues and beer bashes. Fifteen men were initiated in February, making the chapter the largest it has been for some time.

Mardi Gras was a great success, and the Shelter was overflowing with Deltas from everywhere.

Following a number of band parties and levee parties, the Spring social season was climaxed by the annual Rainbow Formal, hailed as the best one in years. Marge Schwartzbek was Queen, and on the court were Eileen Bell, Aloha Perez, Suzanne Kenner, Anna Marie Schmidt, and Jane Wilson. The Founders Day Banquet was a success, with most of the chapter attending. Things are running smoothly, with both houses in operation; plans for a new Shelter should be completed within a year. Our housemother, Mrs. Aldige, is still with us.

The new officers are Luke O'Kelley, president; Dave Herold, vice-president; Dan Gribbin, recording secretary; Bill Powell, corresponding secretary; John Spalding, treasurer; Wayne Kehm, pledgemaster; Bill McBride, sergeant at arms; and Noah Long, historian.

We extend invitations to all Deltas to visit us anytime.

U.C.L.A.—Delta Iota

The brothers of Delta Iota have really been moving ahead this year with improvements in scholarship and intramurals; socially, the brothers are doing well as always.

The chapter's intramural football team was great this year despite a last minute disappointment. It posted a five and one record, losing the last game 2-0, which, if it had been won, would have meant the league crown. Final statistics of points for and against was 180 to 2 respectively!

Always strong in volleyball, the men of Delta Iota came in second in two-man volleyball and second in coed volleyball, thanks to the help of the Thetas. Currently, the Delt five is doing well in basketball with a 5-1 league record. With a berth in the playoffs April 19, we plan to go all out for the league title. Also the coed softball team with the Deltas (who else?) together with the Chi Omegas have produced a 4-0 mark which took the league title. Playoffs are also in the near future, if it should ever stop raining around here. The chapter's two-man bowling team is also number one with two weeks remaining in league competition. At the semester break Delta Iota was third in All-U athletics and, with the chapter's current momentum, it looks as though the Deltas will be on top of the heap before school is out.

Fall's pledge class has been transformed into a group of junior actives who have already added, and will add a great deal to the house. Bob Philbin, Rod Guthrie, Dennis Hewitt, Darryl Rex-winkle, Roger West, Chuck Hammonds, Bill Shoop, Greg Ward, Dick Lyster, Al Casper and Mike Tonnemacher are those who were initiated recently. The initiation formal, held at the La Venta Inn, turned out to be a great success.

Delta Gamma's Sandy Corbitt was elected to represent Delta Iota as our annual Queen. Sara Strahm (Kappa Kappa Gamma), Janice Clark (Alpha Chi Omega), Claire Carlson (Delta Delta Delta) and Linda Carfagno (Kappa Alpha Theta) were elected to compose her court.

Recent exchanges, the latest of which was with Alpha Delta Pi, at the chapter house turned out great, now that one of the brothers has learned that social functions are much more fun when not diluted or "watered down," with a fire hose.

Last, but certainly not least, the chapter's scholarship has improved a great deal, and though the official results have not come out, we are certain that it is well above the All Fraternity Average. Last semester's scholarship chairman, Pete Sidell, can't understand why a few of the "slower" fellows in the chapter don't manage to have averages that compare with his 3.9 overall.

I end this letter with a shaking hand, wondering who will be next to bite the dust and succumb to the "pin bin." My fears are well grounded, as in the past two weeks five brothers already have. When our dear brother Bill Allen falls, anybody can! Along that line, we wish our other brothers throughout the states as much social success as we have had.

U.S.C.—Delta Pi

Delta Pi Chapter is at the midpoint of the Spring semester following a successful Fall term. Highlights of the Fall social season were breakfast exchanges preceding home football games, sorority pledge football games, and the Las Vegas Formal.

The Fall pledge class initiated a program of football games among the pledge classes of the Kappas, DGs, Thetas, and Pi Phis. All games were played on the chapter grounds and proceeds went to the exchanges following the games. During one of the exchanges, the pledges featured a water festival.

The social season was capped by the Big Brother-Little Brother party and the Las Vegas Formal. A one-of-a-kind affair, little brothers had the event in a hollowed-out cave in the Santa Susana Mountains. The band stayed late, as several brothers with musical talent provided additional entertainment.

Shortly before Christmas, the brothers and dates trekked to Las Vegas for the annual formal. Housed at the Riviera Hotel, all enjoyed dinner followed by a presentation of A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum. The weekend was climaxed with lunch on Sunday.

Plans for the remainder of the semester include the annual Delt Mardi Gras to be co-sponsored this semester with the Kappas. For the all-university affair, the grounds will be turned into scenes reminiscent of 19th Century New Orleans. In addition, Thetas and Deltas will put on a private luau in May.

Greek Week revealed Tom Lamar as ADPi King. In addition, our Delt Queen was crowned as a Greek Week Princess at the end of the week.

Ames, Iowa was the site of the NCAA Swimming Championships at the University of Iowa. Winner of the national crown was USC led by Deltas Jim McGrath, John Poe, Bob Bennett, Rich McGeagh and Roy Saari. Roy Saari spearheaded the Trojans' drive to their third consecutive national swim title as he won both the 500m freestyle and 1650m freestyle. He set meet and American records in the last event.

At the time of writing, all were looking forward to the AAU National Championships. Pledges Mike Siebert and John Porter will represent the USC Frosh in the meet.

Currently, Songfest Chairman Al Goode has the brothers practicing with the Gamma Phis for the Spring Sing to be held at the Hollywood Bowl. The song is from Golden Boy, specifically the number "127th Street." The words have been changed to become a parody on the Row's 28th Street and life at USC.

Two additions to the Shelter have been made, as the chapter has adopted a pussycat and the Gamma Phis gave the brothers a goat. The goat has been named "Oolie II," after its predecessor of three years ago.

New officers are as follows: Steve Rivers, president; Al Roebuck, vice-president; Tom Lamar, recording secretary; J. Dee Burrell, corresponding secretary; Richard Adair, treasurer; Rich McGeagh, rush chairman; Earl Ward, house manager; and Larry Alessio, social chairman.

John LaBrucherie and Don Fuhrer are playing on the Rugby team. Bob Rogers, on the USC crew, was voted "Outstanding Sophomore Oarsman" by his teammates.

The brothers wish a quick recovery to Dave Levene who is currently in the hospital.

Eleven men pledged themselves to Delta Tau Delta this Spring—Jay Bingham, Jack Emmons, Clay Geilfuss, Joe Hohm, Dan Mitchell, Dave Peves, Jan Pluime, John Porter, Mike Siebert, Rick Williamson, and Roger Wong.

Delta Pi wishes a successful finish to a fine year to all Delt chapters.

Wabash—Beta Psi

Midway through the Spring semester the Beta Psi Deltas are actively participating in campus activities, athletics and intramurals.

Nineteen men of the Fall pledge class were initiated in March: Mike Akers, Jay Alexander, Stan Baker, Bob Brash, Jim Byrn, Dick Calloway, Jim Childress, Bob Furnish, Ed Garrigan, Wayne Kornas, Dave Noland, Ramon Parra, Bill Peelle, Nick Pitz, Walt Riesing, Mark Sutton, Gordon Thompson, Jim Tully, and Jim Williams. Three of these men were among our seven Dean's List achievers, headed by straight-A Bob Forsythe.

The chapter is adequately represented in Spring sports with lettermen Dennis Whigham, last year's MVP, and Jan Witteveld playing on the Little Giant baseball team. Dave Hadley, three year letterman, heads the golf team, with Bill Jefferson also getting a starting position. Several men are participating in freshman track, golf, and baseball.

Mike Hall, last year's IFC treasurer, was recently elected president of the Senior Council.

On the social scene the brothers are recovering from the initiation dance and are looking forward to our Spring Triad and Pan Hel, where we are defending our title of "Best Booth."

Our intramural teams have kept up with the fast pace set early in the year and hope to finish well among the top when the final points are totaled. The outlook is bright for Spring with our entire softball team returning.

Newly elected officers are: Dennis Whigham, president; Herb Heneman, vice-president; Bill Jefferson, corresponding secretary; Bob Forsythe, recording secretary; Tom Moorman, treasurer; and Bill Hudson, assistant treasurer.

At the present time we are holding Spring rush, and already have four pledges for next Fall. The future of Delta Tau Delta on the Wabash campus is bright and the completion of a new Shelter, at present in the planning stage, will make it brighter.

BILL JEFFERSON

Washington—Gamma Mu

We of Gamma Mu regret the death of Mrs. Mabel Chellin, our devoted cook.

For 16 years Mabel has been an inspiration to all who knew her. Gamma Mu Deltas will grieve her loss but will strive to carry on the tradition to which Mabel contributed so much.

With Spring quarter under way, Deltas at Washington look forward to the completion of another successful year in all aspects of fraternity life. Under a new administration headed by George Bray, president, and supported by Chuck Wiggins, vice-president; Mike Brown, treasurer; Glen Johnson, recording secretary; Steve Johnson, corresponding secretary; Rich Anderson, guide; and Bob Stackhouse, sergeant at arms, next year will again see Deltas at Washington striving to lead the way among the fraternities on campus.

In athletics, Deltas had several active participants. Dean Skorheim, a sophomore, played varsity basketball and shows great promise for next season. Brian Widerski, Pete Castle, and Gordie Phares represented the chapter in volleyball during the Winter, while Mickey Wright played frosh football. In Spring sports, Bob Davis is starting for the University baseball squad, while Tom Hart is catching for the freshman team. Steve Dillaway and Steve Bachman are currently training for the varsity and freshman track squads, respectively. Rich Anderson maintains his top-flight position on the varsity golf team and Jim Thompson is number two man on the freshman team. In crew, Carl Presley is rowing for the varsity, while Bruce Kirschner and Steve Averill are in the frosh boats.

The Delt intramural ski team placed second this Winter in the All-University meet, while our bowling and volleyball teams made the semi-finals. Also, Danny Bersch placed second in the annual Lake Sammamish Hill-Climb on his Honda 250 Scrambler.

Our second-to-none social program featured during Winter quarter the Active Dance at Snoqualmie Pass, highlighted by night-skiing and dancing, and the unforgettable Viva Zapata function which seems to get bigger and better each year. Spring quarter will bring the Spring Formal, a dinner-dance at Seattle's beautiful Hyatt House followed by the weekend Houseparty at scenic Mallard Cove. In addition, the year was highlighted by several exchanges, featuring such great Northwest bands as The Mercenaries and Hoss G. and the Ponderosas.

On campus, Deltas were, as usual, quite active. Pete Bianchi held an office in People-to-People, will be the senate majority leader in the upcoming Model Congress, and is currently working hard on his campaign for a Board of Control position. Steve Ellis served on the Executive Committee of Political Union and will be chairman of the rules committee in Model Congress. Chuck Lesnick served People-to-People as a committee chairman and is a sub-committee chairman for Model Congress. Jim Beyers is the current IFC scholarship chairman and will run for IFC 2nd vice-president in charge of rush. Ric Kellogg served as an officer in the Washington chapter of Young Republicans. Ed McLaughlin will hold a subcommittee chairmanship in Model Congress and Bob Groeschell has been active during the year in People-to-People.

The chapter maintained a grade-point well above the All Men's and All Fraternity Averages again last quarter. We recently initiated 14 neophytes and next quarter will see the initiation of several more. With such events as Model Congress with the Kappas, and Song Fest with the Tri Deltas, as well as Parents' Weekend, Spring quarter promises to be a rewarding one for Gamma Mu Deltas.

W. & J.—Gamma

The first semester got off to a fine start at Gamma Chapter by our quick capture of the Top Contributor Award for the United Fund. Each brother pledged a certain cash contribution, and also manhours of work on a chapter-run car wash, to help raise more contributions. Immediately following this accomplishment we captured the highly coveted first place for Homecoming decorations. Together these two achievements made for a fine Homecoming and Greek Swing-out.

Academically we moved up five places to fourth overall on campus, achieving a 2.699 average, with a number of brothers having averages above 3.4. This places the chapter well above the All Men's Average on campus. Top standing in the house was gained by Richard Hokaj, with a highly commendable 3.64 average.

Athletically our chapter was well represented, with Jim Stasik as defensive end in football, Rich Banchansky and Bob Patrizi as respective forward and guard in basketball, Tom Sorensen in wrestling, Bob Dittmann, as All-P.A.C. pitcher in baseball, and Jim Stasik, Gary Kendzior, and Rich Banchansky in track. Our chapter has been and should prove again to be a valuable asset to the College's success.

Our newly elected officers for Gamma Chapter are: John Ceraso, president; Jack Carey, vice-president; Rich Hokaj, treasurer; Gary Kendzior, recording secretary; and Ed LaMotta, corresponding secretary. We expect many fine accomplishments from these men.

The Pan-Hellenic Weekend on March 19, 1965 was a great success. The chapter had a Beatnik Party—a theme that the pledges selected and decorated for. Our seven pledges, who did a fine job, all look like they will become good and loyal Delts.

Our prom weekend is scheduled for April 30, 1965. This weekend includes our traditional formal ball, pool party, house party, and picnic, and should prove very enjoyable as well as aiding in the semester rushing.

Gamma Chapter signs off wishing good luck to all Delts, and extending an invitation to stop in anytime you're near W. & J.

EDWARD P. LAMOTTA

W. & L.—Phi

The Winter of 1964-65 was no exception to Phi's long history of recognition on the Washington and Lee University campus. Delts continued to succeed in all phases of campus life.

At the end of the first semester the Delts ranked third academically among the 18 national fraternities—well above the All Men's Average. Three significant achievements characterized the Delt's high scholastic standing: first, seven Delts were placed on the Honor Roll, an unusually high number; second, Morgan Kelley, a senior German major, was elected to Phi Beta Kappa; finally, Mike Saunders, a sophomore from Shelbyville, Kentucky, received the award given annually by the Virginia Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa to the sophomore with the highest average for his first three semesters at W. & L.

Saunders, an outstanding athlete as well as a top scholar, helped form the nucleus of the varsity basketball team, made up primarily of Delts. Heading the team was Delt captain Dick Livingston, the team's leading scorer and Most Valuable Player recipient. The third Delt starter on the team was junior center Bob Spessard, who sparked the team with his superb rebounding and rugged defensive play. Tom Crenshaw, 1964 football captain, also saw plenty of action on the team, and will captain the baseball team this Spring.

The varsity wrestling team was again dominated by Phi, with five of the eight regulars being Delts. Leader of the Delt contingent was Henry West, who captained the team and wrestled well all year in the 123-lb. class. Bobby Payne received the Outstanding Freshman Wrestler award, Jamie Andrew was elected captain of next year's team, and Warrie Stewart and John Bogart put many matches on ice through victories in the 177-lb., and unlimited classes, respectively. In the final match of the season, Stewart upset the state's outstanding 177-pounder with a decisive 6-2 decision.

In February, chapter elections were held. Rob Vaughan, Dean's List student and varsity track man from Petersburg, Virginia, was elected president. Other new officers are: Joe Miller, vice-president; Billy Andrews, recording secretary; Lance Bendann, corresponding secretary and rush chairman; Roger Milam, house manager; Bob Spessard, sergeant at arms; and Al Baker, guide. Jim Slay was honored as Outstanding Senior of the year.

Later in the month, 14 new Delts were initiated. Geoff Stone was selected as the Outstanding Pledge. Phi Chapter now has representatives from 18 states and the District of Columbia.

The infant, but very active, W. & L. chapter of the Circle K Club, a Kiwanis-affiliated service club, boasts six Delt members, including: Rob Vaughan (president), John Moore (secretary), Jim Oram, Jim Slay, Roger Milam, and Tom Holden.

Spring blossomed and so did Phi's plans for its new Shelter to replace the old one destroyed by fire in September. New plans will provide Phi with the largest and newest accommodations on campus, and will be completed by August 27. Special features include a sound-proof study room and an indestructible party room to handle the Delts' usual program of fine entertainment. Chuck Berry has been signed for our Spring Weekend.

Spring term looks promising with the start of another strong academic semester and a large number of Delts participating in intercollegiate athletics. Ten Delt lacrosse players are headed by Co-Captains Pat Robertson and Carroll Klingelhofer (an All-American candidate). Tom Crenshaw, captain of the baseball team, leads a group of four baseball players from Phi. Lee Johnson, next year's cross-country captain, and John Graham head a host of Delt trackmen, which includes hard-working discus partners Scott Miller and Fleet Hill, both of whom are tireless in their efforts. Lindsey Short will receive his fourth varsity tennis letter at the conclusion of this year's season.

Special thanks are in order to Phi's fine housemother, Mrs. Mary Chaney, for her gracious help to us.

LANCE BENDANN

Washington State— Epsilon Gamma

Epsilon Gamma Chapter has been busy with our annual Spring formal and the selection of our new Sally Sunshine. It's hard to make a choice this year because all of the contestants are excellent candidates.

We are also busy getting our softball team ready for intramural competition. Our bowling team is just finishing its schedule with a good record.

We held initiation on February 14 this semester. Also, we took several pledges between first and second semester.

On February 13 several of our men spent a day working at the community hospital as a part of our community service program. We have found that this helps us maintain good community relations, as well as good relations with the rest of the University.

Our chapter has had a greater interest in student government this year. We had a write-in candidate for student body president, and although we had good response, we could not get a substantial enough drive going before the election was held. Next year we plan to really beef up our campaign and go all out to get our candidate elected.

JIM POE

Wesleyan—Gamma Zeta

Sports, politics, and social events highlighted the Gamma Zeta calendar this Winter and early Spring. In sports, Brother Bob Ketcham was the New England 100-yard backstroke champion. Others on the varsity swimming team from the chapter this year included Dave Reynolds, Ihab Hassan, Paul Hammond, and Mike Ketcham. Fred Odell was the diver on this year's impressive squad, placing second in the New England event.

In other sports, Andy Barada and Doug Werner won squash letters, and Greg Trachick participated in judo; this was the first time Wesleyan has had varsity competition in the latter sport. Trachick won two matches and lost his third to a black-belter from Yale.

In chapter elections, Dave Griffith was unanimously chosen as president; an overwhelming mandate for the work he has been doing within the chapter since his pledge days. Other officers are: Tor Krieger, vice-president; Bill Anderson, treasurer; Jeff Oram-Smith, recording secretary.

Politically on campus, the Delts of Gamma Zeta were active as never before. Tor Krieger was elected president of the Glee Club; Jim McEnteer was elected to the College Body Committee; Dave Webb was elected treasurer of the junior class. This is the kind of involvement we hope will continue as a tradition in our chapter. In addition, Bill Sargent was re-elected president of the undergraduate fencing club, an organization which has been gaining greater support on campus over the last few years.

Paul Lindemuth was presented the Hammond Award this year; this plaque traditionally is given to the Gamma Zeta brother who most closely exemplifies the qualities of the ideal Delt. A senior, Paul went through Wesleyan on full scholarship, on a grant from the Edward M. Preble Scholarship Foundation of Lebanon Springs, New York. He was active in R.O.T.C., handball, Wesleyan Fire Department, and academics, graduating with an A- average. We feel Paul richly deserves the Hammond Award, and we know he'll go far.

HOWARD B. MATTHEWS

Gamma Delta's pledge class

West Virginia—Gamma Delta

Gamma Delta at West Virginia reaffirmed its top ranking among W.V.U.'s fraternities by pledging 36 outstanding men at the beginning of the Spring semester. This is the largest pledge class in several years, and the West Virginia Deltas feel that chapter teamwork in rush, two excellent summer rush parties, and the new system of deferred rush contributed to the new class' quality and size.

The elections of chapter officers in February also made news around Gamma Delta's Shelter. Tony Hylton handed over the president's gavel to Clair Myers. Other newly-elected officers include: Alan McClellan, vice-president; Tom Carras, treasurer; Ward Conaway, recording secretary; George Mullins, corresponding secretary; Clete Smith, sergeant at arms; David Lilly, house manager; and Don Rees, assistant treasurer.

On West Virginia's campus brothers of Gamma Delta continued to excel in extracurricular activities. Marshall Jarrett was appointed Student Body treasurer. In the student legislature Brothers Jim Suttle and Bill Ellis were elected speaker of the house and treasurer, respectively. Also Brother J. K. Lilly and Pledge Jim Arnold were elected student representatives to the legislature. Jay Bucklew was elected to the Interfraternity Council Honor Court. Ernie Hayes was elected chairman of the All-Campus Party. Brothers Dave Smith and Bill Dyer were selected for membership in Tau Beta Pi, national engineering honorary. Ray Pierce was appointed coordinator of the Greater West Virginia Weekend. Alan McClellan was appointed business manager for W.V.U.'s yearbook, the Monticola. For the second year Gamma Delta's own Wine Cellar Singers won first place honors in the Sphinx's Talent Show.

Gamma Delta's social events for the new school year began with a splash at the annual Sewer Party. During October, the Hallowe'en Party proved the talk of the campus. In December the Fall semester was concluded with the Christmas Formal transforming the Shelter into a Winter wonderland. The Shipwreck Party kicked off socially the Spring semester; the high spirits of all hands made the voyage a pleasant one. The month of May brought the curtain down on the year's social events: to begin the month there was the Wild West Party which had little trouble living up to its name, and then the year's high point, the Spring Formal.

Gamma Delta looks back with pride at past achievements, and looks forward with increased expectations.

Western Reserve—Zeta

Under the guidance of Rush Chairman Jim Sadowski, the Zeta Deltas once again proved their superiority in rush by pledging nine men, the largest pledge class on campus. The pledges were Vic Voinovich, who is president of the freshman class, Bill Powell, Cush Giesey, Jim Neville, Mike Dunn, Dave Heddon, Wayne Johnston, Jim Loveland, and Chris Loupas. A new rush function was initiated, a combination bowling and swim party at a local recreation center.

As the stretch drive begins toward the coveted All-Sports Trophy, Zeta Chapter again finds itself in the thick of contention. We have received fine individual efforts from Brothers Gerstenmaier and Yamokoski, as they led us to the University championship in badminton. Brother Gerstenmaier also represented the University in the PAC Championships held at Case Institute of Technology. Our football and basketball teams have also been major factors in our success.

Now that Spring intramural sports are upon us, we at Zeta are relying on Brothers Borner, Palmer, Burke, and Masternick to lead us to the championships in golf, as well as track and field. Our softball team will rely on the pitching of Brothers Lowe and Ault to carry through the season.

Much of our success must be attributed to our intramural manager Mike Beck, who plans and coordinates all the various intramural sports. The brothers of Zeta are proud of their past athletic record, and therefore are striving to make this year a successful one. And if everything occurs as planned, we should have the trophy on our mantel next September.

Elections were held in January with the following officers being elected: Tom MacFarland, president; Eric Eberhard, vice-president; Terry Craig, treasurer; Andrew Chubick, corresponding secretary; Jerry Roche, recording secretary; Tim Smith, assistant treasurer; John Tucker, guide; and John MacLaurin, sergeant at arms.

Three Deltas have received recognition by honorary organizations on campus. Brothers McMenamin and Koepke have been tapped for Omicron Delta Kappa, the men's honorary leadership fraternity on campus. This brings to four the number of Deltas in ODK. Brother Borner has been tapped for the honorary fraternity in architecture on campus.

In the Fall many Zeta seniors will be heading toward various graduate schools throughout the country. Brother Malinzak will attend Duke Law School; Brother McMenamin will enter Penn State Law School; Brother Koepke will enter University of Cincinnati School of Medicine; Brother Jobchen will attend Rochester Medical School; Brother Marsh will enter Stanford Medical School; Brother Pitkin will enter WRU's Law School; Brother Loue will begin graduate studies in mathematics at Bowling Green State University; Brother Tittle will enter WRU's Law School; Brother Howard will attend Reserve's Law School.

In varsity sports at Reserve, Zeta Deltas have made an outstanding contribution. In basketball, Brothers Loue, Burke, and Kuendig have completed another season. Brother Rogers, a member of the freshman basketball team has completed an excellent season, scoring 18 points per game, which was high on the frosh team. Brother Roche has completed a brilliant wrestling season with the Reserve matmen, compiling a record of eight wins, two losses and one tie; he is looking forward to an even better season next year.

In the upcoming spring varsity sports, Delta Tau Delta again holds its own. Brothers Neal and Loue will be participating in track, with Brother Loue as captain of this year's team. In baseball Brother Tittle is hopeful of another fine year at shortstop; last year he was placed on the All-PAC baseball team and should repeat again this year; he was also elected captain of the team. In golf the Delts will again reign supreme: Brother Nolfi heads up the list as first man and captain of the team; other members include Alexander, Gerstenmaier, Masternick, Arnold, and Palmer.

On the social calendar we are looking forward to Greek Week and a victory in Singout, an interfraternity party, and the Spring Formal.

ANDREW CHUBICK

Whitman—Delta Rho

Delta Rho's second semester began on a successful note, as an enthusiastic rush netted us ten new men. They are John Ashmun (pledge class president), Steve Levy, Paul Searbe, Grant Lau, Charlie Chong, Mike Day, John Lawler, Robbie Craig, Rick Johnson, and Roy Wright.

Chapter elections found Delta Rho's new officers as follows: Craig Lesley, president; J. R. Sundeen, vice-president; Tom Church, treasurer; John Silko, corresponding secretary; and Whit Jones, recording secretary.

Our social season began with a highly successful Monte Carlo Casino party, thanks to able Social Chairman Ned Quistorff. The highlight of the evening was a bubble dance by Queen Marilyn Styrwall.

Song Leader Tom Church led the Delt Chorus to second place in Whitman's annual Choral Contest.

Again this semester, many Delts are active in campus affairs. Newlywed Al Zack is serving as president of the Young Democrats. The chapter is currently supporting him in his campaign for Student Body president. Freshman Lee Spencer appears to have nailed down the third base position on Whitman's varsity nine. Also representing the chapter are debaters Mal Higgins and John Silko. The biggest failure for the chapter this semester has been its inability to keep mascot Do Do out of the local pound.

Four Delts, Bob Steele, Tom Church, Craig Lesley, and Mal Higgins were placed on the Dean's List of Academic Distinction. Past President Gordon Tobin was tapped for membership by the Whitman College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

Returning veterans "Hot Hands" Shimada, "Weak Zeke" Catlin, and "Fireball" Tobin hope to lead the Delt nine to its second consecutive I.M. softball championship.

GORDON TOBIN

Willamette—Epsilon Theta

As Spring advances, the Delts of Epsilon Theta anxiously await their mid-semester grade reports. The Delts started the Spring semester by pledging 17 top-notch men. Thereafter, four men were initiated as members, to boost the number of pledges and members to a total of fifty.

Both Steve Yoshihara and Barry Howard have been granted assistantships. Steve's assistantship is at the University of Oregon, and Barry's at Northwestern. Accepted into medical school is Dave Fairbrook, who will attend the University of Washington. Also planning to attend the University of Washington is Wes Armstrong, who was accepted for dental school.

Captured in the campus scene is Ed Cole, Student Body president, who will finish a very successful year this spring. Among the freshmen pledges are the first- and second-semester presidents. Brother Sam Nebel is junior class sergeant at arms. Chairman of the spring blood drive is John Bingham.

The Delts did a fine job in the Freshman Glee, a song festival. In fact, so many Delts were active in this all-campus activity, it became known as the "Delta Glee."

The new Epsilon Theta officers are: Bruce Imai holding the presidency, Steve Miller serving as vice-president, Randy Kuhn as recording secretary, Keith Johnston as corresponding secretary, and Bill Blair as treasurer.

Currently we have chosen our four princesses and await our Spring house dance to crown our queen.

Focusing on athletics, we have not done too well in intramurals; however, Brothers Pat and Wes Armstrong are starting a fine track season, along with Pledge Fred Mueller.

In order to help a Negro friend of alumnus Ken Rich, working with the African Peace Corps, the Delts sponsored a bottle drive. The African native needed help in acquiring certificates for medical school.

A cordial invitation is extended to any Delt traveling in this area.

KEITH JOHNSTON

Wisconsin—Beta Gamma

On December 5, 1964 the Wisconsin Delts initiated ten new members. Among them are: Steve Eberly, Wauwatosa, '67; John Hetterick, Milwaukee, '67; Dan Jenkins, Lake in the Hills, Illinois, '66; Bill Klingberg, Moline, Illinois, '67; John Melham, Northport, New York, '67; Tom Neubauer, Milwaukee, '67; John Reynolds, Madison, '66; John Robinson, White Plains, New York, '67; Jim Ruppel, Sheboygan, '66; and Tom Wurl, Appleton, '67.

Shortly after initiation, the officers for 1965 were elected, and include: president, Orrin Gabsch, Cleveland, Wisconsin; vice-president, James Gadbaw, Wau-pun; treasurer, Jan Pollnow, Neenah; assistant treasurer, Tom Wurl, Appleton; recording secretary, Paul Wong, Milwaukee; and corresponding secretary, Tom Neubauer, Milwaukee.

Late in February, seven were pledged after a successful rush. The new pledges include: Mike Anderson, Burlington, '68; Bill Bischoff, Lake Geneva, '68; Cassius Chinske, Racine, '66; Mark Gross, Madison, '68; Bob Holzrichter, Burlington, '68; Bob Moldenhauer, Minneapolis, Minnesota, '68; and Don Morrison, Fort Atkinson, '68.

And, finally, we are especially proud to announce the newest Delts at Beta Gamma, initiated on Saturday, April 3: Alex Anagnost, Oak Park, Illinois, '67; Bruce Barman, Kenosha, '67; Steve Bergum, Rio, Wisconsin, '67; Pete Bullock, Wauwatosa, '67; Don Lange, Columbus, '67; Bruce Larson, Kenosha, '67; Robert Larson, Burlington, '68; Steve Lobeck, Columbus, '67; Tom Parks, Milwaukee, '67; Neil Palash, West Bend, '67; Leon Schmidt, Wis. Rapids, '67; Davey Scoon, Madison, '68; Jim Sengstock, Milwaukee, '67; Andy Watson, Chicago, Illinois, '68; and Bob Wellauer, Wauwatosa, '67.

Ball State—

Pi Delta Gamma (Colony)

Spring finds Pi Delta Gamma concerning itself with several areas of campus activity. We find Brothers Dale Issregg, Dick Huntoon, Mike McGuire, and Fred Strantz participating in varsity volleyball, track, field, and tennis, respectively. Other Pi Delts are playing intramural Greek league softball while the pledges play in the IFC Pledge Basketball Tourney. We are planning our first closed dance for May 1. The theme will be "We've been Delt with" and the dance will be held in Indianapolis. We are proud of the fact that in our first time in the All Greek Variety Show, Pi Delta Gamma was part of the second place skit. Election time finds two Pi Delts running for campus government offices, and another two running one of the two campus political parties.

The end of Spring formal rush brought the pledging of ten men to Pi Delta Gamma. As this was our first formal rush we are quite happy with the results. We are going to continue to pledge men throughout open rush until the end of of Spring quarter. The pledge class grade average was over a 2.5.

Grade results from Winter quarter finds several brothers over a 3.0 grade point ratio with chapter Treasurer Dan Hockney heading our academic list with a 4.0 grade point ratio.

Pi Delta Gamma's last elections found Tom Murray replacing Dennis Hockney as president, Robin Russell taking over from Gary Turner as vice-president, Carl St. Myer assuming the office of secretary from Chuck Twa, and Dan Hockney remaining as treasurer.

Scotty Retires

By ROBERT ROHRER
Emory, '67

MRS. EMMA SCOTT ("SCOTTY"), who has been Beta Epsilon's housemother since 1959, was forced to retire this year because of poor health.

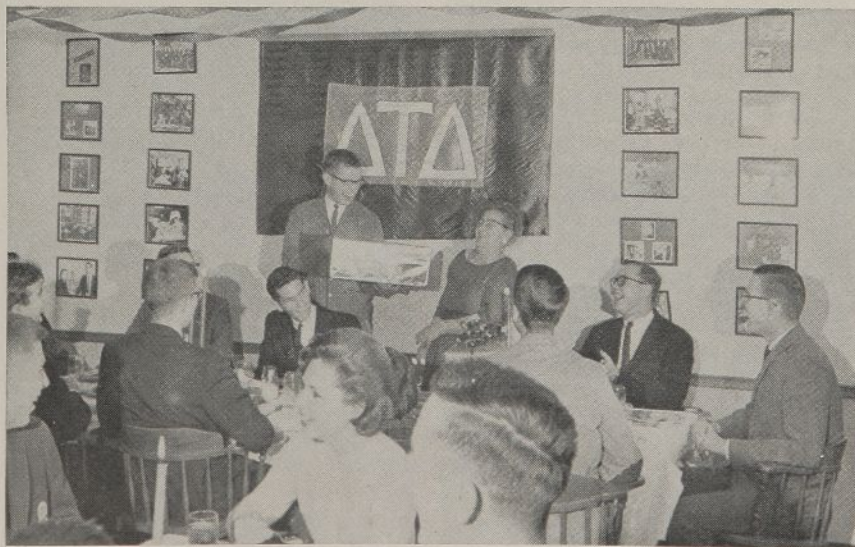

To the men in the chapter, losing Scotty was a difficult thing. She gave so much to Beta Epsilon during her six years here that she came to be almost an extra member of each brother's family. She had an infectious cheerfulness, a deep, outgoing quality that extended to all the men in the chapter.

She was an able manager—her savings in the chapter's table fund and her prudent advice contributed greatly to the financial stability that led to the addition of a new wing to the Shelter—but to Scotty, her position as housemother was not just a job, it was a way of life. All of her activities and loyalties centered around the chapter.

Scotty was an energetic and imaginative worker, and she gave generously of herself for the improvement, advancement, and pleasure of the chapter. She chaperoned parties till the early hours of the morning without complaint, made costumes for skits held annually at Emory, thought up original ideas for making the house more like a home, maintained active correspondence with many Delt alumni, worked closely with the university administration for unfailingly good relations between the chapter and school officials, and was an enthusiastic and effective rusher.

Scotty worked for the chapter—not because her contract so required, but because her love for Delta Tau Delta compelled her to. Scotty threw her entire being into the complex organism that is Beta Epsilon. She made herself the very heart of the chapter. Her contribution to Beta Epsilon cannot be measured, because she gave to it every moment she lived in the Shelter, and because she will go on giving to it every moment she lives in the memories of the men who knew and loved her.

As one brother said, her departure "leaves a void that it is difficult even to attempt to fill."

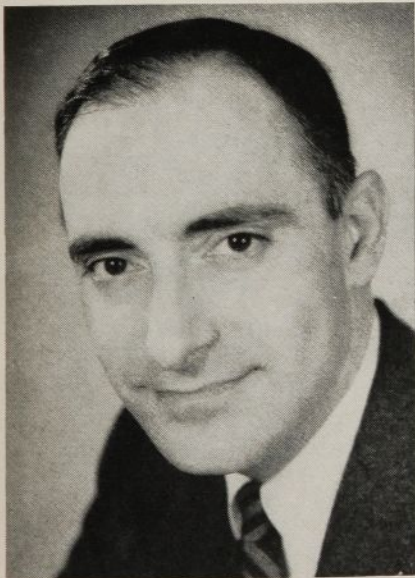

Mrs. SCOTT receives gift from grateful chapter

"Tall in the (Western) Saddle" Bob Kroening Elected Western Division President

DELEGATES TO THE Western Division Conference were unanimous in choosing Robert W. Kroening, Westminster, '45, as their new President. This marks another link in the long chain of Fraternity service which Bob has forged ever since his undergraduate days at Delta Omicron Chapter, where he had the thankless job of scholarship chairman for what was then the campus "jock" house.

Following his graduation from Westminster, Bob entered law school at Washington University in St. Louis. Upon receiving his LL.B., he entered the practice of law in St. Louis. Taking an active interest in politics, he became vice-chairman of the National Federation of Young Republicans in 1949, serving until 1953, and was president of the Missouri Y. R. Federation in 1951. He also served as assistant to U. S. Senator James P. Kem, of Missouri.

ROBERT W. KROENING

Bob is a member of the St. Louis law firm of Martin, Kroening & Kelly, and resides in Creve Coeur, Missouri, with his wife and three children. He remains active in civic affairs, serving as trustee for a large St. Louis hospital, a director of a local children's home, and president of the congregation of his church.

Delta Tau Delta is in Bob Kroening's blood. He has been a member of the Westminster chapter's house corporation since 1954, having served as treasurer three years, and another three as president. In 1957 he became Delta Omicron's chapter adviser, and rare indeed is the chapter meeting he has missed since then—making a 204-mile round trip to Fulton each Monday night. Most of the "misses" were due to his attendance at meetings of the Gamma Kappa Chapter, which he simultaneously served as adviser for some two years, until a permanent adviser could be found.

On a wider Fraternity stage, Bob has served as a Western Division vice-president, with jurisdiction over the five undergraduate chapters and six alumni chapters in Kansas and Missouri. He has been treasurer and president of the St. Louis Alumni Chapter. Unofficial "Ritualist" of the Fraternity, Bob has been in charge of the Ritual teams for three chapter installations and several other major occasions, including the Model Initiation at the last two Karneas. He is currently serving as chairman of the Ritual Revision Committee established by the Sixty-sixth Karnea. He has made official investigations for the Fraternity, both of possible fields for expansion and of existing chapters and their institutions. And, as a forceful speaker, he is much in demand to address Delt gatherings.

Bob Kroening brings to the leadership of the Western Division enthusiasm, vigor, and administrative know-how; he also brings to the Arch Chapter his own balance of youthful aggressiveness and mature restraint. Delta Tau Delta is well served by such as Robert W. Kroening.

We can then summarize the purpose of Delta Tau Delta in these words: To make the years you spend in your chapter house so rich and valuable to you that their influence will be a continuing force for good throughout your life, and that through that influence you may become a great force in the life of others.

"Hap" Chandler, 150-Percenter

AT THE AGE OF NINE, "Hap" Chandler went to work in a grocery store to help support his family. He continued to work at various jobs throughout his school and college years. With this groundwork and preparation, his subsequent success as a business executive is not astounding, but his career has nonetheless brought high honor with his recent selection as recipient of a "Horatio Alger Award." The awards are made annually to men and women who have "pulled themselves up by their bootstraps in the American Tradition." They are sponsored by the American Schools and Colleges Association, and determined by vote of campus leaders of 100 universities and colleges.

The awards committee describes Mr. Chandler's formula for success as "hard work, 50 per cent; adherence to high moral standards, 50 per cent; involvement in communal affairs, 50 per cent." The committee explains that the Georgia-born businessman "has always crammed into his daily life at least half again the usual quota of responsibilities."

Among other award winners in this year's balloting are the Rev. Billy

Hap Chandler

Graham; William A. Patterson, president of United Air Lines; and Paul Carnahan, chairman of the board of National Steel Corporation. Past winners over the 19-year history of the award include former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, authoress Pearl Buck, and elder statesman Bernard Baruch.

Mr. Chandler demonstrated his leadership abilities early. He was president and valedictorian of his graduating grammar school class in Atlanta, president of each junior high school class, and president or vice-president of all his high school classes. His secondary school honors included an award as "Best All Around Bandman" and he was first prize winner in a statewide Baptist Church-sponsored oratorical contest.

A graduate of Emory University, where he was vice-president of the Delt chapter, Mr. Chandler also attended Georgia Tech and Atlanta Law School. He holds an honorary degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration from the Detroit Institute of Technology, where he is a member of the board of trustees. As an undergraduate his extracurricular activities (in addition to hard work) included boxing, football, baseball, debating, and playing in the college band and orchestra. He is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa national leadership honorary and Alpha Delta Sigma professional advertising fraternity.

During World War II he served as an officer in the Navy and participated in nine major Pacific invasions, receiving a citation and Commendation Ribbon from the Seventh Fleet commander, Adm. T. C. Kincaid.

After the Navy, Mr. Chandler served successively with the Mead-Atlanta Paper Company and Union Bag-Camp Paper Corporation. He was vice-president of sales with the latter company in 1955, when he was brought in as chairman of the board of Standard Packaging Corporation, a position he still holds. In the 10 years under his leadership Stan-Pak has grown from six divisions with sales of $24,000,000 to 27 divisions with sales exceeding $154,000,000.

Mr. Chandler is also chairman of the board of J. D. Jewell, Inc., of Gainesville, Georgia, and a director of Standard Security Life Insurance Company of New York and Uncle John's Restaurants, Inc., and has served on some 32 boards of directors of other well known companies.

He is an active worker in educational and charitable fund-raising drives and makes frequent visits to the American Youth Foundation Camp in Michigan to talk with college age boys about the relationship between business success and morality.

The committee was 150 per cent correct in selecting "Hap" Chandler for the "Horatio Alger Award."

What Next, Mr. McEnteer?

By HOWARD B. MATTHEWS

DESPITE THE TRAGEDY of the fire this year, in many ways this has been the best year Gamma Zeta Chapter has enjoyed. This is due in large part to the way the brothers have rallied together and generated a fantastic esprit de corps, and also because of the fierce determination which individuals have shown in a wide variety of activities. One such individual, though only a sophomore, and a brother for less than a year, epitomizes the Good Delt in service to his chapter, his campus, and the wider community.

Jim McEnteer does not at first seem different from scores of other college students or fraternity men. Quiet and soft-spoken, his modest veneer hides an efficient dynamism that has enabled him to excel in many phases of college life. A complete listing of his activities would be so lengthy as to be embarrassing to Jim, and perhaps tiresome to the reader, but several of his major accomplishments will illustrate his abilities and illumine his character.

Jim was recently elected to the College Body Committee, the five-man governing board of Wesleyan's student body. He was the first sophomore ever to be elected to this committee, the offices traditionally going to juniors. He received the second highest number of votes of any candidate.

Interested in world affairs, Jim spent last summer in the Union of South Africa on a study grant. He met and interviewed many high government officials and other dignitaries in that country, and presented a paper on his experience before Honors College this Fall.

Noted author Paul Horgan, a resident at Wesleyan, was so impressed with Jim's interest and ability in literature that he asked Jim to help him do research for his next novel. The book is to be about Alaska, and Jim is planning to travel to that state with Mr. Horgan later in the year.

Earlier this year Jim appeared on the podium with Allen Ginsberg for a poetry reading at Harvard University, and was well received by the more than 700 Harvard and Radcliffe students who jammed Lowell House for the occasion.

Nor are Jim's interests confined to the intellectual realm. He participates in two varsity sports, and in a number of community service projects. It is evident that Jim is a well-rounded person, involved in very diverse activities. We are proud of members like Jim McEnteer, who have shown that even in the face of adversity (loss of property and class notes in the fire) and perhaps especially then, they can maintain the spirit and tradition so integral to Delthood.

Hi, Ho, Come to the Fair!

Oklahoma's Finest, The Sooner Guides

EIGHT UNDERGRADUATE Delts have gained laurels for their chapters by being chosen as Sooner Guides at the State of Oklahoma exhibit at the New York World's Fair. Three have already served, in the 1964 season, and five more are slated for duty during the 1965 season. Last year the University of Oklahoma's Delta Alpha Chapter sent Grayson Van Horn, '66, and Delta Chi Chapter of Oklahoma State sent Chris Burnett, '66, and Bill Oden, '66. This year, each has enlarged its contingent, with Delta Alpha supplying Tom Dodson, '66, and Lloyd Whittall, Jr., '67, and Delta Chi contributing Robert Gibson, '66, Charles Miller, '65, and Everett Murphy, III, '67.

Thirty-two young men were selected each year, from a total of over 250 applicants, and underwent a very thorough screening, first by a committee of faculty members, personnel specialists, industrial leaders, and fellow-students, and then by a final judging team at the Governor's home. Each applicant's background, grade average, college skills, and accomplishments were analyzed, and he was judged on personality, knowledge of his state, appearance, and general manner.

"If it sounds as if we carried on a small-scale Miss America contest for young men, that's about what it amounted to," commented Robert S. Boyd, executive director of the Oklahoma World's Fair Commission, "... we were dedicated to finding young men who are as representative of Oklahoma as Miss America is of the United States."

The work in store for the Guides includes maintenance of the Oklahoma exhibit and answering all questions that visitors may have about the Sooner State. In preparation for the job, the men attend a series of lectures and orientation sessions in which they acquire a vast fund of information about Oklahoma, and they take a tour of the state. They are primed and ready, so if you are able to get to the Fair this summer, be sure to drop in on them. In addition to getting the facts on Oklahoma, you will find, amid the multilingual throng at the Fair, "Delt Spoken Here."

THE ALUMNI CHAPTERS

ATLANTA

The Atlanta Alumni Chapter held its Founders Day Banquet on April 2, at Yohannon's Restaurant. This affair was the first formal function of the chapter since its revival after a few years' dormancy. Attending were Delts, their wives, and dates, from the Georgia, Emory, and Georgia Tech undergraduate chapters, and from the Atlanta area alumni. Total attendance was approximately seventy-five.

After a delicious dinner of lobster or roast beef, Atlanta Alumni President Bayley Walker, Georgia Tech, '59, welcomed the guests. Charlie Hoskins, Tennessee, '62, undergraduate chairman, introduced the chapter presidents to make reports on their chapters. Reporting for Georgia was Jerry Bigner; for Emory, Hal Crumly; and for Georgia Tech, John Shields. Mike Pou, Florida State, '60, vice-president of Atlanta Alumni Chapter, gave a report on alumni affairs.

A group from the Emory chapter called "The Backroom Trio Plus One" entertained with a medley of songs. This "trio" was made up of David Drew, Albert Vincent, John Disher, and Mike McKinnon.

The banquet speaker was a distinguished alumnus, Dean William Tate, Georgia, '24, veteran Dean of Men at the University of Georgia, introduced by Rhett Tanner, Georgia, '60. The dean entertained the guests with humorous anecdotes on a number of subjects and stimulated them with his thoughts on the growth of higher education in Georgia, and on the benefits fraternity life can afford in preparing a young man to meet the pressures of the "mass" culture. The dean's primary emphasis was on the opportunity that living in the fraternity atmosphere grants for learning to judge people—a universally desirable and necessary talent.

Present officers of the Atlanta Alumni Chapter, in addition to Walker and Pou, are Bill Fackler, Emory, '60, secretary, and Steve Wilenchek, Georgia Tech, '60, treasurer. Bill Mitchell, Georgia Tech, '59, was chairman of the Founders Day committee and did an excellent job of arranging the banquet, but was unable to attend. He was ably assisted by Bob Kennedy, Georgia Tech, '62, and Jim St. John, Georgia Tech, '59, membership chairman. Other committee chairmen are Wally Smith, Georgia Tech, '55, program, and Rhett Tanner, public relations.

The officers, chairmen and members of the committees, and the Atlanta area undergraduates have done yeoman service in re-establishing the Atlanta Alumni Chapter. It is the desire of all that every alumnus in the Atlanta area get in touch with us to establish contact with the chapter.

RHETT TANNER.

CLEVELAND

On March 12, eighty-five alumni and undergraduates celebrated Founders Day at Stouffer's Dining Room in Cleveland. The main attraction at such a gathering is the opportunity to renew old friendships and make new acquaintances, especially with our undergraduate brother Delts. This we did as we observed the 107th anniversary of our Fraternity and the 84th anniversary of Zeta Chapter at Western Reserve University, with our ever-helpful Bob Hartford, Ohio, '36, (now a member of the "Fallen Arches"), as toastmaster.

Zeta's adviser, Dr. GLEN YANKEE, with seniors at the E. V. HENCKEL Bowl

One of the most outstanding features we have ever had was the address by Willis "Bid" Edmund, Ohio, '28, who interpreted the relation of college students and faculty to the problems of the day. In spite of the serious conclusions, he presented his thoughts with good humor as well as conviction. He pointed out that the basic definition of a fraternity man given by Bishop Hughes can never be obsolete, outmoded, or distorted. The desirable fraternity man must become much concerned and excited about his own behavior and about the ideals which require him to live usefully, nobly, and wisely. Among college people, however—and therefore also in fraternities and among faculty members—there are people who resent good breeding and who advocate much that is vulgar, indecent, unpatriotic, and immoral. In 1965 (witness the recent news from campuses in California and New York) they delight in being disgustingly obscene. They brazenly claim that their nauseating behavior is an American privilege, a constitutional right, a modern concept of civilized society. Our speaker pointed out that the intense drive for security today is as fanciful and disastrous as Shakespeare portrayed it in Macbeth, with the witches' brew.

The Alumni Service Award was given to Carl C. Heintel, Western Reserve, '38. In making the presentation, Clem Frank said that our great Delta Tau Delta, like any national fraternity worthy of its heritage, must continue to find men of sound character and above-average ethical standards; men of loyalty, of sacrifice, of kindness, of helpfulness; men who do not hide behind the First Amendment or the Fifth Amendment; men who recognize and seek to repay the guidance, the teaching, the spiritual value which touched them during their four years of college. They are a witness to the ever increasing riches of fraternity friendships which endure for a lifetime. It is in recognition of these attributes that this award was made to Carl Heintel.

DALLAS

Dan Krausse, Texas, '46, vice-president of Dresser Industries, Inc., addressed the Dallas Alumni Chapter at a dinner meeting Monday, January 18. He was introduced by William C. Herndon, a classmate at the University. Krausse showed a film on the far-reaching Dresser operations and spoke briefly on current developments in the company. The program was especially enjoyable because Dresser is an important Dallas-based firm which carries on most of its activities outside Texas. Krausse is another example of a young man who has gotten ahead by hard work and determination, and his talk was an inspiration especially to the young men in the audience.

John P. Harbin, Texas, '39, was presented the Alumni Service Award by Lloyd Birdwell on behalf of the Dallas Alumni Chapter.

On Friday, February 12, Deltas and their sweethearts were the guests of the Sloane McCauleys for the second annual Valentine Party. The McCauley home was decorated appropriately for the occasion, and much reminiscing was the order of the evening. Several generations of Deltas were present, including many who had not been on hand for Delt functions recently.

The new slate of officers elected to guide the Dallas Alumni Chapter for the current year includes Shannon Francis, president; John A. Cole, vice-president; Richard A. Smith, secretary; and Robert Dickson, treasurer. Peyton Townsend will co-ordinate the rush activities of the alumni chapter with undergraduate chapters in the area. Any Delt group with interest in boys from the Dallas area should write Peyton at 4141 Shenandoah, Dallas.

FORT COLLINS

The Fort Collins Alumni Chapter was organized November 6, 1964, for the purpose of assisting in the formation of a Delt colony on the campus of Colorado State University. Officers of the alumni group are Robert J. Johnson, president; David G. Atkinson, vice-president; and John D. Hartman, secretary-treasurer.

Under the name of Crescent Club, a thriving colony has been established at Colorado State. The membership is already over 40, and it is hoped to have 60 members by the end of the Spring quarter. The alumni chapter is forming a house corporation, which will obtain rental quarters for the colony this Fall.

JOHN D. HARTMAN

HOUSTON

Two Western Division vice-presidents, Robert W. Kroening of Creve Coeur, Missouri, and Houston's own Hirst Suffield, were present at a Delt reception given on the evening of March 22 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Butler. The chapter's new president, William D. Bonham, supervised arrangements. The affair, brilliantly successful, was attended by 70 Deltas and wives.

The traditional Christmas party was at the Bonham home, and a like number of guests showed up for the twilight open house.

One luncheon was held during 1964, with some 35 Deltas gathering at Houston's new Petroleum Club to hear a talk by District Attorney Frank Briscoe. Hirst Suffield at that time reported on his activities regarding possible new Delt chapters in this area.

President Bonham has confirmed May 8 as the date for an elaborate dinner which will honor a number of distinguished Deltas, among them Justice Tom Clark of the United States Supreme Court. This will be held at a downtown hotel. Justice Clark, Vice-President of the Fraternity, will deliver the principal address.

A number of Deltas from Houston, including Distinguished Service Chapter members Claxton Parks and Silas Ragsdale, Sr., attended the statewide Founders Day affair April 10 in Austin.

Chapter officers for the current year, in addition to President Bonham, include Harold R. DeMoss, Jr., vice-president; Richard Keeton, secretary; and Wayne Dotson, treasurer.

Distributed shortly after the first of the year was a new directory of the alumni chapter. This project, started under the regime of immediate past president John Evans, was whipped into shape by a committee headed by Lucian R. Smith.

INDIANAPOLIS

The Indianapolis Alumni Chapter held its annual State Day on Saturday, February 13, for the alumni and for undergraduates of the five Delt chapters in Indiana.

The basketball tournament was won by the Indiana University chapter team, in a close and exciting contest. The I. U. Deltas also captured the prize for the best skit at the banquet Saturday evening.

The banquet, held at the Indianapolis Athletic Club, was emceed by the personable Edwin H. Hughes, III. The principal speaker was Dr. Joseph D. Boyd, DePauw, '48, President of the Northern Division of Delta Tau Delta. Dr. Boyd gave an inspiring and challenging address to the 310 Deltas and Delt queens present, emphasizing the vitality of the fraternity system at American colleges and universities, and outlining means to disarm our critics.

National President Arnold Berg spoke briefly to the banquet audience.

Each chapter sponsored a candidate for State Delt Queen. Choosing among these young ladies was a difficult but enviable task, with Miss Lorri Woodcock, sponsored by the DePauw chapter, being named Queen.

This year an Attendance Trophy was inaugurated, to go to the chapter with the great proportion of its undergraduates, and Indianapolis area alumni, attending the banquet. Wabash took this trophy home.

JACKSON

The Jackson (Mississippi) Alumni Chapter has met and reorganized, electing the following officers: William C. Reed, Jr., Mississippi, '37, president; Stephen L. Beach, Mississippi, '31, vice-president; and Alton B. Clingan, Jr., Auburn, '60, secretary-treasurer. Meetings are planned for the first Monday of each month.

The immediate goal of the alumni chapter is to bring about the reactivation of Pi Chapter at the University of Mississippi, and there is a very encouraging response from Deltas throughout the state.

ALTON B. CLINGAN, JR.

MINNESOTA

During the past year the social calendar of the Minnesota Alumni Chapter was enriched by the addition of a cocktail hour during the Christmas holiday season in honor of those brothers visiting the area during this time. The appearance of many of our vagabond brothers made the event an instant success and assured its place on the annual calendar.

The highlight of the year was the Founders Day Banquet, held April 9. One hundred fifty brothers, including undergraduate members of Beta Eta Chapter at Minnesota, were privileged to hear Dean of Students E. G. Williamson of the University of Minnesota speak on "The Role of Fraternities in an Expanding University."

At the banquet Brothers Otto Silha and Fred Souba were presented Alumni Service Awards for their work with the undergraduate chapter, the alumni chapter, and the community as a whole.

The evening ended with a showing of filmed highlights of the Minnesota Vikings' 1964 season, and special cheers were heard when the action involved Brother Tom Hall.

NATIONAL CAPITAL

We have been much encouraged by the attendance at our regular monthly luncheons. These meetings have produced lively discussions, with good fellowship prevailing. Many new faces are appearing, especially out-of-town Deltas and newcomers to Washington. The last luncheon featured an illustrated talk on "Water Pollution" by Mr. William E. Bullard of the U. S. Public Health Service.

As of April 6, some 130 Deltas have made contributions to support the activities of the National Capital Alumni Chapter. We are especially proud of those Deltas who no longer live in the area, yet continue to send in contributions, including several unsolicited contributions designated to be applied toward the cost of tickets for undergraduates of the George Washington chapter.

Although the SAE's outnumber the Deltas in Metropolitan Washington, we have had better success with our Founders Day dinners which we continue to hold at the National Press Club. The dinner this year is scheduled for Friday, April 23, with Norman MacLeod, Pittsburgh, '17, past President of Delta Tau Delta and past Chairman of the Committee of the Distinguished Service Chapter, as principal speaker. Norm is now on the Executive Committee of the National Interfraternity Conference.

There will be a "good fellowship hour" starting at 6 p.m., for Deltas to renew old acquaintances and establish new ones, with dinner served at 7 p.m. The program will conclude around 9 p.m., with the singing of familiar Delt songs. The affair is stag.

Immediately following the dinner will be the annual election meeting of the Delta Sigma (Maryland) house corporation.

ROBERT E. NEWBY

NEW ORLEANS

Founders Day observance was combined this year with the celebration of the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of Beta Xi Chapter at Tulane University. The banquet, held March 22 at Kolb's Restaurant, brought out a record number of Deltas to enjoy the festivities.

David Womack, a recent initiate at Tulane, gave a splendid resume of the history of Beta Xi Chapter, in commemoration of the chapter's Diamond Anniversary. J. Phares O'Kelley responded for the alumni, giving a vivid running account of Delta Tau Delta in Louisiana. Col. Richard C. B. Whitten, immediate past president of the New Orleans Alumni Chapter, added some interesting comments on the past of Beta Xi Chapter and gave a charge for the future.

William J. Fraering, vice-president of the Southern Division of the Fraternity, presented up-to-the-minute data on plans for expansion of Delta Tau Delta in Louisiana, Mississippi, and Alabama. He announced the recent chartering of an alumni chapter in Baton Rouge.

President Walter J. Verlander presented the 1964 Alumni Service Awards, on behalf of the New Orleans Alumni Chapter, to Paul Morphy, Jr. and Phares A. Frantz.

Our evening of good fellowship closed with the singing of "Delta Shelter" and the traditional Delt Walk-around, led by Dr. Emile Naef.

JOHN M. HOLMES

PORTLAND

At the monthly luncheon meeting held April 5, the Portland (Oregon) Alumni Chapter chose officers for the year ahead. Gene W. Rossman, Washington, '31, was re-elected president. Others chosen were James Fisher, Oregon State, '54, vice-president; Edward Poehler, Oregon, '45, secretary; and Ralph Didriksen, Idaho, '43, treasurer.

Plans are underway to make Portland the focal point of Delta Tau Delta during the 1966 Karnea.

JOSEPH ADAIR, JR.

ST. LOUIS

About 65 Deltas attended the Founders Day Banquet held April 9 at the Holiday Inn South. Present were delegations from Delta Omicron Chapter at Westminster, Gamma Kappa Chapter at Missouri, and the host, the St. Louis Alumni Chapter. Alumni President Don Otto moderated the get-together which was filled with the advertised "fun, frivolity, and fellowship."

The meeting included activity reports from the two undergraduate chapters, brief comments by the new Western Division President, Bob Kroening, and an address by the Reverend Allen Oakley.

Reverend Oakley, Westminster, '52, long noted for his wit and speaking ability, proved once again that the only thing better than a good speaker is a good speaker who is a Delt.

President Otto reported that the future activities of the alumni chapter would include a showing of a film about the world champion St. Louis Cardinals baseball team, and the staging of a rush party for the benefit of the Missouri and Westminster chapters.

Alumni Service Awards Presented

IN MAY, 1961, the Arch Chapter established the Alumni Service Awards, whereby alumni chapters may recognize extraordinary service by an alumnus to an undergraduate chapter or an alumni chapter. Recipients must be alumni of 15 years, in good standing in the Fraternity. A maximum of two awards in any year is authorized each alumni chapter.

Five alumni chapters have reported a total of seven awards since the last issue of THE RAINBOW. The awards by the Dallas and Topeka chapters were announced early enough for THE RAINBOW to request, and receive, photographs and a few details. The other awards were reported in the alumni chapter letters, and details are lacking, except for information on record at the Central Office.

CLEVELAND

for Zeta Chapter for many years, and has been an active supporter of the alumni chapter.

DALLAS

John P. Harbin, Texas, '39, financial vice-president of the Halliburton Company, was presented the Alumni Service Award by the Dallas Alumni Chapter at a dinner meeting on Monday, January 18. The presentation was made by Lloyd Birdwell, who expressed appreciation for Harbin's recent project of gathering information and publishing a directory of Delt alumni in the Dallas area. Harbin has been active in other alumni projects, including a study of schools in the area as potential fields for the establishment of new Delt chapters.

SHANNON FRANCIS

MINNESOTA

Two awards were made by the Minnesota Alumni Chapter. The recipients are Otto A. Silha, Minnesota, '40, and Frederic J. Souba, Minnesota, '41. Both men have long been active in service to both Beta Eta Chapter and the Minneapolis alumni organization.

NEW ORLEANS

Phares Frantz, Tulane, '50, and Paul H. Morphy, Jr., Tulane, '50, were given Alumni Service Awards by the New Orleans Alumni Chapter. Frantz has served for many years as chapter adviser to the Tulane undergraduates, and Morphy has been on the advisory committee and is currently vice-president of the Tulane house corporation. Both men are pillars of the alumni chapter.

TOPEKA

Loyalty, devotion, and long service to the Fraternity were recognized when Frank F. Hogueland, Baker, '09, was presented an Alumni Service Award by the Topeka Alumni Chapter, February 2, 1965. He has been secretary of the group ever since its organization in July, 1947. The Topeka Alumni Chapter has been one of the most consistent, meeting with regularity for monthly luncheons over the years, and doubtless much of this can be attributed to its secretary, who must get out the notices and otherwise contribute to planning and arrangements for the group's activities. More than half of all the Delt alumni in the Topeka area were on hand for the presentation, which came as a complete surprise to Mr. Hogueland.

Kentucky Honors Six Delt Alumni

SIX DISTINGUISHED alumni of Delta Epsilon Chapter and the University of Kentucky were honored by the University at its Centennial Founders Day Convocation. Following are those so honored:

John R. Bullock, '28, LL.B. (Yale) '30. Phi Beta Kappa.

Marion E. Bunch, '25, M.A. (Washington U.) '26, Ph.D. (Chicago) '34. Dean of College of Liberal Arts at Washington University.

Major General Elbert DeCoursey, '24, M.D. (Johns Hopkins) '28. Director of Research, Trinity University.

William H. Nicholls, '34, Ph.D. (Harvard) '41. Phi Beta Kappa. President's Council of Economic Advisors, 1953-54. Professor of economics, and director of Department of Economics at Vanderbilt University.

W. Hugh Peal, '22, Bachelor of Civil Laws (Oxford) '25. Rhodes Scholar. Phi Beta Kappa.

Major General Alvin C. Welling, '32, B.S. (West Point) '33, M.S. (M.I.T.) '38. Legion of Merit, Distinguished Service Medal.

All of these gentlemen are listed in Who's Who in America.

DSC Cites Flagler

JOSEPH GLEASON FLAGLER
Upsilon, '35

As chapter adviser, his strength of character, leadership, and unfaltering faith in the future of Upsilon Chapter during its darkest hours restored this chapter to a position of leadership among fraternities on the campus of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute; a veteran director of the Upsilon house corporation, currently serving as its president; long active in promoting his Fraternity's alumni program; dedicated to the highest principles, ideals, and traditions of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity, he has practiced and instilled in others those qualities which characterize the Good Delt.

Prominent Delts Enter Chapter Eternal

OLIVER HOYEM, Columbia, '16, died February 8 in Washington, D. C., following a long illness. He was 73. An expert in labor relations, he had been retired since 1962, after a career in journalism, public relations, and government service.

OLIVER HOYEM

Born in Ishpeming, Michigan, Mr. Hoyem was graduated from the Columbia University School of Journalism in 1916. After working on newspapers in New York and in New Britain, Connecticut, he went to Washington in the early 1920's as a member of the National Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor. From 1923 to 1933 he was in public relations, then became editor of the Chester Wright Labor Letter until 1947, when he returned to public relations work.

Mr. Hoyem accepted a position with the Economic Cooperation Administration in 1955, and the same year became labor adviser to the government of Thailand. In 1957 he assumed a similar position in Turkey, remaining there until his return to Washington in 1962.

Mr. Hoyem was the author of a book, How to Do Business with the U. S. Government.

Though in failing health since his retirement, Mr. Hoyem retained an active interest in the Fraternity, attending functions of the National Capital Alumni Chapter. He had served as president of the alumni chapter, one of the largest in the Fraternity, in 1951, and had often led the singing for the Founders Day dinners.

A pioneer oil geologist, Robert J. Riggs, Columbia, '15, succumbed March 12 to a heart ailment. Mr. Riggs, who was 77, had been retired since 1950.

Born in Turkey, Mr. Riggs was graduated from Oberlin College in 1911, and did graduate work at the University of Chicago, University of Missouri, and Columbia, and was initiated into Delta Tau Delta while a graduate student at Columbia.

ROBERT J. RIGGS

After college Mr. Riggs went to South America, where he worked as a mining geologist, until he entered the Army in World War I. He served in the first bomber squadron, which was then a part of the Signal Corps, and rose to the rank of captain.

Following the war he settled in Tulsa, heading the geological department of the Indian Territory Oil Company, which later merged with Cities Service. Later he went with the Pan-American Oil Company, and was consultant geologist until his retirement.

Mr. Riggs was a founder and former vice-president of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists and the American Institute of Mining Engineers, and a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

His work led to the drilling of the No. 1 Foster discovery oil well at Oklahoma City in the mid-1920's. The well produced 6564 barrels a day, and opened the state of Oklahoma's largest oil field.

A heart attack was fatal for Clarence E. Meyer, Syracuse, '13, stricken in Washington, D. C., on March 15, at the age of 73. He had been retired since 1957, after a career in the oil business and government service, both principally abroad.

A native of East Ashford, New York, Mr. Meyer was educated at the Griffith Institute and Syracuse University. Upon graduation in 1913, he went to China with the Standard Oil Company of New York, serving in various cities there until 1935, when he was sent to Japan as general manager for the company's operations in the Japanese Empire. With the commencement of hostilities in 1941, he was imprisoned by the Japanese government, and charged with espionage, but was returned to the United States in a prisoner exchange in 1942. For the rest of World War II he served as petroleum attache at the American Embassy in London.

Rejoining the company (now Standard-Vacuum) as a director in 1945, he was made a vice-president the following year, charged with operations in China and Japan. In 1950 he retired from business and embarked on a new career of government service.

CLARENCE E. MEYER

Mr. Meyer was named head of the Korea mission of the Economic Cooperation Administration and served in Seoul until the Korean War terminated the mission. From 1950 through 1954 he was chief of the ECA mission in Vienna, Austria. From 1955 to 1957, when he retired, he was minister of economic affairs at the American Embassy in Tokyo. He was presented an award for meritorious service by the Austrian government, and an award by the International Cooperation Administration (successor to ECA) for distinguished public service.

A charter member of the Gamma Omicron Chapter, Syracuse University, and a life-long loyal Delt, Mr. Meyer had been a member of the executive committee of the National Capital Alumni Chapter. A more detailed write-up of his colorful career appeared in the June, 1960 issue of THE RAINBOW.

Cancer claimed the life of famed war correspondent and author Quentin J. Reynolds, Brown, '24, on March 17. He was 62 years old, and was working on an assignment in Manila when he was stricken.

A native New Yorker, Mr. Reynolds received his baccalaureate degree from Brown University. His first writing assignment was as a sports reporter for the New York World. In 1933 he went to Berlin as correspondent for International News Service. His 1934 report on the rise of the Hitler Youth movement, for Collier's, marked the beginning of a long association with the magazine as a feature writer and associate editor.

Mr. Reynolds was the author of a great number of books, many based on his experiences as a war correspondent. His books include The Wounded Don't Cry, London Diary, Only the Stars Are Neutral, The FBI Story, and Known But to God.

HOWARD D. MILLS, Western Reserve, '18, died in Los Angeles on March 17, at the age of 69. Death was the result of leukemia. He was a retired vice-president of the Lionel Edie investment counselling firm.

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. Mills was graduated from Western Reserve University. He moved to San Francisco in 1925, and to Los Angeles in the early 1930's, becoming a vice-president in the Lionel Edie firm, in charge of the Los Angeles office, in 1937. He built this into one of the largest offices in the entire company. In 1939 he took a leave from business to serve as California administrator for the Defense Savings program of the U. S. Treasury Department, and was cited by the government for his outstanding success in this post.

Long active in civic affairs, Mr. Mills was a member of the Board of Trustees of Claremont College Graduate School and University Center, and was president-elect of the Rotary Club of Los Angeles, slated to assume office shortly after his death.

Mr. Mills was cited to membership in the Fraternity's Distinguished Service Chapter in 1939, at which time he already had an impressive record of service to Delta Tau Delta, having been chapter adviser to Zeta Chapter (Western Reserve), active in the Cleveland and San Francisco Alumni Chapters, and having served as secretary, and then president, of the

HOWARD D. MILLS

Los Angeles Alumni Chapter. He played an active role in the establishment of chapters of the Fraternity at U.C.L.A., U.S.C., and Santa Barbara, and served as general chairman of the memorable Pasadena Karnea in 1954. At that Karnea he was elected to the Arch Chapter as Secretary of Alumni, and subsequently served two terms as national Treasurer, retiring from the Arch Chapter in 1960. An eloquent speaker, he was in great demand for Fraternity functions, and was always available for service to the Fraternity.

Hardly an hour passes in the life of a chapter without its opportunity to fortify the character and spirit of some member who is tempted to do the easy, the foolish, or even the harmful thing which would by just so much defeat the purpose which has brought him to college. That is the responsibility which your college has laid upon your shoulders. That is the opportunity which has been given you to exercise an influence for good in the life of your members, and thus in the life of your college.

ALVAN E. DUERR

1925-1927

The Delta Creed

- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta for the education of youth and the inspiration of maturity, so that I may better learn and live the truth.
- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta as a shrine of international brotherhood: her cornerstone friendship, her foundation conscience, her columns aspiration, her girders self-restraint, her doorway opportunity, her windows understanding, her buttresses loyalty, her strength the Everlasting Arms.
- I BELIEVE in Delta Tau Delta as an abiding influence to help me do my work, fulfill my obligations, maintain my self-respect, and bring about that happy life wherein I may more truly love my fellow men, serve my country, and obey my God.
